LEFFERTS, MARSHALL CLIFFORD—President, 34 Washington place, New York City; residence 34 East 65th street. Born in New York City, Nov. 28, 1848. (Son of Col. Marshall Lefferts.) Educated in public schools and at the College of the City of New York. (Married.) Served as a member of the Committee of Seventy, 1894. President and director The Celluloid Co.; vice-president and director Baker, Voorhis & Co.; director Manufacturers' National Bank of Newark, N. J. Member Grolier, Union League and Rockaway Hunting Clubs, Good Government Club A, St. Nicholas, Dunlap and Zoological Societies, Metropolitan Museum of Art, Newark (N. J.) Board of Trade and others.

LEFFERTS, ROBERT—Real Estate, 597 Flatbush avenue, Brooklyn. Member Crescent Athletic and Montauk Clubs, Bellport (L. I.) Gun Club, University Club of New York City, and Holland Society.

LEFFINGWELL, JOHN E.—Insurance, 346 Broadway, New York City; residence 1373 Pacific street, Brooklyn. Born in Norwich, Conn., Sept. 16, 1821. Educated at Bacon Academy, Colchester, Conn. (Married.) President Farragut Fire Insurance Co. Member Order of Founders and Patriots of America.

LEFFINGWELL, WILLIAM E.—President, Watkins. Born in Aurora, Cayuga Co., N. Y., July 10, 1855. Educated at Brooklyn Polytechnic Institute and Cornell. (Married.) President Glen Springs Sanitarium Co., Schuyler Salt, Oil and Gas Co. and Glen City Laundry Co. Member Elmira City Club, Rochester Club, Hamilton Club of Brooklyn, Craftsmen's Club of New York City, Empire State Society of the Sons of the American Revolution, thirty-second degree Mason and St. Omer's Commandery No. 19, Knights Templar.

LEGG, GEORGE—Artificial Flower Manufacturer, 707 Broadway, New York City; residence 25 West 81st street. Member Colonial, New York Athletic, Merchants' Central and Union League Clubs and Ardsley Casino of Ardsley-on-Hudson.

LEGGETT, FRANCIS H.—Importer of Food Products, 126 Franklin street, and Banker, 10 Wall street, New York City; residence 21 West 34th street. Born in New York City, March 17, 1840. Educated in New York City. Senior member of the firm of Francis H. Leggett & Co. Vice-president and director Bankers' Trust Co.; director Butler Hard Rubber Co. and Home Insurance Co.; trustee Greenwich Savings Bank. Member Union League, Merchants', Tuxedo, Riding, Grolier, Metropolitan, Arts and Sculpture Clubs and Metropolitan Museum of Art.

LEGGETT, J. SHAW—Carriage Manufacturer, 109 South State street, Syracuse; residence 329 James street. Born in Canada, 1844. Educated in Canada. (Married.) Member Century Club and Masonic Lodge.

LEGRAS, GUSTAVE—Professor, 17 Lexington avenue, New York City; residence 62 West 124th street. Born in New York City, Jan. 24, 1858. Educated at the College of the City of New York. (Single.) Assistant professor of mathematics at the College of the City of New York; also connected with the French Benevolent Society Hospital. Member City College and Reform Clubs, Phi Beta Kappa and American Mathematical Societies, American Social Science Association and others.

LEHMAIER, JAMES S.—Lawyer, 132 Nassau street, New York City; residence 758 West End avenue. Educated at Cornell ('78). Member of the firm of Lehmaier & Williams. Member Republican, Cornell, Hardware, West Side Republican and Patria Clubs and Academy of Political Science.

LEHMAN, ARTHUR—Commission Merchant, 16 William street, New York City; residence 5 West 62d street. Born in New York City, June 1, 1873. Educated in New York City. Member of the firm of Lehman Bros., members of the New York Stock, Cotton, Coffee and Produce Exchanges. Director International Steam Pump Co. Member Harvard, Harmonie and Century Country Clubs.

LEHMAN, EMANUEL—Commission Merchant, 16 William street, New York City; residence 16 East 46th street. Born in Bavaria, Germany, Feb. 15, 1827. Educated in Germany. Member of the firm of Lehman Bros., members of the New York Stock, Produce, Cotton and Coffee Exchanges. Vice-president and director East River Gas Co. and Hoboken Ferry Co.; treasurer and director Berry-Boice Cattle Co.; director Baron De Hirsch Fund, Consolidated Gas Co. of New Jersey, East River Gas Co. of Long Island City, Mercantile National Bank, New York and East River Ferry Co., North Shore Traction Co., Queens County Bank, Shelby Iron Co., Tenth and Twenty-third Streets Ferry Co. and Woodbine Land Improvement Co. Member Harmonie Club, Southern Society, American Museum of Natural History, Metropolitan Museum of Art and Chamber of Commerce.

LEHMAN, MEYER H.—Commission Merchant, 16 William street, New York City; residence 40 West 70th street. Born and educated in New York City. Member of the firm of Lehman Bros., members of the New York Stock, Cotton, Coffee and Produce Exchanges. Member Harmonie Club.

LEHMAN, PHILIP—Commission Merchant, 16 William street, New York City; residence 150 West 58th street. Born and educated in New York City. Member of the firm of Lehman Bros., members of the New York Stock, Cotton, Coffee and Produce Exchanges. Director Havana Commercial Co. Member Century Country and Harmonie Clubs.

LEHMAN, SIGMUND M.—Stock Broker, 16 William street, New York City; residence 16 East 46th street. Born in New York City, Feb. 19, 1859. Educated in New York City and at Cornell University ('79). Member of the firm of Lehman Bros., and of the New York Stock, Cotton, Coffee and Produce Exchanges. Member Manhattan, Cornell and Delta Kappa Epsilon Clubs.

LEICH, ADAM H.—Councilman, City Hall, New York City, and Insurance Broker, 200 Montague street, Brooklyn; residence 314 Monroe street, Brooklyn. Born in Brooklyn, May 5, 1854. Educated at Public School No. 11. (Married.) Represented the Second District in the Brooklyn Board of Aldermen, 1894-5, and the Fifth District, 1896-7. Now serving as councilman from the Seventh District (Borough of Brooklyn), New York City (1898-1901). Ex-vice-president Long Island Insurance Co. Member Union League, Invincible, Levi P. Morton and Stuyvesant Heights Clubs, DeWitt Clinton Ready Relief, Columbia Council Loyal Additional Benefit, Brooklyn Public Library, Columbia Immediate Relief and Good Roads Associations, Royal Arcanum Wheelmen, League of American Wheelmen, Associated Cycling Clubs of Brooklyn, Euclid Lodge No. 656, F. & A. M., DeWitt Clinton Council No. 419, Royal Arcanum, Constellation Chapter Royal Arch Masons, Clinton Commandery No. 14, Knights Templar, Kismet Temple Nobles of the Mystic Shrine and Aurora Grata Lodge of Perfection, Council of Princes and Chapter of Rose Croix.

LEIGH, WILLIAM ROBINSON—Artist, 101 West 66th street, New York City. Born in Berkeley County, W. Va., Sept. 23, 1866. Educated by private tutors; studied art at Maryland Institute, and at Royal Academy in Munich, Bavaria. Engaged as figure and portrait painter and illustrator. Has been awarded several medals and had picture awarded honorable mention at Paris Salon in 1892.

LEIGHTON, CHARLES A.—Stock Broker, 7 Wall street, New York City; residence 353 West 57th street. Born in New York State, January, 1850. Educated in public schools. (Married.) Connected with the firm of Brown, Bruns & Co. Member Colonial Club.

LEIGHTON, MELVILLE H.—Insurance, 218 Broadway, New York City; residence 350 Jefferson avenue, Brooklyn. Born in Brooklyn, Oct. 10, 1865. Educated at Public School No. 16 and Long Island Business College. (Married.) Member Union League Club of Brooklyn.

LEIPZIGER, HENRY M.—Educator and Lecturer, 146 Grand street, New York City; residence 324 East 50th street. Born in England, 1854. Educated in New York City public schools, at College of the City of New York and at Columbia College Law School (LL.B., '75). Admitted to the New York Bar but never engaged in practice; devoted several years to travel and study. Organized the Hebrew Technical Institute in New York City, and directed same, 1884-91; assistant superintendent of public schools, 1891. Supervisor of free lectures, Board of Education, since 1890; chairman of the library committee of the Agular Free Library since its organization in 1888. Member City College and Reform Clubs and Phi Beta Kappa Society.

LE JEUNE, CAPEL ELLIS—Public Accountant, 33 Pine street, New York City; residence West New Brighton, S. I. Member American Association of Public Accountants and National Association of Certified Accountants.

LELAND, ARTHUR S.—Banker, 36 Wall street, New York City; residence Ardsley-on-Hudson. Born in Boston, Mass. Educated at Chauncy Hall School, Boston, and Massachusetts Institute of Technology, Boston. (Single.) Member of the New York Stock Exchange firm of Arthur S. Leland & Co. Member Reform Club, Ardsley Casino of Ardsley-on-Hudson, and Athletic and Algonquin Clubs of Boston, Mass.

LELAND, CHARLES H.—Stock Broker, 18 Wall street, New York City; residence 162 Madison avenue. Director Empire City Fire Insurance Co.; trustee Union Trust Co. Member New York Stock Exchange and of the Seawanhaka-Corinthian Yacht and Union League Clubs, Country Club of Westchester, and Lafayette Post, G. A. R.

LELAND, FRANCIS L.—Banker, 79 Eighth avenue, New York City; residence 1 West 37th street. President and director New York County National Bank; director United States Life Insurance Co. Member Westminster Kennel, New York Yacht and Union League Clubs, Marine and Field Club of Brooklyn, Aldine Association, Military Order of the Loyal Legion and Lafayette Post, G. A. R.

LELAND, LESTER—Treasurer and General Manager, 101 Milk street, Boston, Mass.; residence 316 Beacon street, Boston, and Union Club, New York City. Born in Boston, July 20, 1864. Educated in Boston. (Married.) Treasurer and general manager Boston Rubber Shoe Co.; director State National Bank and United States Rubber Co. Member Union, Puritan, Eastern Yacht and Country Clubs of Boston, and Union Club of New York City.

LELAND, WILLIAM E.—Mechanical Engineer, Treasury Department, Washington, D. C.; residence 82d street and Twenty-third avenue, Brooklyn. Born in Framingham, Mass., May 4, 1870. Educated at Massachusetts Institute of Technology. (Married.) Formerly assistant with Alfred R. Wolff, consulting engineer, and William J. Baldwin, consulting engineer; now inspector of heating and ventilating apparatus, Supervising Architect's Office, United States Treasury Department. Member Massachusetts Institute of Technology Alumni Society.

LEMOINE, ASHTON—Broker, 44 Pine street, New York City; residence 1 West 54th street. Educated at Princeton. Member University, Princeton, New York Yacht and Seawanhaka-Corinthian Yacht Clubs.

LEMOYNE, WILLIAM J.—Actor, 128 East 34th street, New York City. Born in Boston, Mass., 1831. Made first professional appearance in 1852. Served with Massachusetts Volunteers during Civil War; was wounded at South Mountain, left the service and returned to the stage. Has taken leading parts in many presentations. Member Players' and Barnard Clubs and Dunlap Society.

LENNEY, JAMES C.—Lawyer, 35 Nassau street, New York City; residence 56 West 49th street. Born in Potsdam, N. Y., Nov. 29, 1869. Educated at Potsdam Normal School and New York Law School (LL.B.). (Single.) Member of the firm of Lenney & Donovan. Secretary New England Co. Member Normal Alumni Association.

LENT, B. F.—General Music Dealer, Ithaca; residence 505 North Cayuga street. Born in New York City, June 8, 1861. Educated in New York City and Yonkers. (Married.) Formerly salesman with Jacob Brothers, R. A. Saalfeld and Dakin & Co., all of New York City. Served in the 7th Regiment, N. G. N. Y. Member Craftsman's and Town and Gown Clubs, Business Men's Association, Tornado Hook and Ladder Company, and Masonic Order.

LENT, SMITH—Lawyer, 280 Broadway, New York City. Born in Peekskill, Westchester Co., N. Y., 1851. Educated in common schools, at Albany Normal School and at Albany Law School ('75). Practiced in Sing Sing until his election as Judge of Westchester County in 1895. Now practicing in New York City. Member Society of Medical Jurisprudence, and Association of the Bar of the City of New York.

LENTILHON, EUGENE—Civil and Contracting Engineer, 11 Broadway, New York City; residence 48 Central Park, South. Born in New York City, Aug. 14, 1869. Educated at Yale. (Married.) Member Yale, New York Athletic, Democratic and New York Yacht Clubs and American Society of Civil Engineers.

LEO, JOHN P.—Architect, 139 West 125th street, New York City; residence 584 West 146th street. Born in New York City, April 10, 1859. Educated in public schools and at Cooper Union. (Married.) President Builders' League; director Bower Decorating Co.

LEONARD, CLARENCE E.—Broker, 32 Nassau street, New York City; residence Yonkers. Born in New Bedford, Mass., Feb. 10, 1854. Educated in Massachusetts. (Married.) Member of the New York Consolidated Stock and Petroleum Exchange. Member Old Colony Historical (life) and New England Societies, Robert Treat Paine Chapter of the Massachusetts Society, Society of Mayflower Descendants, Sons of the Revolution and Sons of the American Revolution.

LEONARD, EDGAR COTRELL—Merchant, 472 Broadway, Albany; residence 196 Washington avenue. Born in Albany, May 28, 1862. Educated at Albany Academy and Williams College (A.B., '86). (Married.) Member of the firm of Cotrell & Leonard. Secretary and treasurer Albany Safe Deposit and Storage Co.; director Albany Mutual Fire Insurance Co.; member of State executive committee Young Men's Christian Association. Member Society of Colonial Wars, Society of Mayflower Descendants, Sons of the Revolution and Delta Psi Fraternity.

LEONARD, GARDNER C.—Merchant and Manufacturer, 472 Broadway, Albany; residence 56 Willett street. Born in West Springfield, Mass., Oct. 16, 1865. Educated at Albany Academy and Williams College ('87). (Single.) Member of the firm of Cotrell & Leonard. Director Intercollegiate Bureau of Academic Costume. Formerly member of executive committee Albany Chamber of Commerce and Albany Historical and Art Society. Author of "Cap and Gown in America" and "Songs of Williams." Member Albany, Press, Country, Camera, Fortnightly and Fort Orange Clubs, University Club of New York City, Mohican Canoe Club, Society of Colonial Wars and Williams College Alumni Associations of New York City and Northern New York.

LEONARD, GEORGE B.—Banker, 619 University Block, Syracuse; residence 710 Lodi street. Born and educated in Syracuse. (Married.) Formerly president Salt Springs National Bank; cashier First National Bank and director Syracuse Tube Co. Secretary and treasurer Kemp & Burfee Mfg Co. Member Citizens' Club.

LEONARD, H. WARD—Electrical Engineer, Bronxville; residence 606 West 114th street, New York City. Educated at Massachusetts Institute of Technology. Member New York Athletic, Union League and Calumet Clubs and Massachusetts Institute of Technology Alumni and Ohio Societies.

LEONARD, LEWIS A.—Advertising, 154 Nassau street, New York City; residence 110 West 89th street. Born in Talbot County, Md., July 10, 1846. Educated at West River (Md.) Collegiate Institute. (Married.) Formerly editor and manager Cincinnati (Ohio) "Times Star" and vice-president United Press. Is now New York representative of the "Toledo (Ohio) Blade," "Columbus (Ohio) Dispatch" and "Comfort" and "Lane's List," both of Augusta, Me. Member Ohio and Maryland Societies.

LEONARD, WILLIAM D.—Lawyer, 141 Broadway, New York City; residence Hotel Marie Antoinette. Born in Jersey City, N. J., Jan. 18, 1857. Educated at College of the City of New York, Wesleyan University and Columbia Law School. (Married.) Member Alpha Delta Phi Club and Association of the Bar of the City of New York.

LEONORI, CHARLES L.—Superintendent, 51 East 44th street, New York City; residence 259 West 70th street. Superintendent of commissary department, Wagner Palace Car Co. Member Atlantic Yacht and New York Yacht Clubs, Ellicott Club of Buffalo, Metropolitan Museum of Art and Liederkranz.

LE ROY, FREDERICK GEBHARD—Stock Broker, 44 New street, New York City; residence Tarrytown. Member New York Stock Exchange and of the New York Athletic and Union Clubs.

LE ROY, HENRY WYCKOFF—Hardware Merchant, 259 Canal street, New York City; residence 169 West 12th street. Educated at Williams College. Secretary and director Gould-Mersereau Co. Member Union and University Clubs, St. Nicholas Society, Sons of the Revolution and Williams College Alumni Association.

LE ROY, HERMAN S.—Secretary, 212 West 41st street, New York City; residence 28 Seventh avenue. Educated at Harvard. Member Harvard, University Athletic and Union Clubs and Down Town Association.

LE ROY, LOUIS C.—Dental and Oral Surgeon, 6 Lexington avenue, New York City. Born in New York City. Educated in New York City and at the College of Dentistry (D.D.S.) (Married.) Ex-president Alumni Association of New York College of Dentistry; chairman clinical staff New York Odontological Society; ex-member clinical staff New York State Dental Society, First District; chairman clinical staff New York College of Dentistry. Member Union League Club, all the dental societies in New York City, League of American Wheelmen and Automobilists.

LE ROY, ROBERT COLEMAN—Real Estate, 21 East 20th street, New York City; residence 27 West 64th street. Educated at Columbia. Member Union, Harvard and Delta Phi Clubs and Columbia University Alumni Association.

LESHER, ARTHUR LAWRENCE—Importer of Linings, 502 Broadway, New York City; residence 9 East 75th street. Educated at Columbia. Member of the firm of Leshner, Whitman & Co. Director Citizens' National Bank. Member Union League, St. Anthony, Merchants', Essex County (N. J.) Country and American Yacht Clubs, Columbia University Alumni Association and American Museum of Natural History.

LESHER, RAYMOND—Importer of Linings, 502 Broadway, New York City; residence 31 East 74th street. Born in Rye, N. Y., Sept. 5, 1866. Educated in New York City. (Married.) Member of the firm of Leshner, Whitman & Co. Member Racquet and Tennis, and Collectors' Clubs.

LESSER, ADOLPH MONAE—Physician, 19 East 61st street, New York City. Born in Province of Brandenburg, Prussia, June 22, 1858. Educated in Berlin, Munich and New York City. In 1871, while at college, served in Red Cross during Franco-German war; served in German army, leaving as first lieutenant of reserve; served as assistant curator in Charity Hospital; was professor of physiology and pathology in New York Medical College. Now surgeon for abdominal diseases in Red Cross Hospital; surgeon-in-chief American National Red Cross, in which capacity he served in Cuba during the Cuban rebellion and Spanish-American War. Author of "Treatment of Fevers Without Food, Antipyretics and Alcohol"; "Ventral Fixation of the Round Ligaments"; "Red Cross History of the Spanish-American War," and other articles. Has introduced a number of surgical instruments and appliances in his profession. Fellow New York Academy of Medicine and member New York County Medical Society and Physicians' Mutual Aid Association.

LETCHWORTH, OGDEN P.—Manufacturer, Buffalo; residence 605 Niagara street. Born in Auburn, N. Y., Aug. 23, 1851. Educated in East Hampton, Mass. (Married.) President Pratt & Letchworth Co., United Hames Co. and National Founders' Association; manager Gowanda State Homeopathic Hospital. Member Buffalo, Ellicott and Liberal Clubs, and Transportation Club of New York City.

LETCHWORTH, WILLIAM PRYOR—Philanthropist and Author, "Glen Iris," Portage. Born in Brownville, N. Y., May 26, 1823. Merchant and manufacturer in Buffalo, 1848-69; retired from business, 1873; has since devoted his time to charitable work. President Buffalo Fine Arts Academy, 1871-4; member State Board of Charities, 1873-96, when he resigned; vice-president of same, 1874-8; president of same, 1878-88; president of National Conference of Charities and Correction, 1884; degree of LL.D. from University of State of New York in 1893 "for distinguished services to the State;" active in securing the passage of laws for the protection of homeless children and other public dependents; devoted much attention to the care of the insane. Author of "The Insane in Foreign Countries," "Care and Treatment of Epileptics" and other works relating to the care of the unfortunate. President National Association for the Study of Epilepsy and the Care and Treatment of Epileptics. Member University and Buffalo Clubs.

LETHBRIDGE, ROBERT P.—Fire Insurance Broker, 56 Pine street, New York City; residence 157 Keap street, Brooklyn. Born in London, England, Sept. 26, 1845. Educated in Brooklyn. (Married.) Director Kings County Co-operative Building and Loan Association and Nassau Trust Co.; trustee Citizens' Savings Bank. Member Crescent Athletic and Hanover Clubs of Brooklyn.

LEUBUSCHER, FREDERICK CYRUS FIELD—Lawyer, 99 Nassau street, New York City; residence 35 West 131st street. Born in New York City, Sept. 1, 1858. (Son of Louis Mortimer and Catherine [Horner] Leubuscher. Educated in public schools, at the College of the City of New York and at Columbia College Law School. Practicing in New York City since his admission to the Bar in 1880.

LEVENTRITT, DAVID—Supreme Court Justice, County Court House, New York City; residence 34 West 77th street. Born in Winnsboro, S. C., Jan. 31, 1845. (Son of George Manasseh and Betty [Goldberg] Leventritt.) Educated in New York City public and private schools, at the Free Academy (salutatorian, '64), and New York University Law School ('71). (Married Matilda, daughter of Leopold Lithauer, 1868.) In his practice has covered a wide field, including questions of commercial, theatrical, insurance and real estate law, and has appeared as special counsel for the city in numerous condemnation proceedings. In 1898 was elected a Justice of the Supreme Court, term expiring Dec. 31, 1912. Director Rapid Safety Filter Co. Member Sagamore, Progress and Democratic Clubs, Congregation Temple Emanuel, Hebrew Orphan Asylum, Mount Sinai Hospital, Aguilar Free Library Association, Hebrew Technical Institute and many other societies and organizations.

LEVERICH, CHARLES D.—Stock Broker, 48 Wall street, New York City; residence Corona, L. I. Born in New York City, Oct. 29, 1840. (Married.) Senior member of the New York Stock Exchange firm of C. D. Leverich & Bro. Director Bank of New York; trustee Atlantic Trust Co. and Atlantic Mutual Insurance Co.

LEVERICH, S. DUNCAN—Stock Broker, 48 Wall street, New York City; residence 27 Washington square, North. Born in New York City, Oct. 19, 1846. (Widower.) Member of the firm of C. D. Leverich & Bro. and of the New York Stock Exchange. Member New York Athletic and Colonial Clubs and Down Town Association.

LEVERMORE, CHARLES HERBERT—Educator, Lafayette avenue and St. James place, Brooklyn; residence 30 St. James place. Born in Mansfield, Conn., Oct. 15, 1856. Educated at Monson Academy, Hopkins Grammar School, Yale College and Johns Hopkins University. (Married Mettie Norton Tuttle, 1884.) Formerly principal of Guilford (Conn.) Institute; Fellow in history at Johns Hopkins University; instructor in history at University of California and professor of history at Massachusetts Institute of Technology; now president of Adelphi College. Member Hamilton and Yale Clubs, Brooklyn Institute of Arts and Sciences, New England Society of Brooklyn (corresponding secretary and director) and American Historical Association.

LEVERSON, MONTAGUE R.—Physician, 96th street and Shore road, Fort Hamilton. Born in London, England, March 2, 1830. Educated in London, at University of Göttingen, Germany (A.M. and Ph.D.), and at Baltimore (Md.) Medical College (M.D.). Member of California Legislature, 1882. Member of the Bars of the Supreme Court of California and of the Supreme Court of the United States. Member Brooklyn Single Tax and Brooklyn Democratic Clubs, Anti-Vaccination League of Brooklyn (president), and Reform Club of New York City.

LEVETT, DAVID MAURICE—Music Teacher and Composer, 933 Park avenue, New York City. Born in New York City, Jan. 1, 1844. Educated in New York, Germany and France. (Married Kate De Jonge, 1878.) Author of many compositions for the voice, piano and orchestra. Member Manuscript Club.

LEVY, EDGAR J.—Deputy Comptroller, 280 Broadway, New York City; residence 61 West 74th street. Born in New York City, Nov. 4, 1863. Educated at Columbia College ('83) and Law School ('86). Member of the firm of Hinman & Levy, 1887-91; secretary to the comptroller, 1891-3; assistant deputy comptroller, 1893-6; deputy comptroller since Jan. 1, 1898. Director Frederick H. Levy & Co. Member of the Manhattan Club and Columbia Alumni Association.

LEVI, JOSEPH CHARLES.—Lawyer, 140 Nassau street, New York City; residence 50 West 91st street. Born in Cincinnati, Ohio, Feb. 27, 1839. (Son of Charles Levi.) Educated in private and public schools in New York City and at Dr. Anthon's Grammar School of Columbia College ('54). Admitted to the bar in 1860. (Married a daughter of Dr. Manly Emanuel of Linwood, Pa., 1865.) Served as a non-commissioned officer in 37th Regiment, N. G. N. Y., 1862. One of the founders and now examining counsel of the Lawyers' Title Insurance Co. Counsel to "New Yorker Staats Zeitung," Isabella Home and many others. Is an expert on real estate and testamentary law. Member of the New York Tax Reform and Civil Service Reform Associations and Association of the Bar of the City of New York (since 1875).

LEVICK, JOSEPH N. T.—Fire Insurance, 54 William street, New York City; residence 244 East 86th street. Born in New Orleans, La., Aug. 15, 1834. Educated in public and private schools in Philadelphia, Pa. (Married Mary L. Gardiner, a descendant of Lion Gardiner of Gardiner's Island.) Served in Union Army during Civil War. Assistant cashier North British and Mercantile Insurance Co., since 1870. Member Collectors' Club, Lafayette Post, G. A. R., Seventh Regiment War Veterans' Association, Arcana Lodge No. 246, F. & A. M., American Philatelic Association and National Philatelic and American Numismatic and Archaeological Societies.

LEVIS, JOHN S.—Public Accountant and Auditor, 99 Nassau street, New York City; residence 469 First street, Brooklyn. Born in Newburgh, N. Y., May 7, 1850. Secretary, treasurer and director United States Nomatch Light Co.

LEVY, CHARLES JOSEPH—Editor, 21 Park row, New York City; residence 1889 Madison avenue. Born in Youngstown, Ohio, Jan. 31, 1870. Educated in New York City public schools and at Cornell University ('91.) (Single.) Engaged in journalism since graduation, on the editorial staffs of the "Haberdasher," the "Dry Goods Economist" and the "Oil, Paint and Drug Reporter." Now associate editor "Biographical Directory of the State of New York." Member Cornell University Club.

LEVY, JEFFERSON M.—Lawyer, 20 Broad street, New York City and Congressman, House of Representatives, Washington, D. C.; residence 66 East 34th street, New York City. Represents the Thirtieth New York District in the House of Representatives, 1899-1901. Connected with the Commercial Cable Building Co. Member Manhattan, Twilight, Democratic, New York Yacht and New York Press Clubs and Southern Society.

LEVY, L. NAPOLEON—Lawyer, 20 Broad street, New York City; residence 26 West 69th street. Born in New York City. Educated in New York City and Philadelphia and at the New York University Law School. (Married.) Ex-president Spanish and Portuguese Congregation Shearith Israel; president and director Seton Homestead Land Co., Land Co. of Edenwald, Commercial Cable Building Co. and Salisbury and Harvey Ry. Co. Member Manhattan and Democratic Clubs.

LEVY, MITCHELL A. C.—Lawyer, 20 Broad street, New York City; residence 66 East 34th street. Member Manhattan, Democratic, Reform, Criterion and Lotos Clubs.

LEWENTHAL, ISAAC—Silver and Gold Novelties, 530 Broadway, New York City; residence 131 East 83d street. Born in New York City, Oct. 3, 1867. Educated in New York City. (Married.) Secretary, treasurer and director Royal Metal Mfg Co.

LEWI, MAURICE J.—Physician, 11 Broadway, New York City; residence 178 West 80th street. Born in Albany, N. Y., Dec. 1, 1857. Educated in Albany, Heidelberg and Vienna. (Married.) Was professor of medical jurisprudence in Albany Law School; instructor in diseases of women and children in Albany Medical College and president of Albany County and Union County Medical Societies. Now medical director American Union Life Insurance Co.; secretary State Board of Medical Examiners. Member City Club of Yonkers, Rahway (N. J.) Colonia Country Club, State Medical and New York County Medical Societies, Albany Society of New York City, Society of Medical Jurisprudence and New York Academy of Medicine.

LEWINSON, BENNO—Lawyer, 119 Nassau street, New York City; residence 235 West 128th street. Born in Germany, Sept. 27, 1854. Educated in Berlin, at the College of the City of New York (B.S., '73, and M.S., '77) and Columbia Law School (LL.B., '77). (Married.) Practicing in New York City since his admission to the bar in 1877. Member of the firm of Lewinson, Kohler & Schattman. Member Columbia, City College and Minqua Clubs and Liederkrantz.

LEWIS, CHARLES B.—Author, 71 Third place, Brooklyn. Born in Ohio, 1842. Educated at Michigan Agricultural College. (Married.) Prominent as a humorist; most of his work has appeared under the nom de plume of "M. Quad." Author of "Field, Fort and Fleet," "A Sketch Book of the Civil War," "The Lime-Kiln Club," "Sawed-off Sketches," "Quad's Odds" and many others. Member Press Club.

LEWIS, CHARLES H.—Physician, 47 West 58th street, New York City. Born in Naugatuck, Conn., April 8, 1857. Educated at Yale University ('82), Bellevue Hospital Medical College and in Vienna, Berlin and London. (Single.) Visiting physician Columbus and St. Vincent's Hospitals and lecturer on clinical medicine University and Bellevue Hospital Medical College. Member New York Athletic and University Clubs and Yale Alumni Association.

LEWIS, CHARLTON THOMAS—Lawyer, 34 Nassau street, New York City; residence Morristown, N. J. Born in West Chester, Pa., Feb. 25, 1834. Educated at Yale. (Married.) Deputy United States Commissioner of Internal Revenue, 1863-4. President State Prison Association of New York and State Charities Aid Association of New Jersey; secretary and director Erie Canal Traction Co.; director International Bell Telephone Co. (Ltd.), New York and New Jersey Ice Lines, Popular Photograph Co.,

United States Mortgage and Trust Co. and North American Trust Co. Author of "Lewis' Latin Dictionaries," "Lectures on the Life of Lafayette" and a treatise on "The Rate of Interest"; editor of "Bengel's Grammar," "Harper's Book of Facts" and "Harper's Latin Dictionary." Member Authors', Lawyers', Barnard, Yale and Delta Kappa Epsilon Clubs, Salisbury and Cobden Clubs of London, England, New York Historical and American Mathematical Societies, Sons of the Revolution and Yale Alumni and Century Associations.

LEWIS, DANIEL—Editor and Physician, 252 Madison avenue, New York City; residence Spuyten Duyvil. Born in Alfred, Allegany Co., N. Y., Jan. 17, 1846. Educated at Alfred Academy and Alfred University. (Married.) President and editor "Medical Review of Reviews" (Inc.); ex-president New York State Board of Health. Member Republican and Union League Clubs, Academy of Medicine and Medical Society of the County of New York.

LEWIS, DANIEL F.—President, 215 Montague street, Brooklyn; residence 248 Hancock street. Born in Brooklyn, March 28, 1849. Educated in public schools. President and director Brooklyn and New York Railway Supply Co., New York and Long Island Realty Co. and Bay Ridge Improvement Co.; director Catskill Electric Ry. Co., Eagle Warehouse and Storage Co., Ixtapan del Oro Mining Co. and United States Projectile Co. Member Brooklyn, Crescent Athletic, Parkway Driving and Hamilton Clubs.

LEWIS, EDWIN A.—Retired Physician, 102 Pierrepont street, Brooklyn. Born in Naugatuck, Conn., Oct. 5, 1847. Educated at Yale. (Married.) Was visiting surgeon to several hospitals and professor of anatomy, Long Island College Hospital. Member Union League, Hamilton, Excelsior, Brooklyn, and Marine and Field Clubs.

LEWIS, EUGENE HOWARD—Lawyer, 44 Broad street, New York City; residence Hotel Netherland. Born in Potosi, Wis., Feb. 7, 1852. Educated at Beloit Preparatory School, Yale University and Columbia Law School. (Married.) Member of the firm of Eaton & Lewis. Member University, Manhattan, Lawyers', Alpha Delta Phi, Yale, Players' and Automobile Clubs, Metropolitan Club of Washington, D. C., and Association of the Bar of the City of New York.

LEWIS, G. GRIFFIN—Oculist, Aurist, Rhinologist and Laryngologist, 600 University Block, Syracuse; residence 110 Elk street. Born in Avoca, Steuben Co., N. Y., Dec. 17, 1866. Educated in Worcester, Mass., and at Albany Medical College. (Married.) Assistant aurist New York Eye and Ear Infirmary, 1894; assistant otologist and rhinologist Manhattan Eye and Ear Infirmary of New York City, 1895. Member Citizens' Club and Beta Theta Pi Fraternity.

LEWIS, HENRY M.—Physician and Surgeon, 109 East 18th street, New York City. Born in Lowville, Lewis Co., N. Y., 1849. Educated in Philadelphia, Pa. (Married.) Civil service commissioner under Mayor Seth Low of Brooklyn. Surgeon to Metropolitan Hospital, Blackwell's Island. Member Oxford Club of Brooklyn.

LEWIS, H. S.—Furniture Dealer and Undertaker, Richmondville. Born in Blenheim, N. Y., Jan. 13, 1855. Educated in Richmondville. (Married.) Director Bank of Richmondville. Member Richmondville Lodge No. 525, I. O. O. F.

LEWIS, JAMES F.—Mining Engineer and Manufacturer of Mining Machinery, 100 Broadway, New York City; 1328 Monadnock Building, Chicago, Ill.; 18 Victoria square, Montreal, P. Q., and Sherbrooke, P. Q., Canada; residences 4522 Forestville avenue, Chicago, Ill.; Windsor Hotel, Montreal, P. Q., and Sherbrooke, P. Q., Canada. Born in Blandford, Hampden Co., Mass., May 26, 1840. Educated in Blandford, Mass., Meriden, Conn., and Bloomfield, N. J. (Married.) Served as a private during Civil War and was wounded at the battle of Bull Run. Formerly vice-president (two terms) and director (eight years) of the American Institute of Mining Engineers. Member Engineers', Republican and Twilight Clubs, New England Society, Lafayette Post G. A. R., American Institute of Mining Engineers, American Society of Mechanical Engineers and American Society of Civil Engineers of New York City; Western Railway, St. Louis Railway and Technical Clubs, Western Society of Engineers, The Art Museum, Foundryman's Association, Historical Society and Field Columbian Museum, all of Chicago, Ill.; Canadian Mining Institute, St. George's Club of Sherbrooke, Mining Society of Nova Scotia, Halifax and City Clubs of Halifax, and Iron and Steel Institute of London, England.

LEWIS, JOHN N.—Lawyer, 31 Nassau street, New York City; residence 349 Madison avenue. Born in Malden, N. Y., March 18, 1837. Educated at Williams College and New York University. Captain United States Volunteers, 1862; ex-assistant district attorney New York County. Member of the firm of Lewis & Stoddart. Member Manhattan, Larchmont Yacht and Knickerbocker Athletic Clubs, Lafayette Post G. A. R., Blooming Grove Park Association, Society of the War Veterans of the 7th Regiment, Tammany Society and life member of the Grand Lodge, F. & A. M., of Connecticut.

LEWIS, NELSON P.—Civil Engineer, 21 Municipal Building, Brooklyn; residence 1511 Albemarle road. Born in Annandale, N. Y., Feb. 1, 1856. Educated at St. Stephen's College and Rensselaer Polytechnic Institute. (Married.) Chief engineer Department of Highways, Borough of Brooklyn. Member Whist, Knickerbocker Field and Crescent Athletic Clubs, Engineers' Club of New York City, American Society of Civil Engineers and American Society of Municipal Improvements.

LEWIS, RICHARD V.—House Furnishings, 132 West 42d street, New York City; residence Irvington-on-Hudson. Member of the firm of Lewis & Conger. Member Baptist Social Union, Metropolitan Museum of Art, American Museum of Natural History and Lafayette Post G. A. R.

LEWIS, TEACKLE WALLIS—Coffee Merchant, 132 Front street, New York City; residence 116 East 16th street. Born in Baltimore, Md., Oct. 11, 1860. Educated in Baltimore. (Widower.) Formerly member of the firm of George W. Lane & Co., Rowland Humphreys & Co. and Carter Macy & Co. Member Union, Babylon, New York Athletic and New York Rowing Clubs.

LEWIS, WALTER H.—Dry Goods Merchant, 59 Worth street, New York City; residence 11 East 35th street. Born in Roxbury, Mass., Nov. 5, 1829. (Married.) Member of the firm of H. & W. H. Lewis. Director Home Insurance Co.; trustee General Theological Seminary, Five Points Home of Industry and New York Life Insurance Co.; vestryman Trinity Church. Member Union, Wool and Tuxedo Clubs, New England Society and National Academy of Design.

LEWIS, WILLIAM E.—Editor, 140 West 42d street, New York City; residence 600 West 114th street. Born in Cleveland, Ohio, Sept. 14, 1864. Educated at Western Reserve University. (Married.) Formerly managing editor of the Chicago, Ill., "Times" and Kansas City, Mo., "News"; secretary Cleveland, Ohio, Board of Improvements, and political editor of the New York "Journal." Now editor New York "Telegraph." Member University and Transportation Clubs, Order of Founders and Patriots of America and National Bar Association.

LEWISOHN, ADOLPH—Metal Merchant, 81 Fulton street, New York City; residence 9 West 57th street. Born and educated in Hamburg, Germany. Member of the firm of Lewisoohn Bros., members of the New York Stock Exchange. Member Fulton and Engineers' Clubs.

LEWISOHN, LEONARD—Metal Merchant, 81 Fulton street, New York City; residence 14 East 57th street. Born and educated in Hamburg, Germany. (Married.) Member of the firm of Lewisoohn Bros., of the New York Stock Exchange, and of the Chamber of Commerce. Member Fulton and Engineers' Clubs.

LEXOW, CHARLES K.—Lawyer, 43 Cedar street, New York City; residence 161 East 46th street. Born in New York City, Jan. 21, 1849. (Son of Rudolph and Caroline Lexow.) Educated in Brooklyn, at Bonn (Germany), Harvard University and at Columbia Law School. (Single.) Member of the firm of Lexow, MacKellar & Wells. Attorney and one of the founders of the German Legal Aid Society (now the Legal Aid Society), from its start in 1876 to 1890; attorney New York Cab Co. (Ltd.); president Republican Club of Twenty-second Assembly District; secretary and director Greater New York Electric Light and Power Co. Member Republican, Harvard, Knickerbocker Athletic and Psi Upsilon Clubs.

LEXOW, CLARENCE—Lawyer, 43 Cedar street, New York City; residence Nyack. Born in Brooklyn, N. Y., Sept. 16, 1851. (Son of Rudolph and Caroline Lexow. Educated in Bonn and Leipzig, Germany, and at Columbia Law School ('74). (Married.) Member of the firm of Lexow, Mackellar & Wells. President Nyack Building and Loan Association and Nyack Electric Light Co.; director North River Steamboat Co. and Clinton Bank. Member of Congress 1891-3; New York State senator, 1893-8; chairman of Senate committee to investigate city government of New York, 1894. Member Lotos, Delta Kappa Epsilon and Republican Clubs and Association of the Bar of the City of New York.

LEYS, JAMES D.—Manufacturing Jeweler, 65 Nassau street, New York City. Born in Scotland, May, 1867. (Married.) Member of the firm of Leys, Christie & Co.

L'HUILIER, GASTON D.—Banker, 10 Wall street, New York City; residence Arrochar, Richmond, S. I. Member of the New York Stock Exchange firm of Taintor & Holt.

LIBBEY, JONAS M.—Real Estate, 45 Broadway, New York City; residence Washington Heights. Member Larchmont Yacht and Union League Clubs, New England Society and Metropolitan Museum of Art.

LIBBY, JAMES L.—Real Estate, 69 Liberty street, New York City; residence 321 West 70th street. Member of the firm of James L. Libby & Son. Member Union League, Twilight and Arkwright Clubs and New England Society.

LIBBY, PAUL—Merchant, 60 Water street, New York City; residence Metropolitan Club. Born in New York City, March 7, 1871. Educated at Brooklyn Polytechnic Institute. (Single.) President Kuhne Libby Co.; director Oil Trade Association; member of the advisory committee Merchants' Association. Member Metropolitan, Lawyers', Suburban Riding and Driving, Plaza Republican and Lambs' Clubs, Hamilton and Crescent Athletic Clubs of Brooklyn, and Exporters' Association.

LICHTENAUER, JOSEPH M.—Real Estate and Railroad Bond Expert, 20 Broad street, New York City; residence 58 West 52d street. Born in New York City, July 4, 1845. Educated in New York City and in Hartford, Conn. (Married.) Trustee Montefiore Home for chronic invalids; ex-director St. Joseph and Grand Island R. R. Co. Member Harmonie Club (ex-vice-president), Metropolitan Museum of Art, Municipal Arts Society and life member American Fine Arts Society.

LICHTENSTEIN, ABRAHAM—Cigar Manufacturer, 341 East 59th street, New York City; residence 122 West 114th street. Born in Germany, March 13, 1834. Educated in Germany. (Married.) President National Progress Bunching Machine Co.; vice-president New York Progress Bunching Machine Co. Member Royal Arcanum, Independent Order of B'nai B'rith and F. & A. M.

LICHTENSTEIN, PAUL—Banker, 44 Wall street, New York City; residence 134 Amity street, Brooklyn. Born in Frankfort-on-the-Main, Germany, May 5, 1847. Educated in Germany. (Married.) Member Crescent Athletic and Germania Clubs of Brooklyn and Deutscher Verein.

LIEB, JOHN W., JR.—Electrical Engineer and Manager, 53 Duane street, New York City; residence 166 West 97th street. Manager and director Edison Electric Illuminating Co. and president of the lamp testing bureau; director Empire City Subway Co. and Harlem Lighting Co. Member Engineers' Club, Electrical Society, American Society of Civil Engineers, Institute of Electrical Engineers and American Society of Mechanical Engineers.

LIGHTFOOT, ALFRED R.—Lawyer, 45 William street, New York City; residence New Brighton, S. I. Member Democratic, and Racquet and Tennis Clubs and Sons of the American Revolution.

LILIENTHAL, HOWARD—Physician, 679 Madison avenue, New York City. Born in Albany, N. Y., Jan. 9, 1861. Educated at Harvard College and Harvard Medical School. (Married.) Attending surgeon Mt. Sinai Hospital. Member Harvard Club, Surgical Society and Academy of Medicine.

LILLARD, BENJAMIN—Publisher, 108 Fulton street, New York City. Born in Harrodsburg, Ky., Jan. 5, 1847. Educated at Kentucky University and at Philadelphia College of Pharmacy. (Married) Martha D. Hall, 1871.) Editor of "The Practical Druggist" and "The Popular Science News." Author of several works. Member Church and Drug Trade Clubs.

LINCOLN, ARTHUR—Broker, 29 Wall street, New York City; residence 570 Fifth avenue. Born in Providence, R. I., June 5, 1849. (Son of John Larkin and Laura E. Lincoln.) Educated at Brown University ('70). (Single.) Member of the New York Stock Exchange firm of Charles Fairchild & Co. Director United States Security and Bond Co., Jewell Export Filter Co. and International Docks Terminal Ry. Co. Member University, Larchmont Yacht, Manhattan, Brown University, Luncheon and Metropolitan Opera Clubs and Hope Club of Providence, R. I.

LINCOLN, CHARLES Z.—Lawyer, Little Valley. Born in Grafton, Vt., Aug. 5, 1848. Educated at Chamberlain Institute, Randolph, N. Y. (Married) Lusette, daughter of William Bonsteel, 1874.) Practicing in Little Valley since his admission to the Bar in 1874. Has served as president, trustee, village attorney, member of the Board of Education and supervisor of Little Valley; was a delegate to the Constitutional Convention of 1894. Appointed legal adviser by Governor Morton in 1895, and has continued as such under Governors Black and Roosevelt. Author of "History of the Bench and Bar of Cattaraugus County." Frequent contributor to "Albany Law Journal" and other publications.

LINCOLN, LOWELL—Dry Goods Merchant, 216 Church street, New York City; residence 55 West 37th street. Born in Boston, Mass., June 28, 1836. Educated at English High School, Boston. (Married.) Connected with the firm of Catlin & Co. Director German Alliance Insurance Co., German-American Insurance Co., Mechanics' National Bank and Greenwich Savings Bank. Member Union League and Merchants' Clubs, New England Society and Chamber of Commerce.

LINCOLN, LOWELL, JR.—Commercial Paper, 26 Pine street, New York City; residence 124 East 22d street. Educated at Harvard ('86). Member of the firm of Charles Hathaway & Co. Member Harvard and University Clubs and New England Society.

LINCOLN, RUFUS P.—Physician, 22 West 31st street, New York City. Born in Belchertown, Mass., April 27, 1840. Educated at Amherst ('62) and Harvard Medical School (M.D.). (Married.) Member Mendelssohn Glee and University Clubs, Amherst College Alumni, American Medical, Harvard Medical, American Laryngological and American Climatological Associations, Military Order of the Loyal Legion, New England Society, American Academy of Medicine and New York Academy of Medicine.

LIND, ALFRED D.—Lawyer, 271 Broadway, New York City; residence 307 East 79th street. Born in Schenectady, N. Y., Dec. 10, 1871. Educated in public schools in Schenectady, New York City and Brooklyn, and at New York University. (Married.) Entered the law office of Goldfogle & Cohn in 1885, when fourteen years of age, and was admitted to partnership in 1894, the firm now being Goldfogle, Cohn & Lind. Member Jefferson and Seminole Clubs, Temple Rodolph Sholom, Hebrew Sheltering Guardian Society, Young Men's and Women's Culture Society of Temple Rodolph Sholom, Radiant Lodge, No. 739, F. & A. M., Metropolitan Consistory, No. 62, A. A. S. R. and Justinian Lodge, No. 359, Knights of Pythias.

LINDENTHAL, GUSTAV—Civil Engineer, 45 Cedar street, New York City; residence Inwood. Born in Bruenn, Austria, May 21, 1850. Educated in Bruenn and Vienna. (Single.) Chief engineer of the North River Bridge Co.; also consulting engineer to a number of railroads and other corporations. Member American Society of Civil Engineers, American Association for the Advancement of Science, Canadian Society of Civil Engineers, British Institution of Civil Engineers and other scientific societies.

LINDERMAN, ROBERT PACKER—Capitalist, 100 Broadway, New York City; residence Fisher's Island, N. Y., and Mauch Chunk, Pa. Born in Mauch Chunk, July 26, 1863. (Son of Garrett Brodhead and Lucy Evelyn [Packer] Linderman.) Educated at Mount Pleasant Military Academy and Lehigh University (Ph.B., '84). (Married Ruth May, daughter of Robert H. Sayre, 1884.) President and director Bethlehem Iron Co.; director American Ordnance Co., Georgetown and Western R. R. Co. and many others; trustee Lehigh University and St. Luke's Hospital of Bethlehem, Pa. Member University, Lawyers', Sigma Phi and Engineers' Clubs, and Down Town Association of New York City, Art and Manufacturers' Clubs of Philadelphia, Pa., Metropolitan Club of Washington, D. C., Historical Society of Pennsylvania, Sons of the Revolution and American Institute of Mining Engineers.

LINDSAY, C. SETON—Merchant, 346 Broadway, New York City; residence New Brighton, S. I. Member Army and Navy, Richmond County Country and Merchants' Clubs and Military Order of the Loyal Legion.

LINDSAY, JOHN DOUGLAS—Lawyer, 31 Nassau street, New York City; residence 42 West Ninth street. Born in New York City, Dec. 31, 1865. (Son of Dr. William Francis and Sarah Ann [Vradenburgh] Lindsay.) Educated in public schools and at New York University Law School ('87). (Married.) Member of the firm of Nicoll, Anable & Lindsay. Served as assistant district attorney, 1887-97. Member Calumet Club, Fort Orange Club of Albany, Sons of the Revolution, State Bar Association and Association of the Bar of the City of New York.

LINDSLEY, HARRY W. H.—Banker and Broker, 18 Wall street, New York City; residence "The Albany," Broadway and 51st street. Born in Jersey City, N. J., July 15, 1857. (Married.) Member of the firm of Lindsley, Yates & Co. and of the New York Stock Exchange. Member New York Athletic, Manuscript, Lawrence Harbor Country and Hunt Clubs and Guild of American Organists.

LINES, ERNEST H.—Physician, 346 Broadway, New York City; residence 255 West 100th street. Born in New York City, 1861. Educated at Dartmouth College (A.B.) and New York College of Physicians and Surgeons (M.D.). (Married.) Connected with the New York Life Insurance Co. Member University Athletic and Delta Kappa Epsilon Clubs, St. Nicholas Society and Dartmouth College Alumni Association.

LINN, WILLIAM A.—Editor, 206 Broadway, New York City; residence Hackensack, N. J. Born in New Jersey, Sept. 4, 1846. Educated at Yale. (Widower.) Formerly member of the Palisade Preservation Commission. President Hackensack Building and Loan Association; secretary Bergen and Passaic Light, Heat and Power Co. Member University Club and Yale Alumni Association.

LINTON, CHARLES C.—Dentist, 65 West 126th street, New York City. Born in Clarksville, Ohio, June 18, 1866. Educated at Wilmington, Ohio, and New York College of Dentistry. (Married.) President and director Wilson Stationery Co. Ex-treasurer Collegiate Club.

LINTON, EDWARD F.—Real Estate, 2798 Atlantic avenue, Brooklyn; residence 516 Liberty street. Born in Mattapoisett, Mass., Feb. 7, 1843. Educated in common schools. (Married.) Served as Consolidation Commissioner (Greater New York) in 1896, and as secretary of the Atlantic Avenue Improvement Commission. Director German-American Improvement Co. and Brooklyn Real Estate Exchange.

LIPPINCOTT, WILLIAM HENRY—Artist, 124 Fifth avenue, New York City; residence 256 West 48th street. Born in Philadelphia, Pa., Dec. 6, 1849. Educated at Friends' Private School and at Philadelphia Academy of Fine Arts; also studied in Paris, France. (Married.) Member Century Association and National Academy of Design.

LISSAUER, MAX J.—Wholesale Jeweler, 12 Maiden lane, New York City; residence 64 East 83d street. Born in Stuttgart, Germany, Oct. 21, 1841. Educated in Stuttgart, Chaux de Fonds, Switzerland, and Paris, France. (Married.) Resident of the United States since 1860. President and director Jewelers' Relief Association; director Columbia Bank, Manhattan Fire Insurance Co. and Jewelers' League Life Insurance Co.; chairman of executive committee Roosevelt League of German-Americans; ex-president (1888-90) Freundschaft Society, of which he has been a member since 1864; served as a member of the Committee of Seventy in 1894. Member Republican Club, Liederkrantz, Tecumseh Lodge No. 487, F. & A. M. (treasurer), Riding Club (president) and of many charitable organizations.

LITCHFIELD, EDWARD H.—President, 59 Wall street, New York City; residence 2 Montague terrace, Brooklyn. Educated at New York University. President and director Brooklyn Improvement Co.; director Maryland Coal Co., Gregory Consolidated Mines and Seabury Gun Co.; trustee Brooklyn Savings Bank. Member Rembrandt, Brooklyn, Hamilton, Dyker Meadow Golf, and Riding and Driving Clubs of Brooklyn, Metropolitan, Tuxedo, New York Yacht and American Yacht Clubs of New York City, Society of Colonial Wars and New York University Alumni and Down Town Associations.

LITTAUER, LUCIUS NATHAN—Congressman, House of Representatives, Washington, D. C., and Glove Manufacturer, 520 Broadway, New York City; residence 578 Madison avenue. Born in Gloversville, N. Y., Jan. 20, 1859. Educated at Harvard ('78). Member of the firm of Littauer Bros. Became connected with his father's glove manufacturing business and succeeded to it in 1882. Representing the Twenty-second District in Congress since 1897; present term expires 1901. Secretary and director Columbia Fastener Co.; director State Bank. Member Harvard Club.

LITTAUER, WILLIAM—Fasteners, 386 Second avenue, New York City; residence 578 Madison avenue. Born in New York City, 1865. Educated at Cutler's School and Harvard College. (Married Catherine M. Manice.) Member of the firm of William Littauer & Co. President and director Columbia Fastener Co.; ex-president Johnstown, Gloversville and Kingsboro Electric R. R. Co. Served for a time on Governor Roosevelt's staff. Member Larchmont Yacht, New York Athletic, Suburban Riding and Driving, City and Harvard Clubs.

LITTELL, CHARLES S.—Wholesale Druggist, 228 Fulton street, New York City; residence Cranford, N. J. Born in New York City, Sept. 26, 1852. Educated in New York City. (Married.) Member of the firm of R. W. Robinson & Son. Director Newton Mfg and Chemical Co. Member New York State Pharmaceutical and National Wholesale Druggists' Associations, Board of Trade and Transportation, Azure Lodge, F. & A. M., Cranford Casino, Cranford Golf Club and Cranford Royal Arcanum (past regent).

LITTELL, JOHN S.—Clergyman, Brockport. Born in Wilmington, Del., Jan. 7, 1870. Educated at Trinity College, General Theological Seminary, and Oxford University, England. (Married.) Formerly curate to St. Paul's Cathedral, Buffalo; now pastor of St. Luke's Church, Brockport. Member Buffalo Canoe Club and Trinity College Alumni Association.

LITTIG, J. BOND—Dentist, 113 West 47th street, New York City. Member Twilight, New York Athletic and Lotos Clubs.

LITTLE, ARTHUR W.—Printer, 10 Astor place, New York City; residence 69 East 55th street. Born in New York City, Dec. 15, 1873. (Son of Joseph J. Little.) Educated in private schools and at Packard's Business College. (Married Marguerite Lanier Winslow, 1897.) Served as a private and non-commissioned officer in Seventh Regiment, N. G. N. Y., 1891-8, and as captain in the 171st Regiment, N. G. N. Y., 1898-9. Secretary and director J. J. Little & Co. Member Aldine Association and Sons of the Revolution.

LITTLE, EVERETT W.—Electrical Manufacturer, 1123 Broadway, New York City; residence 202 West 78th street. Member Colonial, Riverside Yacht and Riding Clubs.

LITTLE, JOSEPH J.—Printer, 10 Astor place, New York City; residence 23 West 45th street. Born in England, June, 1841. Educated in common schools. (Married.) Served as a member of the Fifty-second Congress. President of the Board of Education of the City of New York (with which he had been connected since 1886) until May, 1900. President and director J. J. Little & Co.; director Astor Place Bank; trustee American Institute. Member Players' Club, Aldine Association, American Geographical Society, Typothetæ of the City of New York (president), Lafayette Post G. A. R., General Society of Mechanics and Tradesmen and Kane Lodge, F. & A. M.

LITTLE, ROBBINS—Retired Lawyer, Knickerbocker Club, New York City. Born in Newport, R. I., Feb. 15, 1832. Educated at Yale College and Harvard Law School. (Single.) Formerly superintendent of the Astor Library, instructor in international law in United States Naval Academy, Annapolis, Md., and examiner of claims in War Department, Washington, D. C. Member Knickerbocker Club, Metropolitan Club of Washington, D. C., and Century Association.

LITTLE, ROBERT F.—Lawyer, 63 Wall street, New York City; residence 116 West 76th street. Educated at Princeton. Member West Side Republican and Princeton Clubs and Association of the Bar of the City of New York.

LITTLEFIELD, C. H.—Secretary, 269 State street, Brooklyn; residence 71 Pineapple street. Secretary W. C. Vosburgh Mfg Co. Member Crescent Athletic Club.

LITTLEFIELD, FREDERICK M.—Lawyer, 156 Broadway, New York City; residence 151 West 75th street. Born in Kennebunk, Me., Nov. 27, 1849. Educated at Yale University and at Columbia College Law School. (Married.) Practicing in New York City since his admission to the Bar in 1874. President and director Adirondack Land and Investment Co. and other improvement and insurance companies. Member Colonial, Republican and Delta Kappa Epsilon Clubs, Yale Alumni Association, New England Society, American Museum of Natural History, Metropolitan Museum of Art and Association of the Bar of the City of New York.

LITTLEJOHN, ABRAM NEWKIRK—Protestant Episcopal Bishop, Garden City, L. I. Born in Florida, N. Y., Dec. 13, 1824. Educated at Union College ('45). Degrees of D.D. from University of Pennsylvania in 1856, LL.D. from Cambridge, England, in 1880, and D.C.L. from University of the South in 1897. Deacon, 1848; priest, 1849. Held various pastorates throughout New York, Connecticut and Massachusetts; consecrated first Bishop of Long Island, Jan. 27, 1869. Author of many religious works. Member Hamilton Club of Brooklyn and Union Alumni Association.

LIVERMORE, ARTHUR L.—Lawyer, 11 Pine street, New York City; residence 173 Palisade avenue, Yonkers. Born in Alstead, N. H., Dec. 6, 1864. Educated at Dartmouth College. (Married.) Member St. Andrew's Golf, Barnard and Reform Clubs, Graduate Club of Theta Delta Chi, and Association of the Bar of the City of New York.

LIVERMORE, FRANK—Physician, 113 West 40th street, New York City. Member New York Athletic and Reform Clubs, Century Association and Lafayette Post G. A. R.

LIVINGSTON, CAMBRIDGE—Real Estate, 71 Broadway, New York City; residence 398 Fifth avenue. Educated at Harvard. Member Knickerbocker Club and Harvard Alumni Association.

LIVINGSTON, CRAWFORD—Capitalist, 19 William street, New York City; residence St. Paul, Minn. Born in New York City, May 6, 1848. Educated at Albany Boys' Academy. Removed to St. Paul in 1870 and became a banker and stock broker. With Henry Villard built the Little Falls and Dakota Railway and several others. Interested in many large corporations. Member New York Club.

LIVINGSTON, GOODHUE—Architect, 287 Fourth avenue, New York City; residence 116 East 39th street. Educated at Columbia ('88). Member Calumet, University, University Athletic and St. Anthony Clubs, Ardsley Casino of Ardsley-on-Hudson, and Columbia University Alumni Association.

LIVINGSTON, HENRY B.—Broker, 19 William street, New York City; residence 18 West 10th street. Member of the firm of Lee, Livingston & Co., and of the New York Stock Exchange. Member South Side Sportsmen's, Union, City and Knickerbocker Clubs and Yale Alumni Association.

LIVINGSTON, JOHNSTON—President, 141 Broadway, New York City; residence 309 Fifth avenue. Educated at Union College. President and director National Express Co.; director American Express Co. Member Union, Knickerbocker, Tuxedo, New York, and Turf and Field Clubs, New York Genealogical and St. Nicholas Societies, Union College Alumni Association and Metropolitan Museum of Art.

LIVINGSTON, PHILIP—Lawyer, 141 Broadway, New York City; residence Morristown, N. J. Born in New York City, Nov. 9, 1861. Educated at Cutler's School, Harvard University ('84) and Columbia Law School ('87). Member of the firm of Livingston & Van Amringe. Member Metropolitan, St. Nicholas, St. Andrew's Golf, Morris County Golf and Morristown Clubs, Society of Colonial Wars and Sons of the Revolution.

LIVINGSTON, SOLOMON B.—Lawyer, 93 Nassau street, New York City; residence 1190 Madison avenue. Born in New York City, Sept. 5, 1852. Educated at the College of the City of New York and Columbia Law School. (Married.) Ex-secretary and director German-American Real Estate Title Guarantee Co. Member Freundschaft Club (president) and Society of Medical Jurisprudence.

LLOYD, FRANCIS G.—Clothier, 936 Broadway, New York City; residence 4 West 53d street. Born in New Jersey, May 26, 1848. Educated in New York City. (Married.) Member of the firm of Brooks Brothers. Member Metropolitan, Union League and Riding Clubs, Chamber of Commerce and Aldine Association.

LLOYD, ISAAC F.—Insurance, 32 Nassau street, New York City; residence 33 West 70th street. Born in Albany, N. Y., Sept. 9, 1835. Educated in Albany. (Married.) Second vice-president Mutual Life Insurance Co. of New York; director National Safe Deposit Co. Member New York Press Club, Sons of the Revolution and Albany Society.

LLOYD, JOSEPH P.—Banker and Broker, 30 Broad street, New York City; residence East Orange, N. J. Born in Philadelphia, Pa., Aug. 7, 1839. (Married.) Member of the firm of Lloyd & Co., members of the New York Stock Exchange.

LLOYD, ROBERT McALLISTER—Electrical Engineer, 100 Broadway, New York City; residence 5 Gramercy Park. President Electric Vehicle Co.; vice-president Appert Glass Co.; director Electric Boat Co., New England Electric Vehicle Transportation Co., Illinois Electric Vehicle Transportation Co. and New York Electric Vehicle Transportation Co. Member Lawyers' and National Arts Clubs, American Institute of Electrical Engineers, New York Genealogical Society and Squadron "A," N. G. N. Y.

LLOYD, WILLIAM B.—Banker and Broker, 30 Broad street, New York City; residence East Orange, N. J. Born in Jersey City, N. J. (Married.) Member of the firm of Lloyd & Co., members of the New York Stock Exchange.

LOBDELL, FRANCIS—Protestant Episcopal Clergyman, Trinity Church, Buffalo; residence 357 Delaware avenue. Rector Trinity Church. Member Harlem Club of New York City, and Liberal and Saturn Clubs.

LOCKE, FRANKLIN D.—Lawyer, 28 Erie street, Buffalo; residence 344 Delaware avenue. Born, Oct. 8, 1843. Educated at Hamilton College. Member of the firm of Rogers, Locke & Milburn. Director Buffalo Gas Co., Pratt & Letchworth Co., Buffalo General Electric Co., Farmers' Loan and Trust Co. of New York City, Union Car Co., Manufacturers' and Traders' Bank and Buffalo Commercial Bank; chairman of executive committee Fidelity Trust and Guaranty Co. Member Buffalo and University Clubs.

LOCKE, WILLIAM H.—Banker, 54 West 32d street; residence 230 Keap street, Brooklyn. Assistant treasurer and trustee Union Dime Savings Bank. Member Reform Club and New England Society.

LOCKETT, ARTHUR H.—Stock Broker, 39 Broad street, New York City; residence University Club. Born in New York City, April 15, 1869. Educated at Phillips Exeter Academy and at Harvard ('92). (Single.) Member of the firm of De Coppet & Lockett, members of the New York Stock Exchange. Director Cushman Bros. Co. and Ford Cherry Phosphate Co. Served in Puerto Rico with Troop "A" (New York), United States Volunteer Cavalry. Member Harvard, Baltusrol Golf and University Clubs.

LOCKETT, BENJAMIN CARTER—Dry Goods Merchant, 476 Broome street, New York City; residence Larchmont. Born in Boston, Mass., Oct. 30, 1863. Educated in Boston and in New York City. (Married.) Member of the firm of Smith, Hogg & Gardner for four years. Member of the firm of Taylor & Lockett since January, 1900. Member Larchmont Yacht, Merchants', Calumet, Yachtsmens' and Horseshoe Harbor Yacht Clubs, Technology Club of Boston, New England Society and Sons of the Revolution.

LOCKITT, CLEMENT—President, Fulton and Clinton streets, Brooklyn; residence Brooklyn. Born and educated in England. (Married.) President and director Long Island Safe Deposit Co.; vice-president and director American District Telegraph Co. of Brooklyn; vice-president and trustee Brooklyn Dispensary; director Brooklyn Bank and Metropolitan Plate Glass Insurance Co. Member Church Club of the Diocese of Long Island.

LOCKMAN, JACOB K.—Lawyer, 88 Nassau street, New York City; residence 50 West 39th street. Member of the firm of De Witt, Lockman & De Witt. Member Metropolitan Club and American Museum of Natural History.

LOCKMAN, JOHN T.—(General.)—Lawyer, 88 Nassau street, New York City; residence 140 West 73d street. Member of the firm of De Witt, Lockman & De Witt. Second vice-president and director Lawyers' Title Insurance Co.; director Lawyers' Mortgage Insurance Co. Member Republican, Metropolitan, Colonial, Yale, Church and Adirondack League Clubs, St. Nicholas Society and Military Order of the Loyal Legion.

LOCKWOOD, ALBERT—Pianist, 584 North Broadway, Yonkers. Born in Troy, N. Y., 1871. Received a musical education. Has given concerts in London, Paris, Florence and other European cities.

LOCKWOOD, CHARLES E.—Physician, 60 West 38th street, New York City. Born in Norwalk, Conn., Dec. 31, 1842. Educated at Yale ('65) and New York College of Physicians and Surgeons (M.D., '68). (Widower.) House surgeon Bellevue Hospital, 1868; connected with Health Department of New York City, 1873-87, as sanitary inspector; attending physician Outdoor Patient Department Bellevue Hospital, and many other dispensaries. Member University Club, New York County Medical Society, Yale Alumni and New York State Medical Associations and New York Academy of Medicine.

LOCKWOOD, EDGAR—Banker, 32 Nassau street, New York City; residence 6 West 121st street. Member Harlem Club, New England Society and Down Town Association.

LOCKWOOD, EDWIN C.—Stationer, 61 Pine street, New York City; residence 80 Montague street, Brooklyn. Member Brooklyn, Crescent Athletic, and Marine and Field Clubs of Brooklyn.

LOCKWOOD, ERNEST M.—Broker, 66 Broadway, New York City; residence Larchmont. Member New York Yacht, Larchmont Yacht and Atlantic Yacht Clubs.

LOCKWOOD, HENRY B.—Stock Broker, 44 Broadway, New York City; residence 128 East 34th street. Born in New York City, April 23, 1852. Educated abroad. (Married.) Member of the firm of Lockwood, Hurd & Co., and of the New York Stock and Cotton Exchanges. Member New York, Crescent Athletic and New York Yacht Clubs, Sons of the Revolution and 7th Regiment Veteran Association.

LOCKWOOD, HENRY CLAY—Lawyer, 141 West 21st street, New York City. Born in Sing Sing, N. Y., June 21, 1839. (Single.) Brevet major United States Volunteers. Served as major and lieutenant-colonel in 71st Regiment, N. G. N. Y. Member Summer Post, G. A. R., Military Order of the Loyal Legion and Societies of the Army of the Potomac and Army of the James.

LOCKWOOD, HOMER N.—Retired, 2088 Seventh avenue, New York City. Born in Victory, N. Y., June 23, 1833. Educated in Falley Seminary. (Widower.) Assemblyman from Cayuga County, 1866-7. Aided in the building of the Southern Central Railroad (now Lehigh Valley) and was for a time secretary, auditor and director of same. Was engaged in publishing business for fifteen years. Resided for many years in Cuba and Puerto Rico. Has devoted the past twelve years to travel in all parts of the world. Member of the board of managers of the American Tract Society; Fellow American Geographical Society; member Union League and Congregational Clubs, New England Society and Sons of the American Revolution.

LOCKWOOD, INGERSOLL—Lawyer, 156 Fifth avenue, New York City; residence 55 West 35th street. Born in New York City, 1841. Author of several works and well known as a lecturer.

LOCKWOOD, ISAAC FERRIS—Superintendent, 40 Lafayette place, New York City; residence 550 Park avenue. Born in Dubuque, Ia., Feb. 23, 1855. Educated at New York University. (Married.) Formerly superintendent Lenox Library; now business superintendent New York Public Library (Astor, Lenox and Tilden Foundations). Member Grolier Club, Century Association, Sons of the Revolution and Connecticut Chapter Society of the Cincinnati.

LOCKWOOD, JAMES B.—Lawyer, 5 Beekman street, New York City; residence White Plains. Born in Poundridge, Westchester Co., N. Y., July 18, 1849. Educated at Union College. (Married.) Has served as school commissioner of Westchester County and as president of the village of White Plains. Member Democratic and Alpha Delta Phi Clubs, Society of Colonial Wars, Sons of the Revolution, Order of Founders and Patriots of America and Union College Alumni Association.

LOCKWOOD, JOHN L.—Mineral Waters, 19 Walker street, New York City; residence 74 West 103d street, and Elberon, N. J. Member Colonial, Norwood Field and Merchants' Clubs and Beach Club of Elberon.

LOCKWOOD, JOHN L., JR.—Lawyer, 95 Nassau street, New York City; residence 212 West 14th street. Born in Elizabeth, N. J., 1874. Educated at Yale University and New York Law School. (Single.) Member Colonial and Yale Clubs and Beta Theta Pi Fraternity.

LOCKWOOD, J. T.—Furniture Dealer and Undertaker, White Plains; residence 30 Court street. Born in New Canaan, Conn., Nov. 3, 1846. Educated in public schools. (Married.) Treasurer of board of managers State Reformatory for Women; treasurer White Plains Building and Loan Association, White Plains Board of Education and White Plains Board of Water Commissioners; trustee Home Savings Bank; president Fourth New York Heavy Artillery Association; past commander McKeel Post, No. 120, G. A. R.

LOCKWOOD, WILLISTON B.—Stock Broker, 52 Broadway, New York City; residence 125 West 58th street. Educated at Yale. Member New York Stock Exchange. Member Union League, New York Athletic and Yale Clubs, Ardsley Casino of Ardsley-on-Hudson, New England Society and Sons of the Revolution.

LODEMAN, FRANK EMIL—Instructor, Cornell University, Ithaca; residence 113 Cascadilla place. Degrees of A.M. and Ph.D. Instructor in Romance languages at Cornell University.

LODER, NOAH, JR.—Lawyer, 141 Broadway, New York City; residence Port Chester. Born in New York City, Sept. 6, 1873. Educated at Greenwich Academy and Princeton University. (Married.) Member Laurence Harbor Country and Princeton Clubs, Metropolitan Museum of Art and Dwight Alumni Association.

LODEWICK, CHARLES C.—Merchant, Albany; residence Rensselaer. Born in Schodack, N. Y., 1851. Educated in Albany and Geneseo. (Widower.) Served as assemblyman, receiver of Yates County National Bank and as a member of Governor Robinson's military staff. Trustee Home Savings Bank. Member Fort Orange Club of Albany, and Holland Society of New York City.

LOEB, JAMES—Banker, 27 Pine street, New York City; residence 37 East 38th street. Born in New York City, Aug. 6, 1867. Educated at Dr. Julius Sachs's Collegiate Institute in New York City, and at Harvard ('88). (Single.) Member New York Stock Exchange firm of Kuhn, Loeb & Co. Member Lotos, Strollers', Harvard, Lawyers', City, St. Andrew's Golf, Players', Seabright Golf and Century Country Clubs and Phi Beta Kappa Society.

LOEB, MORRIS—Professor, University Heights, New York City; residence 118 West 72d street. Educated at Harvard. Professor of chemistry at New York University. Secretary and director Loeb Respirator Co. Member Reform and Harvard Clubs, American Chemical Society, New York Academy of Sciences, Scientific Alliance and American Association for the Advancement of Science.

LOEBER, CHARLES H.—Photographic Materials, 12 East 17th street, New York City; residence 320 Monroe street, Brooklyn. Born and educated in Brooklyn. (Married.) Member Camera Club.

LOENING, ALBERT—Real Estate, and Deputy Tax Commissioner, 96 and 280 Broadway, New York City; residence 571 Park avenue. Born in New Orleans, La., Dec. 6, 1858. Educated at Ecole Polytechnique, Paris, France, and in Göttingen, Germany. (Married.) United States Consul at Bremen, Germany, 1885-9. Secretary and director Church Roller Bearing Co. Member Staten Island Cricket and Democratic Clubs and Sons of the American Revolution.

LOEW, EDWARD V.—Lawyer, 175 Broadway, New York City; residence 25 West 57th street. Born in New York City, March 18, 1839. Educated in private schools and at Columbia Law School. (Married.) Organized the Manufacturers and Builders' Fire Insurance Co. in 1870 and was its president for twenty-three years. Comptroller of the City of New York, 1884-8. Commissioner for the Extension and Improvement of Riverside Park. President and director German-American Real Estate Title Guarantee Co. and New Amsterdam Casualty Co.; vice-president and director Batopilas Mining Co. of Mexico, Gorham Coal Co. of Colorado, and Iron Steamboat Co.; vice-president and trustee American Savings Bank and New York Mutual Savings and Loan Association; director Eleventh Ward Bank, Knickerbocker Trust Co., Seaboard National Bank and Trust Company of New York. Member City, Riding and Democratic Clubs, Ardsley Casino of Ardsley-on-Hudson, and Chamber of Commerce.

LOEWENSTEIN, EMANUEL—Editor, 154 Nassau street, New York City; residence 240 12th street, Brooklyn. Born in Austria, Jan. 6, 1836. Educated in New York City. (Widower.) Connected with the New York "Tribune." Ex-grand librarian of the Grand Lodge of Free Masons in the State of New York. Member New York Press and Craftsmen's Clubs, Masonic Historical Society and a thirty-second degree Mason.

LOEWY, BENNO—Lawyer, 206 Broadway, New York City; residence 22 West 88th street. Member Manhattan Chess Club and Dunlap, American Geographical, New York Historical and German Social Scientific Societies.

LOFTUS, THOMAS J.—Merchant Tailor, 1191 Broadway, New York City; residence The Nevada. Born in St. Joseph, Mo., Feb. 18, 1863. Educated in St. Joseph. (Married.) President and director W. C. Loftus & Co. Member New York Athletic and Catholic Clubs.

LOGAN, FRANK J.—Iron Manufacturer, 52 Commercial street, Brooklyn; residence 285 De Kalb avenue. Director Associated Manufacturers' Mutual Fire Insurance Co. Member Engineers' Club of New York City, Oxford Club of Brooklyn, and American Society of Mechanical Engineers.

LOGAN, THOMAS M.—President, 80 Broadway, New York City; residence Howardsville, Va. Born in Charleston, S. C., Nov. 3, 1840. (Son of Judge George W. Logan.) Educated at South Carolina College ('60). (Married Kate V. Cox, 1865.) Served in Confederate Army during Civil War; promoted through regular grades until he was commissioned brigadier-general in December, 1864. After the war studied law and practiced in Richmond, Va. Organized and was vice-president of Richmond & Danville Co., now known as the Southern Ry. Co. President Gray National Telautograph Co. Member Manhattan Club and Southern Society.

LOGAN, WALTER S.—Lawyer, 27 William street, New York City; residence 121 West 64th street. Born in Washington, Litchfield Co., Conn., April 15, 1847. Educated at Yale ('70), Harvard Law School ('71) and Columbia Law School ('72). (Married.) Senior member of the firm of Logan, Demond & Harby. President and director Sonora and Sinaloa Irrigation Co.; president Cheesman Cotton Gin Co.; treasurer and director Greene Consolidated Copper Co. Member Manhattan, Lawyers', Reform, Adirondack League, Nineteenth Century, Social Reform, Colonial, Lotos, New York Yacht, New York Athletic, Democratic, Laurence Harbor Country, National Arts and Patria Clubs, Marine and Field, Brooklyn and Hamilton Clubs of Brooklyn, Society of Medical Jurisprudence, Sons of the American Revolution, Metropolitan Museum of Art, American Geographical and New England Societies and Yale Alumni and Century Associations.

LOINES, STEPHEN—Insurance Adjuster, 69 Wall street, New York City; residence 26 Garden place, Brooklyn. Member Atlantic Yacht, New York Yacht and Lawyers' Clubs, Marine and Field, and Hamilton Clubs of Brooklyn, and Down Town Association.

LOMBARD, GUY DAVENPORT—Physician and Instructor, 6 East 32d street, New York City. Degree of M.D. Instructor in histology, Cornell University Medical College.

LOMBARD, LOUIS—Capitalist; residence The Waldorf-Astoria, New York City, "Wyndyways," Pittsfield, Mass., and "Villa Montfeld," Algiers. Born in Lyons, France, Dec. 15, 1861. Educated at National Conservatory of Marseilles in France, and at Columbia Law School in New York City. (Married Alice Maud, daughter of Congressman Thomas Allen of St. Louis.) Was chairman National Association of Music Teachers; founder and director Utica (N. Y.) Conservatory of Music and School of Languages; chief editor "College and School;" author of "Observations of a Traveler," "The Vicious Virtuoso," "The Art Melodious" and composer of "Juliet," a comic opera. Member Society of American Authors, Manuscript and Authors' Societies, and Society of Arts, Sciences and Letters of London, England.

LOMBARD, WILLIAM A.—Banker, 31 Nassau street, New York City; residence 251 West End avenue. Member Colonial, Lawyers', New York Athletic and Lotos Clubs.

LONG, JOHN D.—Presbyterian Clergyman, Deer Park avenue, Babylon, L. I. Born in Rajahmundry, India, Nov. 9, 1858. Educated at University of Wooster ('80) and Union Theological Seminary ('83). (Married.) Pastor First Presbyterian Church of Babylon. Member Presbyterian Social Union and Union Theological Seminary Alumni and Wooster Alumni Clubs.

LONG, THOMAS J.—Contractor, 29 Broadway, New York City; residence 47 West 43d street. Born in New York City, Jan. 20, 1852. Educated in New York City and at Rensselaer Polytechnic Institute. (Widower.) Second vice-president R. P. & J. H. Staats (Inc.). Member Engineers' Club, American Society of Civil Engineers, American Geographical Society and Century Association.

LONGACRE, ORLEANS—Superintendent, 26th street and Eleventh avenue, New York City; residence Spuyten Duyvil. Born in Philadelphia, Pa., June 10, 1840. Educated at Philadelphia Central High School. (Married.) Formerly manager of Glamorgan Iron Co., Lewistown, Pa., of Lynchburg (Va.) Iron Co., of Bay State Furnaces, Port Henry, N. Y., and of Albany City Iron Co. Served as first assistant engineer in United States Navy. Now superintendent of J. B. & J. M. Cornell Architectural Iron Works. Member Army and Navy and Engineers' Clubs, Military Order of the Loyal Legion and American Institute of Mining Engineers.

LONGFELLOW, FREDERICK W.—Lawyer, 20 Nassau street, New York City; residence 635 Park avenue. Educated at Harvard. Member City and Harvard Clubs and Association of the Bar of the City of New York.

LOOK, DAVID M.—Woolen Commission Merchant, 108 Franklin street, New York City; residence 34 West Tenth street. Born in Clayville, Oneida Co., N. Y., March 30, 1863. Educated at Princeton ('84). (Married.) Partner in the woolen department of the house of James Talcott. Vice-president and director Wool Exchange; director Merchants' Safe Deposit Co. Member Princeton, Union League, University Athletic, Wool and Merchants' Clubs.

LOOMIS, EDWARD N.—Lawyer and Merchant, 95 Barclay street, New York City; residence Hotel Margaret, Brooklyn. Born in Brooklyn, June 6, 1869. Educated at Yale. (Single.) Member of the firm of E. P. Loomis & Co. Member Crescent Athletic Club of Brooklyn, Zeta Psi Fraternity and Phi Beta Kappa Society.

LOOMIS, FRANK—Lawyer, Grand Central Station, New York City; residence 154 East 63d street. Born in Binghamton, N. Y., Nov. 18, 1838. Educated at Binghamton and Homer Academies and Union College ('60); degree of LL.D. (Married.) Special counsel New York Central and Hudson River R. R. Co.; director Carthage, Watertown and Sacketts Harbor R. R. Co. and Tivoli Hollow R. R. Co. Member Transportation, Riding, Manhattan and University Clubs, Union College Alumni Association and Association of the Bar of the City of New York.

LOOMIS, FRANK M.—Lawyer, 74 White Building, Buffalo; residence 77 Linwood avenue. Born in Brownville, N. Y., Feb. 3, 1851. Educated at private schools in Ogdensburg. (Married.) Director Buffalo City Cemetery Association. Member Liberal and Saturn Clubs and Civil Service Reform Association.

LOOMIS, GUY—Lumber Merchant, 260 Butler street, Brooklyn; residence 817 Carroll street. Member Crescent Athletic, Atlantic Yacht and Montauk Clubs.

LOOMIS, HENRY PATTERSON—Physician and Professor, 58 East 34th street, New York City. Educated at Princeton ('80). Degrees of A.B. and M.D. Professor of materia medica, therapeutics and clinical medicine, Cornell University Medical College; physician to New York and Bellevue Hospitals. Member University, Princeton and Tuxedo Clubs.

LOOMIS, HORACE—Chief Engineer, 21 Park row, New York City; residence Mount Vernon. Born in Binghamton, N. Y., 1840. Educated at Binghamton Academy, State Normal School and Rensselaer Polytechnic Institute (C.E., '65). For some years was largely employed in railroad constructions in New York, Pennsylvania and Connecticut. Became connected with the Department of Public Works in New York City in 1875, and as civil engineer made first surveys for the new Croton Aqueduct; was placed in charge of the Bureau of Sewers in 1886 and remained in charge thereof until January, 1898, when the bureau was abolished. Has been chief engineer in the Department of Sewers since 1886. Member Engineers' Club and American Society of Civil Engineers.

LOOMIS, JOHN S.—Sash Manufacturer, 202 Nevins street, Brooklyn; residence 817 Carroll street. Director Sprague National Bank. Member Brooklyn, Montauk, and Marine and Field Clubs.

LOOMIS, SHERMAN—Sash Manufacturer, 202 Nevins street, Brooklyn; residence 817 Carroll street. Member Union League, Montauk, Crescent Athletic and Oxford Clubs.

LOOMIS, W. H.—Manufacturer of Paints, Williamsport, Pa.; residence 168 Prospect place, Brooklyn. Born in Rutland, Tioga Co., Pa., April 5, 1851. Educated at Mansfield State Normal School. (Widower.) Half owner of the National Paint Works (Elliott & Loomis), Williamsport, Pa. Member Brooklyn Republican and Montauk Clubs, Waverly Lodge No. 407, F. & A. M., and Sons of the Revolution.

LOPER, GEORGE WEAVER—Manufacturer, 133 Front street, New York City; residence 36 West 58th street. Managing director National Cordage Co. Member Union League, Metropolitan, Calumet, New York Yacht, Larchmont Yacht, and Racquet and Tennis Clubs, Crescent Athletic and Brooklyn Clubs of Brooklyn, and Down Town Association.

LORBACHER, EDMUND—Broker, 20 Exchange place, New York City; residence 214 Harrison street, Brooklyn. Member Metropolitan Museum of Art and American Museum of Natural History.

LORD, AUSTIN W.—Architect, 16 East 23d street, New York City; residence 202 West 81st street. Born in Winona, Minn., June 27, 1860. Educated at Minnesota Normal School, Massachusetts Institute of Technology and Atelier Daumet Girault, Paris, France. (Married.) Director American School of Architecture in Rome, 1894-6. Treasurer and director Goodwin Car Co. Member Beaux-Arts Club, Autobiographical Society of America, and Architectural League.

LORD, BENJAMIN—Dentist, 34 West 28th street, New York City. Born and educated in Trenton, N. J. (Married.) Formerly president New York Odontological Society and New York Institute of Stomatology. Member Quill Club, American Museum of Natural History and New York Academy of Sciences.

LORD, CHESTER S.—Editor, 170 Nassau street, New York City; residence 110 South Elliott place, Brooklyn. Born in Romulus, N. Y., March 18, 1850. Educated at Hamilton College ('73). (Married.) Formerly regent of the University of the State of New York. Managing editor of the New York "Sun" since 1880. Member Union League, Lotos (secretary since 1894), University, New York Press and Sigma Phi Clubs and New England Society.

LORD, F. HOWARD—Real Estate, 160 Broadway, New York City; residence 60 West 55th street. Educated at Princeton. Member University and Princeton Clubs, New England Society, Society of Colonial Wars and Sons of the Revolution.

LORD, FRANKLIN B.—Lawyer, 120 Broadway, New York City; residence Lawrence, L. I. Born in New York City, Sept. 18, 1850. Educated at Columbia College ('70) and Law School. (Married.) Member of the firm of Lord, Day & Lord. Director Ann Arbor R. R. Co., Lawyers' Surety Co., Lawyers' Title Insurance Co. and Sixth National Bank; trustee Real Estate Trust Co. Member University, Lawyers', Rockaway Hunting and Grolier Clubs, Columbia University Alumni, Century and Down Town Associations, Sons of the Revolution and Association of the Bar of the City of New York.

LORD, FREDERICK R.—President, 27 William street, New York City; residence Stapleton, S. I. Educated at Columbia. President and director Midland Realty Co. of New York City. Member Richmond County Country and Psi Upsilon Clubs and Columbia University Alumni Association.

LORD, JAMES BROWN—Architect, 160 Fifth avenue, New York City; residence Tuxedo. Designer and architect of the new court house on Madison square, East, New York City, for the Appellate Division of the Supreme Court. Director Mount Pleasant Mining Co. Member Metropolitan, Union, Tuxedo, and Racquet and Tennis Clubs, Architectural League and National Academy of Design.

LORD, NATHAN HOLCOMBE—Lawyer, 52 Exchange place, New York City; residence 61 West 73d street. Secretary and treasurer Martin & Co. Member Racquet and Tennis, and Westchester Country Clubs, Society of Colonial Wars, Columbia University Alumni Association and Association of the Bar of the City of New York.

LORD, WILLIAM BROWN—Secretary, 68 Wall street, New York City; residence Morristown, N. J. Educated at Harvard. Secretary and director Mount Pleasant Mining Co.; director Clove Branch R. R. Co., and Newburgh, Dutchess and Connecticut R. R. Co. Member Union, Harvard, and Racquet and Tennis Clubs and American Institute of Mining Engineers.

LORENZ, DANIEL E.—Presbyterian Clergyman, 152 West 66th street, New York City; residence 168 West 81st street. Born in Canal Fulton, Ohio, May 24, 1862. Educated at Otterbein University, Columbia University (Ph.D.) and Union Theological Seminary. (Married.) Minister in the Presbyterian Church of the Good Shepherd. Member Quill Club and Presbyterian Union.

LORGE, JULIUS B.—Manufacturer, Norwalk, Conn., and 60 Leonard street, New York City; residence 499 Fifth avenue. (Single.) Member of the firm of J. B. Lorge & Co. President and treasurer Norwalk and Fairfield Worsted Mills of Norwalk, Conn. Member Merchants' Central and Democratic Clubs.

LORILLARD, JACOB—Brick Manufacturer, 92 Liberty street, New York City; residence Ferris Lane, Throgg's Neck. Member New York Yacht and Union Clubs, and Country Club of Westchester.

LORILLARD, LOUIS—1 West 21st street, New York City, and Newport, R. I. Member Metropolitan, New York Yacht, Union and Knickerbocker Clubs and St. Nicholas Society.

LORILLARD, PIERRE—Tobacco Manufacturer, 111 Forest street, Jersey City, N. J.; residence 8 Washington square, North, New York City. Member Knickerbocker, New York Yacht and Tuxedo Clubs, American Fine Arts, St. Nicholas and American Geographical Societies and Metropolitan Museum of Art.

LORILLARD, PIERRE, JR.—30 East 34th street, and "Keewaydin," Tuxedo Park, New York. Treasurer and director Continental Tobacco Co. Member Tuxedo, New York Yacht and Knickerbocker Clubs.

LORING, CHARLES H.—Retired Naval Officer, 239 Clermont avenue, Brooklyn. Born in Boston, Mass., 1828. Educated in public schools. Served as engineer-of-the-fleet in the North Atlantic Squadron during the first eighteen months of the Civil War, participating in the conflicts with the Merrimac (1862); appointed engineer-in-chief United States Navy, 1884. Member Engineers' and Army and Navy Clubs, American Society of Mechanical Engineers, Society of Naval Architects and Marine Engineers, Military Order of the Loyal Legion and G. A. R.

LORING, DANIEL A.—Retired, 1286 Broadway, New York City; residence 1254 Broadway. Member New York Yacht, St. Augustine Yacht, Lambs', New York Athletic, Knickerbocker Athletic, Coney Island Jockey and Brooklyn Jockey Clubs, New York Historical Society and Metropolitan Museum of Art.

LORING, DANIEL A., JR.—29 East 28th street, New York City. Director Aetna Real Estate and Loan Co. Educated at Yale. Member University Athletic, New York Athletic, Yale and St. Anthony Clubs.

LORTON, HETH—Treasurer, 100 Broadway, New York City; residence 7 West 44th street. Treasurer American Surety Co. Member St. Nicholas Club, Southern Society, Society of the Cincinnati, Society of Colonial Wars and Sons of the Revolution.

LOSEE, C. E.—Banking, Pierrepont and Clinton streets, Brooklyn; residence Twenty-second avenue and 84th street, Bensonhurst. Born in Hempstead, L. I., March, 1864. Educated at a boarding school. (Married.) Assistant teller Brooklyn Savings Bank. Member Crescent Athletic, New York Canoe, and Marine and Field Clubs and Good Roads Association of Long Island.

LOTH, BERNARD—Silk Manufacturer, 65 Greene street, and 150th street and Amsterdam avenue, New York City; residence 1830 Amsterdam avenue. Born in Hartford, Conn., 1858. Educated at the College of the City of New York (B.S.) and Columbia University (LL.B.). (Single.) President Joseph Loth & Co.

LOTT, JOHN Z.—Lawyer, 213 Montague street, Brooklyn; residence 930 Flatbush avenue. Educated at Union College. Secretary, treasurer and director Brooklyn and Brighton Beach R. R. Co. Member Crescent Athletic Club and Union College Alumni Association.

LOUGHRAN, E. H.—Physician and Surgeon, 25 Main street, Kingston. Born in Ashland, Greene Co., N. Y., March 17, 1852. Educated in Matteawan and at Bellevue Hospital Medical College. (Married.) Director Ulster County Savings Institution and Kingston National Bank; examiner United States Pensions. Member Kingston Lodge No. 10, F. & A. M. and Mount Horeb Chapter, Knights Templar.

LOUNSBERY, RICHARD P.—Broker, 15 Broad street, New York City; residence 12 East 35th street. Born in Bedford, N. Y., Aug. 9, 1845. (Married.) President and director Last Dollar Gold Mining Co. and Deadwood Terra Mining Co.; director American Mining Co., Anaconda Copper Mining Co. and Westchester Trust Co. Member American Museum of Natural History, Twilight Club, New England, American Geographical and St. Nicholas Societies, and Metropolitan Museum of Art.

LOUNSBURY, PHINEAS C.—Banker, 257 Broadway, New York City; residence 137 West 72d street and Ridgefield, Conn. Born in Ridgefield, Jan. 10, 1841. Educated in public schools. Degree of LL.D. from Wesleyan University. Served with 17th Connecticut Volunteers during Civil War. Served several terms as member of Connecticut Legislature and as Governor of Connecticut, 1887-8. President and director Merchants' Exchange National Bank and Preferred Accident Insurance Co.; director Provident Savings Life Assurance Society and Worcester Salt Co.; trustee Anglo-American Savings and Loan Association, American Bank Note Co. and Washington Trust Co. Member Hardware, Republican and Union League Clubs and New England Society.

LOUTREL, CYRUS FRANCIS—Stationery, 146 William street, New York City; residence South Orange, N. J. President and director Francis & Loutrel Co. Member Orange, Essex County Country and South Orange Field Clubs of Orange, N. J., and Metropolitan Museum of Art.

LOVE, EDWARD G.—Chemist, 122 Bowery, New York City; residence 80 East 55th street. Member Engineers' Club, Phi Beta Kappa Society and Scientific Alliance.

LOVE, LOFTIN—Banker, 13 William street, New York City; residence 51 West 85th street. Cashier Corn Exchange Bank. Member Marine and Field, Atlantic Yacht and Colonial Clubs, and St. George's Society.

LOVELAND, FRANK C.—President, 265 Broadway, New York City; residence 1 West 81st street. Born in Wellington, Lorain Co., Ohio, Aug. 26, 1839. Educated in Wellington common schools and at Oberlin College. (Married Isabella, daughter of Dr. Julius A. Sayles of Cleveland, Ohio.) Ex-vice-president American Exploration Co.; ex-treasurer Mercantile Insurance Co. President United States Water Filter Co. Enlisted as private in Sixth Ohio United States Volunteer Cavalry in 1861, which regiment took part in fifty-three skirmishes and battles during its four years' service. He served with it in the field, was severely wounded, and having filled the intermediate grades as officer, was promoted, in 1865, colonel, for gallant service during war. Resident of New York City since 1866. Was engaged in dry goods business for many years; appointed United States disbursing pension agent by President Harrison to succeed Major-General Franz Sigel. Member Republican, Patria and Riverside Clubs, Ohio Society, Military Order of the Loyal Legion, Lafayette Post, G. A. R., Society of the Army of the Potomac, and Sons of the Revolution.

LOVELAND, JOHN W.—Lawyer, 25 Pine street, New York City; residence Englewood, N. J. Born in West Pittston, Pa., Oct. 1, 1866. Educated at Pennsylvania Military College, at Yale and at Columbia Law School. (Married.) Member Troop A, New York Volunteer Cavalry on expedition to Puerto Rico (1898). Member of the firm of Loveland & Billings. Counsel and director Naval Electric Equipment Co. Member Quill, Yale, Englewood Golf and Lawyers' Clubs, American Society of Mechanical Engineers, Pennsylvania Society, Squadron "A," N. G. N. Y., and Association of the Bar of the City of New York.

LOVELL, FRANK HALLETT—Export Merchant, 118 John and 233 Pearl streets, New York City; residence 9 Washington square, North. (Son of Barnstable County, Mass., Dec. 26, 1836. Educated in Middleboro, Mass. (Married M. Louise, daughter of Arnold Angell Lewis.) Member of the firm of F. H. Lovell & Co. (est. 1864). Member Crescent Athletic and Hamilton Clubs of Brooklyn, Fulton, Nineteenth Century, Accomack Hunting and Fishing, Lakewood (N. J.) and Parmachenee Clubs, Genealogical, Geographical, Mayflower and Long Island Historical Societies, Presbyterian Union, Chamber of Commerce, Society of Colonial Wars and Brooklyn Institute of Arts and Sciences.

LOVELL, FRANK HALLETT, JR.—Export Merchant, 118 John and 233 Pearl streets, New York City; residence 9 Washington square, North. (Son of Frank Hallett and M. Louise [Lewis] Lovell.) Member of the firm of F. H. Lovell & Co. (est. 1864.). Member Crescent Athletic and Hamilton Clubs of Brooklyn.

LOVELL, LEANDER N.—Capitalist, 28 Pine street, and Merchant, 70 West street, New York City; residence Plainfield, N. J. Member Plainfield Board of Education. President and director Eastern Insurance Co., Borden Mining Co., Eastern Coal and Coke Co., Lovell Coal Mining Co. and Northern Insurance Co.; director Ohio and Kentucky Ry. Co., and Old Colony Steamboat Co.; trustee Atlantic Mutual Insurance Co. and Atlantic Trust Co. Member Presbyterian Union, Sons of the American Revolution, Metropolitan Museum of Art, New England Society, Chamber of Commerce, New York Marine Association and Societies of Mayflower Descendants, Colonial Wars and Naval Architects and Marine Engineers.

LOW, A. AUGUSTUS—Merchant, 31 Burling Slip, New York City; residence 3 Pierrepont place, Brooklyn. Member of the firm of A. A. Low & Bros. Director Franklin Trust Co.; trustee Central Trust Co. and Brooklyn Institute of Arts and Sciences. Member New York Yacht and Adirondack League Clubs, Hamilton, Marine and Field, and Crescent Athletic Clubs of Brooklyn, and Down Town Association.

LOW, EDWIN C.—Lawyer, 26 Court street, Brooklyn; residence First avenue near 81st street. Member Crescent Athletic Club.

LOW, EDWIN H.—Steamship Agent, 1123 Broadway, New York City; residence 10 West 30th street. Proprietor Low's Exchange. Member Transportation, Lambs' and Lotos Clubs.

LOW, JAMES—Dry Goods Merchant, 65 Worth street, New York City; residence 18 East 40th street. Member New England Society, National Academy of Design, Metropolitan Museum of Art and American Museum of Natural History.

LOW, PHILIP BURRILL—Shipping Merchant, 28 South street, New York City; residence 34 West 129th street. Born in Chelsea, Mass., May 6, 1836. Educated in Chelsea and at Boston High School. Served in the United States Navy during Civil War. Organized and was first commander of the First Naval Battalion of the State of New York. Represented the Fifteenth New York District in Congress, 1895. Member Harlem Republican Club, Military Order of the Loyal Legion and Alexander Hamilton Post G. A. R.

LOW, SETH—President, Columbia University, New York City; residence 30 East 64th street. Born in Brooklyn, N. Y., Jan. 18, 1850. Educated at Brooklyn Polytechnic Institute and Columbia University ('70). Degree of LL.D. conferred by University of the State of New York and by Harvard. Mayor of Brooklyn, 1881-5. President since 1890 of Columbia University to which he donated one million dollars for the erection of the University Library building. Independent candidate for mayor of Greater New York, 1897. President and director Columbia University Press. Member City, University, Authors', Metropolitan, University Glee and Barnard Clubs, Hamilton Club of Brooklyn, Columbia University Alumni, Down Town and Century Associations, American Geographical, Dunlap, American Fine Arts, New England and Phi Beta Kappa Societies, Metropolitan Museum of Art and American Museum of Natural History.

LOW, WALTER CARROLL—Lawyer, 20 Broad street, New York City; residence 509 Fifth street, Brooklyn. Member Montauk Club of Brooklyn, and Mendelssohn Glee Club.

LOW, WILL H.—Artist, Lawrence Park, Bronxville. Born in Albany, N. Y., May 31, 1853. Pupil of Carolus-Duran, Paris, France. (Married.) Designed diploma of awards for World's Columbian Exposition, Chicago, 1893. Has been awarded several medals. Delegate to Fine Arts Federation; first vice-president National Society of Mural Painters. Member Players' Club, American Fine Arts Society, Society of American Artists, National Society of Mural Painters, Century Association, National Academy of Design, Architectural League and Fine Arts Federation.

LOWE, WILLIAM E.—Insurance, 69 Wall street, New York City; residence Plainfield, N. J. Born in New York City, Oct. 30, 1844. Educated in New York City. (Married.) Director New York Fire Insurance Co. Member New York Yacht and Lawyers' Clubs, and Down Town Association.

LOWELL, ORSON—Illustrator, 3 Union square, West, New York City; residence 11 East 22d street. Born in Wyoming, Iowa, Dec. 22, 1871. Educated in Chicago public schools, and at Chicago Art Institute. (Married Jessie M. Hall of Chicago, 1898.) Makes a specialty of the illustration of books and magazines.

LOWERY, GIRARD C. W.—Vice-President, 66 Broadway, New York City; residence Larchmont. Born in Newark, N. J. (Married.) Vice-president New Mexico Ry. and Coal Co.; director St. Louis, Iron Mountain and Southern Ry. Co., El Paso and Northwestern Ry. Co. and White Oaks and Kansas City Ry. Co. Member Union League, Larchmont Yacht and New York Yacht Clubs and Detroit (Mich.) Club.

LOWN, WILLIAM E.—President, 35 Wall street, New York City; residence 263 West 54th street. Born in Rhinebeck, N. Y., Jan. 9, 1849. Educated at Michigan University. (Single.) President and director Tidal Oil Co.; director Samabria Gold Mining and Trading Co., South American Promoting Syndicate Co. and United States Tunnel Mining, Milling, Drainage and Transportation Co. Member Delta Kappa Epsilon Club.

LOWREY, FRANCIS PORTER—Lawyer, 27 William street, New York City; residence 66 Madison avenue. Born in New York City, Nov. 4, 1863. Educated at St. John's School in Sing Sing, Harvard Law School and Columbia Law School. (Single.) Secretary and director Edison Spanish Colonial Light Co.; director and member of the executive committee, No. 121 Madison Avenue Co.; director Bonfils Improvement Co. and Brooklyn Borough Gas Co. Member Union, Calumet and Delta Phi Clubs, Columbia University Alumni Association and Association of the Bar of the City of New York.

LOWREY, GEORGE N.—Publisher, 13 Astor place, New York City; residence 551 Third street, Brooklyn. Born in Deckertown, N. J., Dec. 29, 1863. Educated at Harvard and University of Michigan. (Married.) President Geo. N. Lowrey Co., publishers of "The Clothier and Furnisher" of New York City and Chicago, of which he was formerly the editor.

LOZIER, HIRAM—82 Lander street, Newburgh. Born in Newburgh, June 4, 1852. Educated at Newburgh Academy. (Married.) Connected with the Fishkill Landing Machine Co. Formerly excise commissioner of Newburgh. Now member of Newburgh Board of Education and chairman of committee of Newburgh City Library. Member Newburgh Historical Society (trustee), Holland Society of New York City, Masonic Veterans (treasurer) and Newburgh Academy Alumni (treasurer) Associations, Sons of the American Revolution and other organizations.

LOZIER, ROBERT T.—220 Broadway, New York City; residence New Brighton, S. I. Born in South Norwalk, Conn., May 5, 1868. Educated in public schools and at Packard's Business College. (Single.) Formerly member of the firm of Warren & Lozier, and assistant manager in the lighting department of the General Electric Co. Now connected with the Bullock Electric Co. Member Engineers', Seawanhaka-Corinthian Yacht and Harbour Hill Golf Clubs, Naval Reserve Association and American Institute of Electrical Engineers.

LUCAS, ARTHUR—Journalist, 61 State street, Albany. Born in Albany, Sept. 10, 1859. Educated at Dartmouth College. (Married.) Interested in newspaper work since 1885. Now on the editorial staff of the Albany "Evening Journal."

LUCAS, EDWIN J.—Real Estate and Builder, Lucas Building, Mount Vernon; residence Sound Beach, Conn. Born in Mount Vernon, 1867. Educated in Mount Vernon public schools. (Married.) Has been largely interested in the development and building up of Chester Hill, one of Mount Vernon's best residence sections; built and owns the Lucas Building (Mount Vernon City Hall), the pioneer steel fire-proof building in Westchester County. Also developed the Greenwich Cove water front property on Sound Beach, Conn., and is the owner of the Greenwich Cove Casino. Member New York Athletic and Riverside Yacht Clubs, City Club of Mt. Vernon, and Innis Arden Golf Club of Sound Beach, Conn.

LUCAS, E. W. VAN C.—Lieutenant, Engineer Battalion, United States Army, Willets Point. Member Army and Navy Club.

LUCE, HARRY J.—Cigar Manufacturer, 1228 Second avenue, New York City; residence 32 West 73d street. Director New York Pneumatic Cigar Rolling Co. Member New York Athletic, Colonial, and Suburban Riding and Driving Clubs.

LUCE, ROBERT LEE—Lawyer, 7 Wall street, New York City; residence 6 East Ninth street. Born in Hartwick, Otsego County, N. Y., Sept. 19, 1862. Educated at Williston Seminary and at Yale. (Single.) Member of the firm of Luce, Davis & Griffin. Member New York Athletic, Yale, Manhattan and Psi Upsilon Clubs and Association of the Bar of the City of New York.

LUDDEN, PATRICK ANTHONY—Roman Catholic Bishop, Syracuse. Born near Castlebar, Ireland, 1838. Educated at St. Jarlath's College in Ireland and at Grand Seminaire, Montreal, Canada. Ordained priest, 1864. Rector of Albany Cathedral and vicar-general of the diocese, 1877-80; rector of St. Peter's Church, Troy, 1885-7; consecrated Bishop of Syracuse, May 1, 1887.

LUDINGTON, BENJAMIN L.—Lawyer, 40 Wall street, New York City; residence 44 East 69th street. Born in Sullivan County, N. Y. Educated in Monticello, Sullivan Co. (Married.) Member of the State Legislature, 1862; appointed by President Lincoln Appraiser of the Port of New York, 1864. Member Union League Club.

LUDINGTON, CHARLES H.—Trustee, 276 Madison avenue, New York City. Born in Carmel, Putnam Co., N. Y., Feb. 1, 1825. Educated at Vermilyea and other academies. (Married.) Trustee American Surety Co.; director Washington Life Insurance Co. Member Union League Club, American Museum of Natural History, Century Association, Metropolitan Museum of Art, National Academy of Design, New England, American Fine Arts and American Geographical Societies and Chamber of Commerce.

LUDINGTON, CHARLES H., JR.—Lawyer, 59 Wall street, New York City; residence 129 East 70th street. Born in New York City, Aug. 9, 1866. Educated at St. Paul's School, Concord, N. H., and at Yale. (Married.) President and director Continental Filter Co. Member University and Yale Clubs, American Fine Arts Society and Association of the Bar of the City of New York.

LUDLAM, EDWIN—Secretary, 180 Remsen street, Brooklyn; residence 294 Washington avenue. Born in New York City, Nov. 28, 1841. Educated at Dwight's High School. (Married.) Vice-president Newtown Gas Co.; secretary Brooklyn Union Gas Co.; director Wallabout Bank. Ex-president of the latter and of the People's Gas Light Co. Member Oxford, Brooklyn and Crescent Athletic Clubs, St. Nicholas Society of Nassau Island, and Society of Old Brooklynites.

LUDLOW, HENRY GILBERT—Inventor and Manufacturer, Troy. Born in Nassau, Rensselaer County, N. Y., March 28, 1823. Educated at Union College ('43). (Married Harriet M. Shattuck of Burlington, Vt., 1854.) Invented the Ludlow straightway slide-stop valve and engaged in its manufacture, incorporating the Ludlow Valve Mfg Co.; retired from active business in 1891.

LUDLOW, JAMES B.—Lawyer, 45 Cedar street, New York City; residence 27 West 26th street. Born in "Rose Cottage," Yonkers, N. Y., May 30, 1859. Educated at Harrington's School in Westchester, 1869-71; abroad, 1871-3; St. John's School in Sing Sing, 1873-7; Harvard (A.B., '81) and Harvard Law School (LL.B., '84); admitted to the Bar in New York City, 1885. (Single.) Senior member of the firm of Ludlow, Townsend, Sedgwick & Timpson. Member City, University, Farmachenee and Caughnawaga (Adirondack) Clubs, Ardsley Casino of Ardsley-on-Hudson, Century and Down Town Associations, St. Nicholas Society, American Museum of Natural History, Archaeological Association of America, Association of the Bar of the City of New York, and associate member of the Musical Art Society.

LUDDLUM, GEORGE P.—Superintendent, 7 West 15th street, New York City; residence 8 West 16th street. Born in New York City, 1844. Educated at Rochester University. (Married.) Superintendent New York Hospital.

LUKE, ADAM K.—Secretary, 309 Broadway, New York City; residence 553 Third street, Brooklyn. Member Arkwright Club, and Crescent Athletic and Montauk Clubs of Brooklyn.

LUMMIS, CHARLES A.—Stock Broker, 3 Broad street, New York City; residence 35 East 30th street. Member of the firm of Lummis & Parsons and of the New York Stock Exchange. Member New York Athletic, Manhattan and Catholic Clubs and Sons of the Revolution.

LUMMIS, J. MAXWELL—Broker, 58 Wall street, New York City; residence Ozone Park, L. I. Born in New York City, Nov. 18, 1847. Educated at Free Academy, now the College of the City of New York. (Single.) Nephew of the late John O'Brien, who bequeathed him his seat in the Stock Exchange. Is in partnership with Joseph O'Brien. Member Democratic Club, of which he was one of the first governors.

LUMMIS, WILLIAM—Banker, 37 Wall street, New York City; residence 4 East 66th street. Born in New York City, 1841. Educated at Columbia College ('59). Member of the New York Stock Exchange. Director Bond and Mortgage Guarantee Co., Newburgh, Dutchess and Connecticut R. R. Co., Rome, Watertown and Ogdensburg R. R. Co., Ogdensburg and Lake Champlain R. R. Co., Oswego and Rome R. R. Co., South Carolina and Georgia R. R. Co. and Utica and Black River R. R. Co. Member Manhattan, Lawyers', New York Athletic and Reform Clubs, Sons of the Revolution, Metropolitan Museum of Art, New York Historical Society and American Museum of Natural History.

LUNGREN, HARVEY—Artist, 3 Washington square, North, New York City. Born in Maryland, Nov. 13, 1859. Educated at University of Maryland. (Married Henrietta Whipple, 1898.) Engaged principally as a figure and landscape painter; also as illustrator on periodicals. Member Aldine Association.

LUNT, CHARLES T.—United States Official, 24 Wall street, New York City. Born in Boston, Mass., June 11, 1847. Educated in Boston. Has held official positions in Union and First National Banks of Chicago, Ill., and in Pacific Bank of New York City. Now connected with the United States Sub-Treasury. Senior warden or Roome Lodge No. 746, F. & A. M., and of the Council of Princes, A. A. S. R. A thirty-second degree Mason.

LUQUEER, FRANCIS T., JR.—Saddlery, Hardware and Harness Merchant, 67 Murray street, New York City; residence 9 East 73d street. Born in New York City, July 25, 1839. Educated in New York City. (Single.) President and director R. S. Luqueer & Co. Member New York Athletic and Lotos Clubs and Lafayette Post, G. A. R.

LUQUER, LEA McALVAINE—Instructor, Columbia University, New York City; residence 321 West 80th street. Born in Brooklyn, N. Y., 1864. Educated at Trinity School and Columbia University. (Married.) Member City Club, Columbia University Alumni and Century Associations, Society of Colonial Wars, Huguenot Society (secretary, 1894-9) and Fellow of the New York Academy of Sciences.

LUQUER, THATCHER TAYLOR PAYNE—Electrical Engineer, 15 Dey street, New York City; residence Bedford, Westchester County. Born in Bedford, Sept. 10, 1866. Educated at Columbia. (Single.) Assistant to chief engineer New York Telephone Co. Member Alpha Delta Phi and University Clubs, Columbia University Alumni Association and American Institute of Electrical Engineers.

LUSCOMB, CHARLES H.—Lawyer, 120 Broadway, New York City; residence 439 Macon street, Brooklyn. Born in Salem, Mass. Educated at College of the City of New York and Columbia. Member Long Island Wheel and Lincoln Clubs of Brooklyn, Lawyers' Club, and Supreme Council thirty-third degree A. A. S. R., Northern Masonic Jurisdiction.

LUSK, GRAHAM—Physician and Professor, 410 East 26th street, New York City; residence 11 East 74th street. Born in Bridgeport, Conn. Educated at Columbia University ('87) and at the University of Munich. Degrees of M.D. and Ph.D. (Married.) Professor of physiology at the University and Bellevue Hospital Medical College. Fellow Royal Society of Edinburgh, Scotland; member City, University and Calumet Clubs, Columbia University Alumni and Century Associations and National Academy of Design.

LUSK, JAMES LORING—Captain, United States Army, West Point. Member Sons of the American Revolution, American Society of Civil Engineers, Military Service Institution and New England Water Works Association.

LUSK, THURSTON GILMAN—Physician and Instructor, 162 East 37th street, New York City. Degree of M.D. Instructor in dermatology, Cornell University Medical College.

LYONS, WILLIAM T.—Flour Merchant, 206 Produce Exchange, New York City; residence 288 De Kalb avenue, Brooklyn. Born in New York City, April 13, 1866. Educated in public schools. (Married.) Manager Hecker-Jones-Jewell Milling Co.; secretary New York Gluten and Phosphate Food Co. Member Crescent Athletic and Montauk Clubs of Brooklyn, and Commercial Club.

LUTTGEN, WALTHER—Banker, 23 Nassau street, New York City; residence Linden, N. J. Member of the New York Stock Exchange firm of August Belmont & Co. Member New York Yacht, New York Athletic, Atlantic Yacht, Lawyers' and Seawanhaka-Corinthian Yacht Clubs, Down Town Association and Metropolitan Museum of Art.

LUYSTER, CORNELIUS W.—Builder, 253 Columbus avenue; residence 36 West 76th street. Born in New York City, Aug. 6, 1836. Educated in New York City. Served as a member of the Committee of Seventy, 1894. Engaged in the real estate and building business since 1862. Director Mutual Bank and Real Estate Exchange. Member Colonial Club and Sons of the American Revolution.

LYALL, JAMES—Manufacturer, 540 West 23d street, New York City; residence 301 West 86th street. Born in Auchteradar, Scotland, Sept. 13, 1836. Brought to the United States when three years of age and was educated in public schools. (Married Margaret Telford, 1864.) Served with 12th New York Infantry during Civil War. Member of the firm of J. & W. Lyall. President and director Brighton Mills. Member Twilight, West Side Republican and Burns Clubs and St. Andrew's Society.

LYALL, WILLIAM—Manufacturer, 540 West 23d street, New York City; residence 367 West 20th street. Born in Jersey City, N. J., Oct. 28, 1840. Educated in New York City. (Married.) Member of the firm of J. & W. Lyall. Treasurer and director Brighton Mills. Member Union League and Twilight Clubs, St. Andrew's Society (president) and Chamber of Commerce.

LYALL, WILLIAM L.—Manufacturer, 540 West 23d street, New York City; residence 367 West 20th street. Educated at Stevens Institute of Technology. Associated with the firm of J. & W. Lyall. Secretary and director Brighton Mills. Member New York Athletic and Engineers' Clubs, American Society of Mechanical Engineers, New York Cotton Manufacturers' Association, St. Andrew's Society, League of American Wheelmen and Stevens Institute Alumni Association.

LYDECKER, CHARLES E.—Lawyer, 120 Broadway, New York City; residence 120 East 45th street. Director Bower-Barff Rustless Iron Co. Member Reform, Democratic and Lawyers' Clubs, Holland Society and Association of the Bar of the City of New York.

LYFORD, F. F.—Banker, Waverly; residence 446 Pennsylvania avenue. Born in Waterville, Me., Jan. 26, 1853. Educated at Waverly, (N. Y.) Academy. (Married.) Ex-president of the village of Waverly. Now president of the Board of Education. Connected with the First National Bank of Waverly, A. H. Thomas Paint Co., Sayre (Pa.) Banking Co., Sayre Land Co., Sayre Water Co., Athens (Pa.) Furniture Co., F. E. Lyford & Co., Owego (N. Y.) Gaslight Co. and Newark (N. Y.) Gaslight Co.

LYMAN, ALEXANDER S.—Lawyer, 168 Montague street, Brooklyn; residence 58 Townsend avenue, Clifton, S. I. Born in New Orleans, La., April 8, 1860. Educated at New York University. (Married.) Claim adjuster Brooklyn Heights R. R. Co. Member Psi Upsilon Club and Association of the Bar of the City of New York.

LYMAN, CHESTER WOLCOTT—Paper Manufacturer, 30 Broad street, New York City; residence 16 East 32d street. Born in New Haven, Conn., May 25, 1861. Educated at Yale (B.A. and M.A.). (Single.) Connected with the International Paper Co. as assistant to president. Member Yale and University Clubs, American Paper and Pulp Association (ex-secretary), American Institute of Electrical Engineers and Sons of the American Revolution.

LYMAN, FRANK—Iron Manufacturer, 31 Burling Slip, New York City; residence 50 Remsen street, Brooklyn. Educated at Harvard ('74). Director Brooklyn Academy of Music, Brooklyn City R. R. Co. and Nassau National Bank; trustee Brooklyn Savings Bank, Brooklyn Trust Co., United States Trust Co. and Long Island Loan and Trust Co. Member University, Engineers' and Players' Clubs, Ardsley Casino of Ardsley-on-Hudson, Crescent Athletic, Atlantic Yacht and Hamilton Clubs of Brooklyn, American Institute of Mining Engineers and Down Town Association.

LYMAN, HENRY D.—President, 100 Broadway, New York City; residence 41 West 73d street. Born in Parkman, Ohio, April 12, 1852. Educated in public schools. (Married.) President and trustee American Surety Co.; director Electrical Review Publishing Co. Member Union League Club.

LYMAN, JOSEPH—Artist, 7 West 43d street, New York City; residence 621 Fifth avenue. Born in Ravenna, Ohio, July 17, 1843. Educated at Cleveland (Ohio) High School; studied art in New York City. Member Century Association and National Academy of Design.

LYMAN, ROBERT M.—Brewer, 422 West 38th street, New York City; residence 267 West 79th street. (Married.) Treasurer and director Emerald and Phoenix Brewing Co. Member Army and Navy and New York Athletic Clubs and Sons of the Revolution.

LYMAN, SAMUEL H.—Clerk and United States Commissioner, United States District Court, 61 Post Office Building, New York City; residence 16 East 53d street. Educated at Yale. Member Union League and Yale Clubs.

LYMAN, THOMAS T.—Manufacturer, 100 William street, New York City; residence Brooklyn. Born in New York City, Jan. 20, 1863. Educated in Chicago, Ill., and in New York City. (Married.) Manager asbestos department H. W. Johns Mfg Co. Member Church Clubs of New York City and Brooklyn, and St. Paul's Chapter and Long Island Assembly of the Brotherhood of St. Andrew.

LYNCH, JAMES D.—Real Estate, 41 Wall street, New York City; residence 129 East 21st street. Born in New York City, Feb. 17, 1848. Educated at Seton Hall College. (Single.) Director Bond and Mortgage Guarantee Co. and Title Guarantee and Trust Co. Member Manhattan, New York Yacht, Riding, Reform and Catholic Clubs, Brooklyn Club, New York Historical and American Geographical Societies and Down Town Association.

LYNCH, ROBERT B.—Merchant, 52 Front street, New York City; residence Mansion House, Brooklyn. Member Atlantic Yacht Club, Montauk Club of Brooklyn, and Circle Colon Cervantes.

LYNDE, ROLLIN HARPER—Lawyer, 31 Pine street, New York City; residence South Orange, N. J. Educated at Princeton (77). Member Princeton University, Baltusrol Golf and University Glee Clubs, South Orange (N. J.) Field Club, Nassau Club of Princeton University, and Down Town Association.

LYNN, JOHN—Novelties, 48 Bond street, New York City; residence 141 West 11th street. Member of the firm of John Lynn & Co. Member Manhattan, Reform, New York Athletic, Twilight, Democratic, City and Lotos Clubs and Aldine Association.

LYNN, WAUHOPE—Lawyer, 150 Nassau street, New York City; residence 17 King street. Born in Ireland, Dec. 14, 1856. (Son of Crawford and Mary A. Lynn.) Educated in Ireland, in New York City public schools and at New York University Law School ('82). Docket clerk in the county clerk's office, 1882; assistant district attorney, 1891-2; Judge of the First District Municipal Court, 1892-9. President and director American Law Advice Association.

LYON, APPLETON P.—Professor, 17 Main street, Peekskill. Educated at Amherst College. Member Reform Club and Scientific Alliance of New York City, and Amherst Alumni Association.

LYON, GEORGE W.—Lawyer, 47 Broadway, New York City; residence 1 East 39th street. Member Union League and Republican Clubs, New England Society, Military Order of the Loyal Legion, Lafayette Post, G. A. R., and Association of the Bar of the City of New York.

LYON, NEWTON C.—Treasurer, 11 Broadway, New York City; residence Montclair, N. J. Born in Parsippany, N. J., Oct. 4, 1861. (Married.) Treasurer, secretary and director Dutton Pneumatic Lock and Engineering Co. and Lorena Co.; treasurer and director Ardsley Electric Co. and Ardsley Water Co.; secretary and director Trinidad Asphalt Co. and Locomobile Co. of America.

LYON, WILLIAM H.—Retired Merchant, 170 New York avenue, Brooklyn. Born in Holland, Hampden Co., Mass., Oct. 18, 1819. Educated in public school and by private tutor. (Married.) Was appointed by President Grant a member of the United States Board of Indian Commissioners and has served on the board during the administration of seven Presidents. Vice-president and trustee Hamilton Trust Co.; director Bedford Bank and Brooklyn Life Insurance Co. Member Union League Club of Brooklyn.

LYON, WILLIAM J.—Lawyer and Expert Accountant, 280 Broadway, New York City; residence St. Nicholas avenue and 150th street. Born in New York City, Dec. 9, 1847. Educated at Princeton. (Married.) Auditor City Finance Department 1883-96; deputy comptroller 1896-8; expert accountant in comptroller's office, since 1898. Member Manhattan, Colonial, Princeton, Democratic, Pontiac and Minqua Clubs.

LYONS, JULIUS J.—Lawyer, 320 Broadway, New York City; residence 61 East 53d street. Born in New York City, Oct. 7, 1843. (Son of Rev. Jacques J., and Grace Lyons.) Educated by private tutors, in public schools, and at New York University. (Married Constance, daughter of Uriah Hendricks of New York City.) Member of the firm of Julius J., & Alfred Lyons. Was one of the organizers, and is now counsel and a director of the State Bank. Was the founder and conductor of the Metropolitan Amateur Orchestra until it was merged into the Metropolitan Musical Society, of which he then became president. Served as judge advocate of the Second Brigade and major on the staff of General Vilmar, N. G. N. Y. Was until recently, and for twelve years, a director and honorary secretary of the Montefiore Home for Chronic Invalids; for ten years was assistant secretary and afterwards honorary secretary and a director in Mt. Sinai Hospital; was also honorary secretary and a director in Hebrew Technical Institute for two years. Composed the opera "The Lady or the Tiger," produced originally by the McCaull Opera Company, and again later by the De Wolff Hopper Company; also composer of many sacred and other musical compositions. Member Manhattan Club and Association of the Bar of the City of New York.

M

MABIE, HAMILTON WRIGHT—Editor, 287 Fourth avenue, New York City. Born in Cold Spring, N. Y., Dec. 13, 1845. Educated at Williams College (A.B., A.M. and L.H.D.) and at Columbia College Law School (LL.B.) Associate editor of "The Outlook." Trustee Williams College and Barnard College. Author of "Essays on Work and Culture," "Essays on Books and Culture," "Essays on Nature and Culture," "My Study Fire," "Short Studies in Literature," "Essays on Literary Interpretation" and other works. Member Barnard, Alpha Delta Phi and Authors' Clubs and Century, Williams College Alumni and Aldine Associations.

MACARTHUR, JAMES—Editor, 151 Fifth avenue, New York City; residence Madison, N. J. Born in Glasgow, Scotland, Feb. 18, 1866. Educated in Glasgow. (Married.) Came to the United States in 1888. Editor of "The Bookman" since 1894; also general literary adviser of Dodd, Mead & Co. Dramatized Ian Maclaren's "Beside the Bonnie Brier Bush."

MACARTHUR, JOHN R.—Lawyer, 18 Wall street, New York City. Born in Mount Morris, Livingston Co., N. Y., 1862. Educated at Harvard University and Law School. (Married Pauline Amours.) Has been secretary to United States Legation at Madrid; assistant secretary Paris Peace Commission, and secretary and counsel to Philippines Commission. Member Harvard and Social Reform Clubs and Association of the Bar of the City of New York.

MACARTHUR, ROBERT STUART—Baptist Clergyman, 358 West 57th street, New York City. Born in Dalesville, Canada, July 31, 1841. Educated at Woodstock Literary Institute in Canada, at Rochester University and at Rochester Theological Seminary (D.D.). Degree of LL.D. from Columbian University, Washington, D. C. Was editor of "Baptist Quarterly" and "Christian Inquirer;" director Jennie Clarkson Home for Children, and for eighteen years weekly correspondent of the "Chicago Standard." Pastor of Calvary Baptist Church; trustee Rochester University. Author of five volumes of sermons and many other works. Member Patria, Psi Upsilon and Lotos Clubs and Baptist Social Union.

MACCAUD, FRANCIS W.—Protestant Episcopal Clergyman, Whitney Point. Born in Ireland. Educated at University of Dublin ('89). Deacon, 1895; priest, 1897. Rector Grace Church at Whitney Point. Author of "God in Science."

MACCLEAN, EDWARD A.—Banker, 36 Wall street, New York City; residence Glen Ridge, N. J. Director Alaskan and Dominion Construction and Development Co., American Drug and Chemical Co., Bohn & Co., Northern Finance Co., San Domingo Finance Co., San Domingo Improvement Co. and Saranac Land and Timber Co.

MAC COUN, TOWNSEND—Author and Manufacturer, 45 Broadway, New York City; residence 251 West 81st street. Born in Troy, N. Y., 1845. Educated at Williams College under Dr. Hopkins. (Married.) Secretary and treasurer Horton Basket Machine Co. Author of historical geography charts of the United States, used in four thousand high schools and colleges, and historical geography charts of Europe, used in five hundred colleges and advanced schools. Member American Geographical Society and American Historical Association.

MACCRACKEN, HENRY MITCHELL—College President, University Heights, New York City; residence "Overbrook," Pine Hill. Born in Oxford, Ohio, Sept. 28, 1840. Educated at Miami University, United Presbyterian Theological Seminary, Princeton Theological Seminary and at the Universities of Tübingen and Berlin, Germany. Degrees of D.D. from University of Wittenberg in 1878 and LL.D. from Miami University in 1887. (Married Catherine Hubbard of Columbus, Ohio, 1872.) Held several pastorates in Ohio, 1863-80; chancellor Western University of Pennsylvania, 1880-4; vice-chancellor and professor of philosophy at New York University, 1884-91; Chancellor since 1891. Author of "A Metropolitan University," "Leaders of the Church Universal" and other works. Member Ohio Society and Presbyterian Union.

MACDONA, HENRY D.—Lawyer, 31 Nassau street, New York City; residence Dongan and Caxton streets. Born in New York City, 1854. Educated at Columbia and Manhattan Colleges. (Single.) Counsel Metropolitan Street Ry. Co.; director American Mail Steamship Co. and American Indies Co. Member Catholic, Larchmont Yacht, Manhattan, New York Yacht and Knollwood Country Clubs and Association of the Bar of the City of New York.

MACDONALD, BENJAMIN J.—Treasurer, 73 Water street, Newburgh; residence Newburgh. Born in New York City, March 8, 1860. Educated in Newburgh public schools and Free Academy. (Married.) Treasurer Consumers' Gas Co.; director Building and Loan Association of Newburgh. Junior member of the firm of Logan & Macdonald. Regents' examiner of the University of the State of New York for St. Mary's Academy, Newburgh. Member Newburgh City Club, Newburgh Wheelmen, Catholic Club of New York City, and American Gas Light Association.

MACDONALD, CARLOS F.—Physician, 85 Madison avenue, New York City; residence Pleasantville. Born in Niles, Trumbull Co., Ohio, Aug. 29, 1845. Educated in Ohio public and high schools, at Iron City College in Pittsburg, and at Bellevue Hospital Medical College ('69) in New York City. (Married.) Served in Civil War with Sixth Ohio Volunteer Cavalry; on the staff of the Kings County Hospital at Flatbush, 1869-70; assistant physician in Flatbush Insane Asylum, 1870-3; superintendent of same, 1873-5; superintendent of the Auburn State Asylum, 1875-7; one of the managers of the State Inebriate Asylum at Binghamton (by appointment of Governor Robinson), 1877-80; again superintendent of the Auburn Asylum, 1881-9; president of the newly-created State Commission in Lunacy (by appointment of Governor Hill), 1889 to serve six years; re-appointed by Governor Morton, 1895; resigned in 1896; lecturer on insanity in Albany Medical College for two years. Now professor of mental diseases and medical jurisprudence in the University and Bellevue Hospital Medical College, with which he has been connected for fifteen years, and proprietor of Dr. MacDonald's Home, a sanitarium for the insane at Pleasantville. Has revised the plans of all new hospital buildings erected by the State since 1891; attended and reported to the Governor the early electrical executions; has served on many special commissions in lunacy, and contributed numerous articles to the literature of mental diseases. Member New York County Medical and New York State Medical Societies, American Medico-Psychological Association and many others.

MacDONALD, CHARLES—Civil Engineer, 1 Broadway, New York City; residence 247 Fifth avenue. Educated at Rensselaer Polytechnic Institute ('57). Member Engineers', University, Lawyers', Union, Church and Players' Clubs, American Society of Civil Engineers, American Society of Mechanical Engineers, Century Association and Metropolitan Museum of Art.

MACDONALD, GEORGE ALEXANDER—Lawyer, 15 Wall street, New York City. (Son of Alexander and Janet Campbell [Erschine] Macdonald.) Educated at Columbia College (B.S., '91) and at New York University Law School. Practicing in New York City since his admission to the Bar in 1892. (Single.) Author of "How Successful Lawyers Were Educated" (1896). Member Delta Upsilon, Essex County (N. J.)

Country and Delta Chi Clubs, New York University Alumni and University Law School Alumni Associations, Society of American Authors and Kane Lodge, F. & A. M.

MACDONALD, GORDON—Banker, 30 Broad street, New York City; residence Hartsdale. Vice-president and trustee Continental Trust Co.; vice-president and director Nicaragua Co.; secretary and director Frankfort American Insurance Co. Member Down Town and Century Associations.

MACDONALD, JAMES A.—Insurance, 43 Cedar street, New York City; residence Flushing, L. I. Born in New York City, March 16, 1844. Educated at Columbia ('63) and Yale. (Married.) President and director Queen Insurance Co.; vice-president and director United Verde and Pacific Ry. Co., United Verde Copper Co. and Waclark Wire Co. Member University and Players' Clubs and Down Town Association.

MACDONALD, JOSEPH, JR.—Publisher, 100 William street, New York City; residence Newark, N. J. Born in Branchville, Sussex Co., N. J., 1869. Educated in New Jersey. (Married.) Delegate to International Medical Publishers' Congress, Paris, June, 1900. Secretary and director International Journal of Surgery Co. Member Drug Trade Club, New York Medico-Legal Society and New York State Association of Railway Surgeons (honorary).

MACDONALD, WILLIAM H.—Opera Singer and Manager, 1440 Broadway, New York City. Born in Steubenville, Ohio. Received a musical education in England, Germany and Italy. Made first professional appearance in Italy in "Il Trovatore"; continued in Italian opera until he became a member of the Emma Abbott Co. Organized in 1887 and is still with "The Bostonians." Member Lambs' Club.

MACDONOUGH, JAMES—President, 86 Trinity place, New York City; residence Hotel Majestic. President and director American Bank Note Co. Member Lawyers' Club and American Geographical Society.

MACDOUGAL, DANIEL T.—Botanist, Bronx Park, New York City. Born in Liberty, Ind., March 16, 1865. Educated at DePauw University (A.B., '90, and A.M., '94), Purdue University (M.S., '91, and Ph.D., '97), and at Tubingen and Leipzig, Germany. (Married Louise Fisher of Cincinnati, Ohio, 1893.) Agent of United States Department of Agriculture on explorations in Arizona and Idaho, 1891-2; instructor in plant physiology at University of Minnesota, 1893-5; professor of same, 1895-9. Director New York Botanical Gardens since 1899. Frequent contributor to scientific journals.

MACDOUGALL, CLINTON D.—Manufacturer of Agricultural Implements, Auburn. Born in Glasgow, Scotland, June 14, 1839. Educated in Canada at Jordan Academy. Served with New York Volunteers during Civil War; was brevetted brigadier-general for gallantry in action; commanded a brigade in the Army of the Potomac. Postmaster of Auburn, 1869-73; Congressman, 1873-17; United States Marshal for Northern District of New York, 1877-85; Presidential Elector, 1888. Declined appointment as Treasurer of the United States and other important positions.

MACDOWELL, EDWARD ALEXANDER—Musician, 116th street and Morningside Heights, New York City; residence Hotel Majestic. Born in New York City, Dec. 18, 1861. Received a musical education in Europe and degree of Mus. Doc. Returned to New York City in 1888. Professor of music at Columbia University. Well known as a composer and as a concert pianist. Member Mendelssohn Glee Club.

MACDUFFIE, RUFUS L.—Railway Equipment Merchant, 26 Cortlandt street, New York City; residence 571 Park avenue. Born in Cambridge, Mass., Dec. 30, 1866. Educated at Harvard ('90). (Married.) Member of the firm of Wendell & MacDuffie. President Rockland Cemetery Co.; director Houghton County Street Ry. Co. Member Harvard University, University Glee, Transportation, Seawanhaka-Corinthian Yacht and Oyster Bay Yacht Clubs, Graduates' Club of New Haven, Conn., New England Society and Sons of the American Revolution.

MACFADDEN, BERNARR A.—Editor, Lecturer and Inventor, 88 Gold street, New York City. Born near Mill Springs, Mo., Aug. 16, 1868. Educated in common schools. (Single.) Editor of "Physical Culture" and of "Macfadden's Physical Culture Monthly," London, England. Inventor of various devices for exercise. Was an athlete of prominence in the wrestling arena, 1890-2. Author of "Macfadden's Physical Training."

MACFARLAND, WILLIAM W.—Lawyer, 22 William street, New York City; residence Arrochar, Richmond Borough. Member Manhattan, Richmond County Country and Metropolitan Clubs, Down Town Association, and Association of the Bar of the City of New York.

MACFARLANE, WALLACE—Lawyer, 32 Liberty street, New York City; residence 80 Washington square, East. Born in Canada. Educated at Harvard ('79). Formerly United States District Attorney for the Southern District of New York, by appointment of President Cleveland. Member University, Reform and Harvard Clubs and Association of the Bar of the City of New York.

MACGREGOR, WALTER I.—Lawyer, 28 Snow Building, Syracuse; residence 200 Woodland avenue. Born in Madison County, N. Y., June 23, 1846. Educated at Cornell (A.B., '68, and A.M., '71). (Married.) Chairman legislative and law committee of New York State Fish, Game and Forest League. Member Alpha Delta Phi, Cornell University and Citizen's Clubs.

MACGREGOR, WILLARD H.—Mechanical and Electrical Engineer, 136 Liberty street, New York City; residence 359 West 27th street. Born in New York City, May 3, 1865. Educated at the College of the City of New York and Stevens Institute of Technology. (Single.) General Eastern agent, and manager of New York office, of Cutler-Hammer Mfg Co. of Milwaukee, Wis.; director Teachers' Co-operative Building and Loan Association of New York. Was assistant superintendent and sales agent Ward-Leonard Electric Co. of Bronxville. Member Mendelssohn Glee Club, Musical Art and New York Electrical Societies, American Institute of Electrical Engineers and Tau Beta Pi Fraternity.

MACGREGOR, WILLIAM ALEXANDER—Teacher, 510 Fifth avenue, New York City; residence Englewood, N. J. Born in Dumburtonshire, Scotland, Sept. 21, 1848. (Son of Captain A. W. R. MacGregor of the British Army.) Came to the United States in 1865. Educated at Phillips Exeter Academy. (Single.) Member Democratic, Englewood (N. J.) Field and Englewood Golf Clubs, Chancellor Walworth Lodge, Triune Chapter Palestine Commandery, Mecca Temple, and a thirty-second degree Mason.

MACHEN, E. C.—Railroad Builder and Operator, 293 Broadway, New York City. Born in Kentucky, Jan. 11, 1847. Educated in country schools. (Single.) President and director Alabama River Barge Line and R. R. Co. and Inter State Finance Co.; vice-president Inter State Typewriter Co.; director Ferguson Contracting Co.

MACK, ARTHUR J.—Manufacturer, 627 Broadway, New York City; residence 304 West 85th street. Born in Milwaukee, Wis., Sept. 5, 1862. Educated in Stuttgart, Germany, and at College of the City of New York. (Married.) Vice-president and director Standard Summer Neckwear Co.

MACK, HARRY W.—Publisher, 11 John street, New York City; residence 204 West 86th street. Born in Cincinnati, Ohio, March 13, 1861. Educated at College of the City of New York and Harvard. (Widower.) President and director Trades Weekly Co.; director Rheinstein Dry Goods Co.; also connected with Jewelers' Circular Publishing Co. Member Reform, Harvard and Phi Beta Kappa Clubs and Association of the Bar of the City of New York.

MACK, JACOB W.—Publisher, 58 William street, New York City; residence 129 West 75th street. Secretary and director Underwriter Printing and Publishing Co.; director "Weekly Underwriter" Co. Member Reform Club, American Geographical Society, Metropolitan Museum of Art and American Museum of Natural History.

MACK, NORMAN EDWARD—Editor and Publisher, 193 Main street, Buffalo; residence 1106 Delaware avenue. Born in West Williams, Ontario, Canada, July 24, 1855. Educated in common schools. (Married Harriet B. Taggart of Buffalo.) Editor and publisher "Buffalo Times." Established the Buffalo "Sunday Times" in 1879 and the "Daily Times" in 1883. Delegate to National Democratic Conventions of 1892, 1896 and 1900.

MACK, WILLIAM R.—Manufacturer, 18 Brown's Race, Rochester; residence 22 Cumberland street. Born in Oswego, N. Y., July 30, 1851. (Single.) Member of the firm of Mack & Co. Member Adirondack League Club.

MACKAY, ARCHIBALD K.—Real Estate, 6 Wall street, New York City; residence 104 East 36th street. Educated at Harvard. Member Harvard, Knickerbocker and Delta Phi Clubs.

MACKAY, CHARLES C.—Secretary, 45 Broadway, New York City; residence Bay Ridge. Secretary, treasurer and director Randolph Water Co.; secretary American Linoleum Mfg Co. Member Ridge Club of Bay Ridge, and Crescent Athletic Club of Brooklyn.

MACKAY, CLARENCE H.—Capitalist, 253 Broadway, New York City; residence Westbury, L. I. (Married.) President and director American Forcite Powder Mfg Co. and Commercial Cable Co. of Cuba; vice-president and director Commercial Cable Co.; director Postal Telegraph Cable Co., Commercial Cable and Telegraph Co. and Queens County Horse Show. Member Lawyers', Union, Metropolitan, Hardware, Racquet and Tennis, Carteret Gun, Atlantic Yacht and New York Yacht Clubs, Country Club of Westchester, and Metropolitan Museum of Art.

MACKAY, HENRY—Carpet Merchant, 82 Worth street, New York City; residence 73d street and Shore Road, Brooklyn. Vice-president, treasurer and director American Linoleum Mfg Co. Member Crescent Athletic, and Riding and Driving Clubs of Brooklyn. Merchants' Club of New York City, and Ridge Club of Bay Ridge.

MACKAY, JOHN WILLIAM—Capitalist, 253 Broadway, New York City; residence 6 Carleton terrace, London, England, and San Francisco, Cal. Born in Dublin, Ireland, Nov. 28, 1831. Educated in New York City; learned ship-building trade. Went to California in 1851, and to Nevada in 1860, and engaged in mining. Established (with Messrs. Flood and Fair) the Nevada Bank in San Francisco and is still its president; also established (with James Gordon Bennett) the Commercial Cable Co. President and director Postal Telegraph Cable Co. Member Lawyers', Players' and Hardware Clubs and American Geographical Society.

MACEY, CHARLES WILLIAM—Lawyer, 253 Broadway, New York City; residence 5 East 17th street. Born in Franklin, Pa., Nov. 19, 1842. Educated in Franklin. (Married.) Was president and solicitor Pittsburg, Bradford and Buffalo R. R. Co. and Norfolk, Albemarle and Atlantic R. R. Co.; president Columbia Gas Light and Fuel Co.; vice-president and solicitor Cincinnati and Southeastern R. R. Co., and Olean, Bradford and Warren R. R. Co.; vice-president and director Firth-Sterling Steel Co.; special agent United States Treasury; mayor, solicitor and councilman of Franklin, Pa.; commander Knights Templar; deputy grand master, Masons and Royal Arch Masons; commander G. A. R.; attorney Allegheny Valley R. R. Co. and Pittsburg and Western R. R. Co.; director Savings and Exchange Banks of Franklin, Pa., and others. Now president and director Franklin Steel Casting Co.; Tripod Pole Co. and Indiana Central Ry. Co.; vice-president and director Wheeler-Sterling Projectile Co. and New York Connecting Ry. Co.; solicitor and director Pennsylvania Mining and Milling Co. and Mogul Tunnel and Transportation Co.; director American Axe and Tool Co.; solicitor Colorado and Northwestern Ry. Co. Member Army and Navy, New York, Hardware and Colonial Clubs, Duquesne Club of Pittsburg, Nursery Club of Franklin, Pa., Grosvenor Club of London, England, Military Order of the Loyal Legion and Fellow American Geographical Society.

MACEY, OSCAR T.—Builder, 237 West 50th street, New York City; residence 165 West 81st street. Member Colonial, New York Athletic, Building Trades and Carteret Gun Clubs, Aldine Association, Metropolitan Museum of Art and American Museum of Natural History.

MACEY, WILLIAM FLEMING—State Senator, Senate Chamber, Albany, and Lawyer, 1020 Prudential Building, Buffalo. Born in Albion, Orleans Co., N. Y., January, 1858. Studied law in the office of Ellsworth, Potter & Brundage of Lockport, and was admitted to the Bar in 1879. (Married Ella L. Robinson, 1877.) Practicing in Buffalo since 1882. Was president of the Cleveland Democracy during the campaigns of 1888 and 1892. Received an appointment as assistant city attorney in 1888 and as Assistant United States District Attorney in 1893; held the latter position until 1897, when he retired to form the law partnership of Mackey & Bell, of which firm he is still the senior member. Now represents the Forty-seventh District in the State Senate.

MACKIE, DAVID IVES—Lawyer, 43 Cedar street, New York City; residence 233 West 83d street. Born in Great Barrington, Mass., Feb. 6, 1862. Educated at Harvard. (Married.) Member Harvard and University Clubs and New England Society.

MACKINTOSH, ALEXANDER—Architect, 71 Broadway, New York City; residence 132 Remsen street, Brooklyn. Born and educated in Inverness, Scotland. (Single.) Member Crescent Athletic Club of Brooklyn, Architectural League and associate member Royal Institute of British Architects.

MACKINTOSH, ROBERT W.—Decorator and Designer, 420 Broome street, New York City; residence 530 Monroe avenue, Elizabeth, N. J. Born in New York City, 1860. Educated in New Jersey. (Single.) Designer-in-chief for Nevius & Haviland. (Member Town and Country, and Mattano Clubs of Elizabeth, Balustrad Golf Club of Milburn, N. J., Cyclists Touring Club of England, and Kappa Alpha Fraternity.)

MACLAY, ALFRED B.—Banker, 234 Fifth avenue, New York City; residence 50 West 57th street. Secretary and treasurer Knickerbocker Trust Co.; director Northern Dispensary. Member Calumet and Riding Clubs.

MACLAY, EDGAR STANTON—Author, Old Field Point, Setauket, L. I. Born in Foo Chow, China, April 18, 1863. Educated at Syracuse University (A.B. and A.M.). (Married.) Reporter on "Brooklyn Times," 1886-90; on New York "Tribune," 1890-3; on editorial staff of "Tribune," 1893-5; on New York "Sun," 1895-6; became light-house keeper at Old Field Point in 1896; has since devoted his time to historical work. Author of "The History of the United States Navy," "Reminiscences of the Old Navy" and "The History of American Privateers."

MACLAY, ISAAC W.—Real Estate, 44 Pine street, New York City; residence 304 Palisade avenue, Yonkers. Educated at New York Military Academy. President and director MacLay & Davies Real Estate Co.; vice-president and director Pelhamdale Land Co. Member Delta Phi Club, New York Historical Society, Society of the War of 1812, Sons of the Revolution and New York Military Academy Alumni Association.

MACLAY, MARK WALTON—Merchant, 56 Beaver street, New York City; residence 13 West 31st street. Born and educated in New York City. (Married.) Member of the firm of Jeremiah P. Robinson & Co. Treasurer and director Cayuga Lake Salt Co.; director National Salt Co.; trustee Bowery Savings Bank. Member Manhattan and Calumet Clubs and Down Town Association.

MACLAY, WILLIAM WALKER—Civil Engineer, 44 Pine street, New York City; residence Glens Falls. Born in New York City, March 27, 1846. Educated at United States Naval Academy and at New York University (C.E., '73). (Married Marian Bensel of New York City, 1874.) Served throughout Civil War; promoted to lieutenant, Nov. 10, 1865, and lieutenant-commander, March 12, 1868. Became assistant professor of mathematics at United States Naval Academy, but resigned to study civil engineering; was connected with the New York City Department of Docks for several years. President and manager Glens Falls Portland Cement Co.; director Standard Silica Cement Co. Member Manhattan Club, Institution of Civil Engineers of London, England, and American Society of Civil Engineers.

MACLEAN, CHARLES F.—Supreme Court Justice, County Court House, New York City; residence 2122 Fifth avenue. Born in New York City, 1847. Educated in public schools, at Sheffield Scientific School of Yale University, and at the University of Berlin, Germany. (Married.) Police commissioner, New York City, 1879-80; park commissioner, 1880-83; again police commissioner, 1888-94 and president of the Board, 1889-90; health commissioner, 1889-90. Justice of the Supreme Court of New York since 1896; term expires Dec. 31, 1909. Member Manhattan, Lawyers', Democratic, Barnard, New York Press, Collie, Reform, Lotos, Bull Dog, Knollwood Country, Yale, German Press and Phi Beta Kappa Clubs, Arion Society, Liederkranz, Yale Alumni Association, and Association of the Bar of the City of New York.

MACLEAN, SAMUEL R.—Fiscal Agent and Appraiser, 39 Broad street, New York City; residence Rye. Born in Pittsburg, Pa., April 5, 1842. Educated by private tutors and at Western University of Pennsylvania. Commercial College in Pittsburg. Williston Seminary in East Hampton, Mass., Phillips Andover Academy and at Yale ('65). (Married first, a daughter of Rev. Henry Wood, D.D.; second a daughter of Jas. Schoonmaker.) Special United States Fiscal Agent, 1869-70; pro tem. fiscal agent for presidents of the Pennsylvania, Union Pacific, Central Pacific, Northern Pacific, Central Iowa and Grand Rapids and Indiana Railroad Companies, and over one hundred others; trust officer American Loan and Trust Co., 1886-9; founder and president of the Franklin Literary Society of Pittsburg; has large clientele abroad whom he has visited tri-annually since 1877. Author of letters, published in London in 1896, "The Real Existing Fiscal and Political Factors in the United States of America" and of "Practical System for Improving the Existing United States Currency, etc." adopted by the Indianapolis National Convention, 1896. Member Commercial Club, Apawamis Club of Rye, and Yale and Phillips Andover Alumni Associations; non-resident member Junior Carleton, City, Gresham and Junior Constitutional Clubs of London, England, and various clubs and societies in San Francisco, Glasgow, Belfast, Amsterdam, Frankfort-on-the-Main, Berlin, Basle and other European cities.

MACNARY, JAMES M. B.—Retired Druggist, Union League Club, Brooklyn. Born in Springfield, Mass., Sept. 2, 1827. Educated in Springfield. (Widower.) Ex-director State Bank of Hartford, Conn. Founded firm of Lord, Huntington & MacNary in New York City in 1864, and was their domestic and foreign buyer, 1877-90. Assisted in organizing Apollo Club. Life member board of trustees of Hartford Hospital. Member Union League and Aurora Grata, Masonic Clubs.

MACNAUGHTON, JAMES—Civil Engineer, 1 Broadway, New York City, and 86 State street, Albany; residence University Club, New York City, and 248 State street, Albany. Member University Club, American Institute of Mining Engineers and American Society of Civil Engineers.

MACNAUGHTON, WILLIAM—Builder and General Contractor, 253 Broadway, New York City; residence 105 East 19th street. Born in Brooklyn, N. Y. President and director New York Wood Warehouse Co. Was formerly connected with the John H. Parker Co. Member New York Athletic Club, Chamber of Commerce and Squadron "A," N. G. N. Y.

MACRAE, JOHN—Broker, 6 Wall street, New York City; residence Clifton, S. I. Born in Renfrew, Scotland, Nov. 27, 1857. Educated at High School of Paisley, Scotland. (Married.) Member of the firm of Henry V. Brandenburg & Co. Ex-secretary and ex-general manager American Employers' Liability Insurance Co. Member Brooklyn Yacht and Atlantic Yacht Clubs and St. Andrew's and New York Scottish Societies.

MACVEAGH, CHARLES—Lawyer, 15 Broad street, New York City; residence Morristown, N. J. Born in West Chester, Pa., June 6, 1860. Educated at Phillips Exeter Academy ('77), Harvard ('81) and Columbia Law School. (Married Fanny Davenport Rogers.) Member of the firm of Stetson, Jennings & Russell. First vice-president and director Federal Steel Co. Member University, Lawyers', Harvard and Church Clubs and Association of the Bar of the City of New York.

MACY, CHARLES A., JR.—Banker, 11 Pine street, New York City; residence 208 West 45th street. Member of the firm of Macy Bros. & Herbert, and of the New York Stock Exchange. Member Delta Phi, Union, Westminster Kennel, Racquet and Tennis, and New York Athletic Clubs, Down Town and Century Associations, American Institute of Mining Engineers, Metropolitan Museum of Art and National Academy of Design.

MACY, GEORGE H.—Tea Importer, 142 Pearl street, New York City; residence 22 Riverside avenue. Director Commonwealth Insurance Co. and Pacific Mail Steamship Co.; trustee Atlantic Mutual Insurance Co. and Seamen's Bank of Savings. Member Union League, City and Colonial Clubs and Down Town Association.

MACY, ISAAC AUGUSTUS—Merchant, 66½ Pine street, New York City; residence 232 West 138th street. Member of the firm of Macy & Dunham. Member Colonial Club, American Geographical and New England Societies, Metropolitan Museum of Art and American Museum of Natural History.

MADDEN, JOHN P.—Commissioner, Hackett Building, Fifth street and Jackson avenue, Long Island City; residence 27 Ely avenue. Born, 1863. Served as a member of the New York State Assembly for one term; Democratic Presidential Elector in 1896. Deputy commissioner of highways and street cleaning for the Borough of Queens since 1898.

MADDEN, WILLIAM JAY—Life Insurance, 120 Broadway, New York City; residence 220 Garfield place, Brooklyn. Born in Philadelphia, Pa., June 15, 1856. Educated in Philadelphia. (Married.) Connected with the Equitable Life Assurance Society of the United States since 1876; also interested in various fire insurance companies. Member Insurance Club and Assurance Association.

MADDOCK, WILLIAM S.—Jeweler, 15 Union square, West, New York City; residence 468 Washington avenue, Brooklyn. Born in New York City, Jan. 30, 1854. Educated at Burlington (N. J.) Academy and at Trinity College, Hartford, Conn. (Single.) Connected with the firm of Tiffany & Co. Member Trinity College Alumni Association and Brooklyn Institute of Arts and Sciences.

MADDOX, WILLIAM S.—Lawyer, 35 Nassau street, New York City; residence Montclair, N. J. Born in Brooklyn, N. Y., Dec. 27, 1863. (Married.) Member of the firm of Hotchkiss & Maddox.

MAGEE, GEORGE JEFFERSON—Capitalist, Watkins. Born in Bath, N. Y., March 17, 1840. Educated at Princeton. Appointed Paymaster-General of New York by Governor Hoffman in 1869. Ex-president and director Fall Brook Coal Co., Blossburg and Corning R. R. Co., Morris Run Coal Co., Tioga Improvement Co. and Syracuse, Geneva and Corning Ry. Co.; vice-president and director Pine Creek Ry. Co.; also director in many other corporations.

MAGEE, GEORGE W.—Chief Engineer (Retired), United States Navy, 187 Marcy avenue, Brooklyn. Member Lotos, Engineers, American Yacht and Larchmont Yacht Clubs and Military Order of the Loyal Legion.

MAGEE, JOHN—Capitalist, Corning; residence Watkins, and Union Club, New York City. Born in Watkins. Educated at Lawrenceville (N. J.) Academy and in Europe. (Married.) President and director Fall Brook Ry. Co., Fall Brook Coal Co., Morris Run Coal Co.; vice-president and director L., G. and C. Ry. Co. and Pine Creek Ry. Co.; director Knickerbocker Trust Co., Terminal Dock Co. and North River

Coal and Wharf Co. Member Corning Club, Calumet, Union, Racquet and Tennis, Lawyers' and Strollers' Clubs of New York City, Jekyl Island Club of North Carolina, Elmira City and Country Clubs of Elmira, and Ardsley Casino of Ardsley-on-Hudson.

MAGER, GEORGE J.—Merchant, Cortland; residence 26 Lincoln avenue. Born in France, May 8, 1837. Educated in France and America. (Married.) Director National Bank of Cortland; member Board of Education.

MAGINNIS, WILLIAM H.—Lawyer, 253 Broadway, New York City; residence 67 West 104th street. Born in Jersey City, N. J., Sept. 10, 1867. Educated at Stevensdale Institute and Columbia Law School. (Married.) Member of the firm of Maginnis & Blackwell. Director Erie Transfer Co.

MAGONIGLE, J. HENRY—Superintendent, 16 Gramercy Park, New York City; residence 140 West 127th street. Born in New York City, 1830. Educated at Collegiate School. (Married.) Superintendent Players' Club since its incorporation in 1888. Business manager for the late Mr. Edwin Booth for twelve years at Winter Garden Theatre and Booth's Theatre. For ten years with the Stewart estate with the late Judge Henry Hilton. Member Dunlap and Shakespeare Societies.

MAGOUN, FRANCIS P.—Broker, 44 Wall street, New York City; residence Babylon, L. I. Educated at Harvard ('90). Member of the New York Stock Exchange firm of Magoun Bros. & Co. Member Harvard, Players', Carteret Gun and New York Yacht Clubs and Down Town Association.

MAGOUN, GEORGE BUTLER—Broker, 44 Wall street, New York City; residence Babylon, L. I. Born in New York City, Jan. 26, 1870. Educated at Harvard. (Married.) Member of the firm of Magoun Bros. & Co., and of the New York Stock Exchange. Vice-president Acme Ball-Bearing Caster Co. Formerly secretary and treasurer New York and New Jersey Bridge Co. of New Jersey. Member Harvard, Racquet and Tennis, New York Yacht, Westminster Kennel, Carteret, Manhattan Chess and Luncheon Clubs and others.

MAGOUN, GEORGE C.—Banker, 15 Wall street, New York City; residence 50 West 54th street. Connected with the New York Stock Exchange firm of Baring, Magoun & Co. Member Riding Club and New England Society.

MAGRATH, WILLIAM—Artist, 11 East 14th street, New York City. Born in County Cork, Ireland, March 20, 1838. Resident of the United States since 1855. Member American Water Color Society and National Academy of Design.

MAHAN, ALFRED T. (Captain)—Author and Retired Naval Officer, 160 West 86th street, New York City. Born in West Point, N. Y., Sept. 27, 1840. Educated at United States Naval Academy. Degrees of D.C.L. from Oxford, England, 1894, and LL.D. from Cambridge, England, 1894, Harvard, 1895, and Yale in 1897. (Married.) Appointed to Navy, 1856; lieutenant, 1861; lieutenant-commander, 1865; commander, 1872; captain, 1885; retired, 1896. Served throughout Civil War, and, after the war, in South Atlantic, Pacific, Asiatic and European squadrons; member Naval Advisory Board during Spanish-American War. Appointed (by President McKinley) one of the delegates to the Peace Conference at The Hague, Holland, 1899. Author of "Life of Nelson," "The Influence of Sea Power Upon History," "Life of Admiral Farragut" and others. Member University and Church Clubs and Century Association.

MAHANY, ROWLAND B.—Litterateur, Buffalo. Born in Buffalo, Sept. 28, 1864. Educated at Harvard ('88). Delivered the poem at the unveiling of the monument of the 9th Regiment New York Volunteers at Gettysburg, July 1, 1888. Secretary of Legation to Chili, 1890; United States Minister to Ecuador, 1892; represented the Thirty-second District in the Fifty-Fourth and Fifty-fifth Congresses, 1895-8. Member Ellicott Club.

MAHONY, DANIEL P.—Lawyer, 156 Broadway, New York City; residence 229 East 30th street. Born in New York City, Nov. 27, 1855. Educated at the College of the City of New York ('75) and Columbia Law School ('77). (Married.)

MAILLER, WILLIAM HENRY—Shipping Merchant, 35 South William street, New York City; residence New Brunswick, N. J. Born in Cornwall, N. Y., Feb. 4, 1823. Educated in public and night schools. (Married Julia Frances Davis, 1846.) Engaged in shipping and commission trade in New York City since 1850. Member of the firm of Mailier & Quereau. President and director United States-Australasia Steamship Co.

MAIRS, GEORGE HOPE—Broker, 31 Broad street, New York City; residence Gilford House, Irvington. Member of the firm of Thompson & Mairs, members of the New York Stock Exchange. Member Union, Harvard, Racquet and Tennis and New York Yacht Clubs, Country Club of Westchester, and Athletic Club of Boston, Mass.

MAIRS, JAMES H.—Wall Paper Manufacturer, 66 Sackett street, Brooklyn; residence 165 Carroll street. Member Crescent Athletic Club, and Ardsley Club of Ardsley-on-Hudson.

MAIRS, JOHN D.—Wall Paper Manufacturer, 66 Sackett street, Brooklyn; residence 165 Carroll street. Member Crescent Athletic Club, and Ardsley Club of Ardsley-on-Hudson.

MAITLAND, ALEXANDER—Manufacturer of Varnishes and Colors, 45 Broadway, New York City; residence 14 East 55th street. President and director Edward Smith & Co.; president, treasurer and trustee New York City Marble Cemetery. Member Reform, City, New York Yacht and Atlantic Yacht Clubs, American Fine Arts and American Geographical Societies, Down Town and Century Associations, National Academy of Design, Metropolitan Museum of Art and American Museum of Natural History.

MAJOR, CHARLES CURTIS—Instructor, Cornell University, Ithaca; residence 110 Hudson street. Degree of M.E. Instructor in experimental engineering at Cornell University.

MAKLEY, JOHN F.—Insurance, 149 Broadway, New York City; residence 908 West End avenue. Born in Virginia, April 17, 1848. Educated in a high school and at Cornell. (Married.) General agent National Life Insurance Co. of Montpelier, Vt. Officer of National Association of Life Underwriters and several other New York Institutions. Member Colonial and four other clubs and of all Masonic bodies in New York City.

MALCOLM, J. DOUGLAS—313 West 112th street, New York City. Born in New York City, Jan. 24, 1874. (Single.) Member Manuscript Club.

MALCOLM, PERCY E. D.—Physician, 118 Madison avenue, New York City. Born in New Providence, Nassau, Bahamas, 1870. Educated at Bellevue Medical College (M.D., '93). (Married.) Member Reform Club and New York County Medical Society.

MALCOM, GEORGE IDE—Banker and Broker, 4 Wall street, New York City; residence Nutley, N. J. Educated at Brown ('79). Member of the firm of Malcom & Coome, and of the New York Stock Exchange. Member University and Alpha Delta Phi Clubs, and Brown University Alumni Association.

MALE, WILLIAM H.—Capitalist, 30 Broad street, New York City; residence 135 Clinton avenue, Brooklyn. President and director Union Ferry Co. of New York and Brooklyn; vice-president and director Chambersburg and Gettysburg R. R. Co. and Keystone Seal and Press Co.; treasurer and director Union Brass Co. of Bridgeport, Conn.; director American Automatic Weighing Machine Co. (Ltd.), Chicago, St. Louis and St. Paul Ry. Co., East Shore Terminal R. R. Co., Genesee Salt Co., Kings County Fire Insurance Co., St. Louis, Chicago and St. Paul Ry. Co. of Illinois, and Wallabout Bank of Brooklyn; trustee Brooklyn Trust Co. Member City Club, Hamilton Club of Brooklyn, Down Town Association and Military Order of the Loyal Legion.

MALI, HENRY W. T.—Woolen Merchant, 83 Worth street, New York City; residence 153 West 75th street. Senior member of the firm of Henry W. T. Mali & Co. Director Knickerbocker Trust Co. Member Union, Knickerbocker, Union League, Metropolitan, Merchants', New York Yacht and Seawanhaka-Corinthian Yacht Clubs, American Geographical Society and Lafayette Post, G. A. R.

MALI, PIERRE—Woolen Merchant and Belgian Consul, 83 Worth street, New York City; residence 8 Fifth avenue. Born in Verviers, Belgium, 1856. Educated in Belgium at the University of Liège (78). (Married.) Member of the firm of Henry W. T. Mali & Co. Vice-president and director Dolphin Jute Mills; treasurer and director Lafayette Worsted Co. Member Tuxedo, Merchants', University and Reform Clubs.

MALKIEL, LEON A.—Lawyer, 99 Nassau street, New York City; residence 127 East 108th street. Born in Moscow, Russia, Aug. 1, 1866. Educated in gymnasiums in Russia, and at New York University Law School ('96). (Single.) Practicing in New York City since his admission to the Bar in 1898. Recording secretary Socialist Labor Party.

MALLET-PREVOST, SEVERO—Lawyer, 30 Broad street, New York City; residence 38 West 45th street. Born in Mexico, Oct. 8, 1860. Educated at the University of Pennsylvania ('81). (Married.) Member of the firm of Curtis, Mallet-Prevost & Colt. Has been counsel at various times for the United States, Mexico, Venezuela, Spain, Italy and various other foreign governments. Member University Club, Down Town Association, and Association of the Bar of the City of New York.

MALLETT, DANIEL TROWBRIDGE—Editor and Publisher, 253 Broadway, New York City; residence 540 Ocean avenue, Brooklyn. Born in New Haven, Conn., April 16, 1862. (Son of Samuel Mallett, D.D.S., direct descendant of the Huguenot owner of the land now covered by Boston, and of the founders of New Rochelle. Ancestors were commissaries and generals in the Revolutionary War, and contributed considerable sums of money for the cause of freedom.) Educated at Hopkins Grammar School (Yale Preparatory). (Married Aline Rowland, 1890, whose direct ancestor was the first colonial Governor of Connecticut.) Founder and proprietor of the "Hardware Dealer's Magazine." Author of several books on business topics, etc. Member Hardware and Republican Clubs, and Knickerbocker Field Club of Brooklyn.

MALLETT, PERCY S.—Insurance Broker and Adjuster, 63 Wall street, New York City; residence 229 85th street, Brooklyn. Born in New Orleans, La., Jan. 18, 1856. Educated in private schools of New Orleans and Brooklyn. (Married.) Member of the firm of Hayward & Wrecks. Secretary and director Assured Building Loan Association. Formerly general adjuster of Norwich Union Fire Insurance Society. Member Marine and Field Club, Southern Society (secretary), and Down Town Association.

MALLETT, PETER—Storage, 68 Broad street, New York City; residence 65 West 69th street. Member Colonial Club, Marine and Field Club of Brooklyn, and Southern Society.

MALLON, GEORGE BARRY—Journalist, 168 Nassau street, New York City; residence 100 Woodlawn avenue, Residence Park, New Rochelle. Connected with the New York "Sun." Member Lotos Club and Amherst College Alumni Association.

MALLORY, CHARLES—Shipping Merchant, Pier 20, East River, New York City; residence 8 Montague terrace, Brooklyn, and Greenwich, Conn. Member of the firm of C. & H. R. Mallory. Director Mallory Steamship Line. Member Union League, Racquet and Tennis, and New York Yacht Clubs, and Crescent Athletic, Hamilton and Brooklyn Clubs of Brooklyn.

MALLORY, MARSHALL H.—Publisher, 47 Lafayette place, New York City; residence Bridgeport, Conn. Educated at Rensselaer Polytechnic Institute. President, treasurer and director Churchman Co., publishers of "The Churchman"; director Wheeler & Wilson Mfg Co. Member Church, Union League and Players' Clubs and Aldine Association.

MALLORY, ROLAND—Publisher, 47 Lafayette place, New York City; residence 227 Riverside Drive. Born in Bridgeport, Conn., April 6, 1870. Educated at Trinity College and at New York University. Secretary and director Churchman Co., publishers of "The Churchman." Member New York Athletic and Phi Delta Phi Clubs and Association of the Bar of the City of New York.

MALONE, JOHN—Actor, 20 Broad street, New York City; residence 16 Gramercy Park. Born in Westfield, Mass., Oct. 25, 1853. Educated at Santa Clara College, San Jose, Cal. (Married.) Member New York and California Bars, and the Bar of the United States Supreme Court. Assistant district attorney Santa Clara County, Cal., 1874-8. President Actors' Society of America, 1897. Has been leading man with Edwin Booth, Salvini, Mme. Modjeska, Mrs. Langtry, W. E. Sheridan, Rose Eytinge, Margaret Mather, Frederic Warde and Eleanor Calhoun. Member Players' Club, Bohemian Club of San Francisco, and American-Irish Historical and Dunlap Societies.

MALONE, WALTER—Author, 156 Fifth avenue, New York City. Born in De Soto County, Miss., Feb. 10, 1866. Educated at University of Mississippi. (Single.) Practiced law in Memphis, Tenn., 1887-97; since then in literary pursuits in New York City. Author of "The Outcast and Other Poems," "Songs of Dusk and Dawn," "Songs of December and June" and "The Coming of the King." Frequent contributor to periodicals.

MALONEY, WILLIAM P.—Lawyer, 63 Wall street, New York City; residence 80 Washington square, East. Born in Lockport, Niagara Co., N. Y., Oct. 15, 1867. Educated in public schools. (Single.) Member of the firm of Thompson & Maloney. Member New York Athletic and Manhattan Clubs.

MALTBY, ANSON—Lawyer, 48 Wall street, New York City; residence Fordham Heights. Born in Fleming County, Ky., Sept. 8, 1847. Educated in Massachusetts and at Columbia Law School. (Married.)

MAN, ALBON—Lawyer, 11 Broadway, New York City; residence Hotel St. George, Brooklyn. Educated at Union College. Member Union College Alumni Association and Association of the Bar of the City of New York.

MAN, ALRICK H.—Lawyer, 56 Wall street, New York City; residence Richmond Hill, L. I. Born in New York City, May 4, 1858. Educated at the College of the City of New York. (Married.) President Sea Beach Land Co., Phoenix Towing and Transportation Co. and Lawyers' Engineering and Surveying Co. Member Calumet, Mendelssohn Glee and Atlantic Yacht Clubs, Down Town Association and Association of the Bar of the City of New York.

MAN, ARTHUR—Lawyer, 56 Wall street, New York City; residence 100 East 17th street, and Lawrence, L. I. Educated at Columbia. Member Richmond Hill Golf and Alpha Delta Phi Clubs and Columbia University Alumni Association.

MAN, EDWARD—Lawyer, 56 Wall street, New York City; residence Lawrence, L. I. (Married.) Member of the firm of Man & Man. Secretary and treasurer Ironclad Asphalt Paving Co.

MAN, EDWARD A. S.—Lawyer, 206 Broadway, New York City; residence Bayonne, N. J. Born in Philadelphia, Pa., Dec. 27, 1844. Educated at Yale ('65), and University of Pennsylvania Law School ('67). (Single.) Member Alpha Delta Phi and Knickerbocker Athletic Clubs and Yale Alumni Association.

MAN, FREDERICK H.—Lawyer, 56 Wall street, New York City; residence 120 East 34th street. Member Union League Club, New England Society, Military Order of the Loyal Legion and Association of the Bar of the City of New York.

MAN, HENRY H.—Lawyer, 56 Wall street, New York City; residence 102 East 15th street. Member Union League, New York Athletic and Camera Clubs, Down Town Association and Association of the Bar of the City of New York.

MAN, WILLIAM—Lawyer, 56 Wall street, New York City; residence 19 West Tenth street. Member Metropolitan, Reform and Union League Clubs and Association of the Bar of the City of New York.

MANDELICK, WILLIAM E.—Electrical Manufacturer, 20 Broad street, New York City; residence 203 West 78th street. Born in New York City. (Single.) President and director Electric Experimental and Developing Co.; secretary, treasurer and director Greenfield Automatic Fastener Co.; secretary and director Johnson Sub-Trolley Co. Member New York Riding, Fairfield County (Conn.) Golf, Magnetic and Indian Harbor Yacht Clubs.

MANDELL, KAUFMAN—Commission Merchant, 22 Howard street, New York City; residence 132 East 82d street. Member of the firm of K. Mandell & Co. President and director Japan Import and Export Commission Co. Member Democratic and Progress Clubs and Arion Society.

MANDEVILLE, HENRY A.—Physician, 141 Broadway, New York City; residence Montrose street, South Orange, N. J. Educated at Trinity College. Member New York Athletic, Wool, Larchmont Yacht and Essex County (N. J.) Country Clubs, Orange and South Orange Field Clubs and Trinity College Alumni Association.

MANGAM, DANIEL D., JR.—Grain Merchant, Produce Exchange, New York City; residence 41 Garden place, Brooklyn. Born in Sing Sing, N. Y., July 16, 1863. Educated at Yale ('85). (Married.) Member of the firm of Knapp & Mangam. Member Dyker Meadow Golf and Hamilton Clubs of Brooklyn and Baltusrol Golf Club of Short Hills, N. J.

MANGES, MONROE—Physician, Buffalo; residence 783 Elmwood avenue. Born in Wooster, Ohio, June 4, 1866. Educated at University of Wooster and University of Michigan. (Married.) Member Colonial and University Clubs and Phi Kappa Psi Fraternity.

MANICE, WILLIAM DE FOREST—Lawyer, 55 William street, New York City; residence 4 West 40th street. Member of the firm of Manice, Abbot & Perry. Member Union League, Union and Yale Clubs, New England Society and Association of the Bar of the City of New York.

MANIER, JAMES W.—Banker, Binghamton. President Susquehanna Valley Bank; vice-president Binghamton Gas Works; treasurer L. Bolles Hoe and Tool Co. and Security Mutual Life Insurance Co.; manager Binghamton Clearing House; trustee Chenango Valley Savings Bank; executor and trustee for various estates.

MANIERRE, ALFRED LEE—Lawyer, 31 Nassau street, New York City; residence 330 West 76th street. Born in New York City. Educated at Columbia ('83). (Married.) Member of the firm of Manierre & Manierre. Member City and Alpha Delta Phi Clubs, Association of the Bar of the City of New York and Columbia University Alumni Association.

MANIERRE, CHARLES E.—Lawyer, 31 Nassau street, New York City; residence 352 West End avenue. Born in New York City. Educated at Columbia and Princeton ('81) and Columbia Law School ('83). (Married.) Member of the firm of Manierre & Manierre. Member Camera Club and Association of the Bar of the City of New York.

MANLEY, THOMAS HENRY—Physician and Surgeon, 115 West 49th street, New York City. Born in Tewksbury, Middlesex Co., Mass., March 1, 1851. Educated, in New York City, at Manhattan College and at New York University Medical Department (M.D., '75). (Married) Olivia Mott Brennan of New York City.) Practicing in New York City since 1881. Professor of surgery at New York School of Clinical Medicine; visiting surgeon to several hospitals.

MANN, CHARLES H.—Editor, 3 West 29th street, New York City; residence Orange, N. J. Born in Syracuse, N. Y., Sept. 11, 1839. Educated at Beloit (Wis.) College ('60). (Married.) Editor "New Church Messenger." Director American Swedenborg Printing and Publishing Society. Member New Church Club (secretary).

MANN, ELBERT B.—Dry Goods Merchant, 554 Main street, Buffalo; residence 117 Lexington avenue. Born in Rochester, N. Y., 1856. Educated at Yale and Williams College. (Married.) General manager of dry goods house of Flint & Kent. Member of the Merchants' Exchange. Member University, Liberal and Wanakah Golf Clubs.

MANN, ELIAS PLUM—Real Estate, 4 Park place, Troy; residence 73 First street. Born in Troy, March 12, 1852. Educated at Rensselaer Polytechnic Institute. (Married.) President Volunteer Firemen's Association of Hudson, N. Y.; treasurer of Rensselaer County; trustee Rensselaer Polytechnic Institute. Member Troy Club, Society of Colonial Wars and Sons of the American Revolution.

MANN, FRANCIS NORTON, JR.—Banker, Mutual National Bank Building, Troy; residence 4 Park place. Born in Troy, Aug. 2, 1849. Educated at Yale ('70). Vice-president Mutual National Bank and Troy City Ry. Co.; director Troy Savings Bank. Member of State Assembly, 1879; colonel and aide-de-camp on Governor's staff, 1880-3. Member Troy and Saratoga Clubs, University Club of New York City, Society of Colonial Wars and Sons of the American Revolution.

MANN, HARRY—Manager, 1430 Broadway, New York City; residence 329 West 85th street. Born in Wheeling, W. Va., Nov. 7, 1859. Educated at Morris-town (Pa.) College. (Married.) Manager of Knickerbocker Theatre. Director Rapid Safety Filter Co. Formerly manager of Columbia Theatre in Brooklyn, California Theatre in San Francisco, and Fifth Avenue and Fourteenth Street Theatres.

MANN, LOUIS—Actor, 981 Madison avenue, New York City. Born in New York City, 1865. (Married Clara Lipman.) Began acting at the age of six. Has performed with Salvini, Louis Morrison, J. K. Emmett and many other prominent theatrical celebrities. Now starring jointly with his wife.

MANN, MATTHEW D.—Physician, Surgeon and Professor, 37 Allen street, Buffalo. Born in Utica, N. Y., July 12, 1845. Educated at Yale ('67) and New York College of Physicians and Surgeons ('71); studied in Paris, London and Vienna. (Married.) Professor obstetrics and gynecology at University of Buffalo. Formerly president American Gynecological Society and editor American System of Gynecology. Member University Club, Society of Colonial Wars, Sons of the Revolution, Yale Alumni Association and American Gynecological Society.

MANN, SAMUEL B.—Jeweler, 19 Maiden lane, New York City; residence 221 West 104th street. Born in New Jersey, April, 1840. Educated in Flemington, N. J. (Married.) Treasurer Aikin Lambert Jewelry Co.; director Aikin Lambert & Co.

MANN, S. VERNON—Broker, 38 Wall street, New York City; residence Sanford avenue, Flushing, L. I. Member Metropolitan and Whist Clubs, Sons of the Revolution and Metropolitan Museum of Art.

MANN, S. VERNON, JR.—Broker, 38 Wall street, New York City; residence Sanford avenue, Flushing, L. I. Member Harvard Club.

MANN, WILLIAM D.—Manager, 1331 Broadway, New York City; residence New York Athletic Club. Born in Sacramento, Cal., May 2, 1857. Educated in California public schools. (Single.) In the employ of the Southern Pacific R. R. Co. in 1872 as telegraph operator; with Atlantic and Pacific, and Western Union Telegraph Companies for a brief time. Returned to the employ of the Southern Pacific Co. as telegraph operator and local ticket agent at various stations; finally located at Sacramento; later assistant train dispatcher, Virginia and Truckee R. R. Co., Carson City, Nev., 1875-7; assistant auditor and ticket agent with the same company, 1877; shortly afterward general freight and passenger agent. In 1879 re-engaged with the Southern Pacific Co. as assistant ticket agent at San Francisco. In 1881 resigned and accepted the Colorado Passenger Agency of the Chicago, Rock Island and Pacific R. R. Co., with headquarters at Denver, Colo. In 1884 promoted to general agent of both freight and passenger departments, and in 1888 promoted to assistant general ticket and passenger agent of all lines west of the Missouri River, with headquarters at Topeka, Kan. In 1889 resigned this position to become associated with Evans and Hoey as manager, which position was held until their dissolution; since then has been associated with Mr. Evans as manager of the Herald Square Theatre, Member Manhattan, New York Athletic and Lambs' Clubs.

MANN, WILLIAM D'ALTON—Editor and Publisher, 1128 Broadway, and 208 Fifth avenue, New York City; residence 174 West 79th street. Born in Sandusky, Ohio, Sept. 27, 1839. Educated at Oberlin College. (Widower.) President and director "Town Topics" Publishing Co. Was colonel of 7th Michigan Cavalry during Civil War. Member Army and Navy, Manhattan, Lotos, Democratic and Old Guards Clubs, Army and Navy Club of Washington, D. C., Manassas Club of Mobile, Ala., Military Order of the Loyal Legion and George Washington Post, G. A. R.

MANNESMANN, REINHARD—Seamless Tubes, 1 Broadway, New York City; residence 112 Central Park, South. Connected with the Mannesmann Tube Works and Mannesmann Tube Co. Member New York Athletic and Germania Clubs and Liederkranz.

MANNING, ALFRED J.—Architect, 160 Fifth avenue, New York City; residence Irvington. Member Union League Club, Ardsley Casino of Ardsley-on-Hudson, Architectural League and Aldine Association.

MANNING, HENRY S.—Merchant, 85 Liberty street, New York City; residence 3 West 50th street. Born in Brooklyn, N. Y., Nov. 7, 1844. Educated at Eagleswood High School and Yale ('62). (Married Leona Pearce.) Enlisted as a private in the 82d United States Infantry Regiment, and was captain, 1863-6. Has served for twenty years in the National Guard. Member of the firm of Manning, Maxwell & Moore. President and director Shaw Electric Crane Co. and Pedrick & Ayer Co.; vice-president Trust Co. of America; treasurer and director Ashcroft Mfg Co.; director Consolidated Safety Valve Co. and Hayden & Derby Mfg Co. Member Union League, University, Engineers', Army and Navy, and Atlantic Yacht Clubs and Military Order of the Loyal Legion.

MANNING, JAMES H.—Printer, 41 Columbia street, Albany; residence 409 State street. Born in Albany, Sept. 22, 1854. (Son of Daniel Manning, Secretary of the United States Treasury, 1885-7.) Educated at Albany Free Academy ('73). (Married Emma J. Austin of Albany, 1879.) Served as mayor of Albany for two terms; editor and manager of the "Albany Argus" for twenty years. Now president of the Weed-Parsons Printing Co.; also connected with many other corporations. Prominently identified with the N. G. N. Y. since 1875. Member Fort Orange Club and National Guard Association.

MANNING, RICHARD F.—Machinery and Supplies, 40 John street, New York City; residence 3 West 50th street. Born in Brooklyn, N. Y., Dec. 19, 1873. Educated at Yale ('92). (Single.) President General Supply Co. Member University and Yale Clubs and Military Order of the Loyal Legion.

MANNING, THOMAS—Yacht Broker, 45 Broadway, New York City; residence 228 West 44th street. Member New York, Lake Hopatcong (N. J.) (director), Lambs' (director), New York Yacht, Fencers', Suburban Riding and Driving, Larchmont Yacht, American Yacht, New York Athletic, Lotos, Atlantic Yacht, Coney Island Jockey, Boston Yacht and New Rochelle Yacht Clubs, Corinthian Yacht Club of New Rochelle, Corinthian Yacht Club of Philadelphia, and St. George's Society.

MANNION, MICHAEL T.—Hosiery, 377 Broadway, New York City; residence 197 Hancock street, Brooklyn. Born and educated in Ireland. Formerly connected with the firm of E. S. Jaffray & Co. Member Catholic Club.

MANSFIELD, BURTON—Merchant, 481 Fifth avenue, New York City; residence Brooklyn. Born in New Haven County, Conn., June 23, 1832. (Widower.) Secretary and treasurer Tandem Club.

MANSFIELD, HOWARD—Lawyer, 35 Wall street, New York City; residence 21 West 36th street. Member University, Barnard, Yale, Grolier, Lawyers' and Players' Clubs, Association of the Bar of the City of New York, New England Society, Century Association, Metropolitan Museum of Art and American Museum of Natural History.

MANSFIELD, RICHARD—Actor and Author, 316 Riverside Drive, New York City. Born on the island of Heligoland, 1857. Educated at University of Jena, Germany, and at Derby School in England; also studied art in England. (Married Beatrice Cameron.) Played small parts in comic opera in England; later appeared at the Standard Theatre in New York City as Dromez in "Les Manteaux Noirs." Is head of his own company, and has appeared in "Beau Brummel," "Prince Karl," "Baron Chevalier," "Dr. Jekyll and Mr. Hyde" and "Cyrano de Bergerac."

MANSFIELD, SAMUEL—Educator, Wappinger's Falls; residence 11 South avenue. Born in New Baltimore, N. Y., July 14, 1834. Educated at Union College. (Single.) Principal of Wappinger's Graded School; president Wappinger's Savings Bank and of Board of Park Commissioners; first vice-president Board of Trade and trustee Grinnell Library. Was for several years president of the village of Wappinger's Falls.

MANSON, JAMES W.—Secretary, 45 East Tenth street, New York City; residence 612 Tenth street, Brooklyn. Born in Brooklyn, Dec. 16, 1862. (Married.) Secretary and director University Publishing Co. Member Park Wheelmen (president).

MANSON, THOMAS LINCOLN, JR.—Broker, 96 Broadway, New York City; residence 21 West 51st street. Member of the firm of Thomas L. Manson, Jr., & Co., and of the New York Stock Exchange. Member Union League, Union, Metropolitan, Lawyers', Players' and Racquet and Tennis Clubs, American Fine Arts Society and Sons of the Revolution.

MANTELL, ROBERT BRUCE—Actor, 16 Gramercy Park, New York City; residence Montclair, N. J. Born in Irvine, Ayrshire, Scotland, Feb. 7, 1854. (Married Marie Booth Russell, May, 1900.) Made first professional appearance at the age of twenty-two; came to the United States and played juvenile roles with Mme. Modjeska in 1878. Now starring at the head of his own company. Member Players' Club.

MAPES, AUGUSTUS S.—Lawyer, 220 Broadway, New York City; residence 53 West 94th street. Educated at Princeton. Member of the firm of John A. & A. S. Mapes. Member Princeton, New York Athletic, Colonial and Camera Clubs.

MAPES, CHARLES HALSTED—Chemist, 143 Liberty street, New York City; residence 60 West 40th street. Born in New York City, 1865. Educated at Columbia ('85). (Single.) Secretary and director Mapes Formula and Peruvian Guano Co. Member University Athletic and University Clubs and Columbia University Alumni Association.

MAPES, CHARLES VICTOR—Manufacturer and Chemist, 143 Liberty street, New York City; residence 60 West 40th street. Born in New York City, July 4, 1836. Educated at Harvard ('57). (Married Martha Meeker Halstead, 1863.) President and director Mapes Formula and Peruvian Guano Co.; director Martin Kalbfleisch Chemical Co. Member Players', Harvard, Suburban Riding and Driving, City, Lawyers', University and Barnard Clubs.

MAPES, JOHN AUGUSTUS—Lawyer, 220 Broadway, New York City; residence 53 West 94th street. Born in Blooming Grove, Orange Co., N. Y., Jan. 1, 1833. Educated at Cornwall Classical Institute; also studied law, and was admitted to the Bar in 1855. (Widower.) Member of the firm of John A. & A. S. Mapes. Director New York Produce Exchange Bank; ex-trustee American Institute. Member Colonial and Craftsman's Clubs and of all Masonic bodies. Past grand commander Grand Commandery of Knights Templar of the State of New York.

MAPES, VICTOR—Author, 60 West 40th street, New York City. Born in New York City, March 10, 1870. Educated at Columbia ('91). (Single.) Dramatic critic, New York "World" (using name of "Sidney Sharp"). Author of "Comtesse de Lisne" (three-act French comedy produced in Paris in 1895, the only work by an American author ever accepted at a Paris theatre), "Duse and the French," "A Flower of Yeddo" and others. Member University, Lambs' and Strollers' Clubs and Phi Beta Kappa Society.

MAPLESDEN, REUBEN—Lawyer, 237 Broadway, New York City; residence 881 Union street, Brooklyn. Member Democratic Club, and Montauk Club of Brooklyn.

MARBLE, CYRUS C.—Real Estate, 101 West 81st street, New York City. Treasurer and director Tripler Air Power Co. Member Colonial and Manhattan, Marine and Field Club of Brooklyn and New England Society.

MARBLE, JOHN NELSON—Artist, 14 West 12th street, New York City. Born in Woodstock, Vt., 1855. Educated in Boston, New York and Paris. (Single.) Member Salmagundi Sketch Club and New England Society.

MARBLE, MANTON—Journalist, 532 Fifth avenue, New York City. Born in Worcester, Mass., Nov. 16, 1835. Educated at University of Rochester. Interested in newspaper work since 1856. On staff of New York "Evening Post," 1858-60; editor and proprietor of the New York "World," 1862-76; delegate to Bimetallic Congress in Europe, 1885. Member Metropolitan, Manhattan, and Turf and Field Clubs, American Geographical and New England Societies, Century Association and Scientific Alliance.

MARBLE, WILLIAM A.—Corset Manufacturer, 361 Broadway, New York City; residence 126 West 121st street. Vice-president and director R. & G. Corset Co. Member Harlem, Lenox Republican and Hardware Clubs, New England Society, Sons of the American Revolution and Society of Founders and Patriots of America.

MARBURG, WILLIAM A.—Tobacco Manufacturer, 31 Broad street, New York City; residence Hoffman House. Director American Mail Steamship Co. and United States Standard Machine Co. Member Manhattan, Suburban Riding and Driving, and Lawyers' Clubs.

MARCH, CLEMENT—Real Estate, 45 William street, New York City; residence 25 Washington square, North. Member Metropolitan, New York Athletic and Knickerbocker Clubs, St. Nicholas Society and Century Association.

MARCH, JAMES E.—Overseer, Erie Railroad, New York City; residence 37 Madison street. Born in Albano di Lucania, Italy. Came to the United States in 1873 and worked on farms until 1877, when he began business on his own account. Educated in district schools in Harrisburg, Lewis Co., N. Y., and at Lowville Academy. Removed to New York City in 1880 and entered the employment of the Erie Railroad, of which he has been general overseer since 1885. Is port warden of the Port of New York, trustee of the only official Italian Savings Bank chartered on the laws of the State of New York, Republican leader of the Sixth Assembly District, and caucus member of the Republican County Committee. Member Republican and Catholic Clubs, Elks' Lodge and other organizations.

MARCHAND, CHARLES—Manufacturing Chemist, 59 Prince street, New York City; residence 33 West 12th street. Born in La Loupe, France. Educated in Paris, France. (Married.) President and director Drevet Mfg Co.

MARCUS, ARNOLD—Merchant, 52 Broadway, New York City; residence Englewood, N. J. Born in Germany, June 20, 1838. Educated in Germany. (Married.) President and director Union Surety and Guaranty Co.; treasurer and director Havana Electric Ry. Co.; director Cincinnati Edison Electrical Co. Member Manhattan and Reform Clubs, Down Town and Blooming Grove Park Associations, American Geographical Society and Deutscher Verein.

MARCUS, GEORGE E.—Jeweler, 544 Fifth avenue, New York City; residence 15 Central Park, West. Born in New York City, 1859. Educated in America and Europe. (Married.) Treasurer and director Marcus & Co. Member New York Athletic, Barnard and Lotos Clubs, 7th Regiment, N. G. N. Y., and American Geographical Society.

MARCY, ERASTUS EDGERTON—Physician, 396 Fifth avenue, New York City. Born in Greenwich, Mass., Dec. 9, 1815. Educated at Amherst College ('34) and at Jefferson Medical College (M.D., '37). Practicing in New York City since 1847. Founded in 1852, and edited until 1865, the "North American Journal of Homeopathy." Author of "Theory and Practice of Medicine," "Homeopathy vs. Allopathy," "Christianity and its Conflicts" and other works.

MARDEN, FRANCIS SKIDDY—Storage, 2300 Eighth avenue, New York City; residence Nutley, N. J. Director Washington Storage Warehouse and Van Co. Member Union and Harvard Clubs and St. Nicholas Society.

MARDEN, ORISON S.—Editor and Publisher, Cooper Union, New York City; residence 43 Bowdoin street, Boston, Mass. Born in Thornton, N. H., 1848. Educated at Boston University (A.B., '77 and A.M., '79), Boston University Law School (LL.B., '81) and at Harvard Medical School (M.D., '82). (Single.) Founder and editor of "Success." Author of "Architects of Fate," "How to Succeed," "Success" and "The Secret of Achievement."

MARIE, LEON—152 West 86th street, New York City. Educated at Columbia ('85). Member University, Grolier, Knickerbocker, Delta Phi and Calumet Clubs, American Geographical Society, American Institute of Mining Engineers and Columbia University Alumni Association.

MARIE, PETER—6 East 37th street, New York City. Member City, Knickerbocker, Union, Grolier and Tuxedo Clubs, American Geographical and American Fine Arts Societies, National Academy of Design, Metropolitan Museum of Art and American Museum of Natural History.

MARKOE, FRANCIS HARTMAN—Surgeon, 15 East 49th street, New York City. Born in New York City, March 20, 1856. Educated at Holbrook's Academy, Sing Sing, N. Y., Princeton (A.M., '76) and New York College of Physicians and Surgeons (M.D., '79); studied in Heidelberg, Vienna, Bern, Paris and London. (Married.) Clinical lecturer on surgery Columbia University. Was attending surgeon to New York, St. Luke's and Bellevue Hospitals; consulting surgeon to New York Orthopaedic Hospital. Member University, New York Yacht and Princeton Clubs, Century Association and American Geographical and New York Historical Societies.

MARKOE, THOMAS M.—Physician and Surgeon, 15 East 49th street, New York City; residence 500 Madison avenue. Born in Philadelphia, Pa., Sept. 13, 1819. Educated at Dillingham's School, Pittsfield, Mass., Princeton College (A.B., '36, and A.M.) and at College of Physicians and Surgeons of Columbia University (M.D., '41). (Married.) Was for a time professor of anatomy at Castleton Medical College; professor of pathological anatomy at New York University, 1892-4; adjunct professor of surgery at Columbia University, 1860-71; professor of surgery, 1871-88; emeritus professor of same since 1888. Has served as consulting surgeon to New York, Roosevelt, Mount Sinai, Women's St. Mary's, New York Orthopaedic and Vassar Hospitals. Author of "A Treatise on Diseases of Bones." Member Princeton Club, Century Association, American Museum of Natural History and Metropolitan Museum of Art.

MARLING, ALFRED E.—Real Estate, 64 Cedar street, New York City; residence 32 West 49th street. Born in Toronto, Canada. (Married.) Connected with the firm of Horace S. Ely & Co. Member Real Estate Board of Brokers; secretary and trustee United States Savings Bank; director New York Plate Glass Insurance Co. and Real Estate Exchange and Auction Rooms (Ltd). Member Union League, Lawyers', Republican, Quill and City Clubs.

MARLING, FRANCIS H.—Clergyman, 51 West 37th street, New York City. Born in England, Dec. 18, 1825. Educated in England, and at the Congregational College, Canada. (Widower.) Has been pastor of Congregational and Presbyterian churches in Montreal, Toronto and New York. Member and secretary Quill Club and Chi Alpha Fraternity.

MARQUAND, HENRY—Banker, 160 Broadway, New York City; residence 11 East 68th street. Educated at Princeton ('78). Member of the firm of Henry Marquand & Co., and of the New York Stock Exchange. Member Metropolitan, University, Grolier, New York Yacht, Seawanhaka-Corinthian Yacht, Princeton, Authors' and Fulton Clubs, American Fine Arts, Dunlap and American Geographical Societies, Century Association and Metropolitan Museum of Art.

MARQUAND, HENRY G.—Capitalist, Central Park and East 82d street, New York City; residence 11 East 68th street. Born in New York City, April 11, 1819. Educated in Pittsfield, Mass. Was for twenty years manager of his brother's (Frederick Marquand) real estate interests; engaged in banking business in New York City for ten years; was also for a time president of the Iron Mountain R. R. Co. Has made gifts to various institutions, including a chapel and (with Robert Bonner) a gymnasium to Princeton University; also (with his brother) a pavilion to Bellevue Hospital. President and director Metropolitan Museum of Art; director Equitable Life Assurance Society of the United States and Northern R. R. Co. of New Jersey; trustee Mercantile Trust Co. Member Metropolitan and Grolier Clubs, American Fine Arts, New York Genealogical and Biographical, and American Geographical Societies, Century Association, American Museum of Natural History and National Academy of Design.

MARRIOTT, EDWARD E.—Editor, 162 Nassau street, New York City; residence 234 Second avenue. Born in New York City, Feb. 22, 1865. Educated at Yale. (Married.) Has been city editor of the "Evening Journal," New York "World" and New York "Journal"; now city editor of the "Evening Journal." President of Literary Society of the Young Men's Christian Association. Member Lotos, Press, Knickerbocker Athletic and New York Athletic Clubs.

MARSDEN, GEORGE—Claim Agent, Middletown. Born in New York City, Dec. 17, 1857. Educated in New York City. (Married.) Director Pecksport Connecting Railway; claim agent New York, Ontario and Western Ry. Co.

MARSELLUS, FRANK ALBERTUS—Insurance, 100 Broadway, New York City; residence Passaic, N. J. Connected with the New York Life Insurance Co. Member North Jersey Country Club of Paterson, N. J., Yountakab Country Club of Nutley, N. J., Acquackanonk Club of Passaic, and Holland Society and American Canoe Association of New York City.

MARSELLUS, JOHN—Manufacturer, 101 Richmond avenue, Syracuse; residence 208 Walnut place. Born in Schenectady, N. Y., Feb. 2, 1846. Educated at Schenectady Classical Institute. (Married.) President and director John Marsellus Mfg Co. and Onondaga Novelty Co., 1897-9. Vice-president and director Morningside Cemetery Association. Member Lakeside Boat and Yacht, and Citizens' Clubs, Central City Council, Royal Arcanum (worthy regent), Chamber of Commerce (president, 1897-9) and Anglers' Association, and of the Holland Society and Transportation and Building Trades Clubs of New York City.

MARSH, CHARLES M.—Lawyer, 111 Broadway, New York City; residence Morris Plains, N. J. Born in Paterson, N. J., Sept. 11, 1841. Educated in Elizabeth, N. J. Member Lawyers' Club, Metropolitan Museum of Art, Military Order of the Loyal Legion, 7th Regiment Veteran Association and Association of the Bar of the City of New York.

MARSH, ELIAS J.—Physician, 32 Nassau street, New York City; residence 600 Park avenue, Paterson, N. J. Educated at Columbia ('54). Medical examiner Mutual Life Insurance Co. Member University Club, Hamilton Club of Paterson, Columbia University Alumni and Century Associations and Military Order of the Loyal Legion.

MARSH, FRANK B.—Manufacturer, 22 Reade street, New York City; residence 326 Clermont avenue, Brooklyn. Born in Brooklyn, July 20, 1860. (Educated at Brooklyn Polytechnic Institute and Amherst College. (Married.) Secretary, treasurer and director Theodore Ricksecker Co.

MARSH, JOSEPH A.—General Superintendent, 41 Chambers street, New York City; residence 150 West 87th street. Born in Detroit, Mich., Aug. 8, 1854. Educated at German-American Seminary, Detroit, and Detroit public schools. (Married.) President and director Evening Newspaper Delivery Co.; general superintendent and director American News Co.; director Nassau Newspaper Delivery Express Co.; chairman Osborne Cash Register Co. Ex-president Board of Park Commissioners and ex-member Board of Library Commissioners, Detroit, Mich. Member Once-a-Month and Hardware Clubs, Metropolitan Museum of Art and American Geographical Society.

MARSH, MELVILLE A.—Manufacturer, 307 West Broadway, New York City; residence 727 Park avenue. Born in Acton, Me. Educated at Harvard. (Married.) Treasurer, secretary and director A. Kimball Co. Member Patria, Wool and Harvard Clubs and New England Society.

MARSH, OLIVER A.—Manager, 3 Park place, New York City; residence 301 West 106th street. Born in Springfield, Mass., Oct. 15, 1866. Educated in Springfield. (Married.) Manager for Hiram Picker & Sons (Inc.). Treasurer Traveler's Information Co. of America; auditor New England Summer Resort Association. Member Hardware and Manhattan Clubs and Society of Colonial Wars.

MARSH, ROLPH—Lawyer, 35 Nassau street, New York City; residence 59 West 65th street. Born in Jersey City, N. J., April 29, 1869. Educated at Williams College and New York Law School. (Married.) Member of the firm of Gulick, Woodruff & Marsh. Member Sigma Phi, University, Morris County Golf and Grolier Clubs, Williams College Alumni and Dwight Alumni Associations and American Numismatic and Archaeological Society.

MARSHALL, CHARLES H.—Capitalist, 7 Nassau street, New York City; residence 6 East 77th street. Born, 1838. Educated at Columbia. Was harbor commissioner of the Port of New York; alderman, 1880-1; dock commissioner, 1887-8; member of the sub-committee of the Committee of Seventy on the improvement of the water front, 1891. President and director Alabama Mineral Land Co.; director Liverpool, and London and Globe Insurance Co. of New York, Continental National Bank and Mexican Telegraph Co.; trustee Atlantic Mutual Insurance Co. Member New York Yacht, Reform, Metropolitan, Riding, Union and City Clubs, Columbia University Alumni and Century Associations, Metropolitan Museum of Art and American Museum of Natural History.

MARSHALL, EDWARD—Newspaper Correspondent, 23 Fifth avenue, New York City. Born in Enfield Center, N. Y., May 31, 1868. (Son of Rev. Davis C. Marshall.) Educated in Rochester public schools. (Married Judith Berolde, 1893.) Sunday editor of the New York "Press," 1888; connected with New York "Journal," 1895-7; foreign correspondent of the New York "World," 1897-8; went to the front for the "Journal" during the Spanish-American War. Frequent contributor to periodicals and magazines.

MARSHALL, H. GRIFFEN—Dental Surgeon, 144 West 126th street, New York City. Born in Croton Lake, N. Y., May 5, 1854. Educated in New York public schools, Chappaqua Mountain Institute and New York Dental College (D.D.S.). (Married.) Treasurer and director American Co-operative Savings and Loan Association. Member First District Dental and Odontological Societies, Lenox Council, Royal Arcanum, and Harlem Branch Y. M. C. A.

MARSHALL, HENRY RUTGERS—Architect, 3 West 29th street, New York City; residence 43 West 11th street. Born in New York City, 1852. Educated at Columbia ('73). Member University Club, Architectural League, Century Association, Society of Colonial Wars and American Institute of Architects.

MARSHALL, HOWARD—Merchant, 82 Worth street, New York City; residence 2 Macon street, Brooklyn. Born in New York City, Feb. 24, 1870. Educated in Brooklyn. (Married Alice Lea of Brooklyn.) Confidential clerk and credit man with Joseph Wild & Co., with which concern he has been connected since leaving school. Member Arkwright Club, Glen Ridge (N. J.) Golf Club, Sons of the Revolution, Society of Colonial Wars and Founders and Patriots of America.

MARSHALL, ISAAC D.—Treasurer, 220 Broadway, New York City; residence 600 West 114th street. Secretary, treasurer and director New York National Land Association. Member Republican Club.

MARSHALL, JAMES G.—Grain Merchant, Produce Exchange, New York City; residence 280 West End avenue. Born in Scotland, December, 1864. (Married.) Member of the firm of McIntyre & Wardwell, members of the New York Stock and Produce Exchanges. Member New York Athletic and Suburban Riding and Driving Clubs, and Essex County Country Club of Orange, N. J.

MARSHALL, JOHN BAPTIST—Lawyer, 54 Wall street, New York City; residence 504 Columbus avenue. Born in Indiana, March 1, 1863. Educated in public schools of Kansas. (Single.) Member Lawyers' Club, New England Society, Baptist Social Union, Company A, 7th Regiment, N. G. N. Y., and Commonwealth Lodge No. 409, F. & A. M.

MARSHALL, JONATHAN—Lawyer, 247 Broadway, New York City; residence 38 Lorillard place. Educated at Dartmouth College. Member Twilight Club, Presbyterian Union, New England Society and Dartmouth College Alumni Association.

MARSHALL, JOSEPH H.—Physician, 506 Fulton street, Brooklyn; residence 536 Monroe street. Born in Lewes, Del., Aug. 3, 1854. Educated at Philadelphia College of Pharmacy and New York University Medical College. (Married.) President and director William B. Riker & Son Co. and Marshall Truss Co. of Brooklyn. Was first vice-president Delaware Society of New York. Member Union League, Stuyvesant Heights Republican and Invincible Clubs.

MARSHALL, LOUIS—Lawyer, 30 Broad street, New York City; residence 47 East 72d street. Born in Syracuse, N. Y., Sept. 14, 1856 (Son of Jacob and Zilli [Strauss] Marshall.) Educated in Syracuse public schools and at Columbia College Law School. Member of the firm of Guggenheimer, Untermyer & Marshall. Served as a member of the Constitutional Convention of 1894. Member Metropolitan Museum of Art, New York State Bar Association and Association of the Bar of the City of New York.

MARSHALL, WILLIAM A.—Insurance, 256 Broadway, New York City; residence Nanuet. Actuary Home Life Insurance Co. Member Hamilton Club of Brooklyn.

MARSTON, EDGAR LEWIS—Banker, 33 Wall street, New York City; residence Bedford Park. Born in Burlington, Iowa, March 8, 1860. Educated at public schools, La Grange College and Washington University. (Married.) Member of the New York Stock Exchange firm of Blair & Co. President and director Texas and Pacific Coal Co. and Texas Pacific Mercantile Mfg Co.; director Houston, East and West Texas Ry. Co. and Cleveland, Lorain and Wheeling R. R. Co.; trustee United States Savings Bank. Member Colonial, Metropolitan, Quill and Transportation Clubs, Country Club of Westchester, New England Society, Down Town Association, Baptist Union, Metropolitan Museum of Art and board of governors of the Botanical Garden Society.

MARSTRAND, OTTO JULIUS—Civil Engineer, 410 West 115th street, New York City. Member American Society of Civil Engineers.

MARTIN, BENJAMIN ELLIS—Author, 16 Gramercy Park, New York City. Born and educated in New York City. (Married.) Author of "About England with Dickens," "In the Footprints of Charles Lamb," "Old Chelsea" and others, and of newspaper and magazine articles in America, England and France. Member Players' Club and Century Association.

MARTIN, BRADLEY—22 West 20th street, New York City, and Balmacaun, Scotland. Educated at Union College. (Married.) Trustee Metropolitan Trust Co. Member Metropolitan, Knickerbocker, Racquet and Tennis, Tuxedo, Union, Sigma Phi and Fencers' Clubs, Country Club of Westchester, American Geographical and St. Nicholas Societies, Union College Alumni and Down Town Associations, Metropolitan Museum of Art, American Museum of Natural History, and Association of the Bar of the City of New York.

MARTIN, CLARENCE AUGUSTINE—Professor, Cornell University, Ithaca; residence 1 Cascadilla place. Born in Medina County, Ohio, Sept. 29, 1862. Educated at Cornell. (Married June 30, 1896.) Assistant professor of architecture at Cornell University. Member Town and Gown and Ithaca Country Clubs, Phi Gamma Delta Fraternity, American Institute of Architects (Central New York Chapter), and First Baptist Church.

MARTIN, CHARLES C.—Civil Engineer, 194 Berkeley place, Brooklyn. Born in Springfield, Pa., Aug. 30, 1831. Educated at Rensselaer Polytechnic Institute (C.E., '56). Chief engineer and superintendent of the New York and Brooklyn Bridge. Member American Society of Civil Engineers.

MARTIN, DANIEL F.—Judge, 407 Second avenue, New York City; residence 245 East 33d street. Born in New York City, 1865. Educated in parochial and public schools and at the College of the City of New York; studied law and was admitted to the Bar. Served for a time as clerk in the United States District Attorney's office. Assemblyman, 1890. Now Judge of the Sixth District Municipal Court; term expires Dec. 31, 1909; trustee American Veterinary College. Member Catholic Club.

MARTIN, DANIEL S.—Geologist, 126 Macon street, Brooklyn. Born in New York City, Jan. 30, 1842. Educated at New York University (A.B., '62, and A.M., '66) and at Union Theological Seminary. Professor of geology at Rutgers Female College, 1868-95. Now professor of geology at Presbyterian College for Women in Columbia, S. C., during the winter months. Has been associated with geological work at various times in Cooper Union, New York Academy of Sciences and Brooklyn Institute of Arts and Sciences. Has published geological maps of New York City and environs. Member New York Mineralogical and Phi Beta Kappa Societies and Scientific Alliance.

MARTIN, EDWARD SANDFORD—Author and Writer, 1730 Broadway, New York City. Born in Owasco, Cayuga Co., N. Y., Jan. 2, 1856. Educated at Phillips Andover Academy and at Harvard ('77); studied law and was admitted to the Bar in Rochester in 1884. (Married Julia, daughter of George J. Whitney of Rochester, 1886.) Regular contributor of "This Busy World," to "Harper's Weekly" and frequent contributor to several other magazines. Author of "A Little Brother of the Rich," "Windfalls of Observation," "Cousin Anthony and I" and many other works. Member University Club and Century Association.

MARTIN, EDWARD W.—Chemist, Criminal Court Building, New York City; residence Whitney avenue and Fourth street, Limhurst, L. I. Born in Cambridge, Mass., July 11, 1856. Educated in public schools of Cambridge and Springfield, Mass., and at Columbia College School of Mines. (Married Eleanor, daughter of Emma Stevens and William Hazzard Wigg of South Carolina.) Connected with Department of Health of City of New York. Appointed on July 1, 1879, as a temporary tenement house inspector, and chief inspector of division of food inspection and offensive trades in 1888, and re-appointed in 1900. Assistant to Dr. Chandler and instructor in School of Mines, Columbia College, 1884-9. Member Engineers' Club, Military Order of the Loyal Legion, British Society of Public Analysts and American Academy of Political and Social Science.

MARTIN, EDWIN C.—Editor, 141 East 25th street, New York City; residence 44 West Ninth street. Born in Hamilton, Ohio, Feb. 10, 1850. Educated at Dartmouth. (Married.) Director and assistant editor S. S. McClure Co. Was editor and publisher Richmond (Ind.) "Telegram" and contributor to "Scribner's," "McClure's" and various other publications.

MARTIN, FRANK EVANS—Insurance, 44 Pine and 22 East 42d streets, New York City; residence West Orange, N. J. Member Union Club and Blooming Grove Park and Down Town Associations.

MARTIN, HENRY T.—152 State street, Albany. Born in Albany. Educated at Union College. (Married.) Trustee Albany Savings Bank.

MARTIN, JAMES M.—Stock and Grain Broker, 20 Broad street, New York City; residence Garden City, L. I. Born and educated in Brooklyn, N. Y. Member of the firm of J. M. Martin & Co., and of the New York Produce and New York Stock Exchanges. Member Calumet Club, Garden City Golf Club, and Hamilton Club of Brooklyn.

MARTIN, JOHN C.—Wholesale Coal Merchant, 1 Broadway, New York City; residence 151 West 96th street. Born in Lancaster, Pa., Nov. 13, 1845. Educated at private and public schools in Lancaster. Owner of large bituminous coal estate in Cambria County, Pa. Was an officer in the United States Army, 1862-4. Member Presbyterian Union, Pennsylvania Society and Military Order of the Loyal Legion.

MARTIN, NEWELL—Lawyer, 7 Nassau street, New York City; residence Audubon Park. Born in China, Sept. 17, 1854. Educated at Yale ('75). (Married.) Practicing in New York City since his admission to the Bar in 1877. Member of the firm of Smith & Martin. Member University, City, Lawyers', Reform, Yale, Suburban Riding and Driving, and Knollwood Country Clubs and Association of the Bar of the City of New York.

MARTIN, ROBERT C.—Broker, 50 Broadway, New York City; residence South Hill, Riverdale. Director Ann Arbor R. R. Co. Member Union League Club, Country Club of Westchester, American Geographical Society and Metropolitan Museum of Art.

MARTIN, ROBERT H.—Asbestos Manufacturer, 100 William street, New York City. Born in Scotland, 1849. Educated in Dunblane, Scotland. (Married.) Ex-president Chalmers Spencer Co. President H. W. Johns Mfg Co.; director American Asbestos Co., Asbestos and Asbestic Co. (Ltd.) of London, England, and New Amsterdam Casualty Co. Member Lawyers' Club and Chamber of Commerce.

MARTIN, TIMOTHY J.—China Merchant, 921 Broadway, New York City; residence 85 Riverside Drive. Born in Vermont, 1846. (Widower.) President and director Collamore, Davis & Co. (Ltd.). Member Colonial and Union League Clubs and Aldine Association.

MARTIN, WILLIAM IRWIN—Real Estate Operator, 45 Liberty street, New York City; residence 313 West 78th street. Born in New York City, Dec. 16, 1836. Educated in New York City. (Married, 1859.) Served during Civil War and took part in the Battle of Gettysburg. President Stationers' Board of Trade of New York City; vice-president Benton Gold Mining Co.; also director in several other corporations. Colonel 23d Regiment Veteran Corps; life member Long Island Historical Society and Sons of the Revolution; secretary New York Council of the American Institute of Civics; director Board of Trade and Transportation. Member Republican Club, New England Society and Chamber of Commerce.

MARTIN, WILLIAM MATHEWS—Lawyer, 71 Broadway, New York City; residence 44 West 40th street. Educated at Columbia. Member University Club, Southern Society, Columbia University Alumni and Down Town Associations, Metropolitan Museum of Art and American Museum of Natural History.

MARTIN, WILLIAM PARMENTER—Lawyer, 120 Broadway, New York City; residence 105 South Tenth street, Newark, N. J. Born in Virginia City, Nev., Oct. 8, 1870. Educated in public schools of San Francisco, Cal., at Columbia College and at Columbia Law School (LL.B., '92). (Married.) Member of the firm of Melville, Martin & Stephens. Member Roome Lodge, F. & A. M., Jerusalem Chapter, Coeur de Lion Commandery, 7th Regiment, N. G. N. Y., Roseville (N. J.) Athletic and Columbia Alumni Associations and Association of the Bar of the City of New York.

MARTIN, WISNER BELL—Civil Engineer, 21 Park row, New York City; residence 112 East 64th street. Born in Virginia City, Nev., Dec. 17, 1868. Educated at Harvard. (Married.) Was engineer in charge of construction of Pennsylvania R. R. bridges, docks, coal storages, etc.; also the power station in East 25th street for Metropolitan Street Ry. Co., and sub-surface construction in streets of the City of New York; consulting engineer on water supply, electric railway construction, tall building foundations, filling in marsh land, etc. Now engineer Department of Highways of the City of New York. Member Engineers' and Harvard Clubs and American Society of Civil Engineers.

MARTINEZ, ARISTIDE—Manufacturer of Paints, 207 Pearl street, New York City; residence 127 East 34th street. Member of the firm of Longman & Martineze. Member Manhattan, Lotos, New York Athletic, Knickerbocker Athletic, Manhattan Chess and Patria Clubs, New York Board of Trade and Transportation and Chamber of Commerce; also member of the Havana Chess Club, Havana Chamber of Commerce, Cercle Colon Cervantes and other organizations of Havana, Cuba.

MARTINEZ, MIGUEL R.—Merchant, 35 South William street, New York City; residence 139 West 12th street. Member Seawanhaka-Corinthian Yacht Club, Cercle Colon Cervantes and Down Town Association.

MARTYN, CARLOS—Presbyterian Clergyman and Author, 114 Fifth avenue, New York City; residence West New Brighton, S. I. Born in New York City, 1843. Educated at Union Theological Seminary (D.D. and Litt.D.). (Married Mercedes, daughter of Don Fermin Ferrer, ex-President of Nicaragua.) Held various pastorates in New York City, Chicago and elsewhere until 1894. Author of "Christian Citizenship," "Martin Luther," "English Puritans," "Pilgrim Fathers," "Dutch Reformation," "Sour Saints and Sweet Sinners" and many other works.

MARVEL, THEODORE L.—Secretary, 45 Broadway, New York City; residence Taunton, Mass. Born in Taunton, Dec. 25, 1847. Educated in Taunton public schools and at Bristol Academy. (Married.) Secretary and director C. W. Hunt Co. Member Engineers' Club.

MARVIN, CHARLES D.—Banker, 18 Wall street, New York City; residence 416 Clinton avenue, Brooklyn. Member of the firm of A. M. Kidder & Co., members of the New York Stock Exchange. Member Lawyers' Club and Blooming Grove Park Association.

MARVIN, CHARLES M.—Insurance, 261 Broadway, New York City; residence 88 South Mountain avenue, Montclair, N. J. Manager of home office agency department, United States Life Insurance Co. Member Hardware Club, Montclair, Athletic, Golf, Outlook and Glee Clubs of Montclair, and Kane Lodge, F. & A. M.

MARVIN, HARRY N.—Vice-President and Manager, 841 Broadway, New York City; residence 340 Riverside Drive. Born in Jordan, N. Y., Sept. 6, 1862. Educated at Syracuse University. (Married.) Manager Marvin Electric Drill Co.; second vice-president American Mutoscope and Biograph Co. Member Delta Kappa Epsilon Club, Citizens' Club of Syracuse, and American Institute of Electrical Engineers.

MARVIN, SAMUEL W.—Book Publisher, 153 Fifth avenue, New York City; residence New Rochelle. Born in Brooklyn, N. Y., March 6, 1845. Educated in Wilbraham, Mass. (Married Susan Decker.) Manager of the manufacturing department of Charles Scribner's Sons. Member Grolier and Huguenot Yacht Clubs, New York Genealogical Society and Huguenot Society of New Rochelle.

MARZO, EDUARDO—Musician and Composer, 26 East 23d street, New York City; residence 155 West 94th street. Born in Naples, Italy, Nov. 29, 1852. Educated in Naples. (Married Clara L. Philbin, 1882.) Teacher of vocal music and composer for the past twenty years in New York City; especially distinguished for sacred compositions. Made Knight of the Crown of Italy by King Humbert in 1884; elected member of the Royal Academy of St. Cecilia of Rome, Italy, in 1892. Member Manuscript Club.

MASLIN, HERBERT E.—Manufacturer, Syracuse. Born in Hinsdale, Ill. Educated in Aurora, Ill. (Married.) Member of the firm of E. C. Stearns & Co. President Cycle Board of Trade; vice-president The Tinkham Co. and Stearns Syracuse Bicycle Agency; manager American Bicycle Co. Member Century, Syracuse and Citizens' Clubs, and Engineers' Club of New York City.

MASON, ALEXANDER T.—Lawyer, 13 William street, New York City; residence 135 East 57th street. Educated at Trinity College ('81). Director Maritime Canal Co. of Nicaragua. Member University and Republican Clubs, American Geographical and Dunlap Societies and Trinity College Alumni and Down Town Associations.

MASON, ARTHUR L.—Woolen Merchant, 79 Spring street, New York City; residence 169 Hancock street, Brooklyn. Member of the firm of Mason & Hanson. Member Manhattan Club, Crescent Athletic Club of Brooklyn, and Sons of the Revolution.

MASON, FRANCIS O.—Lawyer, Geneva. Born, 1834. Served in Union Army during Civil War and advanced to the rank of assistant adjutant-general. Was associated in practice with the late Charles J. Folger, Secretary of the Treasury under President Arthur, and was also a Supreme Court Justice. Served for a time as Judge of Ontario County.

MASON, JAMES H.—Inventor and Electrical Expert, 381 and 388 Pearl street, New York City; residence 591 Bainbridge street, Brooklyn. Born in London, England, June 24, 1864. (Married.) Was assistant electrician London and Globe Telephone Co. of London, and secretary and manager American Oddity Co. of New York. Member Golden Cross and Masonic Orders.

MASON, JAMES WEIR—Professor, 17 Lexington avenue, New York City; residence 10 East 130th street. Born in New York City, 1836. Educated at the College of the City of New York. (Single.) Professor of pure mathematics in College of the City of New York since 1879. Was principal of Albany Academy, 1863-8; actuary of Massachusetts Mutual Life Insurance Co., 1869-72, and of the Penn Mutual Life Insurance Co., 1872-9. Member Actuarial Society of America and American Mathematical Society.

MASON, RUFUS OSGOOD—Physician and Author, 348 West 58th street, New York City. Born in Sullivan, N. H., Jan. 22, 1830. Educated at Dartmouth College (A.B. and A.M.) and at College of Physicians and Surgeons of Columbia University (M.D., '59). (Married.) Acting assistant surgeon in United States Navy during Civil War. Author of "Telepathy and the Subliminal Self" and other works of a similar nature; also many articles for medical and scientific journals. Member New York Academy of Medicine, Dartmouth Alumni Association and Society for Psychological Research.

MASON, THOMAS F.—Mining, 45 Broadway, New York City; residence 215 Madison avenue. President Quincy Mining Co. Member Lotos and Union League Clubs.

MASON, THOMAS HENRY—Broker, 45 Broadway, New York City; residence 215 Madison avenue. Member of the firm of Mason & Smith and of the New York Stock Exchange. Member Lotos, New York Yacht, Union League and Olympic Clubs and New England Society.

MASON, WALTER—Broker, 2 Wall street, New York City; residence 2940 Seventh avenue. Born in Providence, R. I., March 9, 1848. (Married.) Member of the New York Stock Exchange firm of Adams, Kellogg & Mason. Member Church and Republican Clubs.

MASON, WILLIAM—Pianist, 109 East 14th street, New York City; residence 14 West 16th street. Born in Boston, Mass., Jan. 24, 1829. (Son of Dr. Lowell Mason.) Received a musical education in Germany. Made several tours of Europe and the United States; since 1854 has been principally engaged in teaching; has composed considerable piano music.

MASON, WILLIAM L.—Teacher, 289 Fourth avenue, New York City; residence 225 West 20th street.

Born in Philadelphia, Pa., 1861. Educated in Quincy, Mass. (Married.) Principal Metropolitan Shorthand School and special teacher under New York Board of Education. Member Mineralogical Club, Pedagogical Society and Academy of Sciences.

MASON, WILLIAM P.—Wool Merchant, 142 Duane street, New York City; residence 140 Hicks street, Brooklyn. Member Hardware Club, and of the Crescent Athletic and Hamilton Clubs of Brooklyn.

MASON, WILLIAM PITT—Professor, Rensselaer Polytechnic Institute, Troy. Born in New York City, Oct. 12, 1853. Educated at Rensselaer Polytechnic Institute (C.E., '74, and B.S., '77), Union University (M.D., '81) and at Pasteur Institute, Paris, France. (Married Emilie E. Harding of Philadelphia, Pa., 1886.) Professor of chemistry at Rensselaer Polytechnic Institute. Makes a specialty of water analysis; expert in contested cases between city and water companies. Member American Philosophical and American Chemical Societies, American Water Works, New England Water Works and American Public Health Associations, American Institute of Mining Engineers and American Association for the Advancement of Science.

MASSEY, WILLIAM M.—Chemist, 1122 Broadway, 578 Fifth avenue and 355 Columbus avenue, New York City; residence 29 West 27th street. Member of the firm of Caswell, Massey & Co. Member Larchmont Yacht, Union League, New York Yacht and New York Clubs.

MASTEN, ARTHUR H.—Lawyer, 67 Wall street, New York City; residence 115 East 39th street. Born in Cohoes, N. Y., Sept. 11, 1855. Educated at Williams College ('76) and Columbia Law School ('79). (Married.) Member of the firm of Masten & Nichols. Director Lawyers' Surety Co. Formerly assistant corporation counsel of New York City. Member Metropolitan, Union and University Clubs, Association of the Bar of the City of New York, Williams College Alumni and Down Town Associations and Holland Society.

MASTEN, EVERETT—Lawyer, 45 William street, New York City; residence Yonkers. Educated at Columbia. Member Columbia University Alumni Association and Association of the Bar of the City of New York.

MASTERS, HARRIS K.—Mining Engineer, Laurel Hill; residence 167 Clinton avenue, Brooklyn. Born in New York City, Aug. 6, 1873. Educated at Columbia College School of Mines ('94). (Married.) Connected with the Nichols Chemical Co. Member Crescent Athletic Club of Brooklyn, American Institute of Mining Engineers and Military Order of the Loyal Legion.

MASTERS, HIBBERT B. (Colonel)—Merchant, 192 West Broadway, New York City; residence 285 Quincy street, Brooklyn. Born in Nova Scotia, Aug. 10, 1829. Educated in Boston public schools and at Hebron (Me.) Academy. (Married Clara E. Everett.) Proprietor H. B. Masters, Ocala, Fla.; partner D. R. Dunlap Mercantile Co., Mobile Ala. Member Salmagundi Club, Union League Club of Brooklyn (ex-vice-president), E. T. Tefft Post No. 355, G. A. R. (commander), and Military Order of the Loyal Legion.

MASTERSON, JOHN PHILIP—Surveyor of Customs, Albany; residence 5 Chestnut street. Born in Albany, May 6, 1849. Educated in public and private schools. Clerk in State Adjutant-General's office, 1875-9; held several other State clerkships until 1892; police commissioner of Albany, 1893-4; State Surveyor of Customs since Oct. 1, 1894. Secretary of the Democratic General Committee of Albany since 1874.

MASTERSON, WALTER J.—Real Estate, 127 Fifth avenue, New York City; residence 125 St. John's place, Brooklyn. Born in Jersey City, N. J., June 21, 1872. Educated at Madison Academy. Member Atlantic Yacht and Crescent Athletic Clubs of Brooklyn.

MASTICK, SEABURY C.—Lawyer, 149 Broadway, New York City; residence 35 Mount Morris Park, West. Born in San Francisco, Cal., July 19, 1871. Educated at Oberlin College and University of California. (Married.) Member Congregational Club, Association of the Bar of the City of New York, New York Electrical Society and Sons of the American Revolution.

MASTIN, J. EDWARD—Banker, 3 Broad street, New York City; residence 111 West 70th street. Born in New York City. Educated by private tutors and at College of the City of New York. (Married.) Member of the firm of Drake, Mastin & Co. and of the New York Stock Exchange. Senior officer and treasurer Bloomingdale Reformed Church. Member Stock Exchange Luncheon and Colonial Clubs.

MATCHETT, CHARLES HORATIO—Electrician, 81 Willoughby street, Brooklyn. Born in Needham, Mass., May 15, 1843. Educated at Boston High School. Served in United States Navy during Civil War. In employ of New York and New Jersey Telephone Co. since 1886. Quite prominent in Socialistic Labor Party since 1885; has been candidate for Mayor of Brooklyn, Governor of New York, and President of the United States. Member Grand Army of the Republic.

MATHER, FRED—Author, 63 Linden street, Brooklyn. Born in Greenbush, N. Y., Aug. 2, 1833. Educated in Albany. (Married.) Served with distinction throughout Civil War. Has taken considerable interest in fish culture. Author of "Men I Have Fished With," "Ichthyology of the Adirondacks" and other works of a similar nature. Contributor to "Forest and Stream" and other periodicals.

MATHER, FREDERIC GREGORY—Writer and Journalist, 120 Lancaster street, Albany. Born in Cleveland, Ohio, Aug. 11, 1844. Educated at Dartmouth College ('67). (Married.) Has been editor-in-chief of the Binghamton "Republican," editorial writer on the Albany "Evening Journal" and special representative of the United States Bureau of Education to report upon the educational institutions of Canada. Now connected with the office of the New York State Comptroller in the work of arranging the original documents relating to the Revolutionary War and the War of 1812; Albany correspondent of various newspapers and contributor to several of the leading magazines. Compiler of "New York in the Revolution." Member Port Orange Club, Albany Institute and Albany Historical and Art Society.

MATHER, RODERICK B.—Broker, 60 Broadway, New York City; residence Hotel St. George, Brooklyn. Member of the firm of Lynes & Mather. Director Consolidated Stock and Petroleum Exchange and South Yuba Water Co. Member Union League Club, and Crescent Athletic and Hamilton Clubs of Brooklyn.

MATHERS, JOSEPH—Trimmings Merchant, 98 Bleecker street, New York City; residence 231 Gates avenue, Brooklyn. Born in New York City, March 23, 1856. Educated in New York City. (Married.) Interested in the business of J. W. Goddard & Sons. Member Union League, Lincoln and Young Republican Clubs of Brooklyn.

MATHESON, A. ROSS—Physician, 37 Seventh avenue, Brooklyn. Educated at University of Michigan. Member Montauk Club, Medical Society of the State of New York, Brooklyn Gynecologists' Society, University of Michigan Alumni Association and Grand Army of the Republic.

MATHESON, WILLIAM J.—Chemical and Dye Merchant, 182 Front street, New York City; residence 24 Remsen street, Brooklyn, and St. James, L. I. Born in Elkhorn, Wis., Sept. 15, 1856. Educated at St. Andrew's in Scotland. President and director Wm. J. Matheson & Co. (Ltd.) of Montreal and New York; vice-president and director Manufacturers' Trust Co. of Brooklyn; director Morse & Rogers, Fidelity and Casualty Co. and Read Phosphate Co. Special partner in the New York Stock Exchange firm of Jas. H. Oliphant & Co. Member Union League, New York Yacht, Seawanhaka-Corinthian Yacht and Riding Clubs, Hamilton Club of Brooklyn, American Chemical and St. Andrew's Societies, Manufacturing Chemists' and Down Town Associations and Society of Chemical Industry.

MATHEWS, ALBERT—Lawyer and Author, 31 Pine street, New York City; residence 48 East 26th street. Born in New York City, Sept. 8, 1820. Educated at Yale ('42) and at Harvard Law School ('44). (Widower.) Director Hanover Fire Insurance Co.; trustee New York Society Library. Author of "Walter Ashwood" (novel), "A Bundle of Papers" and "Ruminations," under nom de plume of Paul Siegvolk.

Member University, Yale, National Arts and Authors' Clubs, Civil Service Reform and Century Associations, St. Nicholas, American Arts and National Sculpture Societies, American Museum of Natural History, American Academy of Political and Social Science of Philadelphia, and Association of the Bar of the City of New York.

MATHEWS, CHARLES T.—Architect, 150 Fifth avenue, New York City; residence 30 West 57th street. Educated at Columbia. Member Calumet, Racquet and Tennis, Delta Phi, University and Tuxedo Clubs, Columbia University Alumni Association and American Institute of Architects.

MATHEWS, JOHN ALEXANDER—Chemist, 116th street and Morningside Heights, New York City. Degrees of M.S. and Ph.D. Tutor in general chemistry at Columbia University.

MATHEWS, WILBUR KNOX—Broker, 40 Wall street, New York City; residence 18 East 32d street. Member of the firm of Mathews, Grange & Co. and of the New York Stock Exchange. Vice-president and director White Knob Copper Co.; director New York and Queens County R. R. Co. Member Calumet, Racquet and Tennis, and Players' Clubs.

MATHEWS, WILLIAM H.—Manufacturer, 99 John street, New York City; residence Ansonia, Conn. Secretary Ansonia Brass and Copper Co. Member Engineers' and Fulton Clubs.

MATHEWS, W. HENRY—Publisher, Rochester; residence 292 Alexander street. Born in Rochester, April 10, 1838. Educated in Rochester. (Married.) President Rochester "Democrat and Chronicle" Co.; trustee East Side Savings Bank; director Central Bank. Member Genesee Valley and Rochester Whist Clubs.

MATHEWSON, CHARLES F.—Lawyer, 40 Wall street, New York City; residence 102 West 93d street. Born in Barton, Vt., May 3, 1860. Educated at Omaha High School, St. Johnsbury (Vt.) Academy, Dartmouth College (A.B., '82) and Columbia University Law School (LL.B., '85). (Married.) Member of the firm of Harmon & Mathewson. General counsel to the Caledonian Insurance Co. of Edinburgh, Caledonian-American Insurance Co. of New York, and other corporations. Trustee Dartmouth College; director Caledonian-American Insurance Co. Member University Athletic (vice-president and trustee), Dartmouth (president), Westchester Golf and Delta Kappa Epsilon (vice-president) Clubs, Phi Beta Kappa and New England Societies, Down Town Association and Brooklyn Society of Vermonters.

MATTHEWS, AZEL D.—Dry Goods Merchant, 398 Fulton street, Brooklyn; residence 44 South Portland avenue. Born in Berkshire County, Mass., April 29, 1809. (Married.) Senior member of the firm of A. D. Mathews & Sons. In retail dry goods business in Brooklyn since 1837. Member of several charitable organizations.

MATTHEWS, BRANDER—Professor and Author, 116th street and Morningside Heights, New York City; residence 681 West End avenue. Born in New Orleans, La., Feb. 21, 1852. Educated at Columbia (A.B., '71, LL.B., '73, and A.M., '74). Professor of literature at Columbia University since 1892. Author of "The Theatres of Paris," "French Dramatists of the Nineteenth Century," "The Home Library," "The Story of a Story and Other Stories," "With My Friends," "In the Vestibule Limited," "A Tale of Twenty-Five Hours," "Americanisms and Briticisms," "The Royal Marine," "His Father's Son," "A Confident To-Morrow" and very many other works. Director Columbia University Press. Member Players', Nineteenth Century and Authors' Clubs, American Fine Arts and Dunlap Societies and Columbia University Alumni and Century Associations.

MATTHEWS, GEORGE—Manufacturer, 333 East 26th street, New York City; residence 47 Fifth avenue. Born in New York City, March 5, 1856. Educated in New York City. (Married.) Member of the firm of John Matthews. President The Matthews Soda Water Co. of Chicago. Member New York Yacht Club.

MATTHEWS, GEORGE EDWARD—Editor and Publisher, Buffalo. Born, March 17, 1855. Educated in private schools and at Yale ('77). Editor "Buffalo Express" since 1889. President Matthews-Northrup Co. Member University and Liberal Clubs.

MATTHEWS, JAMES—Dry Goods Merchant, 398 Fulton street, Brooklyn; residence 208 Berkeley place. Born in Brooklyn, March 25, 1839. Educated in public schools. (Married.) Member of the firm of A. D. Matthews & Sons. Vice-president and director Retal Dry Goods Association; director Sprague National Bank; ex-president Consolidation League of Greater New York. Member Montauk and Brooklyn (treasurer) Clubs and New England Society.

MATTHIESSEN, FRANCIS O.—Capitalist, 10 Wall street, New York City; residence 580 Fifth avenue. Born in Holstein, Germany, Dec. 23, 1833. (Married.) President and director Weston Electrical Instrument Co.; director Goubert Mfg Co., New Jersey Street Ry. Co., First National Bank of Jersey City, and Glucose Sugar Refining Co. of New Jersey. Member South Side Sportsmen's and New York Clubs, Metropolitan Museum of Art, American Museum of Natural History, Blooming Grove Park Association and Chamber of Commerce.

MATTOCKS, FREDERICK W.—Lawyer, 66 Broadway, New York City; residence Englewood, N. J. Born in Toledo, Ohio, Feb. 6, 1868. Educated at Oberlin College and Columbia Law School ('94). (Single.) Member of the firm of McKelvey & Mattocks. Member Association of the Bar of the City of New York.

MAURY, CHARLES WALKER—Stock Broker, 58 Exchange place, New York City; residence 17 East 38th street. Member of the firm of Jones, Maury & Co., and of the New York Stock Exchange. Member Union, Church, Calumet, and Racquet and Tennis Clubs and Southern Society.

MAXFIELD, JAMES E.—Artist, 152 West 57th street, New York City; residence Ridgfield, N. J. Born in Detroit, Mich., Aug. 10, 1848. (Widower.) Member Salmagundi and National Arts Clubs.

MAXWELL, GEORGE T.—Broker, 3 Broad street, New York City; residence Tuxedo. Educated at Princeton. (Married.) Member of the firm of Maxwell & Seoville, and of the New York Stock Exchange. Member Princeton, Racquet and Tennis, Metropolitan and Tuxedo Clubs.

MAXWELL, HOWARD W.—Cement, 143 Liberty street, New York City; residence 78 Eighth avenue, Brooklyn. (Married.) Treasurer Atlas Portland Cement Co.; director Garwood Land and Improvement Co. Member Lawyers' Club, Nassau Country Club and Hamilton, Rembrandt, Riding and Driving, Dyker Meadow Golf, Crescent Athletic and Montauk Clubs of Brooklyn.

MAXWELL, ROBERT—Woolen Merchant, 64 Worth street, New York City; residence 7 West 26th street. Educated at Yale ('87). Vice-president and director Hockanum Association, and Sea Gate Improvement Co.; director Norton's Point Land Co. Member Union League, Republican, Arkwright, Yale, University, Essex County (N. J.) Country, Twilight, University Athletic, Atlantic Yacht and Merchants' Clubs and New England Society.

MAXWELL, WILLIAM G.—Lawyer, 260 West Broadway, New York City; residence 159 West 22d street. Educated at Cornell. Member University Athletic and Richmond County Country Clubs, Cornell University Alumni Association and Association of the Bar of the City of New York.

MAXWELL, WILLIAM HENRY—Educator, Park avenue and 59th street, New York City; residence 682 Greene avenue, Brooklyn. Born in Ireland, March 5, 1852. (Son of Rev. John Maxwell.) Educated at the Colleges of Belfast and Galway, and Queen's University (A.B., '72 and A.M., '74). Honorary degree of Ph.D. from St. Lawrence University. Resident of the United States since 1874. Assistant superintendent of schools in Brooklyn, 1882-7; superintendent of same, 1887-93. City superintendent of public schools for Greater New York since 1898. Author of "Introductory Lessons in English Grammar," "Advanced Lessons in English Grammar" and other educational works.

MAY, CALVIN S.—Physician, 205 West 57th street, New York City. Born in Naugatuck, Conn., June 1, 1848. Educated at Yale. (Married.) Member New England Society, Medical Society of the County of New York and Fellow of New York Academy of Medicine.

MAY, CHARLES—Lawyer, 32 Nassau street, New York City; residence 5 East 84th street. Born in Lee, Berkshire Co., Mass., Dec. 14, 1851. Educated at Williams College. (Married.) Member University and Alpha Delta Phi Clubs and Association of the Bar of the City of New York.

MAY, JULIUS A.—Retired, 236 East 64th street, New York City. Born in Germany, June 9, 1848. Educated in Germany. (Married.) President and director Cagle Gold Mining Co. and Globe Electrical Supply Construction Co. Formerly president of the Mount Morris Electric Light Co. and of the Yonkers Electric Light and Power Co. Member New York Athletic Club, City Club of Yonkers, Liederkrantz (president), German Society (trustee), German Hospital and Dispensary, and Isabella Heimath.

MAYER, CONSTANT—Artist, 24 West 68th street, New York City. Born in Besancon, France, Oct. 4, 1832. Studied art at Ecole des Beaux-Arts, Paris. Established a studio in New York City in 1857. Has painted many notable portraits, including Generals Grant and Sherman. Knight of the Legion of Honor of France. Member National Academy of Design and Society of French Artists.

MAYER, HENRY—Caricaturist, 19 West 31st street. Born in Worms, Germany, July 18, 1868. Educated in Germany and England. Resident of the United States since 1887, and of New York City since 1893. Illustrator for "Life," "Judge," "Truth," "The Century" and other periodicals.

MAYER, JOSEPH—Civil Engineer, 1 Broadway, New York City; residence 112 Madison avenue. Born in Austria, Feb. 11, 1855. Educated in Vienna. (Single.) Chief engineer Union Bridge Co. Member Engineers' Club and American Society of Civil Engineers.

MAYER, JULIUS M.—Lawyer, 38 Park row, New York City; residence 375 West 123d street. Born in New York City, Sept. 5, 1865. Educated at College of the City of New York and Columbia Law School. Member of the firm of Mayer & Gilbert. Member Republican Club, Society of Medical Jurisprudence and Association of the Bar of the City of New York.

MAYER, MARCUS R.—Theatrical Manager, Casino Theatre, 39th street and Broadway, New York City; residence 70 West 36th street. Born in New Orleans, La., Nov. 17, 1848. Educated in California. (Single.) Has been manager of Adelina Patti, Edwin Booth, Mary Anderson, Sarah Bernhardt, Henry Irving, Fanny Davenport, Adelaide Neilson and many other theatrical celebrities. Now managing Olga Nethersole. Director George W. Lederer Co. Member St. George's Club of London, England, and Lambs', Lotos and Democratic Clubs.

MAYER, MORRIS—Merchant, 451 Broadway, New York City; residence 135 West 77th street. Born in New York City, Feb. 22, 1853. Educated in public schools. (Married.) Member of the firm of Loeb & Schoenfeld of Rorschach, Switzerland, and Camden, N. J. Member Arkwright and Freundschaft Clubs.

MAYES, LORENZO D.—Lawyer, 44 Broadway, New York City; residence 109 West 114th street. (Married.) Member Democratic organization and Masonic bodies.

MAYHEW, ZEB—Lumber Merchant, 17 State street, New York City; residence 862 Carroll street, Brooklyn. Born in Brooklyn, Aug. 17, 1852. Educated at Brooklyn Polytechnic Institute. (Married Bessie Cooper of Utica, N. Y., who died Feb. 12, 1887.) Member of the firm of Simpson, Clapp & Co., established in 1848. Member Crescent Athletic and Montauk Clubs of Brooklyn, Brooklyn Library, Brooklyn Institute of Arts and Sciences, Knickerbocker Athletic Club, 7th Regiment Veteran Association, Sons of the Revolution, Metropolitan Museum of Art and New York Produce Exchange.

MAYNARD, EDWIN—Hatter, 716 Broadway, New York City; residence 851 St. Mark's avenue, Brooklyn. Senior member of the firm of Edwin Maynard & Co. Member Union League Club of Brooklyn.

MAYNARD, GEORGE V.—Merchant, 62 Pearl street, New York City; residence 206 West 52d street. Born in Nevis, West Indies, March 17, 1847. Educated by private tutors for eight years and at Woodstock College, Canada. (Widower.) Member New York Produce and Maritime Exchanges and Lotos, Whist and Lake George Country Clubs.

MAYNARD, GEORGE W.—Mining Engineer, 20 Nassau street, New York City; residence Morristown, N. J. Educated at Columbia. Secretary and director Bower-Barff Rustless Iron Co.; director Halifax Chrome Co. and Osceola Placer Mining Co. Member Engineers' Club, Hamilton Club of Brooklyn, Scientific Alliance, Sons of the Revolution, Columbia University Alumni Association and American Institute of Mining Engineers.

MAYNARD, GEORGE WILLOUGHBY—Artist, 156 East 36th street, New York City. Born in Washington, D. C., March 5, 1843. Studied art at Royal Academy of Fine Arts, Antwerp. Established a studio in New York City in 1878. Member Century Association and National Academy of Design.

MAYNARD, NEWLAND—Protestant Episcopalian Clergyman and Lecturer, 16 West 31st street, New York City; residence 130 Fifth avenue. Born in England, April 20, 1838. Educated at Upper Canada College, Toronto. (Single.) Rector of St. Paul's Episcopal Church, Brooklyn, N. Y., for fifteen years; Ascension Church Chapel for two years; chaplain, 47th Regiment for fifteen years, 9th Regiment for nine years, National Guard Association for seven years, Second Battery and First Battery, and acting chaplain Old Guard for one year. Member Army and Navy Club and Fellow Royal Historical Society of Great Britain.

MAYNARD, REUBEN LESLIE—Lawyer, 141 Broadway, New York City; residence 501 Fifth avenue. Born in Utica, N. Y., Sept. 15, 1862. Educated at Whitestown Seminary ('80), Hamilton College (A.B., '84 and A.M., '86), Berlin University, Germany ('89), and Cornell University (LL.B., '91). Member of the firm of Maynard & Tolles. Member Delta Kappa Epsilon, Phi Delta Phi, Knickerbocker Athletic, Quill and Cornell University Clubs, New York State Bar and Hamilton College Alumni Associations, Sons of Oneida County, Association of the Bar of the City of New York, Albion Lodge No. 26, F. & A. M., Jerusalem Chapter No. 8, Palestine Commandery, New York City Consistory A. A. S. R. (thirty-second degree), and No. 18, Mecca Temple A. A. O., Nobles of the Mystic Shrine.

MAYO, CASWELL A.—Editor, 66 West Broadway, New York City; residence 1176 Jefferson avenue, Brooklyn. Born in Columbus, Miss., July 5, 1862. Educated at the University of Columbus and at Philadelphia College of Pharmacy. (Widower.) Editor of the "American Druggist and Pharmaceutical Record." Director American Druggist Publishing Co. Served as a member of the committees to arrange the reception of the U. S. S. Raleigh and Admiral Dewey. Member Blue Pencil, Drug Trade and Press Clubs, New York College of Pharmacy, American Pharmaceutical and New York Pharmaceutical Associations and Authors' and Southern Societies.

MAYO, CLAYTON—Ship Builder, 50 Broadway, and Morris Heights, New York City; residence 157 West 123d street. Born in Montague, Mass., 1870. (Single.) President and director American Fog Horn Co.; secretary and director Gas Engine and Power Co., & Charles Seabury & Co. (Consol.). Member New York Yacht, Harlem, Fordham and Country Cycle Clubs.

MAYO, EARL WILLIAMS—Editor, 141 East 25th street, New York City; residence 26 East 21st street. Born in Springville, N. Y., May 5, 1873. Educated at Cornell ('94). (Single.) Associated with the S. S. McClure Co. Author of "A Border Rivalry" and of numerous short stories.

MAYO-SMITH, RICHMOND—Professor, 116th street and Morningside Heights, New York City; residence 305 West 77th street. Born in Ohio, 1854. Educated at Amherst (Ph.D., '75). Professor of political economy and social science at Columbia University since 1883. Member Social Reform, University, Authors' and Barnard Clubs and Century Association.

MCADAM, DAVID—Supreme Court Justice, County Court House, New York City; residence 354 West 33d street. Born in New York City, October, 1838. (Son of Thomas and Jane McAdam.) Educated in public schools. (Married.) Justice of the Marine Court, 1874-82; Chief Judge of the City Court, 1882-90; Judge of the Superior Court, 1891-5; Supreme Court Justice since 1896; term expires Dec. 31, 1904. Author of many legal works, including several on "Marine Court Practice" and "Landlord and Tenant." Member New York Press, Democratic and Twilight Clubs, Liederkranz, Authors' Society and Society of Medical Jurisprudence.

MCADAM, THOMAS—Lawyer, 90 West Broadway, New York City; residence 5 West 121st street. Born in New York City, April 23, 1863. (Son of Supreme Court Justice David McAdam.) Educated at Moeller Institute, Sachs Institute, Columbia College ('83) and Columbia College Law School ('85). (Married Sarah S. Blair of New York City, 1886.) Member New York Commercial and Harlem Clubs.

MCADOO, WILLIAM—Lawyer, 15 Wall street, New York City; residence 210 West 57th street. Born in Ireland, Oct. 25, 1853. Educated in the United States. (Married.) Formerly counsel public boards in New Jersey, member New Jersey Legislature and of Congress eight years; Assistant Secretary of United States Navy, 1893-7. Member of the firm of McAdoo & McAdoo. Director and counsel Sutherland Construction and Improvement Co. Member Essex County (N. J.) Country, Calumet and Lawyers' Clubs.

MCADOO, WILLIAM G., JR.—Lawyer, 15 Wall street, New York City; residence Yonkers. Born in Marietta, Ga., Oct. 31, 1863. Educated at the University of Tennessee, Knoxville. (Married.) Member of the firms of McAdoo & McAdoo (lawyers) and Pemberton & McAdoo (bankers). Director Riker Motor Vehicle Co. Member Reform, New York Athletic, Lawyers', and St. Andrew's Clubs, Ardsley Club of Ardsley-on-Hudson, and Southern Society.

MCALLEY, JAMES—Secretary, 11 Broadway, New York City; residence 601 Hancock street, Brooklyn. Born in Glasgow, Scotland, June 28, 1828. Educated in high school in Glasgow. (Married.) Went to Quebec in 1844; held different positions in Sherbrooke and Montreal, Canada, previous to coming to New York City in 1849; engaged in importing and other commercial business, 1849-69. Was first importer of Trinidad asphalt in 1869, and has been connected with Trinidad asphalt companies and Trinidad asphalt paving companies since then. Director Star Roofing Co.

MCALPIN, BENJAMIN B.—Lawyer, 111 Broadway, New York City; residence 55 West 33d street, and Sing Sing. Educated at Princeton. Member of the firm of McAlpin & Stelle. Member Republican, Lawyers', Princeton, University Athletic and Mount Pleasant Field Clubs.

MCALPIN, DAVID HUNTER—Tobacco Manufacturer, 150 Avenue D, New York City; residence 46 West the Republic, and Standard Gas Light Co.; trustee 58th street. President and director D. H. McAlpin & Co.; director Eleventh Ward Bank, German-American Real Estate Title and Guarantee Co., Home Insurance Co., Manhattan Life Insurance Co., National Bank of Union Trust Co. Member Metropolitan Museum of Art and American Museum of Natural History.

MCALPIN, DAVID HUNTER, JR.—Physician, 338 East 26th street, New York City; residence 9 East 55th street. Educated at Princeton ('85). Director D. H. McAlpin & Co. Member Princeton, University, Metropolitan, University Glee and Riding Clubs and Metropolitan Museum of Art.

MCALPIN, EDWARD AUGUSTUS—Manufacturer, 150 Avenue D, New York City; residence Sing Sing. Born in New York City, June 9, 1848. Educated at Phillips Andover Academy. (Married Annie Brandreth.) Became member of the firm of D. H. McAlpin & Co. in 1870. Treasurer New York State Republican Committee. Republican Presidential Elector in 1888, 1892 and 1896. Adjutant-General of the State of New York, 1895-7, with rank of major-general, on staff of Governor Morton; served for a time as postmaster and mayor of Sing Sing. President and director McAlpin Tobacco Co., Manhattan Hotel Co.; Ossining Electrical R. R. Co., Hygeia Distilled Water Co. and Sing Sing Hospital and Free Dispensary; director Sixth National Bank, Eleventh Ward Bank, State Trust Co. and New York Board of Trade and Transportation. Member Union League, New York Athletic, New Rochelle Yacht, Sing Sing Yacht, Business Men's Republican and New York Republican Clubs.

MCALPIN, GEORGE L.—Tobacco Manufacturer, 150 Avenue D, New York City; residence 9 East 90th street. Educated at Yale ('79). Treasurer and director D. H. McAlpin & Co. Member University, Union League, University Athletic, Players', New York Yacht and Yale Clubs.

MCBREEN, PATRICK F.—Printer, 218 William street, New York City; residence 404 Monroe street, Brooklyn. Secretary and director Club Publishing Co. Member New York Press, Thirteen and Adirondack League Clubs, Typothetae and General Society of Mechanics and Tradesmen.

MCBRIDE, JAMES W.—Tea Merchant, 92 Front street, New York City; residence 49 Remsen street, Brooklyn. Member Crescent Athletic and Hamilton Clubs of Brooklyn, and Richmond County Country Club.

MCBRIDE, NELSON—Druggist, Patchogue. Born in Patchogue, Nov. 22, 1857. (Married.) President Merchants' and Manufacturers' Association; treasurer Patchogue Library Association; trustee Union Savings Bank. Member Patchogue Club (treasurer), Valiant Lodge No. 81, Knights of St. John and Malta, Pattsmanse Lodge No. 778, Royal Arcanum, and Foresters of America.

MCBRIDE, WILBER—Lawyer, 15 Wall street, New York City; residence 1992 Madison avenue. Educated at Yale ('82). Member Yale, University and Manhattan Clubs and Association of the Bar of the City of New York.

MCBURNAY, CHARLES—Surgeon, 28 West 37th street, New York City. Born in Roxbury, Mass., Feb. 17, 1845. Educated at Harvard ('66) and at New York College of Physicians and Surgeons. (Married.) Professor of clinical surgery in College of Physicians and Surgeons; attending surgeon to Roosevelt Hospital; consulting surgeon to Presbyterian and St. Luke's Hospitals. Formerly professor of surgery in Columbia University and visiting surgeon Roosevelt Hospital. Member Harvard and University Clubs and Century Association.

MCBURNAY, CHARLES I.—Lawyer, 101 Chambers street, New York City; residence 55 West 53d street. Member New York Athletic Club, St. John's Guild and Association of the Bar of the City of New York.

MCCABE, RUDOLPH T.—Capitalist, 29 Broadway, New York City; residence New London, Conn. President and director Central Pennsylvania and Western R. R. Co. and New York and North Shore R. R. Co.; director New Mexico Ry. Co., New York and Queens County Ry. Co. and New York Structural Steel Co. Member Colonial, Lawyers', Union League, New York Yacht and Larchmont Yacht Clubs and Lafayette Post G. A. R.

MCCABE, WILLIAM H.—Architect, 253 Broadway, New York City; residence 464 Eighth street, Brooklyn. Born in Greenville, N. Y., Feb. 6, 1856. Educated at Greenville Academy. (Married.) Vice-president and director American Service Union. Member Architectural League and U. S. Grant Post No. 327, G. A. R.

MCCAGG, LOUIS BUTLER—291 Madison avenue, New York City. Educated at Harvard ('84). Member University, University Athletic and Harvard Clubs, Ardsley Casino of Ardsley-on-Hudson, American Fine Arts and Musical Arts Societies, Harvard Alumni and Century Associations and Metropolitan Museum of Art.

MCCALL, EDWARD E.—Lawyer, 346 Broadway, New York City; residence 218 West 136th street. President and director International Automobile and Vehicle Co.; director American Bond and Mortgage Guarantee Co., International Banking and Trust Co., Lawyers' Engineering and Surveying Co., National Exhibition Co. and United States Automatic Telephone Co. Member New York Athletic, Lawyers' and Catholic Clubs and Association of the Bar of the City of New York.

MCCALL, JAMES—Lawyer, Bath. Born in Bath, July 17, 1864. Educated at Cornell. (Married.) Member Cornell and Psi Upsilon Clubs of New York City.

MCCALL, JOHN AUGUSTINE—Insurance, 346 Broadway, New York City; residence 54 West 72d street. Born in Albany, N. Y., March 2, 1849. Educated in Albany public schools, and at Albany Commercial College. (Married.) Was in service of Connecticut Mutual Life Insurance Co. until 1869. Clerk in New York State Insurance Department, 1869-76; deputy superintendent, 1876-83; Superintendent, 1883-7. Comptroller of Equitable Life Assurance Society of the United States, New York City, 1887-92. President and trustee New York Life Insurance Co. since 1892; director Ingersoll-Sergeant Drill Co., Central National Bank, National City Bank, National Surety Co. and Berkshire Cotton Mills Mfg Co.; trustee Fidelity Trust Co. of Kansas City, Mo., New York Security and Trust Co., Munich Re-Insurance Co. and Metropolitan Life Insurance Co. Member Metropolitan, Manhattan, Colonial, Lawyers' and Merchants' Clubs, Metropolitan Museum of Art and Albany and National Arts Societies.

MCCANN, CHARLES E. F.—Lawyer, 146 Broadway and Criminal Court Building, New York City; residence 59 West 76th street. Born in New York City. Educated at Columbia Grammar School, St. Francis Xavier College (Ph.B.) and at Columbia College Law School (LL.B.). Practicing in New York City since his admission to the Bar in 1896. Deputy assistant district attorney since 1898.

MCCANN, WILLIAM PENN.—Retired Commodore, United States Navy; residence 29 Park avenue, New Rochelle. Born in Paris, Ky., May 4, 1830. Educated at United States Naval Academy ('54). Lieutenant-commander, July 16, 1862; commander, July 25, 1866; captain, Sept. 21, 1876; commodore, Jan. 26, 1887; retired, May, 1892. Served with distinction throughout Civil War, and, after the war, on many stations. During Spanish-American War served as president on courts of inquiry and courts martial; also as prize commissioner for the Southern District of New York.

MCCARREN, PATRICK HENRY—Lawyer, 16 Court street, Brooklyn. Born in East Cambridge, Mass., July 18, 1849. Educated at Public School No. 17 in Brooklyn. Was cooper's apprentice in 1855, and became a journeyman cooper in 1868. Entered the oil and cooperage business as an employee of J. H. Archer & Co. of New York City. Was elected to the Assembly from the Sixth District of Brooklyn in 1881, and was re-elected the following year; was a candidate for the State Senate in 1885, but was defeated; was re-elected to the Assembly in 1888; 1889 was elected to the State Senate from the Fourth District, and was re-elected in 1891 and 1895. Was a delegate to the Democratic National Conventions of 1892 and 1900. Member Democratic Club.

MCCARROLL, JAMES R. T.—Leather Merchant, 16 Spruce street, New York City; residence East Orange, N. J. Born in Belfast, Ireland, 1854. Educated in Belfast. (Married.) Treasurer and director American Leather Co.

MCCARROLL, WILLIAM—Leather Merchant, 16 Spruce street, New York City; residence 758 St. Marks avenue, Brooklyn. Born in Belfast, Ireland. Educated in private schools and at Royal Academical Institution. (Married.) Vice-president and director American Leather Co.; director New York Board of Trade and Transportation, Oriental Bank and Manufacturers' Association; chairman Brooklyn Committee of Fifty. Member Drug Club, Union League and Marine and Field Clubs of Brooklyn, Chamber of Commerce, National Association of Manufacturers, Manufacturers' Association of New York, and Young Men's Christian Association of Brooklyn.

MCCARTER, HENRY—Artist, 74 Washington square, South, New York City. Born in Norristown, Pa., July 5, 1865. Educated in Norristown, and in Paris, France, under the late Puvis de Chavannes. Illustrator on "Scribner's," "Century," "Harper's" and other magazines.

MCCARTY, BARCLAY E. V.—Lawyer, 33 Wall street, New York City; residence Hotel Manhattan. Educated at Columbia ('84). Member of the firm of McCarty & Baldwin. Member University and Manhattan Clubs, Columbia University Alumni Association and Association of the Bar of the City of New York.

MCCARTHY, DENNIS—Merchant, Syracuse; residence 905 James street. Born in Syracuse, 1854. Educated at Cornell. (Married.) President D. McCarthy & Sons; commissioner State Board of Charities; director First National Bank; trustee Syracuse Savings Bank. Member Century, Syracuse and Citizens' Clubs.

MCCARTHY, JOHN HENRY—Judge, 32 Chambers street, New York City; residence 135 West 120th street. Born in New York City, 1849. Educated in public schools and at Christian Brothers Academy; also studied law and was admitted to the Bar in 1873. Assemblyman, 1878-81; elected a civil justice in 1881; Congressman, 1890; City Court Judge since 1891; present term expires Dec. 31, 1907.

MCCARTHY, THOMAS M.—Wholesale Grocer, 55 Hudson street, New York City; residence 218 West 72d street. Born in New York City, Nov. 21, 1851. Educated at St. Francis Xavier College ('68). (Married.) Member of the firm of Austin Nichols & Co. Treasurer and director Ixtapan Del Oro Mining Co. Member New York Athletic and Catholic Clubs and Down Town Association.

MCCARTY, EDWARD W.—Roman Catholic Clergyman, 52 Sterling place, Brooklyn. Pastor St. Augustine's Roman Catholic Church. President Columbian Club and Catholic Women's Association; director Christian Press Association Publishing Co.; trustee Brooklyn Bureau of Charities and Brooklyn Institute of Arts and Sciences.

MCCARTY, E. R.—Bookkeeper, 242 West 58th street, New York City. Born in Venice, Cayuga Co., N. Y., Oct. 13, 1830. Educated in Scipio, Cayuga County. (Married.) Member New York Mineralogical Club and Academy of Sciences.

MCCAUSTLAND, ELMER JAMES—Instructor, Cornell University, Ithaca; residence 119 Quarry street. Degree of M.C.E. Instructor in civil engineering at Cornell University.

MCCHESENEY, ALBERT EDWARD—Publisher, Franklin and Jefferson streets, Syracuse; residence 110 Walnut place. Born in Schaghticoke, Rensselaer Co., N. Y., April 17, 1848. Educated at Syracuse High School. (Married.) Member of the firm of Hall & McCheesney. Secretary and treasurer Onondaga Sweeper Co. Member Citizens' and Camera Clubs, Genealogical Society and board of managers Syracuse Chamber of Commerce.

MCCHESENEY, THOMAS D.—Manufacturer, 41 Union square, West, New York City; residence 205 Boulevard. Vice-president and director Opaque Shade Cloth Co.; secretary and director Columbia Shade Cloth Co.; general manager and director Keystone Shade Roller Co. Member Merchants' Central and Colonial Clubs.

MCCLAIVE, JOHN—Lumber Merchant, 602 West 22d street, New York City; residence 124 West 72d street. Born in New York City, Sept. 11, 1839. Educated in New York public schools and at the College of the City of New York. (Married.) Was chairman finance committee of Board of Aldermen and member Sinking Fund Commission, 1879-81; commissioner of police, 1884-93. Trustee Union Dime Savings Bank for ten years and of Central Baptist Church for twenty-seven years. Member Colonial and Republican Clubs.

MCCLELLAN, GEORGE B.—Lawyer and Congressman, 100 Broadway, New York City; residence Union Club, New York City, and 1445 Rhode Island avenue, Washington, D. C. Born in Dresden, Saxony, Nov. 23, 1865. Educated at Princeton ('86). (Married.) Treasurer New York and Brooklyn Bridge 1890-2; president Board of Aldermen, New York City, 1893-4; Representative from Twelfth New York District in Fifty-fourth, Fifty-fifth and Fifty-sixth Congresses and is now member of Committee on Ways and Means of same. Member Union and Princeton Clubs, Military Order of the Loyal Legion and Sons of the Revolution.

MCCLELLAN, JOHN—Captain, United States Army, Fort Hancock, New York Harbor. Born in Chicago, Ill., April 11, 1847. (Son of Colonel John McClellan.) Educated in common schools in the United States and Germany, and at United States Military Academy ('67). (Widower.) Has been acting signal officer and assistant to Chief Signal Officer, General Myer, in Weather Bureau. During Spanish-American War was chief ordnance officer 7th Army Corps; on staff of General Fitzhugh Lee and on staff of General Brooke at Havana, Cuba. Now captain 5th United States Artillery, stationed at Fort Hancock. Member University Club, Aztec Society, Society of the War of 1812, Society of Foreign Wars and Military Order of the Loyal Legion.

MCCLELLAND, CHARLES PAUL—Lawyer, 32 Nassau street, New York City; residence Dobbs Ferry. Born in Scotland, Dec. 19, 1854. Educated in public schools and at New York University. (Married.) Member of the firm of Townsend & McClelland. Member of State Assembly 1885, 1886 and 1891; State senator, 1892-3; special deputy collector New York Custom House, 1886-90; manager Hudson River Hospital for Insane, 1886-96; member original Greater New York Commission. Was for many years member and president of the Board of Education of Dobbs Ferry. Member Ardsley Casino of Ardsley-on-Hudson, and Democratic Club.

MCCLELLAND, JAMES D.—Lawyer, Criminal Court Building, New York City; residence 254 West 14th street. Born in New York City, 1843. Educated in public schools, at Mount Washington Collegiate Institute and at New York University Law School. Practicing in New York City since his admission to the Bar in 1867. Served as a member of the New York State Legislature in 1882. Assistant district attorney of New York County.

MCCLEMENT, JOHN H.—Accountant, 35 Wall street, New York City; residence 77 Downing street, Brooklyn. Born in Philadelphia, Pa., May 27, 1862. Educated at Central High School, Philadelphia. (A.M.) (Married.) Member of the firm of George P. Butler & Bro., members of the New York Stock Exchange. Comptroller Chicago Terminal Transfer R. R. Co. President and director Amsterdam Street R. R. Co. Was comptroller Northern Pacific Terminal Co. of Oregon, and of Edison General Electric Co. and associated companies; president of various electric light and street railroad companies. Certified public accountant for Reorganization Committee of Northern Pacific R. R. Co. and ex-vice-president and comptroller St. Louis, Peoria and Northern R. R. Co. Member Lincoln Club of Brooklyn, Royal Arcanum, Knights of St. John and Malta, and Masonic bodies.

MCCLENAHAN, JAMES—Banker, 481 Eighth avenue, New York City; residence Port Chester. President and director Mutual Bank. Member American Yacht, Colonial and Transportation Clubs.

MCCLINTOCK, EMORY—Insurance, 32 Nassau street, New York City; residence "Kemble Hill," Morristown, N. J. Educated at Columbia. Actuary Mutual Life Insurance Co. of New York. Member Columbia University Alumni and Century Associations.

MCCLURE, ARCHIBALD J.—222 State street, Albany. Born in Albany, April 21, 1872. Educated at Albany Boys' Academy and Albany Law School. (Married.) Member Fort Orange Club, Manhattan Club of New York City, Sons of the American Revolution, Order of Founders and Patriots of America and Society of Colonial Wars.

MCCLURE, DAVID—Lawyer, 22 William street, New York City; residence 22 West 49th street. Born in Dobbs Ferry, N. Y., Nov. 4, 1848. Practicing in New York City since his admission to the Bar in 1869. Member of the firm of Turner, McClure & Rolston.

Counsel to Farmers' Loan and Trust Co., Consolidated Gas Co. and many other corporations; also to Roman Catholic Orphan Asylum and the trustees of St. Patrick's Cathedral. Member of the Constitutional Convention of 1894; also served as a school trustee and as a rapid transit commissioner of the City of New York, Trustee West Side Savings Bank. Member Democratic, New York Athletic, Catholic and Manhattan Clubs and Association of the Bar of the City of New York.

MCCLURE, SAMUEL SIDNEY—Publisher, 141 East 25th street, New York City; residence Lawrence, L. I. Born in County Antrim, Ireland, Feb. 17, 1856. Educated at Knox College, Galesburg, Ill. (Married.) President and director S. S. McClure Co., publishers of "McClure's Magazine." Member Cosmos Club of Washington, D. C., and Rockaway Hunting Club.

MCCOLL, FRANCIS P.—Machinery, 90 West Broadway, New York City; residence 1071 Bergen street, Brooklyn. Member Crescent Athletic and Union League Clubs of Brooklyn and Athletic Club of Boston, Mass.

MCCONIHE, ALONZO—Lumber Merchant, 53 River street, Troy; residence 4 Washington place. Educated at Trinity College. Member Troy Club, Calumet Club of New York City, Saratoga Club of Saratoga, and Trinity College Alumni Association.

MCCONIHE, WARREN—Lawyer, 1 Mutual Building, Troy. Born in Troy, July 8, 1869. Educated at Trinity College ('90), Union University and Albany Law School. (Single.) Judge of the City Court of Troy. Member Troy Club and Trinity College Alumni Association.

MCCONNELL, IRA WELCH—Instructor, Cornell University, Ithaca; residence 442 North Cayuga street. Instructor in civil engineering at Cornell University.

MCCONNELL, SAMUEL D.—Protestant Episcopalian Clergyman, Clinton and Montague streets, Brooklyn; residence 157 Montague street. Born in Westmoreland County, Pa., 1846. Educated at Jefferson College and at Princeton Seminary. Degrees of D.D. from University of Pennsylvania and D.C.L. from Hobart College. (Married.) Deacon 1872; priest 1873. Rector of Holy Trinity Church since 1896; also arch-deacon of Northern Brooklyn. Author of several religious works. Member Hamilton, Montauk, Dyker Meadow Golf, Civic and Barnard Clubs.

MCCOOEY, JOHN H.—Secretary, Criminal Court Building, New York City; residence 1426 Pacific street, Brooklyn. Born and educated in New York City. (Married.) Assistant secretary Civil Service Commission. Member Brooklyn, Columbia and Bushwick Clubs of Brooklyn.

MCCOOK, ANSON GEORGE—Lawyer, 303 Broadway, New York City; residence 128 West 58th street. Born in Steubenville, Ohio, Oct. 10, 1835. Educated in public schools; studied law in California and was admitted to the Bar in 1861. Served with Ohio troops during Civil War, becoming major, lieutenant-colonel, colonel and brigadier-general. Resident of New York City since 1873; Congressman, 1877-83; Secretary to the United States Senate, 1887-93; chamberlain of the City of New York, 1893-7. President and director New York Law Publishing Co.; trustee State Trust Co. Member Union League, Hardware and Republican Clubs, Ohio Society and Military Order of the Loyal Legion.

MCCOOK, JOHN JAMES—Lawyer, 120 Broadway, New York City; residence 10 West 54th street. Born in Carrollton, Ohio, May 25, 1845. Educated at Kenyon College ('66) and at Harvard Law School. (Married.) Senior member of the firm of Alexander & Green. Served throughout Civil War and was mustered out as lieutenant-colonel of Volunteers. Director Equitable Life Assurance Society of the United States, Mercantile Trust Co., New York Loan and Improvement Co. and Wells, Fargo & Co.; trustee American Surety Co., and Sun Insurance Co. Member Metropolitan, City, Delta Kappa Epsilon, Union, University, Union League, Riding, Lawyers', Tuxedo, Princeton, New York Athletic and Harvard Clubs, Ohio Society, Kenyon College Alumni and Down Town Associations, Presbyterian Union, American Museum of Natural History, Military Order of the Loyal Legion and Association of the Bar of the City of New York.

MCCOOK, ROBERT L.—Lawyer, 120 Broadway, New York City; residence Union Club. Educated at Harvard. Member New York Athletic, Manhattan and Union Clubs and Harvard College Alumni Association.

MCCORD, GEORGE HERBERT—Artist, 399 Clason avenue, Brooklyn; residence 294 Gates avenue. Born in New York City, 1848. Educated at Claverack (N. Y.) Institute. (Widower.) Member Salmagundi, Lotos and Black and White Clubs, American Water Color and Artists' Fund Societies and National Academy of Design.

MCCORKLE, JOHN A.—Physician, 149 Clinton street, Brooklyn. Born in Ohio, Feb. 4, 1847. Educated at University of Michigan. (Married.) Member Hamilton, Crescent Athletic and Excelsior Clubs, and Ohio Society.

MCCORKLE, WALTER L.—Lawyer, 3 Broad street, New York City; residence 300 West End avenue. President and director Tobacco Leaf Publishing Co. Member Colonial and Phi Kappa Psi Clubs, Sons of the Revolution, Southern Society and Association of the Bar of the City of New York.

MCCORMACK, LINCOLN—Lawyer, 7 Nassau street, New York City; residence Dobbs Ferry. Educated at Columbia. Member Union and Racquet and Tennis Clubs, Ardsley Casino of Ardsley-on-Hudson and Columbia University Alumni Association.

MCCORMICK, ANDREW A.—Real Estate, 1443 Broadway, New York City; residence 224 West 48th street. Born in New York City, July 10, 1858. (Married.) President and director Broadway Theatre Co. Ex-manager Broadway Theatre and Broadway Theatre Opera Co. Member Union and Catholic Clubs.

MCCORMICK, RICHARD CUNNINGHAM—Mining, 1 Broadway, New York City; residence Jamaica, L. I. Born in New York City, May 23, 1832. Educated in common schools. (Married a daughter of Hon. Allen G. Thurman of Ohio.) Chief clerk in United States Department of Agriculture, 1862-3; Secretary of Arizona Territory, 1863-6; Governor of Arizona, 1866-9; delegate in Congress from Arizona, 1869-75; commissioner to Centennial Exposition, 1876; Assistant Secretary of the United States Treasury, 1877-8; commissioner-general to Paris Exposition, 1878; Congressman from First New York District, 1895-7. Delegate to National Republican Conventions of 1872, 1876 and 1880. President and director Boreel Mining Co. and Small Hopes Consolidated Mining Co.; director Leadville Consolidated Mining Co.; trustee Citizens' Savings Bank. Author of "Arizona; Its Resources," and several other works. Member Union League Club, American Geographical Society and Military Order of the Loyal Legion.

MCCORMICK, STEPHEN, JR.—Real Estate, 589 Third avenue, New York City; residence 2048 Ryer avenue. Born in New York City, July 24, 1854. Educated in city public schools. (Married.) Organizer, in 1888, and since then secretary and director Murray Hill Co-operative Building and Loan Association; chief of indexing department Consolidated Gas Co. for twenty-four years. President Independent Voters' Club.

MCCORMICK, WILLIAM G.—Broker, 70 Broadway, New York City; residence 157 Rush street, Chicago, Ill. Born in Chicago, June 3, 1851. Educated at University of Virginia. (Married Eleanor Brooks.) Member of the New York Stock Exchange. Member Union, Manhattan and Whist Clubs, Chicago and Washington Park Clubs of Chicago, Ill., and Maryland Club of Baltimore, Md.

MCCRACKAN, WILLIAM D.—Author and Lecturer, 174 West 58th street, New York City. Born of American parentage in Munich, Germany, Feb. 12, 1864. Educated at St. Paul's School, Concord, N. H., and at Trinity College, Hartford, Conn. (A.B. and A.M.). (Married.) Author of "The Rise of the Swiss Republic," "Romance and Teutonic Switzerland," "Swiss Solutions of American Problems" and "Little Idyls of the Big World." Member Manhattan Single Tax and Authors' Clubs, Twentieth Century Club of Boston, Mass., and American Historical and American Social Science Associations.

MCCREA, WILLIAM G.—Lawyer, 90 West Broadway, New York City; residence Hotel San Remo. Member of the firm of McCrea, Somerville & Taylor. Director David Stevenson Brewing Co., Mutual Bank and Wright Steam Engine Works. Member Harlem and Democratic Clubs and Society of Medical Jurisprudence.

MCCREADY, NATHANIEL L.—Real Estate, 15 Broad street, New York City; residence 4 East 75th street. Educated at Columbia ('86). Member Metropolitan Union, University, New York Yacht, Calumet, Tuxedo, and Turf and Field Clubs, Country Club of Westchester, American Geographical and St. Nicholas Societies and Columbia University Alumni Association.

MCCREERY, JAMES—Dry Goods Merchant, 801 Broadway and 66 West 23d street, New York City; residence Inwood. Senior member of the firm of James McCreery & Co. Director Mercantile Trust Co. Member Union League Club, American Geographical Society, Aldine Association and Metropolitan Museum of Art.

MCCREERY, JAMES CRAWFORD—Dry Goods Merchant, 801 Broadway, and 66 West 23d street, New York City; residence 337 West 87th street. Member of the firm of James McCreery & Co. Director Retail Dry Goods Association. Member Reform Club and Aldine Association.

MCCUE, EDWARD—Assessor, 320 Broadway, New York City; residence 168 Willis avenue. Born in New York City, 1845. Educated in public schools. Clerk of the Special Term of the Supreme Court until 1884; superintendent of the real estate bureau of the New York, Lake Erie and Western R. R. Co., 1884-9; connected with the New York City Board of Tax Commissioners as an assessor since 1895, and is now president of the board. Member Democratic and Schnorrer Clubs and Tammany Society.

MCCULLAGH, JOHN—Superintendent, 585 Broadway, New York City; residence 317 West 87th street. Born in Ireland, 1845. Educated in New York City public schools. (Married.) Appointed to New York City police force, 1870; roundsman, 1873; sergeant, 1876; captain, 1883; chief of police, 1897; retired May 31, 1898. Organized police force of Havana, Cuba, with approval of President McKinley, 1898; superintendent of metropolitan district, State Bureau of Elections, since 1898.

MCCULLOH, ALLAN—Lawyer, 120 Broadway, New York City; residence 281 West 71st street. Educated at Columbia. Member University Athletic and City Clubs, Crescent Athletic Club of Brooklyn, Englewood (N. J.) Club, Columbia University Alumni Association and Association of the Bar of the City of New York.

MCCULLOUGH, JOHN G. (General)—Railroads, 21 Cortlandt street, New York City; residence 88 Park avenue. President and director Bennington and Rutland Ry. Co., First National Bank of North Bennington, Vt., and Chicago and Erie R. R. Co.; director Central Vermont R. R. Co., Erie R. R. Co., Erie and Wyoming Valley R. R. Co., Fidelity and Casualty Co., Middletown, Unionville and Water Gap R. R. Co., New York, Susquehanna and Western R. R. Co. and Northern R. R. Co. of New Jersey. Member Metropolitan, Union League, University, Lawyers' and Turf and Field Clubs and Sons of the American Revolution.

MCCURDY, DELOS—Lawyer, 66 Broadway, New York City; residence Hoffman House. Member of the firm of McCurdy & Yard. Member Manhattan and Democratic Clubs and Association of the Bar of the City of New York.

MCCURDY, RICHARD A.—Insurance, 32 Nassau street, New York City; residence 37 Fifth avenue. Born in New York City, Jan. 29, 1835. Educated at Harvard. (Married.) President and trustee Mutual Life Insurance Co.; director Bank of New Amsterdam, Continental Insurance Co., Guaranty Trust Co., International Bell Telephone Co., Lawyers' Surety Co., National Union Bank, United States Mortgage and Trust Co., Morton Trust Co., Morristown (N. J.) Trust Co. and National Bank of Commerce. Member Metropolitan, Lawyers', Morris County (N. J.) Golf and Morristown Clubs, St. Stephen's Club of London, England, Metropolitan Museum of Art, New England Society and American Museum of Natural History.

MCCURDY, ROBERT H.—Insurance, 59 Cedar street, New York City; residence 37 Fifth avenue. Born in New York City, May 26, 1859. Educated at Harvard ('81). (Married.) Director Astor National Bank. Member University, Metropolitan, New York Yacht, Harvard, Atlantic Yacht and Seawanhaka-Corinthian Yacht Clubs, Morristown Club of Morristown, N. J., New England Society and Down Town Association.

MCCUTCHEEN, SAMUEL ST. J.—Lawyer, 170 Broadway, New York City; residence Plainfield, N. J. Born in Brooklyn, N. Y. Educated at Yale. Member of the firm of Fletcher, McCutchen & Brown. Formerly member State Board of Education of New Jersey and of commission to revise the school laws of New Jersey. Member Psi Upsilon and Yale Clubs and Down Town Association.

MCCUTCHEON, JAMES—Linen Merchant, 14 West 23d street, New York City; residence Greenwich, Conn. Member of the firm of James McCutcheon & Co. President and director Garfield Safe Deposit Co.; director American Ice Co. and Garfield National Bank. Member Fairfield County Golf, Indian Harbor Yacht, Mirimachi Fish and Game and Laurentian Clubs and Aldine Association.

MCDERMOTT, CHARLES J.—Lawyer, 155 Broadway, New York City; residence 665 St. Marks avenue, Brooklyn. Born in New York City, June 15, 1867. Educated in Brooklyn and New York City, at Adelphi Academy and Columbia College. (Married.) Member of the firm of Boardman & Boardman. Member Reform Club, and Atlantic Yacht and Crescent Athletic Clubs of Brooklyn.

MCDERMOTT, GEORGE ROBERT—Professor, Cornell University, Ithaca; residence 216 University avenue. Assistant professor of naval architecture at Cornell University.

MCDONALD, JOHN B.—Railroad Contractor and Builder, 21 Park row, New York City; residence 1 West 72d street. Born in Ireland, Nov. 7, 1844. (Son of Bartholomew and Mary McDonald.) Educated in New York City public schools. (Married Georgia A. Strang, 1869.) His business career began with construction of the reservoir at Boyd's Corner, Croton water works, New York City. Contractor with the firm of Dillon, Clyde & Co. on the Fourth Avenue Improvement, Vanderbilt Tunnels, north of 42d street, New York City. His next contracts were on the High Bridge Branch of the New Jersey Central R. R. Co., Georgian Bay Branch of the Canadian Pacific R. R. and Boston, Hoosac and Western R. R., building that company's bridge across the Hudson River. His other enterprises include an extension of the Baltimore and Ohio R. R. from Baltimore to Philadelphia, much of the construction of the West Shore R. R., an extension of the Illinois Central R. R. from Elgin, Ill., to Dodgeville, Wis., and the Potomac Valley R. R. from Williamsport, Md., to Cherry Run, W. Va. In 1889, he projected the building of the Baltimore Belt R. R. to connect the Baltimore and Ohio R. R. lines by a tunnel under the city of Baltimore, the charter being granted in 1890; as Ryan & McDonald, he completed the work in January, 1894. Now contractor for the construction in New York City of the underground rapid transit system. Member of the firm of Ryan & McDonald. President South Baltimore Car Works, Ryan-McDonald Mfg. Co., Maryland Bolt and Nut Co., Eastern Ohio R. R. Co. and Ryan & McDonald Construction Co.; director Drake & Stratton Co. Member Suburban Riding and Driving Club.

MCDONALD, KINNIE C.—Lawyer, 84 Broadway, Brooklyn; residence 598 Bedford avenue. Born in Jordanville, Herkimer Co., N. Y., Nov. 15, 1868. Educated in public schools, and at Cornell. (Married.) Member Cornell Club.

MCDONALD, WILLIAM—Manufacturer of Meters, 511 West 21st street, New York City; residence Albany. Born in Albany, Jan. 20, 1843. Educated in Albany. (Married.) Member of the firm of D. McDonald & Co. Member Lotos, Albany and Country Clubs.

MCDONNELL, CHARLES EDWARD—Roman Catholic Bishop, 367 Clermont avenue, Brooklyn. Born in New York City, June 26, 1854. Educated in parochial schools and at St. Francis Xavier College and American College, Rome, Italy (D.D., '87). Ordained priest May, 1878. Master of ceremonies at New York Cathedral, 1879-84; served for a time as secretary to Cardinal McCloskey and to Archbishop Corrigan; private chamberlain to Pope Leo XIII, 1890. Consecrated Bishop of Brooklyn, April 25, 1892. Member Catholic Club and Metropolitan Museum of Art.

MCDONOUGH, JOHN J.—Receiver, 57 Chambers street, New York City; residence 319 East 87th street. Born in New York City, 1850. Educated in public schools. Connected with the Second Avenue Surface R. R. Co., 1863-89; cashier to the Board of Excise, New York City, 1889-91; deputy tax commissioner, 1891-3; deputy receiver of taxes since 1893.

MCDONOUGH, WILLIAM H.—Lawyer, 21 Park row, New York City; residence 505 East 119th street. Born in New York City, 1864. Educated at the College of the City of New York. (Single.) Secretary to the Mayor of the City of New York, 1893; under sheriff of New York County, 1894. Member Democratic, Hardware, Sagamore and Manhattan Clubs.

MCDUGALL, CHARLES—Coffee Importer, 110 Front street, New York City; residence 103 West 48th street. Member Crescent Athletic Club of Brooklyn, and Rough Riding Club.

MCDOWELL, JOHN G.—Lawyer, Robinson Building, Elmira; residence 315 Lake street. Born in Elmira, Jan. 17, 1867. Educated at Cornell ('90). (Married.) Was city attorney of Elmira in 1895. Is now City Judge. Member Cornell Club of New York City.

MCDOWELL, WILLIAM OSBORNE—Organizer, 71 Broadway, New York City; residence 447 Sumner avenue, Newark, N. J. Born in Pluckemin, Somerset Co., N. J., April 10, 1848. Educated in common schools and by private tutors. (Married.) Reorganized Montclair Ry. Co., Midland Ry. Co. of New Jersey, and New York, Ontario and Western Ry. Co.; also planned consolidation of the New York, Susquehanna and Western R. R. Co. Started successful subscription for the completion of Bartholdi's Statue of Liberty; organized Sons of the Revolution, Daughters of the American Revolution, Order of the American Eagle and Pan-Republic Congress; was also an organizer, and from its inception, president, of the Cuban-American League. Delivered oration at World's Columbian Exposition, Chicago, 1893. Member Twilight Club, Sons of the American Revolution, Society of the War of 1812 and Military Order of the Loyal Legion.

McELHENY, VICTOR K., JR.—Lawyer, 100 Broadway, New York City; residence 11 West 84th street. Born in Pittsburg, Pa. Educated at Ohio Wesleyan University ('80) and at Columbia. (Married.) Member University Club and Association of the Bar of the City of New York.

McELLAGOTT, HENRY RICHARD (Colonel)—Secretary, 59 Broadway, New York City; residence 1 East 39th street. Educated at Columbia. Secretary and director United States Automatic Dispatch Co. Member Union League Club, Columbia University Alumni Association and Sons of the American Revolution.

McELRATH, PERCY—Lawyer, 119 Nassau street, New York City; residence 117 West 58th street. Member Mendelssohn Glee and Republican Clubs and Century Association.

McELROY, DANIEL S.—Real Estate, 1489 Broadway, New York City; residence 105 East 37th street and Irvington-on-Hudson. Born in New York City, March 29, 1853. Educated in New York City by private tutors and at Bryant & Stratton's Business College. (Married Linda Lent.) Was stockholder and director of the Third Avenue R. R. Co. and president Pelham Electric Light and Power Co. Represented the Eighteenth New York City District in the State Assembly of 1883, and served on the Cities Committee and others; was chairman of the Committee on Congressional Reapportionment for the counties of New York, Kings, Queens, Suffolk, Richmond, Rockland and Westchester. Member New York Club, and Ardsley Casino of Ardsley-on-Hudson.

McELROY, WILLIAM H.—Editor and Publisher, Rochester; residence 404 East avenue. Educated at Union College. Editor Rochester "Post-Express." Member Genesee Valley Club, Authors' Club of New York City, and Union College Alumni Association.

McELVEEN, WILLIAM T.—Congregational Clergyman, 177 South Ninth street, Brooklyn. Educated at the College of the City of New York. Connected with the New England Congregational Church. Member City, Congregational, Yale and Manhattan Clubs of New York City, and City College Alumni Association.

McEWAN, THOMAS, JR.—Lawyer, 120 Broadway, New York City; residence Jersey City, N. J. Member of the firm of McEwan & McEwan. Ex-assemblyman of New Jersey; member of Fifty-fourth and Fifty-fifth Congresses. Member Church Club.

McFADDEN, BENJAMIN B.—Manufacturer, Binghamton, and 377 Broadway, New York City; residence 228 Main street, Binghamton. Born in Cadiz, Ohio, Aug. 4, 1862. Educated in public school and at Tabor Art School, Chicago. (Married.) President, director and manager The Commercial Envelope Co. (Ltd.) and Consumers' Supply Co. Formerly corresponding secretary East Orange (N. J.) Republican, Lincoln and Fremont Clubs. Member Binghamton Club.

McFARLAN, FRANCIS—Life Insurance, 71 Broadway, New York City; residence Jersey City, N. J. Born and educated in New York City. Was manager in dry goods commission house for ten years; was also connected with J. H. Lane & Co. and Bates, Reed & Cooley for five years. Now special agent Equitable Life Assurance Society of the United States. Member Republican and Lotos Clubs.

McGARVEY, EDWARD—193 Grand street, Brooklyn; residence 84 Morton street. Born in Trenton, N. J., Aug. 1, 1859. (Married.) Trustee First Baptist Church of the Eastern District, Kings County Savings Institution, Eastern District Hospital and Dispensary, and Eastern District Branch of Young Men's Christian Association.

McGHEE, CHARLES M.—Retired, 33 Wall street, New York City; residence 749 Fifth avenue. Born in Tennessee. Educated at the University of Tennessee. (Married.) Vice-president and director Roane Iron Co.; director Western Live Stock and Land Co., Knoxville and Ohio R. R. Co., Rockwood and Tennessee River Ry. Co., Lenoir City Co. and Nashville Street Ry. Co.

McGIFFERT, ARTHUR C.—Professor, 700 Park avenue, New York City; residence Pelham Manor. Born in Sauquoit, N. Y., March 4, 1861. Educated at Western Reserve College, Union Theological Seminary and at the Universities of Berlin and Marburg, Germany; degrees of D.D. and Ph.D. (Married.) Professor of church history at Love Theological Seminary in Cincinnati, Ohio, 1888-93, and since 1893 at Union Theological Seminary. Member Chi Alpha and Theta Clerical Clubs, Union Theological Seminary Alumni and Century Associations, Delta Kappa Epsilon Fraternity and Phi Beta Kappa Society.

McGILVARY, EVANDER BRADLEY—Professor, Cornell University, Ithaca; residence 205 Eddy street. Born in Bangkok, Siam, July 19, 1864. Educated at Bingham (N. C.) School, Davidson (N.C.) College and Princeton Theological Seminary; post-graduate work at Princeton University and University of California. Degrees of A.M. and Ph.D. (Married Elizabeth Allen Paton.) Translator for Presbyterian Board of Foreign Missions in Siam, 1891-4; instructor and assistant professor University of California, 1894-9. Now Sage Professor of moral philosophy at Cornell University. Author of various articles in philosophical journals. Member Town and Gown Club and American Psychological Association.

McGINNIS, EDWARD L. H.—Physician, 329 Amsterdam avenue, New York City. Born in Mobile, Ala., 1862. Educated in the United States and Europe.

(Single.) Electro-therapeutist at Woman's Hospital, Vanderbilt Clinic and College of Physicians and Surgeons; consulting gynecologist at J. Hood Wright Memorial Hospital. Member New York Yacht and Hospital Graduates' Clubs, New York Academy of Medicine, New York County Medical, New York Obstetrical, Woman's Hospital and American Electro-Therapeutical Societies; honorary Fellow Société Française Thérapeutique.

MCGINNIS, ROBERT, JR.—Tobacco Merchant, 101 Wall street, New York City; residence 40 East 76th street. Born in New York City, Jan. 20, 1849. Educated at the College of the City of New York and Christian Brothers School. (Married.) Identified with tobacco trade since 1863. Since 1873 with Buchanan & Lyall. Member Catholic Club, Society of St. Vincent de Paul and Down Town Association.

MCGLASHAN, ARCHIBALD A.—Lawyer, 52 Broadway, New York City; residence 35 West 33d street. Born in St. Catharines, Canada. Educated at Amherst and Columbia. (Single.) Member New York Athletic, Alpha Delta Phi, Salmagundi and Richmond Hill Golf Clubs, Amherst College Alumni Association and Association of the Bar of the City of New York.

MCGOURKEY, SAMUEL D.—Grain Merchant, 435 Produce Exchange, New York City; residence 6 East 69th street. Member St. Nicholas, New York Athletic and Canoe Clubs.

MCGOVERN, JAMES—Broker, 6 Wall street, New York City; residence 326 West 76th street. Member of the firm of James McGovern & Co., and of the New York Stock Exchange.

MCGOVERN, JAMES E.—Plumber, 149 Church street, New York City. Born in Greenwich, Conn., July 4, 1858. Educated in public schools. Member of the Examining Board of Plumbers of the City of New York since 1893 and is now secretary of the board. Member Cherokee Club.

MCGOWAN, HENRY P.—Lawyer, 108 Fulton street, New York City; residence 1982 Madison avenue. Member New York Athletic and Manhattan Clubs and Cuttyhunk Island Club of Buzzard's Bay, Mass.

MCGOWAN, JOHN E.—Lawyer, 1133 Broadway, New York City; residence 11 East 60th street. Member Manhattan, New York Athletic and Democratic Clubs.

MCGOWAN, JOHN P.—Physician, 20 East 29th street, New York City; residence 20 East 28th street. Born in Irvington, N. J., April 23, 1865. Educated at Germantown (N. J.) Academy and Bellevue Hospital Medical College. (Single.) Visiting physician, New York Foundling Hospital; consulting surgeon to Presentation "Day Nursery." Formerly surgeon United States Navy and brigade surgeon Naval Militia of New York. Member Union League, New York Yacht and Army and Navy Clubs, Army and Navy Club of Washington, D. C., New York Academy of Medicine, Medico-Legal and County Medical Societies, Naval Reserve Association and Military Orders of Foreign and Spanish-American Wars.

MCGRATH, ROBERT HUNTER, JR.—Lawyer, 43 Cedar street, New York City; residence 29 Washington square, West. Member Reform and Democratic Clubs and Association of the Bar of the City of New York.

MCGREGOR, BRADFORD B.—Vice-President, 26 Broadway, New York City; residence 205 West 57th street. (Married.) Director A. J. Sheldon Co. and Edgemont and Union Hill Smelting Co. Member Larchmont Yacht, Westchester Country, Riding, New York Athletic and New York Yacht Clubs.

MCGUCKIN, WILLIAM G.—Professor, 17 Lexington avenue, New York City; residence 176 West 105th street. Born in New York City, Oct. 16, 1849. Educated at the College of the City of New York. (Married.) Assistant professor of history in College of the City of New York. Member Delta Kappa Epsilon Club and Phi Beta Kappa Society.

MCGUIRE, ELISHA W.—Lawyer, 16 Exchange place, New York City; residence 143 Lefferts place, Brooklyn. Born in Ledyard, Conn., Aug. 13, 1854. Educated at Connecticut State Normal School and Columbia Law School. (Married.) Member New England Society and Association of the Bar of the City of New York.

MCGUIRE, JAMES CLARK—Consulting Engineer and Contractor, 26 Cortlandt street, New York City; residence University Club. Born near Ellicott City, Md., Sept. 21, 1867. A great great nephew of President James Madison, and lineally descended from eighteen out of the twenty-five "Surely Barons" who signed the Magna Charter. Educated at Rensselaer Polytechnic Institute, Troy ('88). (Single.) Secretary of the Ferro-Titanium Co. Member University Club, Metropolitan Club of Washington, D. C., University Club of Baltimore, Md., Southern Society, American Society of Civil Engineers, associate member of Institution of Civil Engineers of Great Britain and associate member Society of Naval Architects and Marine Engineers.

MCGUIRE, JAMES K.—Mayor, Syracuse. Born in New York City, July 12, 1868. Educated at Christian Brothers' School in Syracuse. Declined nomination for Legislature in 1888 and 1889. Elected mayor of Syracuse in 1894 and re-elected in 1897. Chairman executive committee of Democratic State Committee for 1900. Has lectured on political and social problems throughout the United States. Member Citizens' Club.

MCGUIRE, JOHN C.—Surveyor, Custom House, New York City; residence Hotel St. George, Brooklyn. President and director Consolidated Savings and Loan Investment Co. and Franklin Society for Home Buildings and Savings; director Automatic Telephone and Electric Co., George Washington Lighting Co. and Mutual Automatic Telephone Co.; trustee Hamilton Trust Co. Member Crescent Athletic, Marine and Field, Brooklyn, Montauk, Civic and Columbia Clubs of Brooklyn, Manhattan and Catholic Clubs of New York City, Catholic Benevolent Legion and Brooklyn Institute of Arts and Sciences.

MCGUIRE, JOSEPH HUBERT—Architect, 3 West 29th street, New York City; residence 306 West 86th street. Born in New York City, 1866. Educated in New York City, and Paris, France. (Married.) Was treasurer Society of Beaux Arts Architects and delegate to Fine Arts Federation. Secretary and director West End Realty Co. Member Catholic (ex-manager) Club, Architectural League, Beaux Arts Society, West End Association, New York Chapter American Institute of Architects and Friendly Sons of St. Patrick.

MCGUSTY, ROBERT T.—Real Estate, 116 West 42d street, New York City; residence 272 West 19th street. Served with Troop "A" New York Volunteers during the Spanish-American War. Member Church, Seawanhaka-Corinthian Yacht and Nassau Country Clubs.

MCHARG, HENRY K.—Banker and Broker, 40 Wall street, and 53 Broadway, New York City; residence Stamford, Conn. Born in Albany, N. Y., Feb. 6, 1851. Educated at Walnut Hill School, Geneva, N. Y. (Married.) President and director Atlanta, Knoxville and Northern Ry. Co. and Texas Central R. R. Co.; vice-president and director Bank of the Manhattan Company; secretary and director Morning Star Consolidated Mining Co. and Ward Consolidated Mining Co.; director Wabash R. R., St. Louis and San Francisco R. R. Co., Evening Star Mining Co., New York State National Bank of Albany, Stamford Trust Co., Suburban Land and Investment Co. and Texas Central R. R. Co. Member Union League and New York Yacht Clubs and Down Town Association.

MCILHENNEY, CHARLES MORGAN—Artist, "Shrub Oak" Westchester County. Born in Philadelphia, Pa., April 4, 1858. Educated in Philadelphia; studied painting at Pennsylvania Academy of Fine Arts. (Married Ada Ingersoll, 1888.) Has been awarded many prizes, including medals at World's Columbian Exposition, 1893. Member Salmagundi Club, American Water Color Society and National Academy of Design.

MCELHINEY, PARKER C.—Chemist, 116th street, and Morningside Heights and 145 East 23d street, New York City; residence 320 St. Nicholas avenue. Born in Jersey City, N. J., Oct. 9, 1870. Educated at Columbia (B.S., '92, A.M., '93, and Ph.D., '94). (Married.) Honorary assistant in metallurgy at Columbia University since 1898; also associated with Louis C. Tiffany in artistic glass manufacture.

McILVAINE, TOMPKINS—Lawyer, 45 Cedar street, New York City; residence 105 East 18th street. Born in New York City, March 26, 1869. Educated at Columbia (A.B., '90). (Single.) Member University and Rockaway Hunting Clubs.

McILWAINE, ARCHIBALD GRAHAM, JR.—Insurance, 57 William street, New York City; residence Hotel St. Andrew. Manager London and Lancaster Fire Insurance Co. Member Larchmont Yacht and Colonial Clubs, Southern Society, Down Town Association, Metropolitan Museum of Art and of many other bodies.

McINTYRE, EWEN—Druggist, 992 Sixth avenue, New York City; residence 303 West 74th street. Member of the firm of Ewen McIntyre & Son. Member Presbyterian Union and American Museum of Natural History.

McINTYRE, EWEN, JR.—Druggist, 992 Sixth avenue, New York City; residence 66 West 56th street. Born in New York City, Oct. 19, 1855. Educated in New York City and at Edinburgh University, Scotland. (Married.) Member of the firm of Ewen McIntyre & Son. Member New York Athletic Club and St. Andrew's Society.

McINTYRE, JOHN FRANCIS—Lawyer, 220 Broadway and Criminal Court Building, New York City; residence 1385 Lexington avenue. Born in New York City, Jan. 16, 1855. (Son of John B. and Francis Virginia [Esqiroil] McIntyre.) Educated in public schools, at St. Francis Xavier College and at New York University. (Married.) Member of the firm of McIntyre & McIntyre. Served as a member of the New York Legislature and as counsel to the comptroller of the City of New York. Was appointed an assistant by District Attorney Nicoll, and has successively served under his successors, Fellows, Olcott and Gardiner. Has served as a delegate to every New York State and to several National Democratic Conventions during the past twenty years. Member Manhattan, Democratic, Arkwright and Algonquin Clubs.

McINTYRE, THOMAS A.—Merchant, Produce Exchange, New York City; residence 304 West 75th street. Born in New York City, Oct. 19, 1855. (Married.) Member of the firm of McIntyre & Wardwell, members of the New York Stock Exchange. President and director Baltic Realty Co., Brooklyn Wharf Transfer Co., Brooklyn Wharf and Warehouse Co. and J. C. Watson Co.; vice-president and director American Glucose and Sugar Refining Co.; treasurer and director Hecker-Jones-Jewell Milling Co. and United States Flour Milling Co.; director and member of the advisory board Corn Exchange Bank; director Atlantic Storage Co., International Elevating Co., Lykens Valley R. R. and Coal Co., Pegamoid Co., Cuban Pan-American Exposition Co., Peoria Bureau Valley R. R. Co. and Wilmington Street Ry. Co.; trustee New York Produce Exchange and Safe Deposit and Storage Co. and State Trust Co., and member of committee of management Royal Insurance Co. Member Colonial, Reform, New York Yacht, New York Athletic, Lawyers', Lambs', Manhattan, Metropolitan, Larchmont Yacht, Camera, Westchester Golf, Nassau Country, Suburban Riding and Driving and Meadow Yacht Clubs, Ardsley Casino of Ardsley-on-Hudson, and Down Town Association.

McKAY, JOHN ANGUS—Publisher, Eagle Building, Brooklyn; residence Brooklyn Club. Born in Ogdensburg, N. Y., Oct. 19, 1864. Educated in Oswego. (Single.) President Brooklyn "Life" Publishing Co. Has done special writing on the New York "Herald," New York "Mail and Express," New York "Sun" and Brooklyn "Eagle." Member Reform Club of New York, and Garden City Golf and Brooklyn Clubs.

McKAY, JOHN E.—Civil Engineer, 21 Park row, New York City; residence 424 West 147th street. Connected with the Department of Water Supply of New York City. Member Engineers' Club, American Society of Civil Engineers, American Society of Mechanical Engineers and Lafayette Post, G. A. R.

McKEAN, JOHN B.—Real Estate, 175 East 91st street, New York City, residence 151 East 83d street. Born in Ireland, 1843. Educated in New York City public schools; studied law and was admitted to the Bar in 1864. Served as clerk of the Marine Court for sixteen years, as police court clerk for ten years and as Judge of the Seventh District Municipal Court until 1899.

McKEN, McKEE D.—1127 Broadway, New York City; residence 135 Madison avenue. Born in Washington, D. C., Oct. 21, 1873. Educated at Phillips Exeter Academy and at Yale. (Single.) Assistant secretary Compressed Gas Capsule Co.; director Jamestown and Lake Erie R. R. Co., Union Gas Co., and Saratoga Traction Co. Was lieutenant United States Volunteer Signal Corps and aide-de-camp to General W. F. Randolph, commanding Light Artillery Brigade at Tampa and Santiago, 1898. Member Yale, Delta Kappa Epsilon and Crescent Athletic Clubs, Skull and Bones and Graduates' Club of New Haven, Conn., Washington (D. C.) Golf Club and Society of the Army of Santiago de Cuba.

McKEE, RALPH RAPPE—Advertising, 41 Park row, New York City; residence 51 Central avenue, New Brighton. Born in Upper Sandusky, Ohio, May 2, 1865. Educated at Lawrenceville (N. J.) Academy and Princeton. (Married.) Member Princeton, Staten Island, Staten Island Whist and Harbor Hill Golf Clubs.

McKEE, THOMAS J.—Lawyer, 60 Broadway, New York City; residence 237 West 24th street. Member Grolier, Players' and Olympic Clubs and Dunlap Society.

McKEEN, JAMES—Lawyer, 40 Wall street, New York City; residence 136 Henry street, Brooklyn. Born in Brunswick, Me., Dec. 5, 1844. Educated at Bowdoin College ('64). (Married.) Member University and Lawyers' Clubs, Hamilton Club of Brooklyn, Phi Beta Kappa and American Geographical Societies and Association of the Bar of the City of New York.

McKEEVER, I. CHAUNCEY—Broker, 72 Broadway, New York City; residence 10 East 58th street. Educated at Yale. Member of the firm of Keech, Loew & Co., and of the New York Stock Exchange. Member Union, St. Anthony, Rockaway Hunting and Yale Clubs.

McKEEVER, JAMES LAWRENCE—Agent, 71 Wall street, New York City; residence 164 Lexington avenue. Member Union Club, American Geographical Society, Sons of the American Revolution and Down Town Association.

McKELL, THOMAS G.—Capitalist, New York City; residence New York Club. Born in Chillicothe, Ohio, May 7, 1845. Educated at Troy Polytechnic Institute. (Married.) President McKell Coal and Coke Co. Member New York and Lawyers' Clubs.

McKELVEY, JOHN JAY—Lawyer, 66 Broadway, New York City; residence Palisade avenue, Spuyten Duyvil. Born in Sandusky, Ohio, May 24, 1863. Educated at Oberlin College (A.B., '84) and Harvard Law School (LL.B. and A.M., '87). (Married.) Member of the firm of McKelvey & Mattocks. Author of "McKelvey on Common Law Pleading" and "McKelvey on Evidence." Counsel for National Wholesale Lumber Dealers' Association. Member Harvard Club, Oberlin Alumni Association and Association of the Bar of the City of New York.

McKELWAY, ST. CLAIR—Editor, Eagle Building, Brooklyn. Born in Columbia, Mo., March 15, 1845. Educated at academies and by private tutors; honorary degrees of M.A., Colgate, D.C.L., St. Lawrence, L.H.D., Union, and LL.D., Syracuse. (Married Virginia Brooks Thompson.) Associate editor New York "World," 1866-70, and of "Brooklyn Daily Eagle," 1870-8; editor Albany "Argus," 1878-84; editor-in-chief of the "Brooklyn Daily Eagle" since 1884. Regent of the University of the State of New York since 1883. Author of "Press and Pulpit," "Lawyer and the Times," "Old Fashioned Preaching," "Medical and Other Experts," "National Transition," "Puritan and Dutchman" and other works. Public speaker on educational and ethical subjects. Has never been a candidate for political office on ground that it would impair his freedom as a public commentator; in national politics a gold man, an expansionist and a low protectionist; in municipal affairs an independent. Member Hamilton, Brooklyn, Twentieth Century and Montauk Clubs, Metropolitan, National Arts, Reform and Barnard Clubs of New York City, Society of Medical Jurisprudence, Military Order of the Loyal Legion, Long Island Historical Society and National Institute of Arts and Letters; charter member and director American Social Science Association; corresponding member of several state and county historical societies and connected with many other organizations.

MCKENNA, CHARLES F.—Chemist, 221 Pearl street, New York City; residence 155 West 91st street. Born in New York City, 1861. Educated at St. Francis Xavier College and Columbia School of Mines. (Married.) Was chairman of New York Section American Chemical Society. Member Chemists' Club, American Chemical Society, American Society of Civil Engineers and American Institute of Mining Engineers.

MCKENNA, JAMES A.—Certified Public Accountant, 43 Cedar street, New York City; residence Long Island City. Born in New York City, Feb. 17, 1857. Educated in public schools and by private instructors. Member of Assembly of New York State, 1891; postmaster Long Island City, 1887-9 and 1893-7. Member Democratic Club and New York State Society of Certified Public Accountants.

MCKENNA, JAMES J.—Brass Founder, 424 East 23d street, New York City; residence 104 West 116th street. Born in New York City, 1850. Educated at St. Francis Xavier College. Member Engineers' and Olympic Clubs and General Society of Mechanics and Tradesmen.

MCKENNA, WILLIAM J.—Clerk, Criminal Court Building, New York City; residence 10 Mangin street. Born in County Tyrone, Ireland, Oct. 2, 1854. Educated in New York City public schools and at the College of the City of New York. Represented the Sixth District in the New York State Assembly, 1887; chief searcher in the county clerk's office, 1889-91; county clerk, by appointment of Governor Hill, to fill the unexpired term of Leonard A. Giegerich, who had been promoted to the Bench of the Court of Common Pleas, 1891-2; coroner, by appointment of Governor Flower, to succeed Ferdinand Levy, who had been elected register, 1893-4; chief clerk of the district attorney's office since 1894.

McKEON, JOHN S.—Clothier, 696 Broadway, New York City, and Broadway and Bedford avenue, Brooklyn; residence 587 Bedford avenue, Brooklyn. Born in Brooklyn, Feb. 3, 1845. Educated at Brooklyn Public School No. 1. (Married.) President Long Island Life Saving Association; vice-president Eastern District Dispensary and Hospital; director American Union Life Insurance Co., Amphion Academy Co. and Kings County Co-operative Building and Loan Association; treasurer and trustee Ross Street Presbyterian Church; trustee Kings County Savings Institution. Was president of the Union League Club for two years, 1897-9 and is now governor. Member Hanover Club of Brooklyn, Royal Arcanum, Grant Post No. 327, G. A. R., and a thirty-second degree Mason.

McKESSON, GEORGE CLINTON—Wholesale Druggist, 91 Fulton street, New York City; residence 24 Riverside Drive. Member of the firm of McKesson & Robbins. Member St. Nicholas and Union League Clubs and Sons of the Revolution.

McKESSON, JOHN, JR.—Wholesale Druggist, 91 Fulton street, New York City; residence 247 Fifth avenue, and Monmouth Beach, N. J. Connected with the firm of McKesson & Robbins. Member of the Union League, Fulton and Storm King Clubs.

McKIBBIN, GEORGE N.—Railroad Contractor, 30 Broad street, New York City; residence 46 West 51st street. Born in New York City, July 8, 1865. Educated at Stevens Institute of Technology. (Married.) Vice-president and director Norwalk Tramway Co. and Port Jervis, Monticello and New York R. R. Co.; director Kingston and Rondout Valley R. R. Co., and Ulster County R. R. Co.

McKIBBEN, GILBERT H. (General)—Publisher, 476 West Broadway, New York City; residence 101 Park avenue. Member Reform, New York Athletic, New York Yacht, Adirondack League and Army and Navy Clubs. Army and Navy Club of Philadelphia, Pa., and Military Order of the Loyal Legion.

McKIM, CHARLES F.—Architect, 160 Fifth avenue, New York City; residence 9 East 35th street. Born in Chester Co., Pa., Aug. 24, 1847. Educated at Harvard in Lawrence Scientific School ('70) and at Ecole des Beaux-Arts, Paris, France. Member of the firm of McKim, Mead & White, architects of many famous buildings throughout the United States. Member Metropolitan, University, Players', Harvard, Racquet and Tennis, City and Lambs' Clubs, St. Botolph Club of Boston, Mass., Germantown Cricket Club of Philadelphia, Pa., American Institute of Architects, Century Association and Metropolitan Museum of Art.

McKIM, ROBERT V.—Retired, 32 West 58th street, New York City. Born in Rhinebeck, N. Y., Aug. 19, 1841. Educated in Baltimore and New York City. (Married.) Commissioned assistant surgeon 57th Regiment New York Volunteers, October, 1861; promoted to be surgeon with rank of major, February, 1862; served in Army of the Potomac; in action at Fair Oaks and through campaign of the Peninsula, at second battle of Bull Run and at Antietam; later acting brigade surgeon and in charge of division hospital at Harper's Ferry, Va.; March 5, 1863, was commissioned brigade surgeon, with rank of major, N. G. N. Y., on staff of General Louis Fitzgerald, and served nearly fifteen years; resigned January, 1898. Member Westminster Kennel, Union and Metropolitan Clubs, Military Order of the Loyal Legion and Colonial Order.

McKINLEY, ABNER—Lawyer, 30 Broad street, New York City. (Brother of President William McKinley.) Born and educated in Ohio. (Married.) Practiced law in Canton, Ohio, until 1897, when he removed to New York City. Since his admission to the New York Bar (March 9, 1897), has built up a large practice, principally as attorney for commercial firms and corporations. Member Lawyers' and Union League Clubs.

McKINLEY, ANDREW—Lawyer, 100 Broadway, New York City; residence 120 West 12th street. Born in Frankfort, Ky., June 28, 1857. (Grandson of United States Supreme Court Justice McKinley and also of Mrs. John J., wife of Senator Crittenden of Kentucky.) Educated at New York City Grammar School No. 35 and at Princeton College. (Married Pauline A., daughter of Chester W. Chapin of New York City.) Was associated with the firm of Dillon & Swayne for three years, and with Chandler, McKinley & Bisbee for the same period; was in South America on law business for two years. Member Princeton Club and Association of the Bar of the City of New York.

McKINNEY, GLENN FORD—Lawyer, 111 Broadway, New York City; residence 349 Fifth avenue. Member Princeton, University Athletic and Larchmont Yacht Clubs and Association of the Bar of the City of New York.

McKINNY, WILLIAM—Auditor, 280 Broadway, New York City; residence Brooklyn. Born in New York City, Sept. 18, 1855. Educated at Adelphi Academy in Brooklyn. Engaged in the wholesale tea business as a member of the firm of George C. Chase & Co. for fifteen years. Deputy appraiser of merchandise of the Port of New York (by appointment of President Cleveland), 1892-8. First auditor of accounts of the Borough of Brooklyn since 1898. Member Montauk Club of Brooklyn.

McKONN, DENNIS DANIEL—Lawyer, 100 Broadway, New York City; residence 523 West 142d street and Monmouth Beach, N. J. Born in Iliou, Herkimer Co., N. Y., Oct. 17, 1827. Educated at Fulton (N. Y.) Academy; studied law and was admitted to the Bar in 1854. (Widower.) Was a judge of the Oswego County courts for several terms. Served with New York Volunteers during Civil War, and rose to the rank of first lieutenant. Practicing in New York City since 1874; member of the firm of McKoon & Luckey since 1892. President Mannahasset Park Association of Monmouth Beach, N. J., and Richmond Homestead Association; vice-president and director Frontier Bank of Niagara Falls. Member Robert Anderson & A. S. Williams Post No. 394, G. A. R.

McKUNE, CLARENCE S.—Contractor, 1368 Broadway, New York City; residence 9 West 65th street. Born in Stamford, Conn., Aug. 24, 1863. Educated in New York City. (Single.) President corporation of E. M. Hayes Co. Member Camera, Knickerbocker Athletic, Building Trades and Democratic Clubs.

McLANE, GUY R.—Broker, 18 Broadway, New York City; residence 51 West 38th street. Born in New York City. Educated at Yale ('95). Connected with the firm of Jesup & Lamont, members of the New York Stock Exchange. Member Yale and University Clubs.

McLAREN, JAMES—Contractor, 10 Court street, Brooklyn; residence 683 Tenth street. Vice-president and director Union Bank of Brooklyn; director Kings County Bank. Member Union League and Montauk Clubs.

McLAUGHLIN, ARTHUR W.—Real Estate, 146 Broadway, New York City; residence 234 Central Park, West. Member of the firm of A. W. McLaughlin & Co. Member Lawyers' and Colonial Clubs.

McLAUGHLIN, CHESTER B.—Supreme Court Justice, Madison square, East, New York City; residence 222 West 23d street. Born in Moriah, N. Y., 1858. Educated at the University of Vermont ('79); also studied law and was admitted to the Bar in 1881. Member of the Constitutional Convention of 1894. Supreme Court Justice, Appellate Division, since 1896; term expires Dec. 31, 1909. Member University Club.

McLAUGHLIN, HUGH—Retired, 163 Remsen street, Brooklyn. Born in Brooklyn, April 2, 1827. Educated in public schools; learned rope-making trade. Master mechanic at Brooklyn Navy Yard, 1857-61; elected register of Kings County in 1861 and twice re-elected. Was active in promoting the construction of New York and Brooklyn Bridge and of Prospect Park in Brooklyn. Is now and has been for many years leader of the Democratic organization in the latter city.

McLEAN, ARTHUR A.—87 Water street, Newburgh; residence 386 Grand street. Member Orange Lake and City Clubs, Matteawan Club of Matteawan, Democratic and Catholic Clubs of New York City, and Friendly Sons of St. Patrick.

McLEAN, DONALD—Lawyer, 27 William street, New York City; residence 186 Lenox avenue. Born in Rahway, N. J., Sept. 19, 1852. Educated by private tutors, at Harvard Academy and at Columbia Law School. (Married.) Director Henry Huber Co. Was alderman of the City of New York in 1882; and United States general appraiser at Port of New York, 1889-90. Member Republican and Church Clubs, New York Historical and American Geographical Societies, New York State Bar and American Bar Associations, Society of the War of 1812, Veteran Corps of Artillery, Sons of the American Revolution and Association of the Bar of the City of New York.

McLEAN, GEORGE HAMMOND—Insurance, 156 Broadway, New York City; residence 126 West 57th street. Vice-president and director Citizens' Insurance Co.; director Manhattan Life Insurance Co.; trustee Manhattan Savings Institution. Member Calumet, Metropolitan, Lambs', Players', New York Athletic, and Suburban Riding and Driving Clubs, St. Nicholas Society, Sons of the American Revolution, Metropolitan Museum of Art and American Museum of Natural History.

McLEAN, JAMES—Metals, 99 John street, New York City; residence 16 West 55th street. Director American Tin Plate Co., Commercial Mining Co., National Steel Co. and United Globe Mines. Member Metropolitan, Fulton, Riding, Church, and Suburban Riding and Driving Clubs and Metropolitan Museum of Art.

McLELLAN, C. M. S.—Playwright, 1404 Broadway, New York City. Born in Bath, Me., Sept. 4, 1865. Educated in Boston, Mass., at Chauncey Hall and Hopkinson's Schools. Author of "The Lady Slavey," "In Gay New York," "The Whirl of the Town," "An American Beauty," "The Belle of New York," "The Telephone Girl," "Yankee Doodle Dandy" and other musical plays.

McLELLAN, ISAAC—Poet and Sportsman, Greenport, L. I. Born in Portland, Me., May 21, 1806. Educated at Phillips Andover Academy (where Oliver Wendell Holmes was a fellow student) and at Bow-doin College ('26). Practiced law in Boston, Mass., for several years. Resident of New York since 1851. Author of "The Fall of the Indian," "Poems of the Rod and Gun," "War Poems" and many other works.

McLENNON, RODERICK C.—Surgeon, 515 South Salina street, Syracuse. Born in Lyndon, N. Y., March 19, 1858. Educated at Cornell and at New York College of Physicians and Surgeons ('86). (Married.) President of staff and surgeon of Syracuse Hospital for Women and Children; president Syracuse Academy of Medicine; chief medical examiner Safety Fund and Insurance Society. Member Lakeside Yacht and Citizens' Clubs.

McLEOD, ARCHIBALD ANGUS—Capitalist, 100 Broadway, New York City; residence 12 West 51st street. President and director American Air Power Co., American Railways Co. and Hartford and Connecticut Western R. R. Co. Member Lawyers' and Suburban Riding and Driving Clubs.

McLEOD, JOHNSTON—Physician, 329 West 23d street, New York City. Born in New York City, July 7, 1865. Educated in New York City. (Married.) Formerly attending physician Northern Dispensary and Wells College and district physician New York Lying-in-Asylum. Member University Club, Delta Phi Fraternity, New York State Medical, New York County Medical and New York Physicians' Mutual Aid Associations and Medical Association of the Greater City of New York.

McLEOD, THEODORUS—Lawyer, Custom House, New York City; residence 210 West 69th street. Born in New York City, July 21, 1845. Educated in New York City, in Easton, Pa., and at Union College. (Single.) Examiner at United States Custom House. Member Union College Alumni and Lafayette College Alumni Associations and Edwin D. Morgan Post, G. A. R.

McLOUGHLIN, CHARLES—Publisher and Bookseller, 890 Broadway, New York City; residence Larchmont. Member of the firm of McLoughlin Bros. Director Astor Place Bank. Member New York Yacht and Twilight Clubs, Scientific Alliance and Aldine Association.

McLOUGHLIN, JOHN—Publisher and Bookseller, 890 Broadway, New York City; residence 2041 Fifth avenue. Member of the firm of McLoughlin Bros. Member Harlem Club, Aldine Association and Metropolitan Museum of Art.

McLOUTH, LAWRENCE A.—Professor, University Heights, New York City; residence Edenwood avenue near Highbridge road. Born in Ontonagon, Mich., Jan. 19, 1863. Educated at University of Michigan ('87) and at Universities of Leipzig and Heidelberg, Germany. (Married Martha L. Robinson, 1888.) Instructor in German at University of Michigan, 1892-5; professor of Germanic languages and literatures at New York University since 1895. Member New York Academy of Sciences, Modern Language Association of America and Zeta Psi Fraternity.

McMAHON, CHARLES AUSTIN—Lawyer, 119 Nassau street, New York City; residence 139 West 122d street. Member Crescent Athletic Club of Brooklyn, and Association of the Bar of the City of New York.

McMAHON, DANIEL F.—Contractor, 258 Broadway, New York City; residence 363 West 55th street. Born in New York City, Aug. 21, 1856. Educated in public schools and at the College of the City of New York. (Married.) Member of the firm of Naughton & Co. Director Narragansett Building Co. Was police justice for eight years. Member Narragansett, Catholic, New York Athletic and Democratic Clubs.

McMAHON, DENNIS—Lawyer, 243 Broadway, New York City; residence 19 West 135th street. Born in New York City, Sept. 24, 1824. (Son of Dennis and Martha [Lawrence] McMahon.) Educated at Columbia College Grammar School; also studied law and was admitted to the New York Bar in 1845, and to the Bar of the United States Supreme Court in 1856. Practicing in New York City since 1845.

McMAHON, FULTON—Lawyer, 111 Broadway, New York City; residence 28 West 39th street. Born in Ohio, Jan. 2, 1863. Educated at Princeton, Johns Hopkins University, Columbia Law School and in Germany. (Single.) Served as a member of the Committee of Seventy, 1894. Member City and Princeton Clubs, Johns Hopkins University Alumni and New York State Bar Associations and Association of the Bar of the City of New York.

McMAHON, JAMES—Banker, 49 Chambers street, New York City; residence 87 McDonough street, Brooklyn. President and director Emigrant Industrial Savings Bank; vice-president and director Savings Bank Association of the State of New York; director New York Produce Exchange Bank; trustee People's Trust Co. of Brooklyn, and London and Lancashire Fire Insurance Co. Member Catholic and Hardware Clubs, and Crescent Athletic Club of Brooklyn.

McMAHON, JAMES—Professor, Cornell University, Ithaca; residence 7 Central avenue. Born in Armagh, Ireland, April 22, 1856. Educated in Ireland at University of Dublin ('81). (Married.) Assistant professor of mathematics, Cornell University, since 1883. Member Town and Gown, and Country Clubs, Phi Beta Kappa, Sigma Xi, London Mathematical and American Mathematical Societies, Phi Kappa Psi Fraternity and Fellow American Association for the Advancement of Science.

McMAHON, MARTIN THOMAS—Judge, Criminal Court Building, New York City. Born in L'Prairie, Canada, March 21, 1838. Educated at St. John's College, Fordham, N. Y. (A.B., '55, A.M., '57 and LL.D., '66). (Widower.) Served throughout Civil War and participated in the campaigns of the Army of the Potomac; was brevetted to the rank of major-general and received Congressional medal for bravery. Corporation attorney for New York City, 1866-8; United States Minister to Paraguay, 1869; receiver of taxes, New York City, 1873-85; United States Marshal, 1885-9; assemblyman, 1890; State senator, 1891-5; Judge of Sessions, New York City, since 1896; term expires Dec. 31, 1909. Served as vice-president of the National Soldier's Home, with which he has been connected since 1870. Member Catholic, Manhattan, Army and Navy and Democratic Clubs, Dunlap Society, Liederkranz, Military Order of the Loyal Legion, Metropolitan Museum of Art and Society of the Army of the Potomac.

McMANUS, TERENCE J.—Lawyer, 149 Broadway, New York City; residence 168 West 81st street. (Married Mary Eleanor, daughter of John Lynn, Jr., of Providence, R. I., 1900.) Was assistant district attorney of New York County for several years. Now member of the law firm of Black, Olcott, Gruber & Bonyng. Member Democratic and Arkwright Clubs Delta Chi Fraternity and Knights of Columbus.

McMATH, MORRISON H.—Lawyer, 904 Wilder Building, Rochester; residence 73 Oxford street. Born in Millport, N. Y. Educated at Webster Academy and at University of Rochester. (Married.) Was clerk of Municipal Court before being admitted to the practice of law. Member Kent (president) and Genesee Valley Clubs and Psi Upsilon Alumni (vice-president) and New York State Bar Associations.

McMICKEN, JAMES A.—Broker, 29 Wall street, New York City; residence 7 South Elliott place, Brooklyn. Born in Albany, N. Y., Feb. 2, 1845. Educated in public schools and at Classical Institute of Albany. (Widower.) Senior member of the firm of J. A. McMicken & Co., and member of the New York Stock Exchange, since 1869. Captain and brevet major 43d New York Volunteers, 1861-4; second sergeant Company B, 7th Regiment, N. G. N. Y., for ten years. Member Oxford Club of Brooklyn, Army and Navy Club of New York City, Long Beach Club of Barnegat, N. J., George Washington Post No. 103, G. A. R., and Military Order of the Loyal Legion.

McMILLAN, DUNCAN JAMES—Presbyterian Clergyman, 28 West 128th street, New York City. Born in Pulaski, Tenn., June 2, 1846. Educated at Blackburn University. (Married.) Pastor New York Presbyterian Church. Formerly superintendent of city schools, Carlinville, Ill., and of Presbyterian missions in the Rocky Mountains; ex-president College of Montana, and ex-secretary Presbyterian Board of Home Missions. Member Quill Club, Chi Alpha Fraternity, G. A. R., and Philosophical Society of Great Britain.

McMILLIN, EMERSON—Banker, 40 Wall street, New York City; residence 175 West 58th street. Born in Ewington, Ohio, April 16, 1844. Educated in district schools. (Married.) Member of the firm of Emerson McMillin & Co. President and director Binghams (N. Y.) Gas Works, Consolidated Gas Co. of New Jersey, Columbus (Ohio) Edison Co., Detroit City Gas Co., Grand Rapids (Mich.) Gas Light Co., Jacques Cartier Water Power Co. (Quebec), Laclede Gas Light Co., Milwaukee (Wis.) Gas Light Co., Southern Light and Traction Co., Western (Milwaukee) Gas Co. and Winnebago Traction Co.; vice-president and director Jackson (Mich.) Gas Co.; first vice-president and director Welsbach Commercial Co.; director Consolidated Rubber Tire Co., Denver Gas and Electric Co., National Surety Co., New England Gas and Coke Co., San Antonio Traction Co., San Antonio Gas and Electric Co., St. Paul (Minn.) Gas Light Co., Trenton Gas and Electric Co. and Trust Co. of America. Member Lotos, Lawyers', Engineers', Union League and Army and Navy Clubs, Columbus and University Clubs of Columbus, Milwaukee Club of Milwaukee, American Geographical and Ohio Societies, American Society of Mechanical Engineers and others.

McMILLIN, EMERSON, JR.—Banker, 40 Wall street, New York City; residence 175 West 58th street. Connected with the firm of Emerson McMillin & Co. Member New York Athletic, and Racquet and Tennis Clubs.

McMURRAY, ROBERT K.—Inspector and Consulting Engineer, 160 Broadway, New York City; residence 353 West 57th street. Born in Brooklyn, N. Y., 1837. Educated in Brooklyn. (Widower.) Connected with the Hartford Steam Boiler Inspection and Insurance Co. Member New York Yacht and New York Athletic Clubs and Lafayette Post No. 140, G. A. R.

McMURRY, FRANK MORTON—Professor, 116th street and Morningside Heights, New York City; residence 26 Hamilton terrace. Degree of Ph.D. (Married.) Professor of the theory and practice of teaching at Columbia University in the City of New York.

McMURTRIE, WILLIAM—Chemist, 100 William street, New York City; residence Hotel Endicott. Born in Belvidere, N. J., March 10, 1851. Educated at Lafayette College (E.M., '71, M.S., '74 and Ph.D., '75). (Married Helen M. Douglass, 1876.) Agent and representative of the United States Agricultural Department at Paris Exposition, 1878; special agent to United States Agricultural Department, 1879-82; professor of chemistry at University of Illinois, 1882-8; chemist to Illinois State Board of Agriculture, 1884-8; chairman of committee on wools, Bureau of Awards at World's Columbian Exposition, 1893. Chemist to New York Tartar Co. since 1888. Author of several scientific works. Member American Chemical Society and American Association for the Advancement of Science.

McNAIR, EBEN ORLANDO—Banker, Buffalo; residence Delaware avenue. Born in Kalamazoo, Mich., 1850. Educated in Washington, D. C. (Married.) Senior member of the firm of E. O. McNair & Co. President Bank of Warsaw, N. Y.; vice-president Warsaw Gas and Electric Co. and Consolidated Gas and Electric Co. of Batavia, N. Y. Member Ellicott Club, Sons of the American Revolution, Buffalo Historical Society, and Genesee Valley Club of Rochester.

McNAUGHTON, JOHN HUGH—Author and Composer, Caledonia. Born in Caledonia, July 1, 1829. Educated in public schools and at Temple Hill Academy. Author of "Treatise on Music," "Babble Brook Songs," "Ounalinda" and of many articles in reviews and magazines. Composer of "Faded Coat of Blue," "Blue and the Gray" and many other popular songs.

McNEILL, ALEXANDER—Banker and Broker, 71 Broadway, New York City. (Married.) Member of the firm of Adams, McNeill & Brigham, members of the New York Stock Exchange. Member New York Athletic, Nautic, Flushing Athletic, Litchfield (president) and Delta Kappa Epsilon (president) Clubs.

McNULTY, ALBERT—Lawyer, 111 Broadway, New York City; residence Orange, N. J. Born in New York City, April 5, 1840. Educated at Columbia College and Law School. (Married.) Was secretary of the New York Protestant Episcopal Mission Society for some years. Member Columbia University Alumni Association.

McNULTY, GEORGE W.—Civil Engineer, 45 Broadway, New York City; residence 161 West 83d street. Born in New York City, Sept. 6, 1851. Educated at University of Virginia. (Single.) Member of the firm of Naughton & Co. Was assistant engineer on New York and Brooklyn Bridge; chief engineer to Metropolitan Traction Co., and was for a time associated with L. L. Buck in general engineering practice. Member Atlantic Yacht, Engineers' and Democratic Clubs, Technical Club of Chicago, Ill., Corinthian Yacht Club of Philadelphia, Pa., Engineers' and Architects' Society of Vienna, Austria, and American Society of Civil Engineers.

McNULTY, PETER H.—Real Estate, 350 Fulton street, Brooklyn; residence Ocean Parkway and Avenue D. Born in Brooklyn, May 4, 1818. Educated at Public Schools Nos. 8 and 1, and St. John's College. (Married.) Was member of Board of Education for nine years, and interested in Brooklyn Manual Training School; major and quartermaster Second Brigade, N. G. N. Y., for fifteen years, and State senator for three years. Member Montauk and Brooklyn Clubs, Democratic Club of New York City, Columbian Club of Washington, Order of Elks and Royal Arcanum.

McPHAIL, EDWARD I.—Fire Insurance, 58 Erie County Bank Building, Buffalo; residence 6 Parker avenue. Born in Toronto, Ontario, Canada, Feb. 9, 1858. Educated at Rochester University. (Single.) Secretary Hollister Lumber Co. (Ltd.), 1878-89; secretary and treasurer R. B. Douglas Mfg Co., 1889-93 in New York City.

McPHERSON, WILLIAM L.—Correspondent, 154 Nassau street, New York City, and 1322 F street, N. W., Washington, D. C.; residence Metropolitan Club, Washington. Born in Gettysburg, Pa., May 23, 1865. Educated at Pennsylvania College (A.B., '83), Harvard College (A.B., '84) and Harvard University (A.M., '85). (Single.) Washington correspondent of New York "Tribune." Member Harvard Club of New York, and Metropolitan and Chevy Chase Clubs of Washington.

McPIKE, JACOB H.—Tea Merchant, 100 Hudson street, New York City; residence Colonial Club. Manager Bennett, Sloan & Co. Member Colonial, Manhattan Athletic and Commercial Clubs.

McQUAID, BERNARD JOHN—Roman Catholic Bishop, 70 Frank street, Rochester. Born in New York City, Dec. 15, 1823. Educated at Chambly College in Canada, and at St. John's College, Fordham, N. Y. Ordained priest, Jan. 16, 1848. Founded Seton Hall College and Seminary, and was its president for ten years. Consecrated first Bishop of Rochester, July 12, 1868. Has written and lectured considerably in favor of parochial schools for Catholics.

McQUAID, WILLIAM A.—Lawyer, 154 Nassau street, New York City; residence Hotel Majestic. Born in Webster, Mass. Educated at Yale. (Single.) Member of the firm of Sackett, Bacon & McQuaid. Member Yale, Delta Kappa Epsilon and Democratic Clubs, Sons of the American Revolution and other organizations.

McQUAIDE, JAMES P.—Manufacturer, 41 Park row, New York City; residence 1053 Fifth avenue. Born in Indiana, Pa., June 24, 1861. Educated at Philadelphia High School and Lafayette College. (Married.) Treasurer and director National Conduit and Cable Co. Member New York Club.

McRAE, FARQUHAR J.—Public Accountant, 45 Cedar street, New York City; residence New Brighton, S. I. Born in Flatbush, L. I., April 8, 1862. Educated in New York public schools. (Married.) Vice-president and director New York State Society of Certified Public Accountants; director Brock Wrench Co. and Institute of Accounts. Member New York Athletic Club and St. Andrew's Society.

McTIGUE, ANDREW—Real Estate, Far Rockaway. Born in Far Rockaway, March 19, 1862. Educated at St. John's College, Brooklyn. (Married.) Director Far Rockaway Bank, Far Rockaway Realty Co., Seaboard Telephone Co. and Queens and Suffolk Insurance Co. Formerly president and trustee of the village of Rockaway, trustee of Far Rockaway School, postmaster of Far Rockaway and deputy collector of assessments and arrears Fifth Ward of New York City.

McVAUGH, WILLIAM T.—Hosiery, 61 Leonard street, New York City; residence 252 De Kalb avenue, Brooklyn. Born in Norristown, Pa., May 1, 1855. Educated in Norristown. (Married.) Member of the firm of Watson, Porter, Giles & Co. Member Wool Club, and Crescent Athletic and Oxford Clubs of Brooklyn.

McVICKAR, EDWARD—Real Estate Operator, 44 Pine street, New York City; residence 13 West Eighth street. Born in Boston, Mass., April 12, 1869. Educated at Yale. (Married.) Member Calumet, Yale and Delta Phi Clubs and Society of Colonial Wars.

McVICKAR, HENRY W.—Real Estate, 187 Fulton street, 246 East Houston street, 1368 Broadway, and 108th street and Central Park, West, New York City; residence 9 West 39th street. Member of the firm of McVickar & Co. Member Players', Riding, Tuxedo and Lambs' Clubs and Century Association.

McVICKAR, WILLIAM BARD—Lawyer, 63 Wall street, New York City; residence Miller Road, Morristown, N. J. Born in Irvington-on-Hudson, N. Y., Oct. 14, 1858. Educated at Columbia ('80). (Married.) Member of the firm of Marshall, Moran, Williams & McVickar. Member University, Morristown and Morristown Field Clubs, Columbia University Alumni Association and Association of the Bar of the City of New York.

McWILLIAMS, CLARENCE A.—Physician, 53 West 52d street, New York City. Born in Brooklyn, N. Y., 1870. Educated at Princeton University ('92), Berlin, Germany, and New York College of Physicians and Surgeons. (Single.) Assistant surgeon to Presbyterian Hospital Dispensary; assistant physician in diseases of children, De Milt Dispensary; instructor in operative surgery, New York Post-Graduate Medical School Hospital. Member Princeton Club and Presbyterian Hospital Alumni and Sloane Maternity Hospital Alumni Societies.

McWILLIAMS, HOWARD—Lawyer, 31 Nassau street, New York City; residence 39 South Portland avenue, Brooklyn. Born in Brooklyn, April 19, 1868. Educated at Princeton (B.A. and M.A.) and Columbia. (Single.) Member Brooklyn and Crescent Athletic Clubs, Princeton Club of New York City, Sons of the Revolution, Association of the Bar of the City of New York and Bar Association of Kings County.

McWILLIAMS, JOHN J.—Agent, Buffalo; residence 277 Linwood avenue. Born in Cornwall, N. Y., June 16, 1842. Educated in Elmira public schools and at State Normal School, Albany. (Married.) Western sales agent Delaware, Lackawanna and Western R. R. Co. President Provident Loan Co. and Christian Homestead Association; vice-president Buffalo Orphan Asylum; director Manufacturers' and Traders' Bank. Ex-president Y. M. C. A. Member Buffalo, Ellicott, Chicago, Liberal, Equality and Oakfield (president) Clubs.

McWILLIAMS, SHIRRELL N.—Erie street, Buffalo; residence 300 Linwood avenue. Born in Buffalo, March 17, 1871. Educated at Princeton ('94). (Married.) Connected with the coal department of the Delaware, Lackawanna and Western R. R. Co.; director Niagara Lithograph Co. Member University, Red Jacket Golf and Ellicott Clubs, and Players' and Princeton Clubs of New York City.

MEAD, GEORGE W., JR.—Veterinary Surgeon, 29 Monroe place, Brooklyn. Born in Brooklyn, Feb. 27, 1869. Educated at Brooklyn Polytechnic Institute. (Single.) Member Twilight Club.

MEAD, SPENCER P.—Lawyer, 26 Broadway, New York City; residence 262 West 34th street. Born in Greenwich, Conn. Educated at New York Law School ('93). (Single.) Connected with the Standard Oil Co. of New York. Now compiling a "History and Gen-eaology of the Mead Family of Fairfield County, Conn." Member Church Club, Sons of the Revolution, Society of Colonial Wars, New England Society and Dwight Alumni Association.

MEAD, THEODORE HOE—Printing Presses, 504 Grand street, New York City; residence 100 East 39th street. Born in New York City, Jan. 1, 1837. Educated in New York City and abroad. (Married.) Member of the firm of R. Hoe & Co., of New York and London. Member Authors' and Grolier Clubs, Century Association and Sons of the Revolution.

MEAD, WALTER H.—Lawyer, 67 Wall street, New York City; residence 222 West 23d street. Member Church, Carteret Gun and Democratic Clubs, St. Nicholas Society, Scientific Alliance and Sons of the Revolution.

MEAD, WILLIAM RUTHERFORD—Architect, 160 Fifth avenue, New York City; residence 118 East 25th street. Born in Brattleboro, Vt., Aug. 20, 1846. Educated at Amherst College ('67). Studied architecture with Russell Sturgis, Jr., in New York City; also studied abroad. Member of the firm of McKim, Mead & White, architects of Columbia University, New York University, Boston Public Library, New York State buildings at the World's Columbian Exposition and of many other public and private edifices. Member Metropolitan, Lambs', University and Players' Clubs, Hope Club of Providence, R. I., Amherst College Alumni and Century Associations and American Institute of Architects.

MEADE, CHARLES A.—Civil Engineer, 21 Park row, New York City; residence 303 East 18th street. Born in Brookfield, Mo., Jan. 6, 1873. Educated at Wiliston Seminary, Easthampton, Mass., and Massachusetts Institute of Technology. (Single.) Superintendent Final Disposition New York Street Cleaning Department. Lecturer on municipal sanitation in Cornell University Medical College. Member City Club and Massachusetts Institution of Technology Society of New York City.

MEADE, CLARENCE W.—City Magistrate, New York City; residence 348 West 23d street. Born in New York City, 1841. Educated in public schools. Served for many years as assistant appraiser and port warden of the Port of New York. Police justice, by appointment of Mayor Grant, 1890-7; City Magistrate since 1897; term expires July 1, 1907.

MEAKER, W. H.—Banker, Auburn; residence 14 Nelson street. Born in Owasco, Cayuga Co., N. Y., July 23, 1836. Educated at Cazenovia (N. Y.) Seminary. (Married.) Treasurer and trustee Cayuga County Savings Bank. Member Auburn City Club and Cayuga County Historical Society (treasurer).

MEANY, EDWARD P.—Lawyer and Manager, 18 Cortlandt street, New York City; residence Newark, N. J. Born in Kentucky, 1854. Educated in Kentucky. (Married.) Assistant general manager and director American Telephone and Telegraph Co. Since 1893 brigadier-general N. G. N. J. and Judge Advocate General of New Jersey. Member Lawyers', New York Press and Army and Navy Clubs.

MECKLEM, CLIVE—Accountant, 31 Union square, West, New York City; residence 312 West 112th street. Born in Nyack, N. Y., Oct. 16, 1865. Educated in New York City. (Single.) Treasurer and director Brentano's.

MEEKER, HENRY E.—Wholesale Coal Merchant, 143 Liberty street, New York City; residence 106 East 36th street. Member of the firm of Meeker & Co. Member Harvard, University Athletic, Union League, University and Lawyers' Clubs.

MEEKER, J. BURTON—Dentist, 101 West 85th street, New York City. Born on Staten Island, N. Y., Dec. 22, 1867. Educated in New York City. (Married.) Member Essex County Country Club of Orange, N. J., and 7th Regiment, N. G. N. Y.

MEEKER, SAMUEL M.—Lawyer, 13 Broadway, Brooklyn; residence 661 Lafayette avenue. Member of the firm of S. M. & D. E. Meeker. Trustee Williamsburgh Savings Bank. Member Union League and Hanover Clubs.

MEEKS, EDWIN B.—Executor, 30 Vesey street, New York City; residence Islip, L. I. Executor of the estate of Joseph W. Meeks (deceased). Member Republican and Union League Clubs, American Geographical Society and Lafayette Post, G. A. R.

MEEKS, JOSEPH—Lawyer, 19 Barclay street, New York City; residence 17 West 84th street. Born in New York City, Jan. 21, 1838. Educated at Columbia ('56) and Harvard Law School ('58). (Married.) President The Woodcliff Land Improvement Co. of New Jersey. Was member of the New Jersey Legislature, 1880-1. Member Colonial Club and Columbia University Alumni Association.

MEIGHAN, HOWARD S.—Lawyer, 38 Park row, New York City; residence Mamaroneck. Born in Mamaroneck, 1872. Educated at the College of the City of New York and New York University. (Single.) Member of the firm of Meighan & Necarsulmer. Was tutor in history and natural history at College of the City of New York. Member Delta Kappa Epsilon, Phi Beta Kappa and Phi Delta Phi Clubs.

MEIGS, CHARLES AUGUSTUS—Lumber Merchant, 411 Washington street, New York City; residence Orange, N. J. Born in Albany, N. Y., April 16, 1837. (Married.) Connected with the firm of Ogden & Co. Member Sons of the Revolution.

MEIGS, FERRIS J.—Lumber Merchant, 26 Broadway, New York City; residence Tupper Lake, and Lawrence Park, Bronxville. Educated at Sheffield Scientific School of Yale University. Connected with the Santa Clara Lumber Co. Member City, Mendelssohn Glee and University Clubs.

MEIKLEHAM, WILLIAM A.—University Club, New York City. Born in New York City, March 1, 1866. Educated at Everson's School and at Columbia ('86). (Single.) Member University Athletic and University Clubs and Columbia University Alumni Association.

MELCHER, JOHN STEVENS—Lawyer, 27 William street, New York City; residence 58 West 11th street. Member of the firm of Ivins, Kidder & Melcher. Member Harvard and University Clubs.

MELLEN, CHASE—Lawyer, 45 Cedar street, New York City; residence Garden City, L. I. Born in Cincinnati, Ohio, Sept. 21, 1863. Educated at Brasenose College ('87), Oxford University, England, and Columbia Law School. (Married.) Assistant to corporation counsel, 1895-8. Member University and Underwriters' Clubs and Association of the Bar of the City of New York.

MELLISS, NORMAN T. M.—Lawyer, 16 Exchange place, New York City; residence 640 Madison avenue. Member of the firm of Melliss, Pryor & Richards. Member Lawyers', University Athletic, Manhattan, Whist, University and New York Clubs and Crescent Athletic Club of Brooklyn.

MELLON, ENOS E.—Lawyer, Cortland; residence 72 Port Watson street. Born in Ireland, Nov. 16, 1860. Educated at Dryden Union School. (Married.) Has served as clerk of Cortland County Board of Supervisors and as police justice of the village of Cortland. Member Tioughnioga Club and Knights of Pythias.

MELVILLE, HENRY—Lawyer, 120 Broadway, New York City; residence 447 Lexington avenue. Born in Nelson, N. H., Aug. 25, 1858. Educated at Dartmouth College (A.B., '79) and at Harvard (A.M. and LL.B., '84). Practicing in New York City since his admission to the Bar in 1885. Member of the firm of Melville, Martin & Stephens. Served as captain of the 8th Regiment, N. G. N. Y., and New York Volunteer Infantry during Spanish-American War. Member University, Republican and Congregational Clubs, Dartmouth Alumni Association, New England Society, Sons of the Revolution, Society of Colonial Wars, Naval and Military Order of the Spanish-American War and Association of the Bar of the City of New York.

MENDEL, S. PHILIP—Leather Merchant, 33 Spruce street, New York City; residence 62 East 83d street. Born in Germany, Oct. 30, 1844. Educated in Germany. (Widower.) Member of the firm of Salomon & Phillips, established since 1867. Secretary, treasurer and director Armstrong Leather Co.; director Hide and Leather National Bank. Has been executor for several estates. Ex-president Freundschaft Society. Member Drug Club, Society for Ethical Culture (trustee), Citizens' Union Club of the Twenty-seventh and Twenty-ninth Assembly Districts (trustee), and National Morocco Manufacturers' and Credit Men's Associations.

MENKE, JOHN—Importer and Commission Merchant, 15 Greene street, New York City; residence 249 East 48th street. (Married.) Member of the firm of John Menke & Co. Member Merchants' Central Club and German Scientific Society.

MENKEN, S. STANWOOD—Lawyer, 111 Broadway, New York City; residence 422 West End avenue. Born in Memphis, Tenn., July 29, 1870. Educated at Cornell ('90) and at Columbia College Law School. (Married a daughter of Arthur von Briesen of New York City.) Director Long Island Agricultural Chemical Co. and J. Schnitzer Co. Was candidate on Citizens' Union ticket for judge of the City Court in 1897. Served as chairman of the committee (Hall of Records Association) which was instrumental in securing an appropriation for the erection of the new Hall of Records. Member Reform, Harmonie, Cornell University and Chi Phi Clubs, Columbia University Alumni Association, Sons of the American Revolution and Association of the Bar of the City of New York.

MENOCAL, ANICETO G.—Civil Engineer, 54 Broad street, New York City. Born in Cuba, Sept. 1, 1836. Educated in Havana and at Rensselaer Polytechnic Institute (C.E., '62). Practiced in Havana, 1863-9; connected with the New York City Department of Public Works, 1870-2. Since 1872 connected with the United States Navy; has made final plans and estimates of cost for a ship canal through Nicaragua. Appointed by President Hayes as a delegate to Paris Canal Congress of 1879; decorated by President Grévy of France, Chevalier of the Legion of Honor. Has published several reports on the Nicaragua Canal. Member American Society of Civil Engineers and many other scientific organizations.

MENZEL, HUGO—Commission Merchant and Insurance, 68 Broad street, New York City; residence Newark and Hilton, N. J. Born in Cologne, Germany, May 1, 1839. Educated at Frederick William Gymnasium, Cologne, and Zürich, Switzerland. (Married.) Senior member of the firm of William Menzel & Son. General agent and attorney in the United States for "Swiss Lloyd" Marine and Inland Insurance Co. of Winterthur, Switzerland, 1870-83; general marine manager and director of the Union Insurance Co. of Philadelphia, and general agent of "Bureau Veritas" International Classification Register of Paris, France, 1883-9; general agent and attorney of the Mannheim Insurance Co. of Mannheim, Germany, 1887-93; fire commissioner of Newark, 1895; president of Board of Fire Commissioners of the City of Newark, N. J., 1897-9. Agent of the Nippon Sea and Land Insurance Co. of Osaka, Japan, and other foreign underwriters. Member Down Town Association, German Society of the City of New York, Maritime Association of the City of New York, and the New York Produce Exchange.

MENZIE, G. L.—Physician and Surgeon, Oneida. Born in Canastota, N. Y., Nov. 21, 1841. Educated at Mexico Academy and New York College of Physicians and Surgeons. (Married.) Vice-president Central City Building and Loan Association; director Farmers' and Mechanics' State Bank. Formerly surgeon in United States Army. Member Oneida County Medical Society.

MERCER, A. CLIFFORD—Physician and Surgeon, 324 Montgomery street, Syracuse. Born in Syracuse, July 5, 1855. Educated in Syracuse schools, at University of Syracuse and in London hospitals. (Single.) Attending physician Syracuse University, House of Good Shepherd Hospital, Children's Hospital and Syracuse Free Dispensary. Has been president American Microscopical Society; on staff of Syracuse Free Dispensary, Central New York Microscopical Club and Syracuse Medical Association; treasurer Medical Association of Central New York, College of Medicine of Syracuse University, and Syracuse and Geneva Alumni Association. Member Citizens', Fortnightly, Syracuse Botanical (honorary), and Camera Clubs, Medical Society of the State of New York, Royal Microscopical Society of London (Fellow), Medical Association of Central New York, Rochester Academy of Science, Syracuse Academy of Science and Syracuse Academy of Medicine.

MERCHANT, HENRY D.—Lawyer, 66 Broadway, New York City; residence 1173 Bedford avenue, Brooklyn. Born in Nassau, N. Y., July 16, 1870. Educated at Union College ('93) and at Albany Law School ('96). (Single.) Member Union College Alumni Association.

MEREDITH, SULLIVAN AMORY—Capitalist, 849 Ellicott square, Buffalo; residence 193 Oakland place. Born in Buffalo, Oct. 14, 1865. Educated in Buffalo. (Single.) Member Saturn, Country and Canoe Clubs, and Reform Club of New York City.

MEREDITH, WILLIAM T.—Banker, 11 Wall street, New York City; residence Morristown, N. J. Educated at Union College. Member of the firm of William T. Meredith & Co. and of the New York Stock Exchange. Member City Club, Down Town Association, Sons of the Revolution, Military Order of the Loyal Legion and Union College Alumni Association.

MERIAN, LOUIS F.—Supplies, 132 White street, New York City; residence 489 First street, Brooklyn. Born in New York City, June 2, 1848. Educated at Allentown Seminary, Allentown, Pa. (Married.) Vice-president and director Powhattan Brass and Iron Works; secretary and director Mayor, Lane & Co. Member Fulton Club, Crescent Athletic Club of Brooklyn, and Jamaica Bay Yacht Club.

MERIAN, PAUL F.—Lawyer, 100 Broadway, New York City; residence 274 Henry street, Brooklyn. Member University Glee Club, Crescent Athletic Club of Brooklyn, and Columbia University Alumni Association.

MERRALL, ALBERT E.—Wholesale Grocer, 130 Chambers street, New York City; residence 129 West 72d street. Treasurer and director Acker, Merrill & Condit, and Sherry Cottage Co. Member New York Athletic, Suburban Riding and Driving, and Colonial Clubs.

MERRALL, FRANK A.—Wholesale Grocer, 130 Chambers street, New York City; residence 129 West 72d street. Born in New York City. (Single.) Secretary and director Acker, Merrill & Condit. Member New York Athletic, Lawyers', Commercial, Arkwright, Larchmont and Pelham Country Clubs.

MERRALL, FRANK R.—Box Manufacturer, 505 East 18th street and 504 East 19th street, New York City; residence 21 West 84th street. Member of the firm of F. R. Merrill & Co. Member Sons of the Revolution.

MERRALL, WALTER H.—Wholesale Grocer, 130 Chambers street, New York City; residence 129 West 72d street. Born in New York City. Educated at Columbia. (Single.) Connected with the corporation of Acker, Merrill & Condit. Member Commercial, Hardware and Delta Kappa Epsilon Clubs.

MERRALL, WILLIAM J.—Wholesale Grocer, 130 Chambers street, New York City; residence 129 West 72d street. President Acker, Merrill & Condit; director New York National Exchange Bank. Member American Museum of Natural History.

MERRILL, CYRUS STRONG—Physician and Surgeon, 21 Washington avenue, Albany; residence 23 Washington avenue. Born in Bridgeport, Vt., Sept. 21, 1847. Educated at Amherst College, New York College of Physicians and Surgeons and University of Vienna. (Married.) President Ticonderoga Pulp and Paper Co. and Thomson Pulp and Paper Co.; vice-president First National Bank of Albany. Formerly professor of ophthalmology and otology in Albany Medical College, and ophthalmic and aural surgeon in Albany, St. Peter's, Childs', Troy and North Adams Hospitals. Member Fort Orange Club and New York State Medical, American Ophthalmological and American Otological Societies.

MERRILL, EDWARD BAGLEY—Lawyer, 17 William street, New York City; residence 147 West 12th street. Born in New Bedford, Mass., Jan. 25, 1835. (Son of Edward and Mary [Converse] Merrill.) Educated at Phillips Exeter Academy, Bowdoin College (A.B., '57, and A.M.) and at Harvard Law School. (Married Mary Elizabeth Gibbs of New Bedford, Mass., 1861.) Practicing in New York City since his admission to the Bar in 1860. Member University Club and Phi Beta Kappa Society.

MERRILL, FRANK O.—School and Educational Supplies, 70 Fifth avenue, New York City; residence Clarendon Hotel. Born in Bradford, Mass., Nov. 16, 1860. Educated at Bradford Academy; also special studies with private tutors. Connected with J. L. Hammett Co. Vice-president Santa Emilia Copper Co.; consul League of American Wheelmen; executive committee Good Roads Association. Member Crescent Athletic Club of Brooklyn, League of American Wheelmen and all Masonic bodies.

MERRILL, FREDERICK JAMES HAMILTON—Geologist, Geological Hall, Albany; residence 268 State street. Born in New York City, April 30, 1861. Educated at School of Mines of Columbia University (Ph.B., '85 and Ph.D., '90). (Married Winifred Edgerton, 1887.) Assistant on New Jersey Geological Survey, 1885-9; assistant New York State Geologist, 1890-3; assistant director of New York State Museum, 1890-4; director of scientific exhibits of New York State at World's Columbian Exposition, 1892-3. Director of New York State Museum since 1894; New York State Geologist since 1898. Author of many scientific articles. Fellow Geological Society of America and American Association for the Advancement of Science; member American Institute of Mining Engineers, American Society of Naturalists, National Geographic Society and other organizations.

MERRILL, GEORGE E.—Educator, Hamilton. Born in Charlestown, Mass., Dec. 19, 1846. Educated at Harvard (A.B., '69 and A.M., '72) and at Newton Theological Institute (D.D.). Held pastorates in several Baptist churches until 1899. President of Colgate University since 1899. Author of "The Story of the Manuscripts," "Crusaders and Captives," "The Parchments of the Faith" and other works of a similar nature.

MERRILL, GEORGE P.—Woolen Merchant, 78 Worth street, New York City; residence 214 Hicks street, Brooklyn. Member Larchmont Yacht and Lambs' Clubs and Brooklyn Club.

MERRILL, PAYSON—Lawyer, 111 Broadway, New York City; residence 41 East 67th street, and New Canaan, Conn. Educated at Yale ('65). Member of the firm of Merrill & Rogers. Director Lawyers' Surety Co.; trustee United States Savings Bank. Member Union League, University, Yale and Transportation Clubs, American Fine Arts and New England Societies, Century and Down Town Associations and Association of the Bar of the City of New York.

MERRILL, W. A.—Clerk, 19 John street, New York City; residence 49 West 84th street. Born in New York City, October, 1852. Educated at a private school. (Married.) Member New York Athletic Club.

MERRILL, WILLIAM BRADFORD—Editor, 63 Park row, New York City; residence 23 East 24th street. Born in Salisbury, N. H., Feb. 27, 1861. Educated at Boston Latin School, and in Paris, France. (Married.) Managing editor Philadelphia "Press," 1885-91; editor New York "Press," 1892-4; general manager of same, 1894-5; managing editor New York "World" since 1896. Member Players' Club and New England Society.

MERRILL, WILLIAM J.—Publisher, 110 Fifth avenue, New York City; residence Larchmont. Born in New York City, Sept. 7, 1859. Educated in New York City. (Married.) Secretary and director "Judge" Co. Member Larchmont Yacht and Horseshoe Harbor Yacht Clubs and Aidine Association.

MERRILL, WILLIAM WILLIS—Investment Broker, 419 Produce Exchange, New York City. Born in New York City, Feb. 24, 1851. Educated in New York City. (Married.) Member New York Produce, New York Cotton, New York Maritime, and Consolidated Stock and Petroleum Exchanges and of the West Side Republican and Hardware Clubs and West End Association.

MERRITT, DOUGLAS—"Leacote," Rhinebeck. Born in New York City, Dec. 4, 1847. Educated in New York City and in Europe; graduated from Columbia Law School. (Married Elizabeth Cleveland Cox, 1876.) Trustee Hobart College; secretary St. Stephens College, Annandale, N. Y.; vestryman Church of Messiah, Rhinebeck. Member Reform, Church and Nineteenth Century Clubs, Society of Colonial Wars, New York Genealogical, New York Historical and Albany Historical Societies, Royal Geographical Society of London, England, and Sons of the Revolution.

MERRITT, EDWARD B.—Lawyer, 30 Broad street, New York City; residence 147 West 12th street. Born in New Bedford, Mass., Jan. 25, 1835. (Married.) Member University Club, New York State Colonization, and Phi Beta Kappa Societies and Prison Association.

MERRITT, ERNEST GEORGE—Professor, Cornell University, Ithaca; residence 310 Huestis street. Born in Indianapolis, Ind., 1865. Educated at Cornell (M.E.). (Single.) Formerly vice-president and chairman of section "B" of the American Association for the Advancement of Science for 1900, and associate editor "Physical Review." Now assistant professor of physics at Cornell University.

MERRITT, ISRAEL J.—Marine Salvage, 27 William street, New York City; residence Whitestone. President and director Merritt & Chapman Derrick and Wrecking Co.; vice-president and director Harway Dyewood and Extract Mfg Co. and Moncton and Buctouche Ry. Co.; director Flushing (L. I.) Bank. Member Larchmont Yacht, Knickerbocker Yacht and Engineers' Clubs and Marine Society.

MERRITT, SCHUYLER—Manufacturer, 9 Murray street, New York City; residence Stamford, Conn. Educated at Yale ('73). Secretary and director Yale & Towne Mfg Co. Member University, University Athletic, Delta Kappa Epsilon and Reform Clubs.

MERRITT, W. JENKS—Banker, 52 Broadway, New York City; residence 107 West 48th street. Born and educated in Boston, Mass. (Married.) Trustee Hahnemann Hospital. Member of the Consolidated Stock and Petroleum Exchange. Member Union League, Republican, Lotos and Lawyers' Clubs and Chamber of Commerce.

MERRY, HENRY C.—Auctioneer, 10 Barclay street, New York City; residence 104 West 90th street. Born on Staten Island, N. Y., Feb. 15, 1846. Educated in Staten Island. (Single.) Member Collectors' Club.

MERSER, I. PENNOCK—Restaurateur, 183 Sixth avenue, New York City; residence 12 West 95th street. Born in Marlboro, Stark Co., Ohio, June 9, 1858. (Married.) Member Ohio Society.

MESEREAU, GEORGE B.—Dentist, 34 West 126th street, New York City. Born on Staten Island, N. Y. Educated at New York University. (Married.) Member Congregational Club, First District Dental Society of New York, and Actors' Church Alliance.

MESEREAU, WILLIAM H.—Architect, 32 Broadway, New York City; residence Oakwood. Born in New York City, March 22, 1862. Educated in New York City. (Married.) Supervising architect of the Manhattan Mutual Co-operative Savings and Loan Association. Member Architectural League of New York, and Staten Island Chamber of Commerce.

MESEREAU, WILLIAM S.—Wholesale Drug Merchant, 170 William street and 842 Southern boulevard, New York City; residence Elizabeth, N. J. Member of the firm of Schieffelin & Co. Member City, Turf and Field, Caughnawaga and Elizabeth (N. J.) Clubs and Metropolitan Museum of Art.

MERWIN, BERKLEY R.—Merchant Tailor, 424 Fifth avenue, New York City; residence 50 West 130th street. Born in New Haven, Conn., Oct. 6, 1854. Educated in New Haven. (Married.) Member Harlem Club, Sons of the Revolution and New England Society.

MERWIN, EDWARD F.—Banker, 35 Wall street, New York City; residence East Orange, N. J. Born in New Haven, Conn., Sept. 9, 1846. Educated at General Russell's Collegiate and Commercial Institute. (Married.) Senior member of the New York Stock Exchange firm of Edward P. Merwin & Co. Director Central Coal and Coke Co., Kansas City and Independence Air Line and Kansas City, Pittsburg and Gulf R. R. Co. Member Lawyers', Orange, Essex County (N. J.) Country and Essex County Golf Clubs and New England Society.

MERWIN, EDWARD P., JR.—Banker, 35 Wall street, New York City; residence East Orange, N. J. Born in New Haven, Conn., Sept. 19, 1871. Educated at Harvard. (Single.) Member of the firm of Edward P. Merwin & Co., and of the New York Stock Exchange. Member Harvard, Essex County (N. J.) Country and Essex County Golf Clubs.

MERZ, CARL—Colors, 55 Malden lane, New York City; residence 344 Thirteenth avenue, Newark, N. J. Born in Philadelphia, Pa., Sept. 20, 1857. Educated in New York German and public schools. (Married.) Secretary and director Heller & Merz Co. Member Drug Trade, and Paint, Oil and Varnish Clubs, Liederkranz, New York Turn Verein, German Hospital and others.

MERZ, FRANK—Banker, Jamestown; residence 6 West Sixth street. Born in Clarence Center, Erie Co., N. Y., July 26, 1857. Educated in public schools of Chippawa, Ontario, and Jamestown (N. Y.) High School. (Married.) Was clerk, bookkeeper and teller Chautauqua County National Bank, 1873-84; teller First National Bank, 1885-94; organized in 1894 and was the first cashier of Union Trust Co., of which he has been president since 1899. Member Independent Order of Odd Fellows, Benevolent and Protective Order of Elks and Masonic bodies.

MERZ, HENRY—Colors, 55 Maiden lane, New York City; residence 143 Littleton avenue, Newark, N. J. Born in Germany, May 29, 1833. Educated in Germany. (Married.) Treasurer and director Heller & Merz Co.; director Elka Park Association. Member Drug Trade, and Paint, Oil and Varnish Clubs, Liederkranz, Turn Verein (honorary), German Hospital, Deutsche Gesellschaft and others.

MESEROLE, JEREMIAH V.—Banker, 175 Broadway, Brooklyn; residence 483 Washington avenue. President and trustee Williamsburgh Savings Bank of Brooklyn. Member Union League Club.

MESEROLE, WALTER MONFORT—Civil Engineer, 189 Montague street, Brooklyn; residence 288 Hancock street. Born in Brooklyn, April 5, 1861. Educated at Columbia (C.E., '81). (Married.) Secretary and director Otselec Construction Co.; director Erie and Central New York Ry. Co. Commissioner Atlantic Avenue Improvement since 1897. Member Brooklyn Engineers' Club (president), Holland Society and St. Nicholas Society of Nassau Island.

MESIER, LOUIS—Real Estate, 24 Pine street, New York City; residence 24 West 21st street. Born in New York City, 1844. Educated in New York City. (Single.) Member of the firm of Adrian H. Muller & Son, Member Union Club.

METCALF, JESSE H.—Dry Goods Merchant, 59 Worth street, New York City; residence Providence, R. I. Member of the firm of Metcalf Bros. & Co. Member New York Yacht, Union League and Reform Clubs.

METCALF, LORETTUS S.—Journalist, 72 Fifth avenue, New York City; residence 40 West 106th street. Born in Monmouth, Me., Oct. 17, 1837. Educated in Boston (Mass.) public schools. (Married.) Connected with D. Appleton & Co. Was editor of several newspapers in Massachusetts; managing editor of "North American Review" for nine years; editor of the "Forum" for five years, and of the "Florida Daily Citizen" for four years. Member Authors' Club and Century Association.

METCALF, MANTON B.—Dry Goods Merchant, 59 Worth street, New York City; residence Orange, N. J. Member of the firm of Metcalf Bros. & Co. Member Reform and Merchants' Clubs, Essex County Country Club of Orange, N. J., and New England Society.

METCALFE, HENRY—Real Estate, 19 Liberty street, New York City; residence Cold Spring. Born in New York City, Oct. 29, 1847. Educated at United States Military Academy. (Married Harriet Nichols.) Served in United States Ordnance Department until retired in 1893 with rank of captain. In charge of Government exhibit at Centennial Exposition, 1876; instructor of ordnance at United States Military Academy, 1886-91. Now president of the Water Commission and of the Board of Education of Cold Spring. Member University, City and Reform Clubs and Century Association.

METCALFE, JAMES STETSON—Editor and Critic, 19 West 31st street, New York City; residence 201 West 55th street. Born in Buffalo, N. Y., June 27, 1858. Educated at Yale (A.B. and A.M.) (Married Edith Williams of Batavia, N. Y.) Editor and publisher "The Modern Age," 1883-4; editorial writer "Buffalo Express," 1884-5; manager American Newspaper Publishers' Association, 1886-9. Now literary editor and dramatic critic of "Life," with which he has been connected since 1889. Member Calumet and Michaux Clubs.

METCALFE, JOHN T.—Retired Physician, Cold Spring. Born in Natchez, Miss., July 10, 1818. Educated at United States Military Academy. (Widower.) Emeritus professor New York College of Physicians and Surgeons. Formerly connected with the Orthopaedic Hospital and others. Member American Museum of Natural History and Metropolitan Museum of Art.

METZ, HERMAN A.—President, 122 Hudson street, New York City; residence 461 Gold street, Brooklyn. Born in New York City, Oct. 19, 1867. Educated at Cooper Union. Entered employ of Schulze-Berge & Koechl in 1881 as office boy, and studied chemistry at the Cooper Union and entered the laboratory of the firm; was traveling salesman and Boston agent for two years; in 1894 became vice-president and treasurer of Victor Koechl & Co. (Inc.); became president, by purchasing the interests of Victor Koechl, in 1899. Delegate to the State Conventions held by the Democratic Reform Party; in 1896 delegate to the National Convention at Indianapolis. In 1899 appointed by Mayor Van Wyck, member of the Brooklyn School Board. Ex-member County General Executive and State Committees of the National Democratic Party. Member Reform, Chemists', Crescent Athletic, Germanla, Riding and Driving, National Civic (treasurer and trustee), Brooklyn Democratic (chairman of governing committee) Clubs, Committees on Import and Appraisal and for the Revision of the Customs' Administrative Act of the Merchants' Association, Commonwealth Lodge No. 409, F. & A. M., Jerusalem Chapter No. 8, Adelpic Council No. 7, Palestine Commandery No. 18, Mecca Temple of the Mystic Shrine, thirty-second degree Mason New York Consistory, German Hospital Societies (New York and Brooklyn), Brooklyn Institute of Arts and Sciences, American Museum of Natural History, Metropolitan Museum of Art, Chamber of Commerce, New York Board of Trade and Transportation, Manufacturers' Association and Society of Chemical Industry of London.

MEURER, JACOB—Metals, 575 Flushing avenue, Brooklyn; residence 266 Lincoln place. Born in New York City. (Married.) Senior member of Meurer Bros. Member Union League and Montauk Clubs.

MEYENBERG, MAX—Silk Manufacturer, Hoboken, N. J.; residence 111 West 84th street, New York City. Born in Alexandria, Va., Oct. 6, 1859. (Single.) President Majestic Velvet Mills, N. J. Member Collectors' Club, National Philatelic Society and Masonic bodies.

MEYER, ALFRED—Physician, 801 Madison avenue, New York City. Born in New York City, 1854. Educated at New York College of Physicians and Surgeons, and at Universities of Vienna and Leipzig. (Married.) Attending physician Mount Sinai Hospital; consulting physician Sanitarium for Consumptives at Bedford, N. Y. (Montefiore Home Country Sanitarium); chest specialist United Hebrew Charities. Member Adirondack League and Barnard Clubs, Columbia University Alumni, Mt. Sinai Alumni and Physicians' Mutual Aid Associations, Academy of Medicine, Metropolitan Museum of Art and County Medical and German Medical Societies.

MEYER, ARTHUR G.—Dry Goods Merchant, 66 Leonard street, New York City; residence Elizabeth, N. J. Born in Elizabeth, N. J., March 29, 1870. Educated in Elizabeth. (Single.) Formerly cashier of the firm of Meyer, Kingsland & Co. and connected with Townsend & Montant. Manager English woolen department of Fred'k. Viotor & Achelis; connected with Samuel Knopf Co. and Excelsior Plant Co. Member New York Athletic, Manhattan and Arkwright Clubs and Elizabeth Athletic and Mattano Clubs of Elizabeth.

MEYER, CHARLES B.—Lawyer, 99 Cedar street, New York City; residence Boulevard Lafayette and 158th street. President Children's Fold; trustee Sheltering Arms. Member Church Club and Association of the Bar of the City of New York.

MEYER, CHRISTIAN M.—Manufacturer, 62 William street, New York City; residence 17 East 64th street. President and director Lake Charles Rice Milling Co.; treasurer and director Acme Fertilizer Co. Member New York Athletic, Larchmont Yacht, Atlantic Yacht and New York Yacht Clubs and Crescent Athletic and Hanover Clubs of Brooklyn.

MEYER, CORD—Banker, 62 William street, New York City; residence 137 West 86th street. Born in Maspeth, N. Y., Oct. 9, 1854. Educated at the College of the City of New York. (Married.) President and director Citizens' Water Supply Co. of Newtown, and Acme Fertilizer Co.; vice-president and trustee Colonial Trust Co. and Colonial Safe Deposit Co.; director Associated Manufacturers' Mutual Fire Insurance Corporation, Continental National Bank, Kings County Trust Co., Tennessee Coal, Iron and R. R. Co., Lanyon Zinc Co., St. Paul Mining Co., Ensley Land Co. of Tennessee, Lake Charles Rice Milling Co. and American Agricultural Chemical Co. Member New York Athletic, Lawyers', Suburban Riding and Driving, Colonial and Democratic (vice-president) Clubs and Deutscher Verein.

MEYER, HENRY C.—Publisher, 100 William street, New York City; residence 72 Mountain avenue, Montclair, N. J. Member Union League and Fulton Clubs, Military Order of the Loyal Legion and Century Association.

MEYER, HENRY H.—Stock Broker, 52 Broadway, New York City; residence 431 Fifth avenue. Member of the firm of Seligman & Meyer. Member Reform, Century Country (ex-president) and Suburban Riding and Driving Clubs, and Metropolitan Museum of Art.

MEYER, J. F. OTTO—Merchant, 24 West street, New York City; residence 49 West 91st street. Born in Germany, Feb. 22, 1838. Educated in Germany. (Widower.) Member Consolidated Stock and Petroleum Exchange. Vice-president and director A. Busch Bottling Co.; agent Anheuser-Busch Brewing Association of St. Louis. Member New York Athletic Club, Liederkrantz and Arion and German Societies.

MEYER, J. G. ARNOLD—Mechanical Engineer, 16 Thomas street, New York City; residence 122 Fair street, Paterson, N. J. Born in Berlin, Germany, Jan. 3, 1840. Educated in Berlin, and in Liverpool, England. (Married.) Manager Arnold Publishing House. Author of "Easy Lessons in Mechanical Drawing and Machine Design." Member American Society of Mechanical Engineers and Society of Naval Architects and Marine Engineers.

MEYER, OSCAR R.—Silk Merchant, 487 Broadway, New York City; residence 21 West 74th street. Senior member of the firm of Oscar R. Meyer & Co. Member Merchants' Central Club, Metropolitan Museum of Art and American Museum of Natural History.

MEYER, OTTO A.—Publisher, 17 Main street, Utica; residence 14 Jewett place. Born in Prospect, N. Y. Educated at Utica Academy. (Single.) Publisher and manager Utica "Daily Press"; director Second National Bank and New Hartford Water Co.; owner of Clarendon Office Building. Member Fort Schuyler and Sadaquada Clubs, and Reform Club of New York City.

MEYER, PETER F.—Real Estate, 111 Broadway, New York City, and Commissioner, Pier A, North

River, New York City; residence 190 Lenox avenue. Born in New York City, 1848. Educated in public schools. Engaged in the real estate business since 1862. Senior member of the firm of Peter F. Meyer & Co. Commissioner of docks and ferries of the City of New York. Member New York Athletic, Democratic and Sagamore Clubs and Tammany Society.

MEYER, WILLY—Surgeon, 700 Madison avenue, New York City. Born in Minden, Westfalia, Germany, July 21, 1858. Educated in Germany, at Universities of Bonn and Erlangen. (Married.) Professor of surgery, New York Post-Graduate Medical School and Hospital; attending surgeon New York Skin and Cancer and German Hospitals; consulting surgeon New York Infirmary. Ex-president German Medical Society and ex-professor of surgery Woman's Medical College. Member New York County Medical, State Medical, Pathological, German Medical, Metropolitan Medical and Surgical Societies, Academy of Medicine, Physicians' Mutual Aid, County Medical and State Medical Associations and life member of Congress of German Surgeons.

MEYERS, JAMES COWDEN—Lawyer, 31 Nassau street, New York City; residence 53 St. Nicholas avenue. Secretary Real Estate Corporation of New York City and assistant secretary American Real Estate Co. Member Princeton Club and Association of the Bar of the City of New York.

MEYROWITZ, EMILE B.—Optician, 104 East 23d street, New York City; residence Ridgefield, N. J. Born in Russia, 1852. Educated in Russia. (Married.) President and director Meyrowitz Mfg Co.; proprietor E. B. Meyrowitz (retail). Was secretary of Board of Education of Ridgefield and of the Ridgefield Improvement Association. Member Aldine Association.

MEYROWITZ, OSCAR W.—Optician, 104 East 23d street, New York City; residence New Rochelle. Born in Russia, May, 1851. Educated in Russia and Germany. (Married.) Secretary, treasurer and director Meyrowitz Mfg Co. Secretary New Rochelle Yacht Club.

MIATT, GEORGE WILLIAM—Patent Lawyer, 5 Beekman street, New York City; residence Suffern, Rockland County. Born in England, Aug. 29, 1851. Educated at New York University Law School ('82). (Married.) President Ramapo Building and Loan Association and master Ramapo Lodge No. 589, F. & A. M.

MICHAUX, ALBERT R.—Importer and Manufacturer, 90 Gold street, New York City; residence 113 West 84th street, and Arverne. Born in New York City, Dec. 10, 1864. Educated in public schools, Fordham College and Laval University. (Single.) Secretary and treasurer P. A. Blichert Mfg Co. of New York and Chicago; secretary Felix Fournier & Knopf. Formerly on board of managers French Hospital. Member Catholic Club.

MICHIE, PETER SMITH—Professor, United States Military Academy, West Point. Born in Brechin, Scotland, March 24, 1839. Educated at United States Military Academy ('63). Degrees of Ph.D. from Princeton in 1871; A.M. from Dartmouth in 1873, and LL.D. from Union College in 1893. (Married Maria L. Roberts of Cincinnati, Ohio, 1863.) Commissioned first lieutenant of engineers, United States Army, June 11, 1863, and captain, Nov. 23, 1865. Served throughout Civil War and reached brevet rank of brigadier-general. Professor of philosophy at United States Military Academy since 1871. Member board of overseers of Thayer School of Civil Engineering at Dartmouth College since 1871. Author of "Personnel of Sea Coast Defense," "Elements of Analytical Mechanics," "Practical Astronomy" and other works of a similar nature. Member Century Association of New York City, and Military Order of the Loyal Legion of the United States.

MIDDLEBROOK, CHARLES F.—Merchant, 214 State street, Binghamton; residence 108 Prospect avenue. Born in Oswego, N. Y., July 20, 1867. Educated at Colgate Academy, Hamilton, N. Y., and University of Rochester. (Married.) Member of the firm of C. D. Middlebrook & Son. Member Binghamton Whist and Binghamton Clubs, and Delta Kappa Epsilon Club of New York City.

MIDDLEBROOK, FREDERICK J.—Lawyer, 31 Nassau street, New York City; residence 444 West End avenue. Born in Wilton, Conn., Dec. 28, 1860. (Married.) Director Lykens Valley R. R. and Coal Co., American Mortgage Co. and Hale Co. Member Colonial, West Side and Lawyers' Clubs and Down Town Association.

MIDDLEBROOK, JOSEPH W.—Lawyer, 130 West Main street, Tarrytown; residence Dobbs Ferry. Born in Tarrytown, July 3, 1865. Educated at Wilton Academy, Wilton, Conn., and at Yale ('87). (Married.) Attorney and director Tarrytown National Bank; treasurer Westchester County Bar Association and attorney for county treasurer and State Comptroller. Member Yale, Delta Kappa Epsilon, Pastime, Mohican and Larchmont Yacht Clubs, Ardsley Casino of Ardsley-on-Hudson, City Club of Yonkers, and ex-member Crescent Athletic and Union League Clubs of Brooklyn.

MIDDLETON, CLIFFORD L.—Merchant, 68 Broad street, New York City; residence 473 Clinton avenue, Brooklyn. Member of the firm of Middleton & Co. Member Marine and Field, Hamilton, Riding and Driving, and Excelsior Clubs of Brooklyn, and 23d Regiment Veteran Association.

MIDDLETON, ROBERT—Woolen Manufacturer, Globe Woolen Co., Utica; residence 263 Genesee street. Born in Aberdeen, Scotland, May 17, 1825. Educated in Aberdeen. (Married.) President and agent Globe Woolen Co.; ex-director Second National Bank, Mohawk Valley Mills, Savings Bank of Utica, Utica Mechanics' Association and Utica Willowvale Bleachery. Member Fort Schuyler and Home Market Clubs, National Association of Wool Manufacturers, Knight Templar Mason, American Protective Tariff League and New York State Agricultural Society.

MIDDLETON, W. D.—Woolen Manufacturer, Globe Woolen Co., Utica; residence 263 Genesee street. Born in Dracut, Mass., Dec. 23, 1850. Educated in public schools, Utica Business College and Law Department of Hamilton College. (Married.) Vice-president and superintendent Globe Woolen Co.; director Second National Bank. Was electric light commissioner for three years. Member Fort Schuyler and Adirondack League Clubs, Utica Chamber of Commerce and Faxon Lodge, F. & A. M.

MILBANK, SAMUEL W.—Merchant, 11 Pine street, New York City; residence 33 East 38th street. Director West Wyandotte Mining Co. Member Union, Manhattan, Racquet and Tennis, New York Yacht, Whist and South Side Sportsmen's Clubs and Down Town Association.

MILBURN, JOHN GEORGE—Lawyer, 28 Erie street, Buffalo; residence 1168 Delaware avenue. Born in England, Dec. 13, 1851. Educated in England. (Married.) Practicing in Buffalo since his admission to the Bar in 1874. Member of the firm of Rogers, Locke & Milburn. Member Buffalo Club, Genesee Valley Club of Rochester, and Lawyers' and Players' Clubs and Century Association of New York City.

MILES, C. C.—Physician and Surgeon, Greenport. Born in Sag Harbor, N. Y., Sept. 25, 1854. Educated at New York College of Physicians and Surgeons. (Married.) Trustee Southold Savings Bank; coroner Suffolk County; health officer village of Greenport, and ex-president Board of Education of Greenport.

MILES, SWEETING—Miller and Manufacturer, 17 Jay street, New York City; residence Alpine, N. J. Born in Stroud, Gloucestershire, England, Oct. 6, 1827. Educated in common schools in Dutchess County, N. Y. (Married.) Major of 75th Regiment, N. G. N. Y., 1863; lieutenant-colonel, 1863; colonel, 1864-7. President Palisade Land Co. and Alpine Land Co.; director American Grocery Co. Member New York Produce Exchange and State Board of Education of New Jersey.

MILHAU, EDWARD L.—Druggist, 183 Broadway, New York City; residence 291 Henry street, Brooklyn. Educated at Columbia. Member of the firm of J. Milhau's Son. Member Delta Kappa Epsilon and New York Athletic Clubs, Columbia University Alumni Association and Scientific Alliance.

MILHOLLAND, JOHN E.—President, 154 Nassau street, New York City; residence 168 Madison avenue. (Married.) President and director Tubular Dispatch Co.; director Bacheller Pneumatic Tube Co. of Philadelphia and New York, New York Mail and Newspaper Transportation Co. and Norton Point Land Co. Member Republican, Lotos, New York Press, Atlantic Yacht and Lawyers' Clubs, Metropolitan Museum of Art, American Museum of Natural History, Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Children, Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals and several others.

MILLARD, FRANK VINCENT—Lawyer, Tarrytown. Born in Tarrytown, Feb. 27, 1867. (Son of James F. and Elizabeth A. [Purdyl] Millard.) Educated at Irving Institute, at Yale ('88) and at Columbia Law School. (Married Grace, daughter of Isaac Requa of Tarrytown, 1891.) Practicing in Tarrytown since his admission to the Bar in 1890. Counsel to the Greenburgh Savings Bank, and to the towns of Greenburgh and Mount Pleasant; corporation counsel to Tarrytown and the village of Hastings; chairman Congressional District Republican Committee; member Tarrytown Board of Education; foreman of a volunteer fire company. Member Exempt Firemen's Association (director) and Young Men's Lyceum (president).

MILLARD, S. C.—Lawyer, Binghamton; residence 77 Main street. Born in Stamford, Vt., Jan. 14, 1840. Educated at Williams College. (Married.) Member of the firm of Millard & Stewart. Director First National Bank. Member of Congress, 1882-7. President Binghamton Club.

MILLER, ALBERT O.—Manufacturer and Merchant, 42 North Moore street, New York City; residence Montclair, N. J. Born in Deal, N. J., Sept. 28, 1857. Educated at the College of the City of New York. (Married.) President and director Miller, Tompkins & Co. Member of several Montclair clubs and societies.

MILLER, ALVAH—Paper Merchant, 132 Nassau street, New York City; residence 132 Hewes street, Brooklyn. Born in Katonah, N. Y., Jan. 30, 1855. Educated at Chappaqua Mountain Institute. (Married.) Member of the firm of H. G. Craig & Co. Vice-president and treasurer Lyon Bros. Co.; treasurer Aerated Paper Co. Member Hanover Club of Brooklyn.

MILLER, CHARLES E.—Broker, 39 Wall street, New York City; residence 101 Bainbridge street, Brooklyn. Born on Staten Island, Feb. 10, 1852. Educated in public schools. (Married.) Member of the firm of Kelley, Miller & Co., members of the New York Stock Exchange. President Goldwin Mining Co.; secretary and treasurer Frasse Co. Member Whist Club of New York City, Union League and Brooklyn Whist Clubs of Brooklyn, and Carteret Club of Jersey City, N. J.

MILLER, CHARLES E.—Lawyer, 32 Nassau street, New York City; residence 63 East 54th street. Educated at Columbia ('55). (Married.) Trustee Mutual Life Insurance Co. of New York. Member University and Riding Clubs, Genesee Valley Club of Rochester, New England Society, Columbia University Alumni and Down Town Associations and Association of the Bar of the City of New York.

MILLER, CHARLES HENRY—Artist, 10 East 23d street, New York City; residence Queens, L. I. Born in New York City, March 20, 1842. Educated in New York City, and in Europe at the Royal Academy of Bavaria. Degrees of M.D. and N.A. (Single.) The landscape painter called by Bayard Taylor "the artistic discoverer of the little continent of Long Island." Was president of the Art Club of New York, 1877-82; president of the American Art Committee at Munich International Exposition of 1883; president of the Queens Union Free School, 1895-7; also president of the Board of Education. Has exhibited at all the important national and international exhibitions since 1876, and has been awarded many medals. Author of "The Philosophy of Art in America" under nom de plume "Carl De Muldor." Member Lotos Club, Century Association and National Academy of Design.

MILLER, CHARLES J.—Lumber Merchant, Newfane. Born in Newfane, July 28, 1865. Educated at Cornell ('90). (Married.) Breeder of Guernsey cattle and owner of Meadow Brook Farm. Treasurer and purchasing agent Newfane Basket Mfg Co. Member Cornell University Club of New York City.

MILLER, CHARLES RANSOM—Editor and Publisher, 41 Park row, New York City; residence 48 Central Park, South. Born in Hanover, N. H., Jan. 17, 1849. Educated at Dartmouth College ('72). (Married Frances Daniels of Plainfield, N. H., 1876.) Editor-in-chief of the New York "Times" with which he has been connected since 1875. Director Blooming Grove Park Association. Member Metropolitan Club, Century Association and National Sculpture Society.

MILLER, CHARLES S.—Lawyer, 150 Nassau street, New York City; residence 65 Columbia Heights, Brooklyn. Born in Hornellsville, N. Y., June 2, 1856. Educated at Yale ('77) and Columbia Law School ('79); also pursued legal studies in office of Hon. Ernest Hall. (Single.) Has been in practice on individual account since 1883. Was one of the vice-presidents of the Patria Club, 1898-9. Member Patria and Psi Upsilon Clubs, Crescent Athletic Club of Brooklyn, and Yale Alumni Association.

MILLER, CHARLES W.—Banker and Broker, 18 Wall street, New York City; residence Sparkill. Born in New York City, May 12, 1833. (Married.) Member of the firm of S. F. Johnson & Co., members of the New York Stock Exchange.

MILLER, CYRUS C.—Lawyer, 120 Broadway, New York City; residence University Heights. Born in Claverack, Columbia Co., N. Y., Nov. 2, 1866. Educated at New York University ('88) and Columbia Law School ('91). (Married.) Member of the firm of Miller, Decker & Miller. Was member of council of New York University and treasurer of New York University Alumni Association. Member Grolier and Fordham Clubs, Crescent Athletic Club of Brooklyn, New York University Alumni Association and Zeta Psi Fraternity.

MILLER, DEANE—Stock Broker, 16 Wall street, New York City; residence University Club. Born in New Rochelle, N. Y., March 15, 1866. Educated at Yale ('85). (Single.) Member of the firm of Latham, Alexander & Co. and of the New York Stock Exchange. Member University, Racquet and Tennis, and Tuxedo Clubs.

MILLER, EDMUND HOWD—Chemist, Havemeyer Hall, 118th street and Broadway, New York City; residence 312 Manhattan avenue. Born in Fairfield, Conn., Sept. 12, 1869. Educated at Columbia University School of Mines and School of Pure Science (Ph.D.) (Married.) Instructor in analytical chemistry and assaying at Columbia University. Member Columbia University Alumni Association, American Institute of Mining Engineers, American Chemical Society, Society of Chemical Industry and Chemical Society of London, England.

MILLER, EDWARD M. F.—Broker, 40 Wall street, New York City; residence 797 Lexington avenue. Born in New York City, March 18, 1856. Educated in public schools and at College of the City of New York. (Married.) Member New York Stock Exchange. Treasurer Standard Trust Co. of New York City. Member Republican Club, New England Society and Methodist Social Union.

MILLER, FRANK C.—Manufacturer, 349 West 26th street, New York City; residence 1048 Fifth avenue. Born in Warsaw, N. Y., Sept. 13, 1856. (Married.) Vice-president, treasurer and director Frank Miller Co.

MILLER, FRANKLIN T.—Publisher, 310 Sixth avenue, New York City. Secretary and director F. W. Dodge Co., and of the New York City Record Publishing Co.

MILLER, FRED J.—Editor, 218 William street, New York City; residence 34 Beech street, East Orange, N. J. Born, Jan. 3, 1857. (Married.) Editor "American Machinist"; vice-president American Machinist Press. Member Engineers' Club and American Society of Mechanical Engineers.

MILLER, GEORGE MACCULLOCH—Lawyer, 80 Broadway, New York City; residence 270 Madison avenue. Born in Morristown, N. J., 1832. Educated at Burlington College and at Harvard Law School. Admitted to the New Jersey Bar in 1853, and to the New York Bar in 1854. (Married Elizabeth Hoffman, 1857.) Makes a specialty of corporation law. Director Greenwood Cemetery, Harlem River and Portchester R. R. Co., Housatonic R. R. Co., New York, New Haven and Hartford R. R. Co., Providence and Stonington Steamship Co. and Shepaug R. R. Co.; trustee Bank for Savings and Central Trust Co. Secretary of the corporation of the Protestant Episcopal Cathedral of St. John the Divine since 1873. Member City, Union League, Lawyers' and Church Clubs, Century Association, American Museum of Natural History and Metropolitan Museum of Art.

MILLER, GEORGE WASHINGTON—Lawyer, 44 Broad street, New York City; residence 303 West 77th street. Born July 20, 1829. Educated in Rochester, N. Y. (Married.) Formerly corporation counsel City of Rochester, United States District Attorney for Northern District of New York and Superintendent of Insurance Department, State of New York. Member Union Club.

MILLER, HOFFMAN—Lawyer, 80 Broadway, New York City; residence 122 East 40th street. Member of the firm of Peckham, Miller & King. Member Union League, St. Anthony and Lawyers' Clubs and Association of the Bar of the City of New York.

MILLER, HYMAN GRIFFIN—Bank Clerk, 530 Fifth avenue, New York City; residence 44 North Ninth avenue, Mount Vernon. Born in Vermont, 1873. Educated in Vermont public, private and high schools. (Married Mary W. Roberts, 1898.) Connected with the Fifth Avenue Bank of New York.

MILLER, IRA O.—Lawyer, 108 Fulton street, New York City; residence 37 West 83d street. Born in Westminster, Vt., March 3, 1823. Educated at University of Vermont ('48). (Married.) Has practiced law in New York City since 1855. Member New England Society.

MILLER, ISAAC NEWTON—Lawyer, 293 Broadway, New York City; residence Lakeview, N. J. Born in Oneida County, N. Y., Oct. 22, 1851. (Son of Isaac C. and Elizabeth [Wood] Miller.) Educated at Whites-town Seminary, Rural High School of Clinton, Hamilton College and at Columbia College Law School. (Married.) Member Delta Kappa Epsilon and Oneida County Clubs.

MILLER, J. BLEECKER—Lawyer, 37 Liberty street, New York City; residence 56 West Ninth street. Member Reform, Lawyers' and Church Clubs, American Geographical Society, Society of Medical Jurisprudence, Society of Colonial Wars, Sons of the Revolution and Association of the Bar of the City of New York.

MILLER, JACOB F.—Lawyer, 120 Broadway, New York City; residence 62 West 89th street. Born in Claverack, Columbia Co., N. Y., Nov. 25, 1837. Educated at Hudson River Institute and Williams College. (Married.) Member of the firm of Miller, Decker & Miller. Member board of managers House of Refuge, Randall's Island; trustee and secretary Wartburg Orphans' Farm School. Member Lawyers' and Patria Clubs, Medico-Legal and Martin Luther (president) Societies, Phi Beta Kappa Alumni, New York State Bar and Civil Service Reform Associations and Association of the Bar of the City of New York.

MILLER, J. R.—Clothing Merchant, Watertown. Born in Scotland, Feb. 2, 1842. (Married.) Trustee Jefferson County Savings Bank; director Watertown National Bank. Member Union Club and Masonic bodies.

MILLER, JACOB W.—Transportation, Pier 10, North River, New York City; residence 113 East 30th street. Born in Morristown, N. J., 1847. Educated at United States Naval Academy ('67). (Married.) President and director Newport and Wickford R. R. and Steamboat Co.; president Nicaragua Canal Co. and Costa Rica Development Co.; director Signal and Control Co. Commander of Naval Militia of New York. Member University and Seawanhaka-Corinthian Yacht Clubs, Metropolitan Club of Washington, D. C. Century Association, Society of Foreign Wars, Society of the Spanish-American War, Naval Architects' Society, and Naval Order of the United States.

MILLER, JOHN DOULL—Merchant, 362 Broadway, New York City; residence Plainfield, N. J. Born in London, England, July 6, 1864. Educated at Brighton College, England. (Married.) Member Merchants', Adirondack League, and Hillside Tennis and Golf Clubs and Chamber of Commerce.

MILLER, JOHN HUNTER—Lawyer, 35 Wall street, New York City; residence Hotel Vendome. Born in New Rochelle, N. Y., May 11, 1850. (Son of Leonard P. and Susan Ann [Le Count] Miller.) Educated in private schools, at Wesleyan University (A.B., '71) and at Columbia College Law School (LL.B., '73). Practicing in New York City since his admission to the Bar in 1873. Makes a specialty of corporation law. Director Automatic Vending Co. and North American Loan and Trust Co. Member Association of the Bar of the City of New York.

MILLER, JOHN J.—Importer and Manufacturer, 53 Murray street, New York City; residence 310 Roseville avenue, Newark, N. J. Born in Trenton, N. J., March 27, 1864. Educated in Trenton. (Married.) President and director Crescent Belting and Packing Co., and Maddock & Miller.

MILLER, JOHN W.—Stock Broker, 16 West 25th street, New York City; residence 251 Washington avenue, Brooklyn. Born in Ohio, Aug. 14, 1849. Educated at Harvard. (Widower.) Member Democratic and Arkwright Clubs, and Oxford Club of Brooklyn.

MILLER, MILLS—Bookkeeper, 624 First avenue, New York City; residence 622 First avenue. Born in Baltimore, Md., July 11, 1874. Educated in common parochial schools of New York City. (Single.) Superintendent of the coal business of Edward Elliott. Was collector for seven years for that house, and financial secretary and treasurer of Company I, 9th Regiment, N. G. N. Y. Served in the 109th Provisional Regiment, N. G. N. Y., during the Spanish-American War. Member Sons of the American Revolution and 9th Regiment, N. G. N. Y.

MILLER, SAMUEL FISCHER—Engineer, 11 Broadway, New York City; residence South Orange, N. J. Born in Lake Forest, Ill., Sept. 19, 1861. Educated at De Vaux College in Niagara Falls, Amherst College and at Massachusetts Institute of Technology. (Married.) Contracting engineer for Milliken Bros., engineers and contractors in iron and steel construction. Solo tenor at Fifth Avenue Baptist Church. Member Sketch, Mendelssohn Glee, Harvard, Strollers', Essex County (N. J.) Country and Reform Clubs and Amherst College Alumni Association.

MILLER, SPENCER—Civil Engineer, 96 Liberty street, New York City; residence South Orange, N. J. Born in Waukegan, Ill., April 25, 1859. Educated at Worcester Polytechnic Institute ('79). (Married.) Chief engineer of cableway department of Lidgerwood Mfg Co. Designer and patentee of the Miller Conveyor for coaling at sea, which has been accepted by the United States Navy after exhaustive sea trials. Member Essex County (N. J.) Country and Engineers' Clubs, American Society of Mechanical Engineers, American Society of Civil Engineers, American Institute of Mining Engineers and Society of Naval Architects and Marine Engineers.

MILLER, THEODORE FRELINGHUYSEN—Banker, 177 Montague street, Brooklyn. Born in New York City, 1850. Educated at Grammar School No. 35 ('64), College of the City of New York ('67) and Columbia College Law School ('71.) Began practice of law in the office of Benedict & Benedict. Was associated with Enoch L. Fancher until 1892; retired from the practice of law in 1892 to become secretary and treasurer of Henry R. Worthington Co. Was elected to the presidency of the Brooklyn Trust Co., to succeed Gen. Christian T. Christensen (resigned), in May, 1900. Secretary and director Worthington Pumping Engine Co.; director International Steam Pump Co. and New York Filter Mfg Co. Member Brooklyn, Crescent Athletic and Hamilton Clubs, Manhattan, Lawyers' and Engineers' Clubs of New York City, Ardsley Casino of Ardsley-on-Hudson, and Delta Kappa Epsilon Society.

MILLER, WARNER—Paper Manufacturer, 100 Broadway, New York City; residence 2 West 43d street, and "Oak Hill Farm," Herkimer. Born in Hannibal, Oswego Co, N. Y., Aug. 12, 1833. Educated at Union College. Degree of LL.D. from Union College and from Syracuse University. (Married.) Served with New York Cavalry during Civil War. Delegate to National Republican Convention of 1872; member of the State Legislature, 1874-5; Congressman, 1878-81; United States Senator, 1881-7. President and director Herkimer Paper Co.; secretary and director Hudson River Pulp and Paper Co.; secretary International Paper Co.; director Traders' Fire Insurance Co. of New York, and International North and South America Transportation and Express Co. Member Republican, Union League, Adirondack League and Lawyers' Clubs, American Geographical, St. Nicholas and New England Societies, Sons of the Revolution, Union College Alumni Association and American Museum of Natural History.

MILLER, WILLIAM E.—Manufacturer, 349 West 26th street, New York City; residence Clarendon Hotel. Born in Warsaw, N. Y., Sept. 15, 1863. Educated at Princeton. (Married.) Secretary and director Frank Miller Co. Member Princeton Club.

MILLER, WILLIAM WILSON—Lawyer, 30 Broad street, New York City; residence 501 Fifth avenue. Born in Washington, D. C., May 14, 1870. Educated at National University, Washington, D. C. (Single.) Member of the firm of Hornblower, Byrne, Taylor & Miller. Trustee Equitable Securities Co. Member Lawyers', Racquet and Tennis, and Country Cycle Clubs, Ardsley Casino of Ardsley-on-Hudson, Association of the Bar of the City of New York and Society of Medical Jurisprudence.

MILLIGAN, JOHN C.—Retired Hardware Merchant, 19 Cliff street, New York City; residence 171 Lefferts place, Brooklyn. Born in Auburn, N. Y., April 14, 1837. Educated at Auburn Academy. (Married.) Was one of the incorporators and the first vice-president of both the Lalance & Grosjean Mfg Co. and Woodhaven Water Supply Co.; was for over forty years actively connected with the management of the former company. Ex-director Phenix National Bank, Norton Can Co. and Central Stamping Co. Director Lalance & Grosjean Mfg Co. and Woodhaven Water Supply Co.

MILLIKEN, EDWARD F.—Iron Manufacturer, 11 Broadway, New York City; residence 47 West 43d street. Member of the firm of Milliken Bros. Member Lawyers', Union, Racquet and Tennis, Larchmont Yacht, Ulster County Country, St. Andrew's Golf and Chelsea Plantation Clubs.

MILLIKEN, FOSTER—Iron Manufacturer, 11 Broadway, New York City; residence 127 West 72d street. Born in Brooklyn, N. Y., May 9, 1865. Educated in Plainfield, N. J. (Married.) Member of the firm of Milliken Bros. Member Lawyers', New York Athletic, Colonial, St. Andrew's Golf, and Spesutia Island Rod and Gun Clubs, and Ardsley Casino of Ardsley-on-Hudson.

MILLIKEN, JAMES F.—Lawyer and Dramatist, 287 Broadway, New York City; residence 31½ West 30th street. Born in Lewistown, Pa., July 19, 1847. Educated at Pennsylvania Military Academy. (Married.) Has written thirty-five plays, operas and sketches, and a number of stories. Member of the firm of Milliken & Gasten. Secretary and director Grand Conservatory of Music of the City of New York; director Protective League of Salt Water Fishermen. Formerly district attorney of Blair County, Pa., colonel 5th Regiment, Pa. N. G., and lieutenant-colonel on staff of General W. W. Loring in Egypt. Member American Dramatists' (attorney) and Seneca Clubs, Knights of Pythias, American Mechanics, Sons of America, I. O. O. F., and Masonic bodies.

MILLIKEN, SETH M.—Dry Goods Commission Merchant, 79 Leonard street, New York City; residence 990 Madison avenue. Member of the firm of Deering, Milliken & Co. Treasurer and director Harwood Land and Improvement Co.; director Mercantile National Bank; trustee Colonial Trust Co. Member Union League, Republican, Merchants', Wool, Riding, and Suburban Riding and Driving Clubs, New England Society and Metropolitan Museum of Art.

MILLS, ABRAHAM G.—Elevator Manufacturer, 71 Broadway, New York City; residence "The Ormonde," 70th street and Broadway. Born in New York City, March 12, 1844. Educated at Union Hall Academy, Jamaica, and Columbian College, Washington, D. C. (Married.) Was president New York Republican Association of Washington, D. C., and National League P. B. B. C., and vice-president and secretary Otis Bros. & Co. President Adirondack Co. and Shore Owners' Association of Lake Placid; vice-president Otis Elevator Co. Member New York Athletic (ex-president), Army and Navy, Adirondack League (ex-president), Union League, Engineers', Patria and National Arts Clubs, National Sculpture, American Geographical, Charity Organization, Nineteenth Army Corps (ex-vice-president), New York Zoological and Linnean Societies, American Forestry and Armstrong Associations, Military Order of the Loyal Legion, Lafayette Post, G. A. R. (ex-commander), Society of the Army of the Potomac, Military Service Institution of the United States, Biographical Society of America, American Academy of Political and Social Science, Society for the Preservation of Scenic and Historic Places and Objects, Society for Relief of Destitute Children of Seamen, Sheltering Arms, Chamber of Commerce, Metropolitan Museum of Art, American Museum of Natural History and New York Botanical Gardens.

MILLS, ALBERT LEOPOLD—Army Officer, United States Military Academy, West Point. Born in New York City, May 7, 1854. Educated at United States Military Academy ('79). (Married Alada Thurston, daughter of Rev. John Adams Paddock of Brooklyn, N. Y., 1883.) Professor of military tactics at South Carolina Military Academy, 1886; served in Santiago de Cuba as captain and assistant adjutant-general of volunteers during Spanish American War; was wounded and nominated brevet major and lieutenant-colonel for gallantry. Superintendent of United States Military Academy since Aug. 22, 1898.

MILLS, CHARLES J.—Publisher, 93 Fifth avenue, New York City; residence Orange, N. J. Member Players' and Grolier Clubs and Aldine Association.

MILLS, DARIUS OGDEN—Capitalist, 15 Broad street, New York City; residence 634 Fifth avenue. Born in North Salem, N. Y., Sept. 5, 1825. Educated at Mount Pleasant Academy. (Widower.) Went to California in 1849; founded the bank of D. O. Mills & Co. in Sacramento; president of the Bank of California, 1864-7; resident of New York City since 1880. Founder and owner of the Mills Hotels in New York City. President and director Niagara Falls Power Co. and Virginia and Truckee R. R. Co.; director Bank of New York, Carson and Colorado Ry. Co., Cataract Construction Co., City and Suburban Homes Co., Duluth and Iron Range R. R. Co., Edison Electric Illuminating Co., Equitable Life Assurance Society of the United States, Federal Steel Co., International Paper Co., Lake Shore and Michigan Southern R. R. Co., Madison Square Garden Co., Mergenthaler Linotype Co., Metropolitan Opera and Real Estate Co., Minnesota Iron Co., Niagara Development Co. and Niagara Junction Ry. Co.; trustee Farmers' Loan and Trust Co., Metropolitan Trust Co. and United States Trust Co. Member Metropolitan, Knickerbocker, Union League, Turf and Field, and Union Clubs and Century Association.

MILLS, EDMUND S.—Real Estate, 45 East 42d street, New York City; residence Hastings-on-Hudson. Born, Sept. 8, 1852. Educated at Rensselaer Polytechnic Institute. (Widower.) Vice-president Westchester County Bible Society; member of the Real Estate Board of Brokers of the City of New York. Member Transportation Club and Diamond Lodge No. 555, F. & A. M. of Dobbs Ferry.

MILLS, HERBERT ELMER—Professor, Vassar College, Poughkeepsie; residence 106 Academy street. Born in Salem, N. H., Aug. 8, 1861. Educated at University of Rochester (A.B., '83 and A.M., '86). Degree of Ph.D. from Cornell in 1890. (Married Mary Louise Sansbury, 1890.) Professor of economics at Vassar College since 1890. Author of "Practical Economic Problems," "Labor Problem" and other works of a similar nature. Member Delta Kappa Epsilon Fraternity and American Economic Association.

MILLS, ISAAC NEWTON—Lawyer, 5 Beekman street, New York City; residence Mount Vernon. Member Republican and Union League Clubs, New England Society, Sons of the Revolution and Association of the Bar of the City of New York.

MILLS, JOHN F.—Foundryman, Port Chester. Born in Jersey City, N. J., Oct. 9, 1843. Educated in Jersey City. (Widower.) Vice-president Abendroth Bros.; first vice-president Port Chester Savings Bank and Port Chester Water Co.; director First National Bank. Member Port Chester Athletic Club, and Fulton Club of New York City.

MILLS, JOHN T., JR.—Retired Banker, 719 Madison avenue, New York City. Born in New York City, Aug. 5, 1857. Educated in city public schools. (Married.) Cashier Chase National Bank until August, 1900. Member Union League Club and Chamber of Commerce.

MILLS, OGDEN—Capitalist, 15 Broad street, New York City; residence 2 East 69th street. (Son of Darius Ogdén Mills.) Educated at Harvard ('78). (Married.) Director Chicago, Rock Island and Pacific Ry. Co., Erie Elevator Co., Mergenthaler Linotype Co., National Typographic Association, New York Fireproof Tenement Association and "Tribune" Association. Member Union, Union League, Metropolitan, University, Harvard, Racquet and Tennis, Hudson River Ice Yacht, Turf and Field, and New York Yacht Clubs.

MILLS, SEBASTIAN BACH—Pianist, 109 East 14th street, New York City. Born in Cirencester, Gloucester Co., England, March 13, 1839. Received a musical education in Germany. Came to the United States in 1859, and became a piano teacher in New York City. Well known as a concert pianist and as a composer of music for the piano.

MILLS, WILLIAM STOWELL—Teacher, Evergreen and Ralph avenues, Brooklyn; residence 352 Clifton place. Born in Reynoldsburg, Ohio, Nov. 14, 1850. Educated at Illinois State Normal School ('75) and Columbia Law School ('82). (Married.) Principal Public School No. 75. Author of "Foundations of Genealogy" and "Aid to Diction." Member Founders and Patriots of America, Society of Mayflower Descendants, and a founder League of Red, White and Blue.

MILMINE, E. L.—Banker, 216 State street, Schenectady; residence 315 State street. Born in Seneca Falls, N. Y., March 3, 1861. Educated in public schools. (Single.) Cashier Mohawk National Bank. Member Mohawk Club.

MILNE, JAMES M.—Teacher and Lecturer, Oneonta. Born in Scotland, 1850. Educated at the University of Rochester, and at the University of Heidelberg, Germany. Degree of Ph.D. from Colgate University. (Married Susan M. Schermerhorn, 1881.) Principal of academic department, for three years, and professor of Latin and Greek for twelve years at Cortland Normal School; also principal of State Normal School at Oneonta for nine years. Writer on educational and literary subjects.

MILNE, WILLIAM J.—Teacher, Albany; residence 94 Willett street. Born in Scotland, 1843. Educated at University of Rochester. (Married.) Principal Genesee Normal School, and president New York State Normal College. Member Fort Orange, Fortnightly, Hudson River School Masters' and Burns Clubs and St. Andrew's Society.

MINDEN, SIMEON B.—Physician, 230 East 69th street, New York City. Born in London, England, Sept. 23, 1863. Educated in city schools and Gross Medical College, Denver, Colo., (M.D., '90). (Married.) Visiting surgeon Bellevue and Polyclinic Hospitals. Member Society of Medical Jurisprudence, New York Medical Association and New York County Medical Society.

MINFORD, LEVIS W.—Sugar and Coffee Broker, 106 Wall street, New York City; residence Morristown, N. J. Born in Philadelphia, Pa., Nov. 19, 1850. Educated at Charlier's Institute. (Married.) Head of the firm of L. W. Minford & Co., and member of New York Coffee Exchange. Member Down Town Association and Morristown (N. J.) Field Club.

MINOR, ROBERT CRANNELL—Artist, 14 West 12th street, New York City. Born in New York City, 1840. Studied painting in Belgium and in France. Has furnished works to notable collections and has been awarded many medals. Member Salmagundi, Lotos and National Arts Clubs, New York Sculpture Society, and National Academy of Design.

MINTON, MAURICE M.—Life Insurance Expert, 150 Nassau street, New York City. Born in Pau, France (of American parents), Jan. 31, 1859. Educated in New York City public schools. Published "The Town," 1882-3; on editorial staff of the New York "Evening Telegram," 1884-6, of the New York "Herald," 1886-9; editor and manager "Illustrated American," 1889-94; connected with the Equitable Life Assurance Society of the United States, 1894-8; conducting the Life Insurers' Information Bureau since January, 1899. Author of "The Road of the Rough" and "Country Lanes and City Pavements." Member Lawyers' Club and Metropolitan Museum of Art.

MINTURN, JAMES F.—Lawyer, 45 Broadway, New York City; residence Hoboken, N. J. Ex-corporation counsel of Hoboken. Member Catholic Club.

MINTURN, ROBERT SHAW—Lawyer, 11 Broadway, New York City; residence 109 East 21st street. Educated at Harvard ('84). Member Riding, City, University, Reform, Knickerbocker and Harvard Clubs, Down Town Association and Association of the Bar of the City of New York.

MITCHELL, FREDERICK AUGUSTUS—Journalist, 45 Park place, New York City. Born in Cincinnati, Ohio, Dec. 4, 1839. (Son of Major-General O. M. Mitchell.) Educated at Brown University ('60). Served in Union Army during Civil War. Connected with the American Press Association as fiction editor. Author of the war romances, "Chattanooga" and "Chickamauga"; also of several biographical works.

MITCHELL, ALBERT E.—Superintendent, 21 Cortlandt street, New York City; residence 90 High street, Passaic, N. J. Superintendent of motive power Erie R. R. Co. and New York, Susquehanna and Western R. R. Co. Member American Society of Mechanical Engineers.

MITCHELL, ALFRED A.—Analytical Chemist, 63 Park row, New York City; residence 1021 Putnam avenue, Brooklyn. Born in New York City, Jan. 12, 1861. (Son of Augustus Mitchell.) (Married.) Served five years as officer in the National Guard and in war with Spain as captain of 8th New York Volunteers from May 2, 1898 to Nov. 3, 1898; mustered out with 8th Regiment and appointed, on Nov. 3, 1898, first lieutenant 12th New York Volunteers; mustered out with 12th regiment on April 20, 1899. Personally recruited own company in 8th Regiment. Served for three months in Cuba. Was assistant county physician of Jefferson County, Colo., for two years, and city physician, Colorado City, Colo., for one year. Member Sons of the American Revolution, Naval and Military Order of Spanish-American War, Knights of Pythias (past chancellor), National Benevolent Legion (past president), New York State Pharmaceutical Association, Improved Order of Heptasophs and Royal Arcanum.

MITCHELL, CHARLES ELLIOTT—Lawyer, 41 Park row, New York City; residence 1 West 81st street. Born in Bristol, Conn., May 11, 1837. (Son of George H. and Lurene [Hooker] Mitchell.) Educated at Connecticut Literary Institute, Williston Seminary, Brown University and at Albany Law School. (Married.) Senior member of the firm of Mitchell, Bartlett & Brownell. Member of the Connecticut Assembly, 1880-1. United States Commissioner of Patents during the administration of President Harrison, 1889-91. Member Hardware, University and Congregational Clubs, Phi Beta Kappa Alumni and Century Associations, New England Society and Association of the Bar of the City of New York.

MITCHELL, CLARENCE B.—Lawyer, 195 Broadway, New York City; residence Westchester. Educated at Princeton ('89). Member Princeton and University Clubs, Country Club of Westchester, Sons of the Revolution and Association of the Bar of the City of New York.

MITCHELL, CORNELIUS B.—Merchant, 66 White street, New York City; residence 24 West Tenth street, and Morristown, N. J. Born in New York City, Sept. 1, 1843. Educated at Columbia College Grammar School and Columbia University. Member of the firm of Wilmerding, Morris & Mitchell. Senior warden of St. Mark's Church; vice-president Union League Club. Formerly colonel on staff of First Division, N. G. N. Y. Member University, Union League, Merchants', Morristown, Morristown Golf, and Somerset Hills Country Clubs, Columbia University Alumni Association, Huguenot Society, Tree Planting Association of New York City (vice-president), Archaeological Institute of America, and National Historical Museum.

MITCHELL, DAVID—Lawyer, 93 Nassau street, New York City; residence 202 West 103d street. Born in Dumbarton, Scotland, 1847. Educated in Providence, R. I., and at the University of Bonn, Germany. Studied law in Providence and has practiced in New York City since his admission to the Bar in 1870. (Married Sarah Olive Cogswell.) Was chief assistant to William M. K. Olcott, District Attorney of New York County, and as such, was prosecuting attorney in several important murder trials. Member West Side Republican Club and Society of Medical Jurisprudence.

MITCHELL, EDWARD—Lawyer, 44 Wall street, New York City; residence 31 East 50th street. Born in New York City, April 15, 1842. Educated at Columbia College ('61) and Law School. (Married.) Formerly member of Assembly of New York State; lieutenant-colonel and quartermaster 1st Division N. G. N. Y., and United States District Attorney for the Southern District of New York. Senior member of the firm of Mitchell & Mitchell. President Columbia College Alumni Association; trustee Columbia College. Member Republican, Union League, Metropolitan, Tuxedo, University, Shinnecock Hill Golf and Riding Clubs, Metropolitan Club of Washington, D. C., American Geographical Society, Down Town and Century Associations and Association of the Bar of the City of New York.

MITCHELL, EDWARD PAGE—Journalist, 170 Nassau street, New York City; residence Glen Ridge, N. J. Born in Bath, Me., March 24, 1852. Educated at Bowdoin College ('71). (Married.) On editorial staff of New York "Sun" since 1875. Member University and Authors' Clubs.

MITCHELL, GEORGE H. B.—Coffee Importer, 110 Water street, New York City; residence 142 West 72d street. Member Manhattan, New York Yacht and New York Athletic Clubs.

MITCHELL, HENRY R.—Importer, 38 Murray street, New York City; residence Haddonfield, N. J. Born in Philadelphia, Pa., June 3, 1843. Educated at Friend's Central School and University of Pennsylvania. (Married.) President and director Mitchell-Bissell Co.

MITCHELL, HUBBARD W.—Physician, 747 Madison avenue, New York City. Member Lotos Club, American Geographical and Medico-Legal Societies, Medical Society of the County of New York, Academy of Medicine and Lafayette Post, G. A. R.

MITCHELL, JOHN AMES—Editor, 19 West 31st street, New York City; residence 20 West 46th street. Born in New York City, Jan. 17, 1845. Educated at Phillips Exeter Academy and at Lawrence Scientific School of Harvard University; studied architecture in Boston, Mass., and at Ecole des Beaux-Arts, Paris, France. (Married.) Practiced architecture in Boston, Mass., 1870-6. Founded "Life" in 1883 and is still its editor. Author of "The Summer School of Philosophy at Mount Desert," "The Romance of the Moon," "The Last American," "Life's Fairy Tales," "The First Affair" and other works. Member Players', City and Barnard Clubs and Century Association.

MITCHELL, JOHN J.—Publisher, 103 Fifth avenue, New York City; residence 9 West 69th street. President and director John J. Mitchell Co.; director American Surety Co. Member Colonial and Press Clubs, Blooming Grove Park and Aldine Associations, Metropolitan Museum of Art and American Museum of Natural History.

MITCHELL, JOHN MURRAY—Lawyer, 20 Broad street, New York City; residence 9 East 67th street. Born in New York City, March 18, 1858. Educated at Columbia (A.B., '77, LL.B., '79 and A.M., '80). Practicing in New York City since 1882. Represented the Eighth New York District in Congress, 1895-9. Director Central-Hudson Steamboat Co. Member Republican, Riding, Suburban Riding and Driving, Seawanhaka-Corinthian Yacht, New York Yacht, New York Athletic and St. Andrew's Golf Clubs, Columbia University Alumni and Down Town Associations, St. Nicholas Society, Scientific Alliance, Metropolitan Museum of Art and Association of the Bar of the City of New York.

MITCHELL, JOHN Q.—Examiner, 641 Washington street, New York City; residence 13 East 46th street. Connected with the United States Appraisers' Stores, Port of New York. Member Lotos, Whist and Patria Clubs, Marine and Field Club of Brooklyn, and Ohio Society.

MITCHELL, PRINGLE—Manufacturer, 333 Fourth avenue, New York City; residence Rye. Vice-president and director Stourbridge Glass Co. and Tiffany Glass and Decorating Co. Member Reform, Calumet, National Fine Arts and Apawamis Clubs, Architectural League and National Sculpture Society.

MITCHELL, ROLAND G.—Great Neck, L. I. Educated at the College of the City of New York. Director Washington Life Insurance Co. Served in engineer corps of Company K, 7th Regiment, N. G. N. Y., attached to 3d Army Corps. Member University Club of New York City, St. Marguerite Salmon, St. Maurice and Laurentian Clubs of Canada, College of the City of New York Alumni and 7th Regiment Veteran Associations, New York Zoological and American Numismatic and Archaeological Societies, American Museum of Natural History, Metropolitan Museum of Art and Botanical Gardens.

MITCHELL, STANLEY N.—Real Estate and Insurance, 70 Court street, Binghamton; residence 203 Front street. Born in Montrose, Pa., Jan. 3, 1843. Educated at Hamilton, N. Y. (Married.) Formerly justice of the peace, United States assistant assessor, deputy county clerk and member of Assembly of Pennsylvania. Member Binghamton Club and Malta Commandery.

MITCHELL, WALTER—Protestant Episcopalian Clergyman, 254 West 100th street, New York City. Born in Nantucket, Mass., Jan. 22, 1826. Educated at Harvard and at Trinity College; studied law and was admitted to the Bar in 1849. (Married.) Deacon, 1853; priest, 1860. Held pastorates successively at St. John's Church of Stamford, Conn., St. Mark's of Philadelphia, Pa., Holy Trinity of Rutland, Vt., Holy Trinity of Middletown, Conn., and Christ Church of Rye, N. Y.; was also for a time chaplain at Kenyon College. Now retired from active ministry. Connected with "The Churchman." Author of "Two Strings to His Bow," "Bryan Maurice," "The Mocking Bird" and other works.

MITCHELL, WILLARD A.—Lawyer, 35 Nassau street, New York City; residence 54 West 93d street. Born in Chateaugay, N. Y. Educated at University of Vermont and Columbia Law School. (Married.) Member West Side Republican, Lenox Tennis and Phi Delta Phi Clubs and Phi Beta Kappa Alumni and University of Vermont Alumni Associations.

MITCHELL, WILLIAM—Lawyer, 44 Wall street, New York City; residence Bryn Mawr Park, Yonkers. Born in New York City, May 11, 1850. Educated at Columbia. (Married.) Member of the firm of Mitchell & Mitchell. Member Union League and New York Athletic Clubs, Columbia University Alumni and Down Town Associations and Association of the Bar of the City of New York.

MITCHELL, WILLIAM ANDERSON—Physician, 140 Broadway, New York City; residence 378 Monroe street, Brooklyn. Born in Harrison, Westchester Co., N. Y., Dec. 13, 1842. Educated at Columbia ('63) and Yale Medical College ('65). (Married.) Member Sons of the Revolution, Founders and Patriots of America, Long Island Historical and New England Societies, Society of Colonial Wars, G. A. R. and Alpha Delta Phi Fraternity.

MITCHELL, WILLIAM L.—Coffee Importer, 110 Water street, New York City; residence 216 East 61st street. Born in New York City, Sept. 22, 1857. Educated at Public School No. 55. (Married.) Member New York Athletic, Democratic, Metropolitan Rowing and Wyandot Clubs.

MITCHILL, BLEECKER, N.—Artist, 142 East 38th street, New York City. Member Reform, Salmagundi, New York Athletic, Larchmont Yacht and Mendelssohn Glee Clubs.

MITTENDORF, WILLIAM F.—Physician, 140 Madison avenue, New York City. Born in Germany, Oct. 14, 1844. Educated at Columbia and New York College of Physicians and Surgeons. (Married.) President New York Physicians' Mutual Aid Association and Liederkrantz. Consulting ophthalmic surgeon St. Mark's Hospital and Nursery and Child's Hospital. Formerly member Board of Pharmacy. Member Elphinstone Golf Club (president), and American Ophthalmological, New York Ophthalmological, State Medical and County Medical Societies.

MIX, CHARLES MELVIN—Instructor, Cornell University, Ithaca; residence 324 Huestis street. Degree of A.B. Instructor in anatomy at Cornell University.

MIX, ROBERT J.—Life Insurance, 13 Park row, New York City; residence Cranford; N. J. Born in Terryville, Conn., July 8, 1857. Educated in Syracuse, N. Y. (Married.) Formerly manager of Manhattan department of New York Life Insurance Co. Manager of the Manhattan department of the Equitable Life Assurance Society since Jan. 8, 1900. Member Lawyers' Club.

MOEBUS, AUGUST—Commissioner, Third and Tremont avenues, New York City. Born in New York City, March 3, 1850. Educated in public schools and at Paine's Business College. Served on the Board of Aldermen, 1891-2. Engaged in brewing business since 1875. Park commissioner for the Borough of The Bronx since 1898; term expires Dec. 31, 1901. Member Tammany Society.

MOELLER, LOUIS—Artist, Mount Vernon. Born in New York City, Aug. 5, 1856. Studied art in New York City and in Munich, Germany. Makes a specialty of genre paintings. Member National Academy of Design.

MOEN, A. RENE—Banker and Broker, 62 Cedar street, New York City; residence 308 West 77th street. Born in Brooklyn, N. Y., Nov. 29, 1867. Educated at Berkeley School and Yale ('89). (Single.) Associated with Thomas Denny & Co. Was first sergeant Troop "A," New York Volunteer Cavalry during Spanish-American War and went to Porto Rico with first expedition under General Miles. Former second lieutenant of Troop 2, Squadron "A." Member University Club and Yale Alumni Association.

MOEN, EDWARD C.—Lawyer, 100 William street, New York City; residence 710 West End avenue. Born in Elizabeth, N. J., Oct. 12, 1870. Educated at Berkeley School, Harvard and Columbia Law School. (Married.) Member of the firm of Hitchings, Palliser & Moen. Member Harvard Club, and Delta Kappa Epsilon and Delta Phi Societies of Harvard University.

MOFFAT, FRAZER M.—Wholesale Leather Merchant, 7 and 10 Jacob street, New York City; residence 51 Willow street, Brooklyn. Member Crescent Athletic and Hamilton Clubs of Brooklyn, and Holland Lodge.

MOFFAT, GEORGE BARCLAY—Banker, 1 Nassau street, New York City; residence 267 West End avenue. Born in Brooklyn, N. Y., Sept. 29, 1854. (Married.) Member of the firm of Moffat & White, members of the New York Stock Exchange. Vice-president and director New York and Ottawa R. R. Co.; chairman of board Ottawa and New York Ry. Co.; director Rio Grande Western Ry. Co. Member Metropolitan Club, Hamilton Club of Brooklyn, Metropolitan Museum of Art and Down Town Association.

MOFFAT, R. BURNHAM—Lawyer, 63 Wall street, New York City; residence 11 West 11th street. Born in Brooklyn, N. Y., Jan. 7, 1861. Educated at Phillips Exeter Academy, Harvard College ('83), and Columbia

Law School ('85). (Married.) Director and financial counsel New York and Ottawa R. R. Co. and Ottawa and New York Ry. Co. of Canada. Member University, Harvard and American Yacht Clubs, Hamilton Club of Brooklyn, New York State Bar and Down Town Associations and Association of the Bar of the City of New York.

MOFFAT, WILLIAM D.—Publisher, 153 Fifth avenue, New York City. Born in Princeton, N. J., Jan. 17, 1865. Educated at Princeton. (Married.) Connected with Charles Scribner's Sons and manager of "Scribner's Magazine." Member Calumet, New York Athletic and Princeton Clubs and Aldine Association.

MOFFAT, WILLIAM L.—Wholesale Leather Merchant, 7 and 10 Jacob street, New York City, residence 69 Willow street, Brooklyn. Born in Cold Spring, N. Y., Sept. 8, 1864. Educated at Brooklyn Polytechnic Institute. (Married.) Director Hide and Leather National Bank. Member Hamilton Club of Brooklyn, and St. Andrew's Society.

MOFFETT, JAMES—Commissioner, Municipal Building, and Lawyer, 594 Broadway, Brooklyn. Born in Brooklyn, Jan. 3, 1853. Educated at Brooklyn Public School No. 1; studied law in the office of Hagner & Smith, and was admitted to the Bar in 1874. (Married a daughter of John P. Elwell of Brooklyn.) Member of the law firm of Moffett & Kramer, making a specialty of real estate law and investment securities. Deputy commissioner of water supply for the Borough of Brooklyn, New York City, since 1898. Has served as a delegate to all the Democratic National and State Conventions held since 1890. Chairman of the Kings County Democratic General Committee (since 1897), and, with Bernard J. York, represents the Borough of Brooklyn on the Democratic City Committee of the City of New York. Member Bushwick Club, Arion Society and Order of United Friends.

MOFFETT, ROBERT LESLIE—Lawyer, 170 Broadway, New York City; residence 304 West 102d street. Born in Mineral Point, Wis., Sept. 23, 1866. Educated at the University of Minnesota ('89), Columbia (A.M., '91) and Columbia Law School. (Married.) Member Delta Kappa Epsilon Club and Association of the Bar of the City of New York.

MOFFETT, SAMUEL ERASMUS—Journalist, 154 Nassau street, New York City; residence 351 West 114th street. Born in St. Louis, Mo., Nov. 5, 1860. Educated in public schools, at the University of California and at Columbia University. (Married Mary Emily Mantz of San Jose, Cal., 1887.) Engaged in editorial work on the "San Francisco Post," "San Francisco Examiner" and New York "Journal." Author of "The Tariff: What It Is and What It Does," "Chapters on Silver" and "Suggestions on Government."

MOFFITT, WILLIAM H.—Real Estate, 59 Liberty street, New York City; residence 130 St. Johns place, Brooklyn. Born in Blackstone, Mass., Nov. 19, 1858. Educated at Auburn (N.Y.) Academy. (Married.) President Brooklyn Cottage Association of Catholic Summer School, Plattsburg, N. Y.; Brooklyn trustee Catholic Summer School of America, Member Catholic Club, and Montauk, Carlton and Columbian Clubs of Brooklyn.

MOHR, WILLIAM F.—Furniture, 41 Elizabeth street, New York City; residence 240 East 62d street. Proprietor of the house of F. Mohr & Co. Educated in New York City public schools and at City College. Member Delta Kappa Epsilon, New York Athletic, Larchmont Yacht, Atlantic Yacht and Merchants' Central Clubs and Liederkranz.

MOLDEHNKE, CHARLES EDWARD—Lutheran Clergyman, 124 East 46th street, New York City. Born in Lyck, East Prussia, Germany, Oct. 10, 1860. Educated at Columbia University (A.B., '79, and A.M., '82) and at the University of Strassburg, Germany. (Ph.D., '84). Assistant rector at St. Peter's Church. Author of "The New York Obelisk," "The Trees of Ancient Egypt" and other works.

MOLDEHNKE, EDWARD FREDERICK—Lutheran Clergyman, 124 East 46th street, New York City. Born in Insterburg, East Prussia, Germany, Aug. 10, 1836. Educated at a college in Lyck, East

Prussia. Degrees of Ph.D from University of Rostock, Germany, and D.D. from Muhlenberg College, Allentown, Pa. Sent to Wisconsin and Minnesota as a missionary in 1861; was first professor in the Lutheran College at Watertown, Wis., and in its Theological Seminary. Resident of New York City since 1869; now rector of St. Peter's Church, President of the General Council of the Lutheran Church in North America since 1895. Author of several works in German.

MOLER, GEORGE SYLVANUS—Professor, Cornell University, Ithaca; residence 408 University avenue. Degrees of A.B. and B.M.E. Assistant professor of physics at Cornell University.

MOLINEUX, EDWARD LESLIE (General)—Manufacturer of Colors and Paints, 101 Fulton street, New York City; residence 117 Fort Greene place, Brooklyn. Born in London, England, Oct. 12, 1833. Came to the United States when quite young. (Married.) Director F. W. Devoe & C. T. Reynolds Co. Served with New York Volunteers during Civil War, and was brevetted brigadier-general and major-general. Appointed brigadier-general of 11th Brigade, N. G. N. Y., in 1880, and, in 1885, major-general of 2d Division of same. Member Army and Navy Club, Oxford and Brooklyn Clubs of Brooklyn, and Military Order of the Loyal Legion.

MOLLENHAUER, J. ADOLPH—Sugar Refiner, Kent avenue and South 11th street, Brooklyn. Formerly vice-president Mollenhauer Sugar Refining Co., now merged in the National Sugar Refining Co.; director Manufacturers' Trust Co.; trustee German Savings Bank of Brooklyn.

MOLLENHAUER, LOUIS—Musician, 225 Lincoln place, Brooklyn. Born in Brooklyn, 1863. When less than six years of age he had already given signs of considerable talent. At fifteen he was able to direct an orchestra, and not long after appeared in public as a solo violinist. Proprietor and director Louis Mollenhauer Conservatories of Music and Henry Mollenhauer Conservatory of Music (est. 1863). Member Montauk, Union League, Oxford, Germania, Marine and Field, and Riding and Driving Clubs, and Seidl and Alter Ego Societies.

MOLLENHAUER, JOHN—Sugar Refiner, Kent avenue and South 11th street, Brooklyn; residence 156 Ross street. Formerly president and director Mollenhauer Sugar Refining Co., now merged in the National Sugar Refining Co. President and trustee Dime Savings Bank of Williamsburgh; director Malcom Brewing Co. and Manufacturers' National Bank; trustee Manufacturers' Trust Co. Member Hanover Club.

MOLLOY, FRANCIS J.—Wholesale Grocer, 365 River street, Troy; residence 171 Fourth street. Born in Troy, March 21, 1849. Educated at St. Joseph's Academy. (Single.) Director Troy Gas Co. and Manufacturers' National Bank. Ex-alderman, ex-police commissioner and ex-mayor of the city of Troy. Member Troy Club.

MONFORT, HENRY ALONZO—Lawyer, Savings Bank Building, Jamaica; residence Highland and Park avenues. Born in West Hills, Suffolk Co., N. Y., Sept. 3, 1852. (Son of William H. and Sarah E. [Whitney] Monfort.) Educated at Cornell ('73). (Single.) Member of the firm of Monfort & Faber. Practicing in Jamaica since his admission to the Bar in 1875. Director Bank of Jamaica; trustee Jamaica Savings Bank. Member Manhattan, Delta Kappa Epsilon and Cornell University Clubs of New York City, and Civic Club of Brooklyn.

MONROE, ROBERT GRIER—Lawyer, 15 Wall street, New York City; residence 1 West 54th street. Born in Philadelphia, Pa., July 26, 1860. Educated at St. Paul's School, Concord, N. H., at Princeton ('81) and at Columbia Law School. (Single.) Member University, Union, Reform and Princeton Clubs, Southern and Pennsylvania Societies and Association of the Bar of the City of New York.

MONTAGUE, FRANK L.—Machinery, 30 Reade street, New York City; residence Dobbs Ferry. Senior member of the firm of F. L. Montague & Co. Member Fulton, Lotos, American Yacht and Union League Clubs, Ardsley Casino of Ardsley-on-Hudson, Sons of the Revolution and New England Society.

MONTANT, AUGUSTE P.—(Major)—Merchant, 73 Worth street, New York City; residence 39 West 21st street. Member Union, Racquet and Tennis, Merchants', Seawanhaka-Corinthian Yacht, Wool, Catholice, Larchmont Yacht and New York Athletic Clubs.

MONTANT, JULES A.—Commission Merchant, 59 Worth street, New York City; residence 36 West 49th street. Born in Paris, France, March 14, 1852. Educated in New York City. (Married.) Was secretary to Sheriff's jury of New York County for many years. Member Metropolitan, Union, New York Yacht and Coney Island Jockey Clubs.

MONTGOMERY, GEORGE L.—Merchant, 74 Wall street, New York City; residence New Brighton, S. I. Born in New York City, 1849. (Single.) Member of the firm of Jardine, Matheson & Co. Member Union, Union League, Merchants' Central and Richmond County Country Clubs and Down Town Association.

MONTGOMERY, HENRY BUDD—Tea Merchant, 127 Water street, New York City; residence New Brighton, S. I. Member St. Nicholas, Richmond County Country and Staten Island Cricket Clubs and Down Town Association.

MONTGOMERY, HENRY M.—Manufacturer, 14 Church street, New York City; residence 251 West 91st street. Manager for Goubert Mfg Co. Member Engineers', New York Railroad and Richmond County Country Clubs and American Society of Mechanical Engineers.

MONTGOMERY, JAMES LYNCH—Insurance, 60 Broadway, New York City; residence 1189 Madison avenue. Treasurer, manager and director Richard Young Co. Member Hudson River Ice Yacht Club, Society of Colonial Wars and Sons of the Revolution.

MONTGOMERY, JAMES MORTIMER—Tea and Coffee Importer, 103 Front street, New York City; residence Englewood, N. J. Member Union League, Richmond County Country and Union Clubs, Blooming Grove Park and Down Town Associations and Sons of the Revolution.

MONTGOMERY, JOHN H.—Lawyer, 27 William street, New York City; residence Flushing. Born in Philadelphia, Pa., Jan. 20, 1851. Educated at College of the City of New York and Columbia. (Married.) Member of the firm of Montgomery & Campbell. Member Players', Calumet and Niantic Clubs.

MONTGOMERY, RICHARD M.—Real Estate, 61 Pine street, New York City; residence 372 Fifth avenue. President and director George H. Montrose Co. and Richard M. Montgomery & Co. (Inc.) Member City, Mendelssohn Glee and Riding Clubs, Down Town Association and Sons of the Revolution.

MOODY, EDWIN C.—Lawyer, 14 Ross Building, Binghamton. Born in Union, Broome Co., N. Y., Nov. 4, 1838. Educated at Union Academy and New York University Law School ('61). (Married.) Admitted to the Bar in New York City in 1861. Commenced practice in Union, July, 1861. Was town clerk for three years; elected supervisor of the town in 1867; held the office six years, and was chairman of the board for three years. Member of the Legislature from Broome County in 1877. Member Binghamton Club.

MOODY, LEONARD—Real Estate, 20 Court street, Brooklyn; residence 15 Seventh avenue. Born in East Pittston, Me., Sept. 27, 1839. (Married.) Vice-president Brooklyn Real Estate Exchange and Co-operative Building Bank; director City Savings Bank, Kings County Bank and Hamilton Trust Co.; trustee Brooklyn Institute of Arts and Sciences. Member Montauk, Oxford, Union League and Crescent Athletic Clubs, New England Society, U. S. Grant Post, G. A. R. and Royal Arch Masons.

MOODY, WINFIELD S.—Editor, 153 Fifth avenue, New York City; residence 22 West Ninth street. Born in New York City, April 27, 1856. Educated at Trinity College, Hartford ('79). (Married Helen Watterson, 1891.) Editor of the "Book Buyer," published monthly by Charles Scribner's Sons. Member University, Players' and Barnard Clubs and Dunlap Society.

MOONEY, JOHN H.—President, Secretary and Expert Accountant, 21 Park row, New York City; residence 119 West 76th street. Born in New York City, July, 1848. (Son of William Mooney). (Married Lizzie Kearney in June, 1881.) Has been commissioner of accounts, trustee of the Brooklyn Bridge, and member of the Board of Assessors, all of New York City; served as expert accountant in examination of the financial condition of the several boroughs previous to their becoming a part of Greater New York; was examiner and appraiser for the State Insurance Department for about ten years. Now president and director Niagara Falls Street Ry. Co. of Canada; treasurer and director Florida Ocean and Gulf Canal Co.; secretary New York City Board of Public Improvements. Member Democratic, Press (life member), New York Athletic and Manhattan Clubs and 9th Regiment Veteran Association.

MOORE, ALBERT R.—Lawyer, 215 Montague street, Brooklyn; residence 50 Orange street. Born in Ohio, April 29, 1863. Educated in Ohio. (Married.) Formerly counsel for Health Department of Brooklyn. Director Consumers' Cheap Cash Grocery Co. Member Montauk and Brooklyn Clubs and Association of the Bar of the City of New York.

MOORE, ALFRED AUSTIN—Instructor, Cornell University, Ithaca; residence 120 Oak avenue. Degree of A.B. Instructor in Romance languages at Cornell University.

MOORE, ANSON J.—Tea Importer, 96 Wall street, New York City; residence 323 West 55th street. Born in New York City, May 9, 1851. Educated in a public school and at Fairchild's Flushing Institute. (Married.) Member New York Athletic Club.

MOORE, A. R.—Lawyer, Fredonia. Born in Statesburg, S. C., Jan. 1, 1855. Educated at Westfield (N. Y.) Academy and Fredonia State Normal School. (Married.) Director and attorney Fredonia National Bank; member of local board State Normal and Training School at Fredonia. Ex-supervisor of the town of Pomfret, and formerly president and postmaster of the village of Fredonia.

MOORE, CASIMIR DE RHAM—Lawyer, 7 Nassau street, New York City; residence 109 West 38th street. Educated at Columbia ('73). Member Union, University, Racquet and Tennis, and St. Anthony Clubs, Country Club of Westchester, St. Nicholas Society, Columbia University Alumni Association, Metropolitan Museum of Art and Association of the Bar of the City of New York.

MOORE, CHARLES A.—Manufacturer of Machinery, 85 Liberty street, New York City; residence 49 Eighth avenue, Brooklyn. Member of the firm of Manning, Maxwell & Moore. President and director Ashcroft Mfg Co., Consolidated Safety Valve Co. and Shaw Electric Crane Co.; vice-president National Association of Manufacturers of the United States; director American Bank Note Co., Continental Insurance Co., Hayden & Derby Manufacturing Co. and Pond Machine Tool Co.; trustee Adelphi College. Member Montauk, Oxford, Union League, Atlantic Yacht, Young Republican, Hamilton, Riding and Driving, and Marine and Field Clubs of Brooklyn, Engineers' and Lawyers' Clubs, American Society of Mechanical Engineers and Brooklyn Institute of Arts and Sciences.

MOORE, EDWARD C., JR.—Lawyer, 32 Nassau street, New York City; residence 8 East 44th street. Member University, City and Harvard Clubs, Ardsley Casino of Ardsley-on-Hudson, American Fine Arts Society, Century Association and Metropolitan Museum of Art.

MOORE, EDWARD MOTT—Physician and Surgeon, 74 South Fitzhugh street, Rochester. Born in Rahway, N. J., July 15, 1814. Educated in Rochester and at the University of Pennsylvania (M.D., '38). Professor of surgery at Buffalo Medical College, 1858-83; was the first president of the New York State Board of Health. Member Medical Society of the State of New York.

MOORE, ERNEST C.—Civil Engineer, 130 Pearl street, New York City; residence 1337 Pacific street, Brooklyn. Born in Brooklyn, March 11, 1870. Educated at Rensselaer Polytechnic Institute. (Married.) Division engineer in charge of construction of Lexington avenue cable road. Member Union League Club of Brooklyn.

MOORE, FRANK A.—Architect, 123 East 23d street, New York City; residence Larchmont. Educated at Massachusetts Institute of Technology ('88). Member Patria, Larchmont Yacht and University Clubs and Massachusetts Institute of Technology Alumni Society.

MOORE, FREDERIC POTTS—Broker, 71 Broadway, New York City; residence 44 West 44th street. Born in Flushing, N. Y., 1865. Educated at Swarthmore College. (Single.) Connected with Floyd Moore. Vice-president New York and Southwestern R. R. Co. Member University, Union League, Knollwood Country and St. Andrew's Golf Clubs.

MOORE, GEORGE HAYDOCK—Insurance, 27 William street, New York City; residence 44 West 44th street. Born in Flushing, N. Y. Educated at Swarthmore College. (Single.) Member Engineers', St. Andrew's Golf and Essex County (N. J.) Country Clubs, Crescent Athletic Club of Brooklyn, and 7th Regiment, N. G. N. Y.

MOORE, HARRISON BRAY—Lighterage and Transportation, 6 Broadway, New York City; residence 126 Pierrepont street, Brooklyn. Born in Windham, Me. Educated in public schools. (Married) Marietta H. Christie, 1866.) Engaged in lighterage and transportation business since 1863. Connected with the N. G. N. Y. for many years and rose to the rank of major. President and director New York Lighterage and Transportation Co. Member New York Yacht, Army and Navy and Manhattan Clubs, and Crescent Athletic and Hamilton Clubs of Brooklyn.

MOORE, HENRY C.—Contractor, 100 Broadway, New York City; residence 513 West 179th street, Washington Heights. Born in Manchester, N. H., Aug. 10, 1841. (Married.) President Nassau Construction Co.

MOORE, JOHN BASSETT—Professor, 116th street and Morningside Heights, New York City; residence 524 West 150th street. Born in Smyrna, Del., Dec. 3, 1860. Educated at the University of Virginia (A.B., '80); studied law and was admitted to the Bar in 1883. (Married.) Third Assistant Secretary of State of the United States, 1886-91, and First Assistant, 1898. Secretary and counsel to the American Peace Commission in Paris, France, 1898. Now Hamilton Fish Professor of international law and diplomacy at Columbia University. Author of "Report on Extraterritorial Crime," "Report on Extradition" (for the Pan-American Conference), "Extradition and Interstate Rendition" (two vols.), "American Notes on the Conflict of Laws" and "History and Digest of International Arbitrations" (six vols.). Member Century Association and Association of the Bar of the City of New York.

MOORE, JOHN CONSTABLE—Real Estate, 51 Liberty street, New York City; residence Bergen Point, N. J. Born in Dutchess County, N. Y., Sept. 20, 1864. Educated at St. Stephens College, Annandale, (N. Y.) and Rensselaer Polytechnic Institute ('88). (Married Anna di Zerega.) Member Union League Club and Delta Phi Society.

MOORE, JOHN LEVERETT—Professor, Vassar College, Poughkeepsie. Born in New York City, June 6, 1859. Educated at Princeton (A.B., '81) and at Johns Hopkins University (Ph.D., '91). (Married.) Tutor in Latin at Princeton College, 1882-5; instructor and Fellow in Latin at Johns Hopkins University, 1886-91; professor of Latin at Vassar College since 1891. Member University and Princeton Clubs of New York City.

MOORE, MICHAEL E.—Art and Bronzes, Kingston. Born in Troy, N. Y., 1843. Educated in Troy. (Married.) President and director M. E. Moore Bronze and Plate Co. Was vice-president of Kingston Board of Trade and director Union Bank of Brooklyn. Member Montauk and Columbia Clubs of Brooklyn, and Kingston Club.

MOORE, STUART HULL—Publisher, 23 City Hall place, New York City; residence 43 McDonough street, Brooklyn. Born in Cutchogue, Suffolk Co., N. Y., April 26, 1854. Educated in Cutchogue and Southold. (Married.) Vice-president and director F. M. Lupton Publishing Co. Senior member of the firm of S. H. Moore & Co., publishers of "The Ladies' World." Member of the firm, and owner of half interest, of W. F. Powers & Co., lithographers, and of the Manhattan Typesetting Co.

MOORE, THEODORE B.—Broker, 32 Pine street, New York City; residence 12 West 50th street. Born in Dutchess County, N. Y., Feb. 28, 1834. (Son of George and Mary Moore.) Educated at Chase Academy. (Single.) Director Horn Silver Mining Co., Iron Steamboat Co., New York and Coney Island R. R. Co., New York and Coney Island Observatory and Signal Co. and Prospect Park and South Brooklyn R. R. Co. Member New York Athletic Club.

MOORE, THOMAS JOSEPH—Manufacturer, 141 Wooster street, New York City; residence Broadway Central Hotel. Born in Philadelphia, Pa., 1864. Educated at Philadelphia Central High School. (Married.) Agent for the American Strawboard Co. Member Catholic Club.

MOORE, THOMAS S.—Lawyer, 32 Liberty street, New York City; residence 91 Willow street, Brooklyn. Born in Newburgh, N. Y., Oct. 21, 1842. Educated at Harvard ('61); studied law and was admitted to the Bar in 1863. (Married.) Member of the firm of Moore, Wallace & Dudley. President board of regents of the Long Island Hospital; director Fidelity and Casualty Co. and New York "Times" Co.; commissioner of the new East River Bridge. Member University, St. Anthony, Rockaway Hunting and Lawyers' Clubs, Hamilton, Riding and Driving, and Brooklyn Clubs of Brooklyn, and Association of the Bar of the City of New York.

MOORE, VERANUS ALBA—Professor, Cornell University, Ithaca; residence 914 East State street. Born in Houndsfield, Jefferson Co., N. Y., April 13, 1859. Educated at Cornell (B.S.) and at Columbian University Medical College, Washington, D. C. (M.D.). (Married.) Was chief of division of animal pathology in Bureau of Animal Industry of United States Department of Agriculture for several years. Now professor of comparative and veterinary pathology and bacteriology, and of meat inspection at Cornell University. Member Cosmos Club of Washington, D. C., American Public Health Association, Society of American Bacteriologists and Elmira Academy of Medicine.

MOORE, WILLIAM A.—Lawyer, 11 William street, New York City; residence 912 West End avenue. Born in Watertown, N. Y., 1874. Educated at Yale ('95) and New York Law School. (Single.) Member Yale Club.

MOORE, WILLIAM CLIFFORD—Lawyer, 56 Pine street, New York City; residence 51 West 51st street. Born in New York City, Sept. 16, 1867. Educated at Yale. (Single.) Member of the firm of Moore, Bleecker & Wheeler. Member Reform, Yale, Manuscript and Calumet Clubs, Sons of the Revolution and Association of the Bar of the City of New York.

MOORE, WILLIAM DOUGLAS—Lawyer, 149 Broadway, New York City; residence Bloomfield, N. J. Born in Doupin, Pa. (Married.)

MOORE, WILLIAM F.—Judge, 125 Sixth avenue, New York City; residence 111 West 11th street. Born in Newburgh, N. Y., Aug. 29, 1855. Educated in public schools and at Newburgh Academy; studied law and was admitted to the Bar in 1880. Judge of the Third District Municipal Court of New York City since 1890; present term expires Dec. 31, 1909. Member New York Athletic and Democratic Clubs and Tammany Society.

MOORE, WILLIAM H. H.—Lawyer, 51 Wall street, New York City; residence 339 West 84th street. Born in Greenport, L. I., Feb. 13, 1824. Educated at Millers-place Academy and Union College. (Married.) Director Phenix National Bank; trustee Atlantic Mutual Insurance Co., Atlantic Trust Co. and Seamen's Bank for Savings. Officer of Atlantic Mutual Insurance Co. as follows: Third officer for thirty years; second officer for nine years; unanimously elected president three times, and resigned shortly after third election in 74th year of his age. Ex-trustee Union College. Member Reform Club, Union College Alumni Association, New York Genealogical and Biographical, Haven's Relief Fund (president), and American Geographical Societies, American Museum of Natural History and Association of the Bar of the City of New York.

MORAN, AMEDEE, D.—Broker, 54 William street, New York City; residence 17 West 56th street. (Widower.) Member of the firm of Moran Bros. and of the New York Stock Exchange. Director Texas Central R. R. Co. Member Metropolitan, Knickerbocker and Union Clubs.

MORAN, ANSON B.—Broker, 54 William street, New York City; residence 264 West 57th street. (Married.) Member of the firm of Moran Bros., members of the New York Stock Exchange. Member Calumet Club.

MORAN, CHARLES A.—Lawyer, 30 Broad street, New York City; residence 41 East 50th street. Educated at Columbia ('81). Director King Granite Co. Member University Club, Columbia University Alumni Association and Association of the Bar of the City of New York.

MORAN, D. COMYN—Broker, 54 William street, New York City; residence 531 Fifth avenue. (Single.) Member of the firm of Moran Bros., members of the New York Stock Exchange. President and director Nevada-California-Oregon Ry. Co. Member Union, Suburban Riding and Driving, and Seawanhaka-Corinthian Yacht Clubs and Lafayette Post, G. A. R.

MORAN, PAUL NIMMO—Artist, 28 East 20th street, New York City. Born in Philadelphia, Pa., 1864. Educated in New York City. (Single.) Member Salmagundi Club.

MORAN, THOMAS—Artist, 37 West 22d street; residence Easthampton, L. I. Born in Bolton, Lancashire, England, Jan. 12, 1837. Educated in Philadelphia (Pa.) public schools; studied art in Paris and in Italy. (Married Mary Nimmo, 1862.) Accompanied the United States Exploring Expedition to the Yellowstone Country in 1871; in 1873 went on a similar expedition and painted the pictures entitled, "Grand Canyon of the Yellowstone" and "Chasm of the Colorado," which were purchased by Congress and are now in the Capitol. Member Lotos, Catholic and Salmagundi Clubs, Century Association and National Academy of Design.

MORAWETZ, VICTOR—Lawyer, 35 Wall street, New York City; residence Metropolitan Club. Educated at Harvard ('78). Director Atchison, Topeka and Santa Fe Ry. Co., Gulf, Colorado and Santa Fe Ry. Co., Southern California Ry. Co. and Norfolk and Western Ry. Co. Member Union, University, Union League, Lawyers', Harvard, Riding and Metropolitan Clubs, Century Association, and Association of the Bar of the City of New York.

MORDECAI, ROBERT E. LEE—Real Estate, 7 Pine street, 1002 Broadway and 696 Columbus avenue, New York City; residence 56 Central Park, South. Member New York Athletic and Monticello Gun and Studio Clubs.

MOREHOUSE, DANIEL W.—Unitarian Clergyman, 104 East 20th street, New York City; residence 70 Glenwood avenue, Yonkers. Born in Knowlesville, Orleans Co., N. Y., Feb. 4, 1846. Educated at Meadville Theological School. (Married.) General secretary National Conference of Unitarian and other Christian churches; secretary Unitarian Conference of Middle States and Canada; also superintendent of Middle States Department for the American Unitarian Association. Member Reform and Barnard Clubs.

MORGAN, ALBERT J.—Manufacturer, 439 West street, New York City; residence 243 West 72d street. Vice-president and director Enoch Morgan's Sons Co. Member Racquet and Tennis, St. Nicholas, Colonial, New York Athletic, Grolier, Manhattan, New York Yacht, Larchmont Yacht and Atlantic Yacht Clubs and Aldine Association.

MORGAN, ALEXANDER C.—Stock Broker, 35 William street, New York City; residence 134 West 73d street. Member of the firm of A. C. Morgan & Co. and of the New York Stock Exchange. Member Barnard and Salmagundi Clubs, New England Society, Down Town and Century Associations and National Academy of Design.

MORGAN, APPLETON—Lawyer and Author, 72d street and Broadway, New York City. Born in Portland, Me., Oct. 2, 1850. Educated at Racine College and at Columbia College Law School. Admitted to the Bar in 1871 and began practice in New York City. Founded, in 1885, and has since been president of the Shakespeare Society of New York. Author of "Some Shakespearean Commentators," "Venus and Adonis, a Study in the Warwickshire Language," "The Law of Literature," "Shakespeare in Fact and in Criticism," "English Versions of Legal Maxims" and many other works. Member Colonial, Baltusrol Golf and Republican Clubs, Medico-Legal, Rockland County Historical and St. David's Societies, Sons of the Revolution, Society of the War of 1812, Columbia Alumni Association, Historical Society of Maine and Society of Colonial Wars.

MORGAN, BROCKHOLST—Protestant Episcopalian Clergyman, 38 Bleecker street, New York City; residence Elizabeth, N. J. Superintendent and general agent New York Protestant Episcopal City Mission Society. Member Century Association, Sons of the Revolution, and Society of Foreign Wars.

MORGAN, CHARLES N.—Lawyer, 69 Wall street, New York City; residence Hotel Balmoral, 114th street and Lenox avenue. Vice-president and director Electrical Review Publishing Co.; director Yuma Improvement Co. Member Manhattan, Calumet and Harlem Clubs, Down Town Association and Association of the Bar of the City of New York.

MORGAN, D. PARKER—Protestant Episcopalian Clergyman, 3 East 45th street, New York City. Rector Church of Heavenly Rest. Member Patria and British Schools and Universities Clubs and American Geographical Society.

MORGAN, EDWIN D.—Merchant, 54 Exchange place, New York City; residence "Wheatly," Westbury, L. I. (Son of Edwin D. Morgan, Governor of New York, 1858-62.) Educated at Harvard ('77). (Married.) Member of the firm of E. D. Morgan & Co. Vice-president and director Rio Grande, Sierra Madre and Pacific R. R. Co.; director Corralitos Co. and Candelaria Mining Co. Member Metropolitan, Union League, Union, University, Knickerbocker, Lawyers', Seawanhaka-Corinthian Yacht, Harvard, New York Yacht, Tuxedo, Atlantic Yacht, Larchmont Yacht, Racquet and Tennis, Meadow Brook Hunt and Turf and Field Clubs, Country Club of Westchester, American Geographical and New England Societies, Sons of the Revolution and National Academy of Design.

MORGAN, FRED J.—Stenographer, 126 West Kennedy street, Syracuse. Born April 26, 1851. (Married.) Official stenographer Fifth Judicial District. Member Citizens' Club.

MORGAN, GEORGE D.—President, Buffalo; residence 45 West 35th street, New York City, and Brockport. Born in Brockport, Dec. 14, 1864. Educated at Greylock Institute, South Williamstown, Mass. (Married.) President D. S. Morgan & Co.; trustee Empire State Savings Bank. Vestryman St. Luke's Episcopal Church, Brockport. Was president Brockport Electric Co. and Brockport Building and Loan Association. Member Buffalo, Saturn, Genesee Valley and New York Clubs, Buffalo Historical Society and Society of Colonial Wars.

MORGAN, GEORGE II.—Superintendent, 11 Broadway, New York City; residence Hotel St. George, Brooklyn. Director Philipsburg Coal and Land Co. Member Union and Metropolitan Clubs, Metropolitan Museum of Art and American Museum of Natural History.

MORGAN, JAMES HENRY—Broker, 27 William street, New York City; residence 478 Clason avenue, Brooklyn. Born in Brooklyn. Educated at Brooklyn Polytechnic Institute. (Married.) Secretary-general of Military Order of Foreign Wars. Member Sons of the Revolution, Society of Colonial Wars and Society of the War of 1812.

MORGAN, JAMES L., Jr.—Manufacturing Chemist, 32 Liberty street, New York City; residence 7 Pierrepont street, Brooklyn. Member of the firm of James L. Morgan & Co. Treasurer and director General Chemical Co. and Hudson River Chemical and Dye Wood Co.; director Knickerbocker Chemical Co. and Market and Fulton National Bank. Member Union League, Crescent Athletic and Hamilton Clubs of Brooklyn.

MORGAN, J. LIVINGSTON RUTGERS—Chemist, 116th street and Morningside Heights, New York City; residence New Brunswick, N. J. Educated at Rutgers; degrees of B.S. and Ph.D. Tutor in chemical philosophy and chemical physics at Columbia University in the City of New York.

MORGAN, JOHN HILL—Lawyer, 166 Montague street, Brooklyn; residence 7 Pierrepont street. Born in Brooklyn, June 30, 1870. Educated at Yale (A.B., '93, and LL.B.). Member of Assembly from First District of Kings County, 1900. Member Brooklyn Republican and Hamilton Clubs, University Club of New York City, Fort Orange Club of Albany, Nassau Country Club, Psi Upsilon and Phi Delta Phi Fraternities, Society of Colonial Wars and Association of the Bar of the City of New York.

MORGAN, JOHN PIERPONT—Banking and Railroads, 23 Wall street, New York City; residence 219 Madison avenue. Born in Hartford, Conn., April 17, 1837. Educated at Boston (Mass.) English High School and at the University of Göttingen, Germany. (Married.) Member of the firm of J. P. Morgan & Co., members of the New York Stock Exchange. Vice-president and director National Bank of Commerce; director Carthage and Adirondack Ry. Co., Cleveland, Cincinnati, Chicago and St. Louis R. R. Co. (The Big Four), Columbus, Hope and Greensburg R. R. Co., Federal Steel Co., General Electric Co., Harlem River and Portchester R. R. Co., Housatonic R. R. Co., Jersey City and Bayonne R. R. Co., Lake Shore and Michigan Southern R. R. Co., Madison Square Garden Co., Metropolitan Opera and Real Estate Co., Mexican Telegraph Co., Mohawk and Malone R. R. Co., Niagara Falls Branch R. R. Co., New Jersey Shore Line R. R. Co., New York Central and Hudson River R. R. Co., New York, New Haven and Hartford R. R. Co., New York and Putnam R. R. Co., Pacific Cable Co., West Shore R. R. Co. and Western Union Telegraph Co.; trustee New Jersey Junction R. R. Co. and West Shore and Ontario Terminal Co. of New York and New Jersey. Member Metropolitan, Union, Union League, Grolier, Turf and Field, Collie, Mendelssohn Glee, Knickerbocker, City, Tuxedo, Union, Racquet and Tennis, Seawanhaka-Corinthian Yacht, Whist, Riding, Players' and New York Yacht Clubs, New England, American Fine Arts, New York Genealogical, Musical Arts and American Geographical Societies, Century Association, National Academy of Design, Metropolitan Museum of Art and American Museum of Natural History.

MORGAN, JOHN PIERPONT, JR.—Banker, 23 Wall street, New York City; residence 8 East 36th street, and London, England. Born in New York City. Educated at Harvard ('89). (Married.) Member of the firms of J. P. Morgan & Co. of New York, and J. S. Morgan & Co. of London. Director Acadia Coal Co. and Alabama Great Southern R. R. Co. Member New York Stock Exchange, and of the Metropolitan, City, University, Harvard, Racquet and Tennis and New York Yacht Clubs, New England Society and Century Association.

MORGAN, JUNIUS S.—Banker, 44 Pine street, New York City; residence Princeton, N. J. Educated at Princeton ('88). Member of the firm of Cuyler, Morgan & Co., members of the New York Stock Exchange. Director Des Moines and Kansas City Ry. Co., Depew Improvement Co. and Kansas Irrigation Co. Member Princeton, Grolier, Metropolitan, University Athletic and University Clubs, Down Town and Century Associations, New England Society and Sons of the Revolution.

MORGAN, LANCASTER—Manufacturer and Merchant, 47 Fulton street, and 32 Liberty street, New York City; residence 123 West 44th street. Born in Brooklyn, N. Y., April 27, 1867. Educated at Columbia University School of Mines ('88). (Married.) Connected with the General Chemical Co. Member University and Chemists' Clubs, Society of Colonial Wars and Psi Upsilon Fraternity.

MORGAN, ROLLIN M.—Lawyer, 41 Park row, New York City; residence 1315 Madison avenue. Member of the firm of Morgan, Whiton & Mitchell. Member Commercial and Democratic Clubs, Ohio Society, and Association of the Bar of the City of New York.

MORGAN, THOMAS J.—Secretary and Baptist Clergyman, 111 Fifth avenue, New York City; residence 414 Warburton avenue, Yonkers. Born in Franklin, Ind., Aug. 17, 1839. Educated at Franklin College and at Rochester Theological Seminary (D.D., '68, and LL. D., '94). Degree of D.D. from University of Chicago in 1874. Served during Civil War as private, major, colonel and brevet brigadier-general. Professor of church history at Baptist Theological Seminary, Chicago, Ill., 1874-81; principal of Normal School at Providence, R. I., 1884-9; United States Indian Commissioner, 1889-93; corresponding secretary to the American Baptist Home Mission Society since 1893. Editor of the "Home Mission Monthly." Author of "Patriotic Citizenship," "Studies in Pedagogy," "Educational Mosaics," "Student's Hymnal" and other works. Member Quill Club and Loyal Legion.

MORGAN, WILLIAM—Artist, 2 West 14th street, New York City; residence 939 Eighth avenue. Born in London, England, 1826. Educated in England, France and the United States. (Married.) Makes a specialty of genre painting. Member National Academy of Design and Artists' Fund Society.

MORGAN, WILLIAM FELLOWES—Storage, 4 Brooklyn Bridge and 7 Harrison street, New York City; residence Short Hills, N. J. Born in Clifton, N. Y., Sept. 24, 1860. Educated in Rugby, England, and at Columbia. (Married Emma, daughter of Martha A. and Henry S. Leavitt, 1885.) President and director Harrison Street Cold Storage Co.; secretary and director Brooklyn Bridge Freezing and Cold Storage Co.; treasurer and director National League for the Protection of American Institutions; director and chairman of executive committee Y. M. C. A.; director Chimo Valley Beet Sugar Co. Member St. Anthony Club and Columbia University Alumni Association.

MORGAN, WILLIAM J.—Banker, 71 Broadway, New York City; residence Bensonhurst. Born in New York City, Jan. 29, 1867. Educated at Mt. Pleasant Military Academy, Sing Sing, N. Y. (Married.) Special partner in the banking firm of C. W. Morgan & Co., and of A. W. Reynolds, plumbing contractor. Treasurer Knickerbocker Loan Co. Member Gravesend Bay Yacht Club.

MORISON, ANDREW P.—Banker, 57 Broadway, New York City; residence Montclair, N. J. President Eastern Kentucky Development Co., Hutchinson-Jenkins Steel Co. and Tomahawk Copper and Zinc Mining Co. Member Consolidated Stock and Petroleum Exchange.

MORISON, GEORGE SHATTUCK—Civil Engineer, 35 Wall street, New York. Born in New Bedford, Mass., Dec. 19, 1842. Educated at Harvard (A.B., '63, A.M., '66 and LL.B., '66). Admitted to the Bar in 1866 but never practiced. Engaged in engineering in Kansas City, Mo., 1867-73; in New York City, 1873-87; in Chicago, Ill., 1887-98, and again in New York City since 1898. Appointed, in 1894 (by President Cleveland), a member of the board of engineers to determine the greatest practical length of span for a bridge across the North River in New York City; consulting engineer to New York City Department of Docks, 1895-7; also served as a member of the United States Isthmian Canal Commission. Was chief engineer on many important engineering works, principally bridges. Member Union, Engineers' and University Clubs, Chicago (Ill.) Club, Down Town Association, American Geographical Society, American Society of Civil Engineers (past president), American Society of Mechanical Engineers, American Institute of Mining Engineers and Metropolitan Museum of Art.

MORISON, SAMUEL L.—General Manager, 26 Cortlandt street, New York City; residence 3 Washington square, North. Born in Baltimore, Md., Oct. 28, 1851. Educated at Harvard ('73). (Married.) General manager and director New York Filter Mfg. Co. Ex-vice-president and director Jewell Export Filter Co. Member University, Engineers' and Manhattan Clubs, Rittenhouse Club of Philadelphia, Pa., and Society of the Cincinnati.

MORRELL, WILLIAM H.—Retired Merchant and Editor, 34 West 25th street, New York City. Born in London, Middlesex Co., Canada, Nov. 12, 1831. Inherited Crown lands in Middlesex County deeded to him by Lord Elgin, a cousin of Queen Victoria. Educated in New York City and Canada. (Single.) Traveled extensively in America and Europe for over twenty years. Has contributed to numerous newspapers and was proprietor and editor of "The Albion," New York City, from 1863-9, and again in 1873. Offered a knighthood and life senatorship in Canada by Sir John Macdonald and Lord Monck, respectively, but declined both honors. Member American Geographical, New York Historical, New York Bible and American Tract Societies, Metropolitan Museum of Art, National Academy of Design and Mercantile Library; life member St. George's Society.

MORRIS, D. B. S.—Clergyman, Princeton Club, New York City, and Nanking, China. Born, Sept. 20, 1873. (Single.) Educated at Princeton. Member Princeton and Cap and Gown Clubs and Princeton University Alumni Association.

MORRIS, FORDHAM (Lieutenant)—Lawyer, 16 Exchange place, New York City; residence 45 East 30th street. Member of the firm of Morris & Steele. Member New York Yacht and Fordham Clubs, New York Historical and St. Nicholas Societies, Colonial Order, Military Order of the Loyal Legion, Lafayette Post, G. A. R., and Association of the Bar of the City of New York.

MORRIS, FREDERICK P.—Publisher, foot of James Slip, New York City; residence 121 Jamaica avenue, Flushing, L. I. Director Flushing Bank and Long Island News Co.; trustee Masonic Hall and Asylum Fund. Member Lotos, New York Press, Republican and Transportation Clubs, and Republican and Niantic Clubs of Flushing.

MORRIS, HENRY LEWIS—Lawyer, 16 Exchange place, New York City; residence 12 West 53d street. Born and educated in New York City. (Married.) Member of the firm of Morris, Sentell & Morris. Director New York Life Insurance and Trust Co. and Real Estate Trust Co. Member City, Metropolitan, Church, Riding, Lawyers' and Strollers' Clubs, American Geographical, St. Nicholas and Historical Societies, Association of the Bar of the City of New York, Metropolitan Museum of Art and American Museum of Natural History.

MORRIS, JAMES—Lawyer, 11 Wall street, New York City; residence 31 Washington square, West. Member City Club, St. Nicholas Society, Columbia University Alumni Association and Association of the Bar of the City of New York.

MORRIS, JOHN LEWIS—Professor, Cornell University, Ithaca; residence 108 North Geneva street. Degrees of A.M. and C.E. Sibley Professor of practical mechanics and machine construction at Cornell University.

MORRIS, JOHN P.—Lawyer, 164 Montague street, Brooklyn. Born and educated in Brooklyn. (Married.) Director Toledo, St. Louis and Kansas City R. R. Co.

MORRIS, JOHN J.—Merchant, 66 White street, New York City; residence 111 Cambridge place, Brooklyn. Educated at New York University. Member Merchants, Delta Phi and Calumet Clubs, Holland Society and New York University Alumni Association.

MORRIS, LEWIS RUTHERFORD—Physician, 60 West 58th street, New York City. Educated at Bellevue Hospital Medical College ('84). (Married) Katherine Stauffer, daughter of United States Senator William Clark of Montana, 1900.) Member Calumet, University Athletic and Metropolitan Clubs, Century Association, Musical Arts Society and Sons of the Revolution.

MORRIS, MOREAU—Medical Inspector, 55th street and Sixth avenue, New York City; residence 109 East 73d street. Born in Stillwater, Saratoga Co., N. Y., June 19, 1825. Educated at Clinton High School. (Married.) Health commissioner, 1866; superintendent Health Department, 1870-2; State cattle commissioner, 1871-2; surgeon 7th Regiment, N. G. N. Y., 1871-84; tenement house commissioner, 1884-5. Member 7th Regiment Veteran, American Public Health and College of Physicians and Surgeons Alumni Associations and Academy of Medicine.

MORRIS, NEWBOLD—Retired Lawyer, 52 East 72d street, New York City. Born in New York City, Jan. 12, 1868. Educated at Columbia (LL.B.). (Married Helen S. Kingsland.) Secretary of trustees of Teachers College, Columbia University. Was captain 12th Infantry, New York Volunteers, 1898. Member City, Metropolitan, Fencers' and National Arts Clubs, Sons of the Revolution, Columbia University Alumni Association, Association of the Bar of the City of New York, American Geographical and New York Zoological Societies and Delta Phi Fraternity.

MORRIS, PAUL WINTERS—Sculptor, 232 West 14th street, New York City. Born in Du Quoin, Ill., Nov. 12, 1865. Educated at the University of Rochester. (Single.) Designer of tablet on cruiser "Olympia." Member Rochester University and Reform Clubs and Psi Upsilon Fraternity.

MORRIS, ROBERT CLARK—Lawyer, 35 Nassau street, New York City; residence Hotel Savoy. Born in Connecticut. Educated at Yale (LL.B., LL.M. and D.C.L.). (Married Alice A. Parmelee, 1890.) Special lecturer on the French codes at Yale University. Member Yale and Republican Clubs, Society of the Cincinnati and Military Order of the Loyal Legion.

MORRIS, ROBERT TUTTLE—Physician and Surgeon, 58 West 56th street, New York City. Born in Seymour, Conn., May 14, 1857. Educated at Hopkins Grammar School in New Haven, Conn., at Cornell and at the College of Physicians and Surgeons of Columbia University (M.D., '82). (Married.) Professor of surgery at New York Post-Graduate Medical School. Author of several medical and surgical works. Member Cornell, New York Athletic and Alpha Delta Phi Clubs, New England Society, Sons of the Revolution and of various local and international medical societies.

MORRIS, WILLIAM—Actor, 2 West 14th street, New York City; residence 211 West 107th street. Born in Boston, Mass., Jan. 1, 1864. Educated in Boston. (Married Etta Hawkins.) Was the first leading man of Charles Frohman's Stock Co., playing principal role in "Men and Women," "The Lost Paradise," "The Girl I Left Behind Me" and others, and starred in "The Adventures of Lady Ursula," 1900. Member Players' Club.

MORRISON, CHARLES KING—Lawyer, 43 Cedar street, New York City; residence 691 Fifth avenue. Born in New York City, June 24, 1867. Educated by private tutors, at Cutler's School in New York City, Harvard (A.B., '91) and at Columbia (LL.B., '94). (Single.) Member of the firm of Morrison & Morrison. Special counsel for Manhattan Elevated Ry. Co. Member Metropolitan and Harvard Clubs, St. Andrew's Society, Society of Colonial Wars and Sons of the Revolution.

MORRISON, DAVID MITCHELL—Banker, 280 Broadway, New York City; residence 20 East 49th street. Born in New York City, Dec. 13, 1841. Educated in New York City. (Married.) President and trustee Washington Trust Co.; director North River Fire Insurance Co. and Preferred Accident Insurance Co.; trustee Greenwich Savings Bank. Member Union League, Merchants' and Riding Clubs, and Hamilton Club of Brooklyn.

MORRISON, EDWARD A.—Retired, 49 West 47th street, New York City. (Married.) Member New York Yacht, Larchmont Yacht and New York Athletic Clubs and Metropolitan Museum of Art.

MORRISON, EDWARD A., JR.—Dry Goods Merchant, 893 Broadway, New York City; residence 36 West 35th street. Member of the firm of Edward A. Morrison & Son. Member New York Athletic, Manhattan, Suburban Riding and Driving, Essex County (N. J.) Country, American Yacht, Larchmont Yacht and Lotos Clubs and Metropolitan Museum of Art.

MORRISON, FRANK E.—Manufacturer and Advertising Agent, 5 Beekman street, New York City; residence 482 Bedford avenue, Brooklyn. Born in Marlow, N. H., March, 1865. Educated at Marlow Academy. (Single.) Eastern manager Morrison & Sommerman, advertising agents of Chicago; manager Granite State Evaporator Co. of Albany. Member Commercial and Atlantic Yacht Clubs, and Hanover Club of Brooklyn.

MORRISON, GEORGE AUSTIN—Capitalist, 27 Beaver street, New York City; residence 691 Fifth avenue. President, chairman of board and director American Cotton Oil Co.; president and director N. K. Fairbank Co.; president-commissary Holland-American Cotton Oil Co.; vice-president and trustee Washington Trust Co.; director Terminal Warehouse Co. and Atlas Portland Cement Co.; trustee New York Life Insurance Co. Member Lawyers', Metropolitan, New York Yacht and Players' Clubs, National Academy of Design, Metropolitan Museum of Art and American Museum of Natural History.

MORRISON, GEORGE AUSTIN, JR.—Lawyer, 43 Cedar street, New York City; residence 691 Fifth avenue. Born in New York City, March 26, 1864. Educated in New York City, at Harvard (A.B., '87), at Columbia (M.A., '89) and at Columbia Law School (LL.B., '89). (Single.) Member of the firm of Morrison & Morrison. Secretary St. Andrew's Society, founded 1756. Author of "The King Family of Rhode Island," "The King Families in England"; also several burlesques and comic operas, and treatises on international questions. Member Metropolitan, Players', Lawyers' and New York Yacht Clubs, Ardsley Casino of Ardsley-on-Hudson, St. Nicholas, American Geographical and St. Andrew's Societies, Sons of the Revolution and Society of Colonial Wars.

MORRISON, HARRY STEELE—Writer and Lecturer, 42 West 17th street, New York City. Born in Mattoon, Ill., Nov. 26, 1880. Educated at Mattoon High School and in private schools in Chicago and New York City. At the age of sixteen made a tour in Europe and interviewed various monarchs and notabilities; on his return entered literary and lecture field and has lectured in the larger cities of the East. Author of "A Yankee Boy's Success."

MORRISON, HENRY PRENTICE—Civil Engineer, 21 Park row, New York City. Born in Troy, N. Y., Jan. 14, 1858. Educated in New York City public schools, at Clark's Academy ('76) and at New York University (B.S. and C.E.). Deputy commissioner and chief engineer of highways and sewers in the Department of Water Supply of New York City, with which he has been connected for many years. Member American Society of Civil Engineers.

MORRISON, LEWIS—Actor, Morrison Manor, Peekskill-on-Hudson. Born in Jamaica, West Indies, 1845. (Married Florence Roberts.) Served as an officer in the Union Army during Civil War. Made first theatrical appearance in 1865; has supported Lawrence Barrett, Tomasso Salvini, Edwin Forrest and Edwin Booth. Now starring at the head of his own company.

MORRISON, ROBERT B.—Architect, 41 Wall street, New York City; residence 541 East 154th street. Member of the firm of Dodge & Morrison. Member Harlem Wheelmen.

MORRIS, THEODORE W.—Glass Merchant, 474 Greenwich street, New York City; residence 16 West 69th street, and Freehold, N. J. Born in New York City, Jan. 15, 1842. Educated at School of General Society of Mechanics and Tradesmen and at College of the City of New York. (Married.) Member of the firm of Theo. W. Morris & Co. (est. 1837). Served as adjutant in 37th Regiment, N. G. N. Y., and as major on staff of Gen. William Hall during Civil War; was secretary of the Mutual Life Insurance Co. of New York for four years. President Northern Dispensary; director People's Bank, National Safe Deposit Co. and Indiana, Decatur and Western R. R. Co. Member New York Athletic and Wool (president) Clubs, General Society of Mechanics and Tradesmen, Veteran Association of the 71st Regiment, N. G. N. Y., Sons of the American Revolution, Chamber of Commerce, Washington Association and Metropolitan Museum of Art.

MORROW, BENJAMIN ROWLAND—Physician, 207 Second avenue, New York City. Born in Pennsylvania, Sept. 9, 1851. Educated at Medical Department of New York University. (Married.) Medical examiner Metropolitan Life Insurance Co. and of the Fidelity and Casualty Co. Member Sons of the American Revolution, New York County Medical and New York City Medical Associations.

MORSE, CHARLES A., JR.—Banker, 44 Broadway, New York City; residence 166 Garfield place, Brooklyn. Born in Brooklyn, 1868. Educated at Brooklyn Polytechnic Institute. (Single.) Connected with George E. Armstrong & Co. Treasurer Federal Graphite Co. Formerly financial editor "Journal of Commerce." Member Reform Club, Marine and Field and Crescent Athletic Clubs of Brooklyn, and Art Club of Philadelphia.

MORSE, CHARLES HENRY—Organist and Musical Conductor, The Breevort, Brooklyn. Born in Bradford, Mass., Jan. 5, 1853. Educated at Haverhill High School ('70), New England Conservatory of Music ('73) and at Boston University College of Music ('76). (Married Frances S. N. Kimball of West Fairlee, Vt., 1874.) Instructor in New England Conservatory of Music, 1873-7; professor of music at Wellesley College, 1875-84; director Northwestern Conservatory of Music, Minneapolis, Minn., 1885-91; organist and choirmaster in Plymouth Church, Brooklyn, N. Y., 1891-9. Vice-president Department of Music of the Brooklyn Institute of Arts and Sciences since its organization; trustee New England Conservatory of Music; musical editor of the "Plymouth Hymnal." Member New England Conservatory of Music Alumni Association.

MORSE, CHARLES W.—Capitalist, 18 Broadway, New York City; residence 724 Fifth avenue. Educated at Bowdoin ('77). President and director American Ice Co.; vice-president and director Garfield National Bank; director Bank of the State of New York, Sprague National Bank of Brooklyn, and City Trust Co. Member Union League, Metropolitan and University Clubs.

MORSE, DANIEL P.—Shoe Merchant, 134 Duane street, New York City; residence 530 Clinton avenue, Brooklyn. Born in Malone, N. Y., April 6, 1852. (Married.) President and director Morse & Rogers; director Irving National Bank, and Manufacturers' Trust Co. of Brooklyn. Member Arkwright, Reform and Seawanhaka-Corinthian Yacht Clubs, Crescent Athletic, Riding and Driving, and Lincoln Clubs of Brooklyn, and New England Society.

MORSE, DAVID R.—Manufacturer of Wire Goods and Ventilating Appliances, 45 Fulton street, New York City; residence 112 Fort Greene place, Brooklyn. Born in New Market, N. J., March 30, 1835. Educated in Bloomfield, N. J., and New Hampton, N. H. (Widower.) Member of the firm of Howard & Morse. Treasurer and director Associated Manufacturers' Mutual Fire Insurance Corporation; second vice-president and trustee City Savings Bank of Brooklyn; director Manufacturers' Association of New York; trustee Washington Avenue Baptist Church of Brooklyn. Member Hardware Club, Oxford Club of Brooklyn (vice-president), Morse Society (treasurer and director), and Manufacturers' Association of Brooklyn.

MORSE, EDWIN WILSON—Editor, 153 Fifth avenue, New York City; residence 201 West 54th street. Born in Natick, Mass., March 29, 1855. Educated at Harvard ('78). (Married.) Connected with Charles Scribner's Sons as literary adviser and editor. Member Harvard, University and Barnard Clubs.

MORSE, GEORGE R.—Railroads, 20 Broad street, New York City; residence 259 Edgecombe avenue. Born in Lockport, N. Y., 1854. Educated at Upper Canada College, Toronto. (Married.) Vice-president and treasurer Iowa Central Ry. Co. Member Heights Club, Montauk Lodge No. 286, F. & A. M. (past master), Jerusalem Chapter No. 8, F. R. A. M., and Coeur de Lion Commandery No. 23, K. T.

MORSE, HARRY F.—President, 18 Broadway, New York City; residence 487 West End avenue. Born in Bath, Me., Jan. 5, 1852. (Married.) President and director Morse Transportation Co.; treasurer and director Consolidated Ice Co. and Knickerbocker Steam Towage Co.; director Garfield National Bank and Knickerbocker Ice Co. Member Union League Club.

MORSE, HORACE J.—Banker, 18 Wall street, New York City; residence 820 St. Marks avenue, Brooklyn. Member of the firm of A. M. Kidder & Co. and of the New York Stock Exchange. Second vice-president and director People's Trust Co. of Brooklyn; director Trenton Potteries Co. Member Union League and Hanover Clubs of Brooklyn, and Ohio Society.

MORSE, JAMES HERBERT—Educator, 423 Madison avenue, New York City. Born in Hubbardston, Mass., Oct. 8, 1841. Educated at Harvard ('63). (Married Lucy, daughter of James Sloane Gibbons, 1870.) Principal of the Morse & Rogers School. A frequent contributor to current literature. Member Authors' and Schoolmasters' Clubs, Phi Beta Kappa Society and Century Association.

MORSE, JAMES HERBERT, JR.—Teacher, 423 Madison avenue, New York City. (Son of James Herbert and Lucy [Gibbons] Morse.) Educated at Harvard. Instructor in the Morse & Rogers School. Member Harvard Club.

MORSE, JAMIN SETH—Lawyer, 234 Broadway, New York City; residence 230 Central Park, South. Born in Brownhelm, Ohio, April 29, 1858. Educated at Oberlin College ('82) and Columbia Law School ('87). (Married.) President and director American Watchman's Time Detector Co. Member Plaza Republican and Quill Clubs, Ohio and Morse Societies, Baptist Social Union and Association of the Bar of the City of New York.

MORSE, JEROME E.—Publisher, 96 Fifth avenue, New York City; residence 123 St. James place, Brooklyn. Born in Leominster, Worcester Co., Mass., Feb. 23, 1846. Educated at United States Naval Academy, Annapolis, Md. (Married.) Was in command of the receiving training station, United States steamer Michigan, during Spanish-American War. Lieutenant on retired list, United States Navy. Vice-president, treasurer and director The Morse Co.; trustee Seamen's Friends Society and Adelphi College. Member Montauk Club of Brooklyn, Aldine Association, New England Society and Brooklyn Institute of Arts and Sciences.

MORSE, RICHARD C.—Clergyman, 3 West 29th street, New York City; residence 13 West 129th street. Born in Hudson, N. Y., Sept. 19, 1841. Educated at Phillips Andover Academy, Yale ('62) and at Union and Princeton Theological ('67) Seminaries. (Married.) Was assistant editor "New York Observer," 1867-9. American secretary committee of the World's Conference of Y. M. C. A., and of American Committee of the World's Student Christian Federation. Member Yale Alumni Association and Y. M. C. A.

MORSE, SHERMAN—Publisher, Niagara Falls; residence Edgewood, De Veaux. Born in Canandaigua, N. Y., Jan. 15, 1870. Educated at Yale ('91). (Married.) Manager The Gazette Publishing Co., publishers of the Niagara Falls "Daily Gazette." Was city editor "Buffalo Evening News." Member University Club of Buffalo, Zeta Psi Fraternity and Niagara Frontier Fish and Game Club.

MORSE, SIDNEY E.—Real Estate, 140 Nassau street, New York City; residence 113 East 95th street. Born in New York City, Nov. 25, 1835. Educated at Yale ('56). (Married.) President and director Palisade and Hudson River Land Co.; vice-president and director Bunnell & Eno Investment Co.; editor and proprietor New York "Observer" from 1858 to 1873. Between the years of 1865 and 1873, filled every position on brigadier-general's staff, 2d Regiment, N. G. N. Y., from second lieutenant to lieutenant-colonel, chief of staff. Was commodore St. Augustine Yacht Club, Florida, 1877. Member University Club, Yale Alumni Association and New England and St. Nicholas Societies.

MORSE, WALDO GRANT—Lawyer, 10 Wall street, New York City; residence Yonkers. Born in Rochester, N. Y., March 13, 1859. (Son of Adolphus and Mary E. [Grant] Morse.) Educated at the University of Rochester; studied law and was admitted to the Bar in 1884. (Married.) Served as Palisade Commissioner of the State of New York. Director Darien and Western R. R. Co., United States Savings and Loan Bank, National Gramophone Corporation, Morse Society and Chester Goodale Marble Co. Member Blue Pencil (honorary), Reform, Lawyers' and Quill Clubs, American Bar and New York State Bar Associations, New England Society, American Academy of Political and Social Science, Sons of the Revolution, Society of Colonial Wars and Association of the Far of the City of New York.

MORSE, WILLIAM—Rubber Goods Manufacturer, 72 Reade street, New York City; residence Hackensack, N. J. Born in Malone, N. Y., Sept. 22, 1857. Educated at Annapolis Naval Academy. (Married.) Head of the firm of William Morse & Co. Member Hardware Club.

MORTON, BOWDITCH—Physician, 1 West 54th street, New York City. Born in Wellesley, Mass. Educated at Harvard ('80). Member University Club, Society of Medical Jurisprudence and New York County Medical and Neurological Societies.

MORTON, HENRY—Educator, Stevens Institute of Technology; residence River and Sixth streets, Hoboken, N. J. Born in New York City, Dec. 11, 1836. Educated at University of Pennsylvania; degrees of Ph.D., Sc.D. and LL.D. (Married.) President of Stevens Institute of Technology. Director Mexican National Construction Co. and Bacon Air Lift Co. Formerly professor of chemistry at University of Pennsylvania. Ex-resident secretary Franklin Institute of Philadelphia, and ex-member United States Light House Board. Member American Philosophical and American Chemical Societies, American Society of Gas Engineers, American Society of Mechanical Engineers, National Academy of Design and others.

MORTON, LEVI PARSONS—Banker, 38 Nassau street, New York City; residence 681 Fifth avenue, and "Ellerslie," Rhinecliff-on-Hudson. Born in Shoreham, Vt., May 16, 1824, (a descendant of George Morton of Battery, Yorkshire, the financial agent in London of the Mayflower Pilgrims, who arrived at Plymouth, Mass., on the ship "Ann" in 1623; son of Rev. Daniel Oliver and Lucretia [Parsons] Morton.) Educated at Shoreham Academy. Received degree of LL.D. from Dartmouth College in 1891 and from Middlebury College in 1893. (Married Anna Livingston Street in 1873; they have five children, Edith Livingston, Lena, Helen, Alice and Mary Morton.) Founded the banking houses of Levi P. Morton & Co. and Morton, Bliss & Co. of New York City; Morton, Rose & Co. and Morton, Chaplin & Co. of London, England; also the Morton Trust Co. of New York. Congressman from New York, 1879-81; United States Minister to France, 1881-5; Vice-President of the United States and President of the Senate, 1889-93; Governor of the State of New York, 1894-7. President and trustee Morton Trust Co. and Fifth Avenue Trust Co.; director Equitable Life Assurance Society of the United States, Guaranty Trust Co., Home Insurance Co., Traders' Fire Insurance Co. and Washington Life Insurance Co.; trustee Atlantic Mutual Insurance Co. Member Metropolitan, Union League, Republican, Union, Lawyers', Tuxedo and New York Press Clubs, Century and Down Town Associations, American Geographical, New England, American Fine Arts and New York Genealogical and Biographical Societies, Metropolitan Museum of Art, American Museum of Natural History, National Academy of Design and Sons of the American Revolution.

MORTON, WARNER G.—Wholesale Coal Dealer, 2 James street, Albany; residence 351 State street. Born in Pittsfield, Mass., March 2, 1851. Educated in Pittsfield. (Married.) Member Albany Country and Fort Orange Clubs, Transportation Club of New York City, and Park Club of Pittsfield, Mass.

MORTON, WILLIAM J.—Physician, 19 East 28th street, New York City; residence 200 West 107th street. Educated at Harvard ('67). Specialist in mental diseases. Member University Club, New York County Medical, Harvard Medical and New York Electrical Societies and American Medical Association.

MOSENTHAL, HERMAN—Insurance, 46 Cedar street, New York City; residence 112 West 85th street. Born in Germany, Sept. 29, 1832. Educated in Germany. (Married.) Trustee Association for the Improved Instruction of Deaf Mutes. Was president Insurance Clerks' Mutual Benefit Association and secretary and trustee Liederkrantz Society. Member Underwriters' Club, Liederkrantz, and of many charitable and educational societies.

MOSENTHAL, PHILIP JAMES—Insurance, 46 Cedar street, New York City; residence 112 West 85th street. Educated at the College of the City of New York. Member of the firm of H. Mosenthal & Son. Member Reform and Good Government Clubs, American Fine Arts and Phi Beta Kappa Societies, Liederkrantz and College of the City of New York Alumni Association.

MOSER, CHARLES P.—Merchant, Syracuse. Born in Carbondale, Pa., Jan. 21, 1837. Educated at Geneva (N. Y.) Union School. (Married.) Partner in the firms of S. E. Norton & Co., Moser & Lyon, Moser, Truax & De Golia, Moser & Lyon Co. and Moser, Lyon & Co. Member Citizens' Club.

MOSES, ALFRED J.—Professor, 116th street and Morningside Heights, New York City; residence North Tarrytown. Degrees of E.M. and Ph.D. Professor of mineralogy at Columbia University in the City of New York. Member Engineers' Club and Scientific Alliance.

MOSES, FREDERICK J.—Lawyer, 32 Nassau street, New York City; residence 180 West 88th street. Born in Trenton, N. J., Sept. 22, 1870. Educated at Princeton ('92). (Married.) Member of the firm of Moses & Morris. Member Princeton Club, Tiger Inn and Sons of the Revolution.

MOSES, JUDAH—Oculist and Optician, 327 Fulton street, Brooklyn; residence 135 Fort Green place. Born in Plymouth, England, Feb. 1, 1836. Educated in Plymouth. (Single.) President and director Axis-Cut Pebble Co. Grand secretary-general of the Supreme Council, thirty-third degree A. and A. Scottish Rite Masons for the United States of America, its territories and dependencies. Member St. John's Lodge No. 4, F. & A. M., of Hartford, Conn.

MOSES, RAPHAEL J.—Lawyer, 120 Broadway, New York City; residence 46 West 97th street. Member Lotos, Reform, American Yacht and Thirteen Clubs, American Geographical and Southern Societies and Association of the Bar of the City of New York.

MOSHER, ARTHUR ANTHONY—Insurance, 135 Broadway, New York City; residence 339 West 88th street. Born in Easton, Washington Co., N. Y., Dec. 21, 1851. (Married.) General agent Prudential Life Insurance Co. Was with the Travelers Insurance Co. for seventeen years; its general agent at St. Louis for fifteen years, establishing their largest general agency department. In 1891 he entered railway service as third vice-president of the Kansas City, Pittsburg and Gulf R. R., Kansas City, Mo., and was for five years actively interested in its construction; was second vice-president Kansas City Suburban Belt R. R. Co.; president Kansas City and Independence Air Line R. R. Co.; second vice-president Texarkana and Fort Smith R. R. Co.; vice-president Missouri, Kansas and Texas Trust Co.; second vice-president National Surety Co.; fourth vice-president Central Coal and Coke Co. Member Colonial and Lawyers' Clubs, Chicago (Ill.) Club and St. Louis Club of St. Louis, Mo.

MOSHER, ARTHUR B.—Insurance, 100 Broadway, New York City; residence 339 West 88th street. President of lead and zinc mining companies. Member New York Athletic Club.

MOSHER, BURR B.—Physician, 202 Schermerhorn street, Brooklyn. Born in Union Springs, N. Y., June 13, 1866. Educated at Long Island College Hospital ('90) and Oakwood Seminary. (Married.) Interner at Brooklyn Hospital, 1890-91; assistant surgeon Brooklyn Eye and Ear Hospital, 1891-6, and of St. Peter's Hospital since 1895; adjunct physician Brooklyn Hospital since 1894; surgeon Brooklyn Hospital Orthopedic Department since 1891, and surgeon-in-chief St. Giles Home for Crippled Children. Member Crescent Athletic Club.

MOSLE, A. HENRY—Lawyer, 30 Broad street, New York City; residence 34 West 56th street. Educated at Yale ('89). Member University Athletic, Yale and University Clubs, Down Town Association and Deutscher Verein.

MOSLE, GEORGE RUDOLF—Merchant, 16 Exchange place, New York City; residence 34 West 56th street. Educated at Yale ('86). Member of the firm of Mosle Bros. Member University Club and Yale Alumni and Down Town Associations.

MOSLER, HENRY—Artist, 119 West 85th street, New York City, and Paris, France. Born in New York City, June 6, 1841. Educated in Cincinnati common schools and in Düsseldorf and Paris; also studied under Hebert, director of the Ville de Medicis in Rome, Italy, and at the Academy at Munich, Germany, under the direction of Wagner and Piloty. Was special artist for "Harper's Weekly" during Civil War. Has maintained a residence in Paris, France, since 1877. His most famous paintings include "La Retour," "The Purchase of the Wedding Gown" and "The Last Sacrament." Has had pictures purchased and incorporated in the following museums: Luxembourg, Paris, France; Sydney, Australia; Grenoble, France; Louisville, Ky.; Polytechnic Institute, Pennsylvania Academy of Fine Arts; Cincinnati (Ohio) Museum; Springfield (Mass.) Museum and Metropolitan Museum of Art in New York City. Summary of honors received: Medal at the Royal Academy of Munich in 1874; honorable mention at the Paris Salon in 1879; "La Retour" purchased by the French Government for the Musée de Luxembourg in 1879; gold medal at the International Exhibition, Nice; Paris, France, in 1884; gold medal at the Paris Salon in 1888; silver medal at the Exposition Universelle, Paris, 1889; Chevalier de la Legion d'Honneur of France, 1892; Officier d'Academie, France, 1892; Archduke Karl Ludwig of Austria gold medal, 1893; grand gold medal and diploma of honor at the Atlanta Exposition, Georgia, 1895; gold medal from the Philadelphia Art Club in 1897; also many others.

MOSS, FRANK—Lawyer, 93 Nassau street, New York City; residence 306 East 120th street. Born in Cold Spring, Putnam Co., N. Y., March 16, 1860. (Son of John R. and Eliza [Wood] Moss.) Educated at a public school and at the College of the City of New York. Degree of LL.D. from Taylor University. (Married Eva E. Bruce, 1883.) President of the New York City Police Board, 1897. Served as associate counsel to the Lexow Investigating Committee, 1893-4, and leading counsel to the Mazet Investigating Committee, 1899. Acts as counsel to the Society for the Prevention of Crime. Author of "The American Metropolis," being the history of New York City, in three volumes. Member Republican, Twilight, Harlem Republican and Good Government Clubs, Medico-Legal Association, New York Law Institute, Society for the Prevention of Crime, City Vigilance League, Methodist Social Union, Knights of Honor, Epworth League and Association of the Bar of the City of New York.

MOSS, FREDERICK W.—Retired Steel Manufacturer, 220 Broadway, New York City, and Sheffield, England; residence 33 Remsen street, Brooklyn. Born in Sheffield, England. Educated at Sheffield College, (affiliated to London University). (Married.) His father was one of the first trustees appointed by Great Britain upon the establishment of a system of government savings banks and was one of the first English merchants to establish agencies for English steel in this country and Canada; also for many years president of Sheffield Chamber of Commerce. Director E. W. Bliss Co.; trustee Franklin Trust Co. and Bureau of Charities. Member Hamilton, Barnard, Rembrandt, Riding and Driving, and Dyker Meadow Golf Clubs, Long Island Historical and St. George's Societies and Chamber of Commerce.

MOSS, JAY O.—President, 80 Broadway, New York City; residence Hotel Manhattan. Born in Sandusky, Ohio, November, 1839. Educated at Kenyon College, Ohio. (Married.) President and director Columbus and Hocking Coal and Iron Co., Sandusky, Mansfield and Newark R. R. Co., and Moss National Bank of Sandusky; director Barry, Boeat and Gardener Coal Co. Member Union League and Lawyers' Clubs, Pelee Club of Canada, American Historical and Ohio Societies and Metropolitan Museum of Art.

MOSS, ROYAL E. (Colonel)—1228 Broadway, New York City; residence 543 Madison avenue. Born in New York City, Feb. 10, 1873. Educated in public schools. (Married Marion Hays Drake.) Appointed assistant commissary-general of subsistence State of New York, by Governor Levi P. Morton, Jan. 30, 1895. Rendered supernumerary Dec. 31, 1898. Member Union League, New York Athletic, Seabright (N. J.) Golf and Meadow Yacht Clubs.

MOSSMAN, JOHN M.—Manufacturer of Safes and Locks, 72 Maiden lane, New York City; residence Hotel St. Andrew. Trustee Northern Dispensary, Hahne-mann Hospital and American Institute. Member Building Trades, New York Athletic and Colonial Clubs, General Society of Mechanics and Tradesmen and New York Historical Society.

MOTLEY, JAMES M.—Merchant, 43 John street, New York City; residence 47 West 43d street. Born in New York City, Oct. 6, 1864. Educated in New York City. (Single.) President Cuban and West Indies Exploitation Co.; vice-president and director Thornton N. Motley Co. (Inc.); director Duval Metallic Packing Co. Member Larchmont Yacht, Racquet and Tennis, New York Athletic, Democratic, Suburban Riding and Driving, New York and Manhattan Clubs, St. Andrew's and St. George's Societies, Maritime Exchange and Friendly Sons of St. Patrick.

MOTLEY, THORNTON N.—Merchant, 43 John street, New York City; residence 123 West 86th street. Born in New York City, Dec. 28, 1857. Educated in New York City. (Married.) President and director Thornton N. Motley Co.; resident director National Pyrogranit Co., Duval Metallic Packing Co. and Manhattan Oil Co. Member New York Yacht, Manhattan, Engineers', Lawyers', New York Athletic, and Suburban Riding and Driving Clubs, Tammany Society and St. Nicholas Lodge.

MOTT, JOHN O.—City Magistrate, New York City; residence 67 East 77th street. Born in Half Moon, Saratoga Co., N. Y., Oct. 18, 1829. Educated at Ballston Institute. (Married.) District attorney of Saratoga County, 1856-9; paymaster in United States Army with rank of major, 1864; Assistant United States District Attorney for Southern District of New York, 1890-5. Appointed city magistrate in 1895 for term expiring July 1, 1905. Member Republican Club, Presbyterian Union, Association of the Bar of the City of New York, Military Order of the Loyal Legion and Lafayette Post, G. A. R.

MOTT, JOHN T.—Banker, Oswego. Born in Hamilton, N. Y. Educated at Union College ('63). President First National Bank and Oswego Water Works Co.; vice-president and treasurer Oswego Gas Light Co.; member of the Republican State Committee and New York State Board of Commissioners for Pan-American Exposition. Member City, Oswego Yacht and Fortnightly Clubs, University and Transportation Clubs of New York City, Sigma Phi Fraternity, Sons of the American Revolution, Society of Colonial Wars, Colonial Order, Rochester (N. Y.) Yacht Club and Royal Canadian Yacht Club of Toronto, Canada.

MOTT, JORDAN LAWRENCE—Iron Manufacturer, 90 Beekman street, New York City; residence 2122 Fifth avenue. Born in New York City, Nov. 10, 1829. (Son of Jordan Lawrence Mott.) Educated at New York University ('49). (Married.) Became partner in his father's business in 1853 and succeeded to its management in 1866. Represented the Twenty-third and Twenty-fourth Wards on the Board of Aldermen, 1879; Presidential Elector, 1876 and 1888. President and director J. L. Mott Iron Works; director New River Mineral Co., North River Bridge Co. and other corporations. Member Engineers', New York, New York Yacht, American Yacht and Fulton Clubs and Metropolitan Museum of Art.

MOTT, JORDAN LAWRENCE, JR.—Iron Manufacturer, 90 Beekman street, New York City; residence 17 East 47th street. (Married.) Vice-president and director J. L. Mott Iron Works; treasurer and director North American Iron Works; director Mott Haven Co. and Washington Life Insurance Co. Member Union, Calumet and New York Yacht Clubs and Country Club of Westchester.

MOTT, LEWIS F.—Professor, 17 Lexington avenue, New York City; residence "The Strathmore." Born in New York City, Sept. 29, 1863. Educated at the College of the City of New York ('83) and Columbia University School of Philosophy. (Married.) Has been successively tutor, instructor, assistant professor, and professor of English in the College of the City of New York. President American Dialect Society, 1899-1900. Member Modern Language and Philological Associations and Folk-Lore, Dialect and Daube Societies.

MOTT, LUTHER WRIGHT—Banker, First National Bank Building, Oswego; residence 78 West Fifth street. Born in Oswego. Educated at Harvard. (Single.) Assistant cashier First National Bank; director Oswego Water Works Co. and Oswego Gas Light Co. Was chairman of executive and campaign committees, American Republican College League, 1896. Member Harvard Club of New York City, Fortnightly, Columbian, Oswego Historical, Oswego Yacht and Oswego Country Clubs, Playgoers' Club of Boston, Mass., Sons of the American Revolution, New York Genealogical and Biographical Society, Society of Colonial Wars and Founders and Patriots of America.

MOTT, T. BENTLEY—Army Officer, Governor's Island, New York City. Born in Leesburgh, Va., 1865. Educated at West Point. (Single.) Aide-de-camp to Major-General Merritt. Was aide-de-camp to Generals Merritt and F. V. Greene in Manila campaign of 1898. Adjutant-General Department of Havana, 1898-9. Member Army and Navy and Union Clubs.

MOTT, VALENTINE—Physician, Roslyn, L. I. Born in New York City, Nov. 17, 1852. Educated at Columbia ('72), Trinity College, Cambridge, England ('76), and at Bellevue Hospital Medical College (M.D., '78). (Married.) Went to Paris in 1887, as the representative of the American Pasteur Institute; studied the treatment for hydrophobia under Louis Pasteur, on which subject he has written several papers. Member Seawanhaka-Corinthian Yacht and St. Anthony Clubs, Columbia University Alumni Association and Military Order of the Loyal Legion.

MOTT, WILLIAM ELTON—Instructor, Cornell University, Ithaca; residence 610 East Buffalo street. Degree of B.S. Instructor in civil engineering at Cornell University.

MOULTON, CHARLES WILLIAM—Professor, Vassar College, Poughkeepsie. Born in Elmira, N. Y., May 6, 1859. Educated at University of Minnesota. Instructor in physics and chemistry at Shattuck School, Faribault, Minn., 1885-7 and 1889-92. Professor of chemistry at Vassar College since 1892.

MOULTON, FRANKLIN W.—Lawyer, 59 Wall street, and Merchant, 29 Broadway, New York City; residence 82 East 55th street. Member of the firm of Francis D. Moulton & Co. (salt merchants). Member University, University Athletic and Harvard Clubs, Down Town Association and Association of the Bar of the City of New York.

MOULTON, GILMAN S.—Retired Banker, Buckingham Hotel and 48 West 52d street, New York City, and Randolph, Vt. (Widower.) Financial and real estate agent of Dr. E. Parmly and his heirs, 1861-87. Formed co-partnership with Austin Corbin in banking in 1865, and was associated in business with him till 1887. Retired from active business in 1887. Has maintained a stock and dairy farm at Randolph, Vt., since 1865. Member of the New York Stock Exchange, 1866-80. Member Union League, New York Yacht, Lambs', Coney Island Jockey and New York Athletic Clubs and New England Society.

MOWBRAY, HENRY SIDDONS—Artist, 66 West 11th street, New York City. Born in Alexandria, Egypt, (of English parents), 1858. Educated in North Adams, Mass., and at United States Military Academy; studied art in Paris, France. Established a studio in New York City, 1878. Member Century Association and National Academy of Design.

MOWE, WILLIAM R.—Insurance, 27 William street, New York City; residence 132 East 36th street. Educated at Trinity College. Member Grolier, Lawyers' and Church Clubs, Trinity Alumni Association and Sons of the American Revolution.

MOWTON, EDWARD P.—Lawyer, 99 Cedar street, New York City; residence Park Hill, Yonkers. Born in New York City, Nov. 15, 1863. Educated at Stevens Institute of Technology and New York Law School. (Married.) Connected with the Fidelity and Casualty Co. of New York. Member New York Athletic Club, Association of the Bar of the City of New York and General Society of Mechanics and Tradesmen.

MOXHAM, EDGAR C.—Electrical Goods, 66 Maiden lane, New York City; residence 96th street near Shore road, Brooklyn. Member of the firm of Edgar C. Moxham & Co. Vice-president and director Manasos Ry. Co.; treasurer and director Metallurgical Co.; director Automatic Telephone Construction Co. Member Fulton and Engineers' Clubs, Crescent Athletic Club of Brooklyn, and American Institute of Mining Engineers.

MONLEY, HARRY L.—Real Estate and Contractor, 320 Broadway, New York City; residence Upper Montclair, N. J. Born in Greenport, N. Y., Jan. 9, 1862. Educated in public schools. (Married.) Trustee Dry Goods Club.

MOYNAN, THOMAS—Dry Goods Merchant, New Bedford, Mass.; residence 134 Hooper street, Brooklyn, and Parker House, New Bedford, Mass. Born in Athlone, Dublin, Ireland, 1852. Educated in Dublin. (Married.) Member of the firm of Moynan & Co. Formerly connected with E. S. Jaffray & Co. Member Hanover Club of Brooklyn, and Wamsutta, Dartmouth and Merchants' Clubs of New Bedford.

MUH, ROBERT—Alderman, 8 City Hall, New York City; residence 513 West 47th street. Born in Leipzig, Germany, Feb. 25, 1851. Educated in New York City. Representing the Eighteenth District on the Board of Aldermen since 1892, and is chairman of the finance committee of that body.

MUHLEMAN, MAURICE L.—Deputy Assistant Treasurer of the United States, 28 Wall street, New York City; residence 214 West 112th street. Born in Alton, Ill., Nov. 27, 1852. Educated in St. Louis, Mo., and at Columbian University, Washington, D. C. Degrees of LL.B. and LL.M. (Married.) Connected with the United States Treasury Department since 1872; deputy assistant treasurer at the New York City Sub-Treasury since 1886. Treasurer and director Money Publishing Co., publishers of "Money," a monthly magazine; director Profit Sharing Co. Author of "Money of the United States" and "Monetary Systems of the World." Member Colonial Club, Chamber of Commerce and Metropolitan Museum of Art.

MULFORD, HENRY JONES—Physician, 401 Delaware avenue, Buffalo; residence 597 Elmwood avenue. Born in Toledo, Ohio, Feb. 19, 1867. Educated in the United States. (Married.) Assistant to ear department of Buffalo Eye and Ear Infirmary; clinical assistant throat and nose department, University of Buffalo, and laryngologist to Erie County Hospital. Member Liberal and Independent Clubs.

MULFORD, LEWIS J.—Publisher, 189 Broadway, New York City; residence Montclair, N. J. Born in New York City, 1835. Educated in New York City. (Married.) President, treasurer and director Jewelers' Circular Publishing Co.

MULLALLY, THORNWELL—Lawyer, 30 Broad street, New York City; residence 167 West 79th street. Born in Columbia, S. C. Educated at Yale ('92) and at New York Law School ('94). (Single.) Member of the firm of Atterbury & Mullally. Member Squadron "A," N. G. N. Y., and Association of the Bar of the City of New York.

MULLER, CARL—Banker, 54 Wall street, New York City; residence 7 West 69th street. Born in Bremen, Germany, 1858. Educated in Bremen. (Married.) Member of the firm of Muller, Schall & Co., members of the New York Stock Exchange. Member German Club and Down Town Association.

MULLER, CARL CHRISTIAN—Teacher of Harmony, 109 East 14th street; residence 1291 Lexington avenue. Born in Meiningen, Germany, July 3, 1831. Educated in Meiningen. (Single.) Teacher of harmony at New York College of Music; chairman of harmony committee New York State Music Teachers' Association. Translator of Schubert's "Fundamental Harmonics" and author of "Tables for the Writing of Harmonic Exercises." Member Manuscript Club, Liederkranz and Aschenbrödel Verein.

MULLER, LOUIS GARDNER—President, 156 Fifth avenue, New York City; residence Hotel San Remo. Born in New York City, Dec. 7, 1861. Educated in Hoboken, N. J. President Automatic Mitre Clamp Co.; treasurer Greenpoint Lumber Co. Member Colonial Club and 7th Regiment, N. G. N. Y.

MULLER, NICHOLAS—Congressman, House of Representatives, Washington, D. C., and Railroad Agent, 1 Broadway, New York City; residence New Brighton, S. I. Born in Luxembourg, Germany, Nov. 15, 1836. Educated at the University of Luxembourg.

Member of New York Assembly, 1875-6; Congressman, 1877-81, and 1883-7. Representing the Seventh District in the Fifty-sixth Congress, 1899-1901.

MULLER, PETER D.—Merchant and Banker, Truxton. Born in Brooklyn, N. Y., 1848. Educated in Glens Falls, N. Y. (Married.) Director National Bank of Cortland, and Cortland Savings Bank. Member of the firm of Muller & Son, and connected with the Bryant Furniture Co.

MULLIGAN, THOMAS J.—Commissioner, Third and Tremont avenues, New York City; residence Williamsbridge. Born in Fallsburg, N. Y., 1852. Educated in public schools. Engaged in publishing business, 1876-98. Deputy commissioner of water supply for the Borough of The Bronx, New York City, since January, 1898. Organized the first fire department of Williamsbridge; was chairman of the Town and County Committee of Westchester for four years.

MULLIGAN, WILLIAM EDWARD—Organist and Choir Director, 489 Fifth avenue, New York City; residence Larchmont Manor. Born in Brooklyn, N. Y., July 3, 1857. Educated in New York City. (Married.) Organist and choir master Fifth Avenue Collegiate Church. Was member of the Society of American Musicians and Composers; founder of the Organists' Guild; chairman programme committee, Music Teachers' National Association, Waldorf-Astoria, June, 1898. Member New York State Music Teachers' Association, Horse Shoe Harbor Yacht Club and Larchmont Fire Department.

MULQUEEN, MICHAEL J.—Lawyer, 253 Broadway, New York City; residence Arverne, L. I. Educated at College of the City of New York. (Married a daughter of ex-Mayor Thomas F. Gilroy.) Member of the firm of Mulqueen & Mulqueen. President and director Arverne-by-the-Sea Association. Formerly instructor in the City College. Member Catholic, Democratic, Manhattan and Hardware Clubs.

MULVANY, HENRY P.—Sheriff, 280 Broadway, New York City; residence 147 East 33d street. Born in New York City, 1852. Educated in public schools. Connected with the sheriff's office since 1874; under sheriff since 1898. Member Democratic Club, Tammany Society and Benevolent and Protective Order of Elks.

MUNDE, PAUL FORTUNATUS—Physician, 20 West 45th street, New York City. Born in Dresden, Germany, Sept. 7, 1846. (Son of Charles Mundé.) Educated at Boston (Mass.) Latin School, Harvard University and in Vienna, Austria. (Married.) Acting medical cadet in United States Army, 1864; volunteer assistant surgeon in war between Prussia and South Germany, 1866; battalion surgeon in Bavarian Army with rank of first lieutenant during Franco-German War, 1870-1; resident physician to the Würzburg (Germany) Maternity, 1867-70. Practicing in New York City since 1873. Emeritus professor of gynecology at New York Polyclinic; professor of gynecology at Dartmouth College; gynecologist to Mount Sinai Hospital; consulting surgeon to City, Maternity, Mothers' and Babies', and Skin and Cancer Hospitals. Author of several medical and surgical works. Member Union League, South Side Sportsmen's and Riding Clubs, American Gynecological (ex-president) and New York Obstetrical Societies and many other scientific organizations.

MUMFORD, GEORGE D.—Lawyer, 11 William street, New York City; residence 30 West 24th street. Born in San Francisco, Cal., May 9, 1870. Educated at Columbia ('89), at Harvard Law School and in Heidelberg and Leipzig, Germany. (Married.) Member of the firm of Mumford & Bean. Member University, Lambs', Harvard and Phi Delta Phi Clubs and Association of the Bar of the City of New York.

MUNFORD, IRVING H.—Vice-President and Secretary, 18 Broadway, New York City; residence 374 Fifth avenue. Born in Tennessee. Educated at Southwestern University. (Single.) Vice-president and director Hildreth Varnish Co.; secretary and director Kingston Carriage Co. Member Engineers', Richmond County Country and New York Railroad Clubs and Southern Society.

MUNGER, EUGENE H.—Accountant, 873 Broadway, New York City; residence 225 East 124th street. Born in Saratoga Springs, N. Y., Jan. 24, 1844. Educated at Trinity School, New York City. (Single.) Credit clerk Aitken, Son & Co. Formerly president, now trustee of Safety Co-operative Building Loan and Savings Association of New York City. Member Aldine Association.

MUNGER, GEORGE C.—Lawyer, 22 Snow Building, Syracuse; residence 212 Delaware street. Born in Sodus, N. Y., Jan. 29, 1865. Educated at Cornell. (Married.) Member Citizens' and University Clubs and Syracuse Historical Association.

MUNIER, VINCENT M.—Dental Surgeon, 120 West 87th street, New York City; residence 256 West 84th street. Born in New York City, Dec. 2, 1866. Educated in New York City. (Married.) Member Baptist Social Union, Sons of the American Revolution and First District Dental Society of New York State.

MUNN, A. GODWIN, JR.—Cotton Broker, 56 Beaver street, New York City; residence Bogota, N. J. Born in New Jersey, Nov. 24, 1858. Educated in New York City. (Married.) Member of the firm of S. Munn, Son & Co. Treasurer and director Saratoga Vichy Spring Co.

MUNN, CHARLES A.—Editor and Publisher, 361 Broadway, New York City. Born in New York City. Educated at Princeton ('81). Treasurer and director Munn & Co., publishers of the "Scientific American." Member Princeton, Union, Grolier, University, Racquet and Tennis, and Merchants' Clubs, Essex County Country Clubs, New England Society and Sons of the American Revolution.

MUNN, HENRY NORCROSS—Retired Publisher, 361 Broadway, New York City; residence 281 Lexington avenue. Formerly connected with the firm of Munn & Co., publishers of the "Scientific American." Member Merchants', Union and Essex County (N. J.) Country Clubs, New England Society and Sons of the American Revolution.

MUNN, JOHN P.—Physician, 261 Broadway, New York City; residence 18 West 58th street. Director United States Life Insurance Co., Texas and Pacific Ry. Co., Richmond Ry. and Electric Co., Poughkeepsie and Eastern R. R. Co., Missouri Pacific Ry. Co., Central Gas Light Co. and Albion and Centerville Ry. Co. Member Delta Kappa Epsilon, Racquet and Tennis, New York Athletic and Reform Clubs and New England and Phi Beta Kappa Societies.

MUNN, ORSON DESAIX—Publisher, 361 Broadway, New York City; residence 14 East 22d street. Born in Monson, Mass., June 11, 1824. Educated at Monson Academy. (Married Julia Augusta Allen.) Began business as clerk in a country store. In 1846 removed to New York City where he established (with Alfred E. Beach) the firm of Munn & Co., and began the publication of the "Scientific American." Established a bureau for soliciting patents in the United States and foreign countries. Has had professional relations with most of the distinguished inventors of the last half century, among whom were Professor S. F. B. Morse, Peter Cooper, Commodore Stevens and R. J. Gatling. Has a summer home of sixty acres in Llewellyn Park, Orange, N. J.; also owns the Locust Grove Farm on Orange Mountain near his country residence where he raises the celebrated Dutch belted cattle. Fellow National Academy of Design; member Union, Union League and Merchants' Clubs, New York Society of the Sons of the American Revolution and New England Society.

MUNRO, DAVID ALEXANDER—Editor and Publisher, 291 Fifth avenue, New York City; residence 324 President street, Brooklyn. Born in Maryburgh, Scotland. Educated at the University of Edinburgh (A.M., '72). Was connected with the literary department of Harper & Bros. for many years. Became connected with the "North American Review" in 1889, and has been its editor since 1896. Director North American Review Publishing Co. Member Players', and British Schools and Universities Clubs.

MUNRO, GEORGE W.—Publisher, 23 Vandewater street, New York City; residence 16 East 78th street.

Member of the firm of George Munro's Sons. Member Lotos, Fulton, Larchmont Yacht and American Yacht Clubs.

MUNROE, GEORGE E.—Physician, 43 East 33d street, New York City. Educated at Yale. Member University and Yale Clubs, Ardsley Casino of Ardsley-on-Hudson, and Century Association.

MUNROE, HENRY S.—Professor, 116th street and Morningside Heights, New York City; residence 45 Sidney place, Brooklyn. Born in Brooklyn, March 25, 1850. Educated at School of Mines of Columbia University (E.M., '69 and Ph.D., '76). (Married Alice M. Brown of Brownville, N. Y., 1882.) Assistant chemist to United States Department of Agriculture, 1870-2; assistant geologist and mining engineer on Yesso (Japan) Geological Survey, 1872-5; professor of geology and mining at University of Tokio, Japan, 1875-6; adjunct professor of mining at Columbia University, 1877-91; professor of same since 1891 and Dean of the Faculty of Applied Science since 1897. Member American Institute of Mining Engineers.

MUNSELL, CHARLES EDWARD—Chemist, 100 Horatio street, New York City; residence 345 West 14th street. Born in New York City, April 22, 1858. Educated at School of Mines of Columbia University (Ph.B., '78 and Ph.D., '84). (Single.) Milk inspector to the New York State Board of Health, 1881-3, and to the New York City Health Department, 1880-5. Analyst and chemist for F. W. Devoe & C. T. Reynolds Co. since 1886. Member Twilight Club, New York Historical and American Chemical Societies and New York Academy of Sciences.

MUNSELL, FRANK—Retired Publisher, Albany. Born in Albany, June 19, 1857. Educated in private schools and at Albany Academy. (Single.) Author of "Bibliography of Albany" and "Munsell Genealogy." Edited "American Ancestry," "Genealogical Index" and "American Genealogist."

MUNSEY, FRANK ANDREW—Publisher, 111 Fifth avenue, New York City; residence Union League Club. Born in Mercer, Me., Aug. 21, 1854. Educated in public schools. (Single.) Resident of New York City since 1882. Founded "Munsey's Weekly" in 1890 which was changed to "Munsey's Magazine" in 1891, which he still publishes; also publishes "The Puritan," "The Junior Munsey" and "The Quaker." Author of "Under Fire," "Afloat in a Great City," "The Boy Broker" and "A Tragedy of Errors." President and director Mohican Co. Member Union League, Riding, Lambs', St. Andrew's Golf and Ardsley Golf Clubs, Aldine Association, New England Society and Chamber of Commerce.

MUNSON, JAMES EUGENE—Stenographer and Author, 154 Nassau street, New York City; residence 1186 Lexington avenue. Born in Paris, Oneida Co., N. Y., May 12, 1835. Educated at Cazenovia Seminary and at Amherst College. Resident of New York City since 1857. Has been an official court stenographer for over thirty years. Expended much labor in simplifying existing systems of shorthand, the result being the "Munson System." Has invented a process of setting type automatically; also assisted in inventing a machine for operating typewriting machines by telegraph. President and director Munson Phonographic Publishing Co. Author of "The Complete Phonographer," "The Art of Phonography," "Dictionary of Practical Phonography," "Munson's Phonography" and other works of a similar nature.

MUNSON, SAMUEL L.—Manufacturer, Albany; residence 84 Lancaster street. Born in Huntington, Mass. Educated at Williston Seminary, East Hampton, Mass. (Married.) Director Chamber of Commerce and National Exchange Bank; secretary and trustee Home Savings Bank; trustee Madison Avenue Reformed Church. Member Fort Orange and Country Clubs, Sons of the American Revolution, Colonial, Arkwright and Republican Clubs and New England Society of New York City, Master's Lodge, Temple Chapter, and Temple Commandery, F. & A. M.

MUNZIG, GEORGE C.—Portrait Artist, 627 Madison avenue, New York City. Born in Boston, Mass.,

1855. Educated in Boston and New York. (Single.) Studied in Paris, France, in the studio of Julien & Lefevre. Has painted portraits of many well-known and distinguished Americans. Member Lambs' and Fencers' Clubs, and Tavern and St. Botolph Clubs of Boston, Mass.

MURDOCK, HARVEY—Contractor, 140 Nassau street, New York City; residence 11 Montgomery place, Brooklyn. Member Lawyers' and Colonial Clubs, and Marine and Field, Montauk and Crescent Athletic Clubs of Brooklyn.

MURPHY, CHARLES A.—Lawyer, 15 Wall street, New York City; residence 28 Garden place, Brooklyn. Born in Philadelphia, Pa., July 23, 1857. (Married.) Member of the firm of Murphy & Metcalf. Member Lawyers' Club, and Hamilton and Marine and Field Clubs of Brooklyn.

MURPHY, CHARLES F.—Commissioner, Pier A, North River, New York City; residence 322 East 21st street. Born in New York City, June 20, 1858. Educated in public schools. Commissioner of docks and ferries of the City of New York and treasurer of the board. Chairman of the Tammany Hall Democracy of the Sixteenth Assembly District since 1892.

MURPHY, DEAS—Physician, 133 West 47th street, New York City. Educated at the College of Physicians and Surgeons of Columbia University. Member University Athletic, Camera and New York Athletic Clubs, Southern Society and Columbia University Alumni Association.

MURPHY, EDWARD, JR.—Brewer, 35th street and Twelfth avenue, New York City; residence Troy. Born in Troy, Dec. 15, 1836. Educated at St. John's College, Fordham. (Married.) Mayor of Troy, 1875-83; chairman of New York State Democratic Committee, 1887-95; United States Senator, 1893-9. Delegate to National Democratic Conventions of 1880, 1884 and 1888; chairman of the delegation in 1892; delegate-at-large in 1896 and 1900. Member Manhattan Club.

MURPHY, EDWARD H.—Lawyer, 280 Broadway, New York City; residence Point Pleasant Beach, N. J. Born in New York City, Aug. 20, 1844. Educated in public schools, at Columbia College Law School and at University of Pennsylvania Law Department. (Married.) Member of the firm of Murphy & Joyce.

MURPHY, JOHN FRANCIS—Artist, 222 West 23d street, New York City. Born in Oswego, N. Y., Dec. 11, 1853. Educated in common schools. Resident of New York City since 1875. Makes a specialty of landscapes. Executed the painting "Tints of a Vanished Past," which was awarded the second Hallgarten prize in 1885. Member Salmagundi and Catholic Clubs, Century Association, Society of American Artists, American Water Color Society and National Academy of Design.

MURPHY, MICHAEL C.—Commissioner, 55th street and Sixth avenue, New York City; residence 582 Broome street. Born in Killmallock, County Limerick, Ireland, March 7, 1841. Educated in New York City public schools. Served with Ellsworth's Zouaves and with Corcoran's Irish Legion during Civil War and was mustered out with rank of colonel. Represented the First District in the New York State Assembly, 1868-73; State senator, 1884-9. Now president of the Health Board of the City of New York. Member Democratic Club.

MURPHY, ROBERT H. G.—Capitalist, 312 Clinton avenue, Brooklyn. Born in New York City, April 10, 1843. Educated in city public schools. (Married.) Member Union League and Young Republican Clubs.

MURPHY, THOMAS E.—Roman Catholic Clergyman, 30 West 16th street, New York City. Born in New York City, Jan. 27, 1856. Educated in public schools and at St. Francis Xavier College; also studied in Canada, West-Park-on-Hudson, N. Y., and at Woodstock (Md.) College. Member of the Society of Jesus. Professor of Greek and Latin at Georgetown University, 1882-7; vice-president of same, 1891-3; president of St. Francis Xavier College since 1894.

MURPHY, WILLIAM D.—Real Estate and Stocks, 2 Wall street, New York City; residence 40 East 49th street. Born in New York City, Jan. 4, 1859. Educated at Anthon Grammar School and Dolbear's Business College, New York City. (Married.) Member of the Real Estate Exchange. Member Republican, National Arts and Camera Clubs, New York Historical and St. Nicholas Societies, Institute of Civics, Baptist Social Union and Chamber of Commerce.

MURRAY, A. GORDON—Lawyer, 34 Pine street, New York City; residence 72 East 34th street. Educated at Cutler School, New York City, and Princeton University. (Single.) Member University Athletic and Princeton Clubs.

MURRAY, AMBROSE SPENCER, JR.—Lawyer, 22 William street, New York City; residence 247 Fifth avenue. Member of the firm of Murray, Bennett & Ingersoll. Secretary and director Dansville and Mount Morris R. R. Co. and Mohegan Granite Quarrying Co.; director Wyoming Coal Co. Member University and Church Clubs, Century, Trinity College Alumni and Down Town Associations and Association of the Bar of the City of New York.

MURRAY, CHARLES H.—Lawyer, 115 Broadway, New York City; residence 661 Fifth avenue. Born in San Francisco, Cal., Jan. 2, 1855. Educated in New York City. (Married.) Formerly Supervisor Federal Census of 1890, special United States District Attorney, New York City police commissioner and aqueduct commissioner. Member Republican, New York Athletic and Larchmont Yacht Clubs, Society of Foreign Wars, Society of Colonial Wars, Sons of the Revolution, St. Nicholas and Huguenot Societies, Military Order of the Loyal Legion, Society of the War of 1812, and Sons of the American Revolution.

MURRAY, DANIEL ALEXANDER—Instructor, Cornell University, Ithaca; residence 107 Cascadilla place. Degree of Ph.D. Instructor in mathematics at Cornell University.

MURRAY, DAVID—Lawyer, 35 Nassau street, New York City; residence Delhi. Born in Delhi, March 14, 1855. Educated at Delaware Academy, Delhi, and Rutgers College ('76). (Married.) Member of the firm of Murray & Hartridge. Member University Club.

MURRAY, FRANCIS WISNER—Physician and Professor, 22 West 39th street, New York City. Degree of A.B. and M.D. Professor of clinical surgery at Cornell University Medical College; surgeon to St. Luke's and New York Hospitals. Member Rockaway Hunting and Union Clubs and Yale Alumni and Century Associations.

MURRAY, GEORGE WELWOOD—Lawyer, 35 Wall street, New York City; residence 77 Mountain avenue, Montclair, N. J. Born in Edinburgh, Scotland, March 8, 1856. (Son of Welwood Murray.) Educated in New York City public schools and at Columbia College Law School ('76). (Married.) Member of the firm of Howland & Murray. Practicing in New York City since his admission to the Bar in 1877. Director Lake Superior Consolidated Iron Mines, Bessemer Steamship Co., Wisconsin Steel Co. and Lawyers' Surety Co. Member Montclair (N. J.) Club and Association of the Bar of the City of New York.

MURRAY, JAMES B.—Lawyer, 69 Wall street, New York City; residence 238 West 52d street. Educated in the United States, Paris and Dresden, and at Columbia College and Law School. (Single.) Practicing in New York City since his admission to the Bar in 1875. Member City Club, Down Town Association and Association of the Bar of the City of New York.

MURRAY, LINDLEY, JR.—Insurance, 50 Wall street, New York City; residence 6 Clark street, Brooklyn. Born in Brooklyn, Jan. 25, 1846. Educated at Brooklyn Polytechnic Institute. (Married.) President and director Empire City Fire Insurance Co.; vice-president and director Fire Insurance Salvage Corps of Brooklyn; treasurer and director New York Board of Fire Underwriters. Member Hamilton Club and Brooklyn League of Brooklyn.

MURRAY, LINWOOD A.—Electrical and Mechanical Engineer, Tottenville, S. I. Born in Washington, Me., Sept. 3, 1873. Educated at Cornell ('94). (Single.) Secretary and treasurer Murray Mfg. Co. Member Cornell University Club and F. & A. M.

MURRAY, ROBERT D.—Lawyer, 30 Broad street, and 346 Broadway, New York City; residence 47 East 28th street. Born in Gardner, Me., Nov. 3, 1863. Educated at Columbia ('85). (Single.) Director Ann Arbor R. R. Co. Member University, University Athletic and Richmond Hill Golf Clubs, Ardsley Casino of Ardsley-on-Hudson, Association of the Bar of the City of New York and Columbia University Alumni Association.

MURRAY, ROBERT I.—General Agent, 149 Broadway, New York City; residence 593 West End avenue. Born in New York City, June 6, 1851. Educated in private schools of New York City and Flushing. (Married.) Treasurer and ex-president New York Bible Society; New York manager Provident Life and Trust Co. of Philadelphia. Ex-president Life Underwriters' Association. Member Lotos and Underwriters' Clubs.

MURRAY, RUSSELL—Importer, 100 Grand street, New York City; residence 10 West 11th street. Born in Goshen, N. Y., 1852. Educated at Trinity College ('73). (Married.) Director Gould-Mersereau Co. Member Union and University Clubs and Sons of the Revolution.

MURRAY, WILLIAM JOSEPH—Publisher, 21 Park row, New York City; residence 631 West 144th street. Born in New York City, Dec. 6, 1874. Educated at Annunciation School. (Single.) Secretary Biographical Directory Co., publishers of the "Biographical Directory of the State of New York."

MUURLING, IDO JAN REINHART—President, 40 Stone street, New York City; residence 170 Central Park, South. Born in Groningen, Holland, Aug. 19, 1848. Educated at the University of Groningen, Holland. (Married.) Connected with the Farbenfabriken of Elberfeld Co. Formerly consul of the Netherlands at Lisbon, Portugal. Member New York Athletic, Lawyers' and Rockaway Hunting Clubs.

MYER, ALBERT J.—Lawyer, Buffalo; residence Lake View, Erie County. Born in New York City, Aug. 15, 1862. Educated at St. Paul's School, Garden City, L. I., at Hobart College and at Harvard Law School. (Married.) Was regimental adjutant 3d New York Volunteers and major 202d New York Volunteers. Member Buffalo and Saturn Clubs, Army and Navy Club of New York City, Sons of the Revolution, Holland Society, Military Order of the Loyal Legion, Society of Colonial Wars, Harvard Alumni Association, and Naval and Military Order of the Spanish-American War.

MYER, ISAAC—Lawyer and Author, 21 East 60th street, New York City. Born in Philadelphia, Pa., March 5, 1836. Educated in academies and at University of Pennsylvania Law Department. (Married.) Author of "Presidential Power Over Personal Liberty" (1862), "The Waterloo Medal" (1885), "The Qabbalah," "On Dreams by Synesius" (1888), "Scarabs" (1894) and "The Oldest Books in the World." Member Nineteenth Century Club, Philadelphia Cricket, Oriental and Penn Clubs of Philadelphia, Pa., New York Historical, Pennsylvania Historical, New England and Holland Societies, Society of Colonial Wars, Sons of the Revolution, Colonial Order, Numismatic and Antiquarian Society of Philadelphia, Pa., Royal Numismatic Society of Belgium, Society of American Authors, Huguenot Society of America and Metropolitan Museum of Art.

MYERLE, DAVID—Physician, 572 Bedford avenue, Brooklyn. Born in Boston, Mass., May 26, 1855. Educated at Long Island College Hospital. (Married.) Attending physician Bushwick Hospital and Eastern District Industrial School and Home. Was visiting surgeon Eastern District Hospital, and secretary Medical Society of the County of Kings. Member Hanover Club of Brooklyn, Royal Arcanum Outing Club, Nassau Wheelmen, Medical Society of the County of Kings, and Brooklyn Pathological Society.

MYERS, ALBERT—Physician, 122 East Third street, Jamestown; residence Spring and Third streets. Born in Toronto, Canada, Dec. 6, 1866. Educated in Toronto, at Trinity University ('87) and in London, Edinburgh, Paris and Berlin. (Single.) Fellow of Trinity College of Medicine; member College of Physicians and Surgeons of Ontario; visiting surgeon Jamestown Hospital. Member Jamestown Club.

MYERS, ALFRED EDWARDS—Clergyman, 1 West 29th street, New York City; residence 309 West 70th street. Born in New York City, Dec. 29, 1844. Educated at Williams College, Theological Seminary of New Brunswick (N. J.), Princeton Theological Seminary and Union Theological Seminary. (Married.) Clergyman of the Reformed Church in America. Associate pastor of the Collegiate Reformed Church at Fifth avenue and 29th street.

MYERS, ANGELO L.—Retired, 103 East 37th street, New York City, and Stamford, Conn. Born in New York City, 1834. (Married.) Member New York Club.

MYERS, GEORGE LAWRENCE—Banker and Broker, 20 Broad street, New York City; residence 40 West 38th street. Born in New York City, Feb. 22, 1872. (Son of Theodore and Rosalie [Hart] Myers.) Educated at Drisler School and Columbia ('93). (Married Mabel Shaw.) Member of the firm of Theodore W. Myers & Son, members of the New York Stock Exchange. Lieutenant in 12th Regiment, N. G. N. Y. Treasurer and director National Electric Car Lighting Co. Member New York Athletic, Manhattan, Democratic and Rockaway Hunting Clubs, Society of the War of 1812, and Columbia University Alumni Association.

MYERS, THADDEUS HALSTED—Physician and Surgeon, 54 West 50th street, New York City. Born in Yonkers, N. Y., 1859. Educated at Yale ('81) and at College of Physicians and Surgeons of Columbia University (M.D.). (Married Sadie Hawley, 1897.) Attending orthopaedic surgeon St. Luke's Hospital; consulting surgeon New York Orthopaedic Dispensary and Hospital and orthopaedic surgeon New York Foundling Hospital. Member Richmond Hill Golf, Yale and University Clubs and Century Association.

MYERS, THEODORE WALTER—Banker and Broker, 20 Broad street, New York City; residence 21 West 46th street. Born in New York City, Jan. 11, 1814. Educated in private schools. (Married.) Served as captain of the 3d Regiment, Sickle's Brigade, during Civil War; was connected with the N. G. N. Y. for many years and advanced to the rank of captain. Park commissioner, New York City, 1887; comptroller 1888-93. Now member of the firm of Theodore W. Myers & Son and of the New York Stock Exchange. Director National Electric Car Lighting Co., North American Life Insurance Co. and Pycott Manufacturing Co.; trustee Colonial Trust Co. Member Manhattan, New York, New York Yacht, New York Athletic, Rockaway Hunting, Turf and Field and Lawyers' Clubs and American Geographical Society.

MYERS, R. M.—Wholesale Paper Dealer, Commercial Bank, Rochester; residence 4 Arnold Park. Born in Fort Herkimer, N. Y. (Married.) Served in United States Navy during Civil War. Resident of Rochester since 1874. Vice-president and director Commercial Bank; director Rochester Trust and Safe Deposit Co. and Citizens' Light and Power Co. Member Rochester Whist Club.

MYLES, ROBERT CUNNINGHAM—Physician, 46 West 38th street, New York City. Educated at Tulane University Medical Department, New Orleans, La., ('74). (Married.) Assistant surgeon New Amsterdam Eye and Ear Hospital; professor otology and adjunct professor of rhinology and laryngology, New York Polyclinic. Member American Laryngological, Rhinological and Otolological, New York County Medical, New York Pathological and Southern Societies, Mississippi State Medical Association (honorary) and New York Academy of Medicine.

MYNDERSE, WILHELMUS—Lawyer, 54 Wall street, New York City; residence 94 Joralemon street, Brooklyn. Born in Seneca Falls, N. Y., Nov. 25, 1849. Educated at Mount Pleasant Military Academy, Sing Sing, N. Y., Williams College ('71) and Columbia Law School ('75). (Married.) Member of the firm of Butler, Notman, Joline & Mynderse. Director Long Island Historical Society, Brooklyn Hospital, Church Charity Foundation of Long Island, and American and Foreign Marine Insurance Co. Member Grolier, University, Sigma Phi and Church Clubs, Hamilton Club of Brooklyn, and Down Town Association.

N

NADAL, CHARLES C.—Lawyer, 97 Cedar street, New York City; residence 142 East 35th street. Born in Greencastle, Ind., Dec. 8, 1855. Educated in Madison, N. J., and at Columbia Law School. (Married.) Member of the firm of Nadal, Smyth, Carrère & Tralford. Counsel to Fidelity and Casualty Co. Member Democratic, City and Fencers' Clubs, Southern Society and Association of the Bar of the City of New York.

NAEGELE, CHARLES FREDERICK—Portrait and Figure Painter, 318 West 57th street, New York City. Born in Knoxville, Tenn., May 8, 1857. Educated in common schools of Memphis. (Married Lisette F., daughter of Captain Edwin J. Stivers, United States Army.) Studied art in New York City under C. Myles Collier, William Sartain and William M. Chase. Was awarded a prize for designing a medal, commemorative of the Columbus Quadro-Centennial Celebration in New York City, 1892. Has painted the portraits of Peter Cooper, Charles L. Tiffany, Roswell P. Flower, Gen. Joseph D. Bryant, Gen. Edwin A. McAlpin, John W. Gates, William Woodward, Jr., Franklin V. Edson, Waldo Hutchins and many others. Member Salmagundi Club and National Institute.

NAGEL, J. DARWIN—Physician, 61 West 35th street, New York City. Born in Galgocz, Hungary, Nov. 20, 1867. Educated at Lutheran Gymnasium in Budapest, in Vienna and Paris, and at New York College of Physicians and Surgeons. (Married.) Visiting physician French Hospital. Honorary member Société Royale de Medicine in Brussels, Belgium. Member Twilight Club and Academy of Medicine.

NAGLE, JOHN T.—Physician, 21 Park row, New York City; residence 47 East 21st street. Born, 1843. (Son of Garrett and Ellen [Croker] Nagle.) Educated at New York City Public School No. 14, New York Free Academy (now the College of the City of New York) and at New York Ophthalmic Hospital (M.D., '64). Served in a surgical capacity in United States Army during Civil War and was commended for conspicuous bravery in action. Was appointed on the New York City Board of Health in 1869; has served successively as assistant sanitary inspector, sanitary inspector, deputy register of records, register of records, and is now and has been since January, 1898, chief of the Bureau of Municipal Statistics. Member Press, New York Athletic, Camera, Iroquois, Seneca and Sagamore Clubs, Medico-Legal and Medical and Surgical Societies, American Public Health Association, Medical Society of the County of New York, New York Academy of Medicine and Tammany Society.

NAGLE, PERCY—Commissioner, 21 Park row, New York City; residence 6 East 130th street. Born in County Cork, Ireland, about 1861. Educated in public schools in New York City. Appointed street cleaning commissioner in March, 1900. Member Harlem Rowing Club, Tammany Society and others.

NALL, GEORGE A.—Lawyer, 204 Montague street, Brooklyn; residence 5 South Oxford street. Born in Detroit, Mich., March 18, 1868. Educated at Cornell University and Law College. (Married.) Member of the firm of Nall & Hatch. Treasurer Long Island Free Library; director Hardy & Co. Member Cornell Club, and Delta Chi Fraternity.

NAMMACK, CHARLES EDWARD—Physician and Professor, 42 East 29th street, New York City. Born in New York City, June 24, 1856. Educated in public schools, at St. Francis Xavier College and Bellevue Hospital Medical College. (Married.) Formerly examining surgeon for pensions, United States Government, and consulting physician to Gouverneur Hospital, New York City. Now professor of clinical medicine, Cornell University Medical College, New York City; physician to Bellevue Hospital and Out Patient Department of New York Hospital; surgeon of police of New York. Member New York Neurological and County Medical Societies, New York State Medical and American Climatological Associations, and Academy of Medicine.

NANNY, HARRISON W.—Lawyer, Goshen. Born June 27, 1845. Educated at Union College ('68). President of the village of Goshen. Member Union College Alumni Association and Sons of the Revolution.

NAPIER, A. MILTON—Architect, 25 West 26th street, New York City; residence 50 St. John's place, Brooklyn. Born in New York City, Feb. 13, 1870. Educated at the College of the City of New York. (Single.) Director and general manager Tide-Water Building Co. Member Transportation Club, Architectural League and American Institute of Architects (Brooklyn Chapter).

NASH, EDWARD STEPHEN—Secretary, 70 Broad street, New York City; residence 116 West 55th street. Member Union League and Union Clubs and St. Nicholas Society.

NASH, J. BURNET—Lawyer, 30 Broad street, New York City; residence 329 West 83d street. Born in Syracuse, N. Y., June 17, 1872. (Son of Spencer M. and Margaret Barber [Burnet] Nash.) Educated at Syracuse High School, Yale College ('95) and at New York Law School (LL.B.). (Married Cordelia Cogswell Dana of Syracuse.) Member Yale Club.

NASH, JAMES R.—Broker, 35 Wall street, New York City; residence 111 East 37th street. Born in New York City, Oct. 4, 1868. Educated at Trinity College, Williams College ('89) and at Columbia Law School ('93). (Single.) Member of the firm of Nash & Weed. Member University Club and Williams College Alumni Association.

NASH, JOHN MCLEAN—Lawyer, 63 Wall street, New York City; residence 11 West 19th street. Educated at Columbia ('68). Member of the firm of S. P. & J. McL. Nash. Member City, University, Union, University Glee and Church Clubs, Columbia University Alumni and Century Associations and Association of the Bar of the City of New York.

NASH, STEPHEN P.—Lawyer, 63 Wall street, New York City; residence 11 West 19th street. Educated at Columbia. Member of the firm of S. P. & J. McL. Nash. Trustee of Columbia University. Member Church and Barnard Clubs, Century and Down Town Associations, Scientific Alliance, National Academy of Design and Association of the Bar of the City of New York.

NASH, THOMAS—Architect, 64 Cedar street, New York City; residence 11 West 19th street. Educated at Columbia. Member University Club, Union League Club of Brooklyn, Columbia University Alumni and Century Associations and Architectural League.

NASH, WARREN B.—Storage, 68 Broad street, New York City; residence 80 Madison avenue. Born in Brooklyn, N. Y., Dec. 1, 1871. Educated at Yale. Treasurer and director Atlantic Storage Co.; secretary and director Baltic Realty Co. and Brooklyn Wharf Transfer Co.; treasurer Brooklyn Wharf and Warehouse Co. Member Racquet and Tennis, and University Clubs, Country Club of Westchester, and Yale Alumni Association.

NASH, WILLIAM A.—Banker, 11 William street, New York City; residence 19 West 73d street. Born in Hudson, N. Y., Jan. 18, 1840. (Married.) President and director Corn Exchange Bank, Lykens Valley R. R. and Coal Co. and New York and East River Ferry Co.; vice-president and director Audit Co. of New York, Brooklyn Wharf and Warehouse Co., International Elevating Co. and Nassau National Bank of Brooklyn; vice-president and trustee State Trust Co.;

treasurer and director Bensonhurst Co. and Peoria and Bureau Valley R. R. Co.; member of advisory committee Bankers' Life Insurance Co.; director Central Realty Bond and Trust Co., Chicago, Rock Island and Pacific Ry. Co., Hecker-Jones-Jewell Milling Co., Hoboken Ferry Co., Home Life Insurance Co., Lloyds Plate Glass Insurance Co., Manufacturers' Trust Co. of Brooklyn, Queens Insurance Co. of America, and Union Ferry Co. of New York; trustee American Surety Co., Bowery Savings Bank, New York Produce Exchange and Safe Deposit Storage Co., Produce Exchange Trust Co. and Royal Insurance Co. of England. Member Metropolitan, Union League and New York Athletic Clubs, Hamilton Club of Brooklyn, and Ardsley Casino of Ardsley-on-Hudson.

NASH, WILLIS G.—Banker, Albany; residence 55 Lake avenue. Cashier New York State National Bank. Member Fort Orange Club, and Reform Club of New York City.

NASON, CARLETON W.—Manufacturer of Cast Iron Pipe, 71 Beekman street, New York City; residence 118 East 72d street. Born in Woburn, Mass., Aug. 26, 1849. Educated at Columbia. (Widower.) President and director Nason Mfg Co.; trustee New York Orthopaedic Hospital and Dispensary. Member Engineers', Atlantic Yacht, Manuscript and Camera Clubs, American Society of Mechanical Engineers, General Society of Mechanics and Tradesmen and American Geographical Society.

NASON, DANIEL—Lawyer, 55 William street, New York City; residence 47 West 50th street. Born in Kennebunk, Me. Educated at Amherst ('81), Harvard and Columbia. Member of the firm of Jerome & Nason. President Jerome Park R. R. Co. and Eaton Gold Mining Co. Member Union, University, Harvard, Westminster Kennel and Lawyers' Clubs and Association of the Bar of the City of New York.

NAST, THOMAS—Cartoonist, 1168 Broadway, New York City; residence 200 West 106th street. Born in Landau, Germany, Sept. 27, 1840. Came with his parents to the United States at the age or six, and was educated in public schools. While employed in the office of "Leslie's Illustrated Monthly" developed a proficiency for illustrative work. Was traveling artist for American and British newspapers with Garibaldi in Italy, 1860-1. Was connected for many years with "Harper's Weekly" as cartoonist and is well-known as a lecturer, with a specialty for illustrating his address by caricatures drawn on the platform. Member Union League and Players' Clubs.

NATHAN, FREDERICK—Broker, 10 Broad street, New York City; residence 162 West 86th street. Born and educated in New York City. Member of the New York Stock Exchange. Member Union, Manuscript, Social Reform and Barnard Clubs.

NATHAN, GRATZ—Lawyer, 108 Fulton street, New York City; residence 64 West 53d street. Born in New York City, May 25, 1843. Educated at private school and Columbia (A.B., '61 and A.M., '64). (Widower.) Assistant corporation counsel, New York City, 1867-72. Member Democratic Club, Columbia University Alumni Association, St. Nicholas, and Genealogical and Biographical Societies, New York Law Institute and Metropolitan Museum of Art.

NAUMBURG, BERNARD—Lawyer, 32 Liberty street, New York City; residence 124 West 64th street. Born June 29, 1875. Educated in private and public schools, at College of the City of New York, and New York University. (Single.) Instructor College of the City of New York, 1894-8. Connected with the firm of Einstein & Townsend. Member City College Club, Phi Beta Kappa Society, City College Alumni and Phi Beta Kappa Alumni Associations and Association of the Bar of the City of New York.

NAUMBURG, MAX—Wholesale Clothing Merchant, 659 Broadway, New York City; residence 23 West 75th street. Member of the firm of Naumburg, Kraus & Co. Member Reform and Harmonie Clubs and Chamber of Commerce.

NAYLON, DANIEL, JR.—Lawyer, Schenectady; residence 25 Washington avenue. Born in Guilderland, Albany Co., N. Y., Jan. 2, 1860. Educated at Union College. (Married.) Served as district attorney of Schenectady County for six years; also as clerk to Board of Supervisors for five years. Now corporation counsel and city attorney; director Union National Bank. Member Schenectady Club, Exempt Firemen's Association, Knights of Columbus, Independent Order of Red Men and Benevolent and Protective Order of Elks.

NECARSULMER, HENRY—Lawyer, 38 Park row, New York City; residence 109 East 70th street. Born in New York City. Educated at the College of the City of New York and at Columbia College and Law School. (Single.) Member Harmonie Club, Liederkranz and Association of the Bar of the City of New York.

NEEDHAM, CHARLES AUSTIN—Artist, 145 East 23d street, New York City. Born in Buffalo, N. Y., Oct. 30, 1844. Studied at Art Students' League and under August Will in New York City. (Married Fannie Montross of New York City, 1868.) Received honorable mention and medal at Atlanta (Ga.) Exposition, 1895, and first honorable mention at New York State Agricultural Exposition held at Syracuse in 1898. Member National Arts Club and New York Water Color Society.

NEELY, F. TENNYSON—Publisher, 114 Fifth avenue, New York City; residence 58 Irving place. Born in Quincy, Fla., Sept. 10, 1863. Educated at Indiana State University. (Single.) Member Lotos, National Arts and New York Clubs.

NEELY, WILLIAM—Dry Goods Merchant, 47 Lispenard street, New York City; residence New Haven, Conn. Member of the firm of Wm. Neely & Co., of New Haven. Member Lambs', Manhattan and Lotos Clubs.

NEERGAARD, CHARLES F.—Merchant, 118 Duane street, New York City; residence 125 Columbia Heights, Brooklyn. Born in Brooklyn, June 7, 1875. Educated at Yale. (Single.) Member Yale Club, and Marine and Field Club of Brooklyn.

NEERGAARD, FREDERICK A.—Shoe Merchant, 130 Duane street, New York City; residence 125 Columbia Heights, Brooklyn. Born and educated in New York City. (Married.) President Powell Bros. Shoe Co. Member Hamilton and Marine and Field Clubs of Brooklyn, and Chamber of Commerce.

NEFTEL, WILLIAM B.—Physician, 16 East 48th street, New York City. Born in Riga, Russia, Sept. 22, 1830. Educated in St. Petersburg; graduated from college in 1847, and from medical school, with honors, in 1852; was sent by the Russian Government to continue his studies for three years in Germany, France and England. (Married Nadine, Princess of Georgia, daughter of the Czarewitch Elias.) Served as surgeon to the Imperial Guard during the Crimean War as physician to the Military Hospital of St. Petersburg, and as a member of a scientific expedition to Central Asia. Author of "Galvano-Therapeutics," "Nervous Diseases of Women" and other contributions to neuropathology. Member Pathological, American Geographical and Boston Gynecological Societies, New York Academy of Medicine, American Museum of Natural History and other American and foreign medical and scientific associations.

NEIL, EDWARD WALLACE—Protestant Episcopalian Clergyman, 14 East 109th street, New York City. Born in Newark, N. J. Deacon, 1880; priest, 1882; assistant rector of St. Philip's Church at Garrisons, N. Y., 1881-3; founded the Church of St. Edward the Martyr, New York City, in 1883, and has since been its rector.

NEILL, JAMES—Actor, 16 Gramercy Park, New York City. Born in Savannah, Ga., Sept. 29, 1860. Educated at Carolina Military Institute and University of Georgia. (Single.) Has been acting since 1882. Formerly proprietor Neill Co. for five years. Member Players' and Lambs' Clubs.

NEILSON, HENRY A.—Manager and Manufacturer, 156 Fifth avenue, New York City; residence New Brunswick, N. J. Born in New York City, June 9, 1854. Educated at Rutgers College. (Married.) Manager New York office of Thomas Strahan & Co.; trustee New Brunswick Savings Institution. Served as a member of the New Brunswick Common Council, 1894-6. Member Union Club of New Brunswick, Delta Phi Fraternity and Sons of the Revolution.

NELAN, CHARLES—Cartoonist, Herald square, New York City. Born in Akron, Ohio, April 10, 1859. Educated at Buchtel College; studied art at National Academy of Design, New York City. (Married Margaret A. Kennedy.) Began cartoon work on Cleveland "Press," 1888. Now connected with the New York "Herald." Member Cleveland Art Club (secretary, 1895).

NELLANY, MICHAEL—Manufacturer, Buffalo; residence 268 Georgia street. Born in Ireland, May, 1840. Educated in Buffalo. (Widower.) President Homestead Savings and Loan Association; director German-American Bank. Member Buffalo Park Board.

NELSON, ABRAHAM—Lawyer, 235 Broadway, New York City; residence 137 West 82d street. Born in New York City, Jan. 22, 1864. Educated at College of the City of New York and Columbia College. (Married.) Examining counsel Lawyers' Title Insurance Co. Member of the Saturday and Sunday Hospital Collection. Member Democratic and Progress Clubs.

NELSON, CHARLES ALEXANDER—Librarian, 116th street and Morningside Heights, New York City; residence 510 West 143d street. Born in Calais, Me., April 14, 1839. (Son of Israel Potter and Jane [Capen] Nelson.) Educated at Harvard (A.B., '60 and A.M., '63). (Married, July 25, 1872, at Newbern, N. C., Emma, daughter of Benson and Eliza [Quick] Norris of Slatterville Springs, N. Y.) Began library work in 1854. Assistant in Harvard Library, 1857-60 and 1863-4; served as civil engineer in Quartermaster's Department, United States Army, 1864-5; engaged in literary work, 1866-79; professor of Greek at Drury College, Springfield, Mo., 1879-80; catalogue librarian at the Astor Library, New York City, 1881-8; librarian at Howard Memorial Library, New Orleans, La., 1888-91; assistant at Newberry Library, Chicago, Ill., 1891-3; reference librarian at Columbia University since 1893. Author of "Waltham, Past and Present" (1879) and "The Manuscripts and Early Printed Books Bequeathed to the Long Island Historical Society by S. B. Durycia" (1897); also of various contributions to the "Library Journal." Compiled and edited the "Catalogue of the Astor Library" (four vols., 1886-8); also edited the "Catalogue of the Avery Memorial Library" (1895). Secretary finance committee of the trustees of Leland University, New Orleans, La. Charter member, ex-president and ex-secretary New York Library Club; member and ex-secretary American Library Association; also member Harvard Club, New York State Library Association, Booksellers' League, Bibliographical Society of England and America, Chicago (Ill.) Literary Club and American Historical Association.

NELSON, EDWARD BEVERLY—Educator, Rome; residence 711 Madison street. Born in Poughkeepsie, N. Y., May 26, 1850. Educated at Harvard ('73). (Married.) Principal Central New York Institution for Deaf Mutes. Member Teugega Country and Rome Clubs, Reform Club, American Numismatic and Archaeological Society and Sons of Oneida of New York City, Fort Schuyler, Arcanum and Masonic Clubs and Oneida County Historical Association of Utica, National Geographic Society of Washington, D. C., American Geographical Society, Western New York Harvard Alumni, Central New York Harvard Alumni, Harvard Athletic and American Canoe Associations, American Mechanics, Royal Arcanum, Sons of the American Revolution, Knights Templar and a thirty-second degree Mason.

NELSON, HENRY LOOMIS—Journalist, 331 Pearl street, New York City; residence New Rochelle. Born in New York City, Jan. 5, 1846. Educated at Williams College ('67) and at Columbia (A.M. and LL.B.). Admitted to the Bar in 1869. (Married Ida Frances Wyman.) Editor-in-chief of "Harper's Weekly." Member University, Reform and Players' Clubs and Century Association.

NELSON, HORACE O.—Cashier and Insurance, 56 South street, New York City; residence 71 Franklin place, Flushing, L. I. Born in Brooklyn, N. Y., Sept. 7, 1866. Educated in private schools. (Married.) Secretary William F. Wall Rope Co.; director New York and Long Island Construction Co.; ex-secretary and treasurer Lothair Bank Note Co. Member Flushing Golf Club.

NELSON, ROBERT W.—Manufacturer, 27 William street and 34 Park row, New York City; residence Giffords, S. I. President and director Thorne Type Setting Machine Co.; general manager and director American Typefounders' Co. Member Richmond County Country and Reform Clubs and Aldine Association.

NELSON, STUART G.—Banker, 18 Broadway, New York City; residence 33 East 81st street. (Married.) Vice-president and director Seaboard National Bank; trustee New York Security and Trust Co. and United States Savings Bank. Member Union League, Lotos, New York Athletic and Lawyers' Clubs, New England Society and Chamber of Commerce.

NELSON, WILLIAM—Real Estate, 7 Chambers street, New York City; residence 5 East 86th street. Born in New York City, Sept. 6, 1829. Educated in New York City. (Married.) Member Knickerbocker Athletic Club, American Geographical Society, New York Produce and Maritime Exchanges, American Museum of Natural History, Metropolitan Museum of Art and New York Botanical Gardens.

NESBITT, DANIEL A. (Captain)—Iron Merchant, 29 Broadway, New York City; residence Nyack. Member Colonial, New York Athletic, Republican, Mendelssohn Glee and Church Clubs, Crescent Athletic Club of Brooklyn, Scientific Alliance, Metropolitan Museum of Art and American Museum of Natural History.

NESBITT, JOHN H.—Physician, 212 West 45th street, New York City. Born in New York City, Dec. 7, 1853. Educated at the New York College of Physicians and Surgeons. (Single.) Was surgeon of Police Department, New York City. Member New York Athletic and Colonial Clubs, Medical Society of Greater New York and New York Surgical and New York County Medical Societies.

NESMITH, HENRY E., JR.—Storage, 28 South street, and Lumber Merchant, 220 Lewis street, New York City; residence 265 Washington avenue, Brooklyn. President and director Dittman, Overlay Co. and Nesmith & Constantine Co. Member Hamilton, Crescent Athletic and Oxford Clubs of Brooklyn.

NEU, JACOB—Lawyer, 303 Washington street, Brooklyn. Born in New York City, April 7, 1855. Educated in public schools; read law in the office of John W. Lawton, and was admitted to the Bar in 1879. Member of the firm of Lawton & Neu until 1891; Civil Justice of the First District, 1891-9; was candidate for sheriff on the Republican ticket in 1899. Now member of the firm of Neu & Reid. Member Arion Society, United German Singing Societies, Brooklyn Lodge No. 22, Order of Elks, Mystic Shrine, Royal Arcanum, Knights of Honor, Bushwick Club, Liederkrantz and other organizations.

NEUMANN, WILLIAM FREDERICK—Physician and Professor, 116th street and Morningside Heights, New York City; residence 114 East 59th street. Degree of M.D. Assistant in bacteriology at Columbia University in the City of New York.

NEUSSELL, C. E.—Dry Goods Merchant, 15 Greene street, New York City; residence 451 West End avenue. Born in Bahia, Brazil, March 30, 1862. Educated in Bremen, Germany. (Married.) Member of the firm of John Menke & Co.

NEVERS, GEORGE G.—Sugar Broker, 101 Wall street, New York City; residence 208 Mount Pleasant avenue, Newark, N. J. Member of the firm of Nevers & Callaghan. Vice-president and director Evening Star Mining Co.; director Morning Star Consolidated Mining Co. and Ward Consolidated Mining Co. Member North End Club of Newark, Down Town Association, New York Botanical Gardens and Metropolitan Museum of Art.

NEVIUS, JOHN H. C.—Hangings, 420 Broome street, and Jewelry, 33 Union square, West, New York City; residence 310 West End avenue. Member of the firm of Nevius & Haviland. Member Reform Club, Good Government Club of the Nineteenth Assembly District, and Citizens' Union.

NEW, CLARENCE HERBERT—Hydraulic Engineer and Publisher, 1267 Broadway, New York City; residence 459 Waverly avenue, Brooklyn. Born in Brooklyn, 1862. Educated at Betts Military Academy in Stamford, Conn., and at Brooklyn Polytechnic Institute. Toured the world in 1880; was the sole surviving passenger of wreck of the "Eric the Red" on Cape Otway reef, southern coast of Australia, Sept. 5, 1880; with Ward Steamship Line, 1881; secretary of the T. New Mfg Co., 1882-93; traveled in South America, 1884; made a second tour of the world, 1891; magazine writer and novelist, 1893-5; associate editor of "Truth," 1895; manager and editor "New York and London Literary Press"; manager publishing department of Harry Bentz American Advertising Agency, 1898. Director Frank L. Fisher Co. Formerly member Lawyers' Club, Union League Club of Brooklyn, Melbourne (Australia) Club, and social clubs in Sydney, Calcutta and London.

NEWBOLD, FREDERIC R.—Poughkeepsie. Born in New York City, 1853. (Single.) Member Knickerbocker, Seawanhaka-Corinthian Yacht and Hudson River Ice Yacht Clubs, and Ardsley Casino of Ardsley-on-Hudson.

NEWCOMB, HORATIO VICTOR—Capitalist, 683 Fifth avenue, New York City. Born in Louisville, Ky., July 26, 1844. Educated in Louisville; also studied in England and France. Engaged in commission business in New York City for many years as a member of the firm of Warren, Newcomb & Co. After the death of his father, who had been president of the Louisville and Nashville R. R. Co., became a director, soon after vice-president, and later president of that company; retired because of ill-health in 1880. Organized, in 1880, and was for several years president of the United States National Bank of New York City. Member Union, New York Athletic, Suburban Riding and Driving, Calumet and Tuxedo Clubs, American Museum of Natural History and Metropolitan Museum of Art.

NEWCOMB, JAMES EDWARD—Physician and Instructor, 118 West 69th street, New York City. Degrees of A.B. and M.D. Clinical instructor in laryngology, Cornell University Medical College, New York City.

NEWCOMB, JAMES G.—Oils and Cooperage, 26 Broadway, New York City; residence 267 West 79th street. Born in Cleveland, Ohio, Sept. 10, 1849. Educated in Cleveland. (Married.) Has been with Standard Oil Co. for about thirty years, and now manager of one of the largest departments of that company. Member Ohio Society.

NEWCOMBE, CHARLES M.—Broker, 15 Wall street, New York City; residence 157 West 81st street. Born in New York City, 1864. Educated in public schools and at College of City of New York. (Married.) Member of the firm of Wm. D. Barbour & Co., and of the New York Stock Exchange. Member Church Club.

NEWELL, EDWARD A.—Men's Furnishings, 246 Fifth avenue, New York City; residence 140 West 21st street. Born in Cheshire, Conn., Feb. 4, 1838. Educated at Cheshire Episcopal Academy. Present business established in 1863. Director Retail Dealers' Protective Association; trustee North River Savings Bank. Member Republican, Lotos and Twilight Clubs and New England Society.

NEWELL, EDWARD J.—Lawyer, 32 Broadway, New York City; residence 140 West 21st street. Born in New York City, Aug. 3, 1863. Educated at New York University, University of Leipzig, Germany, and Columbia Law School. (Married.) In journalism for several years; connected with the New York "Herald" in Paris, France, the "Morning News" and other newspapers. Author of several historical works and novels, and contributor to "American Cyclopaedia" and other works of reference. Member Alpha Delta Phi, Democratic and New York Press Clubs, Liederkranz and New York Graduate Association.

NEWELL, ROBERT HENRY—Author, 128 First place, Brooklyn. Born in New York City, Dec. 13, 1836. Educated in common schools. On editorial staff of the New York "Mercury," 1858-62, and of the New York "World," 1869-74; edited for a time "Hearth and Home," a weekly journal. Author of "Orpheus C. Kerr Papers," being four volumes of humorous letters on the Civil War, "The Palace Beautiful, and Other Poems," "The Cloven Foot," "Versatilities," "The Walking Doll," "There Was Once a Man," "Studies in Stanzas" and many other works.

NEWKIRK, WARREN B.—Printer, 20 Vesey street, New York City; residence 80 Grove street. Member Sahnagundi and Dry Goods Clubs and Sons of the Revolution.

NEWLAND, DAVID J.—Lawyer, 20 Broad street, New York City; residence 55 East 76th street. Director Manhattan Tunnel Ry. Co. Member Delta Kappa Epsilon Club, Baptist Social Union and Association of the Bar of the City of New York.

NEWMAN, JARED TREMAN—Lawyer. Savings Bank Building, Ithaca. Born in Enfield, Tompkins Co., N. Y., Nov. 4, 1855. Educated at Cornell (Ph.B.) and Union College Law Department (LL.B.) (Married.) Member of the firm of Newman & Blood. Trustee Cornell University and Auburn Theological Seminary. Member Delta Upsilon Fraternity.

NEWMAN, JOHN L.—Banker, Cohoes; residence 258 State street, Albany. Born and educated in Albany. (Married.) President National Bank of Cohoes. Member Fort Orange Club, Historical and Art Society of Albany, Sons of the Revolution, and Military Order of the Loyal Legion.

NEWMAN, RANDOLPH M.—Lawyer and Real Estate, 149 Broadway, New York City; residence 121 West 111th street. Born in Jersey City, N. J., Feb. 10, 1878. Educated at New York Law School ('98) and New York University Law School ('99). (Single.) Vice-president Metropolitan Trading Co.; treasurer Young Men's League of New York City; director Santa Emilia Copper Co. Member City, Clef and Students' Clubs and New York Preparatory School Alumni Association.

NEWMAN, ROBERT—Physician, 148 West 73d street, New York City. Born in Koenigsberg, Germany. Son of Gustav Lebrecht and Rosalie [Molken-tin] Newman. (Married Ada Blackwell, 1877.) Took part in the war for liberty, fighting in the barricades, and later as adjutant of the Battalion Homburg, in the Palatinate. Being defeated, Adjutant Newman accompanied General Sigel's column to Switzerland, and later emigrated to America. Became a pupil of Dr. Joseph Kammerer, gynecologist to German Dispensary in New York City; attended lectures at New York Medical College; received degree of M.D. in 1863 at Long Island College Hospital and at Bellevue Hospital Medical College in 1869. Was commissioned State Volunteer surgeon, going to the front several times by order of the Governor. Physician to Northern Dispensary, 1863-5; prospector and chief of surgical clinic, Long Island College Hospital, 1864-7; sanitary inspector, 1864-6, in council of hygiene and public health; district physician New York Lying-in-Asylum, 1865-70; sanitary inspector Metropolitan Board of Health, 1866-7; surgeon Northwestern Dispensary, 1875-89. Consulting surgeon to Hackensack Hospital since 1888, to Bayonne Hospital since 1889, to Home for Aged and Infirm at Yonkers since 1891. to German Dispensary (West Side), New York City since 1893, and to the McDonough Memorial Hospital. Has made a special study of electrolysis, is the originator of the electrodes bearing his name, and is author of many papers and contributions to medical literature on this and kindred subjects. Member Medico-Legal (founder and its first vice-president), New York Pathological, Boston Gynecological, New York Electric, Medico-Historical, New York German Medical, Berlin Cremation, Ulster County Medical and Northwestern Medical and Surgical Societies, Medical Society of the State of New York, Bellevue Hospital Medical College Alumni, Long Island College Alumni and New York Physicians' Mutual Aid Associations and many other national, state and local medical organizations.

NEWTON, HOMER G.—Banker, Sherburne. Born in Sherburne, Oct. 25, 1835. Educated at Yale. (Married.) Served as assistant surgeon to 131st Regiment, New York Volunteers, during Civil War, and later as surgeon to Brooklyn Eye and Ear Hospital. Now vice-president and director Sherburne National Bank.

NEWTON, RICHARD HEBER—Protestant Episcopalian Clergyman, 781 Madison avenue, New York City. Born in Philadelphia, Pa., Oct. 31, 1840. (Son of Rev. Richard and Lydia [Gretorex] Newton.) Educated at University of Pennsylvania and Philadelphia Divinity School. Degree of D.D. from Union University. (Married Mary E., daughter of Charles S. Lewis of Philadelphia.) Ordained deacon in the Protestant Episcopal Church in 1862; became his father's assistant in St. Paul's Church, and afterwards in the Church of the Epiphany, Philadelphia; accepted the charge of Trinity Church, Sharon Springs, N. Y., in 1863, but returned to Philadelphia and became the rector of St. Paul's Church in 1866. In 1869 he was called to the Anthon Memorial Church, now known as All Souls' Church in New York City. Author of "The Morals of Trade" (1876), "Womanhood" (1880), "Studies of Jesus" (1880), "Right and Wrong Uses of the Bible" (1883), "The Book of the Beginnings" (1884), "Philistinism" (1885), "Social Studies" (1886) and "Church and Creed" (1891); also many articles in magazines and periodical literature.

NEWTON, WILLIAM L.—Lumber Merchant and Manufacturer, 528 Union street, Brooklyn; residence 839 Park place. Born in Brooklyn, 1871. Educated at Brooklyn Polytechnic Institute and Yale ('93). (Married Florence L. Brown.) Secretary and treasurer A. J. Newton Co. Member Hamilton Club, and Lawrence Club of Lawrence, L. I.

NICHOLAS, GEORGE S., JR.—Importer of Wines, 43 Beaver street, New York City; residence 44 Park avenue. Born in New York City, Dec. 22, 1870. Educated at Columbia ('92). (Single.) Member Union, Westchester Golf, Youantakah Golf and New York Athletic Clubs, Psi Upsilon Fraternity and Columbia University Alumni Association.

NICHOLAS, HARRY I.—Stock Broker, 11 Wall street, New York City; residence Babylon, L. I. Member of the firm of H. T. Nicholas & Co., and of the New York Stock Exchange. Director Madison Square Garden Co. Member Metropolitan, Union, Lawyers', Knickerbocker, South Side Sportsmen's and New York Yacht Clubs, and South Shore Country Club of West Islip, L. I.

NICHOLS, ACOSTA—Banker, 27 Pine street, New York City; residence 36 East 31st street. Born in Brooklyn, N. Y., June 19, 1872. Educated at Brooklyn Polytechnic Institute ('89) and Williams College ('93). (Single.) Member of the firm of Spencer Trask & Co., members of the New York Stock Exchange. Treasurer and director New York and Ottawa R. R. Co.; director Ottawa and New York R. R. Co., Mexican Mineral Ry. Co. and Mexican Coal and Coke Co. Member Polytechnic and Calumet Clubs, St. Nicholas, Kappa Alpha, Long Island Historical and New York Zoological Societies, Sons of the Revolution, Society of Foreign Wars, Williams Alumni Association, Metropolitan Museum of Art and 7th Regiment, N. G. N. Y.

NICHOLS, CHARLES M.—Banker, 95 Liberty street, New York City; residence 287 Quincy street, Brooklyn. Born in Providence, R. I., Nov. 22, 1847. Educated in Brooklyn. (Married.) Family homestead in Providence, R. I., built in 1620. Was engaged in mercantile business until 1890. Successfully financed the building of the New Jersey Electric Railroad from Singua to Hoboken. Member Montauk, Union League and Aurora Grata Clubs and Long Island Wheelmen.

NICHOLS, EDWARD LEAMINGTON—Physicist, Cornell University, Ithaca; residence 5 South avenue. Born in England (of American parents), Sept. 14, 1854. Educated at Cornell ('75) and at the Universities of Leipzig, Berlin and Göttingen. Degrees of B.S. and Ph.D. (Married Ida Preston of South Dover, N. Y., 1881.) Professor of physics and chemistry at Central University of Kentucky, 1881-3; professor of physics and astronomy at University of Kansas, 1883-7; professor of physics at Cornell University since 1887. Founder and editor-in-chief of the "Physical Review." Author of "A Laboratory Manual of Physics and Applied Electricity" (two vols., 1894), "Lectures on the Galvanometer" (1894), "The Elements of Physics" (three vols., 1896) and "The Outlines of Physics" (1897); also of numerous memoirs on physical science. Fellow American Association for the Advancement of Science, American Institute of Electrical Engineers, American Physical Society and other scientific organizations; member Reform Club of New York City, Town and Gown Club and Delta Upsilon Fraternity.

NICHOLS, EFFINGHAM H.—Lawyer, 47 Cedar street, New York City; residence 620 Fifth avenue. Educated at Yale. Member Union League and Church Clubs, Yale Alumni Association and National Academy of Design.

NICHOLS, ERICKSON NORMAN—Broker, 15 Broad street, New York City; residence 52 East 78th street. Born and educated in New York City. (Married.) Served in First United States Volunteer Cavalry, ("Rough Riders") in Spanish-American War. Master of hounds of Richmond County Hunt. Member Union, New York Athletic, Richmond County Country and Staten Island Polo Clubs and Squadron "A," N. G. N. Y.

NICHOLS, GEORGE FREDERIC—Merchant, Plattsburgh. Born in Plattsburgh, Jan. 6, 1835. (Son of John and Julia [Lynde] Nichols.) Educated in Plattsburgh. (Married Emma C., daughter of Samuel P. Bonner of Montreal, Canada.) Entered army as major of 118th New York Volunteers, 1861; promoted to lieutenant-colonel and later to colonel; wounded at battle of Drewry Bluff and later at capture of Fort Harrison; brevetted brigadier-general for gallantry in the field. Warden and vestryman of Trinity Church, Plattsburgh, for the past thirty years. Member Military Order of the Loyal Legion, Sons of the Revolution and Society of the War of 1812.

NICHOLS, GEORGE L.—Lawyer, 67 Wall street, New York City; residence 66 East 56th street. Born in Brooklyn, N. Y., May 9, 1860. Educated at Williams College (A.B., '81, and A.M.) and Columbia College Law School (LL.B., '83). (Married Mary Chickering.) Member of the firm of Masten & Nichols. Served as a civil service commissioner of the City of Brooklyn for four years. Vice-president and director Chickering & Sons; director Phenix National Bank, Lalance & Grosjean Mfg Co., Tinplate Decorating Co. and Woodhaven Water Supply Co. Member Metropolitan, Union, University and Grolier Clubs, Hamilton Club of Brooklyn, St. Nicholas, New York Historical, Zoological, Long Island Historical and New York Geographical Societies, Down Town, Williams College Alumni, American Bar and New York State Bar Associations, Sons of the Revolution, Society of the War of 1812, Society of Foreign Wars, Metropolitan Museum of Art, Botanical Gardens, American Museum of Natural History and Association of the Bar of the City of New York.

NICHOLS, HARRY P.—Civil Engineer, 280 Broadway, New York City; residence 5 East 41st street. Born in Middletown, Conn., Aug. 3, 1867. Educated at Columbia. (Married.) Director Nassau Stamp Co. Connected with Engineering Bureau in Department of Finance, City of New York.

NICHOLS, JOHN A.—Lawyer, 36 Wall street, New York City; residence 437 Clinton avenue, Brooklyn. Born in Richmond County, N. Y., August 28, 1831. Educated at a private school and at Newark (N. J.) Academy. Honorary degree of A.M. conferred by Kenyon College. (Married.) Was chairman of the Republican County (Kings) Committee, 1881, quarantine commissioner for twelve years and president of the Brooklyn Warehouse and Storage Co. until 1895. Member of the firm of Nichols & Bacon. Member Union League and Lawyers' Clubs, and Church Club of the Diocese of Long Island.

NICHOLS, O. F.—Civil Engineer, 84 Broadway, Brooklyn; residence 42 Gates avenue. Born in Newport, R. I., July 29, 1845. Educated at Rensselaer Polytechnic Institute. (Married.) Chief-engineer of the Brooklyn Elevated Railroad, 1888-92, and general manager and chief engineer of same, 1892-5. Now principal assistant engineer new East River Bridge; president Department of Engineering, Brooklyn Institute of Arts and Sciences. Member Railroad and Engineers' (secretary) Clubs, Church Club of the Diocese of Long Island, American Geographical Society (Fellow), American Society of Civil Engineers, American Society of Mechanical Engineers and Institution of Civil Engineers.

NICHOLS, STARR HOYT—Retired, 59 Liberty street, New York City; residence 17 West 30th street. Born in Bethel, Conn., Nov. 16, 1834. Educated at Yale ('54). (Widower.) Vice-consul at Bremen, 1856-8. Was pastor Congregational Church, Mansfield, Ohio, New England Church, Chicago, Vine Street Congregational Church, Cincinnati; ex-president Delaware and Anthracite R. R. Co. Member University and Nineteenth Century Clubs and Yale Alumni Association.

NICHOLS, WILLIAM E.—Broker, 15 Wall street, New York City; residence 117 West 58th street, and East Haddam, Conn. Born in New York City, Aug. 27, 1862. Educated at Seabury Institute in Saybrook, Conn., at Yale ('86), and studied abroad, 1896-8. (Married.) Was founder and director East Haddam Public Library; first president of Connecticut Amateur Press Association; editor of "The Favorite," and contributor to various periodicals. Now vice-president and director New York Net and Twine Co.; trustee Columbia Trust Co. Member Lotos, Lawyers', Delta Kappa Epsilon and National Arts Clubs, Crescent Athletic Club of Brooklyn, and Yale Alumni Association.

NICHOLS, WILLIAM H., JR.—Mining Engineer, 11 Broadway, New York City; residence 304 Clinton avenue, Brooklyn. Born Sept. 14, 1873. Educated at Brooklyn Polytechnic Institute and Columbia University. (Married.) Mining engineer Nichols Chemical Co. President San Carlos Copper Co. Member Crescent Athletic Club of Brooklyn, and American Institute of Mining Engineers.

NICHOLS, WILLIAM S.—Broker, 35 Broad street, New York City; residence 369 Fifth avenue. Director Hertzer Bros. Member New York Stock Exchange and of the Union League Club, New England Society, Metropolitan Museum of Art and National Academy of Design.

NICHOLSON, JOHN E.—Builder, 644 Hudson street, New York City; residence 311 West 89th street. Educated at Princeton. Member of the firm of Nicholson & Galloway. Member Princeton Club, General Society of Mechanics and Tradesmen and Building Trades Association.

NICOLL, BENJAMIN—Mining Engineer, 68 Wall street, New York City; residence Morristown, N. J. Educated at Princeton ('77). President and director Mount Pleasant Mining Co. Member University, Racquet and Tennis, Meadow Brook Hunt and Princeton Clubs, Down Town Association and American Institute of Mining Engineers.

NICOLL, DE LANCEY—Lawyer, 31 Nassau street, New York City; residence 123 East 38th street. Born in Bayside, Long Island, N. Y., June 24, 1854. Educated at St. Paul's School, Princeton College ('74) and Columbia Law School ('76). (Married Maud Churchill.) Member of the firm of Nicoll, Anable & Lindsay. Assistant district attorney, New York County, 1885-7; district attorney, 1891-3. Member Constitutional Convention of 1894. Member Tuxedo, Metropolitan, Union, Lawyers', University, Democratic, and Racquet and Tennis Clubs, Down Town Association and many others.

NICOLL, HENRY DENTON—Physician, 51 East 57th street, New York City. Educated at Williams College. Member Mendelssohn Glee and City Clubs, Williams College Alumni and Century Associations, Presbyterian Union and Sons of the Revolution.

NICOLL, JAMES CRAIG—Artist, 51 West Tenth street, New York City. Born in New York City, Nov. 22, 1847. Educated at Quackenbos School. (Widower.) Was secretary of the International Jury of Awards on Paintings at World's Columbian Exposition, Chicago, 1893. Has exhibited at all the principal expositions and has been awarded many prizes. Was one of the founders, and for ten years secretary, of the American Water Color Society. Member New York Etching Club, National Academy of Design (ex-secretary), Century Association, Artists' Aid (secretary) and Artists' Fund (ex-president) Societies and other organizations.

NICOLL, MATTHIAS—Marine Insurance, 51 Wall street, New York City; residence 119 West 48th street. Born in Shelter Island, October, 1841. Educated at Williams College ('61). (Widower.) Vice-president Keokuk and Hamilton Bridge Co.; auditor Atlantic Mutual Insurance Co.; trustee Atlantic Trust Co. Member University Club.

NICOLL, WILLIAM C.—Marine Underwriter, 52 New street, New York City; residence Shelter Island, Suffolk County. Born in New York City, Oct. 26, 1829. Educated at New York University. (Married.) President and director Central Tunnel Co.; director Underground R. R. Co. Member St. Nicholas Society.

NICUM, JOHN—Educator and Lutheran Clergyman, Rochester. Born in Winnenden, Germany, June 6, 1851. (Son of John and Margareth [Schaefer] Nicum.) Educated in Pennsylvania, at Mühlenberg College and at Philadelphia Theological Seminary (D.D., '93). (Married Josephine, daughter of Rev. D. Tanner of Tremont, Pa.) Held pastorates at Frackville, Pa., 1876-8, Frankford, Pa., 1878-80, and at Syracuse, N. Y., 1880-7. Since 1887, pastor at St. John's Lutheran Church, Rochester; president of Wagner College since 1894. Secretary and treasurer Oriental Industrial and Trading Co. Served as secretary of the General Council of the Lutheran Church in North America 1886-97, and as president of the Board of Home Missions, Lutheran General Council, 1888-97. Author of "History of the New York Ministerium," "Confessional History of the Lutheran Church in the United States," also of treatises on the laws of the State of New York relating to churches. Translated Wolf's "The Lutherans in America." Frequent contributor to religious journals. Member American Society of Church History.

NIEHAUS, CHARLES HENRY—Sculptor, 148 West 36th street, New York City; residence 32 West 112th street. Born in Cincinnati, Ohio, Jan. 24, 1855. Educated in Cincinnati (Ohio) public schools. (Single.) Member Players' and National Arts Clubs, National Sculpture and Ohio Societies and Architectural League.

NILES, ARTHUR L.—Stock Broker, 35 Broad street, New York City; residence 315 West 80th street. Member of the firm of L. H. Niles & Co., and of the New York Stock Exchange. Member Sons of the Revolution.

NILES, JOHN BARRON—Stock Broker, 66 Broadway, New York City; residence Bedford Park. Born in Cohoes, N. Y., 1866. (Single.) Member of the firm of Niles Brothers, members of the New York Stock Exchange. Member Republican, New York Athletic and Calumet Clubs, and Ardsley Casino of Ardsley-on-Hudson.

NILES, LUCIEN H.—Stock Broker, 35 Broad street, New York City; residence 18 East 74th street. Educated at Brown. Member of the firm of L. H. Niles & Co., and of the New York Stock Exchange. Member Brown University Alumni Association.

NILES, NATHANIEL—Lawyer, 140 Nassau street, New York City; residence Madison, N. J. Member Union League Club and New England and Authors' Societies.

NILES, ROBERT L.—Stock Broker, 66 Broadway, New York City; residence Fordham Heights. Born in New York City, 1857. Educated at Stephens Institute. (Married.) Member of the firm of Niles Brothers, and of the New York Stock Exchange. Member New York Athletic and Republican Clubs, New England Society and Society of Colonial Wars.

NILES, WILLIAM W.—Dentist, 172 East 116th street, New York City. Born in Binghamton, N. Y., 1868. Educated at New York and Baltimore Dental Colleges; degree of D.D.S. (Married.) Associated with Dr. Ferdinand Hasbrouck, 1890-4; since 1894 in general practice of dentistry. Member Harlem and Congregational Clubs, Odontological and First District Dental Societies and Harlem Wheelmen.

NILES, WILLIAM WATSON—Lawyer, 11 Wall street, New York City; residence Bedford Park. Born in West Fairlee, Vt., March 26, 1822. (Son of Hon. William and Relief [Barron] Niles.) Educated at Bradford (Vt.) Academy, Newbury (Vt.) Seminary and Dartmouth College ('45); studied law and was admitted to the Bar in Indiana. Practicing in New York

City for almost fifty years. Member of the firm of Niles & Johnson. Served as a member of the New York State Assembly, and as a park commissioner of the City of New York. Member Calumet and Republican Clubs, Ardsley Casino of Ardsley-on-Hudson, and Association of the Bar of the City of New York.

NISBET, JAMES DOUGLAS—Physician, 10 East 43d street, New York City. Born in Lancaster, S. C., June 30, 1861. Educated at Davidson College ('81), Louisville Medical College ('86), and also studied in New York, Paris, Tübingen and Berlin. (Single.) Adjunct professor, diseases of the digestive system, New York Polyclinic and Hospital. Author of "Diseases of the Stomach." Member National Arts Club and National Sculpture and Southern Societies.

NISBET, JOHN L.—Investments, 36 Wall street, New York City; residence 20 Highland place, Yonkers. Born in St. Louis, Mo., Sept. 2, 1850. Educated at Princeton. (Married.) Was secretary West Shore R. R. Co., and secretary and treasurer New York, Ontario and Western Ry. Co. Member Princeton Club.

NITCHIE, HENRY E.—Treasurer, 65 Downing street, Brooklyn. Born in Brooklyn, 1858. Educated at Brooklyn Polytechnic Institute. (Married.) Member Brooklyn Whist and Hamilton Clubs.

NITCHIE, JOHN E.—Architect, 21 Park row, New York City; residence 65 Downing street, Brooklyn. Born in Brooklyn, 1873. Educated at Cornell. (Single.) Member Kings County Tennis and Brooklyn Skating Clubs and Brooklyn Oratorio Society.

NIVEN, WILLIAM—Mineralogist, 108 Fulton street, New York City; residence Bath Beach. Born in Bellshill, Scotland, Oct. 6, 1850. Educated in Scotland. (Married Nellie Blanche Purcell of St. Louis, Mo., 1886.) Resident of the United States since 1879. Discovered the remains of a prehistoric city, hundreds of square miles in extent, in the State of Guerrero, Mexico, in 1891. Member New York Mineralogical Society, Scientific Alliance and American Museum of Natural History.

NIXON, LEWIS—Shipbuilder, 71 Broadway, New York City; residence 32 West 38th street. Born in Leesburg, Va., 1861. Educated at United States Naval Academy, and Royal Naval College, England. (Married Sally Lewis Wood, 1891.) President New East River Bridge Commission, International Smokeless Powder and Dynamite Co.; vice-president New York Auto-Truck Co.; proprietor Crescent Shipyard, Elizabeth, N. J.; consulting naval architect, Cramp's Shipyard. While an officer in the United States Navy, designed the battle ship Oregon. Member Union, Richmond County Country, Press, New York Yacht, Atlantic Yacht, Democratic and Seneca Clubs, Metropolitan and Army and Navy Clubs of Washington, D. C., Rittenhouse Club of Philadelphia, American Geographical (Fellow) and Tammany Societies, Society of Naval Architects and Marine Engineers (Fellow), Board of Trade and Transportation and Chamber of Commerce.

NOBLE, ALFRED A.—Treasurer, 343 Broadway, New York City; residence 108 Montague street, Brooklyn. Born in Albany, N. Y., Nov. 8, 1860. Educated in Albany public schools. (Married.) Treasurer Wm. Schwarzwaelder & Co. Member Brooklyn Republican Club, Commonwealth Lodge F. & A. M., Magnolia Lodge Odd Fellows, Brooklyn Council No. 72, R. A., Orient Chapter No. 138, R. A. M., Logan Wheelmen and Royal Arcanum Aid Society.

NOBLE, FRANCIS L.—Lawyer, 2 Wall street, New York City; residence 321 Clinton avenue, Brooklyn. Member Crescent Athletic and Union League Clubs of Brooklyn.

NOBLE, HENRY HARMON—Albany; residence Essex. Born in Essex, May 9, 1861. Educated in private schools in this country and England. (Married.) In office of New York State Historian since August, 1895. Member Fort Orange Club, Society of Colonial Wars, Sons of the Revolution, General Society of the War of 1812, New York Commandery, Military Order of Foreign Wars of the United States, Albany Institute Iroquois Lodge No. 715 (Master Mason), Cedar Point Lodge No. 259, R. A. M., and De Soto Commandery No. 49, Knights Templar.

NOBLE, HERBERT—Lawyer, 141 Broadway, New York City; residence 49 West 57th street. Born in Dorchester County, Md., March 7, 1867. Educated at St. John's College, Annapolis, Md. (B.A., '89), University of Virginia and Columbia University (M.A.) and Law School (LL.B., '93). (Married.) Member of the firm of Noble & Villard. Lecturer for four years on carriers, insurance and domestic relations at Columbia Law School. Member Lawyers' and Phi Delta Phi Clubs, Delaware, Maryland and Southern Societies and Association of the Bar of the City of New York.

NOBLES, MILTON—Actor and Dramatist, 139 First place, Brooklyn. Born in La Pierre County, Michigan, Sept. 28, 1847. Educated in Madison, Wis. (Married.) Made first appearance in the West, 1867. Played in support of Edwin Forrest, Edwin Booth, Joseph Jefferson, Lawrence Barrett and others; began starring in plays written by himself, 1875. Author of "Shop Talk," "Under Martial Law," "A Man of the People," "Love and Law," "The Phoenix," "Interviews," "A Son of Thespis," "For Revenue Only," "Love Goes on Forever," "From Sire to Son," "Bilgeville Junction," "A Blue Grass Widow," "Why Walker Reformed," "Belinda Bailey's Boarders" and other works. Member Players' and American Dramatists' Clubs of New York City, and Actors' Order of Friendship.

NOCK, T. G.—Physician and Surgeon, 211 West Embargo street, Rome. Born in Windsor Locks, Hartford Co., Conn., Aug. 13, 1859. Educated at Rome (N. Y.) Academy, Williston Seminary, East Hampton, Mass., and Syracuse (N. Y.) College of Medicine. (Married.) House surgeon New York Cancer Hospital, 1889. Coroner of Oneida County since 1891; director First National Bank of Rome. Member Rome Medical, and Oneida County Medical Societies.

NOE, FREDERICK—Instructor, Cornell University, Ithaca; residence 717 East Buffalo street. Degree of M.E. Instructor in mechanical engineering, Cornell University.

NOONAN, THOMAS H.—Lawyer, 75 White Building, Buffalo; residence 3 Fargo avenue. Born in Ferrisburgh, Vt., Dec. 17, 1865. Educated at Middlebury (Vt.) College. (Single.) Buffalo attorney for American Hide and Leather Association of Boston, Mass.; secretary Buffalo Society of Vermonters. Member University, Independent and Acacia Clubs, and De Molay Lodge No. 498, F. & A. M.

NORDLINGER, EDWIN H.—Coffees and Spices, 369 Washington street, New York City; residence 45 East 80th street. Born in New York City, Aug. 25, 1861. Educated in public schools and at College of the City of New York. (Married.) Member of the firm of Henry Nordlinger & Co. Member Phi Beta Kappa Society, Harmonie Club, Verein Freundschaft and Alumni Association of the College of the City of New York.

NORMAN, CHARLES R.—Manager, 12 Broadway, New York City; residence 36 Lefferts place, Brooklyn. Born in New York City, Jan. 31, 1851. Educated in New York City and Philadelphia, Pa. (Married.) Manager floating equipment of the Tide Water Oil Co.; director Maritime Association of the Port of New York. Was member of the Board of Port Wardens of Philadelphia for six years. Member De Witt Clinton Commandery, Knights Templar.

NORMANN, MAX M.—Ship Broker, 4 Stone street, New York City; residence 220 Central Park, South, and Lake Hopatcong, N. J. Born in Lillesand, Norway, Nov. 30, 1856. Educated in Lillesand schools. (Married.) Conducts business under the firm name of Benham & Boyesen. Member Produce and Maritime Exchanges and Lake Hopatcong Club.

NORRIE, A. LANFEAR—Mining Engineer, 41 Wall street, New York City; residence 17 East 41st street. Vice-president and director Ohio Mining and Manufacturing Co.; director F. O. Norton Cement Co.; trustee Continental Trust Co. Member Metropolitan, Union and Tuxedo Clubs, Country Club of Westchester, Down Town Association and American Institute of Mining Engineers.

NORRIE, GORDON—Mining Engineer, 41 Wall street, New York City; residence 377 Fifth avenue. Director F. O. Norton Cement Co.; trustee Continental Trust Co.. Member Metropolitan, Church, City and Union Clubs, Century and Down Town Associations, and Metropolitan Museum of Art.

NORRIE, VAN HORNE—Physician, 21 West 37th street, New York City. Educated at Columbia ('85). Member University Club and Columbia University Alumni and Century Associations.

NORRIS, ALFRED L.—Broker, 35 Broad street, New York City; residence 319 Carlton avenue, Brooklyn. Born in Brooklyn, Nov. 28, 1868. Educated at Brooklyn Polytechnic Institute. (Single.) Member of the New York Stock Exchange firm of James H. Oliphant & Co. Member Racquet and Tennis Club, Excelsior, Hamilton, Crescent Athletic and Dyker Meadow Golf Clubs of Brooklyn, and Garden City Golf Club.

NORRIS, CHARLES—Physician and Instructor, 23 East 39th street, New York City. Educated at Yale ('88). Degree of M.D. Instructor in pathology of infectious diseases, Cornell University Medical College, New York City. Member University Club and Yale Alumni Association.

NORRIS, HENRY D.—Vice-President, 34 Prince street, Brooklyn; residence 15 West 74th street, New York City. Born and educated in New York City. Vice-president and director Thompson & Norris Co.; director Manhasset Improvement Co. Member Colonial Club, and Marine and Field Club of Brooklyn.

NORRIS, HENRY HUTCHINSON—Instructor, Cornell University, Ithaca; residence 314 West Green street. Degree of M.E. Instructor in electrical engineering at Cornell University.

NORRIS, HENRY SELDEN—Physician, 123 West 34th street, New York City. Born in Brooklyn, N. Y. (Single.) Member St. Nicholas, Richmond Hill Golf and Union Clubs, St. Nicholas Society, Century Association and Colonial Order.

NORRIS, LUTHER W. P.—Piano Manufacturer, 550 West 23d street, New York City; residence Hobart avenue, Summit, N. J. Born in Rhinebeck, N. Y., June 3, 1861. Educated in Rhinebeck. (Married.) President and director Lindeman & Sons Piano Co.

NORTH, CHARLES J.—Retired, 683 Ellicott square, Buffalo; residence 51 Johnson Park. Born in Chazy, Clinton Co., N. Y., May 13, 1847. Educated in public schools. (Married.) Member Buffalo, Oakfield (treasurer) and Buffalo Yacht Clubs, Buffalo Historical (treasurer) Society, Society of Mayflower Descendants, Buffalo Republican League and Sons of the American Revolution.

NORTH, EDWARD—Professor, Clinton. Born in Berlin, Conn., March 9, 1820. Educated at Hamilton College ('41). Degrees of L.H.D. from the Regents of the University of the State of New York in 1869, and LL.D. from Madison University in 1887. (Married Mary Frances, only daughter of Hon. S. Newton Dexter of Whitesboro, N. Y., 1844.) Professor of Greek language and literature at Hamilton College since 1843; also a trustee and a member of its executive committee. Editor of "Alumniana" in the "Hamilton Monthly" since 1856. Member Hamilton College Alumni, American Philosophical and American Philological Associations and New York Historical and Oneida Historical Societies.

NORTH, EDWARD P.—Civil Engineer, 220 West 57th street, New York City; residence 243 West 99th street. Member Engineers', Union League and Republican Clubs and American Society of Civil Engineers.

NORTH, FRANK MASON—Clergyman, Secretary and Editor, 150 Fifth avenue, New York City; residence 121 West 122d street. Born in New York City, Dec. 3, 1850. Educated in private schools in New York City and at Wesleyan University. (Married.) Trustee Wesleyan University; member of board of managers Methodist Episcopal Missionary Society; president Open and Institutional Church League; corresponding secretary National City Evangelization Union and New York City Church Extension and Missionary Society. Member Twilight Club, Wesleyan University Alumni and Aldine Associations and Methodist Social Union.

NORTH, JAMES HARPER—Surgeon, 23 East 64th street, New York City. Educated at Columbia. Formerly connected in a surgical capacity with the United States Navy. Member Army and Navy, New York Athletic and Union Clubs and Columbia University Alumni Association.

NORTH, THOMAS M.—Lawyer, 120 Broadway, New York City; residence 160 Central Park, South. Born in Ellington, Conn., Aug. 14, 1825. Educated at Yale and Williams Colleges. (Married.) Attorney for Hudson River R. R. Co., 1850-67; member of the firms of Bangs, Sedgwick & North, and Bangs & North till 1875, North, Ward & Wagstaff, 1875-96; retired from active business, 1896. Member Union League Club, Yale Alumni, Williams Alumni, Phi Beta Kappa Alumni and Century Associations and Association of the Bar of the City of New York.

NORTHROP, AARON L.—Surgeon Dentist, 57 West 49th street, New York City. Degree of D.D.S. Member Union League, New York Athletic, Lotos and Transportation Clubs and New England Society.

NORTHROP, CHARLES P.—Lawyer, 31 Nassau street, New York City; residence 39 East 50th street. Born in Canandaigua, N. Y. (Married.) Member Association of the Bar of the City of New York.

NORTHROP, ANSEL JUDD—Lawyer and Author, S. A. and K. Block, Syracuse; residence 207 Green street. Born in Madison County, N. Y., June 30, 1833. (Son of Rensselaer and Clarissa [Judd] Northrup.) Educated at Hamilton College (A.M. and LL.D.) and at Columbia College Law School; admitted to the Bar in 1859, and has since practiced in Syracuse. (Married Eliza S., daughter of Thomas B. Fitch of Syracuse.) Senior member of the firm of Northrup & Northrup. Circuit Court commissioner, 1870-97; Onondaga County Judge, 1882-94; commissioner to General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church, Saratoga, 1890; United States Commissioner of Statutory Revision, State of New York, since June, 1897. Trustee Syracuse Savings Bank and Oakwood Cemetery. Author of "Camps and Tramps in the Adirondacks, and Grayling Fishing in Northern Michigan," "The Powers and Duties of Elders in the Presbyterian Church," "Northrup Genealogy," "Slavery in New York—A Historical Sketch" and others. Member University, Citizens' and Fortnightly Clubs and Onondaga Historical and Onondaga Bar Associations, in several of which he is trustee.

NORTHROP, CLARK SUTHERLAND—Instructor, Cornell University, Ithaca; residence 404 Eddy street. Degrees of A.B. and Ph.D. Instructor in English at Cornell University.

NORTHROP, WILLIAM P.—Physician, 57 East 79th street, New York City. Born in New York State. Educated at Hamilton College and New York College of Physicians and Surgeons. (Married.) Professor of diseases of children, University and Bellevue Hospital Medical College. Member Barnard Club, Academy of Medicine, New York State Medical Society, Century Association and Association of American Physicians.

NORTON, ALGERNON S.—Lawyer, 256 Broadway, New York City; residence 47 Ludlow street, Yonkers. Born in Homer, N. Y. Educated at Cornell ('86). (Married.) Member of the firm of Bookstaver & Norton. Member Cornell, Psi Upsilon and Phi Delta Phi Clubs.

NORTON, ARTHUR B.—Oculist and Aurist, 16 West 45th street, New York City. Born in New Marlboro, Mass., Sept. 15, 1856. Educated at New Marlboro Academy, Great Barrington High School, New York Homeopathic Medical College ('81) and College of the New York Ophthalmic Hospital ('82); degree of M.D. (Married.) Professor of ophthalmology and surgeon New York Ophthalmic Hospital; ophthalmic surgeon Laura Franklin Hospital; editor "Homeopathic Eye, Ear and Throat Journal." Author of "Ophthalmic Diseases and Therapeutics." Member Meissen, Unanimous, Republican and Twilight Clubs, New York County Homeopathic, New York State Homeopathic, American Homeopathic Ophthalmological, Otological and Laryngological, British Homeopathic (corresponding member), Connecticut State Homeopathic (honorary member), Albany County Homeopathic and New York Paedological Societies, American Institute (first vice-president), National Society of Electro-Therapeutics, Hahnemann Association and Academy of Pathological Science, in many of which he has been president.

NORTON, BENJAMIN—Railroad President, 38 Wall street, New York City; residence 263 West End avenue. Born in Erie, Pa., Dec. 18, 1855. Educated at Williams College ('76). (Married.) President Atlantic Avenue R. R. Co. of Brooklyn; vice-president and general manager Long Island R. R. Co.; general manager Ohio Southern R. R. Co. Member University Club and Williams College Alumni Association.

NORTON, CHARLES LEDYARD—Author and Journalist, University Club, New York City. Born in Farmington, Conn., June 11, 1837. Educated at Yale ('59). (Widower.) Served with Volunteers during Civil War and advanced to the rank of colonel. Edited for many years "Christian Union" (now "The Outlook"), "Our Continent" and "Outing." Author of "A Handbook of Florida," "Political Americanisms," "A Medal of Honor Man," "A Soldier of the Legion," "The Queen's Rangers" and other works. Member University, Authors', Canoe and Quill Clubs and Military Order of the Loyal Legion.

NORTON, EDWARD L.—Broker, 14 Wall street, New York City; residence 256 West 74th street. Born in San Antonio, Tex., Oct. 7, 1862. Educated in Bethlehem, Pa. (Married.) Member of the firm of Henry Allen & Co., and of the New York Stock, Produce and Cotton Exchanges and Chicago Board of Trade. Member New York and Racquet and Tennis Clubs and Society of Colonial Wars.

NORTON, EDWARD N.—Broker, 115 Produce Exchange, New York City; residence Greenwich, Conn. Member of the firm of Norton & Son. Member Atlantic Yacht and Union League Clubs, Crescent Athletic and Hamilton Clubs of Brooklyn, Down Town Association and Lafayette Post, G. A. R.

NORTON, ELIOT—Lawyer, 100 Broadway, New York City; residence 468 Lexington avenue. Born in Cambridge, Mass., July 1, 1863. Educated at Harvard College ('85) and Harvard Law School. (Married.) Member of the firm of Van Schaick, Norton & Quinby. Director Duplex Match Co. and other corporations. Member University, New York Athletic and Groller Clubs and Association of the Bar of the City of New York.

NORTON, EVERMONT HOPE—Banker and Broker, 33 Wall street, New York City; residence 165 West 58th street. Born in Louisville, Ky., Oct. 10, 1873. (Son of Presley Evermont and Lillie [Hope] Norton.) Educated at the University of Virginia. (Married Lily Morrison Carr of St. Louis, Mo., 1899.) Senior member of the firm of E. H. Norton & Co., and member of the New York Stock and Cotton Exchanges. President and director Ecuador Development Co.; vice-president and director American Zinc Mining Co.; director Guayaquil and Quito R. R. Co. Member New York Athletic, Lawyers', Seawanhaka-Corinthian Yacht, Atlantic Yacht and Riverside Yacht Clubs.

NORTON, PORTER—Lawyer, 864 Ellicott square, Buffalo. Member Buffalo, Liberal, Thursday and Country Clubs, Society of Colonial Wars, and Sons of the American Revolution.

NORWOOD, CARLISLE—Lawyer, 31 Nassau street, New York City; residence 3 East 60th street. Member of the firm of Norwood & Dilley. Director Brearly School (Ltd.) and Lawyers' Surety Co. Member Union League, Church, Riding and Metropolitan Clubs, St. Nicholas Society, Down Town Association and Association of the Bar of the City of New York.

NORWOOD, LEWIS MORRIS—Real Estate, 135 Broadway, New York City; residence 1043 Madison avenue. Director New York City Marble Cemetery. Member City, New York Athletic and Lawyers' Clubs, St. Nicholas Society, Society of Colonial Wars and Sons of the Revolution.

NOSTRAND, JOHN LOTT—Lawyer, Cropsey and Twentieth avenues, Brooklyn; residence 215 Montague street. Born in New Utrecht, N. Y., March 2, 1856. (Son of Timothy and Catharine [Lott] Nostrand.) Educated in private and public schools and at Rutgers College. Practicing law in Brooklyn since his admission to the Bar in 1879. Delegate to Constitutional Convention, New York State, 1894. Formerly city magistrate and school trustee. Director Norton Point Land Co. Member Brooklyn, Atlantic Yacht, and Marine and Field Clubs.

NOSTRAND, PETER ELBERT—Civil Engineer and City Surveyor, 81 Fulton street, New York City; residence 25 Palmetto street, Brooklyn. Born in Brooklyn, Jan. 16, 1856. Educated in Brooklyn public schools and at Brooklyn Polytechnic Institute (B.S., '75). (Married.) Assistant engineer in designing plans and location of the Brooklyn Elevated Railway, 1876-80; director Brooklyn Elevated Ry. Co., 1879-80; as superintending engineer, laid out and supervised the first work of construction of Cape Cod (Mass.) Ship Canal, 1880; examined several Mexican mines and engaged in other mining engineering, 1885; assistant chief engineer of the Ramapo Water Co., 1887-90; chief engineer of the same company since 1890. Chief engineer for contractors, J. D. & T. E. Crimmins, during construction of Third avenue cable roads and Broadway cable roads in New York City, 1891-3. As consulting engineer and city surveyor has advised regarding character of foundations and proper form of construction, or has located many of the largest buildings in New York City, among others, the Columbia University buildings, Cathedral of St. John the Divine, and the Empire Building. Member American Society of Civil Engineers.

NOTMAN, GRANT—Lawyer, 54 Wall street, New York City; residence 149 Joralemon street, Brooklyn. Member of the firm of Butler, Notman, Joline & Mynderse. Member Crescent Athletic and Hamilton Clubs of Brooklyn, and Columbia University Alumni Association.

NOTMAN, JOHN—Lawyer, 54 Wall street, New York City; residence 136 Joralemon street, Brooklyn. Member of the firm of Butler, Notman, Joline & Mynderse. Director American and Foreign Marine Insurance Co., Commercial Union Fire Insurance Co., Magdeburg Fire Insurance Co. of New York, Niagara Fire Insurance Co. and Sanborn-Perris Map and Publishing Co. Member Metropolitan, Lawyers' and Tuxedo Clubs, Crescent Athletic and Hamilton Clubs of Brooklyn, American Geographical Society, Down Town Association and Association of the Bar of the City of New York.

NOTT, CHARLES COOPER, JR.—Lawyer, 111 Broadway, New York City; residence 49 East 60th street. Educated at Williams College ('90). Member University Club, Williams College Alumni Association and Association of the Bar of the City of New York.

NOTT, CHARLES DE KAY—Clergyman, Undercliff avenue, Morris Heights, New York City. Born in Albany, N. Y., 1833. Educated at Union College and at New Brunswick (N. J.) Theological Seminary (D.D.). Member Quill Club.

NOTT, FREDERICK J.—Physician, 554 Madison avenue, New York City; residence 29 East 55th street. Born in Kennebunkport, Me. Educated at University of Rochester (A.B., '74, and A.M.) and New York Homeopathic Medical College and Hospital (M.D.). (Married.) Trustee New York Homeopathic Medical College and Hospital. Life member University Club and member New York Athletic, Psi Upsilon and Mendelssohn Glee Clubs, Scientific Alliance, Metropolitan Museum of Art and American Museum of Natural History.

NOURSE, CHARLES J., JR.—Mining, 27 William street, New York City; residence 245 Lexington avenue. Secretary, treasurer and director Alvarez Land and Timber Co., Fresnoh Mining Co., Potosi and Rio Verde Ry. Co. and Sombrette Mining Co.; treasurer and director Potosi and Rio Verde Construction Co. Member St. Nicholas and Church Clubs, Century Association and Sons of the Revolution.

NOYES, ALEXANDER DANA—Journalist, 206 Broadway, New York City; residence Montclair, N. J.

Born in Montclair, Dec. 14, 1862. Educated at Amherst College (A.B. and A.M.). Financial editor New York "Evening Post." Author of "Thirty Years of American Finance." Frequent contributor to financial publications.

NOYES, CHARLES P.—Banker and Broker, 66 Broadway, New York City; residence 7 Park avenue. Member of the New York Stock Exchange firm of J. M. Noyes & Co.. Member New York Yacht, New York Athletic and Calumet Clubs and Sons of the Revolution.

NOYES, CHARLES S.—Lawyer, 249 West 104th street, New York City. Born in Brooklyn, N. Y., Nov. 8, 1858. Educated in Adelphi Academy, in private schools of Orange and Montclair, N. J., and at Amherst College and Columbia Law School. (Married.) Examining counsel Lawyers' Title Insurance Co. Member Congregational Club, Amherst College Alumni Association and Oratorio Society.

NOYES, FREDERIC W.—Lawyer, Dansville. Born in Dansville, June 7, 1852. Educated at Cornell. (Married.) Was district attorney of Livingston County, N. Y. President Geo. Sweet Mfg Co. of North Dansville; director Citizens' Bank. Member Genesee Valley and Whist Clubs of Rochester.

NOYES, HENRY DRURY—Physician, 233 Madison avenue, New York City. Born in New York City, 1832. Educated at New York University (A.B., '51 and A.M., '54) and at the College of Physicians and Surgeons of Columbia University (M.D., '59). (Married.) Professor of ophthalmology, University and Bellevue Hospital Medical College; surgeon New York Eye and Ear Infirmary. Member Ophthalmological Society (ex-president), New York Academy of Medicine (ex-vice-president), Nineteenth Century Club, New England Society and Century Association.

NOYES, HENRY F.—Dry Goods Commission Merchant, 19 Thomas street, New York City; residence 90 Remsen street, Brooklyn. Member of the firm of Noyes, Bausher & Gerrish. Director Home Insurance Co.; trustee Brooklyn Savings Bank. Member New York Yacht, Seawanhaka-Corinthian Yacht and Merchants' Clubs, and Riding and Driving, Hamilton and Marine and Field Clubs of Brooklyn.

NOYES, HENRY T. (General)—283 Alexander street, Rochester. Member Metropolitan, New York Yacht and Army and Navy Clubs of New York City, Military Order of the Loyal Legion and Military Service Institution.

NOYES, JAMES W.—Investment Securities, 96 Broadway, New York City; residence 48 West 89th street. Born in New York City, June 8, 1844. Educated at Mount Pleasant Military Academy, Sing Sing, N. Y., and New York University. (Married.) Member New York Bible Society.

NOYES, JOHN B. (Colonel)—Storage, 68 Broad street, New York City; residence 51 Strong place, Brooklyn. Born in Petersham, Mass., March 2, 1838. Educated at Harvard ('58). (Single.) Member New York Produce and Maritime Exchanges. Director Hanover Insurance Co.; also connected with the Brooklyn Wharf and Warehouse Co. Member Harvard Club and Military Order of the Loyal Legion.

NOYES, THEODORE RICHARDS—President, Kenwood, Madison County. Born in Putney, Vt., July 25, 1841. (Eldest son of John Humphrey Noyes, founder of Oneida Community, who died in 1886.) Educated at Oneida Community and at Yale Medical School (M.D., '67). Has been a member of the Oneida Community all his life; was instrumental in its conversion to a joint stock company in 1880, and has been its president since 1895.

NUGENT, JOHN S.—Retired, 71 Broadway, New York City; residence 97 Hancock street, Brooklyn. Born in Canada, Aug. 11, 1850. Educated in Canada. (Married.) President Automatic Coaling and Weighing Barge Co.; vice-president National Folding Box and Paper Co. Ex-treasurer American Union Life Insurance Co. and formerly director in several banks. Member Union League Club of Brooklyn (ex-treasurer).

NUNAN, DENIS—Hardware Merchant, 27 Park row, New York City; residence 1 West 30th street. Secretary and director Patterson Brothers.

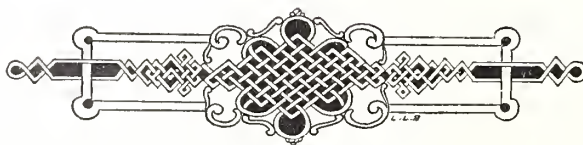

NUTTING, ANDREW H.—Clothing Merchant, 386 Fulton street, Brooklyn; residence 149 South Oxford street. Member of the firm of Andrew J. Nutting & Co. Member Crescent Athletic and Oxford Clubs.

NUTTING, ANDREW J.—Clothing Merchant, 386 Fulton street, Brooklyn; residence 149 South Oxford street. Senior member of the firm of Andrew J. Nutting & Co. Director New York Horse Show Association. Member Crescent Athletic and Oxford Clubs, Manhattan, Riding and Driving, and Tandem Clubs of New York City, and Staten Island Polo Club.

NUTTING, LUCIUS H.—Railroad Agent, 349 Broadway, New York City; residence 112 East 17th street. Educated at the College of the City of New York. (Married.) Eastern passenger agent Southern Pacific Co.; secretary and director Ocean Time Table Distributing Co. Member Alpha Delta Phi Club.

NYE, GEORGE H.—Banker and Manufacturer, Auburn. Born in Auburn, Dec. 2, 1854. Educated at Phillips Exeter Academy. (Married.) President Nye & Wait Carpet Co., and Cayuga County National Bank; trustee Auburn Savings Bank. Member Reform Club of New York City, Laurentian Club of Canada, and Auburn City Club (president).

NYE, THEODORE SEDGWICK—Lawyer, 97 Cedar street, New York City; residence 257 Degraw street, Brooklyn. Member Sixth Ward Democratic Reform and Democratic Clubs of Brooklyn, and Ohio and Southern Societies.

OAKES, CHARLES—Lawyer, 11 Pine street, New York City; residence 108 West 44th street. Member Harvard and City Clubs and Association of the Bar of the City of New York.

OAKES, FRANCIS J.—Manufacturer of Extracts, 58 Stone street, New York City; residence 242 West 73d street. President and director Oakes Mfg Co.; director Norwood Insurance Co. Member New York Athletic Club, Scientific Alliance, Metropolitan Museum of Art and Lafayette Post, G. A. R.

OAKES, THOMAS FLETCHER—Retired Railroad President, 7 Wall street, New York City; residence Mamaroneck. Born in Boston, Mass., July 15, 1843. Educated in Boston. (Married.) Director Manhattan Life Insurance Co. of New York. Member Union League, New York Yacht and Metropolitan Clubs and American Geographical Society.

OAKLEY, HENRY AUGUSTUS—Insurance, 56 Wall street, New York City; residence 120 West 13th street. Born in New York City, 1827. Educated in common schools. (Married Helen L. Clark of New York City.) Served with 22d New York Regiment during Civil War. Vice-president and president of the Howard Insurance Co., 1866-97; president National Board of Fire Underwriters, 1870-6. Author of a course of reading for member of the Mercantile Library Association; also of numerous magazine articles. Member Nineteenth Century, Players' and Church Clubs, American Geographical Society and Century Association.

OAKLEY, H. CRUGER—Broker, 52 Broadway, New York City; residence 166 West 55th street. Born in New York City, Aug. 17, 1837. (Single.) Member of the firm of Prince & Whitely, and of the New York Stock Exchange. Member Metropolitan Union, New York Yacht, Knickerbocker, Larchmont Yacht, Seawanhaka-Corinthian Yacht and City Clubs.

OAKLEY, JOHN GREENLEAF—Clergyman, 150 Fifth avenue, New York City; residence Tarrytown. Born in Verbank, N. Y., May 17, 1843. Educated at University of New York. (Married.) Has traveled extensively in America, Europe, Africa and Asia. Lyceum lecturer for twenty years. Member Quill Club.

OAKLEY, JOHN T.—Councilman, 8 City Hall, and Liquors, 225 Avenue A, New York City; residence 442 East 14th street. Born in New York City, 1863. Educated in public schools and at the College of the City of New York. (Married.) Index clerk in the Register's Office, 1885-7; deputy collector of internal revenue for the Second District, 1887-9; clerk in the Department of Street Cleaning, 1890-2; represented the Tenth Assembly District on the Board of Aldermen, 1892-7. Now representing the First District in the City Council since 1898, and is vice-chairman of the Board.

OAKMAN, WALTER G.—Banker, 65 Cedar street, New York City; residence 12 East 53d street. Educated at University of Pennsylvania ('64). (Married.) President and trustee Guaranty Trust Co. of New York; vice-president and director Jefferson and Clearfield Coal and Iron Co.; member of advisory committee Audit Co. of New York; director Alabama Great Southern R. R. Co., Brooklyn Wharf and Warehouse Co., Buffalo, Rochester and Pittsburgh Ry. Co., Kings County and Fulton Elevated R. R. Co., Long Island R. R. Co., Morristown (N. J.) Trust Co., Morton Trust Co., Mount Pleasant Coal Co., New York and Rockaway Beach Ry. Co., Northern Pacific Ry. Co., Reynoldsville and Fall Creek R. R. Co. and Staten Island Electric R. R. Co. Member Metropolitan Union, University and Church Clubs, Ardsley Casino of Ardsley-on-Hudson, and Century and Down Town Associations.

OBERLY, JOHN L.—Publisher and Stationer, 550 Pearl street, New York City; residence Hotel Netherland. Born in Easton, Pa., May 20, 1846. Educated at Yale. (Single.) Member of the firm of Oberly & Newell; also connected with "Modes and Fabrics" Publishing Co. Member Arkwright Club and Yale University Alumni Association.

OBERMAYER, CHARLES J.—Real Estate and Banking, 175 Broadway, New York City; residence 502 Eighth avenue, Brooklyn. Born in New York City, Nov. 8, 1869. Educated in New York City. (Married.) Member of the firm of W. E. Sabin & Co. President and trustee Greater New York Savings Bank; secretary, treasurer and director German-American Real Estate Title Guarantee Co. Member New York Press and Brooklyn Bicycle Clubs.

OBERMEYER, JOSEPH—Photo-Engraver, 162 Leonard street, New York City; residence 40 West 36th street. Member Reform, Good Government A., Harmonie and Camera Clubs and Metropolitan Museum of Art.

O'BRIAN, JOHN LORD—Lawyer, 706 Mooney-Brisbane Building, Buffalo; residence 55 Cleveland avenue. Born in Buffalo, Oct. 14, 1874. Educated at Harvard ('96). (Single.) Junior member of the firm of Seaver & Jenkins. Member Liberal and University Clubs and Delta Upsilon and Phi Delta Phi Fraternities.

O'BRIEN, DAVID—Superintendent, 280 Broadway, New York City; residence 146 West 88th street. Born in New York City, 1842. Educated in public schools. Engaged in meat business in Washington Market for over thirty years, and was for many years president of the West Washington Market Association. Now collector of city revenue and superintendent of markets of the City of New York.

O'BRIEN, DENIS—Associate Justice of the Court of Appeals, Albany; residence Watertown. Born in Ogdensburg, N. Y., March, 1837. Educated in Ogdensburg; studied law and was admitted to the Bar in 1861. Mayor of Watertown, 1878-9; Attorney-General of New York State, 1884-8. Judge of the Court of Appeals of New York since 1889; term expires Dec. 31, 1903.

O'BRIEN, EDWARD C.—Transportation, 52 Broadway, New York City; residence 2 West 43d street. Born in Fort Edward, Washington Co., N. Y. Educated in public schools and at Granville Military Academy, from which he graduated in 1880. Resided in Plattsburgh for a number of years and engaged in flour commission business. Became interested in shipping and transportation and was chairman of the International Deep Waterways Convention held at Cleveland, Ohio, in September, 1896. Served as United States Commissioner of Navigation by appointment of President Harrison, 1889-93. Accepted the position of Commissary-General of Subsistence, with the rank of brigadier-general, on the staff of Governor Morton in 1894, but resigned after three months' service to accept the office of commissioner of docks of the City of New York, of which he was elected president and twice re-elected. Organized the International Express Co. and Pan-American Express Co., and is now president and general manager of both companies. Member Union League, Republican and Lotos Clubs, Ardsley Casino of Ardsley-on-Hudson, Maritime Association and Board of Trade and Transportation.

O'BRIEN, EDWARD D.—Lawyer, 220 Broadway, New York City; residence 71 West 55th street. Member Democratic, New York Athletic and Manhattan Clubs and Association of the Bar of the City of New York.

O'BRIEN, JOHN—Banker and Broker, 58 Wall street, New York City; residence 145 Madison avenue.

street, New York City; residence 145 Madison avenue. Member New York Stock Exchange and of the Metropolitan.

O'BRIEN, JOSEPH—Banker and Broker, 58 Wall street, New York City; residence 26 West 35th street. Member New York Stock Exchange and of the Catholic and Manhattan Clubs, and Hamilton Club of Brooklyn.

O'BRIEN, MICHAEL J.—Transportation, 12 West 23d street, New York City; residence 524 Fifth avenue. Born in Baltimore, Md., Sept. 15, 1838. Educated in Baltimore. President and director Southern Express Co. Member Metropolitan, Manhattan, Catholic, Racquet and Tennis and New York Yacht Clubs.

O'BRIEN, MILES M.—Dry Goods Merchant, 224 Church street, New York City; residence 320 West 89th street. Born in Newcastle West, County Limerick, Ireland, 1845. Became a resident of the United States in 1864. General salesman with the H. B. Claflin Co., with which he has been connected since 1866. Was appointed a member of the School Board of the City of New York by Mayor Grace in 1885, and served consecutively during the administrations of his successors, Mayors Hewitt, Grant and Gilroy. Was re-appointed by Mayor Van Wyck early in 1898, and, on May 19, 1900, was elected president of the new School Board of the Boroughs of Manhattan and The Bronx to succeed Joseph J. Little, resigned. By virtue of this office, is president Central Board of Education and chairman boards of trustees of the College of the City of New York, and of the Normal College. Was instrumental in securing the introduction of the free lecture system in the public schools in 1887. Member New York Athletic, Lotos, Wool and Suburban Riding and Driving Clubs.

O'BRIEN, MORGAN JOSEPH—Supreme Court Justice, Madison square, East, New York City; residence 729 Park avenue. Born in New York City, April 28, 1852. (Son of Morgan and Mary [Burke] O'Brien.) Educated at St. John's College, Fordham (A.B. and LL.B.), St. Francis Xavier College (A.M.) and at Columbia College Law School (LL.B.). Practicing in New York City since his admission to the Bar in 1875. Served as school trustee and as corporation counsel before his appointment to the Bench. Supreme Court Justice, Trial Division, 1888-96; Appellate Division since 1896; term expires Dec. 31, 1901. Member Catholic, New York Athletic, New York Yacht, Suburban Riding and Driving, Manhattan and Lotos Clubs, Aldine Association and Association of the Bar of the City of New York.

OCHS, ADOLPH S.—Publisher, 41 Park row, New York City; residence 70th street and Broadway. Born in Cincinnati, Ohio, March 12, 1858. Received a common school education in Knoxville, Tenn. (Married Effie Miriam, daughter of Rev. Isaac M. Wise of Cincinnati, 1883.) Newsboy, 1869; "printer's devil" on Knoxville "Chronicle," 1873-4; printer on Louisville, (Ky.) "Courier-Journal," 1876. Proprietor of the Chattanooga (Tenn.) "Times" since 1878; publisher and controlling owner of the "New York Times" since 1896. President and director Tradesman Publishing Co. of Chattanooga, Tenn. Member Lawyers' and Hardware Clubs.

O'CONNELL, DANIEL—Lawyer, 220 Broadway, New York City; residence 240 West 102d street. Born in Bridgeport, Conn., Oct. 31, 1855. Educated in public schools and Toronto, Can. (Married.) Formerly Assistant United States District Attorney, Southern District of New York. Member Democratic Club, Tammany Society, State Bar Association and Association of the Bar of the City of New York.

O'CONNELL, JOHN—Dry Goods Merchant, 66 Leonard street, New York City; residence 302 West End avenue. Educated at Cooper Union. Member Catholic and Arkwright Clubs, Friendly Sons of St. Patrick and Cooper Union Alumni Association.

O'CONNOR, ARTHUR V.—Architect, 160 Fifth avenue, New York City; residence 240 East 40th street. Born in New York City, Feb. 14, 1873. Educated at Sacred Heart Academy, Westchester, N. Y. (Single.) Now connected with McKim, Mead & White, in whose office he studied architecture. Member Knickerbocker Yacht and Catholic Clubs.

O'CONNOR, BERNARD FRANCIS—Railroads, 59 Broad street, New York City; residence Manhasset, L. I. Educated at Johns Hopkins University (Ph.D.) Professor of the Romance languages at Columbia University in the City of New York, 1883-93. President and director New York Underground R. R. Co.; vice-president and director Wilmington Street Ry. Co. Member New York Athletic and Authors' Clubs and Johns Hopkins Alumni Association.

O'CONNOR, EUGENE F.—Lawyer, 178 Broadway, New York City; residence 428 Clermont avenue, Brooklyn. Born in Brooklyn, Nov. 10, 1844. Educated in Brooklyn public schools, at St. Francis Xavier College and at New York University Law School. (Married.) Served during Civil War; was with Banks' Louisiana Expedition, in Port Hudson, Teche and Red River campaigns with Army of the Potomac, and with Gen. Sheridan in Shenandoah Valley; promoted to a captaincy; wounded at Cedar Creek; discharged Dec. 21, 1864, for wounds received in battle. After the war was engaged in construction department of Union Pacific Railway Co.; was Wells, Fargo & Co.'s Utah agent for several years; New York State senator, 1887-8; Republican candidate for secretary of state, 1891. Incorporator and ex-trustee Kings County Trust Co.; trustee Hamilton Trust Co. Member Columbian Catholic (president), Oxford and Union League Clubs of Brooklyn.

O'CONNOR, JOHN H.—Physician, 150 West 16th street, New York City. Member Catholic Club, Medical Society of the County of New York and University of New York Alumni Association.

O'CONNOR, JOSEPH—Journalist, 146 Frank street, Rochester. Born in Tribes Hill, N. Y., Dec. 17, 1841. Educated at the University of Rochester. (Married.) Editorial writer on Rochester "Post-Express." Has been editorial writer for New York "World," and editor-in-chief of Rochester "Democrat," Indianapolis "Sentinel" and Buffalo "Courier." Member Genesee Valley Club, Authors' Club of New York City, and American Association for the Advancement of Science.

O'CONNOR, MICHAEL P.—Lawyer, 41 Park row, New York City; residence 127 West 97th street. Born in Columbia, S. C., Oct. 4, 1865. Educated at College of Charleston, S. C. (Single.)

O'CONNOR, THOMAS D.—Manufacturer, 102 Chambers street, New York City; residence 12 East 44th street. Educated at Columbia. Secretary and director F. S. Hutchinson Co. and H. V. Keep Shirt Co. Member Psi Upsilon Club, New York Mineralogical Society, Scientific Alliance and Columbia University Alumni Association.

O'CONOR, JOHN C.—Lawyer, 62 Wall street, New York City; residence 24 East 33d street. Educated at Columbia. Member Union League, University Athletic and Church Clubs, Society of Colonial Wars, Columbia University Alumni and Down Town Associations and Association of the Bar of the City of New York.

O'CONOR, JOHN FRANCIS XAVIER—Roman Catholic Clergyman, 30 West 16th street, New York City. Born in New York City, Aug. 1, 1852. Educated at St. Francis Xavier College ('72) and at Johns Hopkins University; also studied in England and Belgium. Became a member of the Society of Jesus in 1872 and was ordained priest in 1885. Now professor of rhetoric to junior class and professor of literature in post-graduate course at St. Francis Xavier College. Author of "Something to Read," "Reading and the Mind," "Practice of Humility," "Three Holy Lives," "Two Captives," "History of the Early Jesuit Missions in the United States," "Rhetoric and Oratory," "Life of St. Ignatius," "Life of St. Aloysius," "Sacred Scenes and Mysteries" and many other works.

O'DAY, DANIEL—Capitalist, 26 Broadway, New York City; residence 128 West 72d street. Born in Ireland, Feb. 6, 1844. Educated in Buffalo (N. Y.) public schools. Went to Pennsylvania oil regions in 1865 and became connected with the oil transportation business. President and director Buffalo Natural Gas Co., Buffalo General Electric Co., Northwestern Ohio Natural Gas Co. and People's Bank of Buffalo; director Buffalo, Bellevue and Lancaster Ry. Co., Buffalo

Gas Co., Buffalo Loan, Trust and Safe Deposit Co., Buffalo, Thousand Islands and Portland R. R. Co., Crosstown Street Ry. Co., International Steam Pump Co., Lanyon Zinc Co., National Transit Co., New York Transit Co., Niagara Falls and Lewiston R. R. Co., and Seaboard National Bank; trustee Colonial Safe Deposit Co., Colonial Trust Co. and New York Produce Exchange Safe Deposit and Storage Co. Member American Yacht, Manhattan, New York Athletic, Lotos, Colonial, Catholic, Racquet and Tennis, and Engineers' Clubs.

ODDIE, JOHN VAN SCHAICK—Secretary, 67 Madison avenue, New York City; residence 59 West 48th street. Member New York Athletic, New York Yacht (secretary), Larchmont Yacht and Manhattan Clubs, and Eastern Yacht Club of Boston, Mass.

ODDIE, ORVILLE—Broker, 35 Broad street, New York City; residence 124 Joralemon street, Brooklyn. Born in New York City, Aug. 21, 1833. Educated at Young's Collegiate Institute and Professor Morrell French's Academy, Brooklyn. (Married.) Has been business as Orville Oddie, Oddie & St. George, Oddie, in business as Orville Oddie, Oddie & St. George, Oddie, St. George & Co., Oddie & Gamble, and Oddie & Co. Now trading as Orville Oddie. Member St. George's Society (life), New York City Guard, Old Guard of New York, Society of Founders and Patriots of America and Sons of the American Revolution.

ODELL, BENJAMIN PARKER, JR.—Merchant, 56 Pine street, New York City; residence Fifth Avenue Hotel, and Newburgh. Born in Newburgh, Jan. 14, 1854. Educated in public schools, at Bethany (W. Va.) College and at Columbia ('77). Left the latter institution before graduation and engaged in the ice business with his father. (Married first, Estelle Crist in 1877, who died in 1888; second, in 1891, Mrs. Linda C. Traphagen.) Became identified with the Republican party organization in his district and has attained great prominence therein. From the ice business, he branched out and became interested in electric street railways, electric lighting and power companies and in banking enterprises. In 1884, became a member of the Republican State Committee, and chairman of the Republican State Executive Committee in 1894, which position he still holds. Represented the Seventeenth Congressional District in the House of Representatives, 1895-9. Delegate-at-large from New York State to the National Republican Convention of 1900, and chairman of the New York State Republican Convention of that year. Unanimously nominated by the latter body as candidate for Governor of the State of New York, ex-Governor Black making the speech in nomination. Ex-president Newburgh Electric Light and Power Co.; ex-vice-president Haverstraw Electric Light, Heat and Power Co.; ex-treasurer and secretary Muchattoes Lake Lee Co. Member Lawyers' and Republican Clubs, and Orange Lake, Newburgh Golf, Powelton and City Clubs of Newburgh.

ODELL, CHARLES H.—Steel, 44 Wall street, New York City; residence Yonkers. Educated at Union College. Agent Carnegie Bros. & Co. Member Duquesne Club of Pittsburgh, Pa., Union College Alumni Association and American Museum of Natural History.

O'DELL, DANIEL—Banker and Broker, 5 New street, New York City; residence 450 Fifth avenue. Born in Farmington, Ontario Co., N. Y., Sept. 15, 1858. Educated in common schools. (Widower.) Head of the firm of Daniel O'Dell & Co., and member of the New York Stock Exchange. Was superintendent of agency department of New York Life Insurance Co., for nearly twenty years; resigned in 1887 to engage in banking. Director in several companies. Member Republican Club.

ODELL, HAMMOND—Lawyer, 35 Nassau street, New York City; residence 135 West 75th street. Born in New York City, Aug. 16, 1869. Educated at Columbia ('89). (Single.) Member University Club, Columbia University Alumni Association and Association of the Bar of the City of New York.

ODELL, ISAAC H.—Broker, 2 Wall street, New York City. Member of the firm of Mills & Odell, members of the New York Stock Exchange. Member Colonial Club.

O'DONOHUE, CHARLES—Coffee Importer, 88 Front street, New York City; residence 147 Herkimer street, Brooklyn. Born in Brooklyn, Aug. 16, 1859. Educated at Brooklyn Polytechnic Institute. (Married.) Member of the firm of John O'Donohue's Sons and the New York Coffee Exchange. Treasurer and secretary Analomink Paper Co.; director Knickerbocker Mills; trustee East River Savings Bank. Member Penataquit-Corinthian Yacht (rear-commandore) and Lotos Clubs, and Riding and Driving Club of Brooklyn.

O'DONOHUE, FLORINCE—Physician, 314 Clinton street, Syracuse. Born in Syracuse, Oct. 8, 1850. Educated at Onondaga Academy, Cazenovia Seminary and Syracuse University. (Married.) Ex-president New York State Board of Health and New York State Tuberculosis Commission. Member Citizens' Club.

O'DONOHUE, JOSEPH J., JR.—Coffee Merchant, 101 Front street, New York City; residence 262 West 73d street. Member of the firm of Jos. J. O'Donohue's Sons. President and director Brooklyn Ferry Co.; vice-president and director Agatine Shoe Hook and Eyelet Co.; director Eighth Avenue R. R. Co., Evergreen Cemetery, New Jersey Steamboat Co. and Ninth Avenue R. R. Co. Member New York Athletic and Colonial Clubs and Down Town Association.

O'DONOHUE, THOMAS J.—Coffee Merchant, 101 Front street, New York City; residence 550 Park avenue. Born in New York City, Dec. 6, 1866. Educated in New York City. (Married.) Member of the firm of Jos. J. O'Donohue's Sons. Vice-president Agatine Shoe Hook and Eyelet Co.; director New Amsterdam Casualty Co.; trustee Roman Catholic Orphan Asylum. Member New York Athletic Club and Down Town Association.

O'DONOVAN, WILLIAM R.—Sculptor, 105 East 17th street, New York City. Born in Preston County, Va., March 28, 1844. Served in Confederate Army during Civil War. Established a studio in New York City in 1866. Has executed many important portrait busts, bas-reliefs and monuments. Member National Academy of Design.

O'DWYER, EDWARD F.—Judge, 32 Chambers street, New York City; residence 37 West 76th street. Born in New York City, 1860. Educated in public schools and by private tutors; studied law and was admitted to the Bar in 1881. Counsel to the Brooklyn Fire Department, 1882-4; represented the Twenty-first Assembly District on the New York Board of Aldermen, 1885. Was elected to the City Court Bench in 1895 to succeed the late Chief Justice Ehrlich and was subsequently re-elected; present term expires Dec. 31, 1903. Member Democratic Club.

OEHME, JULIUS—Art Galleries, 384 Fifth avenue, New York City; residence 42 East 70th street. Member Grolier and Union League Clubs, American Fine Arts Society and Metropolitan Museum of Art.

OEHRICHS, CHARLES MAY—Stock Broker, 40 Exchange place, New York City; residence 35 Madison avenue. Born in Baltimore, Md., Aug. 27, 1857. Educated at St. Paul's School, Concord, N. H., and at Hanover Polytechnic, Germany. (Married.) Head of the firm of Charles M. Oelrichs & Co., and member of the New York Stock Exchange. Member Union and Metropolitan Clubs.

OEHRICHS, HERMANN—Retired Shipping Merchant, 1 East 57th street, New York City. Born in Baltimore, Md., June 8, 1850. Educated in the United States and in Germany. (Married a daughter of James G. Fair, Esq., of California.) Formerly member of the firm of Oelrichs & Co., American agents for the North-German Lloyd Steamship Co. Director Mount Morris Bank, National Park Bank, Nicaragua Co., Ohio River R. R. Co. and Plaza Bank. Member Manhattan, Metropolitan, Democratic, New York Yacht, Lawyers', Players', Racquet and Tennis and Union Clubs and Liederkrantz.

OGDEN, DAVID B.—Lawyer, 111 Broadway, New York City; residence 12 East Tenth street. Educated at Columbia ('69). Member of the firm of Parsons, Shepard & Ogden. Vice-president and director Lawyers' Title Insurance Co.; treasurer and director

Broadway Theatre Co. and American Theatre Opera Co.; secretary and director Knickerbocker Real Estate Co.; director General American Reduction Co. and Lawyers' Mortgage Insurance Co. Member University, Church, City and Tuxedo Clubs, Columbia University Alumni and Century Associations and Association of the Bar of the City of New York.

OGDEN, FRANCIS LUDLOW—Lawyer, 111 Broadway, New York City; residence 246 Lexington avenue. Educated at Columbia ('74). Member of the firm of Parsons, Shepard & Ogden. Member University and Reform Clubs, Columbia University Alumni Association and Association of the Bar of the City of New York.

OGDEN, HENRY—Real Estate Agent, 7 Pine street and 127 Fifth avenue, New York City; residence 142 East 18th street. Born and educated in New York City. (Single.) Member of the firm of Ogden & Clarkson. Has been engaged in the real estate business since 1868. Member Torrey Botanical and Church Clubs and Scientific Alliance.

OGDEN, HENRY NEELY—Professor, Cornell University, Ithaca; residence 614 University avenue. Educated at Cornell. Degree of C.E. Assistant professor of civil engineering at Cornell University.

OGDEN, LOUIS MANSFIELD—Lawyer, 27 Wilham street, New York City; residence 51 East 30th street. Member Union and Reform Clubs and Sons of the Revolution.

OGDEN, LUDLOW—Lawyer, 4 Warren street, New York City; residence 536 West 148th street. Educated at Columbia ('72). Member University, Church and Delta Phi Clubs, Society of Colonial Wars, Columbia University Alumni Association and Association of the Bar of the City of New York.

OGDEN, MORTIMER C.—Hardware Merchant, 98 Chambers street, New York City; residence 38 Monroe place, Brooklyn. President and director Eagle Lock Co., Southington Cutlery Co. and New York Vitrified Tile Co.; director Peck, Stow & Wilcox Co. and Van Wagoner & Williams Co. Member Hardware Club.

OGDEN, ROBERT C.—Dry Goods Merchant, 784 Broadway, New York City; residence 22 West 55th street. Born in Philadelphia, Pa., June 20, 1836. Educated in Philadelphia. Associated with the house of John Wanamaker. President board of trustees, Hampton (Va.) Institute; director Union Theological Seminary. Member Twilight, Quill, Presbyterian, Nineteenth and Twentieth Century, Union League, National Arts and Army and Navy Clubs, Union League Club of Philadelphia, and Aldine and Century Associations.

OGDEN, WALTER—Real Estate, 46 Cedar street, New York City; residence Morristown, N. J. Born in New York City, Sept. 21, 1848. Educated at Columbia ('70). (Single.) Member University Club, St. Nicholas Society, Columbia Alumni Association and Colonial Order.

OGDEN, WILLIAM B.—Insurance, 20 Liberty street, New York City; residence 173 West 126th street. Born in New York City, Sept. 13, 1841. Educated in public schools and at the College of the City of New York. (Married.) New York City agent Newark Fire Insurance Co. of Newark, N. J., and United Fire Insurance Co. of Baltimore; ex-secretary Brewers' and Maltsters' Insurance Co.; ex-treasurer St. Andrew's Protestant Episcopal Church; chairman Fire Patrol Committee of New York Board of Fire Underwriters. Member Lafayette Post No. 140, G. A. R.

OGILVIE, CLINTON—Artist, 52 East 23d street, New York City; residence 55 West 55th street. Born in New York City, Dec. 28, 1838. Studied painting under James M. Hart, and in Paris, France. Has spent several seasons abroad. Makes a specialty of landscape paintings. Member Camera Club, Century Association and National Academy of Design.

OGILVIE, JOHN S.—Publisher, 57 Rose street, New York City; residence 873 St. Marks avenue, Brooklyn. Director Seventeenth Ward Bank of Brooklyn. Member Union League Club of Brooklyn.

O'GORMAN, JAMES A.—Supreme Court Justice, County Court House, New York City; residence 408 West 42d street. Born in New York City, May 5, 1860. Educated in public schools, at the College of the City of New York and at University Law School. (Married.) Served as Justice of the Tenth District Municipal Court, 1896-9, in which latter year he was elected a Supreme Court Justice for term expiring Dec. 31, 1913. Member New York Athletic, Catholic and Democratic Clubs.

O'KEEFE, JOHN G.—Stock Broker, 66 Broadway, New York City; residence 10 West 123d street. Member of the firm of H. L. Horton & Co., members of the New York Stock Exchange. Member Catholic Club.

O'KENNEDY, J. J. KARBRY—Lawyer, 71 Broadway, New York City. Born in Ireland, May 20, 1862. Educated in Dublin and in Paris; degrees of A.M. and LL.D. from University of Ireland. Practiced as a barrister-at-law at King's Inn, Dublin. (Married.) Member American-Irish Historical Society, Friendly Sons of St. Patrick and King's Inn, Dublin Bar, Munster Bar and Chicago (Ill.) Bar Associations.

OLCOTT, CHAUNCEY—Actor, Grand Opera House, New York City; residence Buffalo. Born in Buffalo, July 21, 1860. Educated in common schools. (Married) Margaret O'Donovan of San Francisco, Cal., 1897.) Made first professional appearance, with R. M. Hooley's Company, in 1880. Succeeded William J. Scanlan as star in Irish musical dramas, and has appeared in various leading roles throughout the United States and England. Member Buffalo Club, Players' and Lambs' Clubs of New York City, and Lyric and Eccentric Clubs of London, England.

OLCOTT, DUDLEY (Lieutenant-Colonel)—Banker, Albany; residence 9 Ten Broeck place. President and trustee Mechanics' and Farmers' Savings Bank; trustee Metropolitan Trust Co. and Mutual Life Insurance Co., both of New York. Member Fort Orange and Country Clubs, Grolier, Metropolitan, Union League and Reform Clubs and Down Town Association of New York City, and Military Order of the Loyal Legion.

OLCOTT, EBEN ERSKINE—Mining Engineer, 18 Broadway, New York City; residence 38 West 29th street. Born in New York City, 1854. Educated at the College of the City of New York and at the School of Mines of Columbia University (E.M., '74). Treasurer and director Hudson River Steamboat Line; director Cairo R. R. Co. and Catskill Mountain Ry. Co. Member University and Engineers' Clubs. Down Town Association, American Society of Civil Engineers, American Institute of Mining Engineers and American Museum of Natural History.

OLCOTT, FREDERICK P.—Banker, 54 Wall street, New York City; residence 4 East 53d street. Born in Albany, N. Y., 1841. Educated at Albany Academy. Connected for many years with the banking firms of Blake Bros. & Co. and Phelps, Stokes & Co., in New York City. Served one term as New York State Comptroller. President and trustee Central Trust Co.; president and director Galveston, Houston and Henderson R. R. Co.; vice-president and director Bank of America; treasurer and director Union Traction and Electrical Co.; director Amalgamated Copper Co., Audit Co. of New York, Brooklyn Elevated R. R. Co., Brooklyn Rapid Transit Co., Brooklyn Wharf and Warehouse Co., Central Realty Bond and Trust Co., Colorado Midland R. R. Co., Colorado and Southern Ry. Co., Magdeburg Fire Insurance Co., National Union Bank, New York, Chicago and St. Louis R. R. Co., Popular Photograph Co., St. Joseph and Grand Island R. R. Co. and Sixth Avenue R. R. Co.; trustee Williamsburg Trust Co. Member Union League, Metropolitan, Manhattan, Turf and Field, Barnard, Riding and Driving, Morristown (N. J.), New York Yacht and Driving Clubs, Chamber of Commerce, Down Town Association, American Museum of Natural History and Metropolitan Museum of Art.

OLCOTT, GEORGE M.—Wholesale Druggist, 86 William street, New York City; residence 146 Remsen street, Brooklyn. Born in Brooklyn, 1835. Educated in Brooklyn and New York. (Married.) Member of the firm of Dodge & Olcott, Director Franklin Safe Deposit Co., Franklin Trust Co., Lloyds Plate Glass

Insurance Co., Market and Fulton National Bank, and First National Bank of Ridgefield, Conn. Member Hamilton Club and New England Society of Brooklyn, Down Town Association and Metropolitan Museum of Art.

OLCOTT, J. VAN VECHTEN—Lawyer, 4 Warren street, New York City; residence 33 West 72d street. Born in New York City, May 17, 1856. Educated at Public School No. 35, and at the College of the City of New York. (Married.) Member of the firm of Olcott & Messiter. Was municipal civil service commissioner under Mayor Strong, 1895-7. Member Merchants', Church, Union League and Colonial Clubs, Sons of the Revolution and Association of the Bar of the City of New York.

OLCOTT, RICHARD MORGAN—Rubber Merchant, 4 Warren street, New York City; residence Hotel Savoy. President and director Amazonas Co. Member Essex County (N. J.) Country, Manhattan, New York Athletic and New York Clubs.

OLCOTT, THOMAS W.—Railroads, 204 East 128th street, New York City; residence 169 West 130th street. Secretary, treasurer and director Tarrytown, White Plains and Mamaroneck Electric Ry. Co., Union Ry. Co. of New York, and Westchester Electric R. R. Co.; secretary and director Amazonas Co.; director Colonial Bank and Southern Boulevard R. R. Co. Member Suburban Riding and Driving, and Democratic Clubs and St. Nicholas Society.

OLCOTT, WILLIAM M. K.—Lawyer, 4 Warren street, New York City; residence 58 West 84th street. Born in New York City, 1862. Educated at Grammar School No. 35, the College of the City of New York and at Columbia College Law School. Began practicing in New York City after his admission to the Bar in 1883, as a member of the firm of Olcott & Olcott. Represented the Twenty-first Assembly District on the Board of Aldermen during 1895-6; was chairman of its Finance Committee and, as such, a member of the Sinking Fund Commission. Served as district attorney of New York County from Dec. 15, 1896 to Dec. 31, 1898, and as a Judge of the City Court, 1898-9. Now member of the firm of Black, Olcott, Gruber & Bonynge. Secretary and director Lawyers' Engineering and Surveying Co. Member Republican Club.

OLDS, EDWARD A.—Soap Manufacturer, 81 Fulton street, New York City; residence 863 President street, Brooklyn. Member Fulton Club, and Montauk and Marine and Field Clubs of Brooklyn.

O'LEARY, CORNELIUS M.—Physician and Professor, 131st street and Broadway, New York City; residence 560 West 133d street. Born in Ireland, 1840. Educated at St. John's College, Fordham, N. Y., and at New York University (M.D., '64). (Married.) Professor of Greek and Latin at Manhattan College.

OLENA, THEOPHILUS—Importer, 46 Vesey street, New York City; residence 179 St. John's place, Brooklyn. Born in Grand Isle County, Vt., Nov. 30, 1832. Educated in public schools. (Married.) Vice-president and trustee City Savings Bank of Brooklyn; director Sprague National Bank of Brooklyn. Ex-president Board of Aldermen for four terms for Brooklyn. First president of Columbian Club, serving two terms; ex-president Brooklyn Central Dispensary and the Newsboys' Home; vice-president Roman Catholic Orphan Asylum Society for twelve years.

OLENDORF, CHARLES D.—Lawyer, 2 Tryon row, New York City; residence 217 West 23d street. Born in Otsego, Otsego Co., N. Y., Feb. 18, 1856. Educated at Cooperstown (N. Y.) High School. (Married.) Assistant corporation counsel New York County. Member Democratic and Manhattan Clubs.

OLHAUSEN, JACOB H.—Transportation, 143 Liberty street, New York City; residence 428 North Broad street, Elizabeth, N. J. President and director New York and New Jersey Car Service Association; general superintendent Central Railroad of New Jersey. Member Engineers' and Railroad Clubs, and Mattano Club of Elizabeth, N. J.

OLIN, M. H.—Banker, Perry. Born in Perry, Dec. 3, 1842. Educated in Perry. (Married.) President and director Citizens' Bank, Perry Knitting Co. and Perry Electric Light Co.; director Robeson Cutlery Co. Also engaged in farming and in the breeding of thoroughbred stock. Member Perry Club.

OLIN, STEPHEN HENRY (Colonel)—Lawyer, 32 Nassau street, New York City; residence 136 East 19th street. Educated at Wesleyan University ('66). Member of the firm of Olin & Rives. Vice-president Association of the Bar of the City of New York; director Broadway Theatre Co. and Lawyers' Surety Co.; trustee New York Public Library (Astor, Lenox and Tilden Foundations). Member City, Players' and University Clubs, Down Town and Century Associations and Society of Colonial Wars.

OLIPHANT, JAMES H.—Banker, 20 Broad street, New York City; residence 335 Washington avenue, Brooklyn. Born in New York City, Oct. 9, 1853. Educated at Grammar School No. 35. Senior member of the firm of James H. Oliphant & Co., and member of the governing committee of the New York Stock Exchange. Director and member of executive committee Manufacturers' Trust Co. of Brooklyn. Member Union League and New York Athletic Clubs, and Crescent Athletic and Hamilton Clubs of Brooklyn.

OLIVER, JOHN S.—Insurance 202 Montague street, Brooklyn; residence 620 Willoughby avenue. Born in Brooklyn. (Single.) Director Farragut Fire Insurance Co. of New York. Member Union League Club.

OLIVER, MATTHEW N.—Clergyman, Tappan. Born in Marbletown, N. Y., Nov. 12, 1834. Educated at Union College ('57). (Married Helen M. Thomson.) Pastor Clover Hill (N. J.) Reformed Church, 1871-84; Rosendale (N. Y.) Reformed Church, 1884-90; Reformed Church of Tappan since 1890. Author of numerous articles in New York religious papers. Member Union College Alumni Association and Phi Beta Kappa Society.

OLIVER, WILLIAM H. P.—Lawyer, 120 Broadway, New York City; residence Morristown, N. J. Born in Annandale, N. Y., Aug. 31, 1871. Educated at Harvard and at New York Law School. (Married.) Engaged with the firm of Alexander & Green. Member Harvard Club.

OLLIVE, THOMAS S.—Manufacturer, 78 Tenth avenue, New York City; residence 23 West 74th street. President and director Lebanon Mining Co.; director National Biscuit Co. Member Colonial, Fulton and Commercial Clubs.

OLMSTEAD, DWIGHT HINCKLEY—Retired Lawyer, 30 West 72d street, New York City. Member Union League, Nineteenth Century and Colonial Clubs, New England Society, National Academy of Design, American Museum of Natural History and Association of the Bar of the City of New York.

OLMSTED, EVERETT WARD—Professor, Cornell University, Ithaca; residence 730 University avenue. Born in Galesburg, Ill., May 12, 1869. Educated at Cornell; degrees of Ph.B. and Ph.D. (Married.) Assistant professor of the Romance languages, Cornell University. Member Beta Theta Pi Fraternity.

OLMSTED, HENRY C.—Lawyer and City Judge, Municipal Building, Binghamton; residence 212 Washington street. Born in Binghamton, 1863. Educated at Cornell (A.B., '85 and LL.B., '88). (Single.) Ex-Recorder of the city of Binghamton. Member Broome County Country and Binghamton Clubs.

OLMSTED, H. R.—Hardware Merchant, 413 Clinton street, Syracuse; residence 1026 South Salina street. Born in Wolcott, N. Y., June 8, 1829. Educated at Lyons Union School. (Married.) Senior member of the firm of H. R. Olmsted & Son. President of the Board of Education of Syracuse for two years. Member Citizens' Club and Masonic Veterans' Association.

OLMSTED, THEODORE F.—Cashier, Geneseo. Born in Lakeville, N. Y., Sept. 16, 1836. Educated at Canandaigua Academy. (Married.) Entered the Geneseo Valley Bank as teller and bookkeeper, Feb. 24, 1858; appointed assistant cashier in 1883, and cashier in December, 1887. Treasurer of Livingston County, 1871-5; secretary and treasurer of the Board of Water Commissioners for the past thirteen years. Has been treasurer of Temple Hill Cemetery Association for twenty-seven years and trustee of the village of Geneseo for six years.

OLMSTED, WILLARD H.—City Magistrate, New York City; residence 630 West 147th street. Born in Connecticut about 1858. Educated in Auburn, N. Y., where he studied law and was admitted to the Bar. Resided for many years in Auburn; served for a time as city clerk and as a leading member of the volunteer fire department. Resident of New York City since 1887; engaged in newspaper work until 1897, in which year he was appointed a City Magistrate; term expires May 1, 1907.

OLNEY, GEORGE W.—Insurance Journalist, 58 William street, New York City; residence 51 St. Nicholas place. Born in Charleston, S. C., of Rhode Island ancestry, June 5, 1835. Educated in private schools of Charleston, University Grammar School, Providence, R. I., and Harvard (LL.B., '55). One of the publishers of the "Daily Day Book," then the Southern organ in New York City, 1858-61. During the Civil War served on staff of the "Richmond Enquirer," reporting the first Confederate Senate, and was war correspondent and subsequently editor of the Charleston "Courier"; dramatic writer on the New York "Herald," 1866; editorial writer on the New York "World," 1868-76; his connection with insurance journalism began in 1873 as editor of the "Spectator," continuing until 1876. Became connected with the "New York Underwriter" (now "Weekly Underwriter") in 1878, where he is still connected as editor and vice-president of the Underwriter Printing and Publishing Co. Author of several statistical works and editor of the "World Almanac" since 1870. Member Harvard and Press Clubs, American Statistical (Fellow) and Harvard Law School Associations, Royal Statistical Society of London, England (Fellow), Rhode Island State Society of the Order of the Cincinnati (secretary), Society of American Authors, Military Order of Foreign Wars, Society of Colonial Wars, Society of the War of 1812 and Sons of the Revolution.

OLNEY, PETER BUTLER—Lawyer, 31 Nassau street, New York City; residence Lawrence, L. I. Born in Oxford, Mass., 1843. Educated at Phillips Andover Academy and at Harvard College ('64) and Law School. (Married.) Member of the firm of Olney & Comstock. Was a commissioner to compile and revise the laws of the State affecting public interests in the City of New York, 1879-80; district attorney New York County, 1883-4. Member Lawyers', Harvard and University Clubs, New England Society, Century Association and Association of the Bar of the City of New York.

OLSEN, WILLIAM WHITTINGHAM—Protestant Episcopal Clergyman, Annandale. Born in New York City, May 11, 1827. Educated at Columbia University (A.B., '46, A.M., '50 and S.T.D., '76) and at General Theological Seminary (D.D., '49). Deacon, 1849; priest, 1851. Rector of St. James Church, Scarsdale, 1851-71. Professor of mathematics at St. Stephen's College, Annandale, 1871-3 and of Greek and Hebrew literature since 1873. Author of several works.

OLYPHANT, FRANK MURRAY—Railroads, 21 Cortlandt street, New York City; residence Englewood, N. J. Secretary and director Cherry Valley, Sharon and Albany R. R. Co. and Schenectady and Duaneburg R. R. Co.; secretary Delaware and Hudson Canal Co.; director Adirondack Ry. Co. and New York and Canada R. R. Co. Member Sons of the Revolution.

OLYPHANT, JOHN KENSETT—Wholesale Coal Merchant, 21 Cortlandt street, New York City; residence 59 East 54th street. Born in Irvington, N. Y., Sept. 6, 1862. (Married.) Member of the firm of Ward & Olyphant. Member Metropolitan, Union and Riding Clubs, Sons of the Revolution, Down Town Association, Society of Colonial Wars, and Military Order of Foreign Wars.

OLYPHANT, ROBERT (General)—Wholesale Coal Merchant, 21 Cortlandt street, New York City; residence 3 East 69th street. Born in New York City, Aug. 26, 1853. (Married.) Senior member of the firm of Ward & Olyphant. President and director Albany and Susquehanna R. R. Co.; president New York Infirmary for Women and Children; director Adirondack Ry. Co., British-American Insurance Co., Cherry Valley, Sharon and Albany R. R. Co., Hudson River Ore and Iron Co., New York and Canada R. R. Co., Schenectady and Duaneburg R. R. Co., United States Mortgage and Trust Co., and Fidelity Bank; trustee Mutual Life Insurance Co. of New York, Continental Trust Co. and Title Guarantee and Trust Co.; member of executive committee Saturday and Sunday Hospital Association. Was an aide and general inspector of rifle practice on staff of Governor Robinson and chief-of-staff of 1st Brigade, N. G. N. Y., during General Ward's term. Member Union, Metropolitan, City, National Arts and Lawyers' Clubs, Down Town Association, Military Order of Foreign Wars, Society of Colonial Wars, Sons of the Revolution, American Museum of Natural History, Military Society of the War of 1812, Metropolitan Museum of Art and National Academy of Design.

OLYPHANT, ROBERT M.—President, 21 Cortlandt street, New York City; residence 160 Madison avenue. Educated at Columbia. President and director Delaware and Hudson Co.; director Adirondack Ry. Co., Albany and Susquehanna R. R. Co. and Cherry Valley, Sharon and Albany R. R. Co. Member American Geographical Society, Sons of the Revolution, Columbia University Alumni Association, National Academy of Design and Metropolitan Museum of Art.

OLYPHANT, TALBOT—Iron Manufacturer, 21 Cortlandt street, New York City; residence 64 Riverside Drive. Born in Morristown, N. J., Nov. 16, 1844. Educated in private classes and Charlier Institute, New York City. (Married.) Vice-president of several iron companies. Treasurer Society for Promotion of the Gospel among Seamen in the Port of New York; secretary New York State Society of the Cincinnati, also of the International Institute of China; historian Sons of the Revolution; delegate to General Society of the Cincinnati, and has been delegate several times to General Society Sons of the Revolution. Member Society of the Cincinnati, National Academy of Design (Fellow) and Sons of the Revolution.

OMMEN, ALFRED E.—Lawyer, 160 Broadway, New York City; residence 41 Marion street. Born in New York City, June 30, 1870. Educated in public schools, at an evening high school and at New York University Law School. (Single.) Admitted to the Bar in 1894. Candidate on Republican ticket for State senator Eleventh District in 1898, and for Justice Second Municipal Court in 1899. Secretary Republican Club of the City of New York; corresponding secretary Society of Medical Jurisprudence; worshipful master Chancellor Walworth Lodge No. 271, F. & A. M., thirty-second degree Masons, Noble Order of the Mystic Shrine, and counsel and honorary member Civic Club.

ONDERDONK, ANDREW J.—Lawyer, 60 Wall street, New York City; residence 171 Park place, Brooklyn. Born in Manhasset, Long Island, N. Y., March 23, 1847. Member Atlantic Yacht and Lawyers' Clubs, Riding and Driving Club of Brooklyn, and Holland, St. Nicholas, Long Island Historical and New York Genealogical Societies.

ONDERDONK, THOMAS W.—Dentist, 10 East 34th street, New York City; residence Brooklyn. Born in Roslyn, Long Island, N. Y., Dec. 13, 1860. Educated in public schools and at New York College of Dentistry. (Married.) Member Holland Society, Stomatological Institute, First District Dental Society of New York and New York College of Dentistry Alumni Association.

ONDERDONK, WILLIAM AUGUSTUS—Lawyer, Hempstead, L. I. Born in Gallipolis, Gallia Co., Ohio, May 3, 1859. (Son of Henry M. and Catharine C. Onderdonk.) Educated at Gallipolis Academy, Trinity School in Brooklyn, and at Fairchild Institute in Flushing. Studied law and was admitted to the Bar in Poughkeepsie on May 14, 1880. Practiced in New York City until 1887 when he removed his office to Hempstead. Makes a specialty of real estate law.

O'NEIL, CHARLES A.—Lawyer, 229 Broadway, New York City; residence 159 West 132d street. Member Catholic Club, Columbia University Alumni Association and Association of the Bar of the City of New York.

OOTHOOT, WILLIAM—Engineer, 218 Madison avenue, New York City. Born in New York City, 1856. Educated at College Chapel, Paris, University of Berlin, Germany, and at Bellevue Hospital Medical College in New York City. (Married.) Member Union Club.

OPDYCKE, LEONARD ECKSTEIN—Lawyer, 20 Nassau street, New York City; residence 41 West 21st street. Born in Warren, Ohio, Sept. 26, 1858. Educated at Harvard ('80) and Harvard Law School. (Married.) Secretary New York Association for Improving the Condition of the Poor. Member University Club, New York Historical and American Fine Arts Societies and Metropolitan Museum of Art.

OPDYKE, HENRY—Lawyer, 20 Nassau street, New York City; residence 45 West 35th street, and Farragut Road, Plainfield, N. J. Born in Brooklyn, N. Y., Aug. 27, 1870. Educated in private schools, by private tutors, at Yale and at Columbia Law School. (Single.) Deputy to receiver of American Loan and Trust Co., 1898-1900. Member City and Calumet Clubs and Association of the Bar of the City of New York.

OPDYKE, WILLIAM S.—Lawyer, 20 Nassau street, New York City; residence Alpine, N. J. Born in New York City, Oct. 6, 1836. Educated at New York University. (Married.) Member of the firm of Opdyke, Willcox & Bristow. Director Fourth National Bank; member of Council of New York University. New York councilman, 1864, and member of New York State Assembly, 1873. Member Metropolitan, University and Reform Clubs, Down Town Association, American Geographical and Holland Societies and Association of the Bar of the City of New York.

OPPENHEIM, NATHAN—Physician and Author, 50 East 79th street, New York City. Born in Albany, N. Y., Oct. 17, 1865. Educated at Albany High School, Harvard College, New York College of Physicians and Surgeons, and in Berlin, Munich, Vienna and Frankfurt; degree of A.M. (Married.) Attending physician to children's department of Mt. Sinai Hospital Dispensary. Formerly house physician to City Hospital. Author of "The Development of the Child" and "The Medical Diseases of Childhood." Member Harvard Club, Metropolitan Medical and New York County Medical Societies, Academy of Medicine, New York County Medical Association and Deutsche Medicinische Gesellschaft.

OPPENHEIMER, HENRY S.—Physician, 16 East 32d street, New York City. Member Reform and Salmagundi Clubs, Liederkrantz, Society of Medical Jurisprudence and American Museum of Natural History.

OPPER, FREDERICK B.—Artist, 154 Nassau street, New York City; residence Bensonhurst. Born in Madison, Lake Co., Ohio, Jan. 2, 1857. Educated in Madison, Ohio. Stockholder in Keppler & Schwarzmann Corporation, publishers of "Puck." Member New York Canoe and Players' Clubs.

ORCUTT, CALVIN B.—Capitalist, 1 Broadway, New York City; residence Elizabeth, N. J. President and director Chesapeake and Ohio Coal Agency Co., Newport News (Va.) Light and Water Co., Newport News Shipbuilding and Dry Dock Co. and Old Dominion Land Co. Member Lawyers' and Congregational Clubs, Scientific Alliance and American Society of Naval Engineers.

ORDRONAUX, JOHN—Lawyer, 30 Broad street, New York City; residence Roslyn, L. I. Born in New York City, Aug. 3, 1830. Educated at Dartmouth College ('50), at Harvard Law School ('52) and at National Medical College of Columbian University (M.D., '59). Degree of LL.D. from Trinity College in 1870 and from Dartmouth College in 1895. Served in a surgical capacity in Union Army during Civil War. Lecturer on medical jurisprudence to Dartmouth College, University of Vermont, Boston University and Columbia University, 1865-73. New York State Commissioner in Lunacy, 1872-82, when retired voluntarily, having served under Governors Dix, Tilden, Robinson and Cornell. Has practiced in New York City since 1882 and has been lecturer on medical jurisprudence in the Columbia College Law School since 1861. Author of numerous works on medical jurisprudence and of many published articles in magazines and periodicals. Member Republican Club and Dartmouth College Alumni Association.

ORDWAY, SAMUEL H.—Lawyer, 31 Nassau street, New York City; residence 152 West 57th street. Educated at Brown ('80). Director Sombreter Mining Co. and Potosi and Rio Verde Ry. Co. Member University, Harvard and Nineteenth Century Clubs, Phi Beta Kappa Society, Brown University Alumni Association and Association of the Bar of the City of New York.

O'REILLY, DANIEL—Lawyer, 346 Broadway, and Criminal Court Building, New York City; residence 19 West 139th street. Born in New York City, August, 1869. Educated in public schools, at the College of the City of New York and at Columbia Law School. Practicing in New York City since his admission to the Bar in 1892. Deputy assistant district attorney New York County under Asa Bird Gardiner. Member Colonial Club.

ORMISTON, THOMAS S.—Lawyer, 7 Nassau street, New York City; residence New Jersey. Educated at Columbia. Member of the firm of Ormiston & McCormack. Member Colonial, Lawyers' and Delta Kappa Epsilon Clubs, Columbia University Alumni Association and Association of the Bar of the City of New York.

ORMSBEE, HERMANN W.—Advertising, 24 Broadway, Brooklyn; residence 55 Willow street. Born in Portland, Me., Feb. 23, 1850. (Married.) Member Brooklyn and Hamilton Clubs, Society of Colonial Wars and Sons of the American Revolution.

ORNDOFF, WILLIAM RIDGELY—Professor, Cornell University, Ithaca; residence 108 Cascadilla place. Educated at Johns Hopkins University. Degrees of A.B. and Ph.D. Assistant professor of organic chemistry at Cornell University.

ORNE, HENRY MERRILL—General Secretary, 3 West 29th street, New York City; residence 52 East 23d street. Born in Memphis, Tenn., Jan. 25, 1859. Educated at Rutgers College (A.M.). (Married.) General secretary Young Men's Christian Association. Member Society of Colonial Wars and Rutgers College Alumni Association.

O'RORKE, JOHN J.—Wholesale Grocer, 61 Hudson street, New York City; residence Commercial Club. Born in Richmond, Surrey, England, April 23, 1855. Educated at Harrow College, England. (Married.) Director American Compressed Food Co. of Passaic, N. J. Member St. Andrew's Golf and Commercial Clubs, St. George's and Philistine Societies and Merchants' Association.

ORR, ALEXANDER ECTOR—Grain Merchant, 102 Produce Exchange, New York City; residence 102 Remsen street, Brooklyn. Born in Ireland, March 2, 1831. Educated in Ireland. (Married.) In business in New York City since 1851. Was president of the New York Produce Exchange, of which he has been a member since 1859, for two years, and of the Chamber of Commerce of the State of New York for five years. President of the Rapid Transit Commission of New York City; president and trustee South Brooklyn Savings Institution; president New York Produce Exchange Safe Deposit and Storage Co.; vice-president Mechanics' National Bank and Union Ferry Co.; director Bond and Mortgage Guarantee Co., Chicago, Rock Island and Pacific R. R. Co., Continental Insurance Co., Erie R. R. Co., Fidelity and Casualty Co., Delaware and Hudson Co., National Bank of Commerce and New York Produce Exchange Bank; trustee Brooklyn Institute of Arts and Sciences, United States Trust Co., Title Guarantee and Trust Co., Guaranty Trust Co. and New York Public Library (Astor, Lenox and Tilden Foundations); also connected with other corporations and public institutions in an official capacity. Member City Club, Hamilton, Atlantic Yacht and Marine and Field Clubs of Brooklyn, Down Town Association and American Geographical Society.

ORR, WILLIAM CHARLES—Lawyer, 49 Chambers street, New York City; residence 50 West 76th street. Born in Brooklyn, N. Y., Dec. 5, 1851. (Son of Edward and Mary [Lafferty] Orr.) Educated at a private school and at St. Francis Xavier College (A.B., '68 and A.M., '69). Practicing in New York City since his admission to the Bar in 1874. Counsel to several large banking institutions. Member Lawyers', Catholic, New York and Olympic Clubs.

ORTON, JOHN G.—Physician and Surgeon, Binghamton; residence 215 Main street. Born in Seneca Falls, N. Y., Dec. 5, 1827. Educated at New York University. (Married.) First vice-president and director Binghamton Savings Bank; director Stickley-Brandt Chair Co.; United States examining surgeon. Member International Medical Congress and American Medical Association and Fellow New York State Medical Association and Binghamton Academy of Medicine.

ORVIS, CHARLES E.—Banker, 44 Broadway, New York City; residence 41 West 81st street. Born in New York State, Jan. 1, 1849. (Son of Joseph U. and Mary E. Orvis.) (Married Sarah M. Boyd.) Member of the firm of Orvis Brothers & Co., members of the New York Stock Exchange. Formerly New York State Bank Examiner and State Inspector of Rifle Practice with rank of colonel. Director Standard Gas Light Co. Member New York Athletic Club and New England Society.

ORVIS, EDWIN W.—Banker, 44 Broadway, New York City; residence 58 West 89th street. Born in Troy, N. Y., 1853. (Son of Joseph U. and Mary E. Orvis.) (Married.) Member of the firm of Orvis Brothers & Co., and of the New York Stock, Pittsburg Stock and New York Produce Exchanges and Chicago Board of Trade. Vice-president and director Colonial Bank; director New York Stencil Works; lieutenant 7th Regiment Veteran Association. Member New York Athletic Club and New England Society.

OSBORN, ALBERT E.—Wholesale Paper Merchant, 54 Franklin street, New York City; residence 22 Summit street, East Orange, N. J. Born in Brooklyn, N. Y., June 13, 1851. Educated at Peddie Institute, Hightstown, N. J. (Married.) Member of the firm of Osborn & Wilson. Member Wool Club, Union League Club of Brooklyn, Republican Club of East Orange, and Mastigouche Fish and Game Club of Montreal, Canada.

OSBORN, BENNETT, Jr.—Manufacturing Jeweler, 41 Union square, West, New York City; residence 115 Plane street, Newark, N. J. Born in Whippany, N. J., Aug. 28, 1853. Educated in Newark. (Married.) Member of the firm of Bippart & Co.

OSBORN, EDWARD C.—Secretary, 31 Nassau street and 88 Gold street, New York City; residence 30 Orange street, Brooklyn. Secretary, treasurer and director Chattanooga Southern R. R. Co.; secretary, general manager and director Poughkeepsie and Eastern R. R. Co.; assistant secretary Standard Gas Light Co. of New York City; director Albia and Centreville Ry. Co. Formerly secretary and director Hamilton Bank Note Engraving and Printing Co.

OSBORN, HENRY FAIRFIELD—Professor, 116th street and Morningside Heights, and Curator, 77th street and Central Park, West, New York City; residence 850 Madison avenue. Born in Fairfield, Conn., Aug. 8, 1857. Educated at Princeton ('77). Degree of Sc.D. (Married Lucretia, daughter of Gen. Alexander J. Perry, United States Army, 1881.) Da Costa Professor of zoology at Columbia University in the City of New York; curator in charge of department of vertebrate paleontology at American Museum of Natural History. Director Brearley School (Ltd.) and Columbia University Press; chairman of executive committee and first vice-president New York Zoological Society. Member Riding, Barnard, University and Princeton Clubs, Century Association and Scientific Alliance.

OSBORN, ROBERT A.—Importer of Wines, 70 Broad street, New York City; residence 2 Rutherford place. Member of the firm of John Osborn's Sons & Co. Member Tuxedo, New York Yacht, Larchmont Yacht, Calumet, Atlantic Yacht and Corinthian Yacht Clubs.

OSBORN, WILLIAM—Importer of Wines, 70 Broad street, New York City; residence Portchester. Member of the firm of John Osborn's Sons & Co. Member Democratic, New York Yacht, Larchmont Yacht and Corinthian Yacht Clubs.

OSBORN, WILLIAM CHURCH—Lawyer, 71 Broadway, New York City; residence 40 East 36th street. Educated at Princeton ('83). Member University, Reform, Princeton and Manhattan Clubs, Century and Down Town Associations, Scientific Alliance and Association of the Bar of the City of New York.

OSBORNE, CHARLES—Manufacturing Silver-smith, 871 Broadway, New York City; residence 1228 Madison avenue. Director Whiting Mfg Co. Member Salmagundi Club, New York Sculpture Society, 7th Regiment, N. G. N. Y., and Metropolitan Museum of Art.

OSBORNE, CHARLES W.—Cashier, 31 Nassau street, New York City; residence 785 Carroll street, Brooklyn. Born in East Hampton, Long Island, N. Y.; Aug. 25, 1839. Educated at Clinton Academy, East Hampton. (Married.) Cashier for Russell Sage, Esq. Vice-president and director Poughkeepsie and Eastern Ry. Co.; secretary and director Gold Car Heating Co.; director Albia and Centreville Ry. Co. Ex-director German-American Real Estate Title Guarantee Co.; ex-trustee Sag Harbor (L. I.) Savings Bank.

OSBORNE, JAMES W.—Lawyer, 253 Broadway, and Criminal Court Building, New York City; residence 331 West 57th street. Born in Charlotte, N. C., Jan. 5, 1859. (Son of Hon. James W. Osborne.) Educated at Davidson College and at New York Law School. (Married.) Member of the firm of Lamb, Osborne & Petty. Was appointed a deputy assistant district attorney by De Lancey Nicoll in 1892; was re-appointed by Col. John R. Fellows, who promoted him to chief deputy and later to assistant district attorney, and retained as such by his successors, William M. K. Olcott and Asa Bird Gardner. Member Democratic Club and Southern Society.

OSBORNE, JOHN H.—Manufacturer of Agricultural Implements, 130 South street, Auburn. Born in Harrison, Westchester Co., N. Y., Aug. 24, 1832. (Married.) Secretary D. M. Osborne & Co. Member Adirondack League and Grolier Clubs of New York City.

OSBORNE, JOSEPH S.—Banker and General Business, East Hampton, L. I. Born in East Hampton, Feb. 11, 1852. Educated at Clinton Academy, East Hampton. (Married.) Vice-president and director Queens and Suffolk Mutual Insurance Co. Has held the office of town clerk for twenty-six years consecutively. Member Wampanam Lodge No. 437, F. & A. M., and Hampton Lodge No. 575, I. O. O. F.

OSBORNE, SAMUEL DUFFIELD—Author, Madison Square Garden Tower, New York City. Born in Brooklyn, N. Y., June 20, 1858. Educated at Brooklyn Polytechnic Institute, Columbia College (A.B., '79 and A.M., '82) and at Columbia College Law School ('81). (Single.) Author of "The Spell of Ashtaroth," "The Robe of Nessus," "A Mountain Moloch" and of many other works. Member Authors' Club.

OSBORNE, THOMAS MOTT—Manufacturer of Agricultural Implements, Auburn. Born in Auburn, Sept. 23, 1859. Educated in Auburn, at Adams Academy, Quincy, Mass., and at Harvard ('84). (Widower.) Member of Auburn Board of Education for nine years and president for two years. Delegate to National Democratic Convention, Chicago, Ill., 1896; National Gold Democratic Convention, Indianapolis, Ind., 1896, and Monetary Conventions of 1897 and 1898. President D. M. Osborne & Co., Owasco River R. R. Co. and George Junior Republic Association; trustee Columbian Cordage Co., Auburn Savings Bank, Auburn Business Men's Association and of other organizations. Member University, Harvard and Reform Clubs of New York City, National Civic Club of Brooklyn, and University Club of Chicago, Ill.

OSGOOD, HERBERT L.—Professor, 116th street and Morningside Heights, New York City; residence 526 West 150th street. Born in Canton, Me., April 9, 1855. Educated at Amherst College ('77). Degree of Ph.D. from Columbia University in 1889. (Married.) Professor of history at Columbia University since 1890. Author of a variety of essays and reviews on American colonial history and political economy. Member of the board of editors of the "Political Science Quarterly" and of the "Columbia University Studies in History, Economics and Public Law." Member New York Historical Society and American Historical and Amherst Alumni Associations.

OSGOOD, HOWARD—Baptist Clergyman, Rochester. Born in Plaquemine Parish, La., Jan. 4, 1831. Educated at Harvard (A.B.). Degrees of D.D. from Brown University in 1868 and LL.D. from Princeton in 1894. (Married Caroline Townsend Lawrence in 1853, who died in 1898.) Ordained to Baptist ministry in 1856. Pastor in Flushing, L. I., 1856-8, and in New York City, 1860-6. Professor of Hebrew at Crozer Theological Seminary, Philadelphia, Pa., 1864-74; same chair at Rochester Theological Seminary since 1875. Member of the American committee of revision of the Old Testament.

OSGOOD, JOHN C.—Mining, 71 Broadway, New York City; residence Denver, Colo. Born in Brooklyn, N. Y., March 6, 1851. President Colorado Fuel and Iron Co. Member Manhattan, Lawyers' and Players' Clubs and American Museum of Natural History.

OSGOOD, WILLIAM B.—Bicycle Dealer, 237 Broadway, New York City, and 611 Fulton street, Brooklyn; residence 265 Schermerhorn street, Brooklyn. Connected with the Osgood Cycle Co. Member Union League Club of Brooklyn, U. S. Grant Post, G. A. R., F. & A. M., and Ex-Prisoners of War Association.

O'SHAUGHNESSY, JAMES F.—Promoter, 35 Wall street, New York City; residence 13 West 56th street. Member New York Yacht, Manhattan, Catholic, Jekyl Island, Metropolitan and Tuxedo Clubs and Southern Society.

OSTROM, JOHN N.—Bridge Engineer, Park Building, Pittsburg, Pa.; residence East Randolph, N. Y. Born in Corinth, N. Y., June 6, 1851. Educated at Cornell (B.C.E., '77 and C.E., '94). (Single.) Assistant engineer Chicago, Burlington and Quincy R. R., 1882-5; bridge engineer Gulf, Colorado and Santa Fe R. R., 1886-7, and bridge and division engineer Gulf, Colorado and Santa Fe R. R., 1887-8. Member Cornell University Club of New York City, Psi Upsilon Fraternity, American Society of Civil Engineers and Western Society of Engineers.

O'SULLIVAN, SYLVESTER J.—Manager, 140 Broadway, New York City; residence Hotel Kensington. Born in Prescott, Ontario, Canada, June 19, 1846. Educated in public schools. (Widower.) Resident manager United States Fidelity and Guaranty Co. of Baltimore, Md. Member Manhattan Club.

O'SWALD, CHARLES PERCY—Manager, 37 Broadway, New York City; residence 33 West 39th street. Born in Hamburg, Germany, Sept. 1, 1866. Educated in Hamburg. (Single.) Manager Hamburg-American Line; secretary Hamburg-American Line Terminal and Navigation Co. Member Larchmont Yacht, Racquet and Tennis, and New York Yacht Clubs, New York Produce and Maritime Exchanges and Deutscher Verein.

OTHEMAN, FRANCIS W.—Woolen Goods Merchant, 22 White street, New York City; residence 41 East 53d street. Member Union League and Merchants' Clubs and New England Society.

OTIS, A. WALKER—Lawyer, 111 Broadway, New York City; residence 70 West 82d street. Member of the firm of Otis & Pressinger. Member Democratic and Patria Clubs, Sons of the Revolution and Association of the Bar of the City of New York.

OTIS, CHARLES HARRISON—Lawyer, 189 Montague street, Brooklyn; residence 108 Joralemon street. Educated at Harvard ('73). Member University and Harvard Clubs of New York City, and Hamilton Club of Brooklyn.

OTIS, CHARLES R.—Elevator Manufacturer, 88 Buena Vista avenue, Yonkers. Born in Troy, N. Y., April 29, 1835. (Married.) Founder of Otis Bros. & Co., and for twenty-five years president of same. Retired in February, 1890. Member of Board of Councilors New York University, and Board of Education, Yonkers. Trustee Peoples' Savings Bank, Yonkers, and Northfield Seminary, East Northfield, Mass. Member Automobile Club of America.

OTIS, ELWELL S.—Major-General, United States Army; residence Rochester. Educated in Rochester. (Married.) Military Governor of the Philippine Islands, 1898-1900.

OTIS, FRANCIS J.—"The Locusts," Bellport, L. I. Born in New York City. (Single.) Member Union, Racquet and Tennis, Riding, Knickerbocker and Strollers' Clubs.

OTIS, FRANK A.—Lawyer, "The Locusts," Bellport, L. I. Born in New York City. Educated at Columbia ('61) and at Columbia Law School ('64). (Married.) Member Catholic, Union, and Racquet and Tennis Clubs and New England Society.

OTIS, JOHN C.—Physician, 319 Mill street, Poughkeepsie. Born in Stanford, Dutchess Co., N. Y., Jan. 4, 1847. Educated at Dutchess County Academy, University of Vermont, and at New York Homeopathic Medical College. (Married.) President Delamater Carriage Co.; director Farmers' and Manufacturers' National Bank; member of the Board of Health since 1888; trustee Poughkeepsie Rural Cemetery and St. Barnabas Foundation; vestryman Christ Church. President of Dutchess County Homeopathic Medical Society for ten years. Member Amrita, Golf, Tennis and Dutchess Clubs, Reform Club of New York City, and New York State Homeopathic Medical and Dutchess County Homeopathic Medical Societies.

OTIS, NORTON P.—Elevator Manufacturer, 38 Park row, New York City; residence Yonkers. Was mayor of Yonkers, member of the State Legislature and president of the New York State Commission to the Paris Exposition. Chairman board of directors Otis Elevator Co. Member Fulton, Adirondack League and Engineers' Clubs and Metropolitan Museum of Art.

OTIS, RICHARD C.—Farmer, Denmark. Born in Denmark, May 25, 1858. Educated in Denmark and Rochester. (Married.) Member of the firm of Cook & Otis. Director Carthage National Bank. Was assessor of town one term. Now supervisor town of Denmark; adjuster-at-large Jefferson County P. F. R. A. Member Congregational Church and Denmark Grange.

OTIS, WILLIAM K.—Physician, 5 West 50th street, New York City. Educated at Columbia ('82). Member University, Players', and Racquet and Tennis Clubs and Columbia University Alumni and Century Associations.

OTTENDORFER, OSWALD—Journalist, Tryon row, New York City; residence 150 Central Park, South. Born in Zwittau, Austria, Feb. 26, 1826. Educated at the Universities of Vienna and Prague. (Married Mrs. Anna Uhl in 1859, who died in 1884.) Was active in the revolutions in Vienna against the Metternich Government in 1848, and later in the Schleswig-Holstein War against Denmark, and in the revolutions in Saxony and Baden. Resident of New York City since 1850. Served as alderman, 1872-4; candidate for mayor, 1874. Founded a home on Long Island for aged and indigent men; also the Isabella Heimath and Ottendorfer Free Library in New York City. President and director New Yorker Staats Zeitung Corporation, proprietors of the "New Yorker Staats Zeitung." Member Manhattan, City, Reform and Patria Clubs, American Geographical and Arion Societies, Century Association, Scientific Alliance and Liederkrantz.

OTTERBOURG, EUGENE—Lawyer, 170 Broadway, New York City; residence 115 East 54th street. Member of the firm of Otterbourg, Jenks & Springs. Director Park Building and Loan Association. Member Democratic Club, Liederkrantz, Tammany Society, New York Law Institute, State Bar Association and Association of the Bar of the City of New York.

OTTLEY, JAMES H.—Patterns, 146 West 14th street, New York City; residence 260 West 73d street. Born in New York City, 1857. Educated in New York City. (Married.) President, treasurer and director McCall Co.

OTTMANN, LOUIS—Provision Dealer, 25 Fulton Market, New York City; residence 38 West 73d street. President and director William Ottmann & Co. and J. Ottmann Lithographing Co.; director Eastmans Co. Member New York Athletic, Reform and Fulton Clubs and Liederkrantz.

OTTO, ALBERT T.—Engineer, 32 Broadway, New York City; residence 110th street and Seventh avenue. Born in Baltimore, Md., January, 1857. Educated in America and Germany. (Married.) President and director American Motor Co.; vice-president, general manager and director Automobile Co. of America. Member Automobile Club of America.

OTTO, GUSTAV—China Merchant, 30 Barclay street, New York City; residence 929 Bloomfield street, Hoboken, N. J. Secretary and director Bawo & Dotter Co. Member Hardware Club.

OTTO, JOHN, JR.—Real Estate, 409 Mutual Life Building, Buffalo; residence 394 Franklin street. Educated at Hamilton College. Member of the firm of John Otto & Sons. Member Buffalo and Ellicott Clubs, Sons of the American Revolution and Hamilton College Alumni Association.

OTTO, WILLIAM E. (Captain)—Real Estate, 409 Real Estate Exchange, Buffalo; residence 51 Park street. Born July 1, 1864. Educated in Buffalo. (Married.) Member of the firm of John Otto & Sons. Member Army and Navy Club of New York City, Sons of the American Revolution, and Republican League of Buffalo.

ODIN, LUCIEN—Lawyer, 45 Broadway, New York City; residence Watermill, L. I. Member of the firm of Oudin & Oakley. Director American Lithographic Co. and Round Island Co. Member Reform and Democratic Clubs, Century Association and Association of the Bar of the City of New York.

OUTERBRIDGE, PAUL—Physician, 52 West 53d street, New York City. Born in Bermuda, Dec. 14, 1859. Educated by private tutors, at University of Vermont ('84), and in New York, London and Paris. (Married.) An alumnus of New York and Woman's Hospitals; member of the staff of the General Memorial and Old Marion Street Maternity Hospitals. Member New York Athletic and Calumet Clubs, Ardsley Casino of Ardsley-on-Hudson, and of many medical societies.

OVERBAUGH, DE WITT C.—Building Materials, Kingsbridge road near 227th street, New York City; residence Marble Hill. Born in Saugerties, Ulster Co., N. Y., Aug. 6, 1840. Educated in district schools and at Hartwick Seminary. Member of the firm of Overbaugh & Camp. Organized and was president of the syndicate which erected the Grand Hotel in the Catskill Mountains. Served for several years as a member of the Common Council and as president of the Board of Education of the City of Kingston. Was a member of the Committee of Seventy in 1894. Member Building Material Exchange and North Side Board of Trade.

OWEN, EDWARD—Commissioner, 280 Broadway, New York City; residence 320 Manhattan avenue. Born in Cincinnati, Ohio. Educated in public schools and at Kenyon College. (Married.) Served throughout Civil War and was twice severely wounded. Connected with the office of the Commissioners of Accounts in New York City since 1885, and is a member of the Board since 1893. Commander Confederate Veteran Camp of New York; member of executive committee Southern Society.

OWEN, FRANK W.—Boonville. Born in Albany, N. Y., Sept. 1, 1860. Educated at Trinity College. (Single.) Treasurer Turin Canning Co. Member Calumet, St. Anthony and Commercial Clubs of New York City, Fort Schuyler Club of Utica, and Boonville Lodge, F. & A. M.

OWEN, HENRY E.—Physician, 40 West 56th street, New York City. Educated at Yale ('64). Director Aachen and Munich Fire Insurance Co. Member University and Yale Clubs, New England Society and Yale Alumni Association.

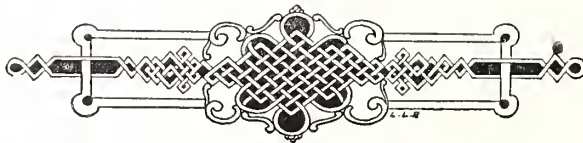

OWEN, JOSEPH E.—Lawyer, 189 Montague street, Brooklyn. Member Brooklyn Club, and Association of the Bar of the City of New York.

OWEN, WALTER T.—Architect, 367 Fifth avenue, New York City. Member Seawanhaka-Corinthian Yacht and Engineers' Clubs, Sculpture Society and Architectural League.

OWENS, WILLIAM F.—Banker and Broker, 44 Broad street, New York City; residence 245 West 76th street. Born in West River, Anne Arundel Co., Md., Oct. 8, 1831. (Son of Henry and Eleanor [Carr] Owens.) Educated at West River Institute. (Married Helen Frances Coolidge of Brookline, Mass.) Member of the firms of Beers & Owens, Hoyt & Gardner and Owens & Mercer. Was member of the New York Stock Exchange for twenty-one years; vice-president of the Reform Club for three years. Member Reform and Church Clubs, Southern and Maryland Societies and Confederate Veterans' Association.

OWENS, WILLIAM W.—Fire Insurance, 93 Nassau street, New York City; residence 18 South Oxford street, Brooklyn. Born in New York City, Dec. 28, 1856. Educated at Mt. Washington Collegiate Institute and Columbia. (Married.) Member of the firm of Owens & Phillips. Member Oxford and Hardware Clubs, Sons of the Revolution and League of American Wheelmen.

OXNARD, HENRY T.—Beet Sugar Manufacturer, 32 Nassau street, New York City; residence 1 West 54th street. Educated at Harvard ('82). Prominently identified with the beet sugar industry. President and director American Beet Sugar Co., which comprises the Chino Valley Beet Sugar Co., Norfolk Beet Sugar Co., Oxnard Beet Sugar Co., Pacific Beet Sugar Co. and Arkansas Valley Beet Sugar Co.; also president and director Oxnard Construction Co.; director American Beet Sugar Association. Member University Club.

P

PACKARD, CHARLES W.—Physician, 447 Park avenue, New York City. Member Church Club, Century Association, Academy of Medicine, Medical Society of the County of New York and Medical and Surgical Society.

PACKARD, EDWIN—Capitalist, 45 Cedar street, New York City; residence Brooklyn. President and director Buffalo Hump Mining Co. and Empire State, Idaho Mining and Development Co.; vice-president and director United States Projectile Co.; director Trenton Potteries Co.; trustee Franklin Safe Deposit Co., Franklin Trust Co. and Street Railway and Illuminating Properties. Member Lawyers' Club, and Marine and Field and Hamilton Clubs of Brooklyn.

PACKARD, RALPH G.—Civil Engineer, 130 Pearl street, New York City; residence 84 Columbia Heights, Brooklyn. Born in Niagara Falls, N. Y., 1840. Educated at Rensselaer Polytechnic Institute (C.E.). Connected with the engineering staff in United States Navy Yards, 1864-9. President and director R. G. Packard Co. Was in charge of the removal of Hell Gate reefs, the construction of Raritan River and Poughkeepsie bridges, and many other important undertakings.

PACKER, ELISHA A.—Wholesale Coal Merchant, 1 Broadway, New York City; residence 6 West 49th street. Member Union League Club, American Geographical and New England Societies and Sons of the American Revolution.

PADDOCK, GORDON—Lawyer, 45 William street, New York City; residence Union Club. Member Princeton and Union Clubs and Association of the Bar of the City of New York.

PADDOCK, H. L.—Paper Manufacturer, Fulton. Born in Wolcott, N. Y., 1860. Educated at Cazenovia Seminary. (Married.) Treasurer Oswego Falls Pulp & Paper Co. and Fulton Pulley Co.; director Citizens' National Bank; trustee First Methodist Episcopal Church.

PADDOCK, ROBERT ALLEN—Lawyer, 120 Broadway, New York City; residence 80 Washington square, East. Educated at Yale ('92). Member Yale and University Clubs and Association of the Bar of the City of New York.

PAGE, ALFRED RIDER—Lawyer, 132 Nassau street, New York City; residence 252 West 128th street. Born in Carlville, Ill., Oct. 7, 1859. (Son of Charles and Angeline [Rider] Page.) Educated in public schools, at Burr & Burton Seminary in Manchester, Vt., Williams College and at New York University Law School. Practicing in New York City since his admission to the Bar in 1880. Served for a time as attorney to the Excise Board of the City of New York.

PAGE, CHARLES BENJAMIN—Lawyer, 132 Nassau street, New York City; residence 336 West 54th street. Born in Olean, N. Y., Nov. 4, 1851. (Son of Rufus L. and Elizabeth A. [Hall] Page.) Educated at Olean Academy and by private tutors. Became a resident of New York City in 1870; studied law and was admitted to the Bar in 1876. State senator, 1896-8. Member of Masonic bodies.

PAGE, CURTIS HIDDEN—Author and Professor, 116th street and Morningside Heights, New York City; residence Gilmanston, N. H. Born in Greenwood, Mo., April 4, 1870. Educated at Phillips Exeter Academy and at Harvard (A.B., '90, A.M., '91, and Ph.D., '94). (Single.) Instructor at Western Reserve University, 1891-2; instructor at Harvard, 1893-4; studied at University of Paris, 1894-5; lecturer in Romance languages and literatures at Columbia University since 1895. Edited and introduced "A Voyage to the Moon by Cyrano de Bergerac," and is author of poems, essays and magazine articles. Member Delta Upsilon Fraternity, Modern Language Association of America and Phi Beta Kappa Society.

PAGE, DE MERVILLE—Lawyer, Hornellsville. Born in Cohocton, N. Y., Oct. 13, 1853. Educated at Cornell University. (Married.) President Hornellsville and Canisteo Ry. Co. Member City Club of Corning, and Reform Club of New York City.

PAGE, EDWARD D.—Dry Goods Merchant, 60 Worth street, New York City; residence 238 East 15th street. Born in Haverhill, Mass., 1856. Educated at Yale. (Married.) Member of the firm of Faulkner, Page & Co. President South Orange and Maplewood Traction Co. Member Merchants', Reform, Twilight, Social Reform, City, National Arts, Tuxedo, Essex County (N. J.) Country and North Woods Clubs, American Fine Arts, Royal Statistical and National Sculpture Societies, American Economic, British Economic and Century Associations, Société d'Economie Sociale of France, Metropolitan Museum of Art and American Academy of Political Science.

PAGE, GEORGE K.—Banker, Perry. Born in Perry, June 12, 1866. Educated at University of Rochester. (Married.) Manager Perry Electric Light Co.; director and assistant cashier First National Bank. Member Psi Upsilon Fraternity and Perry Club.

PAGE, HENRY W. A.—Dry Goods Merchant, 54 Worth and 39 Thomas streets, New York City; residence Montclair, N. J. Member Colonial, Twilight and Arkwright Clubs and St. George's Society.

PAGE, JOHN MITCHEL—Protestant Episcopal Clergyman, St. Luke's Rectory, Lebanon, Pa.; residence Southern Boulevard and Briggs avenue, New York City. Born in New York City, Sept. 22, 1868. Educated at Columbia University and at the General Theological Seminary. (Single.) Was curate St. John's Church, Boston Highlands; acting rector St. Paul's Church; vicar of chapel of Heavenly Rest and now rector of St. Luke's Church, Lebanon. Chaplain of Good Samaritan Hospital of Lebanon; warden of Diocesan Orphanage and chairman of Diocesan Committee on Christian Education. Member Columbia University Alumni and General Seminary Alumni Associations.

PAGE, J. SEAVER—Colors, 101 Fulton and 98 Horatio streets, New York City; residence 108 East 38th street. Born in New York City, 1844. Educated at the College of the City of New York. Vice-president and director F. W. Devoe & C. T. Reynolds Co.; ex-trustee New York and Brooklyn Bridge. Member Union League (ex-secretary), Country, Press, Transportation, Fulton, New York Athletic and Westminster Kennel Clubs and St. Nicholas Society.

PAGE, PARKER W.—Lawyer, 120 Broadway, New York City; residence Summit, N. J. Director American Dunlop Tire Co. and American Type Telegraph Co. Member Harvard, New York Athletic and Lawyers' Clubs, and Metropolitan Club of Washington, D. C.

PAGE, WALTER H.—Editor and Publisher, 34 Union square, East, New York City; residence Hotel Margaret, Brooklyn. Born in Cary, N. C., Aug. 25, 1855. Educated at Randolph-Macon College ('76) and at Johns Hopkins University. (Married.) Member of the firm of Doubleday, Page & Co. Formerly editor "Atlantic Monthly" and "The Forum." Member University Club.

PAGE, WILLIAM C.—Manufacturer of Scales, 341 Broadway, New York City; residence 155 West 48th street. Member of the firm of Page, Dennis & Co. Member New York Athletic and Hardware Clubs and Down Town Association.

PAGE, WILLIAM H., JR.—Lawyer, 32 Liberty street, New York City; residence 47 West 74th street. Born in Paris, France, Jan. 2, 1861. Educated at Boston Latin School, Harvard University ('83) and Columbia Law School ('86). (Married.) Member of the firm of Page & Conant, who have a branch office in Havana, Cuba. Member Democratic, Harvard, New York Athletic and Lawyers' Clubs and Association of the Bar of the City of New York.

PAGE, WILLIAM R.—Lawyer, 257 Broadway, New York City; residence 255 West 92d street. Born in West Bloomfield, N. Y., May 15, 1864. Educated at Hamilton College and Columbia Law School. (Married.) Member Association of the Bar of the City of New York.

PAGENSTECHER, ALBRECHT—Paper Manufacturer, 41 Park row, New York City; residence 52 West 40th street. President and director Hudson River Pulp and Paper Co. and Manufacturers' Paper Co.; director Eden Musee Amusement Co. and Germania Life Insurance Co. Member Reform, Mendelssohn Glee and Merchants' Clubs and Century Association.

PAIGE, EDWARD WINSLOW—Lawyer, 46 Cedar street, New York City; residence 29 Washington square, West. Educated at Union College ('64). Member Metropolitan, Lawyers', University and Sigma Phi Clubs, Union College Alumni and Down Town Associations, Society of Colonial Wars and Association of the Bar of the City of New York.

PAILLARD, ALFRED E.—Musical Instruments, 680 Broadway, New York City; residence Park Hill, Yonkers. Member of the firm of M. J. Paillard & Co. Member New York Athletic Club and Metropolitan Museum of Art.

PAINE, ALBERT BIGELOW—Editor and Writer, 33 East 17th street, New York City; residence 16 Gramercy Park. Born in New Bedford, Mass., July 10, 1861. Educated in public schools of Xenia, Ill. Formerly associate Sunday editor of the New York "Herald"; now assistant editor of "The St. Nicholas." Author of "I Want to Be in Kansas When the Sunflowers Bloom," "The Arkansaw Bear," "The Hollow Tree" and other works. Contributor to "Scribner's Magazine," "The Century" and other periodicals. Member Players' Club; associate member American Academy of Art and Literature; honorary member Kansas State Historical Society.

PAINE, AUGUSTUS G.—Paper Manufacturer, 41 Park row, New York City; residence 18 West 49th street. President and director International Pulp Co., Langville Black and Carbon Co., Thermo-Electric Co. and New York and Pennsylvania Co.; director Armstrong Real Estate and Improvement Co., Colorado Smelting Co., Highland Paper Co., Mercantile National Bank, Staten Island Midland Ry. Co., Yaryan Chemical Reclaiming Co., Judge Co. and Yaryan Co.; trustee New York Life Insurance Co. Member Union League, Barnard and Merchants' Clubs and New England Society.

PAINE, AUGUSTUS G., JR.—Paper Manufacturer, 41 Park row, New York City; residence 311 West 74th street. President and director Highland Paper Co.; director International Pulp Co., New York and Pennsylvania Co. and Staten Island Midland Ry. Co. Member Union League and Calumet Clubs and Scientific Alliance.

PAINE, EBEN H.—Rubber Merchant, 11 Murray street, New York City; residence 110 Riverside Drive. Member Lotos, New York Athletic and Hardware Clubs.

PAINE, FREDERICK H.—Teacher, 45 West 81st street, New York City; residence 236 West 76th street. Born in Farmington, Conn., Jan. 19, 1866. Educated at Yale (B.A., '88 and M.A., '94). Head instructor Hamilton Institute. Member Patria, Colonial and Shakespear (ex-president) Clubs and New York Shakespear Society.

PAINE, HENRY GALLUP—Editor, Franklin square, New York City; residence Mamaroneck. Born in Albany, N. Y., April 24, 1859. Educated in Columbia College ('80). (Married.) Was with the Century Co.,

1880-87; assistant editor "St. Nicholas," 1882-7; associate editor "Puck," 1887-93; managing editor "Harper's Weekly" since 1893. Member St. Anthony and Players' Clubs, Columbia University Alumni Association and Dunlap Society.

PAINE, JOHN ALSOP—Archaeologist, East 82d street and Central Park, New York City; residence Tarrytown. Born in Newark, N. J., Jan. 14, 1840. Educated at Hamilton College (A.B., '59, A.M., '62, and Ph.D., '74) and at Andover Theological Seminary (D.D., '62). Engaged by the Board of Regents to enlarge the flora of the State of New York, 1862-7; professor of natural science at Robert College, Constantinople, 1867-9; professor of natural history at Lake Forest (Ill.) University, 1870; associate editor of "The Independent," 1871-2; archaeologist with the first expedition of the Palestine Exploration Society, 1872-3; editor and publisher of the "Journal of Christian Philosophy," 1882-4; on staff of the "Century Dictionary," 1888; curator of the Metropolitan Museum of Art since 1889. Author of many articles on Orientalia and other scientific subjects.

PAINE, SILAS H.—Oil, 26 Broadway, New York City; residence Hotel Majestic, and Silver Bay, Warren County. Born in Holbrook, Norfolk Co., Mass., April 29, 1842. (Married.) Vice-president Inland Oil Co.; secretary West Virginia Oil Co.; trustee Hartford (Conn.) Theological Seminary. Member Congregational Club and New England Society.

PAINE, WILLIS S.—Banker, 60 Wall street, New York City; residence Metropolitan Club. Born in Rochester, N. Y., Jan. 1, 1848. (Son of Nicholas E. and Abby [Sprague] Paine.) Educated at Rochester Collegiate Institute ('66) and at Rochester University ('68). Studied law in the office of Sanford E. Church, afterwards Chief Justice of the Court of Appeals, and was admitted to the Bar in 1869. Received degree of LL.D. from Manhattan College in 1885. (Married Ruby S. Tilden in 1888, who died Dec. 20, 1896.) Appointed by the State Bank Superintendent one of the three examiners of trust companies in 1874; also appointed receiver of the Bond Street Savings Bank by Judge Landon of Schenectady in 1876, and succeeded in paying the general creditors over 86 per cent. and preferred creditors in full. The Legislature in 1880 passed an act providing for commissioners to make a compilation and revision of the laws of the State affecting banks and banking; was appointed one of the commissioners by Governor Cornell under this act, and the revision submitted to the Legislature in 1882 was adopted. Was nominated by Governor Cleveland Superintendent of the Banking Department of the State in 1883, and unanimously confirmed by the Senate. Tendered the position of United States Sub-Treasurer in the City of New York by President Cleveland in 1885, but declined. Resigned bank superintendency in 1889 to accept position as president of the State Trust Co.; resigned from this position in 1892 and went abroad, where he remained about a year and a half; on his return to New York in 1894, was offered by Governor Flower the position of colonel on the latter's staff, which he accepted. Afterward became the first president of the Merchant's Safe Deposit Co. of New York, and of The Trust Co. of New York, which positions he still holds. Is also a director of the American Surety Co., Metropolitan Savings Bank, State Trust Co. and other corporations. Author of "Paine's Banking Laws," "Paine's Law of Building Associations" and other works of a similar nature. Member Tuxedo, Commonwealth, Metropolitan, National Arts, Phi Beta Kappa, Lawyers', New York Sculpture and Wool Clubs, Genesee and New England Societies, Theta Delta Chi Graduate Association (president), Chamber of Commerce, Society of Mayflower Descendants and Association of the Bar of the City of New York.

PALMA, TOMAS ESTRADA—Cuban Patriot, Central Valley. Born in Bayamo, Cuba. Studied law at the University of Seville, but never practiced. (Married a daughter of President Guardiola of Honduras.) Took part in the Cuban revolution of 1868-78 and became President of the Cuban Republic, but was captured and imprisoned until the cessation of hostilities. Upon his release went to Honduras where he taught in schools, and subsequently became postmaster-general. Was delegate-at-large and Minister Plenipotentiary for the Cuban Republic during the last revolution.

PALMER, A. EMERSON—Secretary, 146 Grand street, New York City; residence 615 Putnam avenue, Brooklyn. Born in Sullivan County, N. Y. Educated at Wesleyan University. (Married.) Resident of New York City since 1878. Was for many years connected with the New York "Tribune." Secretary of the Board of Education of New York City since 1898.

PALMER, ALBERT MASHMAN—Theatrical Manager, 13 West 28th street, New York City; residence Stamford, Conn. Born in North Stonington, Conn., July 27, 1838. Educated in private schools, at Suffield (Conn.) Institute and at New York University Law School. (Married.) Interested in the management of theatres since 1872. Was one of the founders and, for fourteen years, president of the Actors' Fund of America; also one of the founders and now vice-president of the Players' Club. Member Union League, Lotos, Church and Press Clubs, Chicago (Ill.) Club, Garrick Club of London, England, and Dunlap, New England and Goethe Societies.

PALMER, CHARLES G.—Pavements, 66 Broad street, New York City; residence 344 West 84th street. President and director Hastings Pavement Co. Member Alpha Delta Phi and Barnard Clubs.

PALMER, CHARLES MIDDLEBROOK—Journalist, 154 Nassau street, New York City; residence Montclair, N. J. Born in La Crosse, Wis., Oct. 3, 1856. Educated at La Crosse Valley Seminary. (Married Mary Sill of La Crosse, 1881.) Actively engaged in newspaper business since 1875. Business manager of the "San Francisco Examiner," 1890-5, and of the New York "Journal" since 1895. Member Lotos Club and Aldine Association.

PALMER, E. DE L.—Real Estate, Albany. Born in Newtonville, Albany Co., N. Y., March 19, 1848. Educated in Albany. (Married.) Treasurer St. Peter's Episcopal Church; trustee Albany City Savings Institution and Homeopathic Hospital. Member Fort Orange Club.

PALMER, EDMUND J.—Commissioner, 11 Broadway, New York City; residence 103 West 86th street. Born in New Providence, N. J., Oct. 6, 1856. Educated at Wesleyan University (A.M.), and College of Physicians and Surgeons of Columbia University (M.D.). (Married.) President Board of Commissioners of Quarantine. Member Society of Medical Jurisprudence, Republican Club, New York County Medical Society, New York County Medical Association and others.

PALMER, ERASTUS DOW—Sculptor, 5 Lafayette street, Albany. Born in Pompey, Onondaga Co., N. Y., April 2, 1817. Educated in Pompey and at Union College (A.M.) (Married Mary Seamans, 1843.) Among his best works are "The Infant Ceres," "Morning and Evening," "Peace in Bondage," "The Angel of the Sepulchre," "The White Captive" in Metropolitan Museum of Art, New York City, and a statue of Robert R. Livingston in the Capitol at Washington.

PALMER, FRANCIS A.—Banker, 237 Broadway and 4 Park place, New York City; residence 180 Madison avenue. President and trustee Broadway Savings Institution; president and director National Broadway Bank. Member New England Society.

PALMER, FRANCIS STERNE—Lawyer, Custom House, New York City; residence 70 East 77th street. Born in Belmont, N. Y., Sept. 14, 1863. (Son of former Congressman and United States Judge George W. Palmer of Plattsburg, N. Y.) Educated at Harvard College ('87). (Married.) Secretary to Collector of the Port of New York, 1893-7. Has also been engaged in literary work. Member Players' and Harvard Clubs and Sons of the Revolution.

PALMER, GEORGE CARNEGIE—Architect, 61 William street, New York City; residence Milburn, N. J. Educated at Columbia. Member St. Anthony and St. Nicholas Clubs, Columbia University Alumni Association and Architectural League.

PALMER, GEORGE QUINTARD—Iron Manufacturer, 742 East 12th street, New York City; residence 9 East 76th street. Born in Portchester, N. Y., Sept.

15, 1873. Educated at Berkeley School and School of Mines, Columbia University ('95). (Married.) Associated with the Quintard Iron Works. Member Fairfield County (Conn.) Golf, Nassau Country, Alpha Delta Phi, Engineers', Church and Lawyers' Clubs.

PALMER, J. CULBERT—Lawyer, 165 Broadway, New York City; residence 25 Madison avenue. Born in Brooklyn, N. Y. Educated at Adelphi Academy ('78), Yale University ('82) and Columbia University Law School ('84). (Married.) Member Sharon Golf, Yale and University Clubs and Association of the Bar of the City of New York.

PALMER, LOWELL M.—Manufacturer, 181 Front street, New York City; residence 206 Clinton avenue, Brooklyn. President and director City Realty and Investment Co. and Brooklyn Cooperage Co.; vice-president and director Theodore Ricksecker Co.; director American Coffee Co., American Sugar Refining Co., First National Bank of Brooklyn, Lanyon Zinc Co., North Side Bank, Union Ferry Co. of New York and Brooklyn, Wallabout Bank and Williamsburg Trust Co.; trustee Colonial Safe Deposit Co., Colonial Trust Co., and Manufacturers' Trust Co. Member Transportation Club, Hamilton Club of Brooklyn, Ohio Society and Metropolitan Museum of Art.

PALMER, LUCIUS N.—Lawyer, 111 Broadway, New York City; residence 130 Montague street, Brooklyn. Educated at Yale College ('88), abroad 1888-9, and Columbia Law School ('92). Member Crescent Athletic Club of Brooklyn, Brooklyn Institute of Arts and Sciences, Yale Club and Association of the Bar of the City of New York.

PALMER, MILTON C.—Lawyer, 164 Main street, Sing Sing; residence 21 Waller avenue. Born in Sing Sing, April 29, 1862. Educated at Cornell ('81) and Columbia. (Married.) Member of the firm of Palmer & Fagan. Member Sing Sing Yacht and Young Men's Republican Clubs, Cornell University Club of New York City, and Young Men's Christian and Westchester Bar Associations.

PALMER, STEPHEN S.—Capitalist, 52 Wall street, New York City; residence Princeton, N. J. Born in New York City, Dec. 7, 1853. (Widower.) President and director Palmer Land Co., Palmer Water Co., Harvey Steel Co., Washington Assurance Co., Kewaunee, Green Bay and Western R. R. Co., St. Louis and Hannibal Ry. Co. and New Jersey Zinc Co.; treasurer, secretary and director Cayuga and Susquehanna R. R. Co.; director American Washer and Manufacturing Co., Colonial Assurance Co., Mexican National R. R. Co., New Jersey Magnetic Concentrating Co., Consolidated Gas Co., New York Mutual Gas Light Co., National City Bank, Farmers' Loan and Trust Co., Dickson Mfg Co., Fort Wayne and Jackson R. R. Co., Lackawanna Iron and Steel Co., McNeal Pipe and Foundry Co., Valley R. R. Co., Empire Zinc Co. and Mineral Point Zinc Co. Member Metropolitan, Tuxedo, New York Yacht, Turf and Field, Players', Union League, Essex County (N. J.) Country and Lawyers' Clubs, Down Town Association, Metropolitan Museum of Art, American Museum of Natural History, American Geographical and New York Zoological Societies and New York Botanical Gardens.

PALMER, THEODORE J.—President, 9 Gouverneur Slip, New York City; residence Hackensack, N. J. Born in Middletown, Conn., Dec. 25, 1843. Educated in Middletown. (Married.) President and director Palmer & Embury Mfg Co. Member New York Athletic Club and Military Order of the Loyal Legion.

PALMER, WALTER LAUNT—Artist, 5 Lafayette street, Albany. Born in Albany, Aug. 1, 1854. Studied art in Hudson, N. Y., and Paris, France. (Married.) Received the second Hallgarten Prize at the National Academy of Design in 1887; medal at World's Fair, Chicago, 1893; gold medal (only award) at Philadelphia Art Club in 1894; Evans Prize (only award) Water Color Society in 1895; first prize at Boston Art Club in 1895, and second prize at Nashville Centennial, 1897. Member National Academy of Design, Society of American Artists, Society of American Landscape Painters, American Water Color Society, New York Water Color and Pastel Clubs, Century Association and others.

PANCOAST, RICHARD—Iron Merchant, 28 Platt, 15 Gold and 112 John streets, New York City; residence 18 West 30th street. Educated at Haverford College ('60). Member of the firm of Pancoast & Rogers. Member Engineers', University and Union Clubs and Down Town Association.

PARDEE, CHARLES INSLEE—Physician, 6 East 43d street. Dean and professor in University and Bellevue Hospital Medical College. Member Union League, Lotos and American Yacht Clubs, New England Society and Military Order of the Loyal Legion.

PARDEE, DWIGHT W.—Secretary and Treasurer, Grand Central Depot, New York City; residence Sea Cliff, L. I. Born in Westfield, N. J., Aug. 24, 1852. Educated at Wilbraham (Mass.) Academy. (Married.) Assistant treasurer Lake Shore and Michigan Southern Ry. Co.; secretary and director Dunkirk, Allegheny Valley and Pittsburgh R. R. Co.; director Detroit and Chicago R. R. Co. and Detroit, Monroe and Toledo R. R. Co. Member Union League Club of Brooklyn, Nassau Country, Sea Cliff Yacht and Accomack Clubs, Crescent Lodge No. 402, F. & A. M., Clinton Commandery No. 14, and Kismet Temple, Nobles of the Mystic Shrine.

PARET, J. PARMLY—Newspaper and Magazine Writer, 119 West 93d street, New York City. Born in Bergen Point, N. J., Oct. 3, 1870. Educated at New York City Grammar School No. 68 ('86). (Single.) Expert amateur lawn tennis player, having held championships in United States and abroad. Has written for the press on amateur sport and also a volume on "Lawn Tennis." Editor "Sportsman's Magazine" and assistant editor "Outing" Magazine. Member Knickerbocker Athletic, Orange (N. J.) Lawn Tennis, Lenox (Mass.) Lawn Tennis, Knickerbocker Whist and Dauntless Rowing Clubs and League of American Wheelmen.

PARET, WALTER P.—Lawyer, 115 Broadway, New York City; residence 161 West 76th street. Born in Bergen Point, N. J., 1872. Educated at Yale University and Columbia University Law School. (Single.) Connected with the firm of Perkins & Jackson. Member Yale Club.

PARFITT, ALBERT E.—Architect, 26 Court street, Brooklyn; residence 1066, 82d street, Dyker Heights. Member Hamilton, Crescent Athletic and Church Clubs, Reform Club of New York City, and Architectural League.

PARISH, HENRY—Banker, 52 Wall street, New York City; residence 18 West 57th street. President and trustee New York Life Insurance and Trust Co.; trustee Royal Insurance Co. of England. Member Metropolitan Club, American Geographical Society, American Museum of Natural History, Metropolitan Museum of Art and National Academy of Design.

PARISH, HENRY, JR.—Banker, 52 Wall street, New York City; residence 8 East 76th street. Secretary New York Life Insurance and Trust Co. Member Calumet, Essex County (N. J.) Country, and City Clubs.

PARISH, WAINWRIGHT—Architect, 3 West 29th street, New York City; residence 267 Fifth avenue. Born in New York City, Dec. 5, 1866. Educated at Rensselaer Polytechnic Institute ('88). (Single.) Member of the firm of Parish & Schroeder. Member Calumet, University and Fencers' Clubs and Architectural League.

PARK, HOBART J.—Wholesale Grocer, 917 Broadway, New York City; residence Rye. Secretary and director Park & Tilford; director New York County National Bank and Bank of the Metropolis. Member Union League, New York Athletic, New York Camera and American Yacht Clubs and Blooming Grove Park and Aldine Associations.

PARK, JAMES—Merchant, 88 Wall street, New York City; residence New Brighton, S. I. Member of the firms of Park, Son & Co., Park, Macfadyen & Co. of London, England, and Turnbull & Co. of Jamaica, W. I. Member Down Town Association.

PARK, JOSEPH—Wholesale Grocer, 917 Broadway, New York City; residence Rye. President and director Park & Tilford; director Bank of the Metropolis, Harlem River and Portchester R. R. Co., New York County National Bank, New York, New Haven and Hartford R. R. Co. and Plaza Bank. Member Manhattan, American Yacht, New York Yacht, Union League and Transportation Clubs and American Museum of Natural History.

PARK, ROSWELL—Surgeon, 510 Delaware avenue, Buffalo. Born in Pomfret, Conn., May 4, 1852. Educated at Racine (Wis.) College (A.M.) and at Chicago (Ill.) Medical College (M.D.). Received honorary degrees from Harvard and Northwestern Universities. Professor of surgery in Medical Department of the University of Buffalo. Ex-president Medical Society of the State of New York. Author of several works on surgery, medical history and other subjects. Member University and Buffalo Clubs, Sons of the Revolution, German Congress of Surgeons, Italian Society of Surgery, American Surgical Association, New York Academy of Medicine and Philadelphia Academy of Surgery.

PARK, TRENOR LUTHER—Dry Goods Merchant, 216 Church street, New York City; residence White Plains. Educated at Harvard. Connected with the H. B. Claflin Co. Director American Trading Co., Charleston City Ry. Co. and Continental Trust Co. Member Metropolitan, Lotos, Union League, Nineteenth Century, New York Yacht, Corinthian Yacht, Harvard, New York Athletic, Westchester County Country, Racquet and Tennis, Merchants', Turf and Field and Delta Kappa Epsilon Clubs and St. Nicholas and New England Societies.

PARK, WALTER—Mechanical Engineer, 45 Broadway, New York City; residence 667 Park avenue, Brooklyn. Member Engineers' Club, Union League Club of Brooklyn, Military Order of the Loyal Legion and American Society of Mechanical Engineers.

PARK, WILLIAM C.—Steel Manufacturer, 26 Cortlandt street, New York City; residence 47 Fifth avenue. Trustee Birkbeck Investment Saving and Loan Co. Member Union, City, Riding, New York Athletic, Westchester County Country and St. Andrew's Golf Clubs, Down Town Association and Sons of the Revolution.

PARKE, ROBERT A.—Manager, 26 Cortlandt street, New York City; residence 16 Lenox place, New Brighton, S. I. Born in Addison, N. Y., Feb. 2, 1856. Educated at Cornell ('79). (Married.) Manager Eastern office Westinghouse Air Brake Co. Member Transportation, Cornell University, New York Railroad and Staten Island Clubs, Psi Upsilon Fraternity and Natural Science Association of Staten Island.

PARKE, WILLIAM AYER—Lumber Merchant, 16 Beaver street, New York City; residence Greenwich, Conn. Born in Baldwinsville, Onondaga Co., N. Y., Aug. 18, 1842. Educated at Phillips Andover Academy. (Married.) Secretary, treasurer and director Yellow Pine Co. Member Union League, New York Yacht and Manhattan Chess Clubs.

PARKER, ALTON BROOKS—Judge, Court of Appeals, Albany; residence Kingston. Born in Cortland, N. Y., May 14, 1852. Educated in public schools, at Cortland Academy and at Cortland Normal School; studied law and was admitted to the Bar. Surrogate of Ulster County, 1877-85; Supreme Court Justice, 1885; Judge of the Court of Appeals, Second Division, 1889-93; of General Term, 1893-6; of Appellate Division, 1896-7; Chief Justice of Court of Appeals of the State of New York since Jan. 1, 1898; present term expires Dec. 31, 1911. Member Manhattan Club of New York City.

PARKER, CHARLES G.—Corset Manufacturer, 568 Broadway, New York City; residence 12 West 88th street. Born in New York City, Aug. 10, 1857. Educated at Helmuth College, London, Canada. (Married.) Director Princess of Wales Co.

PARKER, CHARLES T.—Physician, 46 East 34th street, New York City. Member Calumet, Commercial, Seawanhaka-Corinthian Yacht and Wool Clubs.

PARKER, FORREST H.—Banker, 6 Broadway, New York City; residence 141 East 71st street. Born in Boston, Mass. (Married.) President New York

Produce Exchange Bank; member and ex-president New York Produce Exchange; director Consolidated Elevator Co., Duluth, Minn.; trustee State Trust Co., (now merged in Morton Trust Co.) and New York Produce Exchange Safe Deposit Co. Member Quill Club, American Museum of Natural History, New England Society and Chamber of Commerce.

PARKER, FREDERICK S.—Lawyer, 15 Wall street, New York City; residence 32 Garden place, Brooklyn. Educated at Yale ('73). Member of the firm of Parker & Aaron. Member Union League, University and Whist Clubs, Crescent Athletic and Hamilton Clubs of Brooklyn, Order of Founders and Patriots of America, Yale Alumni Association and Association of the Bar of the City of New York.

PARKER, GEORGE ALBERT—Musician, Syracuse University, Syracuse. Born in Kewanee, Ill., Sept. 21, 1856. Educated at Royal Conservatory of Music, Stuttgart, Germany (1878-81), and Neuen Akademie der Ton Kunst, Berlin, Germany ('82); degree of Mus. Doc. from Syracuse University, 1893. (Married.) Was acting Dean of the College of Fine Arts, 1896-8. Professor of piano and organ since 1882. Director of Musical Department since 1888. Has been vice-president and member of the executive and programme committees of the New York State Music Teachers' Association. Member Manuscript Club and a first founder of the American Guild of Organists.

PARKER, HORACE J.—Dentist, 27 West 38th street, New York City; residence New Rochelle. Born in Vermont, Jan. 28, 1859. Educated in Vermont and in New York. (Married.) Member of the firm of Kimball & Parker. Member University Glee Club and New York Institute of Stomatology.

PARKER, JAMES—Colonel United States Army, Manila, Philippine Islands; residence West Point. Born in Newark, N. J., Feb. 20, 1854. Educated at Rutgers College and West Point Military Academy ('76). (Married.) Second lieutenant 4th Cavalry, 1876; first lieutenant of same, 1879; captain of same, 1888; lieutenant-colonel (in command of Cardenas, Cuba), 12th New York Infantry, 1898; lieutenant-colonel, 45th United States Volunteers, 1899; on duty in the Philippines since 1898. Member Army and Navy Club, and Metropolitan and United Service Clubs of Washington, D. C.

PARKER, JAMES HENRY—Commission Merchant, 36 Cotton Exchange, New York City; residence 18 East 69th street. Born in Johnston County, N. C., Jan. 4, 1843. Educated at Guilford (N. C.) College; took a course in medicine and practiced for several years. Served in Confederate Army during Civil War. Resident of New York City since 1882. Member of the firm of J. H. Parker & Co., members of the New York Stock, Cotton, Coffee and Grain Exchanges. Has served as president of the Cotton Exchange, as vice-president of the National Park Bank, as president of the Produce Exchange Trust Co., and as president of the United States National Bank. Director Western National Bank and Twelfth Ward Bank. Member Manhattan, Tuxedo, New York, New York Athletic and Lawyers' Clubs, Southern Society (ex-president) and Confederate Veteran Camp of New York.

PARKER, JOHN ADAMS—Artist, 444 Lexington avenue, Brooklyn. Born in New York City, Nov. 27, 1827. Educated at New York University. Makes a specialty of landscapes. One of the founders of the Brooklyn Art Association and of the Brooklyn Art Club. Member National Academy of Design.

PARKER, ORRELL A.—Lawyer, 120 Broadway, New York City; residence 111 East 45th street. Born in Hopewell, Ohio, Jan. 14, 1873. Educated at Princeton University ('95). (Single.) Secretary, treasurer and director Malt Food Co. Member Knickerbocker Athletic and Lawyers' Clubs.

PARKER, WILLARD—Physician, 8 West Ninth street, New York City. Educated at Columbia. (Married.) Director Harlem River and Port Chester R. R. Co. Member Players' and Mendelssohn Glee Clubs, New England Society and Columbia University Alumni and Century Associations.

PARKER, WILLARD, Jr.—Drug Merchant, 133 Front street, New York City; residence 22 West 54th street. Born, 1869. Educated at St. Paul's School and at Yale ('90). Manager Stamford Mfg Co. Member University and Players' Clubs and Yale University Alumni Association.

PARKER, WILLIAM N.—Broker, 15 Broad street, New York City; residence 22 Garden place, Brooklyn. Educated at Yale ('79). Member University Club, Hamilton Club of Brooklyn, and Yale Alumni Association.

PARKER, WINTHROP—Lawyer, 181 Broadway, New York City; residence 22 West Ninth street. Born in Ware, Mass., June 10, 1857. Educated in public schools, at Columbia Law School and at New York University Law School. (Married.) Member Association of the Bar of the City of New York.

PARKHURST, CHARLES HENRY—Presbyterian Clergyman, 9 Madison avenue, New York City; residence 133 East 35th street. Born in Framingham, Mass., April 17, 1842. Educated at Amherst College (D.D. and LL.D.) and in Bonn, Germany. (Married.) Pastor of Congregational Church of Lenox, Mass., 1874-80, and of Madison Square Presbyterian Church in New York City since 1880. Became president of the Society for the Prevention of Crime in 1891, and was instrumental in securing an investigation of the New York City police force by the State Legislature. Director Union Theological Seminary; trustee Amherst College. Author of "The Blind Man's Creed," "What Would the World Be Without Religion?" "Our Fight With Tammany" and other works. Member Union League Club, Marquette Club of Chicago, Ill., City Vigilance League and Amherst College Alumni Association.

PARKHURST, FREDERICK A.—Architect, 156 Fifth avenue, New York City; residence 104 West 48th street. Educated at Cornell ('92). Member Psi Upsilon, Sketch and University Glee Clubs and Cornell University Alumni Association.

PARKIN, WILLIAM—Lawyer, 48 Wall street, New York City; residence 49 Fifth avenue. Educated at Yale ('74). Member University Club, National Academy of Design, Yale University Alumni and Century Associations and Association of the Bar of the City of New York.

PARMELEE, HENRY D.—Merchant and Manufacturer, 17 Washington place, New York City; residence 205 West 57th street. Born in Erie, Pa., 1870. Educated at Yale (B.A., '95 and M.A., '97). (Married.) Treasurer and director H. D. Parmelee & Co., of Newark, N. J.; secretary and director Agar Hat Curling Machine Co.; treasurer McGill Co.; director Union Hat Co., of Middletown, N. Y. Member Yale Club and Sons of the Revolution.

PARMENTER, ROSWELL A.—Lawyer, 1 Mutual Building, Troy; residence Troy. Born in Pittstown, Rensselaer Co., N. Y., Sept. 20, 1821. Educated at Troy Conference Academy. Studied law and was admitted to the Bar in 1847, since when he has practiced in Troy. Corporation counsel, 1873-90; State senator, 1873-5; member of Constitutional Convention of 1894. Unsuccessful candidate on Democratic ticket for Congress in 1876 and for State Attorney-General in 1881.

PARMLY, DUNCAN B.—Banker, 49 Wall street, New York City; residence Red Bank, N. J. President and director Phenix National Bank; trustee American Ry. Co.; director Homer Lee Bank Note Co. and Pas-saic Print Works. Member Union League, Barnard and Manuscript Clubs, American Fine Arts and New England Societies and Scientific Alliance.

PARMLY, JAHIAL—Manufacturer of Sewing Machines, 658 Broadway, New York City; residence 134 West 57th street. Born in New York City. (Married.) Secretary and treasurer Willcox & Gibbs Sewing Machine Co. Member New York Athletic Club.

PARMLY, RANDOLPH—Lawyer, 160 Broadway, New York City; residence Middletown, N. J. Born in Burlington, N. J., April 2, 1854. Educated at New York University ('75). (Married.) Member Lawyers' Club and Association of the Bar of the City of New York.

PARRIS, EDWARD L.—Lawyer, 261 Broadway, New York City; residence 385 West End avenue. Educated at Union College ('57) and at Harvard Law School. Member University, Harvard, Sigma Phi and Barnard Clubs, American Geographical and New York Historical Societies, Harvard Law Alumni and Union College Alumni Associations and Sons of the Revolution.

PARRISH, JAMES C.—Retired, 45 Broadway, New York City; residence Tuxedo Park. Director Exchange Place Real Estate Co., New York Improved Real Estate Co., St. Nicholas Skating and Ice Co., and Rio Grande and Western R. R. Co. Member Metropolitan, City, Tuxedo, Knickerbocker, Players', Lawyers', Riding, and Suburban Riding and Driving Clubs, Ardley Casino of Ardley-on-Hudson, American Geographical Society, Down Town and Century Associations, American Museum of Natural History and Metropolitan Museum of Art.

PARRISH, SAMUEL L.—Lawyer, 44 Broadway, New York City; residence 11 Fifth avenue. Born in Philadelphia, Pa., 1819. Educated at Harvard ('70). (Single.) President New York Improved Real Estate Co., Member Union, Knickerbocker, University, Manuscript, Players' and Harvard Clubs, Philadelphia (Pa.) Club, Century Association and Association of the Bar of the City of New York.

PARROTT, RICHARD D. A.—Agent, Atlantic City, N. J.; residence Arden. Born in Greenwood (now Arden), Orange Co., N. Y., June 25, 1852. Educated at St. Paul's School, Concord, N. H., and Yale ('74). (Single.) Represents the Holland Trust Co. at Brigantine, N. J.; superintendent The Brigantine Co. Member University Club.

PARSELL, CHARLES V.—School Principal, Ithaca. Born in Akron, N. Y., 1851. Educated at Cornell University. (Married.) Principal Fairfield (N. Y.) Seminary, 1875-9; president Clinton Liberal Institute, Fort Plain, 1879-93. Now principal of Cascadilla School, Ithaca. Member Town and Gown Club.

PARSELL, HENRY V.—Photo-Lithographer, 458 Pennsylvania avenue, Washington, D. C.; residence 31 East 21st street, New York City. Born in New Brunswick, N. J., Sept. 3, 1833. Educated in New Brunswick and New York City. (Married.) Director New Amsterdam Eye and Ear Hospital and Society for the Prevention of Crime; trustee North River Savings Bank and Fort Valley (Ga.) Industrial School. Member Republican Club, Aldine Association, American Museum of Natural History, Metropolitan Museum of Art and New York Botanical Gardens.

PARSHALL, GEORGE HAMMOND—Physician, 173, 53d street, Brooklyn. Educated at Long Island College Hospital (M.D.). Member Eighth Ward Republican and Kings County Republican Clubs, Sons of the American Revolution, Long Island College Hospital Alumni Association, Medical Society of Kings County and F. & A. M.

PARSON, JOHN THOMAS—Instructor, Cornell University, Ithaca; residence 142 Cascadilla place. Instructor in civil engineering at Cornell University.

PARSONS, ALBERT ROSS—Musician, 109 East 14th street, New York City; residence Garden City, L. I. Born in Sandusky, Ohio, Sept. 16, 1847. Educated in New York City, in Leipzig and in Berlin. (Married.) Has practiced the profession of music in New York City since 1872. Elected president of American College of Musicians at International Congress of Musicians at World's Columbian Exposition, Chicago, 1893. Author of "Synthetic Method for Pianoforte," "Parsifal, or the Finding of Christ Through Art," "New Light from the Great Pyramids," "Garrard-Spencer Family Chart" and "Cornet Joseph Parsons, with English Parsons Families and American Parsons Genealogies." Member New York Historical Society, Society of War of 1812, Sons of the Revolution and Society of Colonial Wars.

PARSONS, CHARLES—Capitalist, 15 Broad street and Grand Central Station, New York City; residence 99 Park avenue. Born in Alfred, Me., Feb. 6, 1829. Educated in district schools and at Yarmouth (Me.) Academy. Engaged in business in New York City since 1862. Member of the New York Stock Exchange. President, receiver and director Ogdensburg and Lake Champlain R. R. Co.; president and director Rome, Watertown and Ogdensburg R. R. Co. and South Carolina R. R. Co.; director National Bank of the Republic, and Utica and Black River R. R. Co. Member Lawyers' Club, American Geographical and New England Societies and Metropolitan Museum of Art.

PARSONS, CHARLES BALDWIN—Ship Broker, 6 Coenties Slip, New York City; residence Red Bank, N. J. Born in Middletown, N. J., July 3, 1835. (Son of Walter Chamberlain and Mary [Morford] Parsons.) Educated in academies. (Married. Elizabeth M., daughter of John R. Bergen.) Served throughout Civil War and advanced to the rank of brevet major. Engaged in vessel building business for many years. Treasurer of Shrewsbury (N. J.) township, 1891-9; assistant inspector-general on general staff of the G. A. R. of New Jersey, 1887-99. President of Monmouth County Sunday School Association, 1891-9; of the Department of the South Veterans' Association, 1898-9, and of the New Jersey Sunday School Association since 1898. Director Navesink National Bank of Red Bank; trustee and deacon First Baptist Church of Red Bank. High priest of Hiram Chapter No. 1, Royal Arch Masons of New Jersey, since 1893; member Mystic Brotherhood, F. & A. M. No. 21, Royal Arcanum, Red Bank Lodge, Loyal Legion, Arrowsmith Post No. 61, G. A. R. (commander) and New York Commandery.

PARSONS, E. BLOSS—Maltster, Sodus Point. Member Suburban Riding and Driving, and Transportation Clubs of New York City, and Genesee Valley Club of Rochester.

PARSONS, EDWIN, 3d.—Capitalist, 15 Broad street, New York City; residence 99 Park avenue. Educated at Yale ('88). Secretary and treasurer Oswego and Rome R. R. Co.; treasurer, assistant secretary and director Rome, Watertown and Ogdensburg R. R. Co.; director Ogdensburg and Lake Champlain R. R. Co. and South Carolina and Georgia R. R. Co. Member University, University Athletic and New York Clubs and Yale Alumni Association.

PARSONS, FAY C.—Editor and Publisher, 12 Railroad street, Cortland; residence 15 Argyle place. Born in Cortland, Sept. 22, 1871. Educated at Cortland State Normal School. (Married.) Editor and publisher "Cortland Democrat." Member I. O. O. F., Tioughnioga Club and Cortland Athletic Association.

PARSONS, FRANK H.—Lawyer, 69 Wall street, New York City; residence 36 Tompkins place, Brooklyn. Educated at Amherst College. President and director Hamilton Bank of Brooklyn; director C. H. Parsons Co. Member Hamilton, Crescent Athletic and Irving Clubs of Brooklyn, Amherst College Alumni Association and Association of the Bar of the City of New York.

PARSONS, FREDERIC A.—Insurance, 51 Wall street, New York City; residence 109 Sixth avenue, Brooklyn. Born in Goshen, Orange Co., N. Y., Nov. 23, 1836. Educated at Trinity School in New York City. (Married.) Vice-president Atlantic Mutual Insurance Co.; treasurer New York Board of Marine Underwriters and Episcopal Fund of the Diocese of Long Island. Member Marine and Field, Montauk, Hamilton, and Riding and Driving Clubs of Brooklyn, Church Club of the Diocese of Long Island, and Kane Lodge, F. & A. M.

PARSONS, GEORGE—Capitalist, 15 Broad street, New York City; residence 1933 Madison avenue. Director Central Crosstown R. R. Co., City and Suburban R. R. Co., Ogdensburg and Lake Champlain Ry. Co., Oswego and Rome R. R. Co., Rome, Watertown and Ogdensburg R. R. Co., Savannah Thunderbolt and Isle of Hope R. R. Co. of Savannah, Ga., South Carolina and Georgia R. R. Co. and Utica and Black River R. R. Co. Member New England Society and Metropolitan Museum of Art.

PARSONS, GEORGE B.—Stock Broker, 40 New street, New York City; residence 505 Fifth avenue. Educated at Columbia. Member Union, Metropolitan, Atlantic Yacht, New York and Players' Clubs and Columbia Alumni Association.

PARSONS, HARRY DE BERKELEY—Engineer, 22 William street, New York City; residence 294 Madison avenue. Born in New York City. Educated at Columbia College and at Stevens Institute of Technology. (Married Frances T. Walker.) Formerly professor of steam engineering, Rensselaer Polytechnic Institute and member New York State Commission on Voting Machines. Member Engineers', Metropolitan, American Yacht and Country Clubs, Metropolitan Museum of Art, American Society of Mechanical Engineers, American Society of Civil Engineers and Columbia University Alumni Association.

PARSONS, HENRY—Lawyer, 31 Nassau street, New York City; residence 72 Columbia Heights, Brooklyn. Born in Sharon Springs, N. Y., Nov. 21, 1835. Educated at Williston Seminary and at Union College. (Married.) Served as first lieutenant and captain 134th New York Volunteers, 1862-3. Member Delta Kappa Epsilon Fraternity and Union College Alumni Association.

PARSONS, HERBERT—Alderman, City Hall, and Lawyer, 111 Broadway, New York City; residence 30 East 36th street. Born in New York City, Oct. 28, 1869. Educated at Everson's School, St. Paul's School, Concord, N. H., Yale ('90), University of Berlin, and at Harvard Law School. (Married Elsie, daughter of Henry Clews, Esq., 1900.) Member of the firm of Parsons, Shephard & Ogden. Represents the Twenty-fifth Assembly District on the Board of Aldermen, Borough of Manhattan. Director Lawyers' Surety Co.; member board of managers New York Association for Improving the Condition of the Poor. Member City, Metropolitan, University, Yale and Republican Clubs and Association of the Bar of the City of New York.

PARSONS, HOSMER B.—Express and Transportation, 63 Broadway, New York City; residence 168 Lincoln place, Brooklyn. Born in Hamilton, N. Y., Jan. 6, 1846. Educated at Ripon (Wis.) College. (Married.) Assistant secretary Wells, Fargo & Co.; secretary and cashier Wells, Fargo & Co.'s Bank; director City Trust Co. Member Lawyers' Club, Rembrandt Club of Brooklyn, and Brooklyn Institute of Arts and Sciences (trustee).

PARSONS, J. D., JR.—Banker, Albany; residence 233 State street. Born in Albany, Jan. 2, 1847. Educated in Albany. (Married.) President and director National Exchange Bank.

PARSONS, JOHN EDWARD—Lawyer, 111 Broadway, New York City; residence 30 East 36th street. Born in Rye, N. Y., Oct. 24, 1829. (Son of Edward Lamb and Matilda [Clark] Parsons.) Educated at New York University ('48). (Widower.) Practicing in New York City since his admission to the Bar in 1852. Now senior member of the firm of Parsons, Shephard & Ogden. Member of the council of New York University since 1865. President Women's Hospital and General Memorial Hospital; director American Sugar Refining Co. and Metropolitan Trust Co.; trustee Cooper Union. Devotes considerable of his time to benevolent and philanthropic work and is quite prominent in Presbyterian church circles. Member Metropolitan, City, University, Riding, Players', Turf and Field and Sigma Phi Clubs, American Geographical and Musical Arts Societies, Century and Down Town Associations, Association of the Bar of the City of New York (president), National Academy of Design, American Museum of Natural History and Metropolitan Museum of Art.

PARSONS, JOSEPH H.—Knit Wear Merchant, 43 Leonard street, New York City; residence 1 West 72d street. Director Hudson River Bank. Member Union League, Lawyers' and Grolier Clubs, American Geographical Society, Metropolitan Museum of Art, American Museum of Natural History and Sons of the Revolution.

PARSONS, MARSELIS C.—Manufacturer, 257 Broadway, New York City; residence Rye. Born in Rye, Dec. 9, 1865. Educated at Williston Seminary. (Single.) Member of the firm of Parsons Bros. Member Union League, American Yacht and Hardware Clubs.

PARSONS, RALPH WAIT—Physician, 21 East 44th street, New York City; residence Sing Sing. Born in New York City, Oct. 1, 1867. Educated in New York City. (Married.) Formerly assistant physician Hudson River State Hospital. Member Sons of the American Revolution, New York Academy of Medicine, New York Neurological Society and Society of Medical Jurisprudence.

PARSONS, ROBERT E.—Architect, 40 Bowne avenue, Flushing, L. I. Residence "Liriodendra," Flushing. Born in Flushing, Jan. 4, 1866. Educated at New York University, at Rutgers College ('88), and at Royal Technical School, Stuttgart, Germany ('91). (Single.) Member Delta Phi, Reform and Rutgers Clubs, Oakland Golf and Flushing Riding and Driving Clubs, and Delta Phi Alumni Association of New York University.

PARSONS, ROBERT W.—Mail Agent for Nassau Government, 26 Broadway, New York City; residence 11 East 55th street. Director Russell & Erwin Mfg Co. and Russell, Burdall & Ward. Member American Yacht and Manhattan Clubs and Down Town Association.

PARSONS, SAMUEL, JR.—Landscape Architect, Broadway and 26th street, New York City; residence Hotel San Remo. Born in New Bedford, Mass., Feb. 8, 1844. Educated by private tutor, at Haverford (Pa.) College, and at Sheffield Scientific School, Yale (Ph.B.). (Married.) Member of the firm of Parsons & Pentecost. Was superintendent of parks of New York City for fifteen years. Now landscape architect for Corporation of Trinity Church, Evergreen Cemetery and Mt. Pleasant Cemetery Co. Vice-president American Society of Landscape Architects. Member Yale Alumni and Century Associations.

PARSONS, SCHUYLER LIVINGSTON—Commission Merchant, 136 Pearl street, New York City; residence 39 West 48th street. Member of the firm of Parsons & Petit. Director Laflin & Rand Powder Co. Member Union, Metropolitan, Players', Turf and Field and Coney Island Jockey Clubs and St. Nicholas Society.

PARSONS, WILLIAM BARCLAY—Civil and Consulting Engineer, 22 William street, New York City; residence 51 East 53d street. Born in New York City, April 15, 1859. Educated at Columbia (A.B., '79 and C.E., '82). (Married.) Entered the service of the Erie railroad in 1882, with which he was connected until 1885, when he resigned and commenced practice as a consulting engineer. Has been connected with a number of important undertakings and is now chief engineer to the Rapid Transit Commission of New York City. Member Metropolitan and University Clubs, Columbia University Alumni and Century Associations, American Society of Civil Engineers, Institution of Civil Engineers of Great Britain, and American Institute of Mining Engineers.

PARSONS, WILLIAM DECATUR—18 East 63d street, New York City. Member New York Athletic Club, Sons of the Revolution, Society of Colonial Wars and Society of Foreign Wars.

PARSONS, WILLIAM H.—Paper Manufacturer, 320 Broadway, New York City; residence Rye. Born on Staten Island, July 7, 1831. Educated in New York City and Rye. (Widower.) President W. H. Parsons & Co., Bowdoin Paper Mfg Co., Lisbon Falls Fibre Co., New York Board of Trade and Transportation, Westchester County Bible Society and National League for Protection of American Institutions; director Society for Prevention of Cruelty to Animals. Member Metropolitan, New York Athletic, American Yacht, Atlantic Yacht, Union League and Hardware Clubs, American Museum of Natural History, Metropolitan Museum of Art and American Geographical Society.

PARSONS, WILLIAM H., JR.—Paper Manufacturer, 320 Broadway, New York City; residence 246 West 76th street. Born in New York City, Jan. 31, 1859. Educated at Yale ('82). (Married.) Treasurer W. H. Parsons & Co. Member University, Hardware, American Yacht and Yale Clubs.

PARTON, ARTHUR—Artist, 52 East 23d street, New York City; residence Yonkers. Born in Hudson, N. Y., March 26, 1842. Studied at the Philadelphia (Pa.) Academy of Fine Arts. Established a studio in New York City in 1865; makes a specialty of landscapes. Member National Academy of Design.

PARTRIDGE, EDWARD L.—Physician, 19 Fifth avenue, New York City. Born in Newtown, Mass., Sept. 27, 1853. Educated at College of Physicians and Surgeons of Columbia University ('75) and at Williams College; honorary degree of M.D. from both colleges. (Married Gertrude E. Dwight.) Was adjunct professor College of Physicians and Surgeons; physician Nursery and Child's Hospital, Sloane Maternity Hospital and Lying-in Hospital. Now consulting physician New York Hospital; consulting obstetrician, New York Infant Asylum. Author of "Manual of Obstetrics." Member University Club, Society of Colonial Wars, Academy of Medicine, Medical and Surgical, and State Medical Societies and Century Association.

PARTRIDGE, JOHN N.—Superintendent, State Capitol, Albany; residence 829 Carroll street, Brooklyn. Born in Leicester, Mass., September, 1838. Educated at Leicester Academy. (Widower.) Superintendent of Public Works of the State of New York by appointment of Governor Roosevelt. Served as fire commissioner, 1882-3, and as police commissioner, 1884-5, of the City of Brooklyn; president of the Brooklyn City and Newtown R. R. Co., 1886-97, and as colonel of the 23d Regiment, N. G. N. Y. Vice-president and director Excelsior Terra Cotta Co. of New York; trustee Hamilton Trust Co. of Brooklyn. Member Hamilton, Crescent Athletic, Montauk and Riding and Driving Clubs of Brooklyn, and Military Order of the Loyal Legion.

PARTRIDGE, WILLIAM ORDWAY—Sculptor and Author, Madison Square Garden Tower, New York City. Born in Paris, France, April 11, 1861. Educated at Columbia College, in Rome, Florence and Paris. Executed the statue of Shakespeare in Lincoln Park, Chicago, Ill.; statue of Alexander Hamilton in Brooklyn; bust of Edward E. Hale in Union League Club, Chicago, and equestrian statue of General Grant for Union League Club, Brooklyn, N. Y. Author of "Art for America," "The Technique of Sculpture" and other works of a similar nature. Member Authors', Reform, Barnard and Arts Clubs, and Cosmos Club of Washington, D. C.

PASCAL, HENRY SALEM—Physician and Instructor, 318 West 52d street, New York City. Degree of M.D. Assistant instructor in histology, Cornell University Medical College, New York City.

PATCHEN, EDWARD F.—Broker, 52 Broadway, New York City; residence 230 Clinton street, Brooklyn. Born in Brooklyn, 1839. Educated in Brooklyn and New York City. (Single.) Member of the New York Stock Exchange. Member Brooklyn, Dyker Meadow Golf and Long Beach Clubs, Society of Old Brooklynites and 13th Regiment Veterans.

PATE, WILLIAM C.—Insurance 100 William street, New York City; residence 1129 Dean street, Brooklyn. Born in New York City, May 16, 1845. Educated at Brooklyn Polytechnic Institute. (Married.) Member of the firm of Pate & Robb. Member Union League, Oxford, and Marine and Field Clubs of Brooklyn, Drug Trade and Underwriters' Clubs, 7th Regiment Veteran Association and Engineers' Corps.

PATERSON, J. THOMSON—Consulting Actuary and Editor, 320 Broadway, New York City; residence 53 West 105th street. Born in Canada, Sept. 23, 1850. Educated at Quebec High School, at Morriss College and at McGill College, Montreal. Proprietor and editor "Insurance Counselor"; author "Life Underwriters' Manual," "The Fundamental Principles of Life Insurance," "The Two Systems of Life Insurance Compared" and "Which System of Life Insurance Should I Select?" Member Canadian Society of New York.

PATON, FRANCIS J.—Banker, 44 Pine street, New York City; residence 267 Fifth avenue. Member of the firm of Cuyler, Morgan & Co., and of the New York Stock Exchange. Member Calumet and Union Clubs and Down Town Association.

PATON, MORTON S.—Lawyer, 1 Broadway, New York City; residence Dobbs Ferry. Educated at Princeton ('80). President and director Alliance and Northern R. R. Co.; vice-president and director Seattle and International Ry. Co. and Spokane and Seattle Ry. Co. Member Princeton, University and Racquet and Tennis Clubs, and Ardsley Casino of Ardsley-on-Hudson.

PATON, WILLIAM A.—Author, Union Club, New York City. Born in New York City, April 20, 1848. Educated in New York City. (Married.) Author of "Down the Islands," "Picturesque Sicily" and others. Member Union, St. Andrew's Golf and Burns Clubs, American Geographical, St. Andrew's, American Fine Arts and American Sculpture Societies and Century Association.

PATRICK, CHARLES H.—Manufacturer, 25 Pine street, New York City; residence 101 West 85th street. Born in Bennington, Vt., May 15, 1836. Educated in common schools. (Married.) Formerly vice-president Johns, Pratt Co. and treasurer and secretary H. W. Johns Mfg Co. for twenty years. Treasurer and director East Bay Land and Improvement Co.; director Mercantile Library Association and New York Board of Trade and Transportation. Member Republican and Drug Trade Clubs, G. A. R., American Institute, 71st Regiment Veteran Association and Chamber of Commerce.

PATTEN, THOMAS G.—Real Estate, 66 Broadway, New York City; residence Long Branch, N. J. President and director New York and Long Branch Steamboat Co. Member Suburban Riding and Driving and Colonial Clubs.

PATTERSON, ALBERT MANSFIELD—Woolen Commission Merchant, 345 Broadway, New York City; residence 173 Fifth avenue. Educated at the College of the City of New York. Member of the firm of Patterson & Greenough. Member Merchants', Seawanhaka-Corinthian Yacht and Union Clubs and College of the City of New York Alumni Association.

PATTERSON, ANDREW STUART—Professional Accountant, 30 Broad street, New York City; residence Plainfield, N. J. Born in Indiana, 1845. Educated in New York City. (Married.) Member of the firm of Patterson, Corwin & Patterson. Connected with the firm of Tiffany Glass & Decorating Co. Member Lawyers', Hillside Tennis and Golf and Park (Plainfield, N. J.) Clubs, New York State Society of Certified Accountants and Chamber of Commerce.

PATTERSON, ARTHUR W.—Custom House Broker, 27 William street, New York City; residence Roselle, N. J. Born in Lowell, Mass., Aug. 9, 1847. Educated at Lowell High School. (Married.) Member of the firm of Amerman & Patterson.

PATTERSON, CHARLES E.—Lawyer, 261 Broadway, New York City; residence 17 First street. Educated at Union College. Director United States Life Insurance Co. Member Delta Kappa Epsilon and Reform Clubs and Union College Alumni Association.

PATTERSON, CHARLES H.—Banker, 14 Nassau street, New York City; residence 16 West 87th street. Born in Henniker, N. H., Jan. 20, 1840. Educated at Dartmouth College. (Married.) Formerly Deputy Assistant Treasurer of the United States in New York City. Now cashier Fourth National Bank. Member West Side Republican Club, and Dartmouth College Alumni and West End Associations.

PATTERSON, EDWARD—Supreme Court Justice, Madison square, East, New York City; residence 19 East 45th street. Born in New York City, 1839. Educated in Philadelphia, Pa., and at Williams and Hobart Colleges, from both of which he received the degree of LL.D. Studied law, was admitted to the Bar in 1860, and practiced until 1887, when he became a Justice of the Supreme Court; is now a member of the Appellate Division to which he was appointed by Governor Morten; term expires Dec. 31, 1900. Member Metropolitan, Manhattan, Democratic, Alpha Delta Phi and Players' Clubs, Aldine and Century Associations, American Museum of Natural History and Association of the Bar of the City of New York.

PATTERSON, EDWARD LIDDON—Lawyer, 71 Wall street, New York City; residence 19 East 45th street. Educated at Columbia ('86). Member Alpha Delta Phi, and University Athletic and University Clubs, Columbia University Alumni and Century Associations, Sons of the Revolution and Association of the Bar of the City of New York.

PATTERSON, FLOYD E.—Manufacturer, 71 Broadway, New York City; residence Hotel Marlborough. Secretary and manager American Steel and Wire Co. Member Hardware, Manhattan and Colonial Clubs, and Kenwood Club of Chicago, Ill.

PATTERSON, JOHN—Lawyer, 44 Pine street, New York City; residence 317 West 107th street. Born in New York City, Oct. 6, 1871. Member Delta Upsilon Club and Association of the Bar of the City of New York.

PATTERSON, THOMAS J.—Commissioner, 280 Broadway, New York City; residence 157 Rodney street, Brooklyn. Born in Brooklyn, 1849. Served as a member of the Board of Assessors of the City of Brooklyn, under Mayors Whitney and Chapin. Commissioner of taxes and assessments of the City of New York, by appointment of Mayor Van Wyck since 1898. Member Olympic Club.

PATTERSON, WILLIAM HENRY—Merchant, 100 Broadway, New York City; residence 275 Fifth avenue. Born in Philadelphia, Pa., April 20, 1855. Educated at the University of Pennsylvania ('76). (Single.) Director Birmingham Cement Co.; chairman board of directors of McCord & Co. Member University, Calumet and Garden City (L. I.), Richmond County and Ardsley Clubs.

PATTISON, T. HARWOOD—Clergyman, 4 Portsmouth terrace, Rochester. Born in Cornwall, England, Dec. 14, 1838. Educated at Regents Park College, England ('62). Degree of D.D. from Colgate, Brown and Williams. (Married Emily A. Bainbridge.) Professor of homiletics and pastoral theology at Rochester Theological Seminary. Author of "Present Day Lectures," "The History of the English Bible," and "The Making of the Sermon."

PATTON, CHARLES L.—Publisher, 45 East Tenth street, New York City; residence 237 West 45th street. (Single.) First vice-president and acting president University Publishing Co. Member New York Athletic and Whist Clubs, New York Historical and Southern Societies and Aldine Association.

PATTON, FRANCIS LANDEY, JR.—Lawyer, 54 Wall street, New York City; residence 339 West 70th street. Born in New York City, April 27, 1871. (Son of Francis L. Patton, president of Princeton University.) Educated at Princeton (B.A., '93) and New York Law School (LL.B., '95). (Single.) Member Princeton Club and Royal Bermuda Yacht Club of Bermuda, W. I.

PATTON, JACOB HARRIS—Author, 173 West 79th street, New York City. Born in Fayette County, Pa., May 20, 1812. Educated at Jefferson College (A.B., A.M. and Ph.D.) and at Union Theological Seminary. (Widower.) Interested in educational work until 1887, since which time he has devoted himself to literature. Author of "Four Hundred Years of American History," "Natural Resources of the United States," "Political Economy for American Youth," "Political Parties in the United States," "A Popular History of the Presbyterian Church in the United States" and other works.

PAUL, EDWARD THOMPSON—Lawyer, 30 Broad street, New York City; residence 172 Remsen street, Brooklyn. Born in Derby, Conn., Aug. 15, 1871. Educated at Columbia University (LL.B.). (Single.) Member Phi Gamma Delta Fraternity.

PAULDING, CHARLES C.—Lawyer, Grand Central Station, New York City; residence Peekskill. Born in New York City, Dec. 10, 1863. Educated at Yale University and Columbia Law School. (Single.) Assistant general counsel New York Central and Hudson River Railroad Co. Member Ardsley, Transportation, Calumet, University Glee, Mount Pleasant Field and Highlands Country Clubs.

PAULDING, JAMES P.—Stock Broker and Merchant, 92 Broadway, New York City; residence 10 West Tenth street. Member of the New York Stock Exchange. President and director F. O. Norton Cement Co. Member Manhattan, New York Athletic, New York Yacht, Cuttyhunk and Lawyers' Clubs.

PAUR, EMIL—Musician, 106 East 70th street, New York City. Born in Austria, 1855. (Son of Czerowitz Paur.) Studied music under the direction of his father and at Vienna Conservatory. (Married Marie Burger, 1882.) Served for a time as first violin of the Vienna Imperial Opera House; court conductor at Cassel, Hanover, 1876-80; first conductor and director of season concerts at Mannheim, 1880-9, and at Leipzig, 1891-3. Became a resident of the United States in 1893; conductor of Boston Symphony Orchestra, 1893-8; since 1898, director of the New York Philharmonic Society and conductor of the "Paur Orchestra" in New York City.

PAVENSTEDT, ADOLPH—Merchant, 52 Exchange place, New York City; residence 30 Central Park, South. Member Union, Racquet and Tennis, Germania and Jockey Clubs, Down Town Association, Circle Colon Cervantes and Deutscher Verein.

PAVENSTEDT, EDMUND—Banker, 54 Wall street, New York City; residence "The Osborne." Born and educated in Bremen, Germany. (Married.) Member of the New York Stock Exchange firm of Muller, Schall & Co. Member Union, Calumet and German Clubs, Union Boat Club of Boston, Mass., and Down Town Association.

PAVEY, FRANK D.—Lawyer, 32 Nassau street, New York City; residence 450 Fifth avenue. Represented the Fifteenth District in the New York State Senate, 1898. Director Cuban and Pan-American Express Co. Member Republican, Union League, Delta Kappa Epsilon and Yale Clubs, Ardsley Casino of Ardsley-on-Hudson, and Association of the Bar of the City of New York.

PAXTON, JOHN R.—Presbyterian Clergyman, 51 West 56th street, New York City. Born in Canonsburg, Pa., Sept. 18, 1843. Educated at Jefferson College and at Western Theological Seminary (D.D., '69). Served as private and second lieutenant with a Pennsylvania regiment during Civil War. Rector of Pine Street Church, Harrisburg, Pa., 1874-8; New York Avenue Church, Washington, D. C., 1878-82; West Church, New York City, 1882-93, and of New York Church, 1898. Member Union League and Adirondack League Clubs, Presbyterian Union, Century Association and Military Order of the Loyal Legion.

PAXTON, WILLIAM M., JR.—President, 44 Pine street, New York City. Educated at Princeton. President and director Continental Commerce Co.; secretary and director Maguire & Baucus (Ltd.). Member University Athletic and Princeton Clubs and Sons of the Revolution.

PAYNE, CHARLES HENRY—Methodist Episcopal Clergyman, 150 Fifth avenue, New York City; residence Hotel Albert. Born in Taunton, Mass., Oct. 24, 1830. Educated at Wesleyan University and at Concord (N. H.) Biblical Institute. Degrees of D.D. from Dickinson College in 1871 and LL.D. from Ohio State University in 1875. (Married Mary E. Gardiner of Wickford, R. I., 1887.) Held various pastorates in Massachusetts, Rhode Island, Ohio and Pennsylvania until 1876; president of Ohio Wesleyan University, 1876-88. Corresponding secretary of the Board of Education of the Methodist Episcopal Church since 1888. Delegate to Methodist Ecumenical Conference held in London, England, in 1881, and to the General Conferences of the Methodist Episcopal Church of 1880, 1884, 1888, 1892 and 1896. Has traveled extensively in Europe, Asia and the Holy Land. Author of several religious works.

PAYNE, NATHAN B.—Manufacturer, 120 Liberty street, New York City; residence St. George, S. I. Born in Corning, N. Y., Oct. 28, 1872. Educated in Elmira, N. Y. (Single.) Vice-president and director Payne Engineering Co.; general manager and director Payne Co. of Elmira. Member Reform Club and Kappa Alpha Nu.

PAYNE, OLIVER H. (Colonel)—Capitalist, 32 Nassau street, New York City; residence 852 Fifth avenue. Educated at Yale ('63). By his gift of $500,000 to Cornell University, was instrumental in the establishment and maintenance in New York City of the Medical Department of that institution. Director American Tobacco Co., Chaquette Canal and Harbor Dredging Co., Chase National Bank, Chihuahua and Pacific R. R. Co., Chihuahua Mining Co., Continental Tobacco Co., Helena Mining Co., Manufacturing Investment Co., New York Loan and Improvement Co., Northern Pacific Ry. Co., Standard Oil Co. and Tennessee Coal, Iron and R. R. Co.; trustee Central Trust Co. Honorary member Cornell University Club. Member Metropolitan, Knickerbocker, University, Manhattan, Riding, Turf and Field, and Suburban Riding and Driving Clubs, Manufacturers' Club of Cleveland, Ohio, and Yale Alumni and Down Town Associations.

PAYNE, S. HENRY—Engine Manufacturer, 120 Liberty street, New York City; residence Elmira. Born in Corning, N. Y. Educated in Ann Arbor, Mich. (Married.) President and director Payne Engineering Co.; assistant superintendent Payne Co. Member Psi Upsilon and Reform Clubs, American Society of Mechanical Engineers and Michigan University Alumni Association.

PAYNE, WILLIAM KNAPP—Lawyer, 131 Genesee street, Auburn; residence 11 James street. Born in Auburn, June 3, 1874. Educated at Yale University (A.B., '95) and New York Law School. (Single.) Member of the firm of Payne, Van Sickle & Payne. Member Yale Club of New York City, and Dolphin and City Clubs.

PARKER, JAMES M.—Retired Wholesale Druggist, 438 Pearl street, New York City; residence Norwich, Conn. Born in Middlesex County, Mass., Dec. 10, 1827. Educated in New York City. (Married.) Was member of the firm of M. Ward Close & Co., wholesale druggists, for fifteen years; connected with the firm of W. H. Schieffelin & Co., wholesale druggists, for fifteen years; also was secretary, treasurer and director of Billings, King & Co., paint and varnish manufacturers, for eight years. Member Union League Club and First Universalist Society of Brooklyn.

PEABODY, CHARLES AUGUSTUS—Retired Lawyer, 2 Wall street, New York City; residence 60 West 21st street. Born in Carroll County, N. H., July 10, 1814. Educated by private tutors and at Harvard Law School; lost college course by reason of illness. (Married first, Julia Caroline, daughter of James Duane Livingston, grandson of Robert, last lord of the manor of Livingston; second, Mary Eliza, daughter of John C. Hamilton and grand-daughter of Alexander Hamilton, organizer and first Secretary of the United States Treasury; third, Athenia, daughter of Anthony Rutgers Livingston, and a great grand-daughter of Robert, last lord of the manor of Livingston.) Resident of New York City since 1839. Admitted to the Bar, 1841. Member of convention that organized Republican party in the State of New York, 1855; became Justice of the Supreme Court of New York, 1855, and commissioner of quarantine, 1858. Appointed by President Lincoln, in 1862, Judge to organize and administer United States Provisional Court for the State of Louisiana, with power to hear and determine all cases, civil and criminal, including those in law, equity, revenue and admiralty, his decision to be final; afterwards appointed Chief Justice of Supreme Court of Louisiana. Was member and vice-president for many years of an association for the reform of the law of nations, which embraced many of the most eminent jurists in Europe and America. Was appointed delegate by the President to represent the United States at International Congress convoked by the King of Belgium for unification of international commercial law. Member Union League, Harvard and Church Clubs and Century Association.

PEABODY, CHARLES AUGUSTUS, JR.—Lawyer, 2 Wall street, New York City; residence 13 Park avenue. Born in New York City, April 11, 1849. Educated at Columbia College ('69) and at Columbia Law School. (Married.) Director Farmers' Loan and Trust Co., Real Estate Trust Co., Illinois Central R. R. Co., Astor National Bank, British-American Insurance Co., Bank for Savings and many other corporations. Member Union League, University, Metropolitan and Tuxedo Clubs and Down Town Association.

PEABODY, CHARLES J.—Banker, 27 Pine street, New York City; residence Englewood, N. J. Born in Columbus, Ga. Educated in a public school. (Married.) Member of the firm of Spencer Trask & Co. and of the New York Stock Exchange. Secretary, treasurer and director Broadway Realty Co.; treasurer and director Mexican Coal and Coke Co.; director Consolidated Car Heating Co. of Albany, New York and Ottawa R. R. Co., Ottawa and New York Ry. Co., Montezuma Lead Co. and Mexican Lead Co. Member Reform and Lawyers' Clubs, Hamilton Club of Brooklyn, Southern and Albany Societies and Chamber of Commerce.

PEABODY, GEORGE FOSTER—Banker, 27 Pine street, New York City; residence 28 Monroe place, Brooklyn. Born in Columbus, Ga., July 27, 1852. Educated in private schools. (Single.) Member of the firm of Spencer Trask & Co., members of the New York Stock Exchange. First vice-president, director and member of executive committee Mexican National R. R. Co., Mexican Northern Ry. Co., and Rio Grande Western R. R. Co.; vice-president and director Mexican Coal and Coke Co.; director and member of executive committee Compania Metalurgica Mexicana, Mexican National Construction Co. and General Electric Co.; chairman of board of directors New York and Ottawa R. R. Co.; director Morton Trust Co., American Beet Sugar Co. and Ottawa and New York Ry. Co. Member Metropolitan, City, Reform and Lawyers' Clubs, Hamilton Club of Brooklyn, Aldine and Down Town Associations, Musical Arts and Southern Societies and Chamber of Commerce.

PEABODY, GEORGE LIVINGSTON—Physician and Professor, 437 West 59th street, New York City; residence 57 West 38th street. Educated at Columbia ('70). Professor of materia medica and therapeutics in Columbia University. Member New York Yacht and City Clubs, Columbia University Alumni and Century Associations and life member University Club.

PEABODY, RICHARD A.—Stock Broker, 45 Exchange place, New York City. Educated at Yale ('81). Member of the New York Stock Exchange. Member University, Racquet and Tennis and Rockaway Hunting Clubs, New England Society and Yale Alumni Association.

PEABODY, ROYAL C.—Capitalist, 360 Pearl street, Brooklyn; residence 97 Columbia Heights. President and director Citizens' Electric Illuminating Co. of Brooklyn, and Municipal Electric Light and Power Co.; vice-president and director American Stoker Co., Citizens' Lighting Co. of Rockaway, and Edison Electric Illuminating Co. of Brooklyn; vice-president, treasurer and director Queens Borough Electric Light and Power Co.; director Bergen Beach Light and Power Co., Columbia Building and Loan Association, Journeay & Burnham Co. and Manufacturers' Trust Co. Member Reform Club of New York, and Crescent Athletic and Hamilton Clubs of Brooklyn.

PEABODY, RUSHTON—Insurance Broker, 173 Broadway, New York City; residence 80 Washington square, East. Born in Brooklyn, N. Y., March 4, 1867. Educated at Brooklyn Polytechnic Institute. (Single.) Served on U. S. S. "Yankee" in Spanish-American War.

PEAK, WILLIAM N.—Manufacturer, 408 Hicks street, Brooklyn; residence 268 Berkeley place. Member Hamilton, Montauk, and Riding and Driving Clubs and Brooklyn Institute of Arts and Sciences.

PEALE, FRANKLIN D.—Lawyer, 30 Broad street, New York City; residence 99 Beech street, East Orange, N. J. Born in Lock Haven, Pa. Educated at Harvard College and Harvard Law School. (Married.) Member of the firm of Peale & Bodine. Member Harvard and University Clubs and Association of the Bar of the City of New York.

PEARCE, FREDERICK—Manufacturing Electrician, 20 Rose street, New York City; residence 206 West 122d street. Born in London, England, 1843. Educated in London. (Married.) Treasurer Special Fire Alarm Electrical Signal Co. Member Harlem, Sagamore and Harlem Democratic Clubs, Tammany Society, Corinthian Lodge, R. A. M., and Royal Arcanum.

PEARL, DYER—Stock Broker, 66 Broadway, New York City; residence 48 West 130th street. Member of the firm of Pearl & Co., and of the New York Stock Exchange. Member New York, Atlantic Yacht and Suburban Riding and Driving Clubs.

PEARL, WILLIAM E.—Broker, 10 Wall street, New York City; residence 200 West 78th street. Born in Chattanooga, Tenn., Dec. 16, 1855. (Married.) Member of the firm of F. T. Adams & Co., and of the New York Stock Exchange. Member Atlantic Yacht and New York Clubs.

PEARSALL, THOMAS W.—Stock Broker, 29 Broadway, New York City; residence 12 West Tenth street. Director Connecticut River Lumber Co. and Duluth, South Shore and Atlantic Ry. Co. Member Union League, Seawanhaka-Corinthian Yacht and Tuxedo Clubs, American Geographical Society, Down Town Association and Metropolitan Museum of Art.

PEARSALL, THOMAS W., Jr.—Insurance, 17 Broad street, New York City; residence 12 West Tenth street. Member Seawanhaka-Corinthian Yacht and Union Clubs and National Academy of Design.

PEARSON, FREDERICK S.—Electrical Engineer, 621 Broadway, New York City. Director Broadway and Seventh Avenue R. R. Co., Central Park, North and East River R. R. Co., Dominion Coal Co., Massachusetts Pipe Line Gas Co., People's Heat and Light Co. (Ltd.) of Halifax, N. S., Sidney and Louisburg Ry. Co., Twenty-third Street Ry. Co., Sao Paulo (Brazil) Tramway, Light and Power Co., Cuban Electric Co. of Cuba, and Havana (Cuba) Electric Ry. Co. Member Engineers', New York Yacht, New York Railroad and Larchmont Yacht Clubs, Society of Naval Engineers, Mining Society of United States, Institution of Civil Engineers of London, England, American Society of Mechanical Engineers, American Institute of Mining Engineers, American Institute of Electrical Engineers and American Society of Civil Engineers.

PEARSON, WILLIAM C.—Steel Manufacturer, 114 John street, New York City; residence 165 West 76th street. Member Republican, New York Athletic and Union League Clubs.

PEARSON, WILLIAM H.—Vice-President, Produce Exchange, New York City; residence Newark, N. J. Born in Philadelphia, Pa. Educated at Princeton ('72). (Married.) Vice-president, secretary and director Kress & Owen Co.; vice-president, secretary and trustee New York Produce Exchange Safe Deposit and Storage Co.

PEASE, CHARLES G.—Professor and Physician, 101 West 72d street, New York City. Born in New York City, Dec. 4, 1854. Educated in New York City and Philadelphia; degrees of M.D. and D.D.S. (Widower.) Professor of oral surgery in Post-Graduate School of Medicine. Formerly delegate to State Dental Convention; member of executive committee and censor of County Medical Society. Author of "Hints and Suggestions in the Care and Preservation of the Teeth." Member Good Government Club "B," Sullivan County (N. Y.) Club, New York State Medical, New York County Medical, New York State Dental and New York County Dental Societies and Presbyterian Union.

PEASE, HENRY HOLLISTER—56 West 52d street, New York City. Educated at Harvard ('91). Member Harvard, University, Racquet and Tennis, and Riding Clubs, and Ardsley Casino of Ardsley-on-Hudson.

PEASE, WALTER ALBERT, JR.—Real Estate, 532 Fifth avenue, New York City; residence 31 East 62d street. Born in New York City, Dec. 14, 1871. Educated at Harvard College ('93). (Married.) Member of the firm of Pease & Elliman. Member Westchester Golf and Harvard Clubs and Squadron "A," N. G. N. Y.

PEASLEE, EDWARD H.—Physician, 56 Pine street, New York City; residence 109 East 39th street. Born in Hanover, N. H., Oct. 23, 1850. Educated at Yale ('72), at College of Physicians and Surgeons of Columbia University, and in Germany. (Married.) Formerly commissioner of education in New York City. Member University Club, Yale Alumni, Down Town and Century Associations and New England Society.

PEASLEY, CHARLES W.—Fire Insurance Broker, 20 Liberty street, New York City; residence 769 East 183d street. Born in Peabody, Mass., Nov. 19, 1840. (Married.) Connected with the Continental Insurance Co., 1865-71. In business for himself since 1871. Member Hamilton Post, G. A. R., and Masonic Order.

PEATS, ALFRED—Upholstery Goods, 41 West 14th street, New York City; residence Plaza Hotel. Member of the firm of Alfred Peats & Co. Director Fourteenth Street Bank. Member New York Athletic and Manhattan Clubs and Aldine Association.

PECK, CHARLES E.—Insurance, 58 William street, New York City; residence 200 West 56th street. Member of the firm of Chas. E. & W. F. Peck. Member Union League, New York Athletic, Lotos and Mendelssohn Glee Clubs, American Geographical Society, Down Town Association, American Museum of Natural History and Metropolitan Museum of Art.

PECK, CHARLES HORTON—Botanist, State Capitol, Albany. Born in Sand Lake, N. Y., March 30, 1833. Educated at Union College (A.B. and A.M.). (Married Mary C. Sliter.) Taught in Sand Lake Collegiate Institute and in Albany Classical Institute, 1859-67. In charge of botanical department of New York State Museum since 1868. State Botanist, New York State Museum, and member of Museum staff. Author of annual reports on results of botanical investigations; also of "Edible and Poisonous Fungi of New York." Member Phi Beta Kappa Society, Alpha Delta Phi Fraternity, Albany Institute, Botanical Society of America, and corresponding and honorary member of several scientific societies and mycological clubs.

PECK, EDWARD M.—General Agent, 115 Broadway, New York City; residence Flushing, L. I. Born in Flushing, March 19, 1864. Educated at Flushing Institute. (Married.) Connected with the New York Life Insurance Co.

PECK, EDWARD S.—Lawyer, 100 Broadway, New York City; residence 101 West 78th street. Born in Oneida County, N. Y., May 16, 1852. Educated at Hamilton College ('73). (Single.) Member Colonial, Hardware, West Side Republican and Delta Kappa Epsilon Clubs and Association of the Bar of the City of New York.

PECK, ELIAS R.—Banker, 486 Broadway, New York City; residence 106 West 55th street. Assistant cashier Mechanics' and Traders' Bank. Member Racquet and Tennis, New York Athletic and New York Clubs and New England Society.

PECK, GEORGE L.—Druggist, Jamaica. Born in Wallingford, Conn. Educated in Waterbury, Conn. (Married.) First vice-president and director Jamaica Savings Bank.

PECK, HARRY THURSTON—Author, Editor and Educator, Columbia University, New York City; residence 7 West 43d street. Born in Stamford, Conn., Nov. 24, 1856. Educated at Columbia University and in Berlin, Germany. (Married.) Professor of Latin in Columbia University; editor "The Bookman" and "International Encyclopedia"; literary editor "Commercial Advertiser"; trustee Columbia University Press. Member Authors' Club, American Philological and American Dialect Societies, Royal Society of Canada, Century Association and others.

PECK, HENRY ALLEN—Professor, Syracuse University, Syracuse; residence 307 Waverly place. Born in Mexico, N. Y., May 4, 1863. Educated at Syracuse University ('85). Received degree of Ph.D. from the University of Strassburg, Germany. Professor of astronomy and director of the observatory at Syracuse University.

PECK, JOHN HUDSON—Lawyer and Educator, 11 First street, Troy. Born in Hudson, N. Y., Feb. 7, 1838. Educated at Hamilton College (A.B., A.M. and LL.D.). Studied law and was admitted to the Bar in Albany in 1861, and has since practiced in Troy. President of Rensselaer Polytechnic Institute since 1888.

PECK, LE VAN S.—Insurance, 58 William street, New York City; residence Hotel Waldorf-Astoria. Member of the firm of Chas. E. & W. F. Peck. Member New York Athletic and Lotos Clubs and Down Town Association.

PECK, OZIAS WILLARD—Physician, Sanitarian and Health Officer, 34 Watkins avenue, Oneonta. Born in Thomaston, Conn., May 8, 1835. Educated in public schools of Plymouth, Conn., by private tutor in New Haven, Conn., at the Medical Department of Yale University and at College of Physicians and Surgeons, New York City. (Degrees of A.M. and M.D.). (Married.) Was trustee Union School District, 1880-4. Now physician-in-charge Oneonta Hospital. Member Sons of the American Revolution, Yale Medical Alumni Club, Medical Society of the State of New York, Otsego County Medical and Oneonta Medical Societies, and of committee on hygiene, State Medical Society.

PECK, THOMAS BLOODGOOD—111 East 34th street, New York City. Born and educated in New York City. (Married.) Vice-president Port Chester Savings Bank. Member Church and St. Nicholas Clubs, Metropolitan Museum of Art, Colonial Order, St. Nicholas Society and life member of the American Institute.

PECK, WALTER J.—Importer, 77 Front street, New York City; residence Colonial Club. Member Colonial, New York Athletic, Suburban Riding and Driving, Chicontini, New York Riding, Larchmont Yacht, Union League and Colonial Clubs, Down Town Association and New England Society.

PECK, WILLIAM E.—Exporter, 100 William street, New York City; residence 12 East 58th street. Born in New Britain, Conn., June 30, 1858. (Son of Charles and Mary Folger Peck.) Educated at Williston Seminary ('77) and at Yale ('81). (Married.) President William E. Peck & Co. of New York, London and Paris. Member University, Fulton, Sachem's Head Yacht (vice-commander), Montclair Golf and Colonial Golf Clubs, New England Society, Yale Alumni Association and Delta Kappa Epsilon Fraternity.

PECK, WILLIAM FARLEY—Journalist, 121 Troup street, Rochester. Born in Rochester, Feb. 4, 1840. Educated at Williams College and at Albany Law School. (Single.) Author of "History of Rochester," "Landmarks of Monroe County" and many other works. Member Genesee Valley, Whist and Fort-nightly Clubs, Reform Club of New York City, Society of Mayflower Descendants and Rochester Historical Society.

PECK, WILLIAM HALSEY—Railways, 59 Wall street, New York City; residence 358 West 58th street. Born in Newark, N. J., Feb. 16, 1860. Educated at St. Paul's School, Concord, N. H., and by private tutors. (Single.) Member Essex County (N. J.) Country, New Jersey Historical, Atlantic Yacht and Roseville Athletic Clubs and St. Paul's Alumni Association.

PECK, WILLIAM J.—Editor and Clergyman, Corona, L. I. Born in Northfield, Conn., Aug. 5, 1853. Educated at Thomaston Academy, Williams College and Union Theological Seminary. (Married.) Recording secretary Long Island Bible Society for thirteen years; life director American Bible Society; president Queens County Young People's Society of Christian Endeavor. Member Clerical Union and Union Theological Seminary Alumni Clubs and Presbyterian Ministers' Association.

PECKHAM, RUFUS WHEELER—United States Supreme Court Justice, Washington, D. C.; residence Altamont, N. Y., and Washington. Born in Albany, N. Y., Nov. 8, 1833. Educated at Albany Academy. Studied law and was admitted to the Bar in 1859. (Married.) Served as district attorney of Albany County and as corporation counsel to the City of Albany. Supreme Court Justice of the State of New York, 1883-6; Associate Justice of the New York Court of Appeals, 1886-95; Associate Justice of the United States Supreme Court since 1895. Trustee Mutual Life Insurance Co. of New York, and Mechanics' and Farmers' Bank of Albany. Member Manhattan Club of New York City, and honorary member of the Fort Orange Club of Albany.

PECKHAM, STEPHEN FARNUM—Chemist, 286 Broadway, New York City; residence 1489 Pacific street, Brooklyn. Born in Providence, R. I., March 26, 1839. Educated at Brown University ('61). (Widower.) Chemist to California Petroleum Co., 1866; connected with California Geological Survey, 1867; instructor at Brown University, 1868; professor of chemistry at Washington and Jefferson College, Maine State College, Buctel College and at the University of Minnesota, 1869-80; on United States Census, 1881-5; chemist to Union Oil Co. of California, 1893-4. Now in independent practice in New York City. Author of several works on chemistry. Member of various scientific societies.

PECKHAM, WHEELER HAZARD—Lawyer, 80 Broadway, New York City; residence 685 Madison avenue. Born in Albany, N. Y., Jan. 1, 1833. (Son of New York Supreme Court Justice Rufus Wheeler Peckham and brother of United States Supreme Court Justice Rufus Wheeler Peckham.) Educated at Albany Academy and at Union College. Studied law with his father, was admitted to the Bar and practiced for a time in Albany. Resident of New York City since 1864. Now senior member of the firm of Peckham, Miller & King. Served for a short time as district attorney of New York County; was leading counsel in the Tweed prosecutions. Director Buffalo, Rochester and Pittsburg Ry. Co. Member Metropolitan and Reform Clubs, Century and Down Town Associations, Association of the Bar of the City of New York (ex-president) and Metropolitan Museum of Art.

PECKHAM, WILLIAM GIBBS—Lawyer, 111 Broadway, New York City; residence Westfield, N. J. Born in Newport, R. I., Feb. 7, 1849. (Son of William Gibbs and Mary Hull [Perry] Peckham.) Educated at Harvard and at the University of Heidelberg, Germany. Studied law in the office of William M. Evarts and Joseph H. Choate. (Married.) Practicing in New York City since his admission to the Bar in 1870. Senior member of the firm of Peckham, Warner & Strong. Member of visiting committee in International Law at Harvard University; director Tariff Reform League and Fifth Avenue Coach Co. Was associated with George William Curtis and Carl Schurz on the Independent National Committee of 1884. Member Lawyers', Harvard, Reform, Players' and Commonwealth Clubs, New Jersey Historical Society, New York Law Institute, New York State Bar Association and Association of the Bar of the City of New York.

PEDERSEN, FREDERICK MALLING—Electrical Engineer and Instructor, 17 Lexington avenue, New York City; residence 39 Washington square, West. Born in New York City, Feb. 12, 1869. Educated at the College of the City of New York and Columbia College. (Married.) Was instructor in electricity, Pratt Institute, Brooklyn, and assistant electrical engineer Crocker-Wheeler Co. Now instructor in physics, College of the City of New York. Member Delta Kappa Epsilon Fraternity, Phi Beta Kappa Society and Brotherhood of St. Andrew.

PEDERSEN, JAMES—Physician, 29 East 44th street, New York City; residence 228 East 44th street. Born in New York City, Aug. 16, 1864. Educated at the College of the City of New York ('84) and College of Physicians and Surgeons. (Married.) Assistant attending surgeon Bellevue Hospital; instructor University and Bellevue Hospital Medical College; adjunct professor New York Post-Graduate Medical School and Hospital. Member Therapeutic, University, Delta Kappa Epsilon, Phi Beta Kappa and Adirondack League Clubs, Citizens' Union Club of the Twenty-seventh and Twenty-ninth Assembly Districts, New York County Medical and New York Medico-Surgical Societies, College of Physicians and Surgeons Alumni and New York Hospital Alumni Associations and New York Academy of Medicine.

PEDERSEN, VICTOR C.—Physician and Surgeon, 228 West 44th street, New York City. Born in New York City, Nov. 15, 1867. Educated at Trinity College (A.B. and A.M.), and College of Physicians and Surgeons (M.D.). Was purchasing agent Crocker-Wheeler Electric Co., 1893-4. Now house surgeon in New York Hospital. Member Delta Kappa Epsilon Fraternity and Trinity College Alumni Association.

PEET, CHARLES B.—Insurance, 320 Broadway, New York City; residence Manhattan Club. President and director United States Casualty Association and National Mutual Building and Loan Association. Member New York Athletic and Manhattan Clubs and Ohio Society.

PEET, EDWARD W.—Physician and Surgeon, 20 West 43d street, New York City. Born in Foochow, China, Sept. 5, 1862. Educated at Yale University (A.B., '86) and College of Physicians and Surgeons (M.D., '90). (Married.) Assistant attending physician Roosevelt Hospital. Member Yale and Congregational Clubs, New York County Medical Society, Delta Kappa Epsilon Fraternity, New York Academy of Medicine and Medical Union.

PEET, FREDERICK T.—Coal Merchant, Auburn. Born in Brooklyn, N. Y., Aug. 7, 1841. Educated at Sing Sing Military Academy. (Widower.) Went into military service, April, 1861; lieutenant Company H, Berdan's 1st United States Sharpshooters, and first lieutenant United States Marines; resigned from United States Marine Corps, 1869. Formerly general manager I. A. and W. Railway Co. Member Army and Navy Club of New York City, City Club, Loyal Legion, Sons of the American Revolution, Society of Colonial Wars and G. A. R.

PEET, ISAAC LEWIS—Educator, 163d street and Boulevard Lafayette, New York City; residence Dunwoodie, Yonkers. Educated at Yale. Principal emeritus New York Institution for the Instruction of the Deaf and Dumb. Member Medico-Legal Society and Yale Alumni Association.

PEET, JOHN H.—Real Estate Appraiser, 241 Harrison street, Brooklyn. Born in Connecticut. Educated in Great Barrington, Mass. (Married.) Appraiser to Citizens' Savings Bank of New York City. Member Long Island Historical and New England Societies.

PEIXOTTO, ERNEST CLIFFORD—Artist and Illustrator, 33 East 17th street, New York City; residence 62 Washington square, South. Born in San Francisco, Cal., Oct. 15, 1869. Educated in public schools; studied art in Paris, France. Received honorable mention at World's Columbian Exposition, Chicago, 1893, and at Paris Salon, 1895. Illustrating for "Scribner's Magazine" since 1897; has also illustrated many books.

PELL, ALFRED—Insurance, 58 William street, New York City; residence 20 East 35th street. Director Commercial Union Insurance Co. Member Scientific Alliance, Century Association and American Museum of Natural History.

PELL, ALFRED DUANE—929 Fifth avenue, New York City. Born in New York City, 1864. Educated at Columbia College. (Married Cornelia Livingston Crosby.) Member New York Athletic Club.

PELL, ARTHUR—Physician, 1148 Dean street, Brooklyn. Educated at Princeton. Member Union League Club, and Delta Phi and Princeton Clubs of New York City.

PELL, CHARLES E.—Lumber Merchant, 6 Broome street, New York City; residence 341 East 50th street. Born in New York City, Dec. 20, 1843. Educated in New York City. (Married.) Treasurer New York Lumber Trade Association and New York Nose, Throat and Lung Hospital; trustee Dry Docks Savings Institution. Member St. Nicholas Society.

PELL, FRED A.—Lawyer, 51 Wall street, New York City; residence 44 West 44th street. Born in New York City, May 23, 1840. Educated at Princeton ('71) and at Columbia Law School ('73). (Single.) Member of the firm of Hand, Bonney, Pell & Jones. Member University, Reform, Princeton, New York Canoe and Adirondack League Clubs, Sons of the Revolution, Society of Colonial Wars and Association of the Bar of the City of New York.

PELL, HOWLAND (Captain)—Insurance, 27 William street, New York City; residence 450 Madison avenue. Member Larchmont Yacht and Union Clubs, Society of the War of 1812 and Society of Colonial Wars.

PELL, JOHN H.—Lawyer, 102 Chambers street, New York City; residence 6 East 36th street. Educated at Columbia ('52). Member St. Nicholas, Larchmont Yacht, Camera and University Clubs, New York Genealogical and Biographical and St. Nicholas Societies, American Museum of Natural History, Columbia University Alumni Association and Society of Colonial Wars.

PELLEW, CHARLES E.—Chemist, 116th street and Morningside Heights, New York City; residence 51 East 54th street. Born in London, England, 1863. Educated at Columbia School of Mines ('84). (Married.) Adjunct professor of chemistry at Columbia University in the City of New York; chemist Hygeia Distilled Water Co. President Berkshire Industrial Farm, Canaan Four Corners, N. Y. Was captain of Signal Corps United States Volunteers during Spanish-American War. Member Chemists' Club, American Fine Arts, American Chemical and New York Microscopical Societies, Century Association, New York Academy of Science and Metropolitan Museum of Art.

PELTON, CLIFFORD A.—Insurance, McNamara Block, Binghamton; residence 117 Riverside Drive. Born in Baldwinsville, N. Y., Aug. 6, 1858. Educated in Baldwinsville. (Married.) General agent Northwestern Mutual Life Insurance Co. of Milwaukee, Wis. Member Binghamton Club.

PEMBROOK, THEODORE K.—Wholesale Dry Goods Merchant, 376 Broadway, New York City; residence 31 West 69th street. Member of the firm of Sweetser, Pembroke & Co. Director New York Casualty Co. and Traders' Fire Insurance Co. Member New York Athletic, Colonial, Arkwright, Merchants' and Manhattan Clubs.

PENDLETON, FRANCIS KEY—Lawyer, 44 Broadway, New York City; residence 105 East 35th street. Treasurer and director New York Improved Real Estate Co.; director American Lucol Co., Kansas City and Omaha R. R. Co. and New York and Western Coal Co. Member Metropolitan, Manhattan, Union, Knickerbocker, Democratic, Riding and Lawyers' Clubs, Society of the Cincinnati and Association of the Bar of the City of New York.

PENDLETON, JAMES FRANK—Lawyer, 7 Pine street, New York City; residence 153 West 85th street. Born in New York City, Nov. 13, 1862. (Single.) Member Turn Verein and Aschenbroedel Verein.

PENDLETON, JOHN MONTGOMERY—Civil Engineer, Franklin and Pendleton avenues, New Brighton, S. I. Born in Boston, Mass., Jan. 27, 1835. Educated in Boston. (Married.) Was one of the founders of the New York Electrical Society. Member Staten Island Club and Staten Island Chamber of Commerce.

PENFIELD, SMITH N.—Real Estate and Music, Chickering Hall, New York City; residence 329 West 112th street. Born in Oberlin, Ohio, 1837. Educated at Oberlin College and Leipzig Conservatory, Germany. (Married.) Connected with the New York German Conservatory of Music; head of department of harmony and composition. Was president Music Teachers' National Association, 1885. Member and ex-vice-president Manuscript Club.

PENFIELD, THORNTON B.—Clergyman, 502 Fulton street, Brooklyn; residence 41 South Oxford street. Born in Madura, South India, Nov. 13, 1867. Educated at Columbia University. (Married.) Secretary Brooklyn Central Y. M. C. A. Ex-president Brooklyn Christian Endeavor Union; formerly editor and publisher "Delta Upsilon Quarterly." Member Presbyterian Union and Delta Upsilon Club of New York City, and Columbia Alumni Association.

PENFOLD, EDMUND—Merchant, 45 South street, New York City; residence 10 East 40th street. Director New York Suburban Gas Co. and United States Fire Insurance Co. Member Union League Club, Down Town Association and National Academy of Design.

PENFOLD, WILLIAM HALL—Merchant, 45 South street, New York City; residence 10 East 40th street. Member Metropolitan, Union League and Union Clubs, American Geographical, Musical Arts and American Fine Arts Societies, Down Town Association, American Museum of Natural History, Metropolitan Museum of Art and National Academy of Design.

PENNINGTON, A. C. M.—Brigadier-General, United States Army, Army and Navy Club, New York City; residence Washington, D. C. Born in Newark, N. J., Jan. 8, 1838. Educated in private schools and at United States Military Academy ('60). Degree of A.M. from Princeton in 1864. (Married Clara M. French.) Served throughout Civil War; was stationed at Fort Pickens, Fla., 1861; took part in the nine campaigns of the Army of the Potomac and in the Shenandoah Valley campaign, 1864-5; colonel 3d New Jersey Cavalry and commanded 1st Brigade, 3d Cavalry Division. Was promoted in the army to all grades from brevet second lieutenant to brigadier-general, inclusive. Was brigadier-general of United States Volunteers during Spanish-American War; commanded Camp Black, Hempstead, L. I., from May 25 to July 2, 1898, and Department of the Gulf, from July 4, 1898, to March 24, 1899. Promoted from colonel of 2d Artillery to brigadier-general in United States Army on Oct. 16, 1899; has since retired. Member Army and Navy Club of New York City, Essex Club of Newark, N. J., Fort Monroe (Va.) Club, Governor's Island Club and Military Order of the Loyal Legion.

PENTECOST, GEORGE FREDERICK—Presbyterian Clergyman, Yonkers. Born in Albion, Ill., Sept. 23, 1842. Educated in common schools, at Georgetown University, Hamilton College (A.M.) and at Lafayette College (D.D.). (Married Ada, daughter of Dr. August Weber of Hopkinsville, Ky., 1863.) Served as chaplain to the 8th Kentucky Cavalry, United States Volunteers, during Civil War. Pastor at Evansville, Ind., 1866-7; Covington, Ky., 1867-8; Brooklyn, N. Y., 1868-71; Boston, Mass., 1871-80; Brooklyn, 1880-7; London, England, 1891-7, and now pastor of the Presbyterian Church of Yonkers. Performed evangelical work in Scotland, 1887-8, and among the Brahmins in India, 1889-91. Author of "The Angel in the Marble," "Out of Egypt," "Bible Studies" (ten vols.), "A South Window" and many other works.

PENTECOST, HUGH O.—Lawyer, 76 Elm street, New York City; residence 836 West End avenue. Born in New Harmony, Ind., 1848. Educated at Madison University, Hamilton, N. Y. (Married.) Member Nameeki Club.

PENTON, GEORGE R.—Exporter, 68 Broad street, New York City; residence 68 Hancock street, Brooklyn. Born in Brooklyn, April 23, 1864. Educated in Brooklyn schools. (Single.) Member of the firm of Thomas Norton & Co., and of the New York Produce and Maritime Exchanges. Member Union League Club of Brooklyn.

PENTZ, FRANK R.—Furniture and Upholstery, 375 Lexington avenue, New York City; residence 135 West 94th street. Born in New Jersey, Dec. 22, 1854. Educated in New York City public schools. (Married.) Vice-president and director Pottier & Styms Co.; secretary and treasurer United States Railway Supply Co. Member New York Athletic and Transportation Clubs, American Museum of Natural History and Metropolitan Museum of Art.

PEOPLES, WILLIAM THADDEUS—Librarian, 19 Astor place, New York City; residence East Orange, N. J. Born in Wilmington, Del., Jan. 1, 1843. Educated at St. Mary's College. (Married Kate Niemeyer of Baltimore, Md., 1882.) Librarian of the Mercantile Library of New York City, with which he has been connected for many years. Member Democratic and New York Library (ex-president) Clubs, American Institute (ex-secretary) and New York Library Association (ex-president).

PEPPER, ALBERT H.—Professor, Schenectady. Born in Schenectady, Oct. 9, 1866. Educated at Union College ('87) and at Universities of Leipzig and Paris. (Single.) Professor of modern languages in Union College. Member Phi Beta Kappa and Sigma Xi Societies, Phi Gamma Delta Fraternity and Union College Alumni Association.

PERCY, TOWNSEND—Journalist, 210 West 42d street, New York City. Born in Troy, N. Y., March 26, 1854. (Son of John and Sarah [Hervy] Percy.) Educated at Troy Academy and Cazenovia Seminary. (Widower.) Author of "Appleton's Dictionary of New York" (published, 1879). Was special agent Pacific Mail Steamship Co. in Central America, and assistant editor "World," "Tribune," "Star," "Herald" and others. One of the founders of the London "Financial News." Fellow of the Royal Geographical Society of London, England.

PERCY, WELTON C.—Lawyer, 32 Nassau street, New York City; residence Sherman Square Hotel. Born in Rensselaer County, N. Y., September, 1859. Educated at St. Lawrence University. (Married.) Member of the firm of Russell & Percy. Member Colonial Club and Association of the Bar of the City of New York.

PERHAM, AARON G.—Coal Merchant, 1 Broadway, New York City; residence 1371 Dean street, Brooklyn. Born in Pennsylvania, Dec. 25, 1844. Educated at Wyoming Seminary. (Married.) Member Union League Club of Brooklyn.

PERNE, WILLIAM DE N. NICHOLS—Precious Stones, 182 Broadway, New York City; residence 21 South Portland avenue, Brooklyn. Connected with Alfred H. Smith & Co.; secretary American Prospecting and Mining Co. Member Nassau Country, Crescent Athletic and Irving Clubs of Brooklyn.

PERKINS, BENJAMIN—Banker, 7 Nassau street, New York City; residence 47 East 60th street. Born in Boston, Mass. (Married.) President and director Continental National Bank; director Home Fire Insurance Co., Manhattan Life Insurance Co. and Manhattan Savings Institution. Member Union and Metropolitan Clubs and Century Association.

PERKINS, CHARLES E.—Manufacturer of Camel's Hair Goods, Kent avenue and Hooper street, Brooklyn; residence 165 Hancock street. Educated at Yale. Member of the firm of J. T. Perkins & Co. Director New York Mutual Optical Co. Member Hamilton Club, Arkwright Club of New York City, Sons of the Revolution and Yale Alumni Association.

PERKINS, C. LAWRENCE (Major)—Capitalist, 66 Beaver street, New York City; residence Lawrence, L. I. President and director Silver City and Northern R. R. Co.; director Knickerbocker Trust Co., Illinois Car and Equipment Co. and Griffin Wheel Co.; trustee Bowers Savings Bank. Member Union, Racquet and Tennis, Harvard, Rockaway Hunting and Baltusrol Golf Clubs, New England Society and Down Town Association.

PERKINS, EDWARD C.—Lawyer, 115 Broadway, New York City; residence 126 Central avenue, Plainfield, N. J. Educated at Harvard ('66). Member of the firm of Perkins & Jackson. Treasurer and director Niagara River Hydraulic Co. Member Lawyers', University and Alpha Delta Phi Clubs, New England Society, Sons of the Revolution, Harvard Alumni Association, Metropolitan Museum of Art and Association of the Bar of the City of New York.

PERKINS, EDWARD H., JR.—Banker, 247 Broadway, New York City; residence 5 East 40th street. President and director Importers' and Traders' National Bank; director Fifth Avenue Bank, Iowa Central Ry. Co., New York Clearing House Building Co., United States Life Insurance Co. and Western Union Telegraph Co. Member Metropolitan, Union League, Players' and Hardware Clubs, Century Association and National Academy of Design.

PERKINS, FRANK W.—Cashier, 841 Broadway, New York City; residence New York Athletic Club. Born in South Reading, Mass., Feb. 11, 1857. Educated in Boston, Mass. (Single.) Cashier and head book-keeper Hackett, Carhart & Co. Quartermaster-sergeant Company "F," 7th Regiment, N. G. N. Y. Member Lotos, New York Athletic and Country Cycle Clubs, Palestine Commandery Knights Templar, and Royal Arcanum.

PERKINS, GAIUS W.—Manufacturer, 111 Fifth avenue, New York City; residence Park Avenue Hotel. Born in Grand Rapids, Mich., July 16, 1847. Educated at Grand Rapids High School. (Married.) Was president of Grand Rapids Board of Trade and Board of Education. President and director American School Furniture Co. and Grand Rapids School Furniture Co.

PERKINS, GEORGE F.—Paper Manufacturer, 66 Duane street, New York City; residence Jersey City, N. J. Member of the firm of Perkins, Goodwin & Co. Vice-president and director New Jersey Title Guaranty and Trust Co.; director Acker Process Co., Colonial Life Insurance Co., Commonwealth Insurance Co., Hastings Lumber Co., Hide and Leather National Bank, Jersey City and Bergen R. R. Co., Newark Plank Road, New Jersey Traction Co., North Jersey Street R. R. Co. and Provident Institution for Savings. Member Union League and Merchants' Clubs, Carteret Gun and Union League Clubs of Jersey City, Lafayette Post, G. A. R., New England Society and Chamber of Commerce.

PERKINS, GEORGE W.—Insurance, 346 Broadway, New York City; residence Riverdale. Born in Chicago, Ill., Jan. 31, 1862. Educated in common schools. (Married.) Second vice-president and trustee New York Life Insurance Co. Member Lawyers', Union League and Congregational Clubs, Country Club of Westchester, Ardsley Casino of Ardsley-on-Hudson and Ohio Society.

PERKINS, J. NEWTON—Protestant Episcopalian Clergyman, 281 Fourth avenue, New York City; residence 65 East 52d street. Born in New York City, May 8, 1840. Educated at Trinity College, Hartford, Conn. (Married.) Corresponding secretary American Church Building Fund Commission of the Episcopal Church. Was assistant Church of Incarnation, New York City, and vicar of chapel, 1882-95; also assistant St. George's Church of New York City, St. Ann's of Brooklyn, and Emmanuel Church of Islip, L. I. Member Society of Colonial Wars.

PERKINS, JAMES BRECK—Lawyer and Author, Rochester. Born in St. Croix, Wis., Nov. 4, 1847. Educated at University of Rochester (LL.D.). (Married Mary E. Martindale.) City attorney of Rochester, 1874-8; member State Assembly, 1898. Author of "France Under Richelieu and Mazarin," "France Under the Regency," "France Under Louis XV.," "Life of Richelieu" in "Heroes of Nations" Series, and various magazine articles. Member National Institute of Art, Science and Letters.

PERKINS, JUDSON C.—Manufacturer, 41 Union square, West, New York City; residence Clarendon Hotel, and Meriden, Conn. Born in New Haven, Conn., Oct. 13, 1850. Educated in New Haven. (Married.) President and director Hartford Thread Co.; treasurer and director Westfield Mfg Co.; assistant treasurer and director Columbia Shade Cloth Co.; general manager and director Meriden Curtain Fixture Co.; director Hartford Machine and Tool Co., and connected with other corporations. Member St. Elmo Commandery No. 9, Keystone Chapter No. 27, both of Meriden, and other organizations.

PERKINS, MAURICE—Professor, Union College, Schenectady. Born in New London, Conn., March 14, 1836. Educated at the Universities of Göttingen, Heidelberg and Tübingen. Degrees of A.M. from Harvard in 1865, and M.D. from Albany Medical College in 1870. Assistant professor of chemistry at College of Physicians and Surgeons of Columbia University, 1862-3, and at Lawrence Scientific School of Harvard University, 1863-5. Nott Professor of analytical chemistry at Union College since 1865.

PERKINS, RICHARD C.—Importer of Dress Goods, 53 Franklin street, New York City; residence 107 East 18th street. Member Merchants', Larchmont Yacht, American Yacht and Manhattan Clubs.

PERKINS, ROBERT P.—Manufacturer, 41 Union square, West, New York City; residence 3 West 16th street. Educated at Harvard ('84). Member Union, University, Harvard, Racquet and Tennis and Knickerbocker Clubs.

PERKINS, WILLIAM H.—Banker, 46 Wall street, New York City; residence Park Avenue Hotel. President and director Bank of America. Member Union League and Republican Clubs, American Geographical Society and Metropolitan Museum of Art.

PERRIN, ALBERT—Stamp Merchant, 122 East 23d street, New York City; residence 27 East 104th street. Born in Mexico, May 3, 1860. Educated in San Francisco, Cal. (Married.) Senior member of the firm of Perrin & Co. President National Philatelic Society; treasurer Manhattan Philatelic Society. Member Country Cycle and Collectors' (secretary) Clubs.

PERRIN, RAYMOND S.—Manufacturer and Author, Walnut avenue and 141st street, New York City; residence Chatham, N. J. Born in New York City, Sept. 4, 1849. Educated at the College of the City of New York. (Married.) President Perrin, Payson & Co. since 1878. Author of "The Religion of Philosophy." Member Reform, Authors' and Nineteenth Century Clubs.

PERRINE, WILLIAM W.—Manufacturers' Agent, 97 Chambers street, New York City; residence 820 West End avenue. Born in Lyons, Wayne Co., N. Y., May 8, 1843. Educated in Milwaukee, Wis. (Married.) New York manager Thomas Maddock & Sons; Eastern representative Belle City Malleable Iron Co.; New York representative Hercules Iron and Supply Co. Was first lieutenant 13th Wisconsin Light Artillery, 1863-5. Member Military Order of the Loyal Legion and Sons of the Revolution.

PERRY, ANDREW J.—Lawyer, 41 Wall street, New York City; residence 30 First place, Brooklyn. Educated at Union College. Member Colonial Club, Hamilton and Brooklyn Clubs and Union College Alumni Association.

PERRY, BERTRAND J.—Dentist, 311 Madison avenue, New York City. Degree of D.D.S. Member New York Athletic and Congregational Clubs and New England Society.

PERRY, CHARLES J.—Druggist and Pharmacist, 63 Park row, New York City; residence 74 Orange street, Brooklyn. President and director Perry Pharmacy Association; director Brentwood Park Improvement Co. Member Manhattan, Lotos, Press, Catholic and Hardware Clubs, and Crescent Athletic Club of Brooklyn.

PERRY, EDWARD—Broker, Produce Exchange, New York City; residence 612 Fifth avenue. Member Racquet and Tennis, and New York Yacht Clubs and Down Town Association.

PERRY, EDWARD DELAVAN—Professor, 116th street and Morningside Heights; residence 133 East 55th street. Born in Troy, N. Y., Dec. 24, 1854. Educated at Columbia (A.B., '75) and at the University of Tübingen, Germany (Ph.D., '79). (Married Alice Van Schalek, 1883.) Member of the faculty at Columbia University in the City of New York since 1880; professor of Greek since 1895. Member Columbia University Alumni and Century Associations, American Oriental Society and New York Society of the Archaeological Institute of America (president) and other scientific organizations.

PERRY, EDWARD W.—Broker, 65 Beaver street, New York City; residence Massachusetts. Member of the firm of Perry, Ryer & Co. Member Union and Knickerbocker Clubs and Down Town Association.

PERRY, ENOCH WOOD, JR.—Artist, 40 Washington square, South, New York City. Born in Boston, Mass., July 31, 1831. Educated in Europe, in Düsseldorf, Paris, Rome and Venice. (Married Fanny Field Hering, daughter of Isaac Newton Gregory of Philadelphia, Pa.) United States Consul at Venice, Italy, 1856-8. Resident of New York City since 1865. Associate (1863), academician since 1869, and recording secretary, 1871-3, of the National Academy of Design. Latest painting (March, 1900) "Last Vision of Jeanne d'Arc." Member American Water Color Society and Century Association.

PERRY, JAMES W.—Lawyer, 34 Nassau street, New York City; residence 223 West 44th street. Educated at Brown University. Member of the firm of Knevals & Perry. Member Union League, Lawyers' and Republican Clubs, Baptist Social Union, Brown University Alumni Association and Society of Medical Jurisprudence.

PERRY, JOHN GARDNER—Physician, 48 East 34th street, New York City. Educated at Harvard ('63). Member New York, University and City Clubs, American Geographical Society and Century Association.

PERRY, ROLAND HINTON—Sculptor, 57 West Tenth street, New York City; residence 57 West Tenth street. Born in New York City, Jan. 25, 1870. Educated in New York City and in Paris. (Married.) Member Players' and National Arts Clubs, Sculpture Society and Architectural League.

PERRY, SAFFORD GOODWIN—Dentist, 46 West 37th street, New York City; residence Yonkers. Born in Wilton, Saratoga Co., N. Y. Educated in Philadelphia; degree of D.D.S. (Married.) Lecturer in Dental Department of University of Pennsylvania. Was president New York Odontological Society, and secretary New York Microscopical Society. Member Lotos, New York Athletic and Manuscript Clubs and Sons of the American Revolution.

PERRY, WILLIAM A.—120 Liberty street, New York City; residence Bay Ridge, Brooklyn. Born in Brooklyn, 1835. Educated at Columbia College ('55). (Married.) Member University, Players', Lawyers' and Engineers' Clubs, American Society of Mechanical Engineers, Society of Mining Engineers, Institution of Civil Engineers of London, England, and Century Association.

PERSHING, EDWARD HAMILTON—Physician, Lawrence, L. I. Born in Johnstown, Pa., Jan. 23, 1865. Educated at Princeton ('86) and College of Physicians and Surgeons of Columbia University. (Single.) Attending surgeon Nassau Hospital. Member Rockaway Hunting and Princeton Clubs.

PERSONS, HENRY Z.—Merchant and Banker, Buffalo; residence East Aurora. Born in East Aurora, Nov. 4, 1819. Educated at East Aurora Academy. (Married.) President and director Bank of East Aurora; trustee Empire State Savings Bank of Buffalo.

PETEBONE, LAUREN W. (Lieutenant-Colonel)—Retired, 254 Elmwood avenue, Buffalo; summer residence, Niagara Falls. Born in Lockport, N. Y., June 29, 1848. Educated in private schools. (Married.) Member Buffalo Club, and Army and Navy Club of New York City.

PETERS, CHARLES GRENVILLE—Stock Broker, 1 Nassau street, New York City; residence East Williston, L. I. Member of the New York Stock Exchange. Member Union, Seawanhaka-Corinthian Yacht and Meadow Brook Hunt Clubs.

PETERS, CARL OTTO—Importer of Wines, 24 Beaver street, New York City; residence 784 Fifth avenue. Member Manhattan, New York Yacht, Lawyers' and Hardware Clubs.

PETERS, CONRAD LOUIS—Importer of Wines, 24 Beaver street, New York City; residence 112 Central Park, South. Member New York, Larchmont Yacht, New York Yacht and Germania Clubs, Genesee Valley Club of Rochester, and Liederkrantz.

PETERS, JOHN M.—Manufacturer, 182 Front street, New York City; residence 1255 Pacific street, Brooklyn. Born in Darien, Genesee Co., N. Y., June 1, 1850. Educated in Buffalo. (Married.) Manager white lead department William J. Matheson & Co. (Ltd.) Formerly editor of the "Oil, Paint and Drug Reporter." Member Drug Trade Club and Board of Trade and Transportation.

PETERS, JOHN PUNNETT—Protestant Episcopal Clergyman, 227 West 99th street, New York City. Born in New York City, Dec. 16, 1852. (Son of Thomas McClure and Alice C. [Richmond] Peters.) Educated at Yale (A.B., '73 and Ph.D., '76), and at Berlin and Leipzig, Germany. Received honorary degrees of Sc.D. from the University of Pennsylvania and D.D. from Yale, both in 1896. (Married Gabriella Brooke, daughter of Thomas March Forman, of Savannah, Ga.) Was for a time after his graduation a tutor at Yale; professor of Old Testament language and literature at Protestant Episcopal Divinity School of Philadelphia, Pa., 1884; professor of Hebrew at University of Pennsylvania, 1885, and was in charge of the expedition sent by the same institution to Babylonia, 1888-95. Now rector of St. Michael's Church, New York City. Author of "Political History of Recent Times," being principally a translation from Müller, and of "Nippur, or Explorations and Adventures on the Euphrates;" editor of volumes I. and II. of "Scriptures, Hebrew and Christian," and of "The Bible for Home and School."

Member City, Twilight, Independent, Social Reform and Barnard Clubs, Century Association, American Oriental Society, Deutsche Morgenländische Gesellschaft, Society of Biblical Archaeology of London, England, American Institute of Archaeology, Society of Biblical Literature and Exegesis, and of many other bodies.

PETERS, MADISON C.—Clergyman, Bloomingdale Church, New York City; residence Broadway and West Sixty-ninth street. Born in Lehigh County, Pa., Nov. 6, 1859. Educated at Heidelberg University. Formerly chaplain Ninth Regiment N. G. N. Y. Pastor Bloomingdale Reformed Church. Author of "Justice to the Jew," "The Wit and Wisdom of the Talmud," "The Great Hereafter," "The Panacea for Poverty" and others. Member Colonial and Twilight Clubs.

PETERS, SAMUEL T.—Wholesale Coal Merchant, 1 Broadway, New York City; residence 117 East 37th street. Member of the firm of Williams & Peters. Member Metropolitan, Union League, Riding, Lawyers', Players', Racquet and Tennis, Mendelssohn Glee, Union, New York Yacht, Grolier and South Side Sportsmen's Clubs, American Geographical Society, Metropolitan Museum of Art and American Museum of Natural History.

PETERS, THOMAS McCLURE—Lawyer, 111 Broadway, New York City; residence 264 West 94th street. Member City and Church Clubs and Association of the Bar of the City of New York.

PETERS, THOMAS POLLOCK—Editor and Publisher, 24 Broadway, Brooklyn; residence 155 Keap street. Born in Hartford, Conn., May 17, 1868. Educated at Brooklyn Polytechnic Institute and at Columbia. (Married Lou Augusta Darlington, of Brooklyn, 1895.) Editor-in-chief of the "Brooklyn Times" since 1894. Director Brooklyn Public Library. Member Union League Club.

PETERS, WILLIAM R.—Merchant, 45 Cedar street, New York City; residence 23 West 73d street. Born in New York City, 1850. Educated at Yale. (Married.) Senior member of the firm of William R. Peters & Co. President Tartar Chemical Co.; trustee and director of various institutions. Member Church, Reform and Ardsley Clubs, Yale Alumni, Down Town and Century Associations, American Museum of Natural History and Metropolitan Museum of Art.

PETERSEN, CHRISTIAN G.—Russian Consulate-General, New York City; residence 124 West 84th street. Born in Denmark, Jan. 20, 1837. Educated at Grammar School of Columbia College. (Single.) Russian vice-consul in the City of New York. Chevalier of the Russian Orders of St. Anne and St. Stanislaus and of Greek Order of St. Sauveur. Member New York Athletic Club and Lafayette Post, G. A. R.

PETERSON, FREDERICK—Physician, 4 West 50th street, New York City. Born in Faribault, Minn., March 1, 1859. Educated at University of Buffalo and in Germany. President board of managers Craig Colony for Epileptics and New York Neurological Society; chief of clinic and instructor in nervous and mental diseases at Columbia University; consulting physician Manhattan State Hospital for Insane; attending neurologist City Hospital. Formerly professor of nervous and mental diseases at University of Vermont and also professor of same at Women's Medical College, New York City. Member Reform, National Arts, New York Athletic, Lotos and Barnard Clubs, Society of Medical Jurisprudence, Century Association, Academy of Medicine and American Museum of Natural History.

PETRASCH, CARL SCHURZ—Lawyer, 141 Broadway, New York City; residence 55 East 65th street. Born in New York City, Dec. 7, 1866. Educated at the College of the City of New York ('86) and Columbia College Law School ('91). (Married.) Member of the firm of Petrasch & Burnet. Member Calumet, City, Alpha Delta Phi and Fencers' Clubs and Squadron "A," N. G. N. Y.

PETTEE, LYMAN F.—Merchant, 157 Franklin street, New York City; residence Saratoga. Born in Vermont, 1849. Educated in Vermont. (Married.) President and director Crandell & Godley Co., and Supply World Publishing Co.; director Geyer's Natural Carbonic Acid Gas Co.

PETTIGREW, ROBERT H.—Broker, 60 Broadway, New York City; residence 162 West 97th street. Born in New York City, April 6, 1863. Educated at the College of the City of New York. (Married.) Formerly director Consolidated Stock and Petroleum Exchange. Now director Phoenix Interior Telephone Co. Member St. Nicholas Lodge No. 321, F. & A. M.

PETTY, ROBERT D.—Professor and Lawyer, 253 Broadway, New York City; residence 357 West 57th street. Educated at Princeton. Member Princeton and Democratic Clubs and Association of the Bar of the City of New York.

PFAFF, GEORGE—Hardware Merchant, 129 Worth street, New York City; residence 442 East 87th street. Born in New York City, Sept. 28, 1870. Educated in New York City. (Single.)

PFIZER, CHARLES—Manufacturing Chemist, 81 Maiden lane, New York City; residence 295 Washington avenue, Brooklyn. Born in Stuttgart, Germany, March 22, 1824. Educated in Germany. (Married.) Member of the firm of Charles Pfizer & Co. Director German-American Insurance Co. Member Germania, and Riding and Driving Clubs of Brooklyn, and Down Town Association.

PFIZER, CHARLES, JR.—Manufacturing Chemist, 81 Maiden lane, New York City; residence Bernardsville, N. J. Born in Brooklyn, April 9, 1860. Educated in Europe. (Married.) Member of the firm of Charles Pfizer & Co. Member New York Athletic, Essex County (N. J.) Country and Drug Trade Clubs, and Brooklyn and Suburban Riding and Driving Clubs of Brooklyn.

PFIZER, EMIL—Manufacturing Chemist, 81 Maiden lane, New York City; residence 7 West 26th street. Member Essex County (N. J.) Country, Tandem, Opera, Turf and Field, Coney Island Jockey and Drug Trade Clubs and Deutscher Verein.

PFISTER, JOSEPH C.—Professor, Columbia University, New York City; residence 240 Sixth avenue, Roseville, Newark, N. J. Born in Newark, March 10, 1867. Educated in Newark schools, in Germany and at Columbia University. (Married.) Professor in department of mechanics, Columbia University. Member Columbia Alumni Association, American Mathematical and Phi Beta Kappa Societies, New York Academy of Sciences, American Association for the Advancement of Science and Roseville (N. J.) Athletic Association.

PHELAN, JAMES J.—Banker, 16 Exchange place, New York City; residence 66 West 85th street. Born in New York City, March, 1847. Educated at St. Francis Xavier College. (Married.) Vice-president Traders' and Travelers' Accident Co. and West End Association; treasurer Manhattan Refrigerating Co., Kings County Refrigerating Co., Narragansett Building Co. and Pontiac Building Co.; director American Union Life Insurance Co. and Roman Catholic Orphan Asylum. Formerly treasurer of Department of Docks of New York City, and American Contracting and Dredging Co. Member Manhattan, Catholic (treasurer and director), Democratic and Narragansett (treasurer) Clubs, Friendly Sons of St. Patrick and Manhattan Benevolent Legion.

PHELAN, THOMAS A.—Tea Importer, 93 Front street, New York City; residence 107 West 76th street. Born in New York City. Educated at St. Francis Xavier College; degrees of A.M. and A.B. Became a member of the firm of E. W. Tiers & Co. at the age of twenty-three and afterwards of their successors, John M. White & Co., and finally of George W. Lane & Co., of which firm he is now senior partner. Trustee Asiatic Association. Was the originator of the present law prohibiting the importation of teas below standard established by law, and was chairman of the first board of United States Tea Experts, by appointment of the Secretary of the Treasury. Member Richmond County Country and City Clubs, Xavier Alumni and Down Town Associations and Chamber of Commerce.

PHELPS, ABEL MIX—Physician and Surgeon, 62 East 34th street, New York City; residence 40 West 34th street. Born in Alburgh, Vt., Jan. 27, 1857. Educated at University of Michigan, and in Vienna, Austria. (Married.) Professor of surgery Medical Department of the University of Vermont; professor of orthopaedic surgery Post-Graduate School and Hospital; surgeon City Hospital. Member American Yacht, Fairfield County (Conn.) Golf and Lotos Clubs, New York State Medical and New York County Medical Societies, American Medical Association and New York Academy of Medicine.

PHELPS, ALBERT CHARLES—Instructor, Cornell University, Ithaca; residence 306 Huestis street. Degree of B.S. Instructor in architecture at Cornell University.

PHELPS, CHARLES—Physician, 34 West 37th street, New York City. Educated at Brown University. Member Manhattan, Psi Upsilon and Players' Clubs and Brown University Alumni Association.

PHELPS, CHARLES HENRY—Lawyer, 80 Broadway, New York City; residence 35 East 50th street. Member Union League and Barnard Clubs, Century Association and Association of the Bar of the City of New York.

PHELPS, DUDLEY—Lawyer, 34 Nassau street, New York City; residence 48 East 26th street. Born in New York City, Oct. 7, 1861. Educated at Yale ('83) and at Columbia Law School. (Married.) Member of the firm of Knevals & Perry, and director in several corporations. Member Union League, New York Athletic, Yale, University, Lawyers', St. Andrew's Golf, Oakland Golf and Misquamicut Golf Clubs and Yale Alumni Association.

PHELPS, EDWARD BUNNELL—Editor and Publisher, 141 Broadway, New York City; residence 139 West 11th street. Born in New Haven, Conn., July 26, 1863. Educated at Yale. (Married.) President Thrift Publishing Co. and editor of "Thrift." Formerly financial secretary New York Press Club, and delegate to session of International League of Press Clubs at San Francisco in 1892. Member Underwriters' Club, New York Life Underwriters' Association and Ivanhoe Lodge No. 610, F. & A. M. (senior deacon).

PHELPS, E. FRISBIE—Life Insurance, 203 Broadway, New York City; residence 1281 Bergen street, Brooklyn. Born in Burlington, Conn. Educated at Yale College and Law School. (Married.) Organizer and special representative of Covenant Mutual Life Insurance Co. of Galesburg, Ill. Member Union League Club of Brooklyn, Independent Order of Odd Fellows (past grand master), Knights Templar and a thirty-second degree Mason.

PHELPS, JOHN J.—President, 100 Broadway, New York City; residence "Red Towers," Hackensack, N. J. Born in Paris, France, Sept. 27, 1861. Educated at Yale ('83). (Married.) President and director Strong & Trowbridge Co.; director Cayuga Susquehanna R. R. Co., Hackensack Bank and Hackensack Trust Co.; trustee United States Trust Co. Member Hamilton, Paterson, Oritani Field, Hackensack Golf, Englewood Field, New Jersey Country, Union League, University, New York Yacht, University Athletic, Psi Upsilon, Seawanhaka-Corinthian Yacht, Atlantic Yacht, Yale and Sachem's Head Yacht Clubs, Order of Founders and Patriots of America and New England Society.

PHELPS, MYRON H.—Lawyer, 220 Broadway, New York City; residence 129 East 62d street. Educated at Yale. Member of the firm of Philipp, Phelps & Sawyer. Member Union League Club, Union League Club of Chicago, Ill., Association of the Bar of the City of New York and Yale Alumni Association.

PHELPS, STOWE—Architect, 15 Broad street, New York City; residence 22 East 32d street. Born in New York City. Educated at Yale ('90). (Single.) Member University Club and Yale Alumni Association.

PHELPS, Z. BENNETT—Life Insurance, Binghampton. Born in Wilkesbarre, Pa., Dec. 7, 1870. Educated at St. Paul's School, Concord, N. H., and Yale University (B.A., '95). (Married.) Comptroller and director Security Mutual Life Insurance Co.; director Susquehanna Valley Bank. Member University Club of New York City, and Sons of the Revolution of Pennsylvania.

PHILBIN, STEPHEN—Lawyer, 51 Chambers street, New York City; residence 139 West 76th street. Member Colonial, Democratic and Catholic Clubs, Friendly Sons of St. Patrick, Association of the Bar of the City of New York and State Bar Association.

PHILIP, HARRY VAN NESS—Lawyer, 120 Broadway, New York City; residence Livingston. Educated at Union College. Member University Athletic, Lawyers', Staten Island Cricket and Base Ball and Richmond County Country Clubs and Union College Alumni Association.

PHILIP, JAMES P.—Lawyer, 26 Court street, Brooklyn; residence 307 Halsey street. Member of the firm of Philip & Raymond. Director German-American Bank. Member Oxford, Brooklyn, Long Island College and Chi Psi Clubs, New England Society of Brooklyn, and State Bar Association.

PHILIP, JOHN W.—Rear Admiral, United States Navy, Brooklyn Navy Yard, New York City. Born in New York City, Aug. 26, 1840. Educated at United States Naval Academy. (Married.) Midshipman and acting master, 1861; lieutenant, 1862; lieutenant-commander, 1866; commander, 1874; captain, 1889; commodore, 1898; rear admiral, March 3, 1899. As midshipman was assigned to duty on the "Constitution" at the outbreak of the Civil War; served on various vessels engaged in blockade duty and was wounded at the siege of Charleston. Has since seen service in all parts of the world. Commanded the battleship "Texas" during the Spanish-American War and took part in the engagement with Admiral Cervera's fleet in July, 1898. Now in command of the Brooklyn Navy Yard. Chairman of the navy committee of the Young Men's Christian Association. Member New York Yacht Club, Military Order of the Loyal Legion and Naval Order.

PHILIPP, MORITZ B.—Lawyer, 220 Broadway, New York City; residence 691 Madison avenue. Member of the firm of Philipp, Phelps & Sawyer. Member Union League and Grolier Clubs, Ohio Society and Association of the Bar of the City of New York.

PHILIPS, FREDERIC D.—Lawyer, 11 William street, New York City; residence Lawrence, L. I. Educated at Columbia ('80). Member University Club and Columbia Alumni and Down Town Associations.

PHILLIPS, ALBERT—Architect, 171 Broadway, New York City; residence 141 Lincoln avenue, Newark, N. J. Member Nutley (N. J.) Field and Sketch Clubs and Society of New Jersey Architects.

PHILLIPS, ARTHUR—Secretary, 148 East 20th street; residence 834 Lexington avenue. Born in New York City, Oct. 3, 1850. Educated in public and private schools. Was for a time employed by A. T. Stewart & Co. Appointed clerk in the Department of Public Charities and Correction in 1872; was promoted to assistant secretary in 1880, and when the department was abolished in 1896, was made secretary of the new Department of Correction, which position he now holds. Member Democratic Club.

PHILLIPS, BARNET—Journalist, 41 Park row, New York City; residence 39 Troy avenue, Brooklyn. Born in Philadelphia, Pa., Nov. 9, 1828. Educated at the University of Pennsylvania and in Europe. On editorial staff of the "New York Times" since 1872. Author of several works.

PHILLIPS, CHARLES FRANCIS—Banker, 52 Broadway, New York City; residence New Brighton, S. I., and Paris, France. Born in Philadelphia, Pa., July 5, 1846. (Oldest son of Samuel R. and Anne Melanie [Berry-King] Phillips.) Educated up to his degree of Master of Arts at Georgetown University, D. C., and St. John's College, Fordham; subsequently in Paris, Rome, Vienna and elsewhere. (Married Francesca, daughter and heiress of Pietro di Galvagni.) President Atlantic Mining and Smelting Co. and Cumberland Coal and Steel Co.; vice-president Virginia Central Ry. Co. and Corporation Trust Co. of Delaware; director Brooklyn Public Library. Is a member of the Bar but is not engaged in general practice, being occupied mainly with own interests, and matters pertaining to constitutional and international law. By the death of his father, in 1880, he became the head of the family. Life Fellow Institute of Bankers of London; member Catholic (life member) and Champlain Clubs, Hibernian Society of Philadelphia (life member), Catholic Historical Society of Brooklyn, Society of St. Vincent de Paul, American Bankers' Association and others.

PHILLIPS, CHARLES STEWART—Lawyer, 113 Fulton street, New York City; residence Hotel San Remo. Born in New York City, Dec. 24, 1860. (Single.) Member of the firm of Stitt & Phillips. President New York Bible Society; clerk of the Corporation of the Collegiate Reformed Church of the City of New York. Member Colonial Club.

PHILLIPS, EDGAR J.—Lawyer, 154 Nassau street, New York City; residence 128 Clinton avenue, Brooklyn. Member of the firm of Phillips & Avery. Member Hardware Club, Crescent Athletic and Lincoln Clubs of Brooklyn, and Sons of the Revolution.

PHILLIPS, GUY—Secretary, 195 Broadway, New York City; residence Yonkers. Secretary, treasurer and director Tubular Dispatch Co.; assistant secretary Missouri Pacific R. R. Co.; director New York Mail and Newspaper Transportation Co. Member Lawyers', Camera, Atlantic Yacht and Mendelssohn Glee Clubs, Ardsley Casino of Ardsley-on-Hudson, American Museum of Natural History and Metropolitan Museum of Art.

PHILLIPS, JOHN B.—Fire Insurance, 93 Nassau street, New York City; residence 391 West End avenue. Born in Brooklyn, N. Y., Sept. 28, 1854. Educated at Brooklyn Polytechnic Institute. (Married.) Member of the firm of Owens & Phillips. Member Colonial and Hardware Clubs and League of American Wheelmen.

PHILLIPS, LEE—Lawyer, 31 Cooper Union, and Criminal Court Building, New York City; residence 247 West 71st street. Born in Rensselaer County, N. Y., May 7, 1856. Educated in common schools and at Nassau Institute. (Married.) Secretary New York City Municipal Civil Service Commission. Trustee and director New York College of Dentistry; director "The Chronicle" Publishing Co. Member Colonial and Democratic Clubs, Sons of the American Revolution and Civil Service Reform and West End Associations.

PHILLIPS, WENDELL C.—Physician, 350 Madison avenue, New York City. Born in Hammond, N. Y., June 9, 1857. Educated at New York University. (Married.) Adjunct professor of diseases of the ear, New York Post-Graduate Medical School; surgeon aural department of Manhattan Eye and Ear Hospital; chairman of section on laryngology, New York Academy of Medicine. Member Knickerbocker Athletic and Twilight Clubs, Baptist Social Union, New York County Medical, New York State Medical and American Laryngological, Rhinological and Otological Societies and New York Academy of Medicine.

PHILLIPS, WILLIAM—Banker and Broker, 30 Broad street, New York City; residence 59 West 37th street. Born in New York City, Feb. 23, 1875. Educated at Princeton University. (Single.) Associated with the New York Stock Exchange firm of Strong, Sturgis & Co. Member University Athletic and Princeton Clubs, and Cap and Gown Club of Princeton University.

PHILLIPS, WILLIAM D.—Manufacturing Chemist, 77 Pine street, New York City; residence Glenbrook, Conn. Born in New York City. (Single.) President and director Chas. H. Phillips Chemical Co. Member New York Athletic, Manhattan and Underwriters' Clubs, American Geographical and American Chemical Societies, Board of Trade and Transportation and others.

PHILLIPS, WILLIAM H.—Banker and Broker, 40 Wall street, New York City; residence 18 East 57th street. Trustee Seamen's Bank for Savings. Member Union League Club, Down Town Association and Metropolitan Museum of Art.

PHILPUTT, JAMES M.—Unitarian Clergyman, 148 West 119th street, New York City. Born in Tennessee, Sept. 17, 1860. Educated at Indiana University and Union Theological Seminary (D.D.). (Single.) Pastor Lenox Avenue Union Church. Member Harlem Club.

PHIPPS, FRANK HUNTINGTON—Major, United States Army, Governor's Island, New York Harbor. Member Reform Club, Military Order of the Loyal Legion and Sons of the American Revolution.

PHOENIX, LLOYD—68 Broad street, New York City; residence 21 East 33d street. Born in New York City, Oct. 7, 1841. Educated at United States Naval Academy ('61). (Single.) Was lieutenant in United States Navy until 1865. Member Metropolitan, Knickerhocker, Union, Army and Navy, Atlantic Yacht, New York Yacht, Larchmont Yacht, Eastern Yacht (Mass.), Turf and Field, Corinthian Yacht, Seawanhaka-Corinthian Yacht and Suburban Riding and Driving Clubs, National Academy of Design, American Museum of Natural History, American Geographical Society and Military Order of the Loyal Legion.

PHOENIX, PHILLIPS—Lawyer, 28 State street, New York City; residence 3 East 66th street. Member Metropolitan, City, Union League, Knickerhocker, New York Yacht, Driving, Hudson River Ice Yacht, Turf and Field, and Suburban Riding and Driving Clubs, American Geographical Society, Down Town Association and American Museum of Natural History.

PICARD, GEORGE HENRY—Author, 45 Park place, New York City; residence Nyack-on-Hudson. Born in Berea, Ohio, Aug. 3, 1850. Educated at Baldwin University ('69) and at Cincinnati Medical College (M.D.). (Married Mary S. Kellogg.) Author of "A Matter of Taste," "A Mission Flower" and "Old Boniface." Contributor to periodical literature.

PICK, ALFRED R.—Stock Broker, 52 Broadway, New York City; residence 264 West 5th street. Member of the firm of A. R. Pick & Co., and of the New York Stock Exchange. Member Manhattan and Racquet and Tennis Clubs and Deutscher Verein.

PICK, BERNHARD—Lutheran Clergyman, 393 Washington avenue, Albany. Born in Kempen, Prussia, Dec. 19, 1842. Educated in Breslau and Berlin, and at Union Theological Seminary, New York City (D.D., '68). Degrees of Ph.D. from New York University and D.D. from Pennsylvania College. Filled several pastorates before being stationed at Albany. Author of "Luther as a Hymnist," "General Index to the Antennicene Fathers," "Luther's Hymn of the Reformation in Twenty-one Languages," "Luther's Hymn of the Reformation in the English Language," "Vademecum Homileticum" and other works; also of many articles for encyclopedias and reviews. Member German Oriental Society of Leipzig, Society of Biblical Literature of the United States, and Victoria Institute of London, England.

PICKERING, ARTHUR D.—Architect, 1133 Broadway, New York City; residence 14 Monroe street, Brooklyn. Born in Chicago, Ill., July 27, 1859. Educated in New York City. (Single.) Member Architectural League and National Sculpture Society.

PICKERING, J. McLaurin.—Broker, Produce Exchange, New York City; residence 1 West 82d street. Born in Maine, Nov. 3, 1859. Educated at Harvard. Member of the firm of M. F. Pickering Co. Member Harvard Club.

PICKETT, PATRICK H.—Warden, 70 Ludlow street, New York City; residence 63 East 87th street. Born in New York City, 1842. Educated in common schools. Served with the 10th Regiment, New York Volunteers, during Civil War. On his return to New York City after the war, was appointed to the police force; was made a sergeant in 1870, and a few years later was promoted to a captaincy. Was appointed warden of Ludlow Street Jail in 1898, which position he still holds.

PICKHARDT, CARL—Color Manufacturer, 128 Duane street, New York City; residence 1042 Madison avenue. Member of the firm of William Pickhardt & Kuttroff. Member Merchants' Club and American Geographical Society.

PIERCE, CHARLES H.—Exporter, 149 Broadway, New York City; residence 333 West 85th street. Member New York Athletic and Suburban Riding and Driving Clubs, Sons of the Revolution and Society of Colonial Wars.

PIERCE, CHARLES T.—Paint and Varnish Manufacturer, 170 Fulton street, New York City; residence Riverside, Conn. Born in Boston, Mass., Dec. 19, 1852. Educated in Boston. (Married.) Superintendent F. O. Pierce Co. Member Reform, Atlantic Yacht, Riverside Yacht, Fairfield County (Conn.) Golf and Apawamis Clubs.

PIERCE, FRANK D.—County Clerk, Watertown; residence 10 Clay street. Born in Dexter, N. Y., March 9, 1849. Educated in Jefferson County. (Married.) Has been town clerk and supervisor, and also director National Bank and Loan Co. of Watertown. Now county clerk of Jefferson County. Member Lincoln League, Masonic Order, Odd Fellows and Knights of Pythias.

PIERCE, FRANKLIN—Lawyer, 31 Nassau street, New York City; residence 1 West 197th street. Director New York Fireproof Covering Co. Member Reform and City Clubs and Association of the Bar of the City of New York.

PIERCE, HENRY B.—Shirt Manufacturer, 838 Broadway, New York City; residence 36 West 35th street. Born in Massachusetts, March, 1842. Educated in Massachusetts. (Single.) President and treasurer Hutchinson, Pierce & Co. (Inc.). Member Lotos Club, Aldine Association, New England Society and Sons of the Revolution.

PIERCE, JAMES F.—Lawyer, 31 Nassau street, New York City; residence 7 Montague street, Brooklyn. Born in Madrid, St. Lawrence Co., N. Y., April 8, 1830. Educated at St. Lawrence Academy and by private tutor. (Married.) Member of the State Senate from Brooklyn for twelve years; in State Insurance Department six years. Member Lotos Club, Brooklyn Club, State Bar Association, New England Society and life member Long Island Historical Society.

PIERCE, RAY VAUGHN—Physician and Manufacturer, 663 Main street, Buffalo; residence 653 Main street. Born in Stark, Herkimer Co., N. Y., Aug. 6, 1840. Educated in common schools in Pennsylvania. (Married.) Practicing in Buffalo since 1867; is also interested in the manufacture and sale of proprietary medicines. New York State senator, 1878-9; also served as a member of the Forty-sixth Congress. President World's Dispensary Medical Association, American Engine Co. of Round Brook, N. J., and Ideal Cash Register Co. of Round Brook and Buffalo. Member Buffalo Historical, Audubon, Falconwood, Buffalo Yacht and Buffalo Clubs, and New York Yacht Club.

PIERCE, SMITH D.—Manufacturer, 30 Tiffany place, Brooklyn; residence 149 Willow street. Educated at Columbia College. (Married.) Member of the firm of F. O. Pierce Co. Member Crescent Athletic Club, St. Anthony Club of New York City, and Fairfield County (Conn.) Golf Clubs.

PIERCE, V. MOTT—Physician and Manufacturer, 663 Main street, Buffalo; residence 653 Main street. Educated at Harvard. Formerly president of the Proprietary Association of America. Now secretary World's Dispensary Medical Association, Buffalo. Member Buffalo Club, and Harvard Club of New York City.

PIERCE, WINSLOW S.—Lawyer, 195 Broadway, New York City; residence 19 West 58th street. Director Oregon Short Line R. R. Co., Texas and Pacific Ry. Co., and Union Pacific R. R. Co. Member Manhattan, Atlantic Yacht and Lawyers' Clubs and Association of the Bar of the City of New York.

PIERCY, HENRY CLAY—Contractor, 207 Thompson street, New York City; residence 23 Fifth avenue. Born in New York City, May 10, 1851. Educated in Brooklyn. (Married.) Member of the firms of H. C. & Z. T. Piercy, and Albert I. Piercy & Co.; president Fulton & Walker Wagon Co.; trustee West Side Savings Bank. Member Army and Navy, New York Athletic and Republican Clubs, Kane Lodge No. 454, F. & A. M., Jerusalem Chapter No. 8, R. A. M., Coeur de Lion Commandery Knights Templar, Old Guard, 22d Regiment Veteran Association, Hoboken Turtle Club, Mozart Verein and Colfax Council, Royal Arcanum.

PIERRA, FIDEL G.—Merchant, 81 New street, New York City; residence 188 St. John's place, Brooklyn. Member Twilight Club, Circle Colon Cervantes and Metropolitan Museum of Art.

PIERREPONT, HENRY EVELYN—Retired, 216 Columbia Heights, Brooklyn. Born in Brooklyn, 1845. Educated at Columbia ('67). (Widower.) Director Fidelity and Casualty Co. and Home Life Insurance Co.; trustee Brooklyn Savings Bank, Brooklyn Hospital, General Theological Seminary and Franklin Trust Co. Member Hamilton Club, Long Island Historical Society and Sons of the Revolution.

PIERREPONT, JOHN JAY—Retired, 66 Broad street, New York City; residence 1 Pierrepont place, Brooklyn. (Widower.) Treasurer and director Long Island Historical Society; director Brooklyn Academy of Music; trustee Brooklyn Trust Co. and Greenwood Cemetery. Member Seawanhaka-Corinthian Yacht, New York Yacht, Hamilton, Robins Island and Boone and Crockett Clubs, Down Town Association and Sons of the Revolution.

PIERREPONT, WILLIAM A.—Physician, 113 East 19th street, New York City; residence 1 Pierrepont place, Brooklyn. Member St. Anthony and St. Nicholas Club, Hamilton Club of Brooklyn, Century Association, Colonial Order and Sons of the Revolution.

PIERSON, ARTHUR TAPPAN—Preacher, Author, Editor and Lecturer, 30 Lafayette place, New York City; residence 1127 Dean street, Brooklyn. Born in New York City, March 6, 1837. (Son of Stephen Haines and Sallie Ann [Wheeler] Pierson.) Educated at Hamilton College (A.B., '57, and A.M., '60), and at Union Theological Seminary (D.D.). (Married Sarah Frances, daughter of Seth Williston Benedict of New York City, 1860.) Editor-in-chief of the "Missionary Review of the World." Formerly pastor in West Winsted, Conn.; Binghamton, N. Y.; Waterford, N. Y.; Detroit, Mich.; Indianapolis, Ind.; Philadelphia, Pa., and of the Metropolitan Tabernacle of London, England. Graves Lecturer on Missions at Rutgers College, 1891; Alex Duff Mission Lecturer in Scotland, 1892. Author of "Crisis of Missions," "Divine Enterprise of Missions," "Miracles of Missions," "New Acts of the Apostles," "Many Infallible Proofs," "Evangelistic Works," "Life Power," "Lessons in the School of Prayer," "Catharine of Sienna," "George Muller of Bristol" and many other works.

PIERSON, CHARLES W.—Lawyer, 120 Broadway, New York City; residence 45 West 35th street. Educated at Yale ('86). Member Lawyers', Yale and University Clubs and Association of the Bar of the City of New York.

PIERSON, JOHN FREDERICK (Brigadier-General).—Iron Merchant, 29 Broadway, New York City; residence 20 West 52d street. Member of the firm of Pierson & Co. President and director Richmond Standard Steel Spike and Iron Co. Member Union, Racquet and Tennis, New York Yacht, Tuxedo, and Army and Navy Clubs, New England Society and Military Order of the Loyal Legion.

PIFFARD, HENRY GRANGER—Physician, 256 West 57th street, New York City. Born in Piffard, N. Y., Sept. 10, 1842. Educated at Churchill's Military Academy, New York University (A.B., '62, and A.M., '65), and at the College of Physicians and Surgeons of Columbia University; degrees of M.D. and LL.D. (Married Helen M. Strong, 1868.) Author of several medical works. Member New York Athletic and Camera Clubs and St. Nicholas Society.

PIGOT, WILLIAM E.—Woolen Merchant, 170 Fifth avenue, New York City; residence 18 Pierrepont street, Brooklyn. Member Reform Club, and Crescent Athletic and Hamilton Clubs of Brooklyn.

PIKE, EDWIN B.—President, 151 Chambers street, New York City; residence Pike Station, N. H. Born in Haverhill, N. H., April 7, 1845. Educated in common schools and at Newbury Seminary. (Married.) President Pike Mfg Co. and Pike Station (N. H.) Store Co. Formerly postmaster of Pike Station. Member Hardware Club, New Hampshire Historical Society, National Association of Manufacturers (vice-president), and Merchants' and Manufacturers' Association of Philadelphia, Pa.

PILLOT, P. STUYVESANT—Insurance, 32 Nassau street, New York City; residence 66 West 12th street. Born in New York City, Nov. 11, 1870. Educated at United States Naval Academy, Annapolis, Md. (Married.) Served in the Spanish-American War as first lieutenant 12th Regiment, New York Volunteers. Now captain 12th Regiment, N. G. N. Y. Member Union, Racquet and Tennis, Seawanhaka-Corinthian Yacht and Knickerbocker Clubs, Military Order of Foreign Wars and Military and Naval Order of Spanish-American War.

PILLSBURY, HARRY N.—Chess Expert, 146 Montague street, Brooklyn. Born in Boston, Mass., Dec. 5, 1872. Educated in common schools. Mastered the game of chess at the age of sixteen, at which he developed remarkable genius. Won world's championship at International Chess Congress held in England in 1895, being the first American champion since Paul Morphy in 1858. Since then has played in all the leading tournaments held in the United States and Europe. Member Brooklyn Chess Club.

PINCHOT, GIFFORD—Forester, 287 Fourth avenue, New York City; residence 2 Gramercy Park. Born in Simsbury, Conn., Aug. 11, 1865. Educated at Phillips Exeter Academy and at Yale College ('89). (Single.) Forester United States Department of Agriculture. Member City, University, Yale and Quill Clubs, National Academy of Design, American Museum of Natural History, Metropolitan Museum of Art, American Geographical, Municipal Art and Sculpture Societies, Century Association, and Metropolitan and Cosmos Clubs of Washington, D. C.

PINCHOT, JAMES W.—2 Gramercy Park, New York City. Member City, Union League, Grolier, Players' and Riding Clubs, American Geographical and American Fine Arts Societies, Century Association, American Museum of Natural History, National Academy of Design and Metropolitan Museum of Art.

PINE, JOHN B.—Lawyer, 63 Wall street, New York City; residence 102 East 30th street. Born in Iowa, Feb. 2, 1857. Educated at Columbia College ('77). Admitted to the Bar, 1879. (Married.) Trustee and clerk of the board of trustees of Columbia University; one of the managers of St. Luke's Hospital, and secretary of executive committee. Member University Club, Columbia Alumni, Down Town and Century Associations and Association of the Bar of the City of New York.

PINKERTON, ALLAN—Detective Agency, 57 Broadway, New York City; residence 71 Eighth avenue, Brooklyn. Member of the firm of Robert A. & William A. Pinkerton, proprietors of the Pinkerton National Detective Agency, founded in 1850. Member Crescent Athletic Club of Brooklyn.

PINKERTON, ROBERT A.—Detective Agency, 57 Broadway, New York City; residence 71 Eighth avenue, Brooklyn. Born in Dundee, Kane Co., Ill., Dec. 2, 1848. (Son of the famous detective, Allan Pinkerton.) Educated at the University of Notre Dame. (Married.) Member of the firm of Robert A. & William A. Pinkerton, proprietors of Pinkerton National Detective Agency, founded in 1850. Member Crescent Athletic and Montauk Clubs of Brooklyn, Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Children, Charity Organization Society and Metropolitan Museum of Art.

PINKHAM, FRANCIS C.—Commission Merchant, 40 Leonard street, New York City; residence 74 Halsey street, Brooklyn. Born in Watertown, Mass. (Married.) Member of the firm of W. H. Burgess & Co. Member Wool Club.

PINKUS, FREDERICK S.—Importer and Commission Merchant, 89 Leonard street, New York City; residence 70 East 56th street. Member of the firm of O. Jaffe & Pinkus. Director American Union Life Insurance Co. Member Arkwright, Reform and Rock-away Hunting Clubs, American Geographical Society, Metropolitan Museum of Art and American Museum of Natural History.

PINNEY, DWIGHT C.—Manufacturer of Window Shades, 273 Canal street, New York City; residence 196 Lefferts place, Brooklyn. President and director Pinney, Casse & Lackey Co. Member Crescent Athletic Club of Brooklyn.

PINNEY, GEORGE MILLER, JR.—Lawyer, 44 Pine street, New York City; residence New Brighton, S. I. Born in Windsor, Wis., March 8, 1856. Educated at Harvard College ('78) and Law School. (Married.) Member of the firm of Pinney & Thayer. Served as supervisor, 1895, and as district attorney, 1896-8, of Richmond County. Was a member and secretary of the Greater New York Charter Commission, 1896-7. Member Harvard, University, Staten Island Cricket and Staten Island Whist Clubs, New York State Bar Association and Association of the Bar of the City of New York.

PIPER, ELWIN S.—Dry Goods Merchant, Grand street and Driggs avenue, Brooklyn; residence 159 Marcy avenue. Born in Saratoga Springs, N. Y., Aug. 13, 1851. (Married.) President Eagle Savings and Loan Co. and Grand Street Board of Trade; trustee Eastern District Dispensary and Hospital; member Brooklyn School Board. Member Union League, Hanover and Home Clubs.

PIRSSON, JOHN W.—Lawyer, 150 Broadway, New York City; residence 56 West 37th street. Trustee Citizens' Savings Bank. Member Union League, Lawyers' and Church Clubs and Metropolitan Museum of Art.

PITCHER, JAMES R.—Capitalist, 24 Grove street, New York City; residence Short Hills, N. J. Born in Windham, N. Y., March 5, 1845. Educated at Whitesboro Seminary. (Married.) Formerly president of the Pitcher & Manda Co., founder and manager United States Mutual Account Co. and director of various corporations. President Petrolia Mfg Co. and Cachari Mining Co. Member Manhattan, Players' and Essex County (N. J.) Country Clubs.

PITKIN, FREDERICK E.—Banker, 87 Hudson street, New York City; residence Nyack. Director Brooklyn Bank, Christopher and Tenth Streets R. R. Co., North River Steamboat Co. and Powell Shoe Co. Member Commercial Club.

PITKIN, LUCIUS—Chemist, 138 Pearl street, New York City; residence 69 East 92d street. Member New York Athletic Club, Scientific Alliance and American Institute of Mining Engineers.

PITOU, AUGUSTUS—Playwright and Theatrical Manager, Grand Opera House, New York City; residence 361 West 20th street. Made first professional appearance as a member of Edwin Booth's company performing in the Winter Garden Theatre, New York City. Has managed William J. Scanlan, Robert Mantell, Joseph Murphy, Rose Coghlan, Chauncey Olcott and many other theatrical celebrities. Now manager of the Grand Opera House in New York City, and of various traveling companies. Author of several successful plays. Member Players' Club.

PLACE, GEORGE—Machinery, 120 Broadway, New York City; residence 44 East 31st street. Member Union League, Nineteenth Century, Republican and Lawyers' Clubs.

PLACE, IRA ADELBERT—Lawyer, Grand Central Station, New York City; residence 268 West 77th street. Born in New York City, May 8, 1854. Educated at Cornell ('81). Studied law and was admitted to the Bar in 1883. (Married Katharine B. Gauntlett, 1893.) Assistant to general counsel of the New York Central and Hudson River R. R. Co. Secretary and director Carthage, Watertown and Sackett's Harbor R. R. Co. and Tivoli Hollow R. R. Co.; director Bufalo, Thousand Islands and Portland R. R. Co. and Brooklyn Bridge, Prospect Park and Eastern R. R. Co. Member University, Psi Upsilon, Phi Beta Kappa, Colonial, Cornell University and Transportation Clubs and Association of the Bar of the City of New York.

PLANT, MORTON F.—Capitalist, 12 West 23d street, New York City; residence 76 East 56th street. Vice-president and director Abbeville Southern Ry. Co., Alabama Midland Ry. Co., Brunswick and Western R. R. Co., Florida Southern R. R. Co., Montgomery Belt Line Ry. Co. and Sanford and St. Petersburg Ry. Co.; vice-president, manager and director Canada Atlantic and Plant Steamship Co. (Ltd.); director Charleston and Savannah Ry. Co., Green Pond, Waterboro and Branchville Ry. Co., St. John's and Eustis R. R. Co., Savannah, Florida and Western Ry. Co.

and Winston and Bone Valley Ry. Co. Member New York Athletic Club, Sons of the American Revolution and Order of Founders and Patriots of America.

PLATT, CHARLES ADAMS—Architect and Artist, 107 East 27th street, New York City. Born in New York City, Oct. 1, 1861. Educated in New York City and in Paris. Member New York Athletic and Players' Clubs, Century Association, Society of American Artists and National Academy of Design.

PLATT, CLAYTON—Insurance, 16 Exchange place, New York City; residence 331 West 76th street. Educated at Trinity College. Director Cycle Checking Lock Co. Member Union, Colonial, Church, St. Anthony, New York Athletic and Richmond County Country Clubs and Trinity College Alumni and Down Town Associations.

PLATT, FRANK H.—Lawyer, 35 Wall street, New York City; residence 242 West 74th street. Born in Owego, Tioga Co., N. Y., 1856. (Son of Thomas Collier Platt.) Educated at Yale ('77) and at Columbia Law School ('79). Member of the firm of Boardman & Platt. Director United States Express Co. and Rahtjen's American Composition Co. Member Colonial, University, Yale and Lawyers' Clubs.

PLATT, HENRY BARSTOW—Banker, 35 Wall street and 1 Madison avenue, and Superintendent, 49 Broadway, New York City; residence 303 West 76th street. Born in Owego, N. Y., Feb. 2, 1860. Educated at Yale ('82). (Married.) Vice-president Fidelity and Deposit Co. of Maryland; general superintendent United States Express Co. Member University, Colonial, Lawyers' and Yale Clubs.

PLATT, HENRY CLAY—Lawyer, 50 Post Office Building, New York City; residence 164 West 48th street. Born in New York City, Oct. 22, 1840. Educated at Princeton. Studied law, was admitted to the New York Bar in 1862 and has since practiced in New York City. (Married Jennie Dusenberry, 1864.) Member of the New York State Assembly, 1864-6. Assistant United States District Attorney for the Southern District of New York since 1886. Member Reform, Chi Phi and Princeton Clubs.

PLATT, ISAAC S.—President, 165 Greenwich street, New York City; residence 10 East 62d street. Born in New York City, Jan. 5, 1834. Educated in New York City. (Married.) Member Mendelssohn Glee Club, Century Association and American Museum of Natural History.

PLATT, THOMAS COLLIER—United States Senator, Senate Chamber, Washington, D. C., and President, 49 Broadway, New York City; residence Fifth Avenue Hotel. Born in Owego, Tioga Co., N. Y., July 15, 1833. Educated at Owego Academy and at Yale. (Married.) Clerk of Tioga County, 1859-61; Congressman, 1873-7; president of the Board of Quarantine Commissioners, New York Harbor, 1880-8. Elected United States Senator in 1896 for term 1897-1903. Leader of the Republican party in the State of New York. President and director United States Express Co. since 1880, and of Tioga National Bank. Ex-president Tennessee Coal, Iron and R. R. Co.; ex-receiver New York and New England R. R. Co. Member American Yacht and Lawyers' Clubs, American Geographical Society, Yale Alumni Association and Metropolitan Museum of Art.

PLATT, WILLARD H.—Manufacturers' Supplies, 17 Murray street, New York City; residence, 115 Cambridge place, Brooklyn. Born June 12, 1854. (Married.) Member of the firm of Greene, Tweed & Co. Treasurer Baptist Home of Brooklyn and Emmanuel Baptist Church. Member Marine and Field, and Lincoln Clubs of Brooklyn, Hardware and Manhattan Clubs, Shelter Island Golf and Shelter Island Yacht Clubs, and Chamber of Commerce.

PLATZEK, M. WARLEY—Lawyer, 320 Broadway, New York City; residence 439 Fifth avenue. Born in North Carolina, Aug. 27, 1854. Educated at New York University (LL.B.). (Single.) Member of the firm of Platzeck, Stroock & Herzog. Member of the Constitutional Convention of 1894. Member Democratic, Reform, Harmonie, Progress, Criterion and Wa Wa Yanda Clubs and of many charitable organizations.

PLIMPTON, GEORGE A.—Publisher, 70 Fifth avenue, New York City; residence 41 East 33d street. Born in Walpole, Mass., 1855. Educated at Phillips Exeter Academy, Amherst College ('76) and at Harvard Law School. (Married Francis Pearsons.) Connected with Ginn & Co. Treasurer Barnard College and Academy of Political Science. Ex-trustee Barnard and Amherst Colleges. Member University, Grolier, Century, Nineteenth Century and Barnard Clubs, Ardsley Casino of Ardsley-on-Hudson, Amherst Alumni and Century Associations and New England Society.

PLIMPTON, HENRY B. C.—Dry Goods Merchant, 328 Broadway, New York City; residence 45 West 32d street. Born in Mount Vernon, Ohio, Dec. 22, 1862. Educated at Kenyon College. (Single.) Member Colonial, New York Athletic, Richmond County Country and Delta Kappa Epsilon Clubs and Ohio Society.

PLUMMER, JOHN FRANKLIN—Investments, 50 Broadway, New York City; residence 2 West 36th street. Born in Boston, Mass., Oct. 2, 1840. Educated in Roxbury, Mass., and at Dr. Dwight's School in Brooklyn, N. Y. (Married.) Managing director for the United States of the Anglo-Indian and American Bank (Ltd.), of London, Bombay and New York; director in other commercial companies. Was in woolen commission business for many years; formerly Government Director of the Union Pacific R. R. Co. (appointed by President Harrison); first president of the New York Republican Business Men's Association. Member Union League and Republican Clubs, Lafayette Post, G. A. R., Chamber of Commerce and New York Genealogical and Biographical and New England Societies.

PLUMMER, JOHN FRANKLIN, JR.—Automobiles, 11 Broadway, New York City; residence 152 Madison avenue. Born in Brooklyn, N. Y., Oct. 21, 1871. Educated at Yale ('91). (Single.) Assistant secretary Columbia University, 1894-9. Connected with the Locomobile Company of America. Member University, Yale and Amateur Comedy Clubs, and Ardsley Casino of Ardsley-on-Hudson.

PLYMPTON, EBEN—Actor, 125 West 28th street, New York City. Born in Boston, Mass., Feb. 7, 1853. Educated in Boston. (Single.) Entered dramatic profession while in California, under the management of the American tragedian, Joseph Proctor. Supported Edwin Booth in London, 1882, and in United States, 1883-5; returned to England and produced the play "Jack" at the Royal Theatre, London, and made a tour of the United States with the same play. Has since appeared in other well-known roles. Member Lotos Club.

PLYMPTON, GEORGE WASHINGTON—Civil Engineer and Educator, Fourth avenue and Astor place, New York City; residence 127 Herkimer street, Brooklyn. Born in Waltham, Mass., Nov. 18, 1827. Educated at Rensselaer Polytechnic Institute (C.E., '47). Degrees of A.M. from Hamilton College and M.D. from Long Island College Hospital. (Married.) Professor of mathematics at New York State Normal School, Albany, 1853-6; professor of physics and engineering at same, 1857-63; professor of chemistry and toxicology at Long Island College Hospital, 1864-86; editor of "Van Nostrand's Engineering Magazine," 1870-86; president of the Board of Commissioners of Electrical Subways of the City of Brooklyn, 1885-9 and 1892-6. Professor physics and engineering since 1869, and director since 1879, of Cooper Union; professor of civil engineering in Brooklyn Polytechnic Institute since 1863. Member Hamilton Club of Brooklyn, American Society of Civil Engineers and Century Association.

PLYMPTON, GILBERT M.—Banker, 41 Wall street, New York City; residence 30 West 52d street. Born in New York City, Jan. 15, 1835. Educated in private schools, at Shurtleff College, Ill., and at New York University Law School. (Married.) Member and one of the originators of the firm of Redmond Kerr & Co., members of the New York Stock Exchange, and director and one of the originators of the Bankers' Trust Co. Member Metropolitan, St. Nicholas, Country, New York Yacht and Lachmont Yacht Clubs, New York Zoological, Botanical, Genealogical, American Historical and New York Historical Societies, Down Town Association, Society of Colonial Wars, Military Order of the War of 1812, Colonial Order and Metropolitan Museum of Art.

POHLMANN, JULIUS—Physician, 378 Franklin street, Buffalo. Born in Hamburg, Germany, Jan. 26, 1848. Educated in Hamburg and at the University of Buffalo (M.D., '83). Member of the faculty of the University of Buffalo. Member American Geological Society, American Academy of Political and Social Science, American Statistical Association and American Association for the Advancement of Science.

POLAK, JOHN O.—Physician, 287 Clinton avenue, Brooklyn. Born in Brooklyn, March 12, 1870. Educated at Rutgers College, University of Vermont and Long Island College Hospital (M.D.). Formerly professor of obstetrics New York Post-Graduate Medical School; surgeon Williamsburg and Eastern District Hospitals. Now connected with New York Post-Graduate Hospital, Long Island College Hospital and Williamsburg Hospital. Member Crescent Athletic Club, New York State Medical, Long Island Medical, Brooklyn Pathological and Brooklyn Gynecological Societies, Medical Society of Kings County, Medical Association of Kings County, Associated Physicians of Long Island and New York Academy of Medicine.

POLHEMUS, MILLARD F.—Broker, 30 Broad street, New York City; residence 2 West 36th street. Born in New York City, 1856. (Married.) Member New York Stock Exchange and of the New York Club.

POLIFEME, CHARLES—Ladies' Tailor, 7 East 48th street, New York City. Born in Mantova, Italy, Oct. 2, 1863. Educated in Mantova, Milan, Paris and London. (Married.) Resident of New York City since 1889, where he has since uninterruptedly engaged in the tailoring business. Has a branch establishment at 30 Parker avenue, Newport, R. I. Has made tailoring a life study and, from an artistic point of view, is regarded as one of the most successful in his line. Is an amateur fencer and a member of the New York Athletic Club.

POLK, FRANK L.—Lawyer, 52 Wall street, New York City; residence 7 East 36th street. Educated at Yale ('94). Member Racquet and Tennis, University, Yale and Knickerbocker Clubs.

POLK, J. M.—Physician, 7 East 36th street, New York City. Born in Demopolis, Ala., May 6, 1875. Educated at Yale and at Cornell University Medical College. (Single.) Member of staff of Bellevue Hospital. Member St. Anthony, Yale, Racquet and Tennis, and University Clubs.

POLK, WILLIAM MECKLENBURG—Physician and Professor, 7 East 36th street, New York City. Born in Ashwood, Maury Co., Tenn., Aug. 15, 1844. (Son of Gen. Leonidas Polk.) Educated at Virginia Military Institute and at College of Physicians and Surgeons of Columbia University; degrees of M.D. and LL.D. Served in Confederate Army during Civil War. Practicing in New York City since 1869. Professor of gynecology and obstetrics, and director of Cornell University Medical College; also gynecologist to Bellevue Hospital and obstetrician to Emergency Lying-in Hospital. Member Metropolitan and Church Clubs, Century Association, Southern Society and Sons of the Revolution.

POLLACK, GEORGE E.—28 West 21st street, New York City. Born in Pittsfield, Mass. Educated at Yale. (Single.) Member Metropolitan, Racquet and Tennis, Union and Knickerbocker Clubs.

POLLARD, LOUIS A.—Manufacturer, 26 Cortlandt street, New York City; residence 417 Franklin avenue, Brooklyn. Treasurer and director General Manufacturing Co. Member Union League and Crescent Athletic Clubs of Brooklyn.

POLLARD, PERCIVAL—Author, 156 and 208 Fifth avenue, New York City. Born in Pomerania, 1869. (Son of Joseph and Marie [Pistor] Pollard.) Educated at Eastbourne College, Sussex, England. Began journalistic work in St. Joseph, Mo., in 1891. Was with Richard Mansfield as press agent for one season. Was a resident of Chicago, Ill., for many years and while there edited "Figaro," "Vanity Fair" and "The Echo." Now connected with "Town Topics" of New York City, and with "Morning Leader" and "The Sphere" of London, England. Well known as a writer on the subject of posters. Author of "Figaro Fiction," "Cape of Storms," "Posters in Miniature," "Dreams of To-Day" and "The Kiss that Killed." Member Press Club of Chicago, Ill.

POLLOCK, ALEXANDER—Mechanical Engineer and Contractor, 15 Cortlandt and 203 West streets, New York City; residence 326 West 82d street. President and director Consolidated Iron Works. Member Engineers', American Yacht and Commercial Clubs and Military Order of the Loyal Legion.

POLLOCK, WALTER B.—Manager, 10 Broadway, New York City; residence 244 West 104th street. Manager of marine department New York Central and Hudson River R. R. Co. Member Transportation, West Side Republican and Columbia Yacht Clubs.

POLLOCK, WILLIAM—182 Madison avenue, New York City. Educated at Yale. Member Metropolitan, Union, Racquet and Tennis, Riding, Tuxedo, and Suburban Riding and Driving Clubs and Yale Alumni Association.

POLSON, WILLIAM R.—Superintendent, 91 North Third street, Brooklyn; residence 157 Lefferts place. Born in Dorchester, Mass., March 17, 1857. Educated in Boston, Mass. (Married.) Formerly president Ready Relief Association, DeWitt Clinton Council; trustee DeWitt Clinton Council No. 419, R. A.; chairman financial committee Hyatt Masonic Lodge. Now president Crump Label Co. of Montclair, N. J.; assistant secretary and superintendent United States Printing Co. of Ohio; trustee Eastern District Hospital of Brooklyn. Member Union League Club.

POMEROY, CHARLES COOLIDGE—Banker, 45 Wall street, New York City; residence 365 West End avenue. Educated at Harvard. Member Metropolitan, Riding, Union and Harvard Clubs and Down Town Association.

POMEROY, EUGENE H.—Lawyer, 31 Nassau street, New York City; residence 48 West 55th street. Born in New York City, Oct. 13, 1840. Educated at Columbia College ('60) and Law School ('62). (Married.) Was commissioner of the New York City Board of Education and school trustee of Nineteenth Ward. Member New York Athletic Club and Columbia University Alumni Association.

POMEROY, FRED L.—General Manager, 736 Mooney Building, Buffalo; residence Hotel Fillmore. Member Transportation Club of New York City, Crescent Athletic Club of Brooklyn, and Ridgewood and Ridgefield Clubs.

POMEROY, GEORGE B.—Physician, 51 Manhattan avenue. Educated at Harvard. Member Union, University Athletic and Harvard Clubs.

POMEROY, THEODORE M.—Banker, Auburn. Born in Cayuga County, N. Y., Dec. 31, 1824. Educated at Monroe Academy, Eldridge, N. Y., and at Hamilton College (A.B., '42 and LL.D., '93). (Married, in 1855, Elizabeth Watson of Auburn; deceased, 1892.) Admitted by the Supreme Court of the State of New York to the practice of law in 1846, and continued such practice until 1870. District attorney of Cayuga County, 1851-6; assemblyman, 1857; Congressman, 1861-9, and was Speaker of the House at the close of the Fortieth Congress; mayor of Auburn, 1875-6; State senator, 1878-9. Now engaged in business as a member of the banking firm of William H. Seward & Co. First vice-president of the American Express Co. Member Transportation Club of New York City.

POMROY, HENRY K.—Broker, 39 Broad street, New York City; residence 118 East 40th street. Member of the firm of Pomroy Bros. and of the New York Stock Exchange. Director Bradford, Bordell and Kinzua Ry. Co. and Phenix National Bank; trustee Real Estate Trust Co. Member Players' and Barnard Clubs and Century Association.

PONCET, JOHN M.—Commission Agent and Importer, 108 Greene street, New York City; residence 1893 Seventh avenue. Born in Lyons, France. Educated in France at a commercial high school. Member of the firm of Poncet & Neeser. Member Catholic and Wool Clubs.

POND, ALBERT E.—Music Publisher, 124 Fifth avenue, New York City; residence 11 East 81st street. Born in New York City, Aug. 24, 1860. Educated at the College of the City of New York. (Married.) Was chief warden State of New York League of American Sportsmen and special protector New York Fish, Game and Forest Commission. Member Camp Fire Club, League of American Sportsmen, New York Zoological Society and 7th Regiment Veteran Association.

POND, ANSON PHELPS—Author, Abbey Building, New York City; residence 283 West 71st street. Born in Hartford, Conn., 1856. Educated in Newport and New York City. Author of "Her Atonement," "A Desperate Man," "Battles of Life," "When the Cruel War Is Over," "A Helping Hand," "A Friend" and other works. Member Lambs' and Dramatists' Clubs.

POND, CHARLES HOBBY—Cashier, 23 Wall street, New York City; residence 55 West 87th street. Born in Brooklyn, N. Y., Feb. 18, 1860. Educated in New Haven, Conn. (Married Margaret W. Mead.) Was registrar Society of Colonial Wars of New York, and assistant treasurer Society of the Cincinnati of the State of Connecticut. Cashier, since 1881, Drexel, Morgan & Co., now J. P. Morgan & Co. Member New York Athletic Club, Society of Colonial Wars, Sons of the Revolution and Connecticut Society of the Cincinnati.

POND, GEORGE D.—Cashier, 24 Park place, New York City; residence Tenafly, N. J. Born in New York City, Oct. 2, 1841. Educated at Columbia College. (Married.) Cashier American Railway Supply Co. Member Columbia University Alumni and 7th Regiment Veteran Associations.

POND, GEORGE EDWARD—Journalist, 170 Nassau street, New York City; residence 345 West 20th street. Born in Boston, Mass., March 11, 1837. Educated at Harvard (A.B., '58, and LL.B., '60). (Widower.) Served in Union Army during Civil War and reached the rank of first lieutenant. Connected with the editorial staff of the New York "Sun." Author of "The Shenandoah Valley in 1864" and other works. Member Authors' Club.

POND, JAMES BURTON—Manager, 218 Fourth avenue, New York City; residence 300 Bergen avenue, Jersey City, N. J. Born in Cuba, N. Y., June 11, 1838. Educated "on the plains." (Married.) Served during Civil War with 3d Wisconsin Cavalry Volunteers; was commissioned successively second lieutenant, first lieutenant, captain and major, and was in command of regiment on its return home. In business in New York City since 1879. Has managed the tours of many famous lecturers. Member Lotos, Press and Army and Navy Clubs, Hamilton Club of Brooklyn, Carteret Gun Club of Jersey City, N. J., Aldine Association, Military Order of the Loyal Legion and Lafayette Post, G. A. R.

PONDIR, JOHN—Broker and Promoter, 15 Broad street, New York City; residence 147 West 70th street. Member of the firm of Pondir & Co. Member American Geographical Society, Metropolitan Museum of Art and American Museum of Natural History.

POOL, HARWOOD REDINGTON—Lawyer, 62 Cedar street, New York City; residence 421 West 57th street. Educated at Ohio University ('81). President and director Air Gas Meter Co.; secretary and director Pittsburg, Brady's Bend and Lake Erie R. R. Co. and Camden Construction Co. Member University and Republican Clubs, Union Club of Cleveland, Ohio, and Military Order of the Loyal Legion.

POOL, JOSEPH—City Magistrate, New York City; residence 421 West 57th street. Born in Minerva, Ohio, 1833. Educated in public schools. Studied law, was admitted to the Bar and practiced in Cleveland, Ohio, for several years. Served as second lieutenant in the 67th Ohio Infantry during Civil War; was appointed by President Lincoln assistant quartermaster with the rank of captain of United States Volunteers, and later as paymaster with the rank of major in the United States Army; was mustered out of service with the rank of brevet lieutenant-colonel of United States Volunteers "for faithful services in the Army of the Republic." Became a resident of New York City in 1868; served as president of the American National Bank, president of the Manufacturers' and Merchants' Bank, and president of the New York and West Shore Railroad, which he bought under foreclosure, and reorganized in 1880. Was appointed a City Magistrate by Mayor Strong in 1897 for a term of ten years. President and director Camden Construction Co. and Pittsburg, Brady's Bend and Lake Erie R. R. Co.; director Air Gas Meter Co. Member Republican and Union League Clubs and Military Order of the Loyal Legion.

POOL, JOSEPH C.—Paints and Oils, 70 Fulton street, Brooklyn; residence 196, 52d street. Born in West Ridge, N. Y., Jan. 4, 1842. Educated at Brooklyn Polytechnic Institute. (Widower.) President South Brooklyn Saw Mill Co. Member Ridge Club (vice-president).

POOLE, CHARLES FRANKLIN—Manufacturer, Waverly. Born in Centre Moreland, Wyoming Co., Pa., June 1, 1851. Educated at Rev. Geo. M. Life's School, Nichols, N. Y. (Married Eliza Jane Van Ostrand, 1874.) Democratic candidate for member of Assembly, 1896; member of the State Executive Committee of the Bryan Democracy since 1896; manufacturer of paving and pressed brick at Nina (N. Y.), 1893-4. Now manufacturer of granite and marble work. Member Westbrook Lodge, F. & A. M. of Nichols, Cayuta Chapter, R. A. M., St. Omer's Commandery, Knights Templar of Elmhurst, and Noble Grand of Manoca Lodge, I. O. O. F.

POOLE, MURRAY E.—Lawyer, Ithaca. Born in Centre Moreland, Wyoming Co., Pa., July 17, 1857. Educated at Wyoming Seminary and at Cornell (A.B., '80). Honorary degree of LL.D. from Nashville College in 1900. (Married Eva Zeliffe, of Limestone, N. Y., 1891.) Has served as justice of the peace, acting Recorder and as special County Judge. Attorney for State Line and Sullivan R. R. Co., Long Valley Coal Co. and Automatic Telephone Co. Author of "History of Edward Poole of Weymouth, Mass. (1635), and His Descendants." Contributor to "Harper's Weekly," "Review of Reviews," "Illustrated American," "The Puritan," "Magazine of American History," "Green Bag," "American University Magazine" and to several biographical cyclopedias. Member New York Historical, New England, New England Historic-Genealogical and American Geographical Societies, State Bar, New York Press, American Historical, Civil Service Reform and American Bar Associations, Society of Foreign Wars, Society of Colonial Wars, Society of the War of 1812, Society of Founders and Patriots of America, Sons of the Revolution and Sons of the American Revolution.

POOLE, SHERIDAN—Insurance, 141 Broadway, New York City. Born in Queens County, N. Y., Feb. 5, 1837. Educated in Beloit, Wis. (Widower.) Member of the Consolidated Stock and Petroleum Exchange.

POOLEY, CHARLES A.—Lawyer, 614 Ellicott square, Buffalo. Born in Buffalo, Nov. 17, 1854. Educated in Buffalo public schools. (Married.) Member of the firm of Pooley, Depew & Spratt, attorneys for New York Central and allied lines, the Western Transit Co. and other interests. Was trustee Buffalo Library and district deputy grand master of Masons. Member Buffalo and Acacia Clubs.

POOR, EDWARD ERIC—Dry Goods Merchant, 114 Worth street, New York City; residence 10 East Tenth street, and Hackensack, N. J. Born in Boston, Mass., 1837. Educated in public schools. (Married Mary Wellington, daughter of Washington J. Lane of Cambridge, Mass., 1860.) Removed to New York City in 1864 and embarked in the dry goods business as a member of the firm of Denny, Poor & Co. and as vice-president of the Passaic Print Works. Became a director of the National Park Bank in 1886, vice-president in March, 1893, and was elected president on Aug. 20, 1895, which position he held until May 25, 1900, when he resigned on account of ill health and went abroad. Retained his partnership in the dry goods business, which is now carried on under the firm name of Poor Bros. Director American Surety Co., Consolidated Coal Co., Denver Union Water Co., Mount Morris Bank, National Park Bank, Passaic Print Works and Plaza Bank; trustee State Trust Co. Member Union League, Manhattan and Merchants' Clubs, New England Society and Chamber of Commerce.

POOR, HENRY WILLIAM—Banker, 18 Wall street, and Publisher, 44 Broad street, New York City; residence 91 Clinton place. Born in Bangor, Me., June 16, 1844. Educated at Harvard ('65). Member of the firm of H. V. & H. W. Poor, publishers of "Poor's Manual of Railroads"; also senior member of the banking firm of H. W. Poor & Co. and member of the New York Stock Exchange. President and director Kansas City and Pacific R. R. Co.; treasurer and director United States Casualty Co.; member of advisory committee Audit Co. of New York; director Atlantic Coast Line Electric Ry. Co., Baltimore and Ohio Southwestern Ry. Co., Baltimore and Ohio Southwestern Terminal Co., Bank of the State of New York, Boonville R. R. Bridge Co., Missouri, Kansas and Texas R. R. Co., Southwestern Coal and Improvement Co. and Staten Island Electric R. R. Co.; chairman of the board of directors Sherman, Shreveport and Southern R. R. Co.; trustee Consolidated Ice Co. Member Union, Harvard, City, Grolier, Mendelssohn Glee, University, Riding, Tuxedo, Seawanhaka-Corinthian Yacht, Racquet and Tennis, Players', Richmond Hill Golf and Barnard Clubs, American Fine Arts, Dunlap, American Geographical, New England, New York Historical and Musical Arts Societies, Aldine and Down Town Association, Metropolitan Museum of Art and Sons of the American Revolution.

POOR, RUEL W.—Banker, 71 West 23d street, New York City; residence 44 Hamilton terrace. Born in New London, N. H., Sept. 29, 1860. Educated at Wilton (Me.) Academy. (Married.) Cashier Garfield National bank; director Consolidated Ice Co. Member Colonial, New York Athletic, Heights and Craftsmen's Clubs, Chamber of Commerce, Sons of the American Revolution and New England Society.

POORE, CHARLES T.—Physician, 43 West 53d street, New York City. Educated at Williams College. Member Union League Club, St. Nicholas and New England Societies and Williams College Alumni and Century Associations.

POOTON, JAMES—Journalist, 55 Wall street, New York City; residence 59 Park place, Brooklyn. Born in Cheltenham, England, July 11, 1834. Educated in New York City. (Married.) Entered journalism in 1858; vice-president New York News Association, 1870-1; founded the New York Press Club, 1872; president of same, 1873-4; elected an honorary member, 1879; private secretary to Surveyor of the Port Hans S. Beattie, 1885-9; now in United States Customs Surveyor's office. Author of "Journalism" (written for the New York "Journalist") over the signature of "Matthew Unit" and a frequent contributor to current literature. Member Press Club.

POPE, CHARLES H.—Cotton Goods, 87 Worth street, New York City; residence Rhode Island. Born in Providence, R. I., Dec. 23, 1835. Educated at Brown University. (Married.) Member of the firm of C. H. Pope & Co. Served as first lieutenant of Battery F, 1st Rhode Island Artillery, during Civil War, and as major of United States Volunteers. Member Atlantic Yacht and Marine and Field Clubs of Brooklyn, and Arkwright Club.

POPE, CHARLES H., JR.—Cotton Goods, 87 Worth street, New York City; residence 48 East 26th street. Born in New York City. Educated in private schools and at Massachusetts Institute of Technology. (Single.) Member of the firm of C. H. Pope & Co. Member New York Athletic, Camera, Arkwright, Nassau Country and Apawamis Golf Clubs.

POPE, CHARLES M.—Real Estate, 56 Liberty street, New York City. Born in Indianapolis, Ind., July 30, 1871. Educated in St. Louis (Mo.) schools and at Yale University ('93). (Single.) Member of the firm of Pope & Jones. President and director Standard Realty Co. and The Henderson Co.

POPE, J. MONROE TAYLOR—Chemicals, 41 Cortlandt street, New York City; residence 345 West 71st street. Educated at Harvard. Member Harvard Club.

POPE, RALPH W.—Electrical Engineer, 26 Cortlandt street, New York City; residence Elizabeth, N. J. Born in Great Barrington, Mass., Aug. 16, 1844. Educated in Great Barrington and Amherst Academies. (Married.) Acted as quartermaster to Collins' Overland Telegraph Expedition in British Columbia; deputy superintendent Gold and Stock Telegraph Co. of New York City; associate editor "The Electrical Engineer," 1884-5; editor "Electric Power," 1889-93. First president and founder of the New Jersey Chess Association; secretary American Institute of Electrical Engineers since 1885. Member Elizabeth (N. J.) Chess and Whist Club (president), Berkshire Society of New York, New York Electrical Society, Franklin Institute of Philadelphia (honorary) and Association of Railway Telegraph Superintendents (honorary).

POPPER, WILLIAM C.—Stationer, 56 Reade street, New York City; residence 62 West 95th street. Born in Newfoundland, N. J., Aug. 15, 1857. (Single.) Member of the firm of William C. Popper & Co. Director "Helpful Thoughts" Publishing Co. Member Fidelio Club (president), Educational Alliance (director) and several fraternities and charitable societies.

PORTER, ALFRED H., JR.—Lawyer, 100 William street, New York City; residence, 125 East 35th street, and Monmouth Beach, N. J. Born in Brooklyn, N. Y., 1865. Educated at Yale and Columbia Law Schools. (Married.) Vice-president and director Royal Baking Powder Co. Member Garden City Golf, Seabright Golf and Dyker Meadow Golf Clubs and Down Town Association.

PORTER, ANTHONY B.—Lawyer, 154 Nassau street, New York City; residence 303 West 81st street. Director Elkhorn Valley Coal Land Co. and S. C. Beckwith Special Agency. Member Church, Army and Navy and Colonial Clubs, Military Order of the Loyal Legion and Association of the Bar of the City of New York.

PORTER, BENJAMIN CURTIS—Artist, 3 Washington square, North, New York City; residence 22 West 11th street. Born and educated in Melrose, Mass. (Married.) Member National Arts Club, Tavern Club of Boston, Mass., Sculpture Society and National Academy of Design.

PORTER, EUGENE H.—Physician, 181 West 73d street, New York City. Educated at Cornell ('80). Member Twilight Press, Cornell University and Colonial Clubs.

PORTER, FRANK—Real Estate, 1286 Broadway, New York City; residence 66 East 58th street. Born in New York City, April 11, 1844. Educated in New York City. (Single.) Member New York Athletic Club.

PORTER, HENRY H.—Commissioner, 66 Broadway, New York City; residence Manhattan Club. Director Chauncey Realty Co., Chicago and Eastern Illinois Ry. Co., Chicago, Rock Island and Pacific Ry. Co., Duluth and Iron Range R. R. Co. and Minnesota Iron Co. Member Manhattan, Church and Democratic Clubs.

PORTER, HENRY HOBART, JR.—Contracting Engineer, 31 Nassau street, New York City; residence "Lauderdale," Lawrence. Born in New York City, March 12, 1865. Educated at School of Mines of Columbia University ('86). (Married.) Member of the firm of Sanderson & Porter. Vice-president Queens Borough Electric Light and Power Co. of New York; secretary and treasurer People's Tramway Co. of Connecticut; director in various corporations. Member University, Rockaway Hunting and Alpha Delta Phi Clubs and Columbia University Alumni Association.

PORTER, HORACE—Congregational Clergyman, 69 Pineapple street, Brooklyn. Born in Marietta, Ohio, about 1865. Studied for the ministry in the West. First assistant pastor of Plymouth Church, Brooklyn, of which the Rev. Lyman Abbott is rector, since 1893.

PORTER, HORACE—United States Ambassador to France; residence Paris, France, and Hotel Cambridge, New York City. Born in Huntington, Pa., Aug. 15, 1847. (Son of Hon. David R. Porter.) Educated in Lawrenceville, N. J., at Harvard and at United States Military Academy ('60). Degree of LL.D. from Union College in 1894. (Married Sophie K. McHarg of Albany, N. Y., 1863.) Served throughout Civil War and received every commissioned grade up to brigadier-general. Was aide-de-camp on the staff of General Grant, and when the latter became President, served as his private secretary. Served as a member of the executive committee of the Committee of Seventy in 1894. Delivered the oration at the Grant memorial ceremonies and also at the inauguration of the Washington Arch in New York City on April 27, 1897. Has been United States Ambassador to France since 1897. Director Atlanta, Knoxville and Northern Ry. Co., Equitable Life Assurance Society of the United States, United States Guarantee Co. and other corporations. Member Metropolitan, Republican, Army and Navy, Union League, University, Lotos, Grolier, Nineteenth Century, Players', Lawyers' and Authors' Clubs, Montauk Club of Brooklyn, Century Association, American Geographical Society, Military Order of the Loyal Legion, Society of Foreign Wars, Sons of the American Revolution, Chamber of Commerce, Society of the Army of the Potomac, Grant Monument Association, Metropolitan Museum of Art and other organizations.

PORTER, HUGII—Lawyer, 35 Nassau street, New York City. Born in New York City, Jan. 19, 1850. Educated by private tutors. President Pontiac, Oxford and Northern R. R. Co., Natchez, Red River and Texas R. R. Co., Huachuca Water Co. and Sycamore Water Co.; president and trustee New York City Baptist Mission; trustee and counsel American Tract Society; trustee Christian Home for Intemperate Men and New York Ophthalmic Hospital; member of advisory committee and counsel Baptist Home Society of the City of New York; counsel American Female Guardian Society and Home for Friendless. Member Colonial and Lawyers' Clubs.

PORTER, LOUIS H.—Lawyer, 45 Broadway, New York City; residence 146 Central Park, West. Born in New York City, 1874. Educated at Yale. (Single.) Member of the firm of Nicholas & Porter. Member Yale and Phi Beta Kappa Clubs, Linnæan Society and American Ornithologists' Union.

PORTER, NATHAN TODD, JR.—Commission Merchant, 78 Worth street, New York City; residence Montclair, N. J. Born in Brooklyn, N. Y., Dec. 5, 1867. Educated at Yale ('90). (Married Caroline Chester Knickerbacker.) Member of the firm of Porter Bros. & Co. Member Essex County (N. J.) Country and University Clubs.

PORTER, P. BRYNBERG—Physician, 150 West 84th street, New York City. Born in Wilmington, Del. Educated at Yale and at the Medical Department of the University of Pennsylvania (M.D.). (Single.) Secretary New York County Medical Association and Medical Association of Greater New York. Editor of "Gaillard's Medical Journal." Member Church and Delta Kappa Epsilon Clubs and Yale Alumni Association.

PORTER, ROBERT P.—Journalist, 100 Broadway, New York City; residence 36 East 65th street. Born in Norfolk, England, June 30, 1852. Educated in Norwich, England. Came to the United States at the age of fifteen. (Married.) Has been engaged in journalism since 1872. Was statistical expert of the Tenth United States Census, 1880-2; member United States Tariff Commission, 1882; on editorial staff of the New York "Tribune," 1883-4; associate editor of the Philadelphia "Press" and general secretary of the American Protective Tariff League, 1884-7; editor-in-chief of the New York "Press," of which he was one of the founders, 1887-93; Superintendent of the Eleventh United States Census, 1889-93; traveled in Japan and Europe, preparing reports on industries and resources; special commissioner for the United States to Cuba and Puerto Rico, 1899. Is at present engaged in the study of European trade statistics. Member Republican and Lawyers' Clubs and American Statistical Society.

PORTER, THOMAS WYMAN—Commission Merchant, 80 Worth street, New York City; residence Montclair, N. J. Educated at Yale ('87). Member of the firm of Porter Bros. & Co. Member Union, Essex County (N. J.) Country, University, University Athletic, Yale, Delta Kappa Epsilon and Merchants' Clubs, and Ardsley Casino of Ardsley-on-Hudson.

PORTER, WILLIAM H.—Banker, 270 Broadway, New York City; residence 56 East 67th street. Born in Middlebury, Vt., Jan. 3, 1861. Educated at Middlebury Academy and at Saratoga High School. (Married.) Vice-president and director Chemical National Bank; director Trow Printing and Bookbinding Co.;

trustee Franklin Savings Bank. Member Union League, Republican, New York Athletic, Atlantic Yacht and Transportation Clubs, American Geographical and New England Societies and Chamber of Commerce.

POST, A. VANZO—President, 45 Wall street, New York City; residence 140 West 77th street. Educated at Columbia. President and director Manhattan Car Trust Co.; director Car Trust Investment Co. Member Fencers' and Metropolitan Clubs and Columbia University Alumni and Down Town Associations.

POST, AUGUST T.—Banker, 31 Nassau street, New York City; residence 44 West 44th street. Member of the firm of E. D. Shepard & Co. Member Alpha Delta Phi Club, Union League Club of Philadelphia, and Amherst College Alumni Association.

POST, CHARLES A.—Lawyer, 16 Exchange place, New York City; residence 15 Fifth avenue. President and trustee Post Building Co. Member Union, Seawanhaka-Corinthian Yacht and Knickerbocker Clubs, Scientific Alliance, American Geographical Society and Columbia University Alumni Association.

POST, CHARLES H.—Insurance, 27 Pine street, New York City; residence 276 West 86th street. Born in Derby, Conn., May 16, 1856. Educated in Ellenville, N. Y. (Married.) Manager for the United States of the Caledonian Insurance Co. of Edinburgh, Scotland; president Caledonian-American Insurance Co. of New York. Member Lotos, Richmond County Country, Baltusrol Golf and Sundown Fishing Clubs.

POST, DANIEL HAZELTINE—Manufacturer, 2 Steele street, Jamestown; residence 500 Pine street. Born in Jamestown, July 17, 1850. Educated at Williams College ('74). (Married.) Engaged in newspaper work for nine years. Clerk of the United States Commission to Paris Monetary Conference, 1878; served as captain in N. G. N. Y. Partner Jamestown Bedstead Co.; director Chautauqua County Trust Co.; treasurer James Prendergast Library; civil service commissioner of city of Jamestown. Member Jamestown (secretary) Club, Army and Navy and Delta Kappa Epsilon Clubs of New York City, Military Service Institution, Sons of the Revolution and Buffalo Historical Society.

POST, EDMUND M.—Credits, 224 Church street, New York City; residence 1 West 83d street. Born on Staten Island, 1860. Educated in Staten Island. (Married.) Formerly in charge of credit department of Morrison, Herriman & Co., and Sylvester Bell & Co.; now connected in the same capacity with H. B. Claffin Co. Member New York Athletic and Colonial Clubs.

POST, EDWIN M.—Banker, 71 Broadway, New York City; residence 18 West Tenth street. Born in Cincinnati, Ohio, Jan. 6, 1870. Educated at Columbia. (Married.) Member of the firm of Thomas & Post, members of the New York Stock Exchange. President and director Express Coal Line and Georgia Car Co.; vice-president and director Southern Iron Car Line; secretary, treasurer and director Manhattan Car Trust Co.; secretary and director Louisville, Henderson and St. Louis Ry. Co. Member Union, Tuxedo, Lambs', St. Anthony, Knickerbocker, Larchmont Yacht and Seawanhaka-Corinthian Yacht Clubs, Down Town Association and Sons of the Revolution.

POST, GEORGE B.—Architect, 33 East 17th street, New York City; residence 11 West 21st street. President and director Architectural League; secretary and trustee Post Building Co. Member Union, Lawyers', Seawanhaka-Corinthian Yacht and Camera Clubs, Century Association, American Geographical Society, American Society of Civil Engineers, American Institute of Architects and Metropolitan Museum of Art.

POST, GEORGE B., JR.—Banker and Broker, 15 Broad street, New York City; residence 131 East 35th street. Born in New York City, July 30, 1864. (Son of George B. and Alice [Stone] Post.) Educated at St. Mark's School, Southboro, Mass., and Columbia University. (Married Julia Smith.) Member of the firm of Post & Flagg, and one of the governors of the New York Stock Exchange. Member Union, Knickerbocker, St. Anthony, New York Athletic, Morristown (N. J.), Morristown Golf and Somerset Hills Country Clubs and Columbia University Alumni Association.

POST, GEORGE W.—55 West 75th street, New York City. Born in Brooklyn, N. Y., Feb. 22, 1850. Educated at Brooklyn Polytechnic Institute. (Married.)

POST, HENRY A. V.—Banker, 45 Wall street, New York City; residence 140 West 77th street. Born in New York City, May 16, 1832. Educated in New York City. (Married.) Was colonel of 2d Regiment United States Sharpshooters in 1862. President and director Chattanooga Southern R. R. Co.; treasurer and director Bullard Machine Tool Co. and Railroad Equipment Co.; director Carolina and Cumberland Gap Ry. Co. and Central Car Trust Co. Member Union Club, Down Town Association and American Museum of Natural History.

POST, REGIS HENRI—Manufacturer, 63 Fifth avenue, New York City; residence "Littlewood," Bayport, L. I. Educated at Harvard. President and director Weir Filter Co. Member Union, Harvard and Knickerbocker Clubs.

POST, WALDRON KINTZING—Lawyer, 120 Broadway, New York City; residence 79 Clinton place. Born in New York City, 1868. Educated at Harvard. Member Union, University Athletic, Seawanhaka-Corinthian Yacht and Harvard Clubs and Military Order of the Loyal Legion.

POST, WILLIAM STONE—Architect, 33 East 17th street, New York City; residence Bernardsville, N. J. Member Union and St. Anthony Clubs, Architectural League and American Institute of Architects.

POSTLEY, CLARENCE A. (Colonel)—817 Fifth avenue, New York City. Educated at United States Military Academy ('70). Member Union League, University, Larchmont Yacht, New York Yacht, New York Athletic, New York Jockey, Driving, Atlantic Yacht, Seawanhaka-Corinthian Yacht, American Yacht, Riding, Suburban Riding and Driving, Players', Corinthian Yacht and Michaux Cycling Clubs, Country Club of Westchester, Army and Navy Club of Washington, D. C., and Metropolitan Museum of Art.

POTHIER, WILLIAM A.—Coal Merchant, Reid and De Kalb avenues, Brooklyn; residence 194 Quincy street. Born in New York City, Jan. 14, 1860. Educated in New York City. (Married.) Member of the firm of Bacon & Co. Member Union League and Young Republican Clubs, Amaranth Dramatic Society, Independent Royal Arch Lodge No. 2, F. & A. M., Lefferts Council No. 1452, Royal Arcanum, Keystone Council No. 48, Home Circle, Troop "C," N. G. N. Y., and Veteran Association of 23d Regiment, N. G. N. Y.

POTTER, E. CLIFFORD—Real Estate, 128 Broadway, New York City; residence 328 West 86th street. Member of the firm of Potter & Bro. Director International Banking and Trust Co., North American Trust Co. and National Exhibition Co. Member New York Athletic, Manhattan, Union League, Lawyers', Suburban Riding and Driving and Lambs' Clubs.

POTTER, EDWARD CLARKSON—Banker, 36 Wall street, New York City; residence "Clearview," Westchester. Member of the firm of E. C. Potter & Co. and of the New York Stock Exchange. Member Metropolitan, Knickerbocker, New York Yacht, New York, Racquet and Tennis, and Turf and Field Clubs, Country Club of Westchester, American Geographical Society and Metropolitan Museum of Art.

POTTER, ELIPHALET NOTT—Protestant Episcopalian Clergyman, 29 Lafayette place, New York City; residence Featherbed lane. Born in Schenectady, N. Y., Sept. 20, 1836. (Son of Rev. Alonzo and Maria [Nott] Potter.) Educated at Union College (D.D.). Degrees of LL.D. from Williams and Trinity Colleges, D.C.L. from University of the South and L.H.D. from St. Stephens College. (Married Helen Fuller of Troy, N. Y.) Entered Protestant Episcopalian ministry in 1862. Was for a time professor at Lehigh University and president of Union College. Founded Union University, of which he was for a time chancellor. Served as president of Hobart College until 1897 and later as president of Cosmopolitan University. Now engaged in educational and ministerial work in New York City. Member New York Genealogical and Biographical and Pennsylvania Societies and Kappa Alpha Fraternity.

POTTER, ELLIS M.—Coffee and Spices, 390 Washington street, New York City; residence 146 West 87th street. President and director Potter-Parlin Co.; director Vigilante Mining and Milling Co. and W. L. Johnson Co. Member New York Athletic and Commercial Clubs.

POTTER, FREDERICK—Lawyer and Real Estate, 71 Broadway, New York City; residence Sing Sing. Born in New York City, July 19, 1856. Educated at Yale ('78). (Married.) Treasurer and trustee New York Fire Proof Wood Co.; director Bond and Mortgage Guarantee Co.; trustee Title Guarantee and Trust Co., and New York Architectural Terra Cotta Co.; managing trustee estate of Orlando B. Potter. Member Reform, University, Democratic and Lawyers' Clubs, Board of Trade and Transportation, American Geographical and New England Societies, Metropolitan Museum of Art, National Bar Association, Association of the Bar of the City of New York, and Ardsley Casino of Ardsley-on-Hudson.

POTTER, FREDERICK G.—Real Estate, 128 Broadway, New York City; residence 303 West 86th street. Born in New York City, Aug. 9, 1855. Educated in New York City. (Married.) Member of the firm of Potter & Bro. Director New York Plate Glass Insurance Co. Member Democratic, New York, Lawyers', New York Athletic, Union League and Colonial Clubs.

POTTER, HENRY A.—Manufacturer, 41 Union square, New York City; residence East Orange, N. J. Born in Philadelphia, Pa., Dec. 19, 1856. Educated at the University of Pennsylvania and at Lafayette College. (Married.) Vice-president and director Thomas Potter, Sons & Co. (Inc.). Served as a member of the New Jersey Legislature, 1884-5, and as colonel on the staff of Governor Griggs. Member of the New Jersey State Republican Committee since 1888. Member Essex County (N. J.) Country and Orange Clubs, Union League Club of Philadelphia, Pa., and Blooming Grove Park Association.

POTTER, HENRY CODMAN—Protestant Episcopal Bishop, 29 Lafayette place, New York City; residence 10 Washington square, North. Born in Schenectady, N. Y., May 25, 1835. (Son of Rev. Alonzo and Maria [Nott] Potter.) Educated at Episcopal Academy of Philadelphia, Pa., and at Virginia Theological Seminary. Degrees of A.M., D.D. and LL.D. from Union College and D.D. from Harvard University, Trinity College, and from Oxford and Cambridge Universities of England. Deacon, 1857; priest, 1858. Rector of Christ Church, Greensburg, Pa., 1857-8; St. John's Church, Troy, 1859-66; also Grace Church, New York City. Secretary of the House of Bishops, 1863-83. Became coadjutor to his uncle, Horatio Potter, in 1883, and upon his death, in 1887, succeeded him as Bishop of New York. Director Metropolitan College of Music and trustee Columbia University in the City of New York. Author of several religious works. Member City Club, Century Association, Dunlap Society, Scientific Alliance and Colonial Order.

POTTER, HENRY LANGDON—Inspector of Customs, United States Barge Office, New York City; residence Linden, N. J. Born in Tyngham, Mass., March 26, 1828. Educated in Massachusetts public schools. (Married.) Erected a large mill and engaged in the manufacture of paper in Housatonic, Mass., 1851-5. Served as colonel of the 71st Regiment New York Volunteer Infantry during Civil War; participated in nineteen battles and engagements with the Army of the Potomac and was wounded at Fair Oaks, Bristol Station and Gettysburg. In civil service of the United States since 1866. Member Sons of the American Revolution, Military Order of the Loyal Legion of the United States, Society of the Army of the Potomac, Society of the Third Corps Union, Society of Founders and Patriots of America and Knights Templar.

POTTER, HOWARD NOTT—Architect, 111 Fifth avenue, New York City; residence "Nutwood," New Rochelle. Educated at Union College. Member Racquet and Tennis Club, Country Club of Westchester, Union College Alumni Association, American Museum of Natural History, Metropolitan Museum of Art and National Academy of Design.

POTTER, JAMES BROWN—Merchant, 59 Wall street, New York City; residence 52 Park avenue. Educated at Union College. President and director Clove Branch R. R. Co.; director Electric Selector and Signal Co., London and New York Investment Corporation, Missouri, Kansas and Texas Ry. Co., Newburgh, Dutchess and Connecticut R. R. Co. and United States Casualty Co.; trustee English and Scottish-American Mortgage and Investment Co. (Ltd.). Member New York Yacht and Tuxedo Clubs, Union College Alumni and Down Town Associations and National Academy of Design.

POTTER, JOHN A.—Real Estate and Insurance, Patchogue. Born in New York City, July 2, 1841. Educated in Brooklyn, N. Y. (Married.) President Patchogue Bank and Patchogue Investment Co.; director Patchogue Mfg Co. and Patchogue Lyceum; trustee of the village; member of Board of Education. Member Patchogue Club.

POTTER, JULIAN—Banker and Broker, 6 Wall street, New York City; residence New Rochelle. Member New York Stock Exchange firm of Breese & Smith. Member Knickerbocker, New York Yacht and Players' Clubs.

POTTER, MARK WINSLOW—Lawyer, 63 Wall street, New York City; residence 25 West 84th street. Born in Kaneville, Ill., Jan. 9, 1866. Educated at New York University Law School ('88). (Married.) Member of the firm of Cole & Potter. Member Phi Delta Phi and Strollers' Clubs and Association of the Bar of the City of New York.

POTTER, ROBERT F.—Banker and Broker, 36 Wall street, New York City; residence Westchester. Member of the New York Stock Exchange firm of E. C. Potter & Co. Member Racquet and Tennis and Knickerbocker Clubs, and Country Club of Westchester.

POTTER, SAMUEL H.—Banker, Main and Deitz streets, Oneonta; residence 51 Ford avenue. Born in Cooperstown, N. Y., Feb. 22, 1862. Educated at Cooperstown. (Married.) Assistant cashier Wilber National Bank. Member Oneonta Club, Empire State Society Sons of the American Revolution and Oneonta Chapter No. 271, R. A. M.

POTTER, WILSON—Architect, 3 Union square, West, New York City; residence Hotel Majestic, and Forrestville, Conn. Born in Litchfield, Conn., March 2, 1866. Educated in Boston under direction of Henry Van Brunt. (Married.) Formerly with Richard Morris Hunt and was manager of the architectural firm of Van Brunt & Howe. Member Colonial Club.

POTTER, WILLIAM A.—Architect, 160 Fifth avenue, New York City; residence 39 West 27th street. Born in Schenectady, N. Y., Dec. 8, 1842. Educated at Union College. (Single.) Formerly Supervising Architect of the Treasury Department, Washington, D. C. Member Union College Alumni and Century Associations, American Institute of Architects and Metropolitan Museum of Art.

POTTER, WILLIAM WARREN—Physician and Editor, Buffalo; residence 284 Franklin street. Born in Strykersville, Wyoming Co., N. Y., Dec. 31, 1838. Educated in Lima, N. Y., and Buffalo. (Married.) Was surgeon of 57th New York Volunteers in Civil War and attained rank of brevet lieutenant-colonel United States Volunteers; was president of the Medical Society of the State of New York, 1891; member board of trustees American Medical Association, 1891-2. Now president State Medical Examining Board and Alumni Association of the Medical Department of the University of Buffalo; secretary American Association of Obstetricians and Gynecologists. Editor of Buffalo "Medical Journal." Member Press and Ellicott Clubs, Army and Navy Club of New York City, and Military Order of the Loyal Legion.

POTTHAST, EDWARD HENRY—Artist and Illustrator, 52 East 23d street, New York City; residence 21 West 24th street. Born in Cincinnati, Ohio, June 11, 1857. Educated in public schools; studied art in Munich and Paris.

POTTS, FREDERIC AUGUSTUS—Wholesale Coal Merchant, 143 Liberty street, New York City; residence 39 East 39th street. Senior member of the firm of F. A. Potts & Co. President and director Arnoux and Hockhausen Electric Co.; director Dover Iron Co., St. Anthony Association, West End Coal Co. and New York and Sea Beach Ry. Co. Member Union, Union League, St. Anthony, New York Athletic and Larchmont Yacht Clubs.

POTTS, WILLIAM—Author, 229 Lexington avenue, New York City. Born in Philadelphia, Pa., May 5, 1838. Educated at West Town Boarding School, Pa. (Widower.) Vice-president National Civil Service Reform League. Formerly chairman executive committee New York State Forestry Association; president Farmington Forestry Association, Brooklyn Art Guild and Brooklyn Guild Association; vice-president and secretary Continental Trust Co.; treasurer Brooklyn Art Association; secretary National Civil Service Reform League, New York Civil Service Reform Association, Brooklyn Civil Service Reform Association, Brooklyn Institute of Arts and Sciences, Brooklyn Art Association and other organizations, and also formerly chief examiner New York State Civil Service Commission. Author of "From a New England Hillside," "The Rolling Year," "The New Home," "More Notes from Underledge," "The Monetary Problem," "Vegetal Evolution," "Form and Color in Nature," "Socialism and Social Reform" and other essays and addresses; compiler of "A Bibliography of the Publications of Societies." Member Brooklyn Canoe Club, Authors' Club, Pennsylvania Society, American Canoe, Middle East Side Neighborhood, New York Civil Service Reform and Century Associations and National Civil Service Reform, New York Anti-Imperialistic and New England Anti-Imperialistic Leagues.

POUCHER, JOHN W.—Physician and Surgeon, 339 Mill street, Poughkeepsie. Born in Claverack, N. Y., July 24, 1859. Educated at Claverack College, Union University and University of Berlin, Germany. (Married.) Was first lieutenant and assistant surgeon of Volunteers during Spanish-American War. Ex-alderman. Now commissioner of public works of the City of Poughkeepsie; consulting surgeon to Vassar Brothers' Hospital; director Poughkeepsie National Bank. Member Sons of the Revolution, Society of Colonial Wars, Naval and Military Order of Spanish-American War, thirty-second degree Masons, Mystic Shrine, Mecca Temple, New York City, Poughkeepsie Commandery, Knights Templar (eminent commander), and New York State Medical, Dutchess County Medical and Holland Societies.

POULSON, NIELS—Architectural Iron Manufacturer, North 11th and Berry streets, Brooklyn; residence Shore Road and 88th street, Bay Ridge. Born in Denmark, Feb. 27, 1843. Educated in Denmark. (Married.) President Hecla Iron Works; vice-president Franke & Zenner Flooring Co. Member Crescent Athletic Club and Blooming Grove Park Association.

POUND, CUTHBERT WINFRED—Lawyer and Professor, Ithaca; residence 611 East Seneca street. Born in Lockport, N. Y., June 20, 1864. Educated at Cornell University. (Married.) State senator, Twenty-ninth District, 1894-5. Professor of corporation, criminal and constitutional law, evidence and partnership in the College of Law of Cornell University. Member Delta Kappa Epsilon and Phi Delta Phi Fraternities and American Historical Association.

POWEL, DE VEAUX—Coal Merchant, 29 Broadway, New York City; residence 62 West 88th street. President and director Powelton Barge Co.; secretary, treasurer and director Baker Transport Co. Member Engineers' Club, American Institute of Mining Engineers, American Geographical Society and American Museum of Natural History.

POWELL, ADONIRAM J.—Pianos, 142 Fifth avenue, New York City, and 774 Fulton street, Brooklyn; residence 99 McDonough street, Brooklyn. Born in Stillwater, Saratoga Co., N. Y., December, 1855. Educated in Rochester, N. Y. (Married Alma Webster Hall, a direct descendant of the Webster family.) Secretary and director Webster Piano Co.; treasurer and director Henning Co.; cashier since 1880 for Freeborn G. Smith, manufacturer of Bradbury pianos. Has been organist in some of the largest churches including the Hanson Place M. E. Church and that of Dr. Talmage.

POWELL, EDWARD A.—Real Estate and Nurseryman, Syracuse; residence 805 West Genesee street.

Born in Shadeland, Pa., June 27, 1838. Educated in Springboro, Pa. (Married.) President Syracuse, Lakeside and Baldwinsville Ry. Co., Powell Oil and Paint Co., Syracuse Portland Cement Co. and Syracuse Business Men's Association; vice-president Smith's & Powell Co., and board of trustees First Presbyterian Church; director Syracuse Construction Co.; trustee Onondaga County Savings Bank. Member Lakeside Yacht and Boat, and Fortnightly Clubs.

POWELL, EDWARD E.—Coal Merchant, 218 Chenango street, Binghamton; residence 1 Orton avenue. Born in Wales, Sept. 10, 1870. Educated in Hazleton, Pa. (Married.) Member of the firm of Ford, Beach & Powell. Was health commissioner of Binghamton three years, and street commissioner three years. Member Broome County Country and Binghamton Clubs.

POWELL, EDWARD PAYSON—Journalist, Clinton. Born in Clinton, 1833. Educated at Hamilton College (A.B., '53, and A.M.) and at Union Theological Seminary (D.D., '58). (Married Lucy J. Maltbie.) Held Congregational and, later, Unitarian pastorates at Adrian, Mich., St. Louis, Mo., and Chicago, Ill. Was editorial writer on the St. Louis "Globe-Democrat" for several years; now associate editor of "The New Unity" of Chicago. Author of "Our Heredity from God," "Liberty and Life" and other works. Member American Arbitration Congress, American Historical Society and many other bodies.

POWELL, SENECA D.—Surgeon, 12 West 40th street, New York City. Born in Wilcox County, Ala., Jan. 5, 1848. Educated at Universities of Virginia and New York; degrees of LL.D. and M.D. Formerly president Medical Society of the County of New York and of Medical Society of the State of New York. Now professor of surgery, New York Post-Graduate Medical School and Hospital, and visiting surgeon Post-Graduate Hospital and St. Mark's Hospital. Member New York Athletic Club, Southern, New York County Medical, New York State Medical and Northwestern Medical and Surgical Societies, Medical Society of the State of Connecticut (honorary), Bellevue Hospital Alumni and Physicians' Mutual Aid Associations and New York Academy of Medicine.

POWELL, WILLIAM R.—Merchant, 1160 Broadway, New York City; residence 254 West 75th street. Born in New York City. Educated at Columbia. (Single.) Member Colonial and Grolier Clubs, Metropolitan Museum of Art and Columbia College Alumni Association.

POWELL, WILSON MARCY—Lawyer, 29 Wall street, New York City; residence 324 West 58th street. Born in Chatham, N. Y., Dec. 7, 1834. (Son of Henry J. and Judith Powell.) Educated at Union College. (Married.) Practicing in New York City since his admission to the Bar in 1861. Member Alpha Delta Phi and Lawyers' Clubs, Union College Alumni Association, American Museum of Natural History, Metropolitan Museum of Art, Association of the Bar of the City of New York and American Geographical and New York Historical Societies.

POWER, MAURICE J.—Bronze Manufacturer, 218 East 25th street, New York City; residence 317 East 19th street. Born in Ireland, Oct. 14, 1833. Educated in New York City. (Married, 1868.) Police court justice, 1880-90; United States Shipping Commissioner of the Port of New York by appointment of President Cleveland, 1893-7. Aqueduct commissioner since Dec. 11, 1897. Served for many years as chairman of the New York County Democracy. President National Fine Art Foundry, which he established in 1868, and which has produced many of the notable pieces of bronze sculpture in the United States. Member Manhattan, Reform, Catholic, Hardware, New York Athletic and Democratic Clubs.

POWERS, GEORGE W.—Real Estate, 503 Fifth avenue, New York City; residence 8 West 50th street, and Rye. Member American Yacht Club, Crescent Athletic Club of Brooklyn, and Metropolitan Museum of Art.

POWERS, HARRY HUNTINGTON—Professor, Cornell University, Ithaca; residence 123 Quarry street. Degree of Ph.D. Acting assistant professor of social science at Cornell University.

POWERS, JAMES T.—Actor, Daly's Theatre, Broadway and 30th street, New York City. Born in New York City, 1862. Made first theatrical appearance in "Dreams of Fun in a Photograph Gallery," at the Park Theatre, Boston, Mass. Has starred in various comedies and comic operas since 1891. Member Players' Club.

POWERS, JOHN C.—Manufacturing Stationer, 212 Church street, New York City; residence Hotel Margaret, Brooklyn. Born in Brooklyn. Member of the firm of J. C. & W. E. Powers. Member Arkwright and Reform Clubs, Hamilton, Crescent Athletic and Dyker Meadow Golf Clubs of Brooklyn, and Garden City Golf Club.

POWNALL, FRANK S.—Paper Manufacturer, Hoboken, N. J.; residence 127 West 121st street, New York City. Educated at Harvard. Proprietor of the Pownall Paper Mills. Member Hardware and Harvard Clubs.

PRAEGER, JOHN F.—Wholesale Dry Goods Merchant, 82 Worth street, New York City; residence 124 Willow street, Brooklyn. Director Home Life Insurance Co. Member Merchants' Club, and Crescent Athletic and Hamilton Clubs of Brooklyn.

PRAEGER, LOUIS J.—Wholesale Dry Goods Merchant, 82 Worth street, New York City; residence 124 Willow street, Brooklyn. Born in Brooklyn. Educated at Brooklyn Polytechnic Institute. (Married.) Member Arkwright Club, and Crescent Athletic Club of Brooklyn.

PRATT, CHARLES AUGUSTUS BREWSTER—Lawyer, 111 Broadway, New York City; residence 103 East 25th street. Born in Ohio. Educated at Columbia. Member of the firm of Tyler, Pratt, Hibbard & McAlpin. Member City Club, Metropolitan Museum of Art and Association of the Bar of the City of New York.

PRALL, JOHN HOWARD—Broker, 37 Wall street, New York City; residence Elmhurst. Born in New York City, Oct. 26, 1855. Educated at Flushing Institute. (Married.) Member of the firm of Webb & Prall and of the New York Stock Exchange. Vice-president and director Peoria, Decatur and Evansville Ry. Co. Member Transportation Club, Holland Society, Sons of the Revolution and Society of Foreign Wars.

PRATT, CHARLES M.—Capitalist, 26 Broadway, New York City; residence 241 Clinton avenue, Brooklyn. Educated at Amherst College. President and member of advisory council Thrift Savings, Loan and Building Fund; president and director United States Net and Twine Co. and Morris Building Co.; president and trustee Pratt Institute; vice-president and director New York and Rockaway Beach R. R. Co. and Prospect Park and Coney Island R. R. Co.; director Atlantic Avenue Elevated R. R. Co., Brooklyn and Jamaica R. R. Co., Gilbert & Barker Mfg Co., Huntington and Big Sandy R. R. Co., Long Island R. R. Co., Mechanics' National Bank, Ohio River R. R. Co., Pratt & Lambert, Standard Oil Co. of New York, United States Mortgage and Trust Co. and Pratt's Astral Oil Co.; trustee Brooklyn Trust Co. Member Lawyers', Seawanhaka-Corinthian Yacht, Alpha Delta Phi, Nineteenth Century and New York Yacht Clubs, Hamilton and Montauk Clubs of Brooklyn, Amherst College Alumni Association and Sons of the American Revolution.

PRATT, DALLAS B.—Banker, 24 Exchange place, New York City; residence 24 West 48th street. Member of the firm of Maitland, Coppell & Co. and of the New York Stock Exchange. Director Bank of America and New York Warehouse and Security Co.; trustee German Savings Bank. Member Metropolitan, Union League, Country, Church and Riding Clubs and Down Town Association.

PRATT, ERVIN A.—Superintendent, 63 Park row, New York City; residence 844 St. John's place, Brooklyn. Born in Pawlet, Vt., April 17, 1861. (Son of Byron A. Pratt; grandson of Ervin Pratt and great-grandson of Capt. James Pratt, who fought in the Revolutionary War.) Educated in Pawlet and Orwell, Vt. (Married Julia Maud Belden of Pawlet, Vt., 1899.) Served for a time as captain in the National Guard of the State of New York. Member Union League and New York Press Clubs, Brooklyn Young Republican Club, Brooklyn Institute of Arts and Sciences, Brooklyn Society of Vermonters, Orion Lodge No. 717, F. & A. M., and Wyvern Council, Royal Arcanum.

PRATT, EUGENE W.—Manager, 120 Broadway, New York City; residence 596 West 152d street. Born in Ripon, Wis., Aug. 22, 1857. Educated at Jamestown (N. Y.) Collegiate Institute. (Married.) Was United States examiner of merchandise and United States assistant appraiser at the port of New York. Now manager Equitable Life Assurance Society of the United States. Member Sons of the American Revolution, Seventh Regiment Veteran Association, Society of Founders and Patriots of America, Thirteen Club, New York Consistory thirty-second degree Masons, and St. Nicholas Lodge No. 321, F. & A. M.

PRATT, FREDERIC B.—Capitalist, 26 Broadway, New York City; residence 215 Ryerson street, Brooklyn. Educated at Amherst College ('87). Vice-president Morris Building Co.; secretary, treasurer and trustee Pratt Institute; member of advisory council Thrift Savings, Loan and Building Fund. Member Alpha Delta Phi, University and Lawyers' Clubs of New York City, Hamilton and Rembrandt Clubs of Brooklyn, Sons of the Revolution and Amherst College Alumni Association.

PRATT, GEORGE D.—Capitalist, 26 Broadway, New York City; residence 232 Clinton avenue, Brooklyn. Educated at Amherst College. Trustee Pratt Institute; director Prospect Park and Coney Island R. R. Co.; member of advisory council Thrift Savings, Loan and Building Fund. Member Alpha Delta Phi and University Clubs, Hamilton Club of Brooklyn, and Amherst College Alumni Association.

PRATT, JAMES B.—Iron Merchant, 4 Fletcher street, New York City; residence 1011 Lexington avenue. Born in Perth Amboy, N. J., June 23, 1852. Educated at Trinity School in New York City. (Single.) Member of the firm of John S. Leng's Son & Co. Member New York Railroad and New York Clubs.

PRATT, JOHN B.—Publisher, 156 Fifth avenue, New York City; residence Montclair, N. J. Born in Montclair, Oct. 15, 1865. Educated in Montclair. (Married.) Manager A. S. Barnes & Co. Member Apollo Club of Montclair, and Society of Founders and Patriots of America.

PRATT, SAMUEL WHEELER—Presbyterian Clergyman and Author, Campbell. Born in Livonia, N. Y., Sept. 9, 1838. Educated at Williams College ('60) and at Auburn Theological Seminary (D.D., '63). (Married, first Lucilla B. Field; second, Sarah M. McKay.) Has been pastor of Presbyterian churches in Brasher Falls, N. Y.; Hammonont, N. J.; Prattsburgh, N. Y.; Campbell, N. Y., and in Monroe, Mich. Acted as supply in Fredonia, Dansville, Atlanta and Avoca, N. Y. Commissioner Auburn Theological Seminary; synodical examiner Elmira College; Christian Endeavor editor "New York Evangelist"; trustee Alma College and moderator Synod of Geneva. Author of "A Summer at Peace Cottage," "The Gospel of the Holy Spirit," "Life and Epistles of St. Paul Harmonized and Arranged in Chronological Order," "The Household of Timothy" and "Key to the Gospel of John."

PRATT, SILAS G.—Musical Composer, 176 West 86th street. Born in Addison, Vt., Aug. 4, 1846. Educated in common schools of Plainfield, Ill. (Married Flora Spencer Colby of Chicago, Ill.) Engaged for a time in music business in Chicago; went to Berlin and studied under Kullak, Bendel, Liszt and other masters. His first symphony was performed in 1871; gave several concerts in London and Berlin. Directed Fourth of July music, "Chicago Day" celebration and "Reunion of the Cities" at the World's Columbian Exposition, Chicago, 1893; gave an American concert at Antwerp Exposition on July 4, 1895. His many compositions include "The Triumph of Columbus," "Lucille" and several other grand operas; "A Serenade," "Paul Revere's Ride and the Revolution of '76" and other orchestral works; "Soliloquies," "Court," "Dance of the Shepherds" and numerous other selections for the piano. Member Manuscript Club.

PRATT, WALTER P.—Brick Manufacturer and Fire Insurance, 64 Court street, Binghamton; residence 31 Way street. Born in Afton, Chenango Co., N. Y., Feb. 13, 1853. Educated in district schools.

(Married.) Was connected with city treasury, and has been alderman of city of Binghamton. Secretary and manager Ogden Brick Co.; manager insurance business of Eastman & Pratt. Member Binghamton Whist and Binghamton Clubs and Otseningo Lodge, F. & A. M.

PREBLE, WILLIAM P., JR.—Lawyer, 150 Nassau street, New York City; residence New Brighton, S. I. Born in Portland, Me., Oct. 1, 1854. Educated at Portland High School, at Harvard College and at Harvard Law School ('75). (Married.) Member Richmond County Country and Harbor Hill Golf Clubs and Association of the Bar of the City of New York.

PRENTICE, AUGUSTUS—Lawyer, 155 Broadway, New York City; residence 7 West 81st street. Born in New London County, Conn., Sept. 30, 1826. (Son of Asa and Annie [Browning] Prentice.) Educated in public schools and at Wilbraham (Mass.) Academy. (Married Catherine A., daughter of William Browning of Gales Ferry, Conn., 1855.) Practicing in New York City since his admission to the Bar in 1852. Was instrumental in the incorporation of the village of New Brighton, S. I. President and director Bank of Staten Island; treasurer and director Marietta Run Coal and Coke Co.

PRENTICE, AUGUSTUS BROWNING—Lawyer, 155 Broadway, New York City; residence 7 West 81st street. Born Jan. 30, 1866. (Son of Augustus and Catherine A. [Browning] Prentice.)

PRENTICE, FREDERIC—Real Estate, 44 Broadway, New York City; residence Hotel Savoy. Born in Toledo, Ohio, Dec. 6, 1822. Educated in Toledo. (Married.) President and director Alps Consolidated Mining Co. and Excelsior Brown Stone Co. Member Union League Club, Metropolitan Museum of Art and National Academy of Design.

PRENTICE, ROBERT KELLY—Lawyer, 52 Broadway, New York City; residence 9 West 16th street. Educated at Princeton. Member of the firm of W. P. & R. K. Prentice. Director Insurance Co. of the State of New York, and Globe and Rutgers Fire Insurance Co. Member Princeton, Republican and City Clubs, Century Association, Sons of the Revolution and Association of the Bar of the City of New York.

PRENTICE, WILLIAM P.—Lawyer, 52 Broadway, New York City; residence 9 West 16th street. Educated at Williams College. Member of the firm of W. P. & R. K. Prentice. Member Phi Beta Kappa Club, American Geographical Society, Williams College Alumni and Century Associations, Military Order of the Loyal Legion, Scientific Alliance and Association of the Bar of the City of New York.

PRENTICE, WILLIAM S. P.—Banker, 2 Wall street, New York City; residence 53 East 55th street. Member of the firm of William C. Sheldon & Co. and of the New York Stock Exchange. Member Crescent Athletic Club of Brooklyn, Ardsley Casino of Ardsley-on-Hudson, New England Society, Down Town Association and Sons of the Revolution.

PRENTISS, GEORGE H.—Banker, 37 William street, New York City; residence 77 First place, Brooklyn. Member of the firm of George H. Prentiss & Co. and of the New York Stock Exchange. Director Brooklyn City R. R. Co., Coney Island and Brooklyn R. R. Co., Christopher and Tenth Streets R. R. Co., Central Crosstown R. R. Co., New York and New Jersey Telephone Co., National City Bank of Brooklyn, Brooklyn Academy of Music, E. W. Bliss Co., Eagle Fire Insurance Co., United States Casualty Co., Yellow Pine Co. and Brooklyn City and Newtown R. R. Co.; trustee Franklin Trust Co., Washington Trust Co. and Brooklyn Art Association. Member Hamilton, Crescent Athletic, and Riding and Driving Clubs of Brooklyn, and Down Town Association.

PRENTISS, GEORGE LEWIS—Lawyer, 31 Nassau street, New York City; residence 41 East 61st street. (Son of George Lewis Prentiss.) Educated at Princeton ('79). Director Prentiss Clock Improvement Co. Member University, Princeton, City and University Athletic Clubs, Marine and Field Club of Brooklyn, and Association of the Bar of the City of New York.

PRENTISS, HENRY—Merchant, 115 Liberty street, New York City; residence Rutherford, N. J. Born in Hubbardston, Mass., 1847. Educated at Leicester (Mass.) Academy. (Married.) Has been treasurer and director White Water Valley R. R. Co. of Indiana, and treasurer Marcy Avenue Baptist Church of Brooklyn. Now president, treasurer and director Prentiss Tool and Supply Co. Member Union Club of Rutherford.

PRENTISS, NATHANIEL A.—Lawyer, 120 Broadway, New York City; residence 119 East 38th street. Educated at Harvard. Member Union League, Mendelssohn Glee and Harvard Clubs, Century Association, Association of the Bar of the City of New York and Sons of the Revolution.

PRESBREY, FRANK—Advertising, 14 John street, New York City; residence 476 West 143d street. Educated at Princeton. Member Princeton, Knickerbocker Athletic and Quill Clubs and Aldine Association.

PRESCOTT, FREDERICK CLARKE—Professor, Cornell University, Ithaca; residence 173 Cascadilla place. Degree of A.B. Assistant professor of rhetoric at Cornell University.

PRESSINGER, ARNOTT M.—Oils, 26 Broadway, New York City; residence Hotel Winthrop. Born in New York City, July 2, 1865. (Married.) Connected with the Standard Oil Co. Member Sons of the Revolution, 7th Regiment, N. G. N. Y., and Phi Gamma Delta Fraternity.

PRESSINGER, AUSTIN E.—Lawyer, 111 Broadway, New York City; residence 5 West 81st street. Born in New York City, Sept. 7, 1863. Educated in New York City. (Married.) First lieutenant Company E, 7th Regiment, N. G. N. Y. Member Democratic Club, Association of the Bar of the City of New York and Sons of the Revolution.

PRESTON, CHARLES M.—Financier, 45 Wall street, New York City; residence Hotel San Remo, and Kingston. Born in Roxbury, Delaware Co., N. Y., Nov. 6, 1848. Educated at the Delaware Literary Institute, Franklin, N. Y. (Married Mary Hasbrouck.) Was corporation counsel of the city of Kingston, 1877-81; Superintendent of Banks, State of New York, 1889-96. Now president The Securities Company of New York City, National Bank of Rondout, and Colonial City Traction Co. of Kingston; director Equitable Securities Co. Member Lawyers' and Democratic Clubs, Rondout and Kingston Clubs, Winnisook Club of Catskill Mountains, New England and Albany Societies and New York Chamber of Commerce.

PRESTON, HENRY GREEN—Physician and Surgeon, 54 Greene avenue, Brooklyn. Born in Hartford, Conn., 1847. (Son of Dr. Henry C. Preston.) Educated at New Brunswick University, Canada (B.A., '66), and at Bellevue Hospital Medical College in New York City (M.D., '69). (Married.) Practiced in St. Johns, N. B., 1870-1; in Albany, N. Y., 1871-6; in Brooklyn, since 1876. Makes a specialty of electro-therapeutics and diseases of the nervous system. Medical director Hospital and Home for Epileptics, and of Bethesda Sanitarium and Dispensary. Member Albany County Homeopathic Medical (honorary since 1879), Kings County Homeopathic Medical and New York State Medical Societies.

PRIAL, FRANCIS P.—Publisher, 88 West Broadway, New York City; residence 411 West 19th street. President and director Chronicle and Outfitter Co., E. F. Prial Co. and Liquor Trades Review Co. Member New York Athletic, Commercial and Catholic Clubs.

PRICE, ALFRED B.—Real Estate Investor, 53 West 90th street, New York City. Member Republican, Patria, West Side Republican, Craftsmen's, Commonwealth, Lawyers' and 12th Regiment Veterans' Clubs, Presbyterian Union, Sons of the Revolution and Society of Colonial Wars.

PRICE, BENJAMIN—Lawyer, 45 Broadway, New York City. Born in Maryland. Educated at Williams College ('80). (Married.) Member of the Maryland Bar. Makes a specialty of patent and corporation law and United States Supreme Court practice. Director Home Ice Machine Co. Member University Club.

PRICE, BRUCE—Architect, 1133 Broadway, New York City; residence 12 West Tenth street. Born in Cumberland, Md., Dec. 12, 1845. Educated in Maryland and in Europe. Practiced in Baltimore, Md., 1869-72; in Wilkesbarre, Pa., 1872-7; in New York City since 1877. Has designed and superintended the construction of many public and private edifices throughout the United States. Invented, patented and built the parlor bay-window cars for the Pennsylvania and Boston & Albany railroads. Member Union, Tuxedo, Players', Reform, Calumet, Lambs', Richmond County Country, St. Andrew's Golf, Tuxedo Golf, Staten Island Cricket and Baseball, and Ocean County (N. J.) Country Clubs, Metropolitan Club of Washington, D. C., St. James Club of Montreal, Canada, Southern, National Sculpture and Municipal Arts Societies, Century Association, Architectural League, Metropolitan Museum of Art, American Institute of Architects, Canadian Society of Civil Engineers and New York Society of Architects.

PRICE, CHARLES W.—Publisher, 41 Park row, New York City; residence 223 Garfield place, Brooklyn. Born in Ohio, 1857. Educated in Ohio common schools. (Married.) Was first vice-president of the New York Press Club and vice-president Quaint Club; also ex-secretary and ex-treasurer International League of Press Clubs. Now president "Electrical Review" Publishing Co. and editor "Electrical Review." Member Press, Lotos and Quaint Clubs, and Riding and Driving and Montauk Clubs of Brooklyn.

PRICE, GEORGE A.—Merchant, 376 Fulton street, Brooklyn; residence 18 Montgomery place. Born in Vestal, Broome Co., N. Y., Nov. 4, 1839. Educated in public schools. (Married.) Has been past commander of U. S. Grant Post No. 327, G. A. R.; secretary and trustee of Industrial Home for the Blind and civil service commissioner, Brooklyn, in 1897. Now member of the firm of Balch, Price & Co. President "Standard-Union" Publishing Co. Member Oxford (president), Union League, Montauk, Apollo, Crescent Athletic, Young Republican and Congregational Clubs, 7th Regiment Veteran and Manufacturers' Associations, New England Society of Brooklyn, 9th Illinois Cavalry Veterans, Nassau Council No. 822, Royal Arcanum, and Brooklyn League.

PRICE, HENRY R.—Physician, 485 Franklin avenue, Brooklyn. Member Union League Club, Society of Colonial Wars and Sons of the Revolution.

PRICE, JOHN M.—Real Estate and Insurance, Patchogue. Born in Patchogue, Sept. 8, 1841. Educated in Patchogue. (Married.) Member of the real estate firm of Potter & Price. Special agent of Royal, Hartford, Phoenix and Niagara Insurance Companies; president of the village of Patchogue; director Patchogue Bank; member Equalization Commission for Suffolk County. Ex-supervisor town of Brookhaven and ex-member of Board of Education of Patchogue.

PRICE, THEODORE HAZELTINE—Broker, 72 Broadway, New York City; residence 154 West 58th street. Born in New York City, Feb. 9, 1861. Educated in public schools. (Married.) Member New York Stock Exchange firm of Price, McCormick & Co. Member City, New York Athletic (life), Lawyers', New York and Riding Clubs, Southern Society and Down Town Association.

PRICE, THOMAS RANDOLPH—Professor, 116th street and Morningside Heights, New York City; residence 263 West 45th street. Born in Richmond, Va., March 18, 1839. Educated at the University of Virginia ('58) and at the University of Berlin, Germany. Degrees of A.M. and LL.D. (Married.) Served as captain of engineers in Confederate Army during Civil War. Was professor of Greek and English at Randolph Macon College, and of Greek at the University of Virginia. Now professor of the English language and literature at Columbia University in the City of New York. Member University Club, Century Association and Southern Society.

PRIME, ALANSON J.—Lawyer, 100 Broadway, New York City; residence Yonkers. Born in White Plains, N. Y., Sept. 13, 1832. Educated in Yonkers. (Married.) Member of the firm of R. E. & A. J. Prime. Has been justice of the peace, acting city judge of Yonkers and supervisor. Was commodore Yonkers Corinthian Yacht Club for twenty-six years. Member Transportation, Yonkers Corinthian Yacht and Thirteen Clubs, New York Yacht Racing Association and Sons of the American Revolution.

PRIME, EDWARD—Retired Banker, 65 West 45th street, New York City. Born in New York City, Oct. 19, 1833. Educated in White Plains and Poughkeepsie. (Married.) Formerly member of the banking firms of Prime, Ward & Co. and Prime & Co. Member New York Yacht Club and Sons of the Revolution.

PRIME, RALPH EARL—Lawyer, 25 Warburton avenue, Yonkers, and 100 Broadway, New York City; residence 63 Hawthorne avenue, Yonkers. Born in Matteawan, Dutchess County, N. Y., March 29, 1840. Educated by private tutors and at White Plains Academy. (Married.) Member of the firm of R. E. & A. J. Prime. Served in the Army of the Potomac as private and later as commissioned officer in Fifth New York Volunteer Infantry (Duryee's Zouaves) and Sixth New York Volunteer Heavy Artillery; nominated brigadier general by President Lincoln, 1863. Has been moderator of Presbytery of Westchester and of Presbyterian Synod of New York; delegate from the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in the United States to the Pan-Presbyterian Councils held in Belfast, 1884, London, 1888, Glasgow, 1896, and Washington, D. C., 1899. Past district deputy grand master and commissioner of appeals Grand Lodge of Masons of the State of New York; grand representative M. W. Grand Lodge of Masons in Oregon (near the Grand Lodge of the State of New York), and of M. P. Grand Council of Royal and Select Masters in Ohio (near the Grand Council of the State of New York). Life Fellow of the Huguenot Society of London, and member American Flag Association (president), Military Order of the Loyal Legion, Sons of the American Revolution, Metropolitan Museum of Art, Order of Founders and Patriots of America, American Bar and Westchester County Bar Associations, Nepperban Lodge No. 736, F. & A. M., and Societies of the Army of the Potomac, the War of 1812, Colonial Wars and American Authors.

PRIME, RALPH EARL, JR.—Lawyer, 100 Broadway, New York City; residence Yonkers. Born in Yonkers, July 9, 1868. Educated at Princeton ('88) and Columbia College Law School. (Married.) Member of the firm of R. E. & A. J. Prime. Member Sons of the American Revolution, New York Commandery Military Order of the Loyal Legion of the United States and F. & A. M.

PRIME, WILLIAM COWPER—Journalist and Author, 19 Beaver street, New York City; residence 38 East 23d street. Born in Cambridge, N. Y., Oct. 31, 1825. Educated at Princeton (A.B., '43, and LL.D., '75). Studied law and was admitted to the Bar in 1846; practiced in New York City until 1861, when he became part owner and editor-in-chief of the New York "Journal of Commerce," with which he is still connected. Professor of the history of art at Princeton University since 1884. Author of "Boat Life in Egypt," "Tent Life in the Holy Land," "Pottery and Porcelain," "Coins, Medals and Seals," "Along New England Roads," and many other works. Member Grolier Club, Crescent Athletic Club of Brooklyn, and Metropolitan Museum of Art (first vice-president).

PRINCE, BENJAMIN—Mining, 71 Broadway, New York City; residence "Bide-a-wee," Irvington. Born in New York City, Dec. 5, 1857. Educated at Williams College ('80). (Single.) Member St. Anthony, University, Mendelssohn Glee and Manuscript Clubs, Ardsley Casino of Ardsley-on-Hudson, Sons of the Revolution and Williams College Alumni and 7th Regiment Veteran Association.

PRINCE, HENRY AXTELL—Lawyer, 149 Broadway, New York City; residence 175 West 85th street. Member Sigma Phi and Phi Beta Kappa Clubs, St. Nicholas Society, Colonial Order and Association of the Bar of the City of New York.

PRINCE, J. DYNELEY—Professor, University Heights, New York City; residence Ringwood, N. J. Born in New York City, April 17, 1868. Educated at Columbia ('86), Berlin and Johns Hopkins Universities. Degree of Ph.D. (Married.) Professor of Semitic languages and comparative philology and Dean of the Graduate School at New York University. Member of expedition to Babylonia from University of Pennsylvania, 1889-90; Fellow in Semitic at Johns Hopkins University, 1891-2. Author of philological papers in "Journal of American Oriental Society" and in the "Journal of Biblical Literature"; American Folk-lore papers in American Philosophical Society Proceedings, and in New York Academy of Science publications; "Mene, Mene, Tekel, Upharsin," Baltimore, 1893; also "A Commentary on the Book of Daniel," Leipzig, 1899. Member Tuxedo and University Clubs, American Geographical, American Oriental, Delta Phi and Phi Beta Kappa Societies, Society for Biblical Literature and Exegesis, Modern Language Association and New York Academy of Sciences.

PRIOR, JULIUS E.—Dry Goods Commission Merchant, 66 Leonard street, New York City; residence 1238 Dean street, Brooklyn. Born in Germany, June 29, 1860. Educated in Germany. (Married.) In charge of domestic department Fred'k. Vietor & Achelis. Member Crescent Athletic and Union League Clubs of Brooklyn.

PRITCHARD, ALBERT L.—Lawyer, 156 Broadway, New York City; residence 201 West 56th street. Born in Solon, Cortland Co., N. Y., Sept. 18, 1818. Educated at Homer Academy and Union College. (Married.) President Snowflake Marble Co. and Bank of Watertown, Wis.; secretary and treasurer Chicago and Northwestern Ry. Co.; treasurer Northern Pacific R. R. Co. Member Union College Alumni Association.

PROAL, ARTHUR B.—Secretary, 45 Broadway, New York City; residence 517 Madison avenue. Secretary and director Electro Gas Co. and United States Equitable Gas Co. Member Union League, Racquet and Tennis and Suburban Riding and Driving Clubs, Country Club of Westchester, Metropolitan Museum of Art and American Museum of Natural History.

PROBASCO, SAMUEL R.—Civil Engineer, 280 Broadway, New York City; residence 107 Montague street, Brooklyn. Member Crescent Athletic and Brooklyn Clubs and American Society of Civil Engineers.

PROBST, GEORGE—Publisher and Print Seller, 17 East 16th street, New York City. Born in Germany, April 5, 1831. Educated in Germany and the United States. (Married.) Served in the United States Army, 1854-62, and in War Department, 1862-64. Superintendent J. C. Buttre, 1865-73; secretary of same, 1894-95, and since then president, treasurer and director. Served six years in the National Guard of New York and held prominent offices in G. A. R. during a period of fifteen years. Member Veteran Club (secretary), Columbia Benevolent Society (president) and Knights of Honor (trustee).

PROCHAZKA, JOHN—Chemist, Newark, N. J.; residence 15 East 12th street, New York City. Born in New York City, Oct. 12, 1862. Educated in New York City. (Single.) Secretary and chemist Central Dye-stuff and Chemical Co. of Newark, N. J. Member of the Phi Beta Kappa and City College Clubs, New York City College Alumni Association, American Chemical Society, Society of Chemical Industry and Liederkrantz.

PROCTOR, THOMAS REDFIELD—Banker, Utica; residence 312 Genesee street. President and director Second National Bank. Member Army and Navy and Players' Clubs of New York City, Adirondack League and American Jersey Cattle Clubs, New England Society, Military Order of the Loyal Legion, Sons of the Revolution and Society of Colonial Wars.

PROSSER, CHARLES SMITH—Professor, Ohio State University, Columbus, Ohio; residence Schenectady, N. Y. Born in Columbus, N. Y., March 24, 1860. (Son of Smith and Emeline O. [Tuttle] Prosser.) Educated at Cornell (B.S., '83, and M.S., '86). (Married Mary F., daughter of Thomas Wilson of Albany, N. Y.) Instructor in paleontology at Cornell University, 1885-8; assistant paleontologist to United States Geological Survey, 1888-92; professor of natural history at Washburn College, Topeka, Kan., 1892-4; professor of geology at Union College, 1894-9; associate professor of historical geology at Ohio State University since 1899. Was assistant geologist on State geological surveys of Kansas and New York, and chief of Appalachian division of Maryland Geological Survey. Author of over forty papers and reports on the geology of Arkansas, Nebraska, Kansas, Pennsylvania, Maryland and New York, the most extensive being on the Silurian and Devonian rocks of New York and the Carboniferous and Permian of Kansas. Fellow Geological Society of America and American Association for the Advancement of Science; member Congrès Géologique Internationale, Phi Gamma Delta Fraternity and of the Alpha Chapter of the honorary scientific society of Sigma Xi.

PROUDFIT, ALEXANDER M.—1425 Broadway, New York City. Educated at Columbia. Member Union, Racquet and Tennis and New York Yacht Clubs, Ardsley Casino of Ardsley-on-Hudson, and Columbia University Alumni Association.

PROUT, HENRY G.—Editor, 32 Park place, New York City; residence Nutley, N. J. Born in Fairfax County, Va. Educated in common schools and at the University of Michigan. (Married.) Served in Union Army during Civil War. Was major of engineers and, later, colonel on general staff in the Egyptian Army, 1873-8, and was for a time Governor of the Equatorial Provinces. Now chief editor of the "Railroad Gazette." Member Engineers' Club, Century Association, American Geographical Society and American Society of Civil Engineers.

PROVOST, ANDREW JACKSON—Lawyer, 5 Beekman street, New York City; residence 403 Washington avenue, Brooklyn. Born in New York City, April 2, 1834. (Son of David and Elizabeth [Hendrickson] Provost.) Educated in public schools of Brooklyn, and at Williston Seminary. (Married Harriet, daughter of Hon. Obadiah Titus of Dutchess County, N. Y., 1854.) Practiced law in Brooklyn until 1880; since then in New York City. Assemblyman, 1860-2; member of the Brooklyn Board of Education, 1864-8; school commissioner of Queens County, 1874-8; justice of the peace and police judge in Queens County, 1870-8; was also president of the Whitestone (L. I.) Board of Education for five years. Member St. Nicholas Society of Brooklyn.

PROVOST, ANDREW JACKSON, JR.—Civil Engineer, 401 Washington avenue, Brooklyn. Director American Kit Co. Member Brooklyn Engineers' Club, Long Island Historical and Holland Societies and St. Nicholas Society of Nassau Island.

PROVOST, DAVID—Lawyer, 132 Nassau street, New York City; residence Great Neck, Nassau County. Educated at Rutgers College and Columbia University. Member Manhasset Bay Golf and St. Nicholas Clubs and Sons of the Revolution.

PROVOST, GEORGE D.—Broker, 20 Broad street, New York City; residence 432 Lafayette avenue, Brooklyn. Member of the firm of Provost Bros. & Co., members of the New York Stock Exchange. Member Calumet Club, and Crescent Athletic and Oxford Clubs of Brooklyn.

PRUDEN, T. MITCHELL—Physician, 437 West 59th street, New York City; residence 160 West 59th street. Born in Middlebury, Conn., July 7, 1849. Educated at Yale ('72), Columbia, Berlin and Heidelberg (M.D.). (Single.) Was instructor in chemistry, Sheffield Scientific School at Yale; lecturer on histology in Yale Medical School, and president New York Pathological Society. Now professor of pathology, Columbia University, and director Columbia University Press. Member New York Athletic and University Clubs, Association of American Physicians, Association of American Bacteriologists, American Public Health and Century Associations, and American Geographical, New York Historical and American Folklore Societies.

PRUDEN, WILLIAM EDGAR—Hardware Merchant, 861 Eighth avenue, New York City; residence 162 West 120th street. Director West Side Bank. Member Colonial, New York Athletic, Driving and Lawyers' Clubs.

PRUYN, JOHN V. L.—Lawyer, Albany; residence 13 Elk street. Born in Albany, March 14, 1859. Educated at Union College ('80), and Albany Law School ('82). (Married.) Alderman-at-large, 1888-90; senior aide-de-camp, with rank of colonel, on staff of Governor D. B. Hill, 1886-9. Trustee of St. Stephen's College, Annandale, N. Y. Member Metropolitan, Union and University Clubs of New York City, Fort Orange Club of Albany, Sons of the Revolution, Holland Society, Society of Colonial Wars, Association of the Bar of the City of New York, Union Alumni Association, Newport Reading Room, St. Nicholas Society and New York State Bar Association.

PRUYN, ROBERT CLARENCE—Banker, 38 State street, Albany. Educated at Rutgers College ('69). President and director National Commercial Bank. Member Metropolitan, University and Delta Phi Clubs and Century Association of New York City, Holland Society, Sons of the Revolution, Rutgers College Alumni Association and Fort Orange Club of Albany, of which he was one of the founders.

PRYER, CHARLES—New Rochelle. Born and educated in New York City. (Married.) Member Reform, Atlantic Yacht, Larchmont Yacht, Wool, Strollers', New York Yacht and New Rochelle Yacht Clubs, Century Association, New York Historical, American Geographical, New York Zoological, and Numismatic and Archæological Societies, Metropolitan Museum of Art and American Museum of Natural History.

PRYOR, JAMES WILLIAMSON—Lawyer, 677 Fifth avenue, New York City. Born in New York City, April 30, 1858. Educated in private schools and at Columbia (A.B., '78) and Columbia Law School. Formerly secretary of the Edison Electric Illuminating Co. of New York. Member City (secretary) and University Clubs, Genesee Valley Club of Rochester, and Columbia University Alumni Association.

PRYOR, ROGER ATKINSON—Supreme Court Justice, County Court House, New York City; residence 3 West 69th street. Born in Dinwiddie County, Va., July 19, 1828. Educated at Hampden-Sidney College (LL.D.) and at the University of Virginia ('48). (Married Sara A. Rice of Virginia.) Was special Minister to Greece under President Pierce, 1855; Congressman, 1858-61. Entered Confederate service in 1861 as colonel; served as a member of the Confederate Congress in 1862, and was brevetted brigadier-general in 1863. Became a resident of New York City in 1865 and engaged in the practice of law. Judge of the Court of Common Pleas, 1890-5; Supreme Court Justice since 1896; term expires Dec. 31, 1905. Member Manhattan and Colonial Clubs, Southern Society and Sons of the Revolution.

PRYOR, ROGER ATKINSON, JR.—Lawyer, 16 Exchange place, New York City; residence New York Club. Member Manhattan, New York and Colonial Clubs and Sons of the American Revolution.

PUGSLEY, CORNELIUS A MORY—Banker, Peekskill; residence Peekskill, and 12 West 122d street, New York City. Born in Peekskill, July 17, 1850. Educated in Peekskill. (Married.) President Westchester County National Bank; treasurer and trustee The Field Home, Yorktown, N. Y., and Peekskill Military Academy; secretary The Fowler Co. of Waterloo, Iowa. Member Harlem and Patria Clubs, New England and Empire State Societies, Sons of the American Revolution and Chamber of Commerce.

PULITZER, JOSEPH—Journalist, 63 Park row, New York City; residence 10 East 55th street. Born in Budapest, Hungary, April 10, 1847. Educated by private tutors. Became resident of the United States in 1864 and served until the end of the Civil War with a cavalry regiment. Became interested in newspaper work in 1868; bought the St. Louis "Dispatch" in 1878 and united it with "The Evening Post" as the "Post-Dispatch," which he still owns. Served as a member of the Missouri Legislature in 1869 and as a member of the Missouri Constitutional Convention of 1874. Became proprietor of the New York "World" in 1883. Was elected to Congress for term, 1885-7, but resigned after a few months' service. President and director Paper World Co.; president and trustee Press Publishing Co. Member Manhattan, Press, American Yacht and Reform Clubs.

PULLEN, EUGENE H.—Banker, 2 Wall street, New York City; residence 1227 Dean street, Brooklyn. Born in Baltimore, Md., March 30, 1833. Educated in Baltimore. (Married.) Connected with the Bank of the Republic since 1861; assistant cashier, 1874; cashier, 1879, and vice-president, 1892. Formerly president and chairman executive committee of the American Bankers' Association.

PULLICH, OTTO—Real Estate and Insurance, 179 Columbus avenue, New York City; residence 136 West 111th street. Born in Germany, March 9, 1853. Educated in Germany. (Married.) Director Randolph

Water Co. Member Society of Ethical Culture and of several German athletic, singing and benevolent societies.

PULSIFER, WILLIAM E.—Publisher, 93 Fifth avenue, New York City; residence Bedford avenue and Dean street, Brooklyn. Member New York Club, Union League Club of Brooklyn, Aldine Association (secretary and director), and Metropolitan Museum of Art.

PULTZ, MONROE T.—Physician, Stanfordville. Born in Rhinebeck, N. Y., July 17, 1843. Educated at Rhinebeck Academy, at Union College and at College of Physicians and Surgeons of the City of New York (M.D.). (Married.) Member Union College Alumni, New York State Medical and American Medical Associations and Dutchess County Medical Society.

PUMPELLY, JOSIAH COLLINS—Secretary, 12 East 23d street, New York City; residence 257 West 85th street. Born in Owego, Tioga County, N. Y., Aug. 16, 1839. Educated at Rutgers College and Columbia Law School; degrees of A.M. and LL.B. (Married.) Secretary City Improvement Society. Member Union League and West Side Republican Clubs, Huguenot Society of America, West End, George Washington Memorial (charter member), Columbia University Alumni, Rutgers College Alumni and Sunday Closing Associations, Christian Workmen's Institute (executive board), Patriotic League and Sons of the American Revolution.

PUNDERFORD, JAMES A.—Merchant, 56 Pine street, New York City; residence 127 West 70th street. Born in New Haven, Conn., June 14, 1834. Educated at General Russell's Institute, New Haven, Conn., and College Hill, Poughkeepsie, N. Y. (Married.) Member of the firm of Punderford & Co. President Colonial Club, 1893-5. Member Colonial and National Arts Clubs, Down Town Association and Chamber of Commerce.

PUPIN, MICHAEL J.—Professor, 116th street and Morningside Heights, New York City; residence Yonkers. Educated at Columbia ('83). Degree of Ph.D. Adjunct professor of mechanics at Columbia University in the City of New York. Member Lawyers' and University Clubs, Scientific Alliance and Columbia University Alumni Association.

PURCELL, JOHN P.—Horseshoer, 60 Harrison street, New York City; residence New Dorp, S. I. Born on Staten Island, Sept. 3, 1855. Educated in public schools. (Married.) Was president of National Association of Master Horseshoers for three years. Now secretary and director New York Horseshoers' Supply Co. Member Knights of Columbus, A. O. U. W. and National Association of Master Horseshoers.

PURCELL, WILLIAM—Journalist, Rochester. Born in Fort Covington, Franklin County, N. Y., Aug. 15, 1830. Educated in common schools. Became associate editor in 1854 and editor-in-chief in 1864 of the "Union and Advertiser." Member of the Rochester Board of Education, 1852-3, and of the Board of Public Works, 1872-3. Was delegate to the Democratic National Conventions of 1872, 1876 and 1884, and was chairman of the New York State Democratic Committee, 1877-8. Member New York State Board of Mediation and Arbitration since 1886.

PURDY, ALFRED E. M.—Physician, 304 Madison avenue, New York City. Born in New York City. Educated at Columbia. Formerly consulting physician to Methodist Episcopal Hospital. Member Union League, Lambs', Morris County (N. J.) Golf, Baltusrol Golf and Somerset Hills Country Clubs.

PURDY, CORYDON TYLER—Civil Engineer, 78 Fifth avenue, New York City; residence Upper Montclair, N. J. Born in Wisconsin. Educated at the University of Wisconsin. (Married.) Member of the firm of Purdy & Henderson. Member Engineers' Club, American Society of Civil Engineers and Western Society of Civil Engineers.

PURDY, J. HARSEN—13 William street, New York City; residence 14 East 38th street. Born in New York City, Oct. 28, 1844. Educated in New York City. (Single.) Member Union League, Grolier and Union Clubs, Century and Down Town Associations, Dunlap and St. Nicholas Societies, Society of Iconophiles, Colonial Order and Metropolitan Museum of Art.

PURDY, JOHN HENRY—Lawyer, 140 Nassau street, New York City; residence 121 Madison avenue. Educated at Columbia ('75). Member of the firm of W. M. & J. H. Purdy. Member University, St. Anthony, New York Yacht, Grolier and Metropolitan Clubs and Columbia University Alumni Association.

PURDY, LAWSON—Lawyer, 111 Broadway, New York City; residence 220 Central Park, South. Born in Hyde Park, N. Y., 1863. Educated at St. Paul's (N. H.) School, Trinity College and New York Law School. (Married.) Vice-president New York Bank Note Co.; secretary New York Tax Reform Association. Member Manhattan Single Tax Club and Trinity College Alumni Association.

PURDY, RANDOLPH F.—Banker, 25 Broad street, New York City; residence 304 Madison avenue. Born in New York City. Educated at Columbia Grammar School and College of the City of New York. (Single.) Member of the New York Stock Exchange firm of Stout & Co. Director Washington Life Insurance Co. Member Union League, Luncheon, Somerset Hills Country and Chi Phi Clubs and Seventh Regiment Veteran Association.

PURDY, WARREN G.—Capitalist, 13 William street, New York City; residence 4811 Lake avenue, Chicago, Ill. Born in Baltimore, Md., May 20, 1843. Educated in Baltimore. (Married.) President and director Chicago, Rock Island and Pacific Ry. Co.; president Keokuk and Des Moines Ry. Co.; treasurer Des Moines and Fort Dodge R. R.; director Burlington, Cedar Rapids and Northern Ry. Co. Member Union League, Kenwood and Midlothian County Clubs, all of Chicago, Ill.

PURDY, WILLIAM McNEVIN—Lawyer, 140 Nassau street, New York City; residence 32 West 63d street. Educated at Columbia ('69). Member of the firm of W. M. & J. H. Purdy. Member University Club, St. Nicholas Society, Association of the Bar of the City of New York, Columbia University Alumni and Down Town Associations and American Museum of Natural History.

PURPLE, SAMUEL SMITH—Physician, 36 West 22d street, New York City. Born in Lebanon, Madison Co., N. Y., June 24, 1822. Educated in common schools and in the Medical Department of New York University (M.D., '44). Author of several medical and surgical works. Member New York Academy of Medicine (ex-president) and other medical organizations.

PURRINGTON, WILLIAM A.—Lawyer, 59 Wall street, New York City; residence 54 West 12th street. Born in Washington, D. C., 1852. Educated in private schools, at Harvard University ('73), at Columbia University and at University of the City of New York Law School. (Married.) Was consular clerk at Rome, and secretary of American Legation at Rio de Janeiro. Lecturer in University and Bellevue Hospital Medical College and New York College of Dentistry. Member University, Harvard, National Arts and Lawyers' Clubs, Association of the Bar of the City of New York, and Society of Medical Jurisprudence.

PUTNAM, CHARLES RUSSELL LOWELL—Physician and Instructor, 114 East 36th street, New York City. Educated at Harvard ('91). Degrees of A.B. and M.D. Instructor in operative surgery, Cornell University Medical College, New York City. Member Harvard and University Clubs.

PUTNAM, EDGAR P.—347 East Fourth street, Jamestown; residence Jamestown. Born in Stockton, Chautauqua Co., N. Y., May 4, 1844. Educated in common and private schools. (Married.) Was captain and brevet-major in United States Army, United States surveyor, clerk of Chautauqua County, postmaster of Jamestown, and chairman of Republican County Committee. Now director Chautauqua County Trust Co. Member Army and Navy Club and Loyal Legion of New York City, Medal of Honor Legion of the United States, Washington, D. C., Veteran Legion of the United States, and G. A. R. of Jamestown.

PUTNAM, EDWARD D.—Stock Broker, 6 Elwood Building, Rochester; residence 21 Selye terrace. Born in Albany, N. Y., Dec. 25, 1858. Educated at Erie (Pa.) Grammar School. (Married.) Was quartermaster-sergeant of Buffalo Cadets, and secretary Rochester Chapter, Sons of the American Revolution. Member Sons of the American Revolution, Historical Society of Rochester, Rochester Whist Club, Lake View Wheelmen and Yonondis Lodge, F. & A. M., Hamilton Chapter.

PUTNAM, GEORGE HAVEN—Publisher, 27 West 23d street, New York City; residence 245 West 75th street. Born in London, England, April 2, 1844. (Son of George P. Putnam.) Educated at Columbia College and at the Universities of Göttingen and Paris. Degrees of A.M. from Bowdoin College and Litt.D. from Western University of Pennsylvania. (Married.) President and director of G. P. Putnam's Sons of New York and London. Served with 176th Regiment, New York Volunteers, during Civil War and advanced to the rank of adjutant and brevet-major. Was instrumental in reorganizing the Publishers' Copyright League in 1887 and served for a time as its secretary. Received Cross of the Legion of Honor from France in 1891 for services rendered to literature and art. Author of many works. Member City, Reform and Authors' Clubs, Savile Club of London, England, Century Association and Military Order of the Loyal Legion.

PUTNAM, GEORGE L.—Wholesale Dry Goods Merchant, 376 Broadway, New York City; residence 179 Madison avenue. Born in Ontario County, N. Y., March, 1844. (Married.) Member of the firm of Sweetser, Pembroke & Co. Member Merchants' Club, Chamber of Commerce, American Museum of Natural History, American Geographical Society, St. John's Guild, Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Children and Metropolitan Museum of Art.

PUTNAM, HARRINGTON—Lawyer, 45 William street, New York City; residence 404 Washington avenue, Brooklyn. Born in Shrewsbury, Mass., June 29, 1851. Educated at Colby University, Waterville, Me., and Columbia Law School. (Single.) Member of the firm of Cowen, Wing, Putnam & Burlingham. Member Reform Club, Hamilton Club of Brooklyn, Down Town Association and Association of the Bar of the City of New York.

PUTNAM, HARVEY W. (Lieutenant)—Lawyer, 21 White Building, Buffalo. Member Army and Navy Club of New York City, and Saturn Club.

PUTNAM, HENRY W.—Hardware Merchant, 108 Chambers street, New York City; residence 15 East 48th street. Director Brooklyn Elevated R. R. Co.; Chicago, Peoria and St. Louis R. R. Co. of Illinois, Standard Trust Co. and Columbus, Sandusky and Hocking R. R. Co. Member New York Athletic, Union League, Larchmont Yacht and Hardware Clubs.

PUTNAM, IRVING—Publisher, 27 West 23d street, New York City; residence 306 West 77th street. Secretary and director G. P. Putnam's Sons; director Knickerbocker Press. Member Reform, New York Athletic, Barnard and Colonial Clubs and Metropolitan Museum of Art.

PUTNAM, J. BISHOP—Publisher, 27 West 23d street, New York City; residence Harrison. President and director Knickerbocker Press; treasurer and director G. P. Putnam's Sons. Member Union League, Reform, American Yacht and Barnard Clubs and New England Society.

PUTNAM, JAMES OSBORNE—Lawyer, Buffalo. Born in Attica, N. Y., July 4, 1818. (Son of Harvey and Myra [Osborne] Putnam.) Educated at Hamilton and Yale. (Widower.) Practicing law in Buffalo since 1842. State senator, 1854-5; unsuccessful candidate for secretary of state of New York, 1857; consul at Havre, France, 1861-5; United States Minister to Belgium, 1880-2. Chancellor of the University of Buffalo. Member University and Saturn Clubs and Alpha Delta Phi Fraternity.

PUTNAM, ROBERT MYERS SHOEMAKER—Lawyer, 31 Nassau street, New York City; residence 148 West 34th street. Educated at Cornell ('91). (Married.) Member St. Nicholas and Zeta Psi Clubs, Albany Society of New York, and Association of the Bar of the City of New York.

PUTNAM, TARRANT—Lawyer, 41 Park row, New York City; residence Shelter Island. Member Manhattan, Calumet, New York Yacht and Larchmont Yacht Clubs and Association of the Bar of the City of New York.

PUTNAM, WILLIAM A.—Broker, 2 Wall street, New York City; residence 70 Willow street, Brooklyn. Member of the firm of Homans & Co., and of the New York Stock Exchange. Member Crescent Athletic and Hamilton Clubs of Brooklyn.

PUTNEY, WILLIAM B.—Lawyer, 115 Broadway, New York City; residence 110 West 73d street. Educated at Williams College. Member of the firm of Putney & Bishop. Director Livonia and Lake Conesus R. R. Co., Livonia Salt and Mining Co., National Broadway Bank, Retsof Mining Co. and Utica Belt Line Street R. R. Co. Member Colonial, Lawyers', Twilight and Phi Beta Kappa Clubs, New England Society, Association of the Bar of the City of New York, American Museum of Natural History, Williams College Alumni Association and Metropolitan Museum of Art.

PUTZEL, GIBSON—Lawyer, 261 Broadway, New York City; residence 13 East 57th street. Born in Easton, Pa., Jan. 14, 1857. Educated at the College of the City of New York ('75) and Columbia Law School ('77). Member of the firm of Rose & Putzel. Member Manhattan, Democratic, Century Country and Arts Clubs and Association of the Bar of the City of New York.

PYATT, RUNYON—Wholesale Drug and Chemical Merchant, 80 Maiden lane, New York City; residence Sherman Square Hotel. Born in New York City.

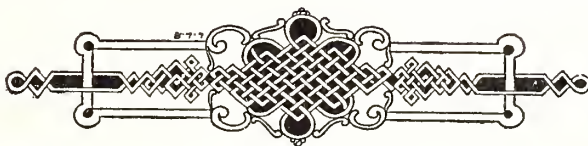

(Married.) Member of the firm of Rogers & Pyatt. Member Colonial, Fulton, West Side Republican and Atlantic Yacht Clubs.

PYCOTT, T. S.—Protestant Episcopalian Clergyman, Great River, Suffolk County. Born in Portland, Me., Sept. 20, 1832. Educated in Portland, Boston, Mass., and in Minnesota. (Widower.) Presbyter of the Protestant Episcopal Church. Was rector of St. John's Church, Brooklyn, N. Y., for fourteen years; formerly member of the committee on Church Charity Foundation, and of the committee on Sunday School, Diocese of Long Island. Member Montauk and Clerical Clubs of Brooklyn, and Brooklyn Clerical League.

PYLE, JAMES TOLMAN—Manufacturer, 436 Greenwich street, New York City; residence 673 Fifth avenue. Born in New York City. (Married.) Member of the firm of James Pyle & Sons. Member Metropolitan, Grolier, Larchmont Yacht, Lawyers', Riding, Wool, New York Athletic and Morristown (N. J.) Clubs and American Museum of Natural History.

PYLE, WILLIAM S.—Manufacturer, 436 Greenwich street, New York City; residence 3 East 53d street. Member of the firm of James Pyle & Sons. Member Union League, New York Athletic, Lawyers', Riding and Wool Clubs.

PYNE, PERCY RIVINGTON—Real Estate, 55 Liberty street, New York City; residence Tuxedo. Educated at Princeton ('78). Director Mexican Telegraph Co. Member City, Calumet, Knickerbocker, Seawanhaka-Corinthian Yacht, University, Tuxedo, Princeton and Racquet and Tennis Clubs, Country Club of Westchester, Ardsley Casino of Ardsley-on-Hudson, Down Town Association and Metropolitan Museum of Art.

QUACKENBOS, JOHN DUNCAN—Physician, Lecturer and Author, 116th street and Morningside Heights, New York City; residence 331 West 28th street. Born in New York City, April 22, 1848. Educated at Columbia University and College of Physicians and Surgeons. (Married.) Until recently professor of rhetoric at Columbia University and at Barnard College for Women. Author of over twenty standard works, among the most important being "Tuberculosis; Its Prevalence, Communicability and Prevention;" "Typhoid; Its Causes, Prevention and Treatment;" "Causes and Recent Treatment of Neurasthenia," "Conventional, Fraudulent and Accidental Adulterations in Food Stuffs, Medicines and Articles of Wear;" "The Educational and Reformatory Possibilities of Hypnotism," and "Post-Hypnotic Suggestion in the Treatment of Sexual Perversions and Moral Anesthesia." Member New York Academy of Medicine, New Hampshire Medical Society, New York Academy of Sciences and Columbia University Alumni Association.

QUACKENBUSH, DANIEL McLAREN—Clergyman, Park avenue and 89th street, New York City; residence 3 East 94th street. Born in New York City, March 9, 1819. Educated at Columbia (A.B., '38) and at the Theological Seminary at New Brunswick, N. J. (D.D., '42). (Married) Adrianna Suydam, 1842; deceased, 1850.) Rector of the Prospect Hill Dutch Reformed Church in New York City since 1861. Member Columbia University Alumni Association.

QUACKENBUSH, JOHN—Lawyer, Custom House, New York City; residence Mahwah, N. J. Born in Oakland, Bergen Co., N. J., Oct. 1, 1827. Educated by private tutors, in common schools and academies and at New York University Law School. Was appointed chief clerk in police court, 1854; was elected police justice in 1857; served six years and was president of the board for the whole term; was appointed clerk in the New York Custom House in 1865; and is now deputy collector of the Second Division of the Port and District of New York. Member Holland Society.

QUACKENBUSH, SCHUYLER—Banker and Broker, 18 Wall street, New York City; residence 142 West 57th street. Member of the New York Stock Exchange. Member Union League, New York Athletic, Metropolitan, Larchmont Yacht and Barnard Clubs and Holland Society.

QUANZ, A. J.—Importer, 484 Broome street, New York City; residence 67 Macon street, Brooklyn. Born in New York City, 1865. Educated at College of the City of New York. (Married.) Member Merchants' Central Club.

QUARRIER, ARCHIE M.—Capitalist, 120 Broadway, New York City; residence 809 Madison avenue. Born in Ravenswood, W. Va., Aug. 22, 1841. (Widower.) Vice-president, treasurer and director American Pig Iron Storage Warrant Co.; vice-president and director Henderson Bridge Co. and Nashville, Florence and Sheffield Ry. Co.; second vice-president Louisville and Nashville R. R. Co. Member New York Athletic and Lawyers' Clubs and Southern Society.

QUEREAU, EDMUND CHASE—Professor, Syracuse University, Syracuse. Born in Aurora, Ill., March 18, 1868. Educated in public schools, at Jennings Seminary, Northwestern University (Ph.B., '88, and Ph.M., '92), and at the University of Freiburg, Germany (Ph.D.). (Single.) Instructor in geology at the University of Chicago, 1893-5. Professor of geology at Syracuse University since 1895, and author of numerous papers on that subject. Fellow Geological Society of America and member of various scientific bodies.

QUEREAU, LOUIS L.—Dry Goods Merchant, 51 Leonard street, New York City; residence 478 Greene avenue, Brooklyn. Born in Brooklyn, March 6, 1853. Educated at Brooklyn Polytechnic Institute. (Single.) Connected with the firm of Finch, Van Slyck, Young & Co. of St. Paul, Minn., and Syracuse (N. Y.) Dry Goods Co. Member Arkwright Club, and Crescent Athletic Club of Brooklyn.

QUIGG, LEMUEL ELY—Journalist, 210 West 70th street, New York City. Born in Cecil County, Md., Feb. 12, 1863. Educated in public schools. Was on editorial staff of the New York "Tribune" for many years and later editor-in-chief of the New York "Press." Represented the Fourteenth District in Congress, 1893-9. Chairman of the New York County Republican Committee, 1896-7. Member Republican, City, Colonial and Hardware Clubs and Authors' Society.

QUIGLEY, JAMES E.—Roman Catholic Bishop, Buffalo. Born in Oshawa, Canada, Oct. 15, 1854. Educated at St. Joseph's College, Seminary of Our Lady of Angels at Niagara Falls, University of Innsbruck in Austria, and at Rome, Italy. Was ordained priest in 1879 and served as pastor of St. Vincent's Church at Attica, N. Y., until 1884. Was stationed at St. Joseph's Cathedral in Buffalo until 1897, in which year he was consecrated Bishop.

QUIGLEY, JAMES M.—Broker, 51 Wall street, New York City; residence Union Club. Director Consolidated Coal Co. of Maryland. Member Union and Calumet Clubs and Down Town Association.

QUIMBY, CHARLES E.—Physician, 44 West 36th street, New York City. Educated at Dartmouth College ('74). Member Alpha Delta Phi and University Clubs, New England Society and Dartmouth College Alumni Association.

QUIMBY, DAVID S.—Auditor, City Hall, New York City; residence 123 Ashland place, Brooklyn. Born in Brooklyn, July 23, 1838. Educated in Brooklyn. (Married.) Deputy auditor of New York City. Was supervisor Third Ward of Brooklyn, 1876-7, and deputy city auditor of Brooklyn, 1895-7. Member Union League and Crescent Athletic Clubs of Brooklyn, and Stella Lodge No. 485, F. & A. M.

QUINBY, FRANK H.—Architect, 99 Nassau street, New York City; residence 76 Hanson place, Brooklyn. Born in Armonk, N. Y., Nov. 24, 1868. Educated at Chappaqua Institute. Member Sketch Club, American Institute of Architects (Fellow), Brooklyn Institute of Arts and Sciences, Underhill Society of America and Society of Friends.

QUINBY, FRANKLIN—Merchant, 114 Produce Exchange, New York City; residence 903 Park place, Brooklyn. Born in Brooklyn, May 3, 1844. Educated in Brooklyn. (Married.) Member of the firm of Rice, Quinby & Co. Director Seaboard National Bank. For several years a member of arbitration committee of the New York Produce Exchange and vestryman St. James Protestant Episcopal Church, Brooklyn. Member Oxford (ex-director) and Church Clubs of Brooklyn, and Chamber of Commerce.

QUINBY, HENRY C.—Lawyer, 44 Cedar street, New York City; residence 42 West 15th street. Born in Laconia, N. H. Educated at Harvard (A.B.) and Harvard Law School (LL.B.). (Married.) Treasurer National Wheel and Traction Co.; director Munger Vehicle Tire Co. Member Harvard, Union League, Collectors' and Amateur Comedy Clubs, Mayflower, New England and New England Historic-Genealogical Societies and Association of the Bar of the City of New York.

QUINBY, JOSEPH R.—Dry Goods Merchant, 70 Worth street, New York City; residence 35 West 75th street. Member Merchants', Colonial and Reform Clubs.

QUINCY, CHARLES F.—Manufacturer, 700 Western Union Building, Chicago, Ill., and 106 Liberty street, New York City; residence 412 North State street, Chicago. Born in Newton, Mass., July 16, 1856. (Married.) President and treasurer Q. and C. Co. President Technical Club of Chicago and vice-president for Illinois of the National Association of Manufacturers. Member Lawyers' and Engineers' Clubs, American Society of Civil Engineers and New York Genealogical Society of New York City, St. Andrew's Club of Yonkers, N. Y., Harrisburg Club of Harrisburg, Pa., and Chicago, Technical, Chicago Athletic, Washington Park, Glenview Golf and Polo, and Marquette Clubs, Western Society of Engineers, Society of Mayflower Descendants, Society of Colonial Wars, Sons of the Revolution, Sons of the American Revolution, Founders and Patriots of America and Massachusetts Society, all of Chicago.

QUINLAN, FRANCIS J.—Physician, 33 West 38th street, New York City. Born in New York City, Dec. 24, 1852. Educated at St. Francis Xavier College. (Married.) Throat, nose and ear surgeon to City and St. Vincent's Hospitals. Formerly surgeon United States Indian service, and associate professor of nose and throat diseases, New York Polyclinic. Member Players', Catholic, Lambs', Manhattan and Knickerbocker Clubs.

QUINLAN, JAMES—Banker, 246 Sixth avenue, New York City; residence 331 Washington avenue, Brooklyn, Treasurer Greenwich Savings Bank.

QUINLAN, WILLIAM J., JR.—270 Broadway, New York City; residence 186 South Oxford street, Brooklyn. Born in New York City, Feb. 2, 1845. Educated at Brooklyn Polytechnic Institute. (Married.) Director Texas Midland R. R. Co. Member Metropolitan Museum of Art.

QUINLIN, LEONARD G.—Broker, 66 Broadway, New York City; residence 18 East 24th street. Senior member of the firm of L. G. Quinlin & Co. Member New York Athletic Club and American Geographical and Southern Societies.

QUINN, LAWRENCE H.—Liquor Dealer, 209 West 33d street, New York City; residence 206 East 68th street. Born in New York City, Oct. 15, 1854. Educated at Public Ward School No. 49. (Married.) Manager of the L. H. Quinn Branch of the American Distributing Co. Formerly manager for Thomas B. Kerr and distributor of the Distilling and Cattle Feeding Co.

Member Catholic, Pequod and Hoboken Turtle Clubs, Knights of Columbus, Catholic Benevolent Legion, Order of Elks and Tatian Literary Union.

QUINN, PATRICK H.—Commissioner, 37 Municipal Building, Brooklyn; residence 84 Hoyt street. Born in Ireland, 1853. Educated in the public schools of Brooklyn. Was employed for a time in the dry goods house of Journeay & Burnham; embarked in the wholesale fish and oyster trade, in which he continued until his appointment as deputy street cleaning commissioner of the City of New York for the Borough of Brooklyn, in 1898, which position he now holds. Has been a delegate to several Democratic State Conventions and is now the executive member from the First Assembly District to the Democratic Executive Committee. Member Constitution Club, Third Ward Democratic Association, Royal Arcanum and Knights of Columbus.

QUINN, WILLIAM F.—Lawyer, 335 Broadway, New York City; residence 229 West 45th street. Member New York Athletic and Catholic Clubs and Association of the Bar of the City of New York.

QUINTARD, GEORGE W.—Capitalist, 66 Broadway, New York City; residence Portchester. President and director Batopilas Mining Co.; vice-president and director Ann Arbor R. R. Co., Eleventh Ward Bank and Union Ferry Co. of Brooklyn and New York; first vice-president and director Pennsylvania Coal Co.; director Chauncey Realty Co., Erie R. R. Co., Island R. R. Co., German-American Real Estate Title Guarantee Co., Leather Manufacturers' National Bank and Manhattan Life Insurance Co.; trustee Atlantic Mutual Insurance Co., Colonial Trust Co., Manhattan Savings Institution and State Trust Co. Member American Yacht, New York Yacht, Lawyers' and Metropolitan Clubs, New England Society and Metropolitan Museum of Art.

QUINTARD, JAMES W.—Stock Broker, 80 Broadway, New York City; residence Portchester. Member Republican, New York Athletic, American Yacht, Church and Suburban Riding and Driving Club and Metropolitan Museum of Art.

QUINTARD, WILLIAM I.—Broker, 27 Pine street, and Storage, 2300 Eighth avenue, New York City; residence 160 Central Park, South. Director Washington Storage Warehouse and Van Co. Member Union League and St. Nicholas Clubs and St. Nicholas Society.

R

RABE, RUDOLPH FREDERICK—Lawyer, 243 Broadway, New York City; residence 1022 Bloomfield street, Hoboken, N. J. Born in Ottendorf, Hanover, Germany, Aug. 4, 1841. (Son of Charles L. Rabe.) Educated in public schools. Became a resident of New York City in 1857; studied law at Columbia College Law School and has practiced in New York City since his admission to the Bar in 1869. (Married Elizabeth, daughter of John Lusby of New York City, 1866.) Senior member of the firm of Rabe & Keller. Was for a time one of the proprietors of the "Hudson County (N. J.) Journal" and was for six years a member of the board of trustees of the Hoboken German Academy. Member of the New Jersey State Assembly, 1874-7, and State senator for Hudson County, 1880-2. Was a delegate to the National Democratic Convention of 1876. President and director since 1887, Second National Bank of Hoboken, N. J., of which he was one of the organizers.

RADLEY, IGNATIUS, JR.—Banker, 658 Eighth avenue, New York City; residence 344 West 46th street. Educated at St. Francis Xavier College. Teller Franklin Savings Bank. Member Rough Riding Club, Liederkranz, 7th Regiment, N. G. N. Y., and Xavier College Alumni Association.

RADWAY, JOHN S.—Physician, 55 Elm street, New York City; residence 151 West 72d street. Born in New York City, Feb. 17, 1858. Educated at New York University and College of Physicians and Surgeons. (Married.) Secretary and director Radway & Co. Member Knickerbocker Athletic and Delta Phi Clubs, and City and Powelton Field Clubs of Newburgh.

RAE, ROBERT—Secretary, 186 Remsen street, Brooklyn; residence 164 Monroe street. Born in New York City, Feb. 14, 1853. Educated in Public School No. 35 of New York City, and at College of the City of New York. (Married.) Commenced business in New York as office boy and was advanced until he became a member of the firm of William N. Brodie & Co.; secretary and treasurer Lake City Cotton Ginning Co., 1883, at Lake City, Fla.; was resident manager and buyer for the J. & P. Coats Spool Cotton interests there. Now secretary and director Long Island Title Guarantee Co.; director New Utrecht Improvement Co. Member Aurora Grata Lodge No. 756, F. & A. M., past regent and deputy grand regent Royal Arcanum, and past commander Knights of St. John and Malta.

RAE, WILLIAM P.—Real Estate, 203 Montague street, Brooklyn. Born in New York City, Jan. 10, 1861. Educated in public schools. (Married.) Was vice-president Long Island Title Guarantee Co. and president Company "G," 13th Regiment Veteran Association, N. G. N. Y. Now president William P. Rae Co. and New Utrecht Improvement Co.; secretary and manager Norton Point Land Co.; secretary and treasurer Sea Gate Improvement Co. Member Union League, Crescent Athletic, Atlantic Yacht and Invincible Clubs.

RAEFLE, MAXIMILIAN G.—Physician and Surgeon, 115 East 19th street, New York City. Born in Germany, Sept. 9, 1836. Educated at Augsburg (Germany) Gymnasium and Humboldt Medical College, St. Louis, Mo. (Married.) Served in medical corps of United States Navy for four years during the Civil War; physician to Board of Coroners of New York City for ten years. Now medical examiner Metropolitan Life Insurance Co.; controlling physician of Prudential League and medical examiner of Lithographia. Member Military Order of the Loyal Legion, Lafayette Post G. A. R., and Masonic orders.

RAEGENER, LOUIS CHRISTIAN—Lawyer, 290 Broadway, New York City; residence 909 President street, Brooklyn. Born in New York City, April 29, 1856. (Son of Rev. Hermann and Dorothea [von Randohr] Raegener.) Educated in public schools and at Columbia (A.B., '76, A.M., '78, and LL.B., '78). (Married.) Member of the firm of Goepel & Raegener. Counsel to the Venezuelan Government and to many important corporations. Received the decoration of Busto del Libertador from Venezuela for meritorious services rendered. Secretary and director Hotel Savoy Co.; director Union Square Bank. Member Democratic Club, Society of Medical Jurisprudence, Phi Beta Kappa Society and Association of the Bar of the City of New York.

RAFFORD, E. C.—Insurance, 150 Nassau street, New York City; residence 404 Cumberland street, Brooklyn. Born in Brooklyn, May 11, 1855. (Married.) Supreme secretary National Benevolent Legion. Member Covenant Mutual Life Association and Independent Order of Odd Fellows.

RAHT, CHARLES—Metals, 56 Pine street, New York City; residence 231 West 44th street. Director New River Mining Co. Member New York, Lotos, Engineers' and Hardware Clubs, Adirondack League, Down Town Association and Metropolitan Museum of Art.

RAINSFORD, WILLIAM STEPHEN—Protestant Episcopalian Clergyman, 209 East 16th street, New York City. Born in Dublin, Ireland, Oct. 30, 1850. Educated at St. John's College, Cambridge, England ('72). Degree of D.D. (Married.) Curate of St. Giles, Norwich, England, 1873-6; assistant rector at St. James' Cathedral, Toronto, Canada, 1878-82. Rector of St. George's Church, New York City, since 1883. Member University, Players', Social Reform, City and Patria Clubs, Ardsley Casino of Ardsley-on-Hudson, Dunlap Society and Century Association.

RAMBAUT, THOMAS D.—Lawyer, 71 Broadway, New York City; residence Livingston, S. I. Born in Cartersville, Ga., Nov. 17, 1857. Educated at Brooklyn Polytechnic Institute ('77), Columbia ('81), Columbia Law School ('83) and School of Political Science (Ph.D., '84). (Married.) Member Alpha Delta Phi Club and Columbia Alumni Association.

RAMMELKAMP, CHARLES HENRY—Instructor, Cornell University, Ithaca; residence 132 Blair street. Degree of Ph.B. Instructor in American history at Cornell University.

RAMSAY, DICK S.—Banker, 100 William street, and Manufacturer, 247 Water street, New York City; residence Clarendon Hotel, Brooklyn. President and director Hide and Leather National Bank; treasurer and director Ely & Ramsay Co.; trustee East River Savings Institution and Kings County Trust Co. Member Montauk and Hamilton Clubs of Brooklyn, and Metropolitan Museum of Art.

RAMSDELL, E. BENJAMIN—Physician, 581 Lexington avenue, New York City. Born in New York City, Aug. 4, 1856. Educated at the College of the City of New York and New York University Medical College (M.D.). (Married.) Medical officer of the New York Fire Department. Was United States examining surgeon for pensions. Member Craftsman's Club, Society of Medical Jurisprudence and New York County Medical Society.

RAMSDELL, HENRY POWELL—Transportation, Pier 24, North River, New York City; residence 432 Fifth avenue. Vice-president and director Homer Ramsdell Transportation Co. Member Union League, Riding and Hardware Clubs, Aldine Association and Liederkranz.

RAMSDELL, JAMES A. P.—Transportation, Front street, Newburgh; residence Hemlock Glen. Born in Newburgh, March 9, 1842. Educated in common schools. (Married.) Connected with the Homer Ramsdell Transportation Co. Proprietor Arab Stud Farm. Member Union League, Manhattan, Riding and Players' Clubs and Liederkranz.

RAMSEY, FRANK DE W.—Lieutenant, United States Army, Madison Barracks. Member Army and Navy Club of New York City, Sons of the Revolution and Military Order of the Loyal Legion.

RAMSPERGER, GUSTAV—Pharmacist, 115 West 68th street, New York City; residence 236 East 23d street. Born in Herrenberg, Germany, Dec. 13, 1824. Educated at the University of Tübingen. (Married.) Director Germania Fire Insurance Co. Honorary president (and one of the founders) of the Deutsche Apotheker Verein and vice-president College of Pharmacy. Member Torrey Botanical Club, American Pharmaceutical and New York State Pharmaceutical Associations and New York Botanical Gardens.

RAND, ADDISON C.—Manufacturer, 100 Broadway, New York City; residence 400 West End avenue. President and director Pneumatic Engineering Co. and Rand Drill Co.; secretary, treasurer and director Rendrock Powder Co.; treasurer and director Davis Calyx Drill Co.; director Ninth National Bank. Member Union League, Hardware, Engineers', Montclair (N. J.) and Colonial Clubs, New England Society, American Society of Civil Engineers, American Society of Mechanical Engineers and American Institute of Mining Engineers.

RAND, CHARLES F.—Iron Manufacturer, 26 Broadway, New York City; residence 347 West End avenue, and Orange, N. J. Born in Canaan, Me., Aug. 17, 1856. (Married.) Was financial officer of a railway company at Milwaukee, Wis., and later owner and manager of iron mines in Lake Superior iron district and in Cuba. Now president and director Spanish-American Iron Co. of Cuba. Member Seawanhaka-Corinthian Yacht and Colonial Clubs, Union and Roadside Clubs of Cleveland, Milwaukee (Wis.) Club, Essex County Country Club of Orange, and Down Town Association.

RAND, GEORGE C.—Coffee Importer, 107 Wall street, New York City; residence Lawrence, L. I. Member of the firm of Hard & Rand. Director North British and Mercantile Insurance Co. of London and Edinburgh. Member Metropolitan, New York Yacht, Reform and Rockaway Hunting Clubs, Lawrence (L. I.) Club, New England Society, Down Town Association and Sons of the Revolution.

RAND, JASPER RAYMOND—Manufacturer, 100 Broadway, New York City; residence Montclair, N. J. Born in Westfield, Mass., 1837. (Married.) Engaged in the manufacture of mining machinery in New York City since 1870. Has taken a prominent part in public affairs in Montclair and has been a member of the Town Council and of the Board of Freeholders. President and director Bank of Montclair, Rendrock Powder Co. and Davis Calyx Drill Co.; secretary and director Rand Drill Co.; treasurer and director Pneumatic Engineering Co. Member Hardware and Montclair (N. J.) Clubs, New England Society and American Society of Mechanical Engineers.

RAND, WILLIAM H., JR.—Lawyer, 11 William street, New York City; residence 124 East 37th street. Born in Chicago, Ill., Jan. 8, 1866. Educated at Exeter Academy, Harvard ('88), and Harvard Law School ('91). (Married.) Connected with the firm of Daly, Hoyt & Mason. Assistant corporation counsel, 1895-7. Member Harvard and University Clubs, Down Town Association and Association of the Bar of the City of New York.

RAND, WILLIAM WILBERFORCE—Clergyman and Editor, 150 Nassau street, New York City; residence Yonkers. Born in Gorham, Me., Dec. 8, 1816. (Son of Rev. Asa and Grata [Payson] Rand.) Educated at Boston Latin School, Bowdoin College ('41), and at Bangor Theological Seminary ('44). Received degree of D.D. from New York University in 1883. (Married) Marcella Scott Dunning.) Secretary American Tract Society and edits all its publications. Author of "Bible Dictionary."

RANDALL, FRANK ELDRIDGE—Lawyer, 45 Broadway, New York City; residence Lakeville, Conn. Educated at Harvard ('74). President and director Fort Wayne, Cincinnati and Louisville R. R. Co.; director Detroit, Toledo and Milwaukee R. R. Co. and Westchester County Realty Co. Member Harvard and University Clubs, Metropolitan Museum of Art and Association of the Bar of the City of New York.

RANDALL, GEORGE W.—Civil Engineer, 1123 Broadway, New York City; residence 669 St. Marks avenue, Brooklyn. Member Atlantic Yacht and Crescent Athletic Clubs of Brooklyn, and New York Athletic Club.

RANDALL, MALLINSON—Organist, 2067 Fifth avenue, New York City; residence 28 West 125th street. Born in London, England. Educated in London, Paris and Hanover. (Single.) Organist and choirmaster, St. Andrew's Church, Harlem, since 1891. Was organist and choirmaster at Rev. Stopford Brooke's church, London, 1885-90; St. Barnabas, Irvington, N. Y., 1890-1. Member Harlem and Clef Clubs; founder of American Guild of Organists.

RANDALL, SAMUEL H.—Lawyer, 239 Broadway, New York City; residence 170 West 81st street. Born in Boston, Mass., Sept. 22, 1836. Educated at Otis Grammar and English High Schools, Boston, Mass., and at Harvard Law School (LL.B., '59). (Married.) Medico-Legal Society and Harvard Law Alumni Association.

RANDALL, STEPHEN M.—Contractor and Builder, 1125 Broadway, New York City; residence 669 St. Marks avenue, Brooklyn. Born on Long Island, 1843. Educated in Long Island. (Married.) Director Seventeenth Ward Bank of Brooklyn and Young Men's Christian Association; trustee East Brooklyn Savings Bank, and executive member Brooklyn Church Society. Member Manufacturers' Association.

RANDALL, T. HENRY—Architect, 51 Madison avenue, New York City; residence Madison Square Garden Tower. Born in Annapolis, Md., July 5, 1862. Educated at St. John's College ('82), Johns Hopkins University and Massachusetts Institute of Technology ('84). (Single.) Studied architecture with H. H. Richardson of Brookline, Mass., 1884-6, and with McKim, Mead & White, 1888-9. Member Church, Calumet and Reform Clubs, Architectural League and American Institute of Architects.

RANDALL, WILLIAM B.—Banker, 66 Broadway, New York City; residence Pelham Manor. Born in South Lee, Berkshire Co., Mass., Oct. 2, 1859. Educated at Prospect School, Bridgeport, Conn. (Married.) Trust officer Knickerbocker Trust Co. Treasurer Southern States Lumber Co.; treasurer and director Gorham Coal Co.; secretary and director Laguna Valley Co., and Hampton Roads Hotel Co.; secretary Ash-tabula Water Co.; director Suburban Land Improvement Co.; trustee village of Pelham Manor. Member National Arts Club.

RANDOLPH, EDMUND—Stock Broker, 7 Nassau street, New York City; residence Mount St. Vincent. Educated at Columbia ('83). Member of the firm of Edmund & Charles Randolph, and of the New York Stock Exchange. President and director Alabama Mineral Land Co.; director Continental National Bank, Liverpool and London and Globe Insurance Co. of England and New York, and Manhattan Trust Co.; trustee and chairman executive committee New York Life Insurance Co.; trustee New York Security and Trust Co. Member Union, University, Country, Racquet and Tennis, Turf and Field, Knickerbocker and New York Yacht Clubs and Columbia University Alumni Association.

RANDOLPH, JOHN C. F.—Mining Engineer, 35 Wall street and 15 Broad street, New York City; residence Morristown, N. J. Born in Trenton, N. J., December, 1846. Educated at Princeton (A.B., '66), at Columbia (E.M., '69), and at Göttingen and Vienna. (Single.) Has been at different times in the service of Japan, China, Republic of Colombia and the United States as engineer in charge of mining operations. Has general consulting practice in mining and metallurgy. Member University Club, Down Town Association and American Institute of Mining Engineers.

RANDOLPH, JOSEPH F.—Lawyer, 15 Broad street, New York City; residence Morristown, N. J. Born in Trenton, N. J., Dec. 4, 1843. Educated at Yale (A.B., '62), Columbia Law School (LL.B., '65), Göttingen University, Heidelberg and Ecole de Droit in Paris. (Widower.) Member of the firm of Randolph, Condict & Black, with an office also in Jersey City, N. J. Author of "Randolph on Commercial Paper" (3 vols.) and American editor of "Jarman on Wills" (3 vols.), and "Williams on Executors" (3 vols.). Member Lawyers' Club and Association of the Bar of the City of New York.

RANDOLPH, STUART F.—Lawyer, 31 Nassau street, New York City; residence 303 West 85th street. Member Church Club, Metropolitan Museum of Art and Association of the Bar of the City of New York.

RANDOLPH, WILLIAM F.—Stock Broker, 44 Broad street, New York City; residence 303 West 85th street. Born in Plainfield, N. J., April 14, 1847. Educated in New York City. (Single.) Member of the firm of Rodgers & Randolph, members of the New York Stock Exchange. Member Seawanhaka-Corinthian Yacht and New York Athletic Clubs and St. Nicholas Society.

RANDOLPH, WILSON G. H.—Clothier, 1245 Broadway, New York City; residence 239 Hancock street, Brooklyn. President and director Smith, Gray & Co. Member Union League Club, and Hamilton, Union League and Hanover Clubs of Brooklyn.

RANKIN, EGBERT GUERNSEY—Physician, 226 Central Park South, New York City. Born in Astoria, N. Y., July 19, 1856. Educated at Lockwood Academy, Brooklyn. Columbia ('76) and University Medical College ('79). Visiting physician Metropolitan Hospital, Department of Public Charities. Member St. Nicholas Club, Sons of the Revolution and Society of Colonial Wars.

RANKINE, HAROLD STURGES—Lawyer, 2 Tryon row, New York City; residence 44 West 44th street. Born in Geneva, N. Y., Oct. 20, 1871. Educated at Hobart (A.B., '92) and Columbia Law School. (Single.) Assistant corporation counsel City of New York. Member University and Democratic Clubs and Association of the Bar of the City of New York.

RANKINE, WILLIAM B.—Lawyer, 35 Wall street, New York City; residence 44 West 44th street, and Niagara. Born in Owego, N. Y., Jan. 4, 1858. Educated at Hobart College and at Union College ('77). (Single.) President Niagara Falls Water Works Co.; vice-president and director Vulcanized Fibre Co. of Wilmington, Del., and Niagara Falls-Clifton Suspension Bridge Co.; second vice-president, treasurer and director Niagara Falls Power Co., Niagara Junction Ry. Co. and Niagara Development Co.; secretary, treasurer and director Cataract Construction Co.; secretary and director Nikola Tesla Co.; director and member of executive committee Buffalo Ry. Co., Buffalo Traction Co., Buffalo and Niagara Falls Electric Ry. Co. and Buffalo and Lockport Ry. Co.; director Interstate Casualty Co. and Niagara Falls and Suspension Bridge Ry. Co. Member University, Metropolitan, Lawyers', Alpha Delta Phi and Church Clubs, Union Alumni Association and Association of the Bar of the City of New York.

RANNEY, AMBROSE LOOMIS—Physician, 345 Madison avenue, New York City. Born in Hardwick, Mass., June 10, 1848. Educated at Dartmouth College (A.B., '68, and A.M., '72) and in the Medical Department of New York University (M.D., '70). (Married.) Has held chairs of anatomy and nervous diseases in several colleges. Author of "Essentials of Anatomy," "Lectures on Nervous Diseases," "Electricity in Medicine" and other works of a similar nature. Member Union League, New York Yacht, New York Athletic and Rockaway Hunting Clubs and Dartmouth College Alumni Association.

RANSOM, PAUL C.—Lawyer, 137 Main street, Buffalo; residence 1298 Main street. Born in Earlville, N. Y., March 4, 1863. Educated at Williams College ('86), and at Harvard and Columbia Law Schools. (Single.) Member Country and Saturn Clubs, and Reform and University Clubs of New York City.

RANSOM, RASTUS S.—Lawyer, 290 Broadway, New York City; residence 338 West 77th street. Born in Mt. Hawley, Ill., March 31, 1839. Educated in Elmira, N. Y. (Married.) President Society of American Authors. Ex-surrogate of New York County. Member Patria, Lotos and Democratic Clubs, Old Guard, Military Order of the Loyal Legion, Lafayette Post, G. A. R., New England Society and Association of the Bar of the City of New York.

RAOUL-DUVAL, CHARLES—Wine Importer, 63 Pine street, New York City; residence France. Member of the firm of Raoul-Duval, Stevens & Hall. Member Lawyers', New York Yacht, Country and Racquet and Tennis Clubs.

RAPALLO, EDWARD SUMNER—Lawyer, 66 Broadway, New York City; residence 508 Fifth avenue. Born in Cambridge, Mass., Sept. 18, 1853. (Son of Charles A. Rapallo.) Educated in private schools, at Columbia ('74) and at Columbia Law School. (Married.) Practicing in New York City since his admission to the Bar in 1876. Director and counsel Manhattan Life Insurance Co.; trustee Manhattan Savings Institution. Member Manhattan, Whist, University, Delta Kappa Epsilon and Racquet and Tennis Clubs, Columbia Alumni and Century Associations, New York Law Institute and Association of the Bar of the City of New York.

RAPP, SAMUEL—Physician, 350 East 50th street, New York City. Born in New York City, May 15, 1855. Educated in city public schools and at Bellevue Hospital Medical College (M.D.). (Married.) Consulting physician Hebrew Infant Asylum; attending physician Orphanage of the Holy Trinity. Ex-coroner of Del Norte, Rio Grande Co., and ex-coroner of Hinsdale County, Colo. Member Physicians' Mutual Aid Association, German Aid, Medico-Legal, Metropolitan Medical and New York County Medical Societies and Society of Medical Jurisprudence.

RAPPARD, AUGUSTE—Importer of Embroideries, 41 Greene street, New York City; residence 48 Central Park, South. Member of the firm of A. Rappard & Co. Member Merchants' Central and Wool Clubs and Deutscher Verein.

RASCOVAR, JAMES—Publisher, 71 Broadway and 41 Broad street, New York City; residence 16 West 82d street. Born in Providence, R. I., Jan. 6, 1857. Educated in New York City public schools. (Married.) Connected with the New York News Bureau and with Albert Frank & Co. Member Lotos and Press Clubs, Mystic Shrine, Darcy Lodge, F. & A. M., Olympic Lodge, I. O. O. F., Deer Council, Royal Arcanum, and Benevolent and Protective Order of Elks.

RASINES, ANTONIO—President, 21 Park row, New York City; residence 102 West 75th street. Born in New York City, March 22, 1847. Educated at French Institute, New York City. (Married.) Formerly president Twelfth Ward Savings Bank and Canal Street Bank, vice-president Twelfth Ward Bank, and school trustee of Twelfth Ward for eleven years. Now president Commercial Co. of America; treasurer Columbia Publishing Co.; commissioner Bureau of Municipal Statistics. Member New York Athletic, Democratic, Harlem Democratic, Undine and Business Men's Democratic Clubs, Sons of the Revolution, and a thirty-second degree Mason.

RASMUSSEN, KROLL—Advertising, 18 Broadway, New York City; residence 74th street and Fort Hamilton avenue, Brooklyn. Born in Denmark, Sept. 30, 1855. Educated in Denmark. (Married.) Trustee A. F. Roderick & Co. (Inc.).

RASOR, PAUL E.—Fire Insurance, 71 William street, New York City. Born in Wadsworth, Ohio, 1853. United States manager of the Magdeburg Fire Insurance Co. since 1895. In 1873 was with the German-American Fire Insurance Co. of New York as assistant secretary.

RASQUIN, WILLIAM, JR.—Lawyer, 32 Nassau street, New York City; residence Flushing, L. I. Born in Philadelphia, Pa., Sept. 16, 1864. (Married.) Member Flushing Fishing and Flushing Boat Clubs, Perpalpa Chapter, Royal Arch Masons, Cornucopia Lodge, F. & A. M., Commonwealth Council, Royal Arcanum, and Oak Lodge, Knights of Pythias.

RATHBONE, JARED L.—Capitalist and Ex-Army Officer, San Francisco, Cal.; residence Union Club, New York City. Born in Albany, N. Y., 1844. (Son of Jared L. and Pauline Rathbone.) Educated at Phillips Andover Academy, Troy Polytechnic Institute, and at West Point Military Academy ('65). (Married Alexandra Atherton.) Served as aide-de-camp for many years on Lieutenant-General Schofield's staff; resigned from army in California. Was appointed by President Cleveland Consul-General of the United States at Paris in 1887 and served until 1891. Officer of the Legion of Honor of France. Has been an officer of Pacific Union, University, Jockey and Burlingame Country Clubs, Pony Racing Association, Horse Show, Veterinary College in San Francisco. Member Union Club and of clubs in Paris and London.

RATHBONE, JOHN FINLEY—Manufacturer, Albany. Born in Albany, Oct. 12, 1819. Educated at Albany Academy. Built a foundry at Albany in 1845 for the manufacture of stoves, which has become the largest of its kind in the world. Was brigadier-general commanding the 9th Brigade National Guard New York from 1861 to 1867, and was adjutant-general, with the rank of major-general, on the staff of Governor John A. Dix. Donated money for the building of the Rathbone Library at the University of Rochester and was one of the founders of the Albany Orphan Asylum. President Albany Rural Cemetery, Albany Academy, Mutual Fire Insurance Co. and Albany Orphan Asylum; also interested in many other financial and benevolent institutions.

RATHBONE, ROBERT C.—Insurance Broker, 27 Pine street, New York City; residence 118 West 130th street. President and director Assurance Co. of America; director Lafayette Fire Insurance Co., National Standard Insurance Co. and Nineteenth Ward Bank. Member Suburban Riding and Driving Club. Down Town Association and Lafayette Post, G. A. R.

RATHBORNE, CHARLES L.—Banker and Broker, 20 Broad street, New York City; residence 135 East 57th street. Born and educated in England. Member of the firm of C. L. Rathborne & Co., and of the New York Stock, New York Cotton, New York Produce and Liverpool Cotton Exchanges. Member Riding and Metropolitan Clubs, American Geographical Society and Metropolitan Museum of Art.

RAUTENBERG, THEODORE H.—Retail Millinery Merchant, 364 South Salina street, Syracuse; residence 123 Wood avenue. Born in Syracuse, March 10, 1865. Educated in Syracuse. (Married.) Member of the firm of Rautenberg & Co. Member Citizens' Club and Royal Arcanum.

RAVEN, ANTON A.—Insurance, 51 Wall street, New York City; residence 864 President street, Brooklyn. President and director Atlantic Mutual Insurance Co.; director Home Life Insurance Co. and Phenix National Bank; trustee Atlantic Trust Co. Member Montauk Club of Brooklyn, American Geographical Society and American Museum of Natural History.

RAWLINGS, CARROLL C.—Banker, 80 Broadway, New York City; residence 415 High street, West Hoboken, N. J. Assistant secretary Union Trust Co. Member Twilight Club, Society of Colonial Wars and Sons of the American Revolution.

RAWSON, ALBERT LEIGHTON—Artist and Author, 423 East 51st street, New York City; residence Woodcliff, N. J. Born in Chester, Vt., Oct. 15, 1829. Educated by private tutors at Black River Academy, Ludlow, Vt., and at Christ College, Oxford, England. (Married, first, Mary Dickinson; second, Cynthia Curtis; third, Emma Taylor, daughter of Laura Keene, the actress.) Studied law under William H. Seward, theology under Elder Graves, and medicine under Professor Webster of Massachusetts Medical College; made several visits to the Orient and a pilgrimage from Cairo to Mecca with the annual caravan, disguised as a Mohammedan medical student. Was adopted as a brother by the Bedouins of Moab and initiated by the Druses on Mount Lebanon. Has traveled in Yucatan and Hudson's Bay regions. Has painted portraits of Queen Victoria, Louis Napoleon, Empress Eugenie and others, and has illustrated Beecher's, Deems' and Crosby's Lives of Christ and many other books. Author of "Histories of all Religions," "Antiquities of the Orient," "The Unseen World," and of vocabularies, dictionaries and translations from Arabic, Persian, Bedouin, Turkish and other Oriental languages. Now engaged in writing a history of mysticism. Was one of the four founders of the Nobles of the Mystic Shrine in the United States, a founder of the Theosophical Society in the United States, and is a general for life of the Society of the Rosy Cross. Fellow National Arts, American Geographical, American Philosophical and Theosophical Societies. Member Manhattan Liberal Club, Nobles of the Mystic Shrine, F. & A. M., and many other organizations.

RAY, ALFRED—Dry Goods Commission Merchant, 24 Thomas street, New York City; residence 20 Fifth avenue. Born in Pittsfield, Mass., July 28, 1840. Educated in Pittsfield, Mass. (Married Fanny N., daughter of Jerome B. Hulbert of Pittsfield, 1865.) Formerly connected with the firms of J. M. Beebe & Co. of Boston, Mass., and Marshall Field & Co. of Chicago, Ill. Member of the firm of Lawrence & Co. Director Continental Insurance Co. Member Merchants' Union League and Metropolitan Clubs and New England Society.

RAY, FRANK S.—Bicycles, 941 Eighth avenue, New York City; residence 7 West 101st street. Born in Canton, Mo., Oct. 14, 1864. Educated in public schools. (Married.) Manager New York branch, Gormully & Jeffery sales department, American Bicycle Co. Previous to the formation of the latter company, had been manager of the New York branch of that firm for eight years. Member Huguenot Yacht, New York Canoe, Knickerbocker Athletic, New York Mycological and Camera Clubs.

RAY, GEORGE W.—Congressman, House of Representatives, Washington, D. C., and Lawyer, Norwich. Born in Otselec, Chenango Co., N. Y., Feb. 3, 1844. Educated in common schools and at Norwich Academy. Studied law, was admitted to the Bar in 1867 and has since practiced in Norwich. Served in Union Army during Civil War. Represented the Twenty-sixth District in Congress, 1883-5, and again since 1891; present term expires in 1901.

RAY, LOUIS DWIGHT—Educator, 35 West 84th street, New York City. Born in New York City, 1860. Educated at Columbia and New York University. (Married.) Head master Irving School and classical department of St. Mary's School; treasurer New York Society, Archaeological Institute of America. Member Barnard Club and Columbia Alumni and Phi Beta Kappa Alumni Associations.

RAYMOND, ANDREW V. V.—Clergyman and Educator, Union College, Schenectady; residence College Hill. Born in Visscher's Ferry, Saratoga Co., N. Y., Aug. 8, 1854. Educated at Union College (A.B., '75, A.M., '78, and D.D., '87), and at New Brunswick (N.J.) Theological Seminary (D.D., '78). Degree of LL.D. from Williams College in 1894. (Married.) Held pastorates in Paterson, N. J., until 1894, First Reformed Church, 1878-81; Trinity Reformed Church, 1881-7; Fourth Presbyterian Church, 1887-94. President of Union College since 1894. Member Alpha Delta Phi, Adirondack League and University Clubs, Union College Alumni and Century Associations and Phi Beta Kappa Society, all of New York City.

RAYMOND, CHARLES H.—Insurance, 32 Liberty street, New York City; residence New York City. Born in Albany, N. Y., Jan. 24, 1834. Educated in Albany. (Widower.) Acting assistant adjutant-general 3d Brigade, 2d Division, 19th Army Corps, Department of the Gulf, in 1863. Has been deputy superintendent Insurance Department State of New York. Now general agent Mutual Life Insurance Co. of New York. Member Union League, Army and Navy, Lawyers', Colonial, Suburban Riding and Driving and Westminster Kennel Clubs, Morristown (N. J.) Club, Fort Orange Club of Albany, and Maryland Club of Baltimore, American Geographical and Southern Societies, Down Town Association, Military Order of the Loyal Legion, American Museum of Natural History, and Ardsley Casino of Ardsley-on-Hudson.

RAYMOND, GEORGE H.—Grain Elevator, 57 Chapin Block, Buffalo; residence 190 Baynes street. Born in Adams Basin, N. Y., 1853. Educated at State Normal School, Brockport, N. Y., and University of Rochester ('74). (Married.) Vice-president and director Consolidated Lake and Canal Co.; Kalbfleisch and Raymond Elevator Co., and A. B. Raymond & Co. For many years prominent in Erie Canal improvement plans and water transportation problems generally. Member Gamma Sigma and Alpha Delta Phi Fraternities.

RAYMOND, JOHN M.—Clothier, Nassau and Fulton streets, New York City; residence Sewaren, N. J. Born in New York City. (Married.) Member of the firm of A. Raymond & Co. Member New York Athletic, Colonial, Laurence Harbor Country and Sewaren Land and Water Clubs.

RAYMOND, JOSEPH HOWARD—Professor, Henry and Amity streets, Brooklyn. Born in Brooklyn, Nov. 18, 1845. (Son of Israel Ward and Frances Bryant [Howard] Raymond.) Educated at Brooklyn Polytechnic Institute, Williams College ('66), Long Island College Hospital and at Columbia; degrees of A.M. and M.D. (Widower.) Formerly member of the Brooklyn Board of Education; was connected with Brooklyn Health Department as vaccinator, inspector, sanitary superintendent, deputy health commissioner, 1872-82, and health commissioner, 1882-6. Professor of physiology and hygiene at Long Island College Hospital since 1873; trustee Brooklyn Polytechnic Institute since 1884; editor "Brooklyn Medical Journal" since its foundation in 1888; secretary and treasurer Hoagland Laboratory; secretary Polhemus Memorial Clinic. Author of a manual of physiology and of medical and sanitary papers. Member Medical Society of the County of Kings, American Public Health Association and Brooklyn Genealogical Society.

RAYMOND, ROSSITER WORTHINGTON—Mining Engineer, 99 John street, New York City; residence 123 Henry street, Brooklyn. Born in Cincinnati, Ohio, April 27, 1840. Educated at Brooklyn Polytechnic Institute, and, in Germany, at the Universities of Munich and Heidelberg and at Freiberg Mining Academy. (Married.) Served in Union Army during Civil War. United States Mining Commissioner, 1868-76; professor of ore deposits at Lafayette College, 1870-82; United States Commissioner to Vienna Exposition of 1873; New York State commissioner of electrical subways, 1885. Secretary of the American Institute of Mining Engineers since 1884. Author of numerous essays on mining, mining law, etc., and of several volumes of stories. Member Engineers' Club, Hamilton Club of Brooklyn, Century Association, Military Order of the Loyal Legion, American Geographical Society and honorary member of the Society of Civil Engineers of France, American Philosophical Society and other bodies.

RAYMOND, RUSSELL—Treasurer, 501 Fifth avenue, New York City; residence 151 West 87th street. Born in New York City, April 18, 1836. Educated at the College of the City of New York. (Married.) Secretary, treasurer and manager American Safe Deposit Co. Member Congregational and Transportation Clubs and Presbyterian Union.

RAYMOND, WILLIAM GALT—Professor, Rensselaer Polytechnic Institute, Troy. Born in Princeton, Iowa, March 2, 1859. (Son of W. H. V. and Laura G. [Peet] Raymond.) Educated in public schools, at the University of Kansas and at Washington University (C.E., '84). (Married Helen Williams, daughter of Edwin Bay of Chicago, Ill.) Instructor in civil engineering at the University of California, 1884-90; was engineer in charge of railway location in the mountains of California and, for a time, town engineer of Berkeley, Cal. Professor of geodesy, road engineering and topographical drawing at Rensselaer Polytechnic Institute since 1892. Author of "Plane Surveying" and of numerous technical papers. Member New England Railway Club, American Society of Civil Engineers, Society for the Promotion of Engineering Education and Fellow of the American Association for the Advancement of Science.

RAYMOND, WILLIAM LEWIS—Lawyer, 17 Broadway, New York City; residence Summit, N. J. Born in New York City, April 1, 1836. Educated at Columbia College and Columbia Law School. (Married Decima, daughter of Alexander Oakley of New York.) United States consul at Leeds, England, 1864-8; assistant private secretary to Governor Fenton, Albany, 1869; admitted as attorney and counselor at law New York Supreme Court, May 12, 1869. Member Monday Night Club of Summit, N. J., and Sons of the Revolution.

RAYNOLDS, EDWARD H.—Paint and Color Manufacturer, 103 Fulton street, New York City; residence 27 West 70th street. Director F. W. Devoe & C. T. Raynolds Co. Member New York Athletic Club.

RAYNOR, E. A.—Furniture, Port Jefferson; residence Main street. Born in Wading River, N. Y., Dec. 25, 1832. Educated in Wading River. (Married.) Director Bank of Port Jefferson since organization; member Board of Education; secretary Cedar Hill Cemetery Association since 1873. Past master Suffolk Lodge No. 60, F. & A. M., and has been treasurer of same for over twenty-five years.

RAYNOR, EDWIN F.—Banker and Broker, 20 Broad street, New York City; residence 93 Riverside Drive. Born in New York City, 1856. (Married.) Member of the firm of E. F. Raynor & Co. and of the New York Stock Exchange. Member New York Athletic and Harlem Clubs.

REA, GEORGE BRONSON—Electrical Engineer, 123 Liberty street, New York City; residence 427 Third street, Brooklyn. Born in Brooklyn, Aug. 28, 1869. Educated by private tutors. (Married Harriet Shumard Carter of New York City.) Engaged in the practice of his profession in Cuba until outbreak of revolution; was special correspondent of the "New York Herald" with insurgent armies of Gomez and Maceo, and was wounded at La Portela; was in Havana when the "Maine" was blown up, and represented the New York "World" at the bombardment of San Juan, Puerto Rico, and before Santiago; made trip through Puerto Rico during Spanish-American War in secret service for United States government. Author of "Facts and Fancies About Cuba."

REA, THOMAS B.—Broker, 20 Broad street, New York City; residence 173 Fifth avenue. Born in Blair County, Pa. (Single.) Member of the New York Stock Exchange. Member New York Athletic Club, Sons of the Revolution and Pennsylvania Society of New York.

READ, GEORGE R.—Real Estate, 60 Cedar street, New York City; residence 11 East 56th street. Born in Brooklyn, N. Y., 1849. Educated in Brooklyn. (Married.) Member Metropolitan, Union, Coaching, American Yacht, Riding and Lawyers' Clubs, Down Town Association and Metropolitan Museum of Art.

READ, HARMON PUMPELLY (Major)—236 State street, Albany. Educated at Trinity College. Member Knickerbocker Club of New York City, Unconditional Republican and Fort Orange Clubs of Albany, Society of Colonial Wars, Sons of the Revolution, Trinity College Alumni Association and America's Founders and Defenders.

READ, J. CLARK—Teacher, 435 Madison avenue, New York City; residence Valentine avenue near High-bridge road. Born and educated in Boston, Mass. (Married.) Master and registrar of Berkeley School. Member Mendelssohn Glee and Country Cycle Clubs.

READ, JESSE E.—Civil Engineer, Long Island City; residence Ozone Park. Born in Brooklyn, N. Y., Nov. 15, 1861. Educated at Cornell University. (Married.) Principal assistant engineer Long Island R. R. Co. Member Chi Phi Club of New York City, and Queens Borough Club.

READ, WILLIAM A.—Banker, 16 Nassau street, New York City; residence 4 East 62d street. Member of the New York Stock Exchange firm of Vermilye & Co. Director Chicago Terminal Transfer R. R. Co., Continental Insurance Co., Indiana, Decatur and Western R. R. Co. and Kings County Elevated Ry. Co.; trustee Alliance Insurance Co. of London, Helvetia Swiss Fire Insurance Co. and Imperial Insurance Co. (Ltd.). Member New York Yacht, Union, Grolier, American Yacht and Players' Clubs, Crescent Athletic and Hamilton Clubs of Brooklyn, Down Town Association and Metropolitan Museum of Art.

READHEAD, E. R.—Paper and Pulp Manufacturer, Fulton; residence 301 Buffalo street. Born in Brownville, N. Y., Jan. 6, 1851. Educated at Fairfield Seminary and Syracuse University. (Married.) President Citizens' National Bank, Victoria Paper Mills Co., Eureka Paper Co., Fulton Paper Co. and Fulton Pulley Co.

RECKENDORFER, LOUIS J.—Manufacturer, 491 Broadway, New York City; residence 20 East 62d street. Educated at Columbia. President and director American Lead Pencil Co. and Great Eastern Casualty and Indemnity Co. Member Merchants' Central Club and Columbia University Alumni Association.

RECKNAGEL, JOHN H.—Commission Merchant, 112 Wall street, New York City; residence 161 Herkimer street, Brooklyn. Senior member of the firm of J. H. Recknagel & Son. Member Down Town Association.

REDDING, WILLIAM A.—Lawyer, 38 Park row, New York City; residence 402 Washington avenue, Brooklyn. Member of the firm of Redding, Kiddle & Greeley. Director Metropolitan Bicycling Co. and Lock-Stub Check Co. Member Engineers' and Hardware Clubs, and Art and Five O'Clock Clubs of Philadelphia, Pa.

REDFIELD, AMASA ANGELL—Lawyer and Author, 56 Pine street, New York City; residence Hotel Empire. Born in Clyde, Wayne Co., N. Y., May 19, 1837. Educated at New York University. Practicing in New York City since his admission to the Bar. Member of the firm of Redfield, Redfield & Lydon. Was official reporter of the Surrogate's Court, 1877-82. Author of 'Handbook of United States Tax Laws,' 'Reports of Surrogates' Courts of the State of New York' and 'Law and Practice of Surrogates' Courts'; also (with Thomas G. Shearman) 'The Law of Negligence.' Member Lawyers' Club and Association of the Bar of the City of New York.

REDFIELD, HENRY STEPHEN—Professor, Cornell University, Ithaca; residence 7 South avenue. Born in Corning, N. Y., July 31, 1851. Educated at Amherst College. Degrees of A.B. and A.M. (Married.). Professor of practice and procedure in the College of Law of Cornell University. Member American Jersey Cattle Club, Phi Beta Kappa Society, Psi Upsilon Fraternity and New York State Bar Association.

REDFIELD, WILLIAM C.—Drop Forgings, 9 Richards street, Brooklyn; residence 3 Tennis Court, Flatbush. Born in Albany, N. Y. Educated at Pittsfield (Mass.) High School. (Married.) Vice-president Fuller & Renman Co.; second vice-president and director Municipal Club; treasurer J. H. Williams & Co.; director Young Men's Christian Association; trustee Berkeley Institute and Long Island Loan and Trust Co.; member advisory board, Department of Music, Brooklyn Institute of Arts and Sciences. Member Crescent Athletic, Knickerbocker Field and Municipal Clubs and Brooklyn League.

REDINGTON, E. J.—Bay Shore. Born in Richmond County, N. Y., July 21, 1831. Educated in New York City and Richmond County public schools. (Married.) Director South Side Bank; trustee town lands; member Board of Education; citizen director Fire Department. Member Bay Shore Yacht and Idle Hour Clubs.

REDINGTON, GEORGE O.—Lawyer, 97 Cedar street, New York City; residence Yale Club. Born in Syracuse, N. Y., April 30, 1871. Educated at Syracuse High School, Syracuse University and at Yale Law School. (Single.) Member of the firm of Nadal, Smyth, Carrère & Trafford. Served with Troop A, New York Cavalry, United States Volunteers, during the Spanish-American War. Member Yale, Staten Island Cricket and Baseball, and Strollers' Clubs, Squadron "A," N. G. N. Y., and Association of the Bar of the City of New York.

REDINGTON, LYMAN WILLIAMS—Lawyer, 45 Pine street, New York City; residence 2113 Fifth avenue. Born in Waddington, St. Lawrence Co., N. Y., March 14, 1849. (Son of George and Loraine Williams [Sheldon] Redington.) Educated in public schools, at Williston Seminary, Yale University and at Columbia College Law School. Spent several years in the law office of United States Senator Matthew H. Carpenter of Milwaukee, and was admitted to the Wisconsin Bar in 1871. Practiced in Rutland, Vt., until 1889; since then in New York City. Member of the Vermont Legislature, 1878; delegate-at-large to the National Democratic Convention of 1880; chairman of State (Vermont) Democratic Convention of 1882; unsuccessful candidate for Governor of Vermont, 1884; elected municipal judge for Rutland in 1884, and was also prosecuting attorney and corporation counsel; was appointed postmaster of Rutland by President Cleveland in 1885, which office he held until 1889, when he resigned and removed to New York City. Has been for several years a member of the Tammany Hall

General Committee and was a candidate for the Assembly in 1894 and again in 1896. Director Alaskan Sunrise Gold Mining Co. Member Sagamore and Harlem Clubs, Kane Lodge, F. & A. M., and Sons of the Revolution.

REDMAN, WALTER H.—Wholesale Lumber Merchant, 46 South street, New York City; residence 851 Jefferson avenue, Brooklyn. Born in North Islesboro, Me. Educated at E. M. C. Seminary, Bucksport, Me. (Married.) Member of the firm of Stetson, Cutler & Redman. Member Union League Club of Brooklyn.

REDMOND, HENRY SMALLWOOD—Banker, 41 Wall street, New York City; residence 114 East 19th street. Born in Orange, N. J., Aug. 13, 1865. (Single.) Member of the firm of Redmond, Kerr & Co., and of the New York Stock Exchange. Trustee Trust Company of America, Fidelity Trust Co. and Indiana, Illinois and Iowa R. R. Co. Member Union, New York Yacht, Lawyers', Country, Racquet and Tennis, Players', Larchmont Yacht, Knickerbocker and Carteret Gun Clubs, Philadelphia (Pa.) Club and Chamber of Commerce.

REDWAY, JACQUES WARDLAW—Geographer, Mount Vernon. Born in Rutherford County, Tenn., May, 1849. (Son of John W. and Alexandrina [Wardlaw] Redway.) Educated in public schools, by private tutors, at the University of California and in Europe. (Married Lillian Burnham von Ebert.) Was for a time instructor in chemistry at the University of California and professor of physical geography and chemistry at State Normal School of California. Engaged in mining engineering and exploration in California and Arizona until 1880, when he visited South America, Europe and Asia for geographical study. Now lecturer on geographic science in the Department of Public Instruction of the State of New York. Author of "Manual of Geography," "Natural Geography," "Manual of Physiography," "New Basis of Geography" and "Inquiry Concerning the First Landfall of Columbus." Edited an edition of "Sir John Mandeville's Travels." Fellow Royal Geographical Society of London. Member National Geographic Society of Washington, D. C., Engineers' Club of Philadelphia, and other organizations.

REED, CHARLES—Commission Merchant, 13 Harrison street, New York City; residence Yonkers. Born in New York City, 1849. Educated in public schools, and at Eagleswood (N. J.) Military Academy. (Married.) Director Irving National Bank and Columbia Bank. Member New York Athletic, St. Andrew's Golf, Arkwright, Saranac Lake, Amackassin and Saegkill Clubs and Kane Lodge, F. & A. M.

REED, F. DANA—Editor, Eagle Building, Brooklyn; residence 561A Halsey street. Born in Wassaic, N. Y., June 7, 1848. Educated in public schools. (Married.) Literary editor Brooklyn "Eagle."

REED, FRANCIS C.—Lawyer, 280 Broadway, New York City; residence 41 East 65th street. Member Republican, New York Athletic and Forest Lake Clubs and New England Society.

REED, FREDERIC H.—Electrical Engineer and Railroad Contractor, 29 Broadway, New York City; residence 2491 Broadway. Born in Stamford, Conn., Aug. 22, 1865. Educated in Stamford. (Married.) Member of the firm of Reed & McKibbin. Secretary J. G. White & Co.; director Port Jervis, Monticello and New York R. R. Co., Kingston and Rondout Valley R. R. Co. and Norwalk Tramway Co.

REED, HENRY A.—Secretary, 420 East 25th street, New York City; residence Newark, N. J. Born in Carmel, Putnam Co., N. Y., Feb. 11, 1829. Educated in public schools. (Married.) Secretary, treasurer and director Bishop Gutta Percha Co. Taught district school, 1846-49; telegraph operator, 1849-55; bookseller Poughkeepsie, N. Y., 1856-76. Has been in electrical business since 1878.

REED, J. HOWARD—Dental Surgeon, 120 West 87th street New York City. Educated at New York Dental College (D.D.S. and M.D.S.). Member Church and Hunters' Clubs and New York Dental College Alumni Association.

REED, JOSIAH H.—Banker and Broker 11 Pine street, New York City; residence East Orange, N. J. Member of the firm of Reed & Flagg. Member New England Society, Down Town Association and National Academy of Design.

REED, LEWIS BENEDICT—Lawyer, 100 Broadway, New York City; residence 170 Remsen street, Brooklyn. Born in New York City, July 11, 1824. Educated at New York University ('43). (Married.) Admitted to the Bar, 1846, and was a member of the firm of James R. Whiting, Clark & Reed. Now custodian of securities of American Surety Co. of New York. Member Delta Phi Club, Hamilton Club of Brooklyn, Sons of the Revolution and New York University Alumni Association.

REED, RAYMOND CLINTON—Instructor, Cornell University, Ithaca; residence 410 University avenue. Degree of Ph.B. Instructor in comparative and veterinary pathology and bacteriology at Cornell University.

REED, ROLAND—Actor, 361 West 122d street, New York City. Born in Philadelphia, Pa., 1852. Entered theatrical profession at an early age, taking children's speaking parts in the Walnut Street Theatre. (Married Isidore Rush of New York City.) Has starred in his own company since 1882 and has appeared in "Cheek," "The Woman Hater," "The Politician," "A Man of Ideas," "Lend Me Your Wife," "The Wrong Mr. Wright" and many other successful plays. Member Players' Club.

REED, SYLVANUS ALBERT—Manager, 32 Nassau street, New York City; residence 1 West 54th street. Born in Albany, N. Y., April 8, 1854. Educated at Columbia College ('74) and at the Universities of Wurzburg and Berlin, Germany. (Married.) Member University and St. Anthony Clubs, Country Club of Westchester, Columbia Alumni Association and American Institute of Mining Engineers.

REED, THOMAS, JR.—Stock Broker, 44 Broad street, New York City; residence Rhinebeck. Member New York Stock Exchange and of the New York Athletic and New York Clubs and Association of the Bar of the City of New York.

REED, THOMAS BRACKETT—Lawyer, 10 Wall street, New York City. Born in Portland, Me., Oct. 18, 1839. Educated at Bowdoin College ('60). Served in navy during Civil War; studied law and was admitted to the Bar in 1865. Member of Maine Legislature, 1868-9; State senator, 1870; State Attorney General, 1870-2; Portland (Me.) city solicitor, 1874-7; Congressman, 1877-99, in which year he resigned. Was Speaker of the Fifty-first, Fifty-fourth and Fifty-fifth Congresses. Now member of the law firm of Reed, Simpson, Thacher & Barnum in New York City.

REED, W. BOARDMAN—Civil Engineer, 621 Broadway, New York City; residence Mt. Vernon. Born in Poughkeepsie, N. Y., 1860. Educated at Union College. (Married.) Engineer maintenance of way, Metropolitan Street Railway Co. Was chief engineer Port Henry Iron Ore Co., Witherbee, Sherman & Co., Lake Champlain and Moriah R. R. Co. and Cayadutta Electric R. R. Co. Member American Society of Civil Engineers and Union College Alumni Association.

REES, CHARLES S.—Merchant, 71 Greenwich avenue, New York City; residence 44 West 87th street. Born in Pittsburg, Pa., Dec. 5, 1860. Educated at Pittsburg High School and Western University of Pennsylvania. (Married.) Connected with Jas. Rees & Sons Co. (boiler, engine and steamboat builders) of Pittsburg, Pa., and with Russell & Rees (Continental Brewery) of New York City. Member New York Athletic and Colonial Clubs.

REES, FRANK—Real Estate, 17 Ferry street, New York City; residence Chattanooga, Tenn. Born in New York City, Nov. 11, 1853. Educated at Columbia School of Mines ('74). (Single.) Member University Club, and president Mountain City Club of Chattanooga.

REES, JOHN KROM—Astronomer, 116th street and Morningside Heights, New York City; residence 1 West 72d street. Born in New York City, Oct. 27, 1851. Educated at Columbia. Degrees of A.B., A.M., E.M. and Ph.D. (Married Louise E. Sands of New York City, 1876.) Assistant in mathematics in the School of Mines of Columbia University, 1873-6; professor of mathematics and astronomy at Washington University, 1876-81; director of the Observatory at Columbia since 1881; instructor in geodesy and practical astronomy, 1881-2; chairman of the board of editors of the "School of Mines Quarterly," 1883-90; professor of astronomy since 1892. Secretary of the American Meteorological Society, 1882-97; vice-president of the New York Mathematical Society, 1891; chairman of section on astronomy and physics of the New York Academy of Sciences, 1891-4; secretary of the University Council, 1892-8; president of the New York Academy of Sciences, 1894-6. Fellow Royal Astronomical Society of London, since 1892; member Columbia Alumni and Century Associations, Psi Upsilon Fraternity, Astronomische Gesellschaft (since 1893), Huguenot Society of America, and Alumni Association of the Schools of Science of Columbia University.

REES, LOUIS J.—Banker, 9 Wall street, New York City; residence 23 East 88th street. Born in New York City, Nov. 9, 1862. Educated in public schools. (Single.) Member of the firm of Zimmermann & Forshay, members of the New York Stock Exchange. Member Progress Club.

REESE, WILLIAM WILLIS—Real Estate, 16 Exchange place and 18 East 60th street, New York City; residence 29 East 28th street, and New Hamburg. Born in West Philadelphia, Pa., Dec. 20, 1868. Educated at St. Paul's School, Concord, N. H. ('85), and at Columbia (A.B., '90, and E.E., '92). (Single.) Member of the firm of Post & Reese. Trustee East Side Home Settlement. Member University and St. Anthony Clubs.

REEVE, BENJAMIN H.—County Judge, Greenport; residence 59 Main street. Born in Mattituck, N. Y., March 11, 1857. Educated at Cornell ('81). (Married.) Formerly district attorney of Suffolk County and secretary of the Suffolk County Republican Committee. Now County Judge of Suffolk County. Director and attorney First National Bank of Greenport, and Queens and Suffolk Insurance Co.; trustee and attorney Southold Savings Bank; director Eastern Union Telegraph Co., Union Wharf Co., Greenport Water Co., Long Island and New England Steamboat Co. and Greenport Oyster Co. Member Sterling Athletic and Peace and Good Will Clubs of Greenport, Cornell University Club of New York City, Peconic Lodge No. 349, F. & A. M., and Greenport Lodge of Odd Fellows.

REHN, FRANK KNOX MORTON—Artist, 222 West 23d street, New York City. Born in Philadelphia, Pa., April 12, 1848. Educated in Philadelphia at the Academy of Fine Arts. (Married Margaret S., daughter of George C. Bower of Philadelphia.) Has been awarded prizes at various exhibitions. Member Salmagundi (vice-president), New York Water Color and Lotos Clubs, American Water Color Society and National Academy of Design.

REICH, JACQUES—Artist and Etcher, 2 West 14th street, New York City; residence New Dorp, S. I. Born in Waniskoltz, Hungary, Aug. 10, 1852. Studied art in Budapest, at the National Academy of Design in New York City, at the Philadelphia Academy of Fine Arts and in Paris, France. (Married Lina, daughter of Emil Bellinger of Frankfurt, Germany, 1892.) Established a studio in New York City in 1885. Made most of the pen portraits for Scribner's "Cyclopaedia of Painters and Paintings" and for Appleton's "Cyclopaedia of American Biography"; has etched on copper the portraits of many prominent people. Member Kane Lodge No. 454, F. & A. M., and Hercules Council, Royal Arcanum.

REICHHELM, EDWARD P.—Mechanical Engineer and Manufacturer, 23 John street, New York City; residence 90 West 34th street, Bayonne, N. J. Born in Striegau, Prussia, Germany, Nov. 13, 1843. Educated in New York City, at Dulon's Academy and Cooper Institute. (Married.) Served in Union Army during Civil War and was mustered out of service with rank of captain. Senior partner in the firm of E. P. Reichhelm & Co. President American Gas Furnace Co. and American Swiss File and Tool Co., both of Elizabeth, N. J. Member Hardware, Newark Bay (N. J.) Boat and Jersey City (N. J.) Schubert Glee Clubs, Arion Society, Military Order of the Loyal Legion, G. A. R., and Masonic bodies.

REICHMANN, GEORGE—Piano Manufacturer, 170 Fifth avenue, New York City; residence 754 Putnam avenue, Brooklyn. Born in New York City, Sept. 26, 1854. Educated at Hoboken (N. J.) Academy. (Married.) Member of the firm of Sohmer & Co. Member Hanover Club and Long Island Wheelmen of Brooklyn.

REICK, WILLIAM C.—Editor, Herald square, New York City; residence 318 West 77th street. City editor "New York Herald." Member Calumet Club.

REID, DAVID—Instructor, Cornell University, Ithaca; residence 112 Lake street. Instructor in drawing and designing in Sibley College of Cornell University.

REID, JOHN—Iron Manufacturer, 90 Beekman street, New York City; residence Yonkers. Treasurer, manager and director J. L. Mott Iron Works; director Central Foundry Co. Member Rockaway Hunting and Fulton Clubs.

REID, JOHN SIMPSON—Instructor, Cornell University, Ithaca; residence 116 Stewart avenue. Instructor in mechanical drawing and designing at Cornell University.

REID, THOMAS T.—Lumber Merchant, 282 Eleventh avenue, New York City; residence 85 Park street, Montclair, N. J. President and director Dunbar Box and Lumber Co. Member Aldine Association.

REID, WHITELOW—Editor and Publisher, 154 Nassau street, New York City; residence 451 Madison avenue. Born in Xenia, Ohio, Oct. 27, 1837. Educated at Xenia Academy and at Miami University ('56). Degrees of A.M. and LL.D. (Married Elisabeth, daughter of Darius Ogden Mills.) Principal of a graded school in South Charleston, Ohio, 1856-8; editor and proprietor of the Xenia (Ohio) "News," 1858-60; legislative correspondent of the Cincinnati "Gazette," Cleveland "Herald" and other newspapers, 1860-1; army correspondent of the Cincinnati "Gazette," 1861-2; was captain and volunteer aide on the staff of Major-General Thomas A. Morris during the first West Virginia campaign and on the staff of General W. F. Rosecrans during the second West Virginia campaign. Wrote the only detailed account by a Northern army correspondent of the Battle of Pittsburg Landing, 1862. Clerk to the Military Committee of the House of Representatives, 1862-3; librarian of the House of Representatives, 1863-6; Washington correspondent and editorial writer on the Cincinnati "Gazette," 1862-8. Became a member of the editorial staff of the New York "Tribune" in 1863; managing editor, 1869-71; editor-in-chief, 1872; principal proprietor since 1873. Was elected in 1878 by the New York Legislature to the Board of Regents to fill the vacancy caused by the death of Governor John A. Dix. Declined mission to Germany when formally offered by President Hayes and Secretary Evarts, in 1879, and again when offered by President Garfield in 1881; but accepted mission to France offered by President Harrison, in 1889, resigning after three years' service to return to private life. Nominated for Vice-President of the United States on the ticket with Benjamin Harrison by the Republican National Convention in 1892. Was United States Special Ambassador to Great Britain for the Queen's Jubilee in 1897, and United States Peace Commissioner at Paris for the arrangement of a treaty with Spain in 1898. Author of "Ohio in the War" and "After the War; a Southern Tour;" also of a large number of magazine articles and published addresses, including "The Territory with Which We Are Threatened," "Some Consequences of the Last Treaty of Paris," "Our New Duties," "Later Aspects of Our New Duties," "Schools of Journalism," "Newspaper Tendencies," "The Scholar in Politics," etc. Member Metropolitan, University, Union League, Lotos, Grolier, American Yacht, Delta Kappa Epsilon, Riding, New York Farmers' and Republican Clubs, Historical, New England, St. Andrew's, Ohio, American Geographical, National Sculpture and Dunlap Societies, Century Association, New York Botanical Gardens, Archaeological Institute of America, Metropolitan Museum of Art and numerous others.

REIFF, JOSIAH C.—Mining, 20 Broad street, New York City; residence 247 Fifth avenue. Born in Pennsylvania. Educated at a public school. (Single.) President American Copper Mining Co. and Phoenix Gold Mining Co.; director Standard Rope and Wire Co. Formerly president J. Hood Wright Memorial Hospital. Member Union League, New York Athletic, New York and Atlantic Yacht Clubs.

REILEY, DE WITT VAN DYKE—Lawyer, 25 Liberty street, New York City; residence 39 Church avenue, Brooklyn. Formerly member of the faculty at Rutgers College and was at one time United States Minister to Turkey. Secretary and director Bogota City R. R. Co., Chapinero Co. and College Heights Land Co.

REILLY, JOHN—Lawyer, 265 Broadway, New York City; residence 418 West 44th street. Educated at Manhattan College. Member New York Club, Manhattan College Alumni Association and Society of Medical Jurisprudence.

REILLY, JOHN C.—Superintendent, 16 Smith street, Brooklyn; residence 226 Garfield place. General superintendent New York and New Jersey Telephone Co. Member Montauk and Brooklyn Clubs.

REILLY, ROBERT B.—Tea Importer, 33 Whitehall street, New York City. Proprietor of ten tea and coffee stores, and of the Hotel Alpton, Morristown, N. J. President Cranford (N. J.) Gas Co. Member New York Athletic, Catholic, Country Cycle, Columbian and Xavier Clubs.

REINHART, JOSEPH W.—Corporation and Railroad Expert, 43 Cedar street, New York City; residence Plainfield, N. J. Born in Pittsburg, Pa., Sept. 17, 1851. Educated at Western University of Pennsylvania. (Married.) Was for twenty-six years successively superintendent of transportation of the Allegheny Valley R. R. Co., Pittsburg, Pa.; afterwards auditor of the Richmond and Allegheny R. R. Co. at Richmond, Va.; general auditor New York, West Shore and Buffalo Ry. Co. in New York City; general passenger and ticket agent Lake Shore and Michigan Southern Ry. Co. in Chicago, Ill.; general auditor, vice-president and president Atchison, Topeka and Santa Fe R. R. Co. in Boston and New York City, and chief expert for United States Government in the Fifty-third Congress. Now practicing as a railway and corporation expert. Member New York, Lawyers', National Arts and Players' Clubs, Deep Run Hunt and Commonwealth Clubs of Richmond, Va., Hillside Golf Club of Plainfield, N. J., Baltusrol Golf Club of Short Hills, N. J., American Geographical Society and Metropolitan Museum of Art.

REINSCHILD, CARL—Chemicals, 72 Beekman street, New York City; residence 5 Hamilton terrace. President and director Reinschild Chemical Co.

REMICK, ALBERT—Jeweler, 15 Union square, West, New York City; residence 20 Fifth avenue. With Tiffany & Co. Member Union League Club and New England Society.

REMINGTON, FRANK A.—Dentist, 57 West 49th street, and President, 56 Wall street, New York City; residence 123 West 44th street. President and director Self-Sealing Can Co.; treasurer and director Christian Literature Co. Member Lotos, New York Athletic and Transportation Clubs.

REMINGTON, FREDERICK—Artist, Author and Sculptor, New Rochelle. Born in St. Lawrence County, N. Y., Oct. 4, 1861. Educated at Yale Art School and at Art Students' League in New York City. Has been illustrator for magazines. Has executed in sculpture "The Broncho Buster," "The Wounded Bunkie" and many others equally well known. Author of "Pony Tracks," "Crooked Trails," "Frontier Sketches" and many other works of a similar nature. Member Union League, Lambs' and Players' Clubs and National Academy of Design.

REMINGTON, ROBERT R.—Lawyer, 309 Broadway, New York City; residence 8 East 32d street. Member Arkwright and Calumet Clubs and Ardsley Casino of Ardsley-on-Hudson.

REMSEN, P. L.—Carriage Manufacturer, 750 Grand street, New York City. Born, 1846. (Married.)

RENEHAN, JOHN—Plumber, 149 Church street and 163 East 35th street, New York City; residence 1291 Madison avenue. Born in Ireland, 1850. Educated in New York City public schools. Was president of the village of Far Rockaway for one year, a village trustee for two years and a member of the Board of Health for five years. Now president of the Examining Board of Plumbers of the City of New York. Member Tammany Society and Master Plumbers' Association.

RENENSNYDER, JUNIUS BENJAMIN — Lutheran Clergyman, 900 Madison avenue, New York City. Born in Staunton, W. Va., Feb. 24, 1843. (Son of John J. and Susan M. Renensnyder.) Educated at Pennsylvania College ('61) and Theological Seminary ('65). Received degree of D.D. from Newberry (S.C.) College in 1880. (Married Emma L., daughter of George Wagner of Philadelphia, Pa.) Served with 131st Pennsylvania Volunteers during Civil War. Was ordained to the Lutheran ministry in 1865 and has held pastorates in Philadelphia, Pa., 1865-74, Savannah, Ga., 1874-80, and in New York City since 1880. Now pastor of St. James Church. President Evangelical Lutheran Synod of the State of New York. Author of "Heavenward," "Doom Eternal," "Work and Personality of Luther," "Liberty and Authority in Religion," "Inspiration of the Bible," "Six Days of Creation" and many other religious works. Member Sigma Chi Fraternity and Interdenominational Clerical Circle.

RENO, JESSE W.—Mining Engineer, 141 Broadway, New York City; residence 374 Fifth avenue. Born in Fort Leavenworth, Kan., Aug. 4, 1861. (Son of General Reno.) Educated at Media (Pa.) Academy and at Lehigh University ('83). (Single.) Engaged in mining and metallurgy in Colorado, 1885-90; electrical expert and engineer for Thompson-Houston and Edison electric companies, 1891-2. Now president Reno Inclined Elevator Co. and Rapid Transit Construction Co. Member Engineers', Aztec and Chi Phi Clubs and Lehigh University Alumni Association.

RENO, MORRIS—President, 88 Reade street, New York City; residence 1919 Seventh avenue. Born in Germany, Nov. 22, 1834. Educated in Germany. (Married.) President and director United Incandescent Light Co. Was treasurer and director Oratorio Society of New York, 1873-96; secretary and director Symphony Society of New York, 1880-96, and president and director Carnegie Music Hall Co. to 1896.

RENSHAW, ALFRED H.—Manufacturer, 51 Wall street, New York City; residence Union Club. Born on Staten Island, N. Y., 1861. Educated at Rensselaer Polytechnic Institute. (Married.) President Standard R. R. Signal Co. and Trojan Car Coupling Co. of Troy. Member New York Yacht and Union Clubs and American Society of Civil Engineers.

RENWICK, EDWARD SABINE—Patent Expert, 19 Park place, New York City; residence Milburn, N. J. Born in New York City, Jan. 3, 1823. Educated at Columbia. (Widower.) Practicing as an expert in patent cases since 1849. In 1862, with his brother, Henry B. Renwick, repaired the "Great Eastern" while afloat, replating a fracture which other experts had declared an impossibility. Has invented many machines and mechanical devices. President and director Beverwyck Co. Member Union, Engineers', New York Yacht and Larchmont Yacht Clubs, American Numismatic and Archaeological, American Chemical, American Geographical and St. Nicholas Societies, American Society of Mechanical Engineers, Scientific Alliance, Columbia University Alumni Association, American Museum of Natural History and Metropolitan Museum of Art.

RENWICK, JAMES A.—Lawyer, 111 Broadway, New York City; residence 17 Bowne avenue, Flushing, L. I. Educated at Columbia ('76). Member University, Seawanhaka-Corinthian Yacht and Engineers' Clubs and Columbia University Alumni Association.

RENWICK, WILLIAM W.—Architect, 367 Fifth avenue, New York City; residence Milburn, N. J. Member of the firm of Renwick, Aspinwall & Owens. Member Union, Engineers', Seawanhaka-Corinthian Yacht, Larchmont Yacht and Patria Clubs, Architectural League, American Institute of Architects, Metropolitan Museum of Art and National Sculpture Society.

REQUA, LEONARD F.—Manufacturer of Electrical Goods, 229 West 28th street, New York City; residence 400 West End avenue. Born in New Baltimore, N. Y., May 12, 1844. Educated at Coeymans Landing, N. Y. (Married.) Vice-president and treasurer Safety Insulated Wire and Cable Co.; director Electrical Exhibition Co.

REUTERDAHL, HENRY—Nautical Artist, 163 West 23d street, New York City; residence 328 West 113th street. Born in Malmo, Sweden, Aug. 12, 1871. Educated at an academy in Stockholm, Sweden. (Married Pauline Stephenson of Chicago, Ill., 1899.) Served as correspondent during Spanish-American War; contributor to "Harper's," "Collier's," "Century," "St. Nicholas," "McClure's" and "London Graphic." Now engaged in painting a series of pictures of naval battles of Spanish-American War, and is to undertake the work of illustrating a series of articles on the "Navies of the World."

REXFORD, WILLIAM M.—Consulting Engineer, 29 Broad street, New York City; residence 116 East 28th street, and Montclair, N. J. Educated at Union College ('60). Member University, Engineers' and Phi Beta Kappa Clubs, Union College Alumni Association, Military Order of the Loyal Legion and Metropolitan Museum of Art.

REYNES, ANTONIO—Merchant, 46 Exchange place, New York City; residence 137 West 70th street. Member of the firm of Reynes Bros. & Co. Member Catholic Club, American Geographical Society, Metropolitan Museum of Art and Circle Colon Cervantes.

REYNES, JAIME—Merchant, 46 Exchange place, New York City; residence 137 West 70th street. Member of the firm of Reynes Bros. & Co. Member Catholic Club, American Geographical Society and Circle Colon Cervantes.

REYNOLDS, ALVAH L.—Cheese Importer, 345 Greenwich street, New York City; residence Madison, N. J. Born in New York City, Feb. 1, 1853. Educated at Bedford (N. Y.) Academy and Amenia Seminary. (Married.) President A. L. Reynolds Cheese Co.; vice-president Empire Cheese Co. of New Berlin, N. Y. Was councilman, borough of Madison, N. J., and chairman of committees on finance, water and power station. Member Sons of the Revolution, Washington Association of Morristown, N. J., Overlook Lodge, F. & A. M. (master and past-master), Madison Chapter, Order St. Amend, Knights Templar and Royal Arcanum, New York Council.

REYNOLDS, DE WITT C.—Cheese Importer, 345 Greenwich street, New York City; residence East Orange, N. J. Born in Mt. Kisco, N. Y., May 22, 1874. Educated in New York City. (Single.) Senior member of the firm of D. C. Reynolds & Co.

REYNOLDS, FRANK—Lawyer, 16 Court street, Brooklyn; residence 61 Cambridge place. Born in Milton, Ulster Co., N. Y., June 30, 1848. Educated at Wesleyan University ('68), and Columbia Law School ('71). (Married.) Member of the firm of G. G. & F. Reynolds. Referee in Bankruptcy, United States District Court, for the Eastern District of New York. Member Dyker Meadow Golf Club and Sons of the Revolution.

REYNOLDS, GEORGE GREENWOOD—Lawyer, 16 Court street, Brooklyn; residence 44 Remsen street. Born in Amenia, Dutchess Co., N. Y., Feb. 7, 1821. (Son of George and Abigail [Pennoyer] Reynolds.) Educated at Amenia Seminary and at Wesleyan University (A.B., '41, A.M., '44 and LL.D., '71). Studied law and was admitted to the Bar in Rochester in 1844. (Married.) Senior member of the firm of G. G. & F. Reynolds. Judge of the City Court of Brooklyn, 1861-7, and 1873-87. Was a member of the commission appointed by Governor Hill to revise the judiciary article of the Constitution in 1890. President board of trustees of Wesleyan University since 1887; director Metropolitan Plate Glass Insurance Co.; trustee Brooklyn Trust Co. Member Brooklyn Bar Association (ex-president) and Hamilton Club.

REYNOLDS, HARRIS S.—Wholesale Grocer, Poughkeepsie. Born in Poughkeepsie, May 19, 1865. Educated at Yale ('87). (Married.) Junior partner and manager William T. Reynolds & Co. Secretary

(local board) and vice-president (main board) of Amateur Rowing Association on the Hudson; director Dutchess County Agricultural Society. Member Amrita Club (director), and Yale Club of New York City.

REYNOLDS, JAMES—Merchant, 107 South Hamilton street, New York City. Born in Kiantone, Chautauqua Co., N. Y., March 17, 1861. Educated at Yale ('84) and Universities of Berlin and Paris. (Married.) Manager University Settlement Society. Was a member of the Committee of Seventy and secretary of its sub-committee on constructive reform, 1894; chairman of the executive committee of the Citizens' Union in 1897. Member City, National Arts and Social Reform Clubs and Century Association.

REYNOLDS, JAMES B.—Educator, 184 Eldridge street, New York City. Born in Kiantone, Chautauqua Co., N. Y., March 17, 1861. Educated at Yale ('84) and Universities of Berlin and Paris. (Married.) Manager University Settlement Society. Was a member of the Committee of Seventy and secretary of its sub-committee on constructive reform, 1894; chairman of the executive committee of the Citizens' Union in 1897. Member City, National Arts and Social Reform Clubs and Century Association.

REYNOLDS, JOHN JAY—President, 334 Greenwich street, New York City; residence 142 West 12th street. Born in New York City, July 29, 1860. Educated at Chappaqua Mountain Institute. (Married.) President Empire Cheese Co. Member Presbyterian Club, Society of Colonial Wars, Military Order of the Loyal Legion and Temperance Society.

REYNOLDS, PAUL R.—Publisher, 70 Fifth avenue, New York City; residence 217 East 27th street. Born in Boston, Mass., 1864. Educated at Harvard ('87). (Married.) Agent for Sampson Low, Marston & Co. (Ltd.), Archibald, Constable & Co., William Heinemann and Hutchinson & Co., all of London, England. Member Social Reform, University and Delta Phi Clubs.

REYNOLDS, WILLIAM H.—Builder, 215 Montague street, Brooklyn; residence 369 Park place. President and director Borough Park Co.; treasurer and director American Exploration Co. Member Union League, Brooklyn and Atlantic Yacht Clubs.

RHEAD, LOUIS JOHN—Artist, 72 Ocean avenue, Flatbush, L. I. Born in Etruria, Staffordshire, England, 1858. Educated at Kensington National Art Training School, London. (Married Catharine Bogart Yates.) Came to the United States as art manager at the bindery of D. Appleton & Co. Has exhibited pictures in all the principal galleries in Europe and America and won the gold medal at Boston Poster Exhibition in 1895. Member Grolier Club and English Ex-Libris Society.

RHINELANDER, FREDERICK W.—44 Pine street, New York City; residence 289 Madison avenue. Educated at Columbia. (Married.) Vice-president Metropolitan Museum of Art. Member Knickerbocker, City, South Side Sportsmen's and Mendelssohn Glee Clubs, Columbia College Alumni and Down Town Associations and American Geographical Society.

RHINELANDER, FREDERICK W., JR.—44 Pine street, New York City; residence 289 Madison avenue. Educated at Harvard ('82). Member Harvard, University, Knickerbocker, South Side Sportsmen's and City Clubs and Down Town Association.

RHINELANDER, PHILIP—41 Wall street, New York City; residence 32 East 39th street. Educated at Columbia. Member Union and Delta Phi Clubs, Ocean County (N. J.) Hunt, Country and Lakewood (N. J.) Golf Clubs, St. Nicholas Society, Society of Colonial Wars, Society of the War of 1812, Sons of the Revolution and Columbia University Alumni Association.

RHINELANDER, THOMAS NEWBOLD—Lawyer, 48 Wall street, New York City; residence 137 East 39th street. Educated at Harvard ('87). Member Knickerbocker, University, South Side Sportsmen's and Harvard Clubs, Columbia University Alumni and Down Town Associations and Association of the Bar of the City of New York.

RHINELANDER, T. J. OAKLEY—Lawyer, 31 Nassau street, New York City; residence 36 West 52d street. Born in New York City, June 5, 1860. Educated at Columbia. (Married.) Member Metropolitan, Union, Delta Phi and Country Clubs, Columbia Alumni Association, St. Nicholas Society, Sons of the Revolution, Society of Colonial Wars, Society of the War of 1812, Society of Foreign Wars and Colonial Order.

RHOADES, JOHN HARSEN—Banker, 66 Beaver street and 246 Sixth avenue, New York City; residence 559 Madison avenue. President and trustee Greenwich Savings Bank; director Bank of America, Greenwich Bank and Woodbridge Co.; trustee United States Trust Co. and London and Lancashire Insurance Co. Member Metropolitan and Union League Clubs, American Geographical and St. Nicholas Societies, Century Association and American Museum of Natural History.

RHOADES, JOHN HARSEN, JR.—Banker, 20 Broad street, New York City; residence 121 Madison avenue. Born in New York City, Feb. 6, 1869. (Son of John Harsen and Annie G. [Wheelwright] Rhoades.) Educated at Harvard ('92). (Married Katharine P. Kimball.) Member of the firm of Rhoades & Richmond, and of the New York Stock Exchange. Member Harvard and University Clubs and St. Nicholas Society.

RHOADES, JOHN W.—Newspapers, 26 City Hall place, New York City; residence 266 Hancock street, Brooklyn. Born in New York City, 1847. Educated at Brooklyn Polytechnic Institute. (Married.) Was manager of New York News Co. Now director American News Co. Member Lincoln Club of Brooklyn, and Housatonic Club of Connecticut.

RHOADES, LYMAN—President, 120 Broadway, New York City; residence 132 West 70th street. Born in Catskill, N. Y., Oct. 6, 1847. Educated in New York City. (Married.) President and director Mercantile Electric Co.; president and trustee Mercantile Safe Deposit Co.; trustee American Deposit and Loan Co. Member Lawyers', Richmond Hill Golf, Stockbridge (Mass.) Golf and Barnard Clubs, New York Historical and St. Nicholas Societies, Sons of the Revolution, Society of Colonial Wars and Society of the War of 1812.

RHODES, BRADFORD—Editor and Publisher, 78 William street, New York City; residence Mamaroneck. Born in Beaver County, Pa., Feb. 25, 1848. Educated at Beaver Academy. (Married Caroline A. Fuller, 1878.) Engaged in journalism in New York City since 1872. Established "Rhodes' Journal of Banking" in 1877; consolidated it with the "Bankers' Magazine" which he purchased in 1895, and which he now publishes under the latter name. Member of the New York Legislature, 1888-90; declined nomination for Congress in 1892. President and director Mamaroneck Bank; president and trustee Union Savings Bank of Mamaroneck; director Tarrytown, White Plains and Mamaroneck Ry. Co. Member Union League, Transportation, Republican and West Side Republican Clubs, Westchester County Historical Society, American Bankers' Association, Chamber of Commerce, Royal Arcanum and of many other bodies.

RIACH, A. FRIDGE—Cotton Goods Merchant, 377 Broadway, New York City; residence Short Hills, N. J. Member of the firm of W. H. Hinchman & Co. Member New York Athletic, Merchants', Baltusrol Golf and Calumet Clubs.

RICE, ARTHUR L.—Teacher, 215 Ryerson street, Brooklyn; residence 114 Cambridge place. Born in Barre, Mass., May 14, 1870. Educated at Worcester Polytechnic Institute and at Cornell ('96). (Married.) Professor of applied electricity in Pratt Institute. Was assistant engineer Crocker-Wheeler Electric Co.; chief draughtsman Lee Agnew Mfg Co. Member Cornell University Club of New York City, American Society of Mechanical Engineers, American Institute of Electrical Engineers and Society for Promotion of Engineering Education.

RICE, EDWARD C.—Merchant, 114 Produce Exchange, New York City; residence 22 East 60th street. Born in New York City, 1838. Educated in New York City. (Married.) Senior member of the firm of Rice, Quimby & Co. Treasurer New York Produce Exchange; director Importers' and Traders' National Bank and Commonwealth Insurance Co.

RICE, EDWIN T.—Lawyer, 61 Liberty street, New York City; residence 54 Convent avenue. Educated at Dartmouth College. Director Phenix Insurance Co. Member Harlem, Nineteenth Century and Phi Beta Kappa Clubs, New England Society, New York Law Institute and Dartmouth College Alumni Association.

RICE, EDWIN T., JR.—Lawyer, 59 Wall street, New York City; residence 54 Convent avenue. Educated at the College of the City of New York ('80). Secretary and director Tinkham Co.; director Harver Slate Co., Pillsbury-Washburn Flour Mills Co. and Santa Rosa Mining Co. Member University and City Clubs and College of the City of New York Alumni Association.

RICE, HENRY—Wholesale Dry Goods Merchant, 51 Franklin street, New York City; residence 19 East 66th street. Born in Germany, June 23, 1835. Educated in Germany. Member of the firm of Rice, Stix & Co. of St. Louis, Mo., and New York. Held a commission as military storekeeper during the Civil War. Was a member of the Committee of Seventy of 1894. President United Hebrew Charities; vice-president Hebrew Orphan Asylum; trustee Baron de Hirsch Fund. Member Progress and Harmonie Clubs, Liederkranz, Metropolitan Museum of Art, American Geographical Society and Chamber of Commerce.

RICE, ISAAC LEOPOLD—Manufacturer, Publisher and Lawyer, 100 Broadway, New York City; residence 400 West End avenue. Born in Wachenheim, Rhenish Bavaria, Feb. 22, 1850. Educated in Philadelphia, Pa., and at Columbia Law School (LL.B., '80). (Married Julia Hyneman.) Founded the School of Political Science of Columbia University. Took up the practice of railroad law and engaged as counsel and director in the lines now constituting the Southern Ry. Co. Founded "The Forum" (publication) in 1885. Has been quite prominent in chess and invented the Rice Gambit, a new chess opening. Author of "What is Music?"; also many articles in the "North American Review," "The Century," "The Forum" and other magazines. President and director Chicago Electric Traction Co., Electric Boat Co., Electric Launch Co., Electric Vehicle Co., Forum Publishing Co., Holland Torpedo Boat Co. and Siemens and Halske Electric Co. of America; director Consolidated Rubber Tire Co., Electric Storage Battery Co., National Electric Car Lighting Co. and Pennsylvania Electric Vehicle Co. Member Lawyers', Lotos, Press, Manhattan Chess and Harmonie Clubs, St. George's Chess Club of London, England, American Geographical Society and Association of the Bar of the City of New York.

RICE, JOSEPH M.—Physician and Editor, 111 Fifth avenue, New York City; residence 19 East 95th street. Born in Philadelphia, Pa., 1857. Educated in Philadelphia, at the College of the City of New York and at the College of Physicians and Surgeons of Columbia University (M.D., '81). (Single.) Editor of "The Forum." Practiced medicine in New York City, 1881-8; studied psychology and pedagogics at the Universities of Jena and Leipzig, 1888-90. Author of "The Public School System of the United States" and "The Rational Spelling Book;" also of many published articles on educational subjects. Member Cosmos Club of Washington, D. C., and Metropolitan Medical Association.

RICE, WILLIAM GORHAM—Director in Business Corporations, 135 Washington avenue, Albany. Born in Albany, Dec. 23, 1856. Educated at Albany Academy. (Married Harriet L., daughter of John V. L. Pruyn, 1892.) Paymaster-General of the State of New York, 1875-85; assistant private secretary to Governor Grover Cleveland, 1883-4; private secretary to Governor David B. Hill, 1885-9; United States Civil Service Commissioner, 1895-8. Member Reform and Manhattan Clubs of New York City, Fort Orange Club of Albany, Metropolitan and Cosmos Clubs of Washington, D. C., Sons of the Revolution and Military Order of the Loyal Legion.

RICH, CHARLES ALONZO—Architect, 35 Nassau street, New York City; residence 257 West 91st street. Born in Beverly, Mass., Oct. 22, 1855. Educated at Dartmouth College. Studied architecture in the United States and in Europe. Practicing in New York City since 1880. Member Atlantic Yacht Club, Architectural League, American Institute of Architects, Sons of the American Revolution, and Metropolitan Museum of Art.

RICH, CLAYTON E.—Broker, 28 Cotton Exchange, New York City; residence 140 West 132d street. Born in Vermont, 1844. Educated at Norwich (Vt.) University. (Married.) Member Harlem Club.

RICH, G. BARRETT—Banker, 1305 Main street, Buffalo. Born in Buffalo, May 5, 1849. Educated in Buffalo and in Europe. (Married.) Connected with Buffalo Commercial Bank for twenty-eight years; fourteen years as its president; resigned in February, 1895. Was prominent in military matters, and was Paymaster-General on the staff of Governor Grover Cleveland. Member Buffalo and Liberal Clubs, Historical Society, and all the Masonic organizations in the city.

RICHARD, AUGUST—12 East 69th street, New York City. Director Buffalo, Rochester and Pittsburgh Ry. Co. and United States Equitable Gas Co. Member Seawanhaka-Corinthian Yacht and Metropolitan Clubs, American Geographical Society, Metropolitan Museum of Art and American Museum of Natural History.

RICHARD, EDWIN A.—Dry Goods Merchant, 45 Leonard and 20 Greene streets, New York City; residence 134 East 73d street. Member New York Athletic, Wool and Merchants' Central Clubs.

RICHARD, EDWIN H.—Banker and Broker, 61 Broadway, New York City; residence 3 East 43d street. Member of the firm of C. B. Richard & Co., members of the Consolidated Stock and Petroleum Exchange. Director State Bank. Member New York Athletic and Harmonie Clubs and Liederkranz.

RICHARD, OSCAR L.—Banker, 61 Broadway and 378 Grand street, New York City; residence 46 East 72d street. Member of the firm of C. B. Richard & Co. and of the Consolidated Stock and Petroleum Exchange. President and director State Bank. Member Reform and New York Athletic Clubs and Liederkranz.

RICHARDS, DICKINSON W.—Lawyer, 141 Broadway, New York City; residence 190 Park avenue, Orange, N. J. Educated at Yale ('80). Member of the firm of Richards & Heald. Member University and Yale Clubs and Association of the Bar of the City of New York.

RICHARDS, EDGAR—Analytical Chemist, 341 West 88th street, New York City. Born in New York City, Feb. 23, 1858. Educated at St. Paul's School, Concord, N. H., and at School of Mines of Columbia University. (Single.) Was assistant chemist in United States Department of Agriculture from July, 1882 to June, 1887, and chemist in the Internal Revenue Bureau, United States Treasury Department, from June, 1887 to January, 1892. Member American Chemical, London Chemical and Paris Chemical Societies, Society of Chemical Industry, Society of Public Analysts, American Institute of Mining Engineers, American Public Health Association and American Association for the Advancement of Science.

RICHARDS, EDWARD O.—Fire Protection, 416 Broadway, New York City; residence 105 East 19th street. Born in New York City, Jan. 18, 1857. Educated at Phillips Exeter Academy and Harvard University. (Married.) Alternate to General Horace Porter at Republican State Convention of 1893. Member of committee on fire protection and insurance of the Merchants' Association; secretary and director Automatic Fire Alarm Co.; director Boston Automatic Fire Alarm Co. and General Fire Extinguisher Co. Member Harvard, Delta Kappa Epsilon and Calumet (ex-governor) Clubs, Society of Colonial Wars, Sons of the Revolution and New York Zoological Society.

RICHARDS, EUGENE LAMB, JR.—Lawyer, 31 Nassau street, New York City; residence 210 West 57th street. Born in New Haven, Conn., June 14, 1863. Educated at Yale ('85). (Married Florence W. Elmen-dorf.) Special Deputy Attorney-General; counsel for Insurance Department, State of New York; director New York and New England Liability Indemnity Co. Member Lawyers', Yale, Richmond County Country, and Staten Island Cricket and Baseball (president) Clubs.

RICHARDS, F. ST. JOHN—Publisher, 154 Nassau street, New York City; residence 617 Hancock street, Brooklyn. Born in Richmond, Va., Dec. 21, 1866. Educated in New York and North Carolina. (Single.) Manager eastern office "St. Louis Globe-Democrat." Member Sphinx Club, Crescent Athletic Club of Brooklyn, and Brooklyn Institute of Arts and Sciences.

RICHARDS, FRANCIS H.—Patent Attorney and Engineer, 9 Murray street, New York City; residence Hartford, Conn. Born in New Hartford, Conn., Oct. 20, 1850. Educated in New Britain and New Haven, Conn. (Married.) President American Association of Inventors and Manufacturers. Has been granted more than six hundred United States patents. Member Engineers' Club and American Society of Mechanical Engineers.

RICHARDS, FREDERICK B.—Wood Pulp, Ticonderoga. Born in Sandy Hill, N. Y., Aug. 1, 1865. Educated at Union College. (Married) Constance Emily Zorn, June 12, 1895. Member of the firms of E. Richards & Son, and Hooper & Richards, doing business under the name of North River Garnet Co., North River, N. Y. Treasurer Stockbridge & Atkinson Co. Was president village of Ticonderoga, 1898-1900. Member Society of Colonial Wars, Ticonderoga Historical Society and Psi Upsilon Fraternity.

RICHARDS, GEORGE—Lawyer, 141 Broadway, New York City; residence 186 Park avenue, Orange, N. J. Born in Boston, Mass., March 23, 1849. Educated at Yale ('72) and at Columbia Law School. (Married.) Was lecturer on insurance law in Columbia Law School. Senior member of the firm of Richards & Heald. Author of "Richards on Insurance." Member University Club, Athletic Club of Orange, N. J., Yale Alumni and Down Town Associations and Association of the Bar of the City of New York.

RICHARDS, GUY—Lawyer, 16 Exchange place, New York City; residence 11 East Ninth street. Educated at Columbia ('87). Member University Athletic and University Clubs, Columbia University Alumni Association and Association of the Bar of the City of New York.

RICHARDS, HAMILTON C.—Lumber Merchant, 70 Beaver street, New York City; residence 217 West 105th street. Born in Albany, N. Y., July 5, 1861. Educated at Albany High School. (Married.) Confidential clerk for Robert R. Sizer & Co.; lumber purchasing agent for Adriaance, Platt & Co. of Poughkeepsie, N. Y. Member Albany Society.

RICHARDS, JAMES GORE KING—"Burnside," Irvington. Born in New York City, 1869. (Married.) Member Union Club of New York City, and Ardsley Casino of Ardsley-on-Hudson.

RICHARDS, JEREMIAH—Dry Goods Merchant, 83 Grand street, New York City; residence 319 West 87th street. Born in Boston, Mass., Oct. 1, 1844. Educated at English High School. (Married.) Member of the firm of Spielmann & Co. Member Merchants', New York Athletic, Union League and Megantic Fish and Game Clubs, Sons of the Revolution, Society of Mayflower Descendants, Society of Colonial Wars, New York Historical Society and Metropolitan Museum of Art.

RICHARDS, T. ADDISON—Artist and Author, 53 East 23d street, New York City. Born in London, England, Dec. 3, 1820. Came to the United States in 1831; resident of Georgia until 1844, since then of New York City. Studied art at the National Academy of Design. (Widower.) Professor of art at New York University since 1868. Has traveled considerably and has painted many landscapes; was for many years a contributor of illustrated articles to "Harper's Magazine." Author and illustrator of "The American Artist," "Georgia Illustrated," "Romance of American Landscape," "Summer Stories of the South," "Pictures and Painters" and of Appleton's "Handbooks of Travel." Member National Academy of Design, Lafayette Post, G. A. R., and Metropolitan Museum of Art.

RICHARDS, WILLIAM F.—Draughtsman and Civil Engineer, Central Park opposite East 64th street, New York City; residence 29 Willow street, Brooklyn.

Educated at Union College. Connected with the Park Department of New York City. Member Hardware Club, Crescent Athletic Club of Brooklyn, and Union College Alumni Association.

RICHARDS, WILLIAM W.—Insurance, 32 Nassau street, New York City; residence 40 Central Park, South. Educated at Harvard ('68). Comptroller of the Mutual Life Insurance Co. of New York. Member University, Mendelssohn Glee and Harvard Clubs.

RICHARDSON, A. FRANK—Advertising Agent and Publisher, 5 Beekman street, New York City; residence 109 West 74th street. Director T. A. Slocum Co. Member Fulton, New York Athletic, Colonial, Lotos, Press, Manhattan and Hardware Clubs and Metropolitan Museum of Art.

RICHARDSON, CLIFFORD—Mechanical Engineer, Long Island City; residence 122 East 34th street, New York City. Born in Worcester, Mass., March 6, 1856. Educated at Harvard ('77). (Married.) Assistant chemist in United States Department of Agriculture, 1878-87; inspector of asphalt and cements in United States Engineering Department, 1887-94. Superintendent of tests for the Barber Asphalt Paving Co. since 1896. Member Seawanhaka-Corinthian Yacht Club and American Society of Mechanical Engineers.

RICHARDSON, DWIGHT S.—Manufacturer of Furnaces and Ranges, 234 Water street, New York City; residence 21 West 54th street. Born in Boston, Mass., Dec. 18, 1850. (Married.) Treasurer Richardson & Boynton Co. Member Union League, New York Athletic and Fulton Clubs, Hamilton Club of Brooklyn, and Sons of the Revolution.

RICHARDSON, FRANK D.—Mechanical Engineer, 22 Thames street, New York City; residence 400 McDonough street, Brooklyn. Born in Newton, Mass., June 6, 1871. Educated at Massachusetts Institute of Technology. (Single.) Assistant electrician American Telephone and Telegraph Co. Was instructor Massachusetts Institute of Technology. Member Massachusetts Institute of Technology Society of New York.

RICHARDSON, FRANK W.—Manufacturer, Auburn; residence 46 South street. Born in New York City, Dec. 24, 1862. Educated at Trinity College ('84). (Married.) Member of the firm of G. W. Richardson & Son. Commissioner of education of Auburn; president Kindergarten Association; trustee George Junior Republic Association, Freeville, N. Y.; corresponding secretary Cayuga County Historical Society. Was president Auburn Board of Trade and member of state committee of Young Men's Christian Association. Member University and National Arts Clubs and Trinity Alumni Association of New York City, and Military Order of the Loyal Legion.

RICHARDSON, OSCAR F.—Banker, 60 Wall street, New York City; residence 692 Madison street, Brooklyn. Born in Massachusetts, 1840. Educated in public schools. Second vice-president Trust Company of New York; trustee Kings County Building and Loan Association and Nassau Trust Co. of Brooklyn.

RICHEY, ALBERT S.—Ornamental Architectural Iron and Bronze Work, Borden and Review avenues, Long Island City; residence 127 Penn street, Brooklyn. Born in Saltsburg, Pa., Jan. 1, 1856. Educated in Mount Pleasant, Pa. (Married.) Manager of the firm of Richey, Browne & Donald. Member Indian Harbor (Conn.) Yacht Club, and City Club, National Sculpture Society and Manufacturers' Association of New York City.

RICHMOND, JOHN R. H.—Capitalist, 41 Franklin street, Buffalo; residence 844 Delaware avenue. Born in Jersey City, N. J., April 4, 1873. Educated at Hobart College, Geneva, N. Y. (Single.) Vice-president Ozark Plateau Land Co.; treasurer United States Aerating Fountain Co.; secretary Buffalo Cast Iron Pipe Co.; treasurer Crystal Water Co. Was first lieutenant of Troop "B," Buffalo City Guard. Member of the Buffalo Merchants' Exchange. Member Buffalo, Liberal, University, Country and Polo Clubs, Sons of the American Revolution, Kappa Alpha Fraternity, Buffalo Fine Arts Academy, Society of Artists and other organizations.

RICHMOND, STACY C.—Banker, 20 Broad street, New York City; residence Dongan Hills, S. I. Born in New Bedford, Mass., Aug. 22, 1867. (Son of James H. C., and Hannah Katherine [Courtis] Richmond.) Educated at Harvard ('90). (Married May M. Dunn.) Member of the firm of Rhoades & Richmond, members of the New York Stock Exchange. Member Harvard Club.

RICKARD, RICHARD D.—Secretary and Treasurer, 56 Beaver street, New York City; residence Summit, N. J. Born in Eagle River, Mich., 1856. Educated at Rensselaer Polytechnic Institute. (Married.) Connected with the New York, Ontario and Western Ry. Co. Secretary and treasurer Ontario, Carbondale and Scranton Ry. Co. Member Delta Kappa Epsilon Club and American Institute of Mining Engineers.

RICKERSON, CHARLES L.—Hay and Grain Merchant, 54 Harrison street, New York City; residence 51 Eighth avenue, Brooklyn. Born in Greene County, N. Y. (Married.) President and director Otis Elevating Ry. Co., Catskill and Tannersville Ry. Co. and Arizona Cattle Co.; vice-president and director Catskill and New York Steamboat Co. (Ltd.); director Cairo R. R. Co. and Santa Cruz Park Association. Member Montauk, and Riding and Driving Clubs of Brooklyn.

RICKSECKER, C. A.—Episcopalian Clergyman, Buffalo; residence 160 Auburn avenue. (Married.) Rector Grace Episcopal Church.

RICKSECKER, THEODORE—Manufacturing Perfumer, 22 Reade street, New York City; residence 364 West 121st street. Born in Canal Dover, Ohio, June 7, 1846. Educated in Canal Dover. (Married.) President Theodore Ricksecker Co. Ex-president American Manufacturing Perfumers' Association. Member Ohio Society.

RIDDER, HERMAN—Publisher, Tryon row, New York City; residence 447 East 84th street. President and director "Catholic News" Publishing Co.; treasurer and director "New Yorker Staats-Zeitung" Corporation; director Emigrant Industrial Savings Bank. Member Democratic, Reform, Manhattan, Press, Catholic and Hardware Clubs and Liederkrantz.

RIDEING, WILLIAM HENRY—Editor and Author, 291 Fifth avenue, New York City; residence 55 East 76th street. Born in Liverpool, England, Feb. 17, 1853. Educated in private schools. Became interested in journalism at an early age. Has been on the editorial staffs of the Springfield (Ill.) "Republican," "New York Times," New York "Tribune" and London (England) "Dramatic Notes." Now associate editor "Youth's Companion" and "North American Review." Author of "Pacific Railways Illustrated," "A Saddle in the Wild West," "Alpenstock," "Young Folks' History of London," "The Boyhood of Living Authors," "Thackeray's London," "A Little Upstart," "In the Land of Lorna Doone," "The Captured Cunarder" and "At Hawarden With Mr. Gladstone." Member Twilight and Players' Clubs, and St Botolph Club of Boston, Mass.

RIDER, GEORGE A.—Life Insurance, 115 Broadway, New York City; residence 311 West 46th street. Born in Seymour, Conn., March 20, 1859. (Widower.) Member Knickerbocker Club.

RIDER, IRA EDGAR—Secretary, 10 City Hall, New York City. Born in Jersey City, N. J., Nov. 17, 1868. Educated in public schools, at the College of the City of New York, at St. Lawrence University and at Cornell. Was appointed secretary to the president of the Borough of Manhattan in 1898, which position he now holds. Has contributed considerably to current literature and is well known as a lecturer.

RIDER, JOHN M.—Lawyer, 27 Pine street, New York City; residence 176 Sixth avenue, Brooklyn. Educated at Union College. Member of the firm of Rider & Smith. Member Psi Upsilon Club, Montauk and Marine and Field Clubs of Brooklyn, and Union College Alumni Association.

RIDGWAY, JAMES W.—Lawyer, 100 Broadway, New York City; residence 246 Gates avenue, Brooklyn. Member of the firm of J. W. & C. W. Ridgway.

Formerly district attorney of Kings County for three terms. Member New York Yacht and Democratic Clubs, and Brooklyn Club.

RIDPATH, JOHN CLARK—Historian, 156 Fifth avenue, New York City; residence 31 West 25th street, and Greencastle, Ind. Born in Filmore, Putnam Co., Ind., April 26, 1841. (Son of Abraham and Sally [Matthews] Ridpath.) Educated at a district school and at Asbury (now De Pauw) University ('63). Syracuse University conferred upon him the degree of LL.D. in 1880. (Married Hannah R. Smythe.) Superintendent of schools, Lawrenceburg, Ind., 1866-9; member of the faculty and vice-president of De Pauw University, 1869-85; held the chairs of English literature, history and political economy. Among his many works may be mentioned "An Academic History of the United States," "Grammar School History," "Popular History of the United States," "Life and Work of James A. Garfield," "History of the World" (four vols.), "Life and Work of James G. Blaine," "Great Races of Mankind," "Life and Times of William E. Gladstone," "History of the United States" (eight vols.), "James Otis, a Monograph" and "Notable Events of the Nineteenth Century." Associate editor of the "People's Encyclopedia" since 1881; literary director for Jones Bros. Publishing Co. of Cincinnati and New York. Member Phi Beta Kappa Society and Western Association of Writers (president).

RIEFE, JOHN—Brewer, Avenue A and East 54th street, New York City; residence 173 East 94th street. Born in Geestermünde, Germany, Sept. 9, 1844. Educated in Germany. (Married.) President and director Consumers' Brewing Co.; secretary, treasurer and director Clausen & Price Brewing Co.

RIEGER, WILLIAM H.—Tenor, 18 East 22d street, New York City. Born in New York City, March 22, 1862. Educated in common schools. (Single.) Has given concerts throughout the United States and in Europe.

RIES, HEINRICH—Geologist and Expert on Clays, Cornell University, Ithaca. Born in Brooklyn, N. Y. Educated at Columbia (Ph.B., '92, A.M., '94, and Ph.D., '96), and in Europe. (Married.) Was assistant director of New York scientific exhibits at World's Columbian Exposition; judge of awards at Atlanta Exposition; assistant in mineralogy at Columbia University; lecturer in New York City public schools and consulting geologist to the Troy Steel Co. Now instructor in economic geology at Cornell University; also clay technologist in the Division of Mineral Resources of the United States Geological Survey. Fellow Geological Society of America, New York Academy of Science and American Association for the Advancement of Sciences. Member National Geographical Society and American Institute of Mining Engineers.

RIGBY, GEORGE NORTON—Lawyer, Warburton Building, Yonkers; residence Yonkers. Born in Newark, N. J., July 10, 1874. Educated at Cornell ('95) and New York Law School. (Married.) President State Title and Investment Co.; secretary Westchester County Republican Club. Ex-justice of the peace. Member Cornell University Club of New York City, Sigma Alpha Epsilon Fraternity, Sons of the American Revolution and Yonkers Historical Society.

RIGGS, FRANCIS B.—Banker, 3 Broad street, New York City; residence 10 West 43d street. (Single.) Member of the firm of Maxwell & Scoville, members of the New York Stock Exchange; director Vermont Marble Co. Member Metropolitan, Tuxedo, Union and Racquet and Tennis Clubs.

RIGGS, LOUIS WARNER—Chemist, 414 East 26th street, New York City. Born in Maine, April 13, 1862. Educated at the University of Maine ('85). Degree of A.M. and Ph.D. (Married Alice Jane Merrill, of Cumberland, Me., 1889.) Instructor in chemistry, physics and toxicology at New York University, 1893-8. Now instructor in chemistry and physics in Cornell University Medical College. Member American Chemical and German Chemical Societies and of various other scientific bodies.

RIIS, JACOB AUGUST—Journalist and Author, 301 Mulberry street, New York City; residence Richmond Hill, L. I. Born in Ribe, Denmark, May 3, 1849. Educated in Denmark. (Married Elizabeth D. Nielsen, 1876.) Was for a time police reporter on the New York "Sun." Has been active in tenement house and school reform, and was secretary of the New York Small Parks Commission in 1897. Author of "How the Other Half Lives," "The Children of the Poor" and "Out of Mulberry Street."

RIKER, CHARLES L.—Chemical Merchant, 46 Cedar street, New York City; residence 19 West 57th street. Educated at Columbia (95). Member of the firm of J. L. & D. S. Riker. Member New York Athletic, St. Anthony and University Clubs and Down Town Association.

RIKER, HENRY LAWRENCE—Chemical Merchant, 46 Cedar street, New York City; residence Seabright, N. J. Born in New York City, 1860. (Son of John L. Riker.) Educated at Columbia. Member of the firm of J. L. & D. S. Riker. Member New York Athletic and Mendelssohn Glee Clubs, Columbia University Alumni and Down Town Associations and Sons of the Revolution.

RIKER, JOHN JACKSON—Chemical Merchant, 46 Cedar street, New York City; residence 298 Lexington avenue. Member of the firm of J. L. & D. S. Riker. Member Union, St. Nicholas, New York Yacht and American Yacht Clubs, Down Town Association, Sons of the Revolution, Society of Colonial Wars and St. Nicholas and Holland Societies.

RIKER, JOHN LAWRENCE—Chemical Merchant, 46 Cedar street, New York City; residence 19 West 57th street. Member of the firm of J. L. & D. S. Riker. Vice-president and director Bank of New York, and Bank of the State of New York; vice-president, treasurer and trustee Fifth Avenue Safe Deposit Co.; vice-president and trustee Atlantic Trust Co.; director Buffalo, Rochester and Pittsburg R. R. Co., Central and South American Telegraph Co.; Continental Insurance Co., Eagle Fire Insurance Co., Eastern Dynamite Co., Fidelity and Casualty Co., Greenwich Insurance Co., Hanover Fire Insurance Co., Hercules Powder Co., Lafin and Rand Powder Co., Moosic Powder Co., New Jersey Zinc Co., New York and Boston Dyewood Co., Niagara Fire Insurance Co., Plaza Bank, Providence and Stonington Steamship Co., Repauno Chemical Co. and St. Paul and Duluth R. R. Co.; trustee Atlantic Mutual Insurance Co., Farmers' Loan and Trust Co. and Greenwich Savings Bank. Member Metropolitan, City, Union League, St. Nicholas, Mendelssohn Glee, New York Athletic, Riding, New York Yacht and Seawanhaka-Corinthian Yacht Clubs, St. Nicholas and Holland Societies, Society of Colonial Wars, Down Town Association, Sons of the Revolution and American Museum of Natural History.

RIKER, SAMUEL—Retired Lawyer, 145 Nassau street, New York City; residence 27 East 69th street. Born in Newtown, Queens Co., N. Y., April 10, 1832. (Son of John L. and Lavinia [Smith] Riker.) Educated in private schools in Queens County. (Married.) Was admitted to the Bar in 1853 and practiced in New York City uninterruptedly until his retirement in 1893. Treasurer and trustee Good Samaritan Dispensary; director Third Avenue R. R. Co., Dry Dock, East Broadway and Battery R. R. Co. and Forty-second Street, Manhattanville and St. Nicholas Avenue R. R. Co.; trustee New York Institution for the Instruction of the Deaf and Dumb. Member New York Zoological and New York Historical Societies, Society of Ethical Culture, New York State Bar Association, New York Law Institute, Free Circulating Library, New York Botanical Gardens, Association of the Bar of the City of New York, American Museum of Natural History and Metropolitan Museum of Art.

RILEY, JOHN B.—Lawyer, Plattsburg. Born in Schuyler Falls, N. Y., Sept. 9, 1852. Educated at Plattsburg Academy. (Married.) Member of the firm of Riley & Healey. President board of managers Plattsburg State Normal School; chairman of executive committee Catholic Summer School of America. Was school commissioner and president of the village of Plattsburg, United States Superintendent of Indian Schools and also United States Consul-General at Ottawa, Canada. Member Catholic Club of New York City, and Champlain Club.

RILEY, ROBERT HUDSON—Cashier, 224 Church street, New York City; residence Ariel Villa, Bensonhurst-by-the-Sea. Born in New York City, May 23, 1836. Educated in New Brunswick, N. J., by private tutors. (Married.) Cashier for H. B. Claflin Co. Has a fine collection of art treasures and is a gold medalist of the Society of Science, Letters and Art of London, England. Member Marine and Field, Atlantic Yacht and Folk Lore Clubs, Long Island Historical, New England and New York Anthropological (life member) Societies, Sons of the Revolution, Society of Founders and Patriots of America, and New York Academy of Sciences.

RINCKHOFF, WILLIAM P.—55th street and Avenue A, New York City; residence 457 West 47th street. Born in Hamburg, Germany, Nov. 24, 1846. Educated in Germany. (Married.) President and director Artificial Ice Co.; secretary and director Consumers' Brewing Co.; director Home Bank. Was alderman in 1883, 1888, 1889 and 1890 in New York City. Member Democratic Club and Arion Society.

RINGLER, FREDERICK A.—Electrotyper, 21 Barclay street, New York City; residence 1316 Madison avenue. President, treasurer and director F. A. Ringler Co.; vice-president and director Metropolitan Realty Co. Member and president of the Liederkranz.

RIPLEY, SIDNEY DILLON—Insurance, 120 Broadway, New York City; residence 33 West 53d street, and Hempstead, L. I. Treasurer and director Equitable Life Assurance Society of the United States; director Mount Morris Bank, Union Pacific Ry. Co. and Western National Bank; trustee Mercantile Trust Co. Member Calumet, Metropolitan, City, Union, Lawyers', Racquet and Tennis, Tuxedo, Turf and Field, Meadow Brook Hunt and Westminster Kennel Clubs and Country Club of Westchester.

RITCH, JOHN WARREN—Architect, 512 Manhattan avenue, New York City. Born in Putnam County, N. Y., June 22, 1822. Studied architecture in the office of William Hurry of New York City. Practicing in New York City since 1846, and has been engaged on the designing and construction of many prominent buildings. Editor of the "American Architect," 1847-8.

RITCH, THOMAS GARDINER—Lawyer, 18 Wall street, New York City; residence Stamford, Conn. Born in North Salem, N. Y., Sept. 18, 1833. (Son of Wells R. and Sarah A. [Barnum] Ritch.) Educated in private schools and at Yale College and Law School. Practicing in New York City since his admission to the Bar in 1857. Senior member of the firm of Ritch, Woodford, Bovee & Wallace. Member Lawyers', Yale and Alpha Delta Phi Clubs.

RITCHIE, JOHN W.—Banker and Broker, 18 Wall street, New York City. Born in New York City, April 25, 1864. (Married.) Member of the firm of Lindsley, Yates & Co., members of the New York Stock Exchange. Member Baptist Social Union.

RITTER, FREDERICK W.—Banker and Broker, 18 Wall street, New York City; residence Greenwich, Conn. Born in New York City, Feb. 7, 1853. (Married.) Member of the firm of Floyd-Jones & Robison, members of the New York Stock Exchange. Member Fairfield County (Conn.) Golf and Indian Harbor (Conn.) Yacht Clubs, Greenwich Casino, and Palisade Boat Club of Yonkers.

RIVES, GEORGE BARCLAY—Treasurer, Elizabeth, N. J.; residence 14 West 38th street, New York City. Born in New York City, June 19, 1874. Educated at St. Paul's School and Princeton. (Single.) Treasurer and general manager Elizabeth Horse R. R. Co. Member Knickerbocker and Metropolitan Clubs and Sons of the American Revolution.

RIVES, GEORGE LOCKHART—Lawyer, 32 Nassau street, New York City; residence 14 West 38th street. Born in New York City, May 1, 1849. Educated at Columbia and at Trinity College, Cambridge, England. (Married.) Member of the firm of Olin & Rives. Assistant Secretary of State, 1887-9; member of the Committee of Seventy of 1894. Rapid transit commissioner of the City of New York since 1896; trustee Columbia University and New York Public Library (As-tor, Lenox and Tilden Foundations); director Mercantile Trust Co., and Lawyers' Mortgage Insurance Co. Member City, Players', Tuxedo, Knickerbocker and New York Yacht Clubs, Century, Down Town and Columbia Alumni Associations and Association of the Bar of the City of New York.

ROACH, STEPHEN W.—Iron Manufacturer, 814 East Ninth street, New York City; residence Plaza Hotel. Vice-president Roach Shipyard of Chester, Pa.; treasurer Morgan Iron Works. Member Larchmont Yacht, Lambs', Lotos, Republican, New York Athletic, American Yacht and Douglaston Yacht Clubs.

ROBB, ALEXANDER—Insurance, 100 William street, New York City; residence 346 Washington avenue, Brooklyn. Born in Halifax, Nova Scotia, Oct. 2, 1846. Educated at Hamilton, Canada. (Married Emilie, daughter of W. C. Taylor.) Member of the firm of Pate & Robb. President Santa Cruz Falls Association; member of executive committee Kings County Republican General Committee. Was Presidential Elector in 1897. Member Merchants' Central and Drug Trade (treasurer) Clubs, and Crescent Athletic, Oxford and Union League Clubs of Brooklyn.

ROBB, JAMES HAMPDEN—Retired Banker, 23 Park avenue, New York City. Born in Philadelphia, Pa., Oct. 27, 1846. Educated in private schools, in Europe and at Harvard. (Married Cornelia Van Rensselaer Thayer, of Boston, Mass., 1868.) Engaged in banking and cotton business in New York City, 1866-86. Assemblyman, 1882; State senator, 1884-5; president of the New York City Board of Park Commissioners, 1887-90; declined appointment as Assistant Secretary of State from President Cleveland in 1887; delegate to the National Democratic Convention of 1888; was also treasurer of the original Board of Commissioners of the Niagara State Reservation. Lieutenant-colonel and acting adjutant-general of the 1st Brigade, N. G. N. Y. Member Metropolitan, Knickerbocker, Union (vice-president), Players', Grolier and Harvard Clubs, Century and Down Town Associations, Southern, American Geographical and Dunlap Societies and Metropolitan Museum of Art.

ROBB, NATHANIEL THAYER—Banker and Broker, 24 Nassau street, New York City; residence 110 East 39th street. Educated at Harvard ('93). Member of the firm of Henderson & Co. and of the New York Stock Exchange. Member Knickerbocker, Harvard, University Athletic and University Clubs, and St. Nicholas Society.

ROBBINS, CHANDLER—64 West 47th street, New York City. Member Nineteenth Century and Union Clubs, American Geographical, New England and Municipal Arts Societies, Society of Mayflower Descendants, Century Association, Metropolitan Museum of Art and American Museum of Natural History.

ROBBINS, CLARENCE H.—Retired, 58 Sterling place, Brooklyn, and Lakewood, N. J. Born in Brooklyn, Oct. 13, 1866. Educated in Brooklyn. (Married.) Member Crescent Athletic and Oxford Clubs of Brooklyn, and Oakland Golf Club of Bayside, L. I.

ROBBINS, GEORGE PHELPS—Clerk, 56 East 57th street, New York City. Educated at Yale ('91). Member Yale, University Athletic and University Clubs.

ROBBINS, HENRY A.—Manufacturer of Watch Cases, 21 Maiden lane, New York City; residence 419 Fifth avenue. Member of the firm of Robbins & Appleton. Member Metropolitan, Union League, Tuxedo, South Side Sportsmen's and Union Clubs and New England Society.

ROBBINS, HENRY PELHAM—Builder, 111 Fifth avenue, New York City; residence 419 Fifth avenue. Educated at Columbia ('93). Member Riding, Psi Upsilon, Knickerbocker and University Clubs.

ROBBINS, HERBERT D.—Wholesale Drug Merchant, 91 Fulton street, New York City; residence 814 Madison avenue. Born in Brooklyn, N. Y., Oct. 14, 1862. Educated at Harvard ('84) and at the University of Berlin, Germany. (Married.) Member of the firm of McKesson & Robbins. President New York Quinine and Chemical Works; treasurer College of Pharmacy of the City of New York. Member University, Metropolitan, Knickerbocker and Harvard Clubs, Somerset Club of Boston, Mass., and Down Town Association.

ROBBINS, HORACE WOLCOTT—Lawyer and Artist, 56 East 57th street, New York City. Born in Mobile, Ala., Oct. 21, 1842. Educated at Newton University ('58). Studied art in Europe, landscape painting with James M. Hart, and law at Columbia College Law School, being admitted to the Bar in 1892. Served with the 22d New York Regiment in 1862. Was secretary for ten years and vice-president for two years of the National Academy of Design; served also for a time as president of the Artists' Fund Society. Member University, Lambs' and Barnard Clubs, Century Association and Association of the Bar of the City of New York.

ROBBINS, HOWARD S.—Merchant, 640 Broadway, New York City; residence Hotel Endicott. Born in Massachusetts. President, treasurer or secretary of several corporations, clubs and societies. Member Country Cycle and Arkwright Clubs, Sapelo Rod and Gun Club of Georgia (secretary), Society of Colonial Wars, Sons of the Revolution, League of American Wheelmen (consul), Society of Founders and Patriots of America, Society of the War of 1812, Sons of the American Revolution, Colonial Governors and Society of American Wars.

ROBBINS, JULIAN W.—Banker, 35 Wall street, New York City; residence 127 East 35th street. Member of the firm of Leask & Co., members of the New York Stock Exchange. Member Union Club, and Ardsley Casino of Ardsley-on-Hudson.

ROBBINS, NATHANIEL A.—Physician and Surgeon, 91 Pineapple street, Brooklyn. Born in Florida, 1840. (Son of Nathaniel C. Robbins, who served in the Indian wars in Florida.) Educated at Harvard. (Married.) Served in a surgical capacity during Civil War. Surgeon to the Brooklyn Fire Department since 1884. Member Harvard Club of Boston, Mass., and Crescent Athletic Club.

ROBBINS, ROWLAND A.—Hardware Merchant, 162 Duane street, New York City; residence 962 Fifth avenue. Engineer with rank of major on staff of Brigadier-General J. M. Varian, N. G. N. Y., 1882. President and director Manhattan Supply Co. Member Union League and Players' Clubs, American Museum of Natural History, Metropolitan Museum of Art, Sons of the Revolution, American Geographical Society, Society of Colonial Wars and Chamber of Commerce.

ROBBINS, SAMUEL HOWLAND—20 East 27th street, New York City. Member board of stewards National Steeplechase Association, and of the Metropolitan, Knickerbocker, Union, Manhattan, Racquet and Tennis, Whist, and Turf and Field Clubs, Country Club of Westchester, American Geographical Society, Scientific Alliance, Metropolitan Museum of Art and American Museum of Natural History.

ROBERSON, ALONZO, JR.—Manufacturer, 313 Chenango street, Binghamton; residence 82 Main street. Born in Binghamton, Nov. 16, 1861. Educated in Binghamton. (Married.) Director People's Bank. Member Binghamton Whist, Binghamton and Dobson Clubs and Protection Hose Co.

ROBERT, HENRY J.—Lawyer, 132 Nassau street, New York City; residence 1142 Flatbush avenue, Brooklyn. Born in Brooklyn, Dec. 5, 1872. Educated at Brooklyn Polytechnic Institute and New York Law School (LL.B.). (Single.) Member New York Yacht Club, and Atlantic Yacht and Crescent Athletic Clubs of Brooklyn.

ROBERT, HENRY MARTYN (Colonel)—United States Army, 39 Whitehall street, New York City; residence Haworth, N. J. Born in Robertville, Beaufort District, S. C., May 2, 1837. (Son of Joseph T. and Adelaide [Lawton] Robert.) Educated at United States Military Academy ('57). (Married Helen M., daughter of Ebenezer Thresher LL.D., of Dayton, Ohio.) Served in Union Army during Civil War; engineer officer on staff of General McClellan, 1862-3; promoted to a captaincy in 1863. Professor of military engineering at West Point, 1865-7; major, 1867; lieutenant-colonel, 1883; engineer commissioner of the District of Columbia, 1890-1. Connected with the improvement and fortification of rivers and harbors since 1867 and has been president of the Board of Engineers on Fortifications since 1895. Author of "Robert's Rules of Order." Member Military Order of the Loyal Legion.

ROBERTS, CHARLES F.—Physician, Sixth avenue and 55th street, New York City; residence 56 West 33d street. Born in New York City, 1842. Educated at Bellevue Hospital Medical College (M.D.). (Single.) Sanitary superintendent to the Department of Health of the City of New York. Member Larchmont Yacht, New York Athletic, Manhattan and Democratic Clubs and American Public Health Association.

ROBERTS, CHARLES H.—Banker, 335 Schermerhorn street, Brooklyn; residence 132 Lincoln place. Born in New York City, July 21, 1842. Educated in Hartford, Conn. (Married.) Enlisted Aug. 28, 1862, in 44th Regiment Massachusetts Volunteer Infantry. Wounded in action at Rawles Mills, N. C.; declined commission as captain in 4th Massachusetts Volunteer Colored Infantry; transferred to chief commissary department, 18th Army Corps, at Newbern, N. C., in 1863. Was cashier Harlem Bank and Empire State Bank. President and director Schermerhorn Bank. Member executive committee New York State Bankers' Association.

ROBERTS, CHRISTOPHER H.—Importer, 10 Washington place, New York City; residence 1237 Fulton avenue. Member of the firm of Roberts, Cushman & Co. Member Harlem Club, New York Entomological, Brooklyn Entomological, Washington Entomological and Ontario Entomological Societies, Academy of Science of Philadelphia, Pa., and Brooklyn Institute of Arts and Sciences.

ROBERTS, DUNCAN INGRAHAM—Passenger Agent, 21 Cortlandt street, New York City. Born in Waynesboro, Pa., June 27, 1853. Educated in public schools and at Western University of Pennsylvania. Entered railway service in 1873 as freight clerk with Pittsburg, Cincinnati and St. Louis Ry. Co. General passenger agent in New York City of the Erie R. R. Co. since 1891.

ROBERTS, EDWARD E.—Manufacturer, 39 Cortlandt street, New York City; residence Red Bank, N. J. President, general manager and director Roberts Safety Water Tube Boiler Co. Member Atlantic Yacht, Delta Kappa Epsilon and Army and Navy Clubs.

ROBERTS, ELLIS HENRY—Treasurer of the United States, Treasury Department, Washington, D. C.; residence Utica, N. Y. Born in Utica, Sept. 30, 1827. Educated at Yale ('50). Degree of LL.D. from Hamilton College in 1869, and from Yale in 1884. (Married Elizabeth Morris, 1851.) Was for thirty-five years editor and proprietor of the Utica "Morning Herald." Assemblyman, 1866; Congressman, 1871-5; Assistant Treasurer of the United States, 1889-93; president of the Franklin National Bank, New York City, 1893-7. Treasurer of the United States since 1897. Trustee of Hamilton College since 1872. Author of "The Planting and the Growth of the Empire State." Member Republican, Patria and Yale Clubs and Phi Beta Kappa and Authors' Societies, all of New York City.

ROBERTS, EVELYN PIERREPONT—Civil and Contracting Engineer, 22 William street, New York City; residence Yale Club. Born in Fort Leavenworth, Kan., Dec. 25, 1848. Educated at Yale. (Single.) President and general manager Mohegan Granite Quarrying Co. Member Yale, Calumet and Balsam Lake Clubs, American Society of Civil Engineers, Yale Alumni Association, Sons of the Revolution and Military Order of the Loyal Legion.

ROBERTS, GEORGE I.—Engineering, 471 Fourth street, New York City. Born in Biddeford, Me., June 14, 1859. Educated at Somersworth (N. H.) High School and at Bryant & Stratton's Business College, Boston, Mass. (Married.) President and director George I. Roberts & Bros. Was superintendent for F. Tudor, heating and ventilating engineer, for several years. Member New York Athletic Club, Americus Lodge, Americus Chapter, York Commandery, No. 55, and Mecca Temple, F. & A. M.

ROBERTS, ISAAC PHILLIPS—Professor, Cornell University, Ithaca; residence 37 East avenue. Born in Seneca County, N. Y., July 24, 1834. Educated at Seneca Falls Academy and at Iowa Agricultural College (M.Agr.). (Married Margaret J. Narr, 1857.) Director of the College of Agriculture, professor of agriculture and dean of the agricultural faculty at Cornell University. Was associate editor of the "Country Gentleman;" president of the New York State Agricultural Society, 1895-6; also president of the New York State Dairymen's Association. Member Society for the Promotion of Agricultural Science, Society for the Promotion of Agriculture and New York State Agricultural Society.

ROBERTS, JAMES A.—Lawyer, 319 Mooney-Brisbane Building, Buffalo; residence 1115 Delaware avenue. Born in York County, Me., March 8, 1847. Educated at Bowdoin College (A.B., '70). (Married.) Member of the firm of Roberts, Becker, Messer & Groat. President National Beet Sugar Co., Union Surety and Guaranty Co. and American Industrial Co.; vice-president Buffalo Loan, Trust and Safe Deposit Co.; director City National Bank. Member Buffalo and Ellicott Clubs, Sons of the American Revolution and Society of Colonial Wars.

ROBERTS, JOHN J.—Manufacturer, 1123 Broadway, New York City; residence 841 President street, Brooklyn. Treasurer and director United States Mortar Supply Co.; trustee Mechanics' and Traders' Exchange. Member Montauk Club of Brooklyn, Building Trades Club and Blooming Grove Park Association.

ROBERTS, JOSEPH BANKS—Lawyer, 319 Mooney-Brisbane Building, Buffalo; residence 1115 Delaware avenue. Born in South Waterboro, Me., Nov. 18, 1873. Educated at Bowdoin College (A.B., '95) and University of Buffalo (LL.B., '99). (Single.) Member of the firm of Roberts, Becker, Messer & Groat. Secretary National High Temperature Furnace and Metallurgical Co. and De Graff & Roberts Cut Stone Co., both of Buffalo; director Depew (N. Y.) Mfg. Co. Member Independent and University Clubs, Society of Colonial Wars, Sons of the American Revolution, Alpha Delta Phi and Phi Delta Phi Fraternities and New York State Historical Association.

ROBERTS, NATHAN B.—Importer, 10 Washington place, New York City; residence 1359 Dean street, Brooklyn. Born in South Egremont, Mass., June 25, 1841. Educated at New York Free Academy, now College of the City of New York, ('62). (Married.) Member of the firm of Roberts, Cushman & Co. Member Mendelssohn Glee Club, Sons of the Revolution, St. Nicholas Society, Military Order of the Loyal Legion, American Institute and United States Veterans' Signal Corps.

ROBERTS, RICHARD S.—Importer, 10 Washington place, New York City; residence 260 Clinton avenue, Brooklyn. Born in Manchester, Vt., Sept. 17, 1818. Educated in public schools. (Married, 1847.) Senior member of the firm of Roberts, Cushman & Co. for forty-four years. Alderman from the Twentieth Ward of Brooklyn, 1880-1. Member New England Society and Historical Society of Brooklyn (life).

ROBERTS, WILLIAM W. W.—Manufacturing Stationer, 157 Pearl street, New York City; residence 205 Lincoln road, Flatbush. Born in Lyme, Conn., Dec. 8, 1868. Educated at Gonzaga College, Washington, D. C. (Married.) Member Sons of the American Revolution.

ROBERTSON FRANK W.—Physician and Superintendent, Elmira. Born, 1868. Graduate in medicine from the New York College of Physicians and Surgeons. Served for a number of years in Bellevue Hospital and advanced until he became head of the staff of the pavilion for the insane. Appointed senior physician at the Elmira Reformatory on April 1, 1900, and upon the resignation of Mr. Brockway on July 31, of that year, was promoted to the superintendency of that institution.

ROBERTSON, HENRY MONTAGUE—Paper Manufacturer, 319 Broadway, New York City; residence 60 West 39th street. Senior member of the firm of H. M. Robertson & Co. Member Reform, New York Athletic and Yale Clubs, Southern Society, Society of Colonial Wars and Sons of the Revolution.

ROBERTSON, MORGAN ANDREW—Author, 521 West 123d street, New York City. Born in Oswego, N. Y., Sept. 30, 1861. (Son of Andrew and Ruth [Glasford] Robertson.) Educated in common schools of Oswego and at Cooper Institute in New York City. (Married Alice M., daughter of William Doyle of Windsor, Conn.) Followed the sea until 1886, in which year he embarked in the jewelry business. Has engaged in the writing of sea stories for periodicals and magazines since 1896. Among his best known works may be mentioned "Spun-Yarn," "Futility" and "Where Angels Fear to Tread."

ROBERTSON, ROBERT H.—Architect, 160 Fifth avenue, New York City; residence 117 East 38th street. Born in Philadelphia, Pa., April 29, 1849. Educated at Rutgers College ('69). Has drawn plans for the construction of many prominent buildings in New York City, including Madison Avenue M. E. Church, St. James P. E. Church, Young Women's Christian Association Building, Church of the Holy Spirit and Mott Haven Railroad Station. Member Mendelssohn Glee and University Clubs, Ardsley Casino of Ardsley-on-Hudson, Century and Aldine Associations, Architectural League and American Institute of Architects.

ROBERTSON, TOURO—Manufacturer, 86 Trinity place, New York City; residence 21 East 56th street. Vice-president and director Assured Building and Loan Association; vice-president and trustee American Bank Note Co.; director International Pulp Co. Member New York Athletic and Bath Beach Clubs, Southern Society and Century Association.

ROBERTSON, WILLIAM H.—Lawyer, White Plains; residence Katonah. Born in Bedford, Westchester Co., N. Y., Oct. 10, 1823. (Son of Henry and Huldah [Fanton] Robertson.) Educated (in Westchester County) in district schools and at Union Academy. Studied law and was admitted to the Bar in 1847. Received the degree of LL.D. from Williams College in 1876. (Married Mary E., daughter of Horatio Ballard, of Cortland County, N. Y., 1865.) Served for several years as superintendent of schools and four terms as supervisor of the town of Bedford. Assemblyman, 1849-50; State senator, 1853; County Judge of Westchester, 1856-67. Was inspector of the 7th brigade of the State Militia for six years and was commissioned to superintend the drafting of troops in Westchester County at the outbreak of the Civil War. Elected to Congress in 1866; State senator, 1872-82; appointed Collector of the Port of New York by President Garfield in 1881. Was a member of the Electoral College which elected Abraham Lincoln in 1860; was for fifteen years a member of the Republican State Committee and was a delegate to the National Republican Convention of 1880. Director Westchester Fire Insurance Co.

ROBESON, ROBERT J.—Lawyer, 280 Broadway, New York City. Born in Brisbane, Australia, July 4, 1868. Educated at Columbia. (Married.) Member of the firm of Quincy, Wendel & Robeson.

ROBIE, REUBEN E.—Lawyer, Bath; residence 23 Robie street. Born in Bath, Sept. 24, 1843. Educated at Hobart College. (Married.) Member Sigma Phi Fraternity and Sons of the American Revolution.

ROBINS, HENRY EPHRAIM—Clergyman and Professor, Rochester Theological Seminary, Rochester; residence 580 West avenue. Born in Hartford, Conn., Sept. 30, 1827. Educated at Newton Theological Institution. Received degree of D.D. from the University of Rochester and LL.D. from Colby University. (Widower.) Rector of Central Baptist Church, Newport, R. I., 1862-7, and of the First Baptist Church of Rochester, 1867-73. President of Colby University, 1873-82; Professor of Christian ethics at Rochester Theological Seminary since 1882. Author of several religious and educational works.

ROBINS, JOHN N.—Transportation, 15 Whitehall street, New York City; residence Orange, N. J. Director Charleston Transportation Line, Miami Steamship Co., North American Transport Co. and Texas Transport and Terminal Co. Member New York Athletic, Larchmont Yacht and Seawanhaka-Corinthian Yacht Clubs.

ROBINSON, ALFRED BROOKES—Lawyer, 170 Broadway, New York City; residence 157 West 74th street. Born in New York City. Educated at Harvard ('87) and at Columbia Law School ('89). (Single.) Member University Athletic and Harvard Clubs, Society of Medical Jurisprudence and Sons of the Revolution.

ROBINSON, ANDREW J.—Builder, 123 East 23d street, New York City; residence 123 West 76th street. Member of the firm of Robinson & Wallace. President and director Highlands of Navesink Improvement Co.; vice-president and director Carteret Steel Co.; director English Enamel Paint Co. and Oriental Bank; trustee East River Savings Institution. Member Baptist Social Union, Aldine Association and Metropolitan Museum of Art.

ROBINSON, BEVERLY W.—Lawyer, 52 Wall street, New York City; residence New Rochelle. Born in New Brighton, N. Y., Dec. 21, 1873. (Married.) Member of the firm of Emmet & Robinson. Member Westchester Country, St. Anthony and Westchester Hunt Clubs.

ROBINSON, CHARLES L. F.—Wholesale Coal Merchant, 1 Broadway, New York City; residence 80 Madison avenue. Member of the firm of Robinson, Hayden & Co. Secretary, treasurer and director South Carolina and Georgia Extension R. R. Co.; director Charleston and Ohio River R. R. Co., George's Creek and Cumberland R. R. Co., Maryland Coal Co. and Polarix Milling and Mining Co. Member New York Yacht, Yale, and Racquet and Tennis Clubs.

ROBINSON, CHARLES MULFORD—Journalist, Rochester; residence 65 South Washington street. Born in Ramapo, N. Y., 1869. Educated at the University of Rochester. (Married.) Connected with the Rochester "Post-Express" and contributor to magazines. Member of the national committee on municipal improvements and civic embellishment of Architectural League of America. Member National Arts Club, Psi Upsilon Fraternity, Phi Beta Kappa Society and Sons of the American Revolution.

ROBINSON, CHARLES PALMER—Public Accountant and Auditor, 31 Nassau street, New York City; residence 66 Clifton place, Brooklyn. Member Society of Foreign Wars, Society of Mayflower Descendants and Sons of the Revolution.

ROBINSON, DAVID C.—Lawyer, Robinson Building, Elmira. Educated at Union College. Member Manhattan and Lawyers' Clubs and Union Alumni Association, all of New York City.

ROBINSON, DOUGLAS—Real Estate, 55 Liberty street and 500 Madison avenue, New York City; residence West Orange, N. J. Educated at Christ Church College ('76), Oxford University, England. Senior member of the firm of Douglas Robinson & Co. Director Lawyers' Mortgage Insurance Co., American Fire Insurance Co. and Tide Water Building Co.; trustee Real Estate Trust Co. Member University and Essex County (N. J.) Country Clubs and Down Town Association.

ROBINSON, DREW KING—Constructing Engineer, 123 East 23d street, New York City; residence 123 West 76th street. Born in New York City, Dec. 10, 1871. Educated at Columbia and Rensselaer Polytechnic Institute. (Single.) Associated with Robinson & Wallace in building construction. Member Delta Kappa Epsilon Club, Aldine Association and Metropolitan Museum of Art.

ROBINSON, FREDERICK M.—Wholesale Drug-gist, 186 Greenwich street, New York City; residence 307 West 93d street. Born in New York City, Feb. 25, 1838. Educated at Paulding Institute in New York City. (Widower.) Member of the firm of R. W. Robinson & Son. Member Unity Bowling and Quill Clubs, Old Guard, Society of Colonial Wars and Board of Trade and Transportation.

ROBINSON, GEORGE B.—Flour Merchant, 18 Broadway, New York City; residence Bedford. Born in Kingston, R. I., March 16, 1842. Educated at University Grammar School, Providence, R. I. (Married.) President New York Catholic Protectors. Member Catholic Club, New England Society and Metropolitan Museum of Art.

ROBINSON, GEORGE H.—Manufacturer, 15 Cortlandt street, 25 Broadway and 357 Canal street, New York City; residence 339 West 57th street. President and director Ericsson Coast Defense Co., Fire Extinguisher Manufacturing Co. and S. F. Hayward & Co.; vice-president and director Gorham Manufacturing Co.; secretary and director Hepworth Steamship Co.; director Rider-Ericsson Engine Co. and William A. Miles & Co.; trustee Bowery Savings Bank and New York Advance Rent Co. Member Barnard, Twilight, New York Athletic and American Yacht Clubs, New England, Dunlap and American Fine Arts Societies, Aldine Association and Metropolitan Museum of Art.

ROBINSON, GEORGE S.—Manufacturer, 739 Broadway, New York City, and 509 River street, Troy; residence 116 Second street, Troy. Secretary and director United Shirt and Collar Co. Member Troy Club, and Reform Club of New York City.

ROBINSON, HENRY A.—Lawyer, 621 Broadway, New York City; residence Yonkers. Born in New York City, July 8, 1859. Educated at Columbia ('80). (Married.) Director Metropolitan Street Ry. Co., Twenty-third Street Ry. Co., Thirty-fourth Street Crosstown Ry. Co., Broadway and Seventh Avenue R. R. Co., Forty-second Street and Grand Street Ferry R. R. Co., Bleecker Street and Fulton Ferry R. R. Co., Central Park, North and East River R. R. Co. and Twenty-eighth and Twenty-ninth Streets Crosstown R. R. Co. Member Larchmont Yacht, St. Andrew's Golf and University Clubs and Association of the Bar of the City of New York.

ROBINSON, ISAAC R.—Storage, 56 Beaver street, New York City; residence 35 Fifth avenue. Member Manhattan, Calumet and New York Clubs, and Brooklyn Club of Brooklyn.

ROBINSON, JAMES A.—Wholesale Dry Goods Merchant, 71 Worth street, New York City; residence 23 East 21st street. Educated at Yale. Member of the firm of Robinson & Schackelton. Member Union League, Yale and Merchants' Clubs and National Academy of Design.

ROBINSON, JAMES HARVEY—Professor, 116th street and Morningside Heights, New York City; residence 170 West 85th street. Born in Bloomington, Ill., June 29, 1863. Educated at Harvard and at the University of Freiburg, Germany (Ph.D., '90). (Married Grace Woodville Read, 1887.) Lecturer on European history at the University of Pennsylvania, 1891; associate professor of same, 1892-5. Professor of history at Columbia University in the City of New York since 1895. Author of "The German Bundesrath" and "Petrarch, the First Modern Scholar"; also of sundry papers upon historical subjects. Member Barnard Club and Century Association.

ROBINSON, JEREMIAH P.—Salt Merchant, 56 Beaver street, New York City; residence 8 East Ninth street, and "Emdalar," Wakefield, R. I. Born in Brooklyn, N. Y., May 1, 1846. Educated in Brooklyn, and in New Haven, Conn. (Married.) Formerly a member of the firm of Woodruff & Robinson, lately Jeremiah P. Robinson & Co. Conducted business of Robinson Stores and Erie Basin Stores until sold to Brooklyn Wharf and Warehouse Co. Member Union League Club, Brooklyn Club of Brooklyn, and of the New York Produce Exchange.

ROBINSON, JOHN M.—Constructing Engineer, 15 Broad street, New York City; residence Teaneck, N. J. Born in New York City, July 19, 1849. Educated at city schools and Cooper Institute. (Married.) Associated with William P. Esterbrook and the Western Union Telegraph Co. Formerly master mechanic Western Union Telegraph Co., chief engineer and superintendent of Mills Building, and engineer for erection of Mills Hotels and Tenements. Member Englewood (N. J.) Field and North Jersey Country Clubs and American Society of Mechanical Engineers.

ROBINSON, NELSON—Stock Broker, 2 Wall street, New York City; residence 23 West 55th street. Educated at Yale. Member of the firm of Homans & Co., and of the New York Stock Exchange. Director Kanawha and Michigan Ry. Co. and North American Co. Member Racquet and Tennis, New York Yacht and Metropolitan Clubs, Country Club of Westchester, Ardsley Casino of Ardsley-on-Hudson, and Yale Alumni Association.

ROBINSON, ROBERT E.—Lawyer, 52 Wall street, New York City; residence New Brighton, S. I. Born in Jamaica, N. Y., Aug. 19, 1843. Educated at Columbia. (Married.) Member of the firm of Emmet & Robinson, counsel to the New York Life Insurance and Trust Co. Member Richmond County Country Club and Columbia Alumni Association.

ROBINSON, SETH B.—Lawyer, 203 Broadway, New York City; residence 719 Madison avenue. Member Republican Club, New England Society and Association of the Bar of the City of New York.

ROBINSON, THOMAS HASTINGS—Lawyer, 48 Wall street, New York City; residence Morristown, N. J. Educated at Columbia ('79). Treasurer and director Buffalo, Thousand Islands and Portland R. R. Co.; secretary and director Building and Sanitary Inspection Co. Member University and Democratic Clubs, Morristown (N. J.) Club, Columbia University Alumni Association and Sons of the American Revolution.

ROBINSON, WILLIAM—Banker and Broker, 18 Wall street, New York City; residence 33 East 57th street. Born in Syracuse, N. Y., Aug. 7, 1851. (Married.) Member of the firm of Floyd-Jones & Robison, and of the New York Stock Exchange. Member Union, Union League, Racquet and Tennis, New York Yacht and South Side Sportsmen's Clubs, St. Nicholas Society and Sons of the Revolution.

ROBY, E. WILLARD—Lawyer, 55 Liberty street, New York City; residence East Williston, L. I. Member Union, Racquet and Tennis, Harvard, Meadow Brook Hunt and Seawanhaka-Corinthian Yacht Clubs, Down Town Association and Association of the Bar of the City of New York.

ROCHE, DAVID J.—Marshal, 1 City Hall, President, 60 Harrison street, and Horseshoer, 314 East 49th street, New York City. Born in New York City, Feb. 13, 1861. Educated in public schools. Chief of the Bureau of Licenses of the City of New York since 1898. President and director New York Horseshoers' Supply Co. Member of the Board of Aldermen, 1890-2, and president of the Local Association of Horseshoers for two years. Member Democratic and Mohegan Clubs.

ROCHESTER, JOHN H.—Retired, 56 South Washington street, Rochester. Born in Rochester, April 20, 1828. Educated in Rochester. (Married.) Formerly president Rochester Historical Society, Rochester Club and Sons of the American Revolution, vice-president Park Commission, secretary and treasurer Mechanics' Savings Bank for over thirty-one years and also former trustee Red Cross Society. Member Rochester Whist and Genesee Valley Clubs, Rochester Historical and Red Cross Societies and Sons of the American Revolution.

ROCHESTER, THOMAS M.—Physician, 2 St. James place, Brooklyn. Member Reform Club of New York City, Marine and Field and Oxford Clubs of Brooklyn, and New York Academy of Medicine.

ROCKEFELLER, JOHN DAVISON—Capitalist, 26 Broadway, New York City; residence 4 West 54th street. Born in Richford, Oswego Co., N. Y., July 8, 1839. Educated in public schools. Became a member of the firm of Clark & Rockefeller, commission merchants, of Cleveland, Ohio, at the age of nineteen, which firm subsequently became Andrews, Clark & Co., and engaged in the production and refinement of oil. As a member of the firm of William Rockefeller & Co., built the Standard Oil Works in Cleveland in 1865, which was consolidated, with other works, in the Standard Oil Co. in 1870. The various companies are now being operated separately with Mr. Rockefeller at the head of the entire business. Among his many benefactions may be mentioned the donation of many millions to the University of Chicago, a building and money donations to Vassar College, and fifty thousand dollars to Tarrytown, N. Y., for the construction of a high-service water tower. Director Missouri, Kansas and Texas R. R. Co., Standard Oil Co. of New York, and Chicago Terminal Transfer Co. Member Union League Club, New England, American Fine Arts and Ohio Societies, Baptist Social Union, Sons of the American Revolution and American Museum of Natural History.

ROCKEFELLER, WILLIAM—Capitalist, 26 Broadway, New York City; residence 689 Fifth avenue. Born in Richland, Tioga Co., N. Y., May 31, 1841. Educated in public schools. (Married Almira Geraldine Goodsell, 1864.) Engaged for a time in the produce commission business. Joined his brother, John D. Rockefeller, in the oil business in Cleveland, Ohio, and has been, since 1865, at the head of the business in New York City. President and director Standard Oil Co. of New York; director Anaconda Copper Mining Co., Brooklyn Union Gas Co., Chicago, Milwaukee and St. Paul R. R. Co., Delaware, Lackawanna and Western R. R. Co., Hanover National Bank, Harlem River and Portchester R. R. Co., Leather Manufacturers' National Bank, Missouri, Kansas and Texas R. R. Co., National City Bank, National Transit Co., New York, New Haven and Hartford R. R. Co., New York Transit Co. and Second National Bank; trustee United States Trust Co., Mutual Life Insurance Co. and Consolidated Gas Co. of New York. Member Metropolitan, Union League, New York Yacht and Riding Clubs, Ardsley Casino of Ardsley-on-Hudson, American Fine Arts and New England Societies, Metropolitan Museum of Art and American Museum of Natural History.

ROCKEFELLER, WILLIAM G.—Capitalist, 26 Broadway, New York City; residence 292 Madison avenue. (Son of William Rockefeller.) Educated at Yale ('92). Connected with the Standard Oil Co. Member Metropolitan, Riding, Yale, Alpha Delta Phi, University and Calumet Clubs.

ROCKWELL, ALPHONSO DAVID—Physician and Surgeon, 113 West 34th street, New York City; residence 357 West 116th street. Born in New Canaan, Conn., May 18, 1840. Educated at Church Hill (Conn.) Institute, Kenyon College and at Bellevue Hospital Medical College (M.D., '64). (Married Susie Landon.) Served in a surgical capacity during the last two years of the Civil War and advanced to the rank of major. Makes a specialty of electro-therapeutics and was for a time professor of same at New York Post-Graduate Medical School. Was a member of the commission appointed by the Governor of New York to aid the State in establishing the new method of execution by electricity. Author of a practical treatise on medical and surgical electricity, and a treatise in connection with the late Dr. Beard on "Nervous Exhaustion." Member Alpha Delta Phi Club, Military Order of the Loyal Legion and George Washington Post, G. A. R.

ROCKWOOD, GEORGE G.—Photographer, Lecturer, Inventor and Writer, 1440 Broadway, New York City; residence 259 West 88th street. Born in Troy, N. Y., April 12, 1832. Educated in Troy. (Married Araminta, daughter of Josiah Bonton of Troy, 1853.) Was for a time local editor of the "Troy Daily Times" and managing editor of the "Troy Daily Post." Now president and director "Rockwood"; trustee Franklin Savings Bank. Author of the scientific hoax "Brain Pictures" published in the New York "Tribune" and republished in almost every country in the world. Member Colonial, Columbia Yacht and Quill Clubs and Sons of the Revolution.

ROCKWOOD, WILLIAM THOMPSON—Lawyer and Financier, 378 Broadway, Saratoga Springs. Born in Newark, Wayne Co., N. Y. (Son of Dr. E. H. and Eliza [Thompson] Rockwood.) Educated in public schools of Newark and at University of Rochester. (Married Emily Nash, 1867.) Soon after graduation opened an academy in Americus, Sumter Co., Ga., the growth of which was very rapid until closed by the interference of the Civil War. Being a member of the local military organization, was ordered to march with it to aid in attempted capture of United States forts. He refused to obey and departed for the North. Was admitted to the Bar in St. Paul, Minn., in 1862; commanded two companies of State troops in Sioux Indian War; mustered into United States service and commanded patrol in the Northwest for purpose of preventing the Chippewa Indians from joining the Sioux; was ordered with his command to join the troops under command of General Alfred Sully, whose command proceeded beyond the Missouri River, and engaged in the heaviest Indian battles fought on the American continent. After repeated encounters with the Indians, which finally effected the complete subjection of the Sioux, the command returned to Fort Ridgely, Minn., in Nov. 1864, concluding an active Indian service of over two years. Was ordered to Murfreesboro, Tenn., where he was detached and appointed judge advocate of a military commission on which he served until April, 1865, when he received his discharge from the army. Entered service of the United States Treasury, becoming corresponding secretary, then inspector of customs for North Carolina and later special agent, and general special United States Treasury agent. Entered wholesale drug business in Chicago under firm name of Mears & Rockwood, and later of Rockwood & Blocki. Became resident of Saratoga in 1873; was an organizer and vice-president of Citizens' National Bank.

RODEMAN, GEORGE—Educator, 63 New York avenue, Brooklyn. Born in Usch, Germany, May 13, 1861. Educated at a gymnasium, at University of Berlin ('85) and at Harvard University (Ph.D., '89). (Single.) Principal of Bedford Academy. Member Union League Club and Liederkrantz.

RODENBOUGH, THEOPHILUS FRANCIS (General)—Police Official, 300 Mulberry street, New York City; residence 57 West 75th street. Born in Easton, Pa., Nov. 5, 1838. Educated at Lafayette College. Served throughout Civil War and lost his right arm at Winchester; advanced to brevet brigadier-general of United States Volunteers and United States Army; received Congressional medal "for distinguished gallantry in action at Trevilian Station, Va., June 11, 1863." Became major of the 42d United States Infantry in 1866 and retired on Dec. 15, 1870, as full colonel of cavalry on account of wounds received in battle. Inspector-General of the State of New York, 1880-3; chief of the Bureau of Elections of the City of New York since 1890. Author of "From Everglade to Canon with the Second Dragoons," "Afghanistan and the Anglo-Russian Dispute," "Uncle Sam's Medal of Honor" and "Autumn Leaves from Family Trees." Member Lafayette Post, G. A. R.

RODEWALD, FREDERICK L.—Stock Broker, 9 Broad street, New York City; residence 49 St. Mark's place, New Brighton, S. I. Born in New Brighton. Member of the firm of J. W. Davis & Co., and of the New York Stock Exchange. Director First National Bank of Staten Island. Member New York Athletic, Richmond County Country and Staten Island Clubs.

RODGERS, ROBERTSON—Stock Broker, 44 Broad street, New York City; residence 129 West 47th street. Member of the firm of Rodgers & Randolph, and of the New York Stock Exchange. Member Union and Racquet and Tennis Clubs and Sons of the Revolution.

RODIE, WILLIAM S.—Wholesale Coal Merchant, 11 Broadway, New York City; residence 16 Central Park, West. Born in Cold Spring, N. Y., Jan. 7, 1857. Educated in Kingston, N. Y. (Married.) With the Delaware and Hudson Co. since 1872. Member of the board of managers Manhattan Club and chairman of the house committee. Member Manhattan, New York Athletic, Democratic, Larchmont Yacht, Country Cycle, Quaint and Winnisook Clubs.

ROE, CHARLES—Lawyer, 721 Powers Building, Rochester; residence 28 North Clinton street. Member Reform Club of New York City, and Genesee Valley Club of Rochester.

ROE, CHARLES FRANCIS (General)—Real Estate, 214 East 34th street, New York City; residence 35 East 37th street. Born in New York City, May 1, 1848. Educated at United States Military Academy ('68). Served in United States Cavalry until Jan. 31, 1888, when he resigned to engage in the real estate business in New York City. Joined Troop "A," New York Volunteer Cavalry, and became major in 1895; was appointed major-general by Governor Frank S. Black on Feb. 9, and brigadier-general of United States Volunteers by President McKinley on June 10, 1898. Resigned Sept. 10, 1898. Member Army and Navy, University, Union League, St. Nicholas, Riding, Barnard, Suburban Riding and Driving, Fencers' and New York Athletic Clubs, American Geographical Society and Sons of the Revolution.

ROE, DAVID, JR.—Dry Goods Merchant, 133 East State street, Ithaca; residence 118 Hudson street. Born in Chester, N. Y., April 9, 1859. Educated in Chester. (Widower.) Senior member of the firm of David Roe, Jr. Member Town and Gown Club.

ROE. JESSE GRANT—Lawyer, 160 Broadway, New York City; residence 181 Convent avenue. Educated at Lafayette College. Member Delta Kappa Epsilon and Lawyers' Clubs, Wantage Outing Club of New Jersey, Lafayette College Alumni Association and Phi Delta Phi and Phi Beta Kappa Societies.

ROEBLING, FERDINAND W.—Manufacturer of Iron and Steel Wire and Wire Rope, 117 Liberty street, New York City; residence 222 West State street, Trenton, N. J. Born in Saxenburg, Butler Co., Pa., Feb. 27, 1842. Educated at Polytechnic College of Philadelphia. (Married.) President Union Mills Paper Co., and Tabulating Machine Co.; secretary and treasurer Roebling Wire Co. of Trenton, N. J.; treasurer New Jersey Wire Cloth Co.; director Stanley Electrical Mfg Co., Mechanics' National Bank of Trenton, International Trust Co. of Maryland, Trenton Street Ry. Co. and United Power and Transportation Co. of Philadelphia. Member Union League, Engineers', Players', Lawyers' and Hardware Clubs, and Blooming Grove Park Association.

ROEBLING, WASHINGTON AUGUSTUS—Manufacturer of Iron and Steel Wire and Wire Rope, 117 Liberty street, New York City; residence 191 West State street, Trenton, N. J. Born in Saxenburg, Pa., May 26, 1837. (Son of John A. Roebling.) Educated at Rensselaer Polytechnic Institute ('57). (Married) Emily Warren, 1865.) Served in Union Army during Civil War; resigned in January, 1865, with rank of brevet-colonel and joined his father who was engaged in the construction of bridges. The Brooklyn Bridge was undertaken by his father, but his death on July 22, 1869, before the work had been begun, left the entire construction in his hands and he directed it to completion. Vice-president and director John A. Roebling & Sons Co. of Trenton, N. J. Member New York Mineralogical Club and Scientific Alliance.

ROEDER, ADOLPH L.—Banker, 52 Broadway, New York City; residence 165 West 58th street. Born in Madison, Wis., June 8, 1870. Educated at the University of Wisconsin. (Single.) Connected with the Orinoco Iron Co. Owner of prominent Colorado mines. Member Manhattan and Lawyers' Clubs.

ROEHR, HENRY EDWARD—Editor and Publisher, 35 Myrtle avenue, Brooklyn; residence 601 Willoughby avenue. Born in Schleiz, Germany, April 27, 1842. Educated in Schleiz and Brooklyn. (Married.) President and director Roehr Publishing Co.; vice-president and director German Savings Bank. Was founder and colonel of the 32d Regiment, N. G. N. Y. Member Military Order of the Loyal Legion, Arion Singing Society and Williamsburg Turn Verein.

ROELKER, ALFRED—Dry Goods Merchant, 76 Leonard street, New York City; residence 202 West 45th street. Director German-American Bank, Germania Fire Insurance Co., International Insurance Co. and Germania Life Insurance Co.; trustee German Savings Bank. Member Merchants' Club, American Geographical Society, Century Association and Metropolitan Museum of Art.

ROESCH, GEORGE F.—Judge, 30 First street, and Lawyer, 309 Broadway, New York City; residence 109 East Tenth street. Born in New York City, June 19, 1855. Educated at St. Nicholas Parochial School, De La Salle Institute and at Columbia College Law School. Judge of the Fourth District Municipal Court; also senior member of the law firm of Roesch & Steiner. Member of the New York State Assembly in 1883, 1885, 1888 and 1889, and of the State Senate, 1890-4. Member New York Press, Catholic, Knickerbocker Athletic and Democratic Clubs, New York State Bar Association, Knights of Columbus, Catholic Benevolent Legion, Beethoven Maennerchor and Gesellig Wissenschaftlicher Verein.

ROESER, JOHN E.—Lawyer, 34 Pine street, New York City; residence 240 West 130th street. Born in New York City, April 11, 1870. Educated in kindergarten, public schools, at College of the City of New York and Columbia University. (Single.) Formerly chairman board of deacons Church of the Puritans; first lieutenant, commanding Company D, 112th Regiment, N. G. N. Y. Member Phi Delta Phi Club, Phi Delta Theta Fraternity and Association of the Bar of the City of New York.

ROGERS, ANDREW B.—Drug Merchant, 80 Maiden lane, New York City; residence 263 Jefferson avenue, Brooklyn. Born Feb. 7, 1851. (Married.) Member of the firm of Rogers & Pyatt. Was Presidential Elector in 1888, and has held a number of local and trade positions of prominence. Member Fulton and Drug Trade Clubs, and Union League and Invincible Clubs of Brooklyn.

ROGERS, ARCHIBALD—Mechanical Engineer, Hyde Park. Born in Jersey City, N. J., Feb. 22, 1852. Educated at Yale ('73). (Married.) Vice-president Cornwall and Lebanon Ry. Co. of Pennsylvania; trustee American Museum of Natural History. Member Metropolitan University, Knickerbocker, Racquet and Tennis, New York Yacht, Yale and Church Clubs, American Geographical Society, Society of Colonial Wars, Society of the War of 1812, Century Association and Sons of the Revolution.

ROGERS, CHARLES B.—Banker, Utica; residence 161 Park avenue. President First National Bank. Educated at Harvard ('88). Member University, and Harvard Clubs of New York City, Society of Colonial Wars and Sons of the American Revolution.

ROGERS, CLARENCE DE WITT—Lawyer, 141 Broadway, New York City; residence Peekskill. Born in New York City, May 26, 1871. Educated at the College of the City of New York and Columbia Law School. (Married.) Member Phi Beta Kappa Society Alpha Delta Phi Fraternity and Association of the Bar of the City of New York.

ROGERS, H. LIVINGSTON—Broker, 7 Pine street, New York City; residence 50 West 17th street. Born in New York City. Educated at the University of New York. (Single.) Formerly first lieutenant and quartermaster 29th Regiment, New York Volunteers, and member of the New York Stock Exchange. Member Reform Club, Colonial Order and the Biographical Society of America.

ROGERS, HENRY A.—Machinery and Supplies, 19 John street, New York City; residence 14 West 72d street. Director Commonwealth Insurance Co.; trustee Bowery Savings Bank; commissioner Board of Education. Member Lotos, Manhattan, Larchmont Yacht, Racquet and Tennis, Lawyers' and New York Athletic Clubs and Chamber of Commerce.

ROGERS, HENRY H.—Capitalist, 26 Broadway, New York City; residence 26 East 57th street. President and director Huntington and Big Sandy R. R. Co., National Transit Co., New York Transit Co. and Ohio River R. R. Co.; vice-president and director Amalgamated Copper Co., Anaconda Copper Mining Co., Arcadian Copper Co., Atlantic Coast Electric R. R. Co., Chesebrough Mfg Co. (Consolidated), East River Gas Co., Federal Steel Co., International Navigation Co., National Dry Docks Ry. Co., National Storage Co., National Union Bank, New Amsterdam Gas Co., New York and Staten Island Electric Co., Rapid Transit Ferry Co., Richmond Borough Co. and Staten Island Electric R. R. Co.; trustee Atlantic Trust Co. Member Engineers', Union League, Metropolitan, New York Yacht and Lotos Clubs, American Fine Arts and New England Societies, Metropolitan Museum of Art and American Museum of Natural History.

ROGERS, HENRY P.—Lawyer, 13 William street, New York City; residence 35 West 49th street. Member Metropolitan, Knickerbocker, Seawanhaka-Corinthian Yacht and Hudson River Ice Yacht Clubs.

ROGERS, HOWARD J.—United States Commissioner, temporary address Paris Exposition, Paris, France. Born in Stephentown, Rensselaer County, N. Y., Nov. 16, 1861. Educated in public schools, at Pittsfield (Mass.) High School ('80) and at Williams College ('84). Taught in Albany Boys' Academy, 1884-92. Was superintendent of New York State educational exhibit at World's Columbian Exposition, Chicago, 1893, and received a special diploma for artistic skill as a designer of exhibits. Secretary of New York State Board of Education, 1894-5; Deputy State Superintendent of Public Instruction, 1895-9. United States commissioner to Paris Exposition of 1900, in charge of educational and social exhibits. Author of "New York at the World's Columbian Exposition."

ROGERS, JACOB S.—Railroad President, 44 Exchange place, New York City; residence Paterson, N. J. President and director Paterson and Hudson River R. R. Co., Paterson and Ramapo R. R. Co. and Union R. R. Co.; director Mobile and Ohio R. R. Co. Member New York Yacht, New York and Union League Clubs and Metropolitan Museum of Art.

ROGERS, JOHN—Sculptor, 440 Pearl street, New York City; residence 567 Park avenue. Educated at Yale. Member Yale Club, Century Association and National Academy of Design.

ROGERS, JOHN, JR.—Physician and Instructor, 48 East 31st street, New York City. Educated at Yale (A.B.). Degrees also of Ph.B. and M.D. Instructor in surgery in Cornell University Medical College, New York City. Member University Athletic and Yale Clubs.

ROGERS, LEBBEUS H.—Manufacturer, 75 Maiden lane, New York City; residence 341 Lenox avenue. President and director Rogers Manifold and Carbon Co. Member Lawyers' and Twilight Clubs and Authors' Society.

ROGERS, NOAH CORNWELL — Lawyer, 111 Broadway, New York City; residence 147 West 81st street. Born in East Berlin, Conn., 1859. Educated at Amherst College ('80) and Columbia Law School. (Married.) Member of the firm of Merrill & Rogers. Director William E. Peck & Co.; trustee United States Savings Bank. Member University, Congregational, Union League, Lawyers', Quill and Barnard Clubs, New England Society, Amherst Alumni Association and Association of the Bar of the City of New York.

ROGERS, ROBERT CAMERON—Author, 698 Delaware avenue, Buffalo. Born in Buffalo, Jan. 7, 1862. (Son of Sherman S. and Christina Cameron [Davenport] Rogers.) Educated at Yale ('83). Among his best-known works may be mentioned "Wind in the Clearing and Other Poems," "Will o' the Wisp, a Sea Tale of the War of 1812," "Old Dorset" and "Chronicles of a New York Country Side." Contributor to "Harper's Weekly" and other periodicals. Member University, Army and Navy, and Reform Clubs of New York City.

ROGERS, SHERMAN S.—Lawyer, 28 Erie street, Buffalo; residence 698 Delaware avenue. Born in Bath, Steuben Co., N. Y., April 16, 1830. Educated in public schools. Studied law and was admitted to the Bar in 1851. (Married Christina Cameron Davenport in 1858; she died on March 16, 1897.) Senior member of the firm of Rogers, Locke & Milburn. Was a member of the Constitutional Convention of 1873, State senator in 1876, unsuccessful candidate on Republican ticket for lieutenant-governor in the same year and a commissioner of the Niagara Reservation. Vice-president and director Bank of Buffalo. Member Buffalo and Saturn Clubs, Union League Club of New York City and New York State Bar Association (ex-president).

ROGERS, THEODORE—Banker, 29 Union square, West, New York City; residence Jamaica, L. I. President and director Bank of the Metropolis. Member Aldine Association and Metropolitan Museum of Art.

ROGERS, WILLIAM A.—Pig Iron Merchant and Manufacturer, Buffalo; residence 309 North street. Born in Berkshire, N. Y., 1851. Educated at Yale. (Married.) Senior member of the firm of Rogers, Brown & Co. President Tonawanda Iron and Steel Co. of North Tonawanda, and Punxsutawney (Pa.) Iron Co.; vice-president Iroquois Iron Co. of Chicago, Ill.; director Columbia National Bank; trustee Erie Savings Bank. Member Century Association of New York City, and Buffalo and University Clubs.

ROGERS, WILLIAM ALLEN—Artist, 166 West 105th street, New York City. Born in Springfield, Ohio, May 23, 1854. Educated in public schools. Artist on the staff of the New York "Daily Graphic," 1872-3, and of "Harper's Weekly," 1877-9. Made political cartoons for "Life" for two years and for the World's Fair edition of "Puck" in 1893. Since 1893 has been cartoonist on "Harper's Weekly." Member Players' Club, Ohio Society and Century Association.

ROGERS, WILLIAM E.—Lawyer, 120 Broadway, New York City; residence 56 East 78th street, and Garrisons. Born in Philadelphia, Pa., April 11, 1846. Educated at the University of Pennsylvania and at West Point Military Academy. (Married Susan L. R., daughter of the late Hamilton Fish, 1868.) Was lieutenant United States Corps Engineers, 1867-70; member of Board of Railroad Commissioners, State of New York, from 1883 to 1892, being chairman for the last five years. Member Metropolitan, Union League and Union Clubs, Society of Colonial Wars and Sons of the Revolution.

ROHE, CHARLES—Provision Merchant, 344 Produce Exchange, New York City; residence 17 West 87th street. Born in New York City, May 12, 1862. Educated in New York City. (Married.) President and treasurer Eastern Live Stock Express Co.; vice-president West Side Bank; trustee North River Savings Bank. Member Transportation Club.

ROHL, FREDERICK R.—Banker and Merchant, 27 William street, New York City; residence 344 West 89th street. Member of the firm of J. M. Ceballos & Co. President and director Long Island Auxiliary Fire Alarm Co.; vice-president and director Manhattan Fire Alarm Co.; assistant treasurer, manager and director Monumental Trading Co. of Baltimore, Md.; secretary and director Arcadia Steamship Co. and New York and Porto Rico Steamship Co. Member Colonial, Suburban Riding and Driving, Atlantic Yacht, New York Yacht and Lawyers' Clubs and Liederkrantz.

ROHRER, ALBERT L.—Electrical Engineer, Schenectady; residence 20 Union street. Born in Farmersville, Ohio, Feb. 29, 1856. Educated in public schools and at Ohio State University. (Married Carrie L. Gould, 1891.) Entered the service of the Thomson-Houston Electric Co. in 1884 and has been with that company and its successor, the General Electric Co., of which he is now superintendent, ever since. Member Ohio Society, American Institute of Electrical Engineers, American Society of Mechanical Engineers and other scientific organizations.

ROKENBAUGH, HENRY SCOTT—Lawyer, 100 Broadway, New York City; residence 504 Fifth avenue. Born in New York City, Feb. 16, 1852. Educated at Rutgers College ('72) and at Columbia Law School ('74). Member St. Nicholas, Manhattan, Lawyers', Players', New York Yacht, New York Athletic and Delta Phi Clubs and St. Nicholas Society.

ROLLINS, EDWARD A.—Banker and Broker, 16 Broad street, New York City; residence 754 Carroll street, Brooklyn. Born in New York City, April 16, 1845. Educated at Commercial and Collegiate Institute of Yonkers, N. Y. (Married Jessie, daughter of John S. Christie.) Member of the firm of Rollins & Co., and of the New York Stock Exchange. Member Montauk Club of Brooklyn, Sons of the Revolution and Society of Colonial Wars.

ROLLINS, PHILIP ASHTON—Lawyer, 32 Nassau street, New York City; residence 205 West 57th street. Educated at Princeton ('89). Member of the firm of Rollins & McGrath. Member Princeton, University Athletic and University Clubs and New England Society.

ROLLINS, WARREN F.—Banker and Broker, 16 Broad street, New York City; residence 754 Carroll street, Brooklyn. Born on Staten Island, Jan. 1, 1877. Educated at Brooklyn Polytechnic Institute. (Single.) Member of the firm of Rollins & Co., members of the New York Stock Exchange. Member Nautilus Boat Club of Brooklyn, Sons of the Revolution and 23d Regiment, N. G. N. Y.

ROLLINSON, CHARLES—Designer, 202 Broadway, New York City; residence 512 Jefferson avenue, Elizabeth, N. J. Born in Brooklyn, N. Y., March 3, 1857. Educated in New York City public schools. (Married.) Member of the firm of Ames & Rollinson.

ROLSTON, LOUIS B.—Lawyer, 22 William street, New York City; residence 318 West 76th street. Member of the firm of Turner, McClure & Rolston. President and director American Turquoise Co. Member Colonial, Manhattan, New York Athletic and Olympic Clubs and Association of the Bar of the City of New York.

ROMAINE, BENJAMIN F., JR.—Lawyer, 120 Broadway, New York City; residence 24 East Tenth street. Educated at Columbia ('71). Member University Club, Columbia University Alumni Association, and Association of the Bar of the City of New York.

ROMAINE, DE WITT C.—Physician, 473 Hudson street, New York City. Born in Buffalo, N. Y., Oct. 22, 1856. Educated at the College of the City of New York (B.S., '77) and New York College of Physicians and Surgeons ('81). (Single.) United States pension surgeon, New York City, since 1893. Member Holland Society.

ROMAINE, GIRARD—Manufacturer, 84 Beaver street, New York City; residence 48 West 73d street. Educated at Columbia. Member of the firm of Romaine & Co. Member Psi Upsilon, New York Athletic and Reform Clubs and Columbia University Alumni Association.

ROMAINE, LOUIS TYSON—Manufacturer, 84 Beaver street, New York City; residence 290 West End avenue. Educated at the University of Heidelberg, Germany ('75). Member of the firm of Romaine & Co. Director Commonwealth Insurance Co. of New York. Member University, New York and Colonial Clubs.

ROMEIKE, HENRY—Press Clippings, 110 Fifth avenue, New York City; residence 111 West 83d street. Born in Riga, Russia, Nov. 19, 1855. Educated in Memel, Prussia. (Married.) Founded the press clipping industry in London, where it attained great importance and widespread influence. Came to the United States in 1887 and took charge of a press clipping bureau, of which he is now the head, and the growth and importance of which is very marked. Member Lotos and Press Clubs.

ROMER, ALFRED—Baker, 77 Harrison avenue, Brooklyn; residence 579 Greene avenue. Vice-president and director John H. Shults Co. and Produce Exchange Building and Loan Co. Ex-president New York Produce Exchange. Member Union League Club, Manufacturers' Association and Sons of the Revolution.

RONALDS, GEORGE LORILLARD—615 Fifth avenue, New York City, and Tuxedo Park. Member Tuxedo, Players', Seawanhaka - Corinthian Yacht, Camera, Metropolitan, Racquet and Tennis, New York Yacht, Larchmont Yacht and Lawyers' Clubs, and Country Club of Westchester.

RONALDS, HENRY JAY—Printer, 656 Hudson street, New York City; residence Rutherford, N. J. Born in Troy, N. Y., May 12, 1860. Educated in Troy common schools. (Married.) President and director H. J. Ronalds Printing Co. Was president Baptist Young People's Union of Brooklyn; member of Board of Education of Rutherford, N. J. for six years. Member Boiling Spring Lodge No. 152, F. & A. M., Royal Arcanum No. 1229, A. O. U. W., Acme Lodge, and Baptist Church, all of Rutherford, N. J.

RONALDS, PIERRE LORILLARD, JR.—Plumbers' Materials, 54 Cliff street, New York City; residence 106 East 38th street. Member of the firm of Ronalds & Johnson Co. Member Metropolitan, New York, Knickerbocker and Tuxedo Clubs.

RONAN, EDWARD D.—Lawyer, 34 Tweddle Building, Albany; residence 22 Willett street. Educated at Union College. Ex-member New York Legislature. Member Fort Orange and Psi Upsilon Clubs, Union Alumni Association and Post No. 63, G. A. R.

RONAYNE, MAURICE—Roman Catholic Clergyman, 39 West 16th street, New York City. Born in County Cork, Ireland, 1828. Studied at Ecclesiastical College at Maynooth, at Laval Seminary and became a Jesuit in 1853. Came to the United States in 1855 and taught for a time at St. John's College, Fordham. Professor of history at St. Francis Xavier College since 1888. Author of "Religion and Science" and other works.

ROOD, OGDEN NICHOLAS—Professor, 116th street and Morningside Heights, New York City; residence 567 Park avenue. Born in Danbury, Conn., Feb. 3, 1831. Educated at Princeton, and in Berlin and Munich, Germany. Degree of A.M. (Married.) Professor of physics at Columbia University since 1863. Was vice-president American Association for the Advancement of Science in 1867.

Author of "The Voice and the Ear," "Modern Chromatics" and seventy-five original investigations, published in American and foreign journals. Member Barnard Club, American Philosophical and American Otological Societies, Yale Alumni and Century Associations, American Association for the Advancement of Science, New York Academy of Medicine (honorary), American Academy of Sciences, National Academy of Design, Metropolitan Museum of Art (honorary Fellow) and National Academy of Science.

ROOME, CLAUDIUS M.—Protestant Episcopalian Clergyman, Christ Church, New York City; residence 253 West 70th street. Born in New York City, 1860. Educated at Columbia College and at General Theological Seminary. (Married.) Chaplain Veterans of 7th Regiment. Member St. Nicholas Club, St. Nicholas Society, Columbia Alumni Association and Military Order of the Loyal Legion.

ROOME, WILLIAM HARRIS—Lawyer, 40 Wall street, New York City; residence 29 West 52d street. Born in New York City, Nov. 10, 1861. Educated by private tutors and at Columbia College ('80) and Law School. Practicing in New York City since his admission to the Bar. Was school trustee of the Nineteenth Ward for four years and a member of the executive committee of the Committee of Seventy of 1894. Member University, Church and City Clubs, St. Nicholas Society, Columbia Alumni Association and Association of the Bar of the City of New York.

ROOME, WILLIAM J.—Real Estate, 11 West 34th street, New York City; residence 101 East 57th street. Born in New York City, June 20, 1857. Educated at New York University. (Married.) President Excelsior Savings Bank. Member Psi Upsilon Club.

ROOME, WILLIAM P.—Tea and Coffee Importer, 133 Water street, New York City; residence Mount Freedom, N. J. Born and educated in New York City. (Married.) Member of the firm of William P. Roome & Co. Vice-president and director Montgomery Auction and Commission Co. Ex-lieutenant-colonel and adjutant-general United States Army; ex-member United States Government Board of Tea Experts. Member Colonial Club and Down Town Association.

ROONEY, JOHN JEROME—Merchant, 66 Beaver street, New York City. Born in Binghamton, N. Y., March 19, 1866. Educated at Mount St. Mary's College (A.B. and A.M.). (Single.) Was for several years a member of the editorial staff of the Philadelphia "Record." Took a position with a brokerage house and later established in business for himself. During the Spanish-American War wrote "Hobson of Santiago," "Victor Blue" and other verse, which was later published in book form under the title, "The Men Behind the Guns."

ROORBACH, HAROLD—Publisher, 132 Nassau street, New York City; residence South Orange, N. J. Born in Brooklyn, N. Y., Aug. 6, 1857. Educated at Yale (Ph.B., '79) and at Columbia (LL.B., '82). (Married.) Member University and Yale Clubs and Dunlap Society.

ROOSA, DANIEL BENNETT ST. JOHN—Physician, 20 East 30th street, New York City. Born in Bethel, N. Y., April 4, 1838. Educated in Boston, Mass., in New York City and at the University and Bellevue Hospital Medical College (M.D., '60). Received degree of A.M. from Yale and LL.D. from the University of Vermont. Was for a time house surgeon in New York Hospital and a member of the faculty of New York University and of the University of Vermont. Now president of the New York Post-Graduate Medical School and professor of diseases of the ear. Author of a treatise on the ear, a treatise on the eye, a work on the necessity of wearing glasses and many other papers. Member Union League Club, St. Nicholas and Holland Societies, Century Association and Sons of the Revolution.

ROOSA, DE WITT—Lawyer, Rondout; residence 77 Fair street, Kingston. Born in Rondout. Educated at Kingston Academy, Phillips Andover Academy and at Yale. (Married.) Member Kingston Club, Holland Society, Psi Upsilon Fraternity, Yale Alumni Association of Eastern New York and Sons of the American Revolution.

ROOSEVELT, CHARLES H.—Lawyer, 52 Exchange place, New York City; residence Pelham Manor. Member St. Nicholas and Holland Societies, American Museum of Natural History and Association of the Bar of the City of New York.

ROOSEVELT, JAMES—Capitalist, 21 Cortlandt street, New York City; residence Springwood, Hyde Park. Born in Hyde Park, 1828. Educated at Union College ('47) and at Harvard. (Married.) President Champlain Transportation Co. and New York and Canada Ry. Co.; vice-president and director Delaware and Hudson Co.; director Farmers' Loan and Trust Co. and City Trust Co. Alternate commissioner to World's Columbian Exposition from New York, 1893; formerly commissioner State Board of Charities and manager Hudson River State Hospital. Member Metropolitan, Union, Delta Phi and University Clubs, Holland Society, Union Alumni and Century Associations and Chamber of Commerce.

ROOSEVELT, JAMES ROOSEVELT—Capitalist, 21 Cortlandt street, New York City; residence 1 East 32d street, and Hyde Park. Director Mercantile Trust Co.; trustee Real Estate Trust Co. Member Metropolitan, Knickerbocker, Seawanhaka-Corinthian Yacht, New York Yacht, Riding, Coaching and Hudson River Ice Yacht Clubs, Country Club of Westchester, Somerset Club of Boston, Mass., St. Nicholas Society and Down Town and Century Associations.

ROOSEVELT, JOHN ELLIS—Lawyer, 44 Wall street, New York City; residence 676 Madison avenue. Member of the firm of Roosevelt & Kobbe. Secretary and director Broadway Improvement Co.; director Elkhorn Valley Coal Land Co. Member Metropolitan, St. Anthony, New York Athletic, Boone and Crockett, Michaux Cycling and Westbrook Golf Clubs and Down Town Association.

ROOSEVELT, ROBERT BARNWELL—Retired Banker, 57 Fifth avenue, New York City, and Sayville, L. I. Born in New York City, Aug. 7, 1829. (An uncle of Governor Theodore Roosevelt.) Studied law and was admitted to the Bar in 1851. Practiced in New York City until 1872, when he retired and became interested in the promotion of clubs and societies for the protection and preservation of game. Was a member of the New York State Fishery Commission for twenty years and its president for most of that time. Congressman, 1873-5; United States Minister to the Netherlands, 1888-90; treasurer of the Cleveland Democracy during the campaign of 1892. Was a prominent war Democrat, one of the founders of the Union League Club, a commissioner of the Brooklyn Bridge and a leader in the fight against the Tweed Ring. Has been a delegate to many Democratic National Conventions. Author of "Game Fish of North America," "Game Birds," "Superior Fishing," "Fish Hatching and Fish Catching," "Five Acres Too Much" and many other works of a similar nature. Director Brigantine Co. and Broadway Improvement Co.; trustee Holland Trust Co. Member Manhattan, Democratic, Lotos, Seawanhaka-Corinthian Yacht and Press Clubs, St. Nicholas, Holland, American Geographical and Authors' Societies, Sons of the American Revolution, National Academy of Design, and Metropolitan Museum of Art.

ROOSEVELT, ROBERT BARNWELL, JR.—Real Estate, 33 Wall street, New York City; residence "The Lilacs," Sayville, L. I. Born in Flushing, L. I., Aug. 20, 1866. Educated at St. Paul's School, Garden City, L. I. (Married.) Member Metropolitan, New York Yacht, Players', Larchmont Yacht, New York Athletic and Camera Clubs, Holland Society and Down Town Association.

ROOSEVELT, SAMUEL MONTGOMERY—Importer, 99 Pearl street, New York City; residence 1032 Fifth avenue, and Roosevelt Hall, Skaneateles. Born in New York City. Educated in Paris, France. President General American Reduction Co. Senior member of the firm of Roosevelt & Schuyler. Ex-school commissioner. Member Knickerbocker, Lambs', Manhattan, Fencers' and Larchmont Yacht Clubs.

ROOSEVELT, THEODORE—Governor of New York State, Capitol, Albany; residence "Sagamore Hill," Oyster Bay, L. I. Born in New York City, Oct. 27, 1858. Educated at Harvard ('80). (Married.) Represented the Thirty-first District in the State Assembly, 1882-4; unsuccessful candidate on the Republican ticket for mayor of New York City, 1886; United States Civil Service Commissioner by appointment of President Harrison, 1889-95; president of the Board of Police Commissioners of New York City, 1895-7; Assistant Secretary of the Navy of the United States by appointment of President McKinley, 1897-8. Resigned from the latter position at the outbreak of the Spanish-American War and organized, with Dr. (now Gen.) Leonard E. Wood, the 1st United States Volunteer Cavalry, popularly known as Roosevelt's Rough Riders, and went to the front in command of same with the rank of lieutenant-colonel. The regiment distinguished itself in action in Cuba, and he was promoted to colonel for gallantry at the battle of La Quasina. Was elected in November, 1898, Governor of New York, for term, 1899-1901. Was nominated by the National Republican Convention held in June, 1900, for Vice-President of the United States on the ticket with William McKinley. Has done considerable big game shooting in the West. Author of "Naval War of 1812" (1881), "Life of Thomas Hart Benton" (1886), "Life of Gouverneur Morris" (1887), "Ranch Life and Hunting Trail" (1888), "History of New York City" (1890), "Essays on Practical Politics" (1892), "The Wilderness Hunter" (1893), "The Winning of the West" (three vols.), "American Political Ideas" (1898), "Hunting Trips of a Ranchman" and "The Rough Riders" (1899). Member Union League, Republican, Seawanhaka-Corinthian Yacht and Harvard Clubs, Delta Kappa Epsilon Fraternity, New York Genealogical and Holland Societies and Century Association.

ROOSEVELT, WILLIAM EMLIN (Major)—Banker, 33 Wall street, New York City; residence 804 Fifth avenue. Born in New York City, April 30, 1857. (Married.) President and director Broadway Improvement Co. and Wessell Silver Co.; vice-president and director Sixth National Bank; director Astor National Bank, Buffalo, Rochester and Pittsburgh Ry. Co., Chemical National Bank, Gallatin National Bank, Indemnity Fire Insurance Co., Mexican Telegraph Co., National Starch Mfg Co., Omaha and St. Louis R. R. Co. and Terminal Improvement Co.; trustee Baloise Fire Insurance Co., Institution for Savings of Merchants' Clerks, New York Life Insurance and Trust Co., Norwich Union Fire Insurance Society and Union Trust Co. Member Metropolitan, City, and Suburban Riding and Driving Clubs, Sons of the American Revolution, Down Town and Century Associations and American Museum of Natural History.

ROOT, CHARLES O.—Retired, 92 Oak street, Binghamton. Born in Chenango Forks, Broome Co., N. Y., Jan. 31, 1830. Educated in common schools of Chenango Forks. (Married.) Was elected clerk of Broome County for a term of three years in 1861, and re-elected in 1864. Engaged in mercantile business, 1867-74, and then acted as local agent for several insurance companies, 1875-90; afterwards was appointed accountant in construction of State Capitol Building at Albany; then was connected with the Metropolitan Street R. R. Co. in New York City as inspector of construction. Formerly treasurer 20th Separate Company, N. G. N. Y., of Binghamton; secretary of Binghamton Street R. R. Co. for twelve years, assisting in its organization and has been director in same. Now connected with the Binghamton Beet Sugar Co., under State appointment as inspector. Member and incorporator Binghamton Club.

ROOT, CHARLES T.—Publisher, 78 Walker street, New York City; residence East Orange, N. J. Has been prominently identified with the interests of trade journalism in New York City for many years. President and director Textile Publishing Co., publishers of the "Dry Goods Economist," the organ of the American dry goods trade; treasurer and director John C. Cochran Co.; director Dry Goods Reporter Co. and Gallison & Hobron Co.; ex-president Root & Tinker Co. Member Merchants' Club and Aldine Association.

ROOT, EDWIN B.—Lawyer, 54 William street, New York City; residence 966 Woody Crest avenue. Born in Waterford, N. Y., Sept. 21, 1863. Educated at Hamilton College and at Columbia Law School. (Married.) Member of the firm of Root & Taylor. Member Sigma Phi and Republican Clubs, Phi Beta Kappa Society and Association of the Bar of the City of New York.

ROOT, ELIHU—Secretary of War of the United States, Washington, D. C., and Lawyer, 32 Liberty street, New York City; residence 25 East 69th street. Born in Cinton, Oneida Co., N. Y., Feb. 15, 1845. (Son of Oren Root.) Educated at Hamilton College ('64) and at the University Law School. Received honorary degree of LL.D. from Yale in June, 1900. (Married.) Member of the firm of Root, Howard, Winthrop & Stimson. Practicing in New York City since his admission to the Bar in 1867. Unsuccessful candidate on the Republican ticket for Judge of the Court of Common Pleas in 1879; United States District Attorney for the Southern District of New York, by appointment of President Arthur, 1883-5; chairman of the Republican County (New York) Committee, 1886; delegate-at-large to the Constitutional Convention of 1894 and was chairman of the judiciary committee. Appointed Secretary of War by President McKinley on Aug. 1, 1899. Director American Surety Co., Bank of New Amsterdam, National Bank of North America, and Title Guarantee and Trust Co. Member Metropolitan, City, Union League (president), Sigma Phi, University, Republican, Shinnecock Golf, Lawyers', Players' and Riding Clubs, Down Town and Century Associations, New England Society (ex-president), Society of Colonial Wars, Sons of the American Revolution, American Museum of Natural History and Association of the Bar of the City of New York.

ROOT, LOUIS CARROLL—Economist, 52 William street, New York City; residence 817 Greene avenue, Brooklyn. Born in Port Byron, N. Y., Sept. 29, 1868. Educated at Cornell ('92). (Married Alice S. Beers of Ithaca, N. Y., 1892.) Fellow in political economy and finance at Cornell, 1892-3; assistant to Indianapolis Monetary Commission, 1897-8. Author of numerous monographs on monetary subjects. Member Cornell University Club and American Economic Association, and secretary of the sound currency committee of the Reform Club.

ROOT, OREN—Professor, Hamilton College, Clinton. Born in Syracuse, N. Y., May 18, 1838. Educated at Hamilton College ('56). Degrees of D.D. from Rutgers College in 1891, and L.H.D. from Union College in 1895. (Married first, Anna J. Higgins of Watford, N. Y., in 1862; died in 1865; second, Ida C. Gordon of Columbia, Mo., in 1867; deceased, 1896.) Practiced law until 1874 when he entered the Presbyterian ministry. Professor of English at the University of Missouri, 1866-71; president of Pritchett College, 1873-6. Now professor of mathematics at Hamilton College. Prominent in Masonic circles and was grand high priest of the Royal Arch Masons in Missouri in 1868, grand commander of the Knights Templar in Missouri in 1871 and grand chaplain of the Grand Lodge, F. & A. M., in New York, 1891-2.

ROOT, OREN, JR.—Railroads, 621 Broadway, New York City; residence 51 West 37th street. Born in Columbia, Mo., June 30, 1873. (Son of Oren and Ida C. [Gordon] Root.) Educated at Hamilton College. (Single.) Assistant to the president of the Metropolitan Street Ry. Co.; secretary, treasurer and director Second Avenue R. R. Co.; director Broadway and Seventh Avenue R. R. Co.; Twenty-third Street Ry. Co., Central Park, North and East River R. R. Co., Bleeker Street and Fulton Ferry R. R. Co. and Forty-second Street and Grand Street Ferry R. R. Co. Member Republican and Sigma Phi Clubs and Sigma Phi Fraternity.

ROPES, CHARLES H.—Lawyer, 66 Broadway, New York City; residence Plaza Hotel. Born in New York City, May 7, 1857. (Married.) Connected with the Idaho Consolidated Mining Co. Member Union League, Metropolitan and New York Athletic Clubs, New England Society and Order of Founders and Patriots of America.

ROPES, WILLIAM HALL—Merchant, 74 Wall street, New York City; residence 125 Willow street, Brooklyn. Born in St. Petersburg, Russia, Aug. 20, 1845. Educated in England. (Married.) Member of the firm of W. Ropes & Co. Trustee American Seamen's Friend Society. Member Hamilton Club of Brooklyn, and Chamber of Commerce.

RORKE, JAMES—China Merchant, 40 Barclay street, New York City; residence 112 Sixth avenue, Brooklyn. President and director Irish Emigrant Society; treasurer and director Nassau Land and Improvement Co.; trustee Emigrant Industrial Savings Bank. Member Hardware Club, and Carleton and Columbia Clubs of Brooklyn.

ROSA, HYMAN B.—Furniture Dealer, Fishkill. Born in Fishkill, Jan. 26, 1829. Educated at Fishkill Academy. (Married.) Second vice-president Fishkill Savings Institute.

ROSE, ABRAM J.—Lawyer, 120 Broadway, New York City; residence Hotel San Remo. Born in Ulster County, N. Y., March 10, 1854. (Married.) Member of the firm of Kellogg, Rose & Smith. Director Blanchard Bros. & Lane. Member Lawyers' Club, Essex Club of Newark, N. J., and New Jersey Whist Club.

ROSE, ACHILLES—Physician, 126 East 29th street, New York City. Born in Germany, Nov. 4, 1839. (Single.) Secretary German Medical Society. Author of "Christian Greece and Living Greek," which has been translated into Greek, German and French, and of which a second Greek edition will be published within the year.

ROSE, FREDERICK—Starch Merchant, 196 Chambers street, New York City; residence 169 Congress street, Brooklyn. Born in Austria, 1850. Educated in Vienna and New York City. (Married.) Senior member of the firm of F. Rose & Co. Member Crescent Athletic, Chess, Civic and Whist Clubs of Brooklyn, and Brooklyn Institute of Arts and Sciences.

ROSE, HUDSON P.—Real Estate, 31 West 42d street, New York City; residence Hotel San Remo. Born in Mercer, Pa., March 23, 1863. Educated at Cornell ('84). (Married.) Member Thousand Island Yacht and Cornell University Clubs.

ROSE, MALCOLM CAMERON—Physician and Surgeon, 194 Broadway, New York City; residence 829 Seventh avenue. Born in Ottawa, Canada, Dec. 20, 1869. Educated at Toronto University, Columbia College and New York College of Physicians and Surgeons (M.D.). (Single.) Member of staff of Vanderbilt and St. Bartholomew's Clinics. Member Crescent Athletic Club of Brooklyn, and Caledonian Society.

ROSE, WILLIAM R.—Lawyer, 261 Broadway, New York City; residence 309 West 81st street. Born in New York City, Feb. 24, 1854. Educated at Columbia Law School. (Married.) Member of the firm of Rose & Putzel. Member Harmonie Club.

ROSENBAUM, HENRY W.—Broker, 60 Exchange place, New York City; residence 25 West 34th street. Member Reform, Racquet and Tennis and Manhattan Chess Clubs and Liederkrantz.

ROSENBAUM, JOSEPH—Expert Accountant, 27 William street, New York City; residence 17 East 95th street. Born in New York City, May 3, 1851. Educated in public schools, at Columbia Grammar School and at Bryant & Stratton's Business College. (Married.) Supervising auditor Central R. R. Co. of Georgia, 1887-90; general auditor Atlantic and Danville R. R. Co. of Virginia, 1891-2; manager "Forum" Publishing Co., 1894-7. Now auditor Kentucky Distilleries and Warehouse Co. and American Spirits Mfg Co.

ROSENBAUM, WILLIAM A.—Patent Lawyer, 41 Park row, New York City; residence New Rochelle. Born in Maine. (Married.) Technical editor "Electrical World." Member New York Electrical Society, American Institute of Electrical Engineers and Franklin Institute of Philadelphia.

ROSENBLATT, EMIL H.—Merchant, 30 Broad street, New York City; residence 237 East 72d street. Born in Hartford, Conn., 1845. (Widower.) Secretary and director Electro-Chemical Storage Battery Co.; trustee Good Government Club "A" (now Citizens' Union Club of Twenty-seventh and Twenty-ninth Assembly Districts) since 1894. Construction and yard master Mexican Central R. R. in 1880 and formerly assistant manager Shaped Seamless Stocking Co. and of Sig. H. Rosenblatt & Co., bankers and brokers; past president and delegate to Independent Order Free Sons of Israel. Served in Spanish-American War as seaman and yeoman in the United States Navy. Member Empire City Lodge No. 206, F. & A. M.

ROSENBLATT, LEO G.—Lawyer, 25 Pine street, New York City; residence 258 West 94th street. Born in New York City, Jan. 15, 1853. Educated at Cornell ('73), Berlin University and Columbia Law School. (Married.) President United Relief Works of the Society for Ethical Culture; ex-director Freundschaft Club. Member Cornell University Club, Good Government Club C and Society for Ethical Culture.

ROSENBLATT, SIGMOND H.—Banker and Broker, 30 Broad street, New York City; residence 55 East 92d street. Born in Hartford, Conn., July 20, 1854. Educated in New York City and Europe. (Married.) Member of the firm of Sig. H. Rosenblatt & Co., and of the New York Stock Exchange.

ROSENDALE, SIMON W.—Lawyer, 57 State street, Albany; residence 325 State street. Born in Albany, 1842. Educated in Albany and Vermont. (Married.) Member of the firm of Rosendale & Hessberg. Director Albany Ry. Co. and National Commercial Bank; trustee National Savings Bank; commissioner New York State Board of Charities. Attorney General of the State of New York, 1892-4. Member Fort Orange, Adelphi and Country Clubs and New York State Bar Association (ex-president).

ROSENFELD, SYDNEY—Dramatist, 1919 Seventh avenue, New York City. Born in Richmond, Va., Oct. 26, 1855. Educated in public schools and by private tutors. (Married) Genie Holtzmeier Johnson of London, England, 1883.) Author of "The Senator," "A Possible Case," "The Club Friend," "The Politician," "A Man of Ideas," "A House of Cards," "The Passing Show" and many other successful plays; also adapter of "The Black Hussar," "Nanon," "The Lady or the Tiger" and other operettas. Member Manhattan Chess and Lotos Clubs.

ROSENSTOCK, EDGAR H.—Lawyer, 87 Nassau street, New York City; residence 55 West 33d street. Born in Petersburg, Va., June 15, 1872. Educated at Cornell ('95). (Single.) Member Cornell and Phi Delta Phi Clubs and of "The Outcasts."

ROSS, CLINTON—Author, 1 West 54th street, New York City. Born in Binghamton, N. Y., July 31, 1861. Educated at Phillips Andover Academy, in Europe and at Yale ('84). Author of "The Scarlet Coat," "A Trooper of the Empress," "Zuleka," "The Countess Bettina," "Heroes of Our War with Spain," "Improbable Tales," "Two Soldiers and a Politician," "The Break o' Day," "Battle Tales" and of many magazine and newspaper stories. Member University Athletic, Players' and University Clubs, Delta Kappa Epsilon Fraternity and Yale Alumni Association.

ROSS, JAMES R.—Real Estate, 1297 Fulton street, Brooklyn; residence 71 Halsey street. Born in Brooklyn, April 19, 1865. Educated in Brooklyn. (Married.) Member Crescent Athletic and Union League (secretary) Clubs.

ROSS, JONATHAN C.—Lawyer, 38 Park row, New York City; residence 41 East 41st street. Born in St. Johnsbury, Vt., March 22, 1867. Educated at St. Johnsbury Academy, Dartmouth College and at Columbia Law School. (Single.) Member Colonial Club, Phi Beta Kappa Society and Association of the Bar of the City of New York.

ROSS, WILLIAM A.—Merchant, 11 South William street, New York City; residence Bard avenue, Livingston, S. I. Born in Ireland. Educated in England. Sole partner in W. A. Ross & Bro. Director Seaboard National Bank and W. A. Ross & Sons (Ltd.) of Belfast, Ireland. Member Richmond Country Club, Down Town Association, and Chamber of Commerce.

ROSS, WILLIAM B.—Lawyer, 71 Wall street, New York City; residence 247 Fifth avenue. Born in New York City, 1831. Educated at Yale ('52) and at Harvard Law School. (Single.) Member University, Union, Yale and Suburban Riding and Driving Clubs, Down Town Association, American Geographical and New York Historical Societies and Association of the Bar of the City of New York.

ROSSITER, CLINTON L.—Transportation, 168 Montague street, Brooklyn; residence 48 Montgomery place. President and director Brooklyn Heights R. R. Co., Brooklyn, Queens County and Southern R. R. Co.; Brooklyn Rapid Transit Co., Brooklyn Union Elevated R. R. Co., Coney Island and Gravesend R. R. Co., Nassau Electric R. R. Co., Sea Beach Ry. Co. and Sea View Ry. Co.; director New York State Railway Association and Queens Borough Electric Light and Power Co.; trustee Franklin Trust Co. Member Hamilton, Montauk, and Marine and Field Clubs.

ROSSITER, EDWARD V. W.—Railroads, Grand Central Station, New York City; residence Flushing, L. I. Born in St. Louis, Mo., July 13, 1844. Educated at Brooklyn Polytechnic Institute. (Married.) Vice-president and director American Safe Deposit Co., Lincoln National Bank and Flushing Bank; secretary, treasurer and director Buffalo and Erie Basin R. R. Co., Crest Creek R. R. Co., Carthage and Adirondack Ry. Co., Mohawk and Malone R. R. Co., New Jersey Junction R. R. Co., New Jersey Shore Line R. R. Co., New York and Harlem R. R. Co., New York and Putnam R. R. Co., Niagara Falls Branch R. R. Co. and Tonawanda Island Bridge Co.; treasurer and director Buffalo, Thousand Islands and Portland R. R. Co., Carthage, Watertown and Sackett's Harbor R. R. Co., Gouverneur and Oswegatchie Ry. Co., and Spuyten Duyvil and Port Morris R. R. Co.; secretary and director New York Central Niagara River R. R. Co. and Walkill Valley R. R. Co.; director Norfolk, Virginia Beach and Southern R. R. Co., Ogdensburg and Lake Champlain R. R. Co., Rutland R. R. Co., Syracuse, Geneva and Corning Ry. Co., Tivoli Hollow R. R. Co., and Troy Union R. R. Co. Member Transportation and Union League Clubs and New England Society.

ROSSITER, STEALY B.—Presbyterian Clergyman, 374 Ninth avenue, New York City; residence 346 West 25th street. Born in Berne, N. Y. Educated in Kinderhook, at Union College and at Union Theological Seminary (D.D.). Pastor of the North Presbyterian Church in New York City since 1874. Formerly representative secretary of Robert McAll Association of America. Member Grand National Curling (ex-chaplain) and Quill (ex-vice-president) Clubs and Union College Alumni and Union Theological Seminary Alumni (ex-president) Associations.

ROST, ERNEST—Publisher, 218 William street, New York City; residence 349 Halsey street, Brooklyn. Born in Brooklyn, March 10, 1863. Educated in public and private schools of Brooklyn. (Married.) President and director H. A. Rost Printing and Publishing Co. Member Arion Singing Society of Brooklyn.

ROST, HERMAN—Publisher, 218 William street, New York City; residence 912 Jefferson avenue, Brooklyn. Born in Brooklyn, July 20, 1861. Educated in public and private schools of Brooklyn. (Married.) Director H. A. Rost Printing and Publishing Co. Member Arion Singing Society of Brooklyn.

ROTH, FILIBERT—Professor, Cornell University, Ithaca; residence 502 North Aurora street. Born in Wurtemberg, Germany, April 20, 1858. Educated at the University of Michigan (B.S.). Was expert in timber physics in the United States Department of Agriculture for eight years. Now assistant professor of forestry, forest manager and instructor in forestry at New York State College of Forestry of Cornell University. Member American Association for the Advancement of Science and American Fine Arts Society.

ROTHSCHILD, LUDWIG—Importer of Buttons, 463 Broadway, New York City; residence 11 East 83d street. Born in Germany, 1841. Educated in Germany. (Married.) Member of the firm of Rothschild Bros. & Co. President and director City Button Works. Member Harmonie and Freundschaft Clubs.

ROTHSCHILD, SIMON F.—Dry Goods Merchant, 422 Fulton street, Brooklyn; residence 241 Hancock street. Born in Eufaula, Ala., June 14, 1861. Educated in New York City. (Married.) Member of the firm of Abraham & Straus. President Hebrew Educational Society; director Williamsburg Trust Co., Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Children and Hebrew Orphan Asylum. Member Harmonie and Century Country Clubs of New York City, and Union League and Brooklyn Clubs.

ROTHSCHILD, V. SYDNEY—Shirt Manufacturer, 43 Leonard street, New York City; residence 4 East 67th street. Born in New York City, May 26, 1870. Educated at Harvard. (Single.) Member of the firm of V. Henry Rothschild & Co. Director Brightside Day Nursery and Hebrew Technical Institute. Member Harvard, City History, Dry Goods, Century Country and Harmonic (director) Clubs and Chamber of Commerce.

ROTHWELL, RICHARD PENNEFATHER—President, Editor, and Civil and Mining Engineer, 253 Broadway, New York City; residence 43 East 64th street. Born in Ingersoll, Ontario, Canada, May 1, 1836. (Son of John and Elizabeth [Garnet] Rothwell.) Educated in boarding schools, at Trinity College in Toronto, Rensselaer Polytechnic Institute (C.E., '58), Imperial (now National) School of Mines in Paris, France, and at Freiberg (Germany) Mining Academy. (Married.) Returned to the United States in 1863 and engaged in engineering. During the period 1863 to 1873 had charge of a number of large collieries, and during a portion of this time was engineer to the Hazard Mfg Co., and had built for them from his own original designs their large machines for making wire rope; also designed and built a number of coal breakers into which he introduced important improvements; on his advice the locomotive was first introduced in the anthracite mines (mines of the Lehigh Coal and Navigation Co., near Mauch Chunk, Pa.) in 1869. In 1871, he organized the American Institute of Mining Engineers and served for a time as its president. Acquired an interest in the Scientific Publishing Co., publishers of "The Engineering and Mining Journal" in 1873, and became one of its editors and general manager of the company; subsequently became its president and managing editor of its publication, which, under his administration, has been for a quarter of a century recognized in every country as the leading mining and metallurgical paper and the highest professional authority in its field in the world. Commenced the publication of "The Mineral Industry. Its Statistics, Technology and Trade" in 1892, of which eight annual volumes have appeared and which in 1898, was awarded the gold medal of the Société d'Encouragement pour l'Industrie Nationale de France, a medal which is given for the work which has exercised during the six preceding years the greatest influence on the progress of French industry. Has made several elaborate topographical and railroad surveys and contour maps, one of which (that of the Wyoming Valley coal fields) has since been adopted by the United States and Pennsylvania Geological Surveys. Member Lotos, Larchmont Yacht, Press and Reform Clubs, American Institute of Mining Engineers, American Society of Civil Engineers, American Statistical Society, Geological Society of France, and of many other organizations; Fellow Geological Society of London, England, and Royal Statistical Society; honorary member Institute of Mining and Metallurgy of London, and Australian Institute of Mining Engineers.

ROUILLION, LOUIS—Instructor, 116th street and Morningside Heights, New York City; residence 601 West 132d street. Born in Brooklyn, N. Y., 1866. Educated at Cornell ('91). (Married.) Instructor at Columbia University in the City of New York. Member Delta Phi Club and 7th Regiment, N. G. N. Y.

ROUND, WILLIAM M. F.—Secretary, 135 East 15th street, New York City; residence College Point, L. I. Born in Pawtucket, R. I., March 26, 1845. Educated in public schools, at Brown University (A.M.) and at Harvard Medical School. (Married Ellen Miner Thomas, a grand-daughter of Hon. Charles Miner, 1877.) Was in charge of the New England department of the Vienna Exposition of 1873. Has been interested in prison reform work for over twenty-five years and has been corresponding secretary of the Prison Association of New York since 1883. Was United States delegate to prison congresses held at Rome and Paris, and to the Congrès d'Anthropologie Criminelle held at Brussels. Director National Prison Association of the United States. Member Quill Club.

ROUNDS, ARTHUR C.—Lawyer, 96 Broadway, New York City; residence 256 West 100th street. Born in Cleveland, Ohio, Dec. 28, 1862. Educated at Amherst College ('87) and at Harvard Law School ('90). (Single.) Connected with the firm of Carter, Hughes & Dwight. Professor of law in New York University Law School. Member University, Harvard and Barnard Clubs, Phi Beta Kappa Alumni Association and Association of the Bar of the City of New York.

ROUNDS, RALPH S.—Lawyer, 96 Broadway, New York City; residence 256 West 100th street. Born in Cleveland, Ohio, Sept. 3, 1864. Educated at Amherst College and at Columbia Law School. (Single.) Senior member of the firm of Rounds & Dillingham. Professor in New York University Law School. Member Chi Psi, Phi Delta Phi and Phi Beta Kappa Societies and Association of the Bar of the City of New York.

ROUSE, HENRY CLARK—Chairman and President, 45 Wall street, New York City; residence The Waldorf-Astoria. Born in Cleveland, Ohio. (Single.) President Southwestern Coal and Improvement Co.; president and chairman of the board of directors Missouri, Kansas and Texas R. R. Co., and director in several other railroad companies. Member Metropolitan, Lawyers', Racquet and Tennis, Riding, New York Yacht and Seawanhaka-Corinthian Yacht (ex-commodore) Clubs, Roadside and Union Clubs of Cleveland, Country Club of Glenville, Eastern Yacht Club of Massachusetts, Essex County Club of Boston, Tarpon Club of Texas, Down Town Association and American Geographical Society.

ROWE, GEORGE H.—Editor, 133 Greenpoint avenue, Long Island City; residence 149 Oakland street, Brooklyn. Born in New York City, May 14, 1847. Educated at Public School No. 65. (Married.) Was deputy comptroller of Brooklyn, 1895-7. Member Press Club of New York City, Press and Hanover Clubs of Brooklyn, De Witt Clinton Commandery No. 27, Knights Templar, New York Consistory, Noble Order of the Mystic Shrine and a thirty-second degree Mason.

ROWE, WILLIAM H., JR.—Manufacturer of Knit Goods, 93 Franklin street, New York City; residence 293 Central Park, West, and Hartford. Educated at Fort Edward Institute and at Syracuse University. Was appointed assistant quartermaster-general of New York, with rank of colonel, by Governor Flower in 1891. Actively engaged in business in New York City since the death of his father in 1898; also has large business interests in Troy. President and director New York Casualty Co., Wayside Knitting Co. of Troy, and Eagle and Red Star Knitting Mills of Rockton; treasurer and director W. H. Rowe & Son, Van Brocklin & Stover Co. of Amsterdam, and Office Supply Co. of Troy; director Union Waste Co. of Troy, American Steel and Wire Co., and Central National Bank of Troy; trustee Syracuse University and Troy Conference Academy. Member Psi Upsilon Fraternity.

ROWE, WILLIAM V.—Lawyer, 52 Wall street, New York City; residence 133 East 38th street. Born in Stoneham, Mass., Oct. 28, 1861. Educated in public schools, Boston, Mass., and at Boston University. (Married.) Connected with the firm of Evarts, Choate & Beaman. Member New England Society, Down Town and Civil Service Reform Associations and Association of the Bar of the City of New York.

ROWELL, GEORGE F.—100 William street, New York City; residence Brooklyn. Born in Amesbury, Mass., Feb. 10, 1871. Educated at Massachusetts Institute of Technology. (Single.) Member editorial staff of "The Engineering Record."

ROWELL, GEORGE P.—Publisher and Advertising, 10 Spruce street, New York City; residence Buckingham Hotel. President and director George P. Rowell Advertising Co.; treasurer and director Ripans Chemical Co.; director W. D. Wilson Printing Ink Co. Member Union League Club, Presbyterian Union, American Geographical and New England Societies, Metropolitan Museum of Art and American Museum of Natural History.

ROWLAND, CHARLES LEONARD—Mechanical Engineer, 114 Greene street, Brooklyn; residence 61 Morton street. Born in Brooklyn, Nov. 28, 1852. Educated in common schools of Fairfield, Conn. (Married Alice Lucille Ackerly, of Brooklyn, 1883.) Proprietor of the Morton Iron Works. Member Young Republican Club, Engineers' Club of New York City, American Society of Civil Engineers and other organizations.

ROWLAND, E. D. MORGAN—Broker, 54 Exchange place, New York City; residence Calumet Club. Born in New York City, Nov. 21, 1872. Educated in England. (Single.) Member of the firm of Hough & Rowland, and of the New York Stock Exchange. Member Calumet Club.

ROWLAND, EUGENE A.—Lawyer, 131 West Dominick street, Rome; residence 304 George street. Born in Boonville, N. Y., Feb. 29, 1864. Educated at Madison University (A.B., '84, and A.M., '91). (Married.) Attorney for Rome Brass and Copper Co., Rome Mfg Co., Rome Tube Co., American Surety Co. of New York City, and other corporations. Was assistant district attorney Oneida County, 1893-4; United States commissioner, 1890-1900, and ex-director Church Insurance Association of Rochester. Member Te-uge-ga Country Club (director), Sons of the American Revolution and Colgate University Alumni Association.

ROWLAND, GEORGE—Broker, 54 Exchange place, New York City; residence Greenwich, Conn. Born in Circleville, Ohio, May 15, 1845. Educated in Windsor, Conn. (Married.) Member of the firm of Tilghman, Rowland & Co., members of the New York Stock Exchange. Trustee Manhattan Eye and Ear Hospital. Member New England Society, American Museum of Natural History and Sons of the Revolution.

ROWLAND, HENRY EDWARDS—Lithographer, 218 Fulton street, New York City; residence 75 East 66th street. Educated at Yale. Member Union League and Yale Clubs and Presbyterian Union.

ROWLAND, HOWARD J.—Accountant, 418 North Washington street, Rome. Born and educated in Rome. (Married.) Head accountant and general assistant to manager Rome Brass and Copper Co. Member Rome Club and Sons of the American Revolution.

ROWLAND, JOHN H., JR.—Livery, 460 De Kalb avenue, Brooklyn; residence 476 De Kalb avenue. Born in Brooklyn, 1864. Educated at Adelphi Academy. (Widower.) Formerly paying teller East Brooklyn Savings Bank. Member Union League and Crescent Athletic Clubs of Brooklyn.

ROWLAND, THOMAS FITCH—Mechanical Engineer and Machinist, Greenpoint, L. I.; residence 329 Madison avenue, New York City. Connected with the Continental Iron Works. Member American Yacht and Union League Clubs, American Geographical and New England Societies, Society of Colonial Wars, American Society of Mechanical Engineers, American Society of Civil Engineers and Sons of the Revolution.

ROWLAND, THOMAS FITCH, JR.—Mechanical Engineer and Machinist, Greenpoint, L. I.; residence 133 Hooper street, Brooklyn. Connected with the Continental Iron Works. Director Greenpoint Savings Bank and Mechanics' and Traders' Bank. Member Union League Club of New York City, Hamilton Club, American Society of Civil Engineers and American Society of Mechanical Engineers.

ROWLEE, WILLARD WINFIELD—Botanist, Cornell University, Ithaca; residence 11 East avenue. Born in Fulton, N. Y., Dec. 15, 1861. Educated at Fulton Academy and at Cornell (B.L., '88 and D.Sc., '93). (Married.) Assistant professor of botany and superintendent of the University grounds at Cornell since 1896. Contributor to "Botanical Gazette," "Torrey Bulletin," "American Naturalist," "Science" and other publications. Member American Association for the Advancement of Science, American Society of Naturalists, Society for the Promotion of Agricultural Science and Pennsylvania Forestry Association.

ROWLETTE, THOMAS M.—Lawyer, 35 Nassau street, New York City; residence 38 East 29th street. Born in Missouri, Jan. 22, 1862. Educated at Knox College, Galesburg, Ill., Columbia Law School and School of Political Science. (Single.) Member Knickerbocker Athletic Club, New York State Bar Association and Association of the Bar of the City of New York.

ROWLEY, JOHN—Taxidermist, 77th street and Central Park, West, New York City. Born in Hastings-on-Hudson, N. Y., March 11, 1866. (Son of John and Marianne [Preston] Rowley.) Educated at Brooklyn Polytechnic Institute ('86) and at Columbia College Law School ('89). (Single.) Assistant taxidermist at the American Museum of Natural History, 1889-93, and chief taxidermist since 1893. Author of "The Art of Taxidermy." Member Hudson River Yacht Club, New York Zoological Society, Linnean Society of New York, and American Ornithologists' Union.

RUBENS, HORATIO SEYMOUR—Lawyer, 56 New street, New York City. Born in New York City, June 6, 1869. Educated at the College of the City of New York (A.B., '88 and M.S., '98) and at Columbia College Law School (LL.B., '90). (Married) Claudine Lamar, 1898.) Practicing in New York City since his admission to the Bar in 1890. Was counsel to the Government of San Salvador under Ezeta administration in 1894 and has been general counsel to the Republic of Cuba and to the Cuban Junta since 1895. Is an authority on international law, upon which he has written many monographs. Member Association of the Bar of the City of New York.

RUBSAMEN, ERNEST B.—Silk Merchant, 722 Broadway, New York City; residence Murray Hill, N. J. Born June 2, 1861. (Married.) Vice-president Cedar Cliff Silk Co. Member New York Athletic Club.

RUCKSTUHL, FRED WELLINGTON—Sculptor, 939 Eighth avenue, New York City. Born in Alsace (Breitenbach), May 22, 1853. Educated in Paris. (Single.) Second vice-president Architectural League; member of executive council of National Sculpture and Municipal Art Societies. Ex-secretary National Sculpture Society and was member of jury on fine arts at International Exposition, Atlanta, Ga. Member Lambs', Fencers', Strollers' and Arts Clubs.

RUDD, HENRY W.—Lawyer, 30 Broad street, New York City; residence 35 West 32d street. Member Colonial, New York Athletic and Calumet Clubs and Association of the Bar of the City of New York.

RUDD, ROBERT SCHELL—Lawyer, 35 Nassau street, New York City; residence Glen Ridge, N. J. Educated at Hamilton College ('79). Director Ball & Wood Co. and Hammerschlag Mfg Co. Member University and Alpha Delta Phi Clubs, Down Town Association and Metropolitan Museum of Art.

RUE, FRANCIS J.—Silk Manufacturer, 484 Broome street, New York City; residence 372 West End avenue. Born in Philadelphia, Pa., June 25, 1851. Educated in Philadelphia. (Married.) Member of the firm of Fleitmann & Co. Member Merchants' Central and Union League Clubs, Baptist Social Union, Sons of the American Revolution, Pennsylvania Society and Atlantic Lodge No. 178, F. & A. M.

RULAND, IRVING—Real Estate, 5 Beekman street, New York City; residence 53 Linden avenue, Flatbush, L. I. Born in Brooklyn, N. Y., Aug. 26, 1866. Educated at Adelphi Academy and at Harvard ('89). (Single.) Member of the firm of Ruland & Whiting. Ex-secretary and director Real Estate Exchange and Auction Room (Ltd.); director and governor of Real Estate Board of Brokers for three years. Member Harvard and University Clubs, Sons of the Revolution Squadron "A," N. G. N. Y., and Troop "A," New York Volunteer Cavalry Association.

RULAND, MANLY A.—Real Estate, 5 Beekman street, New York City; residence 53 Linden boulevard, Flatbush, L. I. Born in Brookhaven, L. I., Sept. 2, 1833. Educated at Wesleyan University. (Married.) Member of the firm of Ruland & Whiting. Director J. E. Linde Co. and Metropolitan Realty Co.; trustee Brooklyn Bureau of Charities. Member Union League Club of Brooklyn, Brooklyn Institute of Arts and Sciences (life) and American Association for the Advancement of Science.

RUMBOLD, JACOB H.—Lumber Merchant, North Tonawanda. Born Nov. 25, 1866. Educated in Tonawanda and Buffalo. (Married.) First vice-president and stockholder First National Bank; first vice-president Board of Trade of Tonawanda; proprietor Warsaw (N. Y.) Lumber Co.; owns half interest in Gillie Engine and Machine Co. of Tonawanda. Member Independent Order of Odd Fellows and Masonic bodies.

RUMNEY, T. S.—Banker, 14 Wall street, New York City; residence 53 West 47th street. Born in Lewistown, Pa., Nov. 23, 1850. Educated at Trinity School and at Packard's Business College. (Married.) Director Mercantile Library Association. Was deputy chamberlain of the City of New York, 1884-5.

RUMPLE, GEORGE E.—Wholesale Boots and Shoes, 134 Duane street, New York City; residence Summit, N. J. Born in Hamilton, Ohio, June 15, 1862. Educated in public schools. (Single.) Connected with the corporation of Morse & Rogers. Member Ohio Society.

RUMSEY, DAVID—Lawyer, 2 Tryon row, New York City; residence 200 West 56th street. Born in Bath, Steuben Co., N. Y., April 16, 1875. Educated at University of Rochester. (Single.) Assistant corporation counsel of the City of New York. Member Association of the Bar of the City of New York.

RUMSEY, WILLIAM—Supreme Court Justice, Madison square, East, New York City; residence 200 West 56th street, and Bath. Born in Bath, Oct. 18, 1841. (Son of Hon. David Rumsey.) Educated at Williams College ('61). (Married.) Served throughout Civil War and was mustered out with the rank of colonel. In 1867 was appointed secretary of the United States Legation to Japan; after his return took up the study of law and was admitted to the Bar in 1870. Upon the retirement of his father he was elected a Justice of the Supreme Court for the Seventh District and, in 1893, was appointed to the Appellate Division, First Judicial Department, by Governor Morton; present term expires Dec. 31, 1908. Member University and Manhattan Clubs.

RUNK, CHARLES A.—Lawyer, 31 Nassau street, New York City; residence 165 West 58th street. Born in New Brunswick, N. J., May 4, 1855. Educated at Rutgers College ('74) and Columbia Law School ('76). (Married.) Counsel for Pacific Fire Insurance Co. and Westchester Fire Insurance Co.; director Young Men's Christian Association. Member Lawyers' Club and Association of the Bar of the City of New York.

RUNYON, CARMAN R.—Wholesale Coal Merchant, 111 Broadway, New York City; residence Orange, N. J. Born March 25, 1867. (Married.) Treasurer and director Communipaw Coal Co. Member Reform, Essex County (N. J.) Country and Orange (N. J.) Lawn Tennis Clubs.

RUNYON, CHARLES—Wholesale Coal Merchant, 111 Broadway, New York City; residence 25 Fifth avenue. Born in New Brunswick, N. J., March 4, 1837. Educated at Rutgers Grammar School. (Married.) President Hoboken Coal Co. and Communipaw Coal Co. Member Lawyers' Club and Metropolitan Museum of Art.

RUPERT, HENRY L.—Lawyer, 1 Madison avenue, New York City; residence Pelham. Born in Middlebush, N. J., Jan. 25, 1867. Educated at Rutgers College ('89). (Married.) Member of the firm of Marshall & Rupert. Was corporation counsel of Westchester County. Member Association of the Bar of the City of New York.

RUPPERT, JACOB—Brewer, 1639 Third avenue, New York City; residence 1116 Fifth avenue. Born in New York City, March 4, 1842. (Son of Frank Ruppert.) Educated in city public schools. (Married Anna Gillig.) President and director Delavergne Refrigerating Machine Co.; director Astoria Silk Works. Member Manhattan Club and Liederkrantz.

RUPPERT, JACOB, JR.—Congressman, House of Representatives, Washington, D. C., and Brewer, 1639 Third avenue, New York City; residence 1116 Fifth avenue. Born in New York City, Aug. 5, 1867. (Son of Jacob and Anna [Gillig] Ruppert.) Educated at Columbia Grammar School. (Single.) Elected to Congress from the Fifteenth District in 1898. President and director Astoria Silk Works; director Delavergne Refrigerating Machine Co. and Yorkville Bank. Member Manhattan, Catholic, New York Athletic, Suburban Riding and Driving, Larchmont Yacht, Atlantic Yacht, New York Yacht, Jockey, Democratic, Lotos, Sagamore, Algonquin, English Kennel and American Kennel Clubs, Dunlap Society and Liederkrantz.

RUSBY, HENRY HURD—Botanist, 115 West 68th street, New York City; residence Forest Hill, Newark, N. J. Born in Franklin, N. J., April 26, 1855. Educated at Massachusetts State Normal School and at New York University (M.D.). (Married Margaretta S. Hanna, 1887.) Professor of botany, physiology and materia medica at New York College of Pharmacy since 1888; also professor of Materia medica at the University and Bellevue Hospital Medical College. Made botanical explorations for the Smithsonian Institution in New Mexico and Arizona, 1880-3, and in South America, 1885-6. Honorable curator in the Economic Museum of the New York Botanical Gardens; member of revision committee of the United States Pharmacopœia; chairman of the commission of the Pan-American Medical Congress for the study of American medicinal flora. Has written considerably on medical botany and has contributed several hundred new species and specimens to various museums.

RUSCH, HENRY A.—Merchant, 90 Grand street, New York City; residence 180 Central Park, South. Born in the United States, 1869. Educated at Harvard. (Single.) Member of the firm of Abegg & Rusch. Member New York Athletic, Harvard, and Merchants' Central Clubs.

RUSHMORE, CHARLES E.—Lawyer, 40 Wall street, New York City; residence 55 West 87th street. Member of the firm of Stern & Rushmore. Member Union League, Lawyers', Riding and Colonial Clubs, New England Society and Association of the Bar of the City of New York.

RUSHMORE, EDWARD C.—Physician, Tuxedo Park. Born in Cooksburg, N. Y., March 21, 1862. Educated at Swarthmore College ('81) and New York College of Physicians and Surgeons (M.D., '86). (Married.) Surgeon to Erie Railroad. Member Tuxedo and Union Clubs and New York Academy of Medicine.

RUSHMORE, JOHN—Physician, 129 Montague street, Brooklyn. Educated at Williams College. Member Hamilton Club and Williams Alumni Association.

RUSSAK, FRANK—Banker, 52 Broadway, New York City; residence 19 East 65th street. Born in New York City, April 10, 1858. Educated at New York University and Harvard College. (Married Marie E., daughter of Hon. Allyn Mather Barnard of Butte County, Cal.) Senior member of the firm of Russak Brothers. Director Mount Morris Bank and Legal Aid Society. Member Harvard, Lotos, Lawyers', New York Athletic, Patria and University Glee Clubs, American Geographical Society (Fellow) and New York Academy of Sciences.

RUSSELL, ARCHIBALD D.—Real Estate, 55 Liberty street, New York City; residence Tuxedo Park. Trustee Greenwich Savings Bank. Member Metropolitan, Calumet, Tuxedo, New York Yacht and Union Clubs, Country Clubs of Westchester, and Down Town Association.

RUSSELL, BENJAMIN—Teller, 55 Wall street, New York City; residence 1198 Pacific street, Brooklyn. Born in Canton, N. Y., Aug. 27, 1848. Educated at St. Lawrence Academy. (Married.) Teller at United States Custom House. Member Union League and Marine and Field Clubs of Brooklyn.

RUSSELL, CHARLES HAZEN—Lawyer, 32 Nassau street, New York City; residence 1249 Pacific street, Brooklyn. Born in Canton, St. Lawrence Co., N. Y., July, 1845. Educated in Canton public schools and at St. Lawrence University. (Married.) Member of the firm of Russell & Percy. Director Twenty-sixth Ward Bank of Brooklyn, and American Union Life Insurance Co.; trustee Washington Trust Co. and Nassau Trust Co. Member New York, Universalist and St. Lawrence Clubs, and Invincible Republican, Young Republican and Union League Clubs of Brooklyn.

RUSSELL, HORACE—Lawyer, 280 Broadway, New York City; residence 47 Park avenue. Born in Bombay, Franklin Co., N. Y., June 19, 1843. (Son of Charles and Hannah [Wright] Russell.) Educated at Franklin Academy, Malone, N. Y., Kimball Union

Academy, Meriden, N. H., Dartmouth College (A.B., '65 and LL.D., '93) and at Harvard Law School (LL.B., '67). (Married Josephine Hilton, 1878.) Practicing in New York City since 1869. Assistant district attorney, New York County, 1873-80; Judge Advocate-General of the State of New York, 1879-82; Judge of the Superior Court, New York City, 1880-3; receiver of the West Shore R. R. Co., 1884-5. President and director "Spirit of the Times" Co.; treasurer and director Garden City Co.; director Navesink Park Co. Member Union League, Metropolitan, University, Garden City Golf (president, 1899), Merchants' and Hardware Clubs, American Fine Arts and New England (president, 1884-5) Societies, Dartmouth College Alumni Association, Metropolitan Museum of Art and Association of the Bar of the City of New York.

RUSSELL, ISAAC F.—Lawyer, 120 Broadway, New York City; residence 150 Hancock street, Brooklyn. Born in New Haven, Conn., Aug. 25, 1857. Educated at New York University and Yale. (Married.) Professor of law since 1881 at the New York University. Member Lawyers' and Quill Clubs, Union League Club of Brooklyn, and Yale Alumni and Aldine Associations.

RUSSELL, JAMES C.—Coffee Broker, 101 Front street, New York City; residence 136 Clinton street, Brooklyn. Member Hamilton, Crescent Athletic and Brooklyn Clubs of Brooklyn, and Down Town Association.

RUSSELL, LESLIE W.—Lawyer, Canton. Justice of the Supreme Court of the Fourth District of the State of New York, term expiring Dec. 31, 1905. Vice-president and director First National Bank. Member Lawyers' Club and Association of the Bar of the City of New York.

RUSSELL, ROBERT HOWARD—Publisher, 3 West 29th street, New York City; residence 20 East 27th street. (Single.) Vice-president American Social Science Association. Member Players', Union, Racquet and Tennis and Lambs' Clubs and New York Zoological Society.

RUSSELL, THOMAS H.—Broker, 58 Pine street, New York City; residence New York Athletic Club. Born in Montreal, Canada, 1877. Educated at the University of New York. (Single.) Connected with the New York Life Insurance Co. and New York Fire Insurance Exchange. Member New York Athletic and Seawanhaka-Corinthian Yacht Clubs and Zeta Psi and Theta Nu Epsilon Fraternities.

RUSSELL, WILLIAM HAMILTON—Architect, 32 Nassau street, New York City; residence Mamaroneck. Educated at Columbia ('78). Member of the firm of Clinton & Russell. Member Players', Knickerbocker, Calumet, St. Anthony, Larchmont Yacht, University and Country Clubs, Columbia Alumni Association, American Fine Arts Society, Architectural League and Society of Colonial Wars.

RUSSELL, WILLIAM HENRY—55 East 65th street, New York City. Born in New Britain, Conn., Feb. 27, 1854. Educated in Oxford, England. (Married Isabel King of New York City.)

RUTHERFURD, JOHN ALEXANDER—Stock Broker, 11 William street, New York City; residence 46 East 64th street. Member of the firm of Myers, Rutherford & Co., and of the New York Stock Exchange. Director Wheeling Bridge and Terminal Ry. Co. Member Metropolitan, Larchmont Yacht, Manhattan, Adirondack League and New York Yacht Clubs, Liederkrantz, Society of the Cincinnati and Sons of the Revolution.

RUTHERFURD, WALTER—Broker, 11 William street, New York City; residence 714 Madison avenue. Member of the New York Stock Exchange firm of Myers, Rutherford & Co. Member Metropolitan and St. Nicholas Clubs, St. Nicholas Society, Colonial Order and Sons of the Revolution.

RUTHRAUFF, CHARLES C.—52 Broadway, New York City; residence 261 West 70th street. Member Salmagundi, Colonial, National Arts, Knollwood Country and Lotos Clubs, National Sculpture Society, Municipal Art League and Metropolitan Museum of Art.

RUTTENBER, EDWARD MANNING—Author, Newburgh. Born in Bennington, Vt., July 17, 1825. Educated by private tutors. (Married Matilda Ann McIntyre, 1847.) Was for many years interested in journalism and edited the "Newburgh Telegraph," "Newburgh Register," "Goshen Independent Republican" and other newspapers. Author of "History of Newburgh," "History of Orange County, New York," "History of Regimental Flags," "History of Obstructions to Navigation of the Hudson River in 1776" and "History of Indian Tribes Along the Hudson River."

RUTZLER, ENOCH—Heating and Ventilating Engineer and Contractor, 178 Centre street, New York City; residence 40 Montgomery place, Brooklyn. Born and educated in New York City. (Married.) Member Montauk Club of Brooklyn, and Grant Post No. 327, G. A. R. (past commander).

RUXTON, PHILIP—Manufacturer of Printers' Ink, 290 Broadway, New York City; residence 10 Garden place, Brooklyn. Born on Staten Island, N. Y., Jan. 19, 1866. Educated in Brooklyn. (Married.) Member of the firm of Ruxton & Lynch. Treasurer and director A. J. Sheldon Co. Member Crescent Athletic (ex-governor), Riding and Driving and Excelsior Clubs of Brooklyn, and Sons of the Revolution.

RYAN, HARRIS JOSEPH—Professor, Cornell University, Ithaca; residence 114 Cascadilla place. Born in Powells Valley, N. Y., Jan. 8, 1866. Educated at Cornell. Degree of M.E. (Married.) Professor of electrical engineering in Sibley College of Cornell University. Member American Institute of Electrical Engineers, American Society of Mechanical Engineers, American Association for the Advancement of Science (Fellow), and Franklin Institute of Philadelphia.

RYAN, JOHN J.—Undertaker, 79 East Broadway, New York City; residence 128 East 127th street. Born in New York City, Jan. 21, 1856. Educated at Public School No. 2. (Married.) Alderman Seventh Ward 1886; declined renomination; appointed police justice by Mayor Grant, 1889; reappointed by Mayor Gilroy, 1893. Has been inspector and commissary of the 69th Regiment, N. G. N. Y., for ten years. Member Democratic, Catholic, Manhattan and Harlem Democratic Clubs.

RYAN, THOMAS F.—Capitalist, 32 Liberty street, New York City; residence 239 West 72d street, and Suffern, Rockland County. Born in Nelson County, Va., Oct. 17, 1851. (Married Ida M. Barry of Baltimore, Md., 1873.) Secured employment in a Baltimore dry goods commission house, 1868; entered a banking house in New York City, 1870; formed partnership with a member of the Stock Exchange in 1872 and bought a seat on the Exchange in 1874; turned his attention to the purchase, consolidation and extension of street railway lines in 1886; was remarkably successful and extended his operations to the establishment and reorganization of railway systems in all parts of the country. Was the original promoter of the Metropolitan Street Ry. Co. (which practically controls all the surface lines in New York City), Consolidated Traction Co. of New Jersey, Atlantic Coast Electric Line, Staten Island Electric System, Union Elevated Railroad in Chicago, Chicago Union Traction Co., Southern Ry. Co., Central Railway of Georgia, Charleston and Western Carolina Railway, Union Tobacco Co. and many others. Is a director or trustee in the following corporations: Bank of New Amsterdam, Charleston and Western Carolina Ry. Co., Christopher and Tenth Streets R. R. Co., Columbus, Hocking Valley and Toledo Ry. Co.; First Municipal Bond Assurance Co. of America, Flint and Pere Marquette R. R. Co., Long Island R. R. Co., Metropolitan Street Ry. Co., Rapid Transit Ferry Co., Second Avenue R. R. Co., Staten Island Electric R. R. Co., Twenty-eighth and Twenty-ninth Streets Crosstown R. R. Co., Virginia Midland Ry. Co., American Tobacco Co., Thirty-fourth Street Crosstown Ry. Co., Morton Trust Co. (vice-president), Consolidated Gas Co., American Surety Co., Edison Electric Illuminating Co., American Air Power Co., Electric Storage Battery Co., Central Crosstown R. R. Co., Fulton Street R. R. Co., Hocking Valley Ry. Co., Richmond Borough Co. and others. Member Union, New York Athletic, Catholic, Manhattan, Lawyers' and Riding and Driving Clubs and American Geographical and Southern Societies.

RYAN, WILLIAM HENRY—Congressman, House of Representatives, Washington, D. C.; residence 471

Elk street, Buffalo. Born in Hopkinton, Mass., May 10, 1860. Educated at Buffalo High School. (Married Ellen T. Cosgrove, 1887.) Was a member of the Board of Supervisors of Erie County for five years. Member of Fifty-sixth Congress from the Thirty-second New York District.

RYCROFT, CHARLES E.—Dry Goods Merchant, 45 White street, New York City; residence 247 Fifth avenue. Senior member of the firm of Charles E. Rycroft & Co. Member Union League, St. Andrew's Golf and Merchants' Clubs.

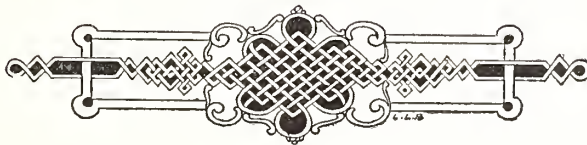

RYDBERG, PER AXEL—Curator, New York Botanical Gardens, Bronx Park, New York City. Born in Odh, Sweden, July 6, 1860. Educated at Royal Gymnasium, Skara, Sweden ('81) and at the University of Nebraska (B.S., '91). Received degrees of M.A. in 1895 and Ph.D. in 1898 from Columbia. (Single.) Member of the faculty at Luther Academy, Wahoo, Neb., 1884-90, and 1891-3; at Upsala Institute, Brooklyn, N. Y., 1895-6, and 1897-8, and at Upsala College, New Orange, N. J., 1898-9. Fellow in botany at Columbia, 1896-7; assistant in botanical laboratory at the University of Nebraska, 1894-5. Now assistant curator at the New York Botanical Gardens. Author of several botanical reports.

RYDER, ALBERT PINKHAM—Artist, 308 West 15th street, New York City. Born in New Bedford, Mass., March 19, 1847. Studied art at the National Academy of Design in New York City. Makes a specialty of pastoral landscapes.

RYDER, CHARLES JACKSON—Secretary, 287 Fourth avenue, New York City; residence Stamford, Conn. Born in Oberlin, Ohio, Dec. 25, 1848. Educated at Oberlin College (A.B., A.M. and D.D.). (Married Sarah H. Tenney, of Chester, N. H., 1876.) Corresponding secretary American Missionary Association. Has contributed articles on sociology, education and missions to various periodicals. Member Quill Club.

RYDER, CLAYTON—Lawyer and Banker, Carmel. Born in Carmel, Feb. 8, 1860. Educated at Cornell (B.S., '79). (Married.) President Putnam County National Bank.

RYER, JAMES B.—Upholstery Goods, 451 Broadway, New York City; residence Hotel Majestic, and Freneau, N. J. Born in New York City, 1841. Educated in New York City. (Married.) Senior member of the firm of J. B. Ryer, Son & Co. Member Colonial Club.

S

SABIN, ALVAH HORTON—Chemist, 45 Broadway, New York City; residence 305 Barclay street, Flushing. Born in Norfolk, N. Y., 1851. Educated at Bowdoin College ('76). (Married.) Professor of chemistry in University of Vermont, 1880-6; State chemist of Vermont, 1882-6; president American Milk Sugar Co., 1885-7; lecturer New York University, 1897-1900; lecturer University of Michigan, Massachusetts Institute of Technology and Purdue University, 1898-1900. Director Edward Smith & Co. Member Chemists' Club, American Chemical and Phi Beta Kappa Societies, American Society of Mechanical Engineers, American Society of Civil Engineers and International Society for Tests.

SACHS, BERNARD—Physician, 21 East 65th street, New York City. Born in Maryland, 1858. Educated at Harvard and at the University of Strassburg, Germany. Makes a specialty of diseases of the nervous system. Member New York Athletic and Harvard Clubs, Society of Medical Jurisprudence and Metropolitan Museum of Art.

SACKETT, HENRY WOODWARD—Lawyer, 154 Nassau street, New York City; residence 250 West 88th street, and Mamaroneck. Born in Enfield, N. Y., Aug. 31, 1853. Educated at Ithaca Academy and at Cornell (A.B., '75). (Married Elizabeth Titus of Brooklyn.) Senior member of the firm of Sackett, Bacon & McQuaid. Served on Governor Black's military staff with rank of colonel, 1897-8. Director Larchmont Horse Ry. Co. and various other corporations; trustee Cornell University and Society for Preservation of Scenic and Historic Places and Objects. Editorial writer on legal subjects in the New York "Tribune." Member University, Cornell University (ex-president), City, Republican, Hardware and Twilight Clubs, St. George's, American Geographical and Phi Beta Kappa Societies, Society of Medical Jurisprudence, New York State Bar Association, Order of Founders and Patriots of America, Sons of the American Revolution, Metropolitan Museum of Art, Veterans of Squadron "A," N. G. N. Y., and Association of the Bar of the City of New York.

SACKETT, JOHN THOMPSON—Lawyer, 99 Nassau street, New York City; residence 454A Greene avenue, Brooklyn. Born in New York City, Oct. 1, 1865. Educated at Cornell ('86) and Columbia Law School ('88). (Married.) Member of the firm of Sackett & Lang. Vestryman of the Church of the Incarnation, Brooklyn. Member Cornell University Club, Dutchess County Club, Union League Club of Brooklyn, and Church Club of the Diocese of Long Island.

SADLER, GEORGE B.—Editor, 34 Beaver street, New York City; residence Englewood, N. J. Born in Marietta, Ga., Oct. 12, 1856. Educated at Trinity School, New York City. (Married.) Editor "Bonfort's Wine and Spirit Circular" and of "Wine" and "Spirits" for Standard Dictionary. Member Democratic Club, and Englewood Golf and Englewood Clubs.

SAFFORD, PHILO P.—Lawyer, 141 Broadway, New York City; residence New Rochelle. Born in Bellevue, Ohio, July 10, 1863. Educated at Oberlin, Ohio. (Married.) Member of the firm of Holden, Allen, Safford & Frost. Member Crescent Athletic Club of Brooklyn, and Association of the Bar of the City of New York.

SAFFORD, WALTER B.—Lawyer, 32 Nassau street, New York City; residence 65 Park avenue. Born in Cambridge, Mass., Dec. 23, 1864. Educated at Williams College (A.B., '85). (Single.) Member Delta Kappa Epsilon and University Clubs and Williams College Alumni Association.

SAFFORD, WILLIAM M.—Lawyer, 20 Broad street, New York City; residence Mansion House, Brooklyn. Member of the firm of Safford & Rogers. Director Maritime Register Publishing Co. Member Lawyers' Club, Ohio Society and Sons of the Revolution.

SAGE, DEAN—Hillside, Albany. Educated at Albany Law School ('61). (Married.) Director National Exchange Bank. Member University and Grolier Clubs and Sons of the Revolution of New York City, and Fort Orange Club of Albany.

SAGE, RUSSELL—Banker and Capitalist, 31 Nassau street, New York City; residence 506 Fifth avenue. Born in Shenandoah, Oneida Co., N. Y., Aug. 4, 1816. Was reared on a farm and attended a country school during the winter months. (Married.) Began business career as an errand boy in his brother's grocery store in Troy. Embarked in the grocery business for himself in 1837, in which he remained until 1857. Served as alderman (1847), treasurer of Rensselaer County and as a member of Congress (1853-7). Removed to New York City in 1863 and became interested in the management of railways and as an operator in railway and other securities. President and director Empire and Bay State Telegraph Co. and Poughkeepsie and Eastern R. R. Co.; vice-president, treasurer and director Albia and Centerville Ry. Co.; director American Speaking Telephone Co., American Telegraph and Cable Co., Chattanooga Southern R. R. Co., Fifth Avenue Bank, German-American Real Estate Title Guarantee Co., Gold and Stock Telegraph Co., Hamilton Bank Note Engraving and Printing Co., Importers' and Traders' National Bank, International Ocean Telegraph Co., Iowa Central Ry. Co., Manhattan Ry. Co., Missouri Pacific R. R. Co., New York Mutual Telegraph Co., Pacific Mail Steamship Co., St. Louis, Iron Mountain and Southern R. R. Co., Shore Line Ry. Co., Texas and Pacific Ry. Co., United States Guarantee Co., Wabash R. R. Co., Washington and New Orleans Telegraph Co. and Western Union Telegraph Co. Member New York Stock Exchange and of the New York Genealogical and Biographical and New England Societies, Founders and Patriots of America, American Museum of Natural History and Metropolitan Museum of Art.

SAGE, WILLIAM H.—Hillside, Albany. Educated at Yale (A.B., '65). Trustee of Cornell University for the term expiring in 1903. Member University Club of New York City, and Fort Orange Club of Albany.

SAGE, WILLIAM H.—Lawyer, 156 Broadway, New York City; residence 113 West 122d street. Member University Athletic, Yale and Harlem Clubs, Association of the Bar of the City of New York and Young Men's Christian and Aldine Associations.

SAINT-GAUDENS, AUGUSTUS—Sculptor, 148 West 36th street, New York City. Born in Dublin, Ireland, March 1, 1848. Educated in New York City, studied drawing at Cooper Institute and art at National Academy of Design; also studied at Ecole des Beaux-Arts, Paris, France. Established a studio in New York City in 1872. Executed the statue of "Diana" on the tower of Madison Square Garden, statues of Abraham Lincoln and John A. Logan in Chicago, and numerous others equally well known. Member Metropolitan, City, Racquet and Tennis, Lambs' and Players' Clubs, Century Association, Architectural League, National Academy of Design and Metropolitan Museum of Art.

SAINT-GAUDENS, LOUIS—Sculptor, 148 West 36th street, New York City. Born in New York City, Jan. 8, 1854. Educated in New York City and at Ecole des Beaux-Arts, Paris, France. Has assisted his brother, Augustus Saint-Gaudens, in the execution of his numerous works.

ST. JOHN, CORTLANDT—Broker, 56 Pine street, New York City; residence 104 Ross street, Brooklyn. Member of the firm of St. John Bros. Member Undine Fishing and New York Clubs, Hanover and Merchants' Clubs of Brooklyn, Royal Arcanum and G. A. R.

ST. JOHN, WILLIAM M.—Insurance, 256 Broadway, New York City; residence 261 Central Park, West. Born in New York City, Jan. 22, 1838. (Married.) Vice-president and director Home Life Insurance Co. Was secretary, vice-president and president Standard Fire Insurance Co. of New York from 1859 to 1894 inclusive. Member Union League and Hardware Clubs, Seventh Regiment Veteran Association and American Museum of Natural History.

SALMON, ARTHUR C.—Lawyer, 189 Montague street, Brooklyn, and Commissioner, 280 Broadway, New York City; residence 224 Dean street, Brooklyn. Born in Brooklyn, 1853. Educated at Adelphi Academy, at Stamford Military Institute, in Europe and at Columbia College Law School. Practicing in Brooklyn since his admission to the Bar in 1876. Was member of a commission to revise the charter of the City of Brooklyn in 1887, and served as an assistant corporation counsel under Gen. Almet F. Jenks for six years. Commissioner of taxes and assessments for the City of New York since 1898. Treasurer Democratic General Committee of Kings County. Member Montauk Club of Brooklyn, Acanthus Lodge No. 719, F. & A. M., and Royal Arcanum.

SALMON, HAMILTON H.—Importer, 133 Front street, New York City; residence 1154 Dean street, Brooklyn. Born in New York City, March 14, 1861. Educated in New York City. (Married.) Senior member of the firm of Hamilton H. Salmon & Co. President Little Giant Fire Extinguisher Co. Member Crescent Athletic, Oxford, Riding and Driving (director) and Whip (president) Clubs of Brooklyn, and a thirty-second degree Mason.

SALOMON, WILLIAM—Banker, 30 Broad street, New York City; residence 104 East 37th street. Member Manhattan Reform, New York, Racquet and Tennis, New York Yacht and Lawyers' Clubs, American Fine Arts and Southern Societies and Metropolitan Museum of Art.

SALTER, SUMNER—Musician and Editor, 26 West 15th street, New York City; residence 66 West 71st street. Born in Burlington, Iowa, June 24, 1856. Educated at Amherst (A.B., '77). (Married.) President New York State Music Teachers' Association; treasurer Virgil Practice Clavier; warden American Guild of Organists. Formerly editor "The Pianist and Organist." Member Manuscript and Clef Clubs and Amherst Alumni Association.

SALTUS, EDGAR E.—Author and Journalist, 109 East 18th street, New York City. Born in New York City, June 8, 1858. Educated at St. Paul's School, Concord, N. H., in Paris, Heidelberg and Munich, and at Columbia College Law School. (Married Elsie W. Smith.) Author of "The Philosophy of Disenchantment," "Mary Magdalen," "Imperial Purple," "When Dreams Come True," "The Pace That Kills" and many other works. Member Manhattan Club.

SAMPERS, ISIDORE H.—Editor, 195 Fulton street, New York City; residence 121 East 61st street. Born in New York City, Sept. 27, 1865. Educated in public schools, at St. Francis Xavier College and St. Mary's College, Montreal, Canada. (Married.) Editor and business manager "Courrier des Etats-Unis," and has been interested and connected with same in many capacities since 1884. Member Harlem Wheel and Catholic Clubs.

SAMPLE, ROBERT FLEMING — Presbyterian Clergyman, 214 West 23d street, New York City. Born in Corning, N. Y., Oct. 19, 1829. Educated at Geneva Lyceum, Jefferson College and Western Theological Seminary. Degrees of D.D. from Wooster University in 1876, and LL.D. from Washington and Jefferson College in 1898. Pastor of First Presbyterian Church, Mercer (Pa.), 1853-6; of Bedford (Pa.) Presbyterian Church, 1856-66; of Minneapolis (Minn.) Presbyterian Church, 1866-87; of Westminster Presbyterian Church, New York City, since 1887. Delegate to Pan-Presbyterian Councils in Belfast, 1884, and Washington, D. C., 1899; moderator Presbyterian General Assembly of the United States, 1899; has traveled extensively in Europe and the East. Director McCormick Theological Seminary; trustee Lincoln University and Macalaster College; member of the board Presbyterian Publica and Church Erection. Author of "Beacon Lights of Reformation," "Memoirs of J. C. Thom," "Christian Experience," "Christ's Valedictory," also of numerous pamphlets and sermons. Member Chi Alpha Club and Presbyterian Union.

SAMPSON, EDWARD C.—Oil Cloth Merchant, 60 Reade street, New York City; residence 10 West 48th street. Educated at Haverford College ('59). Director United States Fire Insurance Co.; trustee Bowery Savings Bank. Member Union League, University and Grolier Clubs, New England Society, Century Association and Metropolitan Museum of Art.

SAMPSON, EUGENE H.—Dry Goods Merchant, 105 Worth street, New York City; residence 1 West 72d street. Member Colonial and Merchants' Clubs, New England Society and Metropolitan Museum of Art.

SAMPSON, GEORGE H.—Manufacturer, 100 Broadway, New York City; residence 577 West 146th street. Vice-president Rand Drill Co.; manager Rendrock Powder Co.; director Pneumatic Engineering Co. Member Engineers' and Twilight Clubs and New England Society.

SAMPSON, HENRY—Oil Cloth Merchant, 60 Reade street, New York City; residence 14 West 58th street. Director Central National Bank. Member Union League, Republican, New York Yacht, Barnard, Hardware and Narrows Island Clubs and New England Society.

SAMSON, JOHN P.—Manager, Le Roy. Born in Le Roy, Feb. 24, 1861. Educated at Le Roy Academic Institute. (Widower.) Director Citizens' Bank, Le Roy Power and Milling Co. and Le Roy Hydraulic Electric Co.; trustee Presbyterian Church; manager Le Roy Salt Works; senior warden Olive Branch Lodge No. 39, F. & A. M. Member Oatka Hose Co.

SAMUELS, SAMUEL—Journalist, 24 State street, New York City; residence 152 Sixth avenue, Brooklyn. Born in Philadelphia, Pa., March 14, 1823. Went to sea at the age of eleven and advanced until he became captain of a merchant vessel in 1844. Commanded the United States steamship "John Rice," 1863-4; the "McClellan" at the taking of Fort Fisher, 1865, and the "Fulton," the last of the American packet steamers between New York and Havre, 1866. Was captain of the "Henrietta," which won the first ocean yacht race against the "Fleetwing" and "Vesta," December, 1866. Has been at the head of several large business enterprises in New York City and is now interested in the publication of the "Marine Journal."

SANBORN, BENJAMIN H.—Book Publisher, 11 East 16th street, New York City; residence Wellesley, Mass. Born in Morrisville, Vt., May 11, 1851. Educated at People's Academy and Dartmouth College (A.M.). (Married.) Formerly a member of the firm of Leach, Shewell & Sanborn. Now president Benjamin H. Sanborn & Co. Has been a member of the Board of Education. Member American Philological and Aldine Associations.

SANBORN, CUYLER K.—Manufacturer, 150 Nassau street, New York City; residence 47 New York avenue, Brooklyn. Born in Brooklyn. Educated at Brooklyn Polytechnic Institute. (Married.) Vice-president Haydenville Co. of New York City and Haydenville, Mass. Member Hardware Club, and Crescent Athletic Club of Brooklyn.

SANBORN, EDWIN W.—Lawyer, 32 Nassau street, New York City; residence 35 West 33d street and Metcalf, Mass. Educated at Dartmouth College ('78). Member University, Alpha Delta Phi and New York Athletic Clubs, New England Society, Dartmouth College Alumni Association and Association of the Bar of the City of New York.

SANBORN, NOEL B.—Lawyer, 29 Wall street, New York City; residence 47 Brevoort place, Brooklyn. Born in Windsor, Vt., Jan. 21, 1840. Educated at the University of the City of New York. (Widower.) Trustee North River Savings Bank. Member Atlantic Yacht and Lincoln Clubs of Brooklyn, and New England Society.

SAND, THEODORE V.—Broker, 52 Broadway, New York City; residence 373 State street, Brooklyn. Born in Brooklyn, June 17, 1844. Educated in Brooklyn. (Married.) Member of the New York Stock Exchange firm of Faris & Thayer. Member Hamilton Club of Brooklyn.

SANDERS, JAMES P.—Lawyer, Radford Building, Yorkers. Born in New York City, April 5, 1819. Educated in private schools in New York City. (Married.) Counsel and trustee since 1866 of the People's Savings Bank of Yonkers; corporation counsel village of Yonkers; president Board of Education No. 6, City of Yonkers. Member Independent Order of Odd Fellows, since 1843, and has held every office in their gift under American Odd Fellowship.

SANDERS, JOSEPH A.—Physician, 310 West 45th street, New York City. Born in Jaffna, Ceylon, July 7, 1852. Educated at Amherst and Medical Department of the University of New York. (Married.) President New York Practical Aid Society (Inc.) and Fourth District New York City Christian Endeavor Union; secretary West Central District of New York City Sunday School Association, and member of board of managers of New York City Sunday School Association. Member Quill Club, New York County Medical Society and Amherst Alumni Association.

SANDERS, WALTER—Hardware Merchant, 93 Chambers street, New York City; residence Montclair, N. J. Born and educated in England. (Married.) Member of the firm of Alfred Field & Co. Member Reform Club.

SANDERSON, J. MURRAY—Lawyer, 30 Broad street, New York City; residence Newark, N. J. Born in Newark. Educated at Columbia Law School. (Single.) Member Lawyers' Club.

SANDERSON, JOHN—County Judge, Catskill. Born in Athens, N. Y., Jan. 21, 1834. Educated at Brown University. (Single.) County Judge of Greene County. Director National Hudson River Bank. Member Delta Kappa Epsilon Club, Rip Van Winkle Club of Catskill, and Brown University Alumni Association.

SANDERSON, JOSEPH—Presbyterian Clergyman, 345 West 23d street, New York City; residence 222 Lexington avenue. Born in Ballybay, County Monaghan, Province of Ulster, Ireland, of Scotch-Irish parentage, May 23, 1823. Educated in Ballybay and at Royal College of Belfast ('45). Degree of D.D. from Columbian University and LL.D. from University of Omaha. Arrived in New York City in 1846; joined Associate Presbyterian Church, studied theology and was licensed to preach in 1849. Accepted call to the First Associate Church of Providence, R. I., where he remained for three years, when he was called to Stanton Street Presbyterian Church, New York City. Erected the Lexington Avenue Presbyterian Church and was its pastor for nineteen years. An attack of aphonia necessitated a rest from preaching for some time. Having regained use of vocal powers, was pastor of church at Westport, Conn., for seven years. Began editorial work in the publishing house of Funk & Wagnalls, and afterwards founded and edited "The Pulpit Treasury," published by E. B. Treat, with whom he remained for twelve years. Secretary of the committee on Church Extension and Sustentation of the Presbytery of New York since 1895. Author of "Jesus on the Holy Mount," "Thoughts for the Occasion," "The Bow in the Cloud," "The Story of St. Patrick," "Life of James G. Blaine," "Life of Grover Cleveland," "Life of Levi P. Morton" and other works. Member Presbyterian Union.

SANDERSON, OSWALD—Steamship Agent, 29 Broadway, New York City; residence 138 East 37th street, and Larchmont. Member of the firm of Sanderson & Son. Director Victoria Fire Insurance Co. and Washington Life Insurance Co.; trustee Continental Trust Co. Member Union, Manhattan, Church, Racquet and Tennis, Seawanhaka-Corinthian Yacht, Larchmont Yacht and New York Yacht Clubs and Down Town Association.

SANDS, ANDREW H.—Lawyer, 31 Pine street, New York City; residence Gilsey House. Member of the firm of Sands & De Peyster. Director Knickerbocker Trust Co. Member Metropolitan, Union, Democratic, Merchants' Central, Riding and New York Yacht Clubs, Country Club of Westchester, American Geographical Society, Metropolitan Museum of Art and American Museum of Natural History.

SANDS, B. AYMAR—Lawyer, 31 Nassau street, New York City; residence 58 West 48th street. Born in New York City (80 Fifth avenue), July 27, 1852. Educated at Columbia ('74) and Columbia Law School ('76). (Married.) Member of the firm of Bowers & Sands. Vice-president and director Colorado Midland Ry. Co.; treasurer and director Terminal Improvement Co.; director Commonwealth Insurance Co., National Safe Deposit Co., New York Security and Trust Co., Fidelity Bank and Lawyers' Surety Co.; trustee Columbia University, Greenwich Savings Bank, Terminal Warehouse Co., North British and Mercantile Insurance Co. of London, North British and Mercantile Insurance Co. of New York, and New York Orthopaedic Dispensary and Hospital; member of advisory committee Hudson River Branch of the Corn Exchange Bank, and of committee of counsel Lawyers' Title Insurance Co. Member City, Union, Church, University (member of council), St. Anthony, Twenty-seventh Assembly District Republican (vice-president), and University Athletic Clubs, Shinnecock Hills Golf, Lakewood Golf and Southampton (L. I.) Clubs, Meadow Club of Southampton (governor), St. Anthony Club of Philadelphia, St. Nicholas Society (manager), Society of Colonial Wars, Columbia Alumni and Down Town Associations, Metropolitan Museum of Art and Association of the Bar of the City of New York (corresponding secretary).

SANDS, CHARLES EDWARD—Banker, 10 Wall street, New York City; residence 385 Fifth avenue, and Hugsonville. Educated at Columbia. Member St. Anthony, Racquet and Tennis, Hudson River Ice Yacht and Knickerbocker Clubs and Columbia University Alumni Association.

SANDS, PHILIP J.—Lawyer, 18 Wall street, New York City; residence 15 East 33d street. Educated at Columbia ('63). Director United States Fire Insurance Co. Member Metropolitan, City, University, Knickerbocker, Union and Church Clubs and Columbia University Alumni Association.

SANDS, ROBERT A.—Physician, 39 East 33d street, New York City. Born in New York City. Educated in United States and Europe. (Married.) Member Knickerbocker and Therapeutic Clubs, New York Academy of Medicine, New York County Medical Society and Yale Alumni and Century Associations.

SANDS, WILLIAM H.—Broker, 40 Wall street, New York City; residence Westchester. Member New York Stock Exchange and of the Racquet and Tennis, Turf and Field and Carteret Gun Clubs and Country Club of Westchester.

SANFORD, CHARLES P.—Lawyer, 1 Madison avenue, New York City, and Confidential Agent, Albany; residence 545 West 141st street. Born in New York City, June 6, 1854. Educated at Yale ('76) and Columbia Law School ('78). (Married.) Member of the Board of Aldermen, 1887. Now confidential agent of the New York State Commissioner of Excise. Member University, Delta Kappa Epsilon, New York Athletic, West Side Republican, Washington Heights and Republican Clubs, Yale Alumni Association and Association of the Bar of the City of New York.

SANFORD, GEORGE B.—Colonel, United States Army, 16 East 68th street, New York City, and Litchfield, Conn. Born in New Haven, Conn., June 28, 1842. Educated at Yale ('63). (Married) Gertrude Minturn of Bristol, R. I.) Was lieutenant, captain and major in the 1st United States Cavalry; lieutenant-colonel 9th United States Cavalry; colonel 6th United States Cavalry; colonel United States Army (retired). Engaged in the Civil War and in various Indian campaigns. Member University Club, Army and Navy Club of Washington, D. C., Anglo-American Club of Dresden, Germany, Societies of the Cincinnati, Colonial Wars and War of 1812, Sons of the Revolution and Military Order of the Loyal Legion.

SANFORD, JOHN—Carpet Manufacturer, 29 Union square, West, New York City; residence Amsterdam. Educated at Yale. Member of the firm of S. Sanford & Sons. Member Metropolitan, Racquet and Tennis, Turf and Field, Rockaway Hunting and Meadow Brook Hunt Clubs and Yale Alumni Association.

SANFORD, ROBERT—Lawyer, Poughkeepsie. Born in Albany, N. Y., Dec. 10, 1831. Educated at Union College and in Europe. (Married Helen H. Stuyvesant.) For thirty years a delegate to the Convention of the Diocese of New York. Member Union League, Church and Aztec Clubs, Dutchess County Hunt and Amrita Clubs of Poughkeepsie, American Geographical and Sigma Phi Societies, Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals and Union Alumni Association.

SANGER, EUGENE B.—Real Estate, 56 West 59th street, New York City. Born in New York City, Dec. 30, 1843. Educated in New York City. (Married.) Member New York Athletic and Larchmont Yacht Clubs, and Holland and New England Societies.

SANGER, FRANCIS W.—Manager, 1430 Broadway, New York City; residence 57 East 76th street. (Married.) Formerly member of the firm of Al. Hayman and Frank W. Sanger, owners of the Empire Theatre. Now manager of Madison Square Garden, Maurice Grau Opera Co. and Metropolitan Opera House. Member Turf and Field, Players', New York Athletic, New York Yacht, Phoenix, New York Jockey, Garden City Golf and Coney Island Jockey Clubs, Ardsley Casino of Ardsley-on-Hudson, Dunlap Society and Sons of the American Revolution.

SANGER, WILLIAM CARY—Lieutenant-Colonel, United States Volunteers; residence Sangerfield. Born in Brooklyn, N. Y., May 21, 1853. Educated at Brooklyn Polytechnic Institute, at Harvard (A.B.) and at Columbia (LL.B.). (Married Mary Ethel Cleveland, daughter of Gen. G. C. Dodge.) Member of the New York State Assembly, 1895-7. Served as lieutenant-colonel in the 203d Regiment, New York Volunteer Infantry, during Spanish-American War. Now inspector on the staff of the major-general commanding the N. G. N. Y. Member University, Players' and Harvard Clubs, Century Association, Society of Colonial Wars, Sons of the Revolution, Military Order of Foreign Wars and Naval and Military Order of the Spanish-American War.

SANKEY, IRA DAVID—Evangelist, 148 South Oxford street, Brooklyn. Born in Edinburgh, Lawrence Co., Pa., Aug. 28, 1840. Educated in common schools. Joined the Methodist Episcopal Church at the age of fifteen and became a choir leader and a Sunday-school superintendent. Met Dwight L. Moody at the Young Men's Christian Association International Convention, held at Indianapolis, Ind., in 1870, and became associated with him as a solo singer in evangelistic work in the United States and abroad. Gave to Newcastle, Pa., a Y. M. C. A. and public library building; also a building site to the Methodist Episcopal Church there. Has composed many of the most popular gospel songs of the day.

SANSOM, JOHN H. A.—President, Musical Director and Organist, 224 Centre street, New York City; residence 14 East 87th street. Born in New York City, Sept. 15, 1870. Educated in private schools. (Married.) Member Church Club.

SANTEE, ELLIS M.—Physician and Surgeon, 22 Groton avenue, Cortland. Born in Hughesville, Pa., Aug. 13, 1862. Educated in Philadelphia and St. Louis. (Married.) Resident physician of Hahnemann Hospital, Rochester, N. Y., 1890; commanding officer of the 45th Separate Co., N. G. N. Y., 1893. Author of "Santee's Repertory of Convulsions." Member Tioughnioga Club, Inter-State Homeopathic Medical Society (clinical secretary), Cortland County Homeopathic Medical Society (secretary and treasurer), Medico-Chirurgical Society of Central New York and I. O. O. F.

SANTNER, JOHN M.—Lawyer, 2 Wall street, New York City; residence 240 West 56th street. Born in Middleburg, N. Y., Oct. 4, 1839. Educated at Union College. (Widower.) Member University and Lawyers' Clubs and Association of the Bar of the City of New York.

SARD, GRANGE—Stove Manufacturer, Albany; residence 397 State street. Born in Albany, March 10, 1843. Educated at Albany Academy. (Married.)

President Park Bank of Albany; vice-president and general manager Rathbone, Sard & Co.; vice-president National Commercial Bank; trustee Albany Savings Bank, Albany Insurance Co., Dudley Observatory, Emmanuel Church and Albany Cemetery Association; commissioner of Washington Park. Member Fort Orange Club, Reform Club of New York City, Chicago (Ill.) Club, Essex County Club of Manchester, Mass., Shinnecock Hills Golf and Southampton Clubs of Southampton, L. I., and Sons of the Revolution.

SARGENT, FRANKLIN H.—Teacher, 883 Seventh avenue, New York City; residence 117 West 58th street. Born in Boston, Mass., March 31, 1856. Educated at Harvard ('77). (Single.) Instructor in elocution in Harvard University, 1880-2; dramatic director Madison Square Theatre, 1882-4. President and director American Academy of Dramatic Arts. Member Harvard, Players' and Lambs' Clubs and Dunlap Society.

SARGENT, GEORGE HENRY—Hardware Merchant, 151 Leonard street, New York City; residence 2 West 50th street. Educated at Harvard ('53). Member of the firm of Sargent & Co. Member University, Union League, Harvard and Hardware Clubs, New England Society and National Academy of Design.

SARGENT, JAMES—Inventor and Manufacturer, 125 Cutler Building, Rochester; residence 98 East avenue. Born in Chester, Vt., Dec. 5, 1824. Educated in common schools. (Married Angeline M., daughter of Job and Hannah Foster, 1847.) Connected with the Yale & Greenleaf Lock Co., 1857-65. Invented burglar-proof locks and established in business in Rochester in 1865. Invented the Sargent time locks, glass enameled steel tanks, vacuum pump, automatic electric semaphore railway signals and an automatic smoke consumer. President and director Sargent & Greenleaf Co., Pfaunder Vacuum Fermentation Co., Waterloo Gold Mining Co. of California, and Gordon Railway Signal Co.

SARGENT, WILLIAM D.—Electrical Engineer, Lawrence and Willoughby streets, Brooklyn; residence 820 Union street. Born in Ligonja, Westmoreland Co., Pa. Educated in Harrisburg, Pa. (Single.) Vice-president and general manager New York and New Jersey Telephone Co. Member Marine and Field, Bath Beach, Montauk, Brooklyn, and Riding and Driving Clubs, Brooklyn Academy of Photography, American Institute of Electrical Engineers, and Institute of Electrical Engineers of London, England.

SARLES, HARVEY J.—Merchant, Liberty. Born in Bedford, Westchester Co., N. Y., Jan. 30, 1842. Vice-president Sullivan County National Bank; trustee Ellenville Savings Bank.

SARTAIN, WILLIAM—Artist, 152 West 57th street. Born in Philadelphia, Pa., Nov. 21, 1843. (Son of John Sartain.) Educated in Paris, France. (Single.) Formerly president of the Art Club and professor of life classes at the Art Students' League. Now secretary Rembrandt House. Member Society of American Artists and National Academy of Design.

SATTERLEE, EDWARD RATHBONE—Insurance, 62 William street, New York City; residence 60 East 78th street. Born in Albany, N. Y., May 19, 1845. Educated at Rensselaer Polytechnic Institute. (Married, first, Joanna Mesier Reese, Sept. 21, 1871; second, Jean Sutherland Reese.) Senior member of the firm of Satterlee & Smith. Agent German-American Insurance Co. and Lancashire and Magdeburg Insurance Co.; manager East Side House Settlement. Ex-secretary and ex-director Columbia Fire Insurance Co.; ex-director Alliance Insurance Association of New York; ex-metropolitan manager British-American Insurance Co. of Toronto, Canada. Member Church (treasurer) and Underwriters' Clubs, New York Historical and St. Nicholas Societies, Society of Colonial Wars, Century Association and Sons of the Revolution.

SATTERLEE, EUGENE—Lawyer, Pittsford. Born in Rochester, N. Y., July 11, 1847. Educated at the University of Rochester and at Heidelberg, Germany. (Married.) Vice-president German-American Bank, Rochester German Insurance Co. and Title Guarantee Co. of Rochester. Member Genesee Valley Club.

SATTERLEE, GEORGE B.—Banker and Commission Merchant, 42 Broadway, New York City; residence 31 East 28th street. Born in New York City, Nov. 15, 1833. (Married.) Formerly president New York Mining Stock Exchange and Hampshire and Baltimore Coal Co., vice-president Washington Fire Insurance Co. and United States representative of Krupp-Gruson Iron Works, Prussia. Member St. Nicholas Society, Sons of the Revolution and Century Association.

SATTERLEE, GEORGE REESE—Physician, 136 Madison avenue, New York City. Born at Dobbs Ferry, N. Y., Nov. 2, 1873. Educated at Columbia ('94) and College of Physicians and Surgeons (M.D., '98). Degrees of M.A. in 1898. (Single.) Member of the staffs of J. Hood Wright and Sloane Maternity Hospitals. Member Psi Upsilon Club, New York County Medical and New York Medical Societies and Columbia Alumni Association.

SATTERLEE, HERBERT LIVINGSTON—Lawyer, 120 Broadway, New York City; residence 31 East 28th street. Born in New York City, Oct. 31, 1863. Educated at Columbia ('83). Degrees of A.B., A.M., Ph.D. and LL.B. (Single.) Member of the firm of Ward, Hayden & Satterlee. Was one of the organizers of the Naval Reserve Association of the State of New York and was its first president. Aide-de-camp with the rank of colonel on the staff of Governor Morton, 1894-7; served as lieutenant during the Spanish-American War. Counsel Missouri, Kansas and Texas Ry. Co., International Car Wheel Co. and Gruson Iron Works. Member University, St. Anthony, Seawanhaka-Corinthian Yacht, Lawyers', New York Yacht and Strollers' Clubs, Society of Colonial Wars, Society of the War of 1812, Columbia Alumni Association, Naval Order of the United States, Veteran Artillery Corps and Association of the Bar of the City of New York.

SATTERLEE, WALTER—Artist, 148 East 18th street, New York City. Born in New York City. Educated at Columbia ('63); studied art at the National Academy of Design. (Single.) Member Twilight Club, Columbia University Alumni and Century Associations, Sons of the Revolution and National Academy of Design.

SATTler, WILLIAM R.—Naval Architect and Mechanical Engineer, 35 Dey street, New York City; residence 906 Broad street, Elizabeth, N. J. Born in Baltimore, Md., 1864. Educated at Lehigh University. (Married.) Proprietor Rumsey Pump Machine Co. Formerly superintendent and naval architect of various ship yards. Member Mattano Club of Elizabeth, American Society of Mechanical Engineers, Society of Naval Architects and Marine Engineers and of several yacht and country clubs.

SATTERTHWAITE, THOMAS EDWARD—Physician, 7 East 80th street, New York City. Born in New York City, March 26, 1843. (Son of Thomas W. and Ann Fisher [Sheafe] Satterthwaite.) Educated at Yale College ('64), Harvard University ('65), New York College of Physicians and Surgeons (M.D., '67), New York Hospital (Interne Diploma, '69), and University of Würzburg ('71). (Married Isabella Banks, of New York City, 1884.) Assistant surgeon and captain in Prussian service during Franco-Prussian War, 1870-1; received from Emperor William decoration of the Iron Cross for his services; in practice in New York City since 1871. Microscopist and pathologist St. Luke's Hospital, 1872-84; pathologist Presbyterian Hospital, 1873-87; one of the founders of the Post-Graduate Medical School and Hospital, the New York Polyclinic, 1882, and the Post-Graduate School; connected with the latter until 1890; lecturer Columbia Veterinary College for two years; president New York Pathological Society, two terms. At present consulting physician to the Post-Graduate, Orthopaedic and Babies' Hospitals and Northeastern Dispensary. Author of "Manual of Histology" and "Practical Bacteriology;" has contributed extensively to medical journals. Member New York County Medical, New York State Medical and Pathological Societies, Physicians' Mutual Aid and Century Associations and Academy of Medicine.

SAUNDERS, SAMUEL J.—Professor, Hamilton College, Clinton. Born in Nanticoke, Ontario, Canada, Aug. 3, 1862. Educated at the University of Toronto. Degree of D.Sc. from Cornell. (Married Jennie A. Stewart, of Hagersville, Ontario, 1887.) Fellow in mathematics at Cornell, 1888-9; fellow in physics and mathematics, 1889-90; instructor in physics, 1890-2. Professor of physics and astronomy at Hamilton College since 1892.

SAVAGE, MINOT J.—Unitarian Clergyman, 34th street and Park avenue, New York City. Born in Norridgewood, Me., June 10, 1841. Educated in preparatory schools and at Bangor Theological Seminary. Received degree of D.D. from Harvard in 1896. (Married Ella A. Dodge, of Harvard, Mass., 1864.) Was ordained to Congregational ministry and held pastorates at Framingham, Mass., 1867-9, and at Hannibal, Mo., 1869-73. Became a Unitarian in 1873. Pastor of Third Unitarian Church of Chicago, Ill., 1873-4; Church of the Unity, Boston, Mass., 1874-96, and of the Church of the Messiah in New York City since 1896. Author of "The Religion of Evolution," "Life Questions," "The Morals of Evolution," "Beliefs About the Bible," "The Modern Sphinx," "The Religious Life," "Signs of the Times," "The Evolution of Christianity," "Facts and Theories," "Religion for To-Day," "Our Unitarian Gospel" and many others. Member Harvard Club.

SAVAGE, RICHARD HENRY—Author, 123 West 44th street, New York City. Born in Utica, N. Y., June 12, 1846. Educated at United States Military Academy ('68). (Married Anna Josephine Scheible of Berlin, Germany, at the German Embassy, Washington, D. C., 1872.) Served in the Egyptian Army, 1871-4; engineer on railroads in the South, 1874-84. Was appointed in May, 1898, senior major of the 2d United States Volunteer Engineers and served throughout Spanish-American War; hoisted the first American flag in Havana, Cuba, in November, 1898. Author of "My Official Wife," "A Daughter of Judas," "The Anarchist," "In the Old Chateau," "The Masked Venus," "In the Shadow of the Pyramids," "In the Swim" and many other works.

SAVAGE, WATSON L.—Physician, 308 West 59th street, New York City; residence Cromwell, Conn. Born in Cromwell, Nov. 26, 1859. Educated at Amherst (A.B., '82, and A.M., '85), Long Island College Hospital (M.D., '85). (Married.) Resident physician and surgeon St. Peter's Hospital, Brooklyn, 1885-7; medical director Berkeley Athletic Club, Lyceum and School, 1887-90. Now president Dr. Savage Physical Development Institute; vice-president Nason Ryder Co. and New York Society of Physical Education; secretary, treasurer and director College Gymnasium Society. Ex-member British Medical Society of London. Member Westchester Golf Club, New York County Medical Society, American Academy of Medicine, Amherst Alumni Association and Beta Theta Pi Fraternity.

SAVIDGE, EUGENE COLEMAN—Physician, 66 West 50th street, New York City. Born in Maryland, Oct. 21, 1863. Educated at the University of France and at New York University (B.S., B.L. and M.D.). Has traveled extensively and devoted his time to medicine and literature. Member of the staffs of Roosevelt and St. Mark's Hospitals. Author of "Gallery of Eminent Men," "The American in Paris," "The Life and Times of Brewster" and other works. Frequent contributor to scientific journals. Director Bowery Bank. Member New York Academy of Medicine and other organizations.

SAVILLE, MARSHALL H.—Archaeologist, 77th street and Central Park, West, New York City; residence 145 West 84th street. Born in Rockport, Mass., 1867. Educated at a high school and at Harvard. (Married Annie W. Lyon of Salem, Mass., 1893.) Assistant curator in anthropology in the American Museum of Natural History since 1894. Was in charge of the Central American exhibits at the World's Columbian Exposition, Chicago, 1893; has made explorations and discoveries in Yucatan, in Honduras for the Peabody Museum of Harvard University, among the remains of the mound-builders in Southern Ohio, at the ruins of Palenque for the American Museum of Natural History, and of Aztec remains in Mexico. Author of several monographs on anthropological and archaeological subjects.

SAVIN, WILLIAM M.—Broker, 66 Broadway, New York City; residence 305 West 86th street. Member of the firm of Wilcox & Co., and of the New York Stock Exchange. Member Alpha Delta Phi and New York Athletic Clubs.

SAWIN, THEOPHILUS PARSONS—Presbyterian Clergyman, 120 First street, Troy. Born in Lynn, Mass., Jan. 14, 1841. Educated at Kimball Union Academy and at Yale. Received degree of D.D. from Williams College. (Married Emeline T. Farel, 1864.) Ordained to Congregational ministry in 1871. Held pastorates at Racine and Jamesville, Wis., and at Medford, Mass. Pastor of the First Presbyterian Church of Troy, since 1886.

SAWYER, AZARIAH HALL—Lawyer and President, 23 Washington street, Watertown; residence 5 Ten Eyck street. Born in Potsdam, St. Lawrence Co., N. Y., June 19, 1834. Educated at Lowville (N. Y.) Academy and by private tutors. Received honorary degree of LL.D. from Hobart College in 1896. (Married.) Was Judge of Jefferson County for ten years (1868-78), member of the Board of Education of the City of Watertown for nine years, for a part of that time being president of the Board, and vice-president and later president of the National Union Bank. Has been senior warden of Trinity Church for the past twenty-five years; is also chancellor and member of the Standing Committee of the Diocese of Central New York. President Agricultural Insurance Co.; director National Union Bank, Watertown Carriage Co. and other corporations; trustee Jefferson County Institute. Past master Watertown Lodge, F. & A. M., and past commander Watertown Commandery Knights Templar. Member Jefferson County Golf and Union Clubs, Mastigouche Fish and Game Club of Montreal, Canada, Lincoln League, New York State Bar Association, Order of Founders and Patriots of America and Sons of the American Revolution.

SAWYER, GEORGE PLINY—Lumber Merchant, 321 Gauson street, Buffalo; residence 770 West Ferry street. Born in Buffalo. Educated at Yale. (Married.) Member of the firm of Noyes & Sawyer. Member University, Buffalo, Ellicott and Country Clubs and Yale Alumni Association.

SAWYER, J. THEODORE—Banker, Waverly; residence 329 Chemung street. Born Oct. 8, 1834. (Married.) President Citizens' Bank and Waverly Water Co. Formerly president village of Waverly, supervisor of the town and member of State Assembly. Member Sons of the American Revolution.

SAXE, MARTIN—Lawyer, 265 Broadway, New York City; residence 54 West 71st street. Born in New York City, Aug. 28, 1874. Educated at Princeton and New York Law School. (Single.) Secretary Commercial Law League of America, 1898-9. Now president Phoenix Cap Co. and director Phoenix Cork Co. Member Lotos, Republican, Princeton and Arkwright Clubs.

SAXTON, CHARLES T.—Lawyer, Graham Block, Clyde; residence East Genesee street. Born in Clyde, July 2, 1846. Educated at Clyde High School. Received degree of LL.D. from Union College in 1892. (Widower.) Served during Civil War in 90th Regiment, New York Volunteers. Member of the New York State Assembly, 1887-9; State senator, 1890-4; temporary president of the State Senate, 1894; Lieutenant-Governor of New York, 1895-6. Was appointed Presiding Judge of the New York State Court of Claims in 1897, for term beginning Jan. 1, 1898, and ending Dec. 31, 1903. Was offered appointment as the first United States District Judge of Puerto Rico on May 24, 1900, but declined the office. Delegate to the National Republican Convention of 1900. Member Republican Club of New York City, Whist Club of Rochester, and Union Alumni Association.

SAYER, JOHN—Railroads, Warwick. Born in Greenwood Lake, N. Y., Jan. 4, 1845. Educated in Bellvale, N. Y. (Married.) Treasurer and general passenger agent Lehigh and Hudson River Ry. Co. Member Masonic lodge.

SAYRE, CHARLES D.—Oils, Greenpoint avenue and West street, Brooklyn; residence 174 Clinton avenue. Born in Brooklyn, Oct. 1, 1869. Educated at Brooklyn Polytechnic Institute. (Married.) Formerly director Maine Steamship Co. Now director Peoples' Line. Member Crescent Athletic and Englewood (N. J.) Golf Clubs.

SAYRE, EDWIN H.—Wholesale Grocer, 58 Hudson street, New York City; residence 868 Carroll street, Brooklyn. Born in Brooklyn, 1854. Educated in public school and commercial college. (Married.) Connected with the firm of R. C. Williams & Co. Secretary Hudson Mfg Co. Member Arkwright Club, and Nassau Country, Montauk, and Marine and Field Clubs of Brooklyn.

SAYRE, LEWIS ALBERT—Physician and Surgeon, 285 Fifth avenue, New York City. Born in Bottle Hill (now Madison) N. J., Feb. 29, 1820. Educated at Transylvania University ('39) and at the New York College of Physicians and Surgeons of Columbia University (M.D., '42). (Married Eliza Ann, daughter of Charles Henry Hall.) Was one of the founders of the Bellevue Hospital Medical College in 1861; resident physician to the City of New York, 1861-6; president of the American Medical Association, 1880; delegate to International Medical Congresses of 1881, 1884 and 1887. Emeritus professor of orthopaedic surgery at the University and Bellevue Hospital Medical College; also consulting surgeon to Bellevue and City Hospitals and to the Home for Incurables. Has introduced new methods in the treatment of various diseases and was made a Knight of the Order of Wasa by the King of Sweden for distinguished services to surgery. Member American Geographical and New York Pathological Societies, Medical Society of St. Petersburg, Russia, British Medical (honorary), American Medical and American Surgical Associations, New York Academy of Medicine, American Museum of Natural History and Metropolitan Museum of Art.

SAYRE, REGINALD HALL—Physician and Surgeon, 285 Fifth avenue, New York City. Born in New York City, Oct. 18, 1859. Educated at Columbia ('81) and at University and Bellevue Hospital Medical College. (Single.) Treasurer of trustees New York Academy of Medicine; consulting surgeon Hackensack Hospital of Montclair, N. J., and Mountain Side Hospital and Home for Cripples of Newark, N. J. Formerly clinical professor of orthopaedic surgery at the University and Bellevue Hospital Medical College. Member City, New York Athletic and University Clubs, New York Academy of Medicine, New York Pathological and State Medical Societies, American Academy of Medicine and Medical, Orthopaedic (ex-vice-president), Columbia Alumni and State Medical Associations.

SCANLAN, MICHAEL J.—Lawyer, 56 Pine street, New York City; residence Crotona Park, North. Born in New York City, 1854. Educated in public schools, Christian Brothers' Schools and Law School of New York University. (Married.) Member Catholic, Democratic and Brownson Catholic Clubs.

SCANNELL, JOHN J.—Commissioner, 157 East 67th street, New York City; residence 1 West 102d street. Born in New York City, 1840. Educated in public schools. Commissioner of the Fire Department of the City of New York since 1893.

SCHAEFER, EMIL—Ice Manufacturer, foot of East 52d street, New York City; residence 243 Central Park, South. President and director New York Hygeia Ice Co.; director Brooklyn Elevated R. R. Co., F. & M. Schaefer Frewing Co. and Sea Side and Brooklyn Bridge Elevated R. R. Co. Member New York Athletic and Democratic Clubs and Liederkrantz.

SCHAEFFER, HERMANN—President, 644 Broadway, New York City; residence 270 Berkeley place, Brooklyn. Born in Berlin, Germany, Feb. 4, 1855. Educated in Germany. (Married.) President Dr. Jaeger's Sanitary Woolen System Co. Member of the firm of W. Benger, Sons & Co. Member Merchants' Central and New York Athletic Clubs, Hamilton, Riding and Driving, and Germania Clubs of Brooklyn, and Liederkrantz.

SCHALL, WILLIAM, Jr.—Banker, 54 Wall street, New York City; residence 20 Gramercy Park. Born in New York City, 1858. Educated in Leipzig, Germany, and Paris, France. (Married.) Member of the firm of Muller, Schall & Co., and of the New York Stock Exchange. Trustee Hamburg-Bremen Fire Insurance Co. and New York Marine Underwriters' Association. Member Racquet and Tennis and German Clubs, Essex County Country Club of Orange, N. J., and Down Town Association.

SCHANCK, GEORGE E.—Dry Goods Merchant, 19 West 13th, and 20 West 14th streets, New York City; residence 33 West 12th street. Born in New York City, 1863. Educated in New York City and New Jersey. (Married.) Member of the firm of James A. Hearn & Son. Member Lotos, New York Athletic, Salmagundi, Arts, Apawamis and Fairfield County (Conn.) Golf Clubs, Chamber of Commerce, St. Nicholas Society, Sons of the Revolution and Metropolitan Museum of Art.

SCHARPS, BENJAMIN—Lawyer, 45 Broadway, New York City; residence 70 West 52d street. Born in Newburgh, N. Y., July 21, 1864. Educated at Yale ('84). (Single.) Member of the firm of Fullerton & Scharps. Member Yale Club.

SCHAUFFLER, ADOLPHUS FREDERICK—Presbyterian Clergyman, 105 East 22d street, New York City; residence 260 Fourth avenue. Born in Constantinople, Turkey, Nov. 7, 1845. Educated in Constantinople and at Williams College (A.B., '67, and A.M., '70). Received degree of D.D. from New York University in 1887. (Married Julia Baker, 1884.) Superintendent of New York City Missions. Member Century Association and Presbyterian Union.

SCHAUMBURG, ATKINSON—Lawyer, 57 Broadway, New York City; residence Stapleton, S. I. Born in Baltimore, Md., May 31, 1847. Educated at Universities of Virginia and Heidelberg. (Single.) Was Prohibition candidate for district attorney and attorney general; formerly editor "Forum Law Review." Member Southern Society, Delta Kappa Epsilon Fraternity, University of Virginia Alumni Association, Sons of the Revolution and Association of the Bar of the City of New York.

SCHEFER, CARL—Merchant, 476 Broome street, New York City; residence 40 West 37th street. Born in Frankfurt-on-Main, Germany, March, 1843. Educated in Germany. (Married.) Member of the firm of Scherer, Schramm & Vogel. Director Thuringia-American Fire Insurance Co. and Frankfurt-American Insurance Co.; trustee Washington Trust Co. Member Merchants' and Riding Clubs, American Museum of Natural History, Metropolitan Museum of Art and Deutscher Verein.

SCHELL, EDWARD HARTT—Lawyer, 66 Broadway, New York City; residence 19 East 24th street. Educated at Yale. Director Citizens' Insurance Co. and Manhattan Life Insurance Co.; trustee Manhattan Savings Institution. Member St. Nicholas, Manhattan and Yale Clubs, St. Nicholas Society and Association of the Bar of the City of New York.

SCHELL, FRANCIS—Lawyer, 280 Broadway, New York City; residence 21 East 62d street. Educated at Yale ('72). Member Yale, Metropolitan and University Clubs, American Geographical and St. Nicholas Societies and Yale Alumni Association.

SCHELL, PHILIP L.—Merchant, 81 Leonard street, New York City; residence 308 West 83d street. Born in New York City, Sept. 22, 1858. Educated at private school. (Married.) Member of the firm of W. Stursberg, Schell Co. (commission merchants and importers). Vice-president Germania Mills of Holyoke, Mass.; director Ounegan Woolen Co. of Old Town, Me. Member Merchants' Club.

SCHELL, ROBERT—Banker, 100 East 14th street, New York City; residence 33 West 56th street. Vice-president and trustee German Savings Bank; director Associated Land Co., Bank of the Metropolis, New York and Harlem R. R. Co. and Woodlawn Cemetery. Member St. Nicholas Club, St. Nicholas and American Geographical Societies and Aldine Association.

SCHENCK, EDWARD—Lawyer, 171 Broadway, New York City; residence 167 Lexington avenue. Born in Fonda, N. Y. Educated at Union College ('69). (Single.) Member Society of Medical Jurisprudence and Union College Alumni Association.

SCHENCK, EDWARD F.—Salesman, 258 West 43d street, New York City. Born in Kentucky, Nov. 6, 1848. (Single.) Member New York Athletic and Fellowship Clubs and Royal Arcanum.

SCHENCK, HERBERT DANA—Physician, 241 McDonough street, Brooklyn. Born in Union Springs, Cayuga County, N. Y., June 28, 1857. Educated at Friends' Academy, Union Springs, and Cornell University. (Married.) Now oculist and aurist to Brooklyn Homeopathic Hospital, Nursery and Infants' Hospital, and Brooklyn Maternity and Hospital, and consulting oculist and aurist to Brooklyn Central Homeopathic Dispensary. Formerly chief of staff of Brooklyn Eastern District Homeopathic Dispensary; secretary for several years and president Homeopathic Medical Society of the County of Kings; secretary for several years of the American Homeopathic Ophthalmological, Otological and Laryngological Society. Member Cornell University, Unanimous and Æsculapian Clubs, and Medical Club of Brooklyn.

SCHENCK, H. PENDLETON—Lawyer, 19 Liberty street, New York City; residence 162 Columbia Heights, Brooklyn. Educated at Columbia. Member of the firm of Schenck & Punnett. Member Delta Phi and Union Clubs, Hamilton Club of Brooklyn, Church Club of the Diocese of Long Island, St. Nicholas Society and Columbia University Alumni Association.

SCHENCK, JOHN CORNELL—Lawyer, 209 Barbey street, Brooklyn. Born in Flatbush, N. Y., Feb. 27, 1827. (Son of Isaac C. and Catharine [Meserole] Schenck.) Educated at Mount Washington Collegiate Institute and Columbia College Law School, under Prof. Dwight, ('60.) (Married Josephine M. Petty, and has one daughter, Elizabeth Meserole Schenck.) Chairman Citizens' Association of the town of New Lots, for the relief of volunteers, drafted men and their families, 1861-5; served as justice of the peace in Kings County; as town clerk of New Lots, and as Associate Justice of the Court of Sessions in Kings County. Prepared and attended to enactment of the charter of the East New York Savings Bank in 1868, and had it opened for business May 1, 1869; was in charge of general management of the bank, its legal adviser and a member of the board of trustees until 1884, when he resigned. Was interested in the formation of the Union Gas Light Co. of the town of New Lots, and numerous other corporations. Member Holland Society and Masonic Veterans.

SCHENCK, FREDERICK BRETT—Banker, 191 Broadway, New York City; residence Englewood, N. J. Born in New York City, June 9, 1851. Educated in Brooklyn, N. Y. (Widower.) President Brooklyn Young Men's Christian Association, 1890-7; treasurer International Committee of same since 1895. President Mercantile National Bank; vice-president Hamilton Bank; director Fourteenth Street Bank, National Surety Co. and Safe Deposit Co. of New York. Member Union League Club, Hamilton Club of Brooklyn, Chamber of Commerce, Holland Society and many church and benevolent societies.

SCHENCKER, PETER AUGUST—Organist and Composer, 235 East 52d street, New York City. Born in Germany, Aug. 26, 1850. Studied harmony in New York City and composition at Leipzig Conservatory. (Married.) Organist and musical director in the West Presbyterian Church, New York City, since 1872. Has composed considerable church music. Member New York Manuscript Society.

SCHERER, ROBERT G.—Lawyer, Albany; residence 618 Madison avenue. Born March 20, 1861. Educated at Cornell and Columbia Law School. (Married.) Member of New York State Assembly. Trustee Mechanics' and Farmers' Savings Bank. Member Fort Orange Club.

SCHERMERHORN, ARTHUR FREDERIC—Insurance, 100 Broadway, New York City; residence 77 West 65th street. Born in New York City, April 1, 1860. Educated at Cutler School and Charlier Institute in New York City. (Married.) Was adjutant 12th Regiment, N. G. N. Y., lieutenant-colonel commanding 112th Regiment, N. G. N. Y., and first vice-president Associated Board of Officers of Provisional Regiment, N. G. N. Y., 1898. Director American Surety Co. and New York Connecting R. R. Co., and member Consolidated Stock and Petroleum Exchange. Member Army and Navy (governor) and Lawyers' Clubs, St. Nicholas Society, Sons of the Revolution, American Institute of Architects, Old Guard, 12th Regiment, N. G. N. Y., and 7th Regiment Veteran Association.

SCHERMERHORN, CHARLES AUGUST—Real Estate and Insurance, 1286 Broadway, New York City; residence 270 Boulevard, West. Born in New York City, 1829. Educated in New York City. (Married.) Formerly trustee Society for Relief of Destitute Blind, House of Mercy, and others. Now trustee Real Estate Trust Co. Member St. Nicholas and Holland Societies, Society of Colonial Wars, Society of the War of 1812, Lafayette Post, G. A. R., and Sons of the Revolution.

SCHERMERHORN, FREDERICK AUGUSTUS—Capitalist, 41 Liberty street, New York City; residence 101 University place. Educated at Columbia. Director Building and Sanitary Inspection Co. and National Horse Show Association of America; trustee Columbia University in the City of New York and Consolidated Gas Co. Member Metropolitan, City, Army and Navy, Union, Knickerbocker, Tuxedo, Coaching, Westchester Country, Rockaway Hunting, New York Yacht, Seawanhaka-Corinthian Yacht, Mendelssohn Glee and Riding Clubs, American Geographical and St. Nicholas Societies, Columbia University Alumni and Century Associations, Military Order of the Loyal Legion, Scientific Alliance, American Museum of Natural History and Metropolitan Museum of Art.

SCHERMERHORN, J. MAUS—Banker and Broker, 71 Broadway, New York City; residence 120 East 34th street. Born in Homer, N. Y. Educated at Williams College ('69). (Married.) Member University Club, Century Club of Syracuse, Holland and St. Nicholas Societies, Kappa Alpha Fraternity and Williams College Alumni Association.

SCHERMERHORN, JOHN EGMONT—25 East 79th street, New York City. Member Metropolitan, Knickerbocker, University, Calumet, Camera, Fencers', Country, Olympic, Larchmont Yacht, New York Yacht and Seawanhaka-Corinthian Yacht Clubs, Liederkrantz, and Holland and St. Nicholas Societies.

SCHERMERHORN, MARTIN KELLOGG—Prot-estant Episcopalian Clergyman, 14 Garfield ridge, Poughkeepsie. Educated at Williams College and at Union Theological Seminary. Deacon, 1883; priest, 1884. Has held pastorates in Tarrytown, N. Y., Arlington, Mass., and Ormond, Fla. Author of several religious works.

SCHERMERHORN, WILLIAM C.—Capitalist, 41 Liberty street, New York City; residence 49 West 23d street. Educated at Columbia. Trustee New York Life Insurance and Trust Co.; chairman board of trustees Columbia University. Member Metropolitan, City, Knickerbocker and Whist Clubs, American Fine Arts and American Geographical Societies, Columbia University Alumni and Century Associations, Scientific Alliance, American Museum of Natural History and Metropolitan Museum of Art.

SCHERNIKOW, ERNESTO—Vice-Consul and Exporter, 18 Broadway, New York City; residence 195 Edgecombe avenue. Born in Berlin, Germany, Oct. 13, 1860. Educated in New York City. (Single.) Vice-consul of the Republics of Salvador, Honduras and Nicaragua. Treasurer and director Hamilton Bank Note Engraving and Printing Co.; secretary Rosario Mining Co. Formerly delegate to Pan-American Congress. Member National Arts Club, American Geographical and New York Mineralogical Societies, American Museum of Natural History, Scientific Alliance, St. John's Guild and Metropolitan Museum of Art.

SCHUEYERMAN, HENRY L.—Lawyer, 22 William street, New York City; residence 102 West 75th street. Born in New York City, Dec. 5, 1870. Educated at Yale ('90), and at Columbia and New York Law Schools. (Single.) Member of the firm of Hoadly, Lauterbach & Johnson. Member Reform, Yale, Democratic, Harmonie and Century Country Clubs, Association of the Bar of the City of New York and Society of Medical Jurisprudence.

SCHICKEL, WILLIAM—Architect, 111 Fifth avenue, New York City; residence 52 East 83d street. Born in Germany, 1850. Educated in Germany. (Married.) Member of the firm of Schickel & Ditmars. Member Catholic Club, Aldine Association, Architectural League, American Institute of Architects and Chamber of Commerce.

SCHIEFFELIN, GEORGE R.—Lawyer, 13 William street, New York City; residence 8 East 45th street. Educated at Columbia. Member Union, Knickerbocker and Riding Clubs, Columbia University Alumni, Century and Down Town Associations, St. Nicholas Society, Colonial Order and Society of Colonial Wars.

SCHIEFFELIN, SAMUEL B.—Merchant and Author, 958 Madison avenue, New York City. Born in New York City, Feb. 24, 1811. (Widower.) Author of "The Foundations of History," "Children of God and Union With Christ," "After Death and Other Mysteries," "People's Hymn Book," "Message to Ruling Elders" and many others. Member National Academy of Design and American Museum of Natural History.

SCHIEFFELIN, SCHUYLER—Wholesale Drug Merchant, 170 William street, New York City; residence 173 Fifth avenue. Born in Belleville, N. J., Dec. 28, 1866. Educated at Massachusetts Institute of Technology. (Single.) Member of the firm of Schieffelin & Co. Member Knickerbocker Riding, Union, Fencers' and Army and Navy Clubs, Caughnawaga (Adiron-dack) Club, Ardsley Casino of Ardsley-on-Hudson, St. Nicholas Society, Society of Colonial Wars, Colonial Order and Metropolitan Museum of Art.

SCHIEFFELIN, WILLIAM JAY—Wholesale Drug Merchant, 170 William street, New York City; residence 5 East 66th street. Born in New York City, April 14, 1866. Educated at Trinity School, at Columbia (Ph.B., '87), and at the University of Munich, Germany (Ph.D., '89). (Married M. Louise, daughter of Elliott F. Shepard, 1891.) Member of the firm of Schieffelin & Co. Served as adjutant in the 12th Regiment New York Volunteers during Spanish-American War. Was for a time civil service commissioner of the City of New York and was a member of the Committee of Seventy of 1894. Vice-president and director Seamless Metal Wire Co. Member Church, University, Social Reform and City Clubs, St. Nicholas, American Chemical and Huguenot Societies, Society of Chemical Industry, Society of Colonial Wars, Century Association, and Military Order of the Loyal Legion.

SCHIEREN, CHARLES A.—Tanner and Belting Manufacturer, 45 Ferry street, New York City; residence 405 Clinton avenue, Brooklyn. Born in Neuss-an-Rhein, Germany, Feb. 28, 1842. Educated in Germany and in New York City. (Married.) Came to the United States in 1856; employed in his father's cigar store until 1864; clerk in a belting factory, 1864-8; established business now known as Charles A. Schieren & Co. in 1869. Mayor of Brooklyn, 1894-5. Vice-president Hide and Leather National Bank; treasurer National Association of Manufacturers; trustee Germania Savings Bank of Brooklyn; chairman New York State Commerce Commission. Member Hamilton, Union League, Oxford and Germania Clubs of Brooklyn, and Manufacturers' Association of New York.

SCHIEREN, CHARLES A., JR.—Tanner and Belting Manufacturer, 45 Ferry street, New York City; residence 405 Clinton avenue, Brooklyn. Born in Brooklyn, May 8, 1863. Educated in Brooklyn. (Single.) Member of the firm of Charles A. Schieren & Co. Member Union League, Crescent Athletic, Germania and Invincible Clubs of Brooklyn, Manufacturers' Association of New York, and Acanthus Lodge, F. & A. M.

SCHIFF, JACOB H.—Banker, 27 Pine street, New York City; residence 932 Fifth avenue. Born and educated in Germany. (Married.) Member of the New York Stock Exchange firm of Kuhn, Loeb & Co. Served for a time as a member of the Board of Education of the City of New York and was a member of the Committee of Seventy of 1894. Prominent in charitable and philanthropic work. Director National City Bank, Equitable Life Assurance Society of the United States, Great Northern R. R. Co., Union Pacific R. R. Co., Western Union Telegraph Co. and Woodbine Land Improvement Co. President Montefiore Home for Chronic Invalids. Member Reform, Lawyers' and Barnard Clubs, American Geographical and American Fine Arts Societies, American Museum of Natural History and Metropolitan Museum of Art.

SCHILLER, JOSEPH P.—Lithographer and Publisher, 15 Laight street, New York City; residence East Orange, N. J. Born in Philadelphia, Pa., April 6, 1859. Educated at the University of Pennsylvania and St. Louis University. (Married.) Director Gray Lithograph Co. Formerly vice-president Art Interchange Co. and governor Orange Club and Western Society. Member New York Athletic and Hardware Clubs, East Orange Republican and Orange Clubs, and Hope Lodge No. 124, F. & A. M. of East Orange.

SCHIRMER, RUDOLPH E.—Book and Music Dealer, 35 Union square, West, New York City; residence 243 East 17th street. Educated at Princeton ('80). President and director G. Schirmer (Inc.). Member Princeton, Richmond Hill Golf, University and City Clubs.

SCHLEGEL, CHARLES J.—Broker, 47 Ferry street, New York City; residence 11 St. James place, Brooklyn. Born in New York City, 1851. Educated in New York City. (Married.) Member of the Consolidated Stock and Petroleum Exchange. Treasurer Hide and Leather Club; assistant treasurer Central Cuban Relief Fund and Manufacturers' Association of the United States. Member German and Get-Together Clubs.

SCHLESINGER, LEO—Banker, 486 Broadway, New York City; residence 11½ East 73d street. Born in New York City, Nov. 15, 1851. Educated at New York Grammar School No. 13. (Married Rachel Hecht.) Member of the firm of Leo Schlesinger & Co. President Mechanics' and Traders' Bank; treasurer Manhattan Realty Co. Member Democratic and Progress Clubs and many charitable societies.

SCHLEY, EVANDER H.—Manufacturer, 4 Wall street, New York City; residence Bernardsville, N. J. Born in Canandaigua, N. Y., July 11, 1837. Educated in Canandaigua. (Single.) Formerly with the American Express Co. for twenty-seven years and secretary Bankers' Safe Deposit Co. for nineteen years. Now president Keystone Typewriter Co.; secretary and treasurer Elliott & Hatch Book Typewriter Co. Member Union League Club and Albany Society of New York.

SCHLEY, GRANT B.—Banker, 80 Broadway, and 747 Fifth avenue, New York City; residence 812 Madison avenue, and Far Hills, N. J. Born in Chapinville, Ontario Co., N. Y., Feb. 25, 1845. (Son of Evander Schley.) Educated in Canandaigua. Resident of New York City since 1874. Member of the firm of Moore & Schley, and of the New York Stock Exchange (since 1881). Treasurer and director Chihuahua and Pacific R. R. Co.; secretary and director Chihuahua Mining Co. and Helena Mining Co.; member executive committee and director American Smelting and Refining Co.; director American Malting Co., Chaquette Canal and Harbor Dredging Co., Chase National Bank, Continental Tobacco Co., Electric Storage Battery Co., Elliott and Hatch Book Typewriter Co., Fort Wayne, Cincinnati and Louisville Ry. Co., Manhattan Trust Co., New York Mutual Telegraph Co., Norfolk and Southern R. R. Co., Western Live Stock and Land Co. and Western Union Beef Co. Member Union League, New York, Riding, Lotos, Suburban Riding and Driving, New York Athletic, New York Yacht and Atlantic Yacht Clubs and American Fine Arts Society.

SCHLIEP, L. CHARLEMAGNE—Secretary, 280 Broadway, New York City; residence 141 Montague street, Brooklyn. Born in Belleville, Ill., Sept. 1, 1861. Educated in Cincinnati, Ohio. (Single.) Secretary Allemen Law Co. and manager corporation law department; director Hanover Realty Guaranty Co.; manager Guardian Savings and Loan Co. Ex-captain 114th Infantry (provisional), New York. Member Craftsmen's Club, Democratic and National Democratic Clubs of Brooklyn, Republic Lodge No. 690, F. & A. M., 23d Regiment Veteran Association and Military Service Institution of Governor's Island, N. Y.

SCHLOSS, HENRY W.—Dry Goods Merchant, 15 Mercer street, New York City; residence 40 West 90th street. Born in Adrian, Mich., Aug. 21, 1855. (Married.) Head of Castle Braid Co. and Schloss & Sons (manufacturers of braids, trimmings and buttons). Prominently identified with the leading charitable institutions of New York City. Member of many clubs and societies.

SCHLOSS, NEWTON L.—Consulting Engineer, 39 Cortlandt street, New York City. Born in Baltimore, Md., July 30, 1868. Educated in Baltimore. Formerly connected with the engineering departments of Bureau of Ordnance, Washington (D. C.) Navy Yard, Metropolitan Traction Co. and Edison General Electric Co. Member Republican Club.

SCHMELZEL, JAMES H.—Merchant and Importer, 245 Washington street, New York City; residence 18 West 56th street. Born in New York City, Jan. 25, 1861. Educated at Columbia ('83). (Married.) Member of the firm of Edwin J. Gillies & Co. Vice-president New York Bible Society. Member St. Nicholas Society, Presbyterian Union and Phi Beta Kappa Alumni and Columbia Alumni Associations.

SCHMIDT, NATHANIEL—Professor, Cornell University, Ithaca; residence "The Oaks." Born in Hudiksvall, Sweden, May 22, 1862. Educated at Hudiksvall Gymnasium and at the Universities of Stockholm ('84), Colgate ('87) and Berlin ('90). (Married Ellen Alfven, 1887.) Professor of Semitic languages and literature at Colgate University, 1888-96; professor of same at Cornell University since 1896. Author of "The Son of Man and The Son of God;" also of numerous philological and historical articles in various publications and cyclopædias. Member Town and Gown Club, American Oriental Society, American Institute of Archaeology, Society of Biblical Literature and Exegesis, American Economic Association, American Institute of Sacred Literature, Liberal Congress of Religion, and Deutsche Morgenlaendische Gesellschaft.

SCHMITZ, E. J.—Mining and Civil Engineer, 635 East 135th street, New York City. Born in Coblenz-on-Rhine, March 14, 1854. Educated in Germany. (Married.) Makes a specialty of the investigation of all classes of mineral lands, mines, projected railroad lines and their values. Member American Institute of Mining Engineers.

SCHNAKENBERG, DANIEL—Insurance, 6 Hanover street, New York City; residence New Brighton, S. I. Member New York Cotton, Produce and Coffee Exchanges. Treasurer German Society. Member New York, Richmond County Country and Manhattan Clubs and Down Town Association.

SCHNUGG, FRANCIS J.—Real Estate, 78 East 96th street, New York City; residence 1 East 94th street. Born in New York City, June 4, 1859. Educated at St. Francis Xavier College and Columbia Law School. (Widower.) Vice-president Property Owners' Union; treasurer American Brewing Co. of New York. Member Catholic and Sachem Clubs, Arion Society, Builders' League and Metropolitan Museum of Art.

SCHOEFFEL, F. H.—Army Officer, Madison Barracks, Madison. Born in Rochester, N. Y., Nov. 30, 1867. Educated at Rochester Free Academy and United States Military Academy, West Point. (Married.) Captain 9th Infantry, United States Army. Member Army and Navy Club of New York City.

SCHOELLKOPF, ARTHUR—Manufacturer and Banker, Niagara Falls; residence 706 Main street. Born in Buffalo, N. Y., June 13, 1856. Educated in Buffalo and in Germany. (Married.) Formerly mayor, and member of the Board of Public Works. Member of the firm of Schoellkopf & Mathews. President Power City Bank, International Hotel Co., Park Theatre Co., Gluck Realty Co. and Cliff Paper Co.; secretary, treasurer and director Niagara Falls Hydraulic Power and Manufacturing Co.; director Bank of Niagara. Member Niagara Game and Fish, and Ellicott Clubs, Masons, Knights Templar, Mecca Shrine and Order of Elks.

SCHOENHERR, OSCAR—Importer, 106 Spring street, New York City; residence South Orange, N. J. Born in New York City, Jan. 1, 1872. Educated in Brooklyn, N. Y. (Married.) Member Crescent Athletic Club of Brooklyn.

SCHONEY, LAZARUS—Physician, 1667 Lexington avenue, New York City. Born in Budapest, Hungary, Oct. 18, 1838. Educated at Carl Ferdinand University, Prague, Austria (Ph.D., '57), and at the University of Pennsylvania (M.D., '64). Served in a medical and surgical capacity in the Union Army during the Civil War. Professor of pathology and clinical microscopy at New York Eclectic Medical College. Member American Association for the Advancement of Science and other bodies.

SCHOONMAKER, SYLVANUS L.—Coke Merchant, 71 Broadway, New York City; residence Plainfield, N. J. Member Union League, Adirondack League, Transportation and Patria Clubs, Holland Society, Presbyterian Union, Down Town Association and American Institute of Mining Engineers.

SCHOONMAKER, WILLIAM DAVIS—Shoe Manufacturer, 116 Duane street, New York City; residence Orange, N. J. Member of the firm of L. E. Schoonmaker & Co. Member Delta Kappa Epsilon Club, New York Mineralogical and Holland Societies, New York Academy of Sciences and Scientific Alliance.

SCHOONOVER, JOHN R.—Real Estate, 1266 Third avenue, Brooklyn. Born in Bethany, Pa., July 18, 1849. Educated at Cornell University ('73) and New York College of Pharmacy ('82). (Widower.) Member Cornell University Club, Royal Arcanum, National Provident Union and Masonic bodies.

SCHOTT, LOUIS—Wholesale Grocer, 61 Hudson street, New York City; residence 338 Clinton avenue, Brooklyn. Born and educated in New York City. (Married.) Member of the firm of Austin, Nichols & Co. Member Arkwright and Commercial Clubs, and Montauk and Riding and Driving Clubs of Brooklyn.

SCHRAM, LOUIS B.—Manager, 60 Hamilton avenue, Brooklyn; residence 18 East 60th street, New York City. Born in Milwaukee, Wis., Aug. 28, 1856. Educated at Yale. (Married.) Director and general manager India Wharf Brewing Co. Member Camera Club.

SCHRAMM, ARNOLD H. E.—Coffee Merchant, 111 Front street, New York City; residence 615 West 158th street. Member New York Coffee and Maritime Exchanges, and of the New York Athletic Club, Down Town Association, Liederkrantz and Circle Colon Cervantes.

SCHRAMM, WILLIAM—Importer, 478 Broome street, New York City; residence 254 West 46th street. Member of the firm of Scheffer, Schramm & Vogel. Director Germania Life Insurance Co. Member Union, Merchants' Central and Merchants' Clubs and Century Association.

SCHROEDER, EDWIN A.—Tobacco Merchant, 178 Water street, New York City; residence 10 Lexington avenue. Member of the firm of Schroeder & Bon. Member Manhattan, Players', Carteret Gun and City Clubs, Dunlap Society and Down Town Association.

SCHROEDER, FREDERICK A.—Tobacco Importer, 178 Water street, New York City, and Banker, 377 Fulton street, Brooklyn; residence Hotel Margaret, Brooklyn. Born in Trier, Rhenish-Prussia, March 9, 1833. Came to the United States at the age of sixteen, with his father, and learned cigar-making trade. (Married Mary J. Rusher, 1854.) Comptroller of Brooklyn, 1871; Mayor of Brooklyn, 1876-8; State senator, 1879-81; declined a renomination for mayor in 1888. Was one of the founders of the Germania Savings Bank of Kings County, and has been president and trustee of same since its organization in 1867; also trustee People's Trust Co. of Brooklyn.

SCHUCHMAN, JOHN P.—Judge, 32 Chambers street, New York City; residence 186 Second avenue. Born in Germany, 1851. Educated in Darmstadt, Germany. Resident of New York City since 1868; studied law, and was admitted to the Bar in 1873. Practiced continuously until 1895, when he was elected Judge of the City Court for a term of six years (1896-1901). Was a Presidential Elector in 1888, and a member of the Tenement House Commission, appointed by the Governor in 1894. Member Democratic Club.

SCHULLER, OTTO T.—Importer, 450 Broome street, New York City; residence 124 West 75th street. (Single.) Member New York Athletic and Merchants' Clubs and Deutscher Verein (secretary).

SCHULTZE, EMILE, JR.—Lawyer, 141 Broadway, New York City; residence 203 Park avenue, Orange, N. J. Born in Hoboken, N. J., Feb. 17, 1863. Educated at Yale. (Married.) Member Yale Club, New England Society of Orange, Yale Alumni Association and Association of the Bar of the City of New York.

SCHULTZE, JOHN S.—President, 59 Wall street, New York City; residence Boonton, N. J. President and director Newburgh, Dutchess and Connecticut R. R. Co. Member Union League Club, American Geographical Society, Metropolitan Museum of Art and American Museum of Natural History.

SCHULTZE, OTTO HENRY—Physician and Instructor, 1109 Madison avenue, New York City. Degrees of A.B. and M.D. Instructor in pathology, Cornell University Medical College, New York City.

SCHURMAN, GEORGE W.—Lawyer, 96 Broadway, New York City; residence 316 West End avenue. Born in Canada, July 6, 1867. Educated at Dalhousie College, Halifax, Nova Scotia ('90), and at Cornell University. (Married.) Member of the firm of Carter, Hughes & Dwight. Member University, Cornell University, Alpha Delta Phi and Englewood (N. J.) Golf Clubs, Holland Society and Association of the Bar of the City of New York.

SCHURMAN, JACOB GOULD—Educator, Cornell University, Ithaca; residence 41 East avenue. Born in Freetown, Prince Edward Island, May 22, 1854. Educated in Europe, at the Universities of London, Edinburgh, Heidelberg, Berlin and Göttingen. Degrees of A.M., D.Sc. and LL.D. (Married Barbara F., daughter of George Munro of New York City.) Professor of English literature, political economy and psychology at Acadia College, Nova Scotia, 1880-2; professor of metaphysics and English literature at Dalhousie College, 1882-6; Sage Professor of philosophy and dean of the Susan Linn Sage School of Philosophy at Cornell University, 1886-92; president of Cornell University since 1892. Was appointed chairman of the first United States Philippine Commission, by President McKinley in January, 1899, and was given leave of absence from the University. Member Cornell University Club (honorary) and Holland Society, both of New York City.

SCHURZ, CARL—Publicist, 54 William street, New York City; residence 16 East 64th street. Born in Liblar, near Cologne, Germany, March 2, 1829. Educated at Gymnasium of Cologne and at the University of Bonn. Received degree of LL.D. from Harvard and from the University of Missouri. (Widower.) Took part in revolutionary movements and was compelled to leave Germany in 1849. Became a resident of the United States in 1852 and settled in Watertown, Wis. Unsuccessful candidate for lieutenant-governor of Wisconsin in 1857; delegate to National Republican Convention of 1860; United States Minister to Spain, 1861; resigned to enter army at outbreak of Civil War. Was appointed brigadier-general in April, 1862, and major-general in March, 1863. Commanded a division at Bull Run and again at Chancellorsville, and a corps at Gettysburg. Washington correspondent of the New York "Tribune," 1865-6; founded the "Detroit Post," 1866; temporary chairman of the National Republican Convention of 1868; United States Senator from Missouri, 1869-75; one of the organizers of the Liberal party in 1872 and presided over the convention which nominated Horace Greeley for President; Secretary of the Interior during the administration of President Hayes, 1877-81; edited the New York "Evening Post," 1881-4. Was one of the leaders in the Independent movement in 1884 and supported Grover Cleveland for President. Now president of the National Civil Service Reform League; director Germania Life Insurance Co., Sprague Electric Co. and Witte Water Placer Co. Member Authors' and Reform Clubs, Century Association, Arion Society and Liederkrantz.

SCHUYLER, ACKLEY C.—Mineral Waters, 333 West 36th street, New York City; residence 55 East 65th street. Member New York Athletic, Arkwright and Suburban Riding and Driving Clubs.

SCHUYLER, CHARLES E.—Real Estate, 238 Columbus avenue, New York City; residence 113th street, near Riverside Drive. Born in New York City, Jan. 7, 1859. Educated in New York City and at Yale. (Married.) Head of the firm of Charles E. Schuyler & Co. Member New York Athletic, St. Nicholas, Barnard and Arts Clubs and Holland Society.

SCHUYLER, CLARKSON C.—Physician, Plattsburgh. Born in White Plains, N. Y., Sept. 17, 1850. Educated at Medical Department of Union University. (Married.) New York State Forest Commissioner, 1892-3. Now consulting physician to Troy Hospital and member Universal Exposition Commission representing the State of New York. Member Army and Navy Clubs of New York City, Troy Club of Troy, Albany Club of Albany, Society of Colonial Wars, Holland and Military Surgical Societies, Veteran Society of Troy, and Society of Foreign Wars.

SCHUYLER, MONTGOMERY—Journalist, 41 Park row, New York City; residence 1025 Park avenue. Born in Ithaca, N. Y., Aug. 19, 1843. (Son of Rev. Anthony Schuyler.) Educated at Hobart College. Connected with the New York "World," 1865-83; on editorial staff of the "New York Times" since 1883. Co-author of "The Brooklyn Bridge." Frequent contributor of articles on architecture to leading magazines. Member Authors' Society, Century Association, Society of Colonial Wars and Metropolitan Museum of Art.

SCHUYLER, M. ROOSEVELT—Wine Merchant, 99 Pearl street, New York City; residence 7 West 43d street. Member City, Manhattan, Larchmont Yacht, Corinthian Yacht, New York Yacht, Fencers', Hudson River Ice Yacht, Suburban Riding and Driving and Lambs' Clubs, New York Genealogical and Biographical, and Holland Societies and Century Association.

SCHUYLER, SPENCER D.—Manufacturer, 41 Wall street, New York City; residence 137 West 71st street. President and director Maxim Powder and Torpedo Co.; director Underground R. R. Co. Member Seawanhaka-Corinthian Yacht and St. Nicholas Clubs, American Geographical, New York Genealogical and Biographical and St. Nicholas Societies and Sons of the Revolution.

SCHUYLER, WALTER G.—Lumber Merchant, First avenue and 98th street, New York City; residence 174 West 76th street. Member of the firm of G. L. Schuyler & Co. Member Colonial, New York Athletic and Lawyers' Clubs and Holland Society.

SCHWAB, GUSTAV H.—Shipping Merchant and Steamship Agent, 5 Broadway, New York City; residence 4 East 48th street. Born in New York City, May 30, 1851. Educated in New York City and in Germany. Member of the firm of Oelrichs & Co., American agents for the North German Lloyd Steamship Co. Served as a member of the Committee of Seventy of 1894. Director Merchants' National Bank and New York Produce Exchange Safe Deposit and Storage Co.; trustee Atlantic Mutual Insurance Co., Birkbeck Investment, Savings and Loan Co. and United States Trust Co. Member Riding, Metropolitan, City, Mendelssohn Glee and Reform Clubs, Ardsley Casino of Ardsley-on-Hudson, Century Association and Liederkrantz.

SCHWAN, LOUIS M.—Lawyer, 80 Broadway, New York City; residence 205 West 5th street. Born in Cleveland, Ohio, Nov. 16, 1852. (Married.) Vice-president, secretary and treasurer Lake Erie and Western R. R. Co. Member Union League, Riding and New York Athletic Clubs and others.

SCHWARTZ, LOUIS L.—Merchant Tailor, 163 Broadway, New York City; residence 203 West 85th street. Born in New Jersey, April 27, 1863. Educated in Newark (N. J.) public schools. (Married.) Member Merchants' and Manufacturers' Association and Merchant Tailors' Society.

SCHWARZ, HENRY F.—Toy Manufacturer, 39 West 23d street, New York City; residence 20 East 61st street. Born in Baltimore, Md., June 19, 1866. Educated at Charlier Institute in New York City. (Single.) Member of the firm of F. A. O. Schwarz. Member New York Athletic Club, Good Government Club "A," Aldine Association and Liederkrantz.

SCOFIELD, WILLIAM HEDGES—Mantels and Fireplaces, 9 West 30th street, New York City. Born in New Hamburg, N. Y., July 28, 1867. Educated at Princeton ('89). (Married.) Active stockholder in Conover Fireplace Mfg Co. Member Princeton Club, 7th Regiment, N. G. N. Y., and Ancient Lodge, F. & A. M.

SCOLLARD, CLINTON—Author, Clinton. Born in Clinton, Sept. 18, 1860. Educated at Hamilton College ('81). (Married.) Instructor in Brooklyn Polytechnic Institute, 1881-3; assistant professor of elocution at Hamilton College, 1888-92; professor of English literature at same institution, 1892-6. Author of "Pictures in Song," "Old and New World Lyrics," "Songs of Sunrise Lands," "A Boy's Book of Rhyme," "Hills of Song," "Under Summer Skies," "On Sunny Shores," "A Man-at-Arms," "The Son of a Tory" and many other works. Member Authors' Club of New York City.

SCOTT, CHARLES H.—Retired Coffee Merchant, 111 Broadway, New York City; residence 24 West 38th street. Born in New York City, 1835. Educated in New York City. (Single.) Member Union League and Mendelssohn Glee Clubs and Down Town Association.

SCOTT, EDWARD W.—Insurance, 346 Broadway, New York City; residence 339 West 88th street. President and director Provident Savings Life Assurance Society. Ex-director International Banking and Trust Co. Member Union League and Colonial Clubs, and Metropolitan Museum of Art.

SCOTT, FRANCIS MARION—Supreme Court Justice, County Court House, New York City; residence 42 Park avenue. Born in New York City, March 14, 1848. Educated in public schools, at the College of the City of New York ('67) and at Columbia College Law School ('69). (Married.) First assistant corporation counsel, 1885-8; aqueduct commissioner, 1888-95; corporation counsel, 1895-8. Supreme Court Justice since Jan. 1, 1898, for term expiring Dec. 31, 1911. Director Empire City Fire Insurance Co. Member Manhattan, University, New York Yacht and Larchmont Yacht Clubs, Century Association and Association of the Bar of the City of New York.

SCOTT, FRANK H.—Publisher, 33 East 17th street, New York City; residence Orange, N. J. President "The Century" Co. Member Players' Club, American Fine Arts Society and Century and Aldine Associations.

SCOTT, GEORGE ISHAM—29 Broadway, New York City; residence 15 Washington square. Born in New York City, Dec. 27, 1872. Educated at Columbia. (Single.) Member Racquet and Tennis, and Union Clubs.

SCOTT, GEORGE S.—President, 29 Broadway, New York City; residence Newport, R. I. Born in Chillicothe, Ohio, Jan. 25, 1837. Educated at Episcopal Academy, Philadelphia. (Married.) Formerly president Richmond and Danville R. R. Co., vice-president Pacific Mail S. S. Co. and director Chicago and Northwestern R. R. Co., Union Pacific R. R. Co., Panama R. R. Co. and East Tennessee, Virginia and Georgia R. R. Co. Member Metropolitan, New York Yacht, Seawanhaka-Corinthian Yacht, American Yacht and Union Clubs, American Geographical Society, Sons of the American Revolution and American Museum of Natural History.

SCOTT, GEORGE W.—Commission Merchant, 70 Franklin street, New York City; residence Pelham Manor. Born in Ireland. Educated at the College of the City of New York. (Single.) President Scott Brothers Co. Member Racquet and Tennis, Arkwright, New York Athletic, Larchmont Yacht and New York Yacht Clubs and Metropolitan Museum of Art.

SCOTT, HENRY W.—Lawyer, 93 Nassau street, New York City; residence 201 West 122d street. Born in Sangamon County, Ill., about 1865. Studied law and was admitted to practice at the age of eighteen. Was Democratic candidate for Judge of the Sixteenth Judicial District of Kansas in 1889 and was defeated by eight votes. Appointed United States District Judge for Oklahoma Territory in 1893, but resigned to engage in practice in New York City. Member of the firm of Scott & Treadwell.

SCOTT, JOHN WINFIELD—Vice-President and Treasurer, 100 Broadway, New York City; residence East Orange, N. J. Born in Bridgeport, Conn., Dec. 22, 1856. Educated in public schools and at Connecticut Literary Institution, Suffield, Conn. (Married) Florence E. Bucklin of Cleveland, Ohio.) Vice-president, treasurer and director American Register Co.; assistant to the president Pacific Co.; director Manoa R. R. Co. Was secretary New York State Society Sons of the American Revolution for three years; chairman of committee for the preservation of the New York City Hall; member Columbian Celebration Municipal Committee of One Hundred and adjutant-general School and College Parade; member Grant Monument municipal committee, and chairman first committee Sons of the American Revolution for rebuilding U. S. frigate Constitution ("Old Ironsides"). Member Sons of the American Revolution.

SCOTT, RUFUS LEONARD—Lawyer, 95 Nassau street, New York City; residence 430 Greene avenue, Brooklyn. Born in Lanesborough, Mass., March 31, 1835. (Son of Leonard and Fanny [Dickinson] Scott.) Educated in public schools, at East Williston (Mass.) Seminary, Charlotteville (N. Y.) Seminary and at the University Law School of New York City. Practicing in New York City since his admission to the Bar in 1861, and is now senior member of the firm of Scott & Treadwell. Collector of arrears of taxes in Brooklyn, 1877-9; member of the Brooklyn Board of Aldermen, 1884-5; member of the Brooklyn Board of Education, 1886-9. Trustee Bushwick Savings Bank of Brooklyn. Member Twilight Club, Bushwick Democratic and Aurora Grata Clubs of Brooklyn, New York Historical, Long Island Historical and New England Societies and Society of Medical Jurisprudence.

SCOTT, WILLIAM A.—Insurance, 54 William street, New York City; residence 149 West 79th street. Member of the firm of Scott, Alexander & Talbot. Member New York Athletic and Colonial Clubs and Lafayette Post, G. A. R.

SCOTT, WILLIAM FORSE—Lawyer, 59 Wall street, New York City; residence Croton-on-Hudson. Born in Dayton, Ohio, Dec. 27, 1844. Educated in Dayton and Washington, D. C. (Married.) Senior partner of the firm of Scott & Upson. Four years continuously in active service in the field during the Civil War, from private to adjutant of Fourth Iowa Veteran Cavalry. Has written a book on the Campaigns of the Southwest ("The Story of a Cavalry Regiment," large octavo, with maps, G. P. Putnam's Sons, New York, 1893). Member Anthropological Club of Yonkers, Justinian Society, Military Order of the Loyal Legion, State Bar Association and Association of the Bar of the City of New York.

SCOTT, WILLIAM HOYT—Retired Lawyer, 111 Broadway, New York City; residence 20 East 65th street. Born in New York City, 1831. Educated at Kenyon College. (Widower.) Member of the firm of Chapman, Scott & Crowell. Member Union Club and Association of the Bar of the City of New York.

SCOVILLE, JOHN H.—Broker, 3 Broad street, New York City; residence Brooklyn. (Married.) Member of the New York Stock Exchange firm of Maxwell & Scoville. Member Crescent Athletic Club of Brooklyn, and Metropolitan and Racquet and Tennis Clubs.

SCRIBNER, ARTHUR H.—Publisher, 155 Fifth avenue, New York City; residence 2 West 43d street. Educated at Princeton ('81). Member of the firm of Chas. Scribner's Sons. Member Princeton, University, Racquet and Tennis, Seawanhaka-Corinthian Yacht and Grolier Clubs, Ardsley Casino of Ardsley-on-Hudson, Century and Aldine Associations and Dunlap Society.

SCRIBNER, CHARLES—Publisher, 155 Fifth avenue, New York City; residence 12 East 38th street. Born in New York City, Oct. 1854. Educated at Princeton ('75). (Married.) Head of the publishing house of Charles Scribner's Sons. Director Park National Bank and Plaza Bank; trustee Bowery Savings Bank. Member Union, University, Princeton and New York Riding Clubs, Century and Aldine Associations and Metropolitan Museum of Art.

SCRIBNER, FRANK KIMBALL—Author, 26 East 21st street, New York City. Born in New York City, Feb. 22, 1867. Educated at Williams College and at Harvard Law School. (Single.) Engaged in the writing of short stories for magazines and periodicals since 1889. Author of "The Honor of a Princess," "The Fifth of November" and many others. Member American Canoe Association.

SCRIBNER, FREDERICK W.—Banker, Canton, Born 1845. (Nephew of Charles Scribner, founder of the Scribner publishing house; also nephew of William H. Kimball, president of the Seventh National Bank of New York City.) Assistant cashier of the St. Lawrence County Bank since 1880.

SCRIBNER, G. HILTON—Lawyer, Yonkers. Born in Monroe County, N. Y., 1831. Educated at Oberlin College. (Married.) Formerly member of New York State Legislature, Secretary of State of New York, president Palisade Bank and Central Park, North and East River R. R. Co., director Atlantic National Bank and Bank of New Amsterdam and also a former trustee Rochester Theological Seminary. Member Union League Club, Society of American Authors, American Association for the Advancement of Science and British Association for the Advancement of Science.

SCRIBNER, JOHN MARSTON—Lawyer, 2 Wall street, New York City; residence 240 West 56th street. Born in Middleburg, Schoharie Co., N. Y., Oct. 4, 1839. (Son of Rev. John M. and Ann Eliza Scribner.) Educated at Delaware Literary Institute and at Union College ('59). Studied law in New York City and was admitted to the Bar in 1861. (Widower.) Counsel to various street railroads and ferry companies. Member University and Lawyers' Clubs, Union Alumni Association and Association of the Bar of the City of New York.

SCRUGHAM, WILLIAM WARBURTON—Lawyer, 34 Warburton avenue, Yonkers; residence 13 Greystone terrace. Born in Yonkers, Feb. 18, 1860. Educated at Columbia and Columbia Law School. (Married.) President Yonkers Gas Light Co.; director First National Bank of Yonkers. Formerly acting City Judge of the City of Yonkers, and member of the Board of Education. Member City Club, Sons of the American Revolution, Columbia Alumni and Westchester County Bar Associations and Association of the Bar of the City of New York.

SCRYMSEY, JAMES A.—Capitalist, 37 Wall street, New York City; residence 107 East 21st street. Born in New York City, 1839. Educated at College Hill Academy, Poughkeepsie. Served with the 12th Regiment, New York Volunteers, during Civil War and participated in all the principal battles of the Army of the Potomac until June, 1864. Projected and organized, in June, 1865, the International Ocean Telegraph Co. for laying and operating submarine cables between the United States, the Island of Cuba and other West India islands, which were successfully established in 1866 and 1870. In 1879, he projected, and in 1881 established, the Mexican Telegraph Co. and subsequently the Central and South American Telegraph Co., connecting the United States via Galveston, Texas, with sixteen nationalities in Mexico and Central and South America. President and director Central and South American Telegraph Co., Mexican Telegraph Co. and Pacific Cable Co. Member Metropolitan, Union League and Riding Clubs, Century and Down Town Associations, Association for Improving the Condition of the Poor and Military Order of the Loyal Legion.

SCUDDER, EDWARD M.—Lawyer, 59 Wall street, New York City; residence 21 East 22d street. Educated at Trinity College ('77). Member Republican, University and Church Clubs, Trinity College Alumni Association and Association of the Bar of the City of New York.

SCUDDER, HENRY T.—Protestant Episcopal Clergyman, Patchen and Jefferson avenues, Brooklyn; residence 916 Union street. Educated at Columbia ('74). Rector of St. Stephen's Church. Member University and Grolier Clubs of New York City, Columbia University Alumni Association, Society of Colonial Wars and Sons of the Revolution.

SCUDDER, MOSES L.—32 Liberty street, New York City; residence 109 East 18th street. Educated at Brooklyn Polytechnic Institute and Wesleyan University. (Married.) President Lincoln Traction Co., and St. Joseph, South Bend and Southern R. R. Co. Member Union and Players' Clubs, Chicago Club of Chicago, American Geographical and New York Historical Societies and Down Town Association.

SCUDDER, TOWNSEND—Congressman, House of Representatives, Washington, D. C., and Lawyer, 7 Pine street, New York City; residence Glen Head, Nassau County. Born in Northport, Suffolk Co., N. Y., July 26, 1865. (Son of Townsend and Sarah M. [Frost] Scudder.) Educated in Europe and at Columbia College Law School (LL.B., '88). (Married.) Was counsel to Queens County for four terms. Now representing the First New York District in the Fifty-sixth Congress. Director Nassau County Bank, Mineola. Member Lotos and Hardware Clubs, Hamilton Club of Brooklyn, and Association of the Bar of the City of New York.

SCULLY, PATRICK JOSEPH—City Clerk, 11 City Hall, New York City; residence 5 Willett street. Born in New York City, Jan. 9, 1855. Educated at De La Salle Institute. Deputy county clerk, 1889-96. Clerk of the Municipal Council and city clerk of the City of New York since Jan. 3, 1898. Member Catholic and Democratic Clubs.

SEABROOK, HARRY H.—118 East 72d street, New York City. Born in Keyport, N. J., Oct. 23, 1859. Educated at the College of Physicians and Surgeons ('81). (Married.) Was house surgeon Bellevue Hospital, 1882-3; attending ophthalmic surgeon St. Luke's Hospital, 1894-6; surgeon New York Eye and Ear Infirmary since 1891. Member Sons of the Revolution, Academy of Medicine, County Medical Society and Lenox Medical and Surgical, Bellevue Hospital Alumni and Harlem Medical Associations.

SEABURY, FRED CHANDLER—Banker and Broker, 7 Wall street, New York City; residence 414 Grand avenue, Brooklyn. Member of the New York Stock Exchange. Member Crescent Athletic, Lincoln and Polytechnic Clubs of Brooklyn, Society of Colonial Wars, Society of Mayflower Descendants and Sons of the American Revolution.

SEABURY, GEORGE J.—Manufacturing Chemist and Pharmacist, 59 Maiden lane, New York City; residence 249 West 74th street. Born in New York City, 1844. Educated in New York City. (Married.) President Seabury & Johnson and Mersereau Mfg Co. Member New York Athletic, Republican and West Side Republican Clubs and of many scientific, educational and benevolent organizations.

SEABURY, WILLIAM JONES—Protestant Episcopalian Clergyman, 8 Chelsea square, New York City. Born in New York City, Jan. 25, 1837. Educated at Columbia (A.B., '56, and A.M., '59) and at the General Theological Seminary (D.D., '66). Received degree of D.D. from Hobart College in 1874. (Married.) Rector of the Church of the Annunciation, 1868-98; professor of ecclesiastical polity and law at the General Theological Seminary of the Protestant Episcopal Church since 1873. Author of "Lectures on Haddan's Apostolic Succession," "An Introduction to the Study of Ecclesiastical Polity" and of many sermons, essays and reviews.

SEAGER, G. E.—Butter and Cheese Dealer, Randolph. Born in Randolph, Feb. 6, 1834. Educated at Randolph Academy. (Married.) Was president of the village of Randolph for four years, and of Board of Education and Randolph Union School for six years. Director State Bank of Randolph.

SEAGER, JAMES M.—Ship Broker, Produce Exchange, New York City; residence 319 West 46th street. Vice-president John C. Seager Co. Member Marine and Field Club of Brooklyn, and Democratic Club.

SEAGRIST, FRANCIS W., JR.—Building Materials, 304 Avenue B, New York City; residence 141st street and Broadway. (Married.) Senior member of the firm of F. W. Seagrist, Jr. & Co. Member Harlem, Manhattan, Building Trades and Washington Clubs, 7th Regiment Veteran Association, Charity Organization Society, Royal Arcanum and Knights of Honor.

SEAMAN, ALFRED P. W.—Lawyer, 141 Broadway, New York City; residence 147 West 87th street. Born in West Winsted, Conn. Educated at Columbia. (Single.) Member Colonial, Fencers' and Psi Upsilon Clubs, Columbia Alumni Association and Sons of the Revolution.

SEAMAN, ALLAN HAY—Editor, Tuckahoe. Born in Tuckahoe, April 8, 1871. Educated in Bronxville, N. Y., and New York City. (Single.) Editor and proprietor "Eastchester Citizen-Bulletin"; secretary Tuckahoe Lyceum Co. and Home Building and Loan Association. Was coxswain on board U. S. S. Yankee during Spanish-American War. Member New York Athletic Club and Tuckahoe Hose Co. No. 1.

SEAMAN, HENRY BOWMAN—Civil and Consulting Engineer, 40 Wall street, New York City; residence 135 St. James place, Brooklyn. Born in New York City, Jan. 20, 1861. Educated at Swarthmore College (C.E., '81). Was engaged in the construction of the Buffalo, Rochester and Pittsburg R. R., the Kings County Elevated Ry. and the New York, New Haven and Hartford R. R. Was bridge engineer on the Erie Railway system, chief engineer to the Audit Co. of New York, and had charge of the grade crossings in the City of Syracuse. Member Engineers' Club of Brooklyn (vice-president), Engineers' Club of New York City, American Society of Civil Engineers (director), American Society of Mechanical Engineers and American Institute of Mining Engineers.

SEAMAN, LOUIS DE W.—Insurance, 621 Broadway, New York City; residence 72 Maple avenue, New Rochelle. Born in New York City, Feb. 13, 1873. Educated in New Rochelle. (Single.) General agent New York Life Insurance Co. Member New York Athletic Club.

SEAMAN, LOUIS LIVINGSTON—Physician, 18 West 31st street, New York City. Born in Newburgh, N. Y., Oct. 17, 1851. Educated at Cornell, Jefferson Medical College, University Medical College (M.D., '76) and at New York University Law School (LL.B., '84). (Widower.) Resident surgeon to New York State Emigrant Hospital, 1877-9; superintendent of State Emigrant Insane Asylum, 1879-81; chief of staff in the various hospitals on Blackwell's Island, 1881-5. Delegate to International Medical Congresses held in London in 1881, Berlin in 1894, and in Moscow in 1897. Served as major-surgeon of the 1st Regiment, United States Volunteer Engineers during Spanish-American War. Author of "The Social Waste of a Great City" and of many medical papers. Member Reform, Lotos, Calumet, Quill, Cornell University, Good Government and Players' Clubs, New York Genealogical and Biographical, and Dunlap Societies, Society of Medical Jurisprudence, Academy of Medicine, Society of Colonial Wars and New York University Medical Alumni Association.

SEARING, PETER J. L.—Salt, 33 Fulton street, New York City; residence 212 West 130th street. Born in New York City, Oct. 28, 1842. Educated in public schools and at West Cornwall (Conn.) Institute. (Married.) Proprietor of Snow Flake Salt business. Member Fulton and Church Clubs, Army of the Potomac, G. A. R. and Roanoke and Hawkins Zouave Associations.

SEARLE, GEORGE M.—Astronomer, and Roman Catholic Clergyman, 415 West 59th street, New York City. Born in London, England, June 27, 1839. Educated at Harvard (A.B., '57 and A.M., '60). Received degree of Ph.D. from the Catholic University. Assistant in the Dudley Observatory, Albany, N. Y., 1857-9; with the United States Coast Survey, 1859-62; assistant professor at the United States Naval Academy, 1862-4; assistant in the Harvard Observatory, 1866-8. Was converted to the Roman Catholic faith in 1862; joined the Paulists in 1868, and was ordained to the priesthood in March, 1871. Became a teacher of science in the Paulists' Seminary and was appointed chief professor of mathematics to the Catholic University in October, 1895. Is a brother of Arthur Phillips Searle, professor of astronomy at Harvard University. Author of several works and is a frequent contributor to scientific journals.

SEARLES, ALBERT R.—Treasurer, 42 West 13th street, New York City; residence 1654 Bathgate avenue. Born in New York City, Oct. 22, 1850. Educated at Free Academy, now College of the City of New York, and Polytechnic Institute of Hanover, Germany. (Married.) Warden St. Paul's Church of Morrisania, N. Y. Member Republican and Church Clubs and General Society of Mechanics and Tradesmen.

SEARLES, JOHN ENNIS—Capitalist, 117 Wall street, New York City; residence 810 St. Marks avenue, Brooklyn. President and director American Cotton Co., American Typefounders' Co. and Hyatt Roller Bearing Co.; vice-president and director Minneapolis and St. Louis R. R. Co., International Trust Co. and Union Traction and Electric Co.; chairman and director Baltimore, Chesapeake and Atlantic Ry. Co.; secretary and director Brooklyn Cooperage Co.; director American Coffee Co., American Sugar Refining Co., Preferred Accident Insurance Co., Western National Bank, Sprague Electric Co., Terminal Warehouse Co. and Universal Lasting Machine Co.; trustee American Deposit and Loan Co., American Surety Co., Brooklyn Institute of Arts and Sciences, Equitable Life Assurance Society of United States, People's Trust Co. of Brooklyn, Terminal Improvement Co. and Mercantile Trust Co. Member Lawyers' Club and Down Town Association.

SEARS, CHARLES W.—Merchant, Binghamton; residence River terrace. Born in Newark Valley, N. Y., June 13, 1830. Educated in Newark Valley. (Married.) Member Binghamton Club.

SEARS, JOSEPH HAMBLIN—Journalist, 331 Pearl street, New York City; residence 132 East 38th street. Born in Boston, Mass., April 10, 1865. Educated in Boston, in Germany and at Harvard University. (Married.) Connected with the publishing house of Harper & Bros. as editor of "Harper's Round Table" and "Harper's Bazar"; assistant editor "The Cosmopolitan." Member Seawanhaka-Corinthian Yacht and Harvard Clubs and Century Association.

SEAYER, JOHN—Coroner, Rosebank, S. I.; residence Richmond. Born on Staten Island. Educated in public schools. Engaged in the express business in New York City, 1874-97. School trustee of the First District of Southfield and Northfield for six years, five years of which he was chairman of the board; treasurer of the Board of Highway Commissioners for the town of Southfield, 1889-97; chairman of the Board of Coroners for Richmond Borough of the City of New York since Jan. 1, 1898.

SECOR, HORACE, JR.—Lawyer, 132 Nassau street, New York City; residence Freeport, L. I. Born in New York City, Nov. 18, 1856. (Son of Horace and Hannah [Fuller] Secor.) Educated by private tutors, in public schools and at Columbia College Law School. (Married Annie V., daughter of George W. Bergen, 1879.) Practicing in New York City since his admission to the Bar in 1877, and is now senior member of the firm of Secor & Page.

SEDGWICK, ARTHUR GEORGE—Lawyer, 115 Broadway, New York City; residence 8 East Tenth street. Born in New York City, Oct. 6, 1844. (Son of Theodore Sedgwick.) Educated at Harvard ('64) and at Harvard Law School. Served as first lieutenant in the 20th Massachusetts Regiment during the Civil War; was captured at Deep Bottom, Va., and contracted an illness in Libby prison which disabled him from further service. Engaged in practice in Boston, Mass., and edited (with Oliver Wendell Holmes, Jr.) the "American Law Review" for several years. Practicing in New York City since 1875. Was for a time on editorial staff of the "Evening Post" and "The Nation." Member Century Association and Association of the Bar of the City of New York.

SEDGWICK, HENRY D.—Lawyer, 45 Cedar street, New York City; residence Stockbridge, Mass. Educated at Harvard ('43). Member University and Union League Clubs, Century Association and Association of the Bar of the City of New York.

SEDGWICK, ROBERT—Capitalist, 45 William street, New York City; residence 129 East 36th street. Member Union, Tuxedo and New York Yacht Clubs, and Century, Down Town and Blooming Grove Park Associations.

SEDLEY, HENRY—Author, 47 East 44th street, New York City. Born in Boston, Mass., April 4, 1831. Educated in Boston and at Rensselaer Polytechnic Institute. Practiced civil engineering in San Francisco for many years. Since becoming a resident of New York City, has devoted his time to journalism and literature, and has been a member of the editorial staffs of several of the leading daily newspapers. Author of "Dangerfield's Rest," "Marion Rooke" and many other works. Member Union League Club.

SEE, HORACE—Mechanical Engineer, 1 Broadway, New York City; residence 46 West Ninth street. Born in Philadelphia, Pa. (Married.) Member New York Yacht, American Yacht, Church and Lotos Clubs, Pennsylvania Club of Philadelphia, American Society of Mechanical Engineers, American Institute of Mining Engineers, American Association for the Advancement of Science, Northeast Coast Society of Engineers and Shipbuilders, Century Association, British Institute of Naval Architects, Sons of the Revolution, Old Guard and Chamber of Commerce.

SEE, MILTON—Architect, 31 East 17th street, New York City; residence 481 Manhattan avenue. Born in Rochester, N. Y., 1853. Educated in New York City. (Married.) Presented a scheme for embellishing the water front from West 72d street north to Spuyten Duyvil before the Architectural League in February, 1899. A suggestion was made in this connection to the Rapid Transit Commission to use the dirt from excavations for the tunnel for filling-in purposes and also to use the ashes now collected, separate from objectionable matter, for the same purpose. It was proposed to mask the railroad tracks by depressing them, to connect with the new transit system, or roofing them over. Member Nicasious and St. James Clubs, Architectural League and American Institute of Architects.

SEEGER, CHARLES L.—President, 21 State street, New York City; residence 917 Seventh avenue. Born in Springfield, Mass., Jan. 13, 1860. (Married.) President Seeger & Guernsey Co.; treasurer United States Industrial Publishing Co. Member Richmond County Country Club, Automobile Club of America, Down Town Association and Chamber of Commerce.

SEGALL, JACOB—Instructor, Cornell University, Ithaca; residence 92 Cascadilla place. Degree of Ph.D. Instructor in French, Cornell University.

SEGGERMAN, VICTOR A.—Importer and Commission Merchant, 165 Duane street, New York City; residence 422 West 144th street. Born in New York City, 1865. Educated in New York City. (Married.) Member of the firm of Seggerman Bros. Member The Heights and Harlem Whist Clubs and Society of Mayflower Descendants.

SEIBERT, HENRY—Retired, 45 Broadway, New York City; residence 608 Bedford avenue, Brooklyn. Born in Germany, 1833. Educated in New York City. (Married.) Director Chicago and Eastern Illinois R. R. Co., Kings County Elevated R. R. Co., Brooklyn Rapid Transit Co., Nassau Trust Co., Minnesota Iron Co., Lanyon Zinc Co., Manhattan Brass Co. and Mollenhauer Sugar Refining Co. Was commissioner (by appointment of Gov. Flower) to World's Columbian Exposition in Chicago, 1893. Member Lawyers' Clubs, and Hanover Club of Brooklyn.

SEITZ, DON CARLOS—Publisher, 63 Park row, New York City; residence 310 Stuyvesant avenue, Brooklyn, and Cos Cob, Conn. Born in Portage, Ohio, Oct. 24, 1862. Educated at Liberal Institute, Norway, Me. (Married.) Manager New York "World." Member Grolier Club and Brooklyn Club.

SEELEY, GEORGE H.—Manufacturer, 17 Maiden lane, New York City; residence Holland House. President and director Haile Gold Mining Co., Metallurgical Co. and New River Mineral Co. Member Union League and New York Yacht Clubs and Down Town Association.

SELIGMAN, DE WITT J.—328 West 58th street, New York City. Born in New York City, March 22, 1853. Educated in New York City and Germany. (Married.) Was school commissioner in New York City, 1884-9; ex-director Mount Sinai Hospital; ex-treasurer New York Society for Park Playgrounds for Children. Member New York Bar. Trustee New York Association for Improving the Condition of the Poor. Member New York Stock Exchange and of the American Geographical Society.

SELIGMAN, EDWIN ROBERT ANDERSON—Professor, 116th street and Morningside Heights, New York City; residence 324 West 86th street. Born in New York City, April 25, 1861. Educated at Columbia Grammar School, Columbia University and at the Universities of Berlin, Heidelberg, Geneva and Paris. (Married Caroline Beer, 1888.) Professor of political economy and finance at Columbia University in the City of New York since 1891. President Tenement House Building Co.; chairman committee on education of the Educational Alliance. Formerly editor of the "Political Science Quarterly." Served as a member of the Committee of Seventy of 1894. Author of "Essays in Taxation," "The Shifting and Incidence of Taxation," "Progressive Taxation," "Railway Tariffs" and many other works of a similar nature. Member National Arts, City and Authors' Clubs, National Sculpture and American Archaeological Societies, American Economic (ex-treasurer), American Historical and Columbia Alumni Associations, American School of Classical Studies at Rome, New York Academy of Political Science, Russian Imperial Academy of Science and Metropolitan Museum of Art.

SELIGMAN, GEORGE W.—Lawyer, 15 Broad street, New York City; residence 253 West 42d street. Born in New York City, Jan. 6, 1858. Educated at Columbia Grammar School, Columbia College, Columbia Law School and University of Göttingen, Germany. Member of the firm of Seligman & Seligman. Director Aztec Land and Cattle Co. (Ltd.). Member Lawyers', Lotos, Knickerbocker Athletic and Century Country Clubs and Association of the Bar of the City of New York.

SELIGMAN, HENRY—Banker, 21 Broad street, New York City; residence 2 East 46th street. Member of the New York Stock Exchange firm of J. & W. Seligman & Co. President and director Standard Air Brake Co.; director Kings County Traction Co., Syracuse Gas Co., United Smelting and Refining Co., Welsbach Commercial Co., William Cramp & Sons Ship and Engine Building Co., Atlantic Avenue R. R. Co., Buffalo City Gas Co., Buffalo Gas Light Co., Buffalo Mutual Gas Light Co., Citizens' Gas Co. and Helena and Livingston Smelting and Reduction Co. Member Lotos and Lawyers' Clubs, Metropolitan Museum of Art and American Museum of Natural History.

SELIGMAN, ISAAC NEWTON—Banker, 21 Broad street, New York City; residence 58 West 54th street. Born on Staten Island, N. Y., 1855. (Son of Joseph Seligman.) Educated at Columbia. Was a member of the eight which won the inter-collegiate boat race by defeating the Harvard and Yale crews on Lake Saratoga in 1874. (Married.) Member of the New York Stock Exchange firm of J. & W. Seligman & Co. Member of advisory committee Audit Co. of New York; director City and Suburban Homes Co., North Shore Traction Co., St. Louis and San Francisco R. R. Co., Western Gas Co. and Western New York and Pennsylvania Ry. Co.; trustee Manhattan State Hospital for Insane, St. John's Guild, Munich Fire Insurance Co. and People's Institute. Member Lotos, Lawyers', University Athletic, St. Andrew's Golf, Seabright Golf and National Sound Money Clubs, Country and Ocean County Hunt Clubs of Lakewood, N. J., American Fine Arts Society, Columbia University Alumni Association, American Museum of Natural History, New York Free Circulating Library, Republican National Finance Committee, Sound Money League and Chamber of Commerce.

SELIGMAN, THEODORE—Lawyer, 15 Broad street, New York City; residence 37 West 57th street. Born in San Francisco, Cal., Jan. 11, 1856. (Married.) Member of the firm of Seligman & Seligman. Member Lotos, Grolier, Harvard and Lawyers' Clubs.

SELIGSBERG, ALFRED F.—Lawyer, 44 Broad street, New York City; residence 1063 Madison avenue. Born in San Francisco, Cal., June 27, 1869. Educated at Harvard ('90). (Single.) Member New York State Assembly, 1898. Member Reform and Harvard Clubs and Association of the Bar of the City of New York.

SELL, EDWARD HERMAN MILLER—Physician, 137 West 94th street, New York City. Born in Lehigh County, Pa., Aug. 16, 1832. Educated at Pennsylvania College and at Gettysburg Theological Seminary. Was ordained to Lutheran ministry, in which he was active for five years. Studied medicine at Bellevue Hospital Medical College in New York City (M.D., '66), and in Paris and Vienna. (Married.) Was one of the seven organizers of the American Academy of Medicine in 1876. Has contributed considerably to medical literature. Vice-president and director Peptenzyme Co. Member Republican and New Amsterdam Republican Clubs, Huguenot Society and New York Academy of Medicine.

SELLECK, GEORGE HAROLD—Engineer and Contractor, 784 Sixth avenue, New York City; residence 66 West 132d street. Born in New York City, May 7, 1874. (Single.) Member Sons of the American Revolution.

SELLEW, TIMOTHY G.—Desk Manufacturer, 111 Fulton and 63 Ann streets, New York City; residence 53 East 79th street. Member American Geographical Society, Metropolitan Museum of Art, American Museum of Natural History and Scientific Alliance.

SELLS, ELIJAH W.—Certified Public Accountant, 30 Broad street, New York City; residence 341 West 84th street. Born in Muscatine, Iowa, March 1, 1858. (Married.) Member of the firm of Haskins & Sells. Occupied various positions with railway, steamship and other companies until 1893, when he was appointed one of the experts under a commission of Congress authorized to examine and revise the methods of accounting in the departments of the United States Government, at which time he was associated with his present partner, Mr. C. W. Haskins. Vice-president and director Chesapeake and Western R. R. Co.; director Old Dominion Construction Co., Northwestern Coal and Mining Co. and New York Mail and Newspaper Transportation Co. Member Manhattan, New York Yacht and Lawyers' Clubs, Country Club of Westchester, Royal Ulster Yacht Club of Belfast, Ireland, Empire State Society of Sons of the American Revolution, Military Order of the Loyal Legion and Metropolitan Museum of Art.

SELLSTEDT, LARS GUSTAF—Artist, 78 West Mohawk street, Buffalo. Born in Sundsvall, Sweden, April 30, 1819. Educated in Sweden. Came to the United States in 1834 as cabin-boy on the bark "Prudent." Served on a United States man-of-war, 1837-40; became a resident of Buffalo in 1842, and took up the study of art. (Married Caroline, daughter of Dr. William K. Scott of Buffalo.) Member National Academy of Design, Buffalo Fine Arts Academy (president), Buffalo Historical Society and Buffalo Society of Natural Sciences.

SELMES, JOHN H.—Manufacturer, 836 Broadway, New York City; residence 1 West 72d street. President, treasurer and director Mitchell-Vance Co.; vice-president and trustee North River Savings Bank; director Bleecker Street and Fulton Ferry R. R. Co. Member Suburban Riding and Driving and Colonial Clubs and Aldine Association.

SEMPLE, LORENZO—Lawyer, 100 Broadway, New York City; residence 13 West 11th street. Educated at United States Naval Academy ('82). Director Bankers' Adding Machine Co., Kern Incandescent Gas Light Co., Nederland Life Insurance Co. and Seventh National Bank. Member University, Manhattan and Catholic Clubs, Southern Society and Association of the Bar of the City of New York.

SEMPLE, OLIVER C.—Lawyer, 156 Broadway, New York City; residence 48 Perry street. Born in Bennington, Vt., July 29, 1861. Educated at Amherst College and Columbia Law School. (Married.) Member organization committee of Citizens' Union, and chairman of same for Fifth Assembly District, 1897; Republican-Citizens' Union candidate for Judge of Municipal Court, 1899. Member Greenwich Citizens' Club, Republican Club of Fifth Assembly District, Psi Upsilon Fraternity and Amherst Alumni Association.

SENIA, BENJAMIN BARTON—Secretary and Treasurer, 20 Liberty street, New York City; residence Bay Ridge. Born in New York City, May 31, 1862. (Married.) Secretary and treasurer Metropolitan Bank Note Co. Member Sons of the American Revolution.

SERRELL, EDWARD WELLMANN—Civil Engineer, 8 Livingston place, New York City. Born abroad, of American parents, Nov. 5, 1826. Educated in academies. (Married Jane, daughter of Rev. Jesse Pound, 1848.) Was assistant engineer in the construction of the Erie Railway, assistant engineer on the Panama Survey in 1848, and chief engineer in the construction of the Niagara Bridge, Hoosac Tunnel and many other important undertakings. Organized the 1st Regiment, United States Volunteer Engineers, at the outbreak of the Civil War, and went to the front in command of same, becoming colonel of engineers; was chief engineer and chief of staff in the Army of the James; took part in 126 engagements and was brevetted with the rank of brigadier-general. Devised and built the "Swamp Angel" batteries; also many such useful inventions as armor plate, gun carriages, electric coast defences, etc. Now engaged in private practice and is consulting engineer to several corporations.

SERVISS, GARRETT PUTNAM—Astronomer and Author, 8 Middagh street, Brooklyn. Born in Sharon Springs, N. Y., March 24, 1851. Educated at Cornell (B.S., '72) and at Columbia Law School (LL.B., '74). (Married.) Was for many years night editor on the New York "Sun"; also editorial writer on the New York "Journal." Has lectured considerably on travel, history and astronomy and is president of the Department of Astronomy of the Brooklyn Institute of Arts and Sciences. Author of "Astronomy With an Opera Glass," "The War of the Worlds" and many other works; also of many articles on astronomy and kindred subjects in magazines and newspapers. Member Cornell University Club.

SESSIONS, G. L.—Lawyer, Binghamton. Born in Woodstock, Conn., Feb. 14, 1834. Educated at Dartmouth College. (Married.) Vice-president, director and attorney Binghamton Savings Bank; director Susquehanna Valley Bank.

SETON-THOMPSON, ERNEST—Artist and Naturalist, 144 Fifth avenue, New York City. Born in South Shields, England, Aug. 14, 1860. Educated at Toronto (Canada) Collegiate Institute and at the Royal Academy of London, England. Studied art in Paris, France, 1890-6. (Married Grace, daughter of Albert Gallatin of New York City, 1896.) Naturalist to the Government of Manitoba. Well known as a painter and illustrator of animals. Was one of the chief illustrators of "The Century Dictionary." Author of "Wild Animals I Have Known" and "Art Anatomy of Animals." Member Camp Fire Club.

SEWALL, SAMUEL G.—Physician, 71 East 121st street, New York City. Born in Boston, Mass. Educated at Dartmouth College and Boston University School of Medicine (M.D.). Member Dartmouth Alumni Association.

SEWARD, EDWARD CLARKSON—Patent Solicitor and Expert, 261 Broadway, New York City; residence 195 Walnut street, Montclair, N. J. Born in Guilford, Conn., Jan. 9, 1846. Educated at Yale ('69). (Married. Member of the firm of Brown & Seward. Member Sachems' Head Yacht and Montclair Clubs.

SEWARD, FREDERICK WILLIAM—Lawyer, Montrose. Born in Auburn, N. Y., July 8, 1830. (Son of William Henry Seward.) Educated at Union College (A.B., '49, and LL.D., '78). (Married Anna M. Wharton of Albany, N. Y., 1854.) Assistant Secretary of State of the United States, 1861-9 and 1877-81; was sent on a special mission with Admiral Porter to negotiate West Indian treaties in 1867. Participated in the purchase of Alaska by the United States Government. Member of the New York State Legislature, 1875; New York State Commissioner at Yorktown (Va.) Centennial Celebration, 1881. Author of "Life and Letters of William H. Seward."

SEWARD, GEORGE FREDERICK—Diplomatist, 99 Cedar street, New York City; residence 48 Hawthorne avenue, East Orange, N. J. Born in Florida, Orange Co., N. Y., Nov. 8, 1840. (Nephew of William Henry Seward.) Educated at S. S. Seward Institute in Florida and at Union College. (Married.) United States Consul at Shanghai, 1861-4; Consul-General to China, 1864-75; Minister to Corea, 1868; Minister to China, 1875-8. President and director Fidelity and Casualty Co.; vice-president, secretary and director

Willson Aluminum Co. Author of "Chinese Immigration, in Its Social and Economical Aspects" (Scribner's, 1880) and of various articles on Eastern questions and political economy. Member Reform and Lawyers' Clubs, New England Society of Orange, N. J., Township Improvement Society of East Orange, Social Science, American Geographical and New Jersey Historical Societies, American Academy of Political and Social Science, Institute of Civics, Union Alumni Association and Chamber of Commerce.

SEWARD, JOHN PERRY—Physician, 113 West 85th street, New York City. Born in Philadelphia, Pa., Dec. 20, 1868. Educated at Columbia University ('90). Degree of M.D. (Married. Was lecturer on anatomy at New York Homeopathic Medical College. Now visiting physician Laura Franklin Free Hospital for Children; professor hygiene and dietetics New York Medical College for Women; secretary Homeopathic Medical Society of County of New York. Member West Side Medical Club, New York Paedological Society, Columbia Alumni Association, American Institute of Homeopathy and Academy of Pathological Science.

SEWARD, ROBERT B.—Patent Attorney, 261 Broadway, New York City; residence 195 Walnut street, Montclair, N. J. Born in Derby, Conn., March 29, 1871. Educated at Columbian University, Washington, D. C., and New York Law School. (Single.) Member of the firm of Brown & Seward. Member Montclair, Montclair Athletic and Sachem's Head Yacht Clubs.

SEWARD, SAMUEL S.—Clergyman, 114 East 35th street, New York City; residence 113 West 85th street. Born in Mendham, N. J., April 16, 1838. Educated in Florida, N. Y., Poughkeepsie Collegiate Institute and Union College. (Married.) Admitted to the Bar of the State of California before the Civil War; returned home in 1861 and served throughout the war as aide-de-camp on staff of Major-General E. O. C. Ord, with rank of second lieutenant, lieutenant, captain, major and brevet rank of lieutenant-colonel and colonel. Entered the ministry of the New Jerusalem Church in 1868. Has been pastor at Brockton, Mass., Wilmington, Del., and New York City, and has been presiding minister of the New York Association and vice-president of the General Convention of the New Jerusalem Church in the United States, and has served as member of several important boards and committees. Now pastor of New Jerusalem Church of New York City. Member Union Alumni Association.

SEWARD, THEODORE FRELINGHUYSEN—Editor, 111 Fifth avenue, New York City. Born in Florida, Orange Co., N. Y., Jan. 25, 1835. Studied music under Lowell Mason and Thomas Hastings. (Married Mary H. Coggeshall of New London, Conn., 1860.) Resident of New York City since 1862. Was editor of "The Musical Pioneer" and of the "New York Musical Gazette." Now editor of "Sunshine" and president of the Brotherhood of Christian Unity, which he founded in 1891. Author of "The School of Life," "Don't Worry" and of numerous music books.

SEWARD, WILLIAM HENRY—Banker, Auburn. Born in Auburn, June 18, 1839. (Son of William Henry Seward.) Educated in Auburn and Washington. (Married Janet M. Watson, 1861.) Served as lieutenant-colonel and colonel in the 9th New York Heavy Artillery Volunteers during Civil War, and was commissioned brigadier-general in 1864. President State Electoral College of 1888. Senior member of the banking firm of Wm. H. Seward & Co. (est. 1861). President Cayuga County Savings Bank, Auburn City Hospital and Cayuga County Historical Society; director American Express Co. and Lehigh and New York R. R. Co.; trustee Wells College; brigadier-general United States Volunteers. Member City Club, Army and Navy Club of Washington, D. C., Union League and Transportation Clubs of New York City, Military Order of the Loyal Legion, Cayuga County Historical Society, Sons of the Revolution, New York Geographical Society and G. A. R.

SEXTON, JOHN B.—Commissioner, 300 Mulberry street, New York City; residence 226 West 82d street. Born in New York City, 1857. Educated in public schools. Served as deputy to Sheriff Hugh J. Grant in 1886, and as under-sheriff during the administrations of Sheriffs Flack, Sickles, Gorman and Clancey.

Police commissioner, by appointment of Mayor Van Wyck, since Jan. 1, 1898. Leader of the Tammany Hall Democracy of the Nineteenth Assembly District since 1891. Member Democratic, New York Athletic and Pontiac Clubs.

SEXTON, LAWRENCE E.—Lawyer, 34 Pine street, New York City; residence 47 West 43d street. Educated at Harvard ('84). Member University, Harvard, Reform, University Athletic and Democratic Clubs and Association of the Bar of the City of New York.

SEYBEL, DANIEL E.—Lawyer, 41 Park row, New York City; residence 247 Fifth avenue. Born and educated in New York City. (Single.) Member of the firm of Fetter, Silkman & Seybel. Member Larchmont Yacht, Union League, Racquet and Tennis, Riding, Suburban Riding and Driving, Atlantic Yacht, New York Athletic and Hardware Clubs, Ardsley Casino of Ardsley-on-Hudson, and Association of the Bar of the City of New York.

SEYMOUR, ALEXANDER D.—Banker, 7 Nassau street, New York City; residence 280 McDonough street, Brooklyn. Born in Canandaigua, N. Y. (Married.) Second vice-president Continental National Bank, with which he has been connected since 1876.

SEYMOUR, EDMUND—Banker, 45 Wall street, New York City; residence Pelham Manor. Born in St. Albans, Vt., Oct. 3, 1858. Educated at Phillips Andover Academy and Williams College ('82). (Married.) Member of the firm of Seymour Bros. & Co. President Tacoma Gas and Electric Light Co. and Ellensburg Water Works Co.; treasurer Washington State Bond Co. and of advisory committee Philadelphia Museum; trustee Alpha Delta Phi Fraternity and of Catlettsburg (N. Y.), Kenwa and Oredo Water Co. Member Alpha Delta Phi and Camp Fire Clubs of New York City, Manor Club of Pelham Manor, Pelham Country Club and Williams Alumni Association.

SEYMOUR, FREDERICK—Lawyer, 40 Wall street, New York City; residence 55 Prospect street, East Orange, N. J. Born in Whitney's Point, N. Y., Aug. 2, 1856. Educated at Yale. (Married.) Member of the firm of Seymour, Seymour & Harmon. Member Manhattan, Yale and University Glee Clubs, and Essex County Country and Orange Clubs of Orange.

SEYMOUR, JAMES E.—Insurance, 120 Broadway, New York City; residence 105 West 77th street. Born in Auburn, N. Y., April 20, 1846. Educated at Auburn Academy. (Married.) Manager Equitable Life Assurance Society of the United States. Formerly cashier Mutual Life Insurance Co. of New York, at Chicago, Ill. Member Colonial Club and Sons of the American Revolution.

SEYMOUR, JOHN SAMMIS—Lawyer, 40 Wall street, New York City; residence Whitney's Point. Born in Whitney's Point, Sept. 28, 1848. Educated at an academy and at Yale College ('75) and Law School ('78). (Married Clara E., daughter of Gen. Charles Olmstead of Norwalk, Conn.) Member of the firm of Seymour, Seymour & Harmon. Member of the Connecticut State Senate, 1891-3; United States Commissioner of Patents, 1893-7. Member Lawyers' and Quill Clubs, and Norwalk and Pine Lodge Clubs of Norwalk, Conn.

SEYMOUR, JULIUS HUBBELL—Lawyer, 35 Wall street, New York City; residence 304 West 86th street. Born in St. Albans, Vt., Oct. 30, 1855. (Son of Henry Edmund and Susan Katherine [Hubbell] Seymour.) Educated at Phillips Andover Academy, Williams College ('79) and at Columbia College Law School ('82). Senior member of the firm of Seymour & Hopkins. President and director West End Realty Co. Member Union League and Alpha Delta Phi Clubs, New England Society, Williams College Alumni Association, Presbyterian Union and Association of the Bar of the City of New York.

SEYMOUR, WILLIAM WOTKINS—Physician, 105 Third street, Troy. Born in Troy, July 29, 1853. Educated at Williston Seminary, East Hampton, Mass., Yale (A.B.), Harvard (M.D.), Vienna, Berlin and London. (Married.) Formerly professor diseases of women, University of Vermont; surgeon Samaritan Hospital of Troy; house surgeon Boston (Mass.) City Hospital, 1878-9, and assistant surgeon New York State National Guard during the Buffalo strike. Member Troy Club, Boston City Hospital Club of Boston, Yale and National Arts Clubs, New York State Medical, Yale Alumni, British Medical, American Medical and Harvard Medical Alumni Associations, American Association of Obstetricians and Gynecologists of New York City, and New York State Medical Society.

SHACK, FERDINAND—Lawyer, 56 Wall street, New York City; residence 127 East 72d street. Educated at the College of the City of New York. Member Phi Beta Kappa and American Mathematical Societies, College of the City of New York Alumni and American Bar Associations, Association of the Bar of the City of New York and British Association for the Advancement of Science.

SHACKFORD, JOHN W.—Marine Superintendent, Pier 14, North River, New York City; residence 1 Paulmier place, Jersey City, N. J. Born in Eastport, Me., Jan. 30, 1839. Educated in Eastport. (Single.) Has been marine superintendent for past eleven years of the International Navigation Co., and formerly commanded ocean steamers for fourteen years. Member Carteret Club of Jersey City, Rittenhouse Club of Philadelphia, Sons of the Revolution of Pennsylvania, and New England Society of Pennsylvania.

SHAEN, HARRY B.—Manufacturers' Agent, 90 Grand street, New York City; residence 202 Berkeley place, Brooklyn. Born in Manchester, England, Jan. 9, 1852. Educated at Brooklyn Polytechnic Institute and Berlin University. (Married.) New York selling agent Goodall Worsted Co. of Sanford, Me., and Tootall-Broadhurst-Lee Co. (Ltd.) of Manchester, England. Member Atlantic Yacht and Wool Clubs.

SHAEN, ROBERT F.—Manufacturer, 110 Franklin street, New York City; residence Yonkers. Born in Halifax, N. S., Oct. 12, 1850. Educated at University College, London. (Married.) President Shaen Mfg Co. Was buyer for Kayne, Springdale & Co., 1874-9; foreign resident partner Shaen & Fithian, 1879-88; manager Harriman, McLea & Co., 1889, and Schefer, Schramm & Vogel, 1890-8. Member Wool Club and York Lodge, F. & A. M.

SHAFFER, NEWTON MELMAN—Surgeon and Professor, 28 East 38th street, New York City. Born in Kinderhook, N. Y., Feb. 14, 1846. Educated at Hudson River Institute and at the College of the City of New York ('67). (Married.) Surgeon-in-chief to New York Orthopaedic Dispensary and Hospital, 1876-99; orthopaedic surgeon to St. Luke's Hospital, 1872-88; professor of orthopaedic surgery, University Medical College, 1882-8. Is now connected with the Cornell University Medical College, surgeon-in-chief to New York State Hospital for Crippled and Deformed Children, consulting orthopaedic surgeon to St. Luke's and Presbyterian Hospitals and consulting physician to New York Infirmary for Women and Children. Member University Club, New York Academy of Medicine, Century Association, Congress of American Physicians and Surgeons (treasurer) and New York Neurological and New York County Medical Societies.

SHALER, IRA A.—Civil Engineer, 27 William street, New York City; residence 27 Washington square, North. Born in Ridgefield, N. J., Sept. 19, 1862. Educated at Cornell ('84). (Married.) Formerly major 1st United States Volunteer Engineers. Member Lotos, Barnard, Alpha Delta Phi and Cornell Clubs, Military Order of the Loyal Legion and American Society of Civil Engineers.

SHANKS, WILLIAM FRANKLIN GORE—Journalist, 32 Park place, New York City; residence 347 North street, Brooklyn. Born in Shelbyville, Ky., April 20, 1837. Educated in Louisville, Ky. (Married Mary R. Lynn of Louisville, 1863.) Served during Civil War as volunteer aide-de-camp on the staffs of Generals Rousseau and Thomas and was wounded at Chickamauga. War correspondent of the "New York Herald," 1861-5; editorial writer on same, 1865-7; managing editor of "Harper's Weekly," 1867-9; city editor New York "Times," 1869; foreign editor New York "Tribune," 1870-1; city editor of same, 1871-80; editor New York "Star," 1889-90. Organized the National Press Intelligence Co., a newspaper clipping bureau, in 1880, of which he is still president; established

"The Daily and Weekly Bond Buyer" in 1891, which he still owns and edits. Author of "Personal Recollections of Distinguished Generals," "A Noble Treason" and "The Ring Master"; also of numerous magazine articles.

SHANNON, RICHARD CUTTS—Lawyer, Washington, D. C.; residence 10 West 50th street, New York City. Born in New London, Conn., Feb. 12, 1839. Educated at Colby College ('62) and at Columbia Law School. (Married.) Served as a volunteer during Civil War and advanced to brevet major and brevet lieutenant-colonel. Secretary to the United States Legation at Rio de Janeiro, Brazil, 1871-5; United States Minister to Central America, 1891-3; member of Congress from Thirteenth New York District, 1895-9. Member University, Union League, Republican and Army and Navy Clubs, Delta Kappa Epsilon Fraternity, Society of Medical Jurisprudence and New York Commandery of the Military Order of the Loyal Legion.

SHANNON, WILLIAM—Physician and Instructor, 117 West 81st street, New York City. Degrees of A.B. and M.D. Clinical instructor in children's diseases, Cornell University Medical College, New York City.

SHARE WILLIAM W.—Professor, Adelphi College, Brooklyn; residence 331 McDonough street. Born in Brooklyn, March 8, 1859. Educated at Columbia. (Single.) Professor of chemistry, Adelphi College. Formerly superintendent Columbia Chemical Works, expert electrician Brooklyn Park Department and instructor department of physics, Columbia College. Member Crescent Athletic Club, Reform Club of New York City, Benevolent and Protective Order of Elks, Noble Order of the Mystic Shrine and many Masonic organizations.

SHARON, FREDERICK W.—323 Fifth avenue, New York City. Educated at Harvard ('81). Member Grolier, University, Union, Calumet, Lawyers', Manhattan, New York Yacht, Riding, and Racquet and Tennis Clubs, and Country Club of Westchester.

SHARP, L. R.—Artist, 1 Union square, West, New York City; residence 666 Lexington avenue. Born in Boston, Mass., April 14, 1865. Educated in New York City, at Gotham Art Students, Art Students' League and Academy of Design. (Single.) Has exhibited paintings at New York Water Color Club, in Art Institute Building of Chicago, and in Bridgeport Public Library Art Exhibition. Has worked as artist for Bulk & Lindner, Lindner, Eddy & Clauss, Donaldson Bros., Werner Co. of Akron, Ohio, and Knapp Co. (lithographers). Now artist for the Knapp Co. Has been prominent in amateur athletics, winning many prizes in running and jumping contests. Member New York Athletic and Fresh Air Clubs, National Conservatory Orchestra (violinist) and Orpheus Orchestra.

SHARP, W. NEWTON—Banker and Broker, 3 Broad street, New York City; residence 36 West 35th street. Member of the New York Stock Exchange firm of Sharp & Bryan. Member New York, Atlantic Yacht and Calumet Clubs and Southern Society.

SHARP, WILLOUGHBY W.—Banker and Broker, 3 Broad street, New York City; residence 26 West 11th street. Born in Virginia, Feb. 9, 1863. Educated at Norfolk (Va.) Academy. (Married.) Member of the New York Stock Exchange firm of Sharp & Bryan. Member Calumet, Atlantic Yacht, Seawanhaka-Corinthian Yacht and Marine and Field Clubs, Southern Society, American Museum of Natural History and Metropolitan Museum of Art.

SHARPE, GEORGE H. (General)—Customs Official, 641 Washington street, New York City; residence Kingston. Connected with the United States Customs Service as General Appraiser. Member Union League, Republican, Army and Navy and Delta Phi Clubs, Metropolitan Club of Washington, D. C., St. Nicholas Society, Military Order of the Loyal Legion and Sons of the Revolution.

SHARRETT, CHARLES J.—Physician, 288 Grand avenue, Astoria. Born in New York City. Educated at College of Physicians and Surgeons. (Married.) Visiting physician to various church charities. Was surgeon New York Post Office and New York Telephone Co. and visiting physician Montefiore Home. Member Twilight Club, American Folk Lore Society and New York County Medical Association.

SHATTUCK, G. S.—Banker, Dundee. Born in Altay, N. Y., March 1, 1847. Educated in Altay village school. (Married.) President Dundee National Bank.

SHATTUCK, J. WALDON—Merchant, 50 Lispenard street, New York City; residence Morristown, N. J. Born in Massachusetts. Educated at Yale. (Single.) Member Yale Alumni Association.

SHAVER, GEORGE FREDERICK—Inventor and Manufacturer, 106 East 23d street, New York City. Born in Ripley, Chautauqua Co., N. Y., Nov. 4, 1855. Educated in public schools. Member of the firm of Josiah H. Mead & Co., manufacturers of patented combined open grate and steam heaters. Has invented an improved mechanical telephone, a self-righting and self-bailing life boat, an automatic mail catcher, etc. Vice-president and general manager Shaver Corporation, 1887-93. Member New York Athletic and Magnetic Clubs.

SHAW, ALBERT—Editor and Publisher, 13 Astor place, New York City; residence Hastings-on-Hudson. Born in Shandon, Butler Co., Ohio, July 23, 1857. Educated at Iowa College, at Johns Hopkins University (Ph.D., '84) and in Europe. (Married Elizabeth Bacon of Reading, Pa., 1893.) Editor and publisher of the "Review of Reviews" which he established in 1890. Author of "Municipal Government in Great Britain," "Local Government in Illinois," "Municipal Government in Continental Europe," "Our War in Two Hemispheres" and of many articles in magazines and periodicals. President and director "Review of Reviews" Co.; trustee Iowa College. Member City, Nineteenth Century, Social Reform, Congregational and Patria Clubs, Country Club of Westchester, Ardsley Casino of Ardsley-on-Hudson, and Johns Hopkins Alumni and Aldine Associations.

SHAW, ALBERT DUANE—Manufacturer, Watertown. Born in Lyme, Jefferson Co., N. Y., Dec. 27, 1841. Educated at Union Academy, Belleville, and at St. Lawrence University. Enlisted in the 35th New York Volunteers in May, 1861; served as private and non-commissioned officer until 1863, and then as recruiting officer. Member of the New York State Assembly, 1866; consul at Toronto, Canada, 1868-78, and at Manchester, England, 1878-86. Delegate G. A. R. National Encampment of 1896, and was elected department commander for term, 1897-8. Commander-in-chief, for 1900, of the Grand Army of the Republic. Republican candidate for Congress from the Twenty-fourth New York District, September, 1900. President and director Canadian Niagara Power Co.

SHAW, ALEXANDER D.—Wine Importer, 58 Broad street, New York City; residence Fort place, New Brighton, S. I. Member of the firm of Alex. D. Shaw & Co. Member Metropolitan, Lawyers', Staten Island Cricket and Baseball, Richmond County Country and Turf and Field Clubs.

SHAW, CHARLES H.—Lawyer, 15 Broad street, New York City; residence 47 West 43d street. Educated at Yale ('78). Member Psi Upsilon, Yale, City and University Clubs, Society of Medical Jurisprudence and Association of the Bar of the City of New York.

SHAW, DANIEL McLEAN—Lawyer, 150 Nassau street, New York City; residence 19 West 53d street. Born in Freehold, N. J., March 23, 1839. (Son of Amos and Caroline [English] Shaw.) Educated at Freehold Institute and at Princeton (A.B. and A.M.). Studied law in New York City and was admitted to the Bar in 1862. (Married.) Senior member of the firm of Shaw, Fisk & Stotesbury. One of the incorporators and now treasurer and trustee Society of Medical Jurisprudence; member board of managers of St. Mark's Hospital. Member Princeton, New York Athletic and Political Science Clubs, Cliosophic Society and St. Mark's Hospital Association.

SHAW, FRANK D.—Lawyer, 120 Broadway, New York City; residence 105 East 18th street. Educated at Columbia. Member Westminster Kennel, New York Yacht and Larchmont Yacht Clubs and Columbia University Alumni Association.

SHAW, FRANK W.—Physician, 327 Greene avenue, Brooklyn. Born in Michigan, Nov. 5, 1861. Educated at New York University Medical College. (Single.) Attending physician Norwegian Lutheran Hospital; assistant attending physician Methodist Episcopal Hospital; attending physician Brooklyn Orphan Asylum; attending physician, diseases of children, Polhemus Memorial Clinic. Member Crescent Athletic and Brooklyn Medical Clubs, Hospital Graduates of Brooklyn, Medical Society of Kings County, Kings County Medical Association, Long Island Medical and Brooklyn Pathological Societies and Alumni Association of the Presbyterian Hospital of New York City.

SHAW, J. ANGUS—Treasurer, 63 Park row, New York City; residence 54 St. Nicholas avenue. Born in Montreal, Canada. (Single.) Secretary and trustee Press Publishing Co.

SHAW, JOHN BALCOM—Presbyterian Clergyman, 307 West 104th street, New York City. Born in Bellport, L. I., May 12, 1860. Educated at Hackettstown (N. J.) Institute, Lafayette College and Union Theological Seminary. (Married.) Pastor West End Presbyterian Church. Ex-director Union Seminary and Board of Foreign Missions. Member Quill Club, Chi Alpha Fraternity and Presbyterian Union.

SHAW, JOHN M.—Stock Broker, 30 Broad street, New York City; residence Madison, N. J. Member of the firm of John M. Shaw & Co. and of the New York Stock Exchange. Member Lawyers', Players', Staten Island Cricket and Baseball and Baltusrol Golf Clubs.

SHAW, N. ARCHIBALD, JR.—Educator, 45 West 81st street, New York City; residence Hotel Endicott. Born in Waddington, N. Y., 1861. Educated at Hamilton College. (Married.) Principal Hamilton Institute (college preparatory school for boys). Member Colonial (ex-secretary), Lotos, Patria (ex-secretary), Phi Beta Kappa and Theta Delta Chi Clubs and Hamilton College Alumni and West End Associations.

SHAW, SAMUEL T.—Hotel Proprietor, 121 Park avenue, New York City; residence 344 West End avenue. Proprietor Grand Union Hotel. Member New York Yacht, American Yacht, New York Athletic, Salmagundi, Seawanhaka-Corinthian Yacht and Fencers' Clubs.

SHAW, THOMAS F.—Woolen Commission Merchant, 68 Leonard street, New York City; residence 31 West 51st street. Member Manhattan, Catholic, Merchants' and Arkwright Clubs.

SHAW, WILLIAM B.—Editor, 13 Astor place, New York City; residence Mount Vernon. Born in Ripon, Wis., Aug. 4, 1863. Educated at Oberlin College and Johns Hopkins University. (Married.) Assistant editor "American Monthly Review of Reviews."

SHAW, WILLIAM H.—Linen Merchant, 36 White street, New York City; residence 429 West 147th street. Member of the firm of Shaw & Peck. Member Wool, Harlem Republican and Arkwright Clubs and Sons of the American Revolution.

SHAYNE, CHRISTOPHER C.—Importer of Furs, 124 West 42d street, New York City; residence 582 West End avenue. Senior member of the firm of C. C. Shayne & Co. Member Republican, West Side Republican, Patria, Transportation and New Amsterdam Clubs, Ohio Society and Chamber of Commerce.

SHEA, JOHN L.—Custom House Broker, 45 William street, and Commissioner, 280 Broadway, New York City; residence 278 Jefferson avenue, Brooklyn. Born in New York City "about 1852." Educated in public schools in Williamsburg, L. I., and at Paine's Business College. Commissioner of bridges of the City of New York. Democratic leader of the Twenty-third Ward of Brooklyn.

SHEAR, THEODORE R.—Lawyer, 32 Liberty street, New York City; residence 364 West 120th street. Born in Albany, N. Y., March 25, 1847. Educated at Union University ('68) and Albany Law School (LL.B., '70). (Married.) President Cummens Missionary Society; secretary board of trustees Reformed Episcopal Church; member board of managers New York Sunday School Association; warden First Reformed Episcopal Church. Member Union Alumni Association.

SHEARD, TITUS—Manufacturer, Little Falls. Born in Batley, Yorkshire, England, Oct. 4, 1841. Came to the United States in 1856 and was educated in public schools. (Married.) President and director Titus Sheard Co. (knit goods) and H. P. Snyder Mfg Co. (knitting machinery and bicycles). Represented Herkimer County in the New York State Assembly in 1878, 1879 and 1884 and was elected speaker of the Assembly in the latter year; delegate to the National Republican Convention of 1884; State senator, 1890-1. Member Fort Schuyler Club of Utica, and Union League, Wool and Republican Clubs of New York City.

SHEARER, GEORGE LEWIS—Presbyterian Clergyman, 150 Nassau street, New York City; residence 117 East 54th street. Born in Dillsburg, Pa., Oct. 16, 1835. Educated at Lafayette College (A.B., '57 and D.D., '83) and at Princeton Theological Seminary (D.D., '64). Connected with the American Tract Society since 1862 and has been secretary of same since 1872. Member Presbyterian Union.

SHEARER, JOHN SANFORD—Instructor, Cornell University, Ithaca; residence 608 East Seneca street. Educated at Cornell (B.S., '93). Instructor in physics, Cornell University. Member Delta Upsilon Society.

SHEARMAN, FRANK E.—Manufacturer, Jamestown. Born in Jamestown, Dec. 12, 1857. Educated at Jamestown High School. (Married.) Member of the firm of Shearman Bros., manufacturers of upholstered furniture. Vice-president Duplex Axis Buoy Co.; director Universal Power Co. Member Democratic and Reform Clubs of New York City.

SHEARMAN, THOMAS GASKELL—Lawyer, 44 Wall street, New York City; residence 176 Columbia Heights, Brooklyn. Born in Birmingham, England, Nov. 25, 1834. (Son of John H. and Sarah [Price] Shearman.) Came with his parents to the United States when nine years of age and received a private education in New York City. Has resided in Brooklyn since 1857 and has been practicing law in New York City since 1859. (Married Ella Partridge, 1859.) Was managing counsel to Henry Ward Beecher in the action brought against him by Theodore Tilton and F. D. Moulton. Author of "Shearman and Redfield on Negligence" (with Amasa A. Redfield), "Tillinghast and Shearman's Practice," "National Taxation," "Crooked Taxation," "Does Protection Protect?" "The Single Tax" and many others. Member Hamilton Club of Brooklyn, and Reform Club.

SHEARS, GEORGE PEASLEE—Physician and Instructor, 202 West 103d street, New York City. Degree of M.D. Clinical instructor in obstetrics, Cornell University Medical College, New York City.

SHEEHAN, JOHN CHARLES—Lawyer and Contractor, 258 Broadway, New York City; residence 464 West 23d street. Born in Buffalo, N. Y., Aug. 5, 1848. Educated at St. Joseph's College and at Bryant & Stratton's Business College. (Married.) Member of the firm of O'Brien & Sheehan. Formerly city assessor and comptroller of the City of Buffalo; police commissioner of New York City, 1892-5. Prominent as a Tammany Hall leader. Member Democratic and Pequod Clubs and Tammany Society.

SHEEHAN, JOHN H.—Wholesale and Retail Druggist, 167 Genesee street, Utica. Born in Ireland, March, 1839. Educated in public schools of Utica. (Married.) Formerly charity commissioner of Utica Board of Charities. Now director Second National Bank of Utica. Member Fort Schuyler Club, Catholic Club of New York City, Oneida Historical Society, Bacon Post G. A. R. (associate) and Knights of Columbus, Utica Branch.

SHEEHAN, WILLIAM FRANCIS—Lawyer, 32 Nassau street, New York City; residence 16 East 56th street. Born in Buffalo, N. Y., Nov. 6, 1859. Educated in public schools and at St. Joseph's College. Studied law and was admitted to the Bar in 1881. (Married.) Senior member of the firm of Sheehan & Collin. Was a member of the New York State Assembly from 1885 to 1890, in the latter year of which he was speaker, and was Lieutenant-Governor of New York for term, 1891-3. Practicing law in New York City since 1895. Director Brooklyn Union Elevated R. R. Co., Connecticut Lighting and Power Co., Edison Electric Illuminating Co. of Brooklyn, Greenwich Gas and Electric Co., Lanyon Zinc Co., New York Land and Warehouse Co., Norwalk and South Norwalk Electric Light Co., Norwalk Gas Co., White Plains Lighting Co., Eastchester Electric Co., Westchester Gas and Coke Co., Kings County Electric Light and Power Co., St. Paul Mining Co., International Telephone and Switchboard Mfg. Co. and Pelham Electric Light and Power Co. Member Democratic, Manhattan, Transportation, Catholic, Lotos and Lawyers' Clubs, Brooklyn Club of Brooklyn, Ellicott Club of Buffalo, and Society of Friendly Sons of St. Patrick.

SHEEHY, EDWARD C.—Real Estate, 170 Broadway, and Commissioner, 280 Broadway, New York City; residence 1229 Lexington avenue. Educated in New York City public schools. Member of the East River Park Commission, by appointment of the Supreme Court, 1880-2; assemblyman, 1883; member of the Common Council, 1884; commissioner of charities and correction, by appointment of Mayor Grant, 1889-95. Commissioner of taxes and assessments for the Borough of Manhattan for the term, 1898-1903. Member Catholic, Democratic and Arkwright Clubs.

SHEFFIELD, JAMES R.—Lawyer, 120 Broadway, New York City; residence 58 West 58th street. Born in Dubuque, Iowa, Aug. 13, 1864. Educated at Yale ('87) and at Harvard Law School. (Married Edith Tod of Cleveland, Nov. 2, 1898.) Member of the firm of Betts, Betts, Sheffield & Betts. Formerly private secretary to United States Senator William L. Allison of Iowa. Member of Assembly, 1894; fire commissioner, New York City, 1895-8, and president Board of Fire Commissioners, 1896-8. Treasurer and director Yonkers North End Land Co. Member Yale, Republican, University (member of council), State, Plaza and Union League Clubs and Association of the Bar of the City of New York.

SHELBY, EDMUND PENDLETON—Physician and Instructor, 30 West 32d street, New York City. Degrees of A.B. and M.D. Instructor in therapeutics, Cornell University Medical College, New York City.

SHELDON, ALEXANDER J.—Tea Importer, 108 Wall street, New York City; residence 219, 76th street, Brooklyn. Born in Brooklyn, 1862. (Married.) President and director A. J. Sheldon Co. Member Crescent Athletic, Excelsior, and Marine and Field Clubs of Brooklyn.

SHELDON, EDWARD WRIGHT—Lawyer, 45 Wall street, New York City; residence 15 East 38th street. Born in Plainfield, N. J., Dec. 17, 1858. (Son of Rev. George and Martha [Lyman] Sheldon.) Educated in preparatory schools, at Princeton (A.B., '79 and A.M., '82) and at Columbia College Law School (LL.B., '81). Practicing in New York City since his admission to the Bar in 1881. Member Metropolitan, Princeton, University, Lawyers', Racquet and Tennis and Grolier Clubs, Century and Down Town Associations and Association of the Bar of the City of New York.

SHELDON, FLOYD P.—Physician and Surgeon, 223 West 122d street, New York City. Born in Rutland, Vt., Jan. 14, 1858. Educated at Fort Edward Collegiate Institute, University of Michigan (M.D., '78), and New York Ophthalmic Hospital College (Oculi et Auris-Chirurgus, '82). (Married.) Practiced in Newburgh, 1882-9; assistant surgeon and lecturer, New York Ophthalmic Hospital, 1889-94; surgeon in Eye Department of same since 1894. Vice-president and trustee Citizens' Savings and Loan Association; professor of bacteriology and antiseptic technic of operations of the eye and ear, New York Ophthalmic Hospital College; visiting surgeon, Eye and Ear Department, Harlem Homeopathic Hospital; consulting surgeon Webb Academy and Home on Fordham Heights. Member Harlem Club, New York Homeopathic Medical Society, Academy of Pathological Science, Crescent Lodge No. 402, F. & A. M., and Coeur de Lion Commandery No. 23, A. A. S. R.

SHELDON, GEORGE P.—Insurance, 47 Cedar street, New York City; residence Greenwich, Conn. Born in New York City, Jan. 17, 1847. Educated at Yale ('67). (Married.) President and director Phenix Insurance Co.; director Brooklyn Bank. Member University, New York, Mendelssohn Glee, Indian Harbor Yacht and Fairfield County (Conn.) Golf Clubs and Down Town Association.

SHELDON, GEORGE R.—Banker, 4 Wall street, New York City; residence 24 East 38th street. Born in New York City, 1857. Educated at Harvard ('79). (Married.) Member of the firm of William C. Sheldon & Co., and of the New York Stock Exchange. President and director Detroit, Toledo and Milwaukee R. R. Co.; treasurer and director Milwaukee Electric Ry. and Light Co. and North American Co.; director Union Bag and Paper Co., Republic Iron and Steel Co., Safety Car Heating and Lighting Co., Pintsch Compressing Co. and Cincinnati Edison Electric Co. Member Union, University, Harvard, Lambs', New York Yacht, Racquet and Tennis and Union League Clubs, Ardsley Casino of Ardsley-on-Hudson, and Down Town Association.

SHELDON, JAMES O.—43 Cedar street, New York City; residence 12 East 40th street. Director Kings County Elevated Ry. Co. and Manhattan Trust Co. Member Union League Club, New England Society, Down Town Association, American Museum of Natural History and Metropolitan Museum of Art.

SHELDON, LANSING G.—Hat Jobber, 246 West Railroad street, Syracuse; residence 217 Tallman street. Born in Onondaga County, N. Y., Oct. 19, 1863. Educated at Onondaga Academy. (Married.) Member of the firm of Seiber & Sheldon. Member Citizens' Club.

SHELDON, WILLIAM CRAWFORD—Banker, 4 Wall street, New York City; residence 95 Park avenue. Educated at Trinity College ('82). Member of the firm of William C. Sheldon & Co. and of the New York Stock Exchange. Member St. Anthony, University and Racquet and Tennis Clubs, Ardsley Casino of Ardsley-on-Hudson, Trinity College Alumni Association and Sons of the Revolution.

SHELLABARGER, JOSEPH M.—Lawyer, 5 Beekman street, New York City; residence 317 West 114th street. Born in Topeka, Kan., Sept. 22, 1871. Educated at Princeton ('92) and New York Law School ('94). (Married.) Member of the firm of Hardy & Shellabarger. Member Princeton Club.

SHELTON, E. DE FOREST—President, 64 Reade street, New York City; residence 91 Remsen street, Brooklyn. Born in Derby, Conn., Feb. 12, 1853. Educated at Brooklyn Polytechnic Institute. (Married.) President The Shelton Co. Member Indian Harbor Yacht and Hardware Clubs, Hamilton Club of Brooklyn, and Huguenot Society of Manhattan.

SHELTON, GEORGE GREGORY—Physician, 521 Madison avenue, New York City. Born in Connecticut, Aug. 24, 1853. Educated in New York City. (Married.) Professor of materia medica in New York Homeopathic Medical, Paedological, Pathological physician Flower Hospital; professor physical diagnosis, New York College and Hospital for Women. Member New York Medical and City Clubs, New York Homeopathic Medical, Paedological, Pathological and Materia Medica Societies, American Institute, Society of the War of 1812, Sons of the Revolution and Society of Colonial Wars.

SHENSTONE, ARCHIBALD C.—Lawyer, 111 Broadway, New York City; residence 226 Cumberland street, Brooklyn. Educated at Columbia. (Single.) Member Lawyers' Club and others.

SHEPARD, AUGUSTUS D.—Vice-President, 86 Trinity place, New York City; residence "The Gables," Fanwood, N. J. Vice-president and trustee American Bank Note Co., trustee American Safe Deposit Co. Member Union League, Republican, Transportation, Lawyers' and Union County (N. J.) Country Clubs, New England Society and American Asiatic Association.

SHEPARD, CHARLES HENRY—Physician, 81 Columbia Heights, Brooklyn. Born in Canada, of American parents, Sept. 28, 1825. Educated at Ogdensburg (N. Y.) Academy and at a medical college in New York City (M.D.) (Married.) Medical director of Dr. Shepard's Turkish Bath and Sanitarium. Member Twilight Club of New York City, Medical Society of Kings County, American Medical and American Public Health Associations and Second Unitarian Church.

SHEPARD, EDWARD MORSE—Lawyer, 111 Broadway, New York City; residence 172 Congress street, Brooklyn. Born in New York City, 1850. Educated at the College of the City of New York ('69). President and trustee Berkshire Apartment Association; vice-president and director Mexican Northern Ry. Co.; director Compania Metalurgica Mexicana, Consolidated Kansas City Smelting and Refining Co., Potosi and Rio Grande Ry. Co., Rio Grande, Sierra Madre and Pacific R. R. Co., and Sombrete Mining Co. Member Church, Reform and University Clubs, Brooklyn and Hamilton Clubs of Brooklyn, College of the City of New York Alumni Association and Association of the Bar of the City of New York.

SHEPARD, EDWIN M.—Captain, United States Navy; residence Tompkinsville, S. I. Educated at United States Naval Academy ('61). Ensign, Nov. 22, 1862; lieutenant, Feb. 22, 1864; lieutenant-commander, July 25, 1866; commander, June, 1878; captain, May 15, 1893. Served throughout Civil War and was on the monitor "Mahopac" at the siege of Charleston, S. C. Has been inspector of lighthouses since April, 1898. Member New York Yacht Club.

SHEPARD, FREDERICK J.—Librarian, Public Library, Buffalo; residence 17 Pearl place. Born in Essex, Conn., Jan. 23, 1850. Educated at Yale ('73). (Married.) Editorial writer on the New York "World," 1876-80, and on the "Buffalo Courier," 1880-97. Reference librarian of the Buffalo Public Library since 1897. Member Saturn and University Clubs.

SHEPARD, GEORGE HUGH—Instructor, Cornell University, Ithaca; residence 39 East avenue. Instructor in machine design at Cornell University. Retired United States naval officer.

SHEPARD, J. WOOLSEY—Lawyer, 302 Broadway, New York City; residence 243 West 99th street. Member Huntington Yacht and Colonial Clubs and Association of the Bar of the City of New York.

SHEPARD, WALTER JOY—Manufacturer, 424 Niagara street, Buffalo; residence 70 Ashland avenue. Born in Buffalo, March 27, 1853. Educated in Buffalo. (Married.) President George L. Squier Mfg Co. Member Buffalo Club, Sons of the American Revolution and Scottish Rite Masons.

SHEPARD, JOHN W.—Assistant Treasurer, 146 Broadway, New York City; residence 55 Pineapple street, Brooklyn. Born in Essex, Conn., July 18, 1858. Educated at Yale ('79). (Married.) Assistant treasurer Title Guarantee and Trust Co. since 1889. Member Crescent Athletic Club of Brooklyn.

SHEPHERD, WILLIAM ROBERT—Lecturer, 116th street and Morningside Heights, New York City. Born in Charleston, S. C., June 12, 1871. Educated at Columbia (A.B., A.M. and Ph.D.). (Married Tona A. Osterdorff, 1897.) Lecturer at Columbia University in the City of New York. Author of "Proprietary Government in Pennsylvania," "The Battle of Harlem Heights" and "The Land System of Provincial Pennsylvania."

SHEPPARD, JOHN S., Jr.—Lawyer, 36 Wall street, New York City; residence 1219 Madison avenue. Born in Penn Yan, N. Y., July 20, 1871. Educated at Williams College ('91) and at Harvard Law School. (Married.) Member Harvard, University and Republican Clubs and Association of the Bar of the City of New York.

SHEPPARD, WARREN W.—Artist, 609 Macon street, Brooklyn. Born in Greenwich, N. J., 1858. Educated at Center High School, Philadelphia, Pa. (Married.) Painter of marine and Venetian pictures; represented in some of the best collections of paintings in the United States and England; awarded gold medal in 1884; some of his best known works are "The Restless Sea," "Storm Center," "Under the Southern Cross," "Santa Maria della Salute, Venice," and "Dedemona's Palace, Venice." Member Brooklyn Art and Crescent Athletic Clubs.

SHERER, WILLIAM—Banker, 79 Cedar street and 1 Third avenue, New York City; residence 226 Lenox avenue. Manager New York Clearing House Association. Second vice-president and trustee Metropolitan Savings Bank; director Security Check Co. and Yuma Improvement Co. Member Harlem Club, and Union League Club of Brooklyn.

SHERMAN, BENJAMIN PRESCOTT—Retired, 132 State street, Brooklyn. Born in New Haven, Conn., Dec. 20, 1820. Educated in Hopkins Grammar School, New Haven. Was for many years in shipping and commission business with Richard P. Buck in New York City, and was an early member of the Produce and Maritime Exchanges. Member Brooklyn Croquet Club, New York Bible and Brooklyn Historical Societies, Young Men's Christian Association and Sons of the Revolution.

SHERMAN, CHARLES A.—Dry Goods Merchant, 64 Leonard street, New York City; residence 103 Montague street, Brooklyn. Member of the firm of Sherman, Reid & Co. Member Union, Seawanhaka-Corinthian Yacht, Psi Upsilon and Arkwright Clubs, Crescent Athletic and Hamilton Clubs of Brooklyn, American Geographical Society and Sons of the Revolution.

SHERMAN, CHARLES AUGUSTUS—Retired, 96 Wall street, New York City; residence 32 West 20th street. Born in New York City, 1844. (Son of Benjamin B. Sherman.) Educated at New York University. (Married.) Trustee Bank for Savings; executor of several estates. Member Union League Club, American Geographical and New York Historical Societies, American Museum of Natural History and Metropolitan Museum of Art.

SHERMAN, FRANK DEMPSTER—Professor, 116th street and Morningside Heights, New York City; residence 312 South Broadway, Yonkers. Born in Peekskill, Westchester Co., N. Y., May 6, 1860. Educated at Columbia and Harvard Universities. (Married.) Adjunct professor of architecture at Columbia University in the City of New York. Member Century Association.

SHERMAN, FREDERICK T.—Retired Merchant, 265 Henry street, Brooklyn. Born in New Haven, Conn., Dec. 20, 1840. Educated in Brooklyn. (Married.) Trustee Seamen's Bank for Savings and Sheltering Arms Nursery; vestryman St. Peter's Protestant Episcopal Church. Member Hamilton Club.

SHERMAN, GEORGE—Banker, 54 Wall street, New York City; residence 16 West 20th street. Educated at Columbia ('75). President and director Building and Sanitary Inspection Co.; vice-president and trustee Central Trust Co.; treasurer and director Atlantic and Charlotte Air Line Ry. Co.; director Colorado Midland R. R. Co., Land and River Improvement Co., Merchants' National Bank, Second National Bank and West Side Construction Co.; trustee Fifth Avenue Safe Deposit Co. and Germania Savings Bank. Member University (life member), Racquet and Tennis, Players', South Side Sportsmen's, Psi Upsilon, New York Athletic, University Athletic and Mendelssohn Glee Clubs, American Fine Arts Society, Down Town, Columbia University Alumni and Century Associations and Metropolitan Museum of Art.

SHERMAN, GEORGE C.—Paper Manufacturer, Taggart Building, Watertown; residence 14 Ten Eyck street. Born in Watertown, July 25, 1862. Educated at Watertown High School and at St. John's, Manlius. (Married.) President National Bank and Loan Co.; vice-president Watertown Steam Engine Co.; treasurer Taggart's Paper Co. and St. Regis Paper Co.; trustee Jefferson County Savings Bank. Member Transportation, Reform, New York Athletic and New York Clubs of New York City, and Jefferson County Golf and Union Clubs of Watertown.

SHERMAN, GORDON E.—Lawyer, 32 Nassau street, New York City; residence Morristown, N. J. Born in Morristown, Aug. 11, 1854. Educated at College Gaillard, Lausanne, Switzerland, and Yale (Shelfield Scientific School). (Married.) Member Morristown Club, New England Society, Sons of the American Revolution and Association of the Bar of the City of New York.

SHERMAN, IRVING P.—Physician, 114 West 44th street, New York City. Born in New York City, Dec. 10, 1872. Educated at Berkeley Institute and New York Homeopathic Medical College. (Single.) Member of the faculty of New York Homeopathic Medical College; assistant attending physician Flower Hospital. Member Meissen and Dunham Clubs, State and County Homeopathic Medical Societies and American Institute of Homeopathy.

SHERMAN, JOHN T.—Lawyer, 56 Wall street, New York City; residence 553 Fifth avenue. Educated at Columbia. Member Columbia University Alumni and Down Town Associations, Psi Upsilon Fraternity and Association of the Bar of the City of New York.

SHERMAN, JOHN TAYLOR—Dry Goods Merchant, 64 Leonard street, New York City; residence 35 Remsen street, Brooklyn. Born in Suffield, Conn., Nov. 10, 1831. Educated at Pinkerton (N. H.) Academy. (Widower.) Senior member of the firm of Sherman, Reid & Co. Member Reform, Seavanhaka-Corinthian Yacht and Ragged Island Clubs, Hamilton Club of Brooklyn, Megantic Club of Maine, New England Society and Chamber of Commerce.

SHERMAN, P. TECUMSEH—Lawyer, 59 Wall street, New York City; residence 37 East 50th street. Born in St. Louis, Mo., Jan. 9, 1867. Educated at St. Louis University, Yale and Columbia Law School. (Single.) Member of the firm of Sherman & Stanton. Was student and law clerk in office of Evarts, Choate & Beaman. Alderman, New York City, 1898-9. Member Union League, Catholic, and New York Athletic Clubs, Yale Alumni Association, Association of the Bar of the City of New York and Military Order of the Loyal Legion.

SHERMAN, REGINALD PALGRAVE—Real Estate, 20 East 42d street, New York City; residence Rye. Born in New York City, June 30, 1860. Educated at Sedgwick Institute, Great Barrington, Mass. (Widower.) Member Veteran Association of Company "B," 7th Regiment, N. G. N. Y.

SHERMAN, THOMAS TOWNSEND—Lawyer, 52 Wall street, New York City; residence Rye. Born in London, England, July 28, 1853. Educated at Hopkins Grammar School, New Haven, Conn., at Yale College ('74) and at Columbia Law School. (Married Anne Loder Niffin, 1887.) Member University, American Yacht and Yale Clubs, Apawamis Club of Rye, New York Genealogical and Biographical Society and Down Town Association.

SHERMAN, WILLIAM WATTS—Capitalist, 838 Fifth avenue, New York City. (Married.) Member Metropolitan, City, Knickerbocker, Racquet and Tennis and Turf and Field Clubs, American Geographical and St. Nicholas Societies and Century Association.

SHERMAN, WILLIAM WINSLOW—Retired Banker, 24 East 55th street, New York City. Formerly president and director National Bank of Commerce. Member Union League and Riding Clubs and New England Society.

SHERRILL, CHARLES H.—Lawyer, 35 Nassau street, New York City; residence 6 East Ninth street. Educated at Yale (A.B., '89, LL.B., '91, and M.A., '92). (Single.) Member of the firm of Sherrill & Lockwood. Secretary and director St. Nicholas Skating and Ice Co.; director Guayaquil and Quito Ry. Co. Member Union League, University, New York Athletic and Yale Clubs, Leander Rowing Club of London, England, Sons of the Revolution and Founders and Patriots of America.

SHERWOOD, ARTHUR M.—Broker, 10 Wall street, New York City; residence New Rochelle. Educated at Harvard ('77). Member of the New York Stock Exchange firm of Tower & Sherwood. Member University, Harvard and Lambs' Clubs.

SHERWOOD, HOWARD COCKS—Lawyer, 80 Broadway, New York City; residence 27 Waverley place. Born in San Francisco, Cal., Nov. 21, 1870. Educated at Harvard College and Law School. (Single.) Member of the firm of Miller, Peckham & Dixon. Member Harvard Club.

SHERWOOD, OLIVER T.—Banker, Southport; residence University Club, New York City. Educated at Yale. (Married.) Cashier Southport National Bank. Member University Club and Yale Alumni Association.

SHEWAN, JAMES—Saw Mills and Shipyards, Pier 62, East River, New York City; residence 152 Rodney street, Brooklyn. Born in Peterhead, Scotland, Jan. 6, 1848. Educated in Scotland. (Married.) Member Hanover Club of Brooklyn, and St. Andrew's Society of New York City.

SHIEBLER, GEORGE W.—Silverware Merchant, 5 Maiden lane, New York City; residence 47 Park plaza, Brooklyn. Born in Baltimore, Md., May 22, 1846. Educated in Washington, D. C. (Married.) Ex-president and director New York Jewelers' Association. Member of the firm of George W. Shiebler & Co. Member Montauk and Manufacturers' Clubs of Brooklyn, and New York Jewelers' Association.

SHIELDS, G. O.—Editor and Manager, 23 West 24th street, New York City. Born in Batavia, Ohio, Aug. 26, 1846. Educated in a log school house near Colesburg, Iowa. (Single.) Editor and manager "Recreation." Author of "The Big Game of North America," "Cruisings in the Cascades," "American Game Fishes," "Hunting in the Great West," "The American Book of the Dog," "Camping and Camp Outfits" and "The Battle of the Big Hole." President League of American Sportsmen and Camp Fire Club. Member American Automobile, National Arts, Presbyterian Camp Fire and Twilight Clubs, New York Zoological Society, American Museum of Natural History, American Canoe Association, New York Association for the Protection of Game, New York Fish, Game and Forestry League and League of American Sportsmen.

SHILAND, ANDREW, JR.—Lawyer, 71 Broadway, New York City; residence 262 West 78th street. Born in Mount Kisco, N. Y., April 15, 1855. Educated at United States Military Academy and Columbia Law School. (Married.) Admitted to the New York Bar, 1877. Senior member of the firm of Shiland & Honeyman. Ex-president New York Throat, Nose and Lung Hospital. Member Colonial, Patria, New York Athletic and Apawamis Clubs, Academy of Sciences and Association of the Bar of the City of New York.

SHINAMAN, CHARLES E.—Lawyer, 16 White Memorial Building, Syracuse. Born in Marshallville, N. Y., June 12, 1867. Educated at Cornell ('89). (Single.) Member of the firm of White, Cheney & Shinaman. Was clerk Board of Supervisors of Onondaga County, and secretary Republican General Committee of Onondaga County. Member Citizens' Club.

SHIPPY, HENRY L.—Treasurer, 117 Liberty street, New York City; residence Engineers' Club. Born in Bucks County, Pa., July 6, 1846. Educated in Bucks County (Married.) Formerly manager John A. Roebling's Sons Co. of New Jersey for twenty-three years; treasurer John A. Roebling's Sons Co. of New York for one year. Now manager John A. Roebling's Sons Co. of New York. Member Engineers', Lawyers', Hardware, Lotos, Democratic, and Olympic Clubs.

SHIRLAW, WALTER—Artist, 53 East 23d street, New York City. Born in Paisley, Scotland, Aug. 6, 1838. Educated in New York City. Engaged in art work since 1861, and has done much illustrated work for books and magazines. One of the founders and first president of the Society of American Artists. Member Salmagundi Club, Century Association, Architectural League, National Academy of Design and Metropolitan Museum of Art.

SHIRMER, GEORGE P.—Physician, 321 West 45th street, New York City; residence Bronxwood Park, Williamsbridge. Born in New York City, 1852. Educated in New York City. (Married.) Member Society of Medical Jurisprudence and Baptist Social Union.

SHOEMAKER, HENRY F.—Banker and Railroad President, 29 Broadway, New York City; residence 22 East 46th street, and Riverside, Conn. Born in Schuylkill County, Pa., March 28, 1845. (Son of John W. and Mary [Brock] Shoemaker.) (Married Blanche, daughter of Hon. James W. Quiggle of Philadelphia.) Educated at Genesee Seminary, Lima, N. Y. Formerly president Cincinnati, Dayton and Ironton R. R. Co. and Mineral Range R. R. Co. and secretary and treasurer Central R. R. Co. of Minnesota. Now president Dayton and Union R. R. Co.; vice-president Indiana, Decatur and Western Ry. Co.; chairman board of directors Cincinnati, New Orleans and Texas Pacific Ry. Co.; chairman executive committee Cincinnati, Hamilton and Dayton Ry. Co.; director Cleveland, Lorain and Wheeling Ry. Co.; Trust Co. of New York and North American Trust Co.; trustee Mount Hope Cemetery Association and Good Samaritan Dispensary. Member Union League, Riding, Lawyers', Lotos, Suburban Riding and Driving, Riverside Yacht and Fairfield County (Conn.) Golf Clubs, Pennsylvania Association, Sons of the Revolution and Lafayette Post G. A. R.

SHOPE, CHARLES WARNER—Wine Merchant, 27 South William street, New York City; residence 39 Washington square, West. Born in New York City, Aug. 14, 1871. Educated at St. Paul's School, Concord, N. H., and Harvard ('94). (Married Ione W. S. Pickhardt, 1897.) Member of the firm of C. H. Arnold & Co. Member Harvard, Staten Island Cricket and Baseball, Calumet, New York Yacht and Richmond County Clubs and 7th Regiment, N. G. N. Y.

SHOPE, HENRY B.—Architect, 28 East 21st street, New York City; residence 19 West 32d street. Born in Baltimore, Md., Oct. 1, 1852. Educated at St. Paul's School, Concord, N. H., Massachusetts Institute of Technology and Columbia University. (Single.) Draughtsman with R. H. Hunt. Member Calumet Club and Architectural League.

SHORT, EDWARD LYMAN—Lawyer, 59 Cedar street, New York City; residence 20 West 37th street. Born in Philadelphia, Pa., Sept. 30, 1854. (Son of Charles and Ann [Lyman] Short.) Educated at Phillips Andover Academy, at Columbia College School of Arts and at Columbia College Law School ('78.). (Married.) Member of the firm of Davies, Stone & Auerbach. General solicitor of the Mutual Life Insurance Co. of New York. Member Metropolitan, University, Riding and Church Clubs, Westbrook Golf and Westchester Golf Clubs, Sons of the Revolution, Society of Colonial Wars, Law Institute and Association of the Bar of the City of New York.

SHORTT, WILLIAM ALLAIRE—Lawyer, 32 Broadway, New York City; residence 92 St. Paul's avenue, Richmond, S. I. Born in Florence, Mass., Aug. 15, 1860. Educated at University of Toronto, and New York University Law School (M.A., '81). (Married.) Member City and National Arts Clubs, Society of Medical Jurisprudence, St. George's Society, Staten Island Chamber of Commerce, Law Society of Upper Canada and Association of the Bar of the City of New York.

SHRADY, GEORGE FREDERICK—Physician and Surgeon, 8 East 66th street, New York City. Born in New York City, Jan. 14, 1837. Educated at the College of the City of New York, at Yale (A.M.) and at the College of Physicians and Surgeons of Columbia University (M.D.). (Married.) Served as assistant surgeon in Union Army during Civil War. Attended General Grant in his last illness. Editor of the New York "Medical Record"; consulting surgeon to St. Francis, General Memorial, Red Cross and Columbus Hospitals. Member of medical societies.

SHRADY, JACOB—Lawyer, 90 Nassau street, New York City; residence 25 West 120th street. Educated at New York University. Member of the firm of J. & W. Shradly. Member Republican Club, St. Nicholas Society, New York University Alumni and Century Associations, Society of Medical Jurisprudence, Sons of the Revolution and Royal Arcanum.

SHRADY, JOHN—Physician, 140 West 126th street, New York City. Educated at Columbia. Member New York Genealogical and Biographical Society, Columbia University Alumni Association, Sons of the Revolution and Military Order of the Loyal Legion.

SHRADY, WILLIAM—Lawyer, 90 Nassau street, New York City; residence 25 West 120th street. Member of the firm of J. & W. Shradly. Member Republican Club, Society of Medical Jurisprudence, St. Nicholas Society, Century Association, Royal Arcanum and Sons of the Revolution.

SHROPSHIRE, RALPH F.—Mortgage Broker, 44 Wall street, New York City; residence 51 West 37th street. Born in Ringgold, Ga., Jan. 15, 1861. Educated at the University of Tennessee. (Single.)

SHURTLEFF, ROSWELL MOSS—Artist, 44 West 22d street, New York City, and Keene Valley, N. H. Born in Rindge, N. H., June 14, 1838. Educated at Dartmouth College (B.S., '57). (Married.) Entered Union Army as lieutenant of the 99th New York Volunteers, and was the first officer to be wounded and taken prisoner in Civil War (July 19, 1861). Member Salmagundi Club, American Water Color Society, National Academy of Design, Dartmouth College Alumni Association, G. A. R. and Sons of the Revolution.

SIBLEY, HIRAM W.—Banker, 21 Exchange street, Rochester. Born in Rochester, March 2, 1845. Educated in Rochester schools, and at the University of Heidelberg, Germany; degrees of Ph.D. and LL.B. (Married a daughter of Fletcher Harper.) President Bank of Monroe; trustee Rochester Trust and Safe Deposit Co., Security Trust Co. and Rochester Savings Bank; trustee Cornell University and numerous church and charitable institutions. Member Genesee Valley Club, American Geographical Society and Union League, Calumet and New York Yacht Clubs of New York City.

SICARD, MONTGOMERY—Rear Admiral, United States Navy; residence Westerville. Born in New York City, Sept. 30, 1836. Educated at United States Naval Academy. Appointed to navy, Oct. 1, 1851; master, 1858; lieutenant, 1861; lieutenant-commander, 1862; commander, 1870; captain, 1881; commodore, 1894; rear admiral, 1897; placed on retired list, Sept. 30, 1898. Served as executive officer of the "Oneida" during the early part of the Civil War, and commanded the "Seneca" at the capture of Fort Fisher in January, 1865. Was chief of the United States Bureau of Ordnance from 1881 to 1890, and introduced high power steel ordnance into the navy. President of the Naval War Board during Spanish-American War.

SICHEL, EUGENE A.—Broker, 10 Wall street, New York City; residence 439 Fifth avenue. Born in Paris, France. Educated in Paris. (Single.) Member New York Stock Exchange and of the Fencers' Club.

SICKELS, DAVID B.—Vice-President and Treasurer, 100 Broadway, New York City; residence 49 West 119th street. Born in New York City, Feb. 8, 1837. Educated at Kennett University. (Married.) Vice-president and treasurer American Surety Co.; treasurer Universal Trust Co.; trustee Union Dime Savings Institution, and director Twenty-third Ward Bank; receiver Harlem River Bank. Member City, Harlem, Republican, Lotos, Quaint and Winnisook Clubs, Authors' and New York Historical Societies, Palitext Society and Junior Constitutional Club of London, England, and Hong Lee Guild of China.

SICKLES, DANIEL EDGAR—Major-General, United States Army (retired); residence 23 Fifth avenue, New York City. Born in New York City, Oct. 20, 1825. Educated at New York University. Studied law, was admitted to the Bar in 1846 and engaged in practice in New York City. Member of the New York State Legislature, 1847; corporation attorney of the City of New York, 1853; secretary of the United States Legation at London, England, 1854-5; State senator, 1856-7; Congressman, 1857-61. Served throughout Civil War and advanced through regular grades to major-general; saw much severe service and lost a leg at Gettysburg; continued in active service until 1869, when he was placed on the retired list with full rank of major-general. United States Minister to Spain, 1869-73; Congressman, 1892-4; president of the New York State Board of Civil Service Commissioners for several years. Now president and director Universal Trust Co.; director Automatic Telephone Construction Co. and Smith Vassar Telephone Co. Member Lawyers' Club and Metropolitan Museum of Art.

SICKLES, IVIN—Professor, 17 Lexington avenue, and 414 East 26th street, New York City. Degrees of M.S. and M.D. Assistant professor of chemistry and physics at the College of the City of New York, and at Cornell University Medical College.

SIDENBERG, GEORGE M.—Importer, 49 Mercer street, and Laundry, 136 Mulberry street, New York City; residence New Brighton, S. I. Educated at Yale. Member of the firm of G. Sidenberg & Co. Member Players', Harmonie, Yale, Richmond County Country, Merchants' Central, Bull Dog and Staten Island Polo Clubs and Polo Association.

SICEL, FRANZ—Editor and Publisher, 183 William street, New York City; residence 563 Mott avenue. Born in the Province of Baden, Germany, Nov. 18, 1824. Educated at Carlsruhe Military School. Served in the army of Baden until 1847, when he resigned for political reasons; was a leader in the Revolution of 1848-9, becoming Secretary of War, and was adjutant-general in command of the defeated army upon its retreat into Switzerland. Became a resident of the United States in 1852. Published a military magazine in New York City, 1852-8; teacher and director of the public schools of St. Louis, Mo., 1858-61; organized and equipped a regiment and a battery at the beginning of the Civil War. Was commissioned brigadier-general in May, 1861, and major-general in March, 1862; commanded the troops at Harper's Ferry in 1862, the reserve army of Pennsylvania in 1863, and the Department and Army of West Virginia in 1864; resigned commission in May, 1865. Edited a Baltimore, Md., newspaper, 1865-7; unsuccessful candidate on the Republican ticket for secretary of state of New York, 1869; collector of internal revenue, 1871; register of the City of New York, 1871-4. Now at the head of an advertising bureau and publisher and editor of the "New York Monthly." Has attained prominence as a lecturer.

SILKMAN, THEODORE HANNIBAL—Lawyer, 41 Park row, New York City, and Surrogate of Westchester County, White Plains; residence 459 Palisade avenue, Yonkers. Born in New York City, March 25, 1858. (Son of James Baily Silkman.) Educated at Hooper Academy. Studied law in his father's office, and was admitted to the Bar in 1879. Practicing in New York City as a member of the firm of Fetterich, Silkman & Seybell. Served as police commissioner of the City of Yonkers for six years. Surrogate of Westchester County since 1894, and has been renominated (1900) for another term. Director Sicilian Asphalt Paving Co. Member Hardware, New York Athletic, Union League and Riding Clubs of New York City, Palisade Boat and City Clubs of Yonkers, and Westchester County Bar Association.

SILL, CHARLES—Surgeon Dentist, 255 West 14th street, New York City. Born in Burlington County, N. J., May 11, 1827. Member American Museum of Natural History, Metropolitan Museum of Art and National Dental Association of the United States.

SILL, HENRY A.—Professor of History, 232 West 45th street, New York City. Born in New York City. Educated at Columbia University and University of Halle, Germany. (Single.) Member Columbia Alumni Association.

SILL, THOMAS H.—Clergyman, 550 Seventh avenue, New York City; residence 232 West 45th street. Born in Middletown, Conn., Nov. 7, 1838. Educated at Russell's Military School, New Haven, Conn., Trinity School, New York City, and Columbia. (Married.) Formerly rector of Grace Church, Canton, N. Y. Now vicar of St. Chrysostom's Chapel, Trinity Parish, since 1865, and chaplain of St. Mary's Hospital for Children. Member Columbia Alumni and New York Churchmen's Associations, Actors' Church Alliance and Charity Organization Society.

SILLIMAN, BENJAMIN DOUGLAS—Lawyer, 31 Nassau street, New York City; residence 56 Clinton street, Brooklyn. Born in Newport, R. I., Sept. 14, 1805. (Son of Gold S. Silliman and grandson of Gen. Gold S. Silliman, who was a brigadier-general in the American Army during the Revolution.) Educated at Yale ('24). Studied law in New York City, and was admitted to the Bar in 1829. Received degree of LL.D. from Columbia in 1873 and from Yale in 1874. (Single.) Has served as a member of the State Legislature from Kings County, as United States Attorney for the Eastern District of New York (by appointment of President Lincoln), as a member of the Constitutional Convention of 1872 and as a delegate to various state and national conventions. Trustee Greenwood Cemetery. Member Lawyers', Brooklyn (ex-president) and Yale Clubs, New England Society of Brooklyn (ex-president), New York Law Institute, Yale Alumni Association of Long Island (ex-president), Long Island Historical Society (director), Sons of the Revolution, Association of the Bar of the City of New York and many other clubs and societies.

SILLO, JAMES P.—Auctioneer, 43 Liberty street and 366 Fifth avenue, New York City; residence 123 West 74th street. Born in Belfast, Ireland, 1848. Educated at Belfast Model Schools. (Married.) Auctioneer for the sheriff of New York County, 1898-99, and also appointed for 1900 and 1901. Member Catholic, Knickerbocker, Democratic and Pontiac Clubs.

SILSBY, WILLIAM S.—Manufacturer, Seneca Falls. Educated at Yale. Secretary American Fire Engine Co. Member Seneca Falls Club, Yale Club of New York City, Genesee Valley Club of Rochester, and Kanadesaga Club of Geneva.

SILVER, HENRY MANN—Surgeon, 5 East 43d street, New York City. Born in Brooklyn, N. Y., March 2, 1851. Educated at Phillips Andover Academy ('68), Dartmouth College ('72) and at Bellevue Hospital Medical College ('75). (Single.) Formerly surgeon to Gouverneur Hospital, consulting surgeon to New York Infirmary for Women and Children, and professor of surgery Woman's Medical College and New York Infirmary, 1888-99. Now professor of clinical surgery, University and Bellevue Hospital Medical College. Member Democratic, Alpha Delta Phi and University Clubs, County Medical and New England Societies, Society of the Alumni of Bellevue Hospital and New York State, New York County Medical and Dartmouth Alumni Associations.

SILVER, LEWIS MANN—Physician, 103 West 72d street, New York City. Born in Brooklyn, N. Y., July 24, 1860. Educated at Phillips Academy and Yale. (Married Roberta Shoemaker.) Performed post-graduate work in Vienna and Frankfurt. Resident assistant in Frauenklinik, Munich, Germany. Member Republican Club, West End Medical and New England Societies, Yale Alumni Association, Society of the Alumni of Bellevue Hospital, Presbyterian Union and Academy of Medicine.

SIMIS, ADOLPH, JR.—Commissioner, 126 Livingston street, and Lawyer, 26 Court street, Brooklyn. Born in Hamburg, Germany. Came to the United States when very young, and was educated in public schools. Served in the United States Navy during Civil War. Resided for a time in Kansas, and while there was a candidate on the Democratic ticket for State senator. Returned to New York City in 1874 and entered Columbia College Law School, from which he was graduated in 1876. Counsel to the Commissioners of Charities and Correction of Kings County, 1882-6; Commissioner of Charities and Correction, 1892-7; now Commissioner of Charities for the Boroughs of Brooklyn and Queens of the City of New York for the term 1898-1901. Member Crescent Athletic Club and U. S. Grant Post G. A. R.

SIMMONDS, ALBERT P.—General Insurance Agent, 46 Cedar street, New York City; residence 353 West 117th street. Born in Baltimore, Md. Educated at Yale. (Married.) Formerly business manager of the New York "Surveyor." Secretary Flood Decorating Co.; director Fowler Trust Association. Member Underwriters', Knickerbocker and Xi Graduate Chapter Clubs, Yale Alumni Association, Phi Gamma Delta Fraternity and Masonic bodies.

SIMMONS, ARTHUR RAYMOND—Physician and Surgeon, 355 Genesee street, Utica. Born in New Haven, N. Y., May 5, 1847. Educated at Falley Seminary, Fulton, N. Y. ('66), Amherst College ('71) and New York College of Physicians and Surgeons ('75). (Married.) Member of the staff of St. Luke's Hospital, Utica. Formerly surgeon in charge of Faxon Hospital and president Oneida County Medical Society. Member Psi Upsilon, Yahnundasis Golf and Fort Schuyler Clubs, Oneida County Medical Society, Medical Society of the State of New York, Utica Medical Library Association, Amherst College Alumni Association of Central New York, and American Academy of Medicine.

SIMMONS, CHARLES E.—Physician, 762 Madison avenue, New York City. Educated at Williams College ('61). Member University and Democratic Clubs, Oxford Club of Brooklyn, St. Nicholas and New England Societies, Williams College Alumni Association and Liederkrantz.

SIMMONS, CHARLES H.—Manufacturer, 110 Centre street, New York City; residence 105 East 18th street. Born in New York City, March 30, 1862. Educated in New York City. (Married.) Treasurer and director John Simmons Co., John Simmons Mfg Co. of Newark, N. J., and Powhatan Brass and Iron Works. Member Reform and Arkwright Clubs, Knickerbocker Field and Crescent Athletic Clubs of Brooklyn, Sharon Golf and Richmond Hill Golf Clubs, Manufacturers' Association of New York, National Manufacturers' Association and Chamber of Commerce.

SIMMONS, EDWARD A.—Manager, 32 Park place, New York City; residence 697 Chauncey street, Brooklyn. Born in Brooklyn, March 20, 1873. Educated in Brooklyn. (Married.) Secretary "The Railroad Gazette"; general manager American Railway Advisory Co.; United States representative Directory Publishing Co. (Ltd.) of London, England. Assistant secretary Adirondack League Club, 1895-8. Member New York Railroad and New England Railroad Clubs.

SIMMONS, EDWARD DE FORREST—Real Estate, 1 East 58th street, New York City; residence 762 Madison avenue. Born in Rochester, N. Y., 1868. Educated at Columbia ('88). (Single.) Member St. Anthony, New York Athletic and St. Andrew's Golf Clubs.

SIMMONS, JOSEPH EDWARD—Banker, 14 Nassau street, New York City; residence 28 West 52d street. Born in Troy, N. Y., Sept. 9, 1841. (Son of Joseph Ferris and Mary Sophia [Gleason] Simmons.) Educated at Troy Academy, Williams College ('62) and at Albany Law School (LL.B., '63). Received degree of LL.D. from the University of Vermont in 1885. (Married Julia, daughter of George Greer of New York City, 1866.) Practiced law in Troy until 1867, in which year he removed to New York City. Engaged in business as a member of the banking firm of Grant & Co. from 1867 to 1872, when he withdrew on account of ill health. After spending a year in the South, returned to New York City and re-entered Wall street. Commissioner of education, 1881-6; president of the New York Stock Exchange, 1884-6; president of the Board of Education, 1886-91. President and director Fourth National Bank (since 1888) and Panama R. R. Co.; governor and treasurer New York Hospital; director Ann Arbor R. R. Co., Bank of New Amsterdam, Denver and Rio Grande R. R. Co., National Surety Co., New York Clearing House Building Co. and United States Casualty Co.; trustee Bank for Savings, Royal Insurance Co. of England, Metropolitan Trust Co. and Williams College. Member Metropolitan, Riding, Tuxedo, New York Athletic, Manhattan, University and Lawyers' Clubs, St. Nicholas and New England Societies, Ardley Casino of Ardley-on-Hudson, Williams College Alumni Association and of Masonic bodies.

SIMMONS, JOSEPH FERRIS—Publisher, 207 East 12th street, New York City; residence 28 West 52d street. Treasurer and director Trow Directory Printing and Bookbinding Co. Member New York Athletic and Metropolitan Clubs and New England and St. Nicholas Societies.

SIMMONS, PARKER P.—Superintendent, 146 Grand street, New York City; residence Brooklyn. Born in Kingston, Mass., 1852. Educated at Bowdoin College ('75). (Married.) Engaged for a time in educational work, and was for several years associated with several school-book publishing houses. Became a resident of New York City, purchased a seat in the Produce Exchange and embarked in the flour commission business. Member of the Board of Education of the City of Brooklyn, 1886-91. Was appointed superintendent of the school supply department of the City of Brooklyn in 1891, and upon the consolidation of the several cities, in 1898, retained same position in the new board of the greater City of New York.

SIMMS, CHARLES E., JR.—Lawyer, 167 Alexander avenue, New York City. Born in New York City, 1861. Educated at Public School No. 58, at the College of the City of New York and at the University Law School (LL.B., '83). Served as an assistant under District Attorney Nicoll, 1891-3; police justice, 1893-5; city magistrate, 1895-9. Member Democratic, Morris Cycle, Indian Harbor Yacht and Country Cycle Clubs and Tammany Society.

SIMMS, JACOB HENRY—Lawyer, 104 West 28th street, New York City. Born in Harford County, Md., March 15, 1840. (Son of Jacob and Henrietta Simms.) Educated in New York City and at Boston University Law School. Practicing in New York City since 1884. Has taken an active part in Republican political affairs and has been a delegate to many State conventions.

SIMONDS, JEFFERSON A.—Treasurer, 1955 Park avenue, New York City; residence 339 East 119th street. Born in Franklin, N. H., Feb. 15, 1856. Educated in public schools of Franklin, Wolfeboro (N. H.) Christian Institute, New Hampshire Conference Seminary and Female College, Tilton, N. H. (Married.) Member Republican Club of the Thirty-fourth Assembly District, Harlem Rowing Club, Knights and Ladies of the Golden Star, United Friends, Royal Society of Good Fellows, Order of Chosen Friends and I. O. O. F.

SIMONSON, WILLIAM H.—Lumber Merchant, foot of East 160th street, New York City; residence 46 West 85th street. Member of the firm of T. H. Simonson & Son. Member North River Yacht and Republican Clubs, American Geographical Society and Metropolitan Museum of Art.

SIMPSON, COLIN C.—General Superintendent, 4 Irving place, New York City; residence 147 Franklin street, Astoria, L. I. Born in England. Educated in London, Vienna and Graz. (Married.) Connected with the Consolidated Gas Co. Member Democratic and Engineers' Clubs and 7th Regiment, N. G. N. Y.

SIMPSON, DAVID BENNETT—Lawyer, 99 Nassau street, New York City; residence 9 West 31st street. Member Union League, Republican and Delta Kappa Epsilon Clubs, Society of Medical Jurisprudence and Association of the Bar of the City of New York.

SIMPSON, ERNEST L.—Merchant, 11 Broadway, New York City; residence 59 West 88th street. Born in London, England, 1854. (Married.) Vice-president and director Charleston Transport Line and Mobile Trans-Atlantic and Terminal Co.; director Texas Transport and Terminal Co., and Norfolk and North American Steam Shipping Co. (Ltd.) of New York and London. Member New York Athletic, Long Island Country and New York Clubs and St. George's Society.

SIMPSON, JOHN B.—Retired Manufacturer, 195 Hawley street, Binghamton. Born in Chaplin, Conn., Aug. 21, 1848. Educated in public schools of Binghamton. (Married.) Director Citizens' National Bank of Chattanooga, Tenn., Union National Bank of Grand Forks, N. Dak., Baylers Pulp and Paper Co., Sturdevant-Larrabee Carriage Co., Muscogu Cotton Oil Co. of Muscogu, I. T., Enfolia Cotton Oil Co. of Enfolia, I. T., Fort Smith Cotton Oil Co. of Fort Smith, I. T., and Decatur Cotton Oil Co. of Decatur, Ala.; trustee Binghamton Trust Co. Ex-police commissioner of Binghamton. Member Binghamton Club, New England Society (vice-president) and a thirty-second degree Mason.

SIMPSON, JOHN BOULTON—Pianos, 97 Fifth avenue, New York City; residence 988 Fifth avenue. President Estey Piano Co.; vice-president Empire City Savings Bank and Traders' Insurance Co. Member Union League, New York Yacht, Harlem, Church, Adirondack League, National Arts, Lake George Yacht and Lawyers' Clubs, National Sculpture, Municipal Art and New York Zoological Societies, Aldine Association, American Museum of Natural History, Metropolitan Museum of Art and New York Botanical Gardens.

SIMPSON, JOHN W.—Lawyer, 10 Wall street, New York City; residence 926 Fifth avenue. Born in Vermont, Oct. 13, 1850. Educated at Amherst College ('71) and at Columbia Law School. (Married.) Member of the firm of Reed, Simpson, Thacher & Barnum. Member University, Lawyers', Players', and Grollier Clubs, Amherst Alumni and Century Associations, American Museum of Natural History and Association of the Bar of the City of New York.

SIMPSON, MARCUS—Instructor, Cornell University, Ithaca; residence 57 Cascadilla place. Degrees of A.M. and Ph.D. Instructor in German, Cornell University.

SIMPSON, PERCY W.—Lawyer, 317 Broadway, New York City; residence 3084 Fifth avenue. Born in New York City, 1874. Educated at Cornell University and New York Law School. (Single.) Member Theta Delta Chi Graduate and Cornell University Clubs.

SIMPSON, WILLIAM K.—Physician, 952 Lexington avenue, New York City. Born in Hudson, N. Y., April 10, 1855. Educated at Cheshire (Conn.) Academy, Cornell University ('76) and New York College of Physicians and Surgeons (M.D., '80). (Married.) Attending surgeon New York Eye and Ear Infirmary (Throat Department); consulting laryngologist Seton Hospital, Spuyten Duyvil and St. John's Hospital, Yonkers; chief of clinic and instructor in laryngology, New York College of Physicians and Surgeons. Member Cornell University and Hospital Graduates' Clubs, New York County Medical and Lenox Medical and Surgical Societies, American Laryngological Association (Fellow), Presbyterian Hospital Alumni Association (president) and New York Academy of Medicine.

SIMS, HARRY MARION—Physician, 30 West 58th street, New York City. Born in Montgomery, Ala., Feb. 27, 1851. (Son of Dr. J. Marion Sims.) Educated in Europe, at Washington and Lee University ('70) and at the College of Physicians and Surgeons of Columbia University (M.D., '73). Was a member of the ambulance corps organized by his father during the Franco-Prussian War. Served in the field during the Paris Commune, after which he came to the United States and established in practice in New York City. Makes a specialty of gynecology, upon which he has written numerous papers. Editor of the American edition of Dr. Hewitt's "Diseases of Women."

SINCLAIR, ANGUS—President, 95 Liberty street, New York City; residence East Orange, N. J. Born in Lawrencekirk, Scotland. Educated in Scotch public schools and in the workshops of the Caledonia Ry. at Arbroath, Scotland. (Married.) Followed general engineering work as a profession, and is also interested in engineering literature. Author of several books relating to locomotives, and is editor and publisher of publications issued by Angus Sinclair Co., publishers of "Locomotive Engineering." Vice-president Tabor Mfg. Co. of Elizabeth, N. J. Member Lawyers' and New York Press Clubs, New York, Western New England and Northwestern Railway Clubs, American Society of Mechanical Engineers, American Railway Master Mechanics' Association and others.

SINCLAIR, HENRY A.—Electrical Engineer, 35 South William street, New York City; residence 950 Bedford avenue, Brooklyn. Born in Springfield, Mass., 1856. Educated in Springfield and Brooklyn. (Married.) Electrician United States Ordinance Proving Ground, 1880-87. Now secretary and director Tucker Electrical Construction Co. Member New York Electrical Society (treasurer) and American Institute of Electrical Engineers.

SINCLAIR, JOHN—Commission Merchant, 1 Broadway, New York City; residence 16 East 66th street. Member of the firm of John Sinclair & Co. Director Mechanics' National Bank, New York Produce Exchange Safe Deposit and Storage Co. and Queen Insurance Co. of America. Member City, Reform and Riding Clubs, Presbyterian Union, American Geographical Society, Down Town and Century Associations, Metropolitan Museum of Art and American Museum of Natural History.

SINGER, MORTIMER M.—Real Estate, 31 Nassau street, New York City; residence Hotel Savoy. Born in New York City, June 27, 1875. Educated in private schools in New York City and at Yale. (Single.) Member of the firm of Parsons & Singer. Member Lawyers', Larchmont Yacht, Fairfield County Golf, Harbor Hill Golf, Apawamis Golf, Larchmont Golf, Hillside Tennis and Golf, Deal Beach Golf, Hollywood Golf, Laurence Harbor Country and Sewaren Land and Water Clubs.

SISSON, NOEL E.—Manufacturer, Albany; residence 92 Lancaster street. Born in Albany County, N. Y., Jan. 23, 1821. Educated in Johnstown (N. Y.) Academy. (Married.) Director First National Bank, Albany Trust Co. (charter member), and Commerce Insurance Co.; connected with the American Gas Meter Co. Charter member Fort Orange Club.

SIZER, ROBERT R.—Lumber Merchant, 70 Beaver street, New York City; residence 69 West 85th street. Born in Virginia, Sept. 13, 1859. Educated at Virginia Agricultural and Mechanical College. (Married.) Member of the firm of Robert R. Sizer & Co. Member Colonial Club and Maryland Society.

SKEEL, FRANKLIN D.—Physician and Surgeon, 58 East 25th street, New York City; residence 361 Mott avenue. Born in Sterling Valley, N. Y., February, 1851. Educated at Wesleyan University (A.B. and A.M.) and at the University of New York Medical College (M.D., '81). Surgeon to the New York Eye and Ear Infirmary since 1895. Member New York Academy of Sciences, New York Ophthalmological Society, New York Academy of Medicine and other bodies.

SKELDING, HENRY T.—Retired Paymaster, Navy Pay Office, New York City. Born in New York City, Oct. 31, 1834. Educated in New York City. (Married.) Formerly merchant in New York City and later paymaster United States Navy. Member Army and Navy Club, Army and Navy Club of Washington, D. C., Military Order of the Loyal Legion, Military Order of Foreign Wars of the United States and Naval Order of the United States.

SKERRY, AMORY T.—Yarns, 47 Leonard street, New York City; residence The Brevoort, Brooklyn. Born in Oakham, Mass., July 10, 1831. (Married.) Member of the firm of A. T. Skerry & Co. Member Twilight and Get Together Clubs, and Union League Club of Brooklyn.

SKERRY, AMORY T., JR.—Yarns, 47 Leonard street, New York City; residence Montclair, N. J. Member of the firm of A. T. Skerry & Co. President Enterprise Worsted Co.; treasurer Monroesnook Mills. Member Twilight and Wool Clubs, New York University Alumni Association, New England Society of Brooklyn, and Society of Mayflower Descendants.

SKIDMORE, JOHN D.—Retired Lawyer, 71 West 50th street, New York City. Born in New York City, 1830. Educated at Columbia ('49). (Widower.) Director Eagle Fire Co. Member Maidstone Club of East Hampton, L. I., New York Historical Society (life member), and Columbia University Alumni Association.

SKILLIN, JAMES L.—Lawyer, 111 Broadway, New York City; residence 159 West 73d street. Born in Mt. Morris, N. Y., May 10, 1857. Educated at Hamilton College. (Single.) Director New York Post-Graduate Medical School and Hospital. Member Psi Upsilon Club and Association of the Bar of the City of New York.

SKILLMAN, JOSEPH P.—Customs Official, 641 Washington street, New York City; residence 325 West 77th street. Born in Bound Brook, N. J. Assistant appraiser at United States Appraisers' Stores. Member Colonial Club.

SKINNER, CHARLES MONTGOMERY—Journalist, Eagle Building, Brooklyn. Born in Victor, N. Y., March 15, 1852. (Brother of Otis Skinner, actor.) Educated in common schools. (Married.) On editorial staff of the "Brooklyn Daily Eagle." Author of "Myths and Legends of Our Own Land," "Myths and Legends Beyond Our Borders," "Nature in a City Yard" and "With Feet to the Earth"; also of the drama "Villon the Vagabond," produced by his brother.

SKINNER, CHARLES RUFUS—State Superintendent of Public Instruction, State Capitol, Albany; residence 453 State street, and Watertown. Born in Union Square, Oswego Co., N. Y., Aug. 4, 1844. Educated in public schools, at Mexico Academy and at Clinton Liberal Institute; prepared for Hamilton College but did not enter. Received degrees of A.M. from Hamilton College in 1889 and LL.D. from Colgate University in 1895. (Married Elizabeth Baldwin of Watertown, 1873.) Represented Walter A. Wood Mowing and Reaping Machine Co., in New York City, 1867-70; editor and proprietor of the Watertown "Daily Times," 1870-4; member of the Watertown Board of Education, 1875-84; member of Assembly from Jefferson County, 1877-81; representative in Congress from Jefferson, Lewis and Herkimer counties, 1881-5; Deputy State Superintendent of Public Instruction, 1886-92; supervisor of teachers' institutes and teachers' training classes in the Department of Public Instruction, 1892-5; elected State Superintendent of Public Instruction, 1895; re-elected 1898. In State Legislature advocated a bill, which became a law, preventing frequent changes in text-books; also advocated biennial sessions of the Legislature. Was a member of a special committee in 1878 to investigate the normal schools of the State. In Congress advocated reduction of letter postage from three to two cents; was also the originator of the special delivery stamp. Member Republican Club of New York City, Union League Club of Brooklyn, Fort Orange Club of Albany, and Thousand Islands Yacht Club of Alexandria Bay.

SKINNER, E. V.—Railroads, 353 Broadway, New York City; residence Yonkers. Born in London, England, April 22, 1849. (Married.) General Eastern agent Canadian Pacific Railway. Member Manhattan, Dry Goods', Democratic and Yonkers City Clubs, and St. James Club of Montreal, Canada.

SKINNER, FRANK WOODWARD—Civil Engineer, 100 William street, New York City. Born in Brownville, N. Y., 1858. Educated at Cornell (B.C.E. and C.E.). Was connected with the Pittsburg Bridge Co. in the reconstruction of the Niagara railroad suspension bridge and with the St. Paul and Northern Pacific R. R. Co., in the building of bridges across the Mississippi River. Practicing as a consulting and civil engineer in New York City since 1886. Associate editor of the "Engineering Record"; non-resident lecturer on field engineering in the College of Civil Engineering of Cornell University. Member Cornell University and Engineers' Clubs and American Society of Civil Engineers.

SKINNER, FRED BUSH—Lawyer, 612 Prudential Building, Buffalo; residence 405 Delaware avenue. Born in Medina, N. Y., Sept. 7, 1872. Educated at Medina Free Academy ('91) and Cornell (A.B., '95), (LL.B., '96) and (LL.M., '97). (Single.) Editor "Vulcan," 1888; "The Cornell Daily Sun," 1894-6, and Cornell correspondent Associated Press, 1894-8. President Alumni Association Medina Free Academy, 1895. Managing law clerk of Wadwell & Van Arsdale, 1897-9. Member University Club, Phi Delta Phi Legal and Theta Nu Epsilon Fraternities, Cornell Alumni Association, Masonic bodies, I. O. O. F., and Company "F," 1st Battalion, 4th Brigade, N. G. N. Y.

SKINNER, OTIS—Actor, 16 Gramercy Park, New York City. Born in Cambridge, Mass., 1858. Made first theatrical appearance in Philadelphia, Pa., November, 1877; appeared in New York City in 1879. (Married Maud Durbin, 1895.) Was with Augustin Daly for five years and was leading man with Mme. Modjeska for four years. Since 1895 has taken leading roles in many successful plays. In 1900, starring at the head of his own company in the play of "Prince Otto." Member Players' Club.

SKINNER, WILLIAM, JR.—Silk Manufacturer, 107 Bleecker street, New York City; residence 36 West 35th street. Connected with the William Skinner Mfg Co. Director Pacific Bank. Member Manhattan and Merchants' Central Clubs, Marine and Field Club of Brooklyn, and Sons of the Revolution.

SLADE, ARTHUR JARVIS—Builder, 289 Fourth avenue, New York City; residence 62 East 66th street. Born in New York City, 1872. Educated at Yale ('92) and Columbia. (Single.) Served in Troop "A," United States Volunteer Cavalry during Spanish-American War. President Norwalk Building Co. Member Chi Phi, Yale, Westchester Golf and University Clubs, American Institute of Electrical Engineers and Squadron "A," N. G. N. Y.

SLADE, FRANCIS LOUIS—Banker, 49 Cedar street, New York City; residence 18 West 52d street.

Born in New York City, April 11, 1870. Educated at Yale ('91). (Married.) Member Yale, University and City Clubs.

SLADE, GEORGE P.—Real Estate, 309 Broadway, New York City; residence 11 West Tenth street. Treasurer and director Central Real Estate Association, Colonial Real Estate Association, Manhattan Real Estate Association and New York Real Estate Association. Member Union, Union League, Merchants', Westminster Kennel and South Side Sportsmen's Clubs and New England Society.

SLADE, HENRY LEWIS—Dry Goods Merchant, 79 Leonard street, New York City; residence 5 East 77th street. Vice-president and director Colonial Real Estate Association. Member Calumet, New York Athletic, Arkwright, South Side Sportsmen's and Opera Clubs, Genesee Valley Club of Rochester, and Sons of the Revolution.

SLATER, F. R.—Electrical Engineer, 32 Park place, New York City; residence 153 Warburton avenue, Yonkers. Born in Washington, D. C., July 30, 1872. Educated at Cornell. (Single.) Assistant engineer Manhattan Railway Co. Was adjutant, 1st United States Volunteer Engineers. Member American Society of Mechanical Engineers, American Institute of Electrical Engineers and Naval and Military Order Spanish-American War.

SLATER, SAMUEL S.—Lawyer, 100 Broadway, New York City; residence 206 Lenox avenue. Born in New York City, Jan. 24, 1870. Educated in city public schools and at Cornell ('94). Member of the firm of Baldwin & Slater. Director Composite Type Bar Co. Was member of New York State Assembly, 1899, and re-elected at special election, member for 1900. Member Republican, Central Republican (president) and Cornell University Clubs.

SLAUSON, E. V.—Lawyer, 257 Broadway, New York City; residence 473 Eighth street, Brooklyn. Born in Waterloo, N. Y., Dec. 20, 1865. Educated at Hamilton College ('86) and Columbia Law School ('88). (Married.) Vice-president and director Sterilized Ice and Water Co.; secretary and director Long Island Brewery.

SLAVEN, HENRY BARTHOLOMEW—Contractor, 66 Broadway, New York City; residence 119 West 22d street. Born in Ontario, Canada, Oct. 19, 1853. Educated in common schools, at Ontario College of Pharmacy and at a medical college in Philadelphia, Pa. Engaged in the drug and manufacturing business until 1876. Established the firm of Slaven Bros., contractors, in 1878, and performed work on the Panama Canal from 1880 to 1889. Became a resident of New York City in 1882 and incorporated his business as the American Contracting and Dredging Co., of which he is president and director; is also president and director of the Chase Granite Co. and a director of the Traders' and Travelers' Accident Insurance Co. Member Catholic Club and American Fine Arts Society.

SLAYBACK, EDWARD F.—Broker, 71 Broadway, New York City; residence 416 Madison avenue. Born in New York City, Oct. 8, 1863. Educated at the College of the City of New York. (Single.) Member of the firm of Pearl & Co., and of the New York Stock Exchange. Member New York, Union League and Richmond County Country Clubs and Alpha Delta Phi Fraternity.

SLEICHER, JOHN A.—Editor, 110 Fifth avenue, New York City; residence 276 Fifth avenue. Born in Troy, N. Y., Oct. 4, 1848. Educated at Troy High School. (Married.) State Civil Service Commissioner, 1889-93. Editor "Leslie's Weekly"; director "Judge" Publishing Co. Member Union League, Republican and Quill Clubs, and Fort Orange Club of Albany.

SLICER, THOMAS ROBERTS—Unitarian Clergyman, 245 Fourth avenue, New York City. Born in Washington, D. C., April 16, 1847. Educated in Baltimore, Md. Was actively engaged in the Methodist Episcopal ministry for ten years in Maryland, Colorado and New York. Entered Unitarian ministry in 1881 and held pastorates in Providence, R. I., and Buffalo, N. Y. Pastor of All Souls' Church, New York City, since 1897.

SLINGERLAND, MARK VERNON—Professor, Cornell University, Ithaca; residence 109 Summit avenue. Born in Otto, Cattaraugus Co., N. Y., Oct. 3, 1864. Educated at Cornell (B.S.). (Married.) Assistant professor of economic entomology at Cornell University. Member Association of Economic Entomologists and Society for the Promotion of Agricultural Science.

SLOAN, AUGUSTUS K.—Manufacturing Jeweler, 23 Maiden lane, New York City; residence 275 Washington avenue, Brooklyn. Born in Cleveland, Ohio, Sept. 3, 1838. Educated in Syracuse, N. Y. (Married.) President and director Sloan & Co. and Sloan & Chase Mfg Co. (Ltd.) of Newark, N. J.; president Jewelers' Association and Board of Trade, and North American Turquoise Syndicate; director American Waltham Watch Co. and Mutual Realty and Loan Corporation; trustee Metropolitan Savings Bank. Ex-president Jewelers' League and Jewelers' Security Alliance. Member Long Island Country, Eastport and Underwriters' Clubs, Oxford and Aurora Grata Clubs of Brooklyn, Anglo-Saxon Lodge, F. & A. M., Constellation Chapter, Royal Arch Masons, Clinton Commandery, Knights Templar, Aurora Grata Lodge of Perfection, Aurora Grata Council, Princes of Jerusalem, Aurora Grata Chapter of Rose Croix, Aurora Grata Consistory (treasurer), Kismet Temple Nobles of the Mystical Shrine, Brooklyn Masonic Veterans and Supreme Council of Sovereign Grand Inspectors-General of the thirty-third and last degree.

SLOAN, BENSON BENNETT—Banker and Broker, 15 Broad street, New York City; residence 141 East 36th street. Born in New York City, March 29, 1867. (Son of Samuel and Margaret [Elmendorf] Sloan). Educated at Dr. Holbrook's School, Sing Sing, N. Y., and at Columbia University ('88). (Married Anna L. Worth.) Member of the firm of Post & Flagg, and of the New York Stock Exchange. Director Fort Wayne and Jackson R. R. Co. and Valley R. R. Co. Member St. Anthony, Stock Exchange Luncheon, University, Baltusrol Golf, Highlands and Knollwood Country Clubs, New York Zoological Society (life member), Clubs, New York Zoological Society (life member) and Columbia University Alumni and Young Men's Christian Associations.

SLOAN, FRANK T.—Manufacturing Jeweler, 23 Maiden lane, New York City; residence 251 Washington avenue. Born in Brooklyn, N. Y., Nov. 2, 1869. (Married.) Treasurer and director Sloan & Co.

SLOAN, GEORGE B.—Capitalist, Oswego. Born in Oswego, June 20, 1831. Educated in public schools. Established with Theodore Irwin the firm of Irwin & Sloan in 1864 and engaged in the flour commission trade. Withdrew from the firm in 1884 and became president of the Second National Bank, the city and county depository of Oswego, which position he still holds; is also a director in several manufacturing companies. Was a member of the New York State Assembly in 1874, 1876, 1877 (speaker) and 1879; was State senator from 1886 to 1891, and chairman of the finance committee during the entire term of his service. Member of the Electoral College of 1896 and was one of the commissioners for the State of New York at the World's Columbian Exposition, Chicago, 1893. Member Union League and Republican Clubs of New York City.

SLOAN, GEORGE BEALE, JR.—Manufacturer, Oswego. Educated at Princeton ('87). Secretary National Railroad Spring Co. Member University, University Athletic and Princeton Clubs of New York City.

SLOAN, SAMUEL—Capitalist, 26 Exchange place, New York City; residence 7 East 38th street. Born in Ireland, Dec. 25, 1817. Educated at Columbia Grammar School in New York City. Became interested in the operation of railways in 1854. Was president and director of the Hudson River R. R. Co., 1855-65, and of the Delaware, Lackawanna and Western R. R. Co., 1867-99. Served one term as State senator. Now president and director Valley R. R. Co., Utica, Chenango and Susquehanna Valley R. R. Co., Syracuse, Binghamton and New York R. R. Co., Passaic and Delaware Extension R. R. Co., Oswego and Syracuse R. R. Co., New York, Lackawanna and Western Ry. Co., Newark and Bloomfield R. R. Co. and Hopatcong R. R. Co.; vice-president and director National City Bank, Warren R. R. Co. and Greene R. R. Co.; director and member of executive committee Manhattan Ry. Co.; director Bank of the Metropolis, Bank of the Manhattan Co., Central R. R. Co. of New Jersey, Chester R. R. Co., Lackawanna Iron and Steel Co., Hanover and Newport R. R. Co., Lackawanna and Montrose R. R. Co., Mount Hope Mineral R. R. Co., Queen Insurance Co. of America, Sussex R. R. Co., Texas and Pacific Ry. Co., Western Union Telegraph Co., Mechanics' Bank of Brooklyn, and Missouri Pacific Ry. Co.; trustee Farmers' Loan and Trust Co., Consolidated Gas Co. of New York, and United States Trust Co. Member Metropolitan, Union League and Union Clubs.

SLOAN, SAMUEL, JR.—Banker, 22 William street, New York City; residence 145 East 37th street. Educated at Columbia ('87). Secretary and trustee Farmers' Loan and Trust Co.; director Syracuse, Binghamton and New York R. R. Co., New York, Lackawanna and Western Ry. Co. and Valley R. R. Co. Member University Club and Columbia University Alumni Association.

SLOAN, WILLIAM HENRY—Lawyer, 99 Nassau street, New York City; residence 217 Himrod street, Brooklyn. Born in Farmington, Jefferson Co., Wis., Nov. 9, 1847. (Son of Patrick D. and Anne [O'Neill] Sloan.) Educated in common schools and academies and at Albany Law School. Has been practicing continuously since 1872, and is counsel to a number of companies in the glassware trade.

SLOANE, CHARLES W.—Lawyer, 111 Broadway, New York City; residence Sands Point, L. I. Born in New York City, Jan. 1, 1850. Educated at St. Francis Xavier College ('69) and at Columbia Law School. (Married.) Member Sands Point Golf and University Clubs, United States Catholic Historical Society and Association of the Bar of the City of New York.

SLOANE, HENRY T.—Carpet Manufacturer and Merchant, 884 Broadway, New York City; residence 9 East 72d street. Educated at Yale ('66). Treasurer and director W. & J. Sloane. Member Metropolitan, Union League, University, Riding, City, Westminster Kennel and New York Yacht Clubs and Yale Alumni and Aldine Associations.

SLOANE, JOHN—Carpet Manufacturer and Merchant, 884 Broadway, New York City; residence 833 Fifth avenue. Born in Edinburgh, Scotland, March 14, 1834. Educated in New York City. (Married.) Served as a member of the Committee of Seventy, 1894. President and director W. & J. Sloane, and Oldham Mills of Paterson, N. J.; vice-president and director Nairn Linoleum Co. of Kearny, N. J.; director Alexander Smith & Son's Carpet Co. of Yonkers, Bank of the Manhattan Co., Bigelow Carpet Co. of Clinton, Mass., Equitable Life Assurance Society of the United States, Fort Wayne Gas Co. of Indianapolis, Indianapolis Gas Co., Second National Bank and New Amsterdam Gas Co.; trustee American Surety Co. and Fifth Avenue Safe Deposit Co. Member Metropolitan, New York Yacht, Union League, Mendelssohn Glee and Lawyers' Clubs, American Fine Arts Society, Century and Aldine Associations and Metropolitan Museum of Art.

SLOANE, WILLIAM—Carpet Manufacturer and Merchant, 884 Broadway, New York City; residence 883 Fifth avenue. Born in New York City, Feb. 18, 1873. Educated at Yale ('95) (Single.) Director W. & J. Sloane. Member Metropolitan, Union League, University, and Yale Clubs, Aldine Association and Chamber of Commerce.

SLOANE, WILLIAM D.—Carpet Manufacturer and Merchant, 884 Broadway, New York City; residence 642 Fifth avenue. Vice-president and director W. & J. Sloane; vice-president and trustee Fifth Avenue Trust Co.; director Bank of the Metropolis, Central and South America Telegraph Co., Hanover Fire Insurance Co. and National City Bank; trustee United States Trust Co. Member Metropolitan, Union League, City, Racquet and Tennis, Riding, Turf and Field, Lawyers', New York Yacht and Tuxedo Clubs, Aldine and Down Town Associations, American Fine Arts Society, American Museum of Natural History and Metropolitan Museum of Art.

SLOANE, WILLIAM MILLIGAN—Professor, 116th street and Morningside Heights, New York City; residence 109 East 69th street. Born in Richmond, Ohio, Nov. 12, 1850. (Son of James Renwick Wilson Sloane.) Educated at Mount Washington School, at Columbia College and at the Universities of Berlin and Leipzig, Germany. Degree of Ph.D. (Married.) Secretary to George Bancroft, the historian, in the American Legation at Berlin, 1874-6; member of the faculty at Princeton University, 1876-96. Seth Low Professor of history at Columbia University in the City of New York since 1896. Trustee Teachers' College; Officer de l'Academie de France. Author of "Life of James McCosh," "Life and Work of James Renwick Wilson Sloane," "Napoleon Bonaparte, a History" (four vols.) and other works. Member University and Players' Clubs, Nassau Club of Princeton, N. J., American Historical, Century and Columbia Alumni Associations, New York Historical (life member) and University Settlement Societies and Metropolitan Museum of Art.

SLOCUM, C. R.—Importer, 82 Beaver street, New York City; residence Garden City, L. I. Born in Brooklyn, N. Y., 1868. Educated at Williams College. (Married.) Member of the firm of E. A. Dinzey & Co. Member Delta Kappa Epsilon, New York, and Republican Clubs.

SLOCUM, HENRY W.—Lawyer, 32 Nassau street, New York City; residence 111 East 40th street. Born in Syracuse, N. Y., May 28, 1862. Educated at Yale. (Married.) Member Racquet and Tennis Club, Brooklyn Club of Brooklyn, and Yale Alumni Association.

SLOCUM, J. N.—Beaver Falls. Born in Fulton County, N. Y., Oct. 7, 1832. Educated in Kingsborough, N. Y. (Married.) Director National Pulp Board Co.

SLOCUM, JOSEPH JERMAIN (Colonel)—Banker, 31 Nassau street, New York City; residence 37 East 65th street. Director Albia and Centreville Ry. Co., Gold Car Heating Co. and Poughkeepsie Eastern R. R. Co. Member Union League Club, Military Order of the Loyal Legion, Society of Mayflower Descendants and Society of Colonial Wars.

SLOTE, HENRY LOWERY—Stationer, 60 Warren street, New York City; residence 125 West 130th street. Member of the firm of Slote & Janes. Trustee East River Savings Institution. Member Holland and St. Nicholas Societies.

SMALLEY, GEORGE WASHBURN—Journalist, 2 West 43d street, New York City. Born in Franklin, Norfolk Co., Mass., June 2, 1833. Educated at Yale and at Harvard Law School. Practiced law in Boston, Mass., 1856-61; on staff of the New York "Tribune," 1861-95; organized its European bureau in 1866. London correspondent of the "Tribune" for many years. American correspondent of the London "Times" since 1895. Was special United States Commissioner to the Paris Exposition of 1878. Member Metropolitan and Yale Clubs.

SMALLWOOD, W. F.—Banker, Le Roy. Born in Ripley, N. Y., July 18, 1853. Educated at Syracuse University. (Married.) President Citizens' Bank. Connected with several banks as director or associate. Member Zeta Psi Fraternity.

SMEDBERG, EDMUND M.—Insurance, 51 Wall street, New York City; residence 567 Park avenue. Born in New York City, July 25, 1860. Educated at Anthon Grammar School. (Married.) Adjuster Atlantic Mutual Insurance Co. Member Sons of the Revolution.

SMEDLEY, WILLIAM THOMAS—Artist, 222 West 23d street, New York City. Born in Chester County, Pa., March 6, 1858. Educated in public schools. Studied engraving and art in Philadelphia, New York City and Paris. (Married May R. Darling of Wilkesbarre, Pa., 1892.) Established a studio in New York in 1880. Has made several tours of the United States, and, in 1890, a tour around the world. Has been engaged as illustrator for Harper's and other standard periodicals. Member American Water Color Society, Society of American Artists and National Academy of Design.

SMELZER, BAXTER T.—Physician, 299 Hamilton street, Albany. Graduate in medicine of Bellevue Hospital Medical College in New York City (M.D., '74). State senator, 1894-5. Secretary to the New York State Board of Health for term, 1895-1901.

SMIDT, ALLAN LEE—Lawyer, 26 Cortlandt street, New York City; residence 307 West 33d street. Member Democratic and Chi Psi Clubs, Holland and St. Nicholas Societies, Society of Medical Jurisprudence, West End Association and Masonic orders.

SMIDT, FRANK BISHOP—Clerk, 54 Wall street, New York City; residence 207 West 56th street. Born in New York City, Feb. 20, 1860. Educated at Columbia ('82). (Single.) Clerk Central Trust Co. of New York. Member Holland and St. Nicholas Societies, and Military Service Institution.

SMILEY, ALBERT KEITH—Hotel Proprietor, Mohonk Lake, Ulster County. Born in Vassalborough, Me., March 17, 1828. Educated at Haverford College (A.B. and A.M.) and at Brown University (A.M.). Was principal of a boarding school in Providence, R. I., for twenty years. Bought several thousand acres of property in Ulster County, N. Y., and erected a hotel at Lake Mohonk. Member of the United States Board of Indian Commissioners since 1879.

SMILLIE, CHARLES F.—Merchant and Banker, 50 Wall street, New York City; residence 29 East 38th street. Born and educated in New York City. (Single.) Member of the firm of Winter & Smillie. One of the incorporators and director Standard Trust Co. of New York. Has for many years been largely interested in mining and cattle raising in the West, and for ten years was president of one of the most successful cattle companies in the northwest. Present Western interests are entirely in mining. Member Union League, Strollers', Suburban Riding and Driving and National Arts Clubs, Exchange Club of Boston, National Sculpture, New York Zoological and New York Botanical Societies, Down Town and Century Associations and Metropolitan Museum of Art.

SMILLIE, GEORGE HENRY—Artist, 650 Madison avenue, New York City; residence Ridgefield, Conn. Born in New York City, Dec. 29, 1840. (Son of James Smillie.) Educated in New York City. (Married Nellie Sheldon Jacobs, 1881.) Member Ridgefield (Conn.) Club, Century Association, American Water Color Society (ex-treasurer) and National Academy of Design (recording secretary).

SMILLIE, JAMES DAVIS—Artist, 156 East 36th street, New York City; residence 110 East 38th street. Born in New York City, Jan. 16, 1833. (Son of James Smillie.) Educated in private schools and at New York University. Studied art with his father and at the National Academy of Design. (Widower.) Member National Arts and Barnard Clubs, Century Association, American Water Color Society (ex-president and ex-treasurer), National Academy of Design (treasurer, 1893-9), Metropolitan Museum of Art, of etching clubs in different parts of the country, and is one of the "original Fellows" of the Painter-Etchers' Society of London, England.

SMITH, A. CARY—Naval Architect, 35 Nassau street, New York City; residence 51 West Centre street, Bayonne, N. J. Member Seawanhaka-Corinthian Yacht, American Model Yacht, New York Yacht, Corinthian Yacht and Massachusetts Yacht Clubs, American Geographical Society and Society of Naval Architects and Marine Engineers.

SMITH, ABRAM ALEXANDER—Professor and Physician, 8 West 47th street, New York City. Educated at Princeton and at Bellevue Hospital Medical College (M.D., '71). Professor of the principles and practice of medicine and clinical medicine at the University and Bellevue Hospital Medical College. Member Princeton and Grolier Clubs and Zeta Psi Fraternity.

SMITH, ALFRED H.—Importer of Precious Stones, 182 Broadway, New York City; residence 1 East 39th street. Born in New York City. Educated at the College of the City of New York. (Widower.) Member Union League, Lawyers' and Mendelssohn Glee Clubs, Presbyterian Union and Chamber of Commerce

SMITH, ANDREW HEERMANCE—Physician, 18 East 46th street, New York City. Born in Charlton, N. Y., Aug. 27, 1837. Educated at Union College, New York College of Physicians and Surgeons, and Universities of Göttingen and Berlin. (Married.) Connected with the Presbyterian, St. Luke's, Woman's, Manhattan Eye and Ear and St. Mark's Hospitals; vice-president Post-Graduate Medical School and Hospital. Was assistant surgeon United States Army, 1862-7, and retired with rank of brevet major. Member Union Alumni and Century Associations, Sons of the Revolution, Military Order of the Loyal Legion, Academy of Medicine, and Academy of Natural Science of Philadelphia.

SMITH, A. PARKER—Lawyer, 45 Broadway, New York City; residence 1744 Broadway. Born in Norwich, Conn., May 24, 1862. Educated at Norwich Free Academy and Lehigh University. (Married.) Member New York Athletic and Lawyers' Clubs, American Society of Mechanical Engineers, Lehigh University Alumni Association and Association of the Bar of the City of New York.

SMITH, ARTEMAS BRIGHAM—Lawyer, 38 Park row, New York City; residence 150 Gates avenue, Brooklyn. Born in Westminster, Worcester Co., Mass., March 21, 1844. (Son of George and Eunice [Garfield] Smith.) Educated at Wesleyan Academy, Amherst College ('68) and at Columbia College Law School ('70). (Widower.) Member of the firm of Smith & Bowman. Director or officer in several business corporations. Member Democratic Club, Brooklyn Democratic and Lincoln Clubs of Brooklyn, New York Law Institute, Amherst College Alumni Association and others.

SMITH, ARTHUR H.—Lawyer, 120 Broadway, New York City; residence 871 Lafayette avenue, Brooklyn. Born in Medford, Mass., Sept. 2, 1858. Educated in Brooklyn public schools and at Columbia Law School. (Married.) Partner in firm of Kellogg, Rose & Smith. Member Lawyers' Club, and Aurora Grata Masonic Club of Brooklyn.

SMITH, ARTHUR L. J.—Editor and Publisher, 95 William street, New York City; residence 110 Prospect Park, West, Brooklyn. Born in Charleston, S. C., May 31, 1860. (Son of William Wragg Smith, botanist and entomologist.) Educated in Astoria, N. Y. (Married.) Connected with "The Spectator" since 1877; became one of its proprietors in 1888; is now its business manager and associate editor. Director and chairman executive committee Acme Ball Bearing Caster Co. Member Reform Club, Riding and Driving and Montauk Clubs of Brooklyn, and Society of American Authors.

SMITH, A. S. R.—Electrician, 81 Willoughby street, Brooklyn; residence 153 Berkeley place. Born in Rome, N. Y., Sept. 3, 1872. Educated at Cornell. (Married.) Chief clerk traffic department New York and New Jersey Telephone Co. Member Telephone Society of New York, and Sigma Tau Fraternity.

SMITH, AUGUSTINE COLEMAN—Lawyer, 31 Nassau street, New York City; residence Scarborough. Born in New York City, May 20, 1864. Educated in New York City and at Princeton ('85). (Married.) Member University and Princeton Clubs, State Bar Association, Association of the Bar of the City of New York and Squadron "A," N. G. N. Y.

SMITH, AUGUSTUS—Civil Engineer, 39 Cortlandt street, New York City; residence 460 West 44th street. Educated at the College of the City of New York. Senior member of the firm of Augustus Smith & Co. Member New York Athletic and Richmond Hill Golf Clubs, Phi Beta Kappa Society and College of the City of New York Alumni Association.

SMITH, BENJAMIN ELI—Editor, 33 East 17th street, New York City; residence New Rochelle. Born in Beirut, Syria, Feb. 7, 1857. (Son of Rev. Eli Smith.) Educated at Amherst College and at the Universities of Göttingen and Leipzig. (Married.) Head of the dictionary department of the Century Co. Formerly instructor in philosophy at Johns Hopkins University, managing editor of the "Century Dictionary" and editor of the "Century Cyclopedia of Names" and of the "Century Atlas." Member Amherst Alumni and Century Associations and American Geographical and American Historical Societies.

SMITH, BENJAMIN RUSH—Cotton Broker, Cotton Exchange, New York City; residence 1 West 83d street. Born in Charlotte, N. C., July 3, 1840. Educated at North Carolina Military Institute. (Married.) Now in charge of the cotton business of McIntyre & Wardwell. Was a captain in the Confederate Army, and served during the war in the Army of Northern Virginia. After the war was mayor of Charlotte, N. C., and later lieutenant-commander of the North Carolina Naval Reserve. Member Southern Society, Confederate Veteran Camp of New York, and of the New York Cotton and Produce Exchanges.

SMITH, BRYAN H.—Banker, 79 Pierrepont street, Brooklyn. Born in Brooklyn, 1829. Educated in Brooklyn. (Single.) President and trustee Brooklyn Savings Bank; president of trustees Packer Collegiate Institute; trustee Long Island Historical Society. Member Union League Club of New York, and Hamilton Club of Brooklyn.

SMITH, C. BAINBRIDGE—Lawyer, 94 Liberty street, New York City; residence 123 West 44th street. Born in Haverstraw, Rockland Co., N. Y. (Son of John Taylor Smith, editor and proprietor of the "Rockland Register," and at one time Judge Advocate-General of the State of New York.) Studied law in the office of William Curtis Noyes. Practicing in New York City since his admission to the Bar.

SMITH, CHARLES BENNETT—Editor and Publisher, 250 Main street, Buffalo; residence 459 Fargo avenue. Born in Erie County, N. Y., Sept. 14, 1870. Educated in country schools. (Single.) Managing editor of the "Buffalo Times," 1895-7. Editor of the "Buffalo Courier" since 1897, and of the "Buffalo Enquirer" since 1898.

SMITH, CHARLES ROBINSON—Lawyer, 7 Nassau street, New York City; residence 34 West 69th street. Born in Buffalo, N. Y., March 1, 1855. Educated at Yale ('75). (Married.) Member of the firm of Smith & Martin. Member University, Lawyers', Reform, Yale and Knollwood Country Clubs, Hamilton Club of Brooklyn, and Association of the Bar of the City of New York.

SMITH, CHARLES SPRAGUE—Teacher, 16 West 61st street, New York City; residence 123 West 44th street. Born in Andover, Mass., April 27, 1853. Educated at Amherst College and in European universities. (Married.) Organizer modern language department of Columbia University; professor German language and literature and instructor in Italian, Spanish and Scandinavian languages, 1880-2; professor modern languages and foreign literature, 1882-90; professor Romance languages and literatures, 1890-1; organizer, and president since 1897, of the Comparative Literature Society; organizer, and managing director since 1897, People's Institute; organizer People's Club, 1899. Since 1888, lecturer before universities, assemblies and public and private audiences. Member Barnard Club.

SMITH, CHARLES STEWART—Retired Merchant, 14 Nassau street, New York City; residence 25 West 4th street. Born in Exeter, N. H., March 2, 1832. (Son of Rev. John and Esther May [Woodruff] Smith.) Received a good academic education under his father's supervision. (Married first, Eliza Bradish; second, Henrietta H. Caswell; third, Anna Walton Brown.) Was clerk in a dry goods jobbing house in New York City, 1847; member of the firm of S. B. Chittenden & Co., 1853; afterwards became senior member of dry goods commission house of Smith, Hogg & Gardner. Retired from active business in 1887. Was chairman of the executive committee of the Committee of Seventy in 1894, and has served as a rapid transit commissioner of the City of New York since 1895. President Rubber Goods Mfg Co.; treasurer and director Woodlawn Cemetery and City and Suburban Homes Co.; director Associates' Land Co., Equitable Life Assurance Society of the United States, Fourth National Bank, Fifth National Bank, German-American Insurance Co., Merchants' National Bank, Mossberg and Granville Mfg Co., Pittsburg, Bessemer and Lake Erie R. R. Co. and United States Rubber Co.; trustee Greenwich Savings Bank, United States Trust Co. and Metropolitan Museum of Art. Member Union League, Metropolitan, Lawyers', Players', Grolier and Riding Clubs, Ardsley Casino of Ardsley-on-Hudson, Chamber of Commerce (of which he was president for seven years), Century Association and Presbyterian Hospital.

SMITH, C. KINNEY—Clerk, 23 Wall street, New York City; residence Hotel Bayard, 54th street and Broadway. Born in Ohio, 1841. Educated in Illinois. (Married.) Clerk in banking house of J. P. Morgan & Co. Formerly superintendent Fire Alarm Telegraph; secretary Business Men's Democratic Association. Member Marine and Field Club of Brooklyn, Richmond Hill Golf Club and Democratic Club.

SMITH, CLARENCE M.—Lawyer and Builder, 11 Broadway, New York City; residence 149 Greene avenue, Brooklyn. Born in Brooklyn, March 10, 1876. Educated at Plainfield High School and Yale Law School ('97). (Single.) Secretary and treasurer The Stanton-Merwin Co.; treasurer Standard Structural Co. and Inter-State Telephone Construction Co.; assistant treasurer Finance Realty Trust Co. Member Phi Gamma Delta Fraternity and Yale Alumni Association.

SMITH, CLINTON H.—Secretary, The Arsenal, Central Park, opposite East 64th street, New York City; residence Smithtown, L. I. Born in New York City, 1858. Educated in Plainfield, N. J., and at Amherst College. Assistant secretary in the Park Department of the City of New York, with which he has been connected since 1879. Has been connected with the N. G. N. Y. for many years, saw active service in Cuba during the Spanish-American War, and holds the rank of lieutenant-colonel.

SMITH, CORNELIUS B.—Protestant Episcopalian Clergyman, 101 East 69th street, New York City. Born in New Haven, Conn., April 1, 1834. Educated at Trinity College and General Theological Seminary. (Married.) Was rector of St. John's Church, Lowell, Mass., 1863-5; of St. James' Church, New York City, 1867-95, and now rector emeritus. Trustee of the Estate and Property of the Diocese of New York. Member Reform and Barnard Clubs, Trinity Alumni and Century Associations, Phi Beta Kappa Society and American Museum of Natural History.

SMITH, C. WALTER—Wholesale Grocer, 15 Exchange street, Rochester; residence 41 Prince street, Born in Rochester, April 8, 1862. Educated at St. Paul's School, Concord, N. H., and University of Rochester. (Single.) President Smith, Perkins & Co.; trustee Security Trust Co. Member Genesee Valley, Country and Rochester Athletic Clubs, New York and Psi Upsilon Clubs of New York City, and Sons of the American Revolution.

SMITH, DANIEL HENRY—Stock Broker, 15 Broad street, New York City; residence 19 West 48th street. Educated at Princeton ('60). Member New York Stock Exchange and of the University, Princeton Union, New York Yacht and Suburban Riding and Driving Clubs.

SMITH, DAVID EUGENE—Educator, Brockport. Born in Cortland, N. Y., Jan. 21, 1860. Educated at Syracuse University (Ph.D.). Practiced law in Cortland, 1881-4; taught mathematics in the State Normal School, Cortland, 1884-91; professor of mathematics in Michigan State Normal School, 1891-8. Principal of the New York State Normal School at Brockport since 1898.

SMITH, EDWIN B.—Lawyer, 120 Broadway, New York City; residence 353 West 57th street. Educated at Bowdoin College ('56). Member of the firm of Smith & Barker. Member Union League, Lawyers' and University Clubs, New England Society and Association of the Bar of the City of New York.

SMITH, E. HOLDEN—Merchant, 97 Front street, New York City; residence 112 Hicks street, Brooklyn. Born in Batavia, N. Y., March 17, 1861. Educated at Trinity School, New York City. (Married.) Member of the firm of Middleton & Smith. Member Calumet and Merchants' Central Clubs, Hamilton and Marine and Field Clubs of Brooklyn, New England Society and Sons of the Revolution.

SMITH, ELIJAH P.—Merchant, 43 Worth street, New York City; residence 9 West 54th street. Born in Maryland, Nov. 7, 1840. Educated in Maryland. (Married.) Member of the firm of Woodward, Baldwin & Co. Director Hanover National Bank. Member Union, Manhattan, Democratic, Church, Wool and Merchants' Clubs, and Maryland Club of Baltimore.

SMITH, ELLIOTT—Lawyer, 59 Wall street, New York City; residence 80 Maple avenue, Morristown, N. J. Born in New York City, July 10, 1847. Educated at Columbia. Member of the firm of Elliott & S. Sidney Smith. Member Morristown, Morris County Golf and Morristown Field (president) Clubs and Columbia Alumni Association.

SMITH, E. REUEL—Artist, 144 West 78th street, New York City; residence Skaneateles. Born in New York City, Feb. 2, 1829. Educated at Georgetown College and Yale University (Sheffield Scientific School); studied art in Rome and Dusseldorf. (Married.) Connected with the United States Naval Expedition to Chile, 1849-52. Ex-member of the Skaneateles Board of Education and instructor in modern languages, chemistry and geology; director Skaneateles Library Association; vestryman and warden St. James Church, Skaneateles; vestryman and ex-treasurer All Angels Church, New York City. Author of "The Arancanians." Member Church and Salmagundi Clubs, American Geographical, Numismatical and Archaeological, Folk-lore and Berzelius Societies and Sons of the Revolution.

SMITH, ERNEST ELLSWORTH—Physician and Chemist, 262 Fifth avenue, New York City; residence 36 East 29th street. Born in New Haven, Conn., Dec. 20, 1867. Educated at Yale (B.S., '88, and Ph.D., '91) and at Bellevue Hospital Medical College (M.D., '98). (Married Lillian Church of Middletown, Conn., 1890.) Connected with the firm of Fraser & Co. as investigator in chemical pathology and as director of a laboratory for chemical analysis.

SMITH, EUGENE—Lawyer, 31 Pine street, New York City; residence 23 East 44th street. Educated at Yale ('59). Member University and Yale Clubs, Phi Beta Kappa Society, Century Association and Association of the Bar of the City of New York.

SMITH, EVERETT—Lawyer, 50 Washington avenue, Schenectady. Born in Schenectady, June 29, 1856. Educated at Exeter, (N. H.) Academy, and Union College. (Single.) First vice-president Schenectady Savings Bank. Was mayor of Schenectady, 1891-3; corporation counsel, 1893-9; ex-commodore Schenectady Canoe Club. Member Schenectady, Mohawk, Golf and Gun Clubs.

SMITH, F. DE LYSLE—Lawyer, 100 Broadway, New York City; residence 810 Greene avenue, Brooklyn. Born in North Hebron, Washington Co., N. Y., Oct. 4, 1856. Educated at Troy Conference Academy, Poughkeepsie, Vt., Williams College (A.B.) and Columbian University Law School (L.L.B. and L.L.M.). (Married.) Member Brooklyn Young Republican and Stuyvesant Heights Republican Clubs, Society of Medical Jurisprudence, Williams Alumni and Phi Beta Kappa Alumni Associations, Zeta Psi Fraternity and New York Law Institute.

SMITH, FITCH W.—Retired, 36 West 36th street, New York City. Born in Newark, N. J., April 21, 1835. Educated at Episcopal Academy, Cheshire, Conn., and Burlington (N. J.) College. Was member of the New York Stock Exchange for thirty-six years, and on governing committee of same for four years. Member Union League Club.

SMITH, FRANCIS HOPKINSON—Artist, Author and Engineer, 16 Exchange place, New York City; residence 150 East 34th street. Born in Baltimore, Md., Oct. 23, 1838. Was educated as a mechanical engineer, and embarked in business as such in New York City. Built the sea wall around Governor's Island, the foundation and pedestal for the Bartholdi Statue of Liberty on Bedloe's Island in New York Harbor, the Race Rock light house off New London, Conn., etc. Has done much landscape work in water colors. Author of "Well Worn Roads," "A White Umbrella in Mexico," "Colonel Carter of Cartersville," "A Book of the Tile Club," "Venice of To-day," "Gondola Days" and many others. Member Authors' and Players' Clubs, Century Association, American Fine Arts Society and American Society of Civil Engineers.

SMITH, FRANK M.—Borax Manufacturer, 185 Water street, New York City; residence 49 Seventh avenue, Brooklyn. Member Atlantic Yacht, Crescent Athletic and Montauk Clubs of Brooklyn and Kingston Club of Kingston.

SMITH, FRANK SULLIVAN—Lawyer, 54 Wall street, New York City, and Angelica; residence Angelica. Born in Allegany County, N. Y., Oct. 14, 1851. (Son of Dr. William M. and Adeline [Weeks] Smith.) Educated at Angelica Academy and at Yale University ('72). (Married.) Member of the firm of Smith & Dickson of Angelica. Member University, Yale, Barnard, Republican, Alpha Delta Phi and Triton Fish and Game Clubs, Society of Medical Jurisprudence, Military Order of the Loyal Legion, New York State Bar Association and Association of the Bar of the City of New York.

SMITH, FREDERICK W.—Physician and Surgeon, 707 South Warren street, Syracuse. Born in Triangle, Broome Co., N. Y., Aug. 24, 1858. Educated at Lisle Academy and University of the City of New York. (Married.) Director New York Casualty Co.; member of New York State Board of Health and secretary tuberculosis committee of same. Formerly coroner of Onondaga County, demonstrator of anatomy in Syracuse University and health commissioner of the City of Syracuse. Member Citizens' Club, American Public Health Association, Syracuse Academy of Medicine, F. & A. M. and I. O. O. F.

SMITH, FRELING H.—Lawyer, 115 Broadway, New York City; residence 125 McDonough street, Brooklyn. Born in Chatham, Columbia Co., N. Y., Jan. 31, 1844. (Son of Joseph William and Ruth [Benjamin] Smith.) Educated in district schools, at Amenia Seminary, Hudson River Institute, Union College ('65) and at Columbia College Law School ('67). Member of the firm of Ely & Smith, 1868-83; since then has practiced alone. Director Adirondack Ry. Co. and Forty-second Street and Grand Street Ferry R. R. Co. Member Union Alumni Association and Association of the Bar of the City of New York.

SMITH, GEORGE MOORE (Brigadier-General)—Building Materials, foot of East 26th, East 53d and East 135th streets, New York City; residence 1132 Madison avenue. Brigadier-general in command of the Fifth Brigade, N. G. N. Y. Director C. Graham & Sons Co. Member Lawyers', New York Athletic, Army and Navy, Forest Lake and Building Trades Clubs.

SMITH, GEORGE PUTNAM—Lawyer, 115 Broadway, New York City; residence 244 West 76th street. Educated at the University of Pennsylvania and at Columbia Law School. Director Niagara River Hydraulic Co. Member Manhattan and Colonial Clubs, Columbia University Alumni and University of Pennsylvania Alumni Associations, Sons of the Revolution, Society of Medical Jurisprudence and Association of the Bar of the City of New York.

SMITH, GEORGE WARREN—Flour Merchant, Produce Exchange, New York City; residence 39 West 37th street. Director Bank of the Manhattan Co. and German-American Insurance Co.; trustee Colonial Trust Co. and Greenwich Savings Bank. Member Union League and Metropolitan Clubs, Ardsley Casino of Ardsley-on-Hudson, New England Society, Lafayette Post G. A. R., American Museum of Natural History and Metropolitan Museum of Art.

SMITH, GERRIT—Professor, 700 Park avenue, New York City; residence 63 East 52d street. Educated at Yale. Member of the faculty at Union Theological Seminary. Member Manuscript and Yale Clubs, St. Andrew's Golf Club, and Ardsley Casino of Ardsley-on-Hudson.

SMITH, GILBERT M.—Secretary and Manager, 332 East 28th street, New York City; residence Hotel Margaret, Brooklyn. Secretary and director Manhattan Brass Co. Member Marine and Field and Crescent Athletic Clubs of Brooklyn, Union League and Reform Clubs and Chicago (Ill.) Athletic Club.

SMITH, GRANVILLE B.—Retired, 19 West 16th street, New York City. Born in New York City. Educated at Columbian University, Washington, D. C. (Married.) Chief of National Currency Bureau in New York Sub-Treasury, 1862-7. Formerly treasurer and now trustee American Savings Bank. Member Lafayette Post G. A. R.

SMITH, G. WALDO—Wholesale Grocer, 750 Eighth avenue, New York City; residence 313 West 46th street. Born in Smithtown, L. I., July 1, 1831. Educated in Smithtown and Norwich, Conn. (Married.) Member of the firm of Smith & Sils. President and director Wholesale Grocers' Association of New York and vicinity; president of board of trustees Union Methodist Episcopal Church; vice-president and director National Board of Trade; director Home Bank, New York Sunday School Association and Credit Men's Association; director and chairman of canal committee New York Board of Trade and Transportation; chairman of executive committee New York City Methodist Episcopal Church Extension Society. Member Produce Exchange and Chamber of Commerce.

SMITH, HARLAN INGERSOLL—Anthropologist, 77th street and Central Park, West, New York City. Born in East Saginaw, Mich., Feb. 17, 1872. Educated in public schools and at the University of Michigan. (Married Helena E. Clarke, 1897.) Assisted in the Peabody Museum at Harvard University, 1891. Explored ancient mounds in Ohio, Kentucky, Wisconsin and Michigan, and had charge of the anthropological collections in the museum of the University of Michigan, 1891-3; assistant in the department of anthropology at the World's Columbian Exposition, Chicago, 1893; made explorations for the Archaeological Institute of America, 1894. Connected with the American Museum of Natural History, New York City, since 1895, and has been a member of the faculty since 1896. Fellow American Association for the Advancement of Science; member Museum Association, American Folk Lore Society and other scientific organizations.

SMITH, HARRY BACHE—Playwright, 152 West 102d street, New York City. Born in Buffalo, N. Y., 1860. Educated in the public schools of Chicago, Ill. (Married Lena Reed, 1887.) Author of "Robin Hood," "Rob Roy," "The Little Corporal," "The Fortune Teller," "The Highwayman," "The Serenade," "Wizard of the Nile," "The Idol's Eye," "Half a King," "The Fencing Master," "The Three Dragoons," "The Tar and the Tartar," "The Tzigane," "The Crystal Slipper," "Will Shakespeare" and of many other comic operas, lyrics and comedies.

SMITH, HARRY M.—Merchant, 103 West 37th street, New York City. Born in Cincinnati, Ohio, Aug. 7, 1868. Educated at Brooklyn Polytechnic Institute. (Married.) Junior member of the firm of C. S. Lock & Smith. Member New York Athletic and Lotos Clubs, Montauk Club of Brooklyn, Dutchess Club of Poughkeepsie, and Brooklyn Chapter No. 22, Order of Elks, Sagamore Lodge, F. & A. M., No. 371, Amity Chapter, R. A. M., No. 160, Palestine Commandery, Knights Templar, No. 18, and Mecca Temple, Nobles of the Mystic Shrine.

SMITH, HENRY A.—Banker, 15 Nassau street, New York City; residence 351 West 57th street. Cashier Western National Bank. Member New York Athletic, Suburban Riding and Driving, Lawyers', Psi Upsilon and Camera Clubs and Society of Amateur Photographers.

SMITH, HENRY LEAVITT—Bookseller, 153 Fifth avenue, New York City; residence 201 West 55th street. Educated at Dartmouth College. Member Presbyterian Union and Dartmouth College Alumni, Century and Aldine Associations.

SMITH, HENRY P.—Artist, 11 East 14th street, New York City; residence Everett House. Born in Waterford, Conn., Feb. 28, 1854. (Married.) Member Salmagundi Club.

SMITH, HERBERT B.—Lawyer, 40 Wall street, New York City; residence 337 West 34th street. Born in Muncy, Pa., April 16, 1870. Educated at Harvard. (Single.) Member Manhattan and Harvard Clubs and Squadron "A," N. G. N. Y.

SMITH, HIRAM—Lawyer, 253 Broadway, New York City. Born in Troy Hills, Morris Co., N. J., June 12, 1865. Educated at Columbia Law School ('88). (Single.) Member New York Historical and St. Nicholas Societies and Association of the Bar of the City of New York.

SMITH, HOWARD CASWELL—Commercial Paper, 26 Pine street, New York City; residence 180 West 59th street. Born in New York City, Feb. 19, 1871. (Son of Charles Stewart and Henrietta H. [Caswell] Smith.) Educated in private schools and at Harvard ('93). (Married Miss K. L. Moen, 1898.) Entered the brokerage office of Charles Hathaway & Co., Jan. 1, 1894; member of the firm since Jan. 1, 1897. Treasurer Mossberg & Granville Mfg Co. of Providence, R. I.; trustee Franklin Savings Bank and New York Eye and Ear Infirmary. Member Harvard, Union League, New York Yacht, Seawanhaka-Corinthian Yacht, Riding, University, Mendelssohn Glee and Lawyers' Clubs, Metropolitan Museum of Art, Chamber of Commerce, Harvard Alumni Association, Sons of the American Revolution, Society of Colonial Wars and Squadron "A," N. G. N. Y. (since 1894).

SMITH, IRVING—Watch Case Manufacturer, 21 Maiden lane, New York City; residence East Orange, N. J. Born in Brooklyn, N. Y., Nov. 27, 1859. Educated in Germany. (Married.) Formerly director American Waltham Watch Co. of Waltham, Mass. Treasurer and general manager Crescent Watch Case Co. of Newark, N. J.; treasurer Eastham (Mass.) Cranberry Co. Member Reform Club, Crescent Athletic Club of Brooklyn, Essex County (N. J.) Country and Orange Clubs and New England Society of Orange.

SMITH, ISAAC TOWNSEND—Consul-General, 1 East 39th street, New York City; residence Union League Club. Born in Boston, Mass., March 12, 1813. Educated at Norwich (Vt.) University. (Single.) Supercargo to East Indies, 1834-40; Presidential Elector at the second election of Abraham Lincoln, 1864; president Metropolitan Savings Bank, New York City, 1874-85; commissioner of immigration, Port of New York, 1878-84. Consul-general for Siam at New York City since 1881. Member Union League and Lotos Clubs, New York Genealogical and Biographical and New England Societies, Society of American Authors, National Academy of Design and Metropolitan Museum of Art.

SMITH, JAMES B.—Undertaker, 444 Eighth avenue, New York City; residence 353 West 31st street. Born in New York City, July 14, 1834. Educated in public schools. (Married.) Was sexton for twenty-three, and trustee for ten years of the Eighteenth Street Methodist Episcopal Church; secretary of Merchants' Lodge, F. & A. M., for ten years, and of Continental Lodge, F. & A. M., for ten years; treasurer New York City Undertakers' Association for ten years; was founder of Ivy Lodge, A. O. U. W., of Knickerbocker Lodge of Knights of Honor, and of Vine Lodge No. 64, E. O. M. A. Trustee in Colfax Council, Royal Arcanum, for many years, and its chaplain for two years. President New York City Undertakers' Association; financial secretary Immediate Relief Association of Colfax Council No. 1220, R. A.; secretary New York State Undertakers' Association, 71st Regiment Veteran Association and Relief Association of same; financial reporter Knickerbocker Lodge No. 414, Knights of Honor; financial agent Old Wayne Mutual Life Association of Indianapolis, Ind.; financier Ivy Lodge No. 284, A. O. U. W.; delegate to Masonic board of relief from St. Cecile No. 568, F. & A. M.; representative to the Hospital Bed Fund of the Royal Arcanum. Member and one of the founders Royal Arcanum Wheelmen.

SMITH, JAMES CLINCH—Lawyer, Smithtown. Born in Smithtown, April 3, 1856. Educated at Columbia College and Law School. Member Riding, Union, Country, New York Yacht, Seawanhaka-Corinthian Yacht and Metropolitan Clubs and Metropolitan Museum of Art.

SMITH, JAMES D.—Liquor Importer, 571 Hudson street, New York City; residence 51 West 86th street. Born in Smithtown, L. I., Aug. 17, 1852. Educated in New York City. (Married.) Member of the firm of Smith & Darling. Director Home Bank. Member Colonial Club and Royal Arch Masons.

SMITH, JAMES DICKINSON—Broker, 71 Broadway, New York City; residence Stamford, Conn. Born in Exeter, N. H., Nov. 24, 1829. (Son of Rev. John and Esther Mary [Woodruff] Smith.) Educated in common schools. (Married Elizabeth, daughter of Archibald Henderson of New York City, 1857.) Engaged in business for a time as a dry goods merchant. Established the banking and brokerage firm of Jameson, Smith & Cotting in New York City, which later became James D. Smith & Co., of which he has been senior member for almost forty years. Became a member of the New York Stock Exchange on July 24, 1868, and has served as its president for two terms. Was Treasurer of the State of Connecticut in 1882 and declined the nomination for Governor in the same year. Has been quite prominent in political affairs in Stamford, having represented his district in the State Legislature and was president of the City Council for four years. President and director Woodlawn Cemetery; treasurer and director Quicksilver Mining Co.; secretary and director Associates' Land Co. Member Union League, Players', New York, New York Yacht and Whist Clubs, New England Society, National Academy of Design (director) and Sons of the American Revolution.

SMITH, JAMES HENRY—Lawyer, 10 Wall street, New York City; residence 1 West 30th street. Educated at King's College, London, England ('75). (Single.) Director Chicago, Burlington and Quincy R. R. Co., Tennessee Coal, Iron and R. R. Co., Hanover National Bank and Union Trust Co. Member University, Racquet and Tennis, Union and Tuxedo Clubs, Reform Club of London, England, and Down Town Association.

SMITH, JAMES RUFUS—Real Estate, 150 Broadway, New York City; residence 47 West 39th street. Member Colonial Club, American Geographical and New England Societies, Metropolitan Museum of Art and American Museum of Natural History.

SMITH, JOHN JEWELL—Manufacturer, 83 West Houston street, New York City; residence 320 West 91st street. Born in Elizabeth, N. J., July 13, 1834. Educated in New Jersey. (Married.) Treasurer Protestant Episcopal Church Missionary Society for Seamen in the City and Port of New York; treasurer and warden Church of Zion and St. Timothy in the City of New York; trustee Franklin Savings Bank, Member Church, Camera and Black and White Clubs.

SMITH, JOHN SABINE—Lawyer, 30 Broad street, New York City; residence 1425 Broadway. Born in Randolph, Vt., April 24, 1843. (Son of Dr. John Schoonner and Caroline [Sabine] Smith.) Educated at Orange County Grammar School and at Trinity College ('63). Studied law and was admitted to the Bar in Poughkeepsie, N. Y., in 1868. (Married.) Resident of New York City since 1868. Was a member of the Committee of Thirty which reorganized the Republican party in New York in 1894, and was active in connection with the Constitutional Convention held in the same year. Served as a commissioner appointed by the Supreme Court to determine whether a rapid transit railroad should be built in New York City, and has been a referee in many cases. Was president of the Republican County Committee of New York in 1893, and is now a member of the executive committee of the Republican State Committee. Treasurer East Side House; trustee Trinity College and of a society for the promotion of interest in churches, schools, colleges and seminaries. Member University, Republican, Lawyers', Quill, Church and Patria Clubs, Phi Beta Kappa and New England Societies, Trinity College Alumni, New York State Bar and National Bar Associations, Society of Medical Jurisprudence, Society of Political Science, Society of Colonial Wars and Association of the Bar of the City of New York.

SMITH, JOSEPH R.—Colonel and Assistant Surgeon General (retired), Governor's Island, New York City; residence 2300 De Lancey street, Philadelphia, Pa. Born in Sackett's Harbor, N. Y., April 18, 1831. Educated at the University of Michigan (A.M.) and University of Buffalo (M.D.). (Married.) Acting surgeon general United States Army, 1862; medical director Army of Arkansas, 1863; 7th Army Corps, 1864; 4th Military District, Vicksburg, 1867; Department of Texas, 1879; Department of Dakota, 1888; Department of Arizona, 1889; Department of California, 1892, and Department of the East, 1893; brevetted lieutenant-colonel "for superior ability and excellent management of the affairs of his department" and colonel "for meritorious services and devotion to the sick during the prevalence of the cholera" at Little Rock, Ark., Nov.

20, 1866; retired for age, April 18, 1895. Upon his retirement, Colonel Smith received an official recognition not granted in the case of any other officer. The chief of his corps sent him an official letter expressing for the officer and all his comrades of the medical corps "their appreciation of the services that you have rendered the corps and the government," mentioning these services more or less in detail. Vice-president American Medical Association, 1877-8, International Medical Congress, Washington, D. C., 1887, Section of Military and Naval Medicine and Surgery, Ninth International Congress; honorary president Section of Military Medicine and Surgery, Pan-American Medical Congress, 1893; Section of Military Medicine and Surgery, eleventh international Medical Congress, Rome, 1894, and of Section of Military Medicine and Surgery, thirteenth International Medical Congress, Paris, 1900; incorporator of New York Post-Graduate Medical School and Hospital. Author of "Researches on Diseases of Texas Cattle" and of papers on "Sickness and Mortality in the Army," "Retirement in the Army," "Duties of the Military Surgeons," in Wood's "Reference Handbook of Medical Science" and many other pamphlets and papers in the public press and in transactions of different medical associations and congresses. Member Army and Navy Club, United Service and Union League Clubs, of Philadelphia, Pa., Military Order of the Loyal Legion, Society of the Army of the Potomac, Society of the Army of the Tennessee, Society of the Army of Arkansas (vice-president), G. A. R., Erie County (N. Y.) Medical Society, Medical Association of Little Rock and Pulaski County, Ark. (honorary), American Medical, American Public Health, American Statistical (Fellow) and National Educational Associations, American Academy of Political and Social Science, Association for the Advancement of Science, American Academy of Medicine (Fellow), Association of Military Surgeons of the United States (honorary) and Geographical (associate) and Medical (honorary) Societies of California.

SMITH, LANGDON—Journalist, 154 Nassau street, New York City. Born in Kentucky, Jan. 4, 1858. Educated in common schools in Louisville. (Married Marie Antoinette Wright, 1894.) Served in the Comanche and Apache wars, and was a newspaper correspondent in the Sioux War. Went to Cuba for the "New York Herald" in 1895, and went through the island with Maceo's band of insurgents. Was correspondent in Cuba for the New York "Journal" during the Spanish-American War, and was present at the bombardments before Havana, the bombardment of Santiago and at the battles of El Caney and San Juan. Author of "On the Pan Handle" and of numerous short stories.

SMITH, LEONARD B.—Merchant, 85 Front and 269 Washington streets, New York City; residence 474 West 152d street. Born in Canandaigua, N. Y., Feb. 10, 1835. Educated at Genesee College. (Married.) Formerly member of the firms of Pupke, Thurber & Co., Pupke, Reid & Co. (1865-83), and Eppens, Smith & Co. (1883-9). President and director Eppens, Smith & Wiemann Co. Member Sons of the Revolution.

SMITH, LEONARD B.—Lawyer, 33 Pine street, New York City; residence 23 East 44th street. Educated at Yale. Member of the firm of Price & Smith. Member Yale Club.

SMITH, LEONARD OWEN—Manufacturer, 841 Broadway, New York City; residence 1742 Green street, Philadelphia, Pa. Born in Franklin, Conn. Educated at Norwich (Conn.) Academy. Vice-president Brainerd & Armstrong Co. Member Colonial Club, New England Society of Philadelphia, and Morristown Field Club of Morristown, N. J.

SMITH, MILLARD F.—Clothing Merchant, 1241 Broadway, New York City; residence 559 Bedford avenue, Brooklyn. Treasurer and director Smith, Gray & Co.; director Broadway Bank and Hamilton Trust Co. of Brooklyn. Member New York Club and Union League, Crescent Athletic, Oxford and Hanover Clubs of Brooklyn.

SMITH, MUNROE—Professor, 116th street and Morningside Heights, New York City; residence 115th street and Riverside Drive. Born in Brooklyn, N. Y., Dec. 8, 1854. Educated at Amherst College ('74), at Columbia College Law School and at the University of Göttingen, Germany ('80). Degrees of A.M. and J.U.D.

(Married.) Member of the faculty at Columbia University in the City of New York since 1880; instructor, 1880-3; adjunct professor of history, 1883-91; professor of Roman law and comparative jurisprudence since 1891. Contributor of articles on history and jurisprudence to various magazines and cyclopaedias. Member Authors' Club, Amherst College Alumni Association and Association of the Bar of the City of New York.

SMITH, NATHANIEL STEVENS—Lawyer, 120 Broadway, New York City; residence 550 Park avenue. Born in Southwick, Hampden County, Mass., July 4, 1847. Educated at Kingston (N. Y.) Academy, Phillips Exeter Academy and at Harvard ('69). (Married.) Specialist in law and contracts and surrogate's practice. Member University, Harvard, Lawyers', Larchmont Yacht and Barnard Clubs, State Bar and Blooming Grove Park Associations, American Geographical Society, Metropolitan Museum of Art and Association of the Bar of the City of New York.

SMITH, NELSON—Lawyer, 146 Broadway, New York City; residence 151 West 48th street. Born in Middletown, Delaware Co., N. Y., Sept. 29, 1832. (Son of Samuel Smith.) Educated at Delaware Academy and in New York City. (Single.) Admitted to the Bar in New York City in 1854, and shortly afterwards admitted to practice in the United States Supreme Court. Chairman of central branch, Irish National Land League, 1880-5; chairman of General Committee, Tammany Hall, 1890-4; Presidential Elector, 1892. Was a delegate to the State Constitutional Convention of 1894, and has been credited with many of the reforms effected by the Judiciary Article of the revised Constitution, notably the creation of the new Court—the Appellate Division of the Supreme Court. One of the charter members (by act of the Legislature) of the Botanical Gardens now established in Bronx Park. Member of the firm of Grady, Smith & Crandall, and is counsel to several banks and financial institutions. Member Press and Democratic Clubs, Law Institute, Business Men's Democratic Association, Society of Medical Jurisprudence, New York State Bar and American Bar Associations and Association of the Bar of the City of New York.

SMITH, OLIVER DRAKE—Lawyer, 66 Broadway, New York City; residence Englewood, N. J. Born in New York City, June 7, 1854. Educated at Columbia College and Law School. (Married.) Member St. Anthony Club, Englewood (N. J.) Golf and Field Clubs and Delta Psi Fraternity.

SMITH, ORISON B.—Importer, 59 Frankfort and 21 Jacob streets, New York City; residence 3 East 124th street. Member Fulton, Church and Harlem Clubs and St. Nicholas Society.

SMITH, ORLANDO J.—President, 45 Park place, New York City; residence Dobbs Ferry. Born in Terre Haute, Ind., June 14, 1842. Educated at De Pauw University. (Married.) President and director American Press Association and Printing Telegraph News Co. Was major of the 6th Indiana Cavalry in Civil War and served in Army of Potomac, Army of the Ohio (9th Corps) and Army of the Cumberland (Cavalry Corps). Wounded near Atlanta, Ga., Aug. 3, 1864. Author of "A Short View of Great Questions." Member Lotos Club, Ardsley Casino of Ardsley-on-Hudson, Phi Gamma Delta Fraternity and Military Order of the Loyal Legion.

SMITH, OSGOOD—Lawyer, Mercaderes 4, Havana, Cuba; residence 27 West 44th street, New York City. Educated at Amherst and Harvard. Member Havana Charter Commission. Formerly captain in the United States Army. Member Reform, Harvard and Chi Psi Clubs, Engineer Corps, Association of the Bar of the City of New York, Sons of the Revolution, Amherst College Alumni Association and 7th Regiment, N. G. N. Y.

SMITH, P. MINTURN—General Contractor, 11 Broadway, New York City; residence 149 Greene avenue, Brooklyn. Born in Patchogue, L. I., May 21, 1847. Educated at Eastman's Business College. (Married.) President and director Finance Realty Trust Co. Was member of the firm of Milliken & Smith. Ex-president Standard Structural Co., builders of Bowling Green and Hudson buildings. Active in church and Sunday-school work.

SMITH, PHILIP SHERWOOD—Lawyer, 4 White Building, Buffalo; residence 46 Johnson's Park. Born in Buffalo, Nov. 22, 1863. Educated at Heathcote School, Buffalo; honorary degree of M.A. from Hobart College, 1898. (Married May L. Cushing, 1890.) Member of the firm of Wilson & Smith. Member University Club, New York Genealogical and Biographical and Dunlap Societies of New York City, American Geographical Society, and Society for Psychical Research of London, England.

SMITH, ROBERT A. C.—Merchant, 100 Broadway, New York City; residence 12 West 72d street. Member Union League, Republican, Atlantic Yacht, Colonial, Lawyers', New York Yacht, Adirondack League and Manhattan Clubs. Country Club of Westchester, Algonquin Club of Boston, Mass., and Genesee Valley Club of Rochester.

SMITH, ROBERT H.—Paper Manufacturer, 309 Broadway, New York City; residence 491 First street, Brooklyn. Born in New York City, Feb. 18, 1842. (Son of Alexander M. C. and Martha A. Smith.) Educated in city, private and public schools. (Married Josephine R., daughter of E. C. Sutherland of Cornwall, N. Y.) Supervisor of the town of Cornwall, 1884-5; member of the New York State Legislature, 1886-7. Now connected with the Chemical and Newton paper companies of Holyoke, Mass.; also treasurer of the Palisade Paper Co. of Hoboken, N. J. Member Military Order of the Loyal Legion, Volunteer Firemen's Association, Brooklyn Institute of Arts and Sciences, Chancellor Walworth Lodge No. 241, F. & A. M., and Columbian Commandery No. 1, Mecca Temple, Nobles of the Mystic Shrine.

SMITH, ROBERT HOBART—Retired, 542 West 150th street, New York City. Born in New York City, 1848. Educated at Trinity College. Member Trinity Alumni and Century Associations.

SMITH, SIDNEY—Lawyer, 195 Broadway, New York City; residence 65 Park avenue. Born in New York City. Educated in city schools and at Columbia. (Single.) Connected with the legal department of Manhattan Railway Co. Member New York Athletic, Salmagundi and Transportation Clubs, Baptist Social Union and Association of the Bar of the City of New York.

SMITH, S. NEWTON—Retired Merchant, 54 Exchange place, New York City; residence The Waldorf-Astoria. Born in New York City, Feb. 11, 1836. (Son of Matthew Smith, partner of Richard M. Hoe, inventor of printing press.) (Married.) Was in business with the late Governor E. D. Morgan; was an executor of the estate of the late George D. Morgan. Ex-director Mercantile Library Association and Kings County Elevated R. R. Co.; ex-treasurer and ex-director Iron Steamboat Co. and Saratoga Lake R. R. Co.; ex-treasurer and ex-trustee West Presbyterian Church. Now treasurer and director Corralitos Co.; director Corralitos Co. of Colorado, Candelaria Co. of Colorado, and Central American Transit Co. Member National Academy of Design and American Geographical and New England Societies.

SMITH, S. SIDNEY—Lawyer, 59 Wall street, New York City; residence 105 East 38th street. Educated at Harvard ('70). Member Harvard and University Clubs, Century and Down Town Associations and Association of the Bar of the City of New York.

SMITH, STEPHEN—Physician, 640 Madison avenue, New York City. Born in Onondaga County, N. Y., Feb. 19, 1823. Educated in academies and at the New York College of Physicians and Surgeons of Columbia University (M.D., '50). Member of the faculty at Bellevue Hospital, 1850-74; on editorial staff of the New York "Medical Journal," 1853-60, and of the "Medical Times," 1860-3. Has served as a member of State boards of health, lunacy and charities. Author of several works on surgery. Member City Club and New York Genealogical and Biographical Societies.

SMITH, TERRY—Lawyer, 63 Park row, New York City; residence 138 West 36th street. Born in Houston, Texas, Sept. 9, 1865. Educated at Columbia Law School. (Single.) Member of the firm of Holm & Smith. Member Western Society, Association of the Bar of the City of New York, and a Master Mason.

SMITH, THEODORE E.—Merchant, 450 Broome street, and President, 349 Broadway, New York City; residence 73 Pierrepont street, Brooklyn. Born in Brooklyn, Aug. 11, 1835. Educated in Brooklyn. (Single.) President and director Spencerian Pen Co.; director Astor Place Bank and Metropolitan Plate Glass Insurance Co. Member Union League, and Merchants' Clubs, and Hamilton and Marine and Field Clubs of Brooklyn.

SMITH, THOMAS C.—Insurance 59 William street, New York City; residence Plainfield, N. J. Born in New York City, March 18, 1857. Educated at Fort Washington French Institute, New York City. (Married.) Member Country Club of Parkhill.

SMITH, THOMAS E. VERMILYE—Secretary, 5 West 33d street, New York City; residence 38 East 30th street. Educated at Yale. Member Church Club, St. Nicholas Society, Society of Colonial Wars, Sons of the Revolution and Yale Alumni Association.

SMITH, THOMAS F.—Clerk, 32 Chambers street, New York City; residence 443 West 24th street. Born in New York City, July 24, 1865. Educated in public schools and at St. Francis Xavier and Manhattan Colleges. Stenographer to the Building Department, 1892-4; stenographer of the Eighth District Municipal Court, 1894-8; chief clerk of the City Court since 1898. Member Press, Democratic and Pequot Clubs, Tammany Society (secretary), State Stenographers' Association, Knights of Columbus and Catholic Benevolent Legion.

SMITH, THOMAS GUILFORD—Civil Engineer and Iron and Steel Manufacturer, 9 German Insurance Building, Buffalo; residence 489 Delaware avenue. Born in Philadelphia, Pa., Aug. 27, 1839. Educated at Central High School of Philadelphia, and at Rensselaer Polytechnic Institute (M.A., C.E. and LL.D.). (Married.) President and director Boston Car Wheel Co., Philadelphia Car Wheel Co. and Pittsburg Car Wheel Co.; vice-president and director New York Car Wheel Works of Buffalo, St. Thomas (Ontario) Car Wheel Co. and Canada Iron Furnace Co. (Ltd.) of Montreal; treasurer and director Gruson Iron Works of New York; director Niagara Bank of Buffalo; sales agent Carnegie Steel Co. (Ltd.) of Pittsburg, and Latrobe Steel Co. Regent of the University of the State of New York. Member Buffalo, Liberal (vice-president), Saturn, Country, University (vice-president), Ellicott and Falconwood Clubs, St. Maurice Fish and Game Club of Montreal, Duquesne Club of Pittsburg, Grolier, Players' and Arts' Clubs of New York City, Pennsylvania Historical, Shakespeare, Pennsylvania Colonial, Pennsylvania, Buffalo Historical, National Geographic, Charity Organization (president) and Phi Beta Kappa (Hobart chapter) Societies, Buffalo Civil Service, American Economic and New York State Historical Associations, Buffalo Society of Artists, Buffalo Fine Arts Academy (president), Buffalo Merchants' Exchange, Buffalo Society of Natural Sciences, Franklin Institute of Philadelphia, Philadelphia Academy of Natural Sciences, American Protective Tariff League, American Society of Civil Engineers, American Institute of Mining Engineers, Sons of the Revolution, American Academy of Social and Political Science and Engineers' Society of Western New York.

SMITH, WALTER LLOYD—Supreme Court Justice, Elmira. Educated at Princeton ('77). Supreme Court Justice for the Sixth Judicial District for term expiring Dec. 31, 1902; also in the Third Department of the Appellate Division. Member Elmira City Club, and Princeton and University Clubs of New York City.

SMITH, WALTER MITCHELL—Dry Goods Merchant, 115 Worth street, New York City; residence Stamford, Conn. Born in Exeter, N. H., Feb. 13, 1837. (Son of Rev. John and Esther Mary [Woodruff] Smith.) Educated in public schools. (Married Elizabeth Leonard, daughter of Charles C. Wilcox of Illinois, 1860.) Member of the firm of Smith, Hogg & Gardner. Engaged in the dry goods business since 1862. Resident of Stamford since 1876. Trustee Good Will Homes at East Fairfield, Me., Life Line Mission of Brooklyn, N. Y., and of the Water Street Mission of New York City. Member Merchants' Club, New England Society, Sons of the American Revolution and Metropolitan Museum of Art.

SMITH, WESLEY F.—Commission Merchant, West Washington Market, New York City; residence Hackensack, N. J. Born in New York City, Feb. 16, 1859. Educated in New York City. (Married.) Treasurer and general manager Bergen County Ice Co. of Hackensack, N. J. Member New York Athletic and Hackensack (N. J.) Golf Clubs and 7th Regiment, N. G. N. Y.

SMITH, WILLARD PAYSON—Lawyer, 57 Erie County Bank Building, Buffalo; residence 294 Hudson street. Born in Dunkirk, N. Y., Sept. 20, 1868. Educated at Amherst (A.M.) and Columbia (LL.B.). (Single.) Member University and Independent Clubs, Lawyers' Club of New York City, Sons of the American Revolution, Beta Theta Phi Fraternity and Amherst Alumni Association.

SMITH, WILLIAM ALEXANDER—Retired Banker and Broker, 11 Wall street, New York City; residence 412 Madison avenue. Born Sept. 9, 1820. (Married.) Ex-president of the New York Stock Exchange. Vice-president and director Continental Trust Co. Member Century Association.

SMITH, WILLIAM ALLEN—Treasurer, 52 Wall street, New York City; residence 102 East 57th street. Educated at Columbia College School of Mines ('68). Member University, Engineers' and Alpha Delta Phi Clubs, Columbia University Alumni and School of Mines Alumni Associations and American Institute of Mining Engineers.

SMITH, WILLIAM CHANDLER—Celluloid Manufacturer, 427 Broadway, New York City; residence 362 Washington avenue, Brooklyn. Born in Brooklyn, May 17, 1843. Educated in Brooklyn. (Married.) Manager sales department, Celluloid Co. of New York. Member New England Society and Brooklyn Club.

SMITH, WILLIAM PALMER—Banker and Broker, 96 Broadway, New York City; residence Plainfield, N. J. Member of the firm of Breese & Smith, and of the New York Stock Exchange. Member Players', St. Nicholas, Baltusrol Golf and Union Clubs.

SMITH, WILLIAM WHEELER—Architect, 7 Wall street, New York City; residence 17 East 77th street. Member Union League, Grolier and Lawyers' Clubs, American Geographical Society, American Museum of Natural History and Metropolitan Museum of Art.

SMITH, WILLIAM WICKHAM—Lawyer, 48 Exchange place, New York City. Born in New York City, Sept. 21, 1859. (Son of John A. and Mary [Lane] Smith.) Educated in public schools, at the College of the City of New York ('78) and at Columbia College Law School ('80). Practicing in New York City since 1880, and is now a member of the firm of Curie & Smith. Assistant United States District Attorney for the Southern District of New York, 1886-90. Was for a time counsel to the Manhattan Ry. Co., and was one of the counsel in the cases involving the constitutionality of the McKinley Tariff Act.

SMITH, WILMOT M.—Supreme Court Justice, County Court House, Brooklyn; residence Patchogue. Born in Suffolk County, N. Y., March 21, 1852. Educated at Cornell ('74). (Married Lizzie L. Mott, 1881.) District attorney of Suffolk County, 1885-91; County Judge, 1892-6. Justice of the Supreme Court of New York for Second Judicial District since Jan. 1, 1896, term expiring Dec. 31, 1909. Member Cornell University Club of New York City, and Brooklyn Club.

SMITH, WILTON MERLE—Presbyterian Clergyman, West 57th street and Broadway, New York City; residence 34 West 39th street. Born in Elmira, N. Y. Educated at Princeton ('77). (Married.) Pastor Central Presbyterian Church. Member Princeton, Union League, Tuxedo and University Clubs and Presbyterian Union.

SMITH, WING R.—Nurseryman, 904 West Genesee street, Syracuse; residence 601 Park avenue. Born in Syracuse, March 9, 1850. Educated at Cornell. (Married.) Vice-president Western New York Horticultural Society of Rochester; secretary and treasurer Lakeside Boulevard Association; treasurer Holstein Friesian Association of America; secretary Smith &

Powell Co.; director Salt Springs National Bank; trustee Syracuse Savings Bank and St. Joseph's Hospital. Member Lakeside Yacht and Boat (governor) and Citizens' Clubs.

SMITHERS, CHARLES—Broker, 37 Wall street, New York City; residence 180 West 59th street. Born in Brooklyn, N. Y., Feb. 5, 1874. Educated at Cornell ('94). (Single.) Member of the firm of F. S. Smithers & Co., and of the New York Stock Exchange. Director Central Foundry Co. Member New York Yacht, Larchmont Yacht and Knickerbocker Athletic Clubs and Down Town Association.

SMITHERS, CHARLES H.—Stock Broker, 3 Broad street, New York City; residence 269 Berkeley place, Brooklyn. Member of the firm of C. H. Smithers & Co., and of the New York Stock Exchange. Member Montauk Club of Brooklyn, and Down Town Association.

SMITHERS, CHRISTOPHER D.—Broker, 37 Wall street, New York City. Born in Montreal, Canada. Member of the New York Stock Exchange firm of F. S. Smithers & Co. Member Crescent Athletic, Dyker Meadow Golf and Marine and Field Clubs of Brooklyn, and Reform Club of New York City.

SMITHERS, FRANCIS S.—Broker, 37 Wall street, New York City; residence 180 West 59th street. Senior member of the New York Stock Exchange firm of F. S. Smithers & Co. Director Bankers' Trust Co. Member Metropolitan Club, Marine and Field Club, Ardsley Casino of Ardsley-on-Hudson, and Down Town Association.

SMYLIE, ADOLPHE E.—Licorice Manufacturer, Lorimer and Bayard streets, Brooklyn; residence 48 Pierrepont street. Member of the firm of Young & Smylie. Member Crescent Athletic, Oxford, Excelsior, Manufacturers', Dyker Meadow Golf, Garden City Golf, and Shelter Island Golf Clubs.

SMYLIE, CHARLES A.—Licorice Manufacturer, Lorimer and Bayard streets, Brooklyn; residence 140 West 58th street, New York City. Born in Brooklyn, April 19, 1858. Educated at Temple Academy. (Married Julia Ely.) Member of the firm of Young & Smylie. Served as major of United States Volunteers. Author of "Points in Minor Tactics." Member Union League and Lotos Clubs, and Army and Navy Club of Washington, D. C.

SMYTH, CHARLES HENRY, JR.—Geologist, Hamilton College, Clinton. Born in Oswego, N. Y., March 31, 1866. Educated in common schools of Clinton, at School of Mines of Columbia University and at the University of Heidelberg, Germany. Degree of Ph.D. Professor of geology and mineralogy at Hamilton College. Assistant on the United States Geological Survey, and is in charge of the work in the Western Adirondacks for the New York Geological Survey. Fellow Geological Society of America and American Association for the Advancement of Science and member of the American Institute of Mining Engineers.

SMYTH, FREDERICK—Supreme Court Justice, County Court House, New York City; residence 15 West 46th street. Born in County Galway, Ireland, 1832. (Son of Matthew Thomas Smyth.) Educated in Ireland. Came to the United States in 1849 and settled in New York City. Studied law in the offices of Florence McCarthy and John McKeon, and was admitted to the Bar in 1855. (Widower.) Served as Assistant United States District Attorney under John McKeon, 1855-7; commissioner of schools and member of the Board of Education, 1863-5; member of the law firm of McKeon & Smyth, 1857-79; Recorder of the City and County of New York, 1879-94; Supreme Court Justice since 1896 for term expiring Dec. 31, 1909. Was a delegate to the National Democratic Convention of 1876 and a Presidential Elector for Samuel J. Tilden in 1877. Member Lotos, Manhattan and Democratic Clubs, Tammany Society, Association of the Bar of the City of New York and Liederkranz.

SMYTH, HERBERT C.—Lawyer, 99 Cedar street, New York City; residence 347 West 71st street. Born in New York City, Dec. 19, 1870. Educated in New York City. (Married.) Member of the firm of Nadal, Smyth, Carrère & Trafford. Member Manhattan and Colonial Clubs, New York Historical Society, Society of Medical Jurisprudence, Sons of the American Revolution and Association of the Bar of the City of New York.

SMYTH, PHILIP A.—Real Estate, 11 Pine street, and 111 Broadway, New York City; residence 57 East 127th street. Member Catholic, New York Athletic, Democratic, Harlem Rowing and Sagamore Clubs, Tammany Society and American Museum of Natural History.

SMYTH, SIDNEY L.—Broker, 35 Wall street, New York City; residence 185 Joralemon street, Brooklyn. Born in New York City, Aug. 24, 1858. (Married.) Senior member of the firm of B. L. Smyth & Co., and of the New York Stock Exchange. Member Reform Club, and Crescent Athletic and Hamilton Clubs of Brooklyn.

SMYTH, WILLIAM G.—Theatrical Manager, 1402 Broadway, New York City; residence 340 Manhattan avenue. Born in St. Louis, Mo., Nov. 19, 1854. Educated at Washington University, St. Louis. (Married.) Member of the firm of Smyth & Rice. Member Lambs' Club.

SMYTHE, WILLIAM G.—Hardware Manufacturer, 45 Chambers street, New York City; residence 61 East 78th street. Born in Easton, Md., Dec. 14, 1841. Educated in New Britain, Conn. (Married.) Director Russell & Erwin Mfg Co. Member Hardware Club, New Britain Club and Seventh Regiment Veteran Association.

SNIFFEN, CULVER CHANNING—Deputy Paymaster-General, United States Army, Equitable Building, Denver, Colo.; residence 202 West 103d street, New York City. Born in New York City, Jan. 1, 1844. Educated in Brooklyn, N. Y. (Married.) Assistant secretary to President Grant, March 4, 1873 to March 3, 1877; major and paymaster, March 4, 1877 to March 3, 1899; lieutenant-colonel and deputy paymaster-general, United States Army, since March 31, 1899. Member Army and Navy Club of Washington, D. C., and Sons of the American Revolution.

SNIFFEN, ELIJAH—Surveyor, 21 Park row, New York City; residence White Plains. Connected with the Department of Public Works of the City of New York. Member New York Athletic Club, New England Society and Sons of the Revolution.

SNIFFIN, FRANK L.—Secretary, 198 Montague street, Brooklyn; residence 39 Montgomery place. Secretary Manufacturers' Trust Co. Member Crescent Athletic and Montauk Clubs.

SNOW, BENJAMIN B.—Educator, Auburn; residence 10 Grover street. Born in Orleans, Mass., 1830. Educated at Hamilton College. (Married.) Superintendent of schools of Auburn. Director Cayuga County Savings Bank. President City Club; vice-president Cayuga Historical Society; trustee Seymour Library, City Hospital and Fort Hill Cemetery Association. Has been county clerk of Cayuga County and provost marshal of Twenty-fourth Congressional District.

SNOW, ELBRIDGE GERRY—Insurance, 119 Broadway, New York City; residence 155 West 58th street. Born in Barkhamsted, Conn., Jan. 22, 1841. Educated at Fort Edward Institute. (Married.) Vice-president Home Insurance Co. Formerly director Home Insurance Co. and Metropolitan Bank, and trustee North River Savings Bank. Member Lotos and Insurance Clubs, Ardsley Casino of Ardsley-on-Hudson, American Geographical and New England Societies, American Museum of Natural History and Metropolitan Museum of Art.

SNOW, ELBRIDGE GERRY, JR.—Insurance, 58 William street, New York City; residence 57 West 75th street. Born in Waterbury, Conn., Nov. 16, 1867. Educated at Columbia ('89), Columbia School of Mines ('91), and Columbia Law School. (Married.) Secretary of the Suburban Underwriters' Association. Member Fencers' Club, Deal Beach (N. J.) Golf Club and Ardsley Casino of Ardsley-on-Hudson.

SNOW, FREDERICK A.—Lawyer, 15 Wall street, New York City; residence Tuxedo Park. Born in New York City. Educated at Princeton ('75). (Married.) Member University, Lawyers', City, Princeton and Tuxedo Clubs and Association of the Bar of the City of New York.

SNOW, FRED W.—Iron Manufacturer, Hillburn. Born in Woonsocket, R. I., Sept. 12, 1853. Educated at Troy Polytechnic Institute. (Married.) Superintendent, assistant treasurer and director Ramapo Iron Works; secretary Standard Equipment Co.; treasurer Rockland Electric Co. and Mountain Spring Water Co.. Member Engineers', Knickerbocker Athletic and New York Railroad Clubs of New York City, Tappan Zee Yacht Club, New England Railroad Club and New England Society.

SNOW, HENRY SANGER—Capitalist, 15 Dey street, New York City; residence 270 Henry street, Brooklyn. Educated at Brooklyn Polytechnic Institute ('78). President and director Cornwall International Bridge Co.; vice-president and director Ottawa and New York Ry. Co. of Canada; treasurer and director New York and New Jersey Telephone Co.; director Evansville and Terre Haute R. R. Co., Evansville Belt Ry. Co. and New York and Ottawa R. R. Co. of New York. Member Barnard Club, Marine and Field, Dyker Meadow Golf and Hamilton Clubs of Brooklyn, University Club of Boston, Mass., Manufacturers' Association and Association of the Bar of the City of New York.

SNOW, SARGENT F.—Aurist and Laryngologist, University Block, Syracuse; residence 103 Onondaga avenue. Born in Reading, N. Y., Jan. 6, 1861. Educated at the University of the City of New York. (Married.) Aurist and laryngologist to "The Shelter," the Syracuse Free Dispensary and House of the Good Shepherd. Member Citizens' and Syracuse Clubs, Onondaga County Medical and American Rhinological, Laryngological and Otological Societies and Syracuse Academy of Medicine.

SNOW, WILLIAM DUNHAM—Lawyer, 25 East 14th street, New York City; residence Hackensack, N. J. Born in Webster, Mass., Feb. 2, 1832. Published the Rochester, N. Y., "Tribune," 1852-4. Removed to Arkansas and assisted in the equipment of a brigade of troops for the United States Army in 1862, but declined a commission as brigadier-general. Was a delegate to the Arkansas Constitutional Convention of 1863. Studied law at Columbia College Law School, and has practiced in New York City since his admission to the Bar in 1876.

SNOW, WILLIAM W.—Iron Manufacturer, 26 Cortlandt street, New York City; residence Hillburn. President and director Ramapo Iron Works. Member Engineers' and Lawyers' Clubs, New England Society, American Society of Mechanical Engineers, New York Railroad Men's Association and Metropolitan Museum of Art.

SNYDER, ALBERT WHITCOMB—Protestant Episcopalian Clergyman, Elmhurst, L. I. Born in Lisbon, N. Y., April 8, 1845. Educated at Racine College, Kenyon College and at Nashotah (Wis.) Theological Seminary. (Married Josephine M., daughter of Major Henry Smith, United States Army, 1875.) Deacon, 1866; priest, 1867. Has held pastorates in Chicago and Rockford, Ill., and in South Bethlehem and Wellsboro, Pa. Now pastor of the Protestant Episcopalian Church at Elmhurst.

SNYDER, CHARLES B. J.—Architect, 59th street and Park avenue. New York City; residence 337 East 190th street. Born in Stillwater, N. Y., Nov. 4, 1860. Educated in public schools. Studied architecture at Cooper Union in New York City. Superintendent of school buildings to the Board of Education of the City of New York since 1891. Member New York Chapter of the American Institute of Architects and American Society of Heating and Ventilating Engineers.

SNYDER, CHARLES E.—Lawyer, Herkimer. Born in Cherry Valley, N. Y., Nov. 23, 1893. Educated at Cornell. (Married.) Director Herkimer National Bank, Raquette Lake Ry. Co. and Thomas Hide and Leather Co. Member Transportation Club of New York City.

SNYDER, JOHN C.—Carriage Builder, 1629 Broadway, New York City; residence 325 West 51st street. Born in New York City, July 6, 1846. Educated in Buffalo, N. Y. (Married.) Secretary and director Standard Rubber Tire Co. Member G. A. R. and Masonic Fraternity.

SNYDER, VIRGIL—Instructor, Cornell University, Ithaca; residence 204 University avenue. Degrees of A.M. and Ph.D. Instructor in mathematics, Cornell University.

SOHMER, WILLIAM—County Clerk, 8 County Court House, New York City; residence 50 St. Marks place. Born in Wurtemberg, Germany, May 26, 1852. Educated in New York City public schools. (Married.) Has been engaged in the insurance business since 1872. Assemblyman, 1890-2; deputy tax commissioner of the City of New York, 1893-6; register of New York County, 1896-7; county clerk since Jan. 1, 1898. Member Beethoven Singing, Arion and Tammany Societies, Democratic Club, New York Turn Verein and Liederkranz.

SOLEY, JAMES RUSSELL—Lawyer, 35 Wall street, New York City; residence 37 East 29th street. Born in Boston, Mass., Oct. 1, 1850. Educated at Harvard ('70) and at the Law School of Columbian University. (Married Mary W. Howland, 1875.) Member of the firm of Tracy, Boardman & Platt. Professor of history and law at the United States Naval Academy, 1872-82; professor in the United States Navy, 1876-90; Assistant Secretary of the Navy of the United States, 1890-3; practicing law in New York City since 1893. Lecturer on international law at the War College, Newport, R. I. Counsel to the Government of Venezuela at the Paris Arbitration, 1899. Author of "History of the Naval Academy," "Foreign Systems of Naval Education," "Boys of 1812," "Sailor Boys of 1861," and, with Winfield Scott Schley, U. S. N., "The Rescue of Greely." Member University, Union and Harvard Clubs, Metropolitan Club of Washington, D. C., and Association of the Bar of the City of New York.

SOLEY, JOHN C.—Banker, and Consulting Mechanical Engineer, 46 Wall street, New York City; residence 65 West 12th street. Born in Boston, Mass., Oct. 22, 1845. Educated at Roxbury Latin School, Harvard University and United States Naval Academy. (Married.) Connected with the New York Stock Exchange firm of Ladenburg, Thalmann & Co. Retired officer of the United States Navy. Member Engineers' Club and Liederkranz.

SOLLEY, FRED PALMER—Physician, 33 West 53d street, New York City. Born in Newark, N. J., Oct. 10, 1866. Educated at Yale ('88), Sheffield Scientific School of Yale ('89), New York College of Physicians and Surgeons ('92) and in Heidelberg, Vienna and Paris. (Married.) Member of the house staff at St. Luke's Hospital, 1893-4. Assistant physician St. Luke's Hospital, out-patient department; physician to Demilt Dispensary, department of heart and lungs; assistant in the pathological department of Presbyterian Hospital; instructor in the summer school of Cornell University Medical College. Member New York Athletic and University Clubs, Medical Society of the County of New York, Society of the Alumni of St. Luke's Hospital and Yale Alumni Association.

SOMERS, ARTHUR S.—Color Merchant, 165 William street, New York City; residence 172 North Sixth street, Brooklyn. Born in New York City, Jan. 26, 1866. Educated in Brooklyn public schools. (Married.) Member of the firm of Fred. L. Lavanburg. Secretary and treasurer Federal Chemical Co. Formerly civil service commissioner and member Board of Education of Brooklyn. Member Hanover and Catholic Clubs of Brooklyn, Choral Art Society, Orphan Society of Brooklyn, and several fraternal societies and literary organizations.

SOMERS, FREDERICK D.—Manufacturer, 165 Greenwich street, New York City; residence Poughkeepsie, New York City, Nov. 29, 1839. Educated in New York City. (Married.) Secretary and trustee Adriance, Platt & Co. of Poughkeepsie and New York.

SONDERN, FREDERIC E.—Physician, 200 West 56th street, New York City. Born in Stuttgart, Germany, March 30, 1867. Educated at New York College of Physicians and Surgeons. (Married.) Member New York Athletic and Seawanhaka-Corinthian Yacht Clubs.

SONDHEIM, EUGENE—Lawyer, 35 Nassau street, New York City; residence 210 West 112th street. Born in New York City, Oct. 25, 1869. Educated at the College of the City of New York ('87), Harvard ('88) and Columbia Law School. (Married Helen Stettheimer, 1893.) Member of the firm of Sondheim & Sondheim. Secretary and director W. D. Woods Co., Hecla Land Co., Stella Land Co. and Calumet Land Co. Member Harvard Club and Association of the Bar of the City of New York.

SONNAKOLB, FRANKLIN—Concert Pianist, Composer and Critic, 109 East 14th street, New York City; residence 222 West 59th street. Born in New York City, 1862. Educated in Heidelberg, Germany, and New York City. (Widower. Married a daughter of Carlo Bassini, the famous musician, and brother of General Bassani of Italy.) The only pupil with a testimonial from Rafael Joseffy. Conducted the Sonnakolb Musicales at the Waldorf, Sherry's and Hotel Majestic. Music and dramatic critic New York "Teachers' Magazine." Conductor of Sonnakolb College of Music and of Sonnakolb Trio Club of Orange, N. J. Composer of "Anacreon to His Lyre," "The Lament of the Rose," "Rhapsodie D'Amour," "A Bunch of Violets," "Launcelot and Elaine," "The Tryst," "Octave Etude Brillante" (dedicated to Joseffy) and "Romantic Lyrics." Compiler of the "Sonnakolb System of Studying the Pianoforte," using the master works, instead of studies, to develop a perfect technique, including a systematic and scientific method of studying these works in grades, and a system of "inventions" by which all difficulties are mastered and repertoire memorized. Member Lotos, Manuscript, Clef and Harmonious Culture Clubs, Social Purity and City Improvement Societies and Kane Lodge, F. & A. M., No 454.

SONNTAG, WILLIAM LOUIS—Artist, 55 East 76th street, New York City. Born in Pittsburgh, Pa., March 2, 1822. Educated in Cincinnati, Ohio. Studied art in Europe. (Married.) Established a studio in New York City in 1854; makes a specialty of landscapes. Member American Water Color and Artists' Fund Societies and National Academy of Design.

SOOYSMITH, CHARLES—Consulting Engineer, 71 Broadway, New York City; residence Hotel Plaza, and Green's Farms, Conn. Born in Buffalo, N. Y., 1856. Educated at Rensselaer Polytechnic Institute ('76). (Married.) Was assistant superintendent maintenance department Atchison, Topeka and Santa Fe R. R.; also engineering expert to Rapid Transit Commission of New York City. Now consulting engineer to Engineering Contract Co. Member University, New York Yacht and New York Athletic Clubs, American Society of Civil Engineers, Western Society of Engineers, Century Association and Metropolitan Museum of Art.

SOPER, ARTHUR W.—President, 160 Broadway, New York City; residence 150 Central Park, South. Born in Rome, N. Y., July 16, 1838. Educated at Rome Academy. (Married.) President and director Safety Car Heating and Lighting Co. and Pintsch Compressing Co.; director Wheeling and Lake Erie Ry. Co. Member Union League, Republican, Lawyers', Lotos, New York Athletic, Engineers', Atlantic Yacht, Adirondack League, Monmouth Beach Country, and City Clubs, Metropolitan Museum of Art and Chamber of Commerce.

SOREN, GEORGE WALES—Lawyer, 117 West 58th street, New York City. Educated at Harvard. Member Union League and Harvard Clubs, Century Association and Association of the Bar of the City of New York.

SORNBERGER, SAMUEL J.—Physician and Surgeon, Democrat Building, Cortland; residence 34 North Church street, Born in Harpersville, N. Y., Aug. 15, 1849. Educated at Normal School of Cortland, Syracuse University and College of Physicians and Surgeons, Chicago, Ill. Degrees of Ph.D. and M.D. (Married.) Member of the surgical staff Cortland Hospital. Was professor of English, physics, Latin and history, State Normal School, Cortland, for twelve years. Member Tioughnioga Club and Cortland County Medical Society.

SORZANO, JULIO F.—Consulting Engineer, 33 Broadway, New York City; residence 228 Garfield place, Brooklyn. Born in Cuba, 1852. Educated in France. (Married.) Consulting engineer of various railroad companies in South America and of sugar plantations in Cuba. Member Lawyers', Engineers' and Camera Clubs, Hamilton, and Riding and Driving Clubs of Brooklyn, Long Island Historical and American Geographical Societies, American Society of Civil Engineers, American Society of Mechanical Engineers, Société des Ingénieurs Civils de France, Metropolitan Museum of Art and Chamber of Commerce of New York.

SOTHERAN, CHARLES—Journalist, Author and Bibliographer, 26 West 99th street, New York City. Born in Newington, Surrey, England, July 8, 1847. Educated in England, at private schools in Ramsgate, Blackheath and Greenwich, and at St. Marie's College in Rugby. (Married Mrs. Alice Hyneman Rhine, Oct. 17, 1893, authoress of an illustrated work on "Niagara" and a contributor to such magazines as "North American Review," "Forum," "Arena" and "Popular Science Monthly.") Came to United States in 1874 and began reportorial work on New York "World." Has been literary editor of New York "Recorder" and New York "Star"; editor of New York "Echo," "American Biblioplist" and "Manchester Diocesan Church Calendar"; also assistant editor of "Export and Finance," "Sunnyside Press," "Nym Crinkle's Feuilleton," "Advocate," "Dramatic World" and others. Author of "Horace Greeley and Other Pioneers of American Socialism," "The Theatres of New York," "Percy Bysshe Shelley as a Philosopher and Reformer" and other works, including many bibliographies. Member of Tammany Hall General Committee; candidate for Congress on People's Party ticket, 1894; spoke throughout New York State under auspices of Democratic National and State Committees, 1896; delegate to State Convention of Bryan and Sewall Clubs, Buffalo, 1896, and has been otherwise prominent in political affairs. Was a founder and first librarian of the Theosophical Society, 1876; an incorporator of the People's Institute; vice-ruler and a founder of New York Thirteen Club; past delegate to District Assembly 49, Knights of Labor; trustee of New York Press Club, 1876-7, 1896-1900. Is Grand Sheikh Fakir of Grand Council of Sheikhs of Kaaba Defenders of the Mystic Shrine, and Sheikh-ul-Allah of New York Khanakeen of same; thirty-third and last degree and honorary member of Supreme Grand Council of Ancient Accepted Scottish Rite Masons; also Deputy Grand Commander for Alabama of the same, and first grand master of ceremonies of Cerneau Consistory No. 1; ninety-fourth degree of Rite of Memphis; grand representative of Great Britain and Ireland to the United States of Supreme Grand Council of Swedenborgian Rite. Member Press, Thirteen, Social Reform, Freedom Labor, Nameoki and New York Liberal Clubs, National Liberal League, Society of American Authors, Rosicrucian Society of England, American Philological Society, Harleian Society of London, Oriental Order of Palm and Shell, Columbian Commandery No. 1, Knights Templar, and many Masonic bodies.

SOTHERN, EDWARD H.—Actor, 37 West 69th street, New York City. Born in London, England, 1864. (Son of Edward A. Sothern.) Educated in common schools. (Married Virginia Harned, 1896.) Made first appearance on the stage with his father, in Abbey's Theatre, New York City. Since 1887 has starred with his own company in "Lord Chumley," "The Prisoner of Zenda," "Under the Red Robe," "Hamlet" and other plays. Member Lambs' and Players' Clubs and Dunlap Society.

SOUSA, JOHN PHILIP—Musical Director and Composer, 20 West 34th street, New York City; residence Hotel Netherland. Born in Washington, D. C., Nov. 6, 1856. Educated in Washington. (Married.) Was teacher of harmony in 1871 and conductor of an orchestra in 1873; became first violin of the orchestra conducted by Jacques Offenbach, the French composer, during the latter's tour of the United States; afterward conducted for theatrical companies, and became musical director of the "Church Choir Pinafore Co.," attaining wide celebrity and success; appointed leader and band master of the United States Marine Corps Band in 1880. Organized his present military concert band in 1892, and is now director of "Sousa and His Band." His published compositions number several hundred, and include orchestral suites, "Te Deum," songs, waltzes and a very large number of marches; among his light operas may be mentioned "El Capitán," "The Bride-Elect" and "The Charlatan." Member Manuscript Club of New York City, and Gridiron Club, Hiram Lodge and Columbia Commandery, Knights Templar, of Washington, D. C.

SOUTHACK, EUGENE—Real Estate, 251 Fifth avenue, New York City; residence 249 Madison avenue. Born in New York City. (Single.) Member New York Athletic, Union League and Westchester Golf Clubs and Kane Lodge, F. & A. M.

SOUTHACK, FREDERICK—Real Estate, 401 and 111 Broadway, New York City; residence 48 West 53d street, and Morris Plains, N. J. Born and educated in New York City. (Married.) Senior member of the firm of Frederick Southack & Co. President and director Alliance Realty Co.; director Central Realty Bond and Trust Co., National Citizens' Bank and Garden City Co. Member New York Athletic, Merchants', Lawyers', Union League, Morristown and Morris County (N. J.) Golf Clubs.

SOUTHACK, LOUIS VICTOR—Real Estate, 396 Broadway, New York City; residence 330 West 89th street. Born in Madison, N. J., June 20, 1872. Educated at Columbia ('93). (Single.) Member University, Democratic and Psi Upsilon Clubs.

SOUTHARD, GEORGE CARROLL—Civil Engineer, Lehigh Gap, Pa.; residence 111 Montague street, Brooklyn. Member Alpha Delta Phi Club and Columbia Alumni Association.

SOUTHARD, GEORGE H.—Banker, 164 Montague street, Brooklyn; residence 85 Remsen street. Born in Boston, Mass., Feb. 23, 1841. Educated in public schools and English High School, Boston. (Married.) President and director Franklin Trust Co. and Franklin Safe Deposit Co.; director Union Theological Seminary, Board of Home Missions of the Presbyterian Church and New York Fire Insurance Co.; trustee Brooklyn Dime Savings Bank. Member Union League Club and Down Town Association of New York City, and Hamilton, Riding and Driving and Rembrandt Clubs of Brooklyn.

SOUTHARD, GEORGE H., JR.—Banker, 164 Montague street, Brooklyn; residence 117 Montague street. Born in Newburgh, N. Y., 1871. Educated at Brooklyn Polytechnic Institute, The Hill School, Pottstown, Pa., and Yale Sheffield Scientific School ('95). (Married.) Connected with Franklin Trust Co. Member Hamilton Club, Yale Club of New York City, and Delta Phi Society.

SOUTHARD, MILTON I.—Lawyer, 155 Broadway, New York City. Born in Ohio. Educated at Denison University, Granville, Ohio. (Married.) Director Merchants' National Bank of Newton, N. J., and the Farmers' Bank of Marysville, Ohio. Member Twilight Club, Ohio Society of New York, and Society of Medical Jurisprudence.

SOUTHER, CHARLES EDWARD—Lawyer, 7 Nassau street, New York City; residence South Orange, N. J. Born in Haverhill, Mass., Aug. 16, 1844. (Son of Elbridge Hanson and Mary Dustin [Whittier] Souther of Haverhill.) Educated at Harvard College (A.B., '65) and Columbia Law School (LL.B., '69). (Married Mary Burges, daughter of Tristram and Sarah Williams [Blodget] Burges of Providence, R. I.) President Bay View Cemetery Association of New Jersey; treasurer New York Law Institute; counsel Mexico City Light, Heat and Power Co. Member Essex County (N. J.) Country and Union League Clubs, New England Society of New York City, American Economic and Down Town Associations and Association of the Bar of the City of New York.

SOUTHWORTH, ELLIS B.—Lawyer, 126 Broadway, New York City; residence 431 West 147th street. Born in Dryden, Tompkins Co., N. Y., Feb. 23, 1865. Educated at Dryden Academy, Columbia College and New York Law School. (Married.) Director M. S. Mosher Co.; member Republican County Committee; delegate to several State Republican Conventions. Has acted as receiver and referee in many important matters. Member Lawyers' and Heights Clubs, Alpha Tau Omega Alumni and Dwight Alumni Associations, Kane Lodge, F. & A. M., and Association of the Bar of the City of New York.

SOUTHWORTH, THOMAS S.—Physician, 47 West 56th street. Born in West Springfield, Mass., June 7, 1861. Educated at Yale ('83). (Single.) Now attending physician, Nursery and Child's Hospital; visiting physician Minton and Randall's Island Hospitals. Member Yale, Quill and University Clubs and New York Academy of Medicine.

SPACKMAN, WILLIAM M.—Treasurer, 32 Nassau street, New York City; residence 820 Madison avenue. Educated at Harvard. Trustee Bowery Savings Bank. Member Harvard Club, Phi Beta Kappa Society, Century Association and Metropolitan Museum of Art.

SPAFFORD, JOSEPH H.—Lawyer, 115 Broadway, New York City; residence 152 West 57th street. Member New York Athletic, Barnard and Westchester Golf Clubs, Sons of the Revolution, Amherst Alumni Association and Association of the Bar of the City of New York.

SPAHR, CHARLES B.—Editor, 287 Fourth avenue, New York City; residence Upper Montclair, N. J. Born in Columbus, Ohio, July 20, 1860. Educated at Amherst College and at the University of Leipzig. Degree of Ph.D. from Columbia University. (Married.) Associate editor of "The Outlook" since 1886. Author of essays on "The Taxation of Labor" and "The Single Tax."

SPALDING, CHARLES A.—Retired, Saugerties. Born and educated in Albany, N. Y. (Married.) Member Manhattan, Players' and Reform Clubs of New York City, and Metropolitan Club of Washington, D. C.

SPALDING, FREDERICK PUTNAM—Civil Engineer, Ithaca. Born in Bradford County, Pa., April 7, 1857. Educated at Lehigh University (C.E., '80). (Married Annie Packer Wilbur of Bethlehem, Pa., 1885.) Instructor at Lehigh University, 1886-8; assistant professor of civil engineering at Cornell University, 1891-8. Now in general practice as a consulting and civil engineer.

SPALDING, GEORGE BURLEY—Presbyterian Clergyman, Syracuse. Born in Montpelier, Vt., Aug. 11, 1835. Educated at the University of Vermont ('56) and at Andover Theological Seminary ('61). Received degrees of D.D. from Dartmouth College and LL.D. from Syracuse University. (Married Sarah Livingston, daughter of Rev. John W. Olmstead of Boston, Mass., 1861.) Has held pastorates in Vermont, Connecticut and New Hampshire, has served as a member of the New Hampshire Legislature, and was a delegate to the New Hampshire Constitutional Convention. Now pastor of the First Presbyterian Church of Syracuse. Trustee Hamilton College and Auburn Theological Seminary.

SPALDING, J. WALTER—Manufacturer of Athletic and Sporting Goods, 130 Nassau street, New York City; residence 61 West 50th street. President and director Spalding-Bidwell Co.; treasurer and director A. G. Spalding & Bros.; director Citizens' Insurance Co., George Barnard & Co., Lamb Mfg's Co., National Exhibition Co. and Union Selling Co.; trustee Manhattan Savings Institution. Member Adirondack League, New York Athletic, Engineers', Atlantic Yacht and Hardware Clubs.

SPALDING, JOSEPH W.—Banker, 514 Fifth avenue, New York City; residence 18 Woodlawn avenue, New Rochelle. Born in Brooklyn, N. Y., Oct. 7, 1858. Educated at Columbia. (Married.) Teller in Fifth Avenue Trust Co. and director Board of Trade. Member New York Athletic Club, Rowing Club of New Rochelle, Columbia Alumni Association, Royal Arcanum and Masonic fraternities.

SPALDING, LYMAN A.—Lawyer, 63 Wall street, New York City; residence 89 Washington square, East. Born in Syracuse, N. Y., Feb. 11, 1868. Educated at Lockport (N. Y.) Union School, and Polytechnic Institute at Aix-la-Chapelle, Germany. (Single.) Member Manhattan Club.

SPARROW, JOHN E.—Cement Importer, 15 Whitehall street, New York City; residence 252 Gold street, Brooklyn. Born in Brooklyn, Feb. 9, 1865. Educated in Brooklyn. (Single.) Member of the firm of Sparrow, Fridenberg & Co. Member Reform Club, Crescent Athletic and Church Clubs of Brooklyn, and Masonic bodies.

SPAULDING, EUGENE W.—Publisher, 1 Madison avenue, New York City; residence Montclair, N. J. Born in Ohio. Educated in Brooklyn, N. Y. (Married.) Manager and director Curtis Publishing Co. Member Aldine Association.

SPAULDING, HENRY K.—Civil Service Examiner, 125 Centre street, New York City; residence 102 West 93d street. Born in Tewksbury, Mass., Dec. 25, 1847. Educated at Harvard ('70). (Married.) Examiner for Municipal Civil Service Commission. Member Harvard, Reform and Barnard Clubs.

SPEARS, HENRY D.—Stock Broker, 80 Broadway, New York City; residence 34 Gramercy Park. Born in Delphi, Ind., Aug. 1, 1848. Educated in Germany. Member of the firm of Woerishoffer & Co., and of the New York Stock Exchange. Member Union, Players', Somerset Hills Country and German Clubs and Historical Societies of New York, Pennsylvania and Virginia.

SPEARS, JOHN RANDOLPH—Author, Northwood, Herkimer County. Born in Ohio, 1850. Author of "The Gold Diggings of Cape Horn," "The Port of Missing Ships and Other Stories of the Sea," "The History of Our Navy," "Our Navy in the War with Spain" and many other works.

SPEER, ALFRED—Editor, 65 West Broadway, New York City; residence Passaic, N. J. Born in Acquackanonk, N. J., Nov. 2, 1823. Educated in Passaic. (Married.) President and director Speer Wine Co. of New Jersey since 1884. Was first mayor of Passaic, N. J., and president of the first rapid transit company organized in the city of New York.

SPEIDEN, WILLIAM—Clerk, Custom House, New York City; residence 138 West 16th street. Born in Washington, D. C., Sept. 26, 1835. Educated at Georgetown Classical and Mathematical Academy. (Married Marion, daughter of Commodore Isaac McKeever, U. S. N.) Served as purser's clerk on the U. S. S. Mississippi during expedition of Commodore Perry to Japan, 1852-5; present at first landing of Americans at Uraga, Japan, July, 1853; United States naval storekeeper at Hong Kong, China, 1856; resigned, 1864; in United States customs service since 1870. Member National Academy of Design.

SPEIR, FRANCIS, JR.—Lawyer, 52 Wall street, New York City; residence South Orange, N. J. Born in New York City, Nov. 11, 1856. Educated at Princeton. (Married.) Member of the firm of Forster & Speir. Member Princeton Club, St. Nicholas Society and Century and Down Town Associations.

SPEIR, GILBERT McMASTER—Lawyer, 62 Wall street, New York City; residence 55 West 33d street. Educated at Columbia ('73). Member University, Manhattan, St. Anthony, Democratic, University Athletic and Lambs' Clubs, Century, Columbia University Alumni and Down Town Associations, National Academy of Design and Association of the Bar of the City of New York.

SPEIR, OSWALD—Secretary, 160 Fifth avenue, New York City; residence Perth Amboy, N. J. Secretary Perth Amboy Terra Cotta Co. Member National Arts and Reform Clubs, Crescent Athletic Club of Brooklyn and National Sculpture Society.

SPELLISSY, DENIS ALOYSIUS—Lawyer, 237 Broadway, New York City; residence 245 West 112th street. Born in Ennis, County Clare, Ireland, Dec. 15, 1846. (Son of Denis and Elizabeth [Moloney] Spellissy.) Educated in Ireland. Studied law in New York City, and was admitted to the Bar in 1870. Has been referee in many important cases, and has served on commissions appointed by the Supreme Court for the purpose of condemning lands, etc., for public purposes. Member Gaelic Society and Society of Medical Jurisprudence.

SPELLMAN, EMANUEL LOUIS—Importer of Liquors, 481 Washington street, New York City; residence 76 West 119th street. Born in Rotterdam, Holland, July 24, 1845. (Son of Louis and Sophia Spellman.) Educated in Europe and in Cincinnati, Ohio. (Married.) Resident of New York City since 1870. Member of the firm of E. L. Spellman & Co. Director San Gabriel (Cal.) Mining Co., Federal Distilling Co. of Baltimore, Md., and other corporations.

SPENCE, LEWIS H.—Steamship Agent, 11 Broadway, New York City; residence 320 West 75th street. Treasurer and director Charleston Transport Line and North American Transportation Co.; director Texas Transport and Terminal Co. Member New York Athletic, Colonial, Larchmont Yacht and Delta Kappa Epsilon Clubs and American Geographical Society.

SPENCER, EDWARDS—11 West 16th street, New York City. Born in New York City. (Married.) Member St. Nicholas Society and Metropolitan Museum of Art.

SPENCER, JAMES CLARK—Lawyer, 280 Broadway, New York City; residence 39 West 49th street. Born in Fort Covington, Franklin Co., N. Y., May 29, 1826. Educated at Fort Covington Academy. Studied law and was admitted to the Bar in 1848. (Married.) Was for a time superintendent of schools in Franklin County; removed to Ogdensburg in 1854; United States Attorney for the Northern District of New York, 1857-60. Resident of New York City since 1864; has been Judge of the Superior Court and president of the Board of Aqueduct Commissioners, and is now assistant corporation counsel in charge of the collection of personal taxes. Was for many years one of the reporters of the Superior Court, and assisted in editing thirty-five volumes of the "Superior Court Reports." Member Democratic and Manhattan Clubs, American Geographical Society, American Museum of Natural History and Association of the Bar of the City of New York.

SPENCER, LORILLARD—Manufacturer, 394 First avenue, New York City; residence Newport, R. I. Formerly publisher of the "Illustrated American." Member Metropolitan, Union and Whist Clubs, Aldine Association, Sons of the Revolution, Society of Colonial Wars and National Academy of Design.

SPENCER, NELSON S.—Lawyer, 31 Nassau street, New York City; residence 230 Central Park, South. Born in Naugatuck, Conn., May 5, 1856. Educated in Stratford, Conn., at the College of the City of New York ('75) and at Columbia Law School. Member of the firm of Stickney, Spencer & Ordway. Member City, Alpha Delta Phi, University, Reform, National Arts and Social Reform Clubs, National Sculpture Society, National Society of Mural Painters, College of the City of New York Alumni and Civil Service Reform Associations and Association of the Bar of the City of New York.

SPENCER, SAMUEL—Capitalist, 80 Broadway, New York City; residence 29 West 73d street. Born in Columbus, Ga., March 2, 1847. (Son of Lambert and Vernona [Mitchell] Spencer.) Educated at the Universities of Georgia and Virginia ('67). (Married) Louisa Vivian, daughter of Hon. H. L. Benning of Columbus, Ga.) Formerly president of the Baltimore and Ohio R. R. Co.; receiver of the Richmond and Danville R. R. Co., receiver of the East Tennessee, Virginia and Georgia Ry. Co. and rapid transit commissioner of the City of New York, 1891-4. Now president and director Alabama Great Southern R. R. Co., Cincinnati, New Orleans and Texas Pacific Ry. Co., Georgia Southern and Florida Ry. Co. and Southern Ry. Co.; director Central Ry. Co. of Georgia, Chesapeake and Ohio Ry. Co., Chicago, Milwaukee and St. Paul Ry. Co., Erie R. R. Co., Lawyers' Surety Co., West End Street Ry. Co. of Boston, Mass., Northern Pacific Ry. Co. and other corporations. Member Metropolitan, Lawyers', Tuxedo and University Clubs, Metropolitan Club of Washington, D. C., Chicago (Ill.) Club, Queen City Club of Cincinnati, Ohio, Southern Society and American Society of Civil Engineers.

SPENCER, W. S.—Dry Goods Merchant, New Rochelle. (Married.) Director Bank of New Rochelle. Member Huguenot Lodge No. 46, F. & A. M., Huguenot Council Royal Arcanum, New Rochelle Conclave No. 493 and Improved Order of Heptasophs.

SPERRY, FREDERICK P.—Coal Merchant, 237 West 125th street, New York City; residence 23 West 127th street. (Son of John J. Sperry.) Secretary, treasurer and director Sperry-Popham Coal Co.; treasurer and director District Telegraph and Burglar Alarm Co. Member Harlem Club.

SPERRY, JOHN J.—Coal Merchant, 237 West 125th street, New York City; residence 23 West 127th street. President and director Sperry-Popham Coal Co., Bank Building Co. of Harlem, and District Telegraph and Burglar Alarm Co.; director Hamilton Bank and Harlem Board of Commerce. Member Harlem Club.

SPEYER, JAMES—Banker, 30 Broad street, New York City; residence 257 Madison avenue. Born in New York City, 1861. (Son of Gustavus and Sophie [Rubino] Speyer.) Educated in Frankfort-on-the-Main, Germany. (Married) Ellen, daughter of John Dyneley Prince, 1897.) Member of the firm of Speyer & Co. of New York City, Frankfort-on-Main and London. Served as a member of the Committee of Seventy of 1894; also of its executive and finance committees, and was a school commissioner during the administration of Mayor Strong, 1895-7. President Provident Loan Society of New York; trustee Mutual Life Insurance Co. of New York, German Savings Bank, Hospital Saturday and Sunday Association and Teachers' College. Member Manhattan, Lotos, Racquet and Tennis, Players', Lawyers', Reform, City, New York Yacht and Whist Clubs.

SPEYER, LEO—Banker, 20 Nassau street, New York City; residence 17 East 82d street. (Married.) Member of the firm of Simon Borg & Co., and of the New York Stock Exchange.

SPIEGELBERG, FREDERICK—Lawyer, 44 Broad street, New York City; residence 36 West 76th street. Born in New York City, Nov. 3, 1862. Educated at Frankfort-on-Main Gymnasium, Universities of Berlin and Leipzig, Germany, and Columbia Law School. (Married.) Member of the firm of Spiegelberg & Wise. Director Educational Alliance and Aguilar Free Library Society. Member Century Country and Harmonie Clubs, New York State Bar Association and Association of the Bar of the City of New York.

SPIES, ALBERT—Editor, 3 West 29th street, New York City; residence Glenwood avenue, Jersey City Heights, N. J. Born in New York City, 1862. Educated at Stevens Institute of Technology. Member Reform Club, American Society of Mechanical Engineers and American Institute of Mining Engineers.

SPILSBURY, EDMUND GYBBON—Civil and Mining Engineer, 45 Broadway, New York City; residence 216 West State street, Trenton, N. J. Born in London, England, 1845. Educated in Belgium. (Married.) Practicing in New York City since 1870. Member Engineers' and Fulton Clubs, Technical Club of Chicago, Ill., Lotus and Country Clubs of Trenton, N. J., American Society of Civil Engineers, American Institute of Mining Engineers (past president) and American Society of Mechanical Engineers.

SPIRO, CHARLES—Inventor and Manufacturer, 37 West 116th street, New York City; residence 21 West 95th street. Born in New York City, Jan. 1, 1850. Educated in public schools; studied law at Washington and New York Universities. (Married.) Practiced law in New York City, 1875-84. Published a new system of phonography in 1880; patented the "Columbia" Typewriter in 1885, and later the "Bar-lock," the first machine with writing constantly in view. Is also the inventor of a patented watch, and of telegraphic and automatic machinery for various purposes. Director Columbia Typewriter Mfg Co.

SPITZKA, EDWARD CHARLES—Physician, 66 East 73d street, New York City. Born in New York City, Nov. 10, 1852. Educated at the College of the City of New York, at New York University (M.D., '73) and in Leipzig and Vienna. (Married.) Makes a specialty of diseases of the nervous system, and has frequently appeared as an expert in cases of insanity or injury to the brain. Member Society of Medical Jurisprudence (ex-secretary), Liederkrantz and other organizations.

SPOFFORD, PAUL N.—Merchant, 29 Broadway, New York City; residence Elmwood, Hunt's Point road, Bronx Borough. Born in New York City (No. 524 Broadway), 1823. Educated at Daniel P. Bacon's Select School, New York City. (Single.) Director Ninth Avenue R. R. Co. of New York. Has been connected with various railroads, banks and other business enterprises as president or director, among them being United States Steam Sugar Refining Co., Sixth National Bank, Fire Proof Warehouse Co., Samana Bay Co. of San Domingo, Bean's Wharf Co. of Galveston, Tex., International and Great Northern R. R. Co. of Texas, and Texas Land Co. Was State Engineer-in-Chief, with rank of brigadier-general, on staff of Governor Hamilton Fish. Member Union League and Union Clubs, American Geographical and New York Botanical Societies, Society of Colonial Wars, Chamber of Commerce, American Association for the Advancement of Science, Essex Institute of Salem, Mass., and life member New York Historical Society and Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Children.

SPRAGUE, CARLETON—President, Buffalo. Born in Buffalo, Dec. 24, 1858. Educated at Phillips Exeter Academy ('77) and Harvard (A.B., '81). (Married.) President and treasurer Buffalo Pitts Co.; trustee Charity Organization Society, Buffalo Fine Arts Academy and Security Safe Deposit Co. Director and member of executive committee of the committee on building and grounds and the fine arts committee of the Pan-American Exposition. Member Buffalo, Saturn, University, Ellicott and Country Clubs, and Harvard and University Clubs and Century Association of New York City.

SPRAGUE, CHARLES EZRA—Banker, 54 West 32d street, New York City; residence 117 West 75th street. Born in Nassau, Rensselaer Co., N. Y., Oct. 9, 1842. (Son of Ezra and Elizabeth [Edgerton] Sprague.) Educated at Union College (A.B., '60, and Ph.D., '93). (Married Ray, daughter of John Smith Ellison of New York City, 1866.) Served in Union Army during Civil War, becoming brevet colonel of New York Volunteers, and was wounded at Gettysburg. Has been president of the Board of Examiners for Public Accountants of the State of New York, president of the Institute of Accounts, member of the Academy of Volapük and Assistant Paymaster-General of New York. Now president and trustee Union Dime Savings Institution, with which he has been connected since 1870. Member Alpha Delta Phi, West Side Republican and Army and Navy Clubs, Phi Beta Kappa Society, Union College Alumni Association, Military Order of the Loyal Legion and G. A. R.

SPRAGUE, FRANK JULIAN—Electrical Engineer, 20 Broad street, New York City. Born in Milford, Conn., July 25, 1857. Educated at United States Naval Academy ('78). Resigned from the navy in 1883, and founded the Sprague Electric Railway and Motor Co. Spent several years in electrical studies on war ships and in torpedo stations and navy yards. Introduced the modern electric railway system and high speed electric elevator, and invented many of their most important features. Vice-president and director Sprague Electric Co. and Sprague Electric Elevator Co.; director Amsterdam Street R. R. Co., Greathead Tunnel and Subway Co. and Twin City Construction Co. Member University, Colonial, New York and City Clubs, New England Society, Aldine Association and American Institute of Electrical Engineers (ex-president).

SPRAGUE, HENRY L.—Lawyer, 15 Broad street, New York City; residence 330 West 23d street. Educated at Cornell ('73). Secretary and director William P. Montague Co.; director Hastings Pavement Co., St. Lawrence and Adirondack Ry. Co., Terminal Ry. Co. of Buffalo, and Standard Trust Co. of New York. Member Union League, Metropolitan, Alpha Delta Phi, University, University Athletic and Cornell University Clubs, Country Club of Westchester, and Association of the Bar of the City of New York.

SPRAGUE, IRVIN AUCHINCLOSS—Coffee Merchant, 93 Wall street, New York City; residence 166 Amity street, Brooklyn. Educated at Columbia. Member of the firm of Sprague & Rhoades. Member St. Anthony Club, Crescent Athletic Club of Brooklyn, and Columbia University Alumni and Down Town Associations.

SPRAGUE, NATHAN T.—Banker, Fourth and Atlantic avenues, Brooklyn, and Brandon, Vt.; residence 1 South Portland avenue, Brooklyn. Born and educated in Vermont. (Married.) President and director Sprague National Bank of Brooklyn, Elk State Bank of Clyde, Kan., and First National Bank of Brandon, Vt.; president Great South Bay Water Co. and East Greenwich (R. I.) Water Supply Co.; trustee City Savings Bank of Brooklyn. Member Montauk Club, Berkeley Institute, Hanson Place Baptist Church and Brooklyn Central Dispensary.

SPRAGUE, SETH—Dry Goods Commission Merchant, 72 Franklin street, Boston, Mass., and 66 Worth street, New York City; residence 4 Spruce street, Boston, and 267 Fifth avenue, New York City. Born in Boston. (Single.) Member of the firm of F. A. Foster & Co. Member Union, Calumet, New York Athletic and Merchants' Clubs, and Puritan and Country Clubs of Boston.

SPRATT, JOSEPH A.—Lawyer, 96 Broadway, New York City; residence 126 Glenwood avenue, Jersey City, N. J. Born in Poughkeepsie, N. Y., May 15, 1868. Educated at Union College. Director Thomas Conville Brewing Co. and Pelham Electric Light and Power Co.

SPRINGETT, H. A.—Merchant, 1024 Sixth avenue, New York City; residence Newark, N. J. Born in Cincinnati, Ohio, Jan. 26, 1855. Educated at United States Military Academy, West Point. (Widower.) Secretary and director American Mills and Debenture Co., Anglo-American Finance Trust and Guarantee Co., Syndicate Gold Mines and Mill Co., Tri-State Road Contract Co., and J. P. Ryan Mfg Co.; treasurer and director United States Guarantee Labor and Security Trust. Was officer in the 4th United States Artillery from June, 1877, to August, 1884. Captain of 2d United States Volunteer Engineers during Spanish-American War, and served in Hawaiian Islands from July, 1898, to May, 1899.

SPRINGS, RICHARD A.—Lawyer, 170 Broadway, New York City; residence 154 Madison avenue. Born in South Carolina, June 10, 1856. Educated at Princeton. (Single.) Member of the firm of J. H. Parker & Co., members of the New York Stock, Cotton, Produce and Coffee Exchanges. Member Princeton, Democratic, Manhattan and New York Clubs, Southern Society and Association of the Bar of the City of New York.

SPRINGMEYER, ALBERT A.—Insurance, 120 Broadway, New York City; residence 1855 Seventh avenue. Born in New York City, Oct. 4, 1863. (Married.) Connected with the Equitable Life Assurance Society of the United States. Member Country Cycle and Lawyers' Clubs.

SQUIBB, CHARLES F.—Chemist, 155 William street, New York City; residence Bernardsville, N. J. Born in Louisville, Ky., June 17, 1853. Educated at Harvard ('81). (Married.) Connected with the firm of E. R. Squibb & Sons. Member Harvard and University Clubs, and Crescent Athletic Club of Brooklyn.

SQUIBB, EDWARD R.—Physician and Chemist, 155 William street, New York City, and 36 Doughty street, Brooklyn; residence 152 Columbia Heights, Brooklyn. Born in Wilmington, Del., July 4, 1819. Educated at Jefferson Medical College (M.D.). (Married.) Served for ten years as assistant surgeon and past assistant surgeon in the United States Navy, 1847-57. In business as manufacturing chemist and pharmacist since 1858, in which year he founded the business of E. R. Squibb. Senior member of the firm of E. R. Squibb & Sons since 1892. Member Hamilton Club of Brooklyn, Chemists' Club, American Philosophical and American Chemical Societies, New York State Medical, Kings County Medical, American Medical and American Pharmaceutical Associations and American Association for the Advancement of Science.

SQUIER, CHARLES B.—Zinc and Iron, 71 Broadway, New York City; residence Rahway, N. J. Born in Rahway, Feb. 12, 1850. Educated in Rahway and Elizabeth, N. J. (Married.) Member of the firm of Manning & Squier. Secretary, treasurer and director Hudson County Iron Co., Passaic Zinc Co., New Jersey Zinc Co., Empire Zinc Co.; treasurer Board of Finance of Rahway; director Rahway Savings Institution, Port Morris Land and Improvement Co. and Lake Champlain Ore and Transportation Co. Member Union League, Lawyers' Clubs and Down Town Association, Rahway and Hideran Outing Clubs of Rahway, Colonia Country Club of Colonia, N. J., Society of Colonial Wars, Pohoqualine Fish Association of McMichaels, Pa., and American Institute of Mining Engineers.

SQUIER, FRANK—Artist and Paper Merchant, 66 Duane street, New York City; residence 32 Prospect Park, West, Brooklyn. Born in Charlton, Saratoga

Co., N. Y., 1840. Educated at Poultney, Vt. Member of the firm of Perkins, Goodwin & Co. Ex-park commissioner of Brooklyn. Member Merchants', Lotos and Salmagundi Clubs, Montauk, Art and Black and White Clubs of Brooklyn, Sons of the Revolution, Sons of the American Revolution, Brooklyn Art Guild and Grant Post, G. A. R.

SQUIRE, REMINGTON—Manager, 125 East 24th street, New York City. Born in New York City, Feb. 22, 1870. Educated at Wesleyan ('93) and New York University Law School ('97). (Married Mary Louise Clary.) Was member editorial staff of New York "Advertiser" and New York "Journal." Ex-secretary Coast Defence Committee United States Senate. Member Phi Delta Phi Legal and Alpha Delta Phi Fraternities.

SQUIRE, WILLIAM L.—Treasurer, Grand Central Station, New York City, and New Haven, Conn.; residence Meriden, Conn. Born in West Granville, Mass., Oct. 1, 1831. Educated at Hartford, Conn. (Married.) Treasurer and director Harlem River and Portchester R. R. Co., and treasurer New York, New Haven and Hartford R. R. Co. since 1879.

SQUIRES, GRANT—Lawyer, 41 Wall street, New York City; residence 492 West End avenue. Born in New York City, April 17, 1863. Educated at Columbia School of Political Science and Law School. (Married.) Was United States military censor during Spanish-American War, with rank of lieutenant in Volunteer Signal Corps, United States Army. Member Union League Club, Metropolitan Museum of Art and National Geographic Society.

STACEY, ALFRED E.—Chair Manufacturer and Farmer, Elbridge. Born in Elbridge, Jan. 20, 1846. Educated at Monroe Collegiate Institute. (Married.) Was a member of the 9th New York Heavy Artillery, Company L, during the Civil War, and participated in battles of Cedar Creek, Petersburg and others. Member of New York State Assembly, 1886-7; Republican State delegate, and has held various town and village offices. Member Citizens' Club of Syracuse, Elbridge Whist and Jordan Clubs and G. A. R. Post No. 647.

STACHELBERG, CHARLES G.—Cigar Manufacturer, 382 West Broadway, New York City; residence 524 Fifth avenue. Born in New York City, January 14, 1866. Educated at College of the City of New York (B.S., '85). (Married.) President M. Stachelberg & Co.; treasurer Havana Cigar Manufacturers' Association of the United States. Member College of the City of New York Alumni Association.

STACKPOLE, GEORGE F.—Lawyer, Court street, Riverhead. Born in Lebanon, Me., Nov. 29, 1843. Educated at Farrington (Me) Normal School and Dartmouth College. (Married.) Justice of the peace for sixteen years. Director Suffolk County National Bank; trustee Riverhead Savings Bank. Member Sons of the Revolution and Suffolk County Historical Society (curator).

STACPOLE, HORATIO P.—Assistant Adjutant General, Adjutant General's Office, Albany; residence 240 Hudson avenue. Born in Albany, Nov. 26, 1848. Educated at Albany Boys' Academy. (Married.) Chief of Third Division in Adjutant General's office. Was colonel 1st New York Volunteer Infantry during Spanish-American War. Member Army and Navy Club of New York City.

STADELMAN, WILLIAM A.—Mechanical and Electrical Engineer, 26 Cortlandt street, New York City; residence 101 West 85th street. General manager and director Bristol Belt Line Ry. Co. Member Engineers', Lambs', Transportation and Railroad Men's Clubs, Art Club of Philadelphia, Pa., and American Society of Electrical Engineers.

STADLER, CHARLES A.—Malt, 316 East 61st street, New York City; residence 155 East 60th street. Born in Germany, July 15, 1848. Educated in New York City. (Married.) President American Malting Co. and Sebastian Wagon Co.; vice-president and treasurer Sicilian Asphalt Co.; vice-president Nineteenth Ward Bank. New York State senator, 1888-91, and formerly school inspector and member of State Democratic Executive Committee. Member Manhattan and Democratic Clubs, Old Guard, Liederkrantz, Arion Society and several hospitals and dispensaries.

STAFFORD, CHARLES M.—Lawyer, 379 Fulton street, Brooklyn; residence 477 Madison avenue. Born in Rush, Monroe Co., N. Y., Jan. 8, 1851. Educated at Columbia Law School (LL.B., '72). (Married.) Marshal of the United States for the Eastern District of New York, 1887-91. Member Brooklyn, Aurora Grata and Kings County Wheelmen's Clubs, Mattiwok Club, Rockland County Agricultural and Horticultural Fair Association (ex-president) and Kismet Temple, A. A. O. N. M. S.

STAFFORD, DE WITT—Lawyer, 53 Broadway, New York City; residence 84 Heberton avenue, Port Richmond, S. I. Born in Essex, Essex Co., N. Y., July 9, 1842. (Son of James and Cecelia Stafford.) Educated at Essex Academy, Barre (Vt.) Academy and at Fairfax University. Studied law in the office of Hand & Hale of Essex County, and was admitted to the Bar in 1867. Practicing in New York City since 1869, and is now a member of the firm of De Groot, Rawson & Stafford. Was secretary of the Electoral College in 1880.

STAFFORD, WILLIAM FREDERICK—Broker, 18 Wall street, New York City; residence 518 Madison avenue. Member New York Stock Exchange and of the Union League and Union Clubs, Sons of the Revolution, Society of Colonial Wars and Metropolitan Museum of Art.

STAKE, T. W.—Merchant, 302 Broadway, New York City; residence 349 Adelphi street, Brooklyn. Born in New York City, 1861. Educated in London, Canada. (Married.) Manager of the firm of Schoverling, Daly & Gales. Member Crescent Athletic Club of Brooklyn, Liederkrantz, Royal Arcanum and Sportsmen's Association.

STALKER, EDWIN J.—Banker, 83 Cedar street, New York City; residence 481 Eighth avenue, Brooklyn. Born, 1853. Began business career in the hardware house of Hoyt, Bushick & Co., in New York City. Was employed in the American Exchange National Bank for seven years. Entered the Chase National Bank in January, 1882, as check clerk and advanced to bookkeeper, discount clerk, auditor and chief clerk. Was appointed assistant cashier in January, 1899, and, on Aug. 3, 1900, was appointed cashier to succeed John T. Mills, Jr., resigned.

STANCHFIELD, JOHN B.—Lawyer, Elmira. Born in Elmira, March 30, 1855. (Son of John King Stanchfield.) Educated in public schools, at Elmira Academy ('72), Amherst College ('76) and at Harvard Law School. Also studied law in the office of David Bennett Hill and was admitted to the Bar. (Married Clara, daughter of Henry C. Spaulding of Elmira, 1886.) Member of the firm of Reynolds, Stanchfield & Collin. District attorney of Chemung County, 1880-5; mayor of Elmira, 1886-8; assemblyman, 1895-6. Nominated for Governor of the State of New York by the Democratic Convention held at Saratoga, on Sept. 12, 1900. Member Elmira City Club, Knights Templar, Knights of Pythias, Benevolent and Protective Order of Elks and other organizations.

STANDISH, MYLES—20 Nassau street, New York City; residence 27 Fifth avenue. Member Metropolitan and City Clubs, American Geographical and New England Societies, Century Association and Society of Colonial Wars.

STANGLAND, B. F.—Mechanical Engineer, 45 Fulton street, New York City; residence 157 West 123d street. Born in Noble County, Ind., Jan. 20, 1848. Educated at Brockport Academy. (Married.) Connected with the firm of Howard & Morse. Member American Society of Mechanical Engineers and American Society of Heating and Ventilating Engineers.

STANIFORD, CHARLES WILKINSON—Civil Engineer, Pier A, North River, New York City; residence 30 Berkeley place, Brooklyn. Born in Rockport, Mass., Feb. 19, 1861. Educated at New York University ('81). (Married.) Surveyor Department of Docks and Ferries. Formerly resident engineer in construction of South Pennsylvania R. R., in charge of eight miles; division engineer in charge construction of Cumberland Valley Branch, Louisville and Nashville R. R., thirty-two miles; chief engineer on survey of South Atlantic and Northwestern R. R., three hundred and sixty miles through State of North Carolina to Pennsylvania. Member American Society of Civil Engineers and Delta Phi Fraternity.

STANLEY, EDWARD O.—Banker, 146 Broadway, New York City; residence East Orange, N. J. Born in North Attleboro, Mass., July 25, 1855. Educated at Brown University. (Married.) President Pond's Extract Co.; treasurer Title Guarantee and Trust Co.

STANTON, GEORGE A.—Insurance, 45 Cedar street, New York City; residence 128 Remsen street, Brooklyn. Born in Brooklyn, April 25, 1846. (Married.) Director Colonial Assurance Co., Washington Assurance Co. and New York Fire Insurance Co. Member Lawyers' and Colonial Clubs, and Hamilton Club of Brooklyn.

STANTON, HENRY—Lawyer, 31 Nassau street, New York City; residence 271 West 71st street. Member of the firm of Stanton & Hopkins. Member Union League, Seawanhaka-Corinthian Yacht and Colonial Clubs, New England and St. Nicholas Societies, Sons of the Revolution, Society of Colonial Wars, Sons of the American Revolution and Association of the Bar of the City of New York.

STANTON, JOHN—Mining Engineer, 11 William street, New York City; residence 419 West 23d street. Born in Bristol, England, Feb. 25, 1830. Came with his father to the United States in 1837; settled in Pennsylvania and was educated in engineering. (Married Elizabeth Romaine McMillan.) Manager of iron mines at Dover, N. J., 1848; engaged in opening and developing copper mines in Pennsylvania, Maryland, Virginia and Tennessee, 1852-61. Developed several copper mines in the Lake Superior region and is now actively engaged in the management of same. President and director Atlantic Mining Co., Wolverine Copper Mining Co., Baltic Mining Co., Mohawk Mining Co., Michigan Copper Mining Co. and Winona Copper Co.; treasurer and director Consolidated Stock and Petroleum Exchange; director American Coal Co. Member Union League, New York Athletic, Engineers', Lotos and Twilight Clubs, Down Town Association, American Society of Mechanical Engineers, American Institute of Mining Engineers, North of England Institute of Mining and Mechanical Engineers, Metropolitan Museum of Art and American Museum of Natural History.

STANTON, JOHN R.—President and Treasurer, 11 William street, New York City; residence 256 West 70th street. Born in New York City, Sept. 25, 1858. Educated in New York City. (Married.) President Phoenix Consolidated Copper Co. and Hoskinini Mining Co.; treasurer Wolverine Copper Mining Co., Michigan Copper Mining Co., Mohawk Mining Co., Winona Copper Co. and Baltic Mining Co.; director Atlantic Mining Co. and Central Mining Co. Member Union League, Engineers', New York Yacht, New York Athletic, Lotos and Twilight Clubs, Onigaming Yacht Club of Michigan, St. George, St. Andrew's, Robert Burns and American Asiatic Societies, 7th Regiment Veteran Association, American Society of Civil Engineers, Lake Superior Mining Institute, American Institute of Mining Engineers, Metropolitan Museum of Art, American Museum of Natural History, New York Botanical Gardens and Franklin Institute of Philadelphia, Pa.

STANTON, LOUIS LEE—Iron Manufacturer, 32 Cliff street, New York City; residence 30 West 49th street. Educated at Yale ('79). Director Standard Trust Co. Member Metropolitan, University, Yale, Rockaway Hunting and Racquet and Tennis Clubs and Down Town Association.

STANTON, WALTER—Dry Goods Commission Merchant, 83 Worth street, New York City; residence 112 West 55th street. (Married.) Member of the firm of Converse, Stanton & Co. Member New York Athletic, Racquet and Tennis, Manhattan, Suburban Riding and Driving, New York Yacht and Merchants' Clubs and Metropolitan Museum of Art.

STAPLER, HENRY B. B.—Lawyer, 48 Wall street, New York City; residence 301 West 77th street. Born in Greene County, Ala., Feb. 24, 1852. Educated at Yale ('74). (Married.) Member of the firm of Gibson & Stapler. Member Reform, Barnard, Yale and University Clubs, Delta Kappa Epsilon Fraternity, Delaware Society, and Association of the Bar of the City of New York.

STAPLES, ERNEST—Wine Importer, 41 Warren street, New York City; residence Plaza Hotel. Member of the firm of Frederick De Bary & Co. Member American Yacht, Lambs', Army and Navy, Atlantic Yacht, Democratic, Manhattan, New York Yacht, Larchmont Yacht, New York Athletic and New York Clubs, Brooklyn Club of Brooklyn, Eastern Yacht and Algonquin Clubs of Boston, Mass., Rhode Island and Athletic Clubs of Providence, R. I., and Lafayette Post, G. A. R.

STAPLETON, CHARLES W.—Lawyer, 131 West 38th street, New York City; residence 315 West 50th street. Born in Hamilton, N. Y., 1853. Educated in common schools. (Single.) Was county clerk Madison County, N. Y., 1886-91; State senator from Onondaga and Madison counties, 1893-4. President and director American Rubber Tire Co.

STAPLETON, LUKE D.—Lawyer, 26 Court street, Brooklyn. Born in Brooklyn, Dec. 11, 1869. (Son of Thomas and Catharine [Quinn] Stapleton.) Educated at St. James Commercial Academy ('85), Manhattan College ('89) and at the University Law School. (Married Katharine F. Nowlen, 1893.) Practicing in Brooklyn since his admission to the Bar in 1891. Member Medico-Legal Society and Manhattan College Alumni Association.

STARIN, JOHN HENRY—Transportation, Pier 13, New, North River, New York City; residence 9 West 38th street, and Fultonville. Born in Sammonsville, Fulton Co., N. Y., Aug. 27, 1827. Educated in common schools and at Union College. Clerked for a time in a drug store; postmaster of Fultonville, 1848-52; removed to New York City and engaged in the manufacture of medicines and toilet articles; later established a freight agency and secured, vessel by vessel, a large fleet of harbor and river tugs and steamboats for the transportation of freight and passengers; also owns a shipyard and drydock on Staten Island. Served as a member of Congress from 1877 to 1881. President and director Starin River and Harbor Transportation Co.; director Liberty National Bank, Merchants' Association and New York Ship Building and Engine Co. Member Adirondack League, New York Athletic, Lawyers', New York Yacht and Union League Clubs, New England, St. Nicholas and Holland Societies, Union College Alumni and Down Town Associations, Sons of the American Revolution, American Museum of Natural History and Metropolitan Museum of Art.

STARK, FERDINAND—Photographer, 66 West 58th street, New York City. Born in Gernersheim, Bavaria, May 10, 1853. Educated in Munich High School and at Columbia Law School. (Married.) President Ferd. Stark Co. Member Camera Club.

STARKS, A. H.—Retired Merchant, Chatham. Born in Columbia County, N. Y., 1814. Educated in district school at Redrock. (Single.) Director State Bank.

STARKWEATHER, CHAUNCEY C.—Lawyer, 212 West 139th street, New York City. Born in Chicago, Ill., Nov. 7, 1851. Educated at Yale and Columbia Law School. (Married.) Member Lotos, University Athletic and Yale Clubs, Saratoga Club of Saratoga, and Sons of the American Revolution.

STARR, JOHN E.—Mechanical Engineer, 258 Broadway, New York City; residence 374 Fifth avenue. Born in Utica, N. Y., 1860. Educated in Utica. (Single.) President and director Starr Engineering Co.; director International Cooling Co. Member Engineers', Transportation and Salmagundi Clubs.

STARR, M. ALLEN—Physician and Professor, 5 West 54th street, New York City. Born in Brooklyn, N. Y., May 16, 1854. Educated at Princeton ('76), at the New York College of Physicians and Surgeons of Columbia University, and in Paris, Heidelberg and Vienna. Degrees of M.D. and LL.D. (Married.), Professor of nervous diseases in the Medical Department of Columbia University in the City of New York. Consulting physician Presbyterian, St. Vincent's and St. Mary's Hospitals and New York Eye and Ear Infirmary. Formerly president New York Neurological Society, corresponding secretary New York Academy of Medicine, a corresponding member of the Neurological Society of Paris, France, and president of the American Neurological Association. Author of "Familiar Forms of Nervous Diseases," "Brain Surgery," "Atlas of Nerve Cells" etc. Member University, Nineteenth Century and Princeton Clubs, Century Association and Academy of Medicine.

STARR, THEODORE B.—Jeweler, 206 Fifth avenue and 1126 Broadway, New York City; residence 3 West 53d street. Member Union League, New York Athletic and Lawyers' Clubs, American Geographical Society and Metropolitan Museum of Art.

STARRING, FREDERICK A. (General)—Lawyer, and Civil and Consulting Engineer, 150 Broadway, New York City; residence 247 Fifth avenue. Born in Buffalo, N. Y., May 24, 1834. Educated at Harvard and in Paris, Heidelberg and Vienna. (Married Louise Whitehouse.) Secretary Cairo and Fulton R. R. Co. of Arkansas and Missouri, 1859-61. Served as colonel of the 72d Illinois Infantry (1st Chicago Board of Trade Regiment), and brigadier-general commanding the 1st, 2d and 3d Brigades of the Army of the Tennessee, and as major-general and provost marshal-general of the Department of the Gulf during Civil War. Diplomatic and consular agent of United States in Europe and other foreign countries, 1869-83. Member Union League, Army and Navy, New York Yacht and Harvard Clubs, Military Order of the Loyal Legion and George Washington Post, G. A. R.

STATESIR, WILLIAM H.—Lawyer, 215 Montague street, Brooklyn; residence Jamaica, L. I. Born in Colt's Neck, Monmouth Co., N. J., May 28, 1861. Educated in public school and at Columbia College and Law School. (Married.) Member of the firm of Wyckoff, Statesir & Frost. President and director Jamaica Ice and Cold Storage Co.; director Woodhaven Bank. Member Jamaica Club and Queens County Bar Association.

STAUFFER, DAVID McNEELY—Civil Engineer, Editor and Publisher, 220 Broadway, New York City; residence Yonkers. Born in Lancaster, Pa., March 24, 1845. Educated at Franklin and Marshall College. (Married Florence, daughter of Hon. G. Hilton Scribner, Secretary of State of New York, 1872-4.) Served in United States Navy during Civil War and was in command of the "Alexandria" in the Mississippi River. Engaged in civil engineering until 1882, in which year he became editor and one of the proprietors of the "Engineering News." Vice-president and director Engineering News Publishing Co. Member Engineers' Club, Military Order of the Loyal Legion, Sons of the American Revolution, American Society of Civil Engineers and American Institute of Mining Engineers.

STAYTON, WILLIAM H.—Lawyer, 30 Broad street, New York City; residence 54 West 87th street. Born in Smyrna, Del., March 28, 1861. Educated in public schools and at Columbian University Law School. Practicing in New York City since 1891. Member Fencers', Seawanhaka-Corinthian Yacht and Lawyers' Clubs, and Army and Navy Club of Washington, D. C.

STEARNS, GEORGE RAYNOLDS—Physician, 201 Linwood avenue, Buffalo. Born in Buffalo, March 20, 1853. Educated in Buffalo, Rochester and New York City; degrees of A.M. and M.D. Medical director Ingle-side Homeopathic Hospital; obstetrician Buffalo Homeopathic Hospital. Member University and Liberal Clubs, Western New York and New York State Homeopathic Medical Societies, American Institute of Homeopathy, Sons of the American Revolution, Alpha Delta Phi Fraternity and Phi Beta Kappa Society.

STEARNS, JESSE—Lawyer, 58 Pine street, New York City; residence 151 West 80th street. Born in Starksboro, Vt., Jan. 21, 1859. Educated at Middlebury (Vt.) College. (Married.) Member of the firm of Hobbs & Gifford. Member Republican and West Side Republican Clubs, New England Society and Chi Phi Alumni Society of New York City.

STEARNS, JOHN NOBLE, JR.—Silk Importer, 68 Greene street, New York City; residence 707 Park avenue. Born in Yonkers, N. Y., Sept. 3, 1863. Educated in New York City. (Married.) Member Wool and Union League Clubs.

STEBBINS, G. WARING—Musician, 19 Verona place, Brooklyn. Born in Albion, N. Y., June 16, 1869. Educated in Brooklyn and Paris. (Married.) Formerly organist and choirmaster Westminster Presbyterian and Emmanuel Baptist churches. Now organist and choirmaster Plymouth Church. Member Cleft Club, American Guild of Organists and Society of American Composers.

STEDMAN, ARTHUR—Editor and Literary Agent, 5 East 14th street, New York City; residence 7 West 43d street. Born in New York City, June 6, 1859. Educated at Yale ('81). (Single.) Member Authors' Club and Century Association.

STEDMAN, EDMUND CLARENCE—Broker, 16 Broad street, New York City; residence Lawrence Park, Bronxville. Born in Hartford, Conn., Oct. 8, 1833. Educated at Yale ('53). Degrees of A.M., L.H.D. and LL.D. Editor of the "Winsted (Conn.) Herald," 1854-5; on staff of New York "Tribune," 1859-61; war correspondent for the New York "World," 1861-3; purchased a seat in the New York Stock Exchange, and has since engaged in business in New York City. Delivered a course of lectures at Johns Hopkins and Columbia Universities and at the University of Pennsylvania. Author of "Poems, Lyric and Idyllic," Alice of Monmouth, an Idyll of the Great War," "The Blameless Prince," "Poems Now First Collected" and other volumes of poetry. Editor of "Poems of Austin Dobson," "A Library of American Literature" (eleven vols., with Ellen M. Hutchinson), "The Works of Edgar Allen Poe" (ten volumes, with Prof. G. E. Woodberry), "An American Anthology," etc. Succeeded Prof. Lowell as president of the American Copyright League in 1891. Member New York Stock Exchange and of the Players', Authors', Yale and Barnard Clubs, New England and Dunlap Societies and Century Association.

STEDMAN, EMORY A.—Transportation, 63 Broadway, New York City; residence 110 West 84th street. Born in Pomeroy, Ohio, Feb. 28, 1862. Educated in Iowa. (Married.) Director Wells, Fargo & Co.'s Bank; assistant manager Wells, Fargo & Co. Express Co., with which he has been connected since 1880. Member Ohio Society of New York.

STEDMAN, ERNEST G.—Lawyer, 7 Nassau street, New York City; 15 West 34th street. Educated at Yale ('67). Member of the firm of Stedman & Larkin. Member Union League, Lawyers', University and Yale Clubs and Association of the Bar of the City of New York.

STEDMAN, GEORGE WOOLVERTON—Lawyer, 445 Broadway, Albany; residence Loudonville, Albany; Born in Albany, Sept. 9, 1864. Educated at University of Rochester ('85) and Albany Law School ('87). (Married.) Member of the firm of Stedman & Stedman. Trustee Colgate University, Albany Academy and several religious corporations. Was member New York Legislature, 1898. Member Fort Orange Club, Delta Kappa Epsilon Club of Rochester, and Albany Historical and Art Society.

STEDMAN, JOHN HARRY—Manufacturer, 56 Main street, Rochester; residence 12 Westminster road. Born in Newport, R. I., Nov. 15, 1845. Educated at University of Rochester. (Married.) Formerly president League of the Lower Lakes, secretary and treasurer Central New York Golf League, secretary and chairman house committee Country Club, member board of managers and secretary Genesee Valley Club; and member board of governors Homeopathic Hospital. Now secretary Ohmer Car Register Co.; director Economic Electric Co. Member Genesee Valley and Country Clubs, Society of the Genesee, Delta Psi Fraternity and Sons of the American Revolution.

STEDMAN, THOMAS L.—Physician, 53 East 56th street, New York City. Born in Cincinnati, Ohio, Oct. 11, 1853. Educated at Trinity College and New York College of Physicians and Surgeons. (Married.) Member Liederkrantz, New York Academy of Medicine, New York Pathological Society, Medical Society of the County of New York and St. Luke's Hospital Alumni, Trinity College Alumni and Century Associations.

STEEGER, HENRY—Coppersmith, 143 East 31st street, New York City; residence Hotel Netherland. Born in New York City, May 14, 1851. Educated in public schools. (Widower.) Member New York Athletic Club, Liederkrantz, and New York Lodge No. 330, F. & A. M.

STEELE, ADELBERT H.—Railroad President, 43 Cedar street, New York City; residence 223 East 136th street. President Toledo, Cleveland and Lake Erie R. R. Co.; receiver Gold Creek Mining Co. Member Republican and Patria Clubs and Lafayette Post, G. A. R.

STEELE, CHARLES—Lawyer, 40 Wall street, New York City; residence 52 West 49th street. Secretary and director Adams Express Co.; director Central of Georgia Ry. Co., St. Lawrence Power Co., Standard Finance and Trust Co. and Standard Trust Co. of New York. Member Metropolitan, Lawyers', Union, St. Anthony, New York Athletic, Racquet and Tennis and Church Clubs, Down Town Association and Association of the Bar of the City of New York.

STEELE, HIRAM ROSWELL—Lawyer, 32 Liberty street, New York City; residence 242 Carroll street, Brooklyn. Born in Stanstead, Province of Quebec, Canada, July 10, 1842. Educated in St. Johnsbury, Vt. Studied law in the office of his brother, Hon. Benjamin H. Steele, a Justice of the Supreme Court of Vermont. (Married.) Served with Vermont troops during Civil War, and was wounded at Spottsylvania. Settled in St. Joseph, La., after the war and engaged in the practice of law. While a resident of Louisiana he filled successively the offices of district attorney, Assistant Attorney-General, Judge of the Parish Court, Judge of the Superior Court of New Orleans and an unexpired term as Attorney-General of Louisiana. Practicing in New York City since 1890, and is now senior member of the firm of Steele, De Friese & Frothingham. Was for a time district attorney of Kings County. Trustee New York Life Insurance Co. Member Lawyers' Club, Hamilton Club of Brooklyn, Military Order of the Loyal Legion and Sons of the American Revolution.

STEELE, JOHN M.—Lawyer, Court House, Rochester; residence 89 Park avenue. Born in Pittsford, Monroe Co., N. Y., Oct. 15, 1851. Educated at the University of Rochester. (Married.) Has served as United States Commissioner and as a member of the Board of Aldermen. Now commissioner of jurors and United States Loan Commissioner for Monroe County. Officer and director in several corporations. Member Genesee Valley Club, Rochester Historical Society, Psi Upsilon Alumni Association (president) and Chamber of Commerce.

STEELE, PETER B.—Dry Goods Merchant, 342 Broadway, New York City; residence 940 President street, Brooklyn. Born in Deerfield, Oneida Co., N. Y., Jan. 31, 1844. (Son of Peter G. and Catharine [Weaver] Steele.) Educated at Utica Academy. (Married Annie E. Van Riper of Jersey City.) Served as lieutenant of 56th Regiment, and as captain of 158th Regiment, New York Volunteers, during Civil War. Formerly member of the firms of William I. Peake & Co., Peake, Opdycke & Co. and Opdycke, Terry & Steele. Now manager of the linen and white goods department James H. Dunham & Co. Member Atlantic Yacht and Brooklyn Yacht Clubs, Arkwright Club, 7th Regiment War Veterans and Brooklyn Institute of Arts and Sciences.

STEELE, SANFORD H.—Lawyer, 32 Liberty street, New York City; residence 62 Pierrepont street, Brooklyn. Educated at Dartmouth College ('70). Member of the firm of Steele & Dickson. Prominent in political affairs of Brooklyn and Kings County. Secretary and director San Carlos Copper Co.; director Chatham National Bank, General Chemical Co., Manufacturers' Trust Co. of Brooklyn, and Nichols Chemical Co. Member University Club, Oxford and Hamilton Clubs of Brooklyn, and Dartmouth College Alumni and Down Town Associations.

STEENKEN, JOHN G.—Merchant and Manufacturer, 163 Front street, New York City; residence 209 Washington Park, Brooklyn. Born in Bremen, Germany, Feb. 14, 1839. Educated in Germany. (Widower.) Member of the firm of Battelle & Renwick. President Croton Chemical Co. Member Down Town Association.

STEERS, HENRY—Banker, 147 Avenue D, New York City; residence 10 East 38th street. President and director Eleventh Ward Bank; director Dry Dock, East Broadway and Battery R. R. Co., Dubuque and Sioux City R. R. Co., Interior Conduit Insulation Co., New York and Boston Dyewood Co., Rubber Goods Mfg Co. and State Trust Co. Member Engineers' Racquet and Tennis, New York Yacht and Union Clubs and American Museum of Natural History.

STEEVES, JOHN F.—Lumber Merchant, 138th street and Fourth avenue, New York City; residence 62 West 130th street. Born in New Brunswick, Canada, Sept. 6, 1848. Educated in New Brunswick. (Married.) Member of the firm of Church E. Gates & Co. Member Building Trades and New York Lumber Trade (ex-president) Associations.

STEIGER, ERNEST—Publisher, 25 Park place, New York City; residence 715 Lexington avenue. Born in Saxony, Germany, Oct. 4, 1832. Educated in Germany. (Married Bertha Krehbiel, 1867.) Became a resident of the United States in 1855. Engaged in business in New York City since 1863 as publisher of the works of German-Americans and as a manufacturer of kindergarten supplies. President and director Ernest Steiger Co.; trustee German Savings Bank.

STEIN, LEO—Brewer, 169 Duane street, New York City; residence 63 East 84th street. Born in Chicago, Ill., May 4, 1866. Educated at Yale ('88). (Married.) Member of the firm of Stein, Hirsh & Co. Treasurer Eastern Brewing Co. Member Reform and Freundschaft Clubs.

STEINER, PETER J.—Insurance Broker, 27 William street, New York City; residence 325 East 87th street. Born in Austria, Feb. 7, 1854. Educated in Europe. (Married.) Member Arion Society.

STEINFUHRER, C. D. F.—Clergyman, 520 Second avenue, Astoria. Born in Stargard, Mecklenburg Strelitz, Jan. 12, 1841. Educated in Germany ('54), Union College ('64, and D.D., '96) and Reformed Church Seminary at New Brunswick, N. J., ('67). (Married.) Pastor German Second Reformed Church of Astoria since 1867. Member Phi Beta Kappa Society and Union College Alumni Association.

STEINITZ, WILLIAM—Chess Player, 155 East 103d street, New York City. Born in Prague, Bohemia, May, 1836. Educated in Prague and at Polytechnic Institute of Vienna. (Married.) Mastered the game of chess, and became known as an expert in 1855. Won the world's championship from Professor Anderssen in 1866, and defended his title to same against all comers until 1894, in which year he was defeated by Emanuel Lasker. His record of winning sixteen consecutive games, made in 1873, has never been equaled. Became a resident of the United States in 1883. Edited the "International Chess Magazine," 1885-91. Member German Press Club.

STEINWAY, CHARLES H.—Piano Manufacturer, 109 East 14th street, New York City; residence 23 East 38th street. Was decorated with the "Order of the Medjidieh" for excellence in science and art by the Sultan of Turkey in August, 1900. President and director Steinway & Sons; vice-president and trustee Citizens' Savings bank; director Bank of the Metropolis and Pacific Bank. Member Larchmont Yacht, New York Athletic and Manhattan Clubs, Aldine Association and Liederkrantz.

STEINWAY, FREDERICK T.—Piano Manufacturer, 109 East 14th street, New York City; residence 15 East 53d street. Born in New York City, 1860. Educated in Berlin, Germany, and at the Royal "Real Gymnasium." (Married.) Vice-president Steinway & Sons. Formerly president of N. Stetson Co. of Philadelphia. Member New York Athletic Club, German and Legal Aid Societies, Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Children, Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals, New York Association for the Improvement of the Condition of the Poor, Civil Service Reform Association, Industrial Christian Alliance and Liederkrantz.

STELLE, FREDERICK W.—Lawyer, 111 Broadway, New York City; residence 72 East 34th street. Born in Trenton, N. J., April 6, 1872. Educated at New Jersey State School, Trenton, Princeton University and New York Law School. Member of the firm of Tyler, Pratt, Hibbard & McAlpin. Member Princeton Club, Trenton Country Club and Huguenot Society of America.

STEPHENS, FRANKLIN MOORE—Physician and Instructor, 71 West 49th street, New York City. Degree of M.D. Clinical instructor in otology, Cornell University Medical College, New York City.

STEPHENS, GEORGE W.—Lawyer, 132 Nassau street, New York City; residence Dash's lane, Kingsbridge. Born in Coeymans, Albany Co., N. Y., Feb. 22, 1844. Educated at College of City of New York ('63) and at Columbia Law School ('65). (Married.) Member Republican Club, Society of Medical Jurisprudence and Metropolitan Museum of Art.

STEPHENS, HENRY MORSE—Professor, Cornell University, Ithaca; residence 176 Cascadilla place. Educated at Oxford University, England. Degree of M.A. Professor of modern European history, Cornell University. Member Cornell Club of New York City.

STEPHENS, MELVIN—41 Dey street, New York City; residence 336 Washington avenue, Brooklyn. Born in Brooklyn, Oct. 4, 1844. (Single.) Secretary and director Eagle Tube Co.; director Second National Bank of Jersey City, N. J.

STEPHENS, OLIN J.—Coal Merchant, 444 East 138th, and 241 West 125th streets, New York City; residence East 146th street and Gerard avenue. President and director Mott Haven Canal Docks. Member New York Athletic, Morris Wheelmen and Morris Clubs and North Side Board of Trade.

STEPHENSON, EDWARD H.—Produce Exchange, New York City; residence Orange, N. J. Born in Gorham, Me., May 27, 1823. Educated in Gorham. (Married.) Formerly member of the firm of George S. Stephenson & Co., 1854-68. Now connected with Produce Exchange Safe Deposit Co. Member New England Society.

STEPHENSON, WALTER T.—Librarian, Reform Club, New York City; residence South Orange, N. J. Born in Brooklyn, N. Y., Feb. 15, 1860. (Single.) Librarian of the Reform Club of New York City. Member Reform Club.

STERLING, CHARLES A.—President, 26 Broadway, New York City; residence Orange, N. J. Born in Brooklyn, N. Y., Feb. 19, 1843. Educated at Betts Academy, Stamford, Conn., and Brooklyn Polytechnic Institute. (Married.) President National Storage Co., National Docks Ry. Co. and Orange and Passaic Valley Ry. Co. Member Lawyers' and Racquet and Tennis Clubs, Essex County (N. J.) Country Club, Essex Club of Newark, N. J., New England Society and Metropolitan Museum of Art.

STERLING, CHARLES B.—Manufacturer, 85 Liberty street, New York City; residence 100 West 105th street. Born in Bridgeport, Conn., July 4, 1873. Educated in New York City. (Married.) Manufacturer of yachts, launches and engines. Member Transportation, Harlem Republican and Columbia Yacht Clubs and New York Historical Society.

STERLING, GEORGE L.—Lawyer, 2 Tryon row, New York City; residence 113 Madison avenue. Born in Trumbull, Conn., Dec. 31, 1855. Educated at Yale College ('76) and Yale Law School. (Single.) Assistant corporation counsel of New York City. Member University, Seawanhaka-Corinthian Yacht and Yale Clubs, St. George's Society and Association of the Bar of the City of New York.

STERLING, JOHN W.—Lawyer, 44 Wall street, New York City; residence 21 East 47th street. Educated at Yale ('64). First vice-president and director Pennsylvania Coal Co.; director National City Bank, Bond and Mortgage Guarantee Co., Duluth, South Shore and Atlantic Ry. Co., Evansville and Indianapolis R. Co., Evansville and Richmond R. R. Co.,

Evansville and Terre Haute R. R. Co. and Evansville Belt Ry. Co.; trustee New York Security and Trust Co. Member Metropolitan, Union, University, Union League, Lawyers', Yale, Riding and Tuxedo Clubs, American Fine Arts, Phi Beta Kappa and New England Societies, Alpha Delta Phi Fraternity and Down Town Association.

STERLING, JOSEPH HENRY—Banker and Broker, 80 Broadway, New York City; residence 505 West End avenue. Born in New York City, Nov. 28, 1850. (Son of Joseph Allen and Henrietta [Dowling] Sterling.) Educated at the College of the City of New York ('70). (Married Blanche Groesbeck.) Member of the firm of Groesbeck & Sterling, and of the New York and Chicago Stock Exchanges. Vice-president and treasurer Croscup & Sterling Co. (publishers); vestryman St. James Protestant Episcopal Church. Member Union League, Colonial, Republican, Stock Exchange Luncheon, Larchmont Yacht (ex-commandore), New York Yacht, American Yacht and Horse-shoe Harbor Yacht Clubs, Chi Psi Fraternity, Holland Lodge No. 8, F. & A. M. (past master), Jerusalem Chapter, Coeur de Lion Commandery, Aurora Grata Consistory, thirty-second degree Masons and Mecca Temple, Mystic Shrine.

STERN, LEOPOLD—Diamond Merchant, 68 Nassau street, New York City; residence 27 West 87th street. Born in Germany, March 20, 1848. (Married.) Senior member of the firm of Stern Bros. & Co. Presidential Elector, 1896; ex-president New York Jewelers' Board of Trade. Director Market and Fulton National Bank and Great Eastern Casualty and Indemnity Insurance Co.; State Commissioner to Pan-American Exposition (1901). Member Republican and Freundschaft Clubs and of many charitable societies.

STERN, LOUIS—Dry Goods Merchant, 32 West 23d street, New York City; residence 933 Fifth avenue. Born in Germany, Feb. 22, 1847. Educated in Albany, N. Y. (Married.) Member of the firm of Stern Brothers. Director Bank of New Amsterdam, and Westchester Trust Co. of Yonkers. First vice-president Republican Club and Albany Society. Republican candidate for the presidency of the Borough of Manhattan, 1897. United States Commissioner to the Paris Exposition of 1900 by appointment of President McKinley. Member Liederkrantz, Metropolitan Museum of Art, American Museum of Natural History, Aldine Association, American Geographical Society, Board of Trade and Transportation and Chamber of Commerce.

STERN, SIMON H.—Lawyer, 40 Wall street, New York City; residence 46 East 78th street. Born in Richmond, Va., Oct. 13, 1847. (Son of Meyer and Diana [Hunt] Stern.) Educated in public and private schools in New York City and at Columbia College Law School ('69). Senior member of the firm of Stern & Rushmore. Director Columbus Distilling Co. Member Lawyers', New York and Democratic Clubs and Metropolitan Museum of Art.

STERNBERG, F. A.—Lawyer and Physician, 414 East 50th street, New York City. Born in Germany, May 8, 1860. Educated in Germany. (Married.) Member Society of Medical Jurisprudence.

STERNBERGER, EDWIN—Physician, 640 Madison avenue, New York City; residence 43 East 60th street. Born in New York City, Jan. 6, 1867. Educated at Cornell (B.L.), New York College of Physicians and Surgeons (M.D.) and in Europe. (Single.) Connected with the Out Door Department of Mount Sinai Hospital. Member Cornell University and Century Country Clubs and Omega Society.

STERNBERGER, HENRY S.—Stock Broker, 20 Broad and 20 New streets, New York City; residence 31 East 65th street. Born in New York City, April 8, 1865. Educated in public schools and at College of the City of New York. (Single.) Member of the New York Stock Exchange. Second lieutenant of 22d Regiment, United States Volunteers, May 24, 1898; promoted to first lieutenant, Sept. 21; first lieutenant and quartermaster, Oct. 14; mustered out of service Nov. 23, 1898. Now captain and commissary of the 22d Regiment, N. G. N. Y. (by promotion Feb. 6, 1899). Member Century Country, Criterion (secretary) and Hollywood (N. J.) Golf Clubs and Military Order of Foreign Wars.

STERNE, SIMON—Lawyer, 56 Beaver street, New York City; residence 640 Madison avenue. Born in Philadelphia, Pa., July 23, 1839. (Son of Henry and Regina Sterne.) Educated in public schools, at the University of Pennsylvania and at the University of Heidelberg, Germany. (Married Mathilde Elsberg.) Admitted to practice in Philadelphia in 1859 and in New York City in 1860. Makes a specialty of railroad and constitutional law and is counsel to a number of large corporations. Was member of a commission appointed by Governor Tilden (1875) to revise a plan for the government of cities in the State of New York; by President Cleveland (1886) to report as to the relation of railways and State in Western Europe; also by Governor Morton (1895) to recommend changes in the methods of State legislation. Was a member of the Committee of Seventy of 1871 and again in 1894. President and director Central Park Improvement Co.; director Boonville R. R. Bridge Co., Missouri, Kansas and Texas Ry. Co., Southwestern Coal and Improvement Co., United States Automatic Telephone Co. and J. Hood Wright Memorial Hospital. Has contributed many articles on legislation, monopolies, railways, etc., to Lalor's "Cyclopædia of Political Science." Author of "Representative Government" and "Constitutional and Political History of the United States." Member Manhattan, Reform, Lawyers', Press, Nineteenth Century, Democratic and City Clubs, Zoological and Pennsylvania Societies, American Bar, New York State Bar and Blooming Grove Park Associations, New York Law Institute, Washington (D. C.) Academy of Sciences, Metropolitan Museum of Art and Association of the Bar of the City of New York.

STETSON, FRANCIS LYNDE—Lawyer, 15 Broad street, New York City; residence 576 Madison avenue. Educated at Williams College ('67). Member of the firm of Stetson, Jennings & Russell. Vice-president and director Cataract Construction Co. and Niagara Junction Ry. Co.; general counsel and director Northern Pacific Ry. Co. and Erie R. R. Co.; director Alabama Great Southern Ry. Co. (Ltd.), Chicago and Erie R. R. Co., Cincinnati, New Orleans and Texas Pacific R. R. Co., Niagara Development Co., Reading Co., Southern Ry. Co. in Kentucky, Southern Ry. Co. in Mississippi, and New York, Susquehanna and Western R. R. Co. Member Metropolitan, University, Lawyers', Manhattan, Tuxedo, Democratic, Riding, Reform, Grolier, Alpha Delta Phi, Williamsburg Athletic and Church Clubs, New England, American Geographical and Dunlap Societies, Down Town and Century Associations, Association of the Bar of the City of New York and Metropolitan Museum of Art.

STETSON, GEORGE WILKINSON—Retired, 1354 Broadway, New York City; residence 26 East 45th street. Born in Bridgewater, Mass., 1850. (Descendant of Cornet Robert Stetson, who settled in Scituate, Mass., in 1634. His family has been conspicuously connected with the iron industries of this country for the past four generations.) Educated at Chauncey Hall School, Boston, Mass. (Married Clara W., daughter of Hon. Webster Wagner, founder of the Wagner Palace Car Co.) Was vice-president and manager of the New York Transfer Co., but resigned on account of living abroad the greater part of the time, but is still one of the board of directors. Member Calumet Club and American Geographical Society.

STETSON, THOMAS DREW—Mechanical Expert and Solicitor of Patents, 23 Murray street, New York City; residence 794 Eighth avenue. Born in Kingston, Mass., May 30, 1827. Educated in public schools. Studied mechanics in Taunton (Mass.) Locomotive Works. (Married.) Engaged in his present business in New York City since 1855.

STEVENS, ALBERT CLARK—Journalist, 61 Elm street, New York City; residence Paterson, N. J. Born in Buffalo, N. Y., Oct. 10, 1854. Educated in public schools and at the University of Michigan. (Married.) Editor of "Bradstreet's," New York City, 1880-98. New York correspondent of the London "Economist" since 1883, and of the "Glasgow Herald" since 1884. Frequent contributor to magazines and newspapers.

STEVENS, ALEXANDER H.—Banker, 18 West 34th street, New York City. Educated at Yale ('54). Vice-president Astor National Bank. Member University Club, Yale Alumni and Down Town Associations, Sons of the Revolution, New England Society and American Museum of Natural History.

STEVENS, BYAM KERBY—Retired, 11 East 78th street, New York City. Born in New York City, Jan. 5, 1836. (Son of Byam Kerby and Frances Gallatin Stevens.) Educated in New York City. (Married Eliza Langdon, daughter of Matthew and Eliza Astor Wilks, Dec. 9, 1869, at Grace Church, New York City.) Member Metropolitan, City, Knickerbocker and Union Clubs, Metropolitan Club of Washington, Lenox Club of Lenox, Mass., New York Genealogical and Biographical, New York Historical and Dunlap Societies, Sons of the Revolution and Metropolitan Museum of Art.

STEVENS, CHARLES ALBERT—Wine Importer, 63 Pine street, New York City; residence Roslyn, L. I. Educated at Columbia. Member of the firm of Raoul-Duval, Stevens & Hall. Director Rock Plaster Co. of New York and New Jersey. Member Knickerbocker, St. Anthony, Racquet and Tennis, New York Yacht and Meadow Brook Hunt Clubs, American Geographical Society, Metropolitan Museum of Art and Columbia University Alumni Association.

STEVENS, FREDERIC W.—Lawyer, 62 Wall street, New York City; residence 33 West 35th street. Educated at Yale ('58). Trustee Bank for Savings and New York Life Insurance and Trust Co.; director Chemical National Bank, Eagle Fire Insurance Co., Gallatin National Bank and Sixth National Bank. Member Metropolitan, City, University, Knickerbocker and Yale Clubs, American Geographical Society, Century and Down Town Associations, Metropolitan Museum of Art and American Museum of Natural History.

STEVENS, GEORGE A.—Special Agent, 30 West 29th street, New York City; residence 1492 Bryant street. Born in Crescent, N. Y., Sept. 27, 1859. Educated in Troy (N. Y.) public schools. (Married.) Formerly city editor of Troy "Daily Press," and New York State deputy of International Typographical Union. Now special agent New York State Bureau of Labor Statistics. Member Social Reform Club and Typographical Union No. 6.

STEVENS, GEORGE THOMAS—Physician, 33 West 33d street, New York City. Born in Essex County, N. Y., 1832. Received degree of M.D. from Castleton (Vt.) Medical College and Ph.D. from Union College. (Married Harriet W. Wadhams, 1861.) Received commission as surgeon in the 77th New York Volunteers in 1861, and served with the Army of the Potomac as operating surgeon and medical inspector. Professor of physiology at Union College, 1870-5. Has practiced in New York City since 1880. Received highest prize from the Royal Academy of Medicine of Belgium for treatise on "Functional Diseases," 1883. Is the inventor of many physiological and surgical instruments and author of works on medical subjects. Member Grolier, Army and Navy, National Arts, Patria, Barnard and Congregational Clubs, Union College Alumni and Aldine Associations, National Sculpture, Municipal Art and American Geographical Societies, Lafayette Post G. A. R., Scientific Alliance and Military Order of the Loyal Legion.

STEVENS, HENRY E., JR.—Lumber Merchant, foot of West 47th street, New York City; residence 272 West 89th street. Born in New York City, June 14, 1866. Educated in public schools and at Yale. Member of the firm of H. E. Stevens & Co. Member Yale Club, Baptist Social Union and 7th Regiment, N. G. N. Y.

STEVENS, HERBERT B.—Woolen Commission Merchant, 41 Worth street, New York City; residence Greenwich, Conn. Born in Newton, Mass., July 11, 1855. Educated in Newton schools. (Married.) Senior member of the firm of Stevens, Sanford & Handy. Member New York Athletic and Wool Clubs and New England Society.

STEVENS, JOHN BRIGHT—Lawyer, 146 Broadway, New York City; residence New Brighton, S. I. Born in New York City. Educated at Columbia. (Married.) Member Holland Society, Society of Colonial Wars, Sons of the Revolution and Columbia Alumni Association.

STEVENS, JOHN W.—Real Estate, Broadway and 96th street, New York City. Born in Grafton, N. Y., Aug. 28, 1828. Educated at Colgate University. (Married.) Member of the firm of J. W. Stevens & Co. and president Stevens Real Estate Co. Was in the lumber business in New York City for twenty-five years. Was Sunday-school superintendent for fifty-one years and school trustee for the Twenty-second Ward, having been elected in 1869. Member Baptist Social Union for thirty-two years, being one of the original members.

STEVENS, JOSEPH EARLE—Merchant, 55 Beekman street, New York City; residence 3 Newbury street, Boston, Mass. Born in Boston, Feb. 8, 1870. Educated at Harvard. (Single.) Member Reform and Harvard Clubs.

STEVENS, LYNDON H.—Lawyer, 29 Broadway, York City; residence Greenwich, Conn. Born in New York City, Dec. 5, 1842. Educated at Troy University. (Married.) President West Indies Trading Co.; secretary Batopilas Mining Co.; resident director Trinidad Shipping and Trading Co. Member Lawyers' and Delta Kappa Epsilon Clubs.

STEVENS, MORRIS D.—Leather Merchant, 115 Broadway, New York City; residence 165 West 58th street. Member of the firm of D. T. Stevens & Son. Member New York Athletic and Union League Clubs, New York Genealogical and Biographical, and New England Societies and Holland Lodge.

STEVENS, MORRIS PUTNAM—Lawyer, 206 Broadway, New York City; residence 61 West 37th street. Born in Clifton, Baltimore Co., Md., June 14, 1867. (Son of Hon. Francis Putnam and Alexina [Bouldin] Stevens.) Educated in Baltimore public schools, at Baltimore City College, at Johns Hopkins University and in the Law Department of the University of Maryland ('88). Practicing in New York City since 1890 as a member of the firm of Farnham & Stevens. Member Knickerbocker Athletic Club, Johns Hopkins Alumni Association, Society of Medical Jurisprudence and Sons of the American Revolution.

STEVENS, ROBERT LIVINGSTON—Capitalist, 1 Newark street, Hoboken, N. J.; residence Westbury, L. I. Born in Hoboken, N. J., 1864. Educated at St. Paul's School, N. H., and Columbia College. (Married Mary Stuart Whitney, 1895.) Vice-president Hoboken Land and Improvement Co. Member St. Anthony, Union, Knickerbocker, Jockey, Meadow Brook Hunt and Racquet and Tennis Clubs and Columbia Alumni Association.

STEVENSON, GEORGE E. T.—Baptist Minister, Cortland, Born in Green Island, N. Y., March 1, 1873. Educated at Colgate (B.D.), Columbia University (A.B. and A.M.) and Chicago University (B.D.). (Single.) Pastor East Washington Heights Baptist Church, and of Memorial Baptist Church, Cortland. Was chaplain in General Green B. Raum's provisional regiment of Illinois Volunteers, but resigned to become a private in Company "H," 1st Illinois Infantry, United States Volunteers, and served in the Santiago campaign. Member Phi Gama Delta Fraternity.

STEVENSON, JAMES W.—Secretary, Municipal Building, Brooklyn. Born in Jefferson County, Pa., Aug. 24, 1870. Educated at Grove City College. Became a resident of Brooklyn in 1892, and was connected for a while with several daily newspapers. Secretary to the President of the Borough of Brooklyn of the City of New York since 1898.

STEVENSON, JOHN JAMES—Professor, University Heights, New York City; residence 568 West End avenue. Born in New York City, Oct. 10, 1841. Educated in private schools and at New York University (A.B., '63, and Ph.D., '67). Degree of LL.D. from Princeton University in 1893. (Married.) Professor of chemistry and natural history at the University of West Virginia, 1869-71. Professor of geology at New York University since 1871. United States Geologist, 1873-4 and 1878-80; engaged on Pennsylvania Geological Survey, 1875-7 and 1881-2. Was president of the New York Academy of Sciences, 1896-8, and of the Geological Society of America in 1898. Member Delta Phi Club, American Philosophical Society, Century

Association, Geological Societies of Russia, Hungary, Belgium, Austria, Norway and Edinburgh, and of many other scientific societies, both in the United States and abroad.

STEVENSON, JOHN READING—Journalist, 32 Park row, New York City; residence 131 East 30th street. Born in Anderson, S. C., July 12, 1867. Educated at Furman University, Greenville, S. C. Dramatic critic of the New York "Daily News." Member Press Club.

STEVENSON, PAUL E.—Author, Garden City, L. I. Born in New York City, May 19, 1868. Educated at Columbia Grammar School and at Columbia University. (Married.) Author of "A Deep Water Voyage" and many other works.

STEVENSON, RICHARD W.—Lawyer, 32 Nassau street, New York City; residence 9 West Tenth street. Born in Morristown, N. J., May 13, 1854. Educated at the College of the City of New York ('75). (Married.) Member of the firm of Davies, Stone & Auerbach. Member Racquet and Tennis, University and Rockaway Hunting Clubs, South Side Sportsmen's Club of Long Island, American Geographical Society, Down Town Association, Sons of the Revolution and Association of the Bar of the City of New York.

STEWART, AMBLER J.—Banker and Investments, 418 Ellicott square, Buffalo; residence "The Markeen." Born in Pennsylvania, Feb. 8, 1860. Educated in Harrisburg, Pa. (Married.) President American Realty Co. of Pennsylvania, and Pennsylvania National Acetylene Gas Co.; secretary West Broadway Land and Improvement Co. of Depew, N. Y.; general manager North Delaware and Boulevard Land and Improvement Co. of Buffalo; manager Kenmore Heights Land and Improvement Co. of Buffalo. Member Ellicott Club and Harrisburg (Pa.) Club.

STEWART, CHARLES S.—Colonel, United States Army; residence Cooperstown. Born at sea, April 11, 1823. (Son of Rev. Charles Samuel Stewart, a chaplain in the United States Navy.) Educated at United States Military Academy ('46). (Widower.) Assistant professor of engineering at West Point, 1849-54; in charge of the construction of fortifications in Boston Harbor, 1857-61; served in engineering corps during Civil War, 1861-5. First lieutenant, 1853; captain, 1860; lieutenant-colonel, 1867; colonel, 1882; retired, 1886.

STEWART, DAVID B.—Wholesale Grocery Merchant, Ithaca. Born in Newfield, N. Y., Oct. 17, 1832. Educated at Cazenovia Seminary. (Married.) Member of the firm of D. B. Stewart & Co. Was first mayor of the city of Ithaca. Now treasurer City Hospital; director Ithaca Trust Co., and trustee Ithaca Savings Bank. Member Town and Gown Club, Independent Order of Odd Fellows No. 71, Iroquois Encampment No. 16, Hobasco Lodge No. 716, F. & A. M., Eagle Chapter No. 58, and St. Augustine Commandery No. 38.

STEWART, FRANK—Lawyer, 48 Court street, Binghamton; residence 11 Chestnut street. Born in Binghamton, Jan. 10, 1851. Educated at Fally Seminary and Cortland Normal School. (Married.) Junior member of the firm of Millard & Stewart. Was corporation counsel of the city of Binghamton for eight years. Member Binghamton Club and Lodge No. 122, Knights of Pythias.

STEWART, GRANT—Actor and Playwright, Daly's Theatre, New York City; residence 300 West 138th street. Born in Lewisham, Kent, England, April 18, 1866. Educated at Cheltenham College and Cambridge University, England. (Married.) Formerly professor in Trinity College, Toronto, Canada, and at Toronto College of Music. Member Lambs' and Players' Clubs.

STEWART, HORATIO S.—Broker, 261 Flatbush avenue, Brooklyn; residence 123A Seventh avenue. Born in Oppenheim, N. Y., Jan. 9, 1843. (Married.) President Columbia Mutual Building and Loan Association and Brooklyn Breakfast Association; director Sprague Bank; trustee City Savings Bank, and Pennington (N. J.) Seminary and Institute. Member Royal Arcanum.

STEWART, IRA BLISS—Lawyer, 346 Broadway, New York City; residence 23 West 84th street. Born in Batavia, Genesee Co., N. Y., Oct. 28, 1855. (Son of Reuben Nelson and Harriet Dewey [Ford] Stewart.) Educated in Batavia public schools. Studied law and was admitted to the Bar in Rochester in 1878. (Married.) Practicing in New York City since 1880. Member of the board of managers Empire State Society of the Sons of the American Revolution; vestryman St. Matthew's Protestant Episcopal Church.

STEWART, JOHN—Wholesale Dry Goods Merchant, 87 Thomas street, New York City; residence 147 West 94th street. Born in Belfast, Ireland, 1847. Educated in New York City public schools. (Married.) President board of trustees of Scotch Presbyterian Church; treasurer board of trustees Masonic Hall and Asylum Fund during the building of the great Masonic Home at Utica; Grand Master New York State, 1895-6. Member Lotos, New Amsterdam and Craftsmen's Clubs.

STEWART, JOHN AIKMAN—Banker, 45 Wall street, New York City; residence 125 East 37th street. Born in New York City, Aug. 22, 1822. Educated at Columbia College. Clerk to the New York City Board of Education, 1842-50; actuary of the United States Life Insurance Co., 1850-3. One of the organizers and secretary of the United States Trust Co., 1853-64; Assistant Treasurer of the United States, 1864-5. President and trustee United States Trust Co. (since 1865); director Bank of New Amsterdam, Equitable Life Assurance Society of the United States, Liverpool and London and Globe Insurance Co. of England, Liverpool and London and Globe Insurance Co. of New York and Merchants' National Bank; trustee Greenwich Savings Bank. Member Riding, Union League and Metropolitan Clubs and Metropolitan Museum of Art.

STEWART, JOHN A., JR.—Lawyer, 45 Wall street, New York City; residence "Appin," Short Hills, N. J. Born in Irvington-on-Hudson, N. Y., July 29, 1857. Educated at Princeton ('79). (Married Anne C. Thomas, 1882.) Member Union Club.

STEWART, JOHN K.—Congressman, House of Representatives, Washington, D. C., and Manufacturer of Knitted Goods, Amsterdam; residence Amsterdam. Born in Perth Centre, Fulton Co., N. Y., Oct. 20, 1852. Educated at Amsterdam Academy. (Married.) Representing the Twenty-first New York District in the Fifty-sixth Congress (1899-1901). Secretary and director of a local gas light company; director Farmers' National Bank.

STEWART, JOHN MUIRHEAD—Assistant Engineer, East 24th street yard, Department of Docks, New York City; residence 358 West 58th street. Born in Peekskill, N. Y., Sept. 9, 1853. Educated at Sheffield Scientific School, Yale, ('74). (Single.) Formerly assistant engineer West Shore Ry., Denver and Rio Grande Ry., New York, Lackawanna and Western Ry. and to Aqueduct Commission, 1884-90. Assistant engineer Department of Docks and Ferries since 1891. Member American Society of Civil Engineers and Cortlandt Lodge, F. & A. M., of Peekskill, N. Y.

STEWART, LISPENARD—Lawyer and Trustee, 31 Nassau street and 155 West 14th street, New York City; residence 6 Fifth avenue, and "White Lodge," Newport, R. I. Born in New York City, June 19, 1855. Educated at Anthon's and Charlier's schools in New York City, at Yale (A.B., '76) and at Columbia Law School (LL.B., '78). (Single.) Has been trustee of the Rhinelander estate since 1878. Member of the Republican County Committee for many years, serving for some time as its treasurer. Republican Presidential Elector and secretary of the Electoral College, 1888-9; member of State Senate from the Eighth District, 1890-1; prison commissioner for the First Judicial District since 1895, and president of the State Commission of Prisons for five terms; delegate to the Republican National Conventions, 1896 and 1900. Member of the governing board of the New York Eye and Ear Infirmary, Prison Association of New York and Protestant Episcopal Missionary Society for Seamen; trustee Real Estate Trust Co., Grant Monument Association and New York Zoological Society. Has served on many important city committees, such as Committee of One Hundred to arrange for celebration of the Columbus quadri-centennial, Committee of One Hundred which escorted Gen. Grant's body from Saratoga to New York, Citizens' Committee in charge of celebration of One Hundredth Anniversary of Washington's Inauguration as first President, Washington Arch Committee, Manhattan Day Committee at World's Columbian Exposition and Dewey Celebration Committee in 1899. Member Union, Metropolitan, Union League, University, Riding and Republican Clubs, Yale Alumni and Down Town Associations, American Geographical Society, Chamber of Commerce, American Museum of Natural History, Metropolitan Museum of Art and of many clubs beyond the limits of New York City.

STEWART, OSCAR MILTON—Instructor, Cornell University, Ithaca; residence 324 Huestis street. Degrees of Ph.B. and Ph.D. Instructor in physics, Cornell University.

STEWART, THOMAS E.—Lawyer, 203 Broadway, New York City; residence 1425 Broadway. Member Republican, Twilight, Olympic, New York Athletic and Lotos Clubs and National Academy of Design.

STEWART, THOMAS M.—Lawyer, 203 Broadway, New York City; residence 353 Van Buren street, Brooklyn. Born in Charleston, S. C., Dec. 28, 1854. Educated in private and public schools, at Howard University, at the University of South Carolina and at Princeton. Degrees of A.B. and LL.B. Practicing in New York City since 1886.

STEWART, WILLIAM P.—Professional Actuary, 32 Nassau street, New York City; residence 240 West 102d street. Born in Bath, Me., Feb. 14, 1842. Educated in Bath. (Married.) Actuary Metropolitan Life Insurance Co. for five years. Now chief of Agents' Instruction Department, Mutual Life Insurance Co. Author of "Abstract Identities," "Evolution of Life Insurance-Exposition Charts," "Martyred Humanity," "American Heredity," "Soulward" and others. Member Physicians' Club of Chicago, Ill. (honorary), and Metropolitan Museum of Art.

STEWART, WILLIAM RHINELANDER—Lawyer, 31 Nassau street, New York City; residence 17 Washington square, North. Born in New York City, Dec. 3, 1852. (Son of Lisperard and Mary [Rhinelander] Stewart.) Educated by private tutors, at Charlier's Institute, Dr. Anthon's Grammar School and at Columbia College Law School. Practicing in New York City since his admission to the Bar in 1873. Was a member of the Committee of Seventy of 1894 and has served on numerous public committees. President and director Tennis Building Association; president State Board of Charities; director Corn Exchange Bank; trustee Greenwich Savings Bank; treasurer Grace Church. Member Metropolitan, Church, New York Athletic, Union and Tuxedo Clubs, Century and Down Town Associations, American Geographical and St. Nicholas Societies, American Museum of Natural History and Metropolitan Museum of Art.

STICKNEY, ALBERT—Lawyer, 31 Nassau street, New York City; residence 144 West 86th street. Born in Boston, Mass., Feb. 1, 1839. Educated at Harvard College ('59) and at Harvard Law School ('62). Served as lieutenant-colonel of the 47th Massachusetts Volunteers during Civil War, and was aide on the staff of Major-General Banks and inspector-general on the staff of Major-General Emory. Settled in New York City after the war, and was associated for a time with the firm of Evarts, Southmayd & Choate. Is now senior member of the firm of Stickney, Spencer & Ordway. Served as a member of the Committee of Seventy of 1894. Member Harvard University, University Athletic and City Clubs, American Geographical Society, Down Town Association, Metropolitan Museum of Art and Association of the Bar of the City of New York.

STICKNEY, JOSEPH—Coal Merchant, 1 Broadway, New York City; residence 874 Fifth avenue. Born in Concord, N. H. Educated at Pinkerton (N. H.) Academy and Thetford (Vt.) Academy. (Married.) Member of the firm of Stickney, Conyngham & Co. Member Union, Union League, New York Yacht, American Yacht, Eastern Yacht (Mass.) Country, Racquet and Tennis, Jekyl Island (N. C.), Riding and Metropolitan Clubs, American Fine Arts and New England Societies, Down Town Association, Metropolitan Museum of Art and American Museum of Natural History.

STIEFEL, MORTIMER—Lawyer, 10 Wall street, New York City; residence 1111 Madison avenue. Born in New York City, Aug. 24, 1869. Educated at Columbia. (Married.) Director Mills Publishing Co. Member Criterion and Democratic Clubs.

STIEGLITZ, ALFRED—Editor and Amateur Photographer, 1111 Madison avenue, New York City. Born in New York City, Jan. 1, 1864. Educated in New York City and in Germany. (Married.) Formerly editor of the "American Amateur Photographer"; also former editor of "Camera Notes," of which he was the founder. Honorary member Camera Club of Orange, N. J., National Sculpture Society, Photographic Society of Chicago, Ill., and Photographic Society of Philadelphia, Pa.; member National Arts and Camera (ex-president) Clubs.

STIER, JOSEPH F.—Lawyer, 11 Broadway, New York City; residence 117 West 58th street. Born in Johnsonville, Pa., March 28, 1857. Educated at Newton (N. J.) Collegiate Institute and Lafayette College ('80). (Single.) Member Lawyers', Marine and Field, Fairfield County (Conn.) Golf and Laurence Harbor Country Clubs, Lafayette Alumni Association and Association of the Bar of the City of New York.

STIGER, WILLIAM E.—Lawyer, 155 Broadway, New York City; residence 138 West 73d street. Born in Belvidere, Warren Co., N. J., Sept. 16, 1845. Educated at Yale ('66) and Columbia Law School. (Married.) Trustee Seaman's Bank for Savings. Connected with numerous religious and charitable organizations. Member Union League, Lawyers' and Yale Clubs, State Bar Association and Association of the Bar of the City of New York.

STIKEMAN, JAMES—Lawyer, 18 Broadway, New York City; residence 291 Clermont avenue, Brooklyn. Born in Port Richmond, S. I., Jan. 1, 1851. (Son of James Stikeman.) (Married Malvina Hortense Powell of Itherville, P. Q., Canada.) Treasurer Clinton Avenue Congregational Church; trustee Brooklyn Bureau of Charities. Member Laurence Harbor Country Club, Long Island Historical Society, Society of Medical Jurisprudence, New York State Bar Association, Young Women's Christian Association of Brooklyn, and New York Law Institute.

STILES, NORMAN C.—Retired, 18 Clinton street, Watertown. Born in Feeding Hills, Mass., June 18, 1834. Educated in Feeding Hills. (Married.) Was in business in Middletown, Conn., until 1890. Connecticut State Commissioner (by appointment) to Vienna Exposition, 1873; member of the advisory committee of the Board of Commissioners to the Centennial Exposition, Philadelphia, 1876; has served as councilman and alderman of Middletown, Conn. Member Engineers' Club of New York City, and American Society of Mechanical Engineers.

STILES, SUMNER B.—Lawyer, 15 Wall street, New York City; residence 250 West 129th street. Born in Middleton, Essex Co., Mass., Jan. 13, 1851. Educated at Phillips Andover Academy ('72), Harvard College ('76) and Harvard Law School ('81). (Married.) Treasurer and trustee Unity Congregational Society; life member of the American Unitarian Association. Member Harlem Republican and Unitarian Clubs, Phi Beta Kappa Society, Pi Eta Society of Harvard University, and Harvard Law School Association.

STILLINGS, WILLIAM E.—Lawyer, 309 Broadway, and Commissioner, 6 Wall street, New York City; residence 546 West 152d street. Born in New York City, 1857. Educated in public schools, at Claverack Academy and at Columbia College Law School. Practicing in New York City since his admission to the Bar in 1881, and is now senior member of the firm of Stillings & McLoughlin. Served for a time as counsel to the sheriff of New York County, and as a school trustee of the Twelfth Ward. Leader of the Tammany Hall Democracy of the Twenty-third Assembly District, 1892-9. Change of grade damage commissioner for the Twenty-third and Twenty-fourth Wards since 1893. Member Democratic, Minqua, New York Athletic, Arkwright, Harlem Democratic and Sagamore Clubs and Tammany Society.

STILLMAN, CHARLES—Merchant, 22 William street, New York City; residence 21 West 48th street. Educated at Yale ('82). Member University, Calumet, Seawanhaka-Corinthian Yacht, New York Yacht, Larchmont Yacht, Metropolitan, Riding, Delta Kappa Epsilon and Yale Clubs.

STILLMAN, JAMES—Banker, 52 Wall street, and Merchant, 22 William street, New York City; residence 7 East 40th street, and "Oaklawn," Newport, R. I. Born in Brownsville, Texas, June 9, 1850. (Son of George G. Stillman.) Educated by private tutors. (Married Elizabeth Rumrill.) In cotton commission business in New York City since 1871, and has been a member of the firm of Woodward & Stillman since 1873. President and director National City Bank and Second National Bank; member of executive committee and trustee Chicago and Northwestern Ry. Co., Farmers' Loan and Trust Co., New York Security and Trust Co. and United States Trust Co.; member of executive committee and director Union Pacific R. R. Co.; director Audit Co. of New York, Baltimore and Ohio R. R. Co., Central Realty Bond and Trust Co., Deer Hill Co. (Ltd.), Delaware, Lackawanna and Western R. R. Co., Hanover National Bank, Louisville, Evansville and St. Louis R. R. Co., Mobile Street R. R. Co., New York Mutual Gas Light Co., Northern Pacific Ry. Co., Queen Insurance Co. of America, Southern Pine Co., Terminal Warehouse Co. and Western Union Telegraph Co.; trustee American Surety Co., American Veterinary College, Bowery Savings Bank, Consolidated Gas Co. of New York, and Fifth Avenue Safe Deposit Co. Member Metropolitan, Union League, Union, Lawyers', Riding, Tuxedo, New York Yacht, Seawanhaka-Corinthian Yacht, Corinthian Yacht, Manhattan, Reform, Turf and Field, Eastern Yacht, South Side Sportsmen's and Jekyl Island Clubs, Metropolitan Club of Washington, D. C., New England Society and Century and Down Town Associations.

STILLMAN, LELAND S.—Lawyer, 40 Wall street, New York City; residence 339 West 70th street. Born in San Francisco, Cal., Sept. 8, 1870. Educated at Yale and at New York Law School. (Single.) Secretary "Commercial Advertiser" Association; assistant secretary Verde Queen Copper Co. of Arizona. Member University Club, Ardsley Casino of Ardsley-on-Hudson, and Troop "A," New York Volunteer Cavalry.

STILLMAN, THOMAS BLISS—Chemist, 15 Wall street, New York City; residence Hoboken, N. J. Born in Plainfield, N. J., May 24, 1852. Educated at Rutgers College ('73). Degrees of M.Sc. from Rutgers College in 1876 and Ph.D. from Stevens Institute of Technology in 1883. (Married Emma Louise Pomplitz of Baltimore, Md., 1881.) Member of faculty at Stevens Institute of Technology since 1881, and has been professor of analytical chemistry since 1886. Member American Chemical Society, American Institute of Mining Engineers and other scientific organizations.

STILWELL, ARTHUR A.—Wholesale Drug Merchant, 103 William street, New York City; residence 118 West 121st street. Born in New York City, Jan. 26, 1855. Educated in New York City. (Married.) Member Drug Trade (ex-vice-president) and Harlem (ex-trustee) Clubs.

STILWELL, LAMONT—Lawyer, 925 University Block, Syracuse; residence 108 Comstock avenue. Born in Windsor, N. Y., June 29, 1852. Educated at Cortland Normal School. (Married.) Alderman of Seventeenth Ward. Member Citizens' Club.

STILWELL, WILLIAM MOORE—Grain Merchant, 403 Produce Exchange, New York City; residence 127 West 127th street. Member of the firm of Stilwell & Co. Member New York Genealogical and Biographical, Holland and St. Nicholas Societies, Society of Colonial Wars and Old Guard.

STIMPSON, HENRY C. S.—Lawyer, 11 Pine street, New York City; residence 64 West 96th street. Born in New Jersey, July 18, 1872. Educated at New York Law School. (Single.) Secretary Manhattan Single Tax Club. Member Sons of the American Revolution, Society of Mayflower Descendants and Dwight Alumni Association.

STIMSON, DANIEL McMARTIN—Physician and Surgeon, 11 West 17th street, New York City. Born in Saratoga County, N. Y., 1844. Educated at Albany Academy, Union College ('64) and at New York College of Physicians and Surgeons. (Married.) Trustee American Veterinary College and Women's Medical College of New York Infirmary; consulting physician Mt. Sinai Hospital, Skin and Cancer Hospital, Loomis Sanitarium, New York Infirmary for Women and Children and Northern Dispensary, and member of advisory board Sailors' Snug Harbor. Member Metropolitan University, Players' and Fencers' Clubs and Columbia University Alumni, Union College Alumni and Century Associations.

STIMSON, EARL L.—Lawyer, 16 Exchange place, New York City; residence 379 Lewis avenue, Brooklyn. Born in Saratoga County, N. Y., Dec. 22, 1835. Educated at Union College. (Single.) Formerly corporation counsel of the City of Cohoes, N. Y. Now director and trustee of various institutions. Member Union Alumni Association.

STIMSON, FREDERICK J.—Lawyer, 55 Liberty street, New York City; residence 312 West 75th street. Educated at Yale ('77). Member of the firm of Stimson & Williams. Secretary and director Knickerbocker Bank Note Co. Member University, Union League, Congregational, Players', Richmond Hill Golf and Barnard Clubs and Yale Alumni Association.

STIMSON, HENRY L.—Lawyer, 32 Liberty street, New York City; residence 71 East 52d street. Born in 1867. (Married.) Member of the firm of Root, Howard, Winthrop & Stimson. Member Yale Club, Century Association and Association of the Bar of the City of New York.

STIMSON, LEWIS ATTERBURY—Physician and Professor, 34 East 33d street, New York City. Born in Paterson, N. J., 1844. Educated at Yale (A.B., '63, M.D., '74 and LL.D., 1900). (Married.) Served in Union Army during Civil War. Practicing in New York City since 1873. Professor of surgery in Cornell University Medical College; surgeon to Bellevue and New York Hospitals. Member University Club, Yale Alumni and Century Associations and Military Order of the Loyal Legion.

STINE, JACOB R.—Merchant, 8 Ferry street, New York City; residence 219 Jefferson avenue, Brooklyn. Born in Plainfield, N. J., March 20, 1829. Educated in Plainfield. (Married.) Member of the firm of J. R. Stine & Co. Treasurer New York Leather Belting Co. Member Union League Club of Brooklyn, and Hartwood Club of Hartwood, N. Y.

STINE, JOHN R.—Merchant, 8 Ferry street, New York City; residence 176 Hancock street, Brooklyn. Born in Brooklyn, April 17, 1864. Educated in public schools. (Married.) Member of the firm of J. R. Stine & Co. Secretary New York Leather Belting Co. Member Crescent Athletic Club of Brooklyn, and Hartwood Club of Hartwood, N. Y.

STINER, JOSEPH H.—Judge, 269 Eighth avenue, New York City; residence Hotel Marlborough. Born in New York City, 1839. Educated in public schools and at the University Law School. Served with the 59th New York Volunteers during Civil War and advanced to the rank of major. Judge of the Eighth District Municipal Court since 1893, and president of the Board of Municipal Judges. Member Press, Democratic, Progress and Pequod Clubs and Tammany Society.

STINSON, FRANK T.—President, 32 Pine street, New York City; residence 70 Lefferts place, Brooklyn. Born in Bath, Me. Educated in Bath. (Single.) President Pacific Fire Insurance Co. Member Lawyers' Club, and Lincoln, Riding and Driving, and Crescent Athletic Clubs of Brooklyn.

STITT, CHARLES H.—Broker, 16 Broad street, New York City; residence 496 West End avenue. Born in New York City, June 10, 1852. (Married.) Member of the firm of Burrill & Stitt, and of the New York Stock Exchange. Member Colonial Club.

STITT, WILLIAM C.—Clergyman, 76 Wall street, New York City; residence 28 West 22d street. Born in Philadelphia, Pa., April 23, 1833. Educated at Princeton. (Married.) Formerly literary editor New York "Evangelist." Now secretary American Seamen's Friend Society. Member Princeton and Quill Clubs, Presbyterian Union and Kappa Alpha Fraternity.

STIVERS, RUFUS M.—Carriage Manufacturer, 150 East 31st street, New York City; residence 159 East 31st street. Born in Greenwich, Conn., Feb. 10, 1822. Educated near North Castle, N. Y. (Widower.) Was formerly vice-president and, later, president of the Murray Hill Bank. Member Union League Club.

STOCKWELL, WILLIAM H.—Lawyer, 146 Broadway, New York City; residence University Club. Born in Kentucky, Nov. 18, 1863. Educated at Yale ('83) and at Columbia Law School. (Single.) Attorney for Title Guarantee and Trust Co. Member University and Church Clubs, Ardsley Casino of Ardsley-on-Hudson, and Association of the Bar of the City of New York.

STODDARD, CHARLES AUGUSTUS—Editor and Presbyterian Clergyman, 156 Fifth avenue, New York City; residence 300 West 72d street. Born in Boston, Mass., May 28, 1833. Educated at Williams College (A.B., '54, A.M., '57 and D.D., '71), at the University of Edinburgh, Scotland, and at Union Theological Seminary, New York City (D.D., '59). (Married Mary, daughter of Dr. Samuel I. Prime.) Rector of the Washington Heights Presbyterian Church, New York City, 1859-93. Became associate editor in 1869, part owner in 1873, and upon the death of Dr. Prime in 1885, editor and publisher of "The Observer." Author of several works. Secretary and director New York Observer Co. Member University, Sigma Phi, Adirondack League, Authors' and Colonial Clubs, American Geographical and New England Societies, Williams College Alumni and Century Associations and Presbyterian Union.

STODDARD, ENOCH V.—Physician, 62 State street, Rochester; residence 68 South Washington street. Born in New London, Conn., July 10, 1840. Educated at Trinity College ('60), at Yale and at Albany Medical College. (Married.) Served as surgeon in the 65th New York Volunteers, 1863-4. Professor emeritus of therapeutics and hygiene, University of Buffalo. Has been consulting physician to the Rochester City Hospital; health commissioner of Rochester, and commissioner and vice-president of the New York State Board of Charities. Member Genesee Valley Club, University Club of New York City, Monroe County Medical Society, Society of Colonial Wars, Medical Society of the State of New York, Trinity Alumni, Yale Alumni and Central New York Medical Associations, G. A. R., American Academy of Medicine (Fellow), Military Order of the Loyal Legion, Sons of the American Revolution and other organizations.

STODDARD, FRANCIS HOVEY—Professor and Author, University Heights, New York City; residence 22 West 68th street. Born in Middlebury, Vt., April 25, 1847. Educated at Amherst College (A.B., '63, and A.M., '85). Degree of Ph.D. from the Western University of Pennsylvania in 1895. (Married Lucy Smith, 1873.) Professor of English literature at New York University. Author of "The Modern Novel," "The Ideal in Literature," "Conditions of Labor in England," "Miracle Plays and Mysteries," "The Uses of Rhetoric," "The Study of the English Language," etc. Member Barnard and Authors' Clubs and Amherst College Alumni and Century Associations.

STODDARD, JOHN LAWSON—Lecturer and Author, 4 West 72d street, New York City. Born in Brookline, Mass., April 24, 1850. Educated at Williams College (valedictorian, '71). (Married Mary H. Brown of Bangor, Me, 1877.) Has traveled extensively, and was active in the promotion of the Stoddard Lectures in the larger cities throughout the United States for almost twenty years. Author of "The Stoddard Lectures on Travel Abroad and in America," published in ten volumes.

STODDARD, JOHN M.—Lawyer, 71 Broadway, New York City; residence Gramercy Park Hotel. Born in Horseheads, N. Y., April 19, 1871. Educated at Cornell. (Single.) Member of the firm of Stoddard & Thomas. Member Cornell University Club.

STODDARD, RICHARD HENRY—Author and Poet, 329 East 15th street, New York City. Born in Hingham, Mass., July 2, 1825. Educated in public schools. (Married Elizabeth Drew Barstow, 1852.) Confidential clerk to General McClellan, 1870-3; librarian of New York City, 1874-5. Was literary reviewer of the New York "World" from 1860 to 1870, and has held same position on the "Mail and Express" since 1880. Author of "Adventures in Fairyland," "Life of Humboldt," "Songs of Summer," "The Book of the East," "A Century After," "Life of Washington Irving," "Under the Evening Lamp" and many others. Member Authors' Club, Authors' Society and Century Association.

STODDART, THOMAS A.—Lawyer, 135 Broadway, New York City; residence 86 East 77th street. Born in New York City, July 17, 1863. Educated at the Pingry School, Elizabeth, N. J., Rutgers College (A.B., '86, and A.M., '89) and Columbia Law School (LL.B., '88). (Single.) Member Sewaren Land and Water Club, Chi Phi Fraternity and New York State Bar Association.

STOIBER, ADOLPHUS H.—Lawyer, 1 Nassau street, New York City; residence 30 West 26th street. Born in New York City, Sept. 24, 1853. Educated at the College of the City of New York, Columbia Law School and Universities of Leipzig, Heidelberg and Berlin. (Single.) Member Lawyers', Delta Kappa Epsilon, Democratic, Camera and Reform Clubs, New York College Alumni and Columbia University Alumni Associations and Association of the Bar of the City of New York.

STOKES, ANSON PHELPS—Real Estate Investor, 45 Cedar street, New York City; residence 229 Madison avenue, and Lenox, Mass. Chairman of the board of managers and director Dudley Co.; director Ansonia Brass and Copper Co. and Woodbridge Co.; trustee United States Trust Co. Member Metropolitan, City, Seawanhaka-Corinthian Yacht, Nineteenth Century, Union League, Knickerbocker, Reform, Lawyers', Church, Riding, Tuxedo, New York Yacht and Mendelssohn Glee Clubs, Society of Colonial Wars, Century Association, National Academy of Design, Metropolitan Museum of Art and American Museum of Natural History.

STOKES, FREDERICK A.—Editor and Publisher, 5 East 16th street, New York City; residence 51 West 39th street. Born in Brooklyn, N. Y., Nov. 4, 1857. Educated at Cheshire (Conn.) Academy ('75) and at Yale ('79). (Married Ellen R. Colby, 1883.) President and director Frederick A. Stokes Co. Editor "The Pocket Magazine." Member University, Mendelssohn Glee (ex-president), New York Athletic and Yale Clubs.

STOKES, HENRY B.—Insurance, 66 Broadway, New York City; residence 1047 Madison avenue, and New Rochelle. Born and educated in New York City. (Widower.) President Manhattan Life Insurance Co.; first vice-president Manhattan Savings Institution; director National Bank of the Republic, National Citizens' Bank and Citizens' Insurance Co. Member Union League, Tuxedo, Riding and Country Clubs.

STOKES, ISAAC N. PHELPS—Real Estate Investor, 45 Cedar street, New York City; residence 229 Madison avenue. Educated at Harvard ('91). President and director Dudley Co.; director Building and Sanitary Inspection Co. Member City, Knickerbocker, University, Racquet and Tennis, Seawanhaka-Corinthian Yacht, Canoe and Reform Clubs, American Geographical Society and Metropolitan Museum of Art.

STOKES, J. G. PHELPS—Investments, 47 Cedar street, New York City; residence 229 Madison avenue. Born in New York City, March 18, 1872. Educated at Sheffield Scientific School of Yale ('92), New York College of Physicians and Surgeons ('96) and School of Political Science of Columbia ('97). (Single.) President Nevada Central R. R. Co., Nevada Co., Austin Mining Co. and Woodbridge Co.; vice-president State Bank of Nevada, and Dudley Co.; chairman board of trustees People's Institute; member executive board of New York Association for Improving the Condition of the Poor, University Settlement Society, Legal Aid Society, Prison Association, Federation of Churches and Christian Workers, Tuskegee Normal and Industrial Institute and Armstrong Association. Member City (trustee), Knickerbocker, St. Anthony, University, Yale, Drug Trade and Riding Clubs.

STOKES, JAMES—Real Estate Investor, 45 Cedar street, New York City; residence 68 Park avenue.

Educated at New York University ('62). Director Manhattan Life Insurance Co., Mercantile Trust Co., United Electric Light and Power Co. and United States Illuminating Co. Member Union League, University, Lawyers', Patria, Mendelssohn Glee and City Clubs. Down Town and Aldine Associations, American Geographical Society, Metropolitan Museum of Art and Presbyterian Union.

STOKES, THOMAS—45 Cedar street, New York City; residence Tuxedo. Born in New York City. Educated at New York University. Director Ansonia Brass and Copper Co. Member Metropolitan, Union League and Army and Navy Clubs and others.

STOKES, WALTER C.—Banker and Broker, 66 Broadway, New York City; residence 28 East 58th street. Born in New York City, Feb. 13, 1852. (Married.) Member of the New York Stock Exchange. Director Manhattan Life Insurance Co. Member Union League and Riding Clubs.

STOKES, WILLIAM E. DODGE—Investments, 146 Broadway, New York City; residence 262 West 72d street. Connected with the Onward Construction Co. (Ltd.) Member Union League, Manhattan, Colonial, St. Nicholas, Lawyers', Westchester County Country, Seawanhaka-Corinthian Yacht, New York Yacht, Meadow Brook Hunt and Wolf's Head (Yale) Clubs, St. Nicholas, American Fine Arts and New England Societies, Yale Alumni and Down Town Associations and Sons of the Revolution.

STONE, CHARLES L.—Lawyer, 921 Onondaga County Savings Bank Building, Syracuse; residence 815 James street. Born in Mexico, Oswego Co., N. Y., April 2, 1848. Educated at Hamilton College. (Married.) Member of the firm of Stone, Gannon & Pettit. Attorney and trustee Onondaga County Savings Bank; counsel to Syracuse Water Board. Formerly corporation counsel of Syracuse; now referee in Bankruptcy. Member Century and Citizens' Clubs.

STONE, EDWARD F.—Clerk, 28 Wall street, New York City; residence 567 Park avenue. Born in New York City, April 3, 1838. Educated in Washington Institute. (Married.) Connected with the United States Sub-Treasury since 1867, and now assistant chief of Check Pay Division. Member 7th Regiment Veteran Association.

STONE, HERBERT S.—Publisher, 111 Fifth avenue, New York City; residence 404 Erie street, Chicago, Ill. Born in Chicago, May 29, 1870. Educated in Chicago, Geneva, Switzerland, and at Harvard ('94). (Single.) Member of the firm of Herbert S. Stone & Co. Member Players' Club, and Chicago and University Clubs of Chicago, Ill.

STONE, MASON A.—Insurance, 161 Broadway, New York City; residence 20 East 66th street. President and director Greenwich Insurance Co. Member Union League, Colonial, Lawyers', Republican and Army and Navy Clubs, American Geographical, American Numismatic and Archaeological and Linnean Societies, Military Order of the Loyal Legion, Metropolitan Museum of Art and Lafayette Post, G. A. R.

STONE, SUMNER R.—Merchant, 48 Exchange place, New York City; residence 155 West 58th street. Born in Newark, N. J., Sept. 8, 1828. Educated at New York University. (Married.) Director National Bank of the Republic. Member American Geographical Society, American Museum of Natural History and Metropolitan Museum of Art.

STONE, WILLIAM FLETCHER—Physician and Instructor, 139 West 34th street, New York City. Degrees of Ph.B. and M.D. Instructor in anatomy, and clinical assistant in surgery, Cornell University Medical College, New York City.

STONE, WILLIAM LEETE—Historian, Mount Vernon. Born in New York City, April 4, 1835. Educated at Brown University (A.B., A.M. and LL.B.). (Married.) Formerly editor-in-chief, for many years, of the "Journal of Commerce" of New York City. Author of "The Life and Times of Sir William Johnson, Bart.," "Revolutionary Letters," "Burgoyne's Campaign and St. Leger's Expedition," "Life and Military Journals of Major-General Riedesel," "History of New York City," "Life and Writings of Colonel William L. Stone," "Reminiscences of Saratoga and Ballston," "The Saratoga Battle Grounds," "Historical Guide Book to Saratoga Springs and Vicinity," "The Stone Genealogy" and many other works. Honorary member of Oneida, Chicago, Maine, Vermont, Buffalo, New Haven, New Hampshire, Rhode Island, Wisconsin and New Jersey Historical Societies and American Historical Association; corresponding member New York Historical, Wyoming Historical, American Numismatic and Archaeological and New York Genealogical and Biographical Societies and Albany Institute; life member New York Institution for the Instruction of the Deaf and Dumb; associate member American Society for Psychological Research.

STOPPANI, C. F.—Stock Broker, 34 New street, New York City; residence 217 Lafayette avenue, Brooklyn. Born in New York City, Oct. 29, 1862. Educated in New York City. (Single.) Member of the firm of Ennis & Stoppani. Member New York Yacht and Lotos Clubs, Crescent Athletic and Brooklyn Clubs of Brooklyn, and Hanover Club of Williamsburg.

STORER, EBENEZER—Stationer, 60 Murray street, New York City; residence 157 Van Buren street, Brooklyn. Born and educated in Brooklyn. (Married.) Member Crescent Athletic Club of Brooklyn, Hempstead Harbor Club, Sons of the Revolution and 23d Regiment Veteran Association.

STORER, JOHN H.—Physician, 30 Edgecombe avenue, New York City. Born in Westminster, Conn., March 11, 1866. Educated at Yale University and at Homeopathic Medical College and Hospital. (Married.) Lecturer on diseases of the kidneys, New York Homeopathic Medical College and Hospital; medical examiner Michigan Life Insurance Co.; director Mutual Life Association. Member Heights Club, American Institute of Homeopathy and New York State Homeopathic, New York County Homeopathic, Paedological and Materia Medica Societies.

STORM, CLARENCE—Lawyer, 129 Broadway, New York City; residence 41 West 81st street. Born in New York City. Educated at Columbia University (A.B.) and New York Law School (LL.B.). (Single.) Member of the firm of Miller, Decker & Miller. Member Church, Calumet and Zeta Psi Clubs, Field Club of Morristown, N. J., Holland, New England and St. Nicholas Societies, Columbia University Alumni Association, American Museum of Natural History, Metropolitan Museum of Art, Society of Colonial Wars, Association of the Engineers' Corps and Veterans of Company K, 7th Regiment, N. G. N. Y.

STORMS, WILLIAM HART—Banker, Ithaca; residence 307 North Tioga street. Born in New York City, Oct. 12, 1855. Educated in New York City and Ithaca. (Single.) Cashier and secretary Ithaca Trust Co. Member Town and Gown Club (treasurer).

STORRS, RICHARD SALTER—Congregational Clergyman, 80 Pierrepont street, Brooklyn. Born in Braintree, Mass., Aug. 21, 1821. Educated at Amherst College. Received degrees of D.D. from Union College in 1853, D.D. from Harvard in 1859, LL.D. from Princeton in 1874 and L.H.D. from Columbia in 1887. (Married Mary E. Jenks of Boston, Mass., 1845.) Rector of the Church of the Pilgrims, Brooklyn, 1846-98; retired from active ministry in 1898. President of the American Board of Commissioners for Foreign Missions, 1887-97. Author of "Forty Years of Pastoral Life," "The Prospective Advance of Christian Missions," "The Constitution of a Human Soul" and others of a similar nature. Member Amherst College Alumni and Century Associations, New England Society and Sons of the Revolution.

STORY, C. B.—Physician, Bayside. Born in Dutchess County, N. Y., Dec. 13, 1863. Educated at Cornell ('86). (Married.) Proprietor Bayside Pharmacy. Formerly visiting physician and surgeon to the Flushing Hospital. Member Niantic, Shinnecock Democratic, Manhasset Bay Yacht and Cornell University Clubs and Royal Arcanum.

STORY, GEORGE HENRY—Artist, 230 Central Park, South, New York City. Born in New Haven, Conn., Jan. 22, 1835. Studied art in Europe. Established a studio in New York City in 1870. Makes a specialty of portraits and genre pictures. Member Lotos and Barnard Clubs, Artists' Fund Society, National Academy of Design and Metropolitan Museum of Art.

STORY, MARION—Broker, 77 Nassau street, New York City; residence Portchester. Member of the firm of Edmund & Charles Randolph, members of the New York Stock Exchange. Member Knickerbocker, Country, New York Yacht, Racquet and Tennis, Rockaway Hunting, American Yacht and Union Clubs.

STORY, T. H.—Grain Commission Merchant, 107 Produce Exchange, New York City; residence 1450 Pacific street, Brooklyn. Born in Batavia, N. Y., Aug. 30, 1864. Educated in Brooklyn. (Married.) Member of the firm of W. H. Story & Co. Member Reform Club, Crescent Athletic and Union League Clubs of Brooklyn, Veteran Association of the 23d Regiment and Altair Lodge, F. & A. M.

STORY, WILLIAM CUMMINGS—Retired Woolen Merchant, 329 West End avenue, and Lawrence, L. I. Born in New York City, Jan. 2, 1851. (Son of James Monroe Story of Newburyport, Mass.) Educated in Chicago public schools. (Married, 1881, Fannie Ella Daisy Allen, granddaughter of Stephen Allen, ex-mayor of New York.) Member New York Athletic and Rockaway Hunting Clubs and Sons of the American Revolution.

STOTESBURY, LOUIS W.—Lawyer, 150 Nassau street, New York City; residence 265 Central Park, West. Born in Fishkill, N. Y., Oct. 21, 1870. Educated at Rutgers College ('90). (Married.) Member of the firm of Greene & Stotesbury. Member Lawyers', New York Athletic and Dauntless Boat Clubs, Rutgers College Alumni Association, Society of Medical Jurisprudence and 7th Regiment, N. G. N. Y.

STOTT, FRANK L.—Merchant, 75 Worth street, New York City; residence 20 West 30th street. Member New York, Drug, Arkwright, Manhattan and Suburban Riding and Driving Clubs.

STOUGHTON, ARTHUR ALEXANDER—Architect, 96 Fifth avenue, New York City; residence 1665 Washington avenue. Born in New York City. Educated at Columbia University and Ecole des Beaux Arts, Paris. Member of the firm of C. W. & A. A. Stoughton. Formerly treasurer Daisy Fields Home and Hospital. Member North Side Board of Trade and Society of Beaux-Arts Architects.

STOUT, ANDREW VARICK—Stock Broker, 25 Broad street, New York City; residence 35 East 67th street. Born in New York City, March 1, 1872. Educated at Columbia ('93). (Single.) Member Baltusrol Golf and University Clubs and 7th Regiment, N. G. N. Y.

STOUT, CHARLES HERMAN—Banker, 2 Wall street, New York City; residence 137 Madison avenue. Born in New York City, Feb. 13, 1864. Educated in New York City. (Married.) Cashier National Bank of the Republic. Member St. Nicholas Club, St. Nicholas Society, Colonial Order and Chamber of Commerce.

STOUT, EDMUND COFFIN—Engineer, 203 Broadway, New York City; residence South Orange, N. J. Born in Irvington-on-Hudson, N. Y., Aug. 27, 1864. (Married.) New York manager Harrisburg Foundry and Machine Works. Member American Society of Civil Engineers.

STOUT, JOSEPH S.—Banker and Broker, 25 Broad street, New York City; residence 35 East 67th street. Born in New York City, Dec. 27, 1846. Educated in New York City. (Married.) Member of the firm of Stout & Co., and of the New York Stock and New York Produce Exchanges. Treasurer and director Hodgman Rubber Co.; treasurer Board of Education of the Methodist Episcopal Church; director Deer Hill Co. (Ltd.), Drew Theological Seminary, New York Mutual Gas Light Co., National Shoe and Leather Bank, Toledo, St. Louis and Kansas City R. R. Co. and St. Lawrence Power Co.; trustee Holland Trust Co., Wesleyan University and American Bank Note Co.; governor New York Stock Exchange. Ex-vice-president New York Mutual Gas Light Co. Formerly assistant cashier National Shoe and Leather Bank. Member Union League and Metropolitan Clubs.

STOUT, JOSEPH S., JR.—Electrical Engineer, 55 Duane street, New York City; residence 35 East 67th street. Born in New York City. Educated at Berkeley School and Columbia University. (Single.) Inspector of the Edison Electric Illuminating Co. of New York. Member University and Psi Upsilon Clubs, Columbia Alumni Association, American Society of Electrical Engineers (associate), and Company "K," 7th Regiment, N. G. N. Y.

STOUT, NEWTON E.—Broker, 25 Broad street, New York City; residence 307 West 70th street. Born in New York City, June 17, 1869. Educated at Columbia. (Married.) Cashier New York Stock Exchange firm of Stout & Co. Member Psi Upsilon Club.

STOW, JOHN A.—218 East Tenth street, New York City. Born in Charleston, S. C. Educated in New York City. (Married Emma Frances Gregory.) Member Manuscript, Racquet and Tennis, Lambs' and Players' Clubs and Dunlap Society.

STOW, WILLIAM L.—Stock Broker, 36 Wall street, New York City. Member New York Stock Exchange and of the Manhattan, Racquet and Tennis, Lambs', Larchmont Yacht, Corinthian Yacht and Seawanhaka-Corinthian Yacht Clubs and Sons of the Revolution.

STOWE, BENJAMIN L.—13 Barclay street, New York City; residence 51 Fulton avenue, Jersey City, N. J. Born in Milford, Conn., Feb. 18, 1848. (Married.) Vice-president and director Eureka Fire Hose Co.; director Commercial Trust Co. of New Jersey, and Greenville Banking and Trust Co. of Jersey City. Formerly president Cotton Hose Manufacturers' Association; member of Jersey City Board of Education, 1895-7. Member Jersey City Club and Jersey City Board of Trade.

STOWELL, CALVIN LLEWELLYN—Foreign Exchange, 401 Powers Building, Rochester; residence 25 Merriman street. Born in Ansonia, Pa., Aug. 28, 1845. (Son of Thomas P. and Henrietta [Fowler] Stowell.) Educated in private schools. (Married Jennie O. Hotchkiss of Rochester, 1876.) Resident of Rochester since 1875. Has been connected with many corporations. Member Genesee Valley Club, and Players' and Calumet Clubs of New York City.

STOWELL, WILLIAM L.—Physician, 28 West 36th street, New York City. Born in Connecticut, Dec. 24, 1859. Educated at Cortland (N. Y.) Normal School and Medical Department of New York University ('81). (Married.) Visiting physician to Randall's Island Hospital; instructor in children's diseases in University Bellevue Medical College. Author of numerous papers on medical and allied subjects. Member Congregational and Quill Clubs, County Medical Society, Academy of Medicine and City Hospital Alumni and Physicians' Mutual Aid Associations.

STRACHAN, JOSEPH—Civil Engineer, Municipal Building, Brooklyn; residence 352 Putnam avenue. Born in Newburgh, N. Y. Educated at New York University. Formerly engineer on construction of South Pennsylvania Ry., Kings Co. Elevated Ry., Suburban Elevated Ry., Sea Beach Ry., Brooklyn Water Works and various smaller projects. Member Brooklyn Engineers' Club, Phi Beta Kappa Society, Zeta Psi Fraternity, American Society of Civil Engineers and Royal Arcanum.

STRASMER, WILLIAM F.—Lawyer, 756 Ellicott square, Buffalo; residence 695 Lafayette avenue. Born in Buffalo, Sept. 6, 1858. Educated in public schools of Buffalo, and University of Rochester. (Married.) Was civil service commissioner of Buffalo. Member Acacia, University, and Lawyers' Clubs and Erie Lodge, F. & A. M.

STRATFORD, WILLIAM—Physician and Professor, 17 Lexington avenue, New York City; residence 263 West 52d street. Member of the faculty of the College of the City of New York. Director Brooklyn Institute of Arts and Sciences and Zoological Society of New York. Member New York Athletic and Colonial Clubs, Century Association and Scientific Alliance.

STRAUS, ADOLPH D.—Merchant, 18 Broadway, New York City; residence 20 East 76th street. Born in Germany, May, 1829. Educated in Louisiana.

(Married.) Formerly general in the Nicaraguan army and consul-general of Nicaragua for the United States. Member Harmonie, Freundschaft Society and Circle Colon Cervantes.

STRAUS, ISIDOR—Importer of Chinaware, 42 Warren street, and Dry Goods Merchant, 200 Sixth avenue, New York City; residence 105th street and Broadway. Born in Rhenish Bavaria, Germany, Feb. 6, 1845. Came with his parents to the United States in 1854 and settled in the South. Clerked for a time in a paper mill and afterwards in his father's store in Columbus, Ga. Was secretary to John E. Ward, purchasing agent for the Confederate Army during Civil War. Became a resident of New York City in 1865 and engaged in the importation of glassware and crockery, in which he is still interested as a member of the firm of L. Straus & Sons. Member of the firm of R. H. Macy & Co., department store, since 1888. Served as a member of Congress, 1893-5. Director Hanover National Bank, New York County National Bank, Second National Bank, Retail Dry Goods Association and other organizations. Member Manhattan, Reform, Nineteenth Century, Democratic, Harlem Democratic, Press and Harmonie Clubs and Aldine Association.

STRAUS, NATHAN—Importer of Chinaware, 42 Warren street, and Dry Goods Merchant, 200 Sixth avenue, New York City; residence 27 West 72d street. Born in Germany, 1850. Came to the United States with his parents in 1854 and settled in the South. Educated in Georgia. Member of the firm of L. Straus & Sons, engaged in the importation of glassware and crockery; is also a member of the firms of Abraham & Straus of Brooklyn, and R. H. Macy & Co., department stores. Has served as president of the New York City Board of Health, as park commissioner and as State Forest Commissioner. Member Manhattan, Democratic, Accomack Hunting and Fishing, and Suburban Riding and Driving Clubs and Aldine Association.

STRAUS, OSCAR S.—United States Minister to Turkey, Constantinople, and Importer of Chinaware, 42 Warren street, New York City; residence 27 West 74th street. Born in Rhenish Bavaria, Germany, Dec. 23, 1850. Came with his parents to the United States in 1854 and settled in the South. Educated in Georgia and at Columbia College (A.B. and A.M.) and Law School (LL.B., '73). Received degrees of L.H.D. from Brown University and LL.D. from Washington and Lee University. (Married.) Member of the firm of L. Straus & Sons, engaged in the importation of glassware and crockery. Served as United States Minister to Turkey during the administration of President Cleveland, 1887-9, and was reappointed by President McKinley in 1898. Well known as a lawyer, historian and diplomatist. Vice-president and director New York Board of Trade and Transportation; director Baron de Hirsch Fund; trustee New York Life Insurance Co. Member Reform, Authors', Democratic, Nineteenth Century and Lawyers' Clubs, Columbia University Alumni, National Civil Service Reform, American Social Science and International Law Associations, Phi Beta Kappa Society and Association of the Bar of the City of New York.

STRAUSS, CHARLES—Lawyer, 237 Broadway, New York City; residence 317 West 75th street. Born in New York City, Nov. 28, 1854. Educated at Grammar School No. 3, College of the City of New York and Columbia Law School. (Married Pauline Loewenstein.) School inspector, 1888-90; school commissioner, 1891-6; assisted in framing the State School Laws; counsel to Canadian Government in Behring Sea Controversy, 1892. Director and counsel Mechanics' and Traders' Bank, Westchester Electric R. R. Co., New York City and Westchester R. R. Co. and Eastchester Development Co. Counsel to many other financial institutions and corporations. Member Democratic, Twilight, Hardware and Harmonie Clubs, Liederkrantz, Medico-Legal and German Societies and Metropolitan Museum of Art.

STRAUSS, FREDERICK—Banker, 15 Broad street, New York City; residence 33 West 94th street. Vice-president and director Omaha Water Co.; director Consolidated Gas Co. of New Jersey, St. Louis and San Francisco R. R. Co. and Western Gas Co. Member Reform Club.

STRAUSS, GUSTAVUS E.—Merchant, 37 Maiden lane, New York City; residence 41 West 91st street. Born in St. Gall, Switzerland, August, 1857. Educated in Switzerland and Germany. (Married.) Member of the firm of Strauss, Kuhn & Co. of Mexico City. Connected with the Sartus Ball Bearing Co. Member Fencers' and Merchants' Central Clubs and American Fencers' League.

STRAUSS, JACOB—Diamond Importer, 45 Maiden lane, New York City; residence 77 West 115th street. Born in Wurtemberg, Germany, May 7, 1844. Educated at Heidelberg, Germany. (Married.) Member of the firm of Jacob Strauss & Sons. Member Arkwright, Harlem Republican and Columbia Clubs, Jewelers' League, and Manhattan Lodge, Independent Order B'nai B'rith.

STRAUSS, WILLIAM—Lawyer, 30 Broad street, New York City; residence 20 East 74th street. Born in New York City, April 29, 1851. Educated at College of the City of New York and Columbia Law School ('71). (Married.) Director and general counsel Minneapolis and St. Louis R. R. Co. and Great Eastern Casualty and Indemnity Co.; trustee Texas and Pacific Land Trust. Member Republican and Harmonie Clubs.

STREAT, JAMES—Dry Goods Merchant, 62 Leonard street, New York City; residence 1730 Broadway. Member Atlantic Yacht Club, American Fine Arts Society, National Academy of Design and Blooming Grove Park Association.

STREBEIGH, LEFFERTS—Lawyer, 71 Broadway, New York City; residence 76 East 55th street. Educated at Columbia ('73). Member University Club, St. Nicholas and Phi Beta Kappa Societies and Columbia University Alumni Association.

STREET, GEORGE G.—Transportation, Buffalo. Born in London, Canada, Sept. 21, 1843. Educated in Canadian schools. (Married.) Connected with the New York Central and Hudson River Fast Freight Lines. Was general accountant "Blue Line" for sixteen years, and general manager for same for four years. Member Transportation Club of New York City.

STREET, GEORGE W.—Manufacturing Jeweler, 24 John street, New York City; residence 56 Montgomery place, Brooklyn. Born in New York City, Dec. 31, 1842. Educated in private schools. (Married.) Member Hamilton Club of Brooklyn, Lafayette Post G. A. R., Officers' Association of the 23d Regiment and Veterans' Association of the 23d Regiment.

STRINGER, ARTHUR J.—Author, 45 Park place, New York City. Born in London, Ontario, Canada, Feb. 26, 1874. Educated at the University of Toronto and at Oxford, England. (Single.) Author of "Watchers of Twilight," "Pauline, and Other Poems" and "The Loom of Destiny."

STRONG, ALONZO P.—Lawyer, 311 State street, Schenectady. Born in Duanesburgh, N. Y., Aug. 17, 1843. Educated at Union College. (Married.) Secretary and trustee Schenectady Locomotive Works. Formerly district attorney and Judge of Schenectady County. Member Alpha Delta Phi Club of New York City, Mohawk Club and Union Alumni Association.

STRONG, AUGUSTUS HOPKINS—Clergyman and Educator, Rochester Theological Seminary, Rochester. Born in Rochester, Aug. 3, 1836. Educated at Yale ('57). Received degree of D.D. from Brown University in 1870, from Yale in 1890 and from Princeton in 1896, and the degree of LL.D. from Bucknell University in 1891. Held several pastorates in Baptist churches until 1872, when he became professor of Biblical theology and president of Rochester Theological Seminary.

STRONG, BENJAMIN—Secretary, 44 Pine street, New York City; residence Montclair, N. J. Educated at Columbia. Director Globe Street Ry. Co., Keokuk and Western Ry. Co. and South American Exploration Co. Member Montclair (N. J.) Club, Columbia University Alumni and Blooming Grove Park Associations and Metropolitan Museum of Art.

STRONG, CHARLES HOWARD—Lawyer, 111 Broadway, New York City; residence 511 Park avenue. Born in Jerseyville, Ill., Oct. 6, 1865. Educated at Harvard Law School. (Married Angella L. Longfellow, 1893.) Member of the firm of Peckham, Warner & Strong. Ex-president of Council of Confederated Good Government Clubs. Member Harvard and City Clubs and Association of the Bar of the City of New York.

STRONG, CYRUS—Banker, Binghamton. Born in Binghamton, June 28, 1841. Educated at Williston Seminary, Easthampton, Mass. (Married.) President Strong State Bank, Binghamton Building Co. and Home Mutual Loan and Savings Association; director New York and Pennsylvania Telegraph and Telephone Co. Member Binghamton Club, Union League and Republican Clubs of New York City, and Sons of the Revolution.

STRONG, CYRUS M.—Banker, Binghamton. Born in La Porte, Ind., Oct. 11, 1873. Educated in Stamford, Conn. (Single.) Member Binghamton Club, Calumet and Players' Clubs of New York City, and Sons of the Revolution.

STRONG, GEORGE A.—Lawyer, 50 Wall street, New York City; residence Plainfield, N. J. Educated at Yale. Member of the firm of Duer, Strong & Whitehead. Member Union League Club, New England Society, Yale Alumni, Aldine and Down Town Associations, Metropolitan Museum of Art and Association of the Bar of the City of New York.

STRONG, GEORGE S.—Mechanical Engineer, 30 Broad street, New York City; residence 337 West 86th street. Born in Mt. Vernon, Ohio, June 24, 1852. (Married.) Member American Society of Mechanical Engineers.

STRONG, HENRY H.—Manufacturer, 1131 Broadway, New York City; residence University Club. Born in Southampton, Mass., 1860. Educated at Yale ('83). (Single.) Secretary and treasurer Metal Fabric Co. Member University Club, New England Society and Yale Alumni Association.

STRONG, J. MONTGOMERY—Real Estate, 62 Liberty street, New York City; residence 41 West 54th street. Member of the firm of Strong & Ireland. Member New York Yacht, Atlantic Yacht, Oakland Golf and Badminton Clubs, Society of Colonial Wars and Sons of the Revolution.

STRONG, JOSIAH—Clergyman, 105 East 22d street, New York City; residence Greenwich, Conn. Born in Naperville, Du Page Co., Ill., Jan. 19, 1847. Educated at Western Reserve College ('69) and at Lane Theological Seminary. Held various Congregational pastorates until 1886; secretary for the United States of the Evangelical Alliance, 1886-98; president of the League for Social Service, New York City, since 1898. Author of "The New Era," "The Twentieth Century City" and "Our Country."

STRONG, PUTNAM BRADLEE—Dry Goods Merchant, 75 Worth street, New York City; residence 12 West 57th street. Born in New York City, Dec. 23, 1874. Educated in New York City. (Single.) Served as private, first lieutenant and captain in 69th Regiment, N. G. N. Y.; captain 5th Brigade, N. G. N. Y., and as assistant adjutant-general of 8th Army Corps; adjutant-general 2d Division of 8th Army Corps; served through Filipino campaign; was wounded in the battle of Malolos. Now major and inspector 5th Brigade, N. G. N. Y. Vice-president, treasurer and director International Express Co.; treasurer and director Cuban and Pan-American Express Co.; department commander State of New York Spanish-American War Veterans. Member Metropolitan, Republican, Suburban Riding and Driving, Arkwright, Merchants' and Union League Clubs, and Ohio, Foreign Wars' and Spanish-American War Veterans' Societies.

STRONG, RICHARD A.—Dry Goods Merchant, 54 Worth street, New York City; residence 117 West 58th street. Member of the firm of Strong, Hewat & Co. Secretary and director United States Army Export Co. Member Marine and Field, New York Athletic, Wool and Westchester Golf Clubs.

STRONG, THERON G.—Lawyer, 45 William street, New York City; residence 29 East 65th street. Member of the firm of Strong, Harmon & Mathewson. Member Union League and Olympic Clubs, Ardsley Casino of Ardsley-on-Hudson, New England Society, Century and Down Town Associations, Sons of the Revolution, Association of the Bar of the City of New York, Society of Colonial Wars and Society of the Cincinnati.

STRONG, THOMAS S.—Lawyer, 80 Wall street, New York City; residence 61 West 70th street. Born in Setauket, Suffolk Co., N. Y., Aug. 10, 1834. Educated at Yale. (Married.) Member of the firm of Strong & Spear. Member Presbyterian Union, Yale Alumni Association, Delta Kappa Epsilon Fraternity and Scroll and Keys of Yale University.

STRONG, WILLIAM E.—Banker, 36 Broad street, New York City; residence 176 Madison avenue. Born in Ohio, Aug. 11, 1836. Educated in Ohio. (Married.) Member of the firm of Strong, Sturgis & Co., and of the New York Stock Exchange. Director Iowa Central Ry. Co. Member Metropolitan, Riding, City, Racquet and Tennis, Knickerbocker, Union, Players', Lawyers' and South Side Sportsmen's Clubs.

STRONG, WILLIAM L.—Dry Goods Merchant, 75 Worth street, New York City; residence 12 West 57th street. Born in Richland County, Ohio, March 22, 1827. Educated in common schools. (Married.) Engaged in the dry goods business in New York City since 1853. Senior member of the firm of Wm. L. Strong & Co. since 1869. Was the last mayor of the old City of New York (now the Borough of Manhattan), 1895-7. Vice-president and trustee New York Security and Trust Co.; director Central National Bank, Hanover Insurance Co. and Plaza Bank; trustee New York Life Insurance Co. Member Metropolitan, Union League, Merchants', Colonial, Republican, Turf and Field, Wool, New York Athletic and Lotos Clubs, American Fine Arts, American Geographical, New England, Ohio and Pennsylvania Societies, American Museum of Natural History and Metropolitan Museum of Art.

STROOCK, MOSES J.—Lawyer, 320 Broadway, New York City; residence 1350 Madison avenue. Born in New York City, Aug. 18, 1866. Educated in city public schools, at College of the City of New York and at Columbia Law School. (Married.) Member of the firm of Platzek & Stroock. Member Society of Medical Jurisprudence.

STROUD, BERT BRENETTE—Instructor, Cornell University, Ithaca; residence McGraw Hall. Degree of D.Sc. Instructor in physiology, vertebrate zoology and neurology, Cornell University.

STROUT, EDWIN B.—Export Commission Merchant, 113 Pearl street, New York City; residence 115 Lincoln place, Brooklyn. Born in Brooklyn, Jan. 10, 1864. Educated at Brooklyn Polytechnic Institute. (Married.) President City Island R. R. Co. of New York; director Union Bank of Brooklyn. Member Veterans' Association of 23d Regiment, N. G. N. Y., and Military Service Institute of Governor's Island.

STRUNK, WILLIAM, JR.—Professor, Cornell University, Ithaca; residence 92 Cascadilla place. Degree of Ph.D. Assistant professor of rhetoric and English philology, Cornell University.

STRUSE, OTTO F.—Lawyer, 99 Broadway, Brooklyn; residence 241 Hewes street. Born in Brooklyn. Educated at the College of the City of New York and Columbia Law School. Treasurer and trustee Brooklyn Eastern District Dispensary and Hospital; trustee Kings County Savings Institution. Member Hanover Club, Alumni Association of the College of the City of New York, Brooklyn Bar Association and Brooklyn Law Library.

STRUTHERS, JOSEPH—Editor and Teacher, Columbia University, New York City; residence 624 East 136th street. Born in New York City. Educated at the College of the City of New York and Columbia University (Ph.D.). (Single.) Was assistant in mineralogy and tutor in metallurgy, Columbia University; business manager and editor "School of Mines Quarterly." Now connected with the Scientific Publishing

Co., assistant editor "Mineral Industry" and honorary lecturer in metallurgy, Columbia. Member American Institute of Mining Engineers.

STRYKER, MELANCTHON WOOLSEY—Clergyman and Educator, Hamilton College, Clinton. Born in Vernon, N. Y., Jan. 7, 1851. Educated at Hamilton College ('72) and at Auburn Theological Seminary ('76). Received degree of D.D. from Hamilton and Lafayette Colleges and LL.D. from Lafayette (Ala.) College. (Married Clara E. Goss of Auburn, N. Y., 1876.) Held Presbyterian pastorates in Auburn and Ithaca, N. Y., Holyoke, Mass., and Chicago, Ill., until 1892. President of Hamilton College since 1892. Author and compiler of several hymn books.

STRYKER, SAMUEL D., JR.—Lithographer, 105 Hudson street, New York City; residence 135 West 81st street. Born in New York City, April 2, 1865. Educated at Newark Academy and Rutgers College. (Single.) Eastern manager Stecher Lithographic Co. of Rochester. Member Commercial, Knickerbocker Athletic and West Side Republican Clubs, and University Club of Philadelphia, Pa.

STRYKER, THOMAS H.—Civil Engineer, Rome. Born in Rome, Nov. 14, 1847. Educated in Rome and at Hobart College (A.B. and A.M.). (Single.) Was city engineer of the city of Rome, 1875; engineer in charge of Hudson River, 1880-1; member of the Board of Fire and Police Commissioners, 1887-95; chairman of same, 1893-5. Now president Rome Locomotive and Machine Works; secretary, treasurer and managing director Rome-Gardner Mining Co.; secretary and treasurer Haw Creek Security Grove Co.; director First National Bank of Rome, Rome Brass and Copper Co., Rome Mfg Co., Bingham Harness Co., First New York Beet Sugar Co., Rome Gas Light Co., Central New York Institute for Deaf Mutes, Rome Cemetery Association and Rome Tube Works; senior warden Zion Episcopal Church. Member University Club of New York City, Teugeuga Golf and Rome Clubs, Sigma Phi Fraternity, Society of Colonial Wars, Society of Founders and Patriots of America, American Canoe Association, Sons of the American Revolution and Sons of the Revolution.

STUART, BENJAMIN C.—Journalist, 253 Broadway, New York City; residence Hillsdale, N. J. Born in New York City, Dec. 25, 1858. Educated in public schools in Brooklyn, N. Y. (Single.) President and director Standard News Association. Author of the humorous sketches "Black Diamond League" and many musical compositions. Member New York Press Club, Hillsdale-Westwood Field Club (president) and Gilbert Musical Society of New Jersey.

STUART, FRANCIS H.—Physician, 123 Joralemon street, Brooklyn. Born in Logansport, Ind. Educated at Phillips Andover Academy, Dartmouth College, New York College of Physicians and Surgeons and Long Island College Hospital. (Married.) On visiting staff of Brooklyn Hospital. Formerly visiting physician St. Peter's Hospital; adjunct surgeon Long Island College Hospital; physician to Brooklyn Home for Aged Men. Member Hamilton Club, Pathological Society, Medical Society of the County of Kings, British Medical and Physicians' Mutual Aid Association and American Academy of Medicine.

STUART, ROBERT W.—Banker, 43 Exchange place, New York City; residence 85 Park avenue. Director Palatine Insurance Co. of Manchester, England (Ltd.), and Fourth National Bank. Member Metropolitan, Merchants' Central and Union Clubs.

STUART, RUSSELL R.—Civil Engineer, Syracuse. Born in Hamburg, Erie Co., N. Y., 1847. Educated in Gowanda. Served with the 98th Regiment, New York Volunteers, during Civil War. Resident of Syracuse since 1880. Assistant engineer of the middle division of the Erie Canal, 1880-1; division engineer under State Engineer Martin Schenck, 1881-93; since 1893, in general practice as contractor and civil engineer. Nominated for the office of State Engineer by the Democratic Convention held at Saratoga on Sept. 12, 1900. Member Citizens' Club.

STUART, W. H.—Paper Manufacturer, 20 Beekman street, New York City; residence 603 St. Marks avenue, Brooklyn. Manager H. Lindenmeyr & Sons.

STUART, WILLIAM COUCH—Retired, 131 West 70th street, New York City. Born in Rye, N. Y., June 11, 1849. (Son of James Stuart.) Educated in New York City. (Married.) Engaged for many years in the importing business as a member of the firm of A. C. Downing & Co., and later as a member of the brokerage firm of W. C. & J. M. Stuart, of which he was the Stock Exchange member. Director Atlantic Mining Co.; ex-president Allouez Mining Co. Member Colonial Club, St. Andrew's Society and West End Association.

STUART WORTLEY, RALPH MONTAGUE—Broker, 70 Broadway, New York City; residence 65 West 68th street. Born in Yorkshire, England, July 2, 1864. (Son of Francis D. and Maria [Martin] Stuart Wortley.) Educated in England at Wellington College. (Married Virginia M., daughter of Rear-Admiral Winfield Scott Schley, United States Navy.) Member of the firm of Price, McCormick & Co., and of the New York Stock Exchange. Endowed by Queen Victoria with the title of Honorable in May, 1900. Member Stock Exchange Luncheon, British Schools and Universities, and Union Clubs and St. George's Society.

STUDER, JACOB H.—President, 114 Fifth avenue, New York City. Born in Columbus, Ohio, Feb. 23, 1840. Educated in common schools and printing offices. (Widower.) President and director Natural Science Association of America. Author of "The Birds of North America" and "History of Columbus, Ohio." Member Ohio Society, Sportsmen's Association and American Ornithologists' Union.

STUDLEY, ELMER E.—Lawyer, 702 Morgan Building, Buffalo; residence 122 Morgan street. Born in East Ashford, N. Y., Sept. 24, 1864. Educated at Cornell. (Single.) Served in Cuba as a first lieutenant in the United States Volunteer Army during the Spanish War. Member University and Independent Clubs.

STUDWELL, FREDERIC B.—Vice-President, 27 William street, New York City; residence 149 Willow street, Brooklyn. Born in Brooklyn, 1864. Educated at Brooklyn Polytechnic Institute. (Single.) Vice-president The Bush Co. (Ltd.). Member Crescent Athletic, Hamilton, Dyker Meadow Golf and Garden City Golf Clubs of Brooklyn, and Reform Club of New York City.

STURGES, ARTIUR PEMBERTON—Securities, 74 Wall street, New York City; residence 36 Park avenue. Educated at Princeton ('88). Director Hygeia Distilled Water Co. Member Metropolitan, Princeton, Calumet, New York Athletic, Players' and University Clubs and Down Town Association.

STURGES, FRANK D.—Lawyer, 71 Wall street, New York City; residence 37 West 20th street. Educated at Columbia. Member New York Athletic and American Yacht Clubs, Columbia University Alumni Association and Liederkranz.

STURGES, HENRY CADY—Author, 56 East 34th street, New York City. Born in Fairfield, Conn., May 31, 1846. Educated at Columbia ('69). (Married.) Member New York Yacht, University, St. Anthony and Grolier Clubs, Dunlap, American Geographical, Archaeological and Historical Societies, Columbia Alumni Association and American Museum of Natural History.

STURGES, WILLIAM C.—Treasurer, 76 Wall street, New York City; residence 37 West 20th street. Born in New York City, June 9, 1824. Educated in New York City. (Married.) President and trustee Seaman's Bank for Savings and Sailors' Cemetery Association; treasurer and director American Seamen's Friend Society; director Leather Manufacturers' National Bank; trustee Robert College of Constantinople, Atlantic Mutual Insurance Co. and Haven Relief Fund; trustee and chairman Madison Square Presbyterian Church.

STURGIS, APPLETON—Insurance, 45 Cedar street, New York City; residence 90 East Tenth street. Member Mendelssohn Glee and Union Clubs, Down Town Association, American Museum of Natural History, Metropolitan Museum of Art and National Academy of Design.

STURGIS, DANFORTH N. B.—Architect, 220 Fourth avenue, New York City; residence 233 East 13th street. Born in New York City, Oct. 29, 1866. Educated at Yale ('89). (Married.) Formerly member of board of examiners Municipal Civil Service Commission. Member Players', University and Yale Clubs, Architectural League and National Sculpture Society.

STURGIS, FRANK K.—Banker, 30 Broad street, New York City; residence 3 West 36th street. Member of the firm of Strong, Sturgis & Co., and of the New York Stock Exchange. President and director Madison Square Garden Co.; vice-president and director Standard Trust Co.; director Charleston and Ohio River Road, Consolidated Ice Co., National Horse Show Association, New York Quotation Co., Quick-silver Mining Co. and Standard Finance and Trust Co. Formerly president of the New York Stock Exchange. Member City, Union, Knickerbocker, Coaching, Metropolitan, Larchmont Yacht, New York Yacht, Turf and Field, Jockey, Coney Island Jockey and Rockaway Hunting Clubs, Westchester Racquet and Century Associations and American Geographical Society.

STURGIS, FREDERICK RUSSELL—Physician, 16 West 32d street, New York City. Born in Manila, Philippine Islands, July 7, 1844. Educated in England and the United States. Graduated in medicine from the Harvard Medical School (M.D., '67). (Married.) Established in practice in New York City, and was for a time a member of the faculty of the University and Bellevue Hospital Medical College, and for twenty years visiting surgeon to the City Hospital. Author of several medical works. Member New York Athletic and University Clubs and Harvard Alumni Association.

STURGIS, ROBERT—Lawyer, 111 Broadway, New York City; residence 152 East 38th street. Educated at Harvard ('81). Director Maritime Canal Co. of Nicaragua. Member University Club, American Geographical Society, Harvard Alumni and Down Town Associations and Association of the Bar of the City of New York.

STURGIS, RUSSELL—Architect and Author, 307 East 17th street, New York City. Born in Baltimore County, Md., Oct. 16, 1836. Educated at the College of the City of New York ('56). Degrees of A.M. and Ph.D. Studied architecture in Europe. (Married Sarah Barney of New York City, 1864.) Was associate editor on the "Century Dictionary," "Webster's International Dictionary," "Johnson's Universal Cyclopædia" and the "Dictionary of Architecture." Director Elkhorn Valley Coal-Land Co. and Empire Coal and Coke Co. Member Grolier, Players', University, Yale and Commonwealth Clubs, St. Botolph Club of Boston, Mass., College of the City of New York Alumni, New York State Forestry and Century Associations, National Sculpture, Municipal Arts, Numismatic and Archaeological, Phi Beta Kappa, Free Trade and Archaeological Societies, Architectural League, National Academy of Design, Society of Mural Painters, American Institute of Architects, Society for the Promotion of Hellenic Studies and Metropolitan Museum of Art.

STURGIS, THOMAS—Builder, 42 East 23d street, and 72 Trinity place, New York City; residence 133 East 36th street. Connected with the Sturgis & Hill Co. President and director Electric Selector and Signal Co.; director Consolidated Ice Co. and Western Live Stock and Land Co. Member Union League and New York Athletic Clubs, Century and Down Town Associations, New England Society and Military Order of the Loyal Legion.

STUYVESANT, JOHN READE—Treasurer, 33 Wall street, New York City; residence 222 Fifth avenue. Born in Hyde Park, N. Y., March 10, 1850. Educated by Rev. C. W. Everest and at Vermont Episcopal Institution and Rutgers College. (Married.) Treasurer Guayaquil and Quito Ry. Co. Member Union, Seawanhaka-Corinthian Yacht and Delta Phi Clubs and Rutgers College Alumni Association.

STUYVESANT, ROBERT R.—Broker, 40 Wall street, New York City; residence 213 Madison avenue. Director Stuyvesant Insurance Co. Member New York Athletic and Union Clubs and American Geographical and St. Nicholas Societies.

STUYVESANT, RUTHERFORD—Capitalist, 16 Exchange place, New York City; residence Allamuchy. Educated at Columbia. Vice-president and director Tuckerton R. R. Co.; director New York Life Insurance and Trust Co. Member Racquet and Tennis, Union, City, New York Yacht, Seawanhaka-Corinthian Yacht, Atlantic Yacht and Carrol's Island Clubs, Down Town, Columbia University Alumni and Century Associations, American Fine Arts and American Geographical Societies, American Museum of Natural History, Metropolitan Museum of Art, National Academy of Design and Scientific Alliance.

SUDDS, HENRY—Banker, Gouverneur. Born in London, England, March 25, 1839. Educated at Manor House Academy, London, England, and Gouverneur (N. Y.) Wesleyan Seminary. Came to the United States in 1850. (Married.) Vice-president and cashier Bank of Gouverneur. Has been village president of Gouverneur; president of the Board of Education and treasurer Water Board. Member Citizens' Club.

SUGAR, SOLOMON S.—Patent Solicitor, 189 Broadway, New York City; residence 350 Sixth avenue, Brooklyn. Born in Norfolk, Va., 1874. Educated in Brooklyn public schools and at Cooper Institute. (Single.) Formerly secretary and director Universal Trading Co.

SUGDEN, JAMES T.—Manufacturer, Amsterdam; residence 69 West Main street. Born in London, England. (Married.) Treasurer Amsterdam Board of Trade; director Amsterdam Savings Bank and First National Bank; trustee Amsterdam Free Library; chairman trenching committee Amsterdam Sewer Commission; member Board of Education.

SULLIVAN, ANDREW T.—Banker, 101 Broadway, Brooklyn; residence 933 St. Marks avenue. Born in Brooklyn, Aug. 11, 1854. Educated at St. Francis Xavier College. (Married.) Formerly member Board of Education; postmaster of Brooklyn, 1893-7. Now president Nassau Trust Co. of Brooklyn. Member Brooklyn, Hanover and Bushwick Clubs, Roman Catholic Orphan Asylum Society of Brooklyn, Friendly Sons of St. Patrick and Emerald Association.

SULLIVAN, ARTHUR T.—Wholesale Woolen Goods Merchant, 329 Broadway, New York City; residence 584 Fifth avenue. Member of the firm of Sullivan, Vail & Co. Director Blackinton Co. Member Metropolitan, Union League, Carteret Gun, New York, New York Yacht, Manhattan, New York Athletic, Riding, and Racquet and Tennis Clubs.

SULLIVAN, GEORGE H.—Lawyer, 45 Wall street, New York City; residence 16 West 11th street. Educated at Harvard. Member of the firm of Sullivan & Cromwell. Director Dame & Townsend Co., Deseret Light and Power Co., Enterprise Cold Storage Co., Scarsdale Estates and Evangelist Publishing Co. Member Alpha Delta Phi, New York Athletic and Harvard Clubs, Southern Society and Association of the Bar of the City of New York.

SULLIVAN, JAMES WILLIAM—Journalist, 29 West 23d street, New York City. Born in Pennsylvania, 1848. Has been connected with the editorial staffs of various publications and is now associated with the publishing house of Henry Holt & Co.

SULLIVAN, JOHN A.—Vice-President and General Manager, 160 Broadway, New York City; residence Hotel Empire. Born in Rondout, N. Y. Educated in public schools and at Kingston (N. Y.) Academy. (Married.) Vice-president and general manager City Trust Safe Deposit and Surety Co. of Philadelphia; treasurer and trustee St. Patrick's Cathedral; director Seventh National Bank. Member Lawyers', Democratic and Catholic (president) Clubs and Friendly Sons of St. Patrick.

SULLY, ALFRED—Lawyer, 29 Broadway, New York City; residence 1235 Pacific street, Brooklyn. Born in Ottawa, Canada, May 2, 1841. Educated in Buffalo, N. Y., and at Cincinnati (Ohio) College Law School. (Single.) Resident of New York City since 1872. Has made a business of the organization and management of railroads and has been president of the Ohio Southern R. R. Co., Richmond and Danville

Co., Richmond and West Point Terminal Co. and many other lines and was connected for a time with the Philadelphia and Reading Co. Member Atlantic Yacht and Lotos Clubs.

SULZBERGER, CYRUS L.—Importer, 95 Prince street, New York City; residence 58 West 87th street. Born in Philadelphia, Pa., July 11, 1858. Educated at Central High School, Philadelphia. (Married.) Member of the firm of N. Erlanger, Blumgart & Co.; also connected with the Velutina Bias Co. Trustee Temple Israel of Harlem. Formerly treasurer of the Harlem Library and United Hebrew Charities, and president of the Harlem Democratic Club. Member Reform Club and Chamber of Commerce.

SULZER, WILLIAM—Congressman, House of Representatives, Washington, D. C., and Lawyer, 45 Broadway, New York City; residence 232 East 12th street. Born in Elizabeth, N. J., March 18, 1863. Educated in public schools and at Columbia. (Single.) Has practiced law in New York City since his admission to the Bar in 1884. Member of the State Legislature, 1890-4, and was Speaker in 1893. Has represented the Eleventh New York District in Congress since 1894; present term expires in 1901. Member Democratic, Manhattan, Press, Pilot, Bohemian, Craftsmen's and Jefferson Clubs, Fort Orange Club of Albany, and many other organizations.

SUMMERS, JAMES COLLINS—Editor, 23 Duane street, New York City; residence Elmhurst. Born in Southgate, England, Feb. 19, 1854. (Son of Rev. James Summers, professor of Chinese language in the British Museum, London.) Educated at King's College, London. (Married.) Served as yachting editor New York "Journal," 1883-5; New York "Sun," 1885-91; New York "World," 1891-7, and as special correspondent on the staff of the New York "Herald." Served for eight years in the New York State Naval Militia and as lieutenant in the United States Navy during the Spanish-American War. Author, compiler, editor and publisher for ten years of "Who Won?" the official yacht record. Editor of "Yachting" and yachting editor of "Collier's Weekly." Vice-president and director Burgee and Pennant Co. Member Press, Knickerbocker Athletic, Atlantic Yacht, New York Rifle and Brooklyn Revolver Clubs, United States Licensed Masters' and Pilots' and United States Revolver Associations, Old Guard, Second Naval Battalion, Excelsior Lodge No. 195, F. & A. M., Palestine Commandery No. 18, Knights Templar, and a thirty-second degree Mason.

SUMMERWELL, EDWARD K.—Lawyer, 346 Broadway, New York City; residence East Orange, N. J. Born in Covington, Ky., May 15, 1857. (Married.) Member of the firm of Summerwell, Shoup & Vermilya. President and treasurer American Association; vice-president United Commercial Lawyers; treasurer Commercial Law League of America; counsel of Empire Steel and Iron Co. Editor "Credit and Legal News." Member East Orange (N.J.) Republican and Arkwright Clubs.

SUMNER, CHARLES P.—Merchant, 18 Broadway, New York City; residence Elizabeth, N. J. Born in Boston, Mass., August, 1849. Educated in Boston. In business in New York City since 1870, and is now senior member of the firm of Charles P. Sumner & Co. Founded the Sumner line of steamships, comprising a large fleet of live-stock steamers trading between New York and Liverpool, and other ports in Great Britain and the East Indies.

SUMNER, EDWARD A.—Lawyer, 141 Broadway, New York City; residence 213 West 85th street. Born in Rome, N. Y., Nov. 3, 1857. (Married.) Member of the firm of Sumner, Robinson & Robinson. Member West Side Republican Club, Marine and Field Club of Brooklyn, New England Society, and Empire State Society of Sons of the American Revolution.

SUSSDORFF, LOUIS A.—Broker, 20 Broad street, and Merchant, 66 Beaver street, New York City. Member of the firms of Sussdorff Bros., and Sussdorff, Zalzo & Co., and of the New York Stock Exchange.

SUSSDORFF, WILLIAM H.—Broker, 20 Broad street. Member of the firm of Sussdorff Bros., and of the New York Stock Exchange.

SUTCLIFFE, JOHN—Mining and Mechanical Engineer, 171 Mansion street, Poughkeepsie. Born in England, 1837. Went to Poughkeepsie in 1841 where he was educated. (Married.) Superintendent Peekskill Blast Furnaces, 1861-2; designed and built blast furnace at Cold Spring, N. Y., 1863; followed building operations, 1864-5; superintendent of Eagle Slate Quarries, Vt., 1866-70; Chapman's Slate Quarries, Pa., 1870; contractor and builder of filter-beds and dock of Poughkeepsie Water Works, 1871; built Hudson River Rolling Mill and Docks at Poughkeepsie, 1872; superintendent Franklin Iron Works, 1873, Pennsylvania Blue Stone Co., 1874; general manager Vaillecillo Silver Mining Co., Mexico, 1875-85, and Steel Co. of Canada, and Londonderry Iron Co. of Nova Scotia, 1885-90; has been acting as consulting engineer and contractor in various lines of his work in many parts of the country since 1890. Member Engineers' Club of New York City, American Institute of Mining Engineers, Canadian Society of Civil Engineers and Franklin Institute of the State of Pennsylvania.

SUTER, GEORGE A.—Heating and Ventilating Engineer, 114 Wooster street, New York City; residence New Rochelle. Senior member of the firm of G. A. Suter & Co. Member Merchants' Central and Engineers' Clubs and American Society of Mechanical Engineers.

SUTHERLAND, JOHN LANSING—Lawyer, 71 Wall street, New York City; residence 17 West 37th street. Born in Albany, N. Y., March 31, 1829. (Son of Jacob Sutherland, a Justice of the Supreme Court, grandson of John Lansing, Jr., a Chief Justice of the Supreme Court (1798) and second Chancellor of the State of New York; also great grandson of David Sutherland, colonel of the 6th New York Regiment during the Revolutionary War.) Educated at Union College. (Married.) Member University, Democratic and Alpha Delta Phi Clubs, St. Nicholas Society, America's Founders and Defenders, Sons of the Revolution, American Museum of Natural History, Metropolitan Museum of Art, Union Alumni Association and Association of the Bar of the City of New York.

SUTHERLAND, W. A.—Lawyer, 1005 Wilder Building, Rochester; residence 2 Arnold Park. Born in Hopewell, N. Y., May 30, 1849. Educated in Lima, N. Y. (Married Inez L. Jackson, 1878.) Member of the firm of Shuart, Sutherland & Toole. Member Republican National Committee for State of New York, 1892-6; grand master of Masons in the State of New York, 1897-9; president Rochester Bar Association, 1898. Member Lotos and Craftsmen's Clubs of New York City, Albany Club of Albany and Syracuse University Alumni Association.

SUTPHEN, JOHN S., JR.—Glass Merchant, 9 Desbrosses and 34 Vestry streets, New York City; residence 18 West 83d street. Educated at Columbia. Member of the firm of Sutphen & Myer. Member Colonial and Wool Clubs, Columbia University Alumni and Blooming Grove Park Associations and Holland Society.

SUTPHEN, JOSEPH WALWORTH—Lawyer, 164 Montague street, Brooklyn; residence 35 Second place. Born in Brooklyn, Jan. 26, 1853. Educated at Rutgers College and Columbia Law School. (Married.) Member of the firm of Sutphen & Lefferts. Was secretary Civil Service Commission in Brooklyn under Hon. Seth Low. Member Chi Phi and Congregational Clubs of New York City, Long Island Historical and Holland Societies, Church of the Pilgrims and Rutgers Alumni Association.

SUTPHEN, W. G. VAN TASSEL—Author, 331 Pearl street, New York City; residence Morristown, N. J. Born in Philadelphia, Pa., May 11, 1861. Educated at Princeton ('82). (Single.) Author of "The Golficde," "The Golfer's Alphabet" and "The Cardinal's Rose." Member Morris County (N. J.) Golf and Princeton Clubs.

SUTRO, THEODORE—Lawyer, 280 Broadway, New York City; residence 320 West 102d street. Born in Aix-la-Chapelle, Germany, March 14, 1845. Brought to this country, 1850. Educated at Baltimore City College, Phillips Exeter (N. H.) Academy, Harvard College (A.B., '71), Boston University Law School and Columbia Law School (LL.B., '74). (Married, Florence Edith Clinton, 1884). Established and conducted wholesale commission business in Boston while a student at Harvard and the law school, 1868-74. Admitted to the Bar, 1874. Defeated foreclosure proceedings of Sutro Tunnel property in Nevada, and saved property for the stockholders, 1886-9; tax commissioner of New York City, 1895-8. Has acquired wide reputation through his knowledge and experience with respect to the laws of taxation. President Sutro Tunnel and Comstock Tunnel Companies, and German-American Reform Union; secretary Washington Heights Century Club; delegate National Democratic Convention, Indianapolis, 1896, and has been delegate and officer to many State and local conventions, political and otherwise. Member Harvard, Patria, National Civic, Reform, Folk-Lore, University Glee, Hundred Year (vice-president), Drawing Room and Country Cycle Clubs, Phi Beta Kappa, Genealogical and Biographical, Authors', Medical and Legal Relief (president) and Oratorio Societies, State Bar, Phillips Exeter Academy Alumni, West End, Riverside and Morningside, and United Real Estate Owners' (first vice-president) Associations, Signet Club of Harvard University, Handel and Haydn Society of Boston, Deutscher Verein, Metropolitan Museum of Art, Society of Medical Jurisprudence (vice-president) and Association of the Bar of the City of New York.

SUTTON, BENJAMIN FRANKLIN—Manufacturer of Rubber Goods, 228 South and 453 Water street, New York City; residence 67 Halsey street, Brooklyn. Secretary and director Parker, Stearns & Sutton. Member New York Yacht, Larchmont Yacht, Atlantic Yacht, Brooklyn Yacht, Corinthian Yacht and Hanover Clubs.

SUTTON, GEORGE H.—Hosiery and Underwear Merchant, 55 Leonard street, New York City; residence 119 West 126th street. Born in Massachusetts, Dec. 16, 1847. Educated in Massachusetts. (Married.) Member of the firm of Sutton & Co. Treasurer National Machine Co. Formerly vice-president Republican County Committee; member board of trustees Mt. Morris Baptist Church; alternate from the Fifteenth Congressional District to Republican National Convention, 1896; trustee Southern Baptist Association of New York. Member Central Republican, Harlem, Arkwright (vice-president) and Harlem Republican Clubs and Baptist Social Union.

SUTTON, ISAAC M.—Machinery, 141 Broadway, New York City. Director Liberty Light and Power Co. and Rossiter, MacGovern & Co.

SUTTON, J. FORD—Clergyman, Audubon Park, New York City. Born in New Jersey, July 15, 1827. Educated at Rutgers College and Union Theological Seminary (D.D.). (Married.) Was chaplain 102d Regiment United States Volunteer Infantry during Civil War. Member American Geographical Society, Zeta Psi Fraternity and Presbyterian Union.

SUTTON, JOSEPH HOLDEN—Lawyer, 32 Nassau street, New York City; residence Audubon Park. Educated at Princeton. Member Republican, Princeton, University Athletic and Lotos Clubs.

SUTTON, WILLIAM H.—Insurance, 120 Broadway, New York City; residence Montclair, N. J. Born in Brooklyn, N. Y., Sept. 27, 1839. Educated at Bridgehampton, L. I. (Married.) Director Connelly Iron Sponge and Governor Co.

SUYDAM, CHARLES CROOKE—Lawyer, 206 Broadway, New York City; residence Elizabeth, N. J. Born in New York City, June 15, 1836. Educated in public schools and at Columbia. (Married.) Served with Volunteers during Civil War, and was commissioned successively lieutenant, captain and lieutenant-colonel. Served as counsel to the United States Spanish-American Commission and as assistant counsel to the United States Court of Alabama Claims. Member Holland Society and Military Order of the Loyal Legion.

SUYDAM, JOHN HOWARD—Clergyman, Rhinebeck. Born in Brooklyn, N. Y., Oct. 1, 1832. Educated at Rutgers College (A.B. and A.M.). Has been minister of Reformed Church at Fishkill Landing, First Reformed Church of Philadelphia, Park Reformed Church of Jersey City, and now of Reformed Church at Rhinebeck. Member Twilight and Alpha Delta Clubs and Holland Society.

SUYDAM, R.—Banker, 41 Wall street, New York City; residence 11 Gramercy Park. President and director Adirondack Ry. Co.; director American Coal Co. Member Metropolitan, Union, New York Yacht and Racquet and Tennis Clubs and Down Town Association.

SUYDAM, WALTER LISPENARD—43 East 22d street, New York City, and Blue Point, L. I. Born in New York City, May 20, 1854. Educated in New York City, and Paris, France. (Married.) Formerly secretary-general Society of Colonial Wars; delegate to Republican National Convention of 1896 from First District, State of New York; chairman Republican town committee of the town of Brookhaven, N. Y., and was for many years one of the board of managers New York Association for Improving the Condition of the Poor. Member Metropolitan, Penatiquit Yacht, Mt. Desert Canoe and Westbrook Golf Clubs, Society of Colonial Wars, Sons of the Revolution and New York Produce Exchange.

SWAIN, SANFORD S.—Restaurateur, 25 Park row, 6 Beekman street, 109 Nassau street, 40 Broad street and 140 East 14th street, New York City; residence 200 West 139th street. Treasurer and director Dennett Surpassing Coffee Co.

SWALEY, HERBERT H.—Banker, 514 Fifth avenue, New York City. Born in Somersworth, N. H., Oct. 8, 1864. Secretary Fifth Avenue Trust Co.

SWAN, ALDEN S.—Oil, 151 Maiden lane, New York City; residence 189 Columbia Heights, Brooklyn. Born in Hancock, Berkshire Co., Mass., Dec. 30, 1838. Educated at the College of the City of New York. (Married.) Formerly treasurer and trustee New York and Brooklyn Bridge for twelve years; collector of taxes, City of Brooklyn, for six years; ex-director Market and Fulton National Bank. Now president E. Blunt Mfg Co., Swan & Finch Co. and Salisbury and Harvey R. R. Co.; vice-president Burnet Co. Member Democratic and Olympic Clubs, and Crescent Athletic, Hamilton and Brooklyn Clubs of Brooklyn.

SWAN, JAMES ANDREWS—Wholesale Dry Goods Merchant, 2 Walker street, New York City; residences Passaic, N. J., and Newport, R. I. Educated at Yale ('67). Treasurer and director Syndicate Trading Co. Member University, Yale, Manhattan, New York Yacht, Wool and Arkwright Clubs.

SWAN, M. D.—Seed Grower and Farmer, Belleville. Born in Ellsburgh, N. Y., May 2, 1838. Educated at Union Academy, Belleville. (Married.) Director Farmers' National Bank. Was lieutenant in Civil War, 1864-5. Member John P. Buckley Post, G. A. R., and Union Grange No. 5, of Belleville.

SWARTWOUT, H. B.—Physician, Port Jervis. Educated at Cornell ('85). Member Cornell University Club of New York City.

SWARTWOUT, SATTERLEE—Secretary, Stamford, Conn.; residence 640 West End avenue, New York City. Born in New York City, May 30, 1840. Educated in Stamford, Conn. (Married.) Formerly treasurer General Society of Colonial Wars and General Society of the War of 1812. Now secretary Stamford Safe Deposit Co. Member St. Nicholas and Holland Societies, Society of Colonial Wars, Society of the War of 1812, Society of Foreign Wars and Sons of the Revolution.

SWAYNE, ALFRED HARRIS—Lawyer and Banker, 10 Wall street, New York City; residence University Club. Born in Washington, D. C., April 5, 1870. Educated at St. Paul's School, Concord, N. H., Yale ('92) and New York Law School ('94). (Single.) Was assistant manager North American Trust Co. in Cuba, with headquarters in Havana, from Dec. 1, 1898 to Nov. 1, 1899. Secretary Bankers' Trust Co. of New York since Nov. 1, 1899. Member City, Yale and University Clubs, Military Order of the Loyal Legion and Association of the Bar of the City of New York.

SWAYNE, FRANK B.—Lawyer, 120 Broadway, New York City; residence 326 West 90th street. Educated at Yale ('72). Member of the firm of Swayne & Swayne. Member University, Yale, Church and Lawyers' Clubs, Ohio and New England Societies and Association of the Bar of the City of New York.

SWAYNE, NOAH H.—Lawyer, 120 Broadway, New York City; residence 1 West 43d street. Educated at Yale ('70). Member of the firm of Swayne & Swayne. Member University Glee, Yale and City Clubs, Ohio Society, Sons of Veterans and Association of the Bar of the City of New York.

SWAYNE, WAGER—Lawyer, 71 Broadway, New York City; residence 10 West 43d street. Born in Columbus, Ohio, Nov. 10, 1834. Educated at Yale ('56) and at Cincinnati Law School ('59). (Married Ellen Harris of Louisville, Ky., 1868.) Served with Ohio Volunteers during Civil War and lost a leg at Salkehatchie, S. C. Appointed major, Aug. 13, 1861; lieutenant-colonel, Dec. 14, 1861; colonel, Oct. 18, 1862; full brigadier-general, March 8, 1865; major-general, June 20, 1865, and brevet brigadier-general and major-general in the United States Army on July 23, 1866, "for gallant and meritorious services during the war"; retired on July 1, 1870. Practiced law in Toledo, Ohio, until 1880 and since then, in New York City. Member of the firm of Swayne & Swayne. President and director American Church Missionary Society; director North American Trust Co. Member City, Lawyers', Union League, Church and Yale Clubs, Ohio Society, Military Order of the Loyal Legion and Association of the Bar of the City of New York.

SWAYZE, ROBERT H.—Manufacturer of Brass Goods, 29 Murray street, New York City; residence Bound Brook, N. J. Trustee Crockery Board of Trade. Member Congregational, Republican and Hardware Clubs.

SWEENEY, WILLIAM MONTGOMERY—120 Franklin street, Astoria. Born in New York City, Aug. 29, 1871. Educated in public and private schools and academies in New York City, and Augusta, Ga. (Single.) Has contributed to the press and has now in preparation a biography of his father, Gen. Thomas W. Sweeney, United States Army. Member and ex-secretary New York Association of California Pioneers; member executive committee Aztec Club of 1847. Member American-Irish Historical Society, Irish Texts Society of London, England, and Military Order of Foreign Wars of the United States.

SWEET, CLINTON W.—Publisher, 14 Vesey street, New York City; residence Yonkers. President and director Architectural Record Co. and United States Building News Co.; treasurer and director F. W. Dodge Co.; director "Record & Guide" Printing Co. Member Union League, Merchants', Lotos, Calumet, Press and Arkwright Clubs and Blooming Grove Park Association.

SWEET, LEONARD W.—Jeweler, 39 Maiden lane, New York City; residence Waterbury, Conn. Born in Mansfield, Mass., July, 1846. President Security Check Co. of New York, and Prentiss Calendar and Time Co.; general manager Monarch Mfg Co. of Waterbury. Member Republican Clubs.

SWEETSER, GEORGE D.—Dry Goods Merchant, 376 Broadway, New York City; residence Hotel Majestic. Born in Athol, Worcester Co., Mass., 1826. Educated in public schools. (Widower.) Engaged in the wholesale dry goods business in New York City since 1863, and has been senior member of the firm of Sweetser, Pembroke & Co. since 1868.

SWEETSER, J. HOWARD—Dry Goods Merchant, 376 Broadway, New York City; residence 37 West 58th street. Born in Amherst, Mass., March 2, 1835. Educated at East Hampton Seminary and at Amherst College. (Married.) Member of the firm of Sweetser, Pembroke & Co. Member Merchants' Club, New England and American Fine Arts Societies and Amherst Alumni Association.

SWEETZY, RICHARD LELAND—Lawyer, 62 William street, New York City; residence 61 Convent avenue. Born in Riverhead, Suffolk Co., N. Y., June 15, 1853. (Son of Isaac and Sarah [Perkins] Sweetzy.) Educated in public schools and at the College of the City of New York ('74). Studied law and has practiced in New York City since his admission to the Bar in 1876. (Married.) Member of the firm of Glover, Sweetzy & Glover since 1883. Was president of the Alumni Association of the College of the City of New York from 1891 to 1894, and was inspector of schools by appointment of Mayor Strong, 1896-8. Governor

Northwestern Dispensary. Member Harlem, City College and Heights Clubs, Alpha Delta Phi Fraternity, Phi Beta Kappa Society and Association of the Barr of the City of New York.

SWENSON, ERIC P.—Banker, 15 Wall street, New York City; residence 13 East 71st street. Educated at Trinity College. Member of the firm of S. M. Swenson & Sons. Member Union League, St. Anthony, New York Athletic, Mendelssohn Glee and Metropolitan Clubs, Ardsley Casino of Ardsley-on-Hudson, and Trinity College Alumni Association.

SWENSON, SWEN ALVIN—Banker, 15 Wall street, New York City; residence 821 Madison avenue. Educated at Trinity College. Member of the firm of S. M. Swenson & Sons. Member Union League, St. Anthony, Metropolitan and Riding Clubs, Ardsley Casino of Ardsley-on-Hudson, and Trinity College Alumni Association.

SWENY, HENRY R.—Manufacturer, Lyon Building, Albany; residence 5 Elk street. Born in Poonah, India, March 12, 1867. Educated at Yale. (Married.) Ex-president United States Golf Club Mfg Co. Member Carteret, Albany, Albany Country, Lakewood Golf and Forrester Gun Clubs.

SWIFT, ARTHUR LESSNER—Dental Surgeon, 161 West 71st street, New York City. Born in Brooklyn, N. Y., Dec. 25, 1861. Educated at the New York College of Dentistry (D.D.S., '85). (Married.) Member West Side Republican and Colonial Clubs, New York State Dental Society, First District Dental Society of the State of New York and Alumni Association of the New York College of Dentistry.

SWIFT, CHARLES W.—Coal Merchant, North Front street, Poughkeepsie. Born in Poughkeepsie, Oct. 15, 1859. Educated at Phillips Andover Academy and Columbia Law School ('80). (Married.) President Poughkeepsie Rural Cemetery Association; vice-president Old Ladies' Home of Poughkeepsie. Was supervisor for two terms, and formerly treasurer Dutchess County Agricultural Society. Member Amrita, Apotheeping Boat and Hudson River Ice Yacht Clubs.

SWIFT, EDWIN E.—Physician, 112 West 81st street, New York City. Born in Connecticut, March 23, 1855. Educated in New Haven. (Married Virginia Migron Bancroft.) Member Colonial Club, New York County Medical Society, Yale Alumni Association, New York Academy of Medicine and Sons of the Revolution.

SWIFT, FREDERICK—Broker, 15 Wall street, New York City. Educated at Harvard ('74). Member University, Racquet and Tennis, Union, Seawanhaka-Corinthian Yacht, New York Yacht, Atlantic Yacht and Harvard Clubs and Down Town Association.

SWIFT, GEORGE MONTAGUE—Physician, 20 West 55th street, New York City. Born in Brooklyn, N. Y., 1856. (Married.) Associated in practice with Dr. Henry F. Walker. Formerly visiting physician St. Mary's Free Hospital for Children; instructor in medicine, Columbia University. Member Barnard Club and Amherst Alumni, Bellevue Alumni, Academy of Medicine Alumni and Century Associations.

SWIFT, JOSEPH H.—Machinery, 66 Broadway, New York City; residence 27 West 60th street. Born in Ovid, N. Y., Sept. 22, 1832. Educated at Rashville, N. Y. (Widower.) Inventor of the first box nailing machine, now in general use all over the world. Member Congregational Club.

SWINBURNE, GEORGE KNOWLES—Physician and Instructor, 64 East 56th street, New York City. Educated at Harvard ('81). Degrees of A.B. and M.D. Clinical instructor in diseases of the genito-urinary system, Cornell University Medical College, New York City. Member Harvard, New York Athletic and Barnard Clubs and Century Association.

SWINBURNE, HENRY H.—Architect, New Rochelle. Born in Newport, R. I. Educated at Sheffield Scientific School of Yale, and Massachusetts Institute of Technology. (Married Anne Shirewood Trimble.) Formerly in City Engineer's office in Chicago, designer for Tiffany Glass Co., and chief of Bureau of Inspection, Department of Buildings, New York City. Member Barnard Club.

SWINTON, JOHN—Editor and Author, 62 Park row, New York City; residence 246 Monroe street, Brooklyn. Born in Edinburgh, Scotland, 1830. Educated in Scotland and at Easthampton (Mass.) Seminary. (Married.) On the editorial staff of the New York "Times," 1860-70, and of the New York "Sun," 1875-97. Since then engaged as writer for newspapers and magazines. Author of "John Swinton's Travels" and "Striking for Life."

SWITZER, CHARLES M.—Broker, 71 Broadway, New York City; residence Hotel Judson. Born in St. Louis, Mo., June 5, 1853. Educated at Princeton ('73). (Single.) Connected with the firm of Thomas & Post. Formerly manager National Linseed Oil Co. Member University, Delta Phi and Princeton Clubs.

SWORDS, HENRY COTHEAL—Banker, 32 Nassau street, New York City; residence 48 West 38th street. Born in New York City, Oct. 31, 1854. (Son of James R. and Ann M. [Cotheal] Swords.) Educated in private schools, at Public School No. 35 and at the College of the City of New York. President and director Real Estate Trust Co. since 1890; director Bank of New York. Member New York Stock Exchange (since 1877) and of the Union, Union League, Riding and Church Clubs, St. Nicholas Society, Down Town Association, Society of Colonial Wars, Sons of the Revolution and Metropolitan Museum of Art.

SYKES, M'CREADY—Lawyer, 30 Broad street, New York City; residence 337 West 45th street. Born in Mathews County, Va., Dec. 25, 1869. Educated at Princeton ('94). (Single.) Connected with the firm of Hornblower, Byrne, Miller & Potter. Member Princeton and Underwriters' Clubs, Metropolitan Museum of Art and Association of the Bar of the City of New York.

SYLVESTER, I. WATERS—Assayer, 30 Wall street, New York City; residence Passaic, N. J. Born in Albany, N. Y., Jan. 12, 1835. Educated in Claverack. (Married Ida E. Pond.) President of Board of Education of Passaic for three years, and of First Unitarian Society of Passaic for two years. Life member New England Society.

SYMINGTON, R. B.—Thread Merchant, 400 Broadway, New York City; residence 2 Park place, Newark, N. J. Born March 22, 1853. (Married.) Member of Consolidated Stock and Petroleum Exchange. Treasurer Marshall & Co. of Newark, and The Linen Thread Co.; secretary Clark Thread Co. of Newark, and George A. Clark & Bros.; comptroller Spool Cotton Co. Member Merchants' Club, and Essex Club of Newark.

SYMMERS, JAMES K.—Lawyer, 56 Pine street, New York City; residence 106 East 55th street. Member University Athletic Club, Southern and St. Andrew's Societies and Sigma Alpha Epsilon Fraternity.

SYMONDS, BRANDRETH—Physician, 32 Nassau street, New York City; residence 410 West 20th street. Born in Ossining Township, N. Y., March 4, 1863. Educated at Hobart College ('81) and at College of Physicians and Surgeons of Columbia University. Connected with Mutual Life Insurance Co. of New York. Member University and Barnard Clubs and Military Order of the Loyal Legion.

SYMONS, THOMAS W.—Major, Corps of Engineers, United States Army, 1100 D. S. Morgan Building, Buffalo; residence 59 Irving place. Born in Keesville, N. Y., Feb. 7, 1849. Educated at West Point Military Academy. (Married.) Formerly engineer Tenth Lighthouse District, and member State Canal Advisory Board. Now major Engineers' Corps, United States Army, and director Pan-American Exposition Co. Member Buffalo, Ellicott, University, Buffalo Yacht (honorary) and Country Clubs, Metropolitan Club of Washington, D. C., American Society of Civil Engineers and Society of Civil Engineers of Western New York.

SYMS, PARKER—Physician, 60 West 47th street, New York City. Member Calumet, University Athletic and City Clubs, New York County Medical Association (president for 1900) and other organizations.

T

TABER, CHARLES—Agent, 26 Exchange place, New York City; residence 499 Fifth avenue. Born on Staten Island, N. Y., Nov. 25, 1860. Educated at Columbia ('84). Freight agent for the Delaware, Lackawanna and Western R. R. Co., with which he has been connected since 1884. Served on the Committee of Seventy of 1894, and was one of the organizers of the Good Government Club system. Member City Club and Columbia Alumni Association.

TAFF, OLIVER—Real Estate, Whitestone, L. I. Born in Flushing, N. Y., 1836. Educated in public schools. First lieutenant of the 15th Regiment United States Infantry, 1866-71. Has served as collector of school taxes, as a trustee of the Board of Education, as town assessor, as postmaster and as a member of the Water and Health Boards of Whitestone. Has been engaged in the real estate business since 1870, and has superintended the erection of a majority of the buildings there.

TAFT, CHARLES HATFIELD—Drug Broker, 100 William street, New York City; residence 480 Clinton avenue, Brooklyn. Born and educated in Brooklyn. (Married.) Member of the firm of James H. Taft & Co. Member Drug Trade Club, Royal Arcanum, F. & A. M., Scottish Rite bodies of New York, Noble Order of the Mystic Shrine and Sons of the American Revolution.

TAFT, ENOS NELSON—Lawyer, 74 Wall street, New York City; residence 134 St. James place, Brooklyn. Born in Mendon, Mass., Aug. 12, 1826. (Son of Leonard and Martha Taft.) Educated in public schools, at Wooster Academy and at Yale (A.B., A.M. and LL.D.). (Married Julia M., daughter of William Peet, 1860.) Practicing in New York City since 1854, and is now a senior member of the firm of E. N. & T. M. Taft. Vestryman Church of the Incarnation of Brooklyn; trustee Adelphi Academy; United States Commissioner for the Southern District of New York. Member Yale Alumni and Down Town Associations.

TAFT, FRANK—Organ Builder, 130 Fifth avenue, New York City; residence 248 Washington avenue, Brooklyn. Born in East Bloomfield, N. Y., March 22, 1861. Educated at Genesee Wesleyan Seminary. (Married.) Formerly member of the firm of J. H. & C. S. Odell & Co.; organist Madison Avenue Reformed Church and Temple Beth-El of New York City, and conductor of the Madrigal Singers. Sole proprietor and manufacturer Hymnolia Pipe Organ. Treasurer American Guild of Organists.

TAFT, HENRY W.—Lawyer, 40 Wall street, New York City; residence 340 Lexington avenue. Educated at Yale ('80). Member University and Yale Clubs, Century Association and Association of the Bar of the City of New York.

TAFT, JOSEPH H.—Architect, 41 East 20th street, New York City; residence 54 Monroe street, Brooklyn. Born in Cornwall, Orange Co., N. Y. (Married.) Member Architectural League, Crescent Athletic Club of Brooklyn, and Players' Club.

TAFT, THEODORE MUNGER—Lawyer, 74 Wall street, New York City; residence 134 St. James place, Brooklyn. Born in Brooklyn, Oct. 31, 1865. (Son of Enos Nelson and Julia M. [Peet] Taft.) Educated at Adelphi Academy, at Black Hall School in Lyme, Conn., at Williams College ('86), and at Columbia College Law School. (Single.) Practicing in New York City since his admission to the Bar in 1889 as a member of the firm of E. N. & T. M. Taft. Member Alpha Delta Phi Club and Williams College Alumni Association.

TAG, ALBERT—Merchant, 29 Broad street, New York City; residence 32 East 60th street. Born in New York City, March 6, 1855. Educated at Columbia College. (Single.) Trustee Exchange Place Real Estate

Co. and New York Improved Real Estate Co. Member New York Athletic Club, Metropolitan Museum of Art, Down Town Association and Liederkrantz.

TAG, CASIMIR—Banker, 23 Broad street, New York City; residence 243 Hancock street, Brooklyn. Born in New York City, March 10, 1847. Educated in New York City. (Married.) President and director German-American Bank and Decatur Land Improvement and Furnace Co.; treasurer and director Kern Incandescent Gas Light Co.; secretary and director New York Improved Real Estate Co.; director Germania Life Insurance Co., Consolidated Coal Co. of Wyoming, Wallabout Bank of Brooklyn, People's Trust Co. of Brooklyn, North German Fire Insurance Co. and United States Equitable Gas Co.; trustee German Savings Bank, United States Casualty Co., Brooklyn Hospital and Eastern District Hospital. Member Down Town Association, Germania Club of Brooklyn, and Liederkrantz.

TAGGART, RUSH—Lawyer, 195 Broadway, New York City; residence 319 West 75th street. Born in Smithville, Wayne Co., Ohio, Sept. 4, 1849. (Son of William W. and Margaret M. Taggart.) Educated at the University of Wooster (A.B., '71, and A.M., '74), and at the University of Michigan (LL.B., '75). (Married Margaret Waterworth, 1877.) Practicing in New York City since 1887. Counsel to the Western Union Telegraph Co. and other corporations. Director Cincinnati, Hamilton and Dayton Ry. Co., Citizens' Electric Railway, Light and Power Co. and Rapid Addressing Machine Co. Member Colonial Club, Ohio Society, Presbyterian Union, Sons of the Revolution and Association of the Bar of the City of New York.

TAILER, EDWARD N.—Real Estate, 99 Franklin street, New York City; residence 11 Washington square, North. Member of the firm of P. Donald & Co. Director German-American Bank; trustee Greenwich Savings Bank and Northern Dispensary. Member Union League, Union, Merchants', Tuxedo and Lincoln Clubs, St. Nicholas and New England Societies and Chamber of Commerce.

TAILER, JAMES LEE—Lawyer, 100 William street, New York City; residence 16 East 72d street. Member Fencers', Turf and Field, Racquet and Tennis, Republican and Baltimore (Md.) Clubs, and Country Club of Westchester.

TAILER, THOMAS SUFFERN—122 East 37th street, New York City. Educated at Harvard. Member Union, Tuxedo, Racquet and Tennis, Harvard, Turf and Field, and Tandem Clubs.

TAILER, WILLIAM H.—Real Estate, 99 Franklin street, New York City; residence 14 East 72d street. Member of the firm of P. Donald & Co. Member Metropolitan, Union, and Suburban Riding and Driving Clubs and St. Nicholas Society.

TAINTOR, CHARLES N.—Publisher, 13 Astor place, New York City; residence 41 West 76th street. Born in Pomfret, Conn., Nov. 28, 1840. Educated at Bacon Academy, Colchester, Conn., and at Yale ('65). (Married.) Senior member of the firm of Taintor Bros. Was commissioner of emigration of the State of New York for eight years, and president of the board in 1889; police justice of the City of New York, 1889-95. Delegate to National Republican Conventions of 1884 and 1888 and to Republican Conventions of the State of New York from 1880 to 1890. Republican candidate for member of Congress in the Seventh New York Congressional District, 1888; first vice-president Republican County Committee, 1895-6; director Riverside Bank; member advisory board of directors Astor Place Bank branch of Corn Exchange Bank; trustee United States Savings Bank, Grant Monument Association, and Bacon Academy of Colchester, Conn. Member Colonial, Republican, Union League, University, Mendelssohn Glee, Nineteenth District Republican and West Side Republican Clubs, New England Society and American Museum of Natural History.

TAINTOR, GILES E.—Banker, 10 Wall street, New York City; residence 128 West 57th street. Member of the New York Stock Exchange firm of Taintor & Holt. Director Iowa Central Railway Co. Member Union League and Morristown (N. J.) Clubs, Down Town Association and New England Society.

TAINTOR, HENRY FOX—Paint Manufacturer, 101 Beekman street, New York City; residence Murray Hill Hotel. Born in Buffalo, N. Y., June 30, 1833. Educated at Homer Academy. (Married Frances L. Noyes of New York City.) Resident of New York City since 1862. Took a leading part in the overthrow of the "Tweed Ring," 1871-9. President and director American Whiting and Putty Co. and H. F. Taintor Mfg Co.; director Strong Locomotive Co. Member Union League Club and Metropolitan Museum of Art.

TAINTOR, JUDAH L.—Publisher, 13 Astor place, New York City; residence 41 West 76th street. Born in Colchester, Conn., May 30, 1848. Educated at Bacon Academy, Colchester. (Widower.) Member of the firm of Taintor Bros. Member Republican Club, New England Society and Aldine Association.

TAINTOR, STARR—Cashier, 101 Beekman street, New York City; residence 35 West 33d street. Born in Stratford, Conn., Aug. 27, 1871. Educated in private schools and at Columbia College. (Single.) Served in United States Navy, April 30 to Sept. 2, 1898, as quartermaster on United States steamship Nahant. Cashier H. F. Taintor Mfg Co.; ensign 1st Naval Battalion, S. N. Y. Member Alpha Delta Phi Club and Columbia Alumni Association.

TAIT, ARTHUR FITZWILLIAM—Artist, 82 Waring place, Yonkers. Born in Liverpool, England, Aug. 5, 1819. Educated in common schools. Came to the United States in 1850 and settled in New York City. Member Lotos Club and National Academy of Design.

TAKAYANAGI, TOZO—Art Importer and Author, 12 East 16th street, New York City; residence 46 West 17th street. Born in Japan. Educated in Saga City, Japan, and London, England. (Married.) Formerly manager of the Japanese Manufacturing and Trading Co. Member Aldine Association, American Museum of Natural History, and Japan Society of London.

TALBOT, ROBERT BANCKER—Physician, 37 West 68th street, New York City. Born in New York City. Educated at College of Physicians and Surgeons (M.D., '77). (Married.) Assistant surgeon Woman's Hospital of the State of New York. Member Sons of the Revolution, St. Nicholas and New England Societies and Columbia Alumni Association.

TALCOTT, EDWARD N. K.—Civil and Mechanical Engineer, 15 Broad street, New York City; residence Goshen. Born in Cuba, Allegany Co., N. Y., June 10, 1840. Educated at New York University. (Married.) Served with 7th Regiment, New York Volunteers, and with 1st Regiment United States Volunteer Engineers during Civil War, and advanced to the rank of captain. Superintendent of the Illinois Military Academy, 1876-90; since then engaged in practice as a consulting civil and mechanical engineer. Member American Society of Civil Engineers, Military Order of the Loyal Legion and Grand Army of the Republic.

TALCOTT, JAMES—Dry Goods Commission Merchant, 108 Franklin street, New York City; residence 7 West 57th street. Proprietor of the house of James Talcott. Director Bank of the Manhattan Co.; trustee Broadway Savings Institution. Member Republican, American Yacht, Patria and Riding Clubs, American Geographical and New England Societies and American Museum of Natural History.

TALCOTT, J. FREDERICK—Protestant Episcopalian Clergyman, 60 West 87th street, New York City. Born in New York City, 1866. Educated at Princeton University. (Married.) Member Princeton Club.

TALIAFERRO, EDWIN T.—Lawyer, 132 Nassau street, New York City; residence 203 West 103d street. Born in Tennessee, July 25, 1849. Was Speaker of Tennessee House of Representatives in 1877, and President of Judicial Convention in 1878. Makes a specialty of trial practice.

TALLMADGE, HENRY OVERING—Commission Merchant and Agent, 134 Pearl street, New York City; residence 35 Lake avenue, Yonkers. Born in Westchester, N. Y., Oct. 3, 1866. Educated in Yonkers. (Single.) Member of the firm of Parsons & Tallmadge. Formerly secretary United States Golf Association and secretary and treasurer St. Andrew's Golf Club. Member St. Andrew's Golf, New York Athletic, Calumet and Union Clubs and Sons of the Revolution.

TALLMADGE, WILLIAM H. (Colonel)—Wholesale Liquor Merchant, 67 Washington street, New York City; residence Stamford, Conn. Born in New Canaan, Conn., Feb. 21, 1843. Educated at Wilbraham (Mass.) Seminary. (Married.) Appointed special Indian agent and disbursing officer by President Cleveland. Treasurer Columbian Coast Wrecking Co.; auditor New York, New Haven and Hartford R. R. Co. Member Knickerbocker Athletic, Democratic, Lotos and Reform Clubs.

TALLMAN, BUELL G.—Manufacturer, 91 Mississippi street, Buffalo; residence 284 Franklin street. Born in Springville, N. Y., Dec. 17, 1863. Educated at Batavia High School. (Married Helen B. Potter.) Connected with the firm of Schoellkopf & Co. as office manager. Vice-president Rochester Fertilizer Works; director Buffalo Credit Men's Association. Member Saturn, Ellicott and Independent Clubs.

TALMADGE, HENRY—Banker, 68 William street, New York City; residence 338 Madison avenue. Born in Westfield, Mass., June 25, 1824. (Married.) Member of the firm of Henry Talmadge & Co. Treasurer New York Juvenile Asylum; director Cossitt Land & Improvement Co. and Mechanics' National Bank; trustee Central Trust Co. Member Storm King Club, Society of Mayflower Descendants and life member New England Society.

TALMADGE, HENRY P.—Banker, 68 William street, New York City; residence Netherwood, N. J. Born in Troy, N. Y., March 10, 1847. Educated at Harvard ('68). (Married.) President Southern Pine Co. of Savannah, Ga. President South Carolina Ry. Co., 1882-9. Member Harvard, Union, University, Reform and Whist Clubs, Down Town Association and Chamber of Commerce.

TALMAGE, JOHN F., JR.—35 Wall street, New York City; residence 157 Joralemon street, Brooklyn. Educated at Yale ('95). Member Groher, University, Racquet and Tennis, Tuxedo, Riding and Driving and Yale Clubs, and Crescent Athletic and Hamilton Clubs of Brooklyn.

TAMS, JAMES FREDERIC—Broker, 44 Pine street, New York City; residence 136 East 22d street. Member of the firm of Tams & Lemoine. Trustee Chrysolite Silver Mining Co. Member Union, New York Yacht and Seawanhaka-Corinthian Yacht Clubs, Society of Naval Architects and Marine Engineers and United States Naval Institute.

TAMSEN, EDWARD J. H.—Publisher, 52 Avenue A, New York City; residence 331 East 18th street. Born in Hamburg, Germany, Feb. 25, 1846. Educated in Germany. Served the legal term in the Prussian Army and came to New York City in 1869. Engaged in the publishing business and also in banking, having a branch bank in Hamburg. Has served as a school trustee for several years, and as sheriff of New York County, 1895-7.

TANNER, FREDERIC A.—Lawyer, 99 Nassau street, New York City; residence 155 West 81st street. Member New York Athletic and Colonial Clubs, New England Society, Society of Medical Jurisprudence and Association of the Bar of the City of New York.

TANNER, JOHN HENRY—Professor, Cornell University, Ithaca; residence 7 Central avenue. Born in Fort Plain, N. Y., March 1, 1861. Educated at Cornell (B.S., '91) and in Göttingen, Germany. (Married.) Assistant professor of mathematics and secretary of the Faculty of Arts and Sciences at Cornell University. Author of several mathematical works. Member Town and Gown, and Ithaca Country (vice-president) Clubs, Delta Upsilon, National Geographical and American Mathematical (life) Societies and life member American Association for the Advancement of Science.

TANSLEY, FRANK DUDLEY—Lawyer, 149 Broadway, New York City; residence 153 West 44th street. Born in Westminster, Mass., July 29, 1871. Educated in New York City at Columbia and New York Law Schools. (Single.) Formerly treasurer Patria Club, on the membership committee of Republican Club, and was also member of Republican County Committee. Member New York Athletic, Republican, Atalanta Boat and Patria Clubs, Society of Medical Jurisprudence, Company B, 7th Regiment, N. G. N. Y., and Association of the Bar of the City of New York.

TANZER, ARNOLD—Treasurer, 26 Broadway, New York City; residence 40 West 93d street. Born in Austria, July 2, 1841. Educated at the College of the City of New York. (Widower.) Assistant treasurer International Steam Pump Co. Member City College Alumni, Phi Beta Kappa Alumni and Purim Associations.

TAPP, EDWARD WRIGHT—Weigher, 63 South street, New York City; residence Jamaica, L. I. Born in Brooklyn. (Married.) Secretary Board of Education, 1892-8. Member of the firm of Acker, Covert & Tapp. Member Society of the Cincinnati of the State of New York, Sons of the Revolution and St. Nicholas Society.

TAPPAN, HERMAN—Perfume and Powder Manufacturer, 112 Duane and 70 Reade streets, New York City; residence 306 West End avenue. Member New York, New York Athletic and Atlantic Yacht Clubs.

TAPPAN, JOHN B. COLES—Lawyer, 16 Exchange place, New York City; residence Glen Cove, L. I. Born on Long Island, April 4, 1860. Educated at Yale and at Columbia Law School. (Married.) Member of the firm of Cox & Tappan. Member Seawanhaka-Corinthian Yacht, Yale, Mill Neck Fishing, Queens County Golf and Nassau Country Clubs.

TAPPEN, FREDERICK D.—Banker, 36 Wall street, New York City; residence 49 East 68th street. President and director Gallatin National Bank; vice-president and trustee Metropolitan Trust Co. and Bank for Savings; director Astor National Bank, Bank of New Amsterdam, Mobile and Ohio R. R. Co., New York Clearing House Building Co. and Queen Insurance Co. of America; trustee Royal Insurance Co. of England. Member Metropolitan, Union League, Rockaway Hunting, Players', Union, Grolier and St. Nicholas Clubs, St. Nicholas and Holland Societies and Down Town Association.

TARBELL, GAGE E.—Life Insurance, 120 Broadway, New York City; residence 4 West 72d street. Born in Smithville Flats, Chenango Co., N. Y., Sept. 20, 1856. Educated at Clinton Liberal Institute. (Married.) Second vice-president and director Equitable Life Assurance Society of the United States. Member Colonial, New York Athletic, Lawyers' and Union League Clubs, Marine and Field, Atlantic Yacht and Dyker Meadow Golf Clubs of Brooklyn, Ardsley Casino of Ardsley-on-Hudson, and Chamber of Commerce.

TARBELL, GEORGE S.—Lawyer, Ithaca Trust Co. Building, Ithaca; residence 110 North Geneva street. Born in Groton, N. Y., July 15, 1868. Educated in Ithaca schools and at Cornell University. (Married.) Has been secretary Tompkins County Republican Committee for eight years and a referee in Bankruptcy. Member Craftsmen's and Town and Gown Clubs, Delta Phi Fraternity and Knights Templar.

TARBOX, RUSSELL LORD—Lawyer, 34 Pine street, New York City; residence 144 West 34th street. Born in Batavia, N. Y., Jan. 15, 1872. Educated at Williams College. (Single.) Member of the firm of Bird & Tarbox. Member Madison Square Republican Club, Society of the Genesee, Phi Delta Theta and Phi Delta Phi Fraternities, Phi Beta Kappa Society and Williams Alumni Association.

TARR, HORACE G. H.—Machinery, 120 Liberty street, New York City; residence 3 Washington square, North. Born in Chillicothe, Mo., Aug. 22, 1844. Educated at Brooklyn Polytechnic Institute and Phillips Andover Academy. (Married.) Manager Gaylord Iron Co. of Cincinnati, Rockhill Iron and Coal Co. of Pennsylvania, Morris, Taskey & Co. of Philadelphia, and Otis Elevator Co. of New York. Formerly assistant to the president of the Pullman Palace Car Co. Member Players' Club, Chicago (Ill.) Club, Maryland Club of Baltimore, Army and Navy Club of Washington, D. C., and Military Order of the Loyal Legion.

TARR, RALPH STOCKMAN—Teacher, Cornell University, Ithaca; residence 1 East avenue. Born in Gloucester, Mass., Jan. 15, 1864. Educated at Harvard. (Married.) Professor of dynamic geology and physical geography in Cornell University. Assistant in the Smithsonian Institution, 1883-5; assistant to United States Geological Survey, 1888, 1890 and 1891; assistant to Texas Geological Survey, 1889; associate editor Bulletin of the American Geographical Society, and Bulletin of the American Bureau of Geography. Author of "Economic Geology of United States," "Elementary Physical Geography," "Elementary Geology" and "First Book of Physical Geography"; associate author of the Tarr and McMurry series of geographies. Member of the Town and Gown Club, American Geographical, Sigma Xi and National Geographic Societies, Boston Society of Natural History and Geological Society of Washington, D. C.

TATE, JOSEPH—Stock Broker, 71 Broadway, New York City; residence 55 Madison avenue, New Brighton, S. I. Born on Staten Island, N. Y., Dec. 28, 1849. (Married.) Member of the New York Stock Exchange firm of Tate & Hays. Treasurer and trustee Staten Island Academy; director Eighth Avenue R. R. Co. and Ninth Avenue R. R. Co.; trustee S. R. Smith Infirmary of Staten Island. Member Staten Island Club.

TATHAM, CHARLES—Lead Manufacturer, 82 Beekman street, New York City; residence 105 East 18th street. Member of the firm of Tatham & Bros. President and director National Sportsmen's Association. Member Fencers', Good Government and City Clubs and American Geographical Society.

TATUM, CHARLES A.—Glassware Merchant, 46 Barclay street, New York City; residence 12 West 70th street. Member of the firm of Whitall, Tatum & Co. Member Lawyers', Metropolitan, New York Athletic, Seawanhaka-Corinthian Yacht and Larchmont Yacht Clubs and Metropolitan Museum of Art.

TAUSSIG, GUSTAVE F.—Builder, 257 West 27th street, New York City; residence 342 West 56th street. Born in New York City, Oct. 21, 1857. Educated at Cornell University. (Single.) Member Cornell Club.

TAYLOR, ALEXANDER—Retired, 48 Central Park, South, New York City. Member Union League, Democratic, New York Yacht, Larchmont Yacht, Tandem, New York Jockey, Megantic Fish and Game, Adirondack League and New Rochelle Trout Clubs, Caribou Club of Maine, National Horse Show and American Fine Arts Societies, National and American Fox Terriers' Associations and Association of Trotting Horse Breeders.

TAYLOR, ALFRED J.—Lawyer, 256 Broadway, New York City; residence 369 Lexington avenue. Born in Huntington, Mass., April 4, 1833. Educated at Yale ('59). (Married.) Director Merchants' Exchange National Bank, Member University, Yale and Grolier Clubs, Century Association, New York Historical and American Geographical Societies and Association of the Bar of the City of New York.

TAYLOR, CHARLES GUSTAVUS—Commission Merchant, 478 Broome street, New York City; residence 162 East 38th street. Born and educated in New York City. Member of the firms of Taylor & Fessenden, and Taylor & Lockett. Formerly treasurer Portland Silk Co. Member Richmond County Country and Calumet Clubs.

TAYLOR, CORTLANDT E.—Stock Broker, 7 Wall street, New York City; residence 1507 Broadway. Born in New York City, Feb. 3, 1863. Educated in New York City. (Single.) Member of the New York Stock Exchange firm of Taylor, Cutting & Co.

TAYLOR, DOUGLAS—Printer and Lithographer, 8 Warren street, New York City; residence 333 West 22d street. Senior member of the firm of D. Taylor & Co. Trustee City Savings Bank of Brooklyn. Member Manhattan, Church, Democratic, Players' and Reform Clubs, St. Nicholas, American Geographical and Dunlap Societies and Typothetae of New York.

TAYLOR, DWIGHT WILCOX—Building Materials, 287 Fourth avenue, New York City; residence 500 Madison avenue. Born in New York City, Oct. 25, 1869. Educated at Columbia College (A.M., '91.) Assistant treasurer Atlantic Terra Cotta Co. Member Calumet Manuscript, University, New York Athletic, Alpha Delta Phi, Richmond County Country and Seabright (N. J.) Golf Clubs, Society of Mayflower Descendants, St. Nicholas Skating Rink and Columbia Alumni Association.

TAYLOR, FIELDING L.—Physician, 173 West 73d street, New York City. Born in Virginia, May 24, 1868. Educated at University of Virginia (A.M., '89 and M.D., '91.) House physician Charity Hospital, 1893; house surgeon Hudson Street Hospital, 1895. Now senior member Out-Patient staff, Hudson Street Hospital and instructor in surgery in Summer School of Cornell University. Member University Athletic and Externe Medical Clubs, New York County Medical and West End Medical Societies and Societies of Alumni of Charity Hospital and of Alumni of New York Hospital.

TAYLOR, GEORGE—Dry Goods Merchant, 873 Broadway, New York City; residence 8 West 126th street. Member of the firm of Aitken Son & Co. Member Union League, Harlem, New York Athletic, Huntington Yacht and Congregational Clubs, American Geographical and St. George's Societies, Young Men's Christian and Aldine Associations, Presbyterian Union, American Museum of Natural History and Metropolitan Museum of Art.

TAYLOR, GEORGE H.—Lawyer, 29 Broadway, New York City; residence 16 East 56th street. Educated at Columbia. Member Union League, Lawyers' and Lambs' Clubs, Columbia University Alumni Association and Association of the Bar of the City of New York.

TAYLOR, HARRY L.—Lawyer, 805 D. S. Morgan Building, Buffalo; residence 317 14th street. Born in Halsey Valley, Tioga Co., N. Y., April 14, 1866. Educated at Cornell University and at Cornell Law School. (Single.) Member University Club of Buffalo, Lodge of Ancient Landmarks, F. & A. M., Phi Delta Phi Fraternity and Phi Beta Kappa Society.

TAYLOR, HENRY LING—Physician, 60 West 55th street, New York City; residence 758 West End avenue. Born in New York City, March 17, 1857. Educated at Yale (Ph.D., '77) and at the College of Physicians and Surgeons, New York City (M.D., '81.) (Married.) Assistant surgeon Hospital for the Ruptured and Crippled; consulting orthopaedic surgeon, New York State Epileptic Colony at Sonoma; ex-chairman orthopaedic section, Academy of Medicine; ex-vice-president American Orthopaedic Association. Member National Arts and Barnard Clubs, Independent Club of Twenty-first Assembly District, and Good Government Club C, New York Academy of Medicine, New York County Medical, Pathological, Northwestern Medical and Surgical, and Medico-Surgical Societies, Roosevelt Hospital Alumni, American Academy of Medicine and American Orthopaedic Association.

TAYLOR, HENRY OSBORN—Author, 52 East 57th street, New York City. Born in New York City, Dec. 5, 1856. Educated at Harvard ('78) and at Columbia College Law School. (Single.) Author of numerous works. Member Century Association.

TAYLOR, HENRY RICHMOND—Lawyer, 40 Wall street, New York City; residence 3 East 71st street. Educated at Columbia ('91.) Member of board of managers Delaware, Lackawanna and Western R. R. Co.; director Cayuga and Susquehanna R. R. Co., Farmers' Loan and Trust Co., Fulton Street R. R. Co., National City Bank and Thirty-fourth Street Crosstown Ry. Co.; trustee New York Life Insurance and Trust Co. Member Metropolitan, University, Knickerbocker, New York Yacht and Union Clubs, Ardsley Casino of Ardsley-on-Hudson, and Columbia University Alumni and Down Town Associations.

TAYLOR, HERBERT C.—Stock Broker, 52 Broadway, New York City; residence 224 West 70th street. Born in Irvington, N. J., Sept. 7, 1863. Educated at Columbia College. (Married.) Member New York Stock Exchange and of the Union League Club.

TAYLOR, HOWARD AUGUSTUS—Lawyer, 71 Broadway, New York City; residence 122 East 39th street. Born in New York City, Nov. 23, 1855. (Son of Henry Augustus and Catherine Augusta [Osborn] Taylor.) Educated at St. Paul's School, Concord, N. H., and at Harvard ('86.) (Married.) Studied law in the office of William B. Hornblower in New York City, and was admitted to the Bar in 1888. Was a member of the firm of Hornblower, Byrne, Taylor & Miller from 1890 to 1899, in which year he became senior member of the firm of Taylor & Seymour. Member Harvard, University, Metropolitan, Union and Tuxedo Clubs, Down Town and Century Associations, Sons of the Revolution and Association of the Bar of the City of New York.

TAYLOR, HOWARD C.—Physician, 26 West 47th street, New York City. Born in Green's Farms, Conn., March 17, 1868. Educated at Yale ('88) and at the College of Physicians and Surgeons of Columbia University. (Married.) Connected with Roosevelt Hospital. Member University Club, Academy of Medicine and Medical Society of the County of New York.

TAYLOR, JAMES HODGE—Coffee Merchant, 107 Front street, New York City; residence 4 West 121st street. Member of the firm of James H. Taylor & Co. Member New York Athletic and Harlem Clubs, New England Society and Down Town Association.

TAYLOR, JAMES MONROE—Clergyman and Professor, Vassar College, Poughkeepsie. Born in Brooklyn, N. Y., Aug. 5, 1848. Educated at the University of Rochester ('68), at Rochester Theological Seminary (D.D.) and in Germany. Degree of LL.D. from Rutgers College. (Married Kate Huntington, 1873.) Held several Baptist pastorates until 1886. President and professor of ethics at Vassar College since 1886. Member University Club of New York City.

TAYLOR, JAY RICHARD—Physician, 70 Main street, Sag Harbor, L. I. Born in Philadelphia, Pa., Nov. 25, 1856. Educated at the University of Pennsylvania. (Married.) Formerly instructor in anatomy, University of Pennsylvania, and professor of practice of medicine and pathology in the Medical College of the State of South Carolina at Charleston. President Suffolk County Medical Society. Member Associated Physicians of Long Island, and Army and Navy Club of New York City.

TAYLOR, JOHN A.—Lawyer, 111 Broadway, New York City; residence 159 South Oxford street, Brooklyn. Born in Providence, R. I., June 30, 1844. Educated at Westerly High School. (Married.) Alderman Thirteenth Ward Brooklyn, 1870-2; president Board of Education, 1877-81; corporation counsel of Brooklyn, 1881-5. President Department of Political Science, Brooklyn Institute of Arts and Sciences. Member New York Yacht, Unta and Nineteenth Century (president) Clubs, Century and Down Town Associations and Association of the Bar of the City of New York.

TAYLOR, JOHN D.—Retired Lawyer, 44 Broadway, New York City; residence 25 East 109th street. Born in Sanbornton, N. H., March 7, 1827. Educated at Harvard ('49) and Harvard Law School ('53.) (Single.) Has been executor and trustee of estates, director of several railroads, trustee of a savings bank and an official in various manufacturing and mining corporations. Member Harvard Club and American Bar and Harvard Law Alumni Associations.

TAYLOR, JOHN H.—Horticulturist and Farmer, "The Oaks," Bayside, L. I. Born in New York City, Aug. 2, 1857. Educated in Europe and at Harvard ('81.) (Widower.) Formerly president town of Flushing, of the Bayside School Board and of the New York Florists' Club. Director New York Cut Flower Co. Member University, Harvard and Niantic Clubs and American Geographical Society.

TAYLOR, JOSEPH F.—Publisher, 5 East 16th street, New York City; residence South Orange, N. J. Born Oct. 3, 1873. Educated at New York Military Academy and Cornell University. (Married.) Member Chi Phi Club, Book-Builders and Sons of the Revolution.

TAYLOR, MOSES—Iron Manufacturer, 52 Wall street, New York City; residence 6 East 72d street. Educated at Yale ('93). Member University, Metropolitan, Kuickerbocker, Meadow Brook Hunt and Yale Clubs.

TAYLOR, MOSES W.—Banker, White Plains; residence Nepera. Born in Scarsdale, N. Y., Aug. 9, 1839. Educated in Yonkers public and private schools. (Married.) Vice-president Westchester County Society of Agriculture and Horticulture; director Tarrytown National Bank and White Plains Bank; trustee Westchester County Savings Bank. Has been supervisor town of Mount Pleasant for nineteen years. Member Solomon's Lodge, F. & A. M., and Sons of the Revolution.

TAYLOR, ROBERT COLEMAN—Lawyer, 55 William street, New York City; residence University Club. Born in Baltimore, Md., Dec. 28, 1863. Educated at University of Virginia (A.M., '84, and LL.B., '86). (Single.) Counsel to the Medical Society of the County of New York. Member Country Cycle and University Clubs, Maryland Club of Baltimore, Southern Society and Association of the Bar of the City of New York.

TAYLOR, ROBERT WILLIAM—Physician, 40 West 21st street, New York City. Born in London, England, Aug. 11, 1842. Graduated in medicine from the College of Physicians and Surgeons of Columbia University (M.D., '68). Formerly connected with the staffs of the Women's Medical College, University of Vermont, New York Dispensary and Bellevue Hospital.

TAYLOR, RONALD—Paving Stone, 156 Fifth avenue, New York City; residence 455 Greene avenue, Brooklyn. Director Star Roofing Co. Member Build-Trades, Hardware and Commercial Clubs, Crescent Athletic Club of Brooklyn, and Blooming Grove Park Association.

TAYLOR, SAMUEL, JR.—Broker, Produce Exchange, New York City; residence 315 West 74th street. Born in Brooklyn, N. Y., June 13, 1865. Educated at Brooklyn High School. (Married.) Member of the New York Stock Exchange firm of McIntyre & Marshall, and of the New York Produce and New York Cotton Exchanges. Vice-president and director Baltic Realty Co. and Brooklyn Wharf Transfer Co.; treasurer and director Parmele-Eccleston Lumber Co.; secretary and director Brooklyn Wharf and Warehouse Co.; director Atlantic Storage Co., Hecker-Jones-Jewell Milling Co., Wilmington, Newberne and Norfolk Ry. Co. and Kings County Fire Insurance Co. Member New York Athletic and Colonial Clubs.

TAYLOR, SAMUEL WALTER—Editor and Publisher, 945 Broadway, New York City; residence 35 Mount Morris Park, West. Born in Washington, D. C., May 7, 1861. Educated at St. Matthew's Institute, now St. John's College, in Washington, D. C., and at the Franciscan College in Kingston, N. Y. (Married Mary Alice, daughter of F. C. Smith, of New York City.) Formerly night managing editor of the New York "Herald," and for ten years held responsible editorial positions on the "World," "Times" and "Journal." Now president and director Rider and Driver Publishing Co., publishers of the "Rider and Driver." Member Suburban Riding and Driving Club, of which he was one of the founders, first secretary and later treasurer; also founder and first president of the Rough Riding Club of New York.

TAYLOR, S. FREDERIC—71 Hudson street, New York City; residence Montclair, N. J. Born in Cleveland, Ohio, March 18, 1861. Connected with Borden's Condensed Milk Co. Member Commercial Club (secretary).

TAYLOR, STEVENSON—Civil Engineer, foot of 13th street, Hoboken, N. J.; residence 123 West 85th street, New York City. General superintendent North River Iron Works. Director People's Bank. Member Engineers' Club' American Society of Mechanical Engineers, American Museum of Natural History and Metropolitan Museum of Art.

TAYLOR, TALBOT J.—Banker and Broker, 30 Broad street, New York City; residence Cedarhurst, L. I. Senior member of the firm of Talbot J. Taylor & Co. Member New York Stock Exchange and of the Union, Rockaway Hunting, and Turf and Field Clubs.

TAYLOR, THOMAS FENTON—Lawyer, 31 Nassau street, New York City; residence South Orange, N. J. Born in New York City, Feb. 17, 1852. Educated in public schools of Indianapolis, Ind., at Harvard (A.B., '75) and at Columbia Law School (LL.B., '77). (Married.) Member of the firm of Van Duzer & Taylor. Member University, Lawyers', Reform and Harvard Clubs, Civil Service Reform Association and Association of the Bar of the City of New York.

TAYLOR, TOWNSEND E.—Merchant and Manufacturer, 520 South Clinton street, Syracuse; residence 604 Warren street. Born in Moore Mills, Dutchess Co., N. Y., April 2, 1848. Educated at Dutchess County Academy in Poughkeepsie. (Single.) Manufacturer of None Such Baking Powder; stockholder Standard Shirt Co. Member Citizens' Club.

TAYLOR, WALTER C.—Stock Broker, 7 Wall street, New York City; residence 9 East 81st street. Born in New York City, Oct. 18, 1864. Educated in New York City. (Married.) Member of the firm of Taylor, Cutting & Co., and of the New York Stock Exchange. Member Racquet and Tennis, Union, Knollwood Country and Baltusrol Golf Clubs and Metropolitan Museum of Art.

TAYLOR, WALTER F.—Lawyer, 54 Wall street, New York City; residence 173 West 73d street. Member Association of the Bar of the City of New York.

TAYLOR, WILLARD U.—Lawyer, 71 Wall street, New York City; residence 65 Park avenue. Born in Lyons, Wayne Co., N. Y., July 19, 1868. Educated at Cornell University ('91) and New York Law School. (Single.) Member of the firm of Foley, Wray & Taylor. Member Cornell University and Democratic Clubs and Association of the Bar of the City of New York.

TAYLOR, WILLIAM—Cotton Merchant, 15 Old Slip, New York City; residence 117 Montague street, Brooklyn. Born in Canada, Jan. 18, 1829. Educated at Shefford Academy and College St. Hyacinthe, Canada. (Married.) Formerly a teacher in Canada and Virginia. In mercantile business in New York City since Civil War. Trustee Tree Planting and Fountain Society. Member Hamilton and National Civic Clubs of Brooklyn. Church Club of the Diocese of Long Island, Long Island Historical Society, Brooklyn League and Ancient Lodge No. 724, F. & A. M.

TAYLOR, WILLIAM—Missionary Bishop, 150 Fifth avenue, New York City. Born in Rockbridge County, Va., May 2, 1821. Educated in district schools. Entered Methodist ministry in 1842. Engaged in missionary work in California, Canada, Europe and Australia. Organized many churches in India, 1872-6, and in South America, 1876-84. Now missionary bishop for Africa, where he has converted many Kaffirs and established many mission stations. Author of "Seven Years Street Preaching in San Francisco," "California Life Illustrated," "Christian Adventures in South Africa," "Four Years' Campaign in India," "The Flaming Torch in Darkest Africa," "Story of My Life" and many other works.

TAYLOR, WILLIAM A.—Dry Goods Commission Merchant, 109 Worth street, New York City; residence 91 Joralemon street, Brooklyn. Educated at Yale ('84). Member Merchants' University, Union League, Psi Upsilon and Yale Clubs, and Crescent Athletic and Hamilton Clubs of Brooklyn.

TAYLOR, WILLIAM E.—Insurance, 120 Broadway, New York City; residence Colonial Club. Born in Philadelphia, Pa., May 21, 1862. Educated in Philadelphia. (Widower.) Connected with the Equitable Life Insurance Society of the United States. Member Colonial, Union League, Lawyers' and New York Riding Clubs.

TEALE, CHARLES E.—City Magistrate, Myrtle and Vanderbilt avenues, and Clothier, 611 Fulton street, Brooklyn. Born in Nottingham, England, June 1, 1843. Educated at Brooklyn Public School No. 8. (Married.) Member of the firm of Charles E. Teale & Co. President of the Board of City Magistrates. Director City Savings Bank, Manufacturers' Mutual Fire Insurance Co. and Young Men's Christian Association; trustee Industrial Home for the Blind. Was a member of the Brooklyn Board of Education for nineteen years; connected with the United States Indian Department, 1888-92. Is now a city magistrate for the Third District of the Second Division of the City of New York (Borough of Brooklyn); term expires May 1, 1901. Member Union League and Oxford Clubs, Manufacturers' Association of New York, Sunday School Union and Brooklyn Institute of Arts and Sciences.

TEARS, DANIEL WADE—Lawyer, Grand Central Station, New York City; residence 440 West End avenue. Educated at Columbia ('84). Connected with the legal department of the New York Central and Hudson River R. R. Co. Member University and Transportation Clubs, Association of the Bar of the City of New York, Columbia University Alumni Association and Metropolitan Museum of Art.

TEELE, ARTHUR W.—Public Accountant, 30 Broad street, New York City; residence 117 West 58th street. Born in Medford, Mass. Educated in Watertown, Mass. (Married.) Member of the firm of Teele & Dennis. Director Laughlin-Hough Co. Member New York Athletic and Lawyers' Clubs and New York State Society of Certified Public Accountants.

TEFFT, FRANK GRISWOLD—Dry Goods Merchant, 330 Broadway, New York City; residence 1 West 72d street. Member of the firm of Tefft, Weller & Co. Member Manhattan, Merchants', Players', New York Athletic, Suburban Riding and Driving, Tandem, South Side Sportsmen's and Colonial Clubs, American Geographical Society, Liederkrantz, Society of Colonial Wars and American Museum of Natural History.

TEFFT, WILLIAM E.—Dry Goods Merchant, 330 Broadway, New York City; residence 22 East 64th street. Member of the firm of Tefft, Weller & Co. Director Merchants' Association. Member Merchants', Players' and Suburban Riding and Driving Clubs, Dunlap Society, Liederkrantz, American Museum of Natural History and Metropolitan Museum of Art.

TEGETHOFF, WILLIAM C.—Secretary, 26 Broadway, New York City; residence 302 East 18th street, Flatbush, Brooklyn. Born in Cincinnati, Ohio, May 27, 1867. Educated in Cleveland, Ohio. (Married.) Secretary Spanish-American Iron Co.; secretary and assistant treasurer Iron Belt Mining Co. Member Knickerbocker Field and Union League Clubs of Brooklyn, Metropolitan Museum of Art and of all Masonic bodies.

TELFORD, DANIEL D.—Machinery, 540 West 23d street, New York City; residence 305 West 46th street. Member Players', Twilight and Burns Clubs and St. Anthony Society.

TEN BROECK, C. C.—Druggist, 322 Wall street, Kingston; residence 98 Greene street. Born in Clovesville, Delaware Co., N. Y., May 7, 1846. Educated in Delaware County. (Married.) Formerly a member of the Consistory of Reformed Dutch Church of Kingston, and master of Kingston Lodge No. 10, F. & A. M. Now member of the Kingston Board of Education; director Kingston National Bank. Member Holland Society of New York City, Kingston Board of Trade and Kingston Lodge No. 10, F. & A. M.

TEN EYCK, SANFORD R.—Lawyer, 277 Broadway, New York City; residence 14 West 28th street. Born in Seneca County, N. Y., April 1, 1837. Educated at Watertown Academy. (Widower.) Member of the firm of Ten Eyck & Remington, Assemblyman from Seneca County in 1871. Member American Geographical and Holland Societies.

TEN EYCK, STEPHEN VEDDER—Physician, 159 West 92d street, New York City. Born in Astoria, L. I., Jan. 24, 1860. Educated at Rutgers College and at College of Physicians and Surgeons of New York.

(Single.) House physician Nursery and Child's Hospital, 1883, and of Skin and Cancer Hospital, 1884. Member Delta Phi Fraternity and Holland Society.

TEN EYCK, WILLIAM H.—Commissioner, 280 Broadway, New York City; residence 679 East 135th street. Born in New York City, March 7, 1847. Educated in public schools. (Married.) Clerk of the Board of Aldermen of the City of New York, 1895-7. Now serving as Aqueduct Commissioner. Chairman of the Executive Committee (of which he has been secretary and later vice-president) of the Republican County Committee for 1900; also chairman of the Congressional Committee of the Sixteenth District and represents the same district, which embraces Westchester County and the Borough of the Bronx, on the Republican State Committee. Has been treasurer for many years of the North Side Republican Club and of the building committee of the Union Republican Club. Member Thirty-fourth Assembly District Republican Club and North Side Board of Trade; also member of the committee on city and state affairs of the Republican Club.

TEN EYCK, WILLIAM HOFFMAN—Clergyman, 159 West 92d street, New York City. Born in Schenestady, N. Y., May 19, 1818. Educated by private tutors and at Rutgers College and New Brunswick Theological Seminary. (D.D. [honorary] '70). (Married Anna M. Vedder.) Member of the Board of Sabbath School Union of the Reformed Church in America, 1858-63; corresponding delegate to General Synod Reformed Church (German) in the United States, 1871; corresponding delegate to the General Council of the Reformed Episcopal Church, 1877; member of the Board of Education of the Reformed Church in America since 1859; stated clerk of the North Classis of Long Island since 1864; permanent clerk of the General Synod of same church since 1871; has delivered the memorial addresses at the funerals of Judge Robert Hunter Morris, ex-Mayor of the city of New York, and at those of Mrs. Robert Bonner and William Briggs Bolles; has published a pamphlet entitled, "Scriptural Temperance" and various articles in the "Christian Intelligencer." Member Holland Society and Delta Phi Fraternity.

TENNEY, CHARLES H.—Hat Manufacturer, 8 Washington place and 15 West Fourth street, New York City; residence Hotel Netherland. Senior member of the firms of Charles H. Tenney & Co. and Tenney & Dixon. Director Fruit Auction Co. Member Manhattan, Reform, New York Athletic, Union League, Metropolitan and Lotos Clubs, New England Society and Metropolitan Museum of Art.

TENNEY, DANIEL G.—Hat Manufacturer, 8 Washington place, and 15 West Fourth street, New York City; residence 2 West 56th street. Educated at Yale ('91). Member of the firm of C. H. Tenney & Co. Member Reform, University, New York Athletic, University Athletic and Yale Clubs.

TENNEY, LEVI S.—Lawyer, 7 Nassau street, New York City; residence 112 East 22d street. Educated at Yale. Member Reform, Alpha Delta Phi, Democratic and Yale Clubs and Association of the Bar of the City of New York.

TENNILLE, WILLIAM A.—Retired Cotton Merchant, East Orange, N. J. Born in Georgia, 1840. Educated at the University of Georgia. (Married.) Captain and inspector-general on staff of General G. F. Anderson of the Confederate Army in Civil War. Formerly member of the firm of Tuttle & Wakefield. Member New York Cotton Exchange and of the Sons of the Revolution.

TERHUNE, ALBERT PAYSON—Journalist, 63 Park row, New York City; residence 53 Washington square. Born in Newark, N. J., Dec. 21, 1863. (Son of Rev. Edward Payson and Mary V. Terhune.) Educated at Columbia. (Married Lorraine Marguerite Bryson of New York City, 1898.) On editorial staff of the New York "Evening World." Traveled on horseback through Syria in 1894, investigating leper settlements, living among the Bedouins of the Desert, etc. Author of "Syria From the Saddle," "Columbia Stories," "A Galahad of Park Row" and of numerous short stories.

TERRELL, HERBERT L.—Lawyer, 80 Broadway, New York City; residence 16 East 50th street. Educated at Yale ('63). President and director Chihuahua Mining Co. and Helena Mining Co.; second vice-president and director American Tobacco Co.; director Chihuahua and Pacific Ry. Co. and Continental Tobacco Co. Member Union League, Lotos, University, Riding, Atlantic Yacht and Yale Clubs, Ohio and New England Societies and Metropolitan Museum of Art.

TERRIBERRY, W. S.—Physician, 148 West 74th street, New York City. Born in Paterson, N. J., July 3, 1871. Educated at Yale. (Single.) Formerly attending surgeon Bellevue Dispensary and assistant surgeon and first lieutenant of United States Volunteers. Member Yale Club, New York County Medical and New York State Medical Associations, Society of Alumni of Bellevue Hospital and Zeta Psi Fraternity.

TERRY, CHARLES A.—Lawyer, 120 Broadway, New York City; residence 248 West 139th street. Born in South Weymouth, Mass. Educated at Amherst College ('79) and at Columbia Law School. (Married.) Secretary and attorney Westinghouse Electric and Mfg. Co. Member Lawyers' and University Clubs, Columbia University Alumni Association and Association of the Bar of the City of New York.

TERRY, CHARLES THADDEUS—Lawyer, 170 Broadway, New York City; residence 14 Central Park, West. Born in Albany, N. Y., Sept. 16, 1867. Educated at Williams College (A.B., '89), Columbia University Law School (LL.B., '93) and at Berlin University. (Married.) Was awarded prize lectureship in Columbia University Law School, 1893, and has been lecturer there since 1897. Member of the firm of C. H. & J. A. Young & Terry. Member University, Phi Delta Phi (president) and Phi Delta Theta Clubs, Phi Beta Kappa and Albany Societies, New York Law Institute and Association of the Bar of the City of New York.

TERRY, EDMUND R.—Lawyer, 130 Pearl street, New York City; residence 12 Remsen street, Brooklyn. Educated at Yale. Member Delta Kappa Epsilon and Yale Clubs, and Crescent Athletic and Hamilton Clubs of Brooklyn.

TERRY, GEORGE DAVIS—Contractor, 156 Fifth avenue, New York City; residence 12 Remsen street, Brooklyn. Educated at Yale. Member Psi Upsilon and Yale Clubs, Crescent Athletic Club of Brooklyn, Society of Colonial Wars, Society of Mayflower Descendants, Sons of the American Revolution and Society of Founders and Patriots of America.

TERRY, JAY—Brick Manufacturer, Rondout. Born in Rondout, 1871. Educated at Cornell University. (Single.) Superintendent of the firm of Terry Bros. Member Cornell University Club of New York City.

TERRY, JOHN D.—Notary, Custom House, New York City; residence 1680 East End avenue. Born in Mountville, Me., Sept. 3, 1845. Educated in Boston, Mass. (Married.) Formerly major United States Volunteers; adjutant Medal of Honor Legion; commander Vanderbilt Post G. A. R., and served on General Sickles' military staff. Was awarded medal of honor by Congress for "meritorious services." Member Hell Gate Club, Boston School Graduates' Society, Military Order of the Loyal Legion and Lafayette Post G. A. R.

TERRY, JOHN TAYLOR—Merchant, 100 Broadway, New York City; residence Irvington. Born in Hartford, Conn., Sept. 9, 1822. (Descended in a direct line from Governor William Bradford of the Mayflower, and also from Governors John Haynes and Samuel Wylls, the first and second Governors of Connecticut, in 1639 and 1642, respectively.) Educated in high schools and academies in Connecticut and Massachusetts. (Widower.) Member of the firm of E. D. Morgan & Co. Vice-president and director Mercantile Trust Co.; director American Exchange National Bank, American Speaking Telephone Co., American Telegraph and Cable Co., Bank of New Amsterdam, Commercial Union Fire Insurance Co., Corralitos Co., Gold and Stock Telegraph Co., International Ocean Telegraph Co., Manhattan Ry. Co., Metropolitan Trust Co., St. Louis, Iron Mountain and Southern Ry. Co., Southern and Atlantic Telegraph Co., Standard Gas Light Co., Texas and Pacific Ry. Co., Wabash

R. R. Co., Western Union Telegraph Co. and others. Member Union League Club, American Geographical and New England Societies, Sons of the Revolution, American Museum of Natural History and Metropolitan Museum of Art.

TERRY, JOHN TAYLOR, JR.—Lawyer, 100 Broadway, New York City; residence 275 Madison avenue. Born in Tarrytown, N. Y. Educated at Yale ('79). Member University and Calumet Clubs, New England Society and Sons of the Revolution.

TERRY, JOHN W.—Superintendent, Almshouse, Blackwell's Island; residence New York City. Born in New York City, April 14, 1867. Educated in city public and private schools. (Married.) Formerly salesman with the firm of Francis H. Leggett & Co., and auditor American Exchange in Europe (Ltd.). Member Twilight, Harlem Republican, Central Republican and Riverside Republican Clubs, Continental Lodge No. 286, F. & A. M., and second class of the Legion of the Medal of Honor.

TERRY, RODERICK—Clergyman, 169 Madison avenue, New York City. Educated at Yale ('70). Rector of the South Reformed Church. Member Calumet, University, Seawanhaka-Corinthian Yacht, University Athletic and Manuscript Clubs, American Fine Arts, American Geographical and New England Societies, Yale Alumni and Century Associations and Metropolitan Museum of Art.

TERRY, SETH SPRAGUE—Lawyer, 66 Broadway, New York City; residence 126 East 34th street. Born in Rochester, N. Y., Sept. 23, 1862. Educated at the University of Rochester ('83) and Harvard Law School ('86). (Married Gertrude P. Fenner.) Commissioner of Accounts of New York City, 1895-7. Member Reform Club, Ardsley Casino of Ardsley-on-Hudson, University of Rochester Alumni and Phi Beta Kappa Societies, Society of Mayflower Descendants and Society of the Genesee.

TERRY, WYLLYS—Railroads and Insurance, 71 Wall street, New York City; residence 12 Remsen street, Brooklyn. Born in Brooklyn, 1864. Educated at Yale ('85). (Single.) Associated in insurance business with C. L. Despard. Treasurer Van Brunt Street and Erie Basin R. R. Co. and Yale Alumni Association of Long Island. Formerly a governor of Hamilton Club and Dyker Meadow Golf Club of Brooklyn. Member University Club, Dyker Meadow Golf, Crescent Athletic and Hamilton Clubs of Brooklyn, Yale Alumni and Down Town Associations and Sons of the Revolution.

TESLA, NIKOLA—Electrician and Inventor, 46 East Houston street, New York City; residence 55 West 27th street. Born in Smiljau, Servia, 1857. Educated in Gaspich public schools, at Carlstadt Real Schule, at Gratz Polytechnic School and in Prague and Budapesth. Received degree of LL.D. from Yale and Columbia Universities. Was for a time, after becoming a resident of the United States, employed at the Edison Works in Orange, N. J., which he abandoned to establish the Tesla Laboratory in New York City for the purpose of independent electrical research. Has invented new forms of dynamos, transformers, induction coils, arc and incandescent lamps, etc., and has opened up a new field of electrical investigation. Director Nikola Tesla Co. Member University, Lambs' and Players' Clubs.

THACHER, ALFRED B.—Lawyer, 10 Wall street, New York City; residence 47 West 43d street. Educated at Yale ('74). Connected with the firm of Reed, Simpson, Thacher & Barnum. Member University and Yale Clubs and Association of the Bar of the City of New York.

THACHER, JOHN BOYD—5 South Hawk street, Albany. Born in Ballston, Saratoga Co., N. Y., Sept. 11, 1847. Educated at Williams College ('69). (Married Emma Treadwell of Albany, 1872.) State senator, 1884-5; mayor of Albany, 1886-7 and 1896-7. Chairman of the Bureau of Awards at the World's Columbian Exposition, Chicago, 1893. Member Grolier, University, Democratic and Camera Clubs of New York City, Order of Founders and Patriots of America and Williams College Alumni Association.

THACHER, JOHN S.—Physician, 33 West 39th street. Educated at Yale ('77) and Columbia Universities. Member University, Yale and Psi Upsilon Clubs, Academy of Medicine and Columbia University Alumni and Century Associations.

THACHER, THOMAS—Lawyer, 10 Wall street, New York City; residence 129 East 35th street. Born in New Haven, Conn., May 3, 1850. Educated at Hopkins Grammar School, at Yale College ('71) and at Columbia Law School. (Married.) Member of the firm of Reed, Simpson, Thacher & Barnum. Member University, Metropolitan, Yale, University Athletic, Lawyers', St. Andrew's Golf and Englewood (N. J.) Golf Clubs, New York Law Institute, Century Association, Metropolitan Museum of Art and Association of the Bar of the City of New York.

THAYER, AARON CLAFLIN—Lawyer, 44 Pine street, New York City; residence St. Paul's Court, Flatbush, Brooklyn. Born in Milford, Mass., April 28, 1866. Educated at Harvard ('87) and Harvard Law School ('90). (Single.) Member of the firm of Pinney & Thayer. Member Harvard Club, Crescent Athletic Club of Brooklyn, Society of Founders and Patriots of America and Association of the Bar of the City of New York.

THAYER, ARNOLD—Linseed Oil Manufacturer, 89 Maiden lane, New York City; residence Great Neck, L. I. Director American Linseed Oil Co. Member Hamilton Club of Brooklyn, New York Yacht, Corinthian Yacht, and Atlantic Yacht Clubs and Down Town Association.

THAYER, EDWARD C.—Wholesale Shoe Merchant, 196 Church street, New York City; residence St. Paul's Court, Brooklyn. Born in Cincinnati, Ohio, Jan. 18, 1864. Educated at Harvard. (Married.) Member of the firm of Claflin, Thayer & Co. Member Crescent Athletic Club of Brooklyn, and Harvard Club.

THAYER, FRANK A.—Manufacturer, 39 Cortlandt street, New York City; residence 533 Hancock street, Brooklyn. Born in Boston, Mass., 1856. Educated in Boston. (Married.) Treasurer Thayer & Co. (Inc.). Member Engineers' Club, Crescent Athletic and Montauk Clubs of Brooklyn, Sons of the Revolution, Mayflower Society and Manufacturers' Association of New York City.

THAYER, HENRY B.—Manager, 463 West street, New York City; residence Kingsbridge road and Nathalie avenue. Born in Northfield, Vt., Aug. 17, 1858. Educated at Dartmouth College. (Married.) Manager of the Western Electric Co. Member Reform, University and Transportation Clubs, Union League Club of Chicago, Ill., and Dartmouth Alumni Association.

THAYER, JOHN R.—Manager, 49 Broadway, New York City; residence 183 Washington Park, Brooklyn, and Allenhurst, N. J. Born in Buffalo, N. Y., Jan. 18, 1838. Educated at Adelphi Academy, Brooklyn. (Married Anna E. Williams.) Bookkeeper and cashier with the late James O. Morse, 1875-83; interested in townsite of Belfield, N. Dak., 1883-5. Manager foreign department, United States Express Co., since 1889. Member Crescent Athletic, Young Republican and Invincible Clubs of Brooklyn, Tenth Assembly District Republican Association of Brooklyn, and Sons of the Revolution.

THAYER, RODNEY—Manufacturer, 39 Cortlandt street, New York City; residence 51 Madison avenue. Secretary Thayer & Co. (Inc.) Member Manhattan, Hardware, and Calumet Clubs, and Crescent Athletic Club of Brooklyn.

THAYER, STEPHEN HENRY—Broker, 46 Broadway, New York City; residence Tarrytown. Born in New Ipswich, N. H., 1839. Educated at Columbia. Member New York Stock Exchange and of the Authors' and Barnard Clubs and Columbia University Alumni and Century Associations.

THAYER, STEPHEN HOWARD—Lawyer, Yonkers. Born in New York City, May 24, 1842. Educated at Columbia University. (Married.) Formerly justice of the peace and City Judge of Yonkers. Now counsel to Yonkers Savings Bank. Member Sons of the Revolution, G. A. R. and Yonkers Historical and Library, Westchester County Bar, Columbia Alumni and State Bar Associations.

THEBAUD, PAUL GILBERT—Merchant, 87 Broad street, New York City; residence 153 Madison avenue. Member of the firm of Thebaud Bros. Member Metropolitan, Union, Riding, Calumet, Westchester Country, Knollwood Country, St. Andrew's Golf, Suburban Riding and Driving, Baltusrol Golf, Racquet and Tennis, New York Yacht and New York Athletic Clubs, St. Nicholas Society, Society of the War of 1812, Sons of the Revolution and Society of Colonial Wars.

THOM, WILLIAM B.—Hat Merchant, 14 Washington place, New York City; residence 8 East 56th street. Born in Pelham, N. H., June 17, 1846. Educated in Pelham, and in Poughkeepsie, N. Y. (Married.) Member of the firm of Thom & Bayley. Member Union League and Lotos Clubs.

THOMA, LUDWIG F.—Journalist, 76 East 93d street, New York City. Born in Germany, Sept. 11, 1847. Educated in Bavaria at the University of Munich. Resident of New York City and engaged in journalism since 1870. Took an active part in the political reform movement in New York City in 1894.

THOMAS, AARON S.—Shoe Manufacturer, 343 Hewes street, Brooklyn; residence 133 West 73d street, New York City. Educated at Yale ('69). Director Mount Morris Bank. Member Union League, University and Yale Clubs and New England Society.

THOMAS, ABNER C.—Surrogate, County Court House, New York City; residence 315 West 84th street. Practiced law in New York City until his election in 1899 on the Democratic ticket as Surrogate of New York County for the term expiring Dec. 31, 1913. Member Democratic, Twilight and Colonial Clubs, Association of the Bar of the City of New York and Lieberkranz.

THOMAS, ALLEN MASON—Physician, 45 West 54th street, New York City. Born in Rhode Island, Sept. 26, 1856. Educated at Yale ('77). (Single.) Member Suburban Riding and Driving, University and Yale Clubs, American Geographical and New England Societies, Century Association and Sons of the Revolution.

THOMAS, AUGUSTUS—Dramatist, New Rochelle. Born Jan. 8, 1860. (Married.) Formerly master workman Knights of Labor. Now committeeman National Institute of Arts and Letters. Author of "In Miz-zoura," "Alabama," "Arizona" (1900) and others. Member Players', American Dramatists' and Lambs' Clubs, New Rochelle Rowing Club and Century Association.

THOMAS, EBEN BRIGGS—Capitalist, 21 Cortlandt street, New York City; residence 175 West 58th street. President and director Elmira State Line R. R. Co., Erie and Black Rock R. R. Co., Erie R. R. Co., Long Dock Co., Middletown and Crawford R. R. Co., Middletown, Unionville and Water Gap R. R. Co., New York and Wilkesbarre Coal Co., New York, Susquehanna and Western Coal Co. and Northern R. R. Co.; first vice-president and director Chicago and Erie R. R. Co.; director Buffalo Creek R. R. Co., Erie and Wyoming Valley R. R. Co., Mercantile National Bank, Pavonia Ferry Co., United States Mortgage and Trust Co. and Wilkesbarre and Eastern R. R. Co. Member Lawyers', Union League, Tuxedo and Riding Clubs, Manufacturers' Club of Cleveland, Ohio, Century Association and Ohio Society.

THOMAS, EDWARD R.—Banker, 71 Broadway, New York City; residence 17 West 57th street. Born in Columbus, Ohio, 1873. Educated at Yale. (Single.) Member of the firm of Thomas & Post, and of the New York Stock Exchange. Director Cincinnati, Jackson and Mackinaw Ry. Co., Cleveland, Akron and Columbus Ry. Co., Express Coal Line and Manhattan Car Trust Co. Member Grolier, Union, Alpha Delta Phi, Union League, Larchmont Yacht and Seawanhaka-Corinthian Yacht Clubs, Loyal Legion, and Ardsley Casino of Ardsley-on-Hudson.

THOMAS, ELLIS J.—Life Insurance, 1 Madison avenue, New York City. Born in Utica, N. Y., Nov. 18, 1863. Educated at Williams College ('88). (Single.) Manager of agencies for the Metropolitan Life Insurance Co. Member Delta Upsilon, Players', New York Athletic and University Clubs, Williams Alumni Association, Delta Upsilon and Phi Beta Kappa Societies and Phi Delta Phi Fraternity.

THOMAS, EVAN—Grain Merchant, 426 Produce Exchange, New York City; residence 1386 Broadway. Born in Baltimore, Md., 1838. Educated at Haverford College. (Married.) Member of the firm of Evan Thomas & Co., and of the New York Produce Exchange. New York State Presidential Elector and secretary of Electoral College, 1898. Appointed Water Commissioner by Governor Flower and Bridge Commissioner by Governor Hill; served as World's Fair Commissioner. Has been president of New York Produce Exchange for four terms; chairman Produce Exchange Arbitration Committee for six years; president Business Men's Democratic Association for three terms, and president of Water Witch Club of New Jersey. Member Democratic Club, and Seabright (N. J.) Golf and Water Witch Clubs.

THOMAS, FRANK S.—Merchant, 132 Front street, New York City; residence Manhattan Club. Educated at Cornell ('80). President and director Montgomery Auction and Commission Co.; secretary and director Battersby Commercial Agency. Member Manhattan, New York Athletic and Cornell University Clubs and Down Town Association.

THOMAS, FREDERIC C.—Architect, 33 East 17th street, New York City; residence 26 East 41st street. Member Union, Seawanhaka-Corinthian Yacht, New York Athletic, Suburban Riding and Driving, Engineers', St. Andrew's Golf and Tandem Clubs, St. Nicholas, National Sculpture, Municipal Arts and Hackney Societies, Sons of the Revolution, Architectural League and 7th Regiment Veterans.

THOMAS, HECTOR W.—Lawyer, 141 Broadway, New York City; residence 105 Waverley place. Born Sept. 19, 1866. Educated at Yale ('88). (Married.) Member University, Union League and Yale Clubs and Association of the Bar of the City of New York.

THOMAS, JOHN LLOYD—Journalist, 160 Bleeker street, New York City. Born in England, April 22, 1857. Educated in England. (Married.) Manager of the Mills Hotels and Model Dwellings. President Queens Borough Improvement Co. Formerly journalist, and lecturer on sociological topics. Member Nineteenth Century (secretary) and Writers' Clubs.

THOMAS, JOHN ROCHESTER—Architect, 160 Broadway, New York City; residence 71 Park avenue. Born in Rochester, N. Y., June 18, 1848. Educated in public schools. Architect of the State Reformatory at Elmira, the 8th Regiment Armory in New York City, the New York City Hall of Records and of numerous other public buildings. Received first prize in New York City Hall competition. Member Manhattan Club.

THOMAS, LAWRENCE BUCKLEY—Protestant Episcopal Clergyman, Elmira; residence 6 Aspen Ridge. Born in Baltimore, Md., Dec. 6, 1848. Educated in Baltimore and at General Theological Seminary of New York City. (Widower.) Clergyman Emmanuel Protestant Episcopal Church. Formerly secretary and treasurer Baltimore Book Trade Association; librarian Whittingham Library of Baltimore; assistant librarian of Baltimore Mercantile Library and president Monday Literary Club of Philadelphia, Pa. Member Shakespeare, Theological and Literary, Maryland Historical and Wisconsin Historical Societies, Society of Colonial Wars and New York Theological Seminary Alumni Association.

THOMAS, RICHARD S.—Publisher, 70 Fifth avenue, New York City; residence 45 West 32d street. Educated at Yale ('87). (Single.) Member of the firm of Ginn & Co. Member University Club and Yale Alumni Association.

THOMAS, ROBERT MCKEAN—Electrical Engineer, 141 Broadway, New York City; residence 135 Madison avenue. Educated at Princeton. (Single.) Member of the firm of Thomas & Betts. Member Princeton, University Athletic and University Clubs, Ardsley Casino of Ardsley-on-Hudson, and American Institute of Electrical Engineers.

THOMAS, SAMUEL—Capitalist, 80 Broadway, New York City; residence 17 West 57th street. Born in South Point, Ohio, Oct. 27, 1840. Educated in Marietta, Ohio. Served in Union Army during Civil War and advanced to the rank of brevet brigadier-general. President and director Akron Street Railway and Illuminating Co., Duluth, South Shore and Atlantic Ry. Co., New York and Staten Island Electric Co. and Richmond Borough Co.; treasurer and director International Silver Co.; director American Pig Iron Storage Warrant Co., Bedford and Bloomfield R. R. Co., Canadian Pacific Ry. Co., Chicago, Indianapolis and Louisville Ry. Co., Cincinnati, Jackson and Mackinaw Ry. Co., Cincinnati Northern R. R. Co., Detroit, Toledo and Milwaukee R. R. Co., Manhattan Trust Co., Pacific Mail Steamship Co., Rapid Transit Ferry Co., Sault Ste. Marie Bridge Co., Shelby Iron Co., Staten Island Electric R. R. Co., United States Cast-Iron Pipe and Foundry Co., Welsbach Commercial Co., Plastic Material Covering Co., General Carriage Co. and Western Live Stock and Land Co.; trustee Metropolitan Trust Co. Member Union League, Republican, Riding, Atlantic Yacht, Knollwood Country, New York Yacht and Lawyers' Clubs, Ohio and Southern Societies, Ardsley Casino of Ardsley-on-Hudson, Lafayette Post G. A. R., American Museum of Natural History and Metropolitan Museum of Art.

THOMAS, SEYMOUR P.—Iron, 45 William street, New York City; residence 1186 Lexington avenue. Educated at Cornell ('72). Resident engineer Phoenix Bridge Co.; New York manager Phoenix Iron Co. Member Cornell University Club.

THOMAS, THEODORE GAILLARD—Physician, 600 Madison avenue, New York City. Born in Charleston, S. C., Nov. 21, 1831. Educated at Charleston College (M.D., '52). (Married) Mae T. Willard of Troy, N. Y., 1862.) Practicing in New York City since 1852 and has held several hospital appointments. Member Metropolitan and Riding Clubs, Century Association, American Museum of Natural History and of several medical societies.

THOMPSON, ARTHUR G.—Tag Manufacturer, 309 West Broadway, New York City; residence 587 West End avenue. Born in New York City, Oct. 12, 1859. Educated in France and Germany, at Hopkins Grammar School in New Haven, Conn., and at Sheffield Scientific School of Yale University (Ph.B., '82). (Married.) Vice-president A. Kimball Co. Member Yale, University, Chi Phi and Wool Clubs and Society of Colonial Wars.

THOMPSON, CHARLES LEMUEL—Presbyterian Clergyman, 156 Fifth avenue, New York City. Born in Allentown, Pa., Aug. 18, 1839. Educated at Carroll College, Wis., and at Princeton and Chicago Theological Seminaries. (Married.) Formerly editor of "The Interior" at Chicago, and has been pastor in Janesville, Wis., Cincinnati, Chicago, Pittsburg, Kansas City and at Madison Avenue Presbyterian Church, New York City. Was Moderator of the Presbyterian General Assembly in 1888. Now secretary Presbyterian Board of Home Missions. Author of "Times of Refreshing," "Etechings in Verse" and other works. Member Quill Club, Authors' Society and Presbyterian Union.

THOMPSON, FREDERICK DIODATI—Union Club, New York City, and Sagtikos Manor. Born in New York City, Dec. 17, 1850. Educated at Columbia. (Single.) Commander Turkish Order of Osmanieh and Grand Cordon Order of Mejidieh. Author of "In the Track of the Sun." Fellow Academy of Design. Member Metropolitan, Union and Knickerbocker Clubs, Suffolk County Historical, Long Island Historical, St. George's, Delta Psi, New York Historical and New York Genealogical and Biographical Societies, Society of Colonial Wars, Columbia University Alumni Association and Sons of the Revolution.

THOMPSON, GEORGE H.—Fruit Merchant, 107 Hudson street, New York City; residence Mansion House, Brooklyn. Born in Liverpool, England, Oct. 23, 1865. (Single.) Member British Schools and Universities Club.

THOMPSON, HENRY—40 Central Park, South, New York City. Educated at Colgate University ('72). Member Union League, New York Athletic, University, Republican and Unitarian Clubs and New England Society.

THOMPSON, HUGH SMITH—Insurance, 346 Broadway, New York City; residence 70 East 54th street. Born in Charleston, S. C., Jan. 24, 1836. Educated at South Carolina Military Academy ('56).

(Married.) Professor South Carolina Military Academy, 1858-60; served in Confederate Army, 1861-5; principal Columbia Male Academy, 1866-76; State Superintendent of Education, South Carolina, 1876-82; Governor of South Carolina, 1882-6; Assistant Secretary of the United States Treasury, 1886-9; United States Civil Service Commissioner, 1889-92; comptroller New York Life Insurance Co., since 1892. Member Reform Club, Southern Society, Century Association and Sons of the American Revolution.

THOMPSON, J. CAMPBELL—Lawyer, 63 Wall street, New York City; residence 95th street and Riverside Drive. Born in Ireland, June 2, 1872. Educated at Trinity College, Dublin, and at New York Law School. (Married.) Member of the firm of Thompson & Maloney. Member New York Athletic, Manhattan, and Suburban Riding and Driving Clubs, Crescent Athletic Club of Brooklyn, British Schools and Universities Club, Dwight Alumni Association and Friendly Sons of St. Patrick.

THOMPSON, JOHN ANGUS—Lawyer, 40 Wall street, New York City; residence 434 Clermont avenue, Brooklyn. Born in Bristol, Conn., 1872. Educated at Wesleyan University. (Single.) Member of the firm of Stern & Rushmore. Member University Glee Club of Brooklyn, Wesleyan University Alumni Association and Sons of the American Revolution.

THOMPSON, JOHN C.—Manufacturer, 66 Broadway, New York City; residence 155 West 48th street. President and director Eames Vacuum Brake Co.; treasurer and director New York Air Brake Co. Member New York Athletic and Lawyers' Clubs, Metropolitan Museum of Art and American Museum of Natural History.

THOMPSON, JOHN MEANS—Real Estate, 149 Broadway, New York City; residence 323 West 83d street. Born in Columbia, S. C., June 14, 1864. (Son of Hugh S. Thompson, formerly Governor of South Carolina, and Elizabeth A. Clarkson.) Educated at Columbian University, Washington, D. C. (Married Sarah Hamilton Glasgow of Nashville, Tenn.) Was first lieutenant of the 71st New York Volunteers, and served as such in the expedition against Santiago de Cuba at the battle of San Juan July 1, 2 and 3, 1898, and throughout the Spanish-American War. President Alumni Association of the Alpha Tau Omega Fraternity. Member Colonial Club, Southern Society, Society of Santiago, Society of the Spanish-American War and 71st Regiment Veterans' Association.

THOMPSON, J. WALTER—Advertising, 38 Park row, and Transportation, 143 Liberty street, New York City; residence 13 West 76th street. President and director J. Walter Thompson Co., Lock-Stub Check Co. and Owl Transportation Co.; vice-president and director Needham Piano and Organ Co.; director Pabst Brewing Co. and Aspen Mining and Smelting Co. Member New York Yacht, Hardware and Manhattan Clubs, and Union League Club of Chicago, Ill.

THOMPSON, MAURICE—Author, 130 Fulton street, New York City. Born in Fairfield, Ind., Sept. 9, 1844. Educated in Georgia by private tutors. (Married Alice, daughter of John Lee, 1868.) Served in Confederate Army during Civil War. Member of the Indiana Legislature, 1878; delegate to the National Democratic Convention of 1888; State Geologist of Indiana, 1885-9. Now connected with the staff of the New York "Independent." Author of "A Tallahassee Girl," "His Second Campaign," "A Fortnight of Folly," "Songs of Fair Weather," "The Story of Louisiana," "Lincoln's Grave," and other works.

THOMPSON, NORMAN J.—Wholesale Dry Goods Merchant, 178 State street, Elmira; residence 458 West Water street. Born in Candor, N. Y., May 15, 1854. Educated at Candor High School. (Married Lillian M. Tyler.) Director Alaska Mining and Prospecting Co. and Lovell Shirt Co.; president Y. M. C. A. of Elmira; trustee Rev. Thos. K. Beecher's "Park Church." Member Elmira City and Elmira Country Clubs and Sons of the American Revolution.

THOMPSON, ROBERT MEANS—Mining, 37 Wall and 234 Pearl streets, New York City; residence 5 East 53d street. Educated at the United States Naval Academy ('68). President and director Oxford Copper Co. Member New York, Racquet and Tennis, New York Athletic, University, Players', University Athletic, Engineers' and Lawyers' Clubs, Down Town, Blooming Grove Park and Century Associations and Military Order of the Loyal Legion.

THOMPSON, ROBERT W., JR.—Lawyer, 52 William street, New York City; residence 229 West 97th street. Born in New York City May 20, 1874. Educated at College of the City of New York and at Columbia. (Single.) Director Bayard Mining Co., Gladstone Mining Co. and Glyndon Mining Co. Member West Side and Riverside Republican Clubs, Alpha Delta Phi and Phi Delta Phi Fraternities and Association of the Bar of the City of New York.

THOMPSON, SAMUEL CLARENCE—Civil Engineer, Third avenue and East 17th street, New York City; residence 950 East 166th street. Born in Boston, Mass., April 4, 1851. Educated at Massachusetts Agricultural College in Amherst. (Married.) Connected with the Department of Highways in Borough of The Bronx. Formerly acting superintendent and assistant chief engineer Southern Florida R. R. Co. Member Phi Sigma Kappa Fraternity (vice-president) and American Society of Civil Engineers.

THOMPSON, SAMUEL WESLEY—Federal Customs Official, New York City; residence 24 West 59th street. For many years has been disbursing officer of the United States Custom House in New York City.

THOMPSON, VANCE—Journalist and Playwright, Scarborough-on-Hudson. Born April 17, 1862. Educated at Princeton ('83) and at the University of Jena, Germany. (Married Lillian Spencer, 1890.) Editor and founder of "Mlle New York." Author of "In Old Japan," "A Dresden Shepherdess," "The Japanese Doll," "Floriane's Dream" and other dramas; also of "The City of Torches," "A Flash of Honor" and other books.

THOMPSON, WALTER LEDYARD—Stock Broker, 33 Broad street, New York City; residence Morris-town, N. J. Member of the New York Stock Exchange firm of Thompson & Mairs. Member City Club and Sons of the Revolution.

THOMPSON, WILLIAM GILMAN—Physician, 34 East 31st street, New York City. Born in New York City, Dec. 25, 1856. Educated at Sheffield Scientific School, Yale (Ph.B., '77) and at the College of Physicians and Surgeons of Columbia University (M.D., '81). (Married.) Professor of medicine at Cornell University Medical College in the City of New York; visiting physician to Bellevue and Presbyterian Hospitals. Member University Club, Century Association and Sons of the Revolution.

THOMPSON, WILLIAM R.—Lawyer and Real Estate, 55 Liberty street, New York City; residence 79th street and First avenue, Brooklyn. Member of the firm of Thompson & Palen. Member Delta Phi Club, Crescent Athletic Club of Brooklyn, and Sons of the Revolution.

THOMS, WILLIAM M.—Editor and Publisher, 23 Union square, West; residence 14 Livingston place. Born in New York City, 1852. Educated in public schools. (Married.) Editor and publisher of the "American Art Journal." Member Press Club.

THOMPSON, CLIFFORD—Editor and Publisher, 95 William street, New York City; residence 70 Carlton street, East Orange, N. J. Born in Fulton, N. Y., April 15, 1834. Educated at the University of Michigan. (Married.) President Acme Ball Bearing Caster Co.; vice-president "The Spectator" Co.; director Carpenter Steel Co.; editor of "The Spectator." Member Army and Navy Club, Riding and Driving Club of Orange, Life Underwriters' Association and Military Order of the Loyal Legion.

THOMSON, EDWARD S.—Wine Importer, 18 South William street, New York City; residence 44 West 44th street. Born in New York City. Educated in Europe. (Single.) Member of the firm of Francis O. de Luze & Co. Member New York, New York Yacht, New York Athletic and Manhattan Clubs.

THOMSON, EUGENE—Stock Broker; residence 29 West 46th street, New York City. Born in Albany, N. Y., 1834. (Married.) Member Union League, Mendelssohn Glee and Barnard Clubs.

THOMSON, FREDERICK W.—Lawyer, Syracuse. Born in Alexandria Bay, N. Y., Jan. 4, 1867. Educated at Cornell University. Member of the firm of Thomson, Woods & Smith. Police Justice of Syracuse. Member Citizens', University, Century, Lake Side Yachting and Syracuse Clubs, Syracuse Athletic Association and Theta Delta Chi Fraternity.

THOMSON, GIRAD F.—Lawyer, 141 Broadway, New York City; residence 128 Central Park, South. Educated at Columbia. Member Union Club, Columbia University Alumni and Down Town Associations and Society of Colonial Wars.

THOMSON, JOHN—Engineering, 253 Broadway, New York City; residence 10 South Portland avenue, Brooklyn. President and director John Thomson Press Co.; vice-president, engineer and director Neptune Meter Co. Member Engineers' Club, American Geographical Society, Century Association, American Society of Civil Engineers and American Society of Mechanical Engineers.

THOMSON, JOHN C.—Lawyer, 54 William street, New York City; residence 155 West 103d street. Born in Shawlands, Renfrewshire, Scotland, July 22, 1861. Educated at Glasgow High School and University of Glasgow. (Married.) Member New York Scottish and St. Andrew's Societies and Association of the Bar of the City of New York.

THORN, FRANK MANLY—Lawyer, Orchard Park. Born in Collins, Erie Co., N. Y., Dec. 7, 1836. Educated in public schools and at Albany Law School ('61). (Married Eola Smith of Orchard Park, 1867.) Member of the Board of Supervisors of Erie County, 1871-80; special national bank examiner, 1895-7; was for a short time chief clerk in the United States Internal Revenue Department.

THORN, WALTER—Lawyer, 26 Court street, Brooklyn. Born in Brooklyn, 1845. (Married.) Has held the offices of deputy collector of Internal Revenue, deputy sheriff, deputy city auditor, shore inspector and others. Member of the Logan Club, Commonwealth Lodge, F. & A. M., Knights of Honor, Army of the Potomac, G. A. R., War Veterans' and Sons' Association and War Veterans' Association of the 14th Regiment, N. G. N. Y.

THORNE, JOEL W.—Insurance, 47 William street, New York City; residence 8 East 55th street. Born in Millbrook, Dutchess Co., N. Y., Aug. 29, 1870. Educated at Phillips Exeter Academy ('89). (Single.) Member Metropolitan Club, Sons of the Revolution, Down Town Association, Society of Colonial Wars, Sons of the American Revolution and Squadron "A," N. G. N. Y.

THORNE, NEWBERRY D.—Stock Broker, 20 Broad street, New York City; residence New Rochelle. Born in New York City. Educated at Trinity College, Hartford, Conn. (Single.) Member of the New York Stock Exchange firm of T. W. Thorne & Co. Member New York Yacht, St. Anthony, Knickerbocker, Larchmont Yacht and Country Clubs.

THORNE, OAKLEIGH—Banker, 149 Broadway, New York City. President and director American Brick Co.; vice-president and director North American Trust Co. and Union Switch and Signal Co.; director Railway Equipment Corporation. Member Tuxedo, Calumet, Westminster Kennel, Racquet and Tennis, Carteret Gun and Transportation Clubs and National Academy of Design.

THORNE, ROBERT—Lawyer, 30 Broad street, New York City; residence 134 Halsey street, Brooklyn. Born in Brooklyn, Nov. 17, 1864. Educated at Trinity Church School in New York City, at Trinity College ('85) in Hartford, Conn., and at Columbia Law School. (Single.) Trustee of Trinity College. Member University and St. Anthony Clubs, Crescent Athletic Club of Brooklyn, Sons of the Revolution, Society of Colonial Wars, Phi Beta Kappa Society and Association of the Bar of the City of New York.

THORNE, SAMUEL—Wholesale Coal Merchant, 1 Broadway, New York City; residence 8 East 55th street. President and director Pennsylvania Coal Co.; director Bank of America, Electro-Gas Co., New Brunswick Ry. Co., New York Mutual Gas Light Co. and Sixth Avenue R. R. Co.; trustee Central Trust

Co. and New York Life Insurance and Trust Co. Member Metropolitan and Union League Clubs, American Geographical Society, Century and Down Town Associations, Scientific Alliance and American Museum of Natural History.

THORNE, THOMAS W.—Stock Broker, 20 Broad street, New York City; residence New Rochelle. Born in New York City. (Single.) Member of the firm of T. W. Thorne & Co., and of the New York Stock Exchange. Director Westchester Fire Insurance Co. Member New York, Larchmont Yacht and Country Clubs.

THORNE, VICTOR CORSE—Lawyer; residence 606 Madison avenue, New York City. Born in Florence, Italy, Feb. 16, 1871. Educated at Yale ('94) and at Columbia Law School. (Single.) Member St. Anthony, University and Yale Clubs, Ardsley Club of Ardsley-on-Hudson, New York Zoological Society and American Museum of Natural History.

THORNE, WILLIAM V. S.—Wholesale Coal Merchant, 1 Broadway, New York City; residence 8 East 55th street. Born in Millbrook, N. Y., March 22, 1865. Educated at Yale ('85). (Single.) President Delaware Valley and Kingston Ry. Co.; vice-president Erie and Wyoming Valley R. R. Co.; second vice-president Pennsylvania Coal Co.; treasurer Presbyterian Hospital. Member University, Riding and Metropolitan Clubs, Ardsley Casino of Ardsley-on-Hudson and Down Town Association.

TIROCKMORTON, CHARLES WICKLIFFE—Railroading, 319 Broadway, New York City; residence 243 West 99th street, and Morristown, N. J. Born in Detroit, Mich., June 8, 1868. Educated at Lehigh University. (Married.) Contracting agent Southern Pacific Co., Morgan Steamship Co., Houston and Texas Central R. R. Co., Mexican International R. R. Co., San Antonio and Aransas Pass R. R. Co. and others. Member Morris County (N. J.) Golf and Morristown Field Clubs, Columbia Athletic Club of Washington, D. C., Sons of the Revolution, Society of Colonial Wars, Sigma Phi Fraternity (ex-trustee, corporation), Virginia Historical Society of Richmond, Va., Confederate Society of Baltimore, Md., Order of Runnymede and Colonial Order of the Acorn.

THURBER, FRANCIS B.—Merchant and Lawyer, 143 Chambers street, New York City; residence 49 West 25th street. Born in Delhi, Delaware Co., N. Y., Nov. 13, 1842. Educated in Delhi. (Married.) President and director American Grocer Publishing Co. and United States Export Association; director Hardware Publishing Co. Member Union League Club, Chamber of Commerce and Board of Trade and Transportation.

THURBER, HOWARD F.—Superintendent, 15 Dey street, New York City; residence 49 Sidney place, Brooklyn. Born in Brooklyn, Aug. 6, 1869. Educated at Cornell ('90). (Single.) General superintendent New York Telephone Co. Member University Athletic and Cornell University Clubs, and Crescent Athletic Club of Brooklyn.

THURSTON, ROBERT HENRY—Educator, and Civil and Mechanical Engineer, Sibley College, Cornell University, Ithaca; residence 15 East avenue. Born in Providence, R. I., Oct. 25, 1839. Educated at Brown University (C.E., Ph.E., A.M. and LL.D., Brown; Dr. of Eng., Stevens Institute of Technology). (Married, first, Susan Taylor Gladding, 1865; second, Leonora Boughton, 1880.) Mechanical engineer with Thurston, Gardner & Co., 1859-61; member engineer corps United States Navy, 1861-72; acting assistant professor natural and experimental philosophy, United States Naval Academy, 1866-71; professor of engineering in Stevens Institute of Technology, 1871-85; professor mechanical engineering in Cornell University since 1885; has served on various State and United States commissions: is now director and Dean of Sibley College of Mechanical Engineering at Cornell University and professor of mechanical engineering at Cornell. Engineering editor of "Science," Johnson's Cyclopædia, and editor of United States Reports of Scientific Commission to International Exposition at Vienna, 1873, and others. Author of "Materials of Engineering" (3 vols.), "History of the Growth of Steam Engineering," "Manual of Steam Engines" (2 vols.), "Manual of Steam Boilers," "Engine and Boiler Trials" and other engineering works, in all about twenty volumes, a "Life of Robert Fulton" and also about three hundred technical papers, principally in transactions of scientific and other learned societies. Member American Society of Civil Engineers, American Society of Mechanical Engineers, American Institute of Mining Engineers, American Association for the Advancement of Science, British Institute of Naval Architects, Société des Ingenieurs Civils de France, Officier de l'Instruction Publique de France, Verein Deutsche Ingenieure, Royal Institute of Great Britain, British Association for the Advancement of Science, Sigma Xi Society, Military Order of the Loyal Legion and other organizations.

TICHENOR, JAMES F.—Mining, 31 Nassau street, New York City; residence 100 East 17th street. Born and educated in Newark, N. J. (Married.) Vice-president and director British Columbia Copper Co. (Ltd.). Member Lawyers' and Barnard Clubs, and Bohemian Club of San Francisco.

TIEBOUT, CORNELIUS H.—Iron and Hardware Merchant, 31 Grand street, Brooklyn; residence 112 Prospect Park, West. Born in Essex, Conn., March 5, 1834. Educated in public schools. (Married.) Vice-president and director New York Sugar Refining Co. and North Side Bank; trustee Williamsburg Savings Bank. Member Union League Club.

TIEBOUT, JOHN—Hardware Merchant, 118 Chambers street, New York City; residence 358 Greene avenue, Brooklyn. Born and educated in New York City. (Married.) President W. & J. Tiebout; trustee Dry Dock Savings Institution.

TIEDEMAN, CHRISTOPHER G.—Lawyer and Author, 141 Herkimer street, Brooklyn. Born in Charleston, S. C., July 16, 1857. Educated at Charleston College ('75), at the Universities of Göttingen and Leipzig in Germany, and at Columbia College Law School ('79). (Married.) Practiced law in Charleston, S. C., and in St. Louis, Mo., 1879-81; member of the law faculty of the University of Missouri, 1881-91; professor of law in New York University Law School, 1891-7; received honorary degree of LL.D. from New York University, 1895. Author of treatises on "Law of Real Property," "Limitations of Police Power," "Commercial Paper," "Law of Sales," "Municipal Corporations," "The Unwritten Constitution of the United States," "Selected Cases on the Law of Real Property" and "Bills and Notes." Member American Bar Association, American Academy of Political and Social Science, Association of the Bar of the City of New York, and Selden Society of London, England.

TIEDEMANN, HENRY F.—Merchant, 35 Wooster street, New York City; residence 200 West 113th street. Born in New York City, Aug. 9, 1874. Educated at Columbia Grammar School. (Married.) Member of the firm of Theodore Tiedemann & Son. Director New York and Brooklyn Casket Co. Member Merchants' Central Club, and Greenwich Casino Association and Indian Harbor Yacht Club, of Greenwich, Conn.

TIEDEMANN, THEODORE—Merchant, 35 Wooster street, New York City; residence 52 West 87th street. Senior member of the firm of Theodore Tiedemann & Son. Director Harris Brick Co., New York and Brooklyn Casket Co. and Sutro Brothers' Braid Co. Member Merchants' Central Club, Riverside Yacht, Indian Harbor Yacht and Fairfield County Golf Clubs of Connecticut, Arion Society, Liederkranz and Deutscher Verein.

TIEMANN, HERMANN N.—Photographic Materials, 17 West 42d street, New York City; residence New Rochelle. Born in New York City, Feb. 2, 1863. Educated at School of Mines, Columbia University. (Married.) Proprietor of the firm of H. N. Tiemann, photographic supplies, etc. Was member of 7th Regiment, N. G. N. Y., for ten years, and lance-corporal during the last year of term, participating in Brooklyn trolley strike riots of 1894. Member Camera Club, Sons of the American Revolution and New York Historical Society.

TIEMANN, PAUL ERNEST—Physician, 346 Broadway, New York City; residence 200 West 88th street. Educated at Columbia. Connected with the New York Life Insurance Co. Member St. Nicholas and Hospital Graduates' Societies, Society of the Cincinnati and Columbia University Alumni Association.

TIFFANY, BELMONT—Varnish Manufacturer, 621 Broadway, New York City; residence 27 East 31st street. President and director Manatee Fullers' Earth Mining and Mfg Co.; secretary and director Beckwith-Chandler Co. Member Richmond County Country and Knickerbocker Clubs.

TIFFANY, CHARLES COMFORT—Protestant Episcopal Clergyman, 29 Lafayette place, New York City; residence 37 East 39th street. Born in Baltimore, Md., Oct. 5, 1829. Educated at Dickinson College (A.M., '53 and D.D., '83), at Andover Theological Seminary and at the Universities of Halle, Heidelberg and Berlin. Received degree of D.D. from St. Stephens in 1883 and from Yale in 1897. Ordained to Episcopal ministry in 1866. Rector of St. James Church, Fordham, N. Y., 1867-71; assistant in Trinity Church, Boston, Mass., 1871-4; rector Church of the Atonement, New York City, 1874-80; of Zion Church, 1880-90; Archdeacon of New York since 1893. Author of "Expression in Church Architecture," "Modern Atheism," "History of the Protestant Episcopal Church" and "The Prayer Book and the Christian Life." Member Union League and Riding Clubs, American Geographical, New England and Dunlap Societies and Century Association.

TIFFANY, CHARLES LEWIS—Jeweler and Silversmith, 15 Union square, West, New York City; residence 255 Madison avenue. Born in Killingly, Conn., Feb. 15, 1812. (Son of Comfort Tiffany.) Educated in local schools. (Married Harriet O. Young, 1841.) Chevalier of the National League of Honor of France; received from the Emperor of Russia the honor of Praemia Digno. President and director Tiffany & Co.; director Bank of the Metropolis. Member Union League, New York, Union, New York Yacht and South Side Sportsmen's Clubs, Aldine Association, National Academy of Design, American Fine Arts, American Geographical and New England Societies, Scientific Alliance, American Museum of Natural History and Metropolitan Museum of Art.

TIFFANY, HENRY DYER—"Fox Hurst," Westchester avenue and Southern boulevard, New York City. Born in "Fox Hurst," Dec. 13, 1841. (Son of Francis A. and Mary [Fox] Tiffany.) Educated at Fairchild's Institute, Flushing, N. Y., by private tutors, and at Yale (Ph.B., '64). (Married, 1864.) His business life has been spent mainly in caring for the various estates of his family, in developing the property known as the Fox estate, and in public improvements in that section of the Bronx district. Member New York Yacht, Westchester Golf and Yale Clubs.

TIFFANY, LOUIS COMFORT—Ornamental Glass Manufacturer, 333 Fourth avenue, New York City; residence 751 Fifth avenue. Born in New York City, 1848. (Son of Charles Lewis Tiffany.) Educated in New York City and Paris. (Married.) Originator and manufacturer of the well known "Favrile" glassware. President and director Tiffany Glass and Decorating Co. and Stourbridge Glass Co.; director Tiffany & Co. Member City, Barnard, Grolier and Union League Clubs, American Fine Arts (trustee) and New England Societies, Century Association, Architectural League, National Academy of Design, American Museum of Natural History and Metropolitan Museum of Art.

TIFFANY, PERRY—Insurance, 621 Broadway, and Manufacturer, 141 East 25th street, New York City; residence 244 Madison avenue. President and director Sterling Supply and Mfg Co. (in liquidation); vice-president and director Queens County Horse Show Association; director Metropolitan Register Co. and Tiffany & Worce Insurance Co. Member Meadow Brook Hunt, Westchester Country and Knickerbocker Clubs.

TIFFANY, WALTON C.—Scientist and Chemist, 21 Spruce street, New York City; residence "Knollside," Newburgh-on-Hudson. Born in New Baltimore, N. Y. Educated at Rutgers College. (Married.) President and director Trade Chemists' Co.; ex-president Tiffany Chemical Co. Engaged as a consulting scientific expert for twenty years. Was for some time director of the Topographical Division of the United States Government. Member Society of Chemical Industry and American Chemical Society.

TIFFT, IRVING HOWARD—Lawyer, 302 Broadway, New York City; residence New York Athletic Club. Born in New York City, Oct. 4, 1858. Educated at College of the City of New York (B.S., '77) and Columbia College Law School (LL.B., '79). (Single.) Member Delta Kappa Epsilon, New York Athletic (life), Country Cycle, Arkwright and New York Bicycle Clubs, Methodist Episcopal Tract and Phi Beta Kappa Societies, Y. M. C. A. and College of the City of New York Alumni Associations.

TILFORD, FRANK—Merchant, Banker and Financier, 1412 Broadway, New York City; residence 245 West 72d street. Born in New York City, July 22, 1852. Educated at Mount Washington Collegiate Institute. (Married.) President and director Bank of New Amsterdam, New York and Queens Gas and Electric Co. and Standard Gas Light Co.; vice-president and director Park & Tilford; director Colonial Assurance Co., Fifth Avenue Trust Co., Washington Assurance Co., Telephone, Telegraph and Cable Co. of America, Williamsport Gas Co. and Quincy Gas and Electric Co. Member Union League, Colonial, Republican, Suburban Riding and Driving, Knollwood Country, Press, Lotos, New York Yacht, American Yacht, Larchmont Yacht, Yachtman's and New York Athletic Clubs, American Society and Sons of the Revolution.

TILGHMAN, F. B.—Banker and Broker, 54 Exchange place, New York City; residence 929 Madison avenue. Born in Baltimore, Md., Dec. 28, 1847. Educated in Clarksville, Tenn. (Widower.) Member of the New York Stock Exchange firm of Tilghman, Rowland & Co. Member Lotos Club.

TILGHMAN, SIDELL—Banker and Broker, 54 Exchange place, New York City. Born in Philadelphia, Pa., July 4, 1849. Educated in Clarksville, Tenn. (Married.) Member of the New York Stock Exchange firm of Tilghman, Rowland & Co. Director New York and Rockaway Beach R. R. Co., Rio Grande, Sierra Madre and Pacific R. R. Co., and Juarez Smelting and Refining Co.

TILLINGHAST, CHARLES BENNETT—Manufacturer, 105 Montgomery street, Albany. Born in Albany, March 31, 1846. Educated at Albany Academy and Williams College ('66). (Married.) Served as vice-president and manager Watervliet Turnpike R. R. Co. for three years and civil service commissioner of Albany three years. Member Albany Camera Club, Society of Founders and Patriots of America and Albany Historical Society.

TILLINGHAST, WILLIAM H.—Capitalist, 26 East 64th street, New York City. President and director Cherry Valley, Sharon and Albany R. R. Co.; member of board of managers Delaware and Hudson Canal Co.; director Plaza Bank, and Albany and Susquehanna R. R. Co.; trustee Bank for Savings and Metropolitan Trust Co. Member Metropolitan and Knickerbocker Clubs, American Geographical and New England Societies, Century and Down Town Associations, Sons of the Revolution, American Museum of Natural History, Metropolitan Museum of Art and Society of Colonial Wars.

TILLMAN, SAMUEL E.—Professor, United States Military Academy, West Point. Born in Shelbyville, Tenn., Oct. 2, 1847. Educated at West Point ('69). Formerly lieutenant of artillery and of engineers in the United States Army. Member of the faculty of the United States Military Academy since 1870, and has been professor of chemistry, mineralogy and geology since 1880. Author of "Elementary Lessons in Heat," "Descriptive General Chemistry" and "Text Book of Common Minerals and Rocks." Member University Club and Century Association of New York City, United States Military Service Institution and National Geographic Society.

TILLOTSON, GOUVERNEUR—Lawyer, 66 Maiden lane, New York City; residence 51 West 36th street. Member of the firm of Tillotson & Kent. Member Tuxedo, New York Yacht and Union Clubs, Association of the Bar of the City of New York and Metropolitan Museum of Art.

TILLSON, GEORGE WILLIAM—Civil Engineer, 19 Municipal Building, Brooklyn; residence 177 Columbia Heights. Born in Thomaston, Me., Dec. 18, 1852. Educated at Bowdoin College ('77). (Married.) Vice-president Puerto Rico Co-operative Fruit Co. Formerly president and secretary Nebraska Association of Engineers and Surveyors; city engineer of Omaha, Neb., and principal assistant engineer in Department of Highways of Brooklyn. Member Engineers' (president, 1900) and Whist Clubs of Brooklyn, American Society of Civil Engineers, American Society of Municipal Improvements, and Phi Beta Kappa Alumni Association of New York.

TILNEY, JOHN S.—Retired, 16 Broad street, New York City; residence 77 Main street, Orange, N. J. Director Central New Jersey Land Improvement Co. Member Grolier, Union League, Essex County (N. J.) Country, Baltusrol Golf and Orange (N. J.) Athletic Clubs, Metropolitan Club of Washington, D. C., Down Town Association and Metropolitan Museum of Art.

TILT, ALBERT—Silk Merchant, 106 Spring street, New York City; residence 5 East 67th street, and Lake Hopatcong, N. J. President and director Silk Association of America. Member Riding, Republican, New York Athletic, Metropolitan, Suburban Riding and Driving, Merchants' Central and Army and Navy Clubs and Metropolitan Museum of Art.

TILTON, BENJAMIN TROWBRIDGE—Physician and Instructor, 59 West 36th street, New York City. Born in Newport, R. I., July 17, 1868. Educated at Harvard (A.B., '90) and in Germany, at Berlin and Freiburg (M.D.). (Single.) Surgeon to Colored Hospital and Out-Patient Department, New York Hospital; instructor in surgery at Cornell University Medical College. Member Harvard and University Clubs.

TILTON, JAMES L.—Mining, 27 William street, New York City; residence 194 Park place, Brooklyn. Born in Glendola, N. J., April 9, 1867. Educated in Newark, N. J. (Married.) Secretary and treasurer Aspen Mining and Smelting Co., Croesus Gold Mining and Milling Co., Compromise Mining Co., Enterprise Mining Co. and Frisco Consolidated Mining Co. (Ltd.). Member Knickerbocker Field and Carlton Clubs of Brooklyn, and Monmouth (N. J.) Boat Club.

TIMMERMAN, JOHN H.—City Paymaster and Accountant, 83 Chambers street, New York City; residence 305 East 53d street. Born in New York City, Dec. 28, 1845. Educated in private schools and at a business college in New York City. (Married.) Chief searcher and cashier in County Clerk's Office, 1866-73; secretary Eleventh Ward Savings Bank, 1873-85; auditor Aqueduct Commission, 1885-6; New York city paymaster since 1886. Trustee American Savings Bank. Member Democratic Club, American Geographical Society and League of American Wheelmen.

TIMMERMANN, HENRY G.—Banker and Broker, 80 Broadway, New York City; residence 60 East 66th street. Member of the New York Stock Exchange firm of Moore & Schley. Member New York, New York Athletic, Atlantic Yacht, Germania and Westbrook Golf Clubs.

TIMPSON, ALFRED H.—Banker, 7 Nassau street, New York City; residence 165 East 79th street. Born in New York City, Sept. 18, 1838. (Married.) Cashier Continental National Bank. Member New York Athletic Club.

TIMPSON, ARTHUR T.—Banker, 231 West 125th street, New York City; residence 213 West 128th street. Born in New York City, Feb. 12, 1849. Educated in New York City at Public School No. 35. (Married.) Secretary Empire City Savings Bank; director Excelsior Terra Cotta Co.; warden St. Andrew's Church of Harlem. Member New York Athletic Club.

TIMPSON, JAMES—Insurance and Banking, 32 Nassau street, New York City; residence 50 West 50th street. Born in Brooklyn, N. Y., Dec. 8, 1861. Educated in private schools. (Married.) Vice-president and director United States Mortgage and Trust Co.; assistant treasurer Mutual Life Insurance Co.; director Brooklyn City R. R. Co., Brooklyn Wharf and Warehouse Co., Long Island R. R. Co. and New York and Rockaway Beach R. R. Co. Member Rockaway Hunting Club, Hamilton Club of Brooklyn, Down Town Association and Metropolitan Museum of Art.

TIMPSON, THOMAS WILLIAM (Captain)—Cashier and Real Estate, 12 Spruce street, and 1231 Franklin avenue, New York City; residence 1239 Franklin avenue. Born in New York City, March 15, 1866. Educated at College of the City of New York. (Married.) Treasurer T. W. Timpson & Co. and Nassau News Co. Appointed Jan. 1, 1900, commissioner of schools of the Boroughs of Manhattan and The Bronx. Member Democratic Club, Sons of the American Revolution, Sons of the Revolution, Society of Foreign Wars, 9th Regiment, N. G. N. Y., 71st Regiment and 9th Regiment Veteran Associations, Lily Lodge No. 342, F. & A. M., Ivy Chapter No. 138, R. A. M., Constantine Commandery No. 42, Knights Templar, and Naval and Military Order of Spanish-American War.

TIMPSON, LAWRENCE—Lawyer, 45 Cedar street, New York City; residence "Maizeland," Barrytown. Born in New York City, Jan. 30, 1866. Educated at Gibbens & Beach's School and at Columbia University. (Single.) Admitted to the Bar, 1891. Formerly trustee of St. Stephens College at Annandale. Counsel The Lorena Co. Member Union Club, and Ardsley Casino of Ardsley-on-Hudson.

TINKER, CHARLES P.—Methodist Episcopalian Clergyman, East 76th street, New York City; residence 241 East 86th street. Born in New London, Conn., July 26, 1864. Educated at Wesleyan and Boston Universities. (Married.) Formerly editor of two weekly periodicals. Now minister of the Cornell Memorial Methodist Episcopal Church. Member Quill Club.

TINKHAM, JULIAN R.—Clerk, 30 Broad street, New York City; residence 315 West 82d street. Born in Chicago, Ill., 1856. Educated in Germany. (Married.) Ex-president Tinkham Cycle Co. Member City Club.

TISDALL, FITZGERALD—Professor, 17 Lexington avenue, New York City; residence 80 Convent avenue. Educated at College of the City of New York, of which he is now a member of the faculty. Member Delta Kappa Epsilon Club, Phi Beta Kappa Society, Metropolitan Museum of Art and College of the City of New York Alumni Association.

TITCHENER, EDWARD BRADFORD—Professor, Cornell University, Ithaca; residence Pallant House, Cornell Heights. Born in Chichester, England, June 11, 1867. Educated at Malvern College, Brasenose College of Oxford University, and at the University of Leipzig, Germany. (Married.) Formerly senior scholar and Senior Hulme Exhibitioner at Brasenose College; also extension lecturer in biology at the University of Oxford and assistant professor of psychology at Cornell University. Now Sage Professor of psychology at Cornell University. Fellow Zoological Society; member Neurological and Aristotelian Societies of London, England, and Sigma Xi Society.

TITHERINGTON, RICHARD H.—Editor, 111 Fifth avenue, New York City; residence 511 West 149th street. Born in Dee Hills, Chester, England, 1861. Educated at Magdalen College, Oxford University, England. (Married.) Has been managing editor of Munsey's Magazine since its foundation in 1861. Member Aldine Association.

TITUS, ROBERT CYRUS—Lawyer, 330 Depew avenue, Buffalo. Born in Eden, Erie Co., N. Y., Oct. 24, 1829. Educated in Oberlin, Ohio. Studied law and was admitted to the Bar in 1865. District attorney of Erie County, 1879-80; State senator, 1882-5. Elected Judge of the Superior Court of Buffalo in 1885 for term ending Dec. 31, 1899, and was transferred to the Supreme Court in 1896.

TOASPERN, OTTO—Artist, 51 West Tenth street, New York City. Born in Brooklyn, N. Y., March 26, 1863. Studied art at the Royal Academy of Fine Arts of Munich. Formerly instructor at the National Academy of Design. Illustrator for "Life," "Century," "Ladies' Home Journal" and other periodicals.

TOBIN, MATTHEW J.—Printer, 121 Fulton street, New York City; residence 247, 44th street, Brooklyn. Born in Brooklyn, June 20, 1862. Educated in Brooklyn public schools. (Married.) Business manager and director John Polhemus Printing Co. Member Royal Arcanum and Knights of Columbus.

TOD, JOHN KENNEDY—Banker, 45 Wall street, New York City; residence 54 Park avenue. Born in Scotland, Sept. 11, 1852. Educated in Scotland, and at Williston Seminary. Senior member of the New York Stock Exchange firm of J. Kennedy Tod & Co. Served on the Committee of Seventy of 1894. Vice-president and director New Brunswick Railway Co.; director American Cotton Oil Co., Bank of New York, Buffalo, Rochester and Pittsburgh Ry. Co., Great Northern R. R. Co., Norfolk and Western Ry. Co., Pacific Cable Co., St. Joseph and Grand Island Ry. Co., St. Louis and San Francisco R. R. Co., Twin City Rapid Transit Co., Wheeling Bridge and Terminal Ry. Co., Colorado and Southern Ry. Co., Calumet Canal and Improvement Co., and Standard Steel and Iron Co.; trustee Bank for Savings, Central Trust Co., Provident Loan Society, and Norwich Union Fire Insurance Co. of England; chairman American trustees Caledonian Insurance Co. Member Metropolitan, Knickerbocker, Seawanhaka-Corinthian Yacht, City, Lawyers' and Tuxedo Clubs and Down Town and Century Associations.

TOD, ROBERT E.—Banker, 45 Wall street, New York City; residence Greenwich, Conn. Born in Glasgow, Scotland, July 31, 1867. Educated at Glasgow Academy. (Single.) Member of the New York Stock Exchange firm of J. Kennedy Tod & Co. President and director Standard Steel and Iron Co. and Calumet Canal and Improvement Co. Member Lawyers', New York Yacht, Larchmont Yacht, New York Athletic, Indian Harbor Yacht and Atlantic Yacht Clubs.

TOD, WILLIAM STEWART—Banker, 45 Wall street, New York City; residence Greenwich, Conn. Born in Scotland. Educated at Princeton ('84). (Single.) Member of the New York Stock Exchange firm of J. Kennedy Tod & Co. Member Knickerbocker, University Athletic, University and Princeton Clubs, Princeton Alumni and Down Town Associations and Metropolitan Museum of Art.

TODD, CHARLES BURR—Author, 883 Seventh avenue, New York City. Born in Redding, Conn., Jan. 9, 1849. Educated in public schools and by private tutors. Member and secretary of a committee, appointed by Mayor Strong in 1895, to print the records of the City of New York. Author of "History of the Burr Family," "History of Redding, Conn.," "Story of the City of New York," "Story of Washington, the National Capital," etc. Member Authors' Society.

TODD, HENRY ALFRED—Professor, 116th street and Morningside Heights, New York City; residence 824 West End avenue. Born in Woodstock, Ill., March 13, 1854. (Son of Rev. R. K. Todd, founder of Todd Seminary.) Educated at Todd Seminary, at Princeton ('76) and in Paris, Berlin, Rome and Madrid. Degree of Ph.D. from Johns Hopkins University in 1885. (Married Miriam, daughter of John S. Gilman of Baltimore, Md., 1891.) Fellow and tutor at Princeton University, 1876-80; instructor and associate at Johns Hopkins University, 1883-91; professor at Leland Stanford University, 1891-3; professor of Romance philology at Columbia University in the City of New York since 1893. Ex-trustee Independent Club of the Twenty-first Assembly District. Member Princeton Club, Society of American Wars, American Oriental Society, Early French Text Society of Paris, Modern Language and Century Associations and Metropolitan Museum of Art.

TODD, JUDSON S.—Lawyer, 15 Wall street, New York City; residence 132 West 45th street. Born May 16, 1867. (Single.) Treasurer City Mortgage Co. Member Lawyers' Club and Knollwood Country, Morris County (N. J.) Golf, Essex County (N. J.) Country and Baltusrol Golf Clubs.

TODD, ROBERT W.—Lawyer, 229 Broadway, New York City; residence 123 East 5th street. Born in Dover, Del., Jan. 25, 1845. Educated at Yale ('66). (Married.) Member University and Yale Clubs and Association of the Bar of the City of New York.

TOEDTEBERG, AUGUSTUS—Artist, 274 Vanderbilt avenue, Brooklyn. Born in Hameln, Germany, April 4, 1824. Educated in Hameln. (Married.) Member Long Island Historical and Dunlap Societies.

TOEL, WILLIAM—Merchant, 70 Broad street, New York City; residence 20 East 67th street. Member Liederkrantz, American Geographical Society, Metropolitan Museum of Art and American Museum of Natural History.

TOLER, HENRY P.—Banker and Broker, 15 Broad street, New York City; residence Short Hills, N. J. Born in Newark, N. J., April 28, 1864. Educated at Princeton ('86). (Married.) Member of the firm of Toler & Halsey, and of the New York Stock Exchange. Member Union, Baltusrol Golf and Morristown (N. J.) Clubs.

TOLLES, BRAINARD—Lawyer, 141 Broadway, New York City; residence 421 Manhattan avenue. Born in Attica, N. Y., May 27, 1867. Educated at Hamilton College and at Columbia College Law School. (Single.) Member of the firm of Maynard & Tolles. Member Reform and Alpha Delta Phi Clubs, Sons of the Revolution, Phi Beta Kappa Alumni Association, Metropolitan Museum of Art and Association of the Bar of the City of New York.

TOLMAN, WILLIAM HOWE—Agent, 287 Fourth avenue, New York City; residence 61 Livingston street, Brooklyn. Born in Pawtucket, R. I., 1861. Educated in Pawtucket and Providence, at Brown University (A.B., '82) and at Johns Hopkins University (Ph.D.). Removed to New York City in 1891 and became connected with Dr. Julius Sachs' Collegiate Institute, which position he held until 1895, in which year he became general agent of the Association for Improving the Condition of the Poor.

TOMKINS, CALVIN—Engineer, 120 Liberty and 510 West 16th streets, New York City; residence 329 West 87th street. Born in East Orange, N. J., Jan. 26, 1858. Educated at Cornell University ('79). (Married.) President and director Albert Mfg Co. and Sea Gate Improvement Co.; director Bonner Brick Co., Newark Lime and Cement Mfg Co., Norton Point Land Co. and Tomkins Cove Stone Co. Member Engineers', Atlantic Yacht, Cornell University, Reform and Building Trades Clubs.

TOMLINSON, GEORGE—Miller, Perry. Born in Leroy, N. Y., Aug. 15, 1822. Educated in common schools of Leroy and Wyoming, N. Y. (Married.) Vice-president and director Citizens' Bank. Has been justice, superintendent of schools and supervisor of the town of Perry.

TOMLINSON, JOHN CANFIELD—Lawyer, 31 Nassau street, New York City; residence 45 West 57th street. Born in New York City. Educated at New York University. (Married.) Director New Amsterdam, Central Union, Northern Union and East River Gas Companies and Havana Commercial Co. Member Metropolitan, Manhattan, Lambs', Democratic and Lawyers' Clubs, Sons of the Revolution, Society of Colonial Wars and Association of the Bar of the City of New York.

TOMLINSON, WILLIAM T.—Lawyer, 48 Wall street, New York City; residence Hotel San Remo. Born in Drawbridge, Sussex Co., Del., March 21, 1863. Educated at Yale (A.B., '85) and Columbia Law School (LL.B., '87). Admitted to the New York County Bar, 1887. Formerly member of the firm of Stapler, Smith & Tomlinson, 1891-3. Member Yale Alumni Association and Association of the Bar of the City of New York.

TOMPKINS, ARTHUR S.—Congressman, House of Representatives, Washington, D. C.; residence Nyack. Born in Schoharie County, N. Y., Aug. 26, 1865. Educated in public schools. Studied law and was admitted to the Bar in 1886. Police justice of Nyack, 1887; assemblyman from Rockland County, 1889; County Judge of Rockland County, 1894-8; now representing the Seventeenth District in Congress for the term, 1899-1901. Member Association of the Bar of the City of New York and of Masonic bodies.

TOMPKINS, BYRON V.—Physician, 26 West 61st street, New York City. Born in Coeymans, Albany Co., N. Y., Nov. 11, 1854. Educated at Wesleyan University ('78) and Columbia College Medical Department (M.D., '81.) Formerly medical examiner Mutual Life Insurance Co.; trustee St. John's Guild, 1885-99; chairman committee Sea Side Hospital; attending physician Children's City Hospital of St. John's Guild. Member Camera Club and Columbia University Alumni Association.

TOMPKINS, CHARLES M.—Capitalist, 71 Broadway, New York City; residence 45 West 32d street, and Elmira. Born in Lawrenceville, Pa., Feb. 28, 1853. Educated at Elmira Free Academy. (Single.) Member of the wholesale grocery firm of C. M. & R. Tompkins. President West Side R. R. Co.; general manager New York and New Orange R. R. Co.; director Elmira Table Co., Elmira Industrial Association, Elmira Building Co. and Elmira Knitting Mills; trustee Arnot Memorial Hospital; ex-park commissioner and ex-president of the Board of Trade, all of Elmira. Member Calumet, New York Athletic and New York Clubs, City, Country and Century Clubs of Elmira, Keuka Lake Club, and City Club of Corning.

TOMPKINS, GEORGE S.—Fire Insurance, 58 William street, New York City; residence 190 East 17th street. Born in Matteawan, N. Y., March 17, 1871. Educated at Cornell ('96). (Single.) Inspector for Middle States Fire Insurance Inspection Bureau.

TOMPKINS, HAMILTON B.—Lawyer, 229 Broadway, New York City. Born in Brooklyn, N. Y., July 30, 1843. Educated at Hamilton College (A.B., '65) and New York University Law School (LL.B., '68). President and director New York and Rosendale Cement Co.; trustee Hamilton College. Director Redwood Library of Newport, R. I., 1879-99; secretary of same, 1895-9. Member University, Grolier, Reform, Arts, Sigma Phi and Baltusrol Golf Clubs, University Club of Boston, Newport Historical (vice-president) New York Historical, Mayflower, New York Genealogical and Biographical, New England and Dunlap Societies, Metropolitan Museum of Art, Sons of the Revolution, Society of Colonial Wars, Colonial Order, American Historical Association, Newport (R. I.) Reading Room, and Association of the Bar of the City of New York.

TOMPKINS, LESLIE J.—Lawyer and Professor, University Building, New York City; residence 64 Washington place. Born in Salem, Minn., May 2, 1867. Educated at New York University. Registrar and librarian of the New York University since 1892, and later professor of law. Member Reform Club and Association of the Bar of the City of New York.

TOMPKINS, ODELL DYCKMAN—Lawyer, Mount Vernon. Born in New York City, Sept. 25, 1872. Educated in Mystic, Conn., and at New York University Law School (Single.) Served with Utah Light Artillery during the Spanish-American War and Filipino insurrection at Manila, P. I. Member Sons of the American Revolution, Delta Phi Club and Westchester County Bar Association.

TOMPKINS, RALPH S.—Manufacturer, Fishkill-on-Hudson. Born in Fishkill-on-Hudson, May 23, 1876. Educated at St. Paul's School, Garden City, L. I. (Married.) Part owner Dutchess Hat Works of Fishkill-on-Hudson, Tioronda Hat Works of Matteawan, and Wallkill Hat Works of Middletown. Director First National Bank of Matteawan, and First National Bank of Fishkill-on-Hudson. Member Powelton Country and Newburgh Boating and Canoe Clubs of Newburgh, Low Point Boat Club, and New York Athletic and Wool Clubs of New York City.

TOMPKINS, STATES D.—Paper Bag Manufacturer, 42 North Moore street, New York City; residence 673 Ocean avenue, Brooklyn. Born in Chatham, N. Y., Jan. 14, 1869. (Married.) Treasurer and director Miller, Tompkins & Co. Member Crescent Athletic and Knickerbocker Field Clubs of Brooklyn.

TOMPKINS, WILLIAM W.—Lawyer, 48 Exchange place, New York City; residence 68 Fifth avenue. Member Metropolitan, Knickerbocker, Union, New York Yacht and Seawanhaka-Corinthian Yacht Clubs and Association of the Bar of the City of New York.

TOOTHE, WILLIAM—Manufacturer, 92 Liberty street, New York City; residence Madison, N. J. Born in Birmingham, England, Nov. 6, 1831. Educated in the United States. (Married.) Associate editor Chicago (Ill.) "Times," 1857. President Consolidated

Brake Shoe Co.; vice-president Nathan Mfg Co. Member Colonial and Lawyers' Clubs, Juniata Club of Altoona, Pa., Metropolitan Museum of Art, American Museum of Natural History and New York Botanical Gardens.

TORRANCE, STILES ALBERT—Editor, 100 Washington square, East, New York City; residence 174 West 109th street. Born in Erie County, N. Y., Sept. 10, 1872. Educated at Cornell ('94). (Married) Flora E. Chapman, 1895.) Connected with the editorial staff of the American Book Co.

TOUCEY, DONALD BUTLER—Lawyer, 261 Broadway, New York City; residence 24 East 62d street. Born in Troy, N. Y., Sept. 10, 1861. Educated at Columbia College School of Mines ('82) and Columbia Law School (LL.B., '84). (Married.) Counsel and director United States Life Insurance Co.; assistant secretary and director Richmond Railway and Electric Co. Member Union League, Hardware, Knollwood Country and University Clubs, New York State Bar and Century Associations, New England Society and Association of the Bar of the City of New York.

TOUSEY, SINCLAIR—Physician and Surgeon, 151 West 76th street, New York City. Born in New York City, 1864. Educated at Columbia College, New York College of Physicians and Surgeons, and at University of Vienna, Austria; degree of M.D. (Widower.) Chief surgeon St. Bartholomew's Clinic; assistant surgeon Roosevelt Hospital. Formerly examiner in lunacy for the State of New York. Member Knickerbocker Riding and Republican Clubs, Hamilton Club of Brooklyn, Columbia University Alumni Association, Society of Medical Jurisprudence, Academy of Medicine and New York County Medical Society.

TOUSSAINT, JULIUS F.—Printer, 58 Reade street, New York City; residence Southern boulevard near Bainbridge avenue. Born in Fürth, Bavaria, Germany, 1860. Educated in New York City. (Married.) President and director Baldwin & Gleason Co. (Ltd.). Formerly with Drexel, Morgan & Co., Ladenburg, Thalmann & Co., and director Eureka Co-operative Savings and Loan Association. Member Fordham and Bedford Park Clubs.

TOVEY, ALFRED E. J.—Journalist, 24 Park place, New York City; residence 24 West 32d street. Born in London, England, 1844. Educated in Windsor and London. (Single.) General manager "The Brewers' Journal" Co.; secretary Ale Brewers' Association. Member New York Press Club, St. George's Society, and United States Brewers' (honorary) and New York State Brewers' and Maltsters' Associations.

TOWEN, WILLIAM C.—Lawyer, 271 Broadway, New York City; residence 315 West 32d street. Born in Detroit, Mich., April 6, 1858. Educated in public schools and at Columbia Law School. (Married.) Member of the firm of Couch & Towen. Member Democratic, Pavonia Yacht and Atlantic Yacht Clubs, Tammany Society, League of American Wheelmen, and Army and Navy Veteran, American Fishing and Bedford Park Taxpayers' Associations.

TOWER, A. CLIFFORD—Banker, 10 Wall street, New York City; residence Lawrence, L. I. Educated at Harvard. Member of the New York Stock Exchange firm of Tower & Sherwood. Member Union, Harvard, Racquet and Tennis, and Rockaway Hunting Clubs.

TOWER, CHARLES PUTNAM—Editor, 108 Fulton street, New York City; residence 144 West 104th street. Born in Boston, Mass., Feb. 6, 1854. (Married.) Secretary executive committee Yacht Racing Association of Long Island Sound. Member Riverside Yacht, Indian Harbor Yacht, New Rochelle Yacht and Manhasset Bay Yacht Clubs.

TOWL, FORREST MILTON—Civil Engineer, 26 Broadway, New York City; residence 794 Carroll street, Brooklyn. Born in Parma, Ohio, Jan. 14, 1863. Educated at Cornell University. (Married.) Consulting engineer to National Transit Co., Standard Oil Co. and United Natural Gas Co. Member American Society of Civil Engineers and American Society of Mechanical Engineers.

TOWLE, CHARLES S.—Civil Engineer, 220 Broadway, New York City; residence 314 West 78th street.

Born in Rye, Westchester Co., N. Y., Oct. 4, 1869. Educated at Sheffield Scientific School, Yale (Ph.B., '92). (Married.) Supervising engineer Metropolitan Street Railway Co. Member Graduates' Club of New Haven, Conn.

TOWLE, HENRY B.—Asphalt Merchant, 57 East 59th street, New York City; residence Mamaroneck. Secretary, treasurer and director Atlantic Alcatraz Asphalt Co. Member Larchmont Yacht Club.

TOWLE, STEVENSON—Consulting Engineer, 220 Broadway, and 150 Nassau street, New York City; residence 314 West 78th street. Member American Yacht and Manhattan Clubs and American Society of Civil Engineers.

TOWNE, FRANK B.—Stationery Manufacturer, 52 Duane street, New York City; residence Holyoke, Mass. (Married.) Treasurer National Blank Book Co. Member Wool Club.

TOWNE, FREDERICK T.—Lock and Hardware Manufacturer, 11 Murray street, New York City; residence Stamford, Conn. Born in Stamford, March 5, 1872. Educated in Boston, Mass. (Married.) General superintendent Yale & Towne Mfg Co. Member St. Anthony Club and Society of Mechanical Engineers.

TOWNE, HENRY ROBINSON—Lock and Hardware Manufacturer, 11 Murray street, New York City; residence 121 Madison avenue, and Stamford, Conn. Born in Philadelphia, Pa. Educated at University of Pennsylvania ('65). (Married.) President Yale & Towne Mfg Co. since 1869. Member Hardware, University and Engineers' Clubs, Century Association, American Society of Mechanical Engineers (ex-president), and Metropolitan Museum of Art.

TOWNE, ROBERT S.—Mining Engineer, 44 Pine street, New York City; residence 2 West 35th street. President, treasurer and director Compania Metalurgica Mexicana; president and director Fresnillo Mining Co., Mexican Northern Ry. Co., Potosi and Rio Verde Ry. Co. and Sombereite Mining Co.; director American Smelting and Refining Co. Member Colonial, New York, Lawyers' and Engineers' Clubs, Ohio Society and American Institute of Mining Engineers.

TOWNSEND, ALFRED M.—Banker, 50 Wall street, New York City; residence 163 West 86th street. Born in Grasby, England. Educated in England at Merchant Taylor's School. (Married.) New York City agent of the Hong Kong and Shanghai Banking Corporation. Member Century and Down Town Associations.

TOWNSEND, CHARLES JOHN—Stock Broker, 6 Wall street, New York City; residence 33 West 84th street. Born in New York City, Nov. 25, 1855. Educated at University of Rochester (A.M.). (Married.) Member of the firm of Townsend & Shera, and of the New York Stock Exchange. President Baptist Young People's Union of New York City; treasurer Jennie Clarkson Home for Children; trustee Madison Avenue Baptist Church. Member University Club, New England Society, 7th Regiment Veteran and Rochester University Alumni Associations, Delta Psi Fraternity, and life member Baptist Young People's Union of New York City.

TOWNSEND, EDWARD—Banker, 247 Broadway, New York City; residence 130 West 121st street. Cashier and director Importers' and Traders' National Bank. Member Union League, Hardware, New York Athletic and Harlem Clubs and New England Society.

TOWNSEND, EDWARD M.—Dry Goods Merchant, 345 Broadway, New York City; residence Oyster Bay, L. I. Member of the firm of Townsend & Yale. Trustee Institution for Savings of Merchants' Clerks. Member Seawanhaka-Corinthian Yacht, Union and Merchants' Clubs, New England Society and Metropolitan Museum of Art.

TOWNSEND, EDWARD WATERMAN—Author and Playwright, 70 West 36th street, New York City. Born in Cleveland, Ohio, Feb. 10, 1855. Educated in public schools. Engaged for a time in newspaper work. Author of "Chimmie Fadden," "Major Max," "A Daughter of the Tenements," "The Marquis of Michigan" and other books and plays. Member Lambs' Club.

TOWNSEND, HOWARD—Lawyer, 32 Nassau street, New York City; residence 29 West 39th street. Born in Albany, N. Y., Aug. 23, 1858. Educated at Albany Academy and at Harvard ('80). (Married.) Director Port Morris Land and Improvement Co. Member Harvard, City, Union and University Clubs, Down Town and Century Associations and Association of the Bar of the City of New York.

TOWNSEND, JAMES B.—Secretary, 44 Broad street, and Editor, 41 Park row, New York City; residence 106 East 30th street. Educated at Princeton. Member Princeton, Calumet, Press, New York Yacht and Quill Clubs, St. Nicholas, American Geographical and Authors' Societies and Sons of the American Revolution.

TOWNSEND, JAMES HILL—Bookkeeper, 15 Wall street, New York City; residence Sing Sing. Born in New York City, July 9, 1847. Educated at Grammar School No. 3, New York City. (Married.) Member of the Society of Colonial Wars, Sons of the Revolution and Society of the War of 1812.

TOWNSEND, JAMES M.—Lawyer, 111 Broadway, New York City; residence 318 West 75th street. Born in New Haven, Conn., Aug. 26, 1852. Educated at Yale (A.B., '74) and at Columbia Law School (LL.B., '76). (Married.) Lecturer on monetary securities in Yale Law School. Member University, Lawyers', New York Athletic, Colonial, Barnard, Yale and Manhattan Clubs and Association of the Bar of the City of New York.

TOWNSEND, MARTIN INGHAM—Lawyer, Troy. Born in Hancock, Mass., Feb. 6, 1810. Educated at Williams College (A.B., '33, A.M., '36, and LL.D., '66). (Widower.) Practicing law in Troy since 1836. District attorney of Rensselaer County, 1842-5; delegate-at-large to the Constitutional Convention of 1867; Congressman, 1875-9; United States Attorney for the Northern District of New York, 1879-87.

TOWNSEND, RANDOLPH W.—Lawyer, 247 Broadway, New York City; residence 18 East 73d street. Born in Hancock, Berkshire Co., Mass., May 4, 1812. Educated at Williams College. Practicing law in New York City since 1838. (Married.) Director Importers' and Traders' National Bank. Member Union League and Hardware Clubs, New England, New York Genealogical and Biographical, and Authors' Societies, Williams College Alumni Association, American Museum of Natural History, Metropolitan Museum of Art and Association of the Bar of the City of New York.

TOWNSEND, ROBERT—Lawyer, Criminal Court Building, and 71 Broadway, New York City; residence 482 Fourth avenue. Born in Oyster Bay, N. Y. (Son of Solomon Townsend.) Educated at Columbia Grammar School, at Columbia College (A.B., '76, and A.M.) and at Columbia Law School (LL.B.). (Married.) Aide-de-camp with the rank of colonel on the staff of Governor Cleveland, 1882-5; also served on the military staff of Governor Hill. Assistant district attorney for the Borough of Manhattan of the City of New York. Member Seawanhaka-Corinthian Yacht and Democratic Clubs, Tammany Society, Columbia Alumni Association, Delta Psi Fraternity and Sons of the Revolution.

TOWNSEND, RUFUS M.—Lawyer, 255 Broadway, Troy; residence Pawling avenue. Born in Troy. (Married.) Served as first lieutenant Company C, 2d New York Volunteer Infantry, during Spanish-American War. Elected Judge of Troy City Court, Nov. 7, 1899. Member East Side and Troy Clubs, Army and Navy Club of New York City, Society of Colonial Wars, Sons of the American Revolution, Society of the War of 1812, Society of the War of 1812 of Pennsylvania, and Society of Foreign Wars.

TOWNSEND, SMITH DE LANCEY—Protestant Episcopalian Clergyman, 240 West 81st street, New York City; residence 320 West 82d street. Educated at De Veaux College ('74), Hobart College (B.A., '80, and M.A.), General Theological Seminary ('83); degree of Ph.D. from St. Stephen's College. (Married.) Ordained deacon in 1883 and priest in 1884; rector of St. Luke's Church, Whitewater, Wis., 1884-7; associate rector All Angels' Church, New York City, 1887-97; rector All Angels' Church since 1897. Formerly president Association for Promoting Interests of Christian Schools, Colleges and Seminaries. Member Colonial, Churchmen's, Knollwood Country and Players' Clubs and Phi Beta Kappa and St. Nicholas Societies.

TOWNSEND, STEPHEN VAN RENSSELAER—Lawyer, 45 Cedar street, New York City; residence Hempstead, L. I. Born in Albany, N. Y., Oct. 20, 1860. Educated at Harvard (A.B., '82). (Married.) Member University Club and Down Town Association.

TOWNSEND, WILLIAM J.—Lawyer, 32 Nassau street, New York City; residence Tarrytown. Born in Lysander, Onondaga Co., N. Y., Oct. 17, 1843. Educated at Hamilton College ('66). (Married.) Member of the firm of Townsend & McClelland. Member Republican Club and Psi Upsilon Fraternity.

TOWNSEND, WILMOT—Merchant, Brooklyn; residence Third avenue and 76th street. Born in Bay Ridge, N. Y., Aug. 19, 1854. Educated at Brooklyn Polytechnic Institute. (Married.) Member Crescent Athletic Club.

TRACY, BENJAMIN FRANKLIN—Lawyer, 100 Broadway, New York City; residence The Waldorf-Astoria. Born in Owego, Tioga Co., N. Y., April 26, 1830. (Son of Benjamin Tracy.) Educated at Owego Academy. Studied law and was admitted to the Bar in 1851. District attorney of Oswego County, 1853-9; assemblyman, 1861-2. Served as colonel of the 109th regiment, New York Volunteers, during Civil War; received Congressional medal of honor for gallantry in action, and was brevetted brigadier-general of volunteers in 1865. United States Attorney for the Eastern District of New York, 1866-73; delegate to the National Republican Convention of 1880; Judge of the New York Court of Appeals, 1881-2; Secretary of the Navy of the United States during the administration of President Harrison, 1889-93. Was one of the organizers of the Republican party in the State of New York, and was president of the commission which drafted the Greater New York Charter. Has been identified with many important cases. Formerly senior member of the firm of Tracy, Boardman & Platt. Now member of the firm of Coudert Brothers. Director American Automatic Weighing Machine Co., Bay Ridge Park Improvement Co., Manhattan Life Insurance Co., North American Trust Co., Tennessee, Coal, Iron and R. R. Co. and United States Casualty Co. Member Union League, Lawyers' and Metropolitan Clubs, Hamilton, Brooklyn and Oxford Clubs of Brooklyn, and Association of the Bar of the City of New York.

TRACY, EVARTS—Architect, 156 Fifth avenue, New York City; residence 42 West Ninth street. Born in New York City, May 23, 1868. Educated at Yale, and at Ecole des Beaux Arts, Paris. (Married.) Member Yale, New York Athletic, Baltusrol Golf and Hillside Golf Clubs, Architectural League and Society of Beaux-Arts Architects.

TRACY, HOWARD C.—Lawyer, 15 Wall street, New York City; residence 134 East Sixth street, Plainfield, N. J. Born in Westborough, Mass., Aug. 1, 1866. Educated at Yale ('87) and at Columbia Law School ('89). (Married.) Member of the firm of Tracy & Lane. Member Yale Alumni Association, New York Law Institute and Association of the Bar of the City of New York.

TRACY, IRA O.—Physician, Long Island State Hospital, Brooklyn. Born in Lisbon, N. Y., Sept. 17, 1858. Educated at St. Lawrence University and at College of Physicians and Surgeons of New York City (M.D., '82). First assistant physician Long Island State Hospital. Member Society of Medical Jurisprudence, Empire State Society of the Sons of the American Revolution and Order of Founders and Patriots of America.

TRACY, JEREMIAH EVARTS—Lawyer, 52 Wall street, New York City; residence 440 West Eighth street, Plainfield, N. J. Born in Windsor, Vt., Jan. 31, 1835. Educated in Windsor and at Yale (LL.B., '57). (Married) Martha Sherman Greene, 1863. Member of the firm of Evarts, Choate & Beaman. Admitted to the Bar in New York, 1856; admitted to his uncle's, William M. Evarts, firm, 1859; removed his residence to Plainfield, N. J., 1874; has served as a member and for several terms as president of the Plainfield Common Council, Director Plainfield Public Library; governor Muhlenburg Hospital; member committee of counsel Lawyers' Title Insurance Co. of New York. Member Yale Club, Union County Country and Hillside Tennis and Golf Clubs of New Jersey, Sons of the American Revolution, Military Order of the Loyal Legion, Metropolitan Museum of Art, Yale Alumni, State Bar and Down Town Associations, American Museum of Natural History, New England Society, New York Law Institute and New York Botanical Gardens.

TRACY, OSGOOD V. (Lieutenant - Colonel)—Wholesale Grocer, 234 West Water street, Syracuse; residence 1017 James street. Born in Albany, N. Y., June 15, 1840. Educated at Albany Academy. (Married.) Senior member of the firm of O. V. Tracy & Co. Treasurer Solvay Process Co. and Tully Pipe Line Co.; director First National Bank of Syracuse; trustee Wells College, Aurora, N. Y., and Split Rock Cable Road Co. Member Citizens' and Syracuse Clubs, Army and Navy Club of New York City, G. A. R. and Military Order of the Loyal Legion.

TRACY, ROGER SHERMAN—Physician, Sixth avenue and 55th street, New York City; residence 151 West 106th street. Born in Windsor, Vt., Dec. 9, 1841. Educated at Yale ('62) and at the College of Physicians and Surgeons of Columbia University (M.D.). (Single.) Registrar of records in the Department of Health of the City of New York, with which he has been connected since 1870. Author of several medical works. Member Yale Club, Academy of Medicine and American Statistical and American Public Health Associations.

TRAFFORD, PERRY D.—Lawyer, 97 Cedar street, New York City; residence 22 West Ninth street. Born in Dartmouth, Mass., Nov. 6, 1866. Educated at Harvard College ('89) and at Harvard Law School. (Married.) Member of the firm of Nadal, Smyth, Carrère & Trafford. Member Harvard and University Clubs and Association of the Bar of the City of New York.

TRAIN, GEORGE FRANCIS—Author, 160 Bleecker street, New York City. Born in Boston, Mass., March 24, 1829. Engaged in business for a number of years in Australia and England; returned to the United States in 1862, and attained prominence as a lecturer and public speaker. Author of "An American Merchant in Europe, Asia and Australia," "Young America Abroad," "Downfall of England," "Irish Independence" and others.

TRANTOR, GEORGE C.—Coroner, Rosebank, S. I. Born on Staten Island. Educated at a public school in Port Richmond. Learned the carpenter's trade and began business for himself in 1875. Moved to Sandford, Fla., in 1876, and was for a number of years prominently identified with the local government of that place, and, in 1877, when the city was incorporated, was elected the first city marshal. Returned to Staten Island in 1879, and again engaged in the building business. Trustee of the village of Port Richmond, 1892-5. Coroner for Richmond Borough of the City of New York since 1898.

TRASK, CHARLES HOOPER—Merchant, 74 Wall street, New York City; residence Concord, Mass. Born in Manchester, Mass., Sept. 4, 1824. Educated at Yale ('46). (Married.) Senior member of the firm of W. Ropes & Co. of New York and St. Petersburg. President American Seamen's Friend Society, 1891-6. Member Yale Club, Sons of the American Revolution, Society of Colonial Wars, Alpha Delta Phi Fraternity and American Geographical and New England Societies.

TRASK, FREDERICK KINGSBURY—Clerk, 44 Pine street, New York City; residence 100 East 17th street. Born in Boston, Mass., Aug. 22, 1868. Educated in New York City. (Single.) Connected with the firm of Cuyler, Morgan & Co. Vice-president Sun Fruit Jar Co. Member Richmond County Country and Calumet Clubs, Military Historical Society of Massachusetts, and New England Society.

TRASK, SPENCER—Banker, 27 Pine street, New York City; residence Saratoga. Born in New York City, Sept. 18, 1844. Educated at Princeton ('66). (Married Kate Nichols, 1874.) In banking business in Wall street since graduation. Senior member of the banking firm of Spencer Trask & Co. President and director Broadway Realty Co. and Edison Electric Illuminating Co.; director Mexican National Construction Co., Rio Grande Western Ry. Co., New York and Ottawa R. R. Co. and New Amsterdam Casualty Co.; trustee Teachers' College, St. Stephen's College and General Theological Seminary of the Protestant Episcopal Church. Author of "Bowling Green." Member Union League, City, Reform, Princeton, Metropolitan and Lawyers' Clubs and Musical Arts, American Geographical and New England Societies.

TRAYER, BYRON—Lawyer, 36 Wall street, New York City; residence New York Athletic Club. Born in Canton, N. Y., Dec. 31, 1861. (Single.) Member Racquet and Tennis, Lawyers', New York Athletic and Manhattan Clubs and Society of Medical Jurisprudence.

TRAVERS, FRANCIS C.—Manufacturer, 107 Duane street, New York City; residence 59 West 74th street. Born in New York City, Oct. 21, 1849. Educated in city public schools. (Married.) President and director Travers Bros. Co.; vice-president Spanish-American Mining Co.; director Merchants' Trust Co., Franklin Savings Bank, Glamorgan Iron and Steel Co. and Lynchburg Plow Co.

TRAVIS, CHARLES E.—Lawyer, 50 Broadway, New York City; residence 227 East 123d street. Born in New York City, Aug. 7, 1869. Educated at Claverack College and University of the City of New York. (Married.) Member of the firm of Travis, Gerrodette & Granger. Member Delta Chi Club, Delta Upsilon and Delta Chi Fraternities, Society of Medical Jurisprudence and Chancellor Walworth Lodge No. 271, F. & A. M.

TRAVIS, DAVID R.—Insurance, 41 Park row, New York City; residence 56 Lenox avenue. Born in Schoharie County, N. Y., June 2, 1850. Educated in public schools. (Married.) Has been engaged in the business of life insurance for twenty years as general agent and manager. Since 1891 manager in New York City of Security Mutual Life Insurance Co. of Binghamton, N. Y. Member Masonic Order.

TRAVIS, JOHN C.—Lawyer, 55 Liberty street, New York City; residence 171 West 76th street. Educated at Columbia. Member Democratic and Strollers' Clubs, Metropolitan Museum of Art and Columbia University Alumni Association.

TREACY, PATRICK S.—Real Estate, 1929 Broadway, New York City; residence Yonkers. Born in New York City, July 2, 1855. Educated at the College of the City of New York. (Married M. Camilla Stanton.) Treasurer and trustee Washington Savings Bank; secretary and director Highlands of Navesink Improvement Co.; one of the founders of the Real Estate Board of Brokers; member New York and Brooklyn Real Estate Exchanges. Member Catholic Club, Water Witch and Country Clubs of Navesink, N. J., Yonkers Choral Society, West End Association and Friendly Sons of St. Patrick.

TREACY, RICHARD S.—Real Estate, 265 West 42d street, New York City; residence 326 West End avenue. Born in New York City, July 28, 1846. Educated at St. John's College, Fordham, N. Y. (A.B.). (Married.) Director Mutual Bank. Formerly school trustee for fourteen years in Twenty-second Ward. Member Catholic Club, American Geographical Society, Xavier Alumni Sodality and Fordham College Alumni Association.

TREADWELL, GEORGE CURTIS (Colonel)—Military Secretary to the Governor of New York State, Executive Chamber, Albany; residence 734 Broadway. Born in Albany. Educated in Farmington and Great Barrington, Mass., at Sedgwick Institute and at Sheffield Scientific School of Yale University. (Single.) Has practiced the profession of analytic chemist. Director George C. Treadwell Co., 1891-4; secretary same, 1893-4; trustee of the estate of Julia Treadwell, deceased; Military Secretary and aide-de-camp on the staff of Governor Black, 1897-8, and in the same capacities on the staff of Governor Theodore Roosevelt, 1899-1900. Director Economic Power and Construction Co. Member Founders and Patriots of America, Society of Colonial Wars, Sons of the Revolution, Military Order of the Loyal Legion, Military Service Institution of the United States, Albany Historical and Art Society and Albany Institute.

TREADWELL, HARRY H.—Jeweler, 15 Union Square, West, New York City; residence 4 Hampden place. Born in Treadwell, N. Y., April 6, 1856. (Married.) Connected with the firm of Tiffany & Co. Lieutenant-Colonel 22d Regiment, N. G. N. Y. Member Military Order of Foreign Wars.

TREAT, EDWARD A.—Dry Goods Commission Merchant, 79 Worth street, New York City; residence 153 West 87th street. Born in Westfield, Mass., Nov. 27, 1845. Educated in Westfield. (Married.) Member of the firm of Treat & Converse. Member Union League and Merchants' Clubs, Presbyterian Union, New England Society and Chamber of Commerce.

TREAT, ERASTUS B.—Publisher and Importer, 241 West 23d street, New York City; residence 942 St. Nicholas avenue. Born in Glastonbury, Conn., April 10, 1838. Educated at Manchester (Conn.) Academy and Wesleyan Academy, Wilbraham, Mass. (Married Rhoda Goslee.) Member of the firm of E. B. Treat & Co. Member New York Historical and New England Societies, Sons of the Revolution, Society of Colonial Wars and American Association for the Advancement of Science.

TRECARTIN, EDWARD H.—Banker and Broker, 55 Broadway, New York City; residence 46 West Ninth street. Born in Woburn, Mass., 1862. (Married.) Member of the firm of Morris & Wilmarth, members of the Consolidated Stock and Petroleum Exchange. Formerly president Long Island Water Supply Co., treasurer Rockaway Beach R. R. Co. and secretary Jamaica Gas Light Co. Member Crescent Athletic Club of Brooklyn, and Reform Club.

TREDWELL, DANIEL M.—Vice-President, 186 Remsen street, Brooklyn; residence 79 Lincoln road, Flatbush. Born in Hempstead, L. I., July 16, 1826. (Son of Daniel and Susan Ellsworth Tredwell.) Educated at Hempstead Academy. Teacher of English and mathematics in same institute, 1849-51; studied law in office of Smith & Lowery, 1850, and Columbia Law School, 1851. (Married Sarah A. Eldert.) Was connected with the office of the Clerk of the Supreme Court, 1852-94; now vice-president Long Island Title Guarantee Co. Author of "Literature of the Civil War," "Sketch of the Life of Apollonius of Tyana, or the First Ten Decades of Our Era," "Lace As a Fine Art, with Anecdotes of Lace Makers and Lace Wearers"; "Nomads of the Sea; An Ethnological Review," a monograph on "Privately Illustrated Books; A Plea for Bibliomania" and others. Member American Ethnological, New York Genealogical, Long Island Historical, Dunlap and Philosophical (president) Societies, Bibliographical Society of London (honorary), Anthropological Institute of Great Britain, Anthropological Institutes of New York and Paris, Brooklyn Institute of Arts and Sciences and Rembrandt and Montauk Clubs of Brooklyn.

TREMAIN, CHARLES—Shade Cloth Merchant, 41 Union Square, New York City; residence Hotel San Remo. Vice-president and director Columbia Shade Cloth Co. and Tavares and Gulf R. R. Co. Member Union League, Republican and Atlantic Yacht Clubs, and Citizens and Merchants' Clubs of Syracuse.

TREMAIN, HENRY EDWIN—Lawyer, 146 Broadway, New York City; residence 105 East 18th street. Born in New York City, Nov. 14, 1841. Educated at the College of the City of New York ('60) and at Columbia College Law School ('67). Served in Union Army throughout Civil War; advanced from private to brevet brigadier-general, and was awarded Congressional medal of honor for bravery in action. First Assistant United States Attorney in New York City, 1873-7. Now senior member of the firm of Tremain & Tyler. Member Lawyers' and Republican Clubs, Sons of the Revolution and Association of the Bar of the City of New York.

TREMAN, CHARLES E.—Hardware Merchant, 105 East State street, Ithaca. Educated at Cornell ('89). (Single.) Member of the firm of Treman, King & Co. President Ithaca Conservatory of Music; director Ithaca Trust Co. Member Kappa Alpha Fraternity.

TREMAN, ROBERT H.—Hardware Merchant, 105 East State street, Ithaca; residence Ithaca. Educated at Cornell (B.M.E., '78). Member of the firm of Treman, King & Co. Trustee Cornell University; graduate treasurer Cornell Athletic Association; director Ithaca Trust Co., Ithaca Savings Bank, Tompkins County Bank, Ithaca Gas Light Co. and Ithaca Water Works Co. Member Chi Phi Fraternity.

TREMPER, ROBERT A.—Real Estate and Insurance, 113 East 125th street, New York City; residence 472 East 177th street. Born in New York City, March 12, 1872. Educated in New York City. (Single.) Secretary and director Mount Morris Co-operative Building and Loan Association.

TRENCHARD, EDWARD—Artist, 50 West 92d street, New York City. Born in Philadelphia, Pa., Aug. 17, 1850. Educated in Philadelphia and in New York City. Makes a specialty of marine paintings.

TRENHOLM, WILLIAM LEE—Retired, 312 West 73d street, New York City. Born in Charleston, S. C., Feb. 3, 1836. Educated in Charleston and at South Carolina College ('55). (Married.) United States Civil Service Commissioner, 1885-6; Comptroller of the Currency, 1886-9; president American Surety Co., New York City, 1889-98; president North American Trust Co., 1898-9. Author of "The People's Money" (Scribner's 1893), of numerous pamphlets, and of articles in periodicals and newspapers. Member Colonial, Reform, Lawyers', University and Delta Kappa Epsilon Clubs, Cosmos Club of Washington, D. C., Southern Society, Century Association, American Association for the Advancement of Science, Metropolitan Museum of Art and Chamber of Commerce.

TREVOR, HENRY G.—Stock Broker, 13 William street, New York City; residence 6 East 45th street. Member Union, Westchester County Country and Seawanhaka-Corinthian Yacht Clubs, Down Town Association, Sons of the Revolution, St. Nicholas Society, Society of Colonial Wars, Metropolitan Museum of Art and American Museum of Natural History.

TREVOR, JOSEPH ELLIS—Professor, Cornell University, Ithaca; residence 808 East Seneca street. Born in Lockport, N. Y., Oct. 11, 1864. Educated at University of Leipzig, Germany (Ph.D.). (Married.) Professor of general and physical chemistry in Cornell University.

TREVOR, WILLIAM—Neckwear Manufacturer, 507 Broadway, New York City; residence Hotel San Remo. Born and educated in England. Member Suburban Riding and Driving and Colonial Clubs.

TRIBUS, LOUIS LINCOLN—Civil Engineer, 84 Warren street, New York City; residence Stapleton, S. I. Born in Northampton, Mass., May 26, 1865. Educated at New York University ('85). (Married.) In private practice as consulting hydraulic engineer. Member American Society of Civil Engineers, Staten Island Natural Science and New England Water Works Associations and Staten Island Chamber of Commerce.

TRIMBLE, MERRITT—Banker, 280 Fourth avenue, New York City; residence 59 East 25th street. Born in New York City, March 16, 1824. Educated in New York City. (Married.) President and trustee Bank for Savings.

TRIMBLE, RICHARD—Treasurer, 34 Pine street, and 71 Broadway, New York City; residence 53 East 25th street. Born in New York City, March 26, 1858. Educated at Harvard (A.B., '80). (Married.) Secretary and treasurer Federal Steel Co.; treasurer Roosevelt Hospital; governor New York Hospital. Member Racquet and Tennis, University, City, Harvard and University Athletic Clubs.

TRIPLER, CHARLES E.—Physicist and Inventor, 40 West 77th street, New York City. Born in New York City, 1849. Educated in New York City. Established a private laboratory and carried on various experiments in electricity and mechanics; his greatest achievement is the manufacture of liquid air. Director Tripler Air Power Co. Member Colonial Club.

TROESCHER, ANTHONY F.—Billiard Table Manufacturer, 860 Broadway, New York City; residence Hotel St. Andrew. Treasurer and director Brunswick-Balke-Collender Co. Member Arion Society and Liederkranz.

TROTTER, ALFRED WILLIAMS—Civil Engineer, 71 Broadway, New York City; residence Mount Vernon. Born in New York City, July 10, 1856. Educated at New York University ('75). (Single.) Member Knickerbocker Athletic, Engineers' and Harlem Clubs, 7th Regiment Veteran Association, New York Academy of Sciences and American Society of Civil Engineers.

TROWBRIDGE, ALEXANDER BUEL—Professor, Cornell University, Ithaca; residence 29 East avenue. Educated at Cornell (B.S., '90). Professor of architecture at Cornell University, in charge of the College of Architecture. Member Kappa Alpha Fraternity.

TROWBRIDGE, ALVAH—Banker, 100 Broadway, New York City; residence Hackensack, N. J. Born in South East, N. Y., 1835. Educated in local schools. (Married.) President and director North American Trust Co.; treasurer and director New York Mutual Savings and Loan Association; director Bankers' Life Insurance Co.; director and ex-vice-president National Bank of North America. Member Lawyers' Club and New England Society.

TROWBRIDGE, EDWIN D.—Banker and Broker, 16 Nassau street, New York City; residence 123 East 39th street. Member of the New York Stock Exchange firm of Vermilye & Co. Member Union League, New York Yacht and Grotier Clubs, New England Society, Down Town Association and Metropolitan Museum of Art.

TROY, JAMES—Lawyer, 16 Court street, Brooklyn; residence 26 Eighth avenue. Member of the firm of James & Thomas H. Troy. Member Marine and Field, Crescent Athletic and Montauk Clubs.

TRUAX, CHARLES HENRY—Supreme Court Justice, County Court House, New York City; residence 12 East 65th street. Born in Oneida County, N. Y., Oct. 31, 1846. (Son of Henry Philip and Sarah Ann [Shaffer] Truax.) Educated in public schools, at Vernon Academy, Oneida Seminary and at Hamilton College (A.B., A.M. and LL.D.). (Married.) Removed to New York City in 1868, studied law, and was admitted to the Bar. Judge of the Superior Court, 1881-94; Supreme Court Justice for the First Judicial District since 1897; term expires Dec. 31, 1910. Delegate to the State Constitutional Convention of 1894. Member Manhattan (president), New York Athletic and Democratic Clubs, St. Nicholas, Holland (trustee) and Dunlap Societies and Metropolitan Museum of Art.

TRUAX, CHAUNCEY SHAFFER—Lawyer, 99 Nassau street, New York City; residence 780 Madison avenue. Born in Oneida County, N. Y., March 11, 1854. (Son of Henry Philip and Sarah Ann [Shaffer] Truax.) Educated in public schools, at Oneida Seminary, Hamilton College ('75) and at Columbia College Law School ('77). (Married Alice M. Hawley of Cleveland, Ohio, 1886.) Member of the firm of Truax & Crandall. Delegate to the State Constitutional Convention, 1894. Member Metropolitan and Manhattan Clubs, Holland Society, Psi Upsilon Fraternity, Hamilton College Alumni Association (president) and Association of the Bar of the City of New York.

TRUELL, GEORGE F.—Manager, 62 Cedar street, New York City; residence 403 West 21st street. Born in New York City, Feb. 16, 1847. Educated in Ogdensburg and Albany. (Married.) Secretary The Wondrophone Co.; director Richmond Pneumatic Aluminum Truss Co. Formerly secretary Mutual District Messenger Co. of Washington, D. C., and adjuster to London Guarantee and Accident Co. Member Masonic Veteran Association and other Masonic societies.

TRUESDALE, WILLIAM H.—Railroads, 26 Exchange place, New York City. Born in Indiana, 1852. Formerly traffic manager of the Chicago, St. Paul, Minneapolis and Omaha R. R. Co.; president and, later, receiver of the Minneapolis and St. Louis R. R. Co. Now president and member executive committee Delaware, Lackawanna and Western R. R. Co.

TRULL, WILLIAM C.—Lawyer, 206 Broadway, New York City; residence 20 Fifth avenue. Educated at Union College. Member Lawyers' and Brooklyn Clubs, Union College Alumni Association and Association of the Bar of the City of New York.

TRUMAN, JAMES C.—Real Estate, 1 Madison avenue, New York City; residence 195 Court street, Binghamton. Born in Butternuts, Otsego Co., N. Y., June 12, 1841. Educated at Gilbertsville Academy and Collegiate Institute. (Married, 1863.) Established the express business of Truman & Co. in California, 1864; postmaster of Gilbertsville, N. Y., 1868-9; publisher of Binghamton "Daily Times," 1873-4; selected railroad route through State of Sonora, Mexico, from Guaymas to Nogales, in 1874; established stage and express line from San Gregoria Pass across the California Desert to Tucson, Arizona, 1876. New York State Commissioner at the World's Exposition and Cotton Centennial, New Orleans, 1884-5; chief auditor Internal Revenue Accounts United States Treasury, 1886-8; postmaster of Binghamton, 1888-9; founder of Nepera Park, Yonkers, N. Y., 1890; delegate to National Democratic Convention, 1896; chairman New York State Democratic Executive Committee, 1896-7. President Continental Realty Co.; treasurer Graystone Land Co. Member Dobson Club of Binghamton, and Democratic Club of New York City.

TRUMAN, WILLIAM H.—Claim Adjuster, 1113 Third avenue, New York City; residence 26 West 50th street. Claim agent Third Avenue R. R. Co. Member New York Athletic Club, Old Guard, 9th Regiment Veterans' Association, Walworth Lodge, F. & A. M., and Benevolent and Protective Order of Elks.

TRUMBULL, LEVI R.—Editor and Historian, 19 Union square, West, New York City; residence Spring Valley. Born in Montgomery, N. Y., Aug. 31, 1834. Worked on farms and attended district schools. (Married.) Associate and city editor, respectively, on Paterson (N. J.) "Press" and "Guardian" for fourteen years; also performed journalistic work for the "New York Herald," "World" and other newspapers. Historian of silk for Pennsylvania Bureau of Industrial Statistics. Author of "Industrial Paterson," "The Genesis of Silk," "Outline History of Silk" and other works. President and director American Silk Journal Co. Member Union Club.

TRUMP, EDWARD N.—Engineer, Solvay Process Co., Syracuse; residence 1912 West Genesee street. Born in Philadelphia, Pa., Nov. 9, 1857. Educated at Cornell. (Married.) Vice-president Semet Solvay Co. General manager and chief engineer of the Solvay Process Co., with which he has been connected for eighteen years. Member Citizens' and Syracuse Clubs, Engineers' Club of New York City, Technical Club of Chicago, Ill., and American Geographical Society.

TRUSLOW, CHARLES W.—Lawyer, 15 Broad street, New York City; residence 110 East 57th street. Member Union, Racquet and Tennis and Lawyers' Clubs, Century Association and Association of the Bar of the City of New York.

TRYON, DWIGHT WILLIAM—Artist, 226 Central Park, South, New York City. Born in Hartford, Conn., Aug. 13, 1849. Studied art at the Ecole des Beaux Arts, Paris, France. Has exhibited at all the important exhibitions at home and abroad since 1880, and has been awarded many prizes, including thirteen medals at the World's Columbian Exposition, Chicago, 1893. Member Century Association and National Academy of Design.

TRYON, J. RUFUS—Surgeon-General, United States Navy; residence University Club, New York City. Educated at Union College ('58). Member University, New York Yacht and St. Nicholas Clubs, Metropolitan and Alibi Clubs of Washington, D. C., St. Nicholas Society, Union College Alumni Association and Military Order of the Loyal Legion.

TRYON, THOMAS—Architect, 36 Union Square, East, New York City; residence 1425 Broadway. Member of the firm of Brunner & Tryon. Member New York Athletic and Michaux Cycling Clubs, Century and Aldine Associations, Architectural League, Municipal Art Society and American Institute of Architects.

TUBBS, FRANK H.—Music Teacher, 121 West 42d street, New York City; residence Allenhurst, N. J. Born in Brighton, Mass., 1853. Educated in Boston, London and Paris. (Married.) Formerly vice-president National Music Teachers' Association; editor "The Musician" and founder and editor of "Music Life." President and director New York Vocal Institute. Member Clef (ex-president) and Quill Clubs.

TUCK, EDWARD—Capitalist, 20 Wall street, New York City; residence 7 East 61st street. Director Electric Vehicle Co., Lake Erie and Western R. R. Co. and Manhattan Trust Co. Member Metropolitan, Union, Union League and Groller Clubs, New England Society and American Museum of Natural History.

TUCK, HENRY—Physician and Insurance, 346 Broadway, New York City; residence 39 East 53d street. Educated at Harvard ('63). Vice-president and trustee New York Life Insurance Co.; director Farragut Fire Insurance Co. and Central National Bank. Member University, Reform and City Clubs and America's Founders and Patriots.

TUCKER, EDWIN—Builder, 37 West 12th street, New York City; residence 773 West End avenue. Member New York Athletic, Colonial, Delta Kappa Epsilon and Building Trades Clubs.

TUCKER, ERVIN A.—Physician and Instructor, 110 West 57th street, New York City. Born in Attleboro, Mass., Feb. 2, 1862. Educated at Amherst College, at Columbia University and in Berlin, Munich and Paris; degree of M.D. (Married.) Teacher of obstetrics and gynecology in College of Physicians and Surgeons of Columbia University; assistant attending physician Sloane Maternity Hospital. Member Hospital Graduates' and New York Athletic Clubs, Amherst College Alumni Association, Alumni Association of the College of Physicians and Surgeons, New York Academy of Medicine and New York Obstetrical and West End Medical Societies.

TUCKER, GILBERT MILLIGAN—Publisher, 395 Broadway, Albany; residence 304 State street. Born in Albany, Aug. 26, 1847. Educated at Albany Academy and at Williams College. (Married.) Senior member of the firm of Luther Tucker & Son, publishers of "The Country Gentleman." Member Fort Orange and Country Clubs, Historical Society of Albany, and Phi Beta Kappa Society.

TUCKER, GILMAN H.—Publisher, 100 Washington square, East, New York City; residence 126 West 85th street. Educated at Dartmouth College ('61). Secretary and director American Book Co. Member Twilight, University, Barnard and Nineteenth Century Clubs, Appalachian Club of Boston, Mass., New England Society, Dartmouth College Alumni and Aldine Associations, Sons of the Revolution and Society of Colonial Wars.

TUCKER, LUTHER P.—Banker and Broker, 71 Broadway, New York City; residence 139 Waverley place. Born in Norway, Me., Jan. 17, 1832. Educated at Norway Liberal Institute. Member of the firm of Buckhout, Davis & Co. Director Alliance and Northern R. R. Co.

TUCKER, PREBLE—Lawyer, 111 Broadway, New York City; residence 19 West 34th street. Born in Boston, Mass., Oct. 31, 1860. Educated at St. Paul's School, Concord, N. H., and at the University of Virginia. (Widower.) Practicing in New York City since his admission to the Bar in 1882. Director Esmond Cycle Saddle Co. and Adirondack Co. Member City, Social Reform and Players' Clubs.

TUCKER, WILLIAM A.—Cashier, 19 John street, New York City; residence 317 West 45th street. Born in New York City, April 17, 1854. Educated at Betts Military Academy, Stamford, Conn., and in public schools of New York City. (Married.) Cashier with the house of H. A. Rogers. Formerly director Seventh National Bank. Member Presbyterian Union and Sons of the Revolution.

TUCKER, WILLIS GAYLORD—Analytical Chemist, Albany Medical College, Albany; residence 166 Washington avenue. Born in Albany, Oct. 31, 1849. (Son of Luther Tucker.) Educated at Albany Academy and Albany Medical College (M.D.). (Married May Newman of Albany.) Professor of inorganic and analytical chemistry and toxicology at Albany Medical College, and registrar of faculty; professor of chemistry in Albany College of Pharmacy, and president of the faculty; director New York State Board of Health Laboratory. Member Union College Alumni Association, Sons of the Revolution, Order of Founders and Patriots of America, Sigma Xi Society, and Fellow of the Chemical Society of London, England.

TUCKERMAN, ALFRED—Bibliographer, 1123 Broadway, New York City; residence 342 West 57th street. Educated at Harvard ('70). Member Larchmont Yacht and University Clubs, Harvard Alumni Association and Fellow American Association for the Advancement of Science.

TUCKERMAN, BAYARD—Real Estate, 59 Wall street, New York City; residence Princeton, N. J. Born in New York City, July 2, 1855. Educated at Harvard and in Paris, France. (Married Annie Smith, 1882.) Lecturer on English literature at Princeton University. Author of "History of English Prose Fiction," "Life of General Lafayette," "Diary of Philip Hone" and "Peter Stuyvesant." Member City Club, Century Association, New York Genealogical and Biographical Society and Metropolitan Museum of Art.

TUCKERMAN, PAUL—Trustee, 59 Wall street, New York City; residence Tuxedo. Trustee of the estate of Lucius Tuckerman. Member Knickerbocker, Tuxedo, Union and Calumet Clubs and Down Town Association.

TULLY, JAMES H.—Commissioner, 367 Jay street, Brooklyn. Born in Ireland, Nov. 15, 1850. Educated in Brooklyn public schools and at St. Vincent's Academy. Clerk in the office of the City Clerk of Brooklyn, 1873-80; deputy city clerk, 1880-2; manager of the business of O'Keefe & Doyle, 1882-8; assistant secretary of the Brooklyn Board of Education, 1888-98; deputy fire commissioner of the City of New York for the Boroughs of Brooklyn and Queens since 1898. Member Kings County Democratic Committee and Friendly Sons of St. Patrick.

TUNNECLIFF, GEORGE W.—Hotel Proprietor, Richfield Springs. Born in Richfield Springs, 1839. Educated there. (Married.) Director First National Bank.

TUNSTALL, HARRY G.—Banker and Broker, 52 Broadway, New York City; residence 299 Sterling place, Brooklyn. Born in Savannah, Ga., Sept. 6, 1872. (Single.) Member of the firm of Tunstall & Co., and of the New York Stock Exchange. Director Ecuador Developing Co. Member Union League, Crescent Athletic and Montauk Clubs of Brooklyn, and Atlantic Yacht and Larchmont Yacht Clubs.

TURINI, GIOVANNI—Sculptor, 13 West 113th street, New York City. Born in Verona, Italy, May 23, 1841. Educated in Milan and Rome. (Married Margaret Thurston, 1882.) Came to the United States in 1867 and established a studio in New City. Among his best known works may be mentioned a bust of Pope Leo XIII. in the Vatican at Rome, the equestrian statue of General Bolivar in Central Park, and the statue of Garibaldi in Washington square, New York City.

TURL, WILLIAM JOHN—Sugar Machinery Manufacturer, 534 West 28th street, New York City; residence Newburgh. Born in New York City, 1855. Educated in city public schools and at Fergusville Academy (Single.) Member of the firm of John Turl's Sons. Interested in stock farm in Orange County, N. Y. President West Side Hygeia Ice Co. Member Suburban Riding and Driving Club of New York, Boston and Chess Clubs of New Orleans, La., Sugar Planters' and American Sugar Cane Growers' Associations of New Orleans, and Knights Ancient Essenic Order of Louisiana.

TURLE, ROBERT H.—Grain Merchant, 352 Produce Exchange, and Canned Goods, 105 Hudson street, New York City; residence 34 Monroe place, Brooklyn. Member of the firms of R. H. Turle & Co. and Turle & Skidmore. Member Twentieth Century and Barnard Clubs, Hamilton Club of Brooklyn, St. George's Society and Young Men's Christian Association.

TURNBULL, ARTHUR—Banker, 59 Cedar street, New York City; residence Bartow-on-Sound. Educated at Columbia ('86). Director National Electric Car Lighting Co. Member St. Anthony, University and University Athletic Clubs and Columbia University Alumni Association.

TURNBULL, GEORGE ROBINSON—Banker, 65 Cedar street, New York City; residence 137 Remsen street, Brooklyn, and West Islip, L. I. Born in New York City, Aug. 31, 1842. (Married.) Vice-president and director Guaranty Trust Co. of New York; director Market and Fulton National Bank, Norfolk and Southern R. R. Co., Michigan-Peninsular Car Co., Norfolk, Virginia Beach and Southern R. R. Co., Central Stamping Co., and Oswego (N. Y.) Traction Co. Formerly treasurer and director American Typefounders' Co. and Butler Hard Rubber Co.; also director Brooklyn Union Gas Co. and Kansas City (Mo.) Gas Co. Member Hamilton Club of Brooklyn, Westbrook Golf and Dyker Meadow Golf Clubs, Laurentian Club of Canada, Lafayette Post, G. A. R., 7th Regiment Veteran Association and Brooklyn Institute of Arts and Sciences.

TURNBULL, ROBERT J.—Planter, 187 Fulton street, New York City; residence 6 West 47th street, and Duncansby, Miss. Born in Westchester, N. Y., Jan. 13, 1834. (Married.) Member Knickerbocker Club, Country Club of Westchester, and American Geographical Society.

TURNER, ALBERT—Publisher and Editor, 503 Fifth avenue, New York City; residence Passaic, N. J. Born in Fair Haven, N. Y., July 27, 1842. Educated at Red Creek Seminary and Eastman's Business College. (Married.) Editor and manager "Health Culture"; deacon Congregational Church of Passaic. Formerly a teacher, and treasurer and business manager of Fowler & Willet Co. for twenty-five years. Member Congregational Club.

TURNER, CHARLES YARDLEY—Artist, 35 West 14th street, New York City. Born in Baltimore, Md., Nov. 25, 1850. Educated in Baltimore; also studied in Paris, France. (Single.) Resident of New York City since 1871. Assistant director of decoration at the World's Columbian Exposition, Chicago, 1893. Member National Arts and New York Athletic Clubs, American Water Color and Municipal Arts Societies, Century Association, National Society of Mural Painters, Architectural League and National Academy of Design.

TURNER, GEORGE B.—Lawyer, Court House, Auburn. Born in Fair Haven, N. Y., Nov. 2, 1848. Educated at Cornell (B.S., '75). (Married.) Trustee of Cornell University and of Cayuga County Savings Bank. Surrogate of Cayuga County since 1890. Member Auburn City Club and Chi Psi Alumni Society of New York City.

TURNER, HENRY B.—Coal Merchant, 514 East 23d street, New York City; residence 944 Lexington avenue. Member Union League, Army and Navy, New York Athletic and New York Clubs and Lafayette Post, G. A. R.

TURNER, HENRY D.—Coffee Broker, 99 Front street, New York City; residence 79 St. Marks avenue, Brooklyn. Member Crescent Athletic Club of Brooklyn.

TURNER, HERBERT B.—Lawyer, 22 William street, New York City; residence Englewood, N. J. Educated at Columbia ('55). Senior member of the firm of Turner, McClure & Rolston. Director Lawyers' Mortgage Insurance Co. and Lawyers' Title Insurance Co. Member University, Reform, Delta Phi, City, Church and Twilight Clubs, St. Nicholas and New England Societies, Down Town, Columbia University Alumni and Century Associations and Association of the Bar of the City of New York.

TURNER, JAMES—Broker, 16 Broad street, New York City; residence 79 St. Marks avenue, Brooklyn. Educated at Amherst College ('80). Trustee Metropolitan Savings Bank. Member University Club, Crescent Athletic, Montauk and Hamilton Clubs of Brooklyn, and Amherst College Alumni Association.

TURNER, J. SPENCER—Merchant, 109 Duane street, New York City; residence 57 Remsen street, Brooklyn. President and director J. Spencer Turner Co.; director Connelly Iron Sponge and Governor Co., Greenwoods Co. and Tallassee Falls Manufacturing Co. Member Union League and Merchants' Clubs, and Hamilton, Crescent Athletic, Riding and Driving, and Brooklyn Clubs of Brooklyn.

TURNER, ROSS M.—Manager, 309 Broadway, New York City; residence 39 West 31st street. Manager of the foreign department of the Mutual Mercantile Agency. Member New York Athletic, Hardware and Staten Island Cricket Clubs.

TURNER, THORNTON FLOYD—Architect, 150 Fifth avenue, New York City; residence 94 Park avenue. Born in Englewood, N. J. Educated at Princeton University, and in Paris. (Married.) Member of the firm of Hill & Turner. Member Princeton and University Clubs, Sons of the Revolution, St. Nicholas Society, American Institute of Architects and Architectural League.

TURNER, WILL C.—Broker and Financial Agent, 120 Broadway, New York City; residence 318 St. Nicholas avenue. Born in Fenton, Genesee Co., Mich., June 24, 1854. Educated at the University of Michigan (B.A., '75). (Married.) Newspaper correspondent in Philadelphia, New Orleans, Lansing, Saginaw, Detroit and Cincinnati, 1875-81; clerk of House Committee on State Affairs, Michigan Legislature, 1879-80; owned, published and edited "City and Country," Columbus, Ohio, 1881-91; organized the Columbus Edison Electric Light Co. in 1887, and was secretary and manager, 1887-9; has been a resident of New York City since 1889. Engaged in newspaper and special work and the placing of stocks and bonds. Member New York Press Club and University of Michigan Alumni Association.

TURNER, WILLIAM L.—Lawyer, 84 Cotton Exchange, New York City; residence 75 East 55th street. Born in New York City, June 5, 1860. Educated at the College of the City of New York and at Columbia College Law School. Secretary to Mayor Grace, 1885-6; assistant corporation counsel of the City of New York, 1886-9, and reappointed in 1895. Member Manhattan, Reform, Larchmont Yacht, University and Lawyers' Clubs, College of the City of New York Alumni Association, Society of Medical Jurisprudence and Association of the Bar of the City of New York.

TURNURE, LAWRENCE—Banker, 50 Wall street, New York City; residence 417 Fifth avenue. Senior member of the firm of Lawrence Turnure & Co. Trustee Atlantic Mutual Insurance Co.; director Continental Insurance Co., Mobile Street R. R. Co. and Syracuse, Binghamton and New York R. R. Co. Member Manhattan and Democratic Clubs, American Geographical and St. Nicholas Societies, Down Town Association, Metropolitan Museum of Art, National Academy of Design and American Museum of Natural History.

TURNILL, HENRY STUART (Major)—Surgeon, United States Army, Fort Totten, Willets Point, N. Y. Born in New Milford, Conn., Sept. 8, 1842. Educated at Yale. (Married.) Served in the 17th Connecticut Volunteers as assistant surgeon during the Civil War, 1861-5, and in the regular service since. Was lieutenant-colonel United States Volunteers in the Spanish-American War, and chief surgeon of the 4th Corps. Companion of New York Commandery of the Military Order of the Loyal Legion of the United States. Original Companion of the Pennsylvania Commandery, Society of Foreign Wars. Member Army and Navy Club of New York, Society of the Army of the Potomac, Society of the Department of the South, Military Service Institute of the United States, Sons of the Revolution, Order of Founders and Patriots of America and Yale Medical Alumni (Fellow) and American Public Health Associations.

TUSKA, BENJAMIN—Lawyer, 27 Pine street, New York City; residence 115 East 78th street. Born in Memphis, Tenn. Educated at Johns Hopkins University and Columbia Law School. (Single.) Director Spanish American Mining Co. of New York and Puerto Rico, Educational Alliance and Brightside Day Nursery and Kindergarten Society. Member Democratic, Century Country and Harmonie Clubs, John Hopkins University Club of Baltimore, Md., and Association of the Bar of the City of New York.

TUSKA, GUSTAVE R.—Consulting Engineer, 62 William street, New York City; residence 103 West 58th street. Born in New York City, July 15, 1869. Educated at the College of the City of New York ('88) and Columbia University ('91). Degrees of M.S. and C.E. (Single.) President Atlantic Construction Co.; president and chief engineer Atlantic Fisheries

Co.; chief engineer American Process Co.; consulting engineer Colon Electric Illuminating Co., and consulting engineer to various corporations. Director Technical Institute, Hudson Guild and others. Formerly director Alumni Columbia University; bridge engineer Long Island R. R.; instructor Department of Civil Engineering Columbia University; chief engineer Panama Railroad Co.; resident engineer Knoxville, Cumberland Gap and Louisville R. R., and Central New York and Western R. R. Member Engineers' Club, Phi Beta Kappa Society, American Society of Civil Engineers, American Society of Naval Architects and Marine Engineers, American Society of Mechanical Engineers, Theta Delta Chi Fraternity, College of the City of New York Alumni and Columbia University Alumni Associations and other prominent clubs and charitable societies.

TUSKA, MORRIS—Retired, 22 Bible House, New York City; residence 411 West 148th street. Born October, 1831. (Married.) Director Mount Nebo Cemetery Association; trustee Hebrew Benevolent and Orphan Asylum for twenty-seven years. Member New York Produce Exchange.

TUTHILL, F. H.—Farmer, Rocky Point. Born in Rocky Point, Aug. 15, 1860. Educated in common schools and at an academy. (Married.) Director Bank of Port Jefferson, Bridgeport and Port Jefferson Steamboat Co. and P. J. Milling Co.; trustee town of Brookhaven. Member Rocky Point Gun Club and Independent Order of Odd Fellows.

TUTHILL, HORACE S.—Dairy Products, 1993 Seventh avenue, New York City; residence 168 West 120th street. Born in Goshen, N. Y., Dec. 31, 1844. Educated at Goshen Academy. (Married.) Proprietor of the Sheffield Farms. Member Lafayette Post, G. A. R. and Harlem Board of Commerce.

TUTHILL, THEODORE KNAPP—Physician and Surgeon, 319 West 18th street, New York City. Born in Blooming Grove, Orange Co., N. Y., Jan. 22, 1848. (Son of Rev. Nathaniel and Cathrine [Meade] Tuthill.) Educated at the University of New York, Medical Department (M.D., '75). Pension surgeon under Presidents Arthur and Harrison; appointed coroner by Governor Morton, in County of New York, to fill vacancy caused by death of Coroner O'Meagher, March, 1896, and elected coroner November, 1896. Has contributed frequently, to sporting magazines, articles in the interest of fish and game protection, taking very advanced ground in the matter, particularly against the killing of insectivorous birds for their plumage. Member Republican and Camp Fire Clubs, County Medical and Medical Surgical Societies, Medical League, Society of Medical Jurisprudence and League of American Sportsmen.

TUTHILL, WILLIAM BURNET—Architect, 287 Fourth avenue, New York City; residence 781 Park avenue. Director Music Hall Co. Member Nineteenth Century Club, Musical Arts Society, Architectural League, Aldine Association and Metropolitan Museum of Art.

TUTTLE, CLIFFORD H.—Manufacturer, 83 Beekman street, New York City; residence 288 Clinton avenue, Brooklyn. Born in Brooklyn, Nov. 11, 1865. Educated in Brooklyn. (Married.) Treasurer Tuttle & Bailey Mfg Co. Member Fulton Club, and Crescent Athletic and Oxford Clubs of Brooklyn.

TUTTLE, EDWARD G.—Physician and Surgeon, 61 West 51st street, New York City. Born in Ware, Mass., 1862. Educated at Amherst College. (Married.) Visiting surgeon Hahnemann Hospital and Five Points House of Industry; professor of surgery New York Homeopathic Medical College and Hospital. Member New York Athletic and New York Medical Meissen and Chiron Clubs and Amherst College Alumni Association.

TUTTLE, FREDERICK W.—Manufacturer, 83 Beekman street, New York City; residence 289 De Kalb avenue, Brooklyn. Vice-president and director Tuttle & Bailey Mfg Co. Member Fulton and Lambs' Clubs, and Oxford Club of Brooklyn.

TUTTLE, GEORGE MONTGOMERY—Physician and Professor, 116th street and Morningside Heights, New York City; residence 49 West 38th street. Educated at Yale ('77). Member of the faculty at Columbia University in the City of New York. Member City, University, Barnard and Yale Clubs and Century Association.

TUTTLE, JAMES HORTON—Lawyer, 154 Nassau street, New York City; residence 336 West 84th street. Born in Croton-on-Hudson, N. Y., Oct. 24, 1875. Educated at the College of the City of New York. (Single.) Secretary West Side Republican Club. Member Sons of the American Revolution and Delta Kappa Epsilon Fraternity.

TUTTLE, JOSEPH N.—Lawyer, 320 Broadway, New York City; residence Bronxville. Born in Madison, N. J., April 14, 1863. Educated at Yale. (Single.) Member of the firm of Ford & Tuttle. Member Union League and Yale Clubs, Sons of the American Revolution of New Jersey, New Jersey Historical Society and Andover Alumni Association.

TUTTLE, NATHANIEL—Advertising Manager, 154 Nassau street, New York City; residence 336 West 84th street. Director Tubular Despatch Co. and Tribune Association. Member West Side Republican Club, Sons of the American Revolution, West Side Protective League, Metropolitan Museum of Art and American Museum of Natural History.

TUTTLE, WINTHROP M.—Secretary and Treasurer, 27 William street, New York City; residence 494 Bedford avenue, Brooklyn. Born in Brooklyn. Educated at Brooklyn Polytechnic Institute. (Married.) Treasurer and director American Cotton Co.; secretary, treasurer and director Baltimore, Chesapeake and Atlantic Ry. Co.; secretary and director Idaho Yellow Jacket Gold Mining Co.; director Hyatt Roller Bearing Co.; trustee Terminal Warehouse Co. First lieutenant Troop "C," New York Cavalry, United States Volunteers, during Spanish-American War in invasion of Puerto Rico. Member Riding and Driving Club, Crescent Athletic Club of Brooklyn, Sons of the Revolution, Military Order of Foreign Wars and Squadron "A," N. G. N. Y.

TWEED, CHARLES HARRISON—Lawyer, 15 Broad street, New York City; residence 12 East 36th street. Born in Calais, Me., Sept. 26, 1844. Educated at Bristol Academy, Taunton, Mass., and at Harvard ('65). (Married Helen Minerva, daughter of William Maxwell Evarts of New York City.) Member of the firm of Evarts, Southmayd & Choate, 1874-83. General counsel to the Southern Pacific Co. Member Metropolitan, University, Players', Seawanhaka-Corinthian Yacht and Harvard Clubs, Century Association, Somerset Club of Boston, Mass., and Eastern Yacht and Beverly Yacht Clubs of Massachusetts.

TWEEDY, JOHN A.—Dry Goods Merchant, 86 Worth street, New York City; residence 179 Joralemon street, Brooklyn. Member of the firm of Lee, Tweedy & Co. Director Hanover Fire Insurance Co. and Delaware, Lackawanna and Western R. R. Co. Member Merchants' and Brooklyn Clubs and New England Society.

TWINING, KINSLEY—Editor, 156 Fifth avenue, New York City; residence Morristown, N. J. Born in West Point, N. Y., July 18, 1832. Educated at Yale ('53). Received degree of D.D. from Yale and L.H.D. from Hamilton. (Married Mary Ellen Gridley, 1870.) Was in active Congregational ministry from 1857 to 1876, and held pastorates in Cambridgeport, Mass., and Providence, R. I. Was literary editor of "The Independent" for twelve years. Now editor of "The Evangelist." Member Yale and University Clubs, Yale Alumni and Century Associations and New England Society.

TWISS, CHARLES VICTOR—Furniture, 331 Fifth avenue, New York City; residence 1337 Lexington avenue, Born in New Hampshire. (Married.) Manager for A. H. Davenport. Member Church Club and New England Society.

TWOMBLY, HAMILTON McKAY—Capitalist, 15 Broad street, New York City; residence 684 Fifth avenue. Educated at Harvard ('71). (Married Florence Adele, daughter of William Henry Vanderbilt, 1877.) Director Buffalo Erie Basin R. R. Co., Chicago and Northwestern Ry. Co., Chicago, St. Paul, Minneapolis and Omaha Ry. Co., Clearfield Bituminous Coal Corpuration, Cleveland, Cincinnati, Chicago and St. Louis R. R. Co., Columbus, Hope and Greensburg R. R. Co., Delaware, Lackawanna and Western R. R. Co., Depew Improvement Co., Fall Brook Railway System Co., Lake Shore and Michigan Southern R. R. Co., Metropolitan Opera and Real Estate Co., National Union Bank, New Jersey Shore Line R. R. Co., New York Central and Hudson River R. R. Co., New York Central Niagara River R. R. Co., New York, Chicago and St. Louis R. R. Co., New York Junction R. R. Co., New York Mutual Gas Light Co., Niagara Falls Branch R. R. Co., Pittsburg and Lake Erie R. R. Co., Terminal Railway Co. of Buffalo, Wallkill Valley R. R. Co. and West Shore and Ontario Terminal Co.; trustee Guaranty Trust Co. Member Metropolitan, Lawyers', Tuxedo, Turf and Field, Transportation, Union League, Union, City, Racquet and Tennis, South Side Sportsmen's, Riding, Rockaway Hunting, Players', University, Harvard, New York Yacht, University Athletic, and Morristown (N. J.) Clubs, Country Club of Westchester, Somerset Club of Boston, Mass., Down Town Association, American Museum of Natural History and Metropolitan Museum of Art.

TYLER, CHARLES CONVERSE—Lawyer, 4 Hanover street, New York City; residence 319 East 19th street. Educated at Dartmouth College. Member Players', City and Good Government Clubs and Dartmouth College Alumni Association.

TYLER, CHARLES MELLE—Professor, Cornell University, Ithaca; residence 9 East avenue. Born in Limington, Me., 1832. Educated at Yale (A.M. and D.D.) Pastor Congregational Church at Natick, Mass., for nine years; member of the Massachusetts Legislature, 1861-2; entered army as captain in 1862, and served through several important battles; pastor South Congregational Church, Chicago, Ill., 1867-73; pastor First Congregational Church, Ithaca, N. Y., 1873-92; trustee Cornell University, 1886-92; Sage Professor of the history and philosophy of religion and of Christian ethics at Cornell University since 1892.

TYLER, ELIPHALET W.—Lawyer, 111 Broadway, New York City; residence 652 West End avenue. Educated at Amherst College. Member of the firm of Tyler, Pratt, Hibbard & McAlpin. Member Lawyers', Good Government and Delta Kappa Epsilon Clubs, Law Library, Presbyterian Union, Amherst College Alumni Association and Association of the Bar of the City of New York.

TYLER, FRED J.—Clothier, 49 Main street, Cortland; residence 21 Charles street. Born in Virgil, N. Y., Dec. 23, 1875. Educated in Dryden, N. Y. (Single.) Part owner of the firm of Tyler & Smith. Member Tioughnioga Club of Cortland and Vesta Lodge of I. O. O. F., No. 255.

TYLER, MASON WHITING—Lawyer, 146 Broadway, New York City; residence Plainfield, N. J. Born in Amherst, Mass., June 17, 1840. (Son of William Seymour and Amelia Ogden [Whiting] Tyler.) Educated at Amherst Academy, Williston Seminary, Amherst College ('62) and at Columbia College Law School. (Married.) Served with the 37th Massachusetts Volunteers during Civil War and advanced to the rank of colonel. Practicing law in New York City since 1866. Member of the firms of Tremain & Tyler (in liquidation) and Tyler & Durand. Formerly president of the Plainfield Public Library and of the Organized Aid Association of Plainfield. Director Rosendale-Reddaway Belting and Hose Co. Member Lawyers' and Psi Upsilon Clubs, New Jersey Historical Society, Military Order of the Loyal Legion, Sons of the Revolution, Society of Colonial Wars and Society of Mayflower Descendants.

TYLER, MOSES COIT—Professor and Author, Cornell University, Ithaca. Born in Griswold, Conn., Aug. 2, 1835. Educated at Yale (A.B., '57, and A.M., '63) and at Andover Theological Seminary. Degree of LL.D. from Wooster University in 1875 and LL.D. from Columbia in 1888. (Married Jeannette Hull Gilbert of New Haven, Conn., 1859.) Pastor Congregational Church, Poughkeepsie, N. Y., 1860-2; professor of the English language and literature at the University of Michigan, 1867-81; became an Episcopalian and was ordained deacon in 1881 and priest in 1883. Professor of American history at Cornell University since 1881. Author of "History of American Literature During the Colonial Time," "The Literary History of the American Revolution," "Life of Patrick Henry," "Three Men of Letters," "Manual of English Literature" and "Glimpses of England." Member Authors' Club of New York City, Massachusetts Historical, Rhode Island Historical and Virginia Historical Societies, American Historical Association, National Institute of Arts and Letters and Alpha Delta Phi Fraternity.

TYLER, STANLEY B.—Insurance, 32 Nassau street, New York City; residence Belle Haven, Greenwich, Conn. Born in Petersburg, Va. (Married.) Member Players' Club.

TYNAN, J. BRANDON—Actor, 16 Gramercy Park, New York City; residence Audubon Park. Born in Kingstown, Ireland, April 11, 1877. Educated in Dublin, London and New York City. (Single.) Was office boy for the firm of Sprague & Rhodes; clerk in the law office of Havens & Beebe. Has been connected with Daniel Frohman's Lyceum Stock Co.; David Belasco's Comedy Co. as leading juvenile and in other roles. Member Sterling Republican and Players' Clubs.

TYNBERG, M. A.—Fire Insurance, 137 Broadway, New York City; residence 805 Madison avenue. Born in New York City, Nov. 17, 1836. (Married.)

TYNDALE, HECTOR HILGARD—Lawyer, 45 Wall street, New York City; residence 80 Washington square, East. Educated at Cornell. Member Cornell University and Reform Clubs, Cornell University Alumni Association and Association of the Bar of the City of New York.

TYNG, SEWELL TAPPAN—Lawyer, 309 Broadway, New York City; residence 41 East 44th street. Born in New York City, Aug. 30, 1868. Educated at Williams College ('88) and at Columbia Law School. (Married.) Assistant to general counsel Mutual Reserve Fund Life Association. Member University and Arkwright Clubs and Williams College Alumni Association.

TYNG, STEPHEN H., JR.—Real Estate, 25 Pine street, and 41 Union square, West, New York City; residence 5 East 56th street. Educated at Williams College ('86). Senior member of the firm of Stephen H. Tyng, Jr., & Co. Member Union League, Players', Seawanhaka-Corinthian Yacht, University, University Athletic, Alpha Delta Phi and Atlantic Yacht Clubs, Williams College Alumni Association and Metropolitan Museum of Art.

TYRRELL, HENRY—Editor, 143 Fifth avenue, New York City. Born Feb. 3, 1865. Educated at Cornell. Managing editor of "Frank Leslie's Popular Monthly." Member Authors' Society.

TYSON, GEORGE G.—Newsdealer, Fifth Avenue Hotel, New York City; residence 33 East 72d street. Director American News Co. and Tyson Co. Member New York Athletic, Larchmont Yacht, Atlantic Yacht, Riverside (Conn.) Yacht and New York Yacht Clubs.

TYSON, HENRY H.—Oculist, 47 West 51st street, New York City. Born in New York City, July 27, 1865. Educated at the University of New York. Degree of M.D. (Married.) Surgeon New York Ophthalmic and Aural Institute; clinical assistant Eye Department Vanderbilt Clinic; instructor College of Physicians and Surgeons; fleet surgeon Riverside Yacht Club. Formerly assistant surgeon Chambers Street Hospital (outdoor department); visiting physician St. Mark's Hospital. Member New York Athletic and Riverside Yacht Clubs, New York County Medical Society, Society of Medical Jurisprudence and Academy of Medicine.

U

UCHIDA, SADAZUCHE—Consul of Japan, 99 Nassau street, New York City; residence 1 West 102d street. Born in Kokura, Buzen, Japan, Jan. 17, 1865. (Married.) Vice-consul of Japan at Shanghai, China, 1890-3; consul of Japan at Seoul, Korea, 1893-6. Member Lawyers' and Colonial Clubs.

UHL, EDWARD—Banker, Tryon row, New York City; residence Hotel Savoy. Vice-president and director Union Square Bank; director New Yorker Staats Zeitung Corporation, International Insurance Co., Hotel Savoy Co., Germania Fire Insurance Co. and German-American Real Estate Title Guarantee Co.; trustee New York Security and Trust Co. Member Manhattan and Reform Clubs, Liederkranz, American Geographical Society, Metropolitan Museum of Art and American Museum of Natural History.

UHLE, JOHN B.—Lawyer, 206 Broadway, New York City; residence 350 West 119th street. Born in Philadelphia, Pa., Dec. 20, 1850. Educated in Philadelphia and at Yale ('71). (Married.) Member Yale Club, Law Institute and Association of the Bar of the City of New York.

UHLER, J. CLEMENT—Investments, 20 Broad street, New York City; residence 130 West 70th street. Born in Lebanon, Pa., Aug. 30, 1843. Educated at Pennsylvania College, Gettysburg, Pa. (Widower.) Vice-president Wyoming and Missouri River R. R. Co. Formerly cashier London and San Francisco Bank (Ltd.) of San Francisco, manager New York Clearing House and Mutual Trust Co. of New York City, and secretary Spreckels Sugar Refining Co. of Philadelphia. Member Art Club of Philadelphia, San Francisco Yacht and Bohemian Clubs of San Francisco, Cal., and Lafayette Post, G. A. R.

ULLMAN, JOSEPH—Lawyer, 203 Broadway, New York City; residence 1190 Madison avenue. Born in New York City. Educated at the College of the City of New York and at Columbia Law School. (Single.) Member of the firm of Wolf, Kohn & Ullman. Treasurer and director Mount Zion Cemetery; secretary and director Park Hill Co. Member Republican Club, Phi Beta Kappa Alumni Association and Association of the Bar of the City of New York.

ULMAN, JOSEPH S.—Banker, 53 Exchange place, New York City; residence 66 West 39th street. Member of the firm of Ulman Bros., and of the New York Stock Exchange. Member Reform, Wool, Opera, Manhattan and Harlem Clubs.

ULMAN, JULIEN STEVENS—Owner of Tanneries, 19 Spruce, and 193 William street, New York City; residence 22 East 33d street. Born in New York City, Oct. 1, 1865. Educated at Charlier's Institute. (Single.) Served on the sheriff's jury, United States Grand Jury and on the Committee of the Dewey Arch. Member Reform, Lawyers', Richmond County Hunt, Staten Island Polo, Staten Island Cricket and Baseball, Manhattan, New York Yacht, Atlantic Yacht, Arts and Westchester Hunt Clubs.

ULMAN, LUDWIG—1732 Broadway, New York City. Member Reform, Knickerbocker Athletic, National Arts and Thomasville Shooting Clubs, Neasden Golf and St. Stephen's Clubs of London, England, American Geographical Society and Metropolitan Museum of Art.

ULSHEFFER, WILLIAM G.—Lawyer, 34 Pine street, New York City; residence 264 Fifth avenue. Educated at Columbia ('56). Member Metropolitan, University, Seawanhaka-Corinthian Yacht and Union Clubs and Columbia University Alumni and Down Town Associations.

UNDERHILL, ANDREW M.—Agent, 35 Broadway, New York City; residence New Rochelle. Senior member of the firm of A. M. Underhill & Co. Member Republican and Harlem Clubs, Military Order of the Loyal Legion and Metropolitan Museum of Art.

UNDERHILL, EDGAR—Hardware Merchant, 94 Chambers street, New York City; residence 170 West 76th street. Member of the firm of Underhill, Church & Co. Member Hardware Club, New York Historical Society, Society of Colonial Wars, Society of the War of 1812, Sons of the Revolution and Metropolitan Museum of Art.

UNDERHILL, FRANCIS M.—Glassware Importer, 46 Barclay street, New York City; residence 76 West 90th street. Member of the firm of Whitall, Tatum & Co. Member New Athletic and Hardware Clubs, American Geographical and New York Historical Societies and Metropolitan Museum of Art.

UNDERHILL, FRANCIS T.—Real Estate, 9 Pine street, New York City; residence 470 Lexington avenue. Member Union, Seawanhaka-Corinthian Yacht, New York Yacht and Coaching Clubs, Society of Colonial Wars, Colonial Order and Sons of the Revolution.

UNDERHILL, FREDERIC E.—Hardware Merchant, 94 Chambers street, New York City; residence 71 East 55th street. Born in New York City. Educated at Columbia. (Married.) Member of the firm of Underhill, Clinch & Co. Member Hardware and Delta Kappa Epsilon Clubs, Sons of the Revolution, Society of Colonial Wars, Society of the War of 1812 and Columbia University Alumni Association.

UNDERHILL, JOHN QUINCY—Congressman, House of Representatives, Washington, D. C., and Fire Insurance, 66 Wall street, New York City; residence New Rochelle. Born in New Rochelle, Feb. 19, 1848. Educated at the College of the City of New York. (Married.) Representing the Sixteenth New York District in the Fifty-sixth Congress. Vice-president and treasurer Westchester Fire Insurance Co. Member Manhattan, New York Athletic, Larchmont Yacht and New Rochelle Yacht Clubs.

UNDERHILL, W. WILSON—Fire Insurance, 46 Pine street, New York City; residence Montclair, N. J. Born in New York City, Sept. 13, 1839. Educated at Burlington (N. J.) College and at the University of Pennsylvania. (Married.) President and director United States Fire Insurance Co.; secretary and treasurer New York Fire Insurance Exchange. Member Chamber of Commerce.

UNDERWOOD, FRANK L.—Banker, 31 Nassau street, New York City; residence 145 West 58th street. Born in Vermont. (Married.) President and director British Columbia Copper Co. (Ltd.) and American Development Co.; director Tomboy Gold Mines Co. Member Reform Club and New England Society.

UNDERWOOD, LUCIEN MARCUS—Professor, 116th street and Morningside Heights, New York City. Born in New Woodstock, N. Y., Oct. 26, 1853. Educated at Syracuse University (A.B., '77, and Ph.D.). (Married) Marie Antoinette Spurr of Oakland, Cal., 1881.) Taught in Syracuse University, 1883-91; in De Pauw University, 1891-5; in Alabama Polytechnic Institute, 1895-6. Professor of botany at Columbia University in the City of New York since 1896.

UNGER, HENRY W.—Lawyer, Criminal Court Building, New York City; residence 241 East 39th street. Born in New York City, July 3, 1863. Educated in city public schools and at the College of the City of New York. Studied law and was admitted to the Bar in 1884. (Married.) Connected with the district attorney's office since 1881, and has been assistant in charge of the Indictment Bureau since 1898.

UNTERMYER, ISAAC—Lawyer, 30 Broad street, New York City; residence 13 East 92d street. Member of the firm of Guggenheimer, Untermeyer & Marshall. Director George F. Blake Mfg Co. Member Lotos Club, American Fine Arts Society and Metropolitan Museum of Art.

UNTERMYER, SAMUEL—Lawyer, 30 Broad street, New York City; residence 675 Fifth avenue. Born in Lynchburg, Va., March 2, 1858. (Son of Isadore and Therese Untermeyer.) Educated in New York public schools, at the College of the City of New York and at Columbia College Law School. Practicing in New York City since his admission to the Bar in 1879, and is now a member of the firm of Guggenheimer, Untermeyer & Marshall. Has been instrumental in the organization of many trade combinations throughout the United States, and is counsel to a number of such corporations. Director New England Brewing Co. and United States Brewing Co. Member Manhattan, Press and Lotos Clubs, American Fine Arts Society and Metropolitan Museum of Art.

UPHAM, A. L.—Banker, Watertown. Born in Watertown, April 25, 1849. Educated in Easthampton, Mass. (Married.) Cashier National Union Bank; trustee Jefferson County Savings Bank; also connected with the Brownville (N. Y.) Paper Co. Was treasurer of Jefferson County for two years. Member Union Club.

UPHAM, J. BAXTER—Retired Physician, 1748 Broadway, New York City. Born in Claremont, N. H., May 13, 1820. Educated at Dartmouth College and at Harvard Medical School (M.D.). (Married.) Formerly president Handel and Haydn Society of Boston, and delegate to International Medical Congress. Member American Geographical and Massachusetts Medical Societies, Dartmouth Alumni, American Medical and Century Associations, American Association of Sciences and American Academy of Arts and Sciences.

UPJOHN, RICHARD MITCHELL—Architect, 296 Clinton street, Brooklyn. Born in England, March 7, 1828. (Son of Richard Upjohn.) Educated in New York City. Engaged in business with his father until the latter's death in 1878, since when he has practiced alone. Designed the Capitol of Connecticut at Hartford, the Hobart College Library at Geneva, N. Y.; also numerous churches, etc. Member Architectural League, American Institute of Architects and Metropolitan Museum of Art.

UPSON, ANSON JUDD—Educator, Glens Falls. Born in Philadelphia, Pa., Nov. 7, 1823. Educated at Hamilton College (A.B., '43, A.M., '46, and D.D., '70). Received degree of LL.D. from Union College in 1889 and L.H.D. from Colgate University in 1895. Member of the faculty of Hamilton College, 1845-70; tutor, 1845-9, professor of rhetoric and moral philosophy, 1849-53, and professor of rhetoric, 1853-70. Ordained Presbyterian clergyman in 1868; pastor of Second Presbyterian Church of Albany, 1870-80; professor of rhetoric at Auburn Theological Seminary, 1880-7, and since then professor emeritus. Regent, since 1874, and Chancellor, since 1892, of the University of the State of New York.

UPSON, WILLIAM FORD—Lawyer, 35 Wall street, New York City; residence Glen Ridge, N. J. Born in Akron, Ohio, March 10, 1857. Educated at Western Reserve College and at the Universities of Berlin and Göttingen, Germany. (Married Grace Hazlett, 1885.) Member of the firm of Scott & Upson. President of the Board of Health and of the Township Committee of Bloomfield, N. J., 1893-4; member of the Board of Education of Glen Ridge, 1894-1900. Member Ohio Society, Law Institute and Association of the Bar of the City of New York.

UPTON, FRANK S.—Banker, Rochester; residence 151 Saratoga avenue. Born in Keene, N. H., Jan. 15, 1851. Educated in Rochester. (Married.) Assistant to the president of the Toronto, Hamilton and Buffalo Ry. Co. First vice-president Central Bank of Rochester; director Mechanics' Savings Bank, Title and Guarantee Co., United States Headlight Co., Rochester and Genesee Valley R. R. Co. and Rochester and Irondequoit R. R. Co. Member Transportation Club of New York City, and Genesee Valley and Rochester Whist Clubs.

USHER, GEORGE H.—Superintendent, 253 Broadway, New York City; residence 13 West 103d street. Born in Fort Edward, N. Y., Feb. 15, 1858. Educated in common schools. (Single.) Superintendent Postal Telegraph Cable Co.; director Electric Building, Loan and Savings Association. Member and secretary Marine and Field Club.

VAIL, CHARLES D.—Librarian and Registrar, Geneva. Born in Goshen, N. Y., Feb. 1, 1837. Educated at Hobart College. (Widower.) Librarian, registrar and instructor in elocution at Hobart College. Horace White Professor of English language, literature, rhetoric and elocution Hobart College, 1872-88. Member Kanadasaga Club, Alpha Delta Phi Club of New York City, and American Library and Hobart College Alumni Associations.

VAIL, CHARLES H.—Universalist Clergyman, 28 Lafayette place, New York City. Born in Tully, N. Y., April 28, 1866. Educated in public schools and at St. Lawrence University (A.B., '92, and B.D., '93). (Married Nina Bedell of Geneva, N. Y., 1892.) Rector of the First Universalist Church of Jersey City, N. J., since 1894. Associated with the Commonwealth Publishing Co.

VAIL, GEORGE F.—Banker, 3 East 14th street, New York City; residence 247 West 51st street. Born in New York City, Aug. 8, 1840. (Married.) President and director Fourteenth Street Bank. Formerly cashier Garfield National Bank. Member Aldine Association (treasurer) and Lafayette Post, G. A. R.

VAIL, HENRY HOBART—Editor and Publisher, University Building, New York City; residence 322 West 75th street. Born in Pomfret, Vt., May 27, 1839. Educated at Middlebury College ('60). Degree of LL.D. (Widower.) Editor-in-chief, and chairman of the board of the American Book Co. Member University, Grolier, Colonial, Twilight, Jekyl Island and Riding Clubs, New England and Ohio Societies, Society of Colonial Wars and Aldine Association.

VAIL, LEWIS H.—Insurance, Poughkeepsie; residence 23 Forbes street. Born in Poughkeepsie, Jan. 25, 1846. Educated at the Seminary of Claverack, Columbia Co., N. Y., and Eastman's Business College, Poughkeepsie. (Married.) President Dutchess County Mutual Insurance Co.; vice-president Farmers' and Manufacturers' National Bank. Was member of Republican State Committee for four years. Member Dutchess Club and F. & A. M.

VAIL, THEODORE F.—Importer of Woolens, 329 Broadway, New York City; residence 43 East 78th street. Member of the firm of Sullivan, Vail & Co. Director Continental Insurance Co. Member Metropolitan, New York Athletic and Manhattan Clubs and Liederkrantz.

VALENTINE, ABRAHAM B.—Towing and Transportation, 52d street and 12th avenue, New York City; residence 10 East 41st street. General agent Cornell Steamboat Co. Member Engineers' Club, New York Historical and St. Nicholas Societies, Society of Colonial Wars and Sons of the Revolution.

VALENTINE, FERDINAND C.—Physician, 31 West 61st street, New York City. Born in Leer, Hanover, Germany, March 22, 1851. Educated in United States, Germany and France. (Married.) Professor of genito-urinary diseases, New York School of Clinical Medicine; genito-urinary consultant, United Hebrew Charities and Metropolitan Hospital. Formerly surgeon-general Army of Honduras (resigned, 1879). Member American Geographical, New York County Medical, Chemung County Medical (honorary), and German Medical Societies, New York Academy of Medicine (Fellow), and American Medical and New York County Medical Associations.

VALENTINE, HENRY C.—Varnish Manufacturer, 57 Broadway, New York City; residence 13 East 36th street. President and director Valentine & Co.; director John Stephenson Co. Member Manhattan, Union League, Players' and Lawyers' Clubs and New England Society.

VALENTINE, SAMUEL H.—Lawyer, 145 Nassau street, New York City; residence 44 East 57th street. Born in Poughkeepsie, N. Y., May 4, 1846. Son of Dr. Samuel M. and Elizabeth H. Valentine. Educated at Amherst College ('66) and Columbia Law School ('68). (Married Lillie W. Porter of Hartford, Conn.) Not engaged in active practice since 1885. Member Metropolitan and Automobile Clubs, Sons of the Revolution and Society of Colonial Wars.

VALK, FRANCIS—Physician, 164 East 61st street, New York City. Born in Flushing, L. I., Oct. 28, 1845. Educated at Washington College. (Married.) Professor diseases of the eye New York Post Graduate School and Hospital. Professionally connected with the Manhattan Eye and Ear and Randall's Island Hospitals and others. Member New York Athletic Club, County Medical and State Medical Societies, Society of Medical Jurisprudence, Medical Union, Academy of Medicine and Lafayette Post, G. A. R.

VAN ALLEN, WILLIAM HARMAN—Protestant Episcopal Clergyman, Grace Church Rectory, Elmira. Born in New York City, Feb. 16, 1870. (Eighth in descent from Laurens van Haelen, one of the founders of Albany; fourth from Petrus van Allen, lieutenant in the Kinderhook regiment during the Revolution.) Educated at home, Middlebury College and Syracuse University (M.A., '90). (Single.) Instructor at Rutgers College, 1890-1; head master St. John's School, New York City, 1891-4; ordained deacon Syracuse Cathedral, June 17, 1894; secretary to Bishop of Central New York and rector of Epiphany Church, Trumansburg, N. Y., 1895-7; ordained priest, Syracuse, Oct. 24, 1896; rector of Grace Church, Elmira, since April, 1897. Author of "Our Fathers Have Told Us," "A Study of St. John the Divine," "The Religion of Browning" and many other monographs on economic, literary and theological subjects, as well as of many poems. Member Delta Kappa Epsilon Club and Holland Society of New York City, Phi Beta Kappa Society, New York State Catholic Club (secretary), Browning Club of Elmira (president), Elmira Law and Order League (president), Elmira Anti-Saloon League (vice-president), Ivy Lodge No. 397, F. & A. M. (chaplain), Companion of the Order of the White Rose of England, of the Council of the Confraternity of the Blessed Sacrament and Council of the Clerical Union for the Maintenance and Defense of Catholic Principles, and an affiliated alumnus of Hobart College.

VANALSTINE, S. D.—Bookkeeper, Palmyra; residence Hanson street. Born in Palmyra, April 25, 1872. Educated at Cherry Creek High and Fredonia State Normal Schools. (Single.) Has held position of school teacher. Now bookkeeper First National Bank of Palmyra, and village treasurer.

VANALSTYNE, THOMAS JEFFERSON—Mayor, Douw Building, Albany; residence 289 State street. Born in Richmondville, Schoharie Co., N. Y., July 25, 1827. Educated at Hamilton College (A.B. and A.M.). Studied law, was admitted to the Bar and began practice in Albany. Judge of Albany County, 1871-83; Congressman, 1883-5. Now Mayor of Albany.

VAN ALSTYNE, WILLIAM CHARLES—Manufacturer, Albany; residence 58 Clinton avenue. Secretary and manager Standard Emery Wheel Co. Member Camera Club, Historical Society, F. & A. M. and Independent Order of Odd Fellows.

VAN AMRINGE, GUY—Lawyer, 141 Broadway, New York City; residence 1507 Broadway. Born in New York City. Educated at Columbia College and Columbia Law School. (Single.) Member of the firm of Livingston & Van Amringe. Member Metropolitan and Delta Phi Clubs, St. Nicholas Society, Society of Colonial Wars, Columbia College Alumni Association, Company K, 7th Regiment, N. G. N. Y., and Association of the Bar of the City of New York.

VAN AMRINGE, JOHN HOWARD—Professor, 116th street and Morningside Heights, New York City; residence 204 West 44th street. Degrees of Ph.D., L.H.D. and LL.D. Professor of mathematics at Columbia University in the City of New York. Member Metropolitan, Church, University Glee and City Clubs, Dunlap Society, Century Association and Scientific Alliance.

VAN ANTWERP, W. C.—Stock Broker, 52 Broadway, New York City; residence Tenafly, N. J. Member of the firm of Seligman & Van Antwerp, members of the New York Stock Exchange. Member American Geographical and New York Historical Societies.

VAN BENTHUYSEN, CHARLES FREDERICK—Printer, 407 Broadway, Albany; residence 17 Lafayette street. Born in Albany. Educated at Albany Academy. (Single.) Senior member of the firm of Charles Van Benthuyesen & Sons. Member Fort Orange and Albany Country Clubs, and Army and Navy Club of New York City.

VAN BOSKERCK, ROBERT W.—Artist, 58 West 57th street, New York City. Member Union, Union League, Fencers', Country and Delta Kappa Epsilon Clubs and Holland Society.

VAN BRUNT, ARTHUR HOFFMAN—Lawyer, 54 Wall street, New York City; residence 8 West 35th street. Born in New York City, June 23, 1865. Educated in New York City. (Single.) Vice-president Lawyers' Advertising Co.; treasurer Holland Society. Member University Athletic, New York Athletic and Calumet Clubs, Ardsley Casino of Ardsley-on-Hudson, Holland Society, Columbia University Alumni Association and Association of the Bar of the City of New York.

VAN BRUNT, CHARLES—Shore Road and 85th street, Brooklyn. Born in Bay Ridge, N. Y., Dec. 17, 1868. Educated at Columbia Law School. Member Crescent Athletic and Parkway Driving Clubs and Holland Society.

VAN BRUNT, CHARLES H.—Supreme Court Justice, Madison square, East, New York City; residence 10 East 46th street. Born in Bay Ridge, N. Y., 1836. Educated at New York University. Studied law and was admitted to the Bar in 1860. (Married.) Judge of the Court of Common Pleas, 1869-83; Supreme Court Justice since 1883; now presiding Justice of the Appellate Division; present term expires Dec. 31, 1911. Member New York Yacht and Manhattan Clubs, St. Nicholas Society, Aldine Association, American Museum of Natural History, Metropolitan Museum of Art and Liederkrantz.

VAN BRUNT, CORNELIUS—Retired, 319 East 57th street, New York City. Born in New York City, Oct. 5, 1827. (Son of Cornelius Van Brunt and Sarah Van Norden; descended from Rutgers Joesten Van Brunt, who emigrated from Holland in 1643 and settled in New Utrecht, L. I.) (Married, Oct. 4, 1883, Adelaide Stafford Nicholson, daughter of the Rev. E. G. Nicholson, D.D., of the Protestant Episcopal Church.) Is interested in scientific work. Was president of the Poughkeepsie Society of Natural Science for three years and president of the New York Microscopical Society for three years; formerly officer and member of the council of the New York Academy of Sciences, now on the finance committee and Fellow of same. Has given illustrated lectures on botanical subjects before the Brooklyn Institute, under the auspices of Columbia University, at the American Museum, at the Botanical Gardens and elsewhere in New York City; also at Montreal, Albany, Poughkeepsie and other places. His lectures on flowers have been illustrated by lantern slides, which were made by himself from the original flowers, and colored by his wife. They have been widely and favorably reviewed in the newspapers of the different localities, because of their artistic beauty and truthful coloring. He has with his wife also furnished illustrations for the State Board of Public Instruction, Prof. Bickmore in charge, at the American Museum of Natural History. Member Union League, Torrey Botanical and Camera Clubs, New York Botanical Gardens, New York Microscopical and Holland Societies, Scientific Alliance and American Museum of Natural History.

VAN BRUNT, CORNELIUS BERGEN—Lawyer, and Real Estate, Third avenue and 79th street, Brooklyn; residence First avenue and 82d street, Bay Ridge. Member Crescent Athletic, Ridge and Polytechnic Clubs, Nassau Country Club and Holland Society.

VAN BUREN, AYMAR—Farmer, New Windsor Delivery, Newburgh, Orange Co.; residence New Windsor. Born in New York City, 1836. Educated in New York City, and New Windsor. (Married.) Has been school trustee for past twenty-five years and road master of New Windsor for the past twenty years. Member Reform Club of New York City.

VAN BUREN, MARTIN—Banker, Amsterdam; residence 43 Church street. Born in Glen, N. Y., June 17, 1850. Educated in Auriesville, N. Y., Fultonville, N. Y., and Albany, N. Y. (Widower.) Vice-president Holland Society of Montgomery County; director and cashier Amsterdam City National Bank. Member Amsterdam Board of Trade, and Holland Society of New York City.

VAN BUREN, ROBERT—Engineer, Municipal Building, Brooklyn. Born in New York City, March 25, 1843. Educated at Rensselaer Polytechnic Institute. (Married.) Engineer-in-chief of the Department of Water Supply for the Borough of Brooklyn of the City of New York, with which department he has been connected since 1865. Member Delta Phi Club of New York City, and American Society of Civil Engineers.

VAN BUSKIRK, EDGAR B.—Insurance, 346 Broadway, New York City; residence 338 Monroe street, Brooklyn. Born in New York City, Sept. 18, 1852. Educated in public schools, at Cooper Institute and Union College. (Married.) Superintendent at the home office of the New York Life Insurance Co. Member Union College Alumni Association.

VANCE, LEE JAMES—Publisher, 31 Broad street, New York City; residence Yonkers. Educated at Cornell. Member Press and Shakespeare Clubs and Cornell University Alumni Association.

VAN CLEEF, HENRY HOWELL—Lawyer, Poughkeepsie. Born in Poughkeepsie, June 8, 1871. Educated at Cornell ('93). (Single.) Member of the firm of J. S. & H. H. Van Cleef. Member Cornell University Club and Holland Society of New York City, and Kappa Alpha Fraternity.

VAN CLEEF, MYNDERSE—Lawyer, Ithaca. Educated at Cornell (B.S.). Director Tompkins County National Bank and Ithaca Trust Co.; trustee Cornell University, term expiring in 1902. Member Kappa Alpha Fraternity.

VAN CORTLANDT, R. B.—Banker, 26 Nassau street, New York City; residence 319 Fifth avenue. Member of the firm of Kean, Van Cortlandt & Co., and of the New York Stock Exchange. Member Metropolitan, City, Lambs' and Knickerbocker Clubs, St. Nicholas Society, Society of Colonial Wars and Columbia University Alumni and Down Town Associations.

VAN COTT, CORNELIUS—Postmaster, General Post Office, New York City; residence Brevoort House. Born in New York City, Feb. 12, 1838. Educated in public schools. (Widower.) President of the New York City Board of Fire Commissioners, 1873-7, and 1881-5; State senator, 1888-9; Postmaster of New York City, 1889-93 and again since 1897. President Great Eastern Casualty and Indemnity Co.; secretary and treasurer United Ice Lines of New Jersey. Member Knickerbocker Athletic (president), Lincoln and Republican Clubs.

VAN COTT, RICHARD—Superintendent, 21 Post Office Building, and Boarding Stable, 46 West Eighth street, New York City; residence 11 Fifth avenue. Born in New York City, 1863. (Son of Cornelius Van Cott.) Educated in public schools. Member of the firm of G. & R. Van Cott. Holds a confidential position in the New York City Post Office under his father, who is Postmaster. Represented the Fifth District in the Assembly for one term. Nominated by the Republican party for member of Congress from the Eighth District, 1900.

VANDEN HOUTEN, WILLIAM F.—Printer, 249 Pearl street, New York City; residence 409 Park place, Brooklyn. Born in Holland, July 31, 1854. Educated in Brooklyn public schools. (Married.) President and director North America and Brazil Mail S. S. Co.; trustee Greater New York Savings Bank. Member Typothetae of the City of New York.

VANDERBILT, AARON—Capitalist, 120 Liberty street, New York City; residence Montclair, N. J. Born on Staten Island, N. Y., Jan. 29, 1844. Educated in private and public schools. (Married.) Ensign United States Navy, on staff of Admiral Porter during Civil War, and senior officer in command naval forces of New York State during Spanish-American War. Treasurer American Shipping League; chief of ordnance, New York Naval Reserve; chairman of committee on ocean transportation Board of Trade. Member of the Committee on American Mercantile Marine selected by chairman Commerce Committee of United States Senate. Formerly director and general superintendent New York and Cuba Mail Steamship Co. Now vice-president Wheeler Condenser and Engineering Co. and Cuban and Pan-American Express Co.; director International Express Co. Member Army and Navy Club of Washington, Society of the Army of the Potomac, Society of Naval Architects and Marine Engineers, American Society of Mechanical Engineers, Society of the Naval Institute, Annapolis, Md., George Washington Post, G. A. R., and Military Order of the Loyal Legion.

VANDERBILT, ALFRED GWYNNE—Capitalist, Grand Central Station, New York City; residence 1 West 57th street. Born Oct. 20, 1877. (Son of Cornelius and Alice [Gwynne] Vanderbilt, and grandson of William Henry Vanderbilt.) Educated by private tutors and at Yale ('99). (Single.) Connected with the New York Central and Hudson River R. R. Co. and allied lines.

VANDERBILT, CORNELIUS—Railroads, Grand Central Station, New York City; residence 608 Fifth avenue, and Newport, R. I. Born in New York City, Sept. 5, 1873. (Son of Cornelius and Alice [Gwynne] Vanderbilt.) Educated at St. Paul's School, and Yale ('95). (Married Grace Wilson, 1896.) Connected with the New York Central and Hudson River R. R. Co. and its allied lines. Member New York Yacht, Knickerbocker, Metropolitan, Seawanhaka'-Corinthian Yacht, Yale and Engineers' Clubs, American Society of Mechanical Engineers and Metropolitan Museum of Art.

VANDERBILT, FREDERICK W.—Railroads, Grand Central Station, New York City; residence 459 Fifth avenue. (Son of William Henry Vanderbilt and grandson of Cornelius Vanderbilt.) Educated at Yale ('76). (Married Mrs. Alfred Torrance, 1880.) Member of the board of managers Delaware, Lackawanna and Western R. R. Co.; director American Horse Exchange (Ltd.), American Surety Co., Buffalo, Erie Basin R. R. Co., Carthage and Adirondack Ry. Co., Carthage, Watertown and Sackett's Harbor R. R. Co., Chicago and Northwestern R. R. Co., Cleveland, Cincinnati, Chicago and St. Louis R. R. Co., Dunkirk, Allegheny and Pittsburgh R. R. Co., Gouverneur and Oswegatchie R. R. Co., Guaranty Trust Co., Hudson River Bridge Co., Lake Shore and Michigan Southern R. R. Co., Lincoln National Bank, Lincoln Safe Deposit Co., Michigan Central R. R. Co., Mohawk and Malone R. R. Co., New Jersey Junction R. R. Co., New Jersey Shore Line R. R. Co., New York and Harlem R. R. Co., New York and Putnam R. R. Co., New York Central and Hudson River R. R. Co., New York Central and Niagara River R. R. Co., New York, Chicago and St. Louis R. R. Co., Niagara Falls Branch R. R. Co., Pittsburgh and Lake Erie R. R. Co., Spuyten Duyvil and Port Morris R. R. Co., Terminal Railway of Buffalo, Toledo and Ohio North Ry. Co., West Shore and Ontario Terminal Co. and West Shore R. R. Co. Member Metropolitan, University, Knickerbocker, Tuxedo, St. Anthony, Racquet and Tennis, Yale, Larchmont Yacht, Hudson River Ice Yacht and South Side Sportsmen's Clubs and Metropolitan Museum of Art.

VANDERBILT, GEORGE W.—Capitalist, 640 Fifth avenue, New York City, and "Biltmore," Asheville, N. C. Born, 1864. (Son of William Henry Vanderbilt and grandson of Cornelius Vanderbilt.) (Married Edith Stuyvesant Dresser, 1898.) Member Metropolitan, City, Lawyers', Racquet and Tennis, New York

Athletic, New York Yacht, Grolier, Players' and Mendelssohn Glee Clubs, American Fine Arts and American Geographical Societies, Architectural League, Sons of the American Revolution, Century Association and American Museum of Natural History.

VANDERBILT, WILLIAM K.—Railroads, Grand Central Station, New York City; residence 660 Fifth avenue. Born, 1849. (Son of William Henry Vanderbilt and grandson of Cornelius Vanderbilt.) President and director American Horse Exchange (Ltd.); director American Safe Deposit Co., Beech Creek R. R. Co., Buffalo, Erie Basin R. R. Co., Canada Southern Bridge Co., Carthage and Adirondack Ry. Co., Carthage, Watertown and Sackett's Harbor R. R. Co., Chicago and Northwestern R. R. Co., Chicago, St. Paul, Minneapolis and Omaha Ry. Co., Cleveland, Cincinnati, Chicago and St. Louis R. R. Co., Detroit and Bay City R. R. Co., Dunkirk, Allegheny Valley and Pittsburgh R. R. Co., Gouverneur and Oswegatchie R. R. Co., Hudson River Bridge Co., Joliet and Northern Indiana R. R. Co., Lake Shore and Michigan Southern R. R. Co., Leamington and St. Clair R. R. Co., Merchants' Despatch Transportation Co., Michigan Central R. R. Co., Michigan Midland and Canada R. R. Co., Mohawk and Malone R. R. Co., Morris Run Coal Mining Co., New Jersey Junction R. R. Co., New Jersey Shore Line R. R. Co., New York and Harlem R. R. Co., New York and Putnam R. R. Co., New York Central and Hudson River R. R. Co., New York Central Niagara River R. R. Co., New York, Chicago and St. Louis R. R. Co., New York Mutual Gas Light Co., Niagara Falls Branch R. R. Co., Niagara Grand Island Bridge Co., Niagara River Bridge Co., Pine Creek Ry. Co., Pittsburgh and Lake Erie R. R. Co., Sarnia, Chatham and Erie Ry. Co., Spuyten Duyvil and Port Morris R. R. Co., Terminal Railway of Buffalo, Toledo and Ohio Northern Ry. Co., Toledo, Canada Southern and Detroit Ry. Co., Toronto, Hamilton and Buffalo Ry. Co., West Shore R. R. Co., Canada Southern Ry. Co., Syracuse, Geneva and Corning Ry. Co., Tivoli Hollow R. R. Co., Wallkill Valley R. R. Co., and Western Transit Co. Member Metropolitan, Union, Knickerbocker, Players', Racquet and Tennis, Coaching, Turf and Field, Transportation, Larchmont Yacht, South Side Sportsmen's, Meadow Brook Hunt and New York Yacht Clubs, Country Club of Westchester, St. Nicholas, American Fine Arts and American Geographical Societies and Metropolitan Museum of Art.

VANDERHOEF, FRANK F.—Hatter, 22 Washington place, New York City; residence 657 Fifth avenue. Born in New York City, May 28, 1867. (Single.) Member of the firm of Vanderhoef & Co. Member New York Athletic, Apawamis and Fairfield County (Conn.) Golf Clubs, Ardsley Casino of Ardsley-on-Hudson, and Holland Society.

VANDERHOEF, GEORGE W.—Coffee Importer, 107 Front street, New York City; residence 29 West 48th street. Member Down Town Association.

VANDERHOEF, WYCKOFF—Fire Insurance, 211 Montague street, Brooklyn; residence 155 Henry street. Born in Brooklyn, May, 1850. Educated in Brooklyn. (Married.) Director and treasurer Coney Island and Brooklyn R. R. Co. Member Reform Club of New York City, Excelsior Club of Brooklyn, and 7th Regiment Veteran Association.

VANDERPOEL, AUGUSTUS H.—Lawyer, 2 Wall street, New York City; residence Orange, N. J. Born in New York City Dec. 13, 1859. Educated at Williams College. (Married.) Member of the firm of Goodwin, Thompson & Vanderpoel. Treasurer and director Corporation Trust Co. of New Jersey and Corporation Trust Co. of New York; director Commercial Trust Co., Windsor Co., Electric Contract Co., Calixto Lopez Co., Emonepac Co. and New York News Bureau. Member Lawyers' and Alpha Delta Phi Clubs, Holland Society, New England Society of Orange, and Association of the Bar of the City of New York.

VANDER POEL, HERMAN W.—Lawyer, 29 Broadway, New York City; residence 36 West 39th street. Educated at Rutgers College ('77). Member Republican and University Clubs and St. Nicholas and Holland Societies.

VANDER POEL, JOHN—Physician, 36 West 39th street, New York City. Born in Albany, N. Y., Feb. 20, 1858. Educated at Rutgers ('78), New York College of Physicians and Surgeons ('81) and studied in Berlin, Leipzig, Dresden and Vienna during 1883 and 1884. (Single.) Lecturer on genito-urinary diseases at the University and Bellevue Hospital Medical College. Member University, Richmond County Country and New York Yacht Clubs, New York County Medical, State Medical and St. Nicholas Societies, American Association of Genito-Urinary Surgeons, Century Association and Academy of Medicine.

VANDER POEL, SAMUEL OAKLEY—Physician, 47 East 25th street, New York City. Educated at Rutgers College ('73). Member Chi Phi and University Clubs, St. Nicholas and Holland Societies, Century Association and Military Order of the Loyal Legion.

VAN DER VEER, ALBERT—Physician and Surgeon, 28 Eagle street, Albany; residence 145 State street. Born in Root, N. Y., July 10, 1841. Educated in Palatine common schools, at Union Free School of Canajoharie and at Canajoharie Academy. Studied medicine at the Albany and National Medical Colleges. Degrees of A.M., M.D. and Ph.D. (Married.) Served in a surgical capacity with New York Volunteers during Civil War. Professor of surgery and dean of the faculty at Albany Medical College; attending surgeon and governor of Albany Hospital; trustee National Savings Bank. Member Fort Orange Club and New York State Medical Society.

VANDER VEER, EDGAR A.—Physician and Surgeon, 28 Eagle street, Albany. Born in Albany, Sept. 29, 1873. Educated at Albany Academy and Yale. Degree of M.D. (Single.) Formerly acting assistant surgeon United States Army. Member Fort Orange Club, Military Order of the Loyal Legion, Sons of the Revolution, Society of Colonial Wars, Society of Mayflower Descendants, and Holland Society of New York City.

VANDERVEER, FRANK FILLMORE—Lawyer, 120 Broadway, New York City; residence Hotel Lincoln. Born in Camden, N. J., March 8, 1848. (Son of Lloyd and Cornelia A. [Beekman] Vanderveer.) Educated in private schools and at Princeton. Studied law in Philadelphia and was admitted to the Bar in 1869. Practicing in New York City since 1871. Received decoration of the Order of Bolivar from the Government of Venezuela in 1888. President New York College of Dentistry and American Veterinary Hospital; trustee American Veterinary College and University Place Presbyterian Church. Member Lawyers', Democratic and Manhattan Clubs, Holland Society, New York State Bar and American Bar Associations, Association of the Bar of the City of New York and of Masonic bodies.

VANDERVOORT, WILLIAM LEDYARD—Dry Goods Merchant, 443 Broome street, New York City; residence 125 West 58th street. Member Union League, Union, Manhattan, Short Beach, Coney Island Jockey, Suburban Riding and Driving, and Babylon Clubs, Brooklyn Club, St. Louis (Mo.) Club, Maryland Club of Baltimore, and Holland and New England Societies.

VANDER WERKEN, ALFRED—Lawyer, 346 Broadway, New York City; residence 205 Berkeley place, Brooklyn. Born in Waterford, N. Y., Jan. 7, 1842. Educated in Jamesville, N. Y. (Married.) First vice-president and director Columbia Mutual Building and Loan Association. Member Montauk Club of Brooklyn.

VAN DEUSEN, ROBERT THOMPSON—Colonial Antiquities, Stuyvesant. Born in Kalamazoo, Mich., April 26, 1859. (Married.) Member St. Augustine and Lake Champlain Yacht Clubs, Holland Society and Sons of the American Revolution.

VAN DEVENTER, JACOB H.—Banker, 187 Greenwich street, New York City; residence Netherwood. N. J. Born in New York City, July 12, 1852. Educated at Princeton. (Married.) Cashier Franklin National Bank. Member Phi Kappa Sigma Fraternity and St. David's Society.

VANDEWATER, GEORGE ROE—Protestant Episcopalian Clergyman, 116th street and Morningside Heights, New York City; residence 7 West 122d street. Born in Flushing, N. Y., April 25, 1854. Educated at Cornell ('74) and at the General Theological Seminary

(D.D., '79). (Married Cornelia Townsend Youngs of Oyster Bay, N. Y., 1879.) Served as chaplain of the 71st Regiment, New York Volunteers in Cuba, 1898. Rector of St. Andrew's Protestant Episcopal Church since 1888; chaplain to Columbia University in the City of New York since 1892. Member Harlem, Cornell, Psi Upsilon, Seawanhaka-Corinthian Yacht and Churchmen's Clubs, St. Nicholas and Holland Societies, Cornell University Alumni, 71st Regiment Veterans', 23d Regiment Veterans' and Century Associations, Colonial Order and Metropolitan Museum of Art.

VANDIVERT, SAMUEL W.—Lawyer, 32 Broadway, New York City; residence 26 Kennion place, Flatbush. Born in Missouri, Jan. 14, 1857. (Married.) Served eight years as Judge of the Sixteenth Judicial District of Kansas; resident of New York City since 1897. Member of the firm of Gardenhire & Vandivert. Counsel to the General Liquid Air Refrigerating Co., Permanent Record Co. and other corporations.

VAN DOREN, LOUIS O.—Lawyer, 35 Nassau street, New York City; residence 295 Alexander avenue. Born in New York City, Sept. 21, 1863. Educated at the College of the City of New York. (Married.) Vestryman of St. Ann's Church of Morrisania. President North Side Republican Club. Member Morris, North Side Republican and Union Republican Clubs, Holland Society and Alumni Association of the College of the City of New York.

VAN DUSEN, FRED—Principal, Ogdensburg; residence 24 Montgomery street. Born in Glens Falls, N. Y., Sept. 12, 1856. Educated at Union College. (Married.) Formerly principal New Brunswick (N. J.) High School, and now principal Ogdensburg Free Academy. Trustee and librarian Ogdensburg Public Library; secretary and manager Ogdensburg Club. Member of the New York State Library Association and of Committee of Sixty-one on Legislation in the same. Member Ogdensburg Club, Phi Beta Kappa Society and Union College Alumni Association.

VAN DUZER, HENRY SAYRE—Lawyer, 31 Nassau street, New York City; residence 7 West 26th street. Born in New York City, Feb. 26, 1853. Educated at Thirteenth Street Public School, Phillips Andover Academy, Harvard University (A.B., '75) and at Columbia Law School (LL.B., '77). Member of the firm of Van Duzer & Taylor. Was judge advocate, First Brigade, N. G. N. Y., 1889-93. Member Union, Harvard and University Clubs, St. Nicholas and Holland Societies and Association of the Bar of the City of New York.

VAN DYKE, HENRY—Presbyterian Clergyman, 72 East 34th street, New York City. Born in Germantown, Pa., Nov. 10, 1852. Educated at Brooklyn Polytechnic Institute ('69), Princeton College ('73), Princeton Theological Seminary ('77) and at the University of Berlin, Germany ('79). Received degree of D.D. from Princeton in 1884, from Harvard in 1893, from Yale in 1896, and LL.D. from Union College in 1898. (Married Ellen Reid of Baltimore, Md., 1881.) Pastor of Brick Presbyterian Church, New York City, 1882-99. Trustee and member of the faculty of Princeton University. Author of "The Poetry of Tennyson," "The Reality of Religion," "The First Christmas Tree," etc. Member City, Princeton, University and Authors' Clubs, St. Nicholas and Holland Societies and Century Association.

VAN ELTEN, KRUSEMAN—Artist, 51 West Tenth street, New York City. Born in Holland, Nov. 14, 1829. Educated in Holland. Resident of New York City since 1865. Received decoration of the "Netherlands Lion" from the King of Holland. Member National Academy of Design, Royal Academies of Amsterdam and Rotterdam and of several other foreign art associations.

VAN EMBURGH, D. B.—Banker and Broker, 1 Nassau street, New York City; residence 30 East 38th street. Member of the firm of Van Emburgh & Atterbury, and of the New York Stock Exchange. Member Grolier, Players', Twilight, Union, Racquet and Tennis, and New York Athletic Clubs, American Fine Arts Society and Metropolitan Museum of Art.

VAN ETTEEN, AMOS—Lawyer, Rondout. Born in Sussex County, N. J., Aug. 31, 1852. Educated at Rutgers College ('74) and at Albany Law School ('76).

(Married.) Connected with the Cornell Steamboat Co., Ulster and Delaware R. R. Co., New York Central and Hudson River R. R. Co., Ulster Co., and Kingston City R. R. Co. Was special County Judge of Orange County, 1884-7; referee in Bankruptcy for Ulster County, 1899. Member Transportation Club and Holland Society of New York City.

VAN ETTEN, EDGAR—Transportation, 5 Vanderbilt avenue, New York City; residence Hotel Marie Antoinette. Born in Milford, Pa., April, 1844. Educated in common schools and at Stillwater (N. J.) Academy. (Married.) General superintendent New York Central and Hudson River R. R. Co., President Randsburg Ry. Co. and Jackson, Sutor and Amador Ry. Co.; director Carthage, Watertown and Sackett's Harbor R. R. Co., International Pulp Co., St. Lawrence and Adirondack Ry. Co. and Troy Union R. R. Co. Member Colonial, Transportation and Lotos Clubs, Fort Orange Club of Albany, Ardsley Casino of Ardsley-on-Hudson, Holland Society and Sons of the American Revolution.

VAN EVERY, JOHN B.—Vice-President, 195 Broadway, New York City; residence Brooklyn. Born in Rochester, N. Y., July 30, 1839. (Married.) Vice-president and director Western Union Telegraph Co.; director American Speaking Telephone Co., Gold and Stock Telegraph Co., International Ocean Telegraph Co., Southern and Atlantic Telegraph Co. and Stock Quotation Telegraph Co. Member Lincoln Club of Brooklyn, and Society of the Genesee.

VAN FLEET, FRANK—Physician, 63 East 79th street, New York City. Born in New York City, March 31, 1860. Educated in New York City. (Married.) Surgeon and director Manhattan Eye and Ear Hospital; professor diseases of the eye, New York Post Graduate School. Member Holland, New York State Medical, New York County Medical and Ophthalmological Societies, Academy of Medicine (Fellow) and other organizations.

VAN GIESON, ACOMON P.—Clergyman, Poughkeepsie. Born in West Bloomfield, N. J., Jan. 13, 1830. Educated at New York University and at the Theological Seminary at New Brunswick, N. J. (Married.) Member Holland Society.

VAN GLAHN, EDWARD C.—Hardware Merchant, 15 Chatham square, and 49 East 42d street, New York City; residence 42 West 49th street. Born in New Haven, Conn., Feb. 9, 1864. Educated in New York City. (Married.) Senior member of the firm of White, Van Glahn & Co. Member Union League and Hardware Clubs.

VAN GORDEN, FRANK EVERET—Insurance, Real Estate and Investments, Catskill; residence Athens. Born in Catskill, Jan. 14, 1859. Educated at Catskill Academy. (Married Mary Louise Van Loan of Athens, N. Y.) District manager of the Mutual Life Insurance Co. of New York. Served sixteen years in the 16th Company, N. G. N. Y., as private, corporal, first lieutenant and commanding officer; resigned in 1896. Member Rip Van Winkle Club, Army and Navy Club and Holland Society of New York City, United Service Club of Washington, D. C., and Order of American Red Men.

VAN HOESSEN, GEORGE M.—Lawyer, 45 Broadway, New York City; residence 62 West 47th street. Born in New York City. Educated at New York University. Studied law in Poughkeepsie, and was admitted to the Bar. Engaged in practice in Davenport, Iowa, until 1861. Served with Iowa troops during Civil War, and was promoted to the rank of major for gallantry. Resident of New York City since 1866. Judge of the Court of Common Pleas for one term, retiring in 1889. Member Manhattan, Union, St. Nicholas and Zeta Psi Clubs, New York Historical, St. Nicholas, American Geographical and Dunlap Societies, Lafayette Post, G. A. R., and Association of the Bar of the City of New York.

VAN HOLLAND, HENRY—Treasurer, foot of West 59th street, New York City; residence 309 West 86th street. Born in New York City, April 19, 1854. Educated in New York City. (Married.) Treasurer and general manager Eastmans' Co.; director William Ottmann & Co. Past commander American Legion of Honor; Fellow American Geographical Society. Member Colonial, Transportation, New York Athletic and Indian Harbor Yacht Clubs.

VAN HORNE, DANIEL A.—Glass Importer, 40 Vestry street, New York City; residence Orange, N. J. Born, Oct. 6, 1846. (Married.) Senior member of the firm of Van Horne, Griffen & Co. President American Window Glass Association; director Glass Dealers' Protective Association, and New Jersey State Fire Association. Member Wool and Democratic Clubs of New York City, and Essex County Country and Orange (governor and ex-president) Clubs of Orange.

VAN HORNE, JOHN G.—Civil Engineer, 71 Broadway, New York City; residence 53 West 69th street. Born in Jersey City, N. J., Dec. 10, 1853. Educated at New York University. (Married.) Member Colonial and Engineers' Clubs, American Society of Civil Engineers and Holland Society.

VAN HORNE, STEPHEN VAN ALEN—Railroads, 93 Wall street, New York City; residence 46 West 25th street. Born in Jersey City, N. J., March 4, 1856. Educated in Jersey City. (Single.) Agent of the Delaware, Lackawanna and Western R. R. Co., having been connected with same for sixteen years. Member Holland Society.

VAN HOUTEN, A.—Banker, 320 Broadway, New York City; residence Passaic, N. J. Born in Passaic. President and director Goodlatte Oil Cloth Co.; director Passaic Trust and Safe Deposit Co.

VAN IDERSTINE, ROBERT—Lawyer, 290 Broadway, New York City; residence 164 Lafayette avenue, Brooklyn. Member Theta Delta Chi Club, and Crescent Athletic and St. Nicholas Clubs of Brooklyn.

VAN INGEN, EDWARD—Lawyer, 49 Wall street, New York City; residence 500 Madison avenue. Educated at Yale ('91). Member Yale, University, City and Reform Clubs.

VAN INGEN, EDWARD H.—Woolen Merchant, 160 Fifth avenue, New York City; residence 9 East 71st street. Senior member of the firm of E. H. Van Ingen & Co. Member Metropolitan, Riding, Reform, Union League, University Glee and City Clubs, Hamilton Club of Brooklyn, American Fine Arts Society, Aldine Association and Metropolitan Museum of Art.

VAN INGEN, WILLIAM B.—Artist, 57 East 59th street, New York City. Born in Philadelphia, Pa., 1858. Educated in Philadelphia, New York, Paris and Japan. (Single.) Has lectured on the art of Japan at the Teachers' College and Metropolitan Museum of Art in New York City, and at the Art Club, the Drexel Institute and Pennsylvania Academy of Fine Arts in Philadelphia. Fellow Pennsylvania Academy of Fine Arts and member National Arts and Salmagundi Clubs, Art and Sketch Clubs of Philadelphia, National Society of Mural Painters and Architectural League.

VAN INWEGEN, CHARLES F.—Banker, 16 Ball street, Port Jervis; residence 27 Cole street. Born in Port Jervis, Sept. 14, 1839. Educated there and at Rutgers College. (Married.) President First National Bank of Port Jervis. Formerly president of the Board of Education, treasurer of the New York State Bankers' Association, the village of Port Jervis and the town of Deerpark, and also supervisor of the latter. Member Holland Society of New York City and Deerpark Club (ex-treasurer).

VAN LIEW, HENRY A.—Manufacturer, 469 Broome street, New York City; residence 20 West 51st street. Born in New York City. Member of the firm of Wm. Schroeder & Co. President Liberty Silk Co. and East Side Dyeing and Printing Co.; vice-president Klots Throwing Co.; treasurer Norfolk Silk Co. Member Larchmont Yacht, New York Athletic, New York Yacht, Union, Seawanhaka-Corinthian Yacht, Merchants' Central, Racquet and Tennis, Rockaway Hunting, Mill Neck and Virginia Clubs and Holland Society.

VAN LOAN, ANDREW B.—Furniture Dealer, 30 West 123d street, New York City. Born in Athens, N. Y., March 19, 1841. (Married.) Member Holland Society.

VAN LOAN, ZELAH—Secretary, 46 Wall street, New York City; residence 206 West 119th street. Born and educated in New York City. (Single.) Member New York Athletic and Church Clubs and Holland Society.

VANN, IRVING GOODWIN—Judge, Albany; residence 720 Lodi street, Syracuse. Born in Ulysses, Tompkins Co., N. Y., Jan. 3, 1842. Educated at Yale ('63), at Albany Law School and at Union University ('65). Received degree of LL.D. from Hamilton College in 1882, from Syracuse University in 1897, and from Yale in 1898. (Married) Florence, daughter of Henry A. Dillaye of Syracuse, 1870). Mayor of Syracuse, 1879-80; Supreme Court Justice, 1882-96; Judge of the Court of Appeals since Jan. 6, 1896, for term expiring Dec. 31, 1910. Lecturer on the law of insurance at Syracuse University and at Albany Law School. Member Century and Citizens' Clubs of Syracuse, and Fort Orange Club of Albany.

VAN NAME, FRANK—Auctioneer and Commission Merchant, 12 Murray street, New York City; residence 44 Seventh avenue, Brooklyn. Born in New York City, Aug. 26, 1853. Educated in New York City. (Married.) Member of the firm of E. Bissell & Co. Treasurer Lafayette Club. Member Hardware Club, DeWitt Clinton Council, R. A., and Thomas Hunter Association.

VAN NESS, RUSSELL—Manufacturer, 1376 Third avenue, New York City; residence 269 West 136th street. Born in New York City, June 21, 1858. Educated in New York City. (Married.) Connected with the Howe Biscuit Bakery of the National Biscuit Co. Formerly with Van Derveer and Holmes Biscuit Co., New York Biscuit Co. and Howe & Hutton. Member Holland Society.

VAN NEST, G. WILLETT—Lawyer, 20 Broad street, New York City; residence 345 Fifth avenue. Born in New York City, Aug. 10, 1852. (Son of Rev. Abraham R. and Margaret [Willett] Van Nest.) Educated by private tutors and at Harvard College (A.B., '74) and Law School (LL.B., '76). (Single.) Practicing in New York City since his admission to the Bar in 1882. Edited the seventh edition of "Sedgewick on the Measure of Damages." Member Union, University (life member), Tuxedo, Harvard and Metropolitan Clubs, Holland and St. Nicholas Societies, Down Town Association and Association of the Bar of the City of New York.

VAN NORDEN, WARNER—Banker, 25 Nassau street, New York City; residence 29 West 57th street. Born in New York City, July 2, 1841. Educated at New York University. (Widower.) President and director National Bank of North America and South Yuba Water Co.; president board of trustees Presbytery of New York; director American Tract Society, Home Insurance Co., American Surety Co., Trust Co. of New York and American Savings Bank. Member Union League, Metropolitan and Lawyers' Clubs, Presbyterian Union, Holland Society, Chamber of Commerce and Presbyterian Board of Foreign Missions.

VAN NOSTRAND, CHARLES B.—Banker, 36 Wall street, New York City; residence 39 Pierrepont street, Brooklyn. Vice-president and director Welsbach Commercial Co.; treasurer and director "Journal of Commerce and Commercial Bulletin"; director Chalmette Transport Co., New Orleans and Western R. R. Co., Staten Island Electric R. R. Co., and Sunday Creek Coal Co. Member Calumet, Tuxedo and Fencers' Clubs, Crescent Athletic and Hamilton Clubs of Brooklyn, Holland and St. Nicholas Societies, Down Town Association and Metropolitan Museum of Art.

VAN OLINDA, JAMES EDGAR—Musician, 293 Putnam avenue, Brooklyn. Born in Albany County, N. Y., Jan. 23, 1854. Educated in Albany County. (Married.) Connected with St. Luke's Protestant Episcopal Church, Brooklyn Polytechnic Institute and Brooklyn Manual Training High School. Was musical director of Troy Choral Union from 1883 to 1889. Member Holland Society, American Guild of Organists, advisory board of Music Department of the Brooklyn Institute of Arts and Sciences, and Commonwealth Lodge No. 409, F. & A. M.

VAN ORDEN, HENRY DE W.—Lawyer, 187 Greenwich street, New York City; residence 105 Hicks street, Brooklyn. Born in Catskill, N. Y., March 13, 1824. Educated at Union College. (Widower.) Member Holland Society and Union College Alumni Association.

VAN PELT, GILBERT SUTPHEN—Lawyer, 123 East 69th street, New York City. Born in New York City, Feb. 13, 1837. Educated at Rutgers and Williams Colleges. (Married.) Member Holland Society.

VAN PELT, JOHN VREDENBURGH—Architect and Professor, Ithaca; residence 29 East avenue. Born in New Orleans, La., Feb. 24, 1874. Educated at Ecole des Beaux Arts, Paris, France. (Single.) Assistant professor of architecture in charge of design, Cornell University. Member Town and Gown Club, National Arts Club of New York City, Beaux-Arts and Kappa Alpha Societies, Société des Architectes Diplômés par le Gouvernement (Paris), and Architectural League.

VAN RENSSELAER, CORTLANDT SCHUYLER—Lawyer, 100 Broadway, New York City; residence 40 East 61st street. Educated at Hobart College ('80). Member University, St. Nicholas, Sigma Phi, Church and Metropolitan Clubs, Country Club of Westchester County, Union League Club of Brooklyn, St. Nicholas, Holland and Huguenot Societies, Society of Colonial Wars, Colonial Order, Sons of the Revolution and Association of the Bar of the City of New York.

VAN RENSSELAER, HOWARD—Physician, 123 State street, Albany. Born in Albany, June 26, 1858. Educated at St. Paul's School, Concord, N. H., and at Yale ('81). (Single.) Attending physician City, St. Peter's, Child's and St. Margaret's Infant Hospitals, Hospital for Incurables and Old Ladies' Home. Formerly professor of materia medica and therapeutics, and associate professor of medicine Albany Medical College; ex-president Albany Country Club. Member Yale and Calumet Clubs of New York City, Fort Orange Club and Berzelius Society.

VAN RENSSELAER, MAUNSELL—Protestant Episcopal Clergyman, 22 St. Nicholas place, New York City. Born in Albany, N. Y., April 15, 1819. Educated at Union College (A.B., '38, A.M., '41, and LL.D., '70.) and at the General Theological Seminary (D.D., '41.) Held various pastorates, 1841-59; president De Veaux College, 1859-69; professor of ethics at Hobart College, 1870-2; president of same, 1872-6; chaplain of the House of the Holy Comforter in New York City since 1862. Member Holland and St. Nicholas Societies, Society of Colonial Wars, Union College Alumni Association and Sons of the Revolution.

VAN RENSSELAER, WILLIAM BAYARD—Lawyer, 25 North Pearl street, Albany; residence 15 Washington avenue. Educated at Harvard ('79). Member University and Reform Clubs of New York City, and Fort Orange Club.

VAN SANTVOORD, ABRAHAM—Lawyer, 111 Broadway, New York City; residence 112 West 12th street. Educated at Columbia. Member Reform, Mendelssohn Glee and City Clubs, Holland and St. Nicholas Societies, Columbia University Alumni Association and Association of the Bar of the City of New York.

VAN SANTVOORD, ALFRED—President, foot of Desbrosses street, New York City; residence 38 West 39th street. Born in Utica, N. Y. Educated in New York City. (Widower.) President and director Hudson River Steamboat Line to Albany, and Catskill Mountain R. R. Co.; director Cherry Valley, Sharon and Albany R. R. Co., Albany and Susquehanna R. R. Co., Cairo R. R. Co., Chicago, Milwaukee and St. Paul R. R. Co., Delaware and Hudson Canal Co., Equitable Life Assurance Society of the United States, Fourth Avenue R. R. Co., Lake Champlain Steamboat Co., Lake George Steamboat Co., Otis Elevating R. R. Co., Spuyten Duyvil and Port Morris R. R. Co., and United New Jersey R. R. and Canal Co. State Commissioner for Improvement of Hudson River. Member Atlantic Yacht, New York Yacht, American Yacht and Mendelssohn Glee Clubs, St. Nicholas and New England Societies and Metropolitan Museum of Art.

VAN SANTVOORD, RICHARD—Physician, 106 West 122d street, New York City. Born in New York City, May 19, 1853. Educated at the College of the City of New York and Bellevue Hospital Medical College (M.D.). (Married.) Visiting physician Harlem Hospital. Member Harlem Club and Holland Society.

VAN SANTVOORD, SEYMOUR—Lawyer, 16 First street, Troy; residence Washington Park. Born in Troy, Dec. 17, 1858. Educated at Williston Seminary and at Union College ('78). (Married.) President and treasurer Walter A. Wood Mowing and Reaping Machine Co.; president and director Pennsylvania Enamelled Brick Co.; director Dillon-Griswold Wire Co. Vice-president Albany Law School. Member University, National Arts and Reform Clubs and Holland Society, all of New York City.

VAN SCHAICK, EUGENE—Lawyer, 100 Broadway, New York City; residence 245 West 102d street. Born in New York City, Sept. 15, 1864. Educated at Heidelberg, Oxford and Columbia Universities. (Married Sarah Howland Pyne.) Senior member of the firm of Van Schaick, Norton & Quinby. President and director Knickerbocker Oil and Gas Co.; director and counsel Union Surety and Guaranty Co., America Petroleum Properties (Ltd.) Essex Copper Co., Lafayette Copper Co., American Flag Gold Mining Co., and others; director Manhattan Life Insurance Co. Member Union, Manhattan, New York Yacht, Democratic and Zeta Psi Clubs, Holland Society and Columbia University Alumni Association.

VAN SCHAICK, JENKINS—Retired Broker, 35 Broad street, New York City; residence Huntington. Director First Municipal Bond Assurance Co. of America, and German-American Bank. Member New York Stock Exchange and of the Racquet and Tennis, Collie, Democratic, Reform, Whist, South Side Sportsmen's, Seawanhaka-Corinthian Yacht, New York Yacht and Larchmont Yacht Clubs, St. Nicholas and Holland Societies, Metropolitan Museum of Art and Liederkrantz.

VAN SCHAICK, JOHN BRODHEAD—Broker, 35 Broad street, New York City; residence Huntington. Educated at Jesus College ('88), Cambridge University, England. Member of the firm of Van Schaick & Co., and of the New York Stock Exchange. Member Harvard, St. Nicholas, Racquet and Tennis, New York Yacht, Seawanhaka-Corinthian Yacht and University Clubs and Liederkrantz.

VAN SICLEN, ARTHUR—Lawyer, 132 Nassau street, New York City; residence Whitestone. Born in New York City, April, 1869. Educated at the College of the City of New York and Columbia Law School. (Married.) Member Twilight and Delta Kappa Epsilon Clubs, Montauk Club of Brooklyn, and Holland Society.

VAN SICLEN, GEORGE W.—Lawyer, 132 Nassau street, New York City; residence 127 West 78th street. Member Twilight Club, Holland, American Geographical, New York Historical, American Historical and Netherlands Literary Societies, Society of Founders and Patriots of America and Sons of the American Revolution.

VAN SINDEREN, HOWARD—Lawyer, 15 Broad street, New York City; residence 14 West 16th street. Educated at Columbia ('81). Member New York Athletic and University Clubs, Holland Society and Columbia University Alumni Association.

VAN SLYCK, GEORGE WHITFIELD—Lawyer, 120 Broadway, New York City; residence Buckingham Hotel. Born in Kinderhook, N. Y., July, 1842. (Son of Hugh and Orminta M. [Pulver] Van Slyck.) Educated at Kinderhook Academy, at Williams College ('63) and at Albany Law School. (Single.) Served with New York Volunteers during Civil War. Was connected for a time with the New York National Guard, and was a member of the staff of General Shaler. Member City, Manhattan, Lawyers' and University Clubs, Holland, American Fine Arts, St. Nicholas and American Geographical Societies, Williams College Alumni Association, Scientific Alliance, Metropolitan Museum of Art and Association of the Bar of the City of New York.

VAN SLYKE, EUGENE—Physician, 139 Madison avenue, Albany. Born, 1851. Educated at Albany Medical College (M.D.), and in Prague and Vienna. (Single.) Member Albany and Camera Clubs and New York State Medical and Albany County Medical Societies.

VAN SLYKE, EVERT—Clergyman, 403 Washington avenue, Brooklyn. Educated at Rutgers. Rector of the North Reformed Church. Member Atlantic Yacht and Zeta Psi Clubs, Holland Society and Rutgers College Alumni Association.

VAN SLYKE, WARREN C.—Lawyer, 44 Pine street, New York City; residence 82 Irving place. Born in Jamaica, L. I., Dec. 25, 1875. Educated at Rutgers College. (Single.) Member of the firm of Pinney & Thayer. Member Holland Society and Delta Kappa Epsilon Fraternity.

VAN STEENBERGH, WILLIAM H.—Lawyer, 10 Wall street, New York City; residence 352 Madison avenue. Born in Rhinebeck, N. Y., Nov. 30, 1857. Educated at De Garmo Institute, Rutgers College and Columbia Law School. (Married.) Secretary and director Seaport Investment Co.; director Round Island Co. Formerly United States Commissioner. Member Republican Club and Dutchess County Society.

VAN VALKENBURGH, WILLIS—Law Reporter, 35 Wall street, New York City; residence 438 Seventh street, Brooklyn. Born in Ithaca, N. Y. Educated at Cornell. (Married.) Member Congregational Club, and Crescent Athletic and Montauk Clubs of Brooklyn.

VAN VALZAH, WILLIAM W.—Physician, 10 East 43d street, New York City. Born in Union County, Pa., Dec. 11, 1848. Educated at Pottstown (Pa.) Hill School, Columbia, Princeton ('73) and Jefferson Medical College ('76). (Single.) Formerly demonstrator of clinical medicine, Jefferson Medical College; surgeon 1st Regiment, Pa. N. G., and physician Jefferson Hospital, Philadelphia. Now professor of diseases of the stomach and digestive tubes, New York Polyclinic. Member Princeton Club and Sons of the American Revolution.

VAN VECHTEN, ABRAHAM VAN WYCK—Lawyer, 45 Pine street, New York City; residence Hotel Manhattan. Born in Bloomingburg, N. Y., March 24, 1828. Educated at Williams College ('47). (Widower.) Member University Club, St. Nicholas, Holland, New York Genealogical and Biographical and New York Historical Societies, Williams College Alumni, American Bar, New York State Bar and Clinton Hall Associations, Sons of the Revolution, Society of Colonial Wars, Society of the War of 1812 and Association of the Bar of the City of New York.

VAN VECHTEN, FRANCIS HELME—Lawyer, 132 Nassau street, New York City; residence Hollis, L. I. Born in Brooklyn, N. Y., July 26, 1856. (Son of Junius R. and Helen C. Van Vechten.) Educated in public schools, at Brooklyn Polytechnic Institute, at Stratford (Conn.) Academy and at Columbia College Law School. Admitted to the Bar in 1878. Prominently identified with public affairs in Queens County since 1890, and was counsel to the Board of Supervisors for four years. Member Society of Medical Jurisprudence.

VAN VLECK, JOSEPH—Metal Merchant, 99 John street, New York City; residence Montclair, N. J. Member of the firm of Phelps, Dodge & Co. Vice-president and treasurer Arizona and Southeastern R. R. Co.; vice-president Commercial Mining Co., Copper Queen Consolidated Mining Co., United Globe Mines and Detroit Mining Co. Member Fulton and Congregational Clubs, Montclair Club and Forest Lake Association.

VAN VLEET, DE FOREST—Lawyer, Ithaca. Educated at Cornell (B.S.). Alumni trustee Cornell University, term expiring in 1901. Member Chi Psi Fraternity.

VAN VLIET, BENSON—General Superintendent, Vassar College, Poughkeepsie; residence Virginia avenue. Born in Fishkill-on-the-Hudson, Aug. 22, 1837. (Married.) Member of the firm of E. D. Gildersleeve & Co. Was member of the firm of Greenleaf, Norris & Co., stock brokers, New York City, and of the New York Stock Exchange, 1862-72. Member Holland Society.

VAN VOLKENBURGH, EDWARD—Dry Goods Merchant, 62 Worth and 31 Thomas streets, New York City; residence Buckingham Hotel. Member of the firm of P. Van Volkenburgh & Co. Director Importers' and Traders' National Bank and United States Life Insurance Co. Member Union League and Union Clubs and Holland and St. Nicholas Societies.

VAN VOLKENBURGH, PHILIP—Lawyer, 16 Exchange place, New York City; residence 508 Fifth avenue. Member Calumet, Manhattan and Fencers' Clubs and St. Nicholas, New York Genealogical and Biographical and Holland Societies.

VAN VOLKENBURGH, THOMAS S.—Lawyer, 62 Worth street, New York City; residence 46 West 50th street. Educated at Yale. (Married.) Member Union League Club, Holland Society and Sons of the Revolution.

VAN VORST, FREDERICK B.—Lawyer, 27 Wall street, New York City; residence 110 West 84th street. Educated at Princeton. Member Princeton and Lawyers' Clubs, Holland Society and Century Association.

VAN WAGENEN, JAMES A.—Lawyer, 39 West 19th street, New York City. Born in New York City, July, 1862. Educated at Columbia Grammar School, Princeton University and Columbia Law School. (Single.) Member Union League and Princeton Clubs, National Academy of Design, New York Society Library (life member) and Association of the Bar of the City of New York.

VAN WAGENEN, JOHN B.—Clothing Merchant, 841 Broadway, New York City; residence West Orange, N. J. Born in Raleigh, N. C., Aug. 3, 1835. Educated in Newark, N. J. (Married.) Member of the firm of Hackett, Carhart & Co. Member Orange Camera Club and Holland Society.

VAN WAGENEN, JOHN R.—Banker, Washington Park and Main street, Oxford. Born in Oxford, Nev. 9, 1841. Educated at Oxford Academy. (Married.) President First National Bank. Was county treasurer, 1872-5; vice-president Oxford Academy and trustee of same for over thirty years. Member Holland Society.

VAN WAGONER, CORNELIUS S.—Manufacturer, 14 Warren street, New York City; residence Ohio. Born in New York City, Nov. 8, 1844. Educated at the College of the City of New York. (Married.) President and director Van Wagoner & Williams Hardware Co. Member Hamilton Club of Brooklyn.

VAN WINKLE, EDGAR BEACH (Colonel)—Civil Engineer, 115 East 70th street, New York City. Born in New York City, March 4, 1842. Educated at Union College. (Married.) Was captain United States Volunteers, War of the Rebellion; colonel, N. G. N. Y.; recorder New York Commandery Loyal Legion; director American Society of Civil Engineers. Member Army and Navy and Nineteenth Century Clubs, Holland, American Geographical, New York Zoological and Kappa Alpha Societies, American Society of Civil Engineers, Union College Alumni and Century Associations, Sons of the Revolution, New York Botanical Gardens, Archaeological Institute of America, Lafayette Post, G. A. R., Military Order of the Loyal Legion, American Museum of Natural History and Metropolitan Museum of Art.

VAN WINKLE, EDWARD H.—Protestant Episcopalian Clergyman, 25 West Ninth street, New York City. Born in New York City, Aug. 26, 1842. Educated at Columbia College and at General Theological Seminary. (Married.) Rector of St. Clement's Church. Director North River Insurance Co.

VAN WORMER, JOHN R.—Secretary and General Manager, 32 East 42d street, New York City; residence 1 East 39th street. Born in Adams, Jefferson Co., N. Y., March 14, 1849. Educated in Adams. (Single.) Was private secretary to Postmaster-General James and to the late Roscoe Conkling; was also chief clerk of the Post Office Department at Washington, D. C. Secretary and general manager Lincoln Safe Deposit Co.; vice-president Brooklyn Warehouse and Storage Co.; director Schermerhorn Bank of Brooklyn. Member Union League (ex-secretary), New York Athletic (president), Lotos and Republican Clubs, St. Nicholas, New England and Holland Societies and Sons of the American Revolution.

VAN WYCK, AUGUSTUS—Lawyer, 172 Hancock street, Brooklyn. Born in New York City, Oct. 14, 1846. (Son of William and Lydia Anderson [Maverick] Van Wyck.) Educated at Phillips Exeter Academy and at the University of North Carolina. Studied law in Richmond, Va., and practiced there for a number of years. Resident of Brooklyn since 1871. Judge of the City Court, 1884-96; Supreme Court Justice, 1896-8; unsuccessful candidate on Democratic ticket for Governor of New York, 1898. Delegate to numerous state and national conventions of the Democratic party. Member Brooklyn, Oxford, Montauk and Hamilton Clubs, and Democratic and Zeta Psi Clubs, Holland and Southern Societies of New York City.

VAN WYCK, JACOB SOUTHART—Lawyer, 235 Broadway, New York City; residence 161 Taylor street, Brooklyn. Born in Claverack, Columbia Co., N. Y., Feb. 9, 1836. Educated at Williams College. (Married.) Member National Democratic Civic Club of Brooklyn, Holland Society and Sons of the Revolution.

VAN WYCK, ROBERT ANDERSON—Mayor, 6 City Hall, New York City; residence 135 East 46th street. Born in New York City, July 20, 1849. (Son of William and Lydia Anderson [Maverick] Van Wyck.) Educated in New York City. Studied law at Columbia College Law School (valedictorian, '72). (Single.) Judge of the City Court, 1889-97; first Mayor of Greater New York for term, 1898-1901. Member Democratic, New York Athletic and Manhattan Clubs, Holland and Tammany Societies and Society of Medical Jurisprudence.

VAN WYCK, SAMUEL—Insurance, 200 Montague street, Brooklyn; residence 194 Clinton street. Born in Huntington, L. I. Director Bedford and Fifth Avenue Banks of Brooklyn. Ex-president Lafayette Fire Insurance Co. Life member of the Long Island Historical Society. Member Union League Club and Holland Society.

VAN WYCK, WILLIAM—Lawyer, 373 Fulton street, Brooklyn; residence 172 Hancock street. Member Canarsie Yacht, Jamaica Bay Yacht, Young Men's Democratic and Crescent Athletic Clubs, Church Club of the Diocese of Long Island, and Democratic, Zeta Psi and Fencers' Clubs, Holland and Southern Societies of New York City.

VAN WYCK, WILLIAM EDWARD—Wholesale Paper Merchant, 36 Beekman street, New York City; residence 216 West 21st street. Born in New York City, March 21, 1841. (Son of John Thurman and Jane [Elsworth] Van Wyck.) Educated in public schools. (Single.) Enlisted in 7th Regiment, N. G. N. Y., May, 1860, and served throughout the Civil War as captain, 131st Regiment, New York Volunteers; was brevetted major, lieutenant-colonel and colonel for gallant and meritorious services; has long been prominent in military matters, having been colonel of 6th Regiment, N. G. N. Y. Formerly commissioner to award damages for street openings; member of Mayor's Committee of One Hundred for 1898 Charter-Day Celebration and also for Admiral Dewey's reception. Grand Marshal of the G. A. R., 1893-9. Member New York Athletic (ex-president), Arts, Republican, Suburban Riding and Driving, and Road Clubs, Liederkrantz, Holland, St. Nicholas, Genealogical and Biographical, American Numismatic and Archaeological, and American Geographical Societies, Army of the Potomac, Nineteenth Army Corps, Union Veterans, Creedmoor Rifle, State Military and 7th Regiment War Veterans' (vice-president) Associations, Sons of the Revolution, G. A. R., Society of Foreign Wars, Society of Colonial Wars, Metropolitan Museum of Art, Active and Veteran League, Legion of Honor and League of American Wheelmen.

VAN ZILE, HENRY L.—Civil Engineer, 11 Broadway, New York City; residence 379 West End avenue. Born in Troy, N. Y., Sept. 20, 1864. Educated at Rensselaer Polytechnic Institute. (Single.) President Franklin Boiler Works Co. of Troy. Member Engineers' Club, Pafracts Dael Club of Troy, and Delta Phi Fraternity.

VARNUM, JAMES M.—Lawyer, 62 William street, New York City; residence 87 Park avenue. Born in New York City. Educated at Yale and at Columbia College Law School. (Married.) Member of the State Legislature, 1879-80; senior aide-de-camp with rank of colonel on staff of Governor Cornell, 1880-3; candidate on Republican ticket for attorney-general of the State of New York, 1889; candidate for Judge of the Superior Court of the City of New York, 1890; permanent chairman of the State Republican Convention, 1891; commissioned brigadier-general, N. G. N. Y., by Governor Morton, 1894; has also held the position of Surrogate of New York County, and Paymaster-General of the State of New York. Has served on numerous civil and military committees. Now senior member of the firm of Varnum & Harrison, and Change of Grade Damage Commissioner for the Twenty-third and Twenty-fourth Wards of the City of New York. Director Lawyers' Title Insurance Co. and Real Estate Trust Co. Member Union and Tuxedo Clubs, Society of the Cincinnati, Society of the War of 1812, Society of Foreign Wars, Century Association, Sons of the Revolution, Association of the Bar of the City of New York and other organizations.

VARNUM, ROBERT TAYLOR—Lawyer, 62 William street, New York City; residence 39 West 27th street. Member of the firm of Varnum & Harrison. Member Union and Calumet Clubs, Society of Colonial Wars, Colonial Order and Sons of the Revolution.

VASSAR, GEORGE, JR.—Builder, 111 Fifth avenue, New York City; residence 433 West 22d street. Member of the firm of George Vassar's Son & Co. Member Church, Building Trades and Democratic Clubs and National Academy of Design.

VATABLE, JULES J.—Builder, 111 Fifth avenue, New York City; residence Tuxedo Park. Born in New York City, Jan. 8, 1872. Educated at Columbia. (Married.) Member Racquet and Tennis and Tuxedo Clubs, and Ardsley Casino of Ardsley-on-Hudson.

VAUGHAN, ARTHUR C.—Banker, 44 Pine street, New York City; residence Garden City. Member of the New York Stock Exchange firm of Cuyler, Morgan & Co.

VAUX, C. BOWYER—Printer, 50 East 19th street, New York City; residence Twentieth and Benson avenues, Brooklyn. Born in Fishkill, N. Y. Educated at Columbia. (Married.) Was salesman for nine years in the firm of J. C. Rankin Co. (printers); manager letter press American Lithographic Co. for six years; partner for three years in the firm of Vaux & Raper (printers). Since 1895 has been head of printing department of the firm of G. P. Putnam's Sons (publishers). Member New York Canoe Club and Century Association.

VEDDER, COMMODORE PERRY—Manufacturer, 136 Liberty street, New York City; residence Ellicottville. Born in Ellicottville, Feb. 23, 1838. Educated at Springville Academy. Served with New York Volunteers during Civil War and advanced to the rank of lieutenant-colonel; was captured at Chancellorsville and spent several weeks in Libby Prison. Studied law and was admitted to the Bar in 1866. Register in Bankruptcy, 1867-75; assemblyman, 1872-5; State senator, 1875-7; State assessor, 1880-3; State senator, 1885-9. President and director Chauncey Realty Co., Elko Mining, Milling and Mfg Co., Elko Paint Co., New York and New Jersey Ice Lines and Photo-Metallic Art Co.; director Cararaft General Electric Co., Erie Canal Traction Co. and Holland Trust Co. Member Lawyers' and Republican Clubs and Holland Society.

VEDDER, HARMON A.—Physician, 708 Madison avenue, New York City. Born in Flushing, L. I., Jan. 16, 1868. Educated in private schools, Columbia University ('88) and College of Physicians and Surgeons (M.D., '91). Studied in Edinburgh and London. (Married.) Member Delta Phi Club, Holland Society and Columbia University Alumni and New York Hospital Alumni Associations.

VEDDER, MAUS ROSA—Physician, 708 Madison avenue, New York City. Born in Schenectady, N. Y., March 19, 1835. Educated at Union College and College of Physicians and Surgeons (M.D., '61). (Married.) Was acting assistant surgeon United States

Army, 1862. Ex-vice-president Holland Society. Member Transportation Club, Holland and St. Nicholas Societies, Union College Alumni and Bellevue Hospital Alumni Associations, Academy of Medicine and Sons of the Revolution.

VEEDER, MAJOR ALBERT—Physician, Lyons. Born in Ashtabula, Ohio, Nov. 10, 1848. Educated at Union College ('70) and at the University of Buffalo (M.D.) (Married Mary E. Wood of Schenectady, N. Y., 1871.) Practicing in Lyons since 1883. Member American Association for the Advancement of Science, New York State Medical and American Microscopical Societies, American Public Health Association and others.

VEIT, RICHARD C.—Merchant, 26 Broadway, New York City; residence 81 Convent avenue. Born in New York City, Nov. 17, 1855. Educated in public schools. (Married.) Manager of the Warehouse and Lighterage Department of Standard Oil Co. Member Lotos Club, Metropolitan Museum of Art, American Museum of Natural History and American Society of Mechanical Engineers.

VELSOR, JOSEPH A.—Wholesale Druggist, 9 Gold street, New York City; residence 105 McDonough street, Brooklyn. Born in New York City, 1834. Educated at the College of the City of New York ('54). (Married.) Sole proprietor of the firm of Peek & Velsor. Member Drug Trade and Fulton Clubs, and Marine and Field Club of Brooklyn.

VER BECK, WILLIAM FRANCIS—Artist, 127 Fifth avenue, New York City; residence 207 West 87th street. Born in Belmont County, Ohio, June 1, 1858. Educated in public schools. (Married Alice Barrett Shoemaker.) Makes a specialty of comic illustrations and has illustrated many books.

VERMEULE, CORNELIUS C.—Civil Engineer, 203 Broadway, New York City; residence East Orange, N. J. Born in New Brunswick, N. J., 1858. Educated at Rutgers College. (Married.) Treasurer York Water Co. Formerly consulting engineer to Geological Survey of New Jersey, and to Jersey City, N. J. Member Holland Society and Century Association.

VERMEULE, JOHN D.—Manufacturer, 503 Broadway, and Banker, 99 Cedar street, New York City; residence 5 West 46th street. President and director Goodyear's India Rubber Glove Mfg Co., York Cliffs Improvement Co. and York Water Co.; president and trustee Holland Trust Co.; director Chatham National Bank, Brigantine Co. and United States Rubber Co.; trustee Anglo-American Savings and Loan Association. Member Merchants' Central and Reform Clubs, Holland Society and Metropolitan Museum of Art.

VERNON, FRANCIS JOSEPH—Manufacturing Stationer, 69 Duane street, New York City; residence 201 Lafayette avenue, Brooklyn. Educated at Yale ('86). Member of the firm of F. J. Vernon & Co. Member University and Yale Clubs, and Crescent Athletic, Hamilton and Oxford Clubs of Brooklyn.

VERNON, HAROLD—Merchant and Lawyer, 22 Reade street, New York City; residence 199 Lafayette avenue, Brooklyn. Born in Brooklyn, 1862. Educated at Adelphi College, Yale and abroad. (Married, 1899.) Member Crescent Athletic Club of Brooklyn and Troop "C," N. G. N. Y.

VERNON, PHILIP HARWOOD—Lawyer, 111 Broadway, New York City; residence 151 West 79th street. Born in Utica, N. Y., March 31, 1834. Educated at New York University. (Married.) Was member of the General Assembly of the State of New Jersey, 1879-80. Member New York Law Institute, New York State Bar Association and Association of the Bar of the City of New York.

VERNON, SAMUEL E.—Manufacturing Stationer, 69 Duane street, New York City; residence 175 Joralemon street, Brooklyn. Member of the firm of S. E. & M. Vernon. Member Atlantic Yacht and Marine and Field Clubs, and Crescent Athletic and Oxford Clubs of Brooklyn.

VERNON, T. ALFRED—Paper Manufacturer, 22 Reade street, New York City; residence 256 Clinton avenue, Brooklyn. Born in Brooklyn, Feb. 28, 1855. Educated at Adelphi College ('72) and at Yale ('75).

(Married Amie Cushman Howard of Rochester, N. Y.) Member of the firm of Vernon Bros. & Co. President Fowler Trust Association; trustee Homeopathic Hospital and Adelphi College. Publisher New York Chapter Roll and Directory of the Phi Gamma Delta Fraternity and also of the songs of that organization. Member Phi Gamma Delta (president), Hardware and Yale Clubs, Crescent Athletic Club of Brooklyn, Phi Gamma Delta Clubs of Philadelphia, Pa., New Haven, Conn., Ithaca, N. Y., and Worcester, Mass., Brooklyn Institute of Arts and Sciences and National Paper Makers' Association.

VERNON, WALTER F.—Vice-President, 621 Broadway, New York City; residence 20 Hamilton terrace. Born in New York City, Nov. 20, 1854. Educated in public schools. (Married.) Has been vice-president and director United Building Material Co. since 1893. Formerly manager Station "J," New York Steam Co., and purchasing agent in the construction of the Broadway cable road. Member Catholic and Democratic Clubs.

VER NOOY, CHARLES—Physician, 146 West 64th street, New York City. Born in New York City, Feb. 6, 1865. Educated in public schools, at Newton (N. J.) Collegiate Institute and New York Homeopathic Medical College and Hospital (M.D., '88). (Married.) Inspector Department of Health, New York City; alternate physician Laura Franklin Free Hospital for Children. Member New York County Medical, Homeopathic, Paedological (president) and New York Materia Medica (secretary and treasurer) Societies and American Institute of Homeopathy.

VER PLANCK, WILLIAM GORDON—Lawyer, 149 Broadway, New York City; residence 315 West 90th street. Born in Geneva, N. Y., April 15, 1861. Educated at Hobart College and Columbia Law School. (Married.) Member of the firm of Young, Ver Planck & Prince. Formerly school inspector Borough of Manhattan of New York City. Member St. Nicholas and Lawyers' Clubs, St. Nicholas, American Geographical, Holland, New York Genealogical and Biographical and New York Historical Societies, Society of Colonial Wars, Colonial Order, Sons of the Revolution and Association of the Bar of the City of New York.

VEZIN, CHARLES—Commission Merchant, 349 Broadway, New York City; residence Yonkers. Born April 9, 1858. Educated in Berlin and Jena, Germany. (Married.) Member of the firm of Hinchman, Vezin & Co. Member Merchants', St. Andrew's Golf and Reform Clubs.

VIBBERT, WILLIAM H.—Protestant Episcopal Clergyman, 11 East 24th street, New York City. Born in New Haven, Conn., Oct. 1, 1839. Educated at Trinity College ('58) and at Berkeley Divinity School. Formerly professor in the latter, 1863-73; rector St. Luke's Church, Germantown, Philadelphia, 1873-83; of St. James' Church, Chicago, 1883-9, and of St. Peter's Church, Philadelphia, 1889-91; vicar of Trinity Chapel, New York City, since 1891. Member University Club and Trinity College Alumni Association.

VICTOR, ORVILLE JAMES—Publisher, 156 Broadway, New York City; residence Undercliff, N. J. Born in Sandusky, Ohio, Oct. 23, 1827. Educated in Norwalk, Ohio. (Married.) Engaged in business in New York City since 1856. Author of "History of the Southern Rebellion," "Incidents and Anecdotes of the War" and "History of American Conspiracies."

VIELE, EGBERT L.—Civil Engineer, 32 Nassau street, New York City; residence 88th street and Riverside Drive. Born in Waterford, N. Y., June 17, 1825. Educated at United States Military Academy ('47). Served during Mexican War and in Indian campaigns on Western plains. Resigned with rank of lieutenant in 1850, and engaged in civil engineering practice in New York City. State Engineer of New Jersey, 1854-6; chief engineer of Central Park in New York City in 1856, and prepared the original plan which was adopted for the park. Served throughout Civil War and was commissioned brigadier-general of United States Volunteers on August 17, 1861; was for a time military governor of Norfolk, Va. Resumed practice in New York City in 1863. Commissioner of parks, 1883-4; Congressman, 1885-7. Has traveled extensively, and has made a valuable collection of art treasures. President and director East Bay Land and Improvement Co. Member West Point Graduates' and Aztec Clubs, American Geographical and Holland Societies, Military Order of the Loyal Legion, Lafayette Post, G. A. R., and Sons of the Revolution.

VIELE, HERMAN KNICKERBOCKER—Artist, 12 West 18th street, New York City. Born in New York City, 1856. (Married.) Member Church, Union and Salmagundi Clubs, Metropolitan Club of Washington, D. C., and St. Nicholas Society.

VIELE, JOHN JAY—Clerk, 55 Wall street, New York City; residence Bronxville. Born in Hoosic, N. Y., Jan. 15, 1858. Educated at Cortland (N. Y.) Normal School. (Married.) Clerk in the United States Custom House. Member Holland Society.

VIELE, SHELDON T.—Lawyer, 71 White Building, Buffalo; residence 200 Porter avenue. Member of the firm of Viele & Chapin. Member Saturn, University and Ellicott Clubs, Society of the War of 1812 of Philadelphia, Pa., Sons of the Revolution, Military Order of the Loyal Legion, and Delta Kappa Epsilon and Yale Clubs, Society of Colonial Wars and Holland Society of New York City.

VIETOR, CARL—Wholesale Dry Goods Merchant, 68 Leonard street, New York City; residence 56 East 56th street. Member of the firm of Fred'k Vietor & Achelis. Director Germania Fire Insurance Co. and International Insurance Co. Member Merchants' Club.

VIETOR, GEORGE F.—Wholesale Dry Goods Merchant, 68 Leonard street, New York City; residence 28 West 53d street. Member of the firm of Fred'k Vietor & Achelis. President and director Mossberg & Granville Mfg Co., Poidebard Silk Co. of Hoboken, N. J., and New Jersey Iron Mining Co.; director National Park Bank, Plaza Bank and United States Trust Co.; trustee American Surety Co. and German Savings Bank. Member Wool, Lotos and Merchants' Clubs, Hamilton Club of Brooklyn, and Liederkrantz.

VILLARD, HAROLD G.—Lawyer, 141 Broadway, New York City; residence Dobbs Ferry. Born in Boston, Mass., 1869. Educated at Harvard. (Married.) Member Lawyers', Reform and Harvard Clubs, and Ardsley Casino of Ardsley-on-Hudson.

VILLARD, HENRY—Capitalist, 17 Broad street, New York City; residence 145 West 58th street. Member Union League, Lawyers', Reform and Barnard Clubs, American Fine Arts and American Geographical Societies, Liederkrantz, Down Town Association, American Museum of Natural History and Metropolitan Museum of Art.

VILLARD, OSWALD GARRISON—Editor, 206 Broadway, New York City; residence 145 West 58th street, and Dobbs Ferry. Born in Germany, March 13, 1872. Educated at Harvard (A.B. and A.M.). (Single.) Trustee "Evening Post" Publishing Co. Member Harvard, Reform, City and University Clubs, Ardsley Casino of Ardsley-on-Hudson, and Liederkrantz.

VILMAR, FREDERICK—Paper Merchant, 66 Duane street, New York City; residence 120 West 58th street. Born in New Jersey, March 30, 1865. Educated in New York City schools. (Single.) Connected with the firm of Perkins, Goodwin & Co. President Nassau Boat Club and Harlem Regatta Association; governor New York Athletic Club. Member Camera, New York Athletic, Nassau Boat, Country Cycle and Atlantic Yacht Clubs, Liederkrantz and League of American Wheelmen.

VINCENT, FRANK—Traveler and Author, 39 West 26th street, New York City. Born in Brooklyn, N. Y., April 2, 1848. Educated at Yale. (Single.) Has made a tour of the entire world. Director Philafrican Liberator's League. Formerly vice-consul of Bolivia at New York City. Author of "The Land of the White Elephant," "Through and Through the Tropics," "Norsk, Lapp and Finn," "Around and About South America," "In and Out of Central America" and "Actual Africa"; joint author of "The Lady of Cawn-pore"; editor of "The Plant World" and "The Animal World." Member Titan Club, American Geographical and Ethnological Societies, Sons of the American Revolution and Metropolitan Museum of Art.

VINCENT, JOHN—Lawyer, 32 Nassau street, New York City; residence Ashland House. Member Manhattan, Catholic and Democratic Clubs and Association of the Bar of the City of New York.

VINCENT, MARVIN RICHARDSON—Presbyterian Clergyman, 700 Park avenue, New York City; residence 18 East 92d street. Born in Poughkeepsie, N. Y., Sept. 11, 1834. Educated at Columbia (54). (Married Hulda F. Seagrave of Providence, R. I., 1858.) Entered Methodist Episcopal ministry in 1860, but changed to Presbyterian Church in 1863. Pastor of a church in Troy, N. Y., 1863-73; Church of the Covenant in New York City, 1873-88. Member of the faculty of the Union Theological Seminary since 1888. Author of many religious works. Trustee Columbia University in the City of New York. Member Columbia Alumni and Century Associations.

VINTON, ARTHUR DEDLEY—Lawyer, 206 Broadway, New York City; residence 223 West 11th street. Born in Brooklyn, N. Y., Dec. 23, 1852. Educated at Brooklyn Polytechnic Institute and at Columbia College Law School (73). Practicing in New York City since 1879. Author of "The Pomfret Mystery," "Looking Further Backward," etc.

VIOLETT, ATWOOD—Cotton Merchant, 30 Broad street, New York City; residence 490 West End avenue. Born in New Orleans, La., Feb. 19, 1847. Educated in New Orleans. (Married.) Senior member of the firm of Atwood Violet & Co., members of the New York Cotton and New York Coffee Exchanges. Has been engaged in the cotton trade at New Orleans or New York since 1869. Associate member of the Liverpool Cotton Association. Member Union Club, Southern Society and Sons of the American Revolution.

VIRGIN, SAMUEL H.—Clergyman, 148 West 121st street, New York City. Born in North Carver, Mass., Aug. 25, 1812. Educated at Boston Latin School, Harvard University and at Andover Theological Seminary; received degree of D.D. from University of New York and LL.D. from Iowa College. (Married Isadora F. Blodgett of Boston, Mass.) Corporate member American Board of Church Foreign Missions, American Tract Society, American Bible Society and many other institutions. Chairman of publishing committee the American Tract Society and of many executive and advisory committees. Member Union League, Harlem, Congregational and Harvard Clubs, New England and Philothean Societies, Sigma Chi Fraternity and Sons of the American Revolution.

VIRT, FRANKLIN C.—Secretary, Stapleton, S. I. Born in New York City, May, 1853. Educated in public schools. Resident of Staten Island since 1865. Justice of the peace for the town of Middletown, 1883-97; clerk of the Board of Supervisors, 1890-7; secretary of the School Board for the Borough of Richmond of the City of New York since 1898.

VIVANTI, FERRUCCIO, A.—Raw Silk Merchant, 84 Mercer street, New York City; residence 993 Madison avenue. Born in Mantua, Italy, Nov. 27, 1851. Educated at Dulwich College and King's College, London, England. (Married.) Senior member of the firms of Vivanti Bros. of New York City, and Vivanti Bros. of Yokohama, Japan. Member Players', Lotos, Lambs' and Merchants' Central Clubs, Tokyo Club of Tokyo, and Yokohama United Club of Yokohama, Japan.

VIZETELLY, FRANK HORACE—Author, 200 West 142d street, New York City. Born in London, England, April 2, 1864. Educated in France and in England. (Married Bertha M. Krehbiel, 1894.) Resident of New York City since 1889. Author of "Romance of the Finger Ring," "The Fan in Romance and History," "Sunshades and Umbrellas," "The History of the Glove" and other works.

VOGEL, HERMAN—Lawyer, 38 Park row, New York City; residence 315 East 29th street, Brooklyn. Born in New York City, May 15, 1860. Educated at St. Matthew's Academy. (Married.) Member Cortelyou Club of Brooklyn.

VOLK, DOUGLAS—Artist, 215 West 57th street, New York City. Born in Pittsfield, Mass., Feb. 23, 1856. Educated in Chicago, Ill., Rome, Italy, and in Paris, France. (Married Marion B. Larrabee of Chicago, Ill., 1881.) Has exhibited at various expositions and has been awarded many prizes.

VOLLMER, EDWARD R.—Banker and Broker, 39 Broad street, New York City. Member of the firm of Rudolph Keppler & Co., and of the New York Stock Exchange.

VOM CLEFF, ROBERT—Importer of Hardware and Cutlery, 105 Duane street, New York City; residence 973 Summit avenue, Jersey City, N. J. Born and educated in Germany. (Married.) Member Hardware Club.

VON BERNUTH, FREDERICK A.—Dry Goods Commission Merchant, 477 Broome and 79 Worth streets, New York City; residence 37 West 37th street. Member of the Firm of Hardt, Von Bernuth & Co. President and director Curtis & Von Bernuth Mfg Co.; vice-president and director Germania Fire Insurance Co.; director German-American Bank, Germania Life Insurance Co. and International Insurance Co. Member Merchants' Club and Liederkrantz.

VON BERNUTH, OSCAR—Malt Merchant, foot of East 63d street, New York City; residence 62 East 75th street. Born in Germany, June 23, 1857. Educated at a German university. (Married.) Member of the firm of Neidliger & Sons. Member German Club, Liederkrantz and National Amateur Billiard Association.

VON BRIESEN, FRITZ—Lawyer, 229 Broadway, New York City; residence 1 East 47th street. Born in Brooklyn, N. Y., Nov. 3, 1874. Educated at Harvard (96) and New York University Law School (97). (Single.) Member of the firm of Briesen & Knauth. President Citizens' Union Club of the Twenty-seventh and Twenty-ninth Assembly Districts. Member Knickerbocker Athletic and Harvard Clubs and Phi Delta Phi Legal Fraternity.

VON GLAHN, JOHN—Deputy Register, Hall of Records, New York City; residence 55 West 33d street. Member Manhattan, Democratic and Lotos Clubs, Arion Society and Liederkrantz.

VON HERFF, BALDWIN—Chemist, 93 Nassau street, New York City. Educated in Berlin. Connected with the German Kali Works. Member Camera Club, American Chemical Society and Liederkrantz.

VON RAMDOHR, CAESAR A.—Physician and Surgeon, 45 Irving place, New York City. Born in Sandfort, Germany, Sept. 4, 1855. Educated in Göttingen, New York, London and Vienna. Degree of M.D. (Married.) Secretary and trustee German Poliklinik; director St. Mark's Hospital. Formerly professor of obstetrics New York Post Graduate Medical School. Member Obstetrical, New York County Medical, State Medical and German Medical Societies, Liederkrantz, Society of Medical Jurisprudence, New York County Medical Association and New York Academy of Medicine.

VON STADE, FREDERICK W.—Merchant, 73 Beekman street, New York City; residence 316 Fifth avenue. Member Union League, Union, New York Yacht, Riding and Lambs' Clubs.

VON STAMWITZ, GEORGE C.—Lumber Merchant, and Accountant, 368 Broome street, New York City; residence 249 Macon street, Brooklyn. Born in Berlin, Germany, Jan. 16, 1866. Educated in Berlin. Became a citizen of the United States in 1892. (Married.) Vice-president H. Herrmann Mfg Co. of Evansville, Ind.; secretary and director H. Herrmann Lumber Co.; formerly secretary and director H. Herrmann Saw Mill Co. of Ashland and Beattyville, Ky. Began in above companies as junior clerk in 1881. Was elected chairman of celebration on the occasion of their twenty-fifth business anniversary on Oct. 12, 1892, in which several thousand employees participated.

VOORHEES, DOMINICUS S.—Lawyer, 29 Nassau street, New York City; residence 282 President street, Brooklyn. Educated at Union College. Member University Glee Club, Crescent Athletic Club of Brooklyn, and Union College Alumni Association.

VOORHEES, JAMES D.—Physician, 447 West 59th street, New York City. Born in Morristown, N. J., May 21, 1869. Educated at Princeton and at New York College of Physicians and Surgeons. (Single.) Instructor in obstetrics, College of Physicians and Surgeons; formerly resident physician Presbyterian and New York Foundling Hospitals, and now of Sloane Maternity Hospital. Member Princeton Club.

VOORHIS, CHARLES C.—Woolen Merchant, 79 Worth street, New York City; residence Oradell, Bergen Co., N. J. Born in Hackensack, N. J., March 21, 1863. Educated at Hackensack Academy. (Married.) Member Arkwright, New York Athletic and National Arts Clubs and Metropolitan Museum of Art.

VOORHIS, ERNEST—Protestant Episcopalian Clergyman, 20 East 50th street, New York City; residence 230 West 105th street. Born in New York City, March 8, 1859. (Son of Commodore Jacob Voorhis, Jr.) Educated at Princeton University ('80) and General Theological Seminary ('85). Honorary degrees from Icaal Seminary ('85). Honorary degrees from New York University of A.M., '91, and Ph.D., '93. Ordained deacon, 1885 and priest, 1886. (Married.) In charge of Mission of St. John the Evangelist, St. Johns, Rockland Co., N. Y., 1885-8; assistant at St. Augustine's Chapel, Trinity Parish, New York City, 1889; instructor in classics at the Cutler School, New York City since 1890; missionary priest for the City Mission Society since 1898. Author of "Dissertation on C. V. Paternulus" and other classical subjects. Member Princeton Club and Chancellor Walworth Lodge No. 271, F. & A. M.

VOORHIS, JOHN R.—Stair Builder, 16 Bethune street, New York City; residence 786 Greenwich street. Born in Morris County, N. J., July 27, 1829. Educated in private schools in New York City. (Married.) Trustee Northern Dispensary. Has been commissioner of excise, of police (four times) and of docks. Member Manhattan, Democratic, Building Trades and Abingdon Clubs, Holland Society and General Society of Mechanics and Tradesmen.

VOSE, GEORGE HOWE—Secretary, 140 Broadway, New York City. Born in Boston, Mass., May 20, 1822. Educated in Boston. (Married.) Secretary Safe Deposit Co. of New York. Member New England, American Geographical and Botanical Societies, Order of Founders and Patriots of America and Sons of the Revolution.

VREDENBURGH, ALFRED P.—Secretary, 55 Liberty street, New York City; residence Bayonne, N. J. Born in New York City, Nov. 22, 1847. Educated in New York City. (Married.) Member Holland Society.

VREDENBURGH, JAMES B.—Storage Warehouse, 1554 Broadway, New York City; residence Jersey City, N. J. Secretary and director T. J. Stewart

Co. Member Lawyers' and Union League Clubs, and Carteret Gun and Palma Clubs of Jersey City.

VREELAND, HERBERT H.—Railroad President, 621 Broadway, New York City; residence 278 West 86th street, and Brewsters. Born in Glen, Montgomery Co., N. Y., 1848. Educated in public schools. (Married.) At ten years of age was driving grocery wagon in Jersey City; in 1875 was shoveling gravel on a night construction train on the Long Island Railroad; then made inspector of ties and road bed; was appointed switch man at Bushwick, and when off duty secured the privilege of doing a part of the work of the clerks at station headquarters; was soon discharged, but again employed and sent to another division, where he swept and cleaned the cars, was made brakeman and afterward conductor, but was discharged because of an accident for which he was partly responsible. Began work again as brakeman on same railroad; became a conductor on the New York and Northern between New York and Yonkers, in 1881, and was rapidly advanced until within a year or two he practically managed the road. On an inspection trip, William C. Whitney, Daniel Lamont and others were conducted by Mr. Vreeland, whose ability aroused their interest in him, and four months later he was elected president, director and general manager of the Houston Street, West Street and Pavonia Ferry R. R. Co. Now president and director Metropolitan Street Ry. Co., Forty-second and Grand Streets R. R., Central Park, North and East River R. R., Bleecker Street and Fulton Ferry R. R., Twenty-third Street R. R., Fulton Street R. R., Thirty-fourth Street Ry., Metropolitan Traction Co., American Air Power Co. and Long Island Land Fertilizing Co.; director Brooklyn and Seventh Avenue R. R., Twenty-eighth and Twenty-ninth Streets R. R. Co., American Sugar Co., Broadway and Seventh Avenue R. R. and New York Street Ry. Association. Member Lawyers', Manhattan, Transportation and New York Railway Clubs, Metropolitan Street Railway Employees' Association (president), American Street Railway Association (second vice-president) and Street Railway Association of the State of New York (executive committee).

VROOMAN, JOHN W.—Insurance, 346 Broadway, New York City; residence Herkimer. Born in Herkimer County, N. Y., March 28, 1844. Educated in public schools. Served in United States Navy during Civil War. Studied law, was admitted to the Bar and began practice in Herkimer. Chief clerk in Surrogate's Court of Herkimer County, 1868-78; deputy clerk in New York State Assembly, 1876-7; clerk of State Senate, 1878-88; secretary of Republican State Committee, 1880-8; candidate on Republican ticket for Lieutenant-Governor, 1891; Presidential Elector, 1892. In business in New York City since 1890. Superintendent and director Provident Savings Life Assurance Society; director Herkimer National Bank; trustee Holland Trust Co. and Mount Hope Cemetery Association. Member Union League, Lotos, Republican and Arkwright Clubs, Montauk Club of Brooklyn, and Holland Society.

W

WADHAMS, FREDERICK E.—Lawyer, 33 Tweddle Building, Albany; residence 140 State street. Born in Wadhams Mills, Essex Co., N. Y., Sept. 27, 1848. Educated at Cornell and in Law Department of Union University at Albany. (Married.) Secretary New York State Bar Association. Member Country and Fort Orange Clubs, Society of Colonial Wars, Sons of the Revolution, New York State Bar and American Bar Associations, and Master's Lodge No. 5, F. & A. M.

WADSWORTH, CRAIG WALTON—Horse Breeder, Geneseo; residence Knickerbocker Club, New York City. Born in Philadelphia, Pa., Jan. 12, 1872. Educated in Pottstown, Pa., and at Harvard. (Single.) Aide-de-camp with rank of major on the staff of Governor Theodore Roosevelt. Member Union, Knickerbocker, Racquet and Tennis, Coney Island Jockey, and Genesee Valley Hunt Clubs, Metropolitan Club of Washington, D. C., and National Steeplechase and National Hunt Associations.

WADSWORTH, GEORGE—Lawyer, 626 Ellicott square, Buffalo; residence 370 Franklin street. Born in Litchfield, Conn., March 10, 1830. Educated in Connecticut schools and academies. (Married.) Member of the firm of Wadsworth, Blackmon & Wadsworth. President Buffalo Savings and Loan Association and Aurora and Buffalo Park R. R. Co.; vice-president Columbia National Bank and Protective Life Assurance Society. Ex-attorney of the City of Buffalo. Member Buffalo Club, Sons of the American Revolution, Ancient Landmarks Lodge, F. & A. M. and Adytum Chapter, R. A. M.

WADSWORTH, HENRY COWLES—Lawyer, 626 Ellicott square, Buffalo; residence 370 Franklin street. Born in Buffalo, Aug. 31, 1861. Educated in Buffalo public and private schools. (Married.) First lieutenant and commissary of subsistence, 65th Regiment, N. G. N. Y., 1889-97; major and commissary of subsistence, 4th Brigade, N. G. N. Y., since 1897. Junior member of the firm of Wadsworth, Blackmon & Wadsworth. Secretary and attorney Buffalo Savings and Loan Association and several others; director and attorney Protective Life Assurance Society. Member Saturn and Ellicott Clubs, Buffalo Republican League and Ancient Landmarks Lodge No. 441, F. & A. M.

WADSWORTH, HERBERT—Avon, Livingston County. Member Knickerbocker Club of New York City, Genesee Valley Club of Rochester, Metropolitan Club of Washington, D. C., Somerset, Country, Eastern Yacht and Union Boat Clubs of Boston, Mass., and American Geographical Society.

WADSWORTH, JAMES W.—Congressman, House of Representatives, Washington, D. C.; residence Geneseo. Born in Philadelphia, Pa., Oct. 12, 1846. Educated in New Haven, Conn. Served in Union Army throughout Civil War. Supervisor of the town of Geneseo, 1875-7; assemblyman, 1878-9; Comptroller of the State of New York, 1880-1; Congressman from the Thirtieth District, 1881-5, and again since 1891. Member Union and Union League Clubs of New York City.

WADSWORTH, WILLIAM AUSTIN—Farmer, Geneseo; residence Knickerbocker Club, New York City. Born in Boston, Mass. Educated at Harvard ('70). (Married.) Formerly major and quartermaster, United States Volunteers, on staff of General Merritt, serving in the Philippines. Member Metropolitan, Players', Knickerbocker, New York Yacht and University Clubs and Century Association of New York City, Metropolitan Club of Washington, Genesee Valley Club of Rochester, and Eastern Yacht, Tavern and Somerset Clubs of Boston.

WAGNALLS, ADAM WILLIS—Publisher, 30 Lafayette place, New York City. Born in Lithopolis, Ohio, Sept. 24, 1833. Educated at Wittenberg College.

(Married.) Engaged in publishing business in New York City since 1876. Vice-president and director Funk & Wagnalls Co., publishers of the "Standard Dictionary." Member Ohio Society.

WAGNER, ARNOLD HARRIS—Lawyer, 202 Broadway, New York City; residence 64 Macon street, Brooklyn. Born in Palatine Bridge, Montgomery Co., N. Y., July 11, 1831. (Son of James and Katherine [Dillenbach] Wagner.) Educated in public schools. Studied law in New York City and was admitted to the Bar in 1852. Makes a specialty of real estate law. Served for a time as chairman of the Republican General Committee, and has been a delegate to many political conventions.

WAGNER, CHARLES GRAY—Physician, Binghamton. Educated at Cornell. Degrees of B.S. and M.D. Superintendent of the New York State Hospital at Binghamton. Trustee Cornell University, term expiring in 1901.

WAGNER, CLINTON—Physician, 19 East 38th street, New York City. Born in Baltimore, Md., Oct. 28, 1837. Educated at the College of St. James and at the University of Maryland (M.D.). (Married Elizabeth Vaughan of London, England.) Served in a surgical capacity in Union Army throughout Civil War, and was brevetted major and lieutenant-colonel. Practicing in New York City since 1872 as a specialist in diseases of the nose and throat. Member Union League Club and Military Order of the Loyal Legion.

WAGNER, FREDERIC C.—Real Estate, 45 Broadway, New York City; residence 134 East 44th street. Member Union League and Transportation Clubs, Down Town Association and Lafayette Post, G. A. R.

WAGNER, RICHARD—Prisms, 1123 Broadway, New York City; residence Montclair, N. J. Born in New York City, June 23, 1869. Educated at Cornell ('90). (Married.) New York City representative of the Daylight Prism Co. of America. Member Cornell University Club and Liederkrantz.

WAGNER, ROBERT L.—Artist, 140 Fifth avenue, New York City. Born in Detroit, Mich., Aug. 2, 1872. Educated at the University of Michigan. (Single.) Artist on the "Criterion" since 1897. Member 7th Regiment, N. G. N. Y.

WAGSTAFF, ALFRED (Colonel)—Lawyer, Madison square, East, New York City; residence 21 West 21st street. Clerk of the Appellate Division of the Supreme Court, First Department. Secretary and director John Anderson & Co.; trustee Atlantic Trust Co.; director Brooklyn City and Newtown R. R. Co., Christopher and Tenth Streets R. R. Co., Coney Island and Brooklyn R. R. Co. and Seventh National Bank. Member Union, South Side Sportsmen's, Lawyers', South Shore Country and Carmens River Clubs, St. Nicholas Society, Aldine Association and Military Order of the Loyal Legion.

WAINWRIGHT, JOHN HOWARD—Chemist, 402 Washington street, and 159 Front street; residence 22 West 46th street, and Rye. Born in New York City, Feb. 14, 1862. Educated at School of Mines of Columbia University. (Married.) Member of the firm of Simonds & Wainwright. United States Government Chemist, 1883-98. Member St. Anthony, American Yacht and Church Clubs and Columbia University Alumni Association.

WAINWRIGHT, JOHN TILLOTSON—Broker, 45 Broadway, New York City; residence 23 East 28th street. Member of the New York Stock Exchange firm of White & Wainwright. Member American Yacht, Calumet and Union Clubs, Society of Colonial Wars and Sons of the Revolution.

WAINWRIGHT, STUYVESANT—Metal Commission Merchant, 81 Fulton street, New York City; residence "Buckthorne," Rye. Born in New York City, June 13, 1863. Educated in the United States, France and Germany. (Married.) Member Union, American Yacht, Apawamis Golf and Whist Clubs.

WAIT, FREDERICK S.—Lawyer and Author, 10 Wall street, New York City; residence Union League Club. Born in Montgomery, N. Y., May 15, 1851. Educated in Newburgh, N. Y., and at Albany Law School. (Single.) Secretary and director L. Marcotte & Co. Author of "Wait on Fraudulent Conveyance." Member Reform, Union League and Democratic Clubs, Association of the Bar of the City of New York and Forest Lake Association.

WAIT, LUCIEN AUGUSTUS—Professor, Cornell University, Ithaca; residence 135 East avenue. Born in Highgate, Vt., Feb. 8, 1846. Educated at Phillips Exeter Academy and at Harvard (A.B., '70). (Married.) Connected with the mathematical department of Cornell since 1870, and now professor of mathematics and head of mathematical department. United States Consul at Athens and Piræus, Greece, 1873-4. Member Phi Beta Kappa and American Mathematical Societies, Zeta Psi Fraternity, and Institute of 1770 at Harvard University.

WAITE, H. H.—Banker, Adams. Born, 1864. Educated at Williams College. (Single.) Cashier and director Citizens' National Bank. Member Zeta Psi Fraternity.

WAITE, HENRY RANDALL—Statistician, 177 Broadway, New York City; residence Glenwood place, East Orange, N. J. Born in Copenhagen, N. Y., Dec. 16, 1846. (Descendant of Capt. Richard Waite, aide to Governor Winthrop, and first marshal of the Colony of Massachusetts.) Educated at Hamilton College, Union Theological Seminary and in Europe. Degree of Ph.D. (Married Carrie A., daughter of William A. Huntoon.) Has been editor of the "University Review," New Haven, Conn., "Evening Journal," "International Review" and "American Magazine of Physics." As statistician of the Tenth United States Census, conducted inquiries as to education, illiteracy and religious organizations. Now president and director of the Executory Corporation. Founder and, since 1885, president of the American Institute of Civics. Member Order of Founders and Patriots of America and deputy governor of the New Jersey Society of that body and member of its general court; also member Delta Upsilon Society and other organizations.

WAKEFIELD, JAMES C.—Diamond Expert, 19 Maiden lane, New York City; residence 40 East 33d street, Bayonne, N. J. Born, Oct. 15, 1853. (Married.) Secretary and director Aikin Lambert & Co.; director Aikin Lambert Jewelry Co. (Ltd.).

WAKEMAN, THADDEUS BURR—Lawyer, 93 Nassau street, New York City; residence 142 East 35th street. Born in Fairfield County, Conn., Dec. 23, 1834. Educated at Princeton. Studied law and was admitted to the Bar in 1856. (Married Emily F. Ludlam of Oyster Bay, N. Y., 1859). Member of the firm of Wakeman & Wakeman. Director Associated Colonies and Petral Guano Co. Has devoted considerable of his time to literature, and has made translations of Goethe's religious and other poems. Member Manhattan Liberal, Shakespeare, Dante, Nineteenth Century and Goethe Clubs and Medico-Legal and Authors' Societies.

WAKEMAN, WILBUR F.—Customs Official, 641 Washington street, and Secretary, 135 West 23d street, New York City; residence 111 East 24th street. United States Appraiser at the Port of New York. Secretary of the American Protective Tariff League. Member Republican, Columbia Yacht, Press and Craftsmen's Clubs and Kane Lodge No. 454, F. & A. M.

WALBRIDGE, CHARLES E.—Hardware Merchant, 332 Main street, Buffalo; residence 120 Oakland place. Born in Buffalo, July 24, 1841. Educated in Buffalo schools. (Married.) Second lieutenant, first lieutenant and captain 109th New York Volunteers and brevet major and lieutenant-colonel United States Volunteers, 1861-5. President Buffalo Seminary; director Niagara Mfg Buildings. Member Independent and Ellicott Clubs and Military Order of the Loyal Legion.

WALBRIDGE, ROBERT R.—Merchant, 410 Broadway, New York City; residence 37 Prospect Park, West, Brooklyn. Member Hamilton, and Marine and Field Clubs of Brooklyn, Merchants' and Reform Clubs and Sons of the Revolution.

WALCOTT, ARTHUR S.—Lawyer, 59 Wall street, New York City; residence 5 East 43d street. Born in New York City, July 28, 1869. Educated at Harvard College ('91) and Law School. (Single.) Director Hanover Fire Insurance Co. Member University, Baltusrol Golf and Harvard Clubs, Society of Colonial Wars, Company "K," 7th Regiment, N. G. N. Y., and Association of the Bar of the City of New York.

WALCOTT, MORGAN—Shipmaster, 2 Wall street, New York City; residence 34 West 24th street. Born in New York City, Oct. 13, 1866. Educated at Yale. (Single.) Master of United States Army Transport "Crook." Member Racquet and Tennis and Reform Clubs and Military Order of the Loyal Legion.

WALCOTT, FREDERIC COLLIN—Cotton Cloth Manufacturer, New York Mills. Born in New York Mills, Feb. 9, 1869. Educated at Yale ('91). (Married.) Director and manager New York Mills; manager Aragon Mills and agent Walcott & Campbell Spinning Co. Member Fort Schuyler Club of Utica, and University Club of New York City.

WALCOTT, W. STUART—Cotton Cloth Manufacturer, Utica; residence New York Mills. Born in New York Mills, Feb. 11, 1843. Educated in Clinton (N. Y.) Academy. (Married.) President New York Mills, Aragon Mills of Georgia, Board of Education of New York Mills, and Oneida National Bank of Utica; vice-president Savings Bank of Utica; director Utica Trust and Deposit Co. and other corporations.

WALDEN, FRANKLIN—Wine Importer, 2A Platt street, New York City; residence Gasport, Niagara County. Born in Brooklyn, N. Y., Oct. 15, 1847. Educated at Erasmus Hall, Flatbush, and in public schools. (Married.) Candidate for Presidential Elector on Democratic ticket in Pennsylvania, 1888. Member Sons of the Revolution and Military Order of Foreign Wars.

WALDEN, LIENAU—Fruit Grower and Packer, 165 Duane street, New York City; residence Brooklyn. Born in Philadelphia, Pa., Dec. 16, 1860. Educated at the University of Pennsylvania. (Married.) Member of the firm of Walden & Co., of New York City, and Geyserville, Cal. Member Crescent Athletic Club of Brooklyn, and Sons of the Revolution.

WALES, CHARLES M.—Manager, 11 Broadway, New York City; residence 256 West 85th street. Member Engineers' Club, American Society of Mechanical Engineers, Society of Naval Architects and Marine Engineers and Metropolitan Museum of Art.

WALES, EDWARD HOWE—Manufacturer, Poughkeepsie; residence Hyde Park. Born in New York City. Educated in School of Mines of Columbia University. (Married.) President Knickerbocker Cement Co. Member Union League, New York Yacht and Players' Clubs, American Fine Arts Society and Metropolitan Museum of Art of New York City, and Larchmont Yacht Club.

WALES, SALEM H.—Commissioner, 49 Chambers street, New York City; residence 25 East 55th street. Born in Wales, Hampden Co., Mass., Oct. 4, 1825. Educated in common schools and at Attica (N. Y.) Academy. Resident of New York City 1846. Managing editor of the "Scientific American," 1848-71; president of the Department of Parks, 1873; president of the Department of Docks, 1874-6; park commissioner, 1880-5; New York commissioner to the Paris Exposition of 1885; served on executive committee of the Christian Commission during Civil War; delegate to the National Republican Convention of 1872; Republican candidate for Mayor of New York City, 1874; vice-president of the New East River Bridge Commission since 1895. Member of executive committee Metropolitan Museum of Art; director Hanover Fire Insurance Co., National Bank of North America, Southampton (L. I.) Bank and Southampton Water Works Co. Member Union League, Press and Church Clubs, Meadow Brook Hunt Club, Golf Club of Southampton, New England Society, Century Association, National Academy of Design, American Museum of Natural History and Metropolitan Museum of Art.

WALES, THERON A. D.—Physician, 403 William street, Elmira. Born in Weymouth, Mass., July 15, 1842. Educated at the University of Pennsylvania ('73). (Married.) Vice-president Co-operative Loan Association; director Second National Bank. Member Century Club, New England Historic-Genealogical Society, Order of Founders and Patriots of America and Sons of the American Revolution.

WALKER, ALBERT HENRY—Lawyer, 100 Broadway, New York City; residence Hotel Majestic. Born in Fairfax, Vt., Nov. 25, 1844. Educated in common schools and in the Law Department of Northwestern University ('77). (Married.) Non-resident lecturer in the College of Law of Cornell University and in the Law Department of the University of Michigan. Author of "Walker on Patents." Member Sons of the American Revolution.

WALKER, ALDACE F.—Railroads, 59 Cedar street, New York City; residence 55 West 74th street. Born in West Rutland, Vt., May 11, 1842. Educated at Middlebury (Vt.) College ('62) and at Columbia College Law School. Served with New York Volunteers during Civil War and advanced to the rank of lieutenant-colonel. Practiced law in New York City, 1867-73; in latter year removed to Rutland, Vt.; State senator, Vermont, 1882; member of Interstate Commerce Commission, 1887-9; chairman of Western Traffic Association, Chicago, Ill., 1889-92; receiver of the Atchison, Topeka and Santa Fe R. R. Co., 1894-6. Chairman of the board of directors Southern California Ry. Co., Santa Fe Pacific R. R. Co., Gulf, Colorado and Santa Fe Ry. Co. and Atchison, Topeka and Santa Fe Ry. Co. Member Metropolitan, Lawyers' and Chicago (Ill.) Clubs, Army and Navy Club of Washington, D. C., Century Association and Military Order of the Loyal Legion.

WALKER, ALEXANDER—Banker, 480 Columbus avenue, New York City; residence 414 Riverside Drive. Born in Scotland, June 25, 1852. Educated in a parish school in Scotland and at an evening high school in New York City. (Married.) President and director Colonial Bank. Member West Side Republican and New York Caledonian Curling Clubs, General Society of Mechanics and Tradesmen, Scottish Society and West End Association.

WALKER, CHARLES A.—Transportation, 21 Cortlandt street, New York City; residence 158 West 77th street. Born in Albany, N. Y., June 23, 1843. Educated in public schools. (Married.) Secretary, treasurer and director Adirondack Ry. Co. and New York and Canada R. R. Co.; treasurer and director Cherry Valley, Sharon and Albany R. R. Co. and Lackawanna and Susquehanna R. R. Co.; director Rutland R. R. Co., Schenectady and Duanesburgh R. R. Co. and Albany and Susquehanna R. R. Co.; trustee Franklin Savings Bank. Member Colonial Club (trustee), Albany Society of New York, Military Order of the Loyal Legion, Society of the Army of the Potomac, Society of Nineteenth Army Corps and Society of Fifth Army Corps.

WALKER, CHARLES L.—Life Insurance, 253 Broadway, New York City; residence 466 Washington avenue, Brooklyn. Born in Piermont, N. Y., July 2, 1848. Educated in public schools. (Married.) Has held official positions in several insurance and other organizations. Now general agent Prudential Insurance Co. Member Montauk and Church Clubs, Mistletoe Lodge No. 647, F. & A. M., Orient Chapter No. 133, R. A. M., Gilbert Council, Royal Arcanum, Masonic Veterans and New York Life Underwriters' Association (ex-vice-president).

WALKER, E. A.—Banker, 883 Manhattan avenue, Brooklyn; residence 135 Oakland street. Born in Becket, Mass., Jan. 2, 1830. (Married.) President and director Seventeenth Ward Bank of Brooklyn; vice-president and trustee Greenpoint Savings Bank.

WALKER, HARRY W.—Secretary, 280 Broadway, New York City; residence 200 West 107th street. Born in St. Louis, Mo., 1860. (Son of Hon. Ralph Walker.) Educated at Drury College. Resident of New York City since 1875. Engaged for many years in newspaper work, was for a time a member of the European staff of the Associated Press and was stationed in London. Has been secretary of the Aqueduct Commission of the City of New York since 1898.

WALKER, HENRY F.—Physician, 18 West 55th street, New York City. Educated at Middlebury (Vt.) College ('60). Member Metropolitan, University and South Side Sportsmen's Clubs, New England Society and Century Association.

WALKER, HENRY OLIVER—Artist, 154 West 55th street, New York City; residence Windsor, Vt. Born in Boston, Mass., May 14, 1843. Educated under Bonnat in Paris, France. (Married.) Painter of decorations in Congressional Library, Washington, D. C., and Appellate Division Court House, New York City. Member New York Athletic Club, Century Association, National Academy of Design, Society of American Artists and National Society of Mural Painters.

WALKER, JOHN A.—Manufacturer, 68 Reade street, New York City; residence 260 Montgomery street, Jersey City, N. J. Born in New York City, Sept. 22, 1837. Educated in Brooklyn public schools. (Married.) Vice-president and director Joseph Dixon Crucible Co. and Colonial Life Insurance Co.; director Butler Hard Rubber Co. and New Jersey Title Guarantee and Trust Co. Formerly president of Jersey City Board of Education for two terms, and of Cosmos Club for two terms. Member Twilight and Patria Clubs, Union League, Carteret Gun, Jersey City, Palma, Cosmos Clubs and Free Kindergarten Association (president) of Jersey City, and American Institute of Mining Engineers.

WALKER, JOHN BRISBEN—Editor and Publisher, 503 Fifth avenue, New York City; residence Irvington-on-Hudson. Born in Pennsylvania, Sept. 10, 1847. Educated at Georgetown College and at the United States Military Academy. (Married.) Proprietor, publisher and editor of "The Cosmopolitan" magazine, which he founded in 1889; president and director Mobile Co. of America. Member Ardsley Casino of Ardsley-on-Hudson, and Century Association.

WALKER, JOHN TEMPEST, JR.—Architect, 156 Fifth avenue, New York City; residence Flushing, L. I. Educated at Columbia. Member Players', Psi Upsilon and University Glee Clubs, Niantic Club of Flushing, L. I., and Columbia University Alumni Association.

WALKER, NORMAN S., JR.—Broker, 71 Broadway, New York City; residence New Brighton, S. I. Born in New York City. Educated in Rugby, England. Member of the firm of Walker Bros. and of the New York Stock Exchange. Member Richmond Country Club and Southern Society.

WALKER, WILLIAM DAVID—Protestant Episcopalian Bishop, 314 Delaware avenue, Buffalo. Born in New York City, June 29, 1839. Educated at Trinity School, Columbia University (A.B., '59, and A.M., '62) and at the General Theological Seminary (D.D., '62). Received degree of D.D. from Racine College in 1884 and from the University of Oxford in 1894, S.T.D. from Columbia in 1884, LL.D. from Griswold College in 1886 and from Trinity College, Dublin, Ireland, in 1894, and D.C.L. from Kings College, Nova Scotia, in 1892. (Single.) Vicar at Calvary Chapel, New York City, 1862-83; missionary bishop to North Dakota, 1883-96. Protestant Episcopalian Bishop of Western New York since 1896. Member University Club.

WALKLEY, WEBSTER R.—Hardware Manufacturer, 27 Murray street, New York City; residence 578 Washington avenue, Brooklyn. President H. D. Smith & Co.; director Peck, Stow & Wilcox Co. and Southington Cutlery Co. Member Union League and Hardware Clubs, Phi Nu Theta and Theta Delta Chi Fraternities and Phi Beta Kappa Society.

WALL, CHARLES A.—Physician and Surgeon, 306 Hudson street, Buffalo. Born in Buffalo, Sept. 24, 1853. Educated at Central High School of Buffalo, Syracuse University (B.S. and M.S.) and University of Buffalo (M.D.). (Married Annie Powell.) Assistant surgeon 74th Regiment, 1880-5. Member University, Acacia and Medical Clubs, Erie County Medical Society and New York State Medical and American Medical Associations.

WALL, FRANCIS H.—10 Hamilton terrace, New York City. Born in Waverly, Pa., April 19, 1858. (Single.) Member Colonial New York Athletic and Suburban Riding and Driving Clubs.

WALL, THOMAS G.—Presbyterian Clergyman, 41 East 70th street, New York City; residence 1142 Madison avenue. Born in Nova Scotia, Aug. 24, 1824. Educated at Princeton College and Seminary. (Married.) Superintendent Presbyterian Hospital, 1879-92. Now president and trustee Gramercy Co.; chaplain Presbyterian Hospital. Member Princeton Club and Presbyterian Union.

WALL, WILLIAM F.—Rope Merchant, 56 South street, New York City; residence 133 East 34th street. Secretary, treasurer and director William F. Wall Rope Co. Member Racquet and Tennis and New York Athletic Clubs, and Crescent Athletic Club of Brooklyn.

WALLACE, DAVID F.—Wall Paper Manufacturer, Cortland; residence 18 Church street. Born in Vermont. Educated at Cortland Normal School. (Married.) Was supervisor of town of Cortlandville for two years. President Wallace Wall Paper Co. and board of trustees of Presbyterian Church. Member Tioughnioga Club.

WALLACE, EDWARD C.—Iron Manufacturer, 66 Broadway, New York City; residence 19 East 69th street. Member of the firm of William H. Wallace & Co. Director Metropolitan Life Insurance Co. Member Metropolitan, Union League, American Yacht, Church, Fairfield County (Conn.) Golf and Stamford (Conn.) Yacht Clubs and Ardsley Casino of Ardsley-on-Hudson.

WALLACE, JOHN — Stock Broker, 66 Broadway, New York City; residence 52 West 36th street. Born in Lancaster County, Pa., Aug. 27, 1844. Educated at Union College ('65). (Widower.) Member of the firm of John Wallace & Co., and of the New York Stock Exchange. Member Metropolitan, Union League, Union, Westminster Kennel, Tuxedo, Suburban Riding and Driving, South Side Sportsmen's, Racquet and Tennis, University and Riding Clubs, New England Society and Union College Alumni Association.

WALLACE, R. J.—Educator, Avon. Born in Cattaraugus, N. Y., Feb. 19, 1853. Educated at Chamberlain Institute and Mount Hope College. (Married.) Principal Avon High School; director State Bank of Avon; school commissioner Second District of Cattaraugus County. Member Masonic Order.

WALLACE, WILLIAM COPELAND—Lawyer, 18 Wall street, New York City; residence 69 Gates avenue, Brooklyn. Born in Brooklyn, May 21, 1856. (Son of William Henry and Francis [Copeland] Wallace.) Educated at Adelphi Academy ('72), Wesleyan University ('76) and Columbia Law School ('78). (Married) Kate Douglas, daughter of Hon. J. W. Douglas of Middletown, Conn.) Representative in Congress, 1888-90; Judge-Advocate General New York State, 1894-6; formerly alumni trustee Wesleyan University. Director Hamilton Trust Co. of Brooklyn; trustee Dime Savings Bank of Brooklyn. Member University, Players', Riding and Driving, and Lawyers' Clubs, Oxford and Hamilton Clubs of Brooklyn, and Metropolitan Club of Washington, D. C.

WALLACE, WILLIAM H.—Iron and Steel Manufacturer and Merchant, 66 Broadway, New York City; residence 451 Clinton avenue, Brooklyn. Born in New York City, Feb. 2, 1831. Educated in New York City. (Married.) Member of the firm of William H. Wallace & Co. Vice-president Franklin Trust Co. and Schermerhorn Bank, both of Brooklyn; director Central Iron and Steel Co. of Harrisburg, Pa., Phenix Insurance Co., Brooklyn Life Insurance Co., Union Assurance Society of London, England, Law Union and Crown Life and Fire Insurance Co. of London, State Fire Insurance Co. (Ltd.) of Liverpool, Dime Savings Bank of Brooklyn, and Brooklyn Warehouse and Storage Co. Member Players' and Lawyers' Clubs, and Church and Hamilton Clubs of Brooklyn.

WALLACE, WILLIAM J.—Architect, 1 Union square, New York City; residence Whitestone, L. I. Educated at Columbia. Member Oakland Golf Club, Architectural League, Squadron "A," N. G. N. Y., and Columbia University Alumni and Architectural Associations.

WALLACE, WILLIAM JAMES — United States Judge, 136 Post Office Building, New York City; residence 148 State street, Albany. (Son of E. Fuller and Lydia [Wheelwright] Wallace.) Educated by private tutors and at Hamilton College and Law School. Received degree of LL.D. from Hamilton College and from Syracuse University. Was admitted to the Bar in 1858, and engaged in practice in Syracuse. Mayor of Syracuse, 1873-4; United States Judge for the Northern District of New York, 1872-82; United States Judge for the Second Judicial Circuit since 1882. Member Fort Orange Club of Albany.

WALLACH, ISAAC—Cotton Goods Merchant, 33 Thomas street, New York City; residence 12 East 62d street. Born in Germany, Nov. 5, 1841. Educated in Hartford, Conn. (Married.) Member of the firm of H. Wallach's Sons. President Mount Sinai Hospital; director Mercantile National Bank. Member Harmonie Club and of many charitable societies.

WALLAU, GEORGE J.—Importer of Mineral Waters, 2 Stone street, New York City; residence 321½ State street, Brooklyn. Born in New York City, Oct. 17, 1871. Educated in France and Germany. (Married.) Assistant manager Paris house of Wyckoff, Seamans & Benedict. Member Union League Club of Brooklyn.

WALLER, ELWYN — Chemist, 159 Front street, New York City; residence 7 Franklin place, Morristown, N. J. Born in New York City, March 22, 1845. Educated in private schools, at Harvard ('67) and at the School of Mines of Columbia University ('70). Chemist to New York Health Department, 1872-85; professor of analytical chemistry at Columbia University, 1885-93. Member University, Harvard, City and Chemists' Clubs and Century Association.

WALLER, WILLIAM B.—Presbyterian Clergyman, 373 Huguenot street, New Rochelle. Born in Berwick, Pa. Educated at Princeton University and at Princeton Theological Seminary. (Married.) Pastor of First Presbyterian Church, New Rochelle, since 1882. Member Presbyterian Union.

WALLING, JAMES H.—Monuments, 21 Park row, New York City; residence 635 Hancock street, Brooklyn. Born in Burlington, Otsego Co., N. Y., Feb. 2, 1843. Educated at Delaware Literary Institute in Franklin, N. Y., and at Walton (N. Y.) Academy. (Married.) Member Lafayette Post No. 140, G. A. R.

WALRADT, ARTHUR E.—Lawyer, 52 Broadway, New York City; residence Park avenue, New Rochelle. Born in Northbridge, Mass., June 3, 1861. Educated at Yale College ('80) and Yale Law School ('83). (Married.) Director Phoenix Interior Telephone Co. Member University, Pelham Country, New Rochelle Rowing and Apawamis Clubs, Society of Medical Jurisprudence, Yale Alumni Association and Association of the Bar of the City of New York.

WALSH, JAMES J.—Lawyer, Criminal Court Building, New York City; residence 31 Oliver street. Born in New York City. Educated in public schools, at Manhattan College (A.B., '77) and at Columbia College Law School. Was admitted to the Bar in 1880. Served for a time as a school inspector and as a member of Congress. Is now an assistant district attorney of New York County.

WALSH, JAMES W.—Stock Broker, 26 Broad street, New York City; residence 525 Madison avenue, and Lawrence, L. I. Born in New York City, April 25, 1852. Educated in New York City. (Married) Susan N. Lawrence.) Member of the firm of Walsh & Floyd and of the New York Stock Exchange. Member St. Nicholas Society, Society of Colonial Wars and Sons of the Revolution.

WALSH, RICHARD L.—Builder, 47 Cedar street, New York City; residence 102 West 73d street. Born on Island of Guernsey, April 17, 1804. Educated at the College of Our Lady of the Rosary, Guernsey. (Married.) Member Building Trades, Drug Trade and Catholic Clubs, Crescent Athletic Club of Brooklyn, and Penatiquit-Corinthian Yacht Club.

WALSH, SAMUEL A.—Stock Broker, 80 Broadway, New York City; residence 31 West 39th street. Member New York Stock Exchange and of the Metropolitan, Knickerbocker, South Side Sportsmen's and Union Clubs, Society of Colonial Wars and Sons of the Revolution.

WALSH, WILLIAM W.—Broker, 37 William street, New York City; residence 946 President street, Brooklyn. Member New York Stock Exchange firm of George H. Prentiss & Co. Member Montauk Club of Brooklyn.

WALTER, MARTIN—Real Estate, 735 Tremont avenue, New York City; residence 2082 Washington avenue. Born and educated in New York City. (Married.) Formerly member of the executive committee, North Side Board of Trade. Director Retail Grocers' Publishing Co., Tremont Building and Loan Association and Bronx Borough Bank. Member Schnorrer Club, A. O. U. W., Royal Arcanum, Independent Order of Odd Fellows and Masonic Order.

WALTER, T. HENRY—Stock Broker, 36 Wall street, New York City; residence Stamford, Conn. Member of the firm of C. I. Hudson & Co., and of the New York Stock Exchange. Member Calumet Club.

WALTER, WILLIAM I.—Wholesale Dry Goods Merchant, 51 White street, New York City; residence 115 West 57th street. Born in New York City, April 26, 1862. Educated at Columbia ('81). (Married.) Member of the firm of Bernheimer & Walter. Member Reform, Manhattan, Merchants' Central, Lotos, Atlantic Yacht and Century Country Clubs, Columbia University Alumni Association and Metropolitan Museum of Art.

WALTERS, RICHARD M.—Piano Manufacturer, 105 West 33d street, New York City; residence 120 Central Park, South. Member Press, Catholic, New York Athletic and Democratic Clubs and Metropolitan Museum of Art.

WALTHER, FRANK O.—Manufacturer, 66 Duane street, New York City; residence 847 Carroll street, Brooklyn. Born in Brooklyn, 1868. Educated at Brooklyn Polytechnic Institute and at Sheffield Scientific School, Yale ('87). (Single.) Member of the firm of Walther & Co. Member Hamilton Club of Brooklyn, and Dutchess County Golf Club.

WALTON, EDWARD A.—Insurance, 156 Broadway, New York City; residence Ridgewood, N. J. Born in New York City, May 9, 1836. Educated in Williamsburg (L. I.) Grammar School. (Married.) President and director Citizens' Insurance Co.; vice-president and director Ridgewood Hall and Park Association; treasurer and director Long Branch (N. J.) Water Supply Co.; director Manhattan Life Insurance Co., National Citizens' Bank, Union Selling Co., and Bergen County (N. J.) Gas and Electric Co.; trustee Manhattan Savings Institution. Member Ridgewood (N. J.) Club, Monmouth Beach (N. J.) Country Club (president), North Jersey Country Club of Paterson, Union League Club and Metropolitan Museum of Art.

WALTON, ERNEST F.—Stock Broker, 10 Broad street, New York City; residence Rochelle Park, New Rochelle. Born in New York City, April 5, 1871. Educated at Haverford College. (Married.) Member of the New York Stock Exchange. Director Tinkham Cycle Co.; formerly president Tinkham Co., Walton-Tinkham Mfg Co., and Dennison Motor Wagon Co.

WALTON, WILLIAM—Artist, 360 West 22d street, New York City. Born in Philadelphia, Pa. (Single.) Member Architectural League and Century Association.

WALWORTH, CLARENCE A.—Roman Catholic Clergyman, Albany. Born in Plattsburg, N. Y., May 30, 1820. (Son of Reuben H. Walworth, who was at one time Chancellor of the State of New York.) Educated in common schools and at Union College. Studied law and was admitted to the Bar in 1841. Became interested in church work and began study for the Episcopal ministry, but his study changed him to the Roman Catholic faith. Spent several years in Belgium and Holland, and was ordained in 1848. Returned to the United States in 1850, and spent fifteen years in preaching and conducting missions throughout the country in connection with the Redemptorist Order and Congregation of Paulists. Pastor of St. Peter's Church at Troy, 1865-6; of St. Mary's Church at Albany since 1866. Received degree of LL.D. from the Regents of the University of the State of New York in 1887.

WANDELL, TOWNSEND—Lawyer, 51 Chambers street, New York City; residence 157 East 83d street. Born in New York City. Educated at the College of the City of New York and Columbia Law School. (Single.) Member New York Historical, New York Genealogical and Biographical, St. Nicholas, Phi Beta Kappa and Holland Societies, Sons of the Revolution, Metropolitan Museum of Art and Phi Beta Kappa Alumni Association.

WANDLING, JAMES L.—Glove Merchant, 548 Broadway, New York City; residence 55 West 33d street. Trustee New York Savings Bank. Member Republican and Twilight Clubs.

WANN, JOHN T.—Auditor, 21 Cortlandt street, New York City; residence 37 Fifth avenue. Born in Ireland. Educated at Royal Belfast Academical Institution. (Married.) Auditor Erie R. R. Co., New York, Susquehanna and Western R. R. Co. and others. Ex-auditor New York, Pennsylvania and Ohio R. R. Co.; ex-secretary Cleveland, Columbus, Cincinnati and Indianapolis Ry. Co. and Indianapolis and St. Louis Ry. Co. Member Richmond County Country Club and Ohio Society.

WARBURTON, FRANK T.—Lawyer, 65 Wall street, New York City; residence 322 West 86th street. Born in New York City. Educated at Columbia College and Columbia Law School. (Single.) Connected with the firm of Nash & Jones. Recording secretary of the Protestant Episcopal Church Missionary Society for Seamen in the City and Port of New York; manager of the New York Bible and Common Prayer Book Society. Member Church, Colonial, West Side Republican and Indian Harbor Yacht Clubs, Phi Beta Kappa Society and Columbia University Alumni Association.

WARD, CHARLES H.—Retired Banker, 159 West 73d street, New York City. Born in New York City, Oct. 17, 1833. Educated at Columbia. (Married.) Member Union League and Delta Phi Clubs, St. Nicholas Society, National Academy of Design, New York State Society of the Cincinnati and Columbia University Alumni Association.

WARD, CHARLES WILLIS—Capitalist, Queens, L. I. Born in Isabella County, Mich., Dec. 11, 1856. (Son of David Ward.) Received a general business education in Detroit. (Married.) Manager of the Cottage Gardens. Has served as president of the Board of Education of Queens. Member of executive committee Society of American Florists, American Carnation Society and Horticultural Society of New York. Member New York Florists' and Detroit (Mich.) Clubs, Massachusetts Horticultural, Pennsylvania Horticultural, American Carnation and American Rose Societies and Society of American Florists.

WARD, DELANCEY WALTON—Chemist, 289 Fourth avenue, New York City; residence Flusing, L. I. Born in New York City, July 8, 1866. Educated at Columbia. (Married.) Professor of dental chemistry and metallurgy in the New York Dental School since 1894. Member American Chemical Society and New York Academy of Sciences.

WARD, EDGAR MELVILLE—Artist, 51 West Tenth street, New York City; residence 48 West 20th street. Born in Urbana, Ohio, Feb. 24, 1839. Educated at Miami University. Studied art at the National Academy of Design in New York City, and at the Ecole des Beaux Arts, Paris, France. Member of the faculty at the National Academy of Design. Has exhibited at various expositions and in the Paris Salons. Member Century Association.

WARD, E. MORTIMER—Ship Chandler, 43 South street, New York City; residence City Club. Born in New York City, Oct. 15, 1872. Educated in New York City. (Married.) Member of the firm of Hegeman & Ward. Member Suburban Riding and Driving and City Clubs and Squadron "A," N. G. N. Y.

WARD, FREDERIC A.—Lawyer, 31 Nassau street, New York City; residence 161 Remsen street, Brooklyn. Ex-president Yale Alumni Association and New England Society; ex-Justice Supreme Court, President Greenwood Cemetery; director People's Trust Co., Long Island Historical Society and Brooklyn Library. Member Lawyers' Club, Brooklyn, Crescent Athletic and Hamilton Clubs of Brooklyn, Sons of the Revolution and Yale Alumni Association.

WARD, FREEMAN F.—Physician, 6 East 58th street, New York City. Born in Ohio, June 21, 1851. Educated in Ohio and at New York College of Physicians and Surgeons (M.D.). (Married.) Attending physician Out-Patient Department of Roosevelt Hospital. Member Ohio, New York County Medical and German Medical Societies, Sloane Maternity Alumni Association and Baptist Social Union.

WARD, GEORGE GRAY, JR.—Physician and Surgeon, 230 Central Park, South, New York City. Born in London, England, Aug. 15, 1868. Educated at Brooklyn Polytechnic Institute, Long Island College Hospital, and University of Berlin, Germany. (Married.) Major and surgeon 12th Regiment New York Infantry, United States Volunteers, during Spanish-American War. Adjunct professor of gynecology, New York Post-Graduate Medical School; instructor in obstetrics Cornell University Medical College, and assistant attending physician Mothers' and Babies' Hospital. Member New York Athletic, Hospital Graduates' and Calumet Clubs, Medical Society of the County of New York, Military and Naval Order of Spanish-American War, New York Academy of Medicine (Fellow) and Society of Foreign Wars.

WARD, HENRY C.—Storage, 1 Broadway, New York City; residence 431 Fifth avenue. Director German Alliance Insurance Co. and German-American Insurance Co. Member Union League, Union, Lambs', New York Athletic, Larchmont Yacht, Westchester Country and Coney Island Jockey Clubs and Chamber of Commerce.

WARD, HENRY GALBRAITH—Lawyer, 160 Broadway, New York City; residence 816 Madison avenue. Born in New York City, April 19, 1851. Educated at the University of Pennsylvania ('70). (Married.) Member of the firm of Robinson, Biddle & Ward. Member University and City Clubs, Century and Down Town Associations and Association of the Bar of the City of New York.

WARD, JAMES H.—Lawyer, 69 Wall street, New York City; residence Rye. Educated at Columbia ('84). Member University, American Yacht and Psi Upsilon Clubs, Apawamis Club of Rye, and Columbia University Alumni Association.

WARD, J. CARLTON—Insurance, 1 Madison avenue, New York City; residence Hackensack, N. J. Born in Albany, N. Y., Feb. 19, 1855. Educated at Albany Academy. (Married.) General special agent Northwestern Mutual Life Insurance Co. of Milwaukee, Wis.; vice-president Agents' Association of same. Member Hanover Club of Brooklyn, Oritani Field and Hackensack (N. J.) Golf Clubs, and Albany Society of New York.

WARD, JOHN ELLIOTT—Lawyer, 59 Wall street, New York City; residence 48 West 17th street. Born in Sunbury, Liberty Co., Ga., Oct. 2, 1814. Son of William and Annie [McIntosh] Ward. Educated in academies and at Amherst College (LL.D., '91). Studied law in Savannah, Ga., and at Harvard Law School. Solicitor-general for the Eastern District of Georgia, 1836-8; United States District Attorney for Georgia, 1838; member of the Georgia Legislature, 1839, 1845 and 1853; Mayor of Savannah, 1854; president of the National Democratic Convention of 1856; President of the Georgia Senate, 1857; United States Minister to China, 1858-61.; Practicing law in New York City since 1866. Member Manhattan Club, American Geographical Society, Century Association and Association of the Bar of the City of New York.

WARD, RAYMOND L.—Grain Merchant, 59 Broad street, New York City; residence 14 East 32d street. Member Metropolitan, Union League, Fencers', Riding, Olympic, Rockaway Hunting, Westchester Country and New York Athletic Clubs and Liederkranz.

WARD, REGINALD HENSHAW—Banker and Broker, 30 Broad street, New York City; residence 683 Fifth avenue, and London, England. Member New York Stock Exchange firm of Clark, Ward & Co. Prominently identified with the industry of copper mining. Member Westchester Country, Union, Metropolitan, Turf and Field, and Suburban Riding and Driving Clubs, New England Society, Circle Colon Cervantes, Sons of the Revolution, Society of Mayflower Descendants and America's Founders and Defenders.

WARD, RICHARD HALSTED—Physician, 53 Fourth street, Troy. Born in Bloomfield, N. J., June 17, 1837. Educated at Williams College (A.B., '58) and at the New York College of Physicians and Surgeons (M.D., '62). Practicing in Troy since 1863. Specialist and lecturer on microscopy before scientific societies. Fellow American Association for the Advancement of Sciences.

WARD, SAMUEL BALDWIN—Physician, 281 State street, Albany. Born in New York City, June 8, 1842. Educated at Columbia ('61) and in the Medical Department of Columbian University, Washington, D. C. (Married.) Professor of theory and practice of medicine at Albany Medical College; consulting physician to St. Peter's Hospital; attending physician Albany Hospital. Member Fort Orange (ex-president), Camera (ex-president) and Country Clubs, University Club and Century Association of New York City, Association of American Physicians and Medical Society of the State of New York (ex-president).

WARD, SYLVESTER L.—Lawyer, 67 Wall street, New York City; residence White Plains. Educated at Columbia. Member American Yacht and Democratic Clubs, Columbia University Alumni Association, Sons of the Revolution, Lafayette Post, G. A. R., Society of Colonial Wars and Association of the Bar of the City of New York.

WARD, WILLARD PARKER—Mining Engineer, 35 Wall street, New York City; residence 164 West 58th street. Born in New York City, Oct. 12, 1845. Educated at Columbia (A.B., '65) and in Germany. (Married Ruby, daughter of John Erskine, United States Judge for the District of Georgia, 1872.) Engaged in gold and silver mining in the West for fifteen years. Engaged in professional work since 1869. Director West India Improvement Co. Member University, Metropolitan, Racquet and Tennis, Tuxedo, New York Yacht, Larchmont Yacht, Island Golf, Players', Richmond Hill Golf, Atlantic Yacht and Seawanhaka-Corinthian Yacht Clubs, Denver and University Clubs of Denver Colo., Columbia University Alumni and Down Town Associations and American Institute of Mining Engineers.

WARD, WILLIAM GREENE (General)—Retired Army Officer, 17 Broad street, New York City; residence 351 Lexington avenue. Educated at Columbia. Member Richmond County Country and St. Anthony Clubs, Columbia University Alumni Association and Society of the Cincinnati.

WARD, WILLIAM HAYES—Editor, 130 Fulton street, New York City; residence "Stone House," Abington avenue, Newark, N. J. Born in Abington, Mass., June 25, 1835. Educated at Phillips Andover Academy, Amherst College, Sheffield Scientific School of Yale University, and at Andover Theological Seminary. Degrees of A.M., D.D. and LL.D. (Widower.) Editor of "The Independent" since 1870. Formerly president of the American Oriental Society; was director of the Wolfe Expedition to Babylonia. Trustee Amherst College, American Missionary Association and Congregational Church Building Society. Member Authors' Club and Amherst College Alumni Association.

WARDE, FREDERICK—Actor, White Lake, Born in Wardington, Oxfordshire, England, Feb. 23, 1851. Educated in England. (Married.) Resident of the United States since 1874. Has supported Edwin Booth and John McCullough. Starring at the head of his own company since 1881.

WARDELL, N. P.—Banker, Watertown; residence 12 Clinton street. Born in Watertown, 1846. Educated in Watertown, and Easthampton, Mass. (Married.) Cashier Watertown National Bank; director Farmers' National Bank of Adams; trustee Jefferson County Savings Bank.

WARDWELL, HENRY L.—Broker, 2 Produce Exchange, New York City; residence 27 West 20th street. Born in Dresden, Yates Co., N. Y., April 2, 1850. Educated at St. Paul's School, Concord, N. H., and at Hobart College. (Married, 1874.) Member of the firm of McIntyre & Wardwell, and of the New York Stock Exchange. Member Sigma Phi, St. Nicholas and Manhattan Clubs, Otsego (N. Y.) Golf Club, and Metropolitan Museum of Art.

WARDWELL, I. FRANKLIN—Dental Surgeon, 35 West 38th street, New York City; residence Stamford, Conn. Born in Stamford, Oct. 10, 1854. Educated at Philadelphia Dental College (D.D.S.). (Married.) Formerly one of the demonstrators in the Philadelphia Dental College, member of Company "C," 4th Regiment, Connecticut National Guard, for five years, and in Signal Service Corps for one year. Now clinical instructor in the University of Pennsylvania. Member Camera Club, Stamford Yacht Club, Wee Burn Golf Club of Noroton, Conn., Odontological Society of New York, First District Dental Society and Society of Stomatology.

WARDWELL, RICHARD P.—Iron and Steel Manufacturer, 6 Harrison street, New York City; residence 64 West 37th street. Born in New York City. Educated in Brooklyn. (Single.) Senior member of the firm of R. P. Wardwell & Co. Member Reform Club, and Excelsior and Marine and Field Clubs of Brooklyn.

WARDWELL, WILLIAM T.—Capitalist, 26 Broadway, New York City; residence 21 West 58th street. Born in Bristol, R. I. Prominently identified with the Prohibition party in political affairs; was candidate for Mayor of New York City in 1886, and was nominated for Governor in 1900. Connected with the Standard Oil Co. President and treasurer New York Red Cross Hospital; director Traders' Fire Insurance Co.; trustee Colonial Trust Co. and Greenwich Savings Bank.

WARE, FREDERICK A.—Lawyer, 76 Elm street, New York City; residence 138 West 36th street. Born in New York City, Jan. 24, 1865. Educated at Grammar School No. 26. College of the City of New York and at Columbia Law School. (Married.) Alderman, 1895-7; member of Assembly, 1899. Member of the firm of Ware & Bernstein. Member Edenia (president) and Republican Clubs and Society of Medical Jurisprudence.

WARE RICHARD F.—Mailing Tube Manufacturer, 108 Park row, New York City; residence 138 West 36th street. Born in New York City, May 16, 1833. Educated in New York City. (Widower.) Ex-vice-president Consolidated Fireworks Co. and ex-foreman of Grand Jury. Member New York Athletic and Lotos Clubs, Seventh Regiment Veteran Association, Old Guard, Sons of the Revolution and Lafayette Post, G. A. R.

WARE, WILLIAM ROBERT—Architect and Professor, 116th street and Morningside Heights, New York City; residence 130 East 27th street. Born in Cambridge, Mass., May 27, 1832. Educated at Phillips Exeter Academy and at Harvard (A.B., '52, and LL.D., '96). (Single.) Practiced architecture in Boston, Mass., 1860-81; professor of architecture at the Massachusetts Institute of Technology, 1865-81; professor of same at Columbia University in the City of New York since 1881. Member City Club, Architectural League, New England Society, Century Association and Metropolitan Museum of Art.

WARING, C. L.—Lawyer, 76 Water street, Newburgh; residence Palatine Hotel. Member Republican Club of New York City, and Powelton, Canoe, Orange Lake, Golf and City Clubs.

WARNER, ALTON G.—Physician, 194 Schermerhorn street, Brooklyn. Born in Dundee, Yates Co., N. Y., May 7, 1858. Educated at Claverack (N. Y.) College. (Married.) Ex-president Homeopathic Medical Society of Kings County. Member Crescent Athletic Club and of various national, state and county medical societies.

WARNER, ARTHUR S.—Silk Merchant, 107 Bleecker street, New York City; residence 331 West End avenue. Born in Northampton, Mass. (Married.) Manager William Skinner Mfg Co. Member Merchants' Central Club, Marine and Field Club of Brooklyn, and New England Society.

WARNER, JAMES HAROLD—Lawyer, 120 Broadway, New York City; residence 54 West 33d street. Born in Minneapolis, Minn., July 28, 1862. Educated in a private academy and at Columbia Law School. (Married.) Member Lawyers' and Lotos Clubs, Marine and Field Club of Brooklyn, Puritan Club of Boston, Mass., American Numismatic and Archaeological, and American Geographical Societies, Military Service Institution and Association of the Bar of the City of New York.

WARNER, J. FOSTER—Architect, 1036 Granite Building, Rochester; residence 109 Troup street. Born in Rochester, May 5, 1859. Educated in Rochester. (Married.) Member board of governors Rochester Homeopathic Hospital, and of the executive committee Rochester Telephone Co. Architect of Monroe County Court House and Granite Building in Rochester. Member Genesee Valley, Whist and Rochester Yacht Clubs, Rochester Historical Society and Sons of the American Revolution.

WARNER, JOHN B. YATES—350 Mt. Hope avenue, Rochester. Born in Rochester, 1845. Educated at Union College. (Married.) Connected with the Humane Society of Rochester. Member Whist and Rochester Clubs, and Sigma Phi Club of New York City.

WARNER, JOHN DE WITT—Lawyer, 111 Broadway, New York City; residence 1 West 81st street. Born in Reading, Schuylar Co., N. Y., Oct. 30, 1851. Educated at Starkey Seminary, at Cornell (Ph.B., '72) and at Albany Law School (LL.B.). (Married Lillian Augusta Hudson of Ithaca, N. Y., 1877.) Member of the firm of Peckham, Warner & Strong. Congressman, 1891-5. Ex-trustee of Cornell University. Member of the board of governors of the Cornell University Club; member Reform (ex-president), Delta Kappa Epsilon, Shakespeare and National Arts Clubs, National Sculpture Society, National Society of Mural Painters, Society of Medical Jurisprudence, Society of Colonial Wars, Metropolitan Museum of Art and Association of the Bar of the City of New York.

WARNER, LUCIEN CALVIN—Manufacturer and Mill Owner, 634 Broadway, New York City; residence Irvington. Born in Cuyler, N. Y., Oct. 26, 1841. Educated at Oberlin College and at Medical Department New York University; degrees of A.M. and M.D. (Married Keren Osborne.) Practiced medicine until 1874, in which year he entered manufacturing business. President and director International Phosphate Co.; president Women's Hotel Co.; vice-president and director Warner Bros. Co.; director Hamilton Bank and Home Insurance Co. Member Merchants' Central, Congregational, Patria, Adirondack League, University and Arts Clubs, Ardsley Casino of Ardsley-on-Hudson, and American Museum of Natural History.

WARNER, WARREN W.—Accountant, 35 Nassau street, New York City. Educated at Cornell ('91). Assistant National Bank Examiner of the United States Treasury Department. Member Cornell University Club.

WARREN, ALDICE G.—Lawyer and Insurance, 202 Broadway, New York City; residence 5 Spencer place, Brooklyn. Born in Sodus, Wayne Co., N. Y., Feb. 17, 1862. Educated at the University of Rochester ('93). (Single.) President and director Mutual Life Association. Member Delta Kappa Epsilon Club and Society of the Genesee.

WARREN, DORMAN T.—Manufacturer, 56 Worth street, New York City; residence 170 Central Park, South. Born in West Townsend, Mass., Oct. 6, 1827. (Married.) Vice-president and director Gutta Percha and Rubber Mfg Co. of Toronto, Canada; director Gutta Percha and Rubber Mfg Co. Member Chamber of Commerce and Board of Trade and Transportation.

WARREN, EDWARD R.—Manufacturer, 81 Fulton street, New York City; residence 39½ Washington square, South, and Brookline, Mass. Educated at Har-

Manufacturing Co. and Warren Scharf Asphalt Paving Co. Member Harvard Club, and Boston Athletic Association and University Club of Boston Mass.

WARREN, EDWARD WALPOLE—Protestant Episcopal Clergyman, 823 Madison avenue, New York City. Born in London, England, Nov. 28, 1839. Educated at Kings' College School and at University of Cambridge, England. (Married.) Formerly rector of Compton Martin in Somerset and of Holy Trinity Church in Lambeth, England, and a former mission preacher in English dioceses. Now rector St. James' Church and Church of the Holy Trinity. Member Players' Club, Century Association and Metropolitan Museum of Art.

WARREN, FRANK DALE—Paper Merchant, 280 Broadway, New York City; residence Fanwood, N. J. Educated at Phillips Andover Academy and at Amherst College. Member Delta Kappa Epsilon and Arkwright Clubs, and Amherst College Alumni, Phillips Andover Alumni and Aldine Associations.

WARREN, GEORGE FLINT, JR.—Lawyer, 27 William street, New York City; residence 239 West 71st street. Born in Lowell, Mass., Aug. 8, 1865. Educated at Columbia University ('88) and Columbia Law School. (Married.) Member of the firm of Anderson, Anderson & Warren. Formerly master of Kane Lodge No. 454, F. & A. M. Member Strollers', Country Cycle and Knollwood Country Clubs, Columbia University Alumni Association, Baptist Social Union (ex-president) and Association of the Bar of the City of New York.

WARREN, GEORGE THORNTON—Lawyer, 31 Nassau street, New York City; residence 8 West 28th street. Born in Troy, N. Y., April 18, 1868. Educated at St. Paul's School, Concord, N. H., and Trinity College ('90). (Single.) Member Union and University Clubs, Trinity College Alumni Association and Association of the Bar of the City of New York.

WARREN, GEORGE WILLIAM—Musician and Professor, 116th street and Morningside Heights, New York City; residence 40 Central Park, South. Born in Albany, N. Y., Aug. 17, 1828. Received a musical education. Professor of music at Columbia University in the City of New York. Organist of St. Thomas' Protestant Episcopal Church since 1870. Has composed much church music. Member Century Association and Metropolitan Museum of Art.

WARREN, IRA DE FOREST—Lawyer, 31 Nassau street, New York City; residence 7 West 26th street. Born in Albany, N. Y., Dec. 31, 1831. (Son of Rev. Ira D. and Eliza [Caldwell] Warren.) Educated in public schools and at Cazenovia Seminary. Studied law in Cortland, was admitted to the New York Bar in 1852, and to practice in the Supreme Court of the United States in 1872. Has practiced in New York City since his admission to the Bar, and is now senior member of the firm of Warren, Boothby & Warren. Member Manhattan Club, Cuttyhunk Club of Buzzard's Bay, Mass., and Association of the Bar of the City of New York.

WARREN, JOHN HOBART—Farmer, Hoosick Falls. Born and educated in Troy, N. Y. (Married.) Member Union League and Church Clubs of New York City, and Troy Club.

WARREN, LYMAN EDDY—Lawyer, 31 Nassau street, New York City; residence 260 West 57th street. Born in Cortland, Cortland Co., N. Y., Sept. 4, 1847. (Son of Rev. Ira D. and Eliza [Caldwell] Warren.) Educated at Montrose (Pa.) and Cortland Academies. Studied law in Cortland and was admitted to the Bar in 1868. Practiced at Cortland, Ithaca and Auburn, 1868-88, and in New York City since 1888. Member of the firm of Warren, Boothby & Warren. Was attorney for the estate of Ezra Cornell, founder of Cornell University.

WARREN, SAMUEL PROWSE—Organist and Teacher, 112 West 40th street, New York City; residence Yonkers. Born in Montreal, Canada, Feb. 13, 1841. (Son of Samuel Russel Warren.) Educated in Montreal and in Germany, 1861-4. (Married.) Formerly organist of All Souls' Unitarian Church, Grace Episcopal Church and Holy Trinity Church; conductor of New York Vocal Union, 1880-8. Author of sacred and secular musical compositions.

WARREN, WALTER P.—Manufacturer, 246 Water street, Troy; residence Montairy. Born in Troy, June 13, 1840. Educated at an academy. (Married, 1866.) President and director Fuller & Warren Co.; trustee Walter A. Wood Mowing and Reaping Machine Co. of Hoosick Falls, Fuller-Warren Co. of Milwaukee, Wis., Troy Savings Bank, Emma Willard Seminary and Episcopal Church Home. Member Troy (president) and Philadelphia Clubs, Union and Manhattan Clubs of New York City, New York Genealogical and Biographical, Mayflower, Founders' and Patriots', and Colonial Wars' Societies and Sons of the Revolution.

WARREN, WHITNEY—Architect, 160 Fifth avenue, New York City; residence 421 Madison avenue. Member Knickerbocker, Metropolitan, Racquet and Tennis and Players' Clubs.

WARREN, WILLIAM R.—Manufacturerr, 81 Fulton street, New York City; residence 155 West 74th street. Educated at Harvard ('83). President and director Warren Chemical and Manufacturing Co. and Warren-Scharf Asphalt Paving Co. Member Harvard, Reform, University, Barnard, Metropolitan and Fulton Clubs, Union and University Clubs of Boston, Mass., and New England Society.

WARREN, WILLIAM YOUNG—Asphalt Paving, 880 Ellicott square, Buffalo; residence 399 Porter avenue. Born in Buffalo, Aug. 30, 1845. (Son of Edward Stevens and Agnes [Latta] Warren.) Educated at Walnut Hill School, Geneva, N. Y., Buffalo High School, and Sheffield Scientific School of Yale University. (Married Clara, daughter of William Barton of New York City.) Cashier Barber Asphalt Paving Co.; secretary and treasurer Iroquois Iron Works and Ratty Metal Wall Plub Co. Member Saturn, Ellicott and Liberal Clubs, Sons of the Revolution and Society of Colonial Wars.

WARRING, CHARLES B.—Educator, Poughkeepsie. Born in Charlton, Saratoga Co., N. Y., Jan. 15, 1825. Educated at Union College. Received degree of Ph.D. from New York University. (Married Catharine A. Lent, 1849.) Member of the faculty at the Poughkeepsie Collegiate School, 1846-62. Established the Poughkeepsie Military Institute in 1863; retired, 1891. Contributor to magazines on scientific subjects. Member New York Academy of Sciences and other organizations.

WASHBURN, CYRUS V.—Lawyer, 189 Montague street, Brooklyn; residence 181 Arlington avenue. Born in Oxford, Chenango Co., N. Y., Sept. 27, 1860. Educated at Oxford Academy, Hamilton College and University of the City of New York. (Married.) Member of the firm of Washburn & Sickels. Secretary and treasurer Empire Hygienic Ice Co.; secretary American Ice Mfg Co.; counsel to several corporations. Formerly professor of commercial and municipal law in Brooklyn Polytechnic Institute. Member Crescent Athletic and Oxford Clubs, and Lawyers' and Democratic Clubs of New York City.

WASHBURN, FRANCIS—Protestant Episcopal Clergyman, 20 Bayview terrace, Newburgh. Born, July 9, 1843. Ordained deacon of the Protestant Episcopal Church in 1878 and priest in 1880. Rector of St. Andrew's Church, Walden, N. Y., 1879-82, and of the Church of the Holy Spirit at Rondout, 1882-92. Author of several religious works.

WASHBURN, FRANK SHERMAN—Civil Engineer, 27 William street, New York City; residence 125 West 44th street. Educated at Cornell (B.C.E., '83). Alumni trustee of Cornell University, term expiring in 1902. Member Cornell University and Alpha Delta Phi Clubs and American Society of Civil Engineers.

WASHBURN, JACOB—Lawyer, 1 County Court House, New York City; residence 71 West 124th street. Born in Dutchess County, N. Y., Aug. 9, 1856. (Son of Morgan S. and Nancy C. [Wickes] Washburn.) Educated at a seminary, at Oswego State Normal School and at Columbia College Law School. Practicing in New York City since his admission to the Bar in 1883. Assistant district attorney of New York County, 1891-3. Resigned to accept an appointment as probate clerk in the Surrogate's Court, which position he now holds. Member Sons of the Revolution, Metropolitan Museum of Art and Association of the Bar of the City of New York.

WASHBURN, JOHN H.—Fire Insurance, 119 Broadway, New York City; residence 39 West 47th street. Born in Amherst, Mass., Oct. 27, 1828. Educated at Amherst College. (Widower.) Vice-president and director Home Insurance Co.; director Chatham National Bank, New York Mutual Savings and Loan Association and New Amsterdam Casualty Co.; trustee Holland Trust Co. Member Lotos, City, Congregational and National Arts Clubs, New England Society, Amherst College Alumni Association, Order of Founders and Patriots of America, Sons of the Revolution, Society of Colonial Wars and Metropolitan Museum of Art.

WASHBURN, WILLIAM IVES—Lawyer, 71 Broadway, New York City; residence 39 West 47th street. Born in Bridgeport, Conn., Aug. 30, 1854. Educated at Amherst College and Columbia Law School. (Married.) Major and judge advocate of the 5th Brigade, N. G. N. Y. Member Congregational, Patria, Alpha Delta Phi and Adirondack League Clubs, Sons of the Revolution, Society of Colonial Wars, Amherst College Alumni and Century Associations and Association of the Bar of the City of New York.

WASHBURN, WILLIAM TUCKER—Lawyer, 11 Broadway, New York City; residence 1113 Lexington avenue. Born in New York City, 1841. Educated at Amherst College. Author of "Fair Harvard," "The Unknown City," etc. Member Amherst College Alumni Association.

WASHBURNE, WILLIAM A.—Sales Agent, 71 Broadway, New York City; residence 112 West 64th street. Born in Livingston, Columbia Co., N. Y., Sept. 4, 1860. Educated at De Garmo Institute, Rhinebeck-on-Hudson. (Married.) Sales agent Cambria Iron Co. President Washburne Drug Co. Member Knickerbocker Athletic and Dutchess County Clubs.

WASHINGTON, ALLAN C.—Capitalist, 1 Broadway, New York City; residence 28 East 62d street. President and director Horn Silver Mining Co.; treasurer, secretary and director New York and Coney Island R. R. Co. and Prospect Park and South Brooklyn R. R. Co. Member Metropolitan, New York Yacht, New York Athletic and New York Clubs, and Atlantic Yacht and Hamilton Clubs of Brooklyn.

WASHINGTON, WILLIAM DE H.—President, 1 Broadway, New York City; residence 267 Fifth avenue. President and director Washington-Goodwin Metre Co., Armour Villa Park Co., New York Model Dwellings Co., Hydraulic Construction Co. and Delany Sons' Co.; vice-president, treasurer and director New York and New Jersey Water Co.; vice-president and director Church Roller Bearing Co.; secretary and director New York and British Guiana Gold Mining Co.; director Bowling Green Trust Co. Member Calumet, City and Democratic Clubs, Southern Society, American Society of Civil Engineers, American Society of Mechanical Engineers, American Institute of Mining Engineers, American, New England and National Water Works Associations and Sons of the Revolution.

WATERBURY, JAMES M.—Capitalist, 150 Nassau street, New York City; residence "Pleasance," Westchester. Educated at Columbia. President and director New York Steel and Wire Co. and American Type Bar Machine Co.; vice-president and director Mount Olivet Cemetery; treasurer and director Waterbury Rope Co.; director Edison United Phonograph Co. and Electric Printer Co. Member Metropolitan, Union, Knickerbocker, Collie, University Athletic, New York Yacht, Seawanhaka-Corinthian Yacht and Westchester Country Clubs, Columbia University Alumni and Down Town Associations and Metropolitan Museum of Art.

WATERBURY, JAMES M., JR.—Broker, 35 Wall street, New York City; residence Knickerbocker Club, and Westchester. Educated at Columbia. Member Knickerbocker, Union, Seawanhaka-Corinthian Yacht and Westchester Country Clubs, and Columbia University Alumni Association.

WATERBURY, JOHN I.—Banker, Wall and Nassau streets, New York City; residence Morristown, N. J. Born in Stamford, Conn. Educated at College of the City of New York ('70). (Married.) President and director Manhattan Trust Co.; treasurer and director Lawyers' Surety Co.; director Audit Co. of New York, and Louisville and Nashville R. R. Co.; trustee Alliance Assurance Co. of London. Member Metropolitan, Lawyers', New York Yacht, Tuxedo, and Morris County (N. J.) Golf Clubs, Somerset Club of Boston, Philadelphia Club of Philadelphia, Chicago Club of Chicago, and Metropolitan Club of Washington.

WATERBURY, NELSON J.—Lawyer, 141 Broadway, New York City; residence Lakewood, N. J. Educated at Columbia. Director Universal Lock Co. Member Manhattan, Democratic and Delta Kappa Epsilon Clubs, Association of the Bar of the City of New York and Columbia University Alumni Association.

WATERHOUSE, JOHN—Civil and Consulting Engineer, 71 Broadway, New York City; residence 67 West 48th street. Born in Bucks County, Pa., Oct. 4, 1839. Educated in common schools. (Single.) Was chief engineer of the Manhattan Railway for nine years. Member Engineers' Club and American Society of Civil Engineers.

WATERMAN, E. D. MORGAN—Banker, 30 Broad street, New York City; residence 45 West 90th street. Born in New York City, Aug. 17, 1869. Educated in Williamstown, Mass. (Married.) Member of the firm of Ashwell & Co., and of the New York Stock Exchange. Member Knickerbocker Athletic, Knickerbocker Yacht and Sigma Phi Clubs.

WATERMAN, HERBERT L.—Agent, 71 Broadway, New York City; residence Prospect street and Park avenue, East Orange, N. J. Agent of the Cambria Steel Co. Member Engineers' Club.

WATERMAN, LEWIS EDSON—Manufacturer of Fountain Pens, 157 Broadway, New York City; residence 265 Macon street, Brooklyn. Born in Decatur, Otsego Co., N. Y., Nov. 20, 1837. (Son of Elisha Waterman; grandson of Daniel Waterman; great-grandson of Elisha Waterman, who fought in the Revolutionary Army.) Educated at a district school, and three months at Charlottesville Seminary. (Married.) Taught phonography in the University of Virginia previous to the Civil War. Represented the Aetna Life Insurance Co. of Hartford, Conn., in Boston, Mass., 1864-70. Established in business in New York City and invented the "Waterman Ideal Fountain Pen," one of the most successful of its kind on the market. President, treasurer and director L. E. Waterman Co. and Waterman Condensing Co. Member Crescent Athletic and Hamilton Clubs of Brooklyn, and Metropolitan Museum of Art.

WATERMAN, LEWIS E., JR.—Manufacturer, 157 Broadway, New York City; residence 175 West 97th street. Born in Newton, Mass., 1867. Educated in New York City Schools. (Married.) Vice-president and director L. E. Waterman Co. Ex-member 7th Regiment, N. G. N. Y.

WATERS, BERTRAM HOWARD—Physician, 59 West 36th street, New York City. Educated at Princeton and Columbia Universities. Assistant surgeon Presbyterian Hospital Dispensary and Trinity Hospital. Member Princeton and University Clubs.

WATERS, GEORGE SAFFORD—Decorator, 30 West 33d street, New York City; residence 202 West 74th street. Born in Troy, N. Y., March 21, 1864. Educated at Trinity College ('87) and Columbia School of Mines. (Married.) Member of the firm of Waters, Sherwin & Crowninshield. Member University and Strollers' Clubs, Architectural League, Trinity College Alumni Association and Delta Psi Fraternity.

WATERS, JOHN R.—Fire Insurance, 54 Franklin street, New York City; residence 144 West 76th street. Born in London, England, March 8, 1844. Educated in England and France. (Married.) Vice-president and director Irving National Bank. Member Manhattan and Merchants' Central Clubs, Aldine Association and Metropolitan Museum of Art.

WATERS, N. M.—Congregational Clergyman, Binghamton. Born in Virginia, 1866. Educated at University of West Virginia, and Boston University. (Married Katherine Pierce.) Formerly pastor of St. Luke's Church in Dubuque, Iowa, and Emanuel Church in Chicago. Now pastor of First Congregational Church of Binghamton. Member Binghamton and Broome County Country Clubs, Sons of the Revolution, and Chicago Historical Society.

WATERS, T. LEEDS—Piano Manufacturer, 134 Fifth avenue, New York City; residence 102 East 70th street. Born in Augusta, Me., Feb. 8, 1845. Educated at Brown University. (Married.) President, treasurer and director Horace Waters & Co. Member Colonial and Chi Psi Clubs, and Lincoln Club of Brooklyn.

WATERS, WILLIAM EVERETT—Educator, Wells College, Aurora. Born in Winthrop, Me., Dec. 20, 1856. Educated at Yale (A.B., '78, and Ph.D., '87). (Married) Alma F. Oyler of Cincinnati, Ohio, 1888.) President of Wells College since 1894.

WATKINS, CHARLES D.—Adjuster, 31 Nassau street, New York City; residence 1961 Madison avenue. Born in Oyster Bay, L. I. Educated in New York City. (Widower.) Secretary and treasurer Owl's Head Hotel Co.

WATKINS, S. HALSTEAD—Clergyman, 220 East 23d street, New York City; residence 335 East 22d street. Member Union College Alumni Association.

WATROUS, HENRY W.—Artist, 58 West 57th street, New York City; residence 352 Lexington avenue. Born in San Francisco, Cal., Sept. 17, 1857. Educated in New York City. Studied art in Paris, France. (Married) Elizabeth Nichols of New York City, 1887.) Member Union League and Metropolitan Clubs, Century Association and National Academy of Design.

WATROUS, WALTER W.—Lumber Merchant, 138th street and Gerard avenue, and 149th street and Harlem River, New York City; residence 1 East 60th street, and Tuxedo Park. Connected with the firm of Willson, Adams & Co. Director C. Graham & Sons Co. and Lafayette Fire Insurance Co. Member Metropolitan, Union League, Tuxedo, Racquet and Tennis, Carteret Gun and Lambs' Clubs and New England Society.

WATROUS, WILLIAM H.—Manufacturer, 11 Maiden lane, New York City; residence Hartford, Conn. Born in Hartford, Conn., July 16, 1841. Educated in public schools. (Married.) Director Connecticut River Bank, International Silver Co., Wm. Rogers Mfg Co., Norwich Cutlery Co., Watrous Mfg Co., Carleton Foundry Co., Dodd Lithographic Co. and Des Jardens Type Justifying Co. Served as second lieutenant Connecticut Volunteers, 24th Regiment, in 1863. Formerly alderman of Hartford and representative in Connecticut State Legislature. Member New York Yacht, Larchmont Yacht and Army and Navy Clubs, Hartford Yacht Club, Noble Order of the Mystic Shrine and a thirty-second degree Mason.

WATSON, AUSTIN H.—Merchant, 61 Leonard street, New York City; residence Stamford, Conn. Born in Wilmington, Vt., April 27, 1842. Educated in Wilmington. (Married.) Served with distinction during Civil War; storekeeper in charge of general supply department of Western Union Telegraph Co., 1866-80; member of the firm of Jas. E. Vail, Jr., & Co., 1880-7; senior member Watson, Bull & Co., 1887-96; senior member Watson, Porter, Giles & Co. since 1896. President New York Credit Men's Association; executor estates of Charles A. and Alamanzar Watson, deceased; trustee estate of Robert J. Lawler, deceased. Member Wool, Whist, Knickerbocker Athletic, Forest and Stream (president) and Hillandale Golf (vice-president) Clubs and Lafayette Post, G. A. R.

WATSON, BENJAMIN—Broker, 66 Beaver street, New York City; residence 109 Gates avenue, Brooklyn. Born and educated in Brooklyn. (Single.) Member New York Athletic Club.

WATSON, BENJAMIN FRANK—Lawyer, 314 Lexington avenue, New York City. Born in Warner, N. H., April 30, 1826. Studied law and was admitted to the Massachusetts Bar in 1850. Served as major and lieutenant-colonel in the 6th Massachusetts, which was the first regiment to volunteer for service in Civil War; was subsequently brevetted with the rank of colonel. Practicing law in New York City since 1867. Member Church and City Clubs, New England Society, Military Order of the Loyal Legion and Lafayette Post, G. A. R.

WATSON, BRUCE M.—Teacher, Seymour School, Syracuse; residence 103 Faye avenue. Born in Windor, N. Y., Feb. 28, 1860. Educated in Oswego. (Married.) Principal of Seymour School. Member of the Onondaga County Bar. Member Citizens' and School-masters' Clubs, Central City Lodge, F. & A. M., Onondaga Educational Council and New York State Council of Grammar School Principals.

WATSON, JAMES H.—Lumber Merchant, 420 Carroll street, Brooklyn; residence 421 Grand avenue. Born in Benson, Vt., June 11, 1813. Educated in public schools. (Married) Mary E. Richards, daughter of Pelatiah Richards of Warrensburgh, N. Y.) Member of the firm of Watson & Pittinger. Member Union League Club.

WATSON, THOMAS L. (Brigadier-General)—Broker, 60 Broadway, New York City; residence 295 West 57th street. Member of the firm of Watson & Gibson. President and director Consolidated Stock and Petroleum Exchange Building Co.; first vice-president and director Consolidated Stock and Petroleum Exchange of New York. Member Union League, Lotos, New York Yacht, Atlantic Yacht, Larchmont Yacht, Army and Navy and New York Athletic Clubs.

WATSON, WALTER, JR.—Broker, 80 Broadway, New York City; residence 52 West 52d street. Born in Canada. (Married.) Member of the firm of Watson & Brown, and of the New York Stock Exchange. Member Calumet, New York Yacht, Racquet and Tennis and Garden City Golf Clubs, and Ardsley Casino of Ardsley-on-Hudson.

WATSON, WILLIAM HENRY—Physician, 270 Genesee street, Utica. Born in Providence, R. I., Nov. 8, 1829. (Son of Hon. William Robinson and Mary A. [Earle] Watson.) Educated at Brown University (A.B., '52) and at the Hahnemann Medical College of Philadelphia (M.D., '54). (Married.) United States pension examining surgeon, 1875-81; Surgeon-General of the State of New York with the rank of brigadier-general, 1880. Regent of the University of the State of New York since 1881; trustee Middletown State Hospital, of which he was one of the founders, New York State Library and State Museum of Natural History. Member Fort Schuyler Club, University Club of New York City, American Historical Society, Brown University Alumni Association, Society of Colonial Wars and Founders and Patriots of America.

WATT, ARCHIBALD—Retired, 143d street, between Lenox and Seventh avenues, New York City. Born in Harlem, New York City, July 6, 1863. Educated in city private schools. Ex-commander American Yacht Club. Member Manhattan, Harlem, Driving and American Yacht Clubs, and Liederkrantz.

WATT, THOMAS L.—Banker, 83 East 125th street, New York City; residence 605 Fifth avenue. Born in New York City. Educated in New York City. (Married.) President and director Mount Morris Bank; vice-president Harlem Board of Commerce. Member Driving, Democratic, American Yacht, Suburban Riding and Driving and Jockey Clubs and Metropolitan Museum of Art.

WATTS, ALFRED ALLEN—Manufacturer, 52 Broadway, New York City; residence Nutley, N. J. Born in Brantford, Canada, March 19, 1869. Educated at Cornell. (Married.) Vice-president United States Pneumatic Horse Collar Co.; secretary, treasurer and director F. R. Broole Co. Member Cornell University Club.

WATTS, J. TYLER—Real Estate and Insurance, Jamaica; residence 60 Union avenue. Born in Hewletts, L. I., March 23, 1843. Educated at Union Hall Academy. (Married.) Was superintendent of Jamaica Gas Co. for eighteen years; president of village for eight years; trustee for ten years and sewer commissioner for five years. Now second vice-president Jamaica Savings Bank. Member Jamaica Club and Masonic Order No. 546.

WATTS, ROBERT—Physician, 45 West 36th street, New York City. Educated at Columbia. Member Army and Navy Club, and Columbia University Alumni and Century Associations.

WATTS, SAMUEL HUGHES—Stock Broker, 1 Nassau street, New York City; residence 37 West 81st street. Born in Paducah, Ky., 1869. Educated in New York City. (Married.) Member New York Stock Exchange and of the Harvard, University, Racquet and Tennis and Calumet Clubs.

WAY, FREDERICK T.—Insurance, 150 Broadway, New York City; residence Brooklyn. Born in New York City, Sept. 3, 1840. Educated in New York City. (Married.) Secretary Williamsburg City Fire Insurance Co.; treasurer Cypress Hill Cemetery. Member Long Island Historical Society and Brooklyn Institute of Arts and Sciences.

WAYLAND, CHANDLER N.—Retired, 9 West 36th street, New York City. Born in Connecticut, Sept. 5, 1835. Educated in Connecticut. (Married.) Director Benedict & Burnham Mfg Co., Waterbury Brass Co., New England Watch Co. and American Brass Co. Member Westchester County Country, Lotos, Manuscript, Patria, Suburban Riding and Driving, American Yacht, New York Yacht, New York and Twilight Clubs, New England Society and Chamber of Commerce.

WAYLAND, JOHN ELTON—Lawyer, 258 Broadway, New York City; residence 48 East 53d street. Born in Waterbury, Conn., Oct. 26, 1860. Educated at Yale. (Married.) Member University, New York Yacht and American Yacht Clubs and New England Society.

WAYNE, WILLIAM HUBBARD—Manager, 335 Schermerhorn street, Brooklyn; residence 381 First street. Born in Minaville, N. Y., Aug. 4, 1853. Educated in Johnstown, N. Y. (Married.) Ex-president New York Warehousemen's Association. General manager Brooklyn Warehouse and Storage Co. Member Bushwick and Logan Clubs, Neptune Lodge, F. & A. M., and Sons of the American Revolution.

WEATHERBEE, EDWIN H.—Lawyer and Merchant, 881 Broadway, New York City; residence 240 Madison avenue. Connected with the firm of Arnold, Constable & Co. Member Metropolitan, Union League, Riding, Suburban Riding and Driving, University, Knollwood, New York Yacht, Yale, American Yacht, Apawamis, Larchmont Yacht and Republican Clubs, American Museum of Natural History, New England Society, Metropolitan Museum of Art, Sons of the Revolution, Aldine Association, Chamber of Commerce and Board of Trade and Transportation.

WEAVER, STEPHEN J.—Banker and Broker, 3 Broad street, New York City; residence Hotel Majestic. Born and educated in Utica, N. Y. (Married.) Member of the firm of Weaver, Raborg & Co. Formerly member of the firm of S. J. Weaver & Co., and selling agent of the Washington Mills Co. of Lawrence, Mass.

WEAVER, WILLIAM D.—Editor, 120 Liberty street, New York City; residence 7 West 26th street. Born in Greensburg, Pa., Aug. 30, 1857. Educated at University of Kentucky, United States Naval Academy and Sorbonne (Paris) Laboratory. (Single.) Formerly engineer officer in United States Navy, and volunteer chief engineer United States steamer "Glacier" during Spanish-American War. Director and editor "Electrical World and Engineer"; director American Electrician Co. and McMan Publishing Co. Member Engineer's Club, American Institute of Electrical Engineers (manager), Society Internationale des Electriciens (France), Society of Naval Architects and Marine Engineers, Naval Institute and New York Electrical Society.

WEBB, ALEXANDER STEWART—Educator, 17 Lexington avenue, New York City; residence 15 Lexington avenue. Born in New York City, Feb. 15, 1835. Educated at United States Military Academy ('55). Served in Army of the Potomac during Civil War; became brigadier-general of volunteers in June, 1863, and was wounded at Gettysburg. After the war, served in regular army and reached brevet rank of major-general; discharged at his own request, Dec. 3, 1870. President of the College of the City of New York since 1869. Member Phi Beta Kappa Club, Century Association, Sons of the American Revolution, Military Order of the Loyal Legion, Society of Foreign Wars, Lafayette Post, G. A. R., and Society of the Cincinnati.

WEBB, CHARLES HATHAWAY—Dry Goods Merchant, 342 Broadway, and Manufacturer, 320 Broadway, New York City; residence 51 West 74th street. President and director Empire Self-Lighting

Oil Lamp Co.; treasurer and director Merchants' Association of New York. Member Colonial, Union League, Suburban Riding and Driving, Merchants' and Republican Clubs, New England Society, Order of Founders and Patriots of America and Sons of the Revolution.

WEBB, F. EGERTON—Banker, 37 Wall street, New York City; residence Hotel Buckingham. Born in Tarrytown, N. Y., 1858. Educated at Yale. Member of the New York Stock Exchange firm of Webb & Prall. Member Metropolitan Club, Ardsley Casino of Ardsley-on-Hudson, Society of Foreign Wars and Yale Alumni Association.

WEBB, GEORGE CREIGHTON—Lawyer, 35 Nassau street, New York City; residence 47 East 44th street. Born in New York State. Educated at St. Paul's School, Concord, N. H., and at Yale ('76). (Single.) Member of the firm of Saunders, Webb & Worcester. Formerly first secretary to the United States Legation at St. Petersburg; secretary of commission at Extraordinary Coronation of the Czar at Moscow, 1896; secretary to Special Embassy at Queen's Jubilee, London, 1897; major and inspector-general Second Division (General Lawton's), Fifth Army Corps, United States Volunteers, 1898. Member University, New York Yacht and Yale Clubs, Metropolitan Club of Washington, D. C., St. Nicholas and New England Societies, Society of Foreign Wars, Society of the Army of Santiago, Yale Alumni Association and Sons of the American Revolution.

WEBB, HENRY WALTER—Transportation, Grand Central Station, New York City; residence 25 East 62d street, and "Beechwood," Scarborough-on-Hudson. Born in Tarrytown, N. Y., May 6, 1852. (Son of James Watson Webb.) Educated at Churchill's School in Sing Sing, at School of Mines of Columbia University and at Columbia Law School. (Married Leila Howard, daughter of John A. Griswold of Troy, N. Y., 1884.) Practiced law in New York City as a member of the firm of Webb & Sprague until 1882; engaged in banking and brokerage business with W. S. Webb & Co., 1882-6; vice-president of the Wagner Palace Car Co., 1886-9; assistant to Chauncey M. Depew, President of the New York Central and Hudson River R. R. Co., 1889-90; third vice-president of the latter company, 1890-8; retired on account of ill health on March 26, 1898. Vice-president and director Carthage and Adirondack Ry. Co., Carthage Watertown and Sackett's Harbor R. R. Co., Dunkirk, Alleghany Valley and Pittsburg R. R. Co., Gouverneur and Oswegatchie Ry. Co., Mohawk and Malone R. R. Co. and Tivoli Hollow R. R. Co.; director Buffalo Erie Basin R. R. Co., Buffalo Thousand Islands and Cortlandt R. R. Co., Commonwealth Insurance Co., Depew Improvement Co., Hamilton Bank Note Engraving Co., International Pulp Co., Joseph Ladue Gold Mining and Development Co. of Yukon, Kensico Cemetery, Lincoln National Bank, Love Electric Traction Co., National City Bank, New Jersey Junction R. R. Co., New Jersey Shore Line R. R. Co., New York and Putnam R. R. Co., New York Central Niagara River R. R. Co., New York Mutual Gas Light Co., Niagara Falls Branch R. R. Co., Oswego and Rome R. R. Co., Rome, Watertown and Ogdensburg R. R. Co., Spuyten Duyvil and Port Morris R. R. Co., Terminal R. R. Co. of Buffalo, Terminal Warehouse Co., Troy Union R. R. Co., Utica and Black River R. R. Co. and Wagner Palace Car Co.; trustee Lincoln Safe Deposit Co., Mutual Life Insurance Co. of New York, and New York Security and Trust Co. Member City, Metropolitan, Union, Calumet, Transportation, University, Engineers', Lawyers', Grolier, New York Yacht, Lotos, Racquet and Tennis, Westchester Country, Westminster Kennel, Turf and Field and Riding Clubs, New England and Dunlap Societies, Columbia University Alumni and Century Associations, Ardsley Casino of Ardsley-on-Hudson, Association of the Bar of the City of New York, Sons of the American Revolution, American Institute of Mining Engineers and Metropolitan Museum of Art.

WEBB, SILAS D.—Merchant, 36 Burling Slip, New York City; residence 23 Remsen street, Brooklyn. (Married.) President and director China and Japan Trading Co. (Ltd.) Member Twilight and Hamilton Clubs, Metropolitan Museum of Art and New York Consolidated Stock and Petroleum and New York Produce Exchanges.

WEBB, WILLIAM E.—415 Fifth avenue, New York City. Member Merchants', Union League, Colonial and Lotos Clubs, New England Society, Sons of the Revolution, Order of Founders and Patriots of America and Metropolitan Museum of Art.

WEBB, WILLIAM HENRY—Retired Ship Builder, 415 Fifth avenue, New York City. Born in New York City, June 19, 1816. Learned ship building in his father's shops. Member of the firm of Webb & Allen, 1840-3; engaged in business alone, 1843-68, and built many large vessels; devised a new model warship which was adopted by the Russian Government. Built two frigates for Italy and received the decoration of Order of Saints Maurice and Lazarus from King Victor Emanuel. After retiring from ship building, conducted several steamship lines. Declined nomination for Mayor of New York City three times. Built and endowed Webb's Academy and Home for Ship Builders. Director Dry Dock, East Broadway and Battery R. R. Co., Forty-second Street, Manhattanville and St. Nicholas Avenue Ry. Co., Pennsylvania Coal Co. and Third Avenue R. R. Co.; trustee Atlantic Mutual Insurance Co. and Central Trust Co. Member Union League, Republican and City Clubs, American Geographical and New England Societies, National Academy of Design, American Museum of Natural History and Metropolitan Museum of Art.

WEBB, WILLIAM SEWARD—Railroads, 51 East 44th street, New York City; residence 680 Fifth avenue. Born in New York City, Jan. 31, 1851. Educated by private tutors, at Columbia College, in Europe and at the New York College of Physicians and Surgeons (M.D., '75). (Married Eliza Osgood, daughter of William Henry Vanderbilt, 1883.) Practiced medicine for several years; engaged in banking and stock brokerage business as senior member of the firm of W. S. Webb & Co. until 1883. Served on the staff of Governor Grout of Vermont, and now represents Shelburne in the Vermont Legislature. President and director Wagner Palace Car Co. and St. Lawrence and Adirondack Ry. Co.; vice-president and director Findlay, Fort Wayne and Western Ry. Co.; secretary and director American Hackney Horse Society; chairman of the board of directors Rutland R. R. Co.; director Lincoln Safe Deposit Co., Mohawk and Malone R. R. Co., Westcott Express Co., Ogdensburg Transit Line, Ogdensburg R. R. Co. and Woods Motor Vehicle Co.; trustee Colonial Trust Co. and Continental Trust Co. Member Metropolitan, Union League, University, Transportation, Manhattan Chess and Church Clubs, New York Yacht, Turf and Field, Riding, Racquet and Tennis, Jockey, Coaching, St. Nicholas Skating and Coney Island Jockey Clubs, Lake Champlain Yacht Club, Currituck Club of Buzzard's Bay, Mass., Rastigouche Salmon Club of Canada, Malone (N. Y.) Club, St. James Club of Montreal, Canada, Somerset Club of Boston, Mass., New York Farmers' Club, American Fine Arts, American Folk Lore, American Fisheries, New York Zoological and New York Historical Societies, Union College Alumni, American Canoe and National Sleepchase Associations, Sons of the American Revolution, League of American Wheelmen, American Museum of Natural History, Metropolitan Museum of Art and Military Order of Foreign Wars.

WEBB, WILLIAM WATSON—Lawyer, 736 Powers Building, Rochester; residence 15 Westminster road. Born in Rochester, 1850. Educated at Rochester University. (Married.) Member Genesee Valley and Country Clubs, Society of Mayflower Descendants and Sons of the American Revolution.

WEBBER, RICHARD—Meat and Provisions, 2191 Third avenue, New York City; residence 1871 Madison avenue. (Married.) Vice-president Twelfth Ward Bank; trustee Harlem Savings Bank. Member Harlem Club and New York Produce Exchange.

WEBER, ADAM—Manufacturer, 633 East 15th street, New York City; residence 203 Second avenue. Born in Bechtheim, Germany, March 10, 1825. Educated in Germany. (Married.) Director Union Square Bank. Member Liederkrantz, Beethoven Mannerchor, German Hospital, German Society and Trinity Lodge No. 12, F. & A. M. (past grand master).

WEBER, EDWARD YALE—Treasurer, 63 Cotton Exchange, New York City; residence 782 Madison avenue. Vice-president, treasurer and director Weber Railway Joint Mfg Co.

WEBER, JOHN B.—Commissioner, 722 Ellicott square, Buffalo; residence West Seneca. Born in Buffalo, Sept. 21, 1842. Educated in public schools. (Married Elizabeth J. Farthing of Buffalo, 1864.) Served with New York Volunteers during Civil War. Assistant postmaster of Buffalo, 1870-3; defeated for sheriff of Erie County by Grover Cleveland and elected to succeed him; Congressman, 1885-9; Commissioner of Immigration at the Port of New York, during President Harrison's administration, 1889-93. Has been commission merchant, wholesale grocer and banker. Now Commissioner-General of the Pan-American Exposition. Member Ellicott Club.

WEBER, JOHN W.—Commissioner, 49 Chambers street, New York City; residence 31 Belvidere street, Brooklyn. Born in Kingston, N. Y., 1851. Became a resident of Brooklyn in 1881 and embarked in the brewing business in which he has continued up to the present time. Member of the Board of Education, 1889-95; Presidential Elector, 1892. Member of the New East River Bridge Commission, by appointment of Mayor Van Wyck, since January, 1898. Member Parkway Driving and Bushwick Clubs of Brooklyn, Arion Society and Democratic Club of New York City.

WEBER, OSCAR B.—Brick Manufacturer, 633 East 15th street, New York City; residence 1382 Lexington avenue. Born in New York City, Aug. 6, 1859. Educated in New York City. (Married.) President Adam Weber Sons. Member Lotos and German Press Clubs, Liederkrantz, Fire Brick (ex-chairman), American Gas Light, Western Gas and Pacific Gas Light Associations and Beethoven Mannerchor Society.

WEBSTER, DAVID—Surgeon and Professor, 327 Madison avenue, New York City. Born in Nova Scotia, July 16, 1842. Educated in district and normal schools in Nova Scotia. (Married.) Formerly president of the New York Ophthalmological Society, and of the Medical Society of the County of New York. Now surgeon in Manhattan Eye and Ear Hospital and professor of ophthalmology in Dartmouth College. Member Union League Club and many medical societies.

WEBSTER, FRED—Contractor, 359 Clinton street, Brooklyn. Born in England, June 7, 1852. (Married.) President Open Air Carpet Cleaning Co., Clinton Renovating Co., Good Care Storage Co. and Chelmsford Storage Co.; owner of Chelmsford Stock Farm. Member Church Club and Altair Lodge No. 601, F. & A. M.

WEBSTER, GEORGE BUELL—Lawyer, 32 Dun Building, Buffalo; residence 75 Irving place. Born in Buffalo, March 8, 1859. Educated in Buffalo. (Married.) Member Buffalo Club, Sons of the American Revolution, Ancient Landmarks Lodge No. 441, F. & A. M., Buffalo Consistory of thirty-second degree Masons, and Association of the Bar of the City of Buffalo.

WEBSTER, GEORGE S.—Presbyterian Clergyman, 310 East 42d street, New York City; residence 107 East 45th street. Educated at Hamilton College and at Union Theological Seminary. Pastor of the Church of the Covenant. Member Quill and Chi Alpha Theta Clubs, Presbyterian Union, Sons of the American Revolution and Union Theological Seminary Alumni and Hamilton College Alumni Associations.

WECHMAR, CHARLES—Importer, 51 Franklin street, New York City; residence 75 West 46th street. Member Lotos and Wool Clubs, and Ardsley Casino of Ardsley-on-Hudson.

WEEBER, WILLIAM—Roll Keeper, Stock Exchange, New York City; residence 125 St. James place, Brooklyn. Born in New York City, April 5, 1841. Educated in New York City. (Widower.) Member of the New York Stock Exchange. Member Crescent Athletic Club of Brooklyn, and Lafayette Post, G. A. R.

WEED, CHARLES R.—Physician, 230 Genesee street, Utica. Born in New York City, April 6, 1847. Educated at Columbia. (Married.) United States examining surgeon. Formerly consulting specialist on diseases of the nose, ear and throat, St. Elizabeth Hospital, Utica. Member Fort Schuyler and Arcanum Clubs, Sons of the American Revolution, and Medico-Legal Society of New York City.

WEED, EDGAR T.—Physician, 117 West 121st street, New York City. Born in New York City, Jan. 1, 1858. Educated at College of the City of New York ('77), and College of Physicians and Surgeons ('81). Formerly curator Randall's Island Hospital. Now member of the house staff of Roosevelt Hospital. Member Harlem, Delta Kappa Epsilon and Indian Harbor Yacht Clubs.

WEED, GEORGE L.—Manager, 375 Fulton street, Brooklyn; residence 418 Greene avenue. Born in Brooklyn, Feb. 7, 1857. Educated at Brooklyn Polytechnic Institute. (Married.) Member of the firm of Weed & Wilson (surety bonds); manager law department, United States Guarantee Co.; secretary and treasurer New York Electric Line Co. Was member of Assembly, State of New York, 1890-2; of Seventeenth Assembly District Republican Committee and of Republican County Committee. Most venerable grand preceptor general of Supreme Council, Knights of the Golden Cross, College of Ancients; president Liberty Council No. 8, N. P. U.; supreme secretary of the N. B. L.; past commander Welcome Lodge No. 41, O. G. C.; past exalted ruler Brooklyn Lodge No. 22, B. P. O. Elks; commander Bedford Council No. 639, A. L. of H.; past commander Excelsior Encampment No. 86, Knights of St. John and Malta; past grand Union Lodge No. 169, I. O. O. F. Member Invincible, Levi P. Morton, Polytechnic, Union League, Crescent Athletic and Aurora Grata Clubs of Brooklyn, Aurora Grata Consistory of Kismet Temple, A. A. O. N. M. S., of Bedford Council No. 655, Royal Arcanum, Euclid Lodge No. 656, F. & A. M., and Court Stuyvesant No. 4013, Independent Order of Foresters; Apollo Chapter No. 48, R. A. M., Bloss Council No. 14, R. & S. M., Apollo Commandery No. 15, K. T., Delta Lodge of Perfection, Delta Council, Princes of Jerusalem, Delta Chapter of Rose Croix, all of Troy, N. Y.; Poughkeepsie Conclave 525, Improved Order of Heptasophs and Society of Old Brooklynites.

WEED, SMITH MEAD—Lawyer and Capitalist, 21 Cortlandt street, New York City; residence Plattsburg. Born in Belmont, Franklin Co., N. Y., July 26, 1833. (Son of Roswell Alcott Weed.) Educated in public schools, at Plattsburg Academy and at Harvard Law School. Practiced his profession in Plattsburg and in New York City until 1885; since then has devoted himself to the management of large interests in manufacturing, railroad and other business enterprises. Was for a time president of the village of Plattsburg; assemblyman, 1865, 1866, 1867, 1871, 1873 and 1874; member of the Constitutional Convention of 1867. Has been a delegate to several national Democratic conventions. President and director Chateaugay Ore and Iron Co. and Hudson River Ore and Iron Co.; vice-president and director Joseph Ladue Gold Mining and Development Co. of Yukon; member of advisory committee South American Exploration Co.; director Associated Colonies and Mutual Automatic Telephone Co. Member Manhattan and Lawyers' Clubs.

WEED, W. J.—Banker, Avon. Born in Franklinville, N. Y., Jan. 19, 1858. Educated at Franklinville Academy. (Married.) Cashier and director State Bank of Avon. Past master F. & A. M. Lodge.

WEEKES, ARTHUR DELANO—Lawyer, 58 Wall street, New York City; residence 33 West 21st street. Educated at Columbia. Member of the firm of Weekes Bros. Member Metropolitan, Seawanhaka-Corinthian Yacht, Union and Whist Clubs and Columbia University Alumni and Down Town Associations.

WEEKES, FREDERICK DELANO—Lawyer, 58 Wall street, New York City; residence 47 East 20th street, and Oyster Bay, L. I. Educated at Columbia. Member of the firm of Weekes Bros. Member Seawanhaka-Corinthian Yacht, Union and Fencers' Clubs and Columbia University Alumni Association.

WEEKES, HENRY DE FOREST—Lawyer, 111 Fifth avenue, New York City; residence 47 East 20th street, New York City. Educated at Yale. Member Metropolitan, Union, Racquet and Tennis, Yale, Whist, Seawanhaka-Corinthian Yacht, New York Yacht and Oyster Bay Yacht Clubs and Metropolitan Museum of Art.

WEEKES, JOHN A., JR.—Lawyer, 58 Wall street, New York City; residence 47 East 20th street. Educated at Yale. Member of the firm of Weekes Bros. Member Union League Club, Yale Alumni and Century Associations, National Academy of Design, Metropolitan Museum of Art and American Museum of Natural History.

WEEKES, BARTOW SUMTER—Lawyer, 100 Broadway, New York City; residence 260 West 57th street. Born in Round Hill, Conn., April 25, 1861. Educated in New York City public schools, at the College of the City of New York ('79) and at Columbia College Law School ('83). (Widower.) Senior member of the firm of Weekes, Battle & Marshall. Was an assistant district attorney of New York County for seven years. Commander-in-chief of the Sons of Veterans of the United States Army, 1891-2; ex-president Amateur Athletic Union. Member Manhattan, New York Athletic (ex-president), Democratic, Alpha Delta Phi, Atlantic Yacht and Arkwright Clubs, Society of Medical Jurisprudence, Military Order of the Loyal Legion, Sons of Veterans, Sons of the Revolution and Association of the Bar of the City of New York.

WEEKES, W. N.—Transportation, Old National Bank, Whitehall. Born in New Hampshire, April 8, 1858. Educated at English and Classical School, West Newton, Mass. (Married.) Vice-president and general manager H. G. Burleigh & Bro. Transportation Co.; secretary and treasurer Whitehall Lumber Co.; director Old National Bank.

WEEKES, WILLIAM RAYMOND—Lawyer, 11 Broadway, New York City; residence 98 Hamilton place. Born in Newark, N. J., Aug. 4, 1848. (Son of John Randel and Mary Frances [Adrian] Weeks.) Educated at Newark Academy ('65). (Married Irene Le Massena, 1869, granddaughter of Andre Massena, Prince of Essling, one of Napoleon's marshals). Studied law in his father's office; admitted to practice as an attorney, 1870, and as counsellor, 1876, in New Jersey; in New York, 1895; in West Virginia, 1897, and to practice in United States Courts. Makes a specialty of corporation, real estate, probate and mining law. Counsel for many corporations. Author of the "History of the American Numismatic and Archaeological Society of New York," "New Jersey's Influence Upon Her Surroundings" and "The Manhattans." Member Lawyers' and Twilight Clubs, New York and American Bar Associations, Dunlap, Authors', American Numismatic and Archaeological, American Historical and New Jersey Historical Societies, Sons of the American Revolution, Society of the War of 1812, Order of Founders and Patriots of America and Revolutionary Memorial Society of New Jersey.

WEHLE, CHARLES—Lawyer, 280 Broadway, New York City; residence 68 West 95th street. Born in Hungary, Jan. 28, 1830. Educated in Vienna, Austria. (Married.) Member Manhattan Chess and Democratic Clubs and Liederkrantz.

WEHNCKE, ERNEST—Merchant, 32 Beaver street, New York City; residence Cebia avenue, Castleton Heights, S. I. Born in Hamburg, Germany, April 14, 1852. Educated in Hamburg and London. (Married.) Member of the firm of Wehncke & Co. since 1878. Trustee Staten Island Savings Bank.

WEHNER, ADOLPH F.—Mechanical Engineer, 245 Broadway, New York City; residence Newark, N. J. Born in New Haven, Conn., 1859. Educated at Yale. (Married.) Secretary and director Isbell-Porter Co.; director E. P. Clapp Ammonia Co.

WEICKER, THEODORE—Wholesale Druggist, 15 University place, New York City; residence 2 West 82d street. Resident member of the firm of Merck & Co. of Darmstadt, Germany, and New York. President and director Bulletin Publishing Co., publishers of "Merck's Bulletin." Member Manhattan, Knickerbocker Athletic and Drug Trade Clubs, Liederkrantz, Deutscher Verein, Society of Ethical Culture and National Association of Wholesale Druggists.

WEIDENFELD, CAMILLE—Broker, 45 Wall street, New York City; residence 3 East 47th street. Born in New York City, June 20, 1858. (Son of Jacob and Rosine Weidenfeld.) Educated in New York City. (Married Katherine Clayton Donovan.) Member of the firm of Lawson, Weidenfeld & Co., and of the New York Stock Exchange. Director Buffalo City Gas Co. Member Union, New York Yacht, Tuxedo, Turf and Field, Seawanhaka-Corinthian Yacht, Racquet and Tennis, Riding and Lawyers' Clubs, Down Town Association and Metropolitan Museum of Art.

WEIGEL, WILLIAM—Captain, United States Army, Army and Navy Club, New York City. Born in New Brunswick, N. J., Aug. 25, 1863. Educated at United States Military Academy. (Single.) Now serving with the army at San Juan, Puerto Rico. Member Army and Navy Club of New York City, and Army and Navy Club of Washington, D. C.

WEIL, JULIUS—Editorial Writer and Fur Merchant, 172 Mercer street, New York City; residence 63 West 73d street. Born in New York City, Nov. 28, 1859. Educated in city public schools. (Married.) Honorary secretary, third panel, Sheriff's Jury, since 1890. Was trustee of Montefiore Home for one term. Member New York Press, Freundschaft and Pontiac Clubs.

WEIL, SAMUEL—Paste Manufacturer, 196 Franklin street, New York City; residence 222 Lenox avenue. Born in Germany, April 23, 1846. Educated in the United States. (Married.) President, treasurer and director Lackawanna Live Stock Transportation Co.; president and director New York Zinc and Lead Co.; treasurer and director Schwarzschild & Sulzberger Co. and Cold Blast Transportation Co.; director Consolidated and McKay Lasting Machine Co.; trustee Temple Israel of Harlem. Member Commercial, Progress and Columbia Clubs.

WEINACHT, EDWARD—Transportation, 18 Broadway, New York City; residence Elizabeth, N. J. Born in New York City, Jan. 29, 1866. Educated at the College of the City of New York. (Married.) Member of the firm of Edward Weinacht & Co. Connected with The Morris European and American Express Co. (Ltd.), Mercantile Traffic Association and O. G. Hempstead & Co. Member New York Athletic Club and Arion Society.

WEIR, JAMES—Florist, 324 Fulton street, Brooklyn; residence 1 Monroe place. Born in Brooklyn, Dec. 16, 1873. Educated at Brooklyn Polytechnic Institute. (Married.) Served in Troop "C," United States Volunteers, during Spanish-American War. Member Crescent Athletic and Montauk Clubs and Troop "C," N. G. N. Y.

WEIR, JAMES BOYD—Wholesale Coal Merchant, 29 Broadway, New York City; residence 1038 Fifth avenue. Born on Staten Island, Feb. 28, 1863. Educated in Brooklyn, N. Y. (Married.) Secretary, treasurer and director Falling Rock Cannel Coal Co. Member Lawyers' Club.

WEIR, JULIAN ALDEN—Artist, 146 West 55th street, New York City; residence 11 East 12th street. Born in West Point, N. Y., Aug. 30, 1852. (Son of Robert W. Weir.) Studied art under his father and with Jean L. Gerome in Paris, France. Received honorable mention at the Paris Salon of 1881. Member Players' Club, Blooming Grove Park and Century Associations, National Academy of Design and Metropolitan Museum of Art.

WEIR, WILLIAM B.—Wholesale Coal Merchant, 29 Broadway, New York City; residence Madison, N. J. Born in New York City, July 5, 1861. Educated in Brooklyn, N. Y. (Married.) President and director Falling Rock Cannel Coal Co.

WEISER, CHARLES—Lawyer, 35 William street, New York City; residence 143 East 25th street. Born in York, Pa., April 16, 1871. Educated at Yale. (Married.) Was law student and managing clerk in the offices of Martin & Smith, and Duer, Strong & Jarvis, and now member of the firm of Weiser & Bridges. Was captain and commissary of subsistence on general staff of Volunteer Army of the United States during Spanish-American War, and retired May 12, 1899. Member University, Yale and Aztec Clubs.

WEISSE, FANEUIL D.—Physician, 46 West 20th street, New York City. Born in Watertown, Mass., 1842. Educated in New York City. (Married.) Professor and dean New York College of Dentistry. Formerly connected with the Medical Department of the New York University; acting assistant surgeon United States Army; visiting surgeon to Work House and Almshouse Hospital, New York City. Member New England, New York County Medical and Huguenot Societies and Academy of Medicine.

WEITLING, WILLIAM W.—Manufacturer, 11 Mercer street, New York City; residence College Point. Born in New York City, Nov. 7, 1855. (Married.) Vice-president, director and member of funding committee, College Point Savings Bank; treasurer and director American Hard Rubber Co. and India Rubber Comb Co.; secretary and director College Point Gas Co., and member of the board of control and finance committee of the Conrad Poppenhusen Association of College Point. Member Merchants' Central Club.

WELCH, ALEXANDER McMILLAN—Architect, 11 East 42d street, New York City; residence 15 East 71st street. Born in Cauldwell County, Mo., March 1, 1869. (Son of James Platt and Ida [Gregg] Welch.) Educated in New York City by private tutors and at Columbia University School of Mines ('90); travelled abroad as a McKim Fellow in Architecture, and studied in Paris, France. (Married Fannie F. Dyckman.) Member of the firm of Welch, Smith & Provot. Member New York Historical Society, Beaux Arts Society of Architects, Architectural League and Columbia University Alumni Association.

WELCH, EDWARD MARTIN—Artist, 34 Gramercy Park, New York City. Member Players' Club, New England Society and Architectural League.

WELCH, JOSEPH A.—Lawyer, 181 Broadway, New York City; residence 34 West 17th street. Born in Brooklyn, Conn. Educated at Yale College ('53). (Married.) Assistant district attorney of New York County in 1897. Member of State Board of Law Examiners since 1898. Member Yale Alumni Association and Association of the Bar of the City of New York.

WELCH, SAMUEL M., JR.—Lawyer, 800 D. S. Morgan Building, Buffalo; residence Algonquin, Johnson Park. (Single.) Member of the firm of Samuel M. Welch, Jr., & Thomas Cary Welch. Connected with the 65th Regiment, N. G. N. Y., since 1879, with commissions of lieutenant, captain, major, lieutenant-colonel, and since 1887, colonel of same. Since 1894, brevet brigadier-general and acting inspector for State of New York. Colonel 65th Regiment, New York Volunteer Infantry, 1898. Member Saturn and Buffalo Clubs, Albany Club of Albany, Army and Navy Club of New York City, Sons of the Revolution and Naval and Military Order of Spanish-American War.

WELDE, CHARLES—Commissioner, 280 Broadway, New York City; residence 77 East 124th street. Born in Stuttgart, Germany, March 22, 1843. Educated in Germany. Came with his father to the United States in 1854 and settled in New York City. Engaged in house, trim and moulding business, 1865-68. Police justice, 1884-95. Commissioner of jurors, by appointment of Mayor Van Wyck, since January, 1898. Member Sagamore and Democratic Clubs and Tammany Society.

WELDON, CHARLES D.—Artist, 51 West Tenth street, New York City. Born in Ohio. Educated in Cleveland, Ohio. Studied drawing at Leigh's Academy in London, and under Munkacsy in Paris. Member American Water Color Society, Century Association and National Academy of Design.

WELLER, AUGUSTUS NOBLE—Lawyer, 26 Court street, Brooklyn; residence Hempstead. Born in Chautauqua County, N. Y., Dec. 5, 1836. Educated at Fredonia Academy. Studied law in the offices of Snow & Morris of Fredonia, and was admitted to the Bar in 1860. (Married a daughter of Henry M. Onderdonk of Ohio, 1873.) Was elected, in 1886, Surrogate of Queens County. Member Democratic Club of New York City.

WELLES, CHARLES B.—Actor, 16 Gramercy Park, New York City. Born in Geneva, Ill., March 30, 1852. Educated in Geneva and at the New York Law School. (Single.) Has been leading man with Lawrence Barrett, Julia Marlowe, Margaret Mather and others. Member Players' Club and Actors' Order of Friendship.

WELLES, EDGAR THADDEUS—Railroads, 195 Broadway, New York City; residence 247 Fifth avenue. Born in Hartford, Conn., Aug. 29, 1843. (Son of Gideon Welles, Secretary of the Navy in President Lincoln's Cabinet.) Educated at Hartford High School and at Yale ('64). (Married Alice, daughter of Charles H. Brainard of Hartford, 1870.) Chief clerk in the United States Navy Department, 1866-9. Vice-president and director Wabash R. R. Co.; ex-president Consolidated Coal Co.; director Baltimore and Ohio Southwestern Ry. Co.; trustee Knickerbocker Apartment Co. Member Union, University, Chicago (Ill.), St. Louis (Mo.), and Hartford (Conn.) Clubs, Connecticut Historical and New York Historical Societies, Down Town Association and Sons of the Revolution.

WELLES, LEMUEL A.—Lawyer, 258 Broadway, New York City; residence 111 East 26th street. Born in Newington, Conn. Educated at Yale and at New York Law School. (Single.) Associated in practice of law with William H. Harris, Paul R. Towne and John E. Wayland. Director Thorpe, Platt & Co. Member Yale Club, Society of Colonial Wars, Sons of the Revolution and Military Order of Foreign Wars.

WELLING, RICHARD W. G.—Lawyer, 2 Wall street, New York City; residence 46 Park avenue. Educated at Harvard ('80). Treasurer and director Tenement House Building Co. Member City, University, Harvard, St. Andrew's Golf and Riding Clubs, New York Symphony and Rhode Island Historical Societies, Century Association and Association of the Bar of the City of New York.

WELLING, WILLIAM BRENTON—Banker, 2 Wall street, New York City; residence Davenport Neck, New Rochelle. Born in Philadelphia, Pa., 1852. Educated at Yale. (Married.)

WELLINGTON, AARON H.—Retired, 416 West 14th street, New York City; residence 57 West 75th street. Born in Boston, Mass., Nov. 12, 1829. (Married.) Chairman executive committee J. Hood Wright Memorial Hospital; vice-president Washington Heights Free Library, and Harlem Relief Society; trustee Saturday and Sunday Hospital Association. Member Harlem Club, New England Society, Metropolitan Museum of Art and Blooming Grove Park Association.

WELLINGTON, EDWARD FRANKLIN—Lawyer, 1122 Granite Building, Rochester; residence 19 Tremont street. Born in Nelson, Madison Co., N. Y., July 30, 1858. Educated at State Normal School ('77). (Married.) Member of the firm of Wellington & Jones. General counsel for Vacuum Oil Co. Chairman of the County Board of Supervisors, 1898-1900. Member Genesee Valley Club, Rochester Historical Society and Rochester Bar Association.

WELLINGTON, WALTER L.—Dry Goods Merchant, 27 Thomas street, New York City; residence 853 St. Marks avenue, Brooklyn. Assistant treasurer and director Manhattan Real Estate Association and New York Real Estate Association; director Commonwealth Insurance Co.; trustee Broadway Savings Institution. Member Union League and Merchants' Clubs, Union League Club of Brooklyn. America's Founders and Defenders and Sons of the Revolution.

WELLMAN, FRANCIS LEWIS—Lawyer, 15 Wall street, New York City; residence 315 Lexington avenue. Educated at Harvard ('76). (Married Emma Juch.) Senior member of the firm of Wellman & Gooch. Was for a number of years assistant district attorney of the County of New York. Member University and Lawyers' Clubs, Ardsley Casino of Ardsley-on-Hudson, and Harvard Alumni Association.

WELLS, CHARLES F.—Lawyer, 32 Chambers street, New York City; residence Hotel Cadillac. Born April 24, 1845. Educated at Amherst College. (Single.) Formerly sheriff's counsel. Now counsel for various corporations. Member Association of the Bar of the City of New York and Amherst College Alumni Association.

WELLS, CHARLES NASSAU—Lawyer, 832 South street, Peekskill. Born in Peekskill, Westchester Co., N. Y., Dec. 22, 1864. Educated at Lafayette College, Harvard University and Columbia Law School. (Single.) Justice of the peace of the town of Cortlandt. Member Delta Kappa Epsilon Club of New York City, Society of Colonial Wars, Cortlandt Lodge No. 34, F. & A. M., White Plains Lodge No. 535, B. P. O. Elks, and Lafayette Alumni and Westchester County Bar Associations.

WELLS, EDMUND B.—Architect, 1 Madison avenue, New York City; residence 1167 Madison avenue. Member New York Athletic Club and Architectural League.

WELLS, EDWARD, JR.—Lawyer, 35 Nassau street, New York City. Born in Peekskill, N. Y., Nov. 25, 1862. Educated at Yale ('84). Member of the firm of Wells & Andrews. Member American Geographical Society, Delta Kappa Epsilon and Phi Delta Phi Fraternities and Association of the Bar of the City of New York.

WELLS, EDWARD H.—Mechanical Engineer, 29 Cortlandt street, New York City; residence 117 West 58th street. Born in Rhode Island, 1859. President Babcock & Wilcox Co. Member Engineers', New York Athletic, Camera and Lotos Clubs, Duquesne Club of Pittsburgh, Pa., and Technical Club of Chicago, Ill.

WELLS, EDWIN M.—Lawyer, 603 University Block, Syracuse; residence Syracuse. Born in South New Berlin, N. Y., Aug. 2, 1857. Educated at Syracuse University ('82). (Married.) Was member of State Assembly from Fourth District of Onondaga County, 1896-7. Member Citizens' Club and Delta Kappa Epsilon Association of Central New York.

WELLS, FREDERICK J.—Importer, 1133 Broadway, New York City; residence 215 West 54th street. Vice-president Montanye, Wells Co. Member New York Athletic, Larchmont Yacht and Nassau Boat Clubs.

WELLS, GEORGE—Physician, 66 Broadway, New York City; residence Richmond Hill, L. I. Born in Tyrone, N. Y. Educated at Princeton. (Married.) Formerly medical examiner of the Mutual Life Insurance Co. Now medical director Manhattan Life Insurance Co. Member of many medical societies and associations.

WELLS, HENRY PARKHURST—Lawyer, 35 Nassau street, New York City; residence 158 Clinton street, Brooklyn. Born in Providence, R. I., Sept. 14, 1842. Educated at Amherst College. (Single.) Served with 13th New York Artillery during Civil War. Studied law and was admitted to the New York Bar in 1869, and to the Bar of the United States Supreme Court in 1883. Member Hamilton Club of Brooklyn, and Down Town Association.

WELLS, JAMES L.—Real Estate, 141 Broadway, New York City; residence 267 Alexander avenue. Born in West Farms, Westchester Co., N. Y., Dec. 16, 1843. Educated in New York public schools, and at Columbia ('65). (Married.) Was assemblyman, 1879-80; alderman, 1881-3; assemblyman, 1892; commissioner of taxes and assessments, 1895-7. Formerly official city appraiser in the acquisition of lands for parks and parkways in the Borough of The Bronx, and appraiser for the Rapid Transit Commission. President and director North Side Board of Trade and Real Estate Auctioneers' Association; director Twenty-third Ward Bank; trustee Dollar Savings Bank. Member North Side Republican, Union Republican and Fordham Clubs and Columbia University Alumni Association.

WELLS, JOHN D., JR.—Coffee Merchant, 131 Front street, New York City; residence 72 Whitestone avenue, Flushing, L. I. Educated at Union College. Member of the firm of Wells Bros. Member Lotos and Arkwright Clubs, Hanover Club of Brooklyn, and Union College Alumni and Down Town Associations.

WELLS, LEMUEL E.—Wholesale Coal Merchant, 1 Broadway, New York City; residence 1 West 72d street. Born in New York City, Aug. 30, 1852. Educated at Dr. Quackenbos's Collegiate School. (Married a daughter of Thos. Beaver of Pennsylvania.) Member of the firm of Stickney, Conyngham & Co. Member New York, Suburban Riding and Driving, Colonial, New York Athletic, New York Tandem and Bay Head Yacht Clubs and New Jersey State Rifle Association.

WELLS, OLIVER J.—Lawyer, 32 Nassau street, New York City; residence The Waldorf-Astoria. Member of the firm of Wells & Snedeker. Member Union League, Tuxedo, Nineteenth Century, Richmond Hill Golf and Delta Phi Clubs, Ardsley Casino of Ardsley-on-Hudson, Hamilton Club of Brooklyn, and Down Town Association.

WELLS, THOMAS LAWRENCE—Storage, Lexington avenue and 42d street, New York City; residence 16 West 17th street. Vice-president Manhattan Storage and Warehouse Co. Member Union Club, Society of Colonial Wars and St. Nicholas Society.

WELLS, THOMAS TILESTON—Lawyer, 19 Liberty street, New York City; residence 102 Madison avenue. Treasurer and director Investment Agency Co. Member Calumet, Union, American Yacht and St. Anthony Clubs and Association of the Bar of the City of New York.

WELLSTOOD, WILLIAM—Steel Plate Engraver, 54 Vesey street, New York City; residence 366 Seventh street, Brooklyn. Born in Edinburgh, Scotland, Dec. 19, 1819. Came with his parents to the United States at the age of eleven years and was educated in public schools. (Married Alice Spence of Philadelphia, Pa., 1855.) Senior member of the firm of William Wellstood & Co.

WEMPLE, HENRY Y.—Insurance, 66 Broadway, New York City; residence 12 West 121st street. Born in New York City, January, 1843. Educated in public schools. (Married.) Connected with the Manhattan Life Insurance Co. since 1861, and now vice-president of same. Member New York Athletic Club, St. Nicholas and St. George's Societies, Friendly Sons of St. Patrick and Sons of the Revolution.

WEMPLE, JOHN RUSS—Insurance, 156 Broadway, New York City; residence Saratoga. Born and educated in New York City. (Widower.) Special agent Citizens' Insurance Co. Member New York Athletic and Calumet Clubs, St. Nicholas Society and Sons of the Revolution.

WENDE, ERNEST—Physician, 471 Delavan avenue, Buffalo. Born in Mill Grove, N. Y., July 23, 1853. Studied medicine at the University of Buffalo, Columbia University, University of Pennsylvania and in Berlin and Vienna. Degrees of B.S. and M.D. (Married Frances H. Cutler, 1881.) Professor of diseases of the skin at the University of Buffalo. Health commissioner of the City of Buffalo since 1892. Member Elliott Club, American Microscopical Society, Royal Microscopical Society of England, and American Public Health, Electro-Therapeutic and Pan-American Medical Associations.

WENDEL, LOUIS, JR.—Lawyer, 280 Broadway, New York City; residence 339 West 50th street. Born in New York City, May 15, 1868. Educated in New York City public schools, at Leseman's Academy, College Point, L. I., Packard's Business College, and at Columbia Law School ('88). (Married.) Counsel and director Gold Point Hydraulic Mining Co. and J. J. Zimmerman Co.; counsel to United Order of Protection. Member Democratic Club, Washington Heights Progressive Association and Uhland Lodge No. 735, F. & A. M.

WENDELL, BENJAMIN RUSH—Lawyer, Cazenovia. Born in Cazenovia, Nov. 13, 1855. Educated at Yale and at Columbia Law School. (Married.) Member Union and Yale Clubs, Colonial Order and Association of the Bar of the City of New York.

WENDELL, CHARLES H.—Banker, 31 Main street, Lockport; residence 179 East avenue. Teller of the Farmers' and Mechanics' Savings Bank. Member Lockport Club and Sons of the American Revolution.

WENDELL, EVERT JANSEN—Woolen Commission Merchant, 61 Worth street, New York City; residence 8 East 38th street. Born in Boston, Mass. Educated in New York City, and at Harvard ('82). (Single.) Connected with the firm of Jacob Wendell & Co. Manager House of Refuge, Randall's Island; secretary Dunlap Society; trustee Cuban Orphan Society; steward St. Nicholas Society. Was secretary of the Harvard Club of New York City for seven years. Member University, Players', Harvard and University Athletic Clubs, St. Nicholas, New England, Holland and Dunlap Societies and Century Association.

WENDELL, FREDERICK FOX—Lawyer, Fort Plain. Born in Canajoharie, Montgomery Co., N. Y., Sept. 18, 1848. Educated at Cazenovia Seminary and University of Michigan. (Married Emma Bush of Turin, N. Y.) Tax agent New York Central and Hudson River R. R. Co. Member Transportation Club and Holland Society.

WENDELL, GORDON—Woolen Commission Merchant, 61 Worth street, New York City; residence 126 East 35th street. Educated at Harvard. Member and treasurer of the firm of Jacob Wendell & Co. Member Union League, Seawanhaka-Corinthian Yacht, Merchants' and Harvard Clubs and New England Society.

WENDELL, JACOB, JR.—Railway Supplies, 26 Cortlandt street, New York City; residence 106 East 35th street. Educated at Harvard ('91). Member University, Union League, Seawanhaka-Corinthian Yacht, City, Transportation, University Glee, Amateur Comedy and Harvard Clubs, Tavern Club of Boston, Mass., New York Historical and New England Societies and Chamber of Commerce.

WENDELL, WILLIS—Merchant, Manufacturer and Warehouseman, 26 Hamilton street, Amsterdam. Born in Amsterdam, Sept. 2, 1858. Educated in Amsterdam. (Married.) President Amsterdam Automatic Telephone Co.; director Amsterdam City National Bank; trustee Atlas Knitting Co. and Empire Steam Laundry Co. Member Holland Society.

WENNER, GEORGE U.—Lutheran Clergyman, 406 East 19th street, New York City; residence 123 East 24th street. Born in Bethlehem, Pa., May 17, 1844. Educated at Yale and at Union Theological Seminary. (Married.) Pastor of Christ Lutheran Church. Member Quill Club.

WENTWORTH, THOMAS FENNER—Lawyer, 64 Cedar street, New York City; residence 40 Central Park, South. Born in South Berwick, Mt., Sept. 25, 1845. (Son of John Hanson and Judith Ann [Pottle] Wentworth.) Educated at Phillips Exeter Academy, at Yale ('68) and at Columbia College Law School. Practicing in New York City since his admission to the Bar in 1870. City magistrate, by appointment of Mayor Strong, 1895-9. Member University and Republican Clubs, Phi Beta Kappa and New England Societies, Yale Alumni Association and Association of the Bar of the City of New York.

WENTWORTH, THOMAS H.—Law and Corporations, 27 William street, New York City; residence 83 Hancock street, Brooklyn. Born in Oswego, N. Y., Oct. 7, 1856. Educated in Oswego. (Married.) President and director West Virginia Mfg Co and Oil Co.; vice-president and director Spirits Distributing Co.; secretary, treasurer and director American Spirits Mfg Co.; secretary, assistant treasurer and director Kentucky Distilleries and Warehouse Co.; secretary The Distilling Co. of America.

WENTZ, JAMES M.—Capitalist, 280 Broadway, New York City; residence Newburgh. Born in Binghamton, N. Y., Dec. 15, 1824. Educated in Binghamton. (Married.) Vice-president Newburgh Savings Bank; director Mercantile National Bank; member executive committee of the Savings Bank Association of the State of New York. Formerly in the wholesale dry goods business, until 1889.

WERNER, CHARLES H.—Lawyer, 32 Nassau street, New York City; residence The Waldorf-Astoria. Born in Wernersville, Pa., Aug. 8, 1868. Educated at Reading (Pa.) Boys' High School, at Lafayette College and at Cornell University and Law School. (Single.) Member of the firm of Sheehan & Collin. President Albany and Hudson Ry. and Power Co.; vice-president Montgomery Electric Light and Power Co.; director Westchester Gas and Coke Co., Queens Borough Electric Light and Power Co. and Amsterdam Electric Light, Heat and Power Co. Member Cornell University Club.

WERNER, ERNEST—Banker and Broker, 46 Exchange place, New York City; residence 36 East 73d street. Director Ninth National Bank. Member Harmonie Club, Liederkrantz and Chamber of Commerce.

WERTIMER, HENRY—Life Insurance, 211 Prudential Building, Buffalo; residence 140 Highland avenue. Born in Liverpool, England, April 20, 1861. Educated at Liverpool Institute. (Married.) Ex-president Life Underwriters' Association of Western New York. Now general agent for Western New York of the Prudential Insurance Co. of Newark, N. J. Member Elliott, Liberal and Colonial Clubs.

WESSELI, CHARLES ALONZO—Piano Manufacturer, 548 Southern boulevard, New York City; residence 316 West 82d street. Born in New York City May 30, 1862. Educated in New York City. (Married.) Member Holland Society.

WESSELLS, CHARLES H.—Commission Merchant, 442 Produce Exchange, New York City; residence 43 West 91st street. Born in Springfield, Ill. Educated in New York City. (Married.) Member West Side Republican Club and Lafayette Post, G. A. R.

WESSELS, EDWARD J.—Publisher and Capitalist, 150 Fifth avenue, New York City; residence East Orange, N. J. Born in New York City, 1858. Educated by private tutors and in public schools. (Married.) Formerly managing director Standard Air Brake Co. and managing partner of Wessels Line of steamers to Jamaica. Now president Great Round World Co. Member Reform Club, and Republican Club of East Orange.

WESSMAN, ALFRED C.—Bookbinder, 23 Bleecker street, New York City; residence 912 Sterling place, Brooklyn. Born and educated in New York City. (Married.) Secretary and director J. F. Tapley Co. Member Union League Club and Aldine Association.

WEST, CHARLES C.—Broker, 15 Broad street, New York City; residence 128 Chestnut street, Montclair, N. J. Born in Yonkers, N. Y., June 7, 1860. Educated in Yonkers. (Married.) Member of the firm of Charles Head & Co., and of the New York Stock Exchange. Member Montclair Club.

WEST, CHARLES E.—Professor, 76 Pierrepont street, Brooklyn. Born in Washington, Mass., Feb. 23, 1809. Educated at Union College. (Widower.) Was teacher of boys for twelve years, and of girls for fifty years. Member Hamilton Club, Union College Alumni and Century Associations, Royal Society of Denmark, and Royal Microscopical Society of London.

WEST, CHARLES W.—Lawyer, 32 Nassau street, New York City; residence 76 Pierrepont street, Brooklyn. Born in New York City, Dec. 23, 1846. Educated at Williams College ('67) and Columbia Law School. (Single.) Member University and Country Clubs, Hamilton, Crescent Athletic and Excelsior Clubs of Brooklyn, Kappa Alpha Fraternity and Down Town Association.

WEST, GEORGE—Banker and Manufacturer, Ballston. Born in Devonshire, England, Feb. 17, 1823. Educated in common schools and served apprenticeship to paper manufacturing in England. (Married Louisa Rose.) Came to the United States in 1849, and from a workman rose to a leading position in the paper industry, now owning eight mills, a paper bag factory, several mines in the West, etc. Assemblyman, 1871-5; Congressman, 1881-7. Delegate to National Republican Conventions of 1880, 1884 and 1888. President and director First National Bank of Ballston; also connected with other institutions and corporations.

WEST, JAMES O.—Real Estate, 147 West 27th street, New York City. Born and educated in New York City. (Married.) Member Harlem Club.

WEST, P. W. M.—Banker and Broker, 6 Wall street, New York City; residence Jersey City, N. J. Member of the New York Stock Exchange firm of Martin & Co. Ex-police commissioner of Jersey City.

WEST, WILLIAM M.—Banker, Hamilton. Born in Hamilton, Nov. 13, 1858. Educated in Hamilton.

(Married.) Was Quartermaster-General of State with rank of brigadier on staff of Governor Flower. President National Hamilton Bank; treasurer Colgate University. Member Fort Schuyler Club of Utica, Citizens' Club of Hamilton, and Masonic bodies.

WEST, WILLIAM T.—Dry Goods Commission Merchant, 61 Worth street, New York City; residence Roselle, N. J. Born in Philadelphia, Pa., Jan. 30, 1848. Educated in New York City and Philadelphia public schools. (Married.) Formerly member Board of Chosen Freeholders of Union County, N. J., and mayor of the borough of Roselle. Now president and director Heat and Odor Extinguisher Co. and Arizona Onyx Co. Member Arkwright and Congregational Clubs.

WESTCOTT, CLARENCE L.—Lawyer, 146 Broadway, New York City; residence 243 West 75th street. Born in Wilton, Conn., June 17, 1843. Educated at Yale. (Married.) Member Yale, Nineteenth Century, Lawyers', Barnard and Mendelssohn Glee Clubs and American Geographical Society.

WESTCOTT, H. C.—Druggist, Ballston Spa; residence 4 Bath street. Born in Ballston Spa, Oct. 9, 1861. Educated in Ballston Spa. (Married.) President Board of Education; secretary Ballston Spa Light and Power Co.; director First National Bank. Member Utopian Club, Franklin Lodge, F. & A. M., and Warren Chapter, R. A. M.

WESTERVELT, OTTO W. P.—Merchant, 17 State street, New York City; residence Piermont. Born in New York City, June 28, 1850. Educated at Brooklyn High School. (Married.) Member of the firm of W. H. Westervelt & Co. President Fruit Importers' Union and board of trustees of village of Piermont. Member New York Consolidated Stock and Petroleum Exchange and Twilight Club.

WESTON, WILLOUGHBY—Stock Broker, 48 Exchange place, New York City; residence 223 West 57th street. Born in Rensselaer, Ind., Aug. 23, 1845. Educated at Rutgers College. (Married Charlotte Nicoll.) In service of the State of New Jersey for seventeen years and resigned with rank of inspector-general in 1888. Member Manhattan, New York Yacht and Army and Navy (secretary) Clubs.

WETHERBEE, GARDNER—Hotel Proprietor, 19 East 42d street, New York City. Member of the firm of Hawk & Wetherbee, proprietors of the Hotel Manhattan. Director Fifth Avenue Bank and Standard Gas Light Co. Member Union League and Transportation Clubs, New England Society and Metropolitan Museum of Art.

WETMORE, CHARLES D.—Lawyer, 54 Wall street, New York City; residence 152 Madison avenue. Educated at Harvard. Member Knickerbocker, Lawyers', Racquet and Tennis, Lambs', Harvard and Meadow Brook Hunt Clubs.

WETMORE, CHARLES WHITMAN—Broker, 30 Broad street, New York City; residence Oyster Bay, L. I. Educated at Harvard ('75). President and director Cincinnati Edison Electric Co.; director North American Co. Member Seawanhaka-Corinthian Yacht and University Clubs, Harvard Alumni and Down Town Associations and Association of the Bar of the City of New York.

WETMORE, EDMUND—Lawyer, 34 Pine street, New York City; residence 343 Lexington avenue. Educated at Harvard ('60). Member of the firm of Wetmore & Jenner. President of the American Bar Association. Member Metropolitan, Lawyers', Nineteenth Century, Players', Seawanhaka-Corinthian Yacht, Barnard, Republican, University, Harvard and University Athletic Clubs, American Fine Arts and American Geographical Societies, Century Association and Association of the Bar of the City of New York.

WETMORE, EDWARD W.—Professor, State Normal College, Albany; residence 113 Lake avenue. Born in Detroit, Mich., 1846. Educated at the University of Michigan. Member Delta Kappa Epsilon Club of New York City, National Geographical Society, Society of Colonial Wars, Sons of the Revolution and New York State Science Teachers' Association.

WETMORE, JOHN McE.—Physician, 41 East 29th street, New York City. Educated at Williams College. Member Church and Sigma Phi Clubs, American Museum of Natural History, Williams College Alumni Association and Metropolitan Museum of Art.

WETZLAR, GUSTAVE J.—Banker and Broker, 27 William street, New York City; residence 45 West 58th street. Member of the New York Stock Exchange firm of Probst, Wetzlar & Co. Member Manhattan and Lawyers' Clubs, Liederkranz and Metropolitan Museum of Art.

WETZLER, JOSEPH—Electrical and Mechanical Engineer, 120 Liberty street, New York City; residence 257 West 104th street. Born in Hoboken, N. J., Dec. 6, 1863. Educated at Stevens Institute of Technology ('82). (Married.) Formerly editor "The Electrical Engineer" and "The Electrical World." President the Electrical Engineer Institute of Correspondence Instruction; secretary and director Hebrew Technical Institute. Member New York Electrical Society, American Institute of Electrical Engineers, American Association for the Advancement of Science and London (England) Institute of Electrical Engineers.

WEYMOUTH, WILLIAM T. G.—Mercantile Agency, 87 Nassau street, New York City; residence 1269 Madison avenue. Born in De Witt, Iowa, Oct. 2, 1861. Educated at Phillips Andover Academy and at Yale. (Married.) President and director Typo Mercantile Agency. Member Yale Club.

WHALEN, JOHN—Lawyer, Tryon row, and 206 Broadway, New York City; residence 458 West 155th street. Born in New York City, July 4, 1854. Educated at St. John's College, Fordham, and at the University Law School. Practicing in New York City since his admission to the Bar in 1877. Is an authority on real estate and corporation law and was frequently selected by the Supreme Court Justices as a referee in important cases. Served for many years as a school trustee of the Twelfth Ward; was appointed tax commissioner by Mayor Gilroy in 1893. Now corporation counsel of the City of New York. Member executive committee of the State Democratic Committee for 1900. Member Manhattan, Catholic, New York Athletic and Democratic Clubs and Association of the Bar of the City of New York.

WHEAT, ALFRED A.—Lawyer, 195 Broadway, New York City; residence 146 Central Park, West. Born in Nashua, N. H. Educated at Dartmouth College. Member Alpha Delta Phi Club and Dartmouth Alumni and New York State Bar Associations.

WHEATLEY, RICHARD—Methodist Episcopalian Clergyman, Cold Spring. Born in York, England, July 14, 1831. (Son of John and Elizabeth A. Wheatley.) Educated at an academy (D.D., LL.D., Syracuse University); ordained to Methodist Episcopal ministry. (Married Laura Hawk, May 8, 1858.) Chaplain in United States Army, 1862-3. Has been preacher and pastor for many years. Contributor, irregular and editorial, to several "Christian Advocates," "The Methodist Review" and other theological publications; has written for "Harper's Weekly," "Magazine" and "Bazar," "The Century," "Cosmopolitan," "Popular Science Monthly" and "National Repository." Author of "Life and Letters of Mrs. Phoebe Palmer," "Cathedrals and Abbeys in Great Britain and Ireland," "Biographic Encyclopædia of the New England States in the Nineteenth Century" (5 vols.), "History of the World From the Creation to the Close of the Middle Ages" and "Centennial History of the New York Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church."

WHEELER, ANDREW CARPENTER—Author and Dramatic Critic, 154 Nassau street, New York City. Born in New York City, June 4, 1835. Has served on the staffs of various newspapers as dramatic and musical critic under nom de plume "Nym Crinkle." Author of several comedies.

WHEELER, EDWARD J.—Editor, 30 Lafayette place, New York City; residence West New Brighton, S. I. Born in Cleveland, Ohio, March 11, 1859. Educated at Ohio Wesleyan University. (Married Jennie L. Fleming of Nashville, Tenn., 1887.) Editor of "The Literary Digest." President and director Prohibition Park Building and Loan Association of West New Brighton, S. I.; director and editor Funk & Wagnalls Co. Ex-president Westerleigh Collegiate Institute.

WHEELER, EVERETT PEPPERELL—Lawyer, 21 State street; residence 731 Park avenue. Born in New York City, March 10, 1840. (Son of David Everett and Elizabeth [Jarvis] Wheeler.) Educated at the College of the City of New York and at Harvard Law School. (Married Lydia Lorraine Hodges, 1866.) Practicing in New York City since his admission to the Bar in 1861. Member of the Board of Education of New York City, 1877-9; chairman of the New York City Civil Service Commission, 1883-9 and 1895-7. Author of several legal works. Member of the firm of Wheeler & Cortis. President and director East Side Co-operative House Owning and Investment Co., East Side House and New York College of Music. Member Reform and Church Clubs (ex-president), City Club, Civil Service Reform, Down Town and Century Associations and Association of the Bar of the City of New York.

WHEELER, FRED MERIAM—Mechanical Engineer, 91 Liberty street, New York City; residence "Braebank," Montclair, N. J. Born in Brooklyn, N. Y., Aug. 6, 1849. Educated at Summit (N. J.) Academy, and Brooklyn Polytechnic Institute. (Married.) Secretary and director George F. Blake Mfg Co.; director Wheeler Condenser and Engineering Co., Ludlow Valve Mfg Co. and International Steam Pump Co. Member Engineers' and Twilight Clubs, Essex County Country Club of Orange, N. J., Montclair Club of Montclair, American Society of Mechanical Engineers, Society of Naval Architects and Marine Engineers and American Society of Naval Engineers.

WHEELER, HAYDEN W.—Dealer in Watches and Jewelry, and Importer of Diamonds, 2 Maiden lane, New York City; residence 274 Washington avenue, Brooklyn. Born in Pompey, Onondaga Co., N. Y., Nov. 25, 1827. Educated at Manlius Academy. (Married Andelucia E., daughter of Nathaniel E. Mann of Fulton, N. Y.) Senior member of the firm of Hayden W. Wheeler & Co. Member Brooklyn Board of Education, 1881-4. Treasurer and trustee Adelphi College and Academy; trustee Plymouth Church of Brooklyn; member of advisory committee Thrift Savings Loan and Building Fund. Member Union League Club of Brooklyn, and Down Town Association.

WHEELER, JEROME B.—Mining, 27 William street, New York City; residence Manitou, Col. Born in Troy, N. Y., Sept. 3, 1841. Educated in public schools. (Married Harriet Mary Valentine, 1870.) Served in Union Army during Civil War; reached rank of brevet-major and served as brigade quartermaster. With Charles B. Webster, purchased the retail dry goods business of R. H. Macy & Co. of New York City in 1879. Became largely interested in mining and real estate interests in the West. President and director Aspen Mining and Smelting Co. and Croesus Gold Mining and Milling Co. Member Union League, Manhattan and Lawyers' Clubs, New England Society and Military Order of the Loyal Legion.

WHEELER, JOHN—Lawyer, 39 Pine street, New York City; residence 41 West 38th street. Member of the New York Consolidated Stock and Petroleum Exchange. Was member of Congress, 1852-57; ex-president Department of Taxes and Assessments.

WHEELER, JOHN VISSCHER—Retired, 1 West 54th street, New York City. Born in New York City, Feb. 2, 1845. (Son of Ezra Wheeler, a New York merchant, and Cecilia [Visscher] Wheeler. Descended from one of the oldest Dutch families of New Amsterdam. Harmen Visscher, born in 1619, in Hoorn, Holland, came to this country previous to 1644, where he married, his wife being Hester Tjerkse, and became the town surveyor of Albany. Died some time previous to 1693. Bastiaan Visscher, son of Harmen Visscher, married Dirkje Metselaer of Albany, and their son, Teunis Visscher, was born in Albany, April 3, 1702, and died in 1781. Teunis Visscher married Machtel Lansing in 1727, and their son, Bastiaan, who became a man of wealth and high standing, was born in Albany, 1728. His wife was Engelkje Van Den Bergh, daughter of Mathias Van Den Bergh, whom he married in 1750. Matthew Visscher, their son, was born in Albany, 1751, was a counsellor-at-law and frequently held public office. Also served as second lieutenant and captain in the 2d Company of Militia of Albany, in the Revolutionary War, and afterwards as clerk to the Committee of Safety. After the war was town clerk, clerk of the mayor's court and of the Court of Common Pleas of Albany. His wife was Lydia Fryer, whom he married in 1772. Sebastian Visscher, son of Matthew, was born in Albany in 1773 and died in 1824. He was admitted to the practice of law in 1795, and appointed master-in-chancery in 1812. Was also clerk of the State Senate and colonel of the 89th Regiment of New York Militia. He married Rosanna Shipboy in 1797, and was the father of seven children; the fifth child and third daughter being Cecilia Visscher, who married Ezra Wheeler in 1842 and died in 1848.) Educated at Columbia (A.B., '65, and A.M.). (Single.) Retired early from business life and devotes himself to study and literature. Served as captain and commissary in the 9th Regiment, N. G. N. Y., for seven years. Member University, St. Nicholas, Manhattan, Grolier, National Arts and Suburban Riding and Driving Clubs, St. Nicholas, Sculpture and Municipal Arts Societies, Columbia University Alumni Association and Sons of the Revolution.

WHEELER, LESTER—Head Master and Proprietor, 623 Delaware avenue, Buffalo. Born in Watertown, N. Y., Aug. 17, 1848. Educated at Hobart College. (Married.) Head master and proprietor Heathcote School. Member Liberal and University Clubs.

WHEELER, OSCAR C.—Importer of Woolens and Commission Merchant, 45 Leonard street, New York City; residence 55 West 33d street. Born in Poughkeepsie, N. Y. (Single.) President United States Automatic Dispatch Co. Member Union League Club.

WHEELER, SCHUYLER SKAATS—President, 39 Cortlandt street, New York City, and Ampère, N. J.; residence 107 East 40th street. Born in New York City, May 17, 1860. Educated at Columbia ('83) and Hobart College (Sc.D., '86). (Married.) Formerly electrical expert of Board of Electrical Control of New York City for seven years. President Bradley Electric Power Co., and Crocker-Wheeler Co.; director Gramercy Co. Member University, Lotos and Lawyers' Clubs, Montclair (N. J.) Club, American Society of Civil Engineers, American Society of Mechanical Engineers, American Institute of Electrical Engineers and Columbia University Alumni Association.

WHEELER, SCOTT—Organist, 354 Adelphi street, Brooklyn. Born in Plano, Ill., Sept. 2, 1870. Educated at Plano High School and at Northwestern University. (Single.) Began playing organ in the Congregational Church at Plano at the age of fourteen. Organist of the Clinton Avenue Congregational Church in Brooklyn since 1897; also concert organist and composer of songs and church music.

WHEELER, WALTER H.—Secretary and Treasurer, 19 Tenth avenue, New York City; residence 239 West 103d street. Born in Maine, April 29, 1866. Educated at Malden (Mass.) High School. (Married.) Secretary and director T. H. Wheeler Co.; director Hudson River Beef Co. and Manhattan Beef Co. Member Baptist Social Union.

WHEELER, WALTER R.—Manufacturer, 149 Wooster street, New York City; residence 56 Central Park, South. Born in Boston, Mass. Educated at Boston High School. (Single.) Member New York Athletic Club and Society of Mayflower Descendants.

WHEELER, WILLIAM B.—Stock Broker, 80 Broadway, New York City; residence 166 West 55th street. Educated at Yale. Member New York Stock Exchange and of the Union League, New York Athletic, Yale, University Athletic and Lotos Clubs.

WHEELOCK, GEORGE G.—Physician, 75 Park avenue, New York City. Educated at Harvard ('60). Trustee Columbia University in the City of New York. Member City, University, Mendelssohn Glee and Harvard Clubs, American Geographical Society, Century Association, American Museum of Natural History and Metropolitan Museum of Art.

WHEELOCK, HARVEY LINCOLN—Lawyer, Columbia Law School, New York City. Born in Worcester, Mass., Feb. 28, 1873. Educated at Harvard (A.B., '96) and Columbia (LL.B., '99). Member Harvard Club.

WHEELOCK, JOSEPH, JR.—Actor, 1428 Broadway, New York City; residence 16 Gramercy Park. Member of the company performing at the Empire Theatre, under the direction of Charles Frohman. Member Players', New York Athletic and Lambs' Clubs, Actors' Fund Society and Actors' Association.

WHEELOCK, WILLIAM A.—Merchant 100 Broadway, New York City; residence 158 Washington Heights. Director Central National Bank, Equitable Life Assurance Society of United States, Gold and Stock Telegraph Co. and American Surety Co. Member Union League, Lawyers' and Presbyterian Clubs, American Fine Arts and New England Societies, Metropolitan Museum of Art and American Museum of Natural History.

WHEELOCK, WILLIAM E.—Piano Manufacturer, 108 Fifth avenue, New York City; residence 75A Willow street, Brooklyn, and Willimantic, Conn. Born in Brooklyn, Sept. 24, 1852. (Married.) President and director Weber-Wheelock Co., and Manufacturers' Piano Co. of Chicago. Member Hamilton Club of Brooklyn, and New England Society.

WHIFFEN, THOMAS—Actor, 162 East 46th street. Born in New York City, Oct. 28, 1876. Member Lambs' Club.

WHINERY, SAMUEL—Civil Engineer, 81 Fulton street, New York City; residence 45 Glenwood avenue, East Orange, N. J. Born in Salem, Ohio, Nov. 20, 1845. Educated in public schools. (Married Elizabeth A. Crawford, 1875.) Engaged in the location and construction of railroads and other engineering work, 1868-84. Vice-president and general manager of the Warren-Scharf Asphalt Paving Co. since 1887. Member Engineers' Club, American Society of Civil Engineers and American Society of Mechanical Engineers.

WHIPPLE, CHARLES AYER—Artist, 58 West 57th street, New York City. Born in Southboro, Mass., Feb. 22, 1859. Educated in Massachusetts and Paris, France. (Married.) Member Republican and Manuscript Clubs and Kane Lodge, F. & A. M.

WHIPPLE, HERBERT G.—Lawyer, 220 Broadway, New York City. Born in Ashaway, R. I., June 12, 1858. Educated at Alfred University ('87). (Single.) Trustee Alfred University. Member Association of the Bar of the City of New York.

WHIPPLE, WILLIAM D.—Colonel, United States Army (retired); residence Union Club, New York City. Born in Nelson, Madison Co., N. Y., Aug. 2, 1826. Educated at the United States Military Academy ('51). (Widower.) Served on the Plains, 1857-61, and throughout the Civil War, becoming brigadier-general of volunteers and brevet brigadier-general and major-general in the United States Army. After the war served in the adjutant-general's department, reaching the rank of colonel. Retired from service in 1890. Member Union, University, Army and Navy, Reform, Jekyl Island and Boone and Crockett Clubs, Sons of the Revolution and Old Guard.

WHISTLER, JOSEPH NELSON GARLAND—Colonel, United States Army (retired); residence Fort Slocum. Born in Green Bay, Wis., Oct. 19, 1822. Educated at the United States Military Academy ('46). (Married Eliza C., daughter of Major Nathaniel N. Hall, United States Army.) Entered army as second lieutenant of the 8th Infantry in 1846. Served throughout Mexican War, and was brevetted for gallantry in action. Was captured in Texas by Confederates in 1861 and paroled as prisoner of war. Promoted to a captaincy in May, 1861; assistant instructor in military tactics at West Point, 1861-3; returned to the South, served in the defense of Washington and was brevetted brigadier-general. Lieutenant-colonel of the 5th Infantry, 1874; colonel of the 15th Infantry, 1883; retired from service on Oct. 19, 1886. Member Army and Navy Club of New York City, and Society of Colonial Wars.

WHITAKER, EDWARD GASCOIGNE—Lawyer, 141 Broadway, New York City; residence 200 West 78th street. Born in New York City, April 13, 1853. (Son of George W. and Catharine [Alcock] Whitaker.) Educated at Southampton Academy and at the University of Bremen, Germany ('72). Studied law, was admitted to the Bar in 1876, and has since practiced in New York City. Deputy State Attorney-General, 1884-91. Attorney for Railroad Corporation Building and Loan Association. Director Colonial Bank. Author of "Whitaker's Game Code." Member Manhattan, Democratic, Brooklyn, Long Island Country and South Side Sportsmen's Clubs, State Bar Association (ex-president) and Association of the Bar of the City of New York.

WHITAKER, EPHER—Presbyterian Clergyman, Southold. Born in Fairfield, Cumberland Co., N. J., March 27, 1820. Educated at Delaware College (A.B., '47, A.M., '50, and D.D., '77.) (Married Hannah Maria Force, 1852.) Rector of the First Presbyterian Church of Southold, 1851-92, and since then rector emeritus. Member of the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church, 1853, 1857, 1860, 1864, 1869, 1875 and 1888. Member of several historical and other societies.

WHITAKER, H. PRESCOTT—Hotel Proprietor, 1252 Broadway, and 783 Fifth avenue, New York City. Member of the firm of Stafford & Whitaker, proprietors of the Hotels Imperial and Netherland. Member New York Athletic, Lambs' and Turf and Field Clubs.

WHITBECK, JOHN BRONK—Farmer, Surveyor and Civil Engineer, Cossackie. Born in Coeymans, Albany Co., N. Y., Aug. 30, 1822. Educated at a district school and at an academy in Cossackie. (Married.) Director National Bank of Cossackie. Held commission of major in 110th Regiment, New York Militia, under General Salsbury of Catskill in 1844, having previously served in all minor offices. Was president of the Board of Trustees of Union Free School of Cossackie at time of its organization in 1880. Has been named as executor in a number of wills.

WHITBECK, THOMAS S.—Accountant, 921 Broadway, New York City; residence 345 West 14th street. Born in Waterford, N. Y., Aug. 2, 1845. Educated at Erasmus Hall, Flatbush, L. I. (Married.) Secretary, assistant treasurer and director Collamore, Davis & Co. Member Lafayette Post G. A. R., Royal Arcanum, Institute of Accounts and Ancient Order United Workmen.

WHITE, ALEXANDER M.—Fur Importer, 130 Water street, New York City; residence 2 Pierrepont place, Brooklyn. Born in Danbury, Conn., July 26, 1815. Educated in Danbury. (Married.) Director American Coal Co., George's Creek and Cumberland R. R. Co., and Nassau National Bank of Brooklyn; trustee Brooklyn Trust Co. Member Hamilton Club of Brooklyn, American Geographical Society, Down Town Association and Metropolitan Museum of Art.

WHITE, ALEXANDER M., JR.—Banker, 1 Nassau street, New York City; residence 158 Columbia Heights, Brooklyn. Born in Brooklyn, Oct. 30, 1870. Educated at Harvard. (Single.) Member of the firm of Moffat & White, and of the New York Stock Exchange. Member Harvard and University Clubs, Hamilton Club of Brooklyn, and Down Town Association.

WHITE, ALFRED T.—Fur Importer, 130 Water street, New York City; residence 40 Remsen street, Brooklyn. Born in Brooklyn, May 28, 1846. Educated at Brooklyn Polytechnic Institute and Rensselaer Polytechnic Institute. (Married.) Director City and Suburban Homes Co. Member Hamilton and Riding and Driving Clubs of Brooklyn, and Century and Down Town Associations.

WHITE, ANDREW CURTIS—Assistant Librarian, Cornell University, Ithaca; residence 424 Dryden road. Born in Kirkland, N. Y., Nov. 25, 1854. Educated at Hamilton College and at Cornell. (Married.) Assistant librarian in charge of classification, Cornell University Library, and reader in Greek in Cornell University. Member American Philological, American Library and New York State Library Associations.

WHITE, ANDREW DICKSON—United States Ambassador to Germany, American Embassy, Berlin; residence Berlin, and Ithaca, N. Y. Born in Homer, Cortlandt Co., N. Y., Nov. 7, 1832. Educated in public schools of Syracuse, at Yale ('53) and in Europe. Received degree of LL.D. from Yale, University of Michigan and Cornell; L.H.D. from Columbia and Ph.D. from the University of Jena. (Married.) Professor of history at the University of Michigan, 1857-64; New York State senator, 1863-7; president of Cornell University, 1865-85; United States Commissioner to Santo Domingo, 1871; Commissioner to the Paris Exposition of 1878; United States Minister to Germany, 1879-81; United States Minister to Russia, 1892-4; member of the Venezuela Boundary Commission, 1896-7; United States Ambassador to Germany since 1897. Chairman of the United States delegation to the Peace Conference held at The Hague, 1899. Regent of the Smithsonian Institution, Washington, D. C.; trustee of Cornell University. Author of "The New Germany," "The Warfare of Science," "Studies in General History," "European Schools of History," etc. Honorary member Cornell University Club and member Union League Club, Century Association, National Academy of Design and Metropolitan Museum of Art, all of New York City.

WHITE, ARTHUR—Investments, 7 Wall street, New York City; residence 210 Columbia Heights, Brooklyn. Educated at Yale. Member Yale, Racquet and Tennis, Union, Westchester Country, Calumet and Turf and Field Clubs, and Crescent Athletic Club of Brooklyn.

WHITE, ARTHUR E.—Banker and Broker, 52 Broadway, New York City; residence 560 Fifth avenue. Educated at Yale ('81). Member of the firm of White & Wainwright, and of the New York Stock Exchange. Member Calumet, Atlantic Yacht, New York Yacht, New York Athletic, Yale and University Clubs and Down Town Association.

WHITE, A. S.—Retired Merchant, Adams. Born in Fairfield, N. Y., June 27, 1830. Educated in Fairfield. (Married.) Director Farmers' National Bank. Member Rising Sun Lodge No. 234, F. & A. M., Adams Chapter No. 205 and Watertown Commandery No. 11, Knights Templar.

WHITE, CHARLES H.—Banker, 31 Nassau street, New York City; residence 282 West End avenue. Born in New York City. President and director San Luis Electric Light Co.; director Raritan River R. R. Co. and Staten Island Ry. Co. Member New York Yacht, Larchmont Yacht and New York Clubs.

WHITE, EDWARD—Vice-President, 829 President street, Brooklyn. Born and educated in Poughkeepsie, N. Y. (Married.) Ex-treasurer Bergen County R. R. Co., Erie R. R. Co., Pavonia Ferry Co. and Chicago and Erie R. R. Co. Now vice-president Missouri Land and Exploration Co. of St. Louis, Mo. Member Hardware Club, Congregational Club of Brooklyn, and Dutchess County Society in the City of New York.

WHITE, ERSKINE NORMAN—Presbyterian Clergyman, 156 Fifth avenue, New York City; residence 550 Park avenue. Born in New York City, May 31, 1833. Educated at Yale (A.B., '54, and A.M., '57.) Received degree of S.T.D. from New York University in 1874. (Married Eliza T. Nelson, 1859.) Held pastorates in Richmond, N. Y., 1859-62; New Rochelle, 1862-8; Buffalo, 1868-74; New York City, 1874-86. Now secretary of the Board of Church Election of the Presbyterian Church. Member Presbyterian Union, Yale Alumni Association and Sons of the Revolution.

WHITE, EUGENE M.—Lawyer, 925 University Block, Syracuse; residence 206 Harrison street. Born in Cortland, N. Y., June 9, 1868. Educated at the State Normal School, Cortland, and at Cornell University. (Married.) Member of the firm of Gill Stillwell & White. Member Citizens' Club and Phi Delta Phi Fraternity.

WHITE, F. WINTHROP—Treasurer, 81 Fulton street, New York City; residence New Brighton, S. I. Born in Brookline, Mass., Dec. 17, 1860. Educated at Harvard. (Married.) Treasurer and director Warren-Scharf Asphalt Paving Co., Warren-Burnham Co. and Virginia Portland Cement Co. Member Harvard, Harbor Hill Golf and University Clubs.

WHITE, FREDERICK W.—Manufacturing Chemist, 47 Cedar street, New York City; residence 27 West 55th street. President United Chemical Co. of Jersey City, N. J. Member New York Athletic Club and Down Town Association.

WHITE, GEORGE WILLIS—Building Materials, 1123 Broadway, New York City; residence 23 East 91st street. President and director George W. White & Co. Member Building Trades and Driving Clubs, New England Society and Aldine Association.

WHITE, GRANVILLE M.—Physician, 32 Nassau street, New York City; residence 272 West 77th street. Educated at Yale. Examining physician for the Mutual Life Insurance Co. of New York. Member Union League and Colonial Clubs, Yale Alumni Association and Metropolitan Museum of Art.

WHITE, HENRY—Lawyer, 141 Broadway, New York City; residence East Orange, N. J. Educated at Cornell ('80). Member Cornell University and Knickerbocker Athletic Clubs, Washington Club of New Jersey, and Association of the Bar of the City of New York.

WHITE, HORACE—State Senator, Senate Chamber, Albany, and Lawyer, White Memorial Building, Syracuse; residence Syracuse. Educated at Cornell ('87). Has represented the Thirty-sixth District in the State Senate since 1897, and has been renominated for a third term (1900). Member Cornell University Club of New York City, Genesee Valley and Citizens' Clubs and other organizations of Syracuse.

WHITE, HORACE—Editor, 206 Broadway, New York City; residence 18 West 69th street. Born in Colebrook, N. H., Aug. 10, 1834. Educated at Beloit College ('53). Connected with the Chicago, Ill., "Tribune," 1864-74. Now editor of the New York "Evening Post" and of "The Nation." President and director Evening Post Publishing Co.; trustee of Cornell University. Member Union League, City, Barnard, University and Reform Clubs, American Geographical and Authors' Societies, Century Association, American Museum of Natural History and Sons of the American Revolution.

WHITE, HORATIO STEVENS—Professor, Cornell University, Ithaca; residence 23 East avenue. Born in Syracuse, N. Y., April 23, 1852. Educated at Harvard (A.B., '73). (Married.) Member of the faculty at Cornell University since 1876; assistant professor of Greek and Latin, 1876-8; assistant professor of German, 1878-83; professor of the German language and literature since 1883; dean of the university faculty since 1896. Member Town and Gown Club, Players' Club of New York City, Citizens' Club of Syracuse, Psi Upsilon and Phi Beta Kappa Fraternities, Modern Language Association, Goethe Society of Weimar, Germany, and Neuphilologen-Verband of Germany.

WHITE, HOWARD GANSON—Journalist, 319 East Genesee street, Syracuse. Born in Syracuse, May 5, 1856. Educated at St. John's School in Manlius, N. Y., and at Cornell. (Married Emma, daughter of United States Senator Philletus Sawyer, 1879.) Bought an interest in the "Syracuse Standard" in 1883 and has been its sole proprietor since April 7, 1887.

WHITE, J. DU PRATT—Lawyer, 31 Nassau street, New York City; residence Nyack. Born in Middletown, N. Y., July 25, 1869. Educated at Cornell ('90). (Married.) Member Cornell University Club and Association of the Bar of the City of New York.

WHITE, J. GILBERT—Engineer and Contractor, 29 Broadway, New York City; residence 440 West End avenue. Born in Milroy, Pa., Aug. 29, 1861. Educated at Pennsylvania State College and at Cornell. (Married.) President and director J. G. White & Co. Member Cornell University, Colonial, New York Athletic, Engineers' and University Clubs, and Maryland and Merchants' Clubs of Baltimore, Md.

WHITE, JAMES TERRY—Publisher, 7 East 16th street, New York City; residence 512 West 90th street. Born in Newburyport, Mass., July 3, 1845. Educated in Newburyport. (Married Florence C. Derby of Buffalo, N. Y., 1869.) Senior member of the firm of James T. White & Co., publishers of the "National Cyclopaedia of American Biography." President and director R. Hudnut's Pharmacy. Was one of the founders of the Patriotic League and was for a time its secretary. Member Aldine Association.

WHITE, JOHN BLAKE—Physician, 1013 Madison avenue, New York City. Born in Charleston, S. C., Oct. 9, 1850. Educated at Phillips Exeter Academy and at the New York College of Physicians and Surgeons (M.D., '74). (Married Margaret S., daughter of George E. B. Jackson of Portland, Me., 1877.) Held several hospital positions for many years. Member Delta Kappa Epsilon Club, Crescent Athletic Club of Brooklyn, Southern Society and of numerous medical organizations.

WHITE, JOHN S.—Educator, 435 Madison avenue, New York City; residence 46 West 54th street. Born in Wrentham, Mass., Feb. 3, 1847. Educated in Boston schools and at Harvard. Received degree of LL.D. from Trinity College in 1879. (Married.) Master of the Boston Latin School, 1870-4; head master of Brooks' Academy, Cleveland, Ohio, 1874-80; head master of Berkeley School in New York City since 1880. Author of educational works. Member Union League, Authors', Barnard, Mendelssohn Glee and Harvard Clubs, New England Society and Lafayette Post, G. A. R.

WHITE, LEONARD D.—Banker, 47 Broadway, New York City; residence 39 East 74th street. Born in New York City, April 3, 1867. Educated at Columbia. (Single.) Member of the firm of White & Blackwell, and of the New York Stock Exchange. Member Reform Club and Columbia University Alumni Association.

WHITE, LOOMIS L.—Banker and Broker, 1 Nassau street, New York City; residence Pomfret, Conn. Member Union League, Calumet, Church and Riding Clubs, American Geographical and New England Societies, American Museum of Natural History, Metropolitan Museum of Art and National Academy of Design.

WHITE, LUTHER CLARK, Jr.—Broker, 32 Broadway, New York City; residence 16 Gramercy Park. Born in Windsor, Vt., 1867. Educated at Dartmouth College. (Married.) Member Players' Club and Alpha Delta Phi Fraternity.

WHITE, MATTHEW, JR.—Editor, 111 Fifth avenue, New York City; residence 211 West 44th street. Born in New York City, Sept. 21, 1857. Educated in New York City and in Europe. (Single.) Editor of "The Argosy." Author of "One of the Profession," "A Born Aristocrat" and other works.

WHITE, NATHANIEL H.—Watches and Diamonds, 21 Maiden lane, New York City; residence 34 West 32d street. Born near Newton, N. J., March 28, 1836. Educated near Newton. (Married.) President and director Standard Ore Reduction Co.; director Wesley Mfg Co. Ex-president New York Jewelers' Association.

WHITE, OCTAVIUS AUGUSTUS—Physician, 1011 Madison avenue, New York City. Born in Charleston, S. C., Feb. 8, 1826. Educated at the College of Charleston (A.B., '46, A.M., '47, and LL.D., '90) and at South Carolina Medical College (M.D., '48). (Married.) Surgeon in the Confederate Army during Civil War. Practicing in New York City since 1865. Is an expert on yellow fever and has served through several epidemics in the South. Has invented numerous surgical instruments.

WHITE, SAMUEL T.—Piano Manufacturer, 134 Fifth avenue, New York City; residence Mount Vernon. Born in Brooklyn, N. Y., March 12, 1854. Educated in Brooklyn public schools. (Married.) Secretary and director Horace Waters & Co. Member Reform Club and Royal Arcanum.

WHITE, STANFORD—Architect, 160 Fifth avenue, New York City; residence 119 East 21st street. Born in New York City, Nov. 9, 1853. Educated at New York University ('81) and in Europe. (Married.) Member of the firm of McKim, Mead & White since 1881, designers and architects of several of the most notable structures in the United States, including the Madison Square Garden and Columbia University buildings in New York City. President and director United Industrial Co.; vice-president and director Madison Square Garden Co. and Roanoke Rapids Power Co.; treasurer and director Self-Threading Sewing Machine Co.; director Garden City Co. Member Metropolitan, University, Union City, Turf and Field, Meadow Brook Hunt, Racquet and Tennis, Lambs', Riding, Players', Adirondack League and New York Yacht Clubs, Century Association, Ardsley Casino of Ardsley-on-Hudson, and American Institute of Architects.

WHITE, STEPHEN V.—Broker, 7 Wall street, New York City; residence 210 Columbia Heights, Brooklyn. Born in Chatham County, N. C., Aug. 1, 1831. Educated at Knox College, Galesburg, Ill. (Married Eliza M. Chandler, 1857.) Practiced law in Des Moines, Iowa, 1856-65. Engaged in business in New York City since 1865. Senior member of the firm of S. V. White & Co. Congressman, 1887-9. President and director Bower-Barff Rustless Iron Co.; director New Jersey Magnetic Concentrating Co.; treasurer of Plymouth Church, Brooklyn, since 1869. Member New York Stock, Produce, Cotton and Coffee Exchanges and of the Union League, Brooklyn, Hamilton and Lincoln Clubs of Brooklyn.

WHITE, SUMNER W.—Manufacturing Chemist, 47 Cedar street, and 2300 Eighth avenue, New York City; residence 550 Park avenue. Born in New York City. (Married.) Secretary, treasurer and director Washington Storage Warehouse and Van Co. Member Harvard Club.

WHITE, THEODORE G.—Instructor, Columbia University, New York City; residence 121 Madison avenue. Educated at Columbia School of Mines ('94); degrees of M.A., '95, and Ph.D., '99. (Single.) Trustee City Vigilance League, 1893-9; secretary Citizens' Union of the Twenty-fifth Assembly District, 1897-9. Member Torrey Botanical and New York Mineralogical Clubs, New York Academy of Science, American Association for the Advancement of Science, Geological Society of America, American Physical Society, New York State Natural Science Teachers' Association and Sigma Alpha Epsilon Fraternity.

WHITE, WILLIAM AUGUSTUS—Merchant, 130 Water street, New York City; residence 158 Columbia Heights, Brooklyn. Born in Brooklyn, Dec. 12, 1843. Educated at Harvard. (Married.) Member University and Grolier Clubs, Hamilton, Crescent Athletic and Riding and Driving Clubs of Brooklyn, and Century and Down Town Associations.

WHITE, WILLIAM B.—Printer, 209 West 81st street, New York City. Born in Baltimore, Md., Dec. 15, 1835 (of New England parentage). Educated in New York City public schools. (Widower.) Was councilman, City of New York, 1866-7; alderman, 1867-9; collector of Internal Revenue, Sixth District of New York, 1871-5; United States Internal Revenue gauger, 1878-87. Member New England Society.

WHITE, WILLIAM HANFORD—Physician, 56 West 48th street, New York City. Consulting physician Metropolitan Charity Hospital, Blackwell's Island, and Hahnemann Hospital. Ex-president Homeopathic County Medical Society of New York; formerly delegate to American Institute of Homeopathy from New York County Medical Society. Member Union League Club and New England Society.

WHITE, WILLIAM HENRY—Civil Engineer, 32 Pine street, New York City; residence 155 West 48th street. (Married a daughter of the late R. E. Dietz.) President and director Schenectady Ry. Co. and Selma Water Co.; vice-president and director R. E. Dietz Co.; director United Gas and Electric Companies of Little Falls, and International Cooling Co. Member Lotos, Army and Navy, Lawyers' and Engineers' Clubs, Blooming Grove Park Association, Metropolitan Museum of Art, Old Guard, G. A. R., and Military Order of the Loyal Legion.

WHITE, WILLIAM PIERREPONT—Lawyer and Manufacturer, 75 Genesee street, Utica; residence 294 Genesee street. Born in Sweet Briar Farm, Livingston Co., N. Y., April 8, 1867. (Son of William Mansfield and Anna Maria [Pierrepont] White.) Educated at Columbia Law School (LL.B.). (Single.) President Utica Drop Forge and Tool Co. of Utica; vice-president Gould Mfg Co. of Seneca Falls; secretary Oneida County League for Good Roads; director Second National Bank of Utica, Rome Tube Works of Rome, Utica and Black River R. R. Co., Rome, Watertown and Ogdensburg R. R. Co., and Aragon Mills of Polk Co., Ga.; warden Zion Church of Pierrepont Manor. Member Sadaquada Golf and Fort Schuyler Clubs, St. Nicholas Club of New York City, and New York State Agriculture and Oneida Historical Societies.

WHITE, WILLIAM WALLACE—Lawyer, 305 Broadway, New York City; residence 579 West 145th street. Born in New York City, March 4, 1862. Educated in New York City public schools and at New York Law School. (Married.) Member of the firm of Richards & Co. Member Commercial Club, Patent Law Association of Washington, D. C., Syndicat des Ingenieurs Conseils en Matiere de Proprieté Industrielle of Paris, France, and Australian Institute of Patent Agents.

WHITEHEAD, AARON PENNINGTON—Lawyer, 50 Wall street, New York City; residence 29 East 74th street. (Married.) Was a member of the firm of Martin & Smith until its dissolution on Dec. 31, 1895. Counsel to the firm of Duer, Strong & Whitehead since Jan. 1, 1896. Director E. S. Higgins Carpet Co. Member Union, South Side Sportsmen's, and Essex County (N. J.) Country Clubs, Down Town Association and Association of the Bar of the City of New York.

WHITEHEAD, CHARLES E.—Lawyer, 71 Broadway, New York City; residence 39 West 38th street. Member of the firm of Whitehead, Dexter & Osborn. Member City, Union League and Tuxedo Clubs, Manufacturers' Club of Cleveland, Ohio, Century and Down Town Associations, National Academy of Design, Metropolitan Museum of Art and American Museum of Natural History.

WHITEHEAD, EDWARD—Cutlery Manufacturer, Walden. Born in Halifax, England, Nov. 5, 1845. Educated in Walden, N. Y., and at Fort Edward Institute, Fort Edward, N. Y. (Married.) President the Walden Knife Co., the Press Button Knife Co., and Walden Board of Education; director National Bank of Walden.

WHITEHOUSE, GEORGE M.—Banker and Broker, 25 Broad street, New York City; residence New Brighton, S. I. Born in Brooklyn, N. Y., 1844. Educated in Brooklyn. (Married Helen Ostrander.) Senior member of the firm of Whitehouse & Co., and member of the New York Stock and Produce Exchanges. Member Players' Club and St. Nicholas Society.

WHITEHOUSE, HENRY HOWARD—Physician and Instructor, 24 West 36th street, New York City. Degrees of Ph.B. and M.D. Clinical instructor in dermatology, Cornell University Medical College, New York City.

WHITEHOUSE, JAMES HORTON—Jeweler, 15 Union square, West, New York City; residence 430 Lafayette avenue, Brooklyn. Born in Staffordshire, England, Oct. 28, 1833. Connected with the firm of Tiffany & Co. since 1858. Has designed many notable artistic productions in silver.

WHITEHOUSE, J. HENRY—Stock Broker, 25 Broad street, New York City; residence Irvington. Member of the firm of Whitehouse & Co., and of the New York Stock Exchange. Member Players' and Camera Clubs and Ardsley Casino of Ardsley-on-Hudson.

WHITEHOUSE, J. NORMAN DE R.—Banker and Broker, 25 Broad street, New York City; residence 10 West 30th street, and Midfield Farms, Westbury, L. I. Born in Brooklyn, N. Y. Educated at Oxford University, England. (Married Vira Boarman of New Orleans.) Member of the firm of Whitehouse & Co., and of the New York Stock Exchange. Member New York Yacht, Union and Meadow Brook Hunt Clubs, Ardsley Casino of Ardsley-on-Hudson, and Society of Colonial Wars.

WHITEHOUSE, SAMUEL S.—Lawyer, 164 Montague street, Brooklyn; residence 143 Hancock street. Member Crescent Athletic and Montauk Clubs, and Reform Club of New York.

WHITEHOUSE, WILLIAM FITZHUGH—Lawyer, 29 Wall street, New York City; residence 187 Madison avenue. Educated at Columbia ('60). Member University, New York Yacht and Church Clubs and Columbia University Alumni and Century Associations.

WHITEHOUSE, WORTHINGTON—Real Estate, 509 Fifth avenue, New York City. Member of the firm of Whitehouse & Porter. Member Metropolitan, Knickerbocker, Racquet and Tennis, Transportation and Knollwood Clubs, and Ardsley Casino of Ardsley-on-Hudson.

WHITELY, JAMES—Broker, 52 Broadway, New York City; residence 49 West 75th street. Born in Paterson, N. J., Aug. 27, 1845. (Married.) Member of the firm of Prince & Whitely. Governor New York Stock Exchange; trustee New York Stock Exchange Building Co. Member New York Athletic (ex-president) and Atlantic Yacht Clubs, American Museum of Natural History, and 7th Regiment Veteran Association.

WHITEMAN, ABRAM V.—Merchant, 144 Chambers street, New York City; residence Port Chester. Born in New York City, June 10, 1855. Educated in New York City and Fairfield, Conn. (Married Oct. 17, 1883.) Member American Yacht, Fairfield County Golf and Port Chester Athletic Clubs.

WHITEFIELD, ROBERT PARR—Geologist and Curator, 77th street and Central Park, West, New York City; residence 51 West 35th street. Born in Willow Vale, New Hartford, Oneida Co., N. Y., May 27, 1828. Educated at home. Received degree of A.M. from Wesleyan University in 1882. (Widower.) Curator in the geological department of the American Museum of Natural History, New York City, since 1877. Member of advisory committee South American Exploration Co. Fellow Geological Society of America and American Association for the Advancement of Science. Member Metropolitan Museum of Art.

WHITFORD, OSCAR F.—Civil Engineer, 79 Woodlawn avenue, Buffalo. Born in Saratoga County, N. Y., July 15, 1833. Educated at Union College (A.B., '58, and A.M., '61). (Single.) Has practiced as civil engineer in Mexico, South America and in the United States. Member American Society of Civil Engineers.

WHITIN, LEWIS FREDERIC—Merchant, 112 Worth street, New York City; residence 9 West 56th street. Born in Whitinsville, Mass., Jan. 20, 1844. Educated at Yale. (Married.) Director Phenix National Bank and St. Joseph Lead Co. Member University, Merchants' Central, Mendelssohn Glee, Richmond County Country and Staten Island Cricket Clubs, New England Society and Yale Alumni and Century Associations.

WHITING, WILLIAM J.—37 Liberty street, New York City; residence 208 Hewes street, Brooklyn. Born in Massachusetts, Dec. 12, 1855. Educated in Massachusetts. (Married.) Secretary and director Connelly Iron Sponge and Governor Co.; director Dundesberg Mining Co. and New York-Aurora Mining Co. Member Reform Club, Hanover Club and New England Society of Brooklyn, and St. Maurice Club of Canada.

WHITLOCK, BACHE McEVERS—Lawyer, 49 Wall street, New York City; residence Grymes Hills, Stapleton, S. I. Born in New York City, June 11, 1852. Educated at Charlier's Institute, Columbia School of Arts ('73) and Columbia Law School ('75). (Married.) Director Horn Silver Mining Co. Member Mendelssohn Glee and Delta Phi Clubs, Columbia Alumni and Down Town Associations and Association of the Bar of the City of New York.

WHITLOCK, BENJAMIN MORRIS—229 West 28th street, New York City; residence 114 West 12th street. Born in New York City, May 8, 1859. Educated in New York City. Was brigadier-general and inspector of rifle practice on staffs of Governors Flower and Morton. President and director Safety Insulated Wire and Cable Co. Member Union, Atlantic Yacht, New York Yacht and Manhasset Bay Yacht Clubs and others.

WHITLOCK, JAMES A.—Insurance Adjuster, 51 Wall street, New York City. Born in New York City, Sept. 29, 1831. Educated at Mechanics' Society School. (Married.) Junior member of the firm of Jones & Whitlock. Agent Union Marine Insurance Co. (Ltd.) of Liverpool, England; secretary and member of the Board of Marine Underwriters of New York. Formerly trustee Havens Relief Fund Society. Member Association of Average Adjusters of United States.

WHITMAN, CHARLES S.—Lawyer, 35 Nassau street, New York City; residence 57 West 82d street. Born in Connecticut, 1868. Educated at Amherst College (A.B.) and New York Law School (LL.B.). (Single.) Member St. Nicholas, Quill, West Side Republican and Alpha Delta Phi Clubs, Amherst Alumni Association and Association of the Bar of the City of New York.

WHITMAN, CLARENCE—Dry Goods Commission Merchant, 39 Leonard street, New York City; residence Katonah. Member of the firm of Clarence Whitman & Co. Member Lawyers', Union League, Merchants' Central, Riding, Larchmont Yacht and Richmond County Country Clubs, New England Society and Metropolitan Museum of Art.

WHITMAN, GEORGE A.—Clerk, Eleventh Division, Custom House, New York City; residence 158 West 106th street. Born in Koenigsberg, Prussia, April 26, 1839. Educated in city high schools and at Frederick Williams College, Koenigsberg. (Married.) Formerly clerk in office of the Secretary of the Treasury at Washington, D. C. Now clerk in Auditor's Department, Custom House, Port of New York. Member Lafayette Post, G. A. R.

WHITMAN, HENRY H.—Lawyer, 41 Wall street, New York City; residence Yonkers. Born in Turner, Me., March 24, 1862. Educated at Phillips Exeter Academy and at Columbia. (Married.) Member of the firm of Ewing, Whitman & Ewing. Member University Athletic Club, Columbia University Alumni Association and Association of the Bar of the City of New York.

WHITMAN, H. RANDOLPH—Advertising, 115 Nassau street, New York City; residence New Rochelle. Born in Chicago, Ill., Aug. 9, 1866. Educated at the University of Notre Dame, Indiana. (Married.) President Whitman Co. Member Hardware Club, Palestine Commandery, Knights Templar No. 18, Consistory of Scottish Rite and Co-ordinate Bodies, thirty-second degree Masons and Mystic Shrine.

WHITMAN, JAMES SPURR—Dry Goods Commission Merchant, 39 Leonard street, New York City; residence 352 Lexington avenue. Educated at Merton College ('79), Oxford University, England. Member of the firm of Clarence Whitman & Co. Member University, Players', Church and Wool Clubs.

WHITMAN, R. S.—Manufacturer, Little Falls. Born in Little Falls, Aug. 5, 1835. (Married.) Member of the firm of Whitman Bros. (Rockton Knitting Mills). President Eastern Improvement Co.; director National Herkimer County Bank, and Agricultural Insurance Co. of Watertown.

WHITMAN, WILLIAM—Dry Goods Commission Merchant, 80 Leonard street, New York City; residence Brookline, Mass. Born in Annapolis, N. S., May 9, 1842. Educated in Annapolis. (Married.) Member of the firm of Harding, Whitman & Co. Treasurer Arlington Mills. Member Union, Eastern Yacht and Country Clubs of Boston, and Metropolitan Museum of Art.

WHITMORE, BENJAMIN THOMAS—Physician, 90 Maiden lane, New York City; residence Hotel Renaissance. Born in Charles County, Md., 1851. Educated at Cote Brillante College, St. Louis, Mo., and at Louisville School of Medicine (M.D.). Received degree of LL.D. from Manhattan College for his services to medicine. Connected with the scientific department of Parke, Davis & Co. of Detroit, New York and London. Was a member of the surgical staff of the Mullaphy Hospital in St. Louis for nine years, and held the chair of physiology for four years in Cote Brillante College. Has been a frequent contributor to medical literature. Member Drug Trade and Lotos Clubs, Chicago Medical Society and Mississippi Valley Medical, Physicians' Mutual Aid and American Medical Associations.

WHITMORE, WALTER G.—Engineer, 44 Broad street, New York City; residence 79th street and First avenue, Bay Ridge. Born in Plymouth, Mass., Oct. 21, 1865. Educated at the Massachusetts Institute of Technology. (Married.) Connected with the General Electric Co. Member New York Electrical Society, Institute of Electrical Engineers (associate), and Massachusetts Institute of Technology Alumni Association.

WHITMYRE, C. L.—Manufacturer, 12 Washington avenue, Schenectady; residence 707 Union street. Born in Germany, May 2, 1838. Educated in Germany. (Single.) Sole owner of the firm of C. Whitmyre & Co. Director Schenectady Bank. Member Mohawk Club.

WHITNEY, ALFRED R.—Manufacturer, 71 Broadway, New York City; residence "Glimpswood Manor," Morristown, N. J. Born in Boston, Mass. (Married.) Senior member of the firm of A. R. Whitney & Co., manufacturers of iron and steel. Member Union League Club, New England Society, Metropolitan Museum of Art, National Academy of Design and American Museum of Natural History.

WHITNEY, ALFRED R., JR.—Manufacturer, 71 Broadway, New York City; residence 44 West 44th street. Born in New York City. Educated at Stevens Institute of Technology ('90). (Single.) Connected with the firm of A. R. Whitney & Co., manufacturers of iron and steel. Member University, Union League, New York Yacht and Baltusrol Golf Clubs, New England Society and Squadron "A," N. G. N. Y.

WHITNEY, CASPAR—Editor, 331 Pearl street, New York City; residence 136 Madison avenue. Born in Baltimore, Md., Sept. 2, 1861. Educated at St. Mathew's College in California. (Married Cora Chase, 1897.) Associated with the firm of Harper & Brothers, as editor of "Outing" and sporting editor of "Harper's Weekly." Member Larchmont Yacht, Racquet and Tennis, University Athletic, New York Canoe, Oriental Snow Shoe, and Boone and Crockett Clubs.

WHITNEY, CHARLES C.—Life Insurance, 346 Broadway, New York City; residence 260 Garfield place, Brooklyn. Educated at Williams College. Secretary New York Life Insurance Co. Member Williams College Alumni Association and Metropolitan Museum of Art.

WHITNEY, CHARLES S.—Life Insurance, 11 Broadway, New York City; residence 57 West 75th street. Born in Brooklyn, N. Y., Nov. 7, 1855. Educated at Lockwood Academy, Brooklyn. (Married.) First vice-president American Union Life Insurance Co. Ex-president Maritime Association of New York City, and Cantata Singing Society of Brooklyn. Member Union League (president) and Oxford Clubs of Brooklyn, Colonial Club and Colonia Country Club.

WHITNEY, CHARLES W.—Banker and Broker, 331 Madison avenue, New York City; residence 65 South Oxford street, Brooklyn. Born in Brooklyn, Dec. 2, 1869. Educated at the Brooklyn Polytechnic Institute. (Single.) Manager for Kissam, Whitney & Co. Member Racquet and Tennis and Strollers' Clubs, Nassau Country Club of Glen Cove, L. I., Crescent Athletic and Dyker Meadow Golf Clubs of Brooklyn, Society of Colonial Wars and Sons of the Revolution.

WHITNEY, DRAKE—Retired Civil and Mining Engineer, 335 Buffalo avenue, Niagara Falls. Born in Niagara Falls, Aug. 23, 1843. (Son of Major Solon M. H. Whitney.) Educated at Porter's Academy, Walnut Hill School of Geneva, N. Y., Rensselaer Polytechnic Institute, at University of Göttingen and Freiberg Mining Academy, Germany, and Ecole des Mines, Paris, France. (Married.) Was in Europe, 1865-9; in California, 1870, and in business in Niagara Falls, 1871; retired in 1892. Formerly resident engineer Canada Southern R. R. Co. and assistant engineer Niagara Falls and Clifton Suspension Bridge Co. Member Civic, Veteran and Niagara Frontier Game and Fish Clubs, Sons of the Revolution, Society of Colonial Wars, Mayflower Descendants, Theta Delta Chi Graduates' Club of New York City, and Knights Templar.

WHITNEY, EDWARD B.—Lawyer, 59 Wall street, New York City; residence 351 West 114th street. Born in New Haven, Conn., Aug. 16, 1857. Educated at Yale

('78). (Married.) Member of the firm of Goodrich, Whitney & Hagen. Ex-Assistant Attorney-General of the United States. Member Lawyers', Democratic and Reform Clubs, Century Association and Association of the Bar of the City of New York.

WHITNEY, ELMAR HALE—Insurance, 402 Elliott square, Buffalo; residence 147 Lexington avenue. (Married.) Member Buffalo Republican and Buffalo Clubs, Sons of the American Revolution and Buffalo Historical Society.

WHITNEY, HARRY PAYNE—Capitalist, 346 Broadway, New York City; residence 2 West 57th street. (Son of Hon. William Collins Whitney.) Educated at Yale ('94). (Married Gertrude, daughter of the late Cornelius Vanderbilt.) Commissioner of the Bureau of Municipal Statistics. Director Defender Fire Extinguisher Co., Illinois Electric Vehicle Transportation Co., Metropolitan Street R. R. Co., Mount Morris Bank, New York Electric Transportation Co., Plaza Bank and Second Avenue R. R. Co.; trustee Guaranty Trust Co. Member University, Knickerbocker, New York Yacht, Riding, Racquet and Tennis, Seawanhaka-Corinthian Yacht, Westchester Country and Meadow Brook Hunt Clubs and Metropolitan Museum of Art.

WHITNEY, HENRY M.—Banker and Broker, 35 Wall street, New York City; residence 65 South Oxford street, Brooklyn. Born in New York City. Member of the firm of Kissam, Whitney & Co. and of the New York Stock Exchange. Director Hamilton Trust Co. of Brooklyn, Preferred Accident Insurance Co., and Schermerhorn Bank of Brooklyn; trustee Colonial Trust Co. Member Oxford and Hamilton Clubs of Brooklyn.

WHITNEY, HORACE P.—66 Beaver street, New York City; residence Yonkers. Born in Brooklyn, N. Y., Oct. 10, 1866. Educated at Columbia. (Single.) Member Palisade Boat Club and Columbia University Alumni Association.

WHITNEY, JAMES A.—Lawyer, 256 Broadway, New York City; residence Maryland, Otsego County. Born in Rochester, N. Y., June 30, 1839. (Son of Amaziah and Margaret [Taylor] Whitney.) Educated in common schools. Received degree of A.M. from Union College in 1870 and LL.D. from Iowa College in 1880. (Married the only daughter of John W. Copley of Harpersfield, N. Y., 1876.) Served with 39th Regiment, New York Volunteers, during Civil War and advanced to the rank of captain; editor of the "American Artisan," 1868-72; professor of agricultural chemistry in the American Institute, 1869-72. Established as a patent solicitor in 1872 and was admitted to practice in the United States Circuit Courts in 1876. Author of "The Relations of the Patent Laws to the Development of Agriculture," "The Chinese and the Chinese Question" and others.

WHITNEY, ROBERT E.—Life Insurance, 100 Broadway, New York City; residence 23 Prospect street, Stamford, Conn. Born in Indianapolis, Ind., Sept. 9, 1865. (Married.) General manager Seaboard Department of the New York Life Insurance Co. Member Crescent Athletic Club of Brooklyn, Aurora Grata Consistory, De Witt Clinton Commandery, Kismet Temple Mystic Shrine and Officers' Veteran Association of the 23d Regiment, N. G. N. Y.

WHITNEY, S. V.—Farmer and Surveyor, Woodbury. Born March 11, 1821. (Married.) Vice-president Glen Cove Mutual Insurance Co.; director Hamilton Fire Insurance Co. Formerly inspector of elections, assessor and supervisor of the town of Oyster Bay.

WHITNEY, WILLIAM B.—Lawyer, 96 Broadway, New York City; residence 256 West 100th street. Born in New Hampshire, Jan. 10, 1866. Educated at Amherst College and at Harvard Law School. (Single.) Member Harvard and University Clubs and Association of the Bar of the City of New York.

WHITNEY, WILLIAM COLLINS—Lawyer and Capitalist, 100 Broadway, New York City; residence 871 Fifth avenue, and Old Westbury, L. I. Born in Conway, Franklin Co., Mass., July 15, 1841. (Son of James S. Whitney.) Educated at Yale (A.B., '63, and LL.D., '88) and at Harvard Law School (LL.B., '65).

Was admitted to the Bar and engaged in practice in New York City. (Widower.) Inspector of schools in New York City, 1872; corporation counsel, 1875-82; Secretary of the Navy of the United States in the Cabinet of President Cleveland, 1885-9. Director Christopher and Tenth Streets R. R. Co., Morton Trust Co., National Union Bank, Central Cross Town R. R. Co., Metropolitan Opera and Real Estate Co., Nassau County Bank of Mineola, National Horse Show Association, New York Loan and Improvement Co., Second Avenue R. R. Co. and Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Children; trustee Fifth Avenue Trust Co., Consolidated Gas Co., Mutual Life Insurance Co. of New York, and Peabody Museum of Boston, Mass. Member Metropolitan, Union, Knickerbocker, Manhattan, Democratic, Lawyers', Meadow Brook Hunt, Turf and Field, University, Riding, Racquet and Tennis, South Side Sportsmen's and New York Yacht Clubs, Country Club of Westchester, Yale Alumni, Century and Down Town Associations, New York Zoological (founder), Musical Arts and New England Societies, Society of Mayflower Descendants, American Museum of Natural History, Metropolitan Museum of Art and Association of the Bar of the City of New York.

WHITNEY, WILLIAM MINOTT—Dry Goods Merchant, 41 North Pearl street, Albany; residence 156 Washington avenue. Born in Boston, Mass., Jan. 12, 1826. Educated in New York City. (Married.) Member Sons of the Revolution and Society of Colonial Wars.

WHITON, JAMES MORRIS—Editor and Author, 287 Fourth avenue, New York City. Born in Boston, Mass., April 11, 1833. Educated at Yale (A.B., '53, and Ph.D., '61). (Married Mary E., daughter of William Bartlett of Portland, Me., 1855.) Rector of Hopkins Grammar School at New Haven, Conn., 1854-64; held various Congregational pastorates, 1865-91; principal of Williston Seminary, Easthampton, Mass., 1876-8; professor of ethics at Meadville (Pa.) Theological School, 1893-4. On editorial staff of "The Outlook" since 1896. Author of numerous educational and religious works.

WHITON, JOHN M.—Fire Insurance, 32 Pine street, New York City; residence Plainfield, N. J. Born in Massachusetts, 1845. (Married.) Metropolitan manager St. Paul Fire and Marine Insurance Co., Fireman's Insurance Co. of Newark, Security Insurance Co. of Connecticut, Concordia Insurance Co. and Wisconsin Fire Insurance Co. of Milwaukee, German Insurance Co. of Freeport, and Prussian National Insurance Co. Member Lawyers' Club.

WHITON, LOUIS CLAUDE—Lawyer, 149 Broadway, New York City; residence 114 West 76th street. Born in Jersey City, N. J. Educated at New York University ('78) and at Columbia Law School ('80). (Married.) Trustee St. Paul's Institute of Tarsus, Asia Minor. Member West Side Republican Club, Phi Beta Kappa Society, Society of Colonial Wars, Sons of the Revolution, Academy of Sciences and Association of the Bar of the City of New York.

WHITRIDGE, FREDERICK W.—Lawyer, 59 Wall street, New York City; residence 16 East 11th street. Educated at Amherst College ('74) and at Columbia Law School. Member of the firm of Cary & Whitridge. Director Cataract Construction Co., Chicago Railway Terminal Elevator Co., Cleveland, Akron and Columbus R. R. Co., Knoxville, Cumberland Gap and Louisville Ry. Co., Lake Erie and Western R. R. Co., Niagara Development Co. and Niagara Falls Power Co. Member Metropolitan, Knickerbocker, University, Reform, City, Players' and Church Clubs, Country Club of Westchester, Amherst College Alumni, Columbia Alumni, Down Town and Century Associations, American Fine Arts and New England Societies, Liederkrantz and Association of the Bar of the City of New York.

WHITTAKER, JOHN BARNARD—Artist and Professor, Lafayette avenue and St. James place, Brooklyn. Born in Ireland. Educated in Brooklyn public schools. Studied painting and drawing at the Brooklyn Institute of Arts and Sciences and at the National Academy of Design. Established an art school in Brooklyn, and was made art instructor in the Adelphi Academy in 1888, which position he now holds. Member of numerous art societies.

WHITTELSEY, THEODORE—Instructor, Cornell University, Ithaca; residence 115 Cook street. Degrees of A.B. and Ph.D. Instructor in chemistry, Cornell University.

WHITEMORE, R. B.—Broker, 35 Broad street, New York City; residence 16 East 53d street. Born and educated in New York City. (Widower.) Member of the firm of Whittemore & Co., and of the New York Stock Exchange. Member New York Athletic Club.

WHITEMORE, WILLIAM J.—Artist, 318 West 57th street, New York City. Born in New York City, 1860. (Married.) Member New York Water Color and Salmagundi Clubs, National Academy of Design (associate), American Water Color Society and American Society of Miniature Painters.

WHITTIC, LIEBER E.—Lawyer, 126 The Bastable, Syracuse; residence 313 Almond street. Born in Syracuse, Feb. 9, 1872. Educated at Syracuse University and Law School. (Single.) Member Citizens' Club and Phi Kappa Psi and Phi Delta Phi Fraternities.

WHITTREDGE, WORTHINGTON—Artist, 51 West Tenth street, New York City; residence Summit, N. J. Born in Clark County, Ohio, May 22, 1820. Educated in Springfield, Ohio, public schools. (Married.) President of the National Academy of Design, 1875-6. Member Lotos Club, Century Association, National Academy of Design, Artists' Fund Society and Metropolitan Museum of Art.

WIARD, WILLIAM W.—Manufacturer, Syracuse; residence 112 Holland street. Born in Oakfield, N. Y., Sept. 29, 1865. Educated in Syracuse. (Married.) Assistant secretary Syracuse Chilled Plow Co. Member Citizens' and Syracuse Clubs and Royal Arcanum.

WIARDA, JOHN C.—Manufacturing Chemist, Greene avenue, Provost and Freeman streets, Brooklyn; residence 137 Hooper street. Born in New York City, March 11, 1860. Educated in Hanover, Germany, and in Brooklyn. (Married.) President, treasurer, manager and director John C. Wiarda & Co.; president and treasurer L. A. Eberhardt & Co. Member Society of Chemical Industry, Brooklyn League, Board of Trade of the Seventeenth Ward, Manufacturers' Association and James McLearn Camp Sons of Veterans.

WICKER, CASSIUS M.—Railroad President, 15 Wall street, New York City; residence 599 West End avenue. President and director Zanesville and Ohio River Ry. Co. and North Shore Traction Co.; vice-president and director Chicago Union Traction Co.; Colorado Eastern R. R. Co. and Fort Worth and Rio Grande Ry. Co.; director Bankers' Money Order Association, National Ship Copper Plating Co. and Worcester Traction Co. Member Colonial, Lawyers', Union League, Atlantic Yacht and Church Clubs, Union League Club of Chicago, Ill., American Geographical and New England Societies, Sons of the Revolution, Society of Colonial Wars, Society of Mayflower Descendants, America's Founders and Defenders and Metropolitan Museum of Art.

WICKERSHAM, GEORGE WOODWARD—Lawyer, 40 Wall street, New York City; residence 42 West 47th street. Educated at the University of Pennsylvania. Director Lawyers' Surety Co. Member City, Grolier, Metropolitan and Players' Clubs, University of Pennsylvania Alumni, Down Town and Century Associations and Association of the Bar of the City of New York.

WICKES, EDWARD A.—Vice-President, 15 Broad street, New York City; residence 14 West 57th street. Born in Ballston, N. Y., April 10, 1843. Educated at Williams College. (Married.) Was captain in 150th Regiment, New York Volunteers, 1862; brevet major, 1865; commissary of musters, 20th Army Corps; retained in service (by order of President Lincoln), and mustered out in October, 1865. President and director Broadway and Seventh Avenue R. R. Co.; first vice-president and director Niagara Falls Power Co., and allied companies; vice-president and director Canada Southern Ry. Co. and allied companies. Member Metropolitan and University Clubs, New England Society, Williams College Alumni and Down Town Associations, American Museum of Natural History and Metropolitan Museum of Art.

WICKES, H. VAN WYCK—Merchant, 1 West 34th street, New York City; residence 28 East 28th street. Born in Deep River, Conn., May 2, 1864. Educated in Rochester, N. Y. (Single.) Treasurer, secretary and director Hayden Co. Member St. Nicholas and Marine and Field Clubs, and Genesee Valley Club of Rochester.

WICKES, THOMAS P.—Lawyer, 100 Broadway, New York City; residence 34 West 70th street. Born in Albany, N. Y., April 17, 1853. Educated at Phillips Andover Academy, Yale ('74) and at Columbia Law School ('76). (Married.) Member of the firm of Hatch & Wickes. Member University, Lawyers', New York Athletic, Mendelssohn Glee and Psi Upsilon Clubs and Association of the Bar of the City of New York.

WICKHAM, DELOS O.—1 Broadway, New York City; residence 225 South 39th street, Philadelphia, Pa. Born in Sag Harbor, N. Y., Sept. 7, 1840. Educated at Oberlin College. (Married.) Formerly treasurer Barber Asphalt Paving Co. Member Lawyers', Union League and Republican Clubs, Ohio and New England Societies, Lafayette Post, G. A. R., Metropolitan Museum of Art and American Museum of Natural History.

WICKHAM, W. HULL—Wholesale Drugs and Chemicals, 91 Fulton street, New York City; residence 10 East 56th street. Born in Brooklyn, N. Y., 1846. Educated at Princeton ('66). (Married.) Member of the firm of McKesson & Robbins. Vice-president New York Dispensary. Member University, Metropolitan, Princeton, Union League, Monmouth Beach Golf and Fulton Clubs, Delta Phi and St. Nicholas Societies, Metropolitan Museum of Art and Chamber of Commerce.

WIEGAND, KARL MCKAY—Instructor, Cornell University, Ithaca; residence 212 Hazen street. Degrees of B.S. and D.Sc. Instructor in botany and assistant curator of the phanerogamic herbarium, Cornell University.

WIGGIN, FREDERICK H.—Physician and Surgeon, 55 West 36th street, New York City. Born in England, Dec. 26, 1853. Educated at Phillips Andover Academy, at Rensselaer Polytechnic Institute and at Bellevue Hospital Medical College (M.D., '77). (Married Abbie Fiske Merriam of Greenfield, Conn., 1878.) Practiced medicine in Litchfield, Conn., 1880-90; since then, in New York City. Makes a specialty of gynecology and is visiting gynecologist to St. Elizabeth's and City Hospitals. Member Union League and Manhattan Clubs, New York County Medical (president), New York State Medical, American Medical, Connecticut Medical and Litchfield County (Conn.) Medical Associations, Academy of Medicine and other organizations, both American and foreign.

WIGHT, CHARLES H.—Insurance, 120 Broadway, New York City; residence 140 St. John's place, Brooklyn. Born in Woburn, Mass., April 30, 1845. Educated at Harvard. (Married Amelia Claflin Daniels.) Member Montauk Club of Brooklyn, Sons of the American Revolution and Society of Mayflower Descendants.

WILBER, DAVID F.—Farmer, Oneonta. Born in Milford, Otsego Co., N. Y., Dec. 7, 1859. (Son of David Wilber.) Educated at Cazenovia Seminary. Largely interested in farming and stock breeding. Represented the Twenty-first New York District in Congress, 1895-9. President and director Holstein-Friesian Association of America and of the American Cheviot Sheep Association of the United States and Canada.

WILCOX, ALBERT A.—Lawyer, 29 Platt street, New York City; residence 444 Ellison street, Paterson, N. J. Born in Haverstraw, N. Y., May 14, 1857. Educated by private tutors. (Married.) Treasurer and director Riverside Soap Co. and H. S. Little Land Co.; assistant treasurer and director Bloomingdale Soft Rubber Works; secretary and director Paterson Ry. Co.; director Cedar Lawn Cemetery Co., Totowa Silk Co. and West Milford Water Storage Co. Was receiver of The John Stephenson Co. (Ltd.), and executor and trustee of the estate of Vice-President Garrett A. Hobart. Member Lawyers' Club of New York City, and North Jersey Country and Hamilton Clubs of Paterson, N. J.

WILCOX, ANSLEY—Lawyer, 816 Ellicott square, Buffalo; residence 641 Delaware avenue. Born near Augusta, Ga., Jan. 27, 1856. Educated in New Haven, Conn., school, at Yale ('74) and one year at Oxford, England. Senior member of the firm of Wilcox & Miner. Trustee and chairman of executive committee Charity Organization Society of Buffalo; trustee Buffalo General Hospital. Professor of medical jurisprudence, University of Buffalo. Medical Department. Member Buffalo, Saturn, Country, University and Liberal Clubs, and University and Reform Clubs of New York City.

WILCOX, CLERMONT B.—Broker, 66 Broadway, New York City; residence 115 West 75th street. Born in New York City, Nov. 7, 1849. Educated at Anthon Grammar School. (Married.) Member of the New York Stock Exchange. President and director New York Insulated Wire Co.; director Bowery Bank; trustee Union Dime Savings Institution. Member New York Athletic and Colonial Clubs.

WILCOX, FRANKLIN A.—Lawyer, 1 Broadway, New York City; residence 933 Madison avenue. Born in Ashland, Greene Co., N. Y., June 30, 1837. Educated at Hedding Institute and New York University. (Married.) Member of the firm of Wilcox, Adams & Green. Member City Club, Legal Aid Society (director), Law Institute, Down Town Association and Association of the Bar of the City of New York.

WILCOX, MARRION—Author, 75 East 54th street, New York City. Born in Augusta, Ga., April 3, 1858. Educated at Yale (A.B., '78) at Hamilton College (LL.B.) and in Europe. (Married Eleanor Gertrude Sanchez, 1885.) Studied law in the office of Grover Cleveland and was admitted to the New York Bar. Resident of New York City since 1893, and is a regular contributor to periodicals and magazines. Author of "A Short History of the War with Spain," "Paradise in Hyde Park," "A War Cloud," "A Prisoner of Venice" and others.

WILCOX, PAUL—Lawyer, 220 Broadway, New York City; residence Montclair, N. J. Born in Rochester, Mo., Oct. 3, 1858. Educated at Depauw University, in Berlin, Germany, and at Columbia. (Married.) Member of the firm of Wilcox & Brodek. President New York National Land Association. Member Hardward Club and Montclair Athletic, Montclair (ex-president), Montclair Golf (ex-president) and Outlook (ex-president) Clubs.

WILCOX, REYNOLD WEBB—Physician and Author, 749 Madison avenue, New York City. Born in Connecticut, March 29, 1856. Educated at Yale ('78) and Harvard ('82). (Married.) Professor of medicine and therapeutics at the New York Post-Graduate Medical School and Hospital; physician at St. Mark's Hospital. Formerly therapeutic editor "American Journal of the Medical Sciences"; president Harvard Medical Society; surgeon-general Sons of Veterans. Co-author (White-Wilcox) "Materia Medica and Therapeutics." Author of "The Descendants of William Wilcoxson, Vincent Meigs and Richard Webb." Member Metropolitan, Harvard and Suburban Riding and Driving Clubs, Sons of the Revolution, Society of Colonial Wars, Military Order of the Loyal Legion, Society of the War of 1812 and Lafayette Camp Sons of Veterans.

WILDER, BURT GREEN—Professor, Cornell University, Ithaca; residence 60 Cascadilla place. Born in Boston, Mass., Aug. 11, 1841. Educated at Harvard (B.S., '62, and M.D., '66). (Married Sarah C. Nichols, 1868.) Served in a surgical capacity during Civil War. Professor of neurology, vertebrate zoology and physiology at Cornell University since 1868. President of the American Neurological Association, 1885; vice-president of the American Association for the Advancement of Science, 1885; president of the Association of American Anatomists, 1895-9. Member American Philosophical Society.

WILDER, ENOS—Merchant, 81 Beaver street, and President, 142 Broadway, New York City; residence Madison, N. J. Educated at Harvard ('65). President and director Franklin-Lee Bank Note Co. Member University and Harvard Clubs and Down Town Association.

WILDER, MARSHALL P.—Humorist, 55 West 33d street, New York City. Born in Geneva, N. Y., Sept. 19, 1859. Educated in New York City. (Single.) Was file boy in Bradstreet's Agency for a time; went to England; began a series of free entertainments which became very popular, and through the influence of the Prince of Wales his reputation as an entertainer became strongly established. Has resided in New York City for several years with his father. Author of "The People I've Smiled With." Member New York Press and Lambs' Clubs.

WILDER, WILLIAM R.—Lawyer, 45 Cedar street, New York City; residence 232 West 74th street. Born in Saratoga Springs, N. Y., June 30, 1858. Educated at Princeton ('79) and Columbia Law School ('82). (Married.) Member of the firm of Wilder & Anderson. Member Princeton, New York Athletic, Underwriters' and Hardware Clubs, Columbia University Alumni and Aldine Associations and Metropolitan Museum of Art.

WILDS, HOWARD PAYSON—Lawyer, 34 Pine street, New York City; residence 78 East 54th street. Born in Rowley, Mass., April 13, 1850. Educated at the College of the City of New York ('69) and Columbia Law School ('71). Member of the firm of J. B. & H. P. Wilds. Member of the New York Legislature, 1895; deputy commissioner of public works, 1896-7. Member Republican, Alpha Delta Phi and University Clubs.

WILES, IRVING RAMSAY—Artist, 106 West 55th street, New York City. Born in Utica, N. Y., April 8, 1861. (Son of Lemuel Maynard Wiles.) Educated in New York City and in Paris, France. (Married.) Member Lotos Club, Century Association, Society of American Artists, American Water Color Society and National Academy of Design.

WILES, LEMUEL MAYNARD—Artist, 106 West 55th street, New York City. Born in Perry, N. Y., Oct. 21, 1826. Educated at New York State Normal College. Studied art in New York City. Taught drawing in Albany Academy and in the Utica public schools for several years; was director of the College of Fine Arts, at Ingham University, Le Roy, N. Y., for ten years.

WILEY, CHARLES—Publisher, 43 East 19th street, New York City; residence East Orange, N. J. Born in New York City, 1835. Educated in New York City. (Married.) Member Engineers' and Arts Clubs, South Orange Field and Essex County Country Clubs of Orange, Aldine Association and Metropolitan Museum of Art.

WILEY, W. G.—Banker and Broker, 52 Exchange place, New York City. Member of the firm of W. G. Wiley & Co., and of the New York Stock Exchange.

WILEY, WILLIAM HALSTED—Publisher, 53 East Tenth street, New York City; residence 73 Halsted street, East Orange, N. J. Born in New York City, July 10, 1842. Educated at the College of the City of New York ('61) and at Rensselaer Polytechnic Institute ('66). (Married.) Member of the firm of John Wiley & Sons. Served as United States volunteer, 1862-4. Formerly chairman of the township committee of East Orange and treasurer and member of council American Society of Mechanical Engineers. Member University, Lawyers', Engineers', Army and Navy and Arts Clubs of New York City, Republican and Athletic Clubs of Orange, Engineers' Club of Philadelphia, Pa., Essex County (N. J.) Country Club, Golf Club of Essex County, Cycling Touring Club of France, St. Andrew's, Burns and Municipal Arts Societies, American Society of Civil Engineers, American Society of Mechanical Engineers, American Institute of Mining Engineers, American Institute of Electrical Engineers, Military Order of the Loyal Legion, League of American Wheelmen, War Veterans of 7th Regiment, Veterans of Department of the South, Aldine Association and Metropolitan Museum of Art.

WILHELMI, EDGAR A.—Importer, 16 Beaver street, New York City. (Single.) President Wilhelmi & Co. Member New York Athletic Club, and Crescent Athletic Club of Brooklyn.

WILKIE, JOHN LINCOLN—Lawyer, 2 Wall street, New York City; residence 5 Washington square, North. Educated at Harvard. Member Reform, Harvard, Tuxedo and Lawyers' Clubs, Flushing (L. I.) Athletic Club and Association of the Bar of the City of New York.

WILKINS, FREDERICK H.—Assistant Manager, 463 West street, New York City; residence Brooklyn. Educated at the University of Rochester. Assistant manager Western Electric Co. Member Marine and Field, Crescent Athletic and Excelsior Clubs of Brooklyn.

WILKINS, GOUVERNEUR MORRIS—Protestant Episcopalian Clergyman, 206 East 95th street, New York City; residence 1030 Park avenue. Born in New York City. Educated at Berkeley Divinity School, Middletown, Conn. (Single.) Vicar of Chapel of the Messiah. Member St. Nicholas Club and New York Historical Society.

WILKINSON, CHARLES W. B.—Jewelry and Diamonds, 42 John street, New York City; residence 6 East 32d street. Born in Mansfield, Mass., April 22, 1851. Educated in public schools and by private tutors. (Single.) Was one of the original nine to organize and incorporate the Order of Founders and Patriots of America. Master Ancient Lodge No. 724, F. & A. M., 1897; master Triune Chapter No. 241, R. A. M., 1900; junior warden Columbian Commandery No. 1, Knights Templar. Member Order of Founders and Patriots of America, Antiquity Committee, Grand Lodge, F. & A. M., and a thirty-second degree Mason.

WILKINSON, FREDERICK P.—Merchandise Broker, 282 Washington street, New York City; residence 142 West 85th street. Born in Brooklyn, N. Y., March 5, 1856. Educated in Brooklyn. (Married.) New York representative of The Continental Co. of Detroit, Mich. Member New York Athletic Club and 7th Regiment Veteran Association.

WILKINSON, HENRY L.—Banker and Broker, 29 Nassau street, New York City; residence Bridgeport, Conn. Born in Providence, R. I., Aug. 10, 1865. Educated in Providence and at Amherst College. (Married.) Connected with the investment and stock exchange department of the firm of Harvey Fisk & Sons. Assistant national bank examiner for Rhode Island and Connecticut, 1889-91. Member Reform Club, Brooklawn Country Club of Bridgeport, Country Club of Lakewood, N. J., Amherst College Alumni Association and Chi Psi Fraternity.

WILKINSON, J. A.—Real Estate, 68 William street, New York City; residence 2044 Valentine avenue. Born in Louisiana. Educated in Orange County, N. Y. (Married.) Member New York Athletic Club, Young Men's Christian and Republican Associations, and Joppa Lodge No. 201, F. & A. M.

WILKINSON, JOSEPH BIDDLE—Appraiser, 641 Washington street, New York City; residence 302 West 102d street. Born in Louisiana, Feb. 20, 1845. Educated in public schools, at McNair's Academy and at St. James College. Served in Confederate Army during Civil War. Engaged in business in Louisiana as a sugar, rice and cotton planter, 1865-85. United States General Appraiser at the Port of New York since 1890. Member Manhattan Chess and Twilight Clubs, Southern Society and Confederate Association.

WILKINSON, ROBERT F.—Lawyer, 35 Market street, Poughkeepsie; residence 297 Mill street. Educated at Williams ('61). Member of the firm of Wilkinson & Cossum. Member Lawyers', University, Sigma Phi, Transportation, Adirondack League and City Clubs and Century Association of New York City, Williams College Alumni Association, Military Order of the Loyal Legion and Association of the Bar of the City of New York.

WILKISON, WILLIAM M.—Theatrical Manager, 1402 Broadway, New York City; residence 16 Gramercy Park. Born in Perrysburg, Ohio, Jan. 12, 1862. Educated in Perrysburg. (Single.) Directed the American tours of the late Alexander Salvini, and other theatrical celebrities. Manager for many prominent musical and dramatic organizations. Member Players' and Lambs' Clubs. *

WILLARD, DAVID SEYMOUR—Stock Broker, 52 Broadway, New York City; residence 306 West 72d street. Member New York Stock Exchange and of the Calumet and Players' Clubs, Marine and Field, and Hamilton Clubs of Brooklyn, and Sons of the Revolution.

WILLARD, EDWARD AUGUSTUS—President, and Tea Merchant, 132 Front street, and 35 Burling Slip, New York City; residence 12 East 41st street. Born in New York City, 1846. Educated in New York City. (Married.) Member of the firm of E. A. Willard & Co. President and director Automatic Air Carriage Co. and Occidental and Oriental Tea Co. Member Tuxedo, Larchmont Yacht, New York Yacht, Atlantic Yacht, Lawyers' and Calumet Clubs, Metropolitan Club of Washington, D. C., Mayflower and New England Societies, Society of Colonial Wars, Down Town Association and Order of Founders and Patriots of America.

WILLARD, ERNEST RUSSELL—Journalist, Rochester; residence 37 South Washington street. Born in Jamestown, N. Y., 1856. Educated in Jamestown. (Single.) Connected with the Rochester Printing Co. Editor-in-chief of the "Democrat and Chronicle." Member Genesee Valley, Rochester Athletic and Rochester Country Clubs, Sons of the American Revolution, St. Andrew's Brotherhood and American Social Science Association.

WILLARD, JAMES LE BARON—Cotton Goods Merchant, 43 Leonard street, New York City; residence 177 Joralemon street, Brooklyn. Born in Brooklyn, March 1, 1834. Educated at Columbia. (Married.) Member Wool Club, Psi Upsilon Society, Society of Mayflower Descendants, Society of Colonial Wars, Society of Colonial Governors, Sons of the Revolution, Society of the War of 1812, Sons of the American Revolution and Order of Founders and Patriots of America.

WILLARD, THOMAS HINCKLEY—Physician, 1 Madison avenue, New York City; residence 592 West End avenue. Educated at Albany Medical College. Member Church and Players' Clubs, Albany Medical College Alumni and Aldine Associations, Albany Society of New York, and Academy of Medicine.

WILLCOX, ALBERT—Insurance, 27 William street, New York City; residence Metropolitan Club, and New Brighton, S. I. Member of the firm of Albert Willcox & Co. Member Metropolitan, Union League, Lawyers' and Richmond County Country Clubs and Down Town Association.

WILLCOX, DAVID—Lawyer, 20 Nassau street, New York City; residence Metropolitan Club. Born in Flatbush, L. I., Dec. 12, 1849. Educated at Yale ('72). (Single.) Member of the firm of Opdyke, Willcox & Bristow. Director Adirondack Ry. Co., Albany and Susquehanna R. R. Co. and Delaware and Hudson Co. Member Metropolitan, Union League, Lawyers', University, Riding, Union, Yale, New York Athletic, New York Yacht, Whist and Richmond County Country Clubs, St. Nicholas and New England Societies, Century and Down Town Associations and Association of the Bar of the City of New York.

WILLCOX, HENRY C.—Lawyer, 100 Broadway, New York City; residence 320 West 86th street. Member Democratic, Lawyers', Manhattan and City Clubs and Association of the Bar of the City of New York.

WILLCOX, WALTER F.—Professor, Census Office, Washington, D. C.; residence Ithaca, N. Y. Born in Reading, Middlesex Co., Mass., March 22, 1861. Educated in public schools of Reading, Mass., at Phillips Andover Academy ('80), Amherst College ('84), Columbia Law School ('87), at Yale, and at Berlin, 1888-90. (Married.) Was secretary of the American Economic Association for three years. Has been instructor, associate professor and professor at Cornell University since 1891. Now professor of social science and statistics at Cornell and chief statistician in charge of the Division of Methods and Results at the Census Office, Washington. Commissioner of Health for the State of New York.

WILLCOX, WILLIAM R.—Lawyer, 32 Nassau street, New York City; residence 152 East 46th street. Born in Smyrna, Chenango Co., N. Y., 1863. Educated at Brockport Normal School, the University of Rochester and at Columbia College Law School. (Single.) Practicing in New York City since his admission to the Bar in 1890. Nominated for Congress in the Thirteenth District, 1900. Member Union League, Republican and Alpha Delta Phi Clubs, University of Rochester Alumni Association and Association of the Bar of the City of New York.

WILLETS, ELMORE A.—Banker, Farmer and Oil Producer, Belmont. Born in McKean County, Pa., Sept. 8, 1861. Educated at Phillips Andover Academy and at Yale ('84). (Single.) President and director State Bank of Belmont, and Citizens' National Bank of Wellsville; vice-president and director Metropolitan Bank of Buffalo. Member University Club of New York City, and Country, Pittsburg and Riding Clubs of Pittsburg, Pa.

WILLETS, JOHN T.—Merchant, 303 Pearl street, New York City; residence 30 West 54th street. Born in New York City, Aug. 2, 1835. (Married.) Member of the firm of Willets & Co. Director Leather Manufacturers' National Bank and Market and Fulton National Bank. Member City, American Yacht, Union League and Apawamis Clubs, Down Town Association, Metropolitan Museum of Art and American Museum of Natural History.

WILLETS, ROBERT R.—Merchant, 303 Pearl, and 64 Cliff streets, New York City; residence Harrison. Member of the firm of Willets & Co. Member American Geographical Society, Holland Lodge, F. & A. M., Metropolitan Museum of Art and American Museum of Natural History.

WILLETS, SAMUEL—Secretary, 16 East 23d street, New York City; residence Westbury, L. I. Born in New York City, Jan. 20, 1874. Educated by private tutors. (Single.) Secretary Horse Show Association of Queens County. Member Meadow Brook Hunt, Union League, Nassau Country, Coney Island Jockey and Seawanhaka-Corinthian Yacht Clubs.

WILLETS, JOSEPH C.—President and Receiver, 97 Reade, and 49 Wall street, New York City; residence 52 East 56th street. Born in Cincinnati, Ohio, March, 1846. Educated at Oakwood Seminary. (Married.) President and director Associated Farms, Dexter Folder Co. and New Domestic Sewing Machine Co.; vice-president and director Bank of Skaneateles; secretary and director Syracuse Chilled Plow Co.; director Toledo Carriage Woodwork Co. and Williams Typewriter Co. Member Union League, Lambs' and Union Clubs, St. Nicholas Society, Down Town Association and Chamber of Commerce.

WILLIAMS, BENJAMIN A.—Contractor, foot of East 68th street, and 309 East 43d street, New York City; residence 20 East 92d street. President B. A. & G. N. Williams (Inc.); director C. Graham & Sons Co. Member Aldine Association.

WILLIAMS, BLAIR S.—Broker, 40 Wall street, New York City; residence 102 East 57th street. Born in New York City, Jan. 21, 1872. Educated at Emerson's School. (Married.) Member of the firm of Dominick & Williams, and of the New York Stock Exchange. Director Penrhyn Slate Co. Member Calumet Club.

WILLIAMS, CHARLES H.—Real Estate, 16 Eagle street (east), Buffalo; residence 690 Delaware avenue. Born in Buffalo, Aug. 1, 1842. Educated in the United States and Europe. (Married.) Director Bank of Buffalo and Bank of Niagara Falls. Member Ellicott, Saturn, Press, Country and Buffalo Clubs, Audubon Society of New York City, Sons of the Revolution, Society of Colonial Wars, Buffalo Fine Arts Academy, Buffalo Historical Society and Buffalo Society of Natural Sciences.

WILLIAMS, CHARLES M.—Retired Lumber Merchant, 110 South Albany street, Ithaca. Born in Ithaca, Oct. 14, 1840. Educated in Ithaca public schools and in Cromwell, Conn. (Married.) Trustee Ithaca Trust Co. and Ithaca Savings Bank. Member of the Board of Education of Ithaca.

WILLIAMS, CHARLES PHELPS—Lawyer, 31 Nassau street, New York City; residence 16 Grace court, Brooklyn. Educated at Yale. Member Union League, Union and Yale Clubs, Hamilton Club of Brooklyn, and New England Society.

WILLIAMS, CHAUNCEY P.—Assistant Adjutant-General, Albany; residence 232 State street. Born in Albany, Dec. 6, 1860. Educated at Albany Academy, at Yale and at Albany Law School. (Married.) Member Order of Founders and Patriots of America, Sons of the American Revolution and Sons of the Revolution.

WILLIAMS, COLEMAN GANDY—Silk Manufacturer, 760 Broadway, New York City; residence Massapequa, L. I. Educated at Trinity College ('80). Vice-president and director Williams Silk Mfg Co. Member Union, University and St. Anthony Clubs and Trinity College Alumni Association.

WILLIAMS, DAVID—Printer and Publisher, 232 William street, New York City; residence 69 West 68th street. Born in Waterford, Ireland, Dec. 23, 1841. Educated at Walkill Academy, Middletown, N. Y. (Married.) President and director David Williams Co., publishers of the "Iron Age"; president and trustee Williams Printing Co.; ex-president American Trade Press Association. Member Engineers' (ex-vice-president), Grolier, Hardware, Atlantic Yacht and Camera (ex-president) Clubs, American Geographical and New York Historical Societies and American Institute of Mining Engineers.

WILLIAMS, EDWARD E.—Dry Goods Commission Merchant, 55 White street, New York City; residence New York Athletic Club. Born in Yates County, N. Y., 1850. (Descended from Richard Williams of Huntington, L. I., 1660.) (Single.) Member New York Athletic and Wool Clubs.

WILLIAMS, EMMONS LEVI—Treasurer, Cornell University, Ithaca; residence 608 East State street. Treasurer of Cornell University and secretary of the board of trustees.

WILLIAMS, FRANK F.—Lawyer, 118 Erie County Bank Building, Buffalo; residence 54 Irving place. Born in Buffalo, 1855. Educated at University of Michigan. (Married.) Member Saturn, University and Thursday Clubs.

WILLIAMS, FRANK S.—Stock Broker, 60 Broadway, New York City; residence 240 West 102d street. Born in New Orleans, La. Educated at Harvard. (Married.) Member of the New York Produce and New York Consolidated Stock and Petroleum Exchanges. Member Delta Kappa Epsilon, Harvard, Twilight, Phi Beta Kappa and New York Athletic Clubs and Southern Society.

WILLIAMS, GARDNER STEWART—Consulting Civil Engineer, Cornell University, Ithaca; residence 4 Valentine place. Born in Saginaw, Mich., 1866. Educated at University of Michigan. (Married.) Was civil engineer to Board of Water Commissioners, Detroit, Mich. Now professor of experimental hydraulics, in charge of hydraulic laboratory, Cornell University. Member Detroit Engineering and Michigan Engineering Societies, American Society of Civil Engineers and New England Water Works Association.

WILLIAMS, GEORGE FORRESTER—Author and Journalist, 15 Spruce street, New York City; residence 362 West 27th street. Born on the Rock of Gibraltar, March 21, 1837, where his father's regiment was stationed. (Son of John Edward and Harriet Williams.) Passed boyhood in the East and West Indies and on the Gold Coast of Africa. (Married) Marie Sophia Van Brunt, March 29, 1865.) Entered journalism on New York "Times," 1858. Enlisted in United States Volunteer service, 1861, and participated in battles of Big Bethel, Yorktown, Cold Harbor, Malvern Hill (wounded), Fredericksburg, Chancellorsville, Gettysburg, Mine Run and Wilderness, where reported killed, but escaped from Confederates and retired because of wounds with brevet rank of major; was with Hunter, Averill and Sheridan in the Shenandoah Valley as war correspondent; present at the capture of Fort Fisher, siege of Petersburg and Lee's surrender. Acted as volunteer aide, with rank of colonel, on staff of President Juarez of Mexico, and witnessed execution of Emperor Maximilian at Queretaro. Was chief of artillery in Guatemala, with rank of brigadier-general, and was correspondent in several European and East Indian Wars. Has been city editor and managing editor of the New York "Times" and New York "Herald," and held important places on the New York "World," New York "Advertiser" and New York "Recorder." Was general manager of the Staten Island Amusement Company in 1886 and first introduced "Buffalo Bill's Wild West" to New York City. Author of "Bullet and Shell," "The Memorial War Book," "Lights and Shadows of Army Life" and other works on military scenes in camp and field. Member New York Press and Alpha Delta Phi Clubs and Dartmouth Alumni Association.

WILLIAMS, GEORGE GILBERT—Banker, 270 Broadway, New York City; residence 34 West 58th street. Born in East Haddam, Conn., Oct. 9, 1826. (Son of Datus Williams.) Educated at Brainerd Academy, Haddam, and by private tutor. (Married) Virginia, daughter of Aaron King of New York City, 1867.) President and director Chemical National Bank, with which he has been connected since 1841, and New York Clearing House Building Co.; vice-president and director United States Life Insurance Co.; treasurer and director Fabric Measuring and Packing Co.; treasurer and trustee Institution for Savings of Merchants' Clerks; trustee Union Trust Co.; director Pennsylvania Coal Co., Fidelity and Casualty Co., Mexican Telegraph Co., Bond and Mortgage Guarantee Co., Eagle Fire Insurance Co., Eastmans' Co., Texas Central R. R. Co., and Title Guarantee and Trust Co. Member Metropolitan Club, Metropolitan Museum of Art, New England Society and American Museum of Natural History.

WILLIAMS, GEORGE L.—Capitalist, 20 Erie County Savings Bank Building, Buffalo; residence 672 Delaware avenue. Born in Buffalo, March 11, 1845. (Son of Gibson T. and Harriet C. [Howard] Williams.) Educated in Buffalo and New Haven, Conn. (Married) Annie, daughter of John E. Addicks of Philadelphia, Pa.) President Buffalo Public Library, and Crystal Water Co.; treasurer, director and member of finance committee Pan-American Exposition Co.; trustee and member of executive committee Buffalo General Hospital and Fidelity Trust and Guarantee Co.; director and member of executive committee Marine Bank; director Buffalo Commercial Bank; trustee Erie County Savings Bank; member of the board of managers Craig Colony for Epileptics. Member Buffalo, Saturn, Liberal, National Arts and Country Clubs and Sons of the Revolution.

WILLIAMS, GEORGE N., JR.—Contractor, Avenue A and East 68th street, New York City; residence 15 West 122d street. Director B. A. & G. N. Williams. Member Harlem, Forest Lake and Sagamore Clubs, New England Society, Metropolitan Museum of Art and Military Order of the Loyal Legion.

WILLIAMS, HENRY DAVISON—Lawyer and Patent Solicitor, 31 Nassau street, New York City; residence 57 West 130th street. Born in Brooklyn, N. Y., June 4, 1863. Educated at Cooper Union (B.S.) and Columbia Law School (LL.B.). Admitted to the Bar June 26, 1891. (Married.) Secretary and member of Republican General Committee of the Thirty-first Assembly District of the County of New York. Member Harlem Club, Sons of the Revolution, Cooper Union Alumni Association and Association of the Bar of the City of New York.

WILLIAMS, HOWARD HUNTER—Lawyer, 31 Nassau street, New York City; residence Murray Hill Hotel. Educated at Yale. Secretary and director United States Security Co.; director American Reserve Fund; trustee American Ry. Co. Member Alpha Delta Phi, Yale and Union League Clubs and Sons of the Revolution.

WILLIAMS, JAMES H.—Manufacturer, 9 Richards street, Brooklyn; residence 293 Henry street. Born in Fort Plain, N. Y. (Married.) President and director J. H. Williams & Co. Member Hamilton, Marine and Field and Riding and Driving Clubs.

WILLIAMS, JESSE LYNCH—Author, 153 Fifth avenue, New York City; residence 235 West 10th street. Born in Sterling, Ill., Aug. 17, 1871. Educated at Princeton (A.B., '82, and A.M., '95). (Married) Alice, daughter of Henry B. Laidlaw of New York City.) Connected with the magazine department of Charles Scribner's Sons (publishers); Princeton editor "Universities and Their Sons." Author of "Princeton University," "The Stolen Story" and other newspaper stories, "The Adventures of a Freshman" and others. Member Princeton and Players' Clubs and Tiger Inn Club of Princeton.

WILLIAMS, J. L.—Lawyer, Poughkeepsie; residence 145 Montgomery street. Born in Poughkeepsie, Dec. 12, 1846. Educated in Dutchess County Academy. (Single.) Member of the firm of Hackett & Williams, Director City National Bank. Formerly district attorney. State assessor, corporation counsel, United States Commissioner, supervisor of the census Third District of New York and chairman Democratic State Executive Committee. President Dutchess Club of Poughkeepsie. Member of the Knickerbocker Athletic Club of New York City, Matteawan Club of Matteawan, Knights of Pythias, B. & P. Order of Elks, I. O. O. F. and Masonic bodies.

WILLIAMS, J. L. JR.—Manufacturer, Rome; residence 718 North Washington street. Born in Utica, N. Y., September 1867. Educated at Utica and Rome High Schools, and Trinity Military Institute. (Married.) Member of the firm of Williams Bros. (manufacturers of silk and cotton underwear) and G. F. Allison & Co. of Utica (cotton and cotton waste). Director and member of executive committee First National Bank of Rome. Member of the Rome Board of Excise. Member Rome, Teugeuga Country and Deowainsta Canoe Clubs and American Canoe Association.

WILLIAMS, JOHN TOWNSEND—Architect and Engineer, 27 William street, New York City; residence Stamford, Conn. Born in Glen Cove, N. Y., May 16, 1852. Educated at the School of Mines of Columbia University ('73). (Married.) Member New York Athletic, New York Yacht, Seawanhaka-Corinthian Yacht, Barnard, New York, Merchants', Larchmont Yacht, Suburban Riding and Driving, and Lawyers' Clubs, American Institute of Mining Engineers and Metropolitan Museum of Art.

WILLIAMS, JOHN T., JR.—Engineer and Architect, 27 William street, New York City; residence Stamford, Conn. Born in New York City, Nov. 4, 1876. Educated at Columbia School of Mines. (Single.) Is associated with his father, John T. Williams, as consulting engineer and architect. Member New York Athletic, Larchmont Yacht and Wee Burn Golf Clubs.

WILLIAMS, JOSEPH—Treasurer, 53 Duane street, New York City; residence 533 West 142d street. Born in New York City, 1858. Educated in public schools. (Married.) Treasurer Edison Electric Illuminating Co. Member 7th Regiment, N. G. N. Y.

WILLIAMS, LEIGHTON—Baptist Clergyman, 312 West 54th street, New York City. Born in New York City, Aug. 4, 1854. Educated at Columbia. (Married, June 6, 1896.) Pastor Amity Church. Secretary Brotherhood of the Kingdom and New York State Conference of Religion. Ex-secretary and treasurer State Reservation at Niagara. Member Social Reform Club, New York Genealogical Society and Columbia University Alumni Association.

WILLIAMS, LEWIS A.—Publisher, 110 Fifth avenue, New York City; residence Peekskill. President and director New York History Co., Century History Co. and L. A. Williams Publishing and Engraving Co. Member Press Club, Union League Club of Brooklyn, Ohio Society and Metropolitan Museum of Art.

WILLIAMS, MORNAY—Lawyer, 59 Wall street, New York City; residence 305 West 88th street. Born in New York City, June 21, 1856. Educated at Columbia School of Arts and Columbia Law School. (Married.) President New York Juvenile Asylum; director Evangelical Alliance, League of Social Service and Federation of Churches. Member Quill Club, Phi Beta Kappa Alumni Association and Association of the Bar of the City of New York.

WILLIAMS, M. PARKER—Author and Retired Editor, 410 Warren street, Hudson; residence 444 Union street. Born in Belfast, Me., Feb. 24, 1826. Educated in Belfast and Portland, Me., and Boston, Mass. (Married.) Editor Rockland (Me.) "Gazette," 1847-49; on staff of Boston "Herald," 1850-3; Philadelphia "Times," 1854-6; purchased Hudson (N. Y.) "Gazette," 1857; founded "Daily Register" (in connection with "Gazette"), 1866. Editor and proprietor Hudson "Gazette" and "Daily Register," 1857-96; senior member of the firm of Williams Brothers, 1857-69, and of Williams

& Clark, 1866-69; retired from business, 1896. Member Democratic and Reform Clubs of New York City, Democratic Society of the City of Hudson, State Editorial Association and executive committee of the Associated Press.

WILLIAMS, NORMAN A.—Berwick, Pa.; residence 270 Genesee street, Utica. Born in Utica, Feb. 17, 1873. Educated at Yale ('97). (Single.) Member Yale Club and Society of Colonial Wars.

WILLIAMS, OSCAR F.—Diplomatist, Rochester. Born in Livonia, Livingston Co., N. Y., June 29, 1843. Educated at Cornell. (Married Arabella Amanda Sanford of Livonia, 1872.) Was instructor in a business college for twenty years. Consul to Havre, France, 1889-93. Was the last United States Consul to Manila, Philippine Islands (appointed in 1897), and since the war with Spain has taken an active part in the adjustment of the islands to the new conditions.

WILLIAMS, OTIS L.—Manufacturer of Electrical Machinery, 26 Cortlandt street, New York City; residence New Brighton, S. I. Educated at Cornell ('88). Treasurer and director Westinghouse, Church, Kerr & Co. Member University, Cornell, Psi Upsilon, Richmond County Country and Staten Island Cricket Clubs and American Society of Mechanical Engineers.

WILLIAMS, PARDON C.—Justice, Watertown. Born July 12, 1842. Justice of the Supreme Court, Appellate Division, Fourth Department. Member Union Club, Colonial Club of New York City, Citizens' Club of Syracuse, and Genesee Valley Club of Rochester.

WILLIAMS, RICHARD H.—Wholesale Coal Merchant, 1 Broadway, New York City; residence 4 West 51st street. Senior member of the firm of Williams & Peters. Director Mercantile National Bank. Member Metropolitan, Riding, Union, Lawyers', Westminster Kennel, Racquet and Tennis and New York Yacht Clubs, Morristown (N. J.) Club, Sons of the Revolution, Metropolitan Museum of Art and American Museum of Natural History.

WILLIAMS, ROGER B.—Manufacturer, Ithaca. Born in Ithaca, May 8, 1848. Educated at Yale. (Married.) Member of the firm of Williams Brothers. President Ithaca Savings Bank; trustee Cornell University; director First National Bank of Ithaca. Ex-president of Board of Education of Ithaca. Member Town and Gown Club, Alpha Delta Phi Fraternity, Phi Beta Kappa Society, Alpha Delta Phi Club of New York City, and Yale Alumni Association.

WILLIAMS, SAMUEL GARDNER—Educator, 802 East Seneca street, Ithaca. Born in Plainfield, Otsego Co., N. Y., Aug. 15, 1827. Educated at Hamilton College. Degrees of A.B. and Ph.D. (Widower.) Emeritus professor of the science and art of teaching at Cornell University. Formerly alderman of the city of Ithaca. Member Town and Gown Club, Phi Beta Kappa Society and Alpha Delta Phi Fraternity.

WILLIAMS, STEPHEN G.—Lawyer, 30 Broad street, New York City; residence 80 Washington square, East. Educated at Columbia ('81). President and director Standard Silica Cement Co. Member University and Reform Clubs, Association of the Bar of the City of New York and Columbia University Alumni Association.

WILLIAMS, STEPHEN M.—Capitalist, 143 Liberty street, New York City; residence Roselle, Union Co., N. J. Born and educated in New York City. (Married.) Formerly general freight and passenger agent Portland and Oxford Central R. R. Co.; assistant controller Philadelphia and Reading R. R. Co.; vice-president Port Reading R. R. Co. Now president Manhattan Coal Co.; second vice-president Central Railroad of New Jersey, and Lehigh and Wilkesbarre Coal Co.; director New York and Long Branch R. R. Co., Baltimore and Delaware Bay R. R. Co. and Taylor Iron and Steel Co. of New Jersey. Member Lawyers', Democratic and Reform Clubs, Montauk Club of Brooklyn, Megantic Fish and Game Club of Maine and Canada, and Essex County (N. J.) Country, Baltusrol Golf and Cranford Golf Clubs.

WILLIAMS, THEODORE C.—Clergyman and School Master, Hackley Hall, Tarrytown. Born in Brookline, Mass., July 2, 1855. Educated at Harvard. (Married.) Head master of Hackley Hall. Formerly minister of All Souls' Church, New York City, 1883-96, and preacher at Harvard. Member Nineteenth Century Club and Century Association.

WILLIAMS, THOMAS HILTON—Mechanical Engineer, 66 Centre street, New York City; residence 300 Bergen avenue, Jersey City, N. J. Born in Springfield, Mass., Feb. 14, 1848. Educated at Packard's Business College. (Married.) President Howley Down Draft Furnace Co.; vice-president and general manager A. A. Griffing Iron Co.; proprietor E. A. Williams & Son of Jersey City; managing trustee Luke Voorhees Cattle Co. of Wyoming; director Hudson County Gas Co. Member Lawyers' Club, American Society of Mechanical Engineers, and Carteret Club, Bergen Lodge No. 47, F. & A. M., Mt. Vernon Chapter Royal Arch Masons and Unique Council Royal Arcanum, all of Jersey City.

WILLIAMS, TIMOTHY SHALER—Railroads, 168 Montague street, Brooklyn; residence 913 Union street, Born in Ithaca, N. Y. Educated at Cornell ('84). Secretary, treasurer and director Brooklyn Rapid Transit Co., Brooklyn Heights R. R. Co., Brooklyn Union Elevated R. R. Co., Kings County Elevated R. R. Co., Nassau Electric R. R. Co., Sea Beach Ry. Co., Sea View R. R. Co. and Brooklyn, Queens County and Suburban R. R. Co.; director Kings County Electric Light and Power Co. and Queens Borough Electric Light and Power Co. Member University, Lawyers' and Cornell University Clubs, and Brooklyn and Marine and Field Clubs of Brooklyn.

WILLIAMS, WALTER LONG—Professor, Cornell University, Ithaca; residence 115 Valentine place, Born in Argenta, Ill., Feb. 26, 1856. Educated at Mount Zion Seminary, Mount Zion, Ill., University of Illinois and McGill University. (Married.) Ex-assistant state veterinarian of Illinois; ex-inspector Bureau of Animal Industry, United States Department of Agriculture; professor veterinary science, Purdue University, 1891-93; professor of veterinary science, Montana College of Agriculture, 1893-6; ex-president Illinois Veterinary Medical Association, United States Veterinary Association and Indiana Veterinary Medical Association. Professor of principles and practice of veterinary surgery, zootechny, obstetrics and jurisprudence, New York State Veterinary College, Cornell University, since 1896. Associate editor "American Veterinary Review." Member American Veterinary Medical and New York State Medical Associations and Sigma Xi Society.

WILLIAMS, WILLIAM—Lawyer, 35 Wall street, New York City; residence University Club. Born in New London, Conn., June 2, 1862. Educated at Yale and at Harvard Law School. (Single.) Associate counsel for United States Government in the Behring Sea Arbitration, 1892-3. Enlisted in the war with Spain as a private in Troop "A," New York Volunteer Cavalry, and later received a commission in the commissary department, with rank of major. Member Lawyers', University, Larchmont Yacht and Yale Clubs, Century Association and Association of the Bar of the City of New York.

WILLIAMS, WILLIAM H.—Lawyer, 181 Broadway, New York City; residence Yonkers. Born in Ledyard, Conn., Oct. 22, 1839. Educated at Brown University ('65) and at Columbia Law School ('68). (Married.) Member Alpha Delta Phi and Brown University Clubs.

WILLIAMS, WILLIAM ROBERT—Physician and Instructor, 152 West 57th street, New York City. Degrees of A.M. and M.D. Instructor in hygiene, Cornell University Medical College, New York City.

WILLIAMSON, ARTHUR E.—Steam Heating Expert, 92 Beekman street, New York City; residence Passaic, N. J. Born in Toronto, Canada, Feb. 2, 1869. Educated at Trinity School. (Married.) Vice-president, assistant treasurer and director Richardson & Morgan Co. Member Knickerbocker Yacht, Sealiff Yacht and Passaic Clubs.

WILLIAMSON, EDWARD L.—Physician, 163 West 74th street, New York City. Born in Albany, N. Y.,

Oct. 19, 1864. Educated at Dartmouth ('89) and New York College of Physicians and Surgeons ('92). (Single.) Assistant physician Roosevelt Hospital; instructor in surgery Polyclinic Hospital. Member Quill and Country Cycle Clubs, Phi Beta Kappa Alumni Association and Society of American Musicians and Composers.

WILLIAMSON, GEORGE M.—Grand View. Born in New York City, May 13, 1850. Educated in Brooklyn public schools. (Married.) Member Grollier Club.

WILLIAMSON, W. W.—Dentistry, 113 East Jefferson street, Syracuse; residence Globe Hotel. Born in Malone, N. Y., 1857. Educated at Amherst College. (Single.) Patented dental engine, which is now extensively used in the dental profession. Member Citizens' Club.

WILLING, J. THOMSON—Artist, 70 Fifth avenue, New York City; residence 108 East 45th street. Born in Toronto, Canada, 1860. Educated in Toronto. (Married.) Member Salmagundi Club.

WILLISTON, JAMES R.—Banker and Broker, 30 Broad street, New York City; residence 10 West 43d street. Born in Cambridge, Mass., Dec. 5, 1859. Educated at Harvard. (Married.) Member of the firm of J. R. Williston & Co. of New York, Boston and Providence, and of the New York Stock Exchange. Member New York Athletic Club, Brookline (Mass.) Country Club and Boston Athletic Association.

WILLITS, FREDERICK E.—Farmer, Glen Cove. Born in Glen Cove, 1846. Educated at Yale. (Married.) Vice-president and director Glen Cove Bank; treasurer and director Glen Cove Mutual Insurance Co.; director Hamilton Fire Insurance Co., Nassau County Bank and Westchester Fire Insurance Co.; trustee Roslyn Savings Bank.

WILLS, CHARLES T.—Builder, 156 Fifth avenue, New York City; residence 309 West 82d street. Member Colonial, Riding, New York Athletic, Suburban Riding and Driving, American Yacht, Larchmont Yacht, Indian Harbor Yacht, Columbia Yacht, Southampton Shooting and Fairfield County Golf Clubs, American Geographical and American Fine Arts Societies, Building Trade, Aldine, Blooming Grove Park, Riverside, Masons' and Builders', West End, Westchester County Horse Show and State Road Horse Associations, Metropolitan Museum of Art, American Museum of Natural History, Chelsea Plantation, Chamber of Commerce, General Society of Mechanics and Tradesmen, Board of Trade and Transportation, Mechanics' and Traders' Exchange, American Institute and various Masonic and benevolent organizations.

WILLS, JOSEPH LAINSON—Professor, 39 South William street, New York City; residence 133 Midwood street, Flatbush, Brooklyn. Born in England, 1850. Educated in England. (Married.) Professor of brewing chemistry and zymotechnology in National Brewers' Academy. Has held various positions in mining, metallurgical and chemical industries. Member Brooklyn Engineers' Club, Chemical Society (Fellow) of London, England, Mineralogical Society of Great Britain and Ireland, and American Institute of Mining Engineers.

WILLSON, THOMAS EDGAR—Editor, 59 Park row, New York City; residence Mott avenue and 165th street. Born in Sag Harbor, L. I., May 27, 1846. Educated at the College of the City of New York and at Rutgers College. (Married.) On the editorial staff of the New York "World" since 1868. Member Reform Club.

WILMARTH, LEMUEL EVERETT—Artist, 352 Adelphi street, Brooklyn. Born in Attleboro, Mass., Nov. 11, 1835. Educated in Boston. Studied art in Europe at the Royal Academy of Munich and at the Ecole des Beaux Arts, Paris, France. (Married Emma B. Barrett, 1872; deceased 1895.) Professor in charge of the schools of the National Academy of Design, 1870-90. Member National Academy of Design.

WILMERDING, A. CLINTON—Photographic Supplies, 165 Broadway, New York City; residence 72 West 87th street. Born in New York City, Sept. 24, 1859. Educated at Charlier's Institute and in public schools. (Married Katharine Rutgers Bache, Jan. 22, 1895.) Member Camera and American Kennel Clubs.

WILMERDING, JOHN C.—Auctioneer, 66 White street, New York City; residence Orange, N. J. (Married Marie Fatimeh, daughter of Vanderbilt Allen, a grandson of Cornelius Vanderbilt, 1892.) Senior member of the firm of Wilmerding, Morris & Mitchell. Member Richmond County Country and Staten Island Polo Clubs.

WILMERDING, LUCIUS K.—Dry Goods Commission Merchant, 78 Leonard street, New York City; residence Islip, L. I. Educated at Columbia ('68). Member of the firm of Wilmerding & Bisset. Trustee Greenwich Savings Bank and Washington Trust Co. Member Metropolitan, Merchants', University, South Side Sportsmen's, and Delta Phi Clubs and Columbia University Alumni Association.

WILMERDING, WILLIAM E.—Photographic Apparatus, 165 Broadway, New York City; residence 145 West 48th street. Born in New York City, Sept. 20, 1867. Educated in private schools. (Single.) Treasurer Camera Club.

WILMOT, DE BORDEN—Lawyer, 55 Broadway, New York City; residence 40 West 97th street. Born in Onondaga County, N. Y., Feb. 10, 1849. Educated at Cornell. (Married.) Member of the firm of Wilmot & Gage. Connected with a number of corporations in this country and abroad, as officer, director or counsel. Member Colonial and Cornell University Clubs, and State Bar Association.

WILSDON, GEORGE R.—Banker, Cohoes; residence 58 Saratoga avenue. Born in Lyons, N. Y., Sept. 18, 1863. Educated in Waterford, N. Y., and Cohoes. (Married.) Director and cashier National Bank of Cohoes; trustee Cohoes Savings Institution.

WILSON, CHARLES G.—Lawyer, 60 Broadway, New York City; residence 250 West 91st street. Born in Baltimore, Md. Educated at Loyola College. (Married.) President New York Consolidated Stock and Petroleum Exchange. President Board of Health, 1889-98.

WILSON, CHARLES R.—Lawyer, 3 White Building, Buffalo; residence 261 Georgia street. Born in Dorchester, Mass., Oct. 20, 1863. Educated in private schools and by private tutors. (Single.) Member of the firm of Wilson & Smith. Treasurer and trustee Buffalo General Hospital; director Buffalo Public Library; trustee Hobart College; curator Buffalo Fine Arts Academy and vestryman St. Paul's Church, Buffalo. Member National Arts and Grollier Clubs and Dunlap Society of New York City. Society of the Cincinnati, Society of Colonial Wars and Sons of the Revolution.

WILSON, EDMUND BEECHER—Professor, 116th street and Morningside Heights, New York City; residence 305 West 78th street. Born in Geneva, Ill., Oct. 19, 1856. Educated at Yale (Ph.B., '78), at Johns Hopkins University (Ph.D., '81) and in Europe. (Single.) Professor of zoology at Columbia University in the City of New York. Member Century Association, New York Academy of Sciences and National Academy of Science.

WILSON, EDWARD LIVINGSTON—Editor and Publisher, 853 Broadway, New York City. Born in Flemington, N. J., March 4, 1838. Educated in village schools. Received degree of Ph.D. from Washington and Jefferson College. Editor and proprietor of "Wilson's Photographic Magazine" since 1864.

WILSON, FLOYD B.—Lawyer, 30 Broad street, New York City; residence 726 Marcy avenue, Brooklyn. Born in Watervliet, Albany Co., N. Y., June 23, 1845. Educated at University of Michigan ('71) and Ohio Law College ('73). (Married Esther M. Cleveland, of Cleveland, Ohio, 1874). Principal of Euclid Avenue Seminary, Cleveland, Ohio, 1872-3; lecturer on elocution and English literature at Racine College, 1875-80; poet of University of Michigan, 1880; alumni orator of same, 1888. Devoted time for the past twenty years largely to the practice of corporation law and the promotion of railway, industrial and mining enterprises. Author of "Uphill" (a novel); also many published articles in leading magazines on travel and metaphysical subjects; translated "La Cojaye el Encojide" (a comedy) from the Spanish. President and counsel South American Promoting Syndicate and Arizona Gold and Copper Co.; president Santa Barbara Gold Placer Co., New York School of Philosophy, and Idaho Consolidated Copper Mines Co.; vice-president and counsel Copper Hill Mining Co.; director Santa Fe and Grand Canyon R. R. Co. Member Delta Kappa Epsilon Club, Kane Lodge F. & A. M., Scottish Rite bodies and Mecca Temple.

WILSON, FRANCIS—Actor, 1402 Broadway, New York City; residence "The Orchard," New Rochelle. Born in Philadelphia, Pa., Feb. 7, 1854. Educated in public schools. (Married Mira Barrie, 1884.) Made first professional appearance with a minstrel troupe. Became leading comedian of the McCaull Opera Co. Subsequently organized the Francis Wilson Opera Co., and has taken leading roles in "The Merry Monarch," "The Lion Tamer," "The Chieftain," "Half a King," "The Little Corporal" and "The Monks of Malabar." Member Grollier and Players' Clubs and Dunlap Society.

WILSON, FREDERIC N.—Physician, 24 West 50th street, New York City. Born and educated in Boston, Mass. Connected with New York Post-Graduate Hospital. Member Harvard Club.

WILSON, FREDERICK—Artist, 333 Fourth avenue, New York City; residence Pelham. Born in Great Britain, 1858. Educated in Great Britain. (Married.) Art director Tiffany Glass Co. Member Players', Reform and Apawamis Clubs, Art Club of Philadelphia, and Architectural League.

WILSON, GEORGE—Secretary, 32 Nassau street, New York City; residence 200 Greene avenue, Brooklyn. Born in New York City, Jan. 7, 1839. Educated in public schools. Secretary of the Chamber of Commerce since 1858. Member New York Club, New England Society (secretary), Military Order of the Loyal Legion, American Museum of Natural History and Metropolitan Museum of Art.

WILSON, GEORGE T.—Life Insurance, 120 Broadway, New York City; residence 138 West 58th street. Born in New York City, Sept. 23, 1859. (Married.) Third vice-president Equitable Life Assurance Society of the United States. Member Union League, Colonial, Lawyers', Princeton, New York Athletic, Knollwood and National Arts Clubs, National Sculpture Society, Metropolitan Museum of Art and Chamber of Commerce.

WILSON, HENRY B.—Banker, 40 Wall street, New York City; residence 34 West 73d street. President and director International Hydraulic Co.; director Consolidated Gas Co. of New Jersey, Economy Mfg. Co. and Western Gas Co. Member Colonial, Union League, West Side Republican and Lotos Clubs and Art Federation.

WILSON, HENRY S.—Stock Broker, 66 Broadway, New York City; residence 25 West 35th street. Member New York Stock Exchange and of the Union League, Manhattan, New York Athletic and Whist Clubs.

WILSON, JAMES GODFREY—Manufacturer of Floors, Blinds and Rolling Shutters, 74 West 23d street, New York City, and Olean; residence 308 West 89th street. Born in London, England, 1842. Educated at private school and at South Kensington School of Art, London. Member Reform, Church and Colonial Clubs, and Laurentian Club of Canada.

WILSON, JAMES GRANT—Author, 226 West 58th street, New York City; residence 15 East 74th street. Born in Edinburgh, April 28, 1832. Educated at College Hill, Poughkeepsie, N. Y., and under private tutors. Degrees of D.C.L. and LL.D. (Married, 1870.) For a time with his father in business, later becoming his partner; went abroad in 1855, and after his return, established in Chicago the first literary paper published in the Northwest; disposed of his journal and was commissioned major 15th Illinois Cavalry, 1862; became acting colonel and took part in many engagements and in Vicksburg campaign; accompanied General U. S. Grant to New Orleans and accepted, by his advice, the colonelcy of the 4th Regiment, United States Colored Cavalry; assigned to duty as aide-de-camp to commanding general, Department of the Gulf, with whom he remained until 1865; brevetted brigadier-general and placed in command of Fort Hudson. Resigned from army in July, 1865, and returned to New York City. Delegate from St. James Protestant Episcopal Church to the New York Diocesan Conventions. Appointed member of Board of Visitors to United States Naval Academy, 1879, and also to United States Military Academy, delivering the address to the cadets, 1889; appointed chairman of committee to collect State's contribution to Garfield Monument, 1882; president of the New York Genealogical and Biographical Society since 1885, and of American Authors' Society since 1892; vice-president American Ethnological Society. Member of the executive committee of the Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals. Has published numerous addresses and contributed very many articles to English and American magazines, among the principal ones being "Life and Letters of Fitz-Greene Halleck," "Life of General U. S. Grant," "Poets and Poetry of Scotland from the Earliest to the Present Time," "Memorial History of the City of New York" and was editor of "Appleton's Cyclopaedia of American Biography" (6 volumes). Member American Geographical and New York Historical Societies, Military Order of the Loyal Legion and Metropolitan Museum of Art.

WILSON, JOHN C., JR.—Manager, 120 Broadway, New York City; residence 107 West 82d street. Born in New York City, June 21, 1857. Educated at United States Naval Academy. (Single.) Manager Equitable Life Assurance Society of the United States; vice-president J. B. Wilson Co. Member New York Athletic Club.

WILSON, RICHARD T.—Banker, 33 Wall street and 141 Pearl street, New York City; residence 511 Fifth avenue. President and director East River Gas Co. of Long Island City; director American Cotton Oil Co., Bertha Mineral Co., Denver and Rio Grande R. R. Co., Fourth National Bank, Hudson Building Co., Manhattan Trust Co., Mathieson Alkali Works, New York and East River Gas Co., Rio Grande Southern R. R. Co., Union Trust Co., United States Casualty Co., Western Union Beef Co. and Yonkers R. R. Co. Member Metropolitan, Manhattan and Union Clubs, Southern Society, Down Town Association and American Museum of Natural History.

WILSON, RICHARD T., JR.—Banker, 33 Wall street, New York City; residence 511 Fifth avenue. Educated at Columbia. Member of the firm of R. T. Wilson & Co., and of the New York Stock Exchange. Commissioner of the Bureau of Municipal Statistics. Director Cincinnati, Jackson and Mackinaw Ry. Co. Member Metropolitan, Union, Knickerbocker, St. Anthony, Turf and Field, Westchester Country, Democratic, South Side Sportsmen's, and Racquet and Tennis Clubs, Columbia University Alumni Association and American Institute of Mining Engineers.

WILSON, ROBERT H.—Lawyer, 84 Broadway, Brooklyn; residence 163 Haywood street. Born in Brooklyn, Feb. 27, 1870. Educated at Weston Military Institute, Weston, Conn., Brooklyn High School, and at Cornell. (Married.) Member of the firm of Burr, Coombs & Wilson. Member Cornell University Club, Troop "C," Country and Union League Clubs of Brooklyn, and Troop "C," N. G. N. Y.

WILSON, ROBERT M.—Manufacturer, 92 Walker street, New York City; residence Rome. Born in Bucks County, Pa., Oct. 26, 1853. Educated in Easton, Pa. (Married.) President and principal stockholder of the R. M. Wilson Mfg Co. of Rome. Member Sons of the American Revolution, Runan Lodge No. 223, F. & A. M., and Manhattan Chapter No. 184, R. A. M.

WILSON, THEODORE—Stock Broker, 6 Wall street, New York City; residence 326 Lincoln avenue, Orange, N. J. Member of the firm of Wilson & Watson, and of the New York Stock Exchange. Member New York Athletic and Union Clubs, and Riding and Driving Club of Orange, N. J.

WILSON, THOMAS A.—Assessor, 320 Broadway, New York City; residence 347 Clinton street, Brooklyn. Born in Ireland, 1828. Came to the United States when ten years of age and settled in Brooklyn. Learned the trade of armament manufacturer in which he engaged for many years; was also superintendent of a large steel factory. United States inspector of arms, 1860-5; assessor of the City of Brooklyn, 1881-92, and president of the Board, 1886-92; member of the Board of Assessors of the greater City of New York since Jan. 1, 1898.

WILSON, VICTOR TYSON—Instructor, Cornell University, Ithaca; residence 206 Hazen street. Instructor in drawing, Sibley College, Cornell University.

WILSON, WALTER S.—120 Broadway, New York City; residence 159 West 48th street. Born in Poughkeepsie, N. Y., Aug. 9, 1844. Educated in College Hill, Poughkeepsie. (Married.) Secretary and treasurer Amity Land Co. of Colorado. Served in United States Volunteers in 1863. Member of the 7th Regiment, N. G. N. Y., for thirty-one years, in which organization he was for thirteen years first lieutenant Company "E." Member New York Athletic (governor) and Nassau Boat Clubs.

WILSON, WASHINGTON—Collar Manufacturer, 33 East 17th street, New York City; residence 166 East 58th street. Member of the firm of Earl & Wilson. Trustee Bowery Savings Bank. Member Union League, Grolier, Riding, New York Athletic, Merchants' and Salmagundi Clubs, American Museum of Natural History, Aldine Association and Metropolitan Museum of Art.

WILSON, WILLIAM DEXTER—Protestant Episcopalian Clergyman, 1612 West Genesee street, Syracuse. Born in Stoddard, N. H., Feb. 28, 1816. Educated at Walpole (N. H.) Academy and at Harvard Divinity School. Received degree of D.D. from Geneva (now Hobart) College in 1849, LL.D. from Bedford University in 1868, and L.H.D. from the University of the State of New York in 1872. (Married Susan Whipple Trowbridge, 1846.) Unitarian preacher, 1838-41; Episcopalian since 1842. Rector at Sherburne, N. Y., 1842-50; professor of moral and intellectual philosophy at Geneva College, 1850-68; professor of same and registrar at Cornell University, 1868-86; since then emeritus professor. Was dean of St. Andrew's Divinity School at Syracuse until 1899, in which year he retired from all active work.

WILSON, WILLIAM G.—Lawyer, 48 Wall street, New York City; residence 22 West 52d street. Educated at Harvard ('62). Member of the firm of Wilson & Wallis. Member Union, University and Harvard Clubs, New England Society, Liederkranz, Down Town Association, Association of the Bar of the City of New York and Metropolitan Museum of Art.

WIMMER, AUGUST A.—Registry Inspector, Barge Office, New York City; residence 2083 Franklin avenue. Born in Pribram, Bohemia. Educated in Prague, Bohemia. (Married.) Has been, since 1889, teacher of English to Bohemians in evening schools in New York City. Corresponding secretary of the first Bohemian Entomological Society of New York City. Member Bohemian Gymnastic and Columbia Clubs and Social Circle of Czechs.

WINANS, JAMES ALBERT—Instructor, Cornell University, Ithaca; residence 304 Huestis street. Degree of A.B. Instructor in elocution and oratory, Cornell University.

WINDMULLER, LOUIS—Merchant, 20 Reade street, New York City; residence Woodside, L. I. Born in Münster, Westphalia, Germany, 1835. Educated in Münster. (Married.) Has resided in New York City since 1853. Senior member of the firm of Louis Windmüller & Roelker. Director Forum Publishing Co., German Alliance Insurance Co., German-American Insurance Co. and Title Guarantee and Trust Co. Was treasurer of the Reform Club for ten years. Contributor to the press and such magazines as "The Forum," "North American Review" and "Review of Reviews." Member Merchants' Central, New York Athletic, Reform, Lotos, Underwriters', National Arts and Twilight Clubs, New York Historical, Legal Aid and Arion Societies, Merchants' Association, Metropolitan Museum of Art and Chamber of Commerce.

WINDOLPH, JOHN P.—Real Estate, 92 Liberty street, and Commissioner, 280 Broadway, New York City; residence 331 West 31st street. Born in Prussia, Germany, June 30, 1844. Educated in common schools. Became a resident of the United States in 1859. Served with 7th Regiment, New York Volunteers, and with 2d New Jersey Cavalry during Civil War. Assemblyman, 1885; alderman and vice-president of the Board, 1895. Was appointed aqueduct commissioner by Mayor Van Wyck on June 30, 1898, which position he still holds. Director Mutual Bank. Member Republican Club, Arion Society and Grand Army of the Republic.

WING, FRANK L.—Piano Manufacturer, 202 East 12th street, New York City; residence 193 Quincy street, Brooklyn. Born in New York City, Aug. 28, 1850. Educated at the College of the City of New York. (Married Laura L. Savory.) Formerly secretary and director Cromwell Iron Co. Now secretary and director Clark Johnson Medicine Co. Member Reform and Alpha Delta Phi Clubs, Laurence Harbor Country Club, and National Civic Club of Brooklyn.

WING, FREDERICK K.—Civil Engineer, 111 White Building, Buffalo; residence 331 Lafayette avenue. Born in Tonawanda, N. Y., May 13, 1869. Educated at Cornell ('90). (Single.) Member Liberal, Wanakah Golf and University Clubs, American Society of Civil Engineers (associate), Cornell Alumni Association and Beta Theta Pi Fraternity.

WING, HENRY HIRAM—Professor, Cornell University, Ithaca; residence 3 Reservoir avenue. Degree of M.S. Assistant professor of animal industry and dairy husbandry, Cornell University.

WING, J. MORGAN—Chemicals, 22 William street, New York City; residence 36 West 48th street. Member of the firm of Wing & Evans. Member Metropolitan, Calumet, New York Yacht, and Army and Navy Clubs and Down Town Association.

WING, JOHN D.—Manufacturing Chemist, 22 William street, New York City; residence 16 West 49th street. Born in Ulster County, N. Y., June 22, 1834. Educated at Columbia College Grammar School, New York City. (Married.) Senior member of the firm of Wing & Evans. President Mothers' and Babies' Hospital; manager New York Society for the Relief of Ruptured and Crippled; ex-president New York State Agricultural Society and American Jersey Cattle Club. Member Metropolitan, New York Yacht and Riding Clubs, New York Zoological Society, Down Town Association, American Museum of Natural History and New York Botanical Gardens.

WING, LEVI J.—Machinery Manufacturer, 95 Liberty street, New York City; residence 866 Boulevard. President and director Manhattan Machinery Co. Member Atlantic Yacht Club, Long Island Historical and Arion Societies and Liederkrantz.

WING, L. STUART—Manufacturing Chemist, 22 William street, New York City; residence 16 West 48th street. Born in New York City, May 19, 1864. (Married.) Member of the firm of Wing & Evans. Member Metropolitan, Tuxedo, Racquet and Tennis, New York Yacht, Atlantic Yacht and Knollwood Clubs and Down Town Association.

WINGATE, GEORGE WOOD—Lawyer, 20 Nassau street, New York City; residence 1100 Dean street, Brooklyn. Born in New York City, July 2, 1840. Educated in New York City public schools. (Married.) Has been secretary and, later, president of the National Rifle Association; captain Creedmoor Team Long Range Riflemen; first general inspector of rifle practice and was president of the National Guard Association of the United States for twenty years. Now president and director Dyker Meadow Land and Improvement Co., Prospect Park and Coney Island R. R. Co., Twilight Real Estate Co. and Twilight Park Association; vice-president and director Brooklyn Elevated R. R. Co.; director Fifth Avenue Improvement Co. Author of 'Wingate's Manual of Rifle Practice,' 'On Horseback Through the Yellowstone' and other works. Member Army and Navy, Twilight, Democratic and Revolver Clubs, Wyandanch, Wawayanda, National Civic (vice-president) and Lincoln (vice-president) Clubs of Brooklyn, and Sons of the American Revolution.

WINNE, CHARLES VISSCHER—Paymaster, Albany; residence 443 State street. Born in Albany, 1849. Educated at Albany Boys' Academy. (Single.) Paymaster Delaware and Hudson Canal Co. President Camera Club and Albany Historical and Art Societ; governor American Canoe Association; captain Mohican Canoe Club; treasurer Albany Country Club; trustee Fort Orange Club. Member Holland Society of New York City, Military Order of Foreign Wars and Temple Lodge, F. & A. M.

WINNE, LEVAN S.—Hardware Merchant, Kingston. Born in Ulster County, N. Y., March 23, 1850. Educated at Kingston Academy. (Married.) Director National Ulster County Bank; trustee Kingston Savings Bank. Member Kingston Club and Masonic Lodge.

WINSER, JOHN H.—Secretary and Assistant Treasurer, Central Park, West 77th street, New York City; residence Claremont avenue, Jersey City, N. J. Born in New York City, Oct. 31, 1843. Educated at Mechanics' Institute School. (Married.) Secretary and assistant treasurer American Museum of Natural History.

WINSHIP, WILLIAM F.—Manager, National Commercial Bank Building, Albany; residence 170 Washington avenue. Born in West Bridgewater, Mass., May 31, 1847. (Married.) Manager Massachusetts Mutual Life Insurance Co. of Springfield, Mass.; director Citizens' National Bank of Port Henry, N. Y., and Albany Boys' Club. Member Fort Orange Club and Albany Historical and Art Societies.

WINSLOW, EDWARD—Banker and Broker, 17 Nassau street, New York City; residence 27 West 53d street. Member of the New York Stock Exchange firm of Winslow, Lanier & Co. Member Metropolitan, Larchmont Yacht, New York Yacht and City Clubs and American Museum of Natural History.

WINSLOW, FRANCIS DANA—Broker, 15 Wall street, New York City; residence 4 East Tenth street. Educated at Yale ('78). Member New York Stock Exchange and of the Calumet, University, Whist and Yale Clubs and New England Society.

WINSTON, FREDERICK J.—Lawyer, 32 Nassau street, New York City. Educated at Yale ('86). Treasurer and director Sterling Supply and Mfg Co.; director Smith-Vassar Telephone Co. and Standard Trust Co. Member New York University, Rockaway Hunting and Yale Clubs, Ardsley Casino of Ardsley-on-Hudson, American Geographical Society and Association of the Bar of the City of New York.

WINSTON, GUSTAVUS STORRE—Physician, 32 Nassau street, New York City; residence 42 West 39th street. Educated at Columbia ('63). Examining physician for the Mutual Life Insurance Co. of New York. Member Union League, University, Democratic, Players', Mendelssohn Glee and New York Yacht Clubs, Columbia University Alumni Association and Metropolitan Museum of Art.

WINTER, WILLIAM—Author and Dramatic Critic, 154 Nassau street, New York City; residence New Brighton, S. I. Born in Gloucester, Mass., July 15, 1836. Educated in Cambridge, Mass. Received degree of B.L. from Harvard and Litt.D. from Brown. (Married Elizabeth Campbell, 1860.) Dramatic critic on the New York "Tribune" since 1865. President of the trustees of the Staten Island Academy at New Brighton since 1891. Author of "Shakespeare's England," "Shadows of the Stage," "Life and Art of Edwin Booth," "The Press and the Stage," "Stage Life of Mary Anderson," "Lives of Actors," "Memorial of John McCullough," "A Wreath of Laurel" and many others. Member Dunlap Society and honorary member of the Lotos Club, Bohemian Club of San Francisco, Society of the Army of the Potomac and Actors' Fund.

WINTERBURN, GEORGE W.—Editor and Physician, 44 Bradhurst avenue, New York City. Born in New York City, Sept. 19, 1845. Educated in Cincinnati, Ohio. (Married.) Connected with the Eclectic Medical College of New York, 1875; United States Medical College, 1881; associate alumnus New York Homeopathic Medical College, 1891. Ex-president American Obstetrical Society; ex-professor of obstetrics Metropolitan Post-Graduate School of Medicine; ex-State examiner in lunacy. Author of a number of medical and sociological works. Fellow American Academy and American Statistical Association; honorary member Medical Society of Michigan. Member Harlem Republican and State Republican Clubs, American Folk-Lore and Authors' Societies, American Academy of Political and Social Science, American Health Resort Association, American Institute of Civics and many others.

WINTERS, BYRAM L.—Lawyer, 56 Pine street, New York City; residence 989 Fifth avenue, and Smithboro. Born in New York City, Sept. 30, 1862. Educated at Doylestown Seminary, Peddie Institute, Phillips Andover Academy and Columbia Law School. (Widower.) Director Empire City Marble Co. Member West Side Republican, Pelham Country and Manor Clubs, American Geographical Society and Association of the Bar of the City of New York.

WINTERS, JOSEPH EDCIL—Physician and Professor, 25 West 37th street, New York City. Degree of M.D. Professor of diseases of children, Cornell University Medical College; visiting physician to Willard Parker Hospital. Member City Club.

WINTHROP, BUCHANAN—Lawyer, 44 Pine street, New York City; residence 279 Fifth avenue. Born in New York City, Nov. 11, 1841. Educated at Yale and at Columbia Law School. Degrees of A.M. and LL.B. (Married.) Treasurer General Convention of the Protestant Episcopal Church; clerk Vestry of Grace Church; Fellow Yale University. Member University, Union, Metropolitan, Tuxedo and Riding Clubs, Down Town and Century Associations and Association of the Bar of the City of New York.

WINTHROP, EGERTON LEIGH—Lawyer, 43 Wall street, New York City; residence 23 East 33d street. Educated at Columbia. Trustee Institution for the Savings of Merchants' Clerks. Member Metropolitan, Knickerbocker, Church, Union and City Clubs, Columbia University Alumni and Century Associations and Metropolitan Museum of Art.

WINTHROP, EGERTON LEIGH, JR.—Lawyer, 48 Wall street, New York City; residence 114 East 39th street, and Hempstead, L. I. Educated at Harvard. Secretary and director American Horse Exchange (Ltd.) and New York Cab Co. (Ltd.). Member Metropolitan, Lawyers', Knickerbocker, Racquet and Tennis, City, Meadow Brook Hunt and Harvard Clubs and Association of the Bar of the City of New York.

WINTHROP, F. BRONSON—Lawyer, 32 Liberty street, New York City; residence 23 East 33d street. Educated at Trinity College, Cambridge, England ('86). Member Metropolitan, University, Racquet and Tennis, Meadow Brook Hunt, City and Knickerbocker Clubs and Association of the Bar of the City of New York.

WINTHROP, FREDERIC—Banker and Broker, 40 Wall street, New York City; residence Westbury, L. I. Educated at Harvard ('91). Member of the New York Stock Exchange firm of Robert Winthrop & Co. Member Metropolitan, University, Racquet and Tennis, Harvard and Knickerbocker Clubs and Down Town Association.

WINTHROP, GRENVILLE B.—Lawyer, 6 Wall street, New York City; residence 16 Central Park, West. Born in Pau, France, Oct. 3, 1868. Educated at Harvard ('91) and at Columbia Law School ('94). (Married Arazelia Van Zandt Potter, Oct. 19, 1897.) Member New York Athletic, Calumet, Harvard and Lawyers' Clubs, Sons of the Revolution, Society of Colonial Wars and Association of the Bar of the City of New York.

WINTHROP, GRENVILLE LINDALL—Lawyer, 40 Wall street, New York City; residence Yonkers. Educated at Harvard ('86). Member Metropolitan, City, Knickerbocker, University and Harvard Clubs and Town Association.

WINTHROP, ROBERT DUDLEY—Banker and Broker, 40 Wall street, New York City; residence Westbury, L. I. Educated at Harvard ('83). Member of the firm of Robert Winthrop & Co., and of the New York Stock Exchange. Member Metropolitan, Harvard, Knickerbocker, Turf and Field, Union, University, Meadow Brook Hunt, New York Athletic and University Athletic Clubs and Down Town Association.

WINTRINGHAM, HENRY C.—Architect, 26 Cortlandt street, New York City; residence 168 Hicks street, Brooklyn. Member New York Yacht and Larchmont Yacht Clubs and Atlantic Yacht and Crescent Athletic Clubs of Brooklyn.

WINTRINGHAM, J. P.—Broker, 36 Pine street, New York City; residence 153 Henry street, Brooklyn. Born in Brooklyn. Educated at Brooklyn Polytechnic Institute. (Married.) Member of the New York Consolidated Stock and Petroleum Exchange and arbitration committee of same. Vice-president Department of Electricity, Brooklyn Institute of Arts and Sciences. Member American Institute of Electrical Engineers.

WINTRINGHAM, WILLIAM T.—Superintendent, 143 Liberty street, New York City; residence 168 Hicks street, Brooklyn. Born in Brooklyn, Oct. 29, 1857. Educated in Brooklyn and Flushing, L. I. (Single.) Superintendent of sea-going barges and tugs of the Central R. R. Co. of New Jersey and of barges of the Lehigh and Wilkesbarre Coal Co. Member Nassau Country, Underwriters' and Canoe Clubs, Crescent Athletic Club of Brooklyn, Brooklyn Institute of Arts and Sciences and Brooklyn Academy of Photography.

WISE, ALBERT J.—Lawyer, 163 Broadway, New York City; residence 142 West 42d street. Member of the firm of Quackenbush & Wise. Director A. D. Ashmead Co. Member Atlantic Yacht, New York Yacht and Sea Cliff Yacht Clubs and Ohio Society.

WISE, CHARLES L.—Insurance, 45 Cedar street, New York City; residence 167 Underhill avenue, Brooklyn. Born in Highland County, Ohio, Jan. 19, 1863. (Married.) Member Underwriters' Club, and Montauk Club of Brooklyn.

WISE, EDMOND E.—Lawyer, 44 Broad street, New York City; residence 114 West 73d street. Born in Germany, of American parentage, Feb. 12, 1865. Educated at Columbia School of Arts, School of Political Science and Law School. (Single.) Member of the firm of Spiegelberg & Wise. Member Reform, Harmonie and Criterion Clubs, New York State Bar Association and Association of the Bar of the City of New York.

WISE, JOHN SERGEANT—Lawyer, 20 Broad street, New York City; residence 126 West 86th street. Born in Rio de Janeiro, Brazil (where his father was United States Minister), Dec. 27, 1846. Educated at his father's home in Virginia, at Virginia Military Institute and at the University of Virginia (LL.B., '67). Served in Confederate Army during Civil War. Appointed United States Attorney for the Eastern District of Virginia in 1881 by President Arthur. Elected to Congress in 1881 on Republican ticket and defeated for Governor in 1885. Practicing law in New York City since 1889. President and director American Artillery Range Finder and Relocator Co.; director Amsterdam Street R. R. Co., International Artillery Range Finder and Relocator Co. and Twin City Construction Co. Member Union League and Republican Clubs, Sons of the American Revolution and Association of the Bar of the City of New York.

WISE, LEO H.—Merchant, 64 Leonard street, New York City; residence 28 East 63d street. President and director Colonial Assurance Co.; vice-president and director Washington Assurance Co.; director American Lloyds and Great Western Lloyds. Member Wool and Harmonie Clubs.

WISE, STEPHEN S.—Rabbi, Madison avenue and 65th street, New York City. Born in New York City, March 17, 1872. Educated in New York City. (Single.) Rabbi of Congregation B'nai Jeshurun. Member Columbia University Alumni Association, New York Board of Jewish Ministers (treasurer), advisory board of Jewish Theological Seminary Association, Judaicans and American representative International Jewish Executive Committee.

WITHERBEE, FRANK SPENCER—Iron Manufacturer, 56 Pine street, New York City; residence 4 Fifth avenue, and Port Henry. Born in Port Henry, May 12, 1852. Educated at Yale ('74). (Married.) Member of the firm of Witherbee, Sherman & Co. of Port Henry and New York City. Director Troy Steel Co., Tennessee Coal, Iron and R. R. Co., Lake Champlain and Moriah R. R. Co., Central-Hudson Steamboat Co. and First National Bank of Port Henry; trustee Real Estate Trust Co. and Orthopaedic Hospital. Member Metropolitan, Union, Republican, Riding, University and University Athletic Clubs, Manufacturers' Club of Philadelphia, Pa., American Geographical Society, Yale Alumni and Down Town Associations, Sons of the Revolution, Chamber of Commerce, Board of Trade and Transportation, American Museum of Natural History and Metropolitan Museum of Art.

WITHERS, FREDERICK CLARKE—Architect, 54 Bible House, Astor place, New York City; residence 163 Glenwood avenue, Yonkers. Born in England, Feb. 4, 1828. Educated at King Edward's School, Sherborne, Dorset County, England. Served with United States Volunteer Engineers during Civil War. Designed the Astor memorial reredos in Trinity Church, New York City; also the Jefferson Market Court House and Prison, City Prison and other buildings. Author of "Withers' Church Architecture." Member Century Association.

WITHINGTON, JAMES H.—Agent, 4 Exchange Building, Binghamton. Born in Waterville, Me., Dec. 19, 1844. Educated at Harvard. (Married.) Member Harvard Club of New York City, Society of Colonial Wars and Military Order of the Loyal Legion.

WITTER, WILLIAM CLITUS—Lawyer, 150 Nassau street, New York City; residence 1 West 72d street. Educated at Yale. Member of the firm of Witter & Kenyon. Member Union League and Yale Clubs, Century Association, Scientific Alliance and Association of the Bar of the City of New York.

WITTHAUS, RUDOLPH AUGUST—Analytical Chemist, 414 East 26th street, New York City; residence 45 East 42d street. Educated at Columbia ('67). Degrees of A.M. and M.D. Professor of chemistry, physics and toxicology in Cornell University Medical College in New York City. Has been identified as an expert on poisons in many celebrated murder trials. Member Lotos, University and Manhattan Clubs, Columbia University Alumni Association, Society of Medical Jurisprudence, American Museum of Natural History and Scientific Alliance.

WODELL, SILAS—Lawyer, 2 Wall street, New York City; residence 56 West 56th street, and Poughkeepsie. Born in Poughkeepsie, July 4, 1860. Educated in Poughkeepsie and at Columbia Law School. (Married.) Member St. Nicholas, Lawyers', Union League and City Clubs, New York Genealogical and Biographical Society, Society of Colonial Wars, Sons of the Revolution and Association of the Bar of the City of New York.

WOERZ, ERNEST G. W.—Brewer, 291 West Tenth street, New York City; residence 1 East 63d street. Vice-president and director Beadleston & Woerz. Member Manhattan, Larchmont Yacht and Suburban Riding and Driving Clubs, Liederkrantz and Metropolitan Museum of Art.

WOERZ, FRERERICK W.—Brewer, 291 West Tenth street, New York City; residence 26 East 80th street. Director Beadleston & Woerz. Member New York Athletic, New York, Manhattan and Suburban Riding and Driving Clubs, Liederkrantz and Metropolitan Museum of Art.

WOLF, AUGUST S.—Pharmacist and Chemist, 49th street and Lexington avenue, New York City; residence Williamsbridge. Born in New York City, April 2, 1869. Educated in Middletown, N. Y., and at the New York College of Pharmacy. (Married Henrietta Taylor of Woodstock, Vt., 1894.) Pharmacist and conductor of the chemical laboratory at the Woman's Hospital in New York City.

WOLF, ERNEST F.—Export, and Foreign Advertising, 21 Park row, New York City; residence 31 Zabriskie street, Jersey City, N. J. Born in Germany, March 9, 1864. Educated in Germany. (Married.) Proprietor International Advertising Bureau. Exporter Export Printing and Publishing Co. and Foreign Buyer Co. Member Arion Society of Jersey City, and F. & A. M.

WOLFE, CHRISTOPHER—66 Maiden lane, New York City; residence Tuxedo. Born in New York City, Jan. 26, 1849. Educated in New York City and Germany. (Married Emma Hall Leavitt.) Member Union, Seawanhaka-Corinthian Yacht and Tuxedo Clubs, St. Nicholas Society, Sons of the American Revolution, Sons of the Revolution, 7th Regiment Veteran Association and Metropolitan Museum of Art.

WOLFE, JOEL BURKE—Importer, 81 New street, New York City; residence 104 Fifth avenue. Member Union, Riding, New York Yacht, Seawanhaka-Corinthian Yacht and Westchester Country Clubs and Metropolitan Museum of Art.

WOLFE, ABRAHAM—Banker and Broker, 27 Pine street, New York City; residence 33 West 57th street. Member of the firm of Kuhn, Loeb & Co., and of the New York Stock Exchange. Director Morton Trust Co. Connected with many charitable and benevolent institutions and organizations. Member Lawyers' and City Clubs.

WOOD, ARTHUR E.—Real Estate, 219 West 125th street, New York City; residence 32 West 123d street. Born in New York City, Feb. 24, 1859. Educated at Columbia. (Single.) Member of the firm of Wood & Miller, members of the Real Estate Board of Brokers. Member Harlem Club, Bunting Lodge No. 653, F. & A. M., and 7th Regiment Veteran Association.

WOOD, BENJAMIN—Journalist, 32 Park row, New York City; residence Fifth Avenue Hotel. Born in Shelbyville, Ky., Oct. 13, 1820. Made several voyages to the West Indies and South America, and engaged in various business enterprises. Proprietor of the New York "Daily News," which he purchased in 1860, and made it, in 1867, the first one-cent paper in the United States. Congressman, 1861-5 and 1881-3. President and director News Publishing Co. Member Manhattan and Press Clubs and Sons of the American Revolution.

WOOD, EDGAR HARPER—Instructor, Cornell University, Ithaca; residence 406 West Mill street. Degrees of A.B. and M.D. Instructor in drawing in Sibley College, Cornell University.

WOOD, F. E.—Farmer, West Winfield. Born in West Winfield, July 15, 1861. Educated at West Winfield High School and Wilbraham Academy. (Married.) Vice-president West Winfield First National Bank. Member Richfield Springs Chapter, F. & A. M.

WOOD, GEORGE EDWARD—Architect, 61 William street, New York City; residence 131 East 15th street. Educated at Columbia. Member University Glee and Calumet Clubs, Architectural League and Columbia University Alumni Association.

WOOD, GILBERT CONGDON—Publisher, 51 Fifth avenue, New York City; residence 7 West 49th street. Born in New York City. Educated at Haverford ('89). Member of the firm of Wm. Wood & Co. Member University Athletic, University, Seawanhaka-Corinthian Yacht and New York Athletic Clubs and Haverford College Alumni Association.

WOOD, HENRY DUNCAN—Broker, 11 Wall street, New York City; residence 105 East 40th street. Educated at Columbia. Member New York Stock Exchange and of the Metropolitan, Union, Delta Phi, Seawanhaka-Corinthian Yacht and South Side Sportsmen's Clubs and Columbia University Alumni Association.

WOOD, HENRY FIRTH—Secretary, 120 West Houston street, New York City; residence 84th street near Second avenue, Brooklyn. Born in New York City, Feb. 27, 1856. Educated in Jersey City and New York City. (Married.) Secretary and director Empire Steam Laundry Co. Member Crescent Athletic Club of Brooklyn.

WOOD, HOWARD O.—Lawyer, 51 Wall street, New York City; residence 831 St. Marks avenue, Brooklyn. Educated at Amherst College. Member of the firm of Wood & Hill. Member Alpha Delta Phi Club, Crescent Athletic, Union League and Irving Clubs of Brooklyn, and Amherst College Alumni Association.

WOOD, JOHN D.—Broker, 44 Wall street, New York City; residence 38 East 39th street. Educated at Yale. Member Metropolitan, Union, Westchester Country and Yale Clubs, Down Town Association and Metropolitan Museum of Art.

WOOD, JOSEPH—Lawyer, 141 Broadway, New York City; residence Sayville, L. I. Born in Riverhead, L. I., Aug. 12, 1862. Educated at Yale (A.B., '84) and Columbia (LL.B. and A.M. '86). (Married.) Director and counsel for the Oystermen's National Bank of Sayville, and South Side Bank of Bay Shore. Member University Club, New Jersey Bar Association and Association of the Bar of the City of New York.

WOOD, JOSEPH S.—Lawyer, Chronicle Building, Mount Vernon; residence 135 South Second avenue. Born in New York City, June 13, 1843. Educated in public schools, at New York Free Academy and at Columbia College Law School. (Married.) Superintendent of Cooper Union, 1862-4; superintendent of public schools of Mount Vernon, 1865-76; editor and proprietor of the Mount Vernon "Chronicle," 1869-92; school commissioner Westchester County, 1878-80. Was instrumental in the establishment of Pelham Bay Park on Long Island Sound. President Westchester County Bar Association, Mount Vernon Board of Trade and Board of Education of the City of Mount Vernon. Member City Club, and Reform, New York Athletic, Manhattan Chess and City College Clubs of New York City.

WOOD, J. SCOTT—Physician, 172 Sixth avenue, Brooklyn. Born in Kentucky, Sept. 1, 1863. Educated at Georgetown (Ky.) College and Bellevue Hospital Medical College. (Married.) Ophthalmic surgeon Brooklyn Eye and Ear Hospital, and Kings County Hospital; consulting ophthalmic surgeon Norwegian Hospital. Member Montauk and Hospital Graduates' Clubs, Medical Society of the County of Kings, and Kings County Medical Association (corresponding secretary).

WOOD, ROBERT C.—Broker, 30 Broad street, New York City; residence New York Athletic Club. Born in New York City, 1869. Educated at Lawrenceville (N. J.) Academy and at Harvard. (Single.) Member of the firm of Wood & Havemeyer. Member Democratic, Calumet, New York Athletic and Luncheon Clubs.

WOOD, THOMAS CLARK—President, 120 Liberty street, New York City; residence 273 West End avenue. Born in Utica, N. Y., May 10, 1850. Appointed to the United States Naval Academy by Roscoe Conkling, 1866; graduated with class and served on European and West Indian stations; took part in naval expedition on the Rio Grande River to assist army in suppression of cattle raiding between Texas and Mexico; resigned from navy in 1876 to enter business and established engineering firm of Skinner & Wood, at Erie, Pa. Elected a director in First National Bank of Erie, 1882; retired from active business in 1885 and was abroad until 1887. Re-entered business in 1891 and became president of the Ball & Wood Co. (engineers). Re-entered the navy and served as lieutenant on the "Gloucester" under Captain Wainwright during Spanish-American War, and took part in naval operations on south side of Cuba, in the Battle of Santiago and in the landing operations in Porto Rico of General Miles' division; resumed business connections at close of war. President and director Ball & Wood Co. Member University Club, Naval Order of the United States and other organizations.

WOOD, THOMAS WATERMAN—Artist, 51 West Tenth street, New York City. Born in Montpelier, Vt., Nov. 12, 1823. Educated at Montpelier Academy. Studied art in Boston, Mass., and in Europe. (Married) Minerva Robinson, 1850; deceased May 15, 1889.) Established a studio in New York City in 1866. President American Water Color Society, 1878-87; president National Academy of Design, 1891-9. Member Artists' Aid (president) and New England Societies, Century Association, National Academy of Design and Metropolitan Museum of Art.

WOOD, WILLIAM—Manager, 120 Broadway, New York City; residence 164 West 85th street. Manager Palatine Fire Insurance Co. Member Lawyers', New York Athletic, New York and Union Clubs and St. Andrew's, St. George's and Burns Societies.

WOOD, WILLIAM H. S.—Publisher, 51 Fifth avenue, New York City. Born in New York City, 1840. Educated at Haverford College. (Married.) Member of the firm of William Wood & Co. Trustee Bowery Savings Bank. Formerly director Young Men's Christian Association and manager American Bible Society. Member Grolier, Seawanhaka-Corinthian Yacht and Indian Harbor Yacht Clubs, St. Nicholas, New York Historical, American Geographical, American Pomological and New York Zoological Societies, Scientific Alliance, New York Botanical Gardens (incorporator) and Chamber of Commerce.

WOOD, WILLIS D.—Banker, 31 Pine street, New York City; residence 880 St. Marks avenue, Brooklyn. Member of the firm of Ladd, Wood & King. Member Alpha Delta Phi Club and Irving, Crescent Athletic, Hamilton and Riding and Driving Clubs of Brooklyn.

WOODBERRY, GEORGE EDWARD—Professor, 116th street and Morningside Heights, New York City. Born in Beverly, Mass., May 12, 1855. Educated at Harvard ('77). Professor of English at the University of Nebraska, 1877-8 and 1880-2; on editorial staff of "The Nation," 1878-9. Now professor of English literature at Columbia University in the City of New York. Author of "History of Wood Engraving," "Life of Edgar Allan Poe," "Heart of Man" and other works. Member Harvard and Players' Clubs and Century Association.

WOODBURY, GORDON—Lawyer, 33 Pine street, New York City; residence Manhattan Club, and Manchester, Vt. Educated at Harvard ('86). Director Fowler Mfg Co. (Ltd.). Member Democratic, University, Manhattan, Harvard and Reform Clubs and Association of the Bar of the City of New York.

WOODBURY, JOHN MCGAW—Physician, 120 Fifth avenue, New York City. Educated at Princeton ('78) and at the Royal College of Surgeons, London, England (M.D.). Instructor in orthopaedic surgery in Cornell University Medical College, New York City. Member University, New York Yacht, Union, University Athletic, Princeton, Corinthian Yacht and Larchmont Yacht Clubs, Sons of the Revolution, and Royal College of Surgeons, London, England.

WOODFORD, ARTHUR B.—Professor, 32 Waverley place, New York City; residence Oak Hill, New Haven, Conn. Born in West Winsted, Conn., Oct. 7, 1861. Educated at Yale ('81). (Married.) Formerly professor of social economics at the University of Pennsylvania, at Princeton and at New York University. Now private lecturer. Member Patria and Schoolmasters' Clubs and Good Government Club "E."

WOODFORD, STEWART LYNDON—Lawyer and Diplomatist, 18 Wall street, New York City; residence 869 President street, Brooklyn. Born in New York City, Sept. 3, 1835. Educated at Columbia ('54). Received degree of A.M. from Yale and Columbia, LL.D. from Trinity College and D.C.L. from the University of Syracuse. (Married, second, Isabel Hanson, Sept. 26, 1900.) Practicing in New York City since his admission to the Bar in 1857, and is now member of the firm of Ritch, Woodford, Bovee & Wallace. Delegate to the National Republican Convention of 1860; messenger of the Presidential Electoral College, 1860; assistant United States attorney for the Southern District of New York, 1861-2; resigned this office and enlisted as a private in Company H, 127th Regiment, New York Volunteers, August, 1862; became captain of his company and afterwards lieutenant-colonel of regiment. Served in the Army of the Potomac and in the Department of the South; judge-advocate-general, provost marshal-general and later chief-of-staff to Major-General Gilmore, commanding Department of the South; military governor of Charleston, S. C., and afterwards military governor of Savannah, Ga.; resumed duty as chief-of-staff to Department; promoted to colonel and brevetted brigadier-general. The war having closed, resigned in August, 1865, and resumed law practice in New York City. Declined Republican nomination for Judge of Court of Common Pleas, 1865; was unsuccessful Republican candidate for Governor of New York, 1870; elector-at-large and president New York Electoral College, 1872; Congressman, 1872-5; had joint discussion with General Thomas Ewing in Ohio in autumn of 1875 on the question of specie resumption; member of the commission to prepare charter for the Greater City of New York, 1896; United States Minister to Spain, 1897-8. Director and general counsel Metropolitan Life Insurance Co.; trustee Franklin Trust Co. and City Savings Bank of Brooklyn; resident American trustee Svea Life and Fire Insurance Co. of Sweden. Member University and Lawyers' Clubs, and Hamilton Club of Brooklyn.

WOODHULL, JOHN FRANCIS—Professor, 120th street and Morningside Heights, New York City; residence 1161 Amsterdam avenue. Born in Westport, N. Y., July 2, 1857. Educated at Yale (A.B., '80), at Johns Hopkins University and at Columbia (Ph.D., '99). (Married.) Formerly superintendent of the buildings and grounds at the Teachers' College and acting president of same, twice; instructor in science at the New York State Normal School, 1887-8. Professor of physical science at the Teachers' College, Columbia University, since 1888. Fellow American Association for the Advancement of Science; member Congregational Club, Yale Alumni Association, New York Academy of Sciences and National Institute of Arts and Letters.

WOODHULL, THENFORD—Lawyer, 4 Court square, Brooklyn; residence 124 Berkeley place. Born in New Brunswick, N. J., May 24, 1848. Educated at Columbia ('69) and Columbia Law School ('71). (Single.) Member Long Island Historical Society, Columbia College Alumni and Phi Beta Kappa Alumni Associations, and Law Library of Brooklyn.

WOODIN, WILLIAM H.—Railroad Car and Car Wheel Manufacturer, 47 Cedar street, New York City; residence Berwick, Pa. Educated at Columbia. Vice-president and director Jackson & Woodin Mfg Co. Member Lawyers', Union League, Engineers' and Alpha Delta Phi Clubs and Columbia University Alumni Association.

WOODMAN, CLARENCE EUGENE—Roman Catholic Clergyman, 415 West 59th street, New York City. Born in Saco, Me., Nov. 1, 1852. Educated at Monson Academy, Trinity College (A.B., '73), Amherst College (A.M., '77) and at Manhattan College (Ph.D., '81). Studied at the General Theological Seminary of the Protestant Episcopal Church in New York City, but was converted to the Roman Catholic faith. Entered the Congregation of St. Paul and was ordained priest. Is famous as an orator, and was lecturer at the Catholic University of America, 1891-3. Was knighted by the King of Spain in 1894, Knight Commander of the Royal Order of Isabella the Catholic. Now stationed at the Church of St. Paul the Apostle in New York City. Member Psi Upsilon Club, Aztec Club of 1847, Society of Colonial Wars, Society of the War of 1812, Phi Beta Kappa Society, Military Order of the Loyal Legion, Sons of the American Revolution and Trinity College Alumni, Amherst College Alumni and Manhattan College Alumni Associations.

WOODMAN, DURAND—Analytical Chemist, 80 Beaver street, New York City; residence 251 West 88th street. Born in New York City, 1859. Educated at Stevens Institute of Technology (B.S., '80) and at the University of Berlin. Member American Chemical Society, Deutsche Chemische Gesellschaft and American Association for the Advancement of Science.

WOODMAN, RAYMOND HUNTINGTON—Organist and Choirmaster, 1346 Pacific street, Brooklyn. Born in Brooklyn, Jan. 18, 1861. Educated in public schools and at the College of the City of New York. (Married.) Formerly professor of music at Packer Collegiate Institute and professor of organ at the Metropolitan College of Music. Now organist and choirmaster of the First Presbyterian and Emanuel Baptist Churches. Member Clef Club and American Guild of Organists.

WOODRUFF, A. EDWARD—Lawyer, 120 Broadway, New York City; residence Rahway, N. J. Born in Rahway, Oct. 27, 1846. Educated at Princeton and at Columbia Law School. (Married.) Member Lawyers', Princeton, Colonia Country and Ilderan Outing Clubs.

WOODRUFF, ARTHUR D.—Teacher and Musical Conductor, 136 Fifth avenue, New York City; residence 27 West 11th street. Born in Washington, Conn., Aug. 22, 1852. Educated in Washington, and Poughkeepsie, N. Y. (Married.) Formerly conductor Mendelssohn Glee, Produce Exchange Glee and Harlem Choral Clubs of New York City, and Summit Choral, Elizabeth Music and Elizabeth Glee Clubs of New Jersey. Now conductor University Glee Club of New York City, Orange (N. J.) Musical Art Society, Lyric Club of Newark, N. J., and Englewood (N. J.) Choral Club. Member Mendelssohn Glee, Players' and Manuscript Clubs and Washington (Conn.) Golf Club.

WOODRUFF, CHARLES H.—Lawyer, 35 Nassau street, New York City; residence 14 East 68th street. Born in Newark, N. J., Oct. 1, 1836. Educated at Yale ('58), at Harvard and at Columbia Law School. (Married) Catherine G. Sanford of New Haven, Conn.) Counsel with the firm of Gulick, Woodruff & Marsh. Member Mendelssohn Glee and University Clubs, New England Society, Society of the Cincinnati, Society of Colonial Wars, Sons of the Revolution and Association of the Bar of the City of New York.

WOODRUFF, EDWIN HAMLIN—Professor, Cornell University, Ithaca; residence 401 North Aurora street. Born in Ithaca, N. Y., Sept. 2, 1862. Educated at Cornell. Degree of LL.B. (Single.) Librarian and professor of law Leland Stanford, Jr., University, California, 1891-6. Professor of law, Cornell University. Member New York State Bar Association.

WOODRUFF, FREDERICK S.—Lawyer, 35 Nassau street, New York City; residence 14 East 68th street. Born in New York City, Oct. 21, 1869. Educated at Yale ('92). (Single.) Member of the firm of Gulick, Woodruff & Marsh. Member University and Strollers' Clubs and Sons of the Revolution.

WOODRUFF, JOHN S.—Lawyer, 45 Broadway, New York City; residence 126 East 34th street. Born in New Britain, Conn., Sept. 4, 1870. Educated at Yale. (Married.) Member of the firm of Wheeler & Cortis. Director East Side Co-operative House Owning and Investment Co. and Reconstructed Granite Co. Member Union League and Yale Clubs, Essex County Country Club of Orange, N. J., Graduates' Club of New Haven, Conn., Kane Lodge F. & A. M. and Association of the Bar of the City of New York.

WOODRUFF, LEWIS B.—Lawyer, 30 Broad street, New York City; residence 14 East 68th street. Born in New York City, Jan. 1, 1868. Educated at Yale, at Columbia Law School and at New York Law School. (Single.) With the firm of Hornblower, Byrne, Miller & Potter. Member University, Yale and Litchfield Clubs, Linnean Society, Sons of the Revolution, Scientific Alliance and American Ornithological Union.

WOODRUFF, TIMOTHY LESTER—Lieutenant-Governor of the State of New York, Executive Chamber, Albany; residence 94 Eighth avenue, Brooklyn. Born in New Haven, Conn., Aug. 4, 1858. (Son of John Woodruff.) Educated at Phillips Exeter Academy and at Yale (A.B., '79, and A.M., '89). (Married) Cora C. Eastman of Poughkeepsie, N. Y.) Became a resident of Brooklyn and engaged in business as a member of the firm of Nash, Whiton & Co., 1881. Became proprietor of the Franklin, Commercial, Nye and Waverly Stores in 1887, and when the Brooklyn Grain Warehouse Co. was organized in 1888, was made a director and secretary of the company. Represented his assembly district in the Republican State Convention of 1885, and has been a delegate to all succeeding State and local conventions. Was a delegate to the National Republican Conventions of 1888 and 1896. Represented his congressional district on the Republican State Committee and was a member of the executive committee of that body, 1889-90. Was commissioner of parks of the City of Brooklyn during the administration of Mayor Wurst. Was elected Lieutenant-Governor in 1896, re-elected in 1898 and was nominated for a third term in September, 1900. President and director Knapp Extract Co. and Maltine Mfg Co.; treasurer and director Worcester Salt Co.; director Co-operative Building Bank, Duncan Co., Merchants' Exchange National Bank and Preferred Accident Insurance Co.; trustee Hamilton Trust Co. of Brooklyn. Member Union League, University, Psi Upsilon, Republican and Hardware Clubs of New York City, Union League, Crescent Athletic, Hamilton, Hanover and Montauk Clubs of Brooklyn, Yale Alumni Association and Sons of the Revolution.

WOODS, ROBERT L.—Manufacturer, 47 Dey street, New York City, and 59 Commerce street, Brooklyn; residence 267 West 79th street, New York City. President and director American Extract Supply Co.

WOODS, THOMAS F.—Alderman, 8 City Hall, and Horseshoe, 161 East 32d street, New York City; residence 534 Second avenue. Born in New York City, 1866. Educated in public schools. Learned the trade of a horseshoer and now owns a successful establishment for the purpose in New York City. Represents the Twentieth District on the Board of Aldermen and is president of that body.

WOODWARD, BENJAMIN DURYEA—Assistant Commissioner-General of the United States to the Paris Exposition, 20 Avenue Rapp, Paris, France; residence 462 West 22d street, New York City. Born in New Jersey, March 13, 1868. Educated at Columbia University (A.B., '88, A.M., '89, and Ph.D., '91) and at the University of Paris (B.L., '86, and B.S., '91). Prize Fellow at Columbia College, 1888-90; instructor in German at Barnard College, 1890-1; tutor in the Romance languages and literature at Columbia, 1890-4. Instructor in the Romance languages and literature at Barnard College since 1891, and at Columbia University since 1894. Was nominated by President McKinley to the post of Assistant Commissioner-General for the United States to the Paris Exposition in 1889 and is absent from the university on leave until the close of the Exposition. Member University, Delta Kappa Epsilon and Phi Beta Kappa Clubs and Columbia University Alumni Association.

WOODWARD, BENJAMIN W.—Lawyer, 229 Garfield place, Brooklyn. Born in Hector, Schuyler Co., N. Y., May 3, 1837. Educated in Ovid Academy, Hobart College (A.B. and A.M.) and Albany Law School (LL.B.). (Married.) Judge of Schuyler County, N. Y., 1867-71; ex-trustee High School of Watkins; receiver Second National Bank, 1876; United States inspector of customs, 1882-5. Member Alpha Delta Phi Club and Hobart Alumni and Phi Beta Kappa Associations.

WOODWARD, JAMES T.—Banker, 11 Nassau street, New York City; residence 9 East 56th street. President and director Hanover National Bank; director Birmingham (Ala.) Trust and Savings Co., Madison Square Garden Co., Mercantile Trust and Deposit Co. of Baltimore, Md., Southern Ry. Co. and Tennessee Coal, Iron and R. R. Co.; trustee Union Trust Co. Member Metropolitan, Union, Manhattan, Knickerbocker, Tuxedo, Riding, Rockaway Hunting, Southside Sportsmen's Clubs, New England Society and Metropolitan Museum of Art.

WOODWARD, ROBERT B.—Banker, 26 Pine street, New York City; residence 118 Pierrepont street, Brooklyn. Second vice-president and director Bowers Savings Bank; secretary and director Bensonhurst Co. and Borough of Brooklyn Borough Park Co.; chairman and director Svea Fire and Life Insurance Co. of Sweden; director Nassau National Bank of Brooklyn, and Lloyds Plate Glass Insurance Co.; trustee Frankling Trust Co. of Brooklyn. Member Riding and Driving Club, Hamilton, Crescent Athletic, Montauk, Rembrandt, Art and Philharmonic Clubs of Brooklyn, Laurentian Club of Canada, Brooklyn Institute of Arts and Sciences, Down Town Association and Metropolitan Museum of Art.

WOODWARD, ROBERT SIMPSON—Professor, Morningside Heights, New York City; residence Montclair, N. J. Born in Rochester, Mich., July 21, 1849. Educated at the University of Michigan (C.E., '72, and Ph.D., '92). (Married Martha G. Bond, 1876.) Assistant engineer United States Lake Survey, 1872-82; assistant astronomer United States Transit of Venus Commission, 1882-4; astronomer and chief geographer United States Geological Survey, 1884-90; assistant on the United States Coast and Geodetic Survey, 1890-3. Professor of mechanics since 1893, and dean of the School of Pure Science since 1895 at Columbia University in the City of New York. Author of numerous scientific articles. Member American Mathematical Society, Century Association, National Academy of Sciences and American Association for the Advancement of Science.

WOODWARD, THOMAS—Merchant, 44 Front street, New York City; residence 109 West 90th street.

Born in New York City, 1846. Educated at Haverford College. (Widower.) Member of the New York Consolidated Stock and Petroleum, New York Produce and New York Maritime Exchanges. Member West Side Republican and Colonial Clubs.

WOODWORTH, ALBERT L.—Manufacturer, 87 Chambers street, New York City; residence 75 Halsey street, Brooklyn. Born in South Windsor, Conn., Aug. 22, 1841. Educated at New Britain (Conn.) High School. (Married.) Treasurer and director H. L. Judd & Co. One of the organizers and charter members of the Institute of Accountants and Bookkeepers of New York City. Member Union League Club of Brooklyn.

WOODWORTH, CHAUNCEY B.—Capitalist, 41 South Washington street, Rochester. Born in South Coventry, Conn., Feb. 25, 1819. Educated in Rochester. Established in grocery business in 1840; built a saw-mill, in 1841, which he conducted for several years; later started several successful enterprises, including that now known as C. B. Woodworth's Sons Co., manufacturers of perfumery and glassware. Bought, in 1868, at foreclosure sale, the entire property and franchises of the street railway system in Rochester; re-organized and enlarged it and sold it to a syndicate in 1889. Owner of the Woodworth and other office buildings.

WOODWORTH, CHAUNCEY C.—Banker, Rochester; residence 411 East avenue. Born in Rochester, Feb. 5, 1843. Educated at Williams College ('64). (Married.) President Flour City National Bank of Rochester; trustee Rochester Trust and Safe Deposit Co. Member Genesee Valley and Country Clubs, Sons of the Revolution and Society of Colonial Wars.

WOOLF, ALBERT E.—Inventor, 415 Lexington avenue, New York City; residence 832 West End avenue. Born in New York City, Sept. 25, 1846. Educated at the College of the City of New York. (Married.) Director Electrozone Co. and Chemical and Electrical Co. Discovered and adapted to practical use the "Electrozone" method of purifying drinking water, the prevention of zymotic diseases, the disinfection of sewage, the sterilization of garbage and other sanitary work. Plants for carrying on sanitary work under this method have been built and are in operation in Brewster, N. Y., Philadelphia, Pa., London, England, Havana, Cuba, and other cities, and have proven very successful. Member American Institute of Electrical Engineers.

WOOLFOLK, JOSEPH W.—Railroad Contractor, 15 Wall street, New York City; residence St. Denis Hotel. Born in Georgia, July 15, 1853. Educated in Georgia. (Married.) General manager Tuscaloosa Alabama Belt Ry. Co. and Minnesota Canal and Power Co. Built the Montgomery (Ala.) extension of Mobile and Ohio R. R. Co., consisting of one hundred and ninety-five miles. Member Santee (S. C.) Club.

WOOLLEY, JAMES F.—Commission Agent, 320 Ferry street, Hoboken, N. J.; residence 368 Clinton street, Brooklyn. Born in New York City, Oct. 4, 1868. Educated in public schools and at De La Salle Academy. (Married.) Western representative for the firm of William Schimper & Co. (manufacturers of metal goods). For nineteen years with the firm of Y. Wooyeno & Co., acting as manager for the last six years. Member Catholic Club and Knights of Columbus.

WOOLNER, ALFRED C.—Lawyer, 20 Broad street, New York City; residence 18 West 85th street. Born in Louisville, Ky., March 14, 1872. Educated at Yale (B.A., '93) and Yale Law School (LL.B., '95). (Single.) Member Yale Club, Phi Beta Kappa Society and Phi Delta Phi Fraternity.

WOOLSEY, GEORGE—Physician and Professor, 117 East 36th street, New York City. Degree of M.D. Professor of anatomy and clinical surgery, Cornell University Medical College; surgeon to Bellevue Hospital. Member University Club and Yale Alumni and Century Associations.

WOOLSEY, GEORGE MUIRSON—Merchant, 100 William street, New York City; residence London, England. Born in New York State. Educated at Columbia. Agent American Trading Co. of New York and London. Member Racquet and Tennis and Delta Phi Clubs, Yokohama United and Tokyo Clubs, Columbia University Alumni Association and others.

WOOLVERTON, THEORON—Physician, Suspension Bridge. Educated at Harvard. Formerly connected with the medical department of the United States Navy as medical inspector; now retired. Member Harvard, Reform, and Army and Navy Clubs of New York City, and Military Order of the Loyal Legion.

WOOLVERTON, WILLIAM H.—Capitalist, 15 Dey street and 24 Park place, New York City; residence 180 Central Park, South. President and director American Ry. Supply Co., Consolidated Telegraph and Electrical Subway Co., National Ry. Publication Co. and New York Transfer Co.; vice-president and director Gamewell Fire Alarm Telegraph Co.; director American Ry. Guide Co., Gamewell Auxiliary Fire Alarm Co., Manhattan Fire Alarm Co., New York and Pennsylvania Telephone and Telegraph Co., New York Telephone Co. and Railway Typewriter Co.; trustee Excelsior Savings Bank. Member Republican, Union League, Quill, Transportation and Hardware Clubs and Metropolitan Museum of Art.

WOOLWORTH, FRANK W.—Crockery Merchant, 280 Broadway, New York City; residence Fifth avenue and 80th street. Born in Rodman, Jefferson Co., N. Y., April 13, 1852. Educated in Great Bend, Jefferson Co., N. Y. (Married.) Senior member of the firm of F. W. Woolworth & Co., and owner of five and ten-cent stores in sixty cities of the United States. Member Arkwright and Hardware Clubs.

WOOSTER, NOYES C.—Rubber Manufacturer, 126 Duane street, New York City; residence 38 West 35th street. Connected with the Gutta Percha and Rubber Mfg. Co. Member New York, Lambs', Atlantic Yacht and Suburban Riding and Driving Clubs and Zoological and City Improvement (vice-president) Societies.

WORCESTER, EDWIN DEAN—Railroads, Grand Central Station, New York City; residence 48 East 49th street. Born in Albany, N. Y., Nov. 19, 1828. Received a private education. (Married Mary A. Low, 1855.) Studied law for a short time in the offices of his father and Hon. Rufus W. Peckham, but abandoned it and engaged in mercantile pursuits. After serving a term in the State Comptroller's office, became connected with the New York Central R. R. Co. at its formation in 1853, and upon its consolidation, in 1869, with the Hudson River R. R. Co. was made secretary of the combined systems, which position he still holds. Officially connected with the Lake Shore and Michigan Southern Ry. Co. since 1872, and with the Michigan Central R. R. Co. since 1878. Vice-president, treasurer, secretary and director Lake Shore and Michigan Southern Ry. Co.; vice-president, secretary and director Michigan Central R. R. Co.; secretary, treasurer and director Detroit and Bay City R. R. Co.; treasurer and director Syracuse, Geneva and Corning Ry. Co.; secretary and director Hudson River Bridge Co. of Albany; secretary New York Central and Hudson River R. R. Co.; director Canada Southern Bridge Co., Carthage and Adirondack Ry. Co., Dunkirk, Allegheny Valley and Pittsburgh R. R. Co., Michigan Midland Canada R. R. Co., New York Central Niagara River R. R. Co., Niagara Grand Iron Bridge Co., Niagara River Bridge Co., Pittsburgh and Lake Erie R. R. Co. and Toledo, Canada Southern and Detroit Ry. Co. Member Metropolitan and Transportation Clubs, Knights Templar, Nobles of the Mystic Shrine and thirty-second degree Masons.

WORCESTER, EDWIN DEAN, JR.—Lawyer, 35 Nassau street, New York City; residence 48 East 49th street. Born in Albany, N. Y., Feb. 25, 1856. Educated at Albany Boys' Academy, at Yale ('76) and at Yale Law School ('78). (Single.) Member of the firm of Saunders, Webb & Worcester. School inspector Sixteenth District, Borough of Manhattan. Member University and Yale Clubs, New England Society and Association of the Bar of the City of New York.

WORCESTER, FRANCIS J.—Judge, 126th street and Columbus avenue, New York City; residence 462 West 144th street. Born in New Hampshire, 1848. Educated in common schools, at Harvard and at Columbia College Law School ('75). Resident of New York City since 1878. Judge of the Eleventh District Municipal Court since Jan. 1, 1898. President and director American Swedenborg Printing and Publishing Society; director McGeorge Printing Co. Member Harvard Club, Phi Beta Kappa and New England Societies and Association of the Bar of the City of New York.

WORCESTER, WILFRED J.—Treasurer 56 Pine street, New York City; residence 14 Central Park, West. Educated at Yale ('85). Treasurer and director Equitable Securities Co. Member University, University Athletic and Yale Clubs, and Ardsley Casino of Ardsley-on-Hudson.

WORDEN, D. T.—Banker and Broker, 3 Broad street, New York City; residence 4 East 65th street. (Married.) Member of the firm of Worden & Co., and of the New York Stock Exchange. Member Metropolitan, Union, New York Yacht, Westminster Kennel and Racquet and Tennis Clubs and Society of Foreign Wars.

WORDEN, J. LORIMER—Banker and Broker, 3 Broad street, New York City. Educated at Harvard. (Single.) Member of the firm of Worden & Co., and of the New York Stock Exchange. Member Knickerbocker and Racquet and Tennis Clubs.

WORMAN, BENJAMIN J.—Editor and Publisher, 239 Fifth avenue, New York City; residence 27 West 26th street. (Son of James Henry and Emma Parker [Davis] Worman.) Educated at Harvard ('95). Associate editor of "Outing." President and director Outing Publishing Co.

WORMAN, JAMES HENRY—Editor and Publisher, 239 Fifth avenue, New York City; residence 241 Fifth avenue, and Westport. Born in Berlin, Germany, Feb. 28, 1845. Educated at the University of Berlin and in Paris. Degrees of A.M., Ph.D. and LL.D. (Married.) Editor-in-chief of "Outing." Was appointed United States Consul to Munich, Germany, Feb. 10, 1899. President and director American Photographic Publishing Co. and Outing Co. (Ltd.); director Outing Publishing Co. Member Patria Club, American Sculpture and Southern Societies, Aldine Association and Metropolitan Museum of Art.

WORMSER, ISIDOR—Banker, 15 Broad street, New York City; residence 836 Fifth avenue. Born in Landau, Bavaria, Sept. 4, 1830. Educated in Landau. (Married.) Member of the firm of I. & S. Wormser and of the New York Stock Exchange. Director Kansas City and Omaha Ry. Co.; trustee Brooklyn Bridge. Elector Democratic ticket, 1892. Member Manhattan Club.

WORRELL, WILLIAM J.—Banker, 25 East 14th street, New York City; residence Sound Beach, Conn. Born in New York City, 1847. Educated in New York City. (Married.) Formerly paying teller Bull's Head Bank and Garfield Bank; cashier Fourteenth Street Bank; teller People's Bank; secretary Citizens' Association of Sound Beach, and member of School Board of Sound Beach. Now president Union Square Permanent Co-operative Building and Loan Association. Member Atalanta Boat, New York Athletic and Riverside Yacht Clubs and Aldine Association.

WORSTER, WILLARD P.—Physician, 203 West 81st street, New York City. Born in New York City, May 26, 1842. Educated at Columbia. (Son of Dr. Joseph and Mary Clarke Worster.) (Married.) Assistant staff surgeon New York Volunteers, 1865, and served on General Saxton's staff at Beaufort, S. C. Has been connected with the New York Dispensary, Northern Dispensary, Northwestern Dispensary, New York Hospital and Metropolitan Throat Hospital. Now in general practice of medicine. Member County Medical and Phi Kappa Sigma Societies and Columbia University Alumni Association.

WORTH, JACOB—Politician, 94 Lee avenue, Brooklyn. Born in New York City, 1837. Never saw the inside of a school-room as a pupil, and taught himself to read and write. Enlisted in the Navy at the age of fifteen and sailed in the frigate "Potomac" as an apprentice. Was stationed for a time at the Brooklyn Navy Yard and joined the local volunteer fire company. Was elected to the Assembly in 1863 and repeatedly re-elected; commissioner of city works, by appointment of Mayor Howell, 1880; fire commissioner, 1882; State senator, 1890-1; county clerk, by appointment of Governor Black, 1898; nominated for Congress in the Fifth District, 1900. Has been a delegate to all Republican National Conventions since 1868, and was a member of the State Executive Committee for several years.

WORTH, WILLIAM SCOTT—Brigadier-General, United States Army, (retired); residence Governor's Island, New York Harbor. Born in Albany, N. Y., Jan. 6, 1840. (Son of Gen. William Jenkins Worth, United States Army.) Entered army as second lieutenant of the 8th Infantry on April 26, 1861; first lieutenant, June 7, 1861; captain, Jan. 14, 1866; major, March 9, 1891; lieutenant-colonel, Nov. 26, 1894; colonel, September, 1898; brigadier-general, Nov. 2, 1898; retired Nov. 9, 1898. Engaged in the Santiago campaign during Spanish-American War and was wounded during the charge on San Juan Hill, July 1, 1898. Member Reform Club, Society of Foreign Wars and Sons of the American Revolution.

WORTHAM, CHARLES E., Jr.—Banker and Stock Broker, 134 Fowers Building, Rochester; residence 22 Westminster road. Born in Richmond, Va., June 26, 1861. Educated at Richmond College. (Married.) Was special agent for ten years for the Liverpool and London and Globe Insurance Co. Member of Virginia Legislature at the age of twenty-six. Now member of the firm of Spader & Wortham, members of the New York Stock Exchange. Member Genesee Valley and Rochester Clubs, and New York Club of New York City.

WORTHINGTON, CHARLES C.—Mechanical and Hydraulic Engineer, 120 Liberty street, New York City; residence Dunnfield, Warren Co., N. J. Born in Brooklyn, 1854. Educated at Columbia. (Married.) President and director Henry R. Worthington, Worthington Pumping Engine Co., International Steam Pump Co. and United States Manufacturing Co. Member Union League, New York, Racquet and Tennis, Lawyers', Engineers', Robins Island, New York Athletic, New York Yacht, Larchmont Yacht, Manhattan, Knollwood Country, Carteret Gun and Currituck Sound Shooting Clubs, Ardsley Casino of Ardsley-on-Hudson, New York Zoological Society, American Society of Mechanical Engineers, American Institute of Mining Engineers, Blooming Grove Park Association and Liederkranz.

WORTHINGTON, CHARLES GAD—Fire and Marine Underwriter, 8 Board of Trade Building, Buffalo; residence 1264 Main street. Born in East Bethany, N. Y., Nov. 6, 1841. Educated in East Bethany and in Batavia private schools. (Married.) Member of the firm of Worthington & Sill. Member Ellicott and Aca-cia Clubs.

WOTHERSPOON, HENRY N. JR.—Plaster, 65 Ninth avenue, New York City; residence 735 Vernon avenue, Long Island City. Member Twilight Club, American Museum of Natural History, American Institute of Mining Engineers and Lafayette Post G. A. R.

WRAY, ALEXANDER H.—Fire Insurance, 58 William street, New York City; residence 75th street and Columbus avenue. Born and educated in New York City. President and director Commercial Union Assurance Co. of London, England. Member New York Athletic and Lotos Clubs, St. George's Society, Down Town Association and Lafayette Post G. A. R.

WREN, OLIVER—Sales Agent, 71 Broadway, New York City; residence Clifton, S. I. Born in Brooklyn, N. Y., July 18, 1868. Educated in Brooklyn. (Married.) Sales agent Carnegie Steel Co. (Ltd.) Member Engineers' and Richmond County Country Clubs.

WRIGHT, ALFRED K.—Importing Commission Merchant, 83 Greene street, New York City; residence 672 West End avenue. Born and educated in Indiana. (Married.) Senior member of the firm of Alfred K. Wright & Co. Member Colonial, Wool, New York Athletic and Atlantic Yacht Clubs.

WRIGHT, ANDREW R.—Physician, 414 Elmwood avenue, Buffalo. Born in Orange County, N. Y., Oct. 19, 1825. Educated in Albany and Buffalo, N. Y., and in Paris, France. (Married.) Formerly president New York State Homeopathic Medical Society and American Institute of Homeopathy. Now consulting physician Buffalo Homeopathic Hospital. Member Liberal Club, New York State Homeopathic Medical and Western New York Homeopathic Medical Societies and American Institute of Homeopathy.

WRIGHT, BENJAMIN—Lawyer, 38 Park row, New York City; residence 50 East 61st street. Director New York and New Jersey Bridge Co. and Stuyvesant Insurance Co. Member Hardware Club, Military Order of the Loyal Legion, American Museum of Natural History and Metropolitan Museum of Art.

WRIGHT, CHARLES JEFFERSON (Colonel)—Educator, Cornwall-on-Hudson. President New York Military Academy. Member Army and Navy Club. Sons of the Revolution, Military Order of the Loyal Legion and Lafayette Post, G. A. R., all of New York City.

WRIGHT, FLOYD ROBINS—Instructor, Cornell University, Ithaca; residence 122 Spencer street. Degree of A.B. Instructor in bacteriology, Cornell University.

WRIGHT, FRANK AYRES—Architect, 95 Liberty street, New York City; residence South Orange, N. J. Born in Liberty, Sullivan Co., N. Y., Nov. 19, 1854. Educated at Cornell ('79). (Married.) Member of the firm of Rossiter & Wright. Formerly instructor in Cornell University, secretary Architectural League and trustee village of South Orange. Author of "Perspective for Beginners." Member Cornell University, Reform, Psi Upsilon, Water Witch, Brantwood and Underwriters' Clubs, Architectural League and American Institute of Architects (Fellow).

WRIGHT, GEORGE M.—Lawyer, 280 Broadway, New York City; residence "The Oakdale," 36 West 35th street. Born in Orwell, Vt., Dec. 3, 1852. Educated at Middlebury (Vt.) College ('74). (Single.) Director Albany Card and Paper Mfg Co. and Garden City Co.; trustee Middlebury College. Member New York and New York Athletic Clubs, New England and Phi Beta Kappa Societies, Metropolitan Museum of Art, American Social Science Association and Association of the Bar of the City of New York.

WRIGHT, HENRY C.—Principal, 143 South Eighth street, Brooklyn; residence 498 Bedford avenue. Born in Algonquin, Ontario, Canada, June 4, 1843. (Married.) President Long Island Business College; vice-president Kings County Building and Loan Association. Member Hanover and National Civic Clubs, Royal Arcanum, American Legion of Honor, Ancient Order of United Workmen, National Provident Union and All Souls' Universalist Church.

WRIGHT, HENRY JOHN—Editor, 29 Park row, New York City; residence 252 West 91st street. Born in Glasgow, Scotland, April 6, 1866. Educated at New York University (A.B., '85). (Married Claire Le Franc, 1891.) Editor of the New York "Commercial Advertiser." Treasurer and director Commercial Advertiser Association.

WRIGHT, JOHN SEARS—Manufacturer, 333 West avenue, Rochester. Born in Rochester, Feb. 13, 1870. Educated at the University of Rochester. (Single.) Member of the firm of Alfred Wright (perfumer). Vice-Commodore Central Division, American Canoe Association. Member Genesee Valley, Rochester Country, Rochester Whist, "The Friars," Rochester Yacht and Irondequoit Canoe Clubs, Delta Kappa Epsilon Club of New York City, and Sons of the American Revolution.

WRIGHT, JOSEPH A.—Vice-President and General Manager, 320 Broadway, New York City; residence Hotel St. Andrew. Born in Paterson, N. J., April 16, 1853. Educated in public schools of Paterson. (Married.) Vice-president National Brick and Terra Cotta Co. of Passaic, N. J.; vice-president and general manager United States Finishing Co.; member of executive committee Hobart Trust Co. of Passaic; director Biddell & Bogart Painters' Supply Co. of Passaic, and Passaic Lumber Co. Member Merchants', Arkwright and Colonial Clubs and Passaic Club.

WRIGHT, ROBERT J.—Fertilizer Manufacturer, 417 East 46th street, New York City; residence 450 East 118th street. Born in Flushing, L. I., July 8, 1842. Educated at Flushing Institute, Hudson River Institute and Union Hall Academy. (Married.) Commissioner of charities and correction, and commissioner of correction under Mayor W. L. Strong. Director New York and Hudson River Bridge Co. and New York Dental School; trustee American Institute and Dry Dock Savings Institution. Member Republican, Harlem Republican and Lotos Clubs, Legion of Honor and Royal Arcanum Order of Chosen Friends (councilor for six years).

WRIGHT, STEPHEN MOTT—Retired, 1123 Broadway, New York City; residence Park Avenue Hotel. Born in Jericho, L. I., Aug. 16, 1841. Educated in New York public schools. (Married.) Secretary and treasurer Webb Academy and Home for Shipbuilders on Fordham Heights. Member Patria and Building Trades' Clubs, General Society of Mechanics and Tradesmen (president), Sons of the American Revolution and Order of Founders and Patriots of America.

WRIGHT, WILKINSON DE FOREST—Underwear Manufacturer, 75 Franklin street, New York City. Secretary and director Wright's Health Underwear Co. Member New York Athletic and Delta Kappa Epsilon Clubs and Sons of the American Revolution.

WRIGHT, WILLIAM BURNET—Presbyterian Clergyman, 547 West Ferry street, Buffalo. Born in Cincinnati, Ohio, April 15, 1838. Educated at Dartmouth College. Degree of D.D. (Married Lucretia Johnson.) Was pastor of the Berkeley Street Church in Boston, Mass., for twenty years. Now pastor of the Lafayette Avenue Church, Buffalo. Member Liberal and University Clubs.

WRIGHT, WILLIAM BURNET, JR.—Lawyer, Marine Bank Building, Buffalo; residence 547 West Ferry street. Born in Boston, Mass., Oct. 2, 1870. Educated at Yale. (Single.) Member of the firm of Potter & Wright. Formerly secretary University, Liberal and Ellicott Clubs of Buffalo; member of the executive committee of the Buffalo Civil Service Reform Association; secretary Yale Alumni Association of Western New York. Now director McKinnon Dash Co. Member Buffalo, University, Liberal, Red Jacket Golf and Ellicott Clubs, Buffalo Merchants' Exchange and Yale Alumni Association.

WUEST, CHARLES—Physician, 1024 Bushwick avenue, Brooklyn. Born in Brooklyn, May 30, 1864. Educated at Brooklyn Polytechnic Institute and New York College of Physicians and Surgeons (M.D.). (Married.) Coroners' physician, Borough of Brooklyn. Member Empire, Bushwick and Carleton Clubs, Sigma Psi and Brooklyn Medical Societies and Society of Medical Jurisprudence.

WURSTER, FREDERICK W.—Manufacturer, Kent avenue and South Sixth street, Brooklyn; residence 170 Rodney street. Ex-mayor of the City of Brooklyn. Trustee Manufacturers' Trust Co. and Nassau Trust Co. Member Hamilton, Crescent Athletic, Hanover, Oxford and Union League Clubs.

WYCKOFF, EDWARD G.—Capitalist, 327 Broadway, New York City; residence Ithaca. Born in South Lansing, N. Y., Aug. 10, 1867. Educated at Cornell. (Married.) President and director E. G. Wyckoff Co. of Syracuse, Ithaca Street Ry. Co. and Brush-Swan Electric Light Co. of Ithaca; vice-president and director Wyckoff Seamans & Benedict. New York State Commissioner to Paris Exposition, 1900. Member Town and Gown and City Clubs, Citizens' Club of Syracuse, New York Athletic Club of New York City, Triton Rod and Gun Club of Quebec, and Princess Anne Gun Club of Virginia Beach, Va., Syracuse Athletic Association, Chi Psi Fraternity and a thirty-second degree Mason.

WYCKOFF, PETER B.—Physician and Trustee, 40 Wall street, New York City; residence 23 West 57th street, and Southampton, N. Y. Born in Owasco Lake, N. Y., April 2, 1845. Educated at Cazenovia Seminary, Amherst College and at Bellevue Hospital Medical College. (Married Cora, daughter of Sidney Dillon of New York City.) Formerly director St. Joseph and Grand Island R. R. Co. and Providence and Springfield Ry. Co. Director Safe Deposit Co. of New York, Safety Car Heating and Lighting Co., and Wabash R.

R. Co. Member Metropolitan, St. Nicholas, Riding, University and Psi Upsilon Clubs, Country Club of Westchester, Holland Society and Amherst Alumni Association.

WYCKOFF, WILLIAM FORMAN—Lawyer, 217 Montague street, Brooklyn; residence 415 Hillside avenue, Jamaica. Born in Monmouth County, N. J., April 18, 1858. (Son of Rev. Jacob S. and Sarah H. [Forman] Wyckoff.) Educated by private tutors, at Rutgers College (A.B., '77, and A.M., '80) and at Columbia College Law School ('79). Practicing in Brooklyn since 1881. Justice of the peace of the town of Jamaica, 1886-90. Member Holland Society and Metropolitan Museum of Art of New York City.

WYCKOFF, WILLIAM OZUM—Manufacturer, 327 Broadway, New York City. Born in Lansing, Tompkins Co., N. Y., Feb. 16, 1835. (Married Frances V. Ives of South Lansing, N. Y., 1863.) Served with New York Volunteers during Civil War and advanced to the rank of captain. Studied law, and was admitted to the Bar in 1863. Senior member of the firm of Wyckoff, Seamans & Benedict, manufacturers and agents for the sale of the "Remington Typewriter," since 1882.

WYETH, JOHN ALLAN—Surgeon, 19 West 35th street, New York City; residence 13 West 35th street. Born in Marshall County, Ala., May 26, 1845. (Son of Louis Wyeth, lawyer and judge of one of the judicial districts of Alabama, and Euphemia [Allan] Wyeth.) Educated in a common school at Guntersville and Military Academy at Lagrange. Served as private in Confederate Army during Civil War, and took part in sixteen engagements. Was confined as a prisoner of war at Camp Morton, Ind., and published an article on treatment of prisoners at this prison in the "Century," April, 1890. Began the study of medicine in 1867 at the University of Louisville ('69), and graduated at Bellevue Hospital Medical College (M.D., '73). (Married Florence Nightingale, daughter of Dr. James Marion Sims, 1886.) Appointed assistant demonstrator of anatomy Bellevue Medical College, 1873; prosector to the chair of anatomy, 1874; published an article on "Dextral Preference in Man" in 1875; awarded Alumni Association prize in 1876 for the best essay on subject connected with surgery or surgical pathology, his subject being "Amputations at the Ankle Joint"; won first prize of American Medical Association in 1878 for an essay on "The Surgical Anatomy and Surgery of the Common, External and Internal Carotid Arteries"; gained second prize of same association in 1878 for an essay on "Surgical Anatomy and Surgery of the Innominate and Subclavian Arteries." Appointed surgeon to Mount Sinai Hospital, 1880; founded New York Polyclinic in 1882, became professor of surgery in that institution, and, in 1893, president of the faculty. Was twice president of the New York Pathological Society and first vice-president of the American Medical Association in 1893. Author of "Text Book on Surgery," "Bloodless Amputation of the Hip Joint," "Osteo-plastic Operation for Correction of Deformities of the Nose and Palate," an historical sketch entitled "A Struggle for Oregon"; "Life of General Nathan Bedford Forrest" and a number of contributions to scientific periodicals. Member Southern Society.

WYLIE, DAVIL G.—Presbyterian Clergyman, 10 West 96th street, New York City. Born in Ohio. Educated in Geneva, at Yale and at University of New York; degrees of D.D. and Ph.D. (Married.) Formerly moderator Presbytery of New York, and chaplain of St. Andrew's Society. Pastor Scotch Presbyterian Church. Member Presbyterian Union and St. Andrew's and Scottish Societies.

WYLIE, GEORGE S.—Real Estate, 2 Wall street, New York City; residence Morristown, N. J. Member Union League, Morris County (N. J.) Golf and Morris County Field Clubs, New England and St. Andrew's Societies, Sons of the Revolution, Sons of the American Revolution, Society of Colonial Wars, Naval Society of the United States and Veteran Corps of Artillery.

WYLIE, ROBERT HAWTHORNE—Physician, 36 West 35th street, New York City. Born in Chester, S. C., March 25, 1863. Educated at Yale ('83) and at University of the City of New York Medical Department ('85). (Single.) Assistant gynecologist to Bellevue Hospital; adjunct professor of gynecology, New York Polyclinic. Formerly surgeon to City Hospital. Member Manhattan, Racquet and Tennis, University, Garden City Golf and Reform Clubs, and Ardsley Casino of Ardsley-on-Hudson.

WYLIE, WALKER GILL.—Physician, 215 West 43d street, New York City; residence 28 West 40th street. Born in Chester, S. C., Sept. 2, 1848. Educated at University of South Carolina and Bellevue and Woman's Hospitals in New York City. Degree of M.D. (Married.) Ex-vice-president British Gynecological Society. Visiting gynecologist to Bellevue Hospital; professor of gynecology, New York Polyclinic. Member Reform, Riding and Democratic Clubs, Ardsley Casino of Ardsley-on-Hudson, American Gynecological and Southern Societies and Academy of Medicine.

WYMAN, EUGENE.—Banker, Port Henry. Born in Port Henry, Jan. 14, 1851. (Married.) Ex-treasurer Essex County. Cashier and director Citizens' National Bank of Port Henry.

WYNKOOP, GERARDUS H.—Physician, 128 Madison avenue, New York City. Educated at Yale ('64). Member University, Union and Yale Clubs, American Geographical and Holland Societies and Metropolitan Museum of Art.

WYSONG, JOHN J.—Trustee, 44 Pine street, New York City; residence 30 East 34th street. Member Metropolitan, Union, Tuxedo, Riding, Suburban Riding and Driving and Turf and Field Clubs, Metropolitan Museum of Art and American Museum of Natural History.

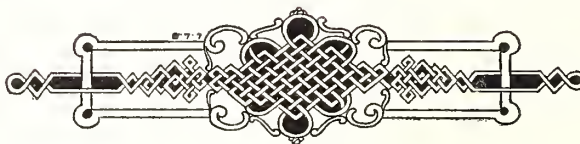

X

XAVIER, ANTONIO F.—Brazilian Consul, 24 State street, New York City; residence 134 East 60th street. Born in Brazil, June 7, 1865. Educated in Rio de Janeiro. (Married.) Formerly Brazilian consul at Oporto, Portugal; consul-general at Geneva, Switzerland, and Brazilian delegate to the Fifth Postal Congress held at Washington, D. C. Now consul-general to the United States of America at New York City.

XENELIS, NICHOLAS — Fruit Merchant, 273

Washington, and 34 Madison street, New York City; residence 23 Roosevelt street. Senior member of the firm of Xenelis & Co.

XIQUES, MIGUEL A.—Physician, 121 West 96th street, New York City, and Puerto Principe, Cuba. (Married on June 18, 1900, Aurita del Macias, daughter of Gen. de la Torre, Cuban patriot killed in the Revolution of 1878.) Practices his profession in Puerto Principe, Cuba.

Y

YALE, ELMER B.—Secretary, 32 Nassau street, New York City; residence 150 Arlington avenue, Jersey City, N. J. Secretary and director Bancroft Realty Co.; director Automatic Bicycle Safety Rack Co.

YALE, LEROY MILTON—Physician, 432 Madison avenue, New York City. Born in Vineyard Haven, Mass., Feb. 12, 1841. Educated at Columbia ('62) and at Bellevue Hospital Medical College (M.D., '66). (Married Julia M. Stetson of New Bedford, Mass.) Surgeon of the Charity Hospital, 1871-7; to Bellevue Hospital, 1877-82, and to the Presbyterian Hospital, 1880-5. Member Barnard Club and Columbia Alumni and Century Associations.

YALE, WILLIAM HENRY—Dry Goods Merchant, 345 Broadway, New York City; residence Bonnie Bluff, Spuyten Duyvil. Born in Brooklyn, N. Y. Educated at Yale. (Married.) Trustee Birkbeck Investment Savings and Loan Co. Member Union League, Merchants', Yale and Reform Clubs, Sons of the American Revolution and Chamber of Commerce.

YARD, JOHN—Lawyer, 66 Broadway, New York City; residence 241 West 52d street. Educated at Yale ('75). Member University, Republican, and Yale Clubs and Metropolitan Museum of Art.

YARD, WILSON RANDOLPH—Lawyer, 15 Wall street, New York City; residence 240 West 129th street. Born in Fairview, N. J., Jan. 8, 1867. (Son of Wesley Sterling and Emma Cooper [Wood] Yard.) Educated in private schools, Grammar School No. 64 and at the College of the City of New York ('87). (Married Sara Elizabeth Gladys, daughter of Owen Jones.) Member of the firm of Wellman & Gooch. Author of "Country Around New York," "Rand, McNally & Co.'s Cyclists' Guide to Westchester County," "Servoss' Northeastern New Jersey" and others. Member New York Athletic Club, Sagamore Lodge No. 371, F. & A. M., Colfax Council No. 1220, Royal Arcanum, and 2d Division, 1st Naval Battalion, N. G. N. Y.

YARDLEY, FARNHAM—Insurance, 58 William street, New York City; residence East Orange, N. J. Born in Yonkers, N. Y., 1868. Educated at Phillips Andover Academy. (Single.) Manager fire insurance department of Charles E. and W. J. Peck. Ex-secretary of the Association of the Naval Militia of the United States. Member Underwriters' (governor) and Reform Clubs, Essex County Country Club of Orange, and Founders and Patriots of America.

YATES, ARTHUR GOULD—Railroad President, 36 Wall street, New York City, and Wholesale Coal Merchant, Savings Bank Building, Rochester; residence Rochester. Born in East Waverly, N. Y., Dec. 18, 1843. Educated in common schools. Established in coal business in 1867, and was for many years at the head of the Bell, Lewis & Yates Coal Mining Co. President and director Buffalo, Rochester and Pittsburgh Ry. Co.; director Jefferson and Clearfield Coal and Iron Co. Member Transportation Club of New York City and Genesee Valley Club of Rochester.

YATES, BENJAMIN—Lawyer, 31 Nassau street, New York City; residence 356 West 145th street. Born in New York City. Educated at St. Francis Xavier College. (Single.) Member of the firm of Durnin & Yates. Member New York Press and Heights Clubs and Xavier Alumni Society.

YATES, WILLIAM J.—Banker and Broker, 18 Wall street, New York City; residence 472 West 34th street. Born in New York City, March 29, 1862. Educated in public schools and at the College of the City of New York. (Single.) Member of the New York Stock Exchange firm of Lindsley, Yates & Co. Member 7th Regiment, N. G. N. Y., and Young Men's Christian Association.

YEAMAN, GEORGE H.—Lawyer, 44 Wall street, New York City; residence Madison, N. J. Born in Hardin County, Ky., Nov. 1, 1829. Educated in common schools. Studied law and was admitted to the Kentucky Bar in 1852. (Widower.) Judge of Davless County, Ky., 1854; member of the Kentucky Legislature, 1861; member of Congress, 1862-5; United States Minister to Denmark, 1865-70. Practicing law in New York City since 1871. Member Reform Club and Association of the Bar of the City of New York.

YEREAANCE, JAMES—Insurance, 120 Broadway, New York City; residence 67 West 55th street. Born in New York City, Jan. 17, 1844. Educated in public schools and at Normal College. (Married.) Formerly secretary and president of fire insurance companies and manager of Foreign Fire Insurance Co. Now manager Metropolitan District, Equitable Life Assurance Society of the United States; secretary and treasurer Trustees of Presbytery. Member Plaza Republican and Lawyers' Clubs and Presbyterian Union.

YERKES, CHARLES TYSON—Capitalist, Chicago, Ill.; residence 864 Fifth avenue, New York City. Born in Philadelphia, Pa., June 25, 1837. Educated at Quaker School and at Central High School. Was a clerk in grain commission trade until 1858; exchange broker, 1858-61; banker, 1861-86. Has been prominent in street railway operations in Philadelphia since 1860, and, since 1886, in Chicago, where he is at the head of several suburban and elevated railway corporations. Is also engaged in the construction and development of the underground electric railway system in London, England. Gave to the University of Chicago a telescope regarded as the largest and finest in the world, located in the Yerkes Observatory at Geneva, Ill.

YETMAN, HUBBARD R.—Superintendent, Stapleton, S. I. Born in Monmouth County, N. J., 1847. Educated at Freehold High School. Enlisted in the 14th Regiment, New York Volunteers, as a drummer boy, at the outbreak of the Civil War. Served throughout the war, and was in a number of severe engagements. Taught school in Tottenville, S. I., for fifteen years, and was for several years a justice of the peace in that section. Assemblyman, 1889-93. Now superintendent of schools for the Borough of Richmond of the City of New York.

YEWELL, GEORGE HENRY—Artist, 51 West Tenth street, New York City. Born in Havre de Grace, Harford Co., Md., Jan. 20, 1830. Educated in public schools. Studied art at the National Academy of Design in New York City and in Paris, France. (Single.) Established a studio in New York City in 1878. Member Century Association, National Academy of Design and Metropolitan Museum of Art.

YONGE, HENRY—Lawyer, 56 Wall street, New York City, and 166 Montague street, Brooklyn; residence Hotel Margaret, Brooklyn. Born in Brooklyn, June 8, 1869. Educated in public schools. (Single.) Member of the firm of Yonge & Shearn. Formerly assistant corporation counsel, and counsel for Nassau Electric R. R. Co. Member Reform Club, Crescent Athletic, Hamilton, and Riding and Driving Clubs of Brooklyn, and Medico-Legal Association of New York.

YORK, BERNARD J.—Commissioner, 300 Mulberry street, New York City; residence 56 St. Mark's avenue, Brooklyn. Born in Brooklyn, 1845. Educated at St. James' Parochial School. Studied law in the office of County Judge James Troy. Was for over twenty-five years clerk of the Court of Special Sessions of Kings County. Unsuccessful candidate for County Judge, 1895. Served for a time as special commissioner of jurors and one term as chairman of the executive committee of the Kings County Democratic General Committee. President of the Board of Police Commissioners of the City of New York since 1898.

YORK, THOMAS H.—Commissioner, 21 Park row, New York City; residence 409 Bergen street, Brooklyn. Born in Brooklyn, July 12, 1839. Educated in public schools. Studied law and was admitted to the Bar in 1869. Practiced law in Brooklyn with his brother under the firm name of York & York, until his appointment as deputy commissioner of bridges for the City of New York, which position he still holds.

YOUMANS, AMOS—Postmaster and Banker, 103 Oneida street, Fulton; residence 424 Buffalo street. Born in Cocksackie, N. Y., April 15, 1845. Educated in public schools, and at Falley Seminary, Fulton. (Married.) Has been village treasurer, village trustee, secretary of Board of Education and of Oswego Falls Agricultural Society; commander of Schenck Post, G. A. R., and has served as aide-de-camp on staff of Department Commander and Commander-in-Chief of the G. A. R. Now cashier First National Bank and treasurer Board of Education. Member Nicotine, Pathfinder Boat, and Citizens' Clubs and Schenck Post, G. A. R.

YOUMANS, EPHRAIM M.—Hatter, 156 and 1107 Broadway, New York City; residence 202 Boulevard. Educated at Yale. Member Delta Kappa Epsilon, New York Athletic and Yale Clubs, and Blooming Grove Park and Aldine Associations.

YOUMANS, WILLIAM JAY—Editor, 72 Fifth avenue, New York City; residence Mount Vernon. Born in Saratoga, N. Y., Oct. 14, 1838. Educated at a district school. Studied chemistry with his brother, Edward Livingston Youmans, at Columbia College and at Yale Scientific School. Graduated in medicine from New York University (M.D., '65). (Married Celia Greene of Galway, N. Y., 1866.) Established the "Popular Science Monthly" in 1872 and has been its sole editor since the death of his brother, with whom he was associated in its management.

YOUNG, ALDEN M.—100 Broadway, New York City; residence Branford, Conn. Born Sept. 6, 1853. Educated in public schools and at an academy. (Married.) Director Connecticut Lighting and Power Co., Edison Electric Illuminating Co., Electrical Review Publishing Co. and National Carbon Co. Member Union League and Lotos Clubs.

YOUNG, ALFRED—Roman Catholic Clergyman, 415 West 59th street, New York City. Born in Bristol, England, Jan. 21, 1831. Educated at Princeton and in the Medical Department of the University of New York. Became a convert to the Roman Catholic faith in 1850; took ecclesiastical studies in Paris and was ordained priest on Aug. 24, 1856. Vice-president of Seton Hall College, 1856-7; rector of Roman Catholic churches at Princeton and Trenton, N. J., 1857-61; entered the community of Paulists in New York City in 1861. Author of "Catholic Hymns and Canticles," "The Office of Vespers," "Catholic and Protestant Countries Compared," "The Catholic Hymnal" and others.

YOUNG, A. MURRAY—Banker, 15 Wall street, New York City; residence 11 West 19th street. Born in New York City. Educated at Trinity College. Member Union and Lawyers' Clubs, Musical Arts Society, Sons of the Revolution and Trinity College Alumni Association.

YOUNG, CHARLES T.—Banker, 350 Fulton street, Brooklyn; residence Bath Beach. President and director National City Bank; president and trustee Brooklyn Athenaeum; director Journeay & Burnham; trustee South Brooklyn Savings Institution. Member Marine and Field Club.

YOUNG, CLARENCE HOFFMAN—Educator, 116th street and Morningside Heights, New York City; residence 312 West 88th street. Born in New York City. Educated in private schools and at Columbia University ('88). (Married.) Instructor in Greek at Columbia University. Business manager "American Journal of Archaeology" and secretary Archaeological Institute of America. Member University Club and Columbia University Alumni, Phi Beta Kappa Alumni and American Philological Associations.

YOUNG, DANIEL K.—Coffee Importer, 100 Front street, New York City; residence 118 West 81st street. Born in Brooklyn, N. Y., Dec. 2, 1851. Educated at the College of the City of New York. (Married Mary McInnis.) Member of the firm of Baker & Young. Formerly lecturer in "Free Lectures to the People," under the auspices of the New York City Board of Education. Member Camera and Good Government Clubs, Alpha Delta Phi Fraternity and Citizens' Union.

YOUNG, EDWARD F. C.—Capitalist, 31 Broadway and 68 Reade street, New York City; residence 85 Glenwood avenue, Jersey City, N. J. President and director American Graphite Co., Cleveland Seed Co., Colonial Life Insurance Co. of America, Consolidated Traction Co., First National Bank of Jersey City, Jersey City and Bergen R. R. Co., Joseph Dixon Crucible Co., Newark Passenger Ry. Co., Newark Plank Road Co., New Jersey Traction Co. and North Jersey Land Co.; vice-president and director Acker Process Co.; director American Pegamoid Co., International Steam Pump Co., Kentucky Distilleries and Warehouse Co., Liberty National Bank, National Exhibition Co., New Jersey Title Guarantee and Trust Co., People's Light and Power Co., Port Richmond and Bergen Point Ferry Co. and Standard Distilling and Distributing Co.; trustee Bowling Green Trust Co. Member Manhattan, Lawyers' and Democratic Clubs.

YOUNG, EDWARD LEE—Architect, 127 East 23d street, New York City; residence 222 West 23d street. Member Architectural League and New England Society.

YOUNG, FRANK L.—Lawyer, 1 South Highland avenue, Sing Sing; residence 32 Linden avenue. Born in Port Byron, N. Y., Oct. 31, 1860. Educated at Haverford College and at Cornell. (Single.) Member of the firm of Griffin & Young, with offices at White Plains and Sing Sing. Member Cornell University Club and Society of Medical Jurisprudence of New York City.

YOUNG, FREDERICK S.—11 West 19th street, New York City. Born in New York City. Educated at Rensselaer Polytechnic Institute. Member Union Club and Sons of the Revolution.

YOUNG, GEORGE W.—Hangings and Upholstery Goods, 37 West 14th street, New York City; residence New Jersey. Educated at Yale ('66). Member University Club and Yale Alumni Association.

YOUNG, GEORGE WASHINGTON—Banker, 59 Cedar street, New York City; residence 28 West 73d street. Born in Jersey City, N. J., July 1, 1864. Educated in Jersey City public schools and at Cooper Union (scientific course) in New York City. (Married.) President and director United States Mortgage and Trust Co.; director Audit Co. of New York, City and Suburban Homes Co., Brooklyn, New York and Jersey Terminal Ry. Co., Brooklyn Wharf and Warehouse Co., New York and Long Beach Ry. Co., New York and Rockaway Beach Ry. Co., Northern Railroad of New Jersey, Lawyers' Surety Co. and National Salt Co. Member Colonial, Lawyers', Racquet and Tennis, Manhattan, Rockaway Hunt, Players', Knollwood Country, Lakewood (N. J.) Country, Deal Golf, Westchester Golf and Seabright (N. J.) Golf Clubs, Maryland Club of Baltimore, Metropolitan Club of Washington, D. C., Ardsley Casino of Ardsley-on-Hudson, Down Town Association and Metropolitan Museum of Art.

YOUNG, HORACE G.—Albany. Educated at Rensselaer Polytechnic Institute ('77). President and director New York and Canada R. R. and Rutland and Whitehall R. R.; vice-president and director Adirondack, Lake George and Saratoga Telegraph Co., Champlain Transportation Co. and Rutland R. R. Co.; second vice-president and director Delaware and Hudson Canal Co. and Schenectady and Duaneburg R. R. Co.; director Albany and Susquehanna R. R. Co., Troy Union R. R. Co. and Ulster and Delaware R. R. Co. Member University and Engineers' Clubs of New York City, and Fort Orange Club of Albany.

YOUNG, JAMES—Actor, "Telegram" Office, Baltimore, Md.; residence 16 Gramercy Park, New York City. Born in Baltimore, Md. Educated at Baltimore City College. (Single.) Made first professional appearance when seventeen years of age as "Richard III." at the Lyceum Theatre in Baltimore. Created important role in "Thermidor," with Miss Elsie de Wolfe, under the management of Charles Frohman. Joined Augustine Daly for the part of "Christian" in "Cyrano de Bergerac." Member Players' Club, Ariel Boat Club of Baltimore, and Nobles of the Mystic Shrine.

YOUNG, JAMES C.—Capitalist, 32 Liberty street, New York City. President and director Continental Investment Co. and Registrar and Transfer Co.; vice-president and director Real Estate Trusts of New Jersey; director American Chicle Co. and American School Furniture Co.

YOUNG, JAMES HYDE—Capitalist, 31 Nassau street, New York City; residence Brooklyn. Treasurer and director Babylon R. R. Co., Dodge Motor Co. and Kinetic Mfg Co.; secretary and director Manhattan Silver Plate Co.

YOUNG, JOHN ALVIN—Secretary, 39 William street, New York City; residence 33 West 12th street. Born in Jersey City, N. J., August 18, 1868. Educated in Jersey City public schools and at Cooper Union in New York City. (Married.) President and director United States Flax Fibre Co.; vice-president and director Bank of Jamaica and South American Exploration Co.; secretary, treasurer and director National Salt Co.; treasurer and director Excelsior Steamboat Co.; secretary and director New York Architectural Terra Cotta Co.; director Kanona and Prattsburg R. R. Co. Member Calumet, Reform, Richmond Hill Golf, Lawyers', Jamaica and Jersey City (N. J.) Clubs.

YOUNG, REGINALD—Secretary, 105 Hudson street, New York City; residence 115 West 115th street. Secretary and director Fabric Measuring and Packing Co.; director Gotham Co. Member American Museum of Natural History and Metropolitan Museum of Art.

YOUNG, RICHARD—Wholesale Leather Merchant, 35 Spruce street, New York City; residence 7 Lincoln road, Brooklyn. President and director Richard Young Co.; director Hide and Leather National Bank; trustee East River Savings Institution. Member Montauk and Union League Clubs of Brooklyn, and Holland Lodge.

YOUNG, RICHARD N.—11 Pine street, New York City; residence 18 West 21st street. Director San Cristobal Gold Mines Co. and Brooklyn Ferry Co. Member City, Union, Seawanhaka-Corinthian Yacht, Metropolitan, New York Yacht, Players', Racquet and Tennis, St. Andrews' Golf and Lawyers' Clubs, American Geographical Society, Sons of the Revolution and Metropolitan Museum of Art.

YOUNG, ROCKWELL—Lumber and Coal Merchant, White Plains; residence 41 Baker terrace. Born in New York City, Sept. 12, 1850. Educated in New York City and at Bedford Academy. (Married.) Director Central Bank; trustee Home Savings Bank and Building and Loan Association.

YOUNG, S. MARSH—Contractor, 11 Broadway, New York City; residence 174 West 58th street. Born in New York City, June 9, 1867. (Married.) Vice-president and director Manhattan General Construction Co. Member New York Athletic Club.

YOUNG, THOMAS—Manufacturer and Importer, 37 Murray street, New York City; residence East Orange, N. J. President and director New York China Glass and Toy Co.; director Venetian Iron Co. Member Hardware Club.

YOUNG, THOMAS S., Jr.—Broker, 100 Broadway, New York City; residence 5 West 20th street. Educated at Princeton ('71). Member of the New York Stock Exchange. Director Equitable Life Assurance Society of the United States. Member University, Princeton, Seawanhaka-Corinthian Yacht and Oyster Bay Yacht Clubs and Sons of the Revolution.

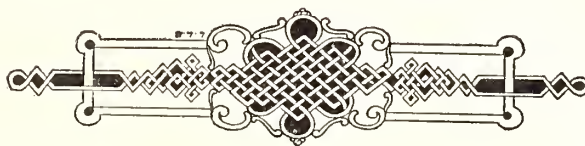

YOUNG, WILLIAM HOPKINS—Lawyer, 31 Nassau street, New York City; residence 501 Fifth avenue, and Poughkeepsie. Born in Poughkeepsie. Educated at Yale and at Columbia. Member St. Anthony, St. Nicholas, Lawyers', Union League and New York Athletic Clubs, New York Historical Society, Sons of the Revolution, Society of Colonial Wars and Colonial Order.

YOUNG, WILLIAM S.—Lawyer, 32 Liberty street, New York City; residence South Orange, N. J. Born in Lockport, N. Y., Sept. 20, 1865. Educated at Cornell and at New York University Law School. (Married.) Formerly New York manager Deane Steam Pump Co., Snow Steam Pump Works and Laidlaw-Dunn-Gordon Co. Director in several corporations. Member Cornell University, West Side Republican and Colonial Clubs, Phi Delta Phi and Theta Nu Epsilon Fraternities and American Society of Mechanical Engineers.

YOUNGMAN, HARRY VREELAND—Wholesale Coal Merchant, 1 Broadway, New York City; residence 142 St. Marks avenue, Brooklyn. Born in Albany, N. Y., June 30, 1865. Educated at Albany Academy and at Williams College. (Married.) Member of the firm of Leonard & Youngman. Member Sons of the Revolution, Chi Psi Fraternity and Phi Beta Kappa Society.

YOUNGS, WILLIAM J.—Secretary, State Capitol, Albany, and Lawyer, Oyster Bay, L. I.; residence Oyster Bay. Educated at Cornell ('72). Secretary to Theodore Roosevelt, Governor of the State of New York. Member Cornell University Club of New York City, and Seawanhaka-Corinthian Yacht Club.

YZNAGA, FERNANDO—Banker, 15 Wall street, New York City; residence Tuxedo. (Single.) Member of the New York Stock Exchange firm of H. B. Hollins & Co. Director City Gas Co. of Norfolk, Va. Member Union, Metropolitan and Tuxedo Clubs.

Z

ZABRISKIE, ANDREW C.—President, 52 Beaver street, New York City; residence 2 West 56th street. Born in New York City, May 30, 1853. Educated at Columbia. (Married Frances Hunter.) Formerly captain in the 71st Regiment. N. G. N. Y. President American Numismatic and Archaeological Society and Bergen Turnpike Co.; manager St. Luke's Hospital. Member Metropolitan, City, Church and Army and Navy Clubs, American Geographical and Holland Societies, Society of the War of 1812, National Academy of Design, Metropolitan Museum of Art, American Museum of Natural History and 7th Regiment Veteran Association.

ZABRISKIE, CORNELIUS—Banker, 243 Washington street, Jersey City, N. J.; residence 846 Carroll street, Brooklyn. Born in Cherry Hill, Bergen Co., N. J., Feb. 24, 1839. Educated in Jersey City. (Married.) Director Hudson County Gas Co., Hudson County National Bank of Jersey City, and First National Bank of Hoboken. Member Union League Club, Chamber of Commerce and Metropolitan Museum of Art of New York City, Hamilton, and Riding and Driving Clubs of Brooklyn, and Washington Association of New Jersey.

ZABRISKIE, GEORGE—Lawyer, 15 Broad street, New York City; residence 45 West 48th street. Educated at New York University ('70). Member of the firm of Zabriskie, Burrill & Murray. Member City, Church and University Clubs, Holland Society, Century and Down Town Associations, Association of the Bar of the City of New York and Metropolitan Museum of Art.

ZABRISKIE, N. LANSING—Lawyer, Aurora. Born in Flatbush, N. Y., 1838. Educated at Union College. (Married.) President First National Bank of Aurora, and board of trustees of Wells College, Aurora; director Park Co.; trustee Auburn City Hospital. Ex-director Dry Dock, East Broadway and Battery R. R. Co. of New York City. Member Transportation Club of New York City, and Delta Phi Society.

ZABRISKIE, SIMEON TEMPLETON—Lumber Merchant, Passaic, N. J.; residence 222 West 23d street, New York City. Born in Hackensack, N. J., Feb. 13, 1847. Educated at Hackensack Institute. (Married.) President Anderson Lumber Co. of Passaic. Member Holland Society of New York City, and Washington Society of New Jersey.

ZAISS, WILLIAM—Manager, 771 Broadway, New York City; residence 153 St. Marks avenue, Brooklyn. Born in Philadelphia, Pa. (Single.) Member Crescent Athletic Club of Brooklyn.

ZALINSKI, EDMUND L.—Inventor and Captain, United States Army (retired), 97 Liberty street, New York City; residence 7 West 43d street. Born in Prussian Poland, Dec. 13, 1848. Educated in New York City and in United States Army. (Single.) Inventor of the Zalinski Dynamite Gun. Member Union League, Lotos and Engineers' Clubs, Union League Club of Brooklyn, Army and Navy Club of Washington, Century Association, Lafayette Post, G. A. R., American Institute of Electrical Engineers, American Association for the Advancement of Science (Fellow), and Military Order of the Loyal Legion.

ZARING, CHARLES W.—Lawyer, 20 Broad street, New York City; residence 57 West 39th street. Born in Orleans, Ind., Oct. 28, 1864. Educated at De Pauw University. (Single.) Assistant district attorney of New York County, 1897; Deputy Attorney-General of New York State, 1899. Member Republican Club, American Geographical Society, Society of Medical Jurisprudence and Association of the Bar of the City of New York.

ZELLER, LORENZ—Lawyer, 99 Nassau street, New York City; residence 326 East 124th street. Member of the firm of Zeller & Miehlung. Director John F. Trommer Evergreen Brewery and Harlem River Park Amusement Co.

ZELLHOEFER, CHARLES—Physician, 175 South Fourth street, Brooklyn. Born in New York City, January, 1851. Educated at New York University. (Married.) Consulting physician Eastern District Hospital; visiting physician New German Hospital. Member Hanover Club, Kings County Medical Society and New York Physicians' Mutual Aid Association.

ZEMAN, JOSEPH—Importer and Manufacturer of Infants' Wear, 594 Broadway, and 126 Crosby street, New York City; residence 125 Hancock street, Brooklyn. (Married Hattie Benedict of Newark, N. J.) Member of the firm of Zeman Bros. Served with Troop "C," N. G. N. Y., in the Puerto Rican campaign during Spanish-American War. Member Riding and Driving Club of Brooklyn.

ZENTGRAF, CHARLES F.—Manufacturer of Paints and Colors, 73 Duane street, New York City; residence Boyd Hill, Stapleton, S. I. Sole agent for the United States of the United Ultramarine Factories, Nuremberg, Germany. Vice-president and director Staten Island Savings Bank; treasurer and director International Ultramarine Works; director American Enameled Brick and Tile Co., American Lucol Co. and Staten Island Ry. Co. Member Richmond County Country and Merchants' Clubs and Metropolitan Museum of Art.

ZEREGA, LOUIS A. DL.—Physician and Surgeon, 58 West 56th street, New York City. Born in New York City, June 9, 1864. Educated at the College of the City of New York (A.B., '86), at the College of Physicians and Surgeons (M.D., '89) and in Göttingen, Heidelberg, Vienna and Paris. (Single.) House surgeon Bellevue Hospital, second surgical division, until July 1, 1891; interne of Sloane Maternity Hospital, 1891. Now assistant surgeon Out-Patient Department Roosevelt Hospital. Secretary Society of Alumni of Bellevue Hospital. Member St. Nicholas and Badminton Clubs, Sloane Maternity Hospital Alumni Society and Linnæan Society of New York.

ZIEGELE, ALBERT—Brewer, Buffalo; residence 108 Oxford avenue. Born in Stuttgart, Wurtemberg, April 9, 1818. Educated in Stuttgart. (Married.) Director Commercial Insurance Co.; trustee Empire State Savings Bank. Member Buffalo Historical, Liedertafel and Orpheus Singing Societies, Deutscher Verein, German Young Men's Association, Buffalo Art Gallery and Masonic bodies.

ZIEGLER, WILLIAM H.—Wholesale Coal Merchant, 1 Broadway, New York City; residence 34 Eighth avenue, Brooklyn. Born in Brooklyn, Feb. 19, 1857. Educated in Brooklyn. (Married.) Member of the firm of Barber & Ziegler. Director Hamilton Bank of Brooklyn, and Century Trust Co. of New York; also interested in People's Trust Co. and Hamilton Trust Co., both of Brooklyn. Member Hamilton and Montauk Clubs of Brooklyn, and Parkside Angling Association of Pennsylvania.

ZIEGLER, WILLIAM—Real Estate, 60 Liberty street, New York City; residence 624 Fifth avenue. Member New York Yacht, Larchmont Yacht, Atlantic Yacht and Seawanhaka-Corinthian Yacht Clubs, Brooklyn and Union League Clubs of Brooklyn, Union League Club of Chicago, Ill., Down Town Association and Metropolitan Museum of Art.

ZIMMERMAN, JEREMIAH—Lutheran Clergyman, 109 South avenue, Syracuse. Born in Snodsbury, Carroll Co., Md., April 26, 1848. Educated at Pennsylvania College ('73). Received degree of D.D. from Wittenberg College, Pennsylvania College and Susquehanna University. (Married.) Rector of the First English Lutheran Church of Syracuse. Lecturer and numismatist at Syracuse University. Member of several scientific organizations, including the Victoria Institute of Great Britain.

ZIMMERMAN, LEOPOLD—Banker and Broker, 9 Wall street, New York City; residence Sea Cliff, L. I. Born in Germany, June 5, 1853. Educated in German schools. (Married.) Member of the firm of Zimmermann & Forshay, and of the New York Stock Exchange.

ZITTEL, FREDERICK—Real Estate, 1027 Third avenue, and 266 Columbus avenue, New York City; residence 33 West 75th street. Director Fifth National Bank and Stuyvesant Insurance Co.; trustee Dry Dock Savings Institution. Member Colonial and Twilight Clubs and Presbyterian Union.

ZOEIBISCH, CHARLES A.—Importer of Musical Instruments, 19 Murray street, New York City; residence 362 Clinton street, Brooklyn. Born in Markneukirchen, Saxony, May 9, 1824. (Widower.) Senior member of the firm of C. A. Zoebisch & Sons. Director German-American Bank and Germania Fire Insurance Co.; trustee German Savings Bank.

ZOGBAUM, RUFUS FAIRCHILD—Artist and Author, New Rochelle. Born in Charleston, S. C., Aug. 23, 1849. Studied at the Art Students' League in New York City, and under Bonnat in Paris, France. Makes a specialty of military and naval subjects. Author of "Horse, Foot and Dragoon, or Sketches of Army Life," "Ships and Sailors," etc. Member Players' and Army and Navy Clubs and Century Association.

ZOLLIKOFFER, OSCAR F.—Secretary, 4 Irving place, New York City; residence 49 West 54th street, and New Rochelle. Born and educated in New York City. (Married.) Secretary Consolidated Gas Co. of New York; director Germania Bank; trustee German Savings Bank. Member New York Athletic Club, American Gas Light Association and New York Botanical Gardens.

ZIMMERMANN, WILLIAM F.—Mechanical Engineer, 40 Wall street, New York City; residence 176 Prospect street, East Orange, N. J. Born in Snug

Harbor, S. I., 1857. Educated at Trinity School and at Stevens Institute of Technology. (Married Stephanie C. Lake.) Formerly assistant general manager, and later, general eastern agent of the Westinghouse Electric and Mfg Co. Now vice-president and general manager St. Lawrence Power Co. Member Engineers', Lawyers' and Essex County (N. J.) Country Clubs and American Society of Mechanical Engineers.

ZUCCA, ANTONIO—Coroner, Criminal Court Building, and Fruit Merchant, 76 Park place, New York City; residence 288 St. Nicholas avenue. Born in Trieste, Austria, 1851. Educated in Milan, Italy. Emigrated to the United States in 1868, and settled in New York City, where he has since continuously resided. Has been engaged in the fruit business as a member of the firm of Zucca & Co., for many years. Was for a time a school trustee in the First Assembly District. Served on the general and executive committees of Tammany Hall, and as president of the Fruit Dealers' Association and of the United Italian Societies. Decorated by President Crespo of the Venezuelan Republic with "Cavalier of the Order of Libertador" for services rendered during the boundary controversy between that government and Great Britain in 1895. Was elected coroner for the Borough of Manhattan of the Greater City of New York in 1897. President of the Italian Chamber of Commerce and a trustee of the Fruit Exchange. Secretary and director Cosmopolitan Range Co.

ZUCKER, ALFRED—Architect, 33 Union square, West, New York City. Born in Freiburg, Silesia, Germany, Jan. 23, 1852. Educated at Polytechnic Schools of Brieg, Hanover, and Berlin. (Married.)

ZUCKER, PETER—Lawyer, 302 Broadway, New York City; residence 4 West 72d street. Born in Cleveland, Ohio, Sept. 18, 1856. Educated in Cleveland public schools. (Married.) President of the Cleveland Board of Education, 1886-8. Counsel to Mosler Safe Co., M. Guggenheim's Sons, Russian-American Export and Import Co., Omega Chemical Co., Millinery Merchants' Protective Association and others. Member of the Republican Committee of the City of New York. Member Republican, Lotos and Dry Goods Clubs and Ohio Society.

ERRATA.

On page 168, for GREEFE, BERNHARD—read GREEFF, BERNHARD.

On page 491, for THOMPSON, CLIFFORD—read THOMSON, CLIFFORD.

21

